Emeriti ſenes, olde men excuſed from labour by age.
Emeriti anni, the yeres of a mans age, whan he is paſt labour and trauayle.
Emeritæ apes, dozres oz great bees, that make no moze hony.
Emeriti boues, oxen wered and ouer laboured, that drawe no moze in the plough.
Emeriti à publicis functionibus, diſcharged by reſon of age, from bearyng publike offices, diſpenced withall, exempted.
Emerita Auguſta, a citee of poztugall, called now Merida.
Emérſus, a, um, that apereth out of the water after it is drowned, oz out of a place, where it was hydde.
Emerſus ab admiratione animus, a mynd that is come to him ſelfe after a great wonderyng.
Emétior, îris, enſus ſum, iri, to meaſure, and by tranſlacion, with iourneyng oz goyng, to paſſe ouer a place oz waie.
Emetiri iter vehiculis, to trauaile oz iourney in wagons.
Emetiri vno die ingens ſpacium, to trauayle oz rydde a great ſpace in one daie.
Emeto, émetis, emeſſui, ere, to reape corne oz other thynge.
Emico, émicas, emicui, and emicaui, are, to ſhine fozth, to hold vp the fynger oz ſome other thing, to daunce oz leape, to appere higher than other, to excell, to come oz iſſue foorth ſodeinly.
Multis calamis ex vno radice emicantibus, with many ſtemmes riſyng oz ſpryngyng out of one roote.
Sanguis émicat per mille foramina, blonde iſſued oz ſpzange out at a thouſande places.
Sol emicuit, the ſonne aroſe oz appered aboue the earthe.
Cor meum cœpit in pectus emicare, Myne herte beganne to leape in my body.
In prælio victor émicat, He appered in the fylde as vanquiſher oz conquerour.
Emicuit longe ante omnes Eufranor, Eufran oz farre excelled all other.
Emigro, émigras, áui, âre, to go from one place to dwell in an other.
Emigrare é vita, to die.
Eminátio, ónis, ſ.g. a threatnyng oz manaſſyng.
E'minens, entis, om.g. that appereth hygher than other, that is moze excellent.
Eminentia, æ, ſ.g. excellencie.
Emineo, émines, ni, nêre, to ſhewe oz excelle aboue all other, to bee hygher than other.
Eminere & apparere.
Eminere extra terram, to appeere aboue the grounde.
Eminêre quatuor digitos tranſuerſos, to be higher than other the thickeneſſe of foure fingers. Moles eminet aquam, the huge heape appered aboue the water, oz it was higher than the water.
Eminet ira indies maior, his anger appereth daiely greatter and greatter.
Nemo magnopere eminebat, no man was greatly hygher aduaunced than other, ne of muche greatter authoritee than other.
Eminere foras, to ſhewe hym ſelfe out of dozes.
Eminere in re aliqua, to excell in any thyng.
Eminebat ex ore crudelitas, cruelter ſhewed ſelfe in his countinance.
Eminet ferrum per coſtas, went through hym, and was ſeene on the other ſyde.
E'minor, âris, ari, to threatten ſtreightly.
Eminulus, a, um, â litteli ryſyngе in height, a litteli aboue other.
E'minus, farre of.
Emiror, âris, to meruaile greatly.
Emiſſárium, rij, n.g. a ſluice oz place to let water out of a ponde oz ryuer.
Emiſſárius, rij, m.g. ſignifieth ſometyme hym, whiche is ſente bezore in battayle to eſpy, or ſhyrmyſhe, ſomtyme a ſeruaunt that is alwaies at hande, ready to bee ſent foozth. alſo ſignifyeth ſuche a perſone as is ordeyned of hym that is in authoritee oz any great office, to deuaunce his bribrie, oz to herken and tell tales. alſo it ſignifieth an hozſe ſtalyon, whiche vſeth to geat coltes. ſometyme a cauillour oz falſe accuſer, ſubozned by ones enemies.
Emiſſarius palmes, a vine braunche cut of, or that is bent out from his felowes.
Emiſsio, ónis, ſ.g. a caſtyng, hurlyng, oz ſhoyng foozthe.
Emiſsitius, a, um, that is ſent oz caſte foozth.
Emiſsitij oculi, rollyng eyes, gaſyng hyther and there about.
Emiſſus, a, um, ſente out.
Emitto, emiſi, ĕre, to ſende foozth, to publiſhe, to manumiſe, to ſette abzode.
Emittere aculeum in hominem, to thruſte his ſtinge in one, and by tranſlation, to ſhewe extremptee of his wzath againſt one.
Aliquid dignum ſuo nomine emittere, to publyſhe oz ſette ſome thynge abzoade, worthy his name.
Emittere ouum, to laie an egge.
Emittere ſagittas arcu, to ſhoote.
Emittere ſaturitatem, to emptie the bealy.
Emittere vocem, to ſpeake. alſo to groue.
Emittere manum, amonge the lawyers to make a caution oz prouiſo with ones owne hande.
Emittere manu, to manumiſe, to make free.
Emmanuel, is interpzeted, God is with vs.
Emmaus, looke Emaus.
Emmelia, æ, ſ.g. a certayne quiet kynde of daunſynge, as it were a pauion.
Emo, émi, emere, to bye, to purchaſe.
Care emere, to bye deere.
Bene emere, to bye good cheape.

appered

Piper pondere emitur, pepper is bought by weyght.
Emere precio alterius, to bye at an other mās price or valuyng.
Emere aliquid in publicum, to bye a thyng to the intent it shulde bee common.
Emere aliquem donis, To corrupte one with gyftes. Ego spem precio non emo, I purpose not to bye hope with money. I will not cape out of hande, in hope of that that is to come. I will not bye a birde in the bushe.
ēmódulor, aris, ari, to synge in measure and proporcion.
ēmodus, an hyll, whiche about the borders of Indie, is diuided into boughtes.
ēmóllidus, a, um, softe, tender.
ēmóllior, iris, iri, with retchyng to auoyde out, as one doeth fleume with coughyng. also to moue or shake.
ēmollio, liui, lire, to make softe or pliaunt, to make tender or nyce. ēmolumēntum, ti, n. g. profite gotten of labor. Emolumento esse alicui, to bee profytable to one.
ēmóneo, émones, ui, ére, to warne, to put one in mynd of a thyng.
ēmórior, iris, or eris, emori, to dye vtterly.
ēmortuālis, le, of ones deathe.
Emortuālis dies, the daie of deathe.
ēmortuus, a, um, deade.
ēmotus, a, um, remoued, put awaie.
ēmóueo, émoues, óui, ére, to put awaie, to remoue.
empedocles, the name of a philosophier, whiche supposed all thynges to haue their beginnyng of amitee and variance.
empetrum, empetri, neu. g. an herbe, whiche is commonly called Sampier, it groweth on the sea roches, and is kept in salt and bryne to serue for sauces. It is medicinable agaynst the stone. It is called also Calcifraga, of some Creta marina.
empanda, a goddesse that had tuition of those thynges that are abrode.
emphasis, émphasis, f. ge. an expresse signification of that whiche is intended.
emphracta, shyppes or barges couered.
emphraxis, is, fœ. gen. the obstruction or stoppinge of the pores.
emphysema, a swellyng of the eye leddes.
emphysēma, a swellyng of the guttes. also idem quod Emphysema.
emphysodes febris, a vehement heate, whiche causeth to bee in the mouthe, wheales and inflammations.
emphyteósis, f. g. the makyng of a thyng better than it was, whan it was receyued or letten, as lande.
emphyteóta, tæ, ma. ge. he that taketh a thyng, and promiseth or couenanteth to make it better than he receyued it.

Emphytensis, sis, f. g. a grefting or plantyng.
Empirice, es, f. g. phisike consystyng in practise, or gotten by practise.
Empiricus, a, um, that practiseth, properly physik.
Emplástica, ci, n. g. a playster.
Emplastrátio, ônis, f. ge. a graffyng betweene the barke and the woodde, or rather a graffyng by takyng the budde of one tree, with a part of the barke, & settyng it on an other stocke with a playster made of claie or ware.
Emplástro, aui, are, to graffe betweene the rynde and the woodde. looke Emplastratio.
Emplástrum, tri, neu. g. a playster or confection made of dyuers thynges.
Emplastrum in arboribus, a playster of claie or ware, to lay about the tree or graffe, where the barke is taken awaie.
Empneumatosis, sis, fœm. gene. a ventositee or windinesse in the stomake, or an inflation, by the whiche it is pufft vp.
Emporéticus, a, um, pertenyng to marchandise.
Emporetica charta, paper, wherin marchantes or grossers doo put their wares.
Emporiæ, a citee of Spayne, called commonly Castellon Dempurias.
Empórium, rii, n. g. a place wherein, is kepte a marte or fayre, a marte towne.
Emporeuma, atis, n. g. chapmanshyp.
Emptio, ônis, f. g. a byeing or purchasyng.
Emptionem facere, to bye.
Emptionális, le, that haunteth fayres or markettes, or that vseth to bye muche.
Emptitius, a, um, that whiche is or maye bee boughte.
Emptitius miles, an hyred souldiour.
Emptito, aui, are, to vse to bye, to bye ofterntymes: it is somtyme vsed to be wryte Emptitare.
Emptor, ôris, m. g. a byer.
Empturio, émpturis, iui, ire, to haue a lust or desyre to bye.
Emptus, a, um, bought, purchased.
Emptum constupratumq; iudicium, a iudgement bought and corrupted with bribes.
Empusa, a certayne goste, which in variable formes appered. Demosthenes saith, that Aeschines mother was called Empusa.
Empyicos, he that spetteth out matter and filth, as corrupte bludde and suche like.
Empyrēma, matis, n. ge. a collection of matter in the bulke of a mans body.
Empyrium cælum, the heauen, that is next aboue all the seuen spheares, and signifieth the fyry heauen.
Emucidus, a, um, verie filthie, muche vnued.
Emúgio, emúgis, iui, ire, to bellowe or loowe out lyke a coowe: and by translation, to cry out, or speke out alowde.
Emulgeo, mulsi, gére, to mylke.
Emunctio, ônis, fœm. gene. snuffyng or wypyng of the nose.
Emunctorium, rii, neut. gene. an instrumente, wherwith the snuffe of a candell is taken awai, a snuffer.

Emunctus, a, um, snuffed, made cleane. also spoyled or destroied.

Emunctus sum auro, I am spoyled or begiled of all my monete, my monete is gotten from me by decepte.

Emunctæ naris homo, a man of a fine and exacte iudgement.

Emundo, aui, are, to make cleane.

Emungo, unxi, ere, to snuffe a candell. also to make cleane a mans nose. sometyme it signifieth to despoyle a man of monete, proprely by craft.

Emunio, emûnis, iui, ire, to fortifie or make strong, to fence.

Emunitus a, um, fortified, fenced.

Emusco, aui, are, to rubbe of the mosse of a tree or other thyng.

Emussitatum, made or wrought by rule.

Emûto, emûtis, iui, ire, to humme or make any other sowne lyke a man that is dumme.

Emuto, aui, are, to chaunge.

E ANTE N.

EN, lo, see. En, was vsed of olde writers for Eum.

Enæma, a medicine of duskye colour, good to heale freshe woundes.

Enargia, æ, fœm. gene. an euident and playne demonstration whan a thyng is so described, that it semeth to the reader or hearer, that he beholdeth it as it were in dooyng, euidencie, perfectnesse.

Enarrabilis, le, that maie be declared or shewed.

Enarrâtio, ônis, fœ. ge. a playne declaracion or exposicion.

Enarro, aui, are, to tell a thyng at length.

Enascor, sceris, sci, to growe or spryngе of a thyng, to be borne.

Enato, énatas, áui are, to swymme out, to swymme to a place sometyme to escape.

Enatus, a, um, that hath growen or spronge.

Enâuigo, aui, are, to saple thorough to a place that one purposed, to escape awaie by sailyng.

Enâuo, aui, are, to employe or bestowe all a mâs diligence.

Operam enâuant, they employe their labour with all diligence.

Encenia, a renouacion or renewynge. it was amonge the Iewes the feaste of dedicacion of their temple.

Encanthis, cánthidis, f. g. a disease of the eyes, when there ryseth a litle knobbe in one of the corners of the eye, so that the eye lyddes can not be opened verie broade.

Encardia, a precious stone, that hath the figure of a blacke herte in it.

Encaustes, tæ, ma. g. he that fourmeth or facioneth a thyng with fyre.

Encaustice, es, f. g. makyng of ymages with fyre.

Encaustícus, and Encastus, a, um, enamelled or wrought with fyre.

Encaustica pictura, an ymage enamelled.

Encaustum, i, n. g. vernysshe, enamell, or other picture, wrought with fyre.

Enceladus, a gygaunt, the sonne of Terra, who the was stryken with the lyghtenyng of Iupiter, and buried vnder the hill Aetna.

Enchimibomata, a kynde of garmentes for yong men or women seruantes, maidens kyrtles or petycotes.

Enchimoides, a certaine herbe lyke to serpillum, an hankull high, full of braunches, and hauyng a rounde leaf. it is also called Lectipes.

Enchiridion, dij, neu. g. an handell of a thyng, sometyme a dagger. sometyme that parte of an oze, that the water man holdeth. it is vsurped for a boke of so litteli a volume, that one may alwaie carp it with hym.

Enchiros, a beast bredde in the orient, as grete as a bulle.

Enchrysón, a kynde of Anchusa.

Enchimonia, when the flesshe is so bruised, that bludde issueth out of the veines.

Enclisis, the holones that is made in a bodie, by dasshyng of a thyng agaynst it.

Encolpiæ, masc. gene. windes rising out of the sea.

Encomion, mij, n. g. a songe or balade, made in the prayse of a cõquerour or noble man, playe.

Encryphias, browne breade.

Enchrysta, thynne oyntmentes.

Enclisis, inclination.

Encyclios, & encyclia, the circle of all doctrine.

Encyclopæ'dia, æ, f. g. that learnyng that comprehendeth all liberall studies and sciences.

Endelechia, looke Entelechia.

Endo, a prepositiõ for In.

Endoitium, for Initium, a begynnyng.

Endo cælum, for In cælum, into heauen.

Endoploro, for Imploro.

Endo procinctu, for In procinctu.

Endrómis, ídis, f. g. a certayne garment, which is heary lyke to Iryshe mantelles, which men vsed in baynes and places of exercise.

Endymion, the name of a man, which found the course of the moone, wherfore the poetes fayned, that the moone loued hym, and descended downe to kysse hym, while he slepte.

Eneco, énecas, ui, are, to kyll or slea.

Enectus, a, um, slayne, almost kylled.

Enectus fame, almoste dead for hunger.

Enérgia, æ, fœm. gene. an efficacie, or effectuall operacion.

Energumenus, one possessed of an yll spirite also lunatike.

Eneruâtus, a, um, made feeble or weake. also tender or nyce.

Languidus & eneruatus.

Eneruis, e, & Eneruus a, um, without sinewes, without strength, feeble, weake, effeminate, tender.

nder.
rno, aui, are, to debilitate or make feeble.
animos enervare, to effeminate mens mynds, to make them tender and nyce.
gaddi, a citee in Judea, from whense the pyne apple baulme cometh.
angis, idem quod Gagathes.
haemon, a medicine made of a certaine gumme, that issueth out of an olive in Arabie.
ydros, a certayne rounde stone, smoothe and white.
ydris, dridis, and Enhydrus, i, a water snake or adder.
im, for, forsothe. somtyme it is expletyue, and doeth but fyll the sentence, to make it soune wel. somtyme it is a copulatiue, somtyme affirmatiue, and is set in the beginnyng.
ed enim, but for as muche.
enim vero, forsothe.
enim me nominat, in deede he nameth me.
At enim istæc in me cuditur faba, but in deede the perill of this will lyght on my neche.
Moriendum enim certe est, For certaynlye we must all dye.
Certe enim scio, yea in deede, I know surely that it is so.
Enim vero, pro ea aduersio, on the other part.
niochi, A fierse and wilde people of Sarmatia, nere to Pontus, whiche had their beginnyng of Rhecas and Amphistratus, the chariot men of Castor and Pollux.
niopeus, Hectors charyot man, whom Diomedes slewe. nipeus, a ryuer of Thessaly, nere to the whiche the battayle was fought betweene Cesar and Pompeie.
nisus, a, um, that endeuoureth, laboureth, or enforceth it selfe to doo a thyng.
niteo ēnitēs, tui, ere, to shyne, to bee gorgious and cleane, to appere faire & bryghte, to shewe it selfe euidently, to be famous and notable or greatly renoumed.
In eo bello & virtus & fortuna Tullij enituit, In that warre both the valyantnesse and fortune of Tullie appered and shewed it selfe euidently.
Enitent Athenæ cunctis gentibus, the Athenians be famous and renoumed throughe all nations.
Crassi magis enitebat oratio, Crassus style was more beautifull and eloquent.
enitesco enitui, enitescere, idem quod eniteo.
enitor, ēris, enixus & enisus sum, eniti, to endeuour or labour, to enforce ones selfe to doo a thyng, to ascende vpwarde with great difficultee. also to trauayle or bryng forth a childe.
Eniti oua dicitur gallina, to lay egges.
Eniti & contendere.
Eniti partum, & Eniti puerum, to trauayle and bryng forth a chylde.
enixe, and Enixim, diligently, & with all force,

Enixus, a, um, that hath brought forth also trauayling or labouryng to bryng forth. also laborous, full of trauayle and peyne.
Enixa opera, trauayle, wherin a man employeth all his puissance.
Enixior opera, more earnest & greatter labor.
Enna, a citee of Sicile, situate in an high place, and is counted to bee the verie myddell of that countrey.
Ennam, for enam'ne.
Enneaphonos, that hath nine voyces.
Enneas, neadis, the number of nine.
Enneacrunos, a fountayne in Athens, made by Pisistratus.
Enneaphyllon, an herbe hauynge ix. longe leaues, of nature burnyng, and verie holsome for diseases of the ioynes and huckle bones.
Ennius, an olde latine poete, borne at Tarentum, a citee nowe in the royalme of Naples, as some suppose in a towne called Rhudi in Italy, and was brought to the citee of Rome by Cato the Censour. For his learnynge and most honest condicions, he was entierly beloued of Scipio Affrican. wherfore he caused his ymage to be set on his sepulchre. he made many bookes in sundry kyndes of verses, but the stile that he vsed was verie auncient and homely, but they contened graue and substantiall sentences of great wisedome. he dyed at the age of lxx. yeres.
Ennosigæus, the surname of Neptunus.
Eno, aui, are, to swym out, to swym thyroughly to any place.
Enoch, a mans name in holy scripture.
Enodate, manifestly.
Enodatio, ōnis, f g an explication or declaratiō.
Enodatus, a um, declared, made manyfest.
Enōdis, de, without knotte. also without difficultee or hardnesse.
Enōdo, aui, are, to cut awaie the knottes, or to vnknitte: by translacion to declare or make manyfest, to explicate or dissolue doubtes.
Enona, a citee of Dalmatia.
Enonymos, lohe Anonymos.
Enope, a citee nere to Pylus.
Enorchis, a certaine stone, which beyng broken, is like the colions of a man
Enormis, e, great out of measure. also out of square, or out of rule.
Enormiter, naughtily, without measure, vnmesurably, far out of square, greatly amisse.
Enos, a great citee, nighe to the mountayne Lybanus, before Noes floudde, wherin dwelled gyganies, whiche had dominion ouer all the worlde, from the sunne goyng downe, to the sonne rysyng. They trustyng in the greatnesse of their bodyes, and strength, inuented armour and weapons, oppressed all men, and geuyng them selues to all bodily lustes, found pauilions, instrumentes of musike, and all wanton pleasures. They dyd also eate men, pꝛotured delitcraunce of childꝛen beefoꝛe the tyme, and pꝛepared them in to delicate meates. They companied carnally with theyꝛ own mo-theꝛs, syſteꝛs, doughteꝛs, men, and beaſtes: And all miſchief they did commit, deſpiſers of god and all religion.

 pyes

Enoteſco, ſcere, to come to knowlage, to bee knowen.

Ens, entis, beeyng.

Enſiculus, li, a litteil ſwerde oꝛ hanger.

Enſifer, enſiferi, that beareth a ſwerde.

Enſis, ſis, m. g. a ſwerde.

Crudus enſis, looke Crudus.

Habilis enſis, an hanſom ſwoꝛde.

Accommodare enſem, & applicare enſem lateri, to hange ones ſwoꝛde by his ſyde.

Adigere enſem in pectus, and Condere enſem in pectore, to thꝛuſt one to the heꝛt with his ſwerde.

Diſtrictus enſis, a ſwerde redy dꝛawen.

Recondere enſem, to put vp ones ſwerde.

Tranſuerberare aliquem enſe, to thꝛuſt one thoꝛough wi h his ſwerde.

Ducere enſem, to dꝛawe.

Entelechia, perfection, power to moue it ſelfe, oꝛ after Hermolaus, continuall agitacion and mouyng.

Enterocela, oꝛ Enterocele, a diſeaſe whan the gutte called Cæcum inteſtinum, is fallen in-to the coddes.

Entem, certaine woꝛmes of the earth.

Enterione, the beeth that is in wodde, as the ſoft matter in elderne, aſhe, haſell, and ſuche ſyke.

Enterocelicus, ci, m. g. he that hath his bowels fallen into his coddes.

Entheos, full of diuine inſpiracion, inſpired.

Enthyméma, ãtis, n. g. an imperfect ſillogiſme, lacking the maioꝛ oꝛ the m noꝛ.

Entomon, the herbe, called Elleborum nigrum, in Dioſcoꝛides writen Antomon.

Enûbo, nupſi, ere, to mary.

Enucleate, cleerely, manyfeſtely, exquiſitely, ſometyme without difficultee oꝛ hardneſſe.

Enucleatus, a, um, opened, made manyfeſt.

Enucleo, aui, are, to take out the kernell of a nutte. it is alſo to declare oꝛ make playne a ſentence.

Enûdo, aui, are, to make naked. alſo to interꝛ-pꝛete, to expounde.

Enumeratio, onis, a numbꝛyng oꝛ reckuyng of many thynges together.

Enúmero, aui, are, to numbꝛe, to reken oꝛ caſt.

Enumerare per ſingula, to numbꝛe euery one after an other.

Enuntiátio, ônis, f g a propoſition.

Enuntiatiuus, a, um, that is pꝛonounced oꝛ vttered.

Enuntiátrix, one that pꝛonounceth oꝛ vttereth.

Enuntiâtum, ti, n. g. a pꝛopoſition.

Enunnâtus, a, um, ſpoken, pꝛonounced, vttered,

Enuntio, aui, are, to pꝛonounce oꝛ ſpeake, to declare, to ſignifie, to publyſhe, to diſcloſe, to-uncle oꝛ vtter abꝛode.

Enuntiare conſilia amicorum aduerſariis, to vtter oꝛ diſcloſe the counſayle of ones frendes to theiꝛ aduerſaries.

Commiſſa enuntiare, to vtter abꝛode ſuch thynges as were tolde one in ſecrete.

Enuntiare apud homines, to tell abꝛode a-mong men.

Enutrio, triui, ire, to nouryſhe.

Enyo, enyus, the name of Bellona.

Enyalius, the ſoonne of Bellona.

E ANTE O.

EO, theꝛfoꝛe, foꝛ as muche, vnto that.

Eò loci, in that ſtate oꝛ condition. alſo in that place, oꝛ in the ſame place.

Eôdem loci, in the ſame place oꝛ eſtate.

Nec eò ſecius, and yet neuertheleſſe.

Eò vſque, ſo muche, ſo farre, ſo longe.

Eouſque creuit, donec &c ſo longe, vntill it.

Eouſque, dum anhelet, ſo longe as.

Eo, foꝛ in tantum, ſo muche.

Eò creuit, it incꝛeaſed and gꝛew ſo much.

Eò inſolentiæ pꝛoceſſit, he became ſo inſo-lent and pꝛoude.

Eò, foꝛ pꝛopterea, as,

Eò ad eam admiſſa non ſum, Foꝛ that cauſe I was not ſuffꝛed to come in to hir.

Hæc ad te eò pluribus ſcripſi, vt. &c. I haue theꝛfoꝛe writen theſe thinges moꝛe at longe, &c.

Non eò, quin tibi non cupiam quæ velis, ita ſo, but that I would be glad to doo that yꝛ woulde haue me.

Non eò hoc dico, quin. &c. I ſpeake not this foꝛ any ſuche intent, but that. &c.

Non eo dico, I ſpeake it not theꝛfoꝛe.

Eo magis, ſo muche the moꝛe.

Annos ſexaginta natus es, aut plus eò, ſixty arte. Ir. peꝛes olde oꝛ aboue.

Eò redacta res erat, the mattier was bꝛought into that caſe.

Niſi eò veniam, Except I come thyther.

Sed vſq; eò quo opus erit, yet as the leaſt, as farre as nede ſhall ꝛequyꝛe.

Hæc quæ ſcripſi eo ſpectant, Theſe thynges that I haue writen, pertеyn to this end.

Hæc atq; alia eodem pertinentia, theſe thyn-ges, and ſuche other lyke, pertеynyng to the ſame ende, oꝛ ſpoken foꝛ the ſame purpoſe.

Eò fuerunt cariora, They were ſo much the deꝛeꝛ.

Eo, is, iui, ire, to go, ſometyme to come.

Eo inſectas, I denye.

Eo obuiam, I go to meete with one.

Eo venum, ire venum, to be ſolde.

Celeriter iſti, & rediſti, Thou dyddeſt ꝛun and go quyckely.

Ire grãdibus gradibus, to go with lõg ſteyꝛs.

Pauo-

iamur illum ire noſtris itineribus, Let vs re hym to go the ſame waye that we haue ne before hym. And by tranſlacion, to kepe ſame trade in thynges, that we dyd before ym.
e nauigio, to paſſe ouer in a ſhyppe.
e pedibus, to go on foote.
e in aciem, to go to warre.
e in aliquem, to ruſhe or renne violentely apnſt one.
in crucem, go and be hanged.
e in exilium, to be banyſſhed.
e in faſtidium, to begyn to be lothed or abs orred.
e in ius ad aliquem, to pleade or go to lawe fore one ſytyng as a iudge.
e in matrimonium ſine dote, to bee maried uthout dowerie.
ulgabat, ire in melius valetudinem homiis, he publyſſhed abrode, that the man began o recouer his helth, and ware better & better.
neruum potius ibit, he will rather bee caſt pryſon
re in poſſeſſionem, to take poſſeſſion.
n rixam non ibimus, we will not fall to thy yng.
bit in ſæculæ nomen tuum, Thy name ſhall e ſpoken of as long as the worlde ſtandeth, or hou ſhalte get the a perpetuall name.
re in ſententiam, to condeſcende to ones opiion, to ſaie as one hath ſaide before.
re in ſubſidium, to ayde or ſuccour.
re conſultum male aliquem, To domage or urte one.
re datum operam amico, to go to healpe nes friende.
bam ad te, I was commyng to you.
re cubitum, and ire dormitum, to go to bed.
re habitum honorem alicui, to doo honour nd worſhyp to one Perditum ire, to deſtroie, to vndoo.
t dies, the date paſſeth awaie.
t ad me lucrum, the vauntage is myne, or the profite cometh to me.
In exemplum ire, to be for an example vnto
other.
Ire in matrimoniū ſine dote, to be maried &c.
Ilunius it, the riuer renneth.
Eunt præcipites mores, honeſt maners fall fore in decaie.
Incipit res melius ire quàm putaram, to goe better forward.
Eunt præcipites mores, the maniers of men renne headlong vnto all miſchiefe.
Puppis it, the ſhyppe ſayleth.
Proſus ibat res, the matter proceded or went well forwarde.
Is quæſtum laudem tibi in mea vita? Doeſt thou go about to get the laude and prayſe by puttyng my life in daunger.
Iuat, the impſonall.

Ion, the compaſſe of the eye.
Eon, onis, the tree, that the ſhyp Argo, was made for Iaſon.
Eos, the morning.
Eous, the eaſte.
Eous, i, m. ge. one of the hoyſes of the ſonne. It is vſed for the date ſterre.

E ANTE P.

EPacta, thynges added to.
Epagris, one of the yles called Cyclades.
Epagoge, es, f. g. a figure, whan I, he argu-mentes or thynges be conſtrued together.
Epagon, epagonis, neu. ge. a troche in a trans or like engine, called alſo of Vitruuius, Ergorum, or Ergatum, after ſom printes.
Epaminondas, a Thebain borne, (ſonne of an honeſt gentyll man called Polymnus) in ſun-dry qualitees excellent, as well of the body as of the mynde, in all kyndes of muſyke perfectely inſtructed, and danced exceedyngly well.
He wraſtled, and ranne no man better. In armes ſtronge, hardye, and valyant. In martiall policie, equall to any than lyuyng, wounder-full well learned in philoſophie, eſpecially in that Pythagoras taught, the moſte diffuſe and pure doctrine, contemnyng moſt ſecrete and di-uine miſteries, whervnto he added moſt noble vertues. For he was temperate, wyſe, of great grauitee, vſyng tyme wyſely, of courage inuin-cible, ſo diligent in obſeruyng trouth, that he woulde at no tyme lye, neyther in earneſt nor in game. He was continent, mercyfull, wons derfull patient, ſuffryng wronges both of the people, and of his frendes. He was ſecrete and truſty, ſo faithfull and louyng to his frendes, that whan any of theim were taken in warres, or any of their doughters readye to bee maried, and they not able to ſette theim forth, accor-dyng to their degrees: he wolde aſſemble the reſydue of his frendes, and exhorte theim to geue vnto hym that lacked, accordyng to theyr powers. he hym ſelfe woulde liberally geue to the quantitee of his ſubſtance, whiche was but litteil, although he were in great authorites (for he refuſed all rewardes, ſauyng thankes onely) whan he had made a good ſumme of that, whiche was graunted, before he receyued it, he brought hym, that ſhoulde haue it, vnto the geuers, that he mought receyue it of theim, and knowe howe muche he was bounde vnto euery of theim. He often tymes refuſed great ſummes of monee and riche preſentes ſente to hym by Princes (all though he were poore) ſaiyng: If the thyng wer honeſt, which he was requyred to dooe, he would dooe it, becauſe it was good, without any reward: If it were yll, or not honeſt, all the goodes of the worlde ſhoulde not make hym dooe it. If it were profitable to his countrie, he was bounden and redy to doo it feerely: If it were otherwise all the richesse in the worlde mought not counterwaple the loue, that he bare to his commune weale. In eloquence no Thebane mought be compared vnto hym, and his sentences were graue, and verrie copendious, wherby in counsailes he vanquished and put to rebuke great and famous oratours. In battaile he ouercam the Athenienses and Lacedemons, and in one daie had the victorie of all Greece. At the last, in the battaile at Mantinea, betwene the Thebans and the Lacedemons, he was stryken and wounded to death with a long speare, the head remaynyng styll in his bodye: yet ketepned he lyfe, vntyll it was tolde hym, that his hoste had the victorie. Than saied he, I haue lyued long enough, for I dye vnvanquisshed. The yron beyng drawen out of his bodye, he dyed, before the incarnation of Christ. 372. yeres. This one thynge is well to beer consydered (as Plobus saieth) the citee of Thebes, before Epamnondas was borne, and also after he was dead, was vnder the rule and in subiection of other people. But duryng the tyme that he was a gouernour in the weale publike, the citee was head and gouernour of all Greece, wherby it maie bee well perceiued, that one suche noble man is more than a whole citee.

Epanadiplósis, sis, fœ. ge. a figure, whan a sentence begynneth with a woorde, and endeth with the same.

Epánados, a figure, whan two thynges rehersed together, be spoken of afterward severally.

Epanalépsis, sis, f. g. a replication, or repetition.

Epanáphora, ræ, f. g. a figure, whan diuers clausses begyn with one woorde, repetition.

Epaphus, the sonne of Jupiter and Io, or Isis, that builded Memphis in Egypt.

Epaphroditus, ti, m. ge. a pleasaunt fellow.

Eparchia, æ, f. g. a prouince.

Eparchiótes, te, one of a prouince.

Eparchus, the president of a prouince.

Epatica, an herbe called lyuer woort.

Epatarius, looke Hepatarius.

Epaticus, looke Hepaticus.

Epatitis, idem quod similax.

Epauxis, is, fœm. gene. an increase, the figure Incrementum.

Epeirus, a countrie, which hath on the north Macedonie, on the weast and south the Ionian sea, and Jonike sea: on the east Achaia. in this reigned the famous Pirrhus it hath lyng to it the Iles Corfun, Ithaca, and Zarynthus. &c. this countrie is now vnder the Turke.

Epenthesis, a figure, whan a letter or syllable is added in the myddes of a woorde.

Epeus, the sonne of Endymion, whiche made the horse that was conueighed into Troie.

Ephébia, æ, f. g. the age, wherin one entreth into mans estate. xv. or xvi. yeres.

Ephébium, i, n. ge. the place where ponge strippynges exercised wrastlyng.

Ephebus, bi, m. gen. he that is of the age of. xv. or. xvi. yeres.

Ephedron, dri, n. ge. the herbe called also Hippuris, or equisetum, whiche beyng sodde in a new earthen vessell, consumeth the Splene.

Ephegesis, the declaration or exposition of thyr, whiche went before.

Ephemera febris, a feuer apte to bee cured in one daie, but neglected, it cometh to be in dyuers sortes of feuers, and accordyng to the nature of theim, continueth longer. The cause therof is sometyme of outward heates, sometyme of much labour or werynesse, sometyme of oppilation, sometyme of repletion, especially of dyuers meates & drynkes, otherwhyles of longe abstinence or watche, or of corruption of that, wherwith the bodie is nourysshed.

Ephemeris, méridis, fœm. g. a booke, wherin is written that, which is doon daiely, a regester, or a booke of reckonyng, wherin thynges layde out and receiued be written.

Ephemeron, is that, whiche apothecaries call wormodartilus, an extreme purger of fleme. also a certaine beast that bredeth about the riuer Hippanis, and a certayne herbe, hauyng leaues lyke a lyly, called also Lilium conuallium, in englishe Lilieconuphancie, as some doo iudge: other thinke it to be called may lilies.

Ephestius. i. familiaris, familiar, of the same house or familie.

Ephestiades, certayne yles, called of the latins Vulcaniæ, and Aeoliæ.

Ephesus, ephesi, a noble auncient citee in Asia the lesse. It is interpreted by some Diuine, my will. There renneth by it a great ryuer called Capstrus, out of whiche be deriued many other riuers. in this citee was the famous temple of Diana, nombred among the. vii. wonders of the worlde, edified by all Asia in an. Lx. yeres, and was set in a fen or marshe grounde, the foundacion beyng firste laied with coles, troden or rammed harde, than fleeces of woll laied theron, and all this was to saue it from erthquakes. The temple was in length. 425. foote, in breadth. 220. In it were. 127. pillours, euery of theim. lx. foote high, made by kynges, the rouffe was of ceder trees, and the doores of Cypres. A lewde persone, of purpose to get a renoume in histories (beyng couetouse of glory, and hauyng none excellent qualitee to attayne therunto) puttyng wylde fyre into the rouffe, dyd burne this temple. His name was Herostratus (as Strabo writeth) wher of proceded a prouerbe.

✠ Herostrati gloria, applied vnto the that seke for a renoume or prayse of a mischeuous act.

Ephi, a measure conteynyng. iii. Romane bussheis, called modij, of our measure nine gallos.

Ephialtes, tis, m. g. a disease, whan one sleepyng thinketh, that a great weight lyeth vppon hym, and and taketh his wynde from hym. It is of some called the mare, whiche is none other thynge but a fumosytee, ryslyng from the stomache or herte, vp to the brayne, there oppressyng the vertue animall.

Ephialtes, and Otus, two sonnes of Neptune, whiche as poetes doo feigne, did growe euery moneth .ix. yardes, & truslyng to theyr length, intended to ouerthrowe heauen.

Ephippiati, they that haue theyr horses trapped with costly harneys.

Ephippium, ii, neu. ge. the harneys of an horse or mule, a saddle.

Ephod, a vestiment, vsed in the ceremonies of the Jewes, of the whiche were two sortes, one of white lynnen lyke an aube, that other priestes vse: the other, whiche serued for the high priest onely, was made of golde, purple, skarlet twise dyed, and wouen like, like vnto the Tunicle, that the deacon weareth at Masse.

Ephori, were certayn men in authoritee amonge the Lacedemonians, as Tribuni were amonge the Romayns, to whom men myght appele frō the kyng, as in Rome they mought appeale frō the Consules vnto the Tribunes.

Ephorus, the name of a writer of histories, schoolarte to Aristotle.

Ephydros, lothe Ephedron.

Ephyra, æ, or Ephire, es, a towne of Acaia, whiche nowe is called Corinthus. Also a nymphe, the daughter of Oceanus and Tethys.

Ephyreius, adis, a woman of Corinthe.

Ephyrus, a woman of Laconia.

Epi, æ, a towne of Acaia, the people whereof were called Epei.

Epialos, a feuer ingendred of colde fleume.

Epibates, a certayne kynde of shippes, called a barke or a passanger.

Epibata, æ, m. g. a fouldioure on the sea.

Epibatra, the ladder that goeth vp to the toppe castell of the shyppe.

Epicauma, cáumatis, neu. gene. a boule loze in the eye.

Epicharidia, æ, a kynde of botes or shippes.

Epicedium, verses made in commendation of a dead man.

Epicharmus, the name of an excellent philosophier of Syracuse.

Epicheréma, ătis, n. gen. an argument made in reasonyng

Epichrista, ôrum, n. g. oynetynges.

Epichysis, sis, f g. a funnell.

Epicœnum, of bothe the kyndes, male & female.

Epicoma, the difference of sozes, whiche rise in the eies.

Epicrocum, ci. n. g. a garment of saffron colour.

Epicterus, the name of a stoike philosophier.

Epicúreus, and Epicurius, a, um, pertaynyng to the Epicures. also voluptuous.

Epicúrus, the name of hym that dyd putte the principall goodnesse in voluptuousnesse.

Epicus, epica, um, an adiective.

Epicus versus, an exhameter verse.

Epidamnus, a towne in the southwest part of Greece on the sea syde, called also Dyrrachium.

Epidaurus, or Epidaurium, a citee in Greece in the countree called Acaia, wherin was a famous tēple dedicated vnto Esculapius, to the which a great multitude of sicke people dyd resorte, and some in their sleape had shewed vnto them that medicine, whereby they shoulde be cured of their sickenesse.

Epidemētici, they that appoynt lodgynges for suche as folowe, wayte, and attende vppon princes, herbigers.

Epidémia, æ, fœm. g. a pestilence or vniuersall plague of syckenesse.

Epideicticon, demonstratiue, that perteineth to prayslnge or dispraysinge.

Epidipnidæ, arum, fœm. g. banketyng dyshes, brought in at the latter ende of dyner or supper.

Epidromes, drómidis, the armyng of a nette.

Epidromon, the sayle of a shyppe.

Epigástrium, neu. gen. all the bealye, from the boulke downe to the priuie membres, whiche is called also Abdomen.

Epigamia, æ, fœ. ge. affinitee with other by marriage.

Epigenema, nēmatis, idem quod symptoma, apud medicos.

Epigetis, the herbe Climatis.

Epigenes, a philosopher of Bizance.

Epiglosis, or Epiglouis, a small thynge in the innermost part of the tunge, lyke a nether tunge.

Epigoni, the surname of them that were the causers of the seconde warre of Thebes.

Epigramma, ătis, neu. gen. a superscription, an epigramme.

Epigrammatárius, rii, m g. he that writeth verses called Epigrammata.

Epigraphe, es, f g a title or inscription.

Epigrypus, pi, m. g. he that hath a crooked nose.

Epii, certayn people called aft. æ Elidenses.

Epiecia, or Epiyces, f. ge. is that parte of iustice, called in latine Aequum & bonum, in englishe there is not any one word founden therfore, but that therby maie be vnderstand, that equitee, whiche omitteth parte of the rigour or extremitee of a lawe that is written, or cōformeth iustice to the occasion newly happened, whiche was not remembred of the makers of the lawe, applyng it to the thyng, wherof leaste detriment maie seeme to ensue.

Epilépsia, æ, f ge. called also Morbus comitialis, & Morbus sacer, Morbus Herculeus, & Morbus S. Ioannis, in englyshe the fallynge sickenesse, the foule euell. After Alexander it is an infection of the head & brayne, in the parte, wherin is conteyned vnderstandyng, the chiefe of all senses. Galene saieth, it is a colde humour, wherwith the celles of the brayne are not perfectly stopped, prohibityng the soule to execute

E ANTE P.

execute his operacion, vntyll nature haue eftes soones opened the naturall cundites of the brayne, remouyng that humour. It happeneth (as Constantinus writeth) of one of these thre causes, eyther of an humour fleumatike or melancoly, bredde in the hynder moste parte of the brayn, or of a wynd grosse & cold, oppressyng the brayn, or of humours to muche aboundyng in the stomake, so that the fume thereof ascendeth vp to the brayne by the sinures, by whose grosnesse the wayes or passages of the vytall spirites are stopped.

Epilépticus, ci, m. ge. he that hath that disease.

Epiligma, nǽ, fœ. ge. a certayne base ointment, that is commonly vsed of all men.

Epimelas, a certaine white precious stone, somewhat duskish in the vpper parte.

Epilogus, i, m. gene. a conclusion in writyng or speakyng.

Epimacus, a mans name.

Epimelis, a kynde of medlar trees, the fruits whereof hath iii. or iiii. stones.

Epimelon, & Epimelida, a certayne kynd of wilde yng appuls, verie sower & noyous to the head and stomake: some thinke it to be the crabbe or wildinge called Vnedo, other thinke it a kinde of peares, lyke Barbar. in Coroll. de arboto.

Epimenides, a noble philosophier in the yle of Crete: who beyng a yong man, and sent by his father to seeke a sheepe, for werynesse and heate of the daie, went into a denne or holowe place in an hyll to reste hym where he slepte continually. 47. yeeres, and than beyng awaked, went forth to seeke his sheepe, and not fyndyng hym, returned home, and fyndyng an other man dwellyng in the house, whiche was his fathers, and beholdyng euery thyng altered, he went into the citee, wher at the laste he founde his yonger brother, beyng a man of great yeres, of whom he knewe all that was happened, and after became a meruaylous philosophier, and wrate of the nature of thynges, and of the diuine generacion, and had the gyft of prophecie, as some suppose. He lyued (as Laertius writeth) 179 yeres after other mens writynges 154. yeere And was before the incarnacion of Christ 147. yeres.

Epimemidium, a kynde of herbes, that hath a rounde roote lyke an onyon, & is displeasaunt in eatyng.

Epimetheus, the sonne of Iapetus, and brother of Prometheus.

Epimyctis, looke Epinyctis.

Epimythium, n, n. g. the declaracion of a fable in a morall sence.

Epinicia, órum, verses conteynyng prayses.

Epinicium, ii, neu. g. a feast or iope made for victory: as bonfyres, and banketes therat.

Epinyctides, a wheale or pustle that ryseth on the shynne by nyght also a disease in the eye.

Epinyctis, is also a booke or regester of thynges doone in the nyght.

Epiodium, or Epicrdium, dii, n. g. a songe, songe at a burriall, before the corps be buried.

Epiphanes, notable or famous, it was the surname of Antiochus the most cruell tyranne.

Epiphania, æ, fœ. g. a manifestacion. it is also a solemne feast in the churche.

Epiphonema, atis, neu. gene. a sentence or exclamacion, conteynyng the summe or conclusion of a thyng.

Epiphora, rǽ, f. g. a sickenesse of the eyes, called the dropping of the eies.

Epiploocele, es, f g a disease, whan the intrayles or the thynne skyn or cuete, that compasseth the intrailes, falleth into the codde.

Epipomphalon, li, n. g. a disease, when the net or cuete, wherin the guttes are lapped, breaketh out at the nauell.

Epirhedium, dii, n g a waggon or carte.

Epirôta, æ, f g one of Epire.

Epiróticus, a, um, of the countrey called Epirus.

Epirotica mala, called also Rotunda.

Epirus, a region in the southwest part of Grece, lyke Epeirus.

Epischidion, schidii, n. g. a wedge

Episcopâtus, us, m. g. a bysshoprike.

Episcopium, pii, neu. ge. a bysshoppes palayes house, or a place to spye out at.

Episcópius, a, um, pertenyng to espiall.

Nauis episcopia, a shyppe sent out to espy.

Episcopus, pi, m. ge. a bysshop. sometyme an elder: sometyme a clerke of the market.

Epispástica, salues or plaisters to drawe matter and filth out of a wounde.

Epistalma, the commission of a prince, hauing the charge subscribed.

Epistata villica, a woman that hath the ouersight or kepyng of a ferme in the countrey.

Epistates, æ, mas ge. a proctour, an ouerseer, a bailyffe, a stewarde of housholde.

Epistathmi, by the interpretacion of Budeus, ere herbegers, apoynters of lodgeynges for the trayn of princes, whervnto Budeus denieth a latine worde, callyng them Designatores mansionarij, or cesarij. But in myne opinion the greeke name maie be vsed well and properly.

Epistola, æ, f g a letter sent frō one to an other.

Epistolâris, re, pertenyng to epistles or letters.

Epistolaris charta, writyng paper.

Epistolium, ii, n. g. a litell epistle.

Epistómium, ii, neu. gen. a socke or spoute, seruyng out water frō a cundite, a tappe, or other like thyng.

Epistrophus, a kyng of Phocis.

Epistropheus, the foremest ioynte in the necke.

Epistylium, ii, n g the chapiter of a pyllour, or a litell pillour sette vpon a greatter.

Epitaphium, ii, neu ge a scripture written on a graue or sepulchre, an epitaph.

Epitasis, the part of a comedie whā it is most busy and troublous.

Epi-

Epithalámium, ii, neu. g. a longe breyng songe at a weddynge, or verses made in the prayse of them that are maried.

Epithema, thématis, n. g. a medicine laied to the region of the herte or lyuer to coole it.

Epithesis, a counterfaited inscription to deceiue a man.

Epitheta, a deceyuour.

Epitheton, an addition, properly applyed to a thyng for some notable qualitee, whiche it signifieth: as, Scuum mare, the roughe sea: Garrula pica, the chatteryng pye: Crudelis Nero, the cruell Nero: Campi floriferi, the flourysshyng fieldes.

Epithymia, æ, f. g. concupiscence, desyre.

Epithymum, the floure of the harder tyme like vnto sauorie, the toppes thyn and lyghte, the stalkes lyke vnto heares. The difference betweene that and the other floure of tyme, is, that this is greene, of the colour of an herbe, the other is whyte. It groweth specially in Creta. It is hoote and drye in the middell of the thirde degree, and purgeth melancolye or blacke choler: or after other, it is a wede that taketh hold of the braūches of tyme, and so wyndeth about it, that it is nourysshed of the tyme roote, and beareth a flower lyke tyme.

Epithyrum, a meane to conserue olyues.

Epitogium, ii, n. ge. a garmente worne vppon a gowne. It maie be vsed for suche an hoodde as graduates weare in vniuersitees, or elles that whiche they call their habite.

Epitome, es, or Epitoma, æ, f. g. a bridgement, or breuiare.

Epimagus, gi, m. g. a certayne fish.

Epimapécia, órum, the name of all maner vessels belonging to the table.

Epimius, a foote of foure sillables, of the whiche one differeth euer from the other thre.

Epimope, es, f. g. procuration, wardshyp.

Epimopus, id est, procurator.

Epiny rum, ri, n. g. a chese cake.

Epodus, di, a kynde of verses, whiche hath the first verse longer than the second: as,

Beatus ille, qui procul negotiis,
Vt prisca gens mortalium.

Epolónes, olde writers vsed for Epulones.

Epomes, idis, a cloke, a hood, to cast on ones shulders.

Epopa,

Epopos, a mountayne.

Epops, epopis, idem quod Vpupa.

Eponedia, a tuter of the Salatiens.

Eporhédicæ, arum, good breakers of horses.

Epos, odos, a woorde or a kynde of verse or songe, whiche conteyneth thynges concernyng as well god as man.

Epóto, áui, áre, to drynke vp all.

Epótus, a, um, dronke vp.

Epulæ, árum, meates. also a banckette made to many persons, sometyme pasture for beastes.

Mensæ epulis conquisitissimis extruebantur, the tables wer set or garnished with most deyntie and costly dysshes.

Profusæ epulæ, feastes to sumptuous or costly.

Epula, æ, was vsed of olde writers in the singular numbre.

Epulâris, re, belongyng to a feast or banket.

Epularis sermo, communication meete for a feast or banket.

Epularis dies, a feast daie.

Epulátio, ônis, f. g. feastyng.

Epulatórius, a, um, apte to be eaten at a feaste or bankette.

Epulâtus, a, um, that hath feasted or banketted.

Epulis, pulidis, f. ge. flesshe that groweth on the gummes about a mannes teethe.

Epulo, ônis, plural. epulónes, men boden to a great feast, or they whiche come vnboden to eate the reuersion. Amonge the gentiles it were they that were called by the priestes to eate that whiche was lefte of the sacrifice, or rather to helpe to make the feast at the sacrifice.

Epulor, aris, ari, to eate at feastes or banquettes.

Epulum, épuli, n. ge. a great feast, whervnto all the people assembled, whiche amonge the olde Romayns was made either to the honor of som of their goddis: or at the buriynge of some notable personage. It maie bee nowe taken for a churche feast, or feast of a brotherhead, or dyner made at a burpall or interrement. It hath been sometymes vsed to bee taken for a banckette.

Equapium, an herbe called also Hipposelinon, Olus atrum, and Olus pullum, in englyshe alisaunder.

Equa, æ, f. g. a mare.

Equária, æ, f. g. an heardе of horses and mares.

Equárius, m. g. an horse leache.

Equárius, a, um, pertεynyng to horses or mares.

Equarius medicus, an horse leache.

Eques, itis, com. gen. an horseman, contrarye to the foteman Sometyme it is take for a knyght. But I suppose that amonge the Romayns, Equites were taken for theim, whiche we call gentill men. It is sometyme vsed for iudges, because they were chosen out of that order. also Eques is taken in Virgil for an horse.

Locare equites pro cornibus, to set the horsemen in the wynges of the battaple.

Equéstris, stre, pertεynyng to Eques, as,

Equestris ordo, The state or degree of gentill men.

Equestres copiæ, the numbre or companye of horsemen.

Equestria, the places assigned for gentilmen, where they satte to beholde any solemne sightes or plates.

Pes equestris, an horse foote.

Equestris, Newe castell in Fraunce.

Equi-

Equiceruus, ui, m. g. called also Hippelaphus, a beast in the orient, hauyng hornes and a long mane to the shulders, and a bearde vnder his chynne, and feete rounde clouen lyke an hart, and is as great as an harte.

Equidem, verily, truely, sometyme in a sentence it signifieth nothyng, but supplieth the nũbre.

Equidem certè idem sum, qui semper fui. As for me truely I am the same man, that I haue been alwayes.

Equiferus, a wylde horse.

Equila, a litteli mare.

Equile, lis, n. g. a stable for horses.

Equimentum, ti, n. ge. the hyre of the stalyon to couer a mare.

Equinus, a, um, of an horse.

Equio, iui, ire, whan a mare desyreth to be couered.

Equiria, ôrum, n. g. plu. a rennyng with horses, a place dedicated vnto Mars.

Equiselis, an herbe lyke an horse maane.

Equisessor, a man on horsebacke.

Equisetum, i, n. g. an herbe called horsetayle.

Equiso, ónis, m. g. an horse breaker, sometyme an horse keeper, Of olde writes it was vsed for all them that had ouersight of any thyng.

Equitábilis, le, able to bee rydden, also a place where horses myght easyly walke.

Equitátio, ônis, f. g. a rydynge.

Equitátus, us, ma. ge. an hoste of horsemen also the acte of rydyng, sometyme the state or order of gentill men.

Equitium, ij, neu. g. the esquirie or companye of the stable, or rather a troupe of horses

Equitius the proper name of a man, and surname of a familie in Rome.

Equito, équitas, áui, áre, to ryde.

In orbem equitare, to ryde round about.

Equitare in arundine longa, To ryde on a stalke or reede: and by translacion to playe the chylde.

Equitari, the passiue, to be ridden on.

Equuleus, lei, m. g. an horse colte. also a maner of tourment made of burnyng plates, lyke to an horse, wherin men were tourmented.

Equulus, li, m. g. a nagge or litteli horse.

Equus, i, m. g. an horse.

Equus carpentarius, a carte horse, or chariotte horse.

Generosus equus, an horse of a holy and lusty courage.

Equus citatus, an horse taken vp a loste.

Cæspitatores equi, stumblyng horses.

Anfractus leuioris equi, the tournynge of a quicke horse nowe on the one syde, nowe on the other, a carriere.

Acer equus, a swifte horse.

Bellator equus, a horse of warre.

Durioris equus, a stubburne horse, that will not folowe the bitte.

Recentes equi, fresh horses.

Equus intractatus, and indomitus, an horse that is not broken.

Equum accendere stimulis, to quycken an horse with the spurres.

Admittere equum, looke Admitto.

In equum ascendere, and Insilire, to leape on horse backe, to take ones horse.

Cadere de equo, looke Cado.

Concitare equum, to take vp his horse with the spurres.

Exhortari equum, to encourege an horse.

Frænare equum, to bridell an horse.

Incidere equo, and Hærere in equo, to sytte on an horse.

Insternere equum, to trappe an horse, or to saddell an horse.

Equus, is also a sterre.

✠ Equus Troianus, a prouerbe, notyng the destruction of a citee to bee nourysshed within the same.

Velis equisque, prouerbially, with all speede and endeuour.

E ANTE R.

ERadico, cáui, câre, to pluche vp by the rootes.

Eradicare aures alterius, to annoye a man by tellyng ouer many tales.

Erádo, si, ere, to scrape of or out of a thyng, to putte out.

Albo senatorio erasit, He put his name out of the table of Senatours.

Erani, collectours of taskes or contributions.

Erania pecunia, the money that such collectours doe gather.

Eranthemum, a hynde of camomill, hauyng purple flowres, lyke Chamœmelon.

Eranthemis, idem quod anthyllis.

Erasi, men put out of wages.

Erasinus, the name of a ryuer.

Erasistratus, a noble physitiõ of the house of Aristotle, who for healyng kyng Antiochus, receyued of Ptolomeus his soonne, an hundreth talentes, whiche dooe amount of our money, to.xi li. M. CCC. lxxv. li. he was before the incarnacion of Christ. 243. yeres.

Erasus, a, um, rased or scraped out.

Erate, es, a nymph, the daughter of Oceanus and Tethys.

Erato, the name of one of the muses, whiche had preeminence ouer louers. it is sometyme taken for Calliope.

Eratosthenes, the name of a philosophier.

Ercinia, a wonderfull great wood in Germanye.

Erciscor, scéris, scéri, to diuide or make partition of goodes or landes betwene diuerse heyres, assignyng to euery one his portion.

Erciscundæ familiæ iudicium, a iudgement for the diuydyng or partyng of goodes betwene diuers heyres.

Erecius, one of the names of Jupiter.
Erectum, vsed of olde writers for Arctum.
Erebeus, a, um, of Erebus.
Erebus, bi, m. g. one of the riuers of hell some tyme it is taken for a certayne darkenesse, which poetes feigne to be in helle.
Erechtines, idem quod Senecio.
Erectheus, a kyng of Athenes.
Erectio, ónis, f. g. an aduaunceyng and vprysynge vp of a thyng.
Erectus, a, um, sette or raised vpryght, vprke vp, auaunced, in a readynesse.
Erectus expectatione, attentiue and readye to heare that it shall be spoken.
Erecti ad libertatem recuperandam, readye and glad to recouer their libertee.
Capulo erecto euolare ex aliquo loco, To remoue spredily out of a place with his heare stayenge and standyng vpright.
Animos erectus equus, an horse that roseth aloft, and standeth on his hynder legges.
Erectiore animo esse, To haue a more lustye courage.
Eremi, people in Arabia, whiche goo naked.
Eremigo, aui, are, to saple or passe ouer, to rem ouer, to rowe ouer.
Eremita, æ, ma. ge. an heremite, one that dwelleth in wyldernesse.
Eremodicium, ci, neu. gene. Defaulte of appearaunce at the date whan one is bounde to appeare: or whan sentence is geuen, one of the parties beyng absent, whiche in the digestes Tit. de minor. infra. & in codice de iudiciis, is corruptely red Hermodicium.
Erémus, mi, f. g. a desert or solitary place.
Erépo, repsi, ere, to crepe vp, to clyme vp hardly with great peyne.
Ereptus, a, um, taken away, deliuered. some tyme dead.
Humanis ereptus, dead.
Erechthon, one of Thessaly, whiche for contemnyng Ceres was made so hungry, that he dyd eate the partes of his owne body.
Eresion, ónis, a braunche of Olyue, vsed agaynst pestilence.
Eretria, a famous citee of the yle Subœa.
Eretria, æ, f. g. a kynde of Lettuse.
Eretrici canes, dogges nourished by the commandement of Apollo, which dyd also among other thinges drawe the plough.
Eretum, i, a strete in the Sabines towne.
Ereuthalion, a man of huge greatnesse, whiche was slayne by Nestor.
Erga, towardes, agaynst.
Erga festum natalis Christi, agaynst Christmasse Beneuolentiam erga aliquê habere, to beare fauour or ryght good wyll towardes one.
Ergeylus, the proper name of a man.
Ergastica, a towne of Spayne.
Ergasterium, ii, n. g. a woorkehouse.
Ergastes siue ergasticus, a woorke man.

Ergastulárius, ii, ma. ge. the gayler or keeper of a prisone.
Ergástulum, li, n. ge. an house where men were compelled to woorke on stone or mettall: nowe it is taken for a prisone, sometyme for the prisoners.
Ergástulus, i, ma. gen. a seruaunt or slaue kepte in prisone.
Erganum, an ingine to drawe vp thinges of great poyse or weight, called a craane.
Erginus, a tyranne, whom Hercules subdued and slewe also a ryuer of Thrace.
Ergo, therfore, sometyme it is spoken dysdayngfully.
Fac ergo quod lubet, than dw as the vst. sometyme exhortyng.
Ergo age, go to. sometyme it signifieth because, Illius ergô, For his sake.
Virtutis ergô, because of vertue.
Ergúmenus, vexed with an yll spryte.
Eribœa, the stepmother of Mercurie. also a citee of Macedonie.
Eribinthos, idem quod Cicer. lobe there.
Erice, or erica, cæ, fœ. g. an herbe, that groweth in wilde moores, called in englishe heath, heth hather, or ling. It is also a fysshe, which is supposed to haue a vayne.
Erica'um, n. g. a kynde of hony, wilde honie.
Ericates, a mans name.
Erice, es. Erica, æ, or Erix, icis, the swete broome whiche hath leaues lyke rosemary, but that they bee somewhat prickyng.
Erichinus, a fysshe of the sea called a rochet.
Ericis, a towne of Liguria.
Erictho, a woman of Thessaly.
Erichthonius, and Erichtheus, the fyrst kynge of Athens, whiche inuented a charlot.
Eridanus, ni, a ryuer in Italy, nowe called Padus, in Italyan Po, nyghe to the citee called Patauium, so named of Eridanus, which was drowned in the same.
Erigeron, an herbe called also Senecio, groundswell.
Erigo, érigis, rexi, ere, to set vp, to vprke vp, to reise vp, to aduaunce.
Erigere scalas ad mœnia, to set vp ladders, or a ladder to the walles of a towne.
Erigere ad spem, to put in hope.
Erigite animos, vprke vp your spirites, take courage.
Erigere ad gloriam, to aduaunce to honour, to make renowmed.
Agitati se in spem legis erexerant, They that fauoured the diuision of landes, conceiued a good hope, that the lawe myghte bee brought to passe.
Erigere in gradus, to make higher and higher with steppes.
Erigere afflictum, to succour and comforte one that is oppressed with misery.
Erigere animum & spem asserte, to comfort one,

vne, and put hym in hope of a thyng.
Erigere aures, & animum attendere, to geue eare, and herken diligently.
Erigere rem publicam, to succour the commune weale almost oppressed.
Erigere in digitos, to stande on typtoe.
Erigone, the daughter of Icharius, syster of Penelope, whiche was tourned by the goddis into the signe called Virgo.
Erimanthus, looke Erymanthus.
Erinacius, looke Herinacius.
Erineon, a wylde fygge tree also a citee in Doris.
Erinnys, nyos, or nyis, fœ. ge. the name of one of the furies of helle. sometyme it is taken for the rage of warre.
Erinum, ni, neu. gen. a medicine, purgeynge the head by the eares.
Erioxilon, neut. gene. the woull of the shrubbe called Xylon.
Eriphia, æ, f. g. a wytche.
Eriphyle, the wyfe of Amphiaraus, and syster of Adrastus, which betrayed hir housbande for an ouche of golde, at the siege of Thebes.
Eriphysa, an plande.
Eripio, éripis, ripui, ere, to take away by force, to plucke out, to snatche, to delyuer out of daũgier. sometyme to make haste.
Eripe fugam, flee away in haste.
Eripuisti á me librum, Thou haste taken my booke from me.
Eripuisti me á periculo, Thou hast deliuered me from perill.
Eripuisti mihi pecuniam, Thou haste taken my money from me.
Eripere aliquem domo, To pull one out of his house.
Eripere & extorquere.
Eripere linguam alicui, To pull out ones toungue.
Eripere facultatem aliquid faciendi, to lette a man to dooe a thynge that he myghte ones haue dooen.
Eripere alicui amicum, to withdrawe a mans frend from hym by ill tales, or other meanes.
Eripere alicui aspectum senatus, To banysche or forbyd one to come into the senate.
Orationem ex ore tu mihi éripis, thou takest my tale out of my mouthe.
Eripere se á miseria, to delyuer and tyd hym selfe out of mysery.
Eripere pudicitiam, to rauysche.
Se ex crimine eripere, to discharge hym selfe of a crime that he is accused of.
Eris, ris, or éridis, an herbe growyng in Egypt, and may be interpreted contention.
Erisichthon, looke Eresichthon.
Erisinum, ni, n. g. semeth to some philicions to be wild mustard sede.
Erithrodanum, woodruffe or madder.
Erithace, looke Erythace.
Erithacos, the bird called robben redbrest.
Erithea, idem quod erithacos.
Erithales, an herbe of the kynde of syngrene, or houseleeke.
Erithrotaones, a certayne birde of the kynde of geese, somewhat of blackish colour, mixt with redde, they beyng kept in houses, die for anger.
Erodius, a birde, whiche in tyme of treadynge sweateth bloudde. It is translated of Theodorus, Ardeola. Sainct Augustin calleth it Fulica: Suidas supposeth it to bee Cicoma. After Calepine, it is the greattest foule that flyeth, and ouercometh and eateth the egle.
Erôdo, si, ere, to gnawe of, to gnawe about.
Erogátio, ônis, f. ge. distribution of thynges to other men, a liberall geuyng.
Erogâtus, a, um, geuen abrode, distributed.
Erógito, aui, are, to deuyse hertily.
Erogo, érogas, aui, âre, to employe or bestowe on a thynge, to distribute or geue to theym that aske of vs.
Pecunias alicui erogare in rem aliquam, to delyuer moneye to one to bee bestowed on a thynge.
Eropia, one of the yles Cyclades, called also Asis, and afterward Syphnus.
Erôsus, a, um, knawen round about.
Erpillon, li, n. ge. wilde tyme.
Erothalles, idem quod Aizoum maius.
Eros, loue. also a mans name.
Erotéma, ătis, neu. gene. a demaunde, an interrogation.
Erotematicus, he that often demaundeth.
Erórylos, a precious stone lyke to flint.
Errabúndus, a, um, muche wanderyng or vagabunde, straying or rennyng at rouers.
Errans, antis, errynge, wanderynge, straynge abrode.
Errans & vaga sententia, a wauerynge and vnconstant opinion.
Errántia, æ, idem quod error.
Errática, herbes, which doo grow of theim selues without culture, ye maie call theim weedes.
Erráticus, a, um, that creepeth here and there, as, Vitis erratica, a creepyng vine that shoteth out in diuers places.
Erratica herba, a weede or herbe that groweth wyldely abrode, without sowyng.
Errátio, ônis, fœ. gen. a goyng out of the way, a wandryng, a straying abrode, a rouyng.
Errâtus, a, um, that one hath wandered or straped in.
Petere veniam errato alicuius, to desyre pardon for a thyng that one hath dooen amisse in.
Erro, aui, are, to erre, to roue, or wander, to strape abrode, to be deceyued. sometyme to go to pasture.
Inter audaces lupus errat agnos, saith Horace.
Errare de verbis alicuius, to mysse vnderstandyng the woordes that one speaketh.
Varij colores sæpe errant in vultu solis, when the sonne semeth to be of diuers colours.

Cir-

Circum villulas omnes errare, to go aboute from one maner place to an other.
Erras, ſi id credis, Thou art deceyued, yf thou thynke ſo.
Malo in hanc partem errare, I had rather erre or bee deceyued in this.
Teneo, quid erret, I perceiue well, wherein he is deceyued.
Tum erras via, Thou arte cleane out of the waie, thou arte vtterly deceiued.
Erratur in nomine, They hytte not or know not the ryght name.
Erro, onis, m. g. a ſterter aſyde, a wanderer, a loyterer, a vagabunde.
Erroneus, idem quod Erro.
Error, óris, m. g an errour, proprely where falſhoode is affirmed and taken for trouthe, or trouthe for falſehode. ſometyme ignoraunce. alſo deceipte, trumpery, wanderyng.
Mentis alienatæ error, raupng, madneſſe.
Eodem errore captus quo nos, deceiued in the ſame thynge that we bee.
Errorem creat, looke Creo.
Afficere mentis errore, to make madde.
Afficere errore, to deceyue.
Auferam, or Eripiam tibi errorem, I wylle open the trouthe to you, or I wyl informe you of the trouthe, ſhewe you wherin you be deceiued.
Duci errore, looke Duco.
Aberrore auellere aliquem, to withdrawe a man from an errour or falſe opinion.
Feſſus errore viarum, wery with wandryng or goyng out of the waie.
Inducere in errorem, to deceyue, to bryng into errour.
Lapſus errore, or per errorem, deceyued by a falſe opinion that he had conceiued.
In magno errore ſunt, They bee in a great errour, or they be greatly deceyued.
Inſammo errore uerſari, teneri errore, trahi errore, in errore eſſe, to bee deceiued, or in a falſe opinion.
Erubeſcendus, a, um, a thynge to bee aſhamed of.
Erubeſco, bui, ſcere, to bee aſhamed, or to bluſhe.
Nec erubuit ora veſtra, and yet was he not aſhamed to come before you.
Erubeſco loqui, I am aſhamed to ſpeake.
Erubeſcere fortunæ, to be aſſhamed of that hath chaunced to one by fortune.
Eruca, æ, f. g. an herbe called Rockat. Alſo a woorme called the canker, whiche is commonly vpon colewoortes.
Eructo, aui, are, to bealche or breake wynd out of the ſtomake, & by tranſlacion, to ſpeake rudely, and with greate deſpite, to ſende or caſte foorthe.
Eriçero, aui, are, to throwe out, or cary awaye rubbel, as morter, ſtones, and other like thynges of olde buyldynges decayed or pulled downe.

Erúdio, érudis, iui, ire, to teache any arte or ſcience, to inſtruct, to informe, to make cunnyng.
Erudire ad rationem vitæ, to inſtruct to ſome maner of lyuyng.
Erudire in aliquare, to inſtructe one in any thynge.
Erudire aliquem artes, to teache one artes or ſciences.
Erudire laboribus iuuentutem, to exercyſe or bryng vp youth in labours.
Eruditiuit te vſus, vſe hath taught you.
Eruditio, ónis, f. g. doctrine or teachyng.
Eruditulus, li, m. g. ſomewhat learned.
Eruditus, a, um, learned or taught, inſtructed.
Eruditus græcis literis, learned in the greeke tungue.
Erugátio, ónis, f. g a wrinklyng.
Erugo, looke Aerugo.
Erugo, giui, ire, to bealche or breake wynde vpwarde, the ſimple of eructo.
Erúgo, áui, áre, to make wrinkled.
Erugare cutem, to make the ſkyn wrinkled.
Eruília, æ, f. g. a graine, whiche ſome call tares, but I thinke it rather to be ſome other kinde of graine, that groweth in corne fieldes.
Eruiangina, næ, f. g. a certaine weede growynge amonge corne, and by windinge about it, killeth it. this wede hath a ſtalke a foote and an halfe high, ſomewhat ruddiſh, rough, tender, & hath a katte or groſſe leafe, either a pelow flower, or ſomewhat whitiſh, the roote a finger biggeat to called alſo Orobanche, choke wede.
Erulia, ſome do ſuppoſe to be frenche beanes.
Erumna, looke Aerumna.
Erumpo, rúpi, ere, to breaſte out, ſometyme to leape forthe with violence, to breake out of an holde or citee vpon ennemies: and by tranſlacion, to come abrode to the knowlage of men.
Erumpet in neruum iſtæc fortitudo, A prouerbe diuerſly expounded, for it may ſignifie, This courage of thyne maye bryng the to an halter, or to litte by the heeles: or it maye ſignifie, This great ſtrength and courage of thine wylle come vnto nothynge. Whiche prouerbe is taken of Archers, whiche oftentymes when they put forth moſt ſtrength, breake the ſtrynge of theyr bowe, and the arrowe falleth downe at their feete, wherby the ſhoote is loſt, and cometh to nothynge.
Quæ per hoc triennium agitata ſunt, in hoc tempus erumpunt, Suche thinges as haue ben priuily canuaſed theſe three yeres ſpace: doo nowe at this tyme breake foorthe ſodainely.
In actum erumpere, to come to effecte.
In occulto colloqui, quæ mox in omnium pernitiem eruptura ſint, To commune of thoſe thynges priuyly, whiche in effecte er it be longe, will tourne to the vtter deſtruction of the whole commune weale.
Erumpunt ſe ex portis foras, they breake forth or they ſſued out at the gates of the citie.

Hæc,

Hæc, quo eruptura ſint, timeo, I feare to whar ende or iſſue theſe matters will come.

Erumpit amentis hominis furor, The furye of that brayneleſſe felowe will ſhewe it ſelfe at ſometyme.

Erumpunt lachrymæ, the teares braſt out.

Ne in me ſtomachum erumpant, That they doo not viter or ſhewe theyr rankred ſtomake or malice towarde me.

Iam ne hoc erumpere mihi gaudium licet? maie I now out with this my ioye & gladneſſe Illuſtrantur & erumpunt omnia, All your ſecretes be nowe manyfeſt to ſee, & come abrode to euery mans knowlage.

Erunco, aui, are, to weede out.

Erungium, a certayne herbe, loke Eryngium.

Eruo, éruis, ui, ere, to drawe out with force, to pluche vp by the rootes, to get and come to the knowlage of thynges by labour and ſtudy.

Eruere in lucem, to make manifeſt or knowen.

Eruere ex tenebris, idem.

Aurum terra eruere, To dygge golde out of the earthe.

Eruere oculum, to pluche out ones eie.

Sus roſtro ſemina eruit, The ſowe rooteth vp the ſeede with hir ſnoute.

Et ex iis ea eruere, quæ ſcriptores græci prodiderunt, And to picke and geat out of them the knowlage of thoſe thynges, which the grehe authours haue put in writyng.

Eruere herbas noxias, to pluche vp weedes.

Erúpuo, ónis, fœm. ge. is whan an hoſte iſſueth haſtily out of a citee, campe, or fortreſſe, and fetteth on their ennemies.

Erutus, éruta, um, pulled, picked, or weeded out.

Eruum, i, neu. gene. a kynde of pulſe, called alſo Orobos, there is of it bothe white and redde. ſome take it to be the ſame that Eruilia is, it is greater and better then a fetch.

Erycus, a mountayne in Sicile, where was a temple of Uenus, of the whiche ſhe was called Erycina.

Erymantheus, and Erymathyus, a, um, of Erymanthus.

Erymanthus, idos, Arcadie.

Erymanthis vrſa, the wyfe of Lycaon, whiche was turned into a beare.

Erymanthus, a mountayne in Archadye, where Hercules ouercame a bore, that deſtroied the fieldes. There are alſo a wodde and a ryuer of the ſame name.

Eryngium, or Erynge, a kynde of thyſtelles, hauyng long leaues, & long ſtalke with a rounde knappe full of long pryckes, in the fourme of a ſterre: The roote wherof, beyng condyte, and conſerued in honye with Cynamome & cloues, comforteth nature, and ſtirreth courage. It is alſo called Yryngium, and Centum capita, of the apothecaries corruptly Irringorum, in engliſhe hulner, or ſea holy: for it groweth muche bythe ſea ſyde.

Eryſipelas, âtis, neu. g. a certayne ſore or beyle redde round about.

Eryſipelæ, ârum, fœm. ge. an inflamacion with redneſſe, wherwith is a feuer or horrour in the body.

Eryſiſceptrum, the name of diuers herbes. Diocl.

Erythace, es, f. g. bees meate whyle they labour.

Erythacus, maſcu. gene. a byrde called Robyn redde breaſt.

Erythea, an yle in the ſea Gaditanum, where is ſuche temperatyneſſe of ayre, that men liue exceadyngly longe.

Erytheus, a kyng of Athens.

Erythra, a citee of Iſia.

Erythrea, one of the Sibylles. Alſo the countrey out of the whiche Hercules droue his beaſtes.

Erythranon, ni, n. g. a kynd of Iuie.

Erythros, an herbe, wherof Cenocrates writeth, that there is no diſeaſe in the bodie, whiche it is not holſome againſt.

Erythrotaones, birdes of the kynde of gele, whiche is both an excellent whitenelle, and a perfecte blackneſs, and a purple colour about their eies.

Erythreum mare, the readde ſea, ſo called of the kynge Erythra, whiche in engliſhe ſignifieth redde. For in deede the water of that ſea is of the colour of water, as diuers great authours, and alſo experience doeth affirme.

Erythrys, a ryuer, the water wherof, maketh heare to growe.

Erythyos, an herbe called redde beetes, as I ſuppoſe.

Eryx, cis, the name of a mountayne in Sicile, and of a citee theron buylded, wherin was edified a temple to Uenus, wherof Uenus is called Erycina.

Eryx, was alſo the ſonne of Biuta and Uenus, or after ſome of Neptunus and Uenus, which was ſlayne by Hercules, and gaue name to the foreſaid hyll, in the whiche he was buried.

Quid geminas Ericyna meos ſine fine dolores? Oh Uenus why dooſt thou continually double my ſorowes.

E ANTE S.

ESaias, a prophete of the tribe of Iuda, to whom was ſuche abundance of the ſpirite of prophecie, that he prophecied ſo muche of Chriſt, that he ſemed rather to be an euangeliſt, than a prophete. He was of ſuche holyneſſe, that (in the tyme of king Ezechias, whan a citee was beſieged) by his prayer he obteyned of God, that water ſprange vp in litteli quantitee, ſo that the people dyd not perythe for lack of water And whan the ennemies had wonne the citee, and beſieged Seloum, as often as the Iewes came for water, the water ranne out of the earthe abundauntly, and they tooke water, but

but the straungers, whan they came, could not fynde it. This holy man, for his libertee of speche, in rebukyng the synne of the princis and the people, and prophecyng of the vengeaunce of god vppon that countreie and people, was cutte in twoo partes with a sawe, and buryed vnder an oke: but afterwarde he was translated and layde by the sepulchre of kynges. He was before the incarnation of Christ. viii. C. yeres.

Esalon, or rather Aesalon, a byrde, which breaketh crowes egges, and hir byrdes bee destroyed by the foxe, and ytherwyle she kylleth the foxes whelpes, yf she mave come by theim.

Esau, the sonne of Isaac, and brother of Jacob.

Esca, æ, fœm gene. all maner of meate, as well for men as beastes. also a bayte to take byrdes or fyshes with.

Contemptissimæ escæ, verie vile meates.

Conficere escas, to shawe meate.

Escalis, le, pertevnyng to meate.

Escarius, a, um, pertevnyng to meate.

Escaria mensa, a table, whereat men dooe eate meate.

Escaria vasa, vessels, wherin meate is serued.

Esco, as, are, to feede vpon a thyng.

Escolentum, ti, n. g. meate

Escolentus, a, um, any thyng to be eaten, or that pertevneth to eatyng.

Escolenta animalia, suche beastes as men do vse for their foode and nourysshement.

Escolenta merx, victuales to be solde.

Escolento ore homo, a man with meate in his mouthe.

Escolenta frusta, morsels of meat that be eate.

Esculus, looke Aesculus.

Esdra a certayne confection agaynst diseases of the brayne.

Esis, a ryuer in Italy, not farre from Rauenna.

Esito, esitas, avi, are, to eate often, to vse to eate.

Esquilæ, looke Exquiliæ.

Esse in amicis, to bee one of his frendes.

Essedum, essedi, n. g. or Esseda, æ, a wayne, a char, or wagon.

Esopos, a kynd of wilde lettuce.

Essedarius, ii, m. g. a char or man.

Essedones, a people, wh. th dooe eate their frendes whan they be deade, and dryncke in the sculles of their heades.

Essei, or Essi, people inhabityng in Judea towarde the weste, whiche dooe lyue without women, and contempne golde, syluer, and all other rychesses. They lyue by eatyng of dates. There reserveth continually vnto theim, by the prouidence of God, men from dyuers partes, so that their company neuer kaseth. But none is receyued, onelesse the merite of his vertue and chastitee, dooe auaunce hym.

Essenia, æ, the breyng of any thyng.

Esto, bee it.

Estrix, stricis, a woman rauenour, or deuourer.

Esuriales feriæ, waake dayes, or rather fastyng halfe dayes, on the whiche men dyd forbeare eatyng, fastyng daies.

Esúries, ei, fœ. g. hunger.

Esurigo, iginis, idem.

Esurio, ônis m. g. an hungry felowe.

Ésurio, ésuris, iui, ire, to bee a hungred.

Esurior, the passiue.

Esuribo, for Esuriam.

Esurito, onis, idem quod Esuries.

Esurtor, ôris, mascu. gene. one that is often hungry.

ET, and, aswell, also, bothe.

Te admirantur & ciues & hospites, as well thy countreie men as strangers doo wonder at the, or bothe thy countreie men and straungers doo wonder at the. Sometyme it dooeth signifie but, by an interrogation, sometyme, that is to say.

Annos natus iam sexaginta & senex, Nowe hr. yeres olde, that is to saie, an olde man.

Sit hostis & meus, Lette myne also be an enemie.

Et, in an interrogation: as,

Et quæ tanta fuit Romam tibi causa videndi? Et, for Nam, or Quia, as,

Non temere est, & properans venit, It is not for naught, for he cometh in haste.

Et, in the begynnyng of a sentence, as Et finitæ sunt partes duæ, And thus two partes be made an ende of.

Et ille, and than saied he.

Et certe is est, and verayly it is he in deede.

Et quod dicendum nunc fuit, And that I may tell you the truthe. or, And that I may saie as the thyng is in deede.

Etearchius, a kyng of a citee of Crete.

Etenim, for, also, semblably, surely, but.

Etenim nequeo solus, But I can not alone.

Etenim quoniam summam vobis exponere non possum, Nowe because I can not declare the whole summe to you.

Etenim quoniam, for Nam quoniam.

Etenim mulieres? And what of the women?

Eteroci sithon, a kinde of barley, which groweth crooked.

Etesiæ, árum, fœm gene. wyndes, whiche dooe commonly blowe in sommer about the canicular daies.

Etesius, a, um, pertevnyng to those wyndes.

Ethale, id est, fuligo thuris

Ethália, an yle in the sea called Mare Ligusticum, whiche is by Jeane.

Ethálion, a mans name, which was tourned into a dolphin.

Ethánion, ii, n. g. the name of a certayne vessell.

Ethéocles the sonne of Oedipus & Iocasta his mother, whiche caused the warre of Thebes.

Ethesius, a mozter ſtone.
Ethice, es, fœ. ge. the parte of philoſophie pertepnyng to maners.
Ethicus, ethica, um, mozall.
Ethici pictores, peinctets, which in pictures doo lpucly ſette fooꝛth the maners and affections of men.
Ethmoides, the holes of the noſe, by whiche men doe ſmell, the noſthylles.
Ethmus, the middell bꝛidge of the noſe.
Ethnearches, the pꝛiſſe oꝛ ruler of any people.
Ethnearchia, principalitee.
Ethnicus, ci, m. g. an ethniche, a gentile.
Ethológia, the feate of counterfaitynge mennes maners.
Ethólogus, i, maſcu. gene. he that with voyce, geſture and countenaunce, expꝛeſſeth the maneꝛs of men.
Ethopœia, æ, fœm. gene. an imitacion of other mens maners.
Ethopœius, idem quod Ethologus.
Ethruria, looke Hetruria.
Ethruſcus, looke Hetruſcus.
Etiam, alſo, moꝛeouer, yea, yea further, yet.
Ego quoque etiam timida ſum, I my ſelf am fearefull alſo.
Nihil ſuſpicans etiam mali, Dempng none euell as yet.
Vnus ſcrupulus etiam reſtat, One doubt remaineth yet.
Aut etiam maiores, yea oꝛ greatter.
Etiam puerum inde abiens conueni Chremi, Moꝛeouer as I went fꝛom thens I ſpake with Chremes ſeruant.
Latini, pudore etiam non miſericordia ſolum moti, The latines beyng moued, not only with pitee, but alſo with veraie ſhame.
Etiam, foꝛ quin potius, as,
Ab eo nullius authoritas imminuta eſt, aucta etiam, No mans authoꝛitee was by hym diminiſhed, but rather encreaſed.
Etiam, an aduerbe of affirmynge, contrary to Non, as, Sinon, quomodo tabulas conficis? Si etiam, quamobrem. &c. If ye will aunſwere no, after what ſoꝛte dooe ye make youꝛ regeſter oꝛ reckenyng booke? If ye faie ye, wherfoꝛe. &c.
Et vero etiam mihi, And to me alſo.
Etiam rides? why, doeſt thou laugh?
Etiam denuo? yea agayne?
Etiam atque etiam, greattely, diligentely, earneſtely.
Te prorſus vehementer, etiam atque etiam rogo, I deſyꝛe you verie earneſtly and with all myne herte.
Etiam, hath ſometyme Non ſolum vnderſtanded in it: as,
Etiam hæc me ſolicitant, Not onely greatter matters, but euen theſe ſmall trifles do make me carefull and ſolicitous.
Etiam dum, yet.

Etiam'ne amplius? Haue you any moꝛe to ſaie yet?
Non dum etiam, not yet.
Etiam tu hic ſtas Parmeno? Why Parmeno dooe you ſtande heꝛe yet?
Etiam tum, euen than, oꝛ euen to that tyme.
Etiam ne? Is it foꝛ to it enough yet?
Etiamnum, yet, vntyll than, vntyll that tyme.
Etiam nunc, vntyll nowe.
Etiamſi, although.
Etſi, all be it, although.
Etymológia, lógiæ, fœ. g. true ſaiyng, oꝛ treue expoſition oꝛ reaſon.
Etimólogus, gi, m. ge. he that ſeꝛcheth out the interpꝛetacion of wooꝛdes.
Etymon, etymi, neut. gene. idem quod etymologia.

E ANTE V.

EVacuo, aui, are, to emptye, to make vacant.
Euacuare aluum, to purge the bealy.
Euadne, the daughter of Thebes, the wife of Œſopus, and the wyfe of Capaneꝰ, was ſo called, whiche loued hir huſbande ſo feruentlp, that whan ſhe heaꝛde that he was taken at Thebes, ſhe fell neꝛe dead in a ſoune, and afteꝛ whan his funeꝛall was celebꝛated, ſhe lepe into the fyꝛe.
Euádo, aſi, ere, to eſkape oꝛ paſſe with daunger, to appeeꝛe, to clyme, to deliuer, to be, to come to, to go.
E cuſtodia euadere, to eſcape out of pꝛiſon.
Amnem haud difficulter euaſit, he paſſed the ꝛiuer eaſily.
Omnes ſermones malignorum euaſit, he alwaies eſcaped the ꝛepoꝛt of malicious tongues.
Vana euaſit ſpes, our hope was vayne, oꝛ came to naught.
Vites apprehendendo ramos, in cacumina arborum euadunt, Mines by takyng holde of the bowes, clymbe vp to the toppes of treeꝛs.
Euadere in terram, to eſcape to lande.
Siquando aliquod ſomnium verum euaſerit, If one dꝛeame chance to pꝛoue treue at anp tyme.
Euadere ad muros, pro aſcendere.
Euadere ante oculos, To come in ſyghte, to appeeꝛe.
Superas euadere ad auras, to go to heauen.
Euadere é morbo, to eſcape a ſyckneſſe.
Perfectus Epicurus euaſerat, He became a peꝛfect Epiture.
Probum euadere, to pꝛoue an honeſt man.
Summus euaſit, He pꝛoued an excellent man.
Quo euadas neſcio, I can not telle to what purpoſe oꝛ intente you ſpeake theſe thynges.
Videamus hoc quoꝛſum euadat, leat vs ſee to what ende this thyng will come.

Hu

Hoc euasit, The matter came to this issue or ende.

Heri semper lenitas verebar quorsum euaderet, I feared to what ende my maisters continuall gentylnesse would come.

Euadet in aliquod magnum malum, It will come in effecte to some great mischiefe.

Euadere ad frugem bonam, to come to good thryfte, to thryue, to ware honest.

Euæmon, the sonne of Eurypylus, whiche came with the grekes to Troie.

Euænetus, the name of a kynge of the Lacedemonians.

Euagátio, ônis, a rouyng or straying abrode, a spreadyng abrode.

Euágor, áris, ári, to wander or strape, to roue abrode, to spreade abrode, as the boughes of trees, to renne ouer as a ryuer dooeth, whan it ouerfloweth, to make digression, to speake from the purpose.

Euagántur aquæ, the waters burste out, and spreade farther abrode.

Euáleo, éuales, lui, ere, idem quod Valeo, to be of power, to make or can.

Euáleſco, ſcere, to ware verie stronge.

Euállo, áui, áre, to put out of the doores.

Euálo, lis, uállere, to make cleane rome.

Euan, the name of Bacchus. Also it is an exclamation to the prayse of Bacchus, & is as muche to saye, as Bene puer, O good chylde.

Euander, or Euandrus, the propre name of Latinus sonne, who by his mothers counsayle slewe his father, and leauyng his owne countrey Archadia, came into Italye, and entrynge into the mouthe of Tiber, and expulsyng the inhabitaũts, rest d in the hil Palatine, where he beganne to buylde the towne Palanteum.

Euandrius, a, um, of Euander.

Euáneo, & Euaneſco, euánui, ſcere, to vanyshe awaie, to perysshe.

Opera eius euanuerunt, his woorkes ar perished and laste.

Extenuatur & euaneſcit ſpes, Oure hope is dcaied and vanyshed awaie.

Vetuſtate euaneſcere, by longe continuance of tyme to vanyshe awaie, and come vnto naught.

Euanuerunt & exanuerunt amnes, the ryuers were consumed and dryed vp.

Euangelia, órum, plur. nu. sacrifices and solemne prayers made after good tydynges also the rewardes geuen to them that brought the good tydynges.

Euangelium, li, n. ge. good tydynges, nowe it sygnifieth the gospell.

Euangelus, li, one that bryngeth good tydynges.

Euánidus, a, um, vayne, fraple, that wyl soone perysshe and vanyshe awaie, vnfruitfull.

Euanno, áui, áre, to vanne rome, or other lyke thynge.

Euapelus, li, m. g. a foole or idiote,

Euaporátio, ônis, f. g. a brethynge, an euaporation.

Euax, an interiection of reioycyng.

Euax, iurgio vxorem tandem abégi, Deina, I haue put at the laste dryuen my wyfe awaie with chydyng.

Euarchus, a ryuer of Scythia in Europe.

Euaſto, áui, áre, to waste and destroie, to spoyle,

Eubœa, an yle in the greke sea, and the name of the citee situated in the same, it is now called Nigra pont: in that is the citee Chalcis, where Aristotle died.

Eubœus, and Eubœicus, a, am, of Eubœa.

Eubulus, the name of an history writer, and is interpreted prudente. also a citesyn of Athens, who was ennemie to Demosthenes.

Eucaírla, æ, fœm. g. opportunitee, good occasion to doo a thynge.

Eucarpia, a citee of Phrygia, where growe great plentee of verie fayre grapes.

Eucháriſtia, æ, fœm. ge good grate, a rendryng of thankes. It is nowe taken for the sacramẽt of the aultar.

Euchíla, orum, n. g. meates of good iuyce.

Euchimon, mi, n. g. a hynd of Elleborus.

Euchíon, the name of Bacchus.

Euclides, the name of a famous geometrician, scholar to Socrates.

Eucrates, a wily miners name.

Eucteria, orum, places, in whiche the actes of prouintes be contained.

Eudæmon, the countreye of Arabia.

Eudamidas, the sonne of Archidamus, and brother of Ageo.

Eudora, a nymphe, Oceanus and Tethys daughter.

Eudorus, the sonne of Mercurie and Polymela.

Eudóxia, æ, f. g. good renoume or good fame.

Eudoxus, the sonne of Eschines, an excellẽt geometrician, astronomer and phisician, scholar to Socrates and Plato.

Euectio, ônis, f. g. carrying foorthe.

Euectiones, power or licence graunted by the prince to vse those horses that be appoynted for the common postes.

Euectus, us, masc. gene. cariage, conueiyng by shippe.

Euectus, a, um, caried out, aduanced, extolled.

Eueho, éuehis, exi, ere, to carie out, sometyme it signifieth to extoll or lyfte vp.

Virtus éuehit ad æthera, Vertue bryngeth a man to heauen.

Euelatum, wynowed.

Euello, uelli, and euulſi, ere, to pluche vp, to pull awaie. Mala radicitus euellere, to pluche vp naughtynesse by the roote.

Euellere ſibi ſcrupulum ex animo, to putte a doubte out of his minde that he is troubled with.

Euellere opinionem aliquam ex mentibus hominum, To pluche an opinion or perswasion out of mens myndes.

Euellere ex complexu, to pull one onte of a mans armes, whome he enbzaceth. And by translacion to take one from a man, whome he loueth entierly.

Euemerus, a mannes name verie familyar with Philyp and his sonne great Alexander.

Euenetus, a capitayne of the Lacedemonians, whiche with Themistocles kepte the passages of Thessaly agaynst Xerxes.

Euenio, ēuenis, ēni, ire, to happen by chaunce, to come to passe. sometyme to come to.

Euenit ex sententia, It came to passe as I, thou, or he wolde haue it.

Euenit præter sententiam, aut præter spem, It happened otherwyse than I, thou, or he thought or trusted.

Forte euenit, by chaunce it happened.

Si velim numerare quibus bonis male euenerit, yf I wolde numbre to what good persones mischaunces haue hapned.

Prosperè euenire, to chaunce well, to come well to passe, to haue prosperouse successe.

Vtplerunque euenit, Is it chaunceth for the moste parte.

Vereor hæc blanda dicta quo eueniant, I feare to what ende these fayre and flatteryng woordes wyll come.

Euenit, impersonall, it chaunced so.

Euēnit vt moreretur ille, It chaunced hym to dye.

Euēnus, a ryuer descendyng from Thyate, and diuidyng Calidonie. also a philosopher, whiche affirmed fyre to be the beste sauce for al meates

Euentilo, aui, are, to wynowe, fanne, or blowe. wynde.

Euentum, ti, a thynge, whiche hapneth in consultyon.

Euentus, us, happe, chaunce, successe. sometyme it is taken for the ende or conclusion of a thyng, or that chaunceth or foloweth of any thynge.

Euentum præstare, to warrant all that whiche shall happen.

Non sine euentu, not without good successe.

Euentu aliquid coniectare, to coniecte of a thyng by that that foloweth of it.

Ad omnem euentum paratus sum, I am redy to abyde what so euer wyll chaunce.

Prædictum est fore eosdem euentus rerum qui fuerunt, It was tolde before, that the thynges would haue the same ende or conclusion, that they chaunced to haue in deede.

Varij belli euentus, dyuers and vncertayne chaunces of warre.

Euerbero, aui, are, to beate, to clappe vppon a thyng as a bryde dooeth with his wynges.

Euergetes, the surname of one of the Ptholomees.

Euergo, ere, to sende out, to make to issue out.

Euertiātor, ōris, m.g. he that hath goodes of the testatour with condicion, that if he performe not his laste will, or dooe disturbe it, he shall lose all that he hath.

Euerriculum, li, n.g. a fysshynge nette called a dragge, and by translacion, one that by extorcion robbeth and spoyleth, and as it were, sweepeth all thynges cleane awaye with hym.

Euerro, ri, ere, to swepe cleane.

Euersio, ōnis, f.g. destruction.

Euersor, ōris, m.g. one that destroieth and ouerneth all thynges vp set downe.

Euersus, a, um, destroyed.

Euerto, ti, ere, to tourne vp set downe, to destroie, to abolyshe.

Euertere aliquem bonis, to spoyle a man of all that euer he hath.

Funditus euertere amicitiam, To destroye frendeshyp vtterly.

Totam euertit dialecticam, He confounded all the science of logike.

Euertere leges, to dissolue & abolyshe lawes.

Nauem euertere, to ouertourne a shippe.

Euertere rem publicam, to destroie and turne a whole commune weale vp set downe.

Euestigio, by and by, at an instant.

Euganei, people of Venece.

Euganei montes, mountaines in Italye by Padowe.

Euganeus, a, um, of those hylles.

Euge, well doon, an interiection of praisyng, of reioysyng, of agreeyng, of congratulacion.

Eugenia, æ, f.g. noblenesse.

Eugeniæ, certayne excellent grapes.

Eugium, caro eminula inter cūm symphysēos.

Euhoe, a noyse, that they doo make, whiche are in great heuynesse or waylyng.

Euhyas, ádis, fœm. ge. a woman preest of Bacchus.

Euhyus, the name of Bacchus.

Euibro, ēuibras, aui, āre, to shake or brandishe.

Euictio, ōnis, f.g. when we conuicte one by the law, to delyuer out of his handes any thynge that he had gotten wrongfully.

Euictus, a, um, ouercome, conuicte in iudgement, proued gylty.

Euidens, entis, om.g. euident, apparant.

Euidenter, clerely, euidently, apparantly.

Euidentia, æ, f.g. euydentenesse, perfitenesse, playnenesse.

Euigilo, aui, are, to watche, to be diligente, to studie or take peines in a thynge.

Tantum euigilat in studio, He applyeth his studie so ernestely.

Consilia euigilata, counsayles taken with good aduisement, or well prepensed.

Euigilare, sometyme for Elucubrare.

Euilesco, euilui, scere, to ware vile, of smalle estimacion or regarde.

Euilla, a countree in the estent, about the whiche The ryuer Phison, whiche we call Ganges, that cometh out of Paradise, dooeth renne.

Euincio, uinxi, ire, to bynde.

Euinco, uici, ere, to vanquisshe, to ouercome, to sursurmount, to obteyne by earnest labour, to conuicte one by the lawe, to render any thynge that doth belong to vs.

Instando euincunt, by theyr importune suite and labour, they obteyne.

Euincere morbum, to ouercome a sickenesse by good diete or medicine.

Euinctus, a, um, bounden.

Euiratio, ônis, the makyng of a persone effeminate. also geldyng.

Euiratio pilorum, the makyng balde, or cuttyng of the heare.

Euiratus, a, um, of womanly and childysshe condicions. also he that lacketh his genitours.

Euiresco, scere, to become greene.

Euiro, euiras, aui, are, to take awaie a mans membres of generacion, to make effeminate, and womanlyke.

Euiscerâtus, a, um, bowelled, that hath the bowelles or guttes pulled out.

Euiscero, aui, are, to boowell or drawe out the guttes of any thynge.

Euiscus, or Ebiscus, called also Althæa, the great or wylde mallowe, whiche hath a leafe twise so thycke as the common mallowes, and is therfore called of the apothecaries Bismalua, and Maluauiscus, of the Frenchemen Guimanes, lobe Althæa.

Euitabilis, le, that maie be auoyded or eschued.

Euitatio, ônis, fœ. ge. an eschuyng, auoydyng or shunnyng of a thyng.

Euito, aui, âre, to flee, to eschewe or beware, to auoyde or shunne.

Eulabes, he that taketh vpon hym the charge of byldinges.

Euogia, æ, form. gene. a woorde well spoken, a prayse, a benediction, an honest and profitable reason.

Eûm, olde writers vsed for Eorum.

Eumæus, the swyneherde, whiche conducted Ulisses to his house, whan he returned into his countrete.

Eúmeces, a hynde of baulme tree, more hyghe than the other.

Eumelis, a notable Augurian, or soothsayer.

Eumelus, the sonne of Admetus hynge of Thessaly, gotten on Alcesta his wife. also the name of a Troian.

Eumenides, furies of hell.

Eúmetris, m. g. a precious stone, whiche beyng layd vnder a mans head, maketh hym to haue dreames lyke to visions.

Eumîlus, a capitayne of the grekes that went to the siege of Troie.

Eumolpidæ, were certayn prestes or magistrates of Athens, ordeyned in the honour of kyng Eumolpus.

Eumolpus, a man of Athes, whom Suidas writeth to be the sonne of Museus the poete.

Eumónides, a mans name of Thebes.

Eumus, the sonne of Jason.

Eunica, a maydens name in Theocritus.

Eunómia, æ, f. g. a iuste constitucion or ordinaunce of lawes. also due obedience of the lawes.

Eunómius, a great heretike, of Arrius secte, whyche vnto he added of his owne malice, that the son was in euery thyng vnlike vnto the father, and that the holy ghoste had no medlyng with the father nor the sonne. More ouer he affirmed, that all that kepte the fauthe that he taught, shoulde bee saued, had they committed neuer so great a synne, and cõtinued therein. He was about the yere of our Lorde. 353.

Eunucho, aui, are, to gelde men.

Eunûchus, chi, m. g. a man gelded.

Euocâti, souldiours, which for some necessitee bee sodeynly called out of the fieldes vnto battayle.

Euocatio, ônis, f. g. a callyng forth.

Euocâtor, ôris, m. g. one that calleth forth, or that allureth to come forth.

Euocâtus, a, um, called out, commaunded to appeere.

Euoco, euocas, aui, are, to call out, to call forth, or call awaie. somtyme for Vocare, to call. also to allure or prouoke, to summon or cõmaunde to appeere, to call vpon for helpe.

Euocare aliquẽ intus foras, To call one forth that is within.

Euocare aliquem foras verbis alicuius, To call one forth in an other mans name.

Euocate huc Sosiam, accersat Blepharonem, Call ye forth Sosia hyther, that he maie go call Blepharo.

Nostros ad pugnam euocant, They prouoke our men to fight, or badde our men come forth and fight.

Euocare aliquem accitu alterius, to call forth one at an other mans byddyng.

Euocare aliquem Romam, to call vp, or to commaunde one to appeere at Rome.

Euocat ad se, he cõmaundeth to come to hym.

Euocare aliquem literis, to will one by letters to come to hym.

Piscem esca euocare, with the baite to allure the fysshe to come forth.

Euocare deos, with solemne prayers to will the goddes to come to hym.

Euocare dæmones, to call vp yuell spirites.

Euocare ad arma, to make to bee cried or proclaymed, that euery man be readie in harneis, at a certayne place and houre.

Euocare animum à negotiis, To withdrawe the mynde from busynesse.

Vis earum omnis euocatur in palmites, All the strength of them is drawen vp in to the braunches.

Euocare testes, to bryng forth withnesses.

Euoliæ, a noyse or exclamacion that the prestes of Bacchus made.

Euolâticus, a, um, that rẽneth or gaddeth abrode.

Euolito, aui, are, to flie out often.

Euolo, euolas, aui, are, deriued of the nowne

Vola, to steale, to take awaie by stelthe.
Impune aliquid euolare, to steale awaye a thynge, and escape vnpunished.

Euolo, éuolas, aui, are, to flee awaye, to flee out, to renne out, or hye awaie speedily, to passe a way quickely, to steale awaie, or conueie hym selfe awaye quickely, to escape.
Euolare rus ex vrbe, to forsake the citee, and goe into the countreie.
Anima éuolat ex corpóre tanquam ex carcere, The soule departeth out of the bodye, as it were out of a prison.
Euolare ex periculo, to escape out of daunger. Euolare pœnam, to escape payne or punyshement.
Sic euolauit oratio, his woordes wente awaie so roundely.

Euoluo, uólui, ere, to turne hyther and thyther, to rolle or tumble out of a place, to vnfolde, to explicate or expounde, to declare or tell, to meditate, to cast in ones mynde, to tourne as one tourneth a boke, to reade ouer, to studie diligently.
Euoluere se turba, or ex turba, to wynde hym selfe out of trouble.
In mare fluuij se euoluunt, The ryuers renne into the sea.
Euoluere librum, to tourne ouer a booke as one dooeth in readyng.
Euoluere poetas, to studie and reade ouer poetes diligently.
Versus euoluere, to reade verses.
Euoluere naturam rerum, to serche and fynde out the natures of thynges.
Tempus hæc me euoluere coegit, the tyme hath constreygned me to expounde or declare these thynges roundely.
Non possum euoluere exitum rei, I can not fynde out the ende of this mattier.
Promissa somnij euoluere, to muse or thynke on those thynges that semed to be promised in his dreame.

Euolútio, ónis, f. g. rollyng or tumblyng out, a readyng of poetes or verses.

Euolutus, a, um, vnfolded, or vnrolled, tourned out.
Euolutis bonis, a man tourned out of all that euer he hath.

Euomo, éuomis, ui, ere, to vomite, to caste out, to spue, to vtter out, or speake malitiously, and with a cankred stomake.
Euomere iram, to wreake anger, to vtter his malice spitefully.
Emouere virus, to spitte out his poyson, to saie the worst that one can saie.

Euominos, one of the ples called Aeoliæ.

Eupalia, a towne in Locris, whiche some calle Eupalion, and some Eupolyon.

Eupatórium, or Eupatorias, an herbe called Agrimonie, looke Agrimonia. but Mesues calleth that Eupatorium, that in Englesh is named Wandlene.

Eupétalos, a precious stone of a fyry colour.

Euphantasiótos, a gap imaginer of thynges.

Euphónia, æ, fœm. gen. good sowne, a swete or pleasant noise.

Euphorasia, æ, some take for the herbe called eyebright.

Euphórbia, and Euphórbium, an herbe first founde out by Juba the kynge of Libya, and called after the name of his phisition. Looke Ruellius lib. 3. capite. 83.

Euphorbus, a Troiane, the sonne of Panthu, whiche wounded Patroclus, and was slayne by Achilles. also a shepeherdes name.

Euphorion, a poetes name of Calcidonie, whom Gallus dyd translate.

Euphrasia, æ, fœm. gen. an herbe called of some Ophthalmica, or Ocularia, and of the Grekes Euphrosyne, because it clereth the eyes. In englysshe eye bryght.

Euphrasynum, syni, neu. gene. an herbe called buglosse.

Euphrátes, one of the ryuers that come out of Paradise, whiche passeth thorough the citee of Babylon. also a philosophiers name.

Euphrósyna, the proper name of a woman. also the name of one of the thre graces cald Charites.

Euphrósyne, bewrage.

Eupilides, a certaine swellyng or ryslnge of flesh in the gummes, by the innermost cheeke teeth.

Eupilis, a lake in Fraunce Cisalpine.

Eupolis, an auncient poete, whiche in his comedies sharpely tared the vices of the people.

Eupompus, a verie cunnyng man in aruthmetike and geometrie. Also a famous peinter, whiche taught Pamphilus Apelles master.

Euporus, Caius Gracchus seruaunte, whiche at his biddynge dydde slea hym, and after killed hym selfe.

Euprosopon, a promontorie in Phenicia.

Euprépia, comelynesse.

Eurechinemon, id est plantago.

Eureos, a precious stone lyke an olyue beary.

Eurinus, & euritius, a, um, belongynge to the easte wynde.

Euripides, the name of a famouse poet amonge the Greeches, whiche wrate tragedies moste excellently.

Euripidius, the numbre of foxtie in a certaine die.

Euripus, pi, mas. ge. a smalle cundite ryslng of a great heyght. Also a dyche made to enclose places to plaie in, in the steede of hedges. Some do take it for a smalle ponde or stewe. also an arme of the sea, or a narowe passage betweene two places. Euripus also a parte of the sea, betweene Aulis, an hauen of Bœotia, and the Ile of Euboea, whiche ebbeth and floweth 7. tymes in a daie, with so swifte a streame, that it carieth with it shippes with full saile agaynste the wynde: and yet 3. daies euery moneth stoode styll, and moued not.

Eurócias

Eurócias, a tertayne stone, whiche seemeth to be blache and mossy.

Euronotus, a nozth east wynde.

Europa, the thirde parte of the wozlde, diuided from Asia with the great seas, Hellespontus, Propontis, Bosphorus Thracius, & Pontus Euxinus, and hath the vttermoste bounides in the nozthest, the ryuer Tanais. And from Affrike it is diuided by the myddell sea. It was also the name of a fayze maide, daughter of Agenor, kynge of Phenicia, whom Jupiter (transformyng hym selfe into the fozme of a bull) dyd rauysshe, as poetes wzite: whiche of some is interpzeted, that Jupiter caried hir away by force in a ship, in the decke oz maste wherof was a banner oz streamer, wherin was peincted a bull.

Eurotas, a ryuer that renneth befoze the towne of Lacedemonia.

Eurus, the easte wynde.

Eurydice, the daughter of kynge Minois. there was an other of that name, the daughter of Pratus kynge of Argiue. An other was one of the Gozgons.

Eurylus, the name of one of the pzinces of Peloponese. Virgile feigneth a Troiane to bee so called.

Eurybates, a man of Ithaca, Agamemnons seruaunt.

Eurybatus, the name of diuers men: one was a famous robber and theefe, of whom cometh this woorde Eurybatizare, to steale awaie pzuily from theim that haue hym in keppng.

Eurybia, a nymphe.

Eurybiades, one of Xerres capitaynes.

Eurycles, a soothe saier oz diuinour.

Eurydice, a mayden, the daughter of Pisenozis.

Eurycrátidas one of Lacedemonia.

Eurycyon, a gold smythes name.

Eurydamas, a Tropane, an interpzetoure of dreames.

Eurydame, was the wyfe of Leutichis kynge of Spertans.

Eurydémam, the father of Pebzicea.

Eurydice, the wyfe of Ozpheus.

Eurydomene, a nymphe of the sea.

Eurylochus, the kynge of Phlegia, whiche destroied Thebes befoze Cadmus buylded it.

Eurymachus, one of Penelopes wowers.

Eurymedon, the sonne of Faunus. also a riuer of Pamphilia.

Eurymides, a soothsaier amonge the Cyclops, whiche tolde to Polyphemus all that to hym hapned afterwardes by Ulisses.

Eurynome, the wyfe of Ozchamus, and also the daughter of Apollo.

Eurynomes, a dyuell, who as the auncient Gzeches suppoled, dyd eate and consume the flesche of dead men, leauyng the bones bare, whom they peincted in a terrible figure, hauyng longe teethe oz tuskes, sittyng in the skynne of a bulls lure, of colour betwene blache and blewe.

Euryon, the daughter of Impata kyng of Macedonie.

Eurypylus, one of the soonnes of Hercules, that reigned in the yle of Cous, an other the son of Euemõ, which bothe wer at the siege of Troie.

Eurystéus, a kyng of Grece, ennemy to Hercules, whiche commaunded hym to doo many of his enterpzises.

Eurythmia, æ, f. g. is a beautee in the true kozmyng of the membzes, where the height accozdeth with the breadthe, and the bzeadthe also with the length. Finally all thyng aunsweryng to his pzopoztion, a comely gesture.

Eurythus, kyng of Oechalia, whiche denied to geue his daughter to Hercules.

Eurytion, one of the Argonautes, an other was the sonne of Lycaon.

Eusebes, bis, masc. gen. a pzecious stone, wherof a chapze was made in the temple of Hercules at Tyze.

Eusebia, pietee, religion, godlynesse.

Eustathius, a learned man, whiche wzote a cronicle from the tyme of Eneas, to Anastasius the emperour. An other was a lerned bishop of Antioche, whiche wzote agaynst Arrius. An other of the same name wzote commentaries on Homere and Dionysius.

Eustaphius, a sophister of Aphzodisia.

Eustratius, a philosopher, which wzote commentaries vpon Aristotles Ethikes.

Euterpe, one of the muses, and is interpzeted iozounde oz pleasaunt.

Eutheca, a stozehouse.

Euthydemus, a philosophier of Massilia, Apollonius maister.

Euthymia, æ, f. g. quietnesse, securitee, without troublous affections of mynde, heztes ease.

Euthymus, a famous capitayne, oz a mighty champion.

Eutices, an heretike, an abbot of a monasterye in Costãtinople, about the yere of our lozd. 450. He affirmed, that Chzist had but one onely nature, that is to saie, diuine, oz of god, lyke as he was one person. This heresye was condemned in the counsaile of Epheline, and Eutices sente into exyle.

Eutichydes, a famous image maker.

Eutrapelia, æ, f. ge. gentylnesse, good behauiour.

Eutrápelus, a mans name, and is interpzeted gentill and pleasaunt.

Eutropius, a mans name, who persuaded Celar to make a lawe, wherby he hym selfe perished. Eccles. histor. There was an other Eutropius S. Augustins scholar.

Euulgo, aui, are, to publysshe abzode.

Euulsio, ónis, f. g. pluckyng vp, oz dzawyng out. Euulsio dentis, the dzawyng of a toothe.

Euulsus, a, um, plucked vp oz pulled awap.

Euxinus pontus, a part of the sea, whiche diuideth Europa from Asia.

EX, ſignifieth of or from.
Ex aduerſum, euen agaynſt it, on the other ſyde.
Ex æquo, indifferently, equally.
Ex aſſe, of the whole.
Hæredem fecit ex aſſe, he made hym heyre of the whole.
Ex diametro oppoſita, ſo contrarye the one to the other, that they maie neuer agree.
Ex diſpoſito, by an order, of a purpoſe.
Ex aduerſum ei loco, agaynſt that place.
Ex æquo & bono, accordyng to equitee and reaſon.
Ex æquo & bono facere, to doo iuſtely or indifferently.
Ex animo, of good wyll, of a good courage.
Ex ante diem nonarum Iuniarum, the ſeuenth daie of June.
Ex argumento, in token therof.
Ex compoſito, as it was agreed.
Ex dignitate tua, & ex republica facis, Thou dooeſt accordyng to thyne authoritee, and for the weale of thy countree.
Ex dignitate noſtra, accordyng to our eſtate or dignitee.
Ex dignitate tribuere, To geue accordyng to his eſtate.
Ex equo pugnare, to fyght on horſebacke.
Summa erit hæc, ſtatues, vt ex fide, fama, réq; mea videbitur, This ſhall be the whole effecte, that thou doo as it ſhall ſeme for myne honeſtee, accordyng to the truſte that I putte in the, and for my profite.
Ex inſidiis, by treaſon, priuily, as it were out of an ambuſhement.
Ex more, and Ex conſuetudine, accordyng to the cuſtome, as they vſe to dooe.
Ex ſuperabundanti, more ouer.
Ex diuitiis iuuentutem luxuria ac auaritia inuaſere, by the meane of rycheſſe, or thorough richeſſe, the youth became lecherous and couetous. Ex for Cum: as, Ex melle reſinam vorato, Doo you eate roſen myxt with hony.
Ex, for præ: as, Quod ei ex aliis Gallis maximam fidem habebam, Becauſe I truſted hym beſt of all the frenche men: or becauſe I had more truſt to hym than any of the Frenche men.
Ex æquo fertilis, euen as fertile as the other.
Ex æquo viuere, to lyue in equall ſtate or condition with other.
Ex animo amicus, an hertie and vnfeigned frende.
Ex animo & ſimulatè, contrary.
Ex animo dicere, to ſpeake as one thynketh without any diſſimulacion.
Ex animo tibi bene volo, I will you good with all myne heart.
Ex animi ſententia, euen as one thinketh, accordyng to his conſcience, alſo as one woulde haue it, or wyſhe it.

Ex arte dicere, To ſpeake eloquently, or accordyng to the preceptes of rhetorike.
Ex authoritate pontificum, By the ordinaunce and commaundement of the prelates.
Ex alto repetere, to ſerche a thyng deepely.
Ex inuidia, by enuy.
Ex aliis cognoſcere aliquem, to knowe one by the reporte and informacion of others.
Ex confeſſo malus, openly naught, a verie lewde felowe.
Ex continenti, in an inſtant, foorthewith, by and by, incontinent.
Ex contrario, for é contrario, contrarywiſe.
Ex contrario ſtare, to bee one agaynſt an other, or one contrary to an other.
Ex omni populo, among all the people.
Ex conſilio iuriſperitorum, by the counſayle of lawyers.
Ex deſtinato, purpoſely, of purpoſe.
Ex diuerſo, non tamen omnino diſsimile, Diuers, but yet not vtterly vnlyke.
Ex pueris, and Ex ephebis excedere, To paſſe thy lides age.
Ex eo, from thens foorth.
Ex eo die, from that daie forward.
Ex eo fit, therby it cometh to paſſe.
Ex reis aliquem eximere, to diſcharge a perſon accuſed becauſe the accuſer dooeth not appere.
Exponere ex memoria, to expoune or declare by herte.
Diem ex die expectabam, I looked ſtyll on daie after an other.
Ex neceſsitate facere, to dooe by conſtreint, or of neceſsitee.
Ex facili, eaſily.
Hæres ex tertia parte, an heyre appointed to haue the thyrde parte of a mans gooddes.
Aliud ex alio malum, one miſchief in an others neche.
Magnum mihi ex hac re erit malum, I ſhal haue ſome great diſpleaſure by this thyng.
Ex hoc, for this cauſe, by this meanes.
Dependit ex humeris amictus, his garmẽt hangeth on his ſhulders.
Expreſſa ex annulo imago, a print or figure made with a ſeale.
Septem ex ordine menſes, ſeuen monethes together, one after an other.
Ex parte maiore, for the more parte.
Niſi ex præcepto domini, except his maiſter bydde hym.
Ex ore alicuius pendêre, To harken diligently what one will ſaie.
Ex propinquo præliari, to come to hande ſtrokes, to fight hande to hande.
Ex re & ex tempore, as the matter and the tyme ſhall require.
Ex ſententia non ſum hero, I pleaſe not my maiſter, or I am not to my maiſters appetite or phantaſye.
Ex ſententia ſeruus, ſuche a ſeruaũt as a man would

E ANTE X.

wouldē wyshe.
Ex se reliquit filium, after his death he lefte issue male of his owne body.
Timere exsomno, To awake or breake ones sleape sodeynly with a feare.
Ex sua quisq; parte, euery man for his part.
Ex tempore, forthwith, without meditacion.
Ex toto, wholly, vtterly, all together.
Ex vero nomine vocor Thomas, My true name, or my right name is Thomas.
Ex iure hesterno panem vorare, To slabber or sille vp breade with gruell or broth that was lefte the other daie before.
Ex vultu cognoscere, to know by ones countenaunce.
Ex vsu tuo, It is for your profite.
Ex improuiso, vnwares, sodeynly.
Ex industria, of purpose, for the nones.
Insanire ex iniuria, to waxe madde for wrong that is dooen to one.
Ex insperato, vnlooked for.
Ex integro, a freshe, a newe, eftesoones.
Ex intimis vnus, one of my nere frendes.
Iudicare aliquē ex aliorum ingeniis, to iudge a man by the disposicion of other.
Ex iure manu consertum vocare, a maner of suyng in the law among the auncient Romains, where the action was commenced after this sort: the plaintife and the defendāt went both into the fielde, for the whiche the contention was, and there cutte a porcion of the earthe, whiche after, they broughte before the Pretor, and made clayme to it as to the whole lande. Rede more after Exitium.
Laborare ex pedibus, to be sicke of the goute.
Ex lege repetere ab aliquo pecuniam, to sue one in the lawe for money that he oweth or detayneth.
Ex longinquo venire, To come out of farre countreies.
Ex natura alliquid gerere, to doo a thyng accordyng to his nature, or as his nature leadeth hym.
Ex me noscere potes, you may knowe by me.
Ex longo, of long tyme, a great while.
Ex obliquo, ouerthwart.
Ex omni occasione, by euery littell occasion.
Ex omnibus sæculis, sens the world first begā.
Ex opibus non ex veritate causa pendetur, The cause shall be wried accordyng to the riches, not after the truthe of the mattier.
Exacerbesco, scere, to waxe sharpe or soure.
Exacerbo, aui, are, to stirre vp, to prouoke to anger, to make one verate angry.
Exacesco, exacui, escere, to waxe soure or sharp, to become tigre or tarte.
Exacinatio, onis, f. ge. when the kernels of grapes, or suche like, doe fall out.
Exactio, onis, fœm. gene. a pylyng of the people, exaction.
Exactor, oris, ma. gē. a demaunder of moncie, some englyshe it a controller. I take it to bee a gatherer of tolle or tare.
Exactor supplicij, one that requireth to haue a man punyshed.
Exactum, ti, n. g. an exacte or absolute thyng.
Exactus, a, um, passed, verate diligent, exacte, expelled, demaunded, perfectly dooen or performed.
Exacta æstate, the sommer beyng passed.
Exactæ ætatis vir, a verate aged man.
His demum exactis, whan these thinges were dooen and paste.
Exacti reges, kynges expoulsed and dryuen out of their realmes.
Furiis exactus, for Agitatus.
Ensis exactus, a swerde thrust through one.
Exactus, us, a felyng.
Exacuātus, a, um, made sharpe or pointed.
Exácuo, ui, ere, to make verate sharpe, to stire, to whette, to make a sharpe edge or pointe to a thynge, to make angry or vere.
Exacuere dentes, to whette ones teethe.
Exacuere mentem, to stirre vp or quicken the myndē.
Acetum exacuere, To make vineger more tarte or bytyng.
Exácuit palatum, it stereth appetite.
Aciem oculorum exacuere, to quycken the eie sight.
Cohortari & exacuere, to exhort & stere vp.
Exacútio, ônis, fœm. g. a poynctyng or makyng of a thyng sharpe.
Exædificatio, onis, buyldyng vp, or makyng of a thyng perfitte.
Exædifico, aui, are, to buylde perfectly. also to dryue out of an house.
Exædificare opus institutum, To fynysshe or make an ende of a woorke that one hath begunne.
Exǽquo, quáui, quâre, to make equall, to bee euen or equall.
Exæquare omnia, to make all thynges of lyke value.
Neminem dignitate secum exæquari vult, He will haue no man to be of equall authorite with hym.
Exæquare facta dictis, To descrine the dedes and actes of men, with wordes keete and conuenientē.
Exæquari bonis, To bee made equall with good men.
Exæquari ad regulam, To make mete to the rule.
Exæquare precio omnia iura, To esteme not goddes lawe nor mans law more then money.
Exǽquor, quâris, the deponente, idem quod Exæquo.
Exæquâtus, a, um, made equall.
Exæquátio, ônis, fœ. ge. the makyng of a thyng equall with other.
Exǽstuo, áui, âre, to ouerflowe, to seethe ouer,

as a potte doeth, to be verie fierce and angry.
Exæstuare ira, to be verie angrie, or greatly fumed.
Exæuio, exeuiui, uire, to wax gentyl or mylde.
Exaggero, aui, are, to heape vp togyther, to augmente, to increase, to speake muche in the praise or dispraise of a thyng, with woordes to make a thynge more than it is, to amplifie, to extolle.
Exornare & exaggerare.
Exaggerare & extenuare, contrary.
Exaggerare virtutem, to speake muche in the prayse of vertue.
Verbis exaggerare beneficium, to extolle a benefitte with woordes, and make it more than it is.
Exaggerare rem familiarem, to increase a mans substaunce.
Exaggerâtus, a, um, heaped togyther, increased, amplified with woordes.
Exaggerátio, ônis, f. g. a heappynge together, an amplifyng or makyng of the thyng greater.
Exágito, aui, are, to vexe, to anger, to moue, to chyde, to shake vp with knaupsche woordes.
Lenire & exagitare, contrary.
Ne meum mœrorem exagitem, Leaste I shoulde make my sekc more heaup & sorowful.
Exagitare rem aliquam, to debate and handell a matter in reasonynge.
Exagitâtus, a, um, vexed, moued, robbed, debated in reasonyng, and as it were tossed hyther and thyther, annoyed, muche spoken of.
Spoliati & exagitati, spoyled and shaken out of all that euer they had.
Exagitâtor, ôris, m. g. one that vexeth or moueth or speaketh shrewdly by other.
Exagôga, gæ, m. g. one that carieth any thynge out of the house.
Exagôga, gæ, fœm. gene. rent, reuenues, also carying out.
Exalbesco, bescere, to wax paale.
Exalbidus, a, um, somewhat white.
Exalburno, aui, are, to take out the fatte tuyce, that is in some woodde.
Exalto, aui, are, to mount or lifte vp. sometyme to praise verie muche.
Exaluminâtus, a, um, cleere lyke alum. orient.
Exámen, áminis, n. g. a swarme as well of bees, as other thynges, a great company or flocke. also the nedill or tongue in balences and beames. sometyme it signifieth a iuste examination or tryall, diligent inquisition.
Examen infantium, a companye or sorte of children.
Exámino, aui, are, to examine, to serche or try, to weygh.
Examo, éxamas, aui, are, to loue well.
Exampeus, a fountayne in Scythia.
Examúrco, aui, are, to drawe ople cleane from the mother.
Examussim, iustely, by rule.

Exanclo, aui, are, to drawe out cleane, to empty. sometyme to suffre, to vanquyshe, to make, to take great peyne & muche labour, to dispatche and bryng to an ende.
Non potest hic sine tua opera exanclari chaus, This nayle can not bee made without thy helpe.
Exanguis, gue, com. g. without bloudde, timorous or fearefull, paale for anger.
Exanguis atq; æstuans, paale for anger, and greatly moued.
Exanimâlis, le, without soule or lyfe, or that taketh away the soule and lyfe.
Exanimátio, ônis, fœm. g. a trouble of mynde, a great feare.
Exanimatus, a, um, made greatly afeerde, astonied or troubled in mynde. sometyme it signifieth deade.
Exánimo, aui, are, to kyll, to make afeerde, to trouble and make astonied.
Priusq; intus redij, exanimatus fui, ere euer I came in againe I was made afeerde.
Multos exanimauit rigor insolitus niuis, the vnaccustomed chillyng of the snowe beguiled many of their liues.
Exanimare aliquem metu, to make one astonied for feare.
Exánimus, a, um, and Exanimis, me, deade, put in feare.
Exánio, aui, are, derived of Sanies, ei, to squise out mattier or corruption.
Exanthêma, thématis, n. g. a wheale or pustle in a mannes skynne.
Exantlo, aui, are, idē quod Exanclo, loke there.
Exaptus, a, um, verie apte & feete, well couple.
Exardeo, exarsi, dêre, to be vehemently inflamed with desyre, anger, or admiration, to be verie fierce and hotte.
Grauiter exarsit, he was verie angry.
Exardêre ira & indignatione, to be greatly inflamed with wrathe and indignation.
Desyderio exardêre, to be verie desyrous.
Exarsit in iras, he waxed verie hotte.
Exarsit admiratio, men were in a great admiration.
Exardesco, scere, to waxe hotte, or to bee vehement.
Exareno, aui, are, to purge and trie cleane from sande and grauell.
Exarefio, fieri, to be dryed vp.
Exareo, exáres, exárui, rêre, to be drie, to become dry, to pine awaie, to decay and weare awaie, not to be so pleasaunt.
Exaruit diuturna miseria filius, my sonne is pined awaie with long and continual misery.
Facultas orationis exaruisse dicitur, when a mans eloquence decayeth for faute of vse.
Exaresco, scere, idem quod Exáreo.
Exármo, aui, are, to make tame, to vnarme, or to take harneis from a man.
Exarmare actionem, To make the action feynte feynte or feeble.

Exarmare nauem, to take awaie the tackynge from a shyppe.

Exarmare feras, to cut or breake of the teeth, clawes or other partes of wylde beastes, whiche they vse for theyr defence.

Exarmare strigmenta, to plucke of the taggues of poynctes.

Exarmátus, a, um, vnarmed, made tame.

Exaro, exaras, aui, are, to ears well: also to write.

Exarare frumentum, by earynge to receyue as muche corne as the lande yeldeth.

Epistolam exarare, to write a letter.

Exarátus, a, um, eared, cared vp, founde in the grounde by earyng.

Exarticulátio, the beinge out of ioincte.

Exáscio, aui, are, to chip smoothe with an axe, as carpenters doo after they haue roughe hewed: and by translacion to polysshe, but not finely and perfectly.

Exáspero, aui, are, to make sharpe, also to make verie angrie, to vexe, to stere

Ánimo exasperatus, vexed in minde, made angrie.

Exáno, aui, are, to satisfie, to fyll.

Exánio, aui, are, to fyll or satisfie an hungrie stomache or gredie mynde.

Exauctorati, souldiours or seruauntes put out of wages, or dismissed of theyr seruyce.

Exauctorátus, deposed or put out of office.

Exauctóro, or Exauthóro, to put out of wages: also to dismisse from warre without any reprofe, and geue lycence to departe, to discharge them of theyr othe: sometyme to disgrade a knight, or other lyke.

Exáudio, áudis, iui, íre, to here benevolently, or perfectly.

Exaudire preces, to heare one fauourably and graunt his petition.

Exáugeo, auxi, augére, to increace muche.

Exaugére animum alicuius, to increace ones courage, to make one haue a greatter stomake.

Exáuguro, aui, are, to make prophane the thyng that was holy, to vnhalowe with certayne ceremonies.

Exauguráto, ónis, f. g. the vnhalowynge of a thynge.

Exáuspico, aui, are, to doo a thynge vnfortunately, to haue yll luche.

Exauspicani ex vinculis, I haue had yll luche sens I came out of prison.

Exauthóro, aui, are, idem, quod Exauctóro.

Exbalísto, áui, áre, to shoote out of a crosse bowe, to trumpe or deceiue.

Ego hunc communem meum atque nostrum omnium hostem exbalistabo lepide, I will feately deceiue this myne enemie, and all ours in commune.

Excæco, aui, are, to make blynde, to put out ones eies.

Excálceo, ceáui, áre, to pull of ones shoes.

Excalefacio, or Excalfácio, lefacis, féci, cere, to make verie hotte.

Excalfáctio, ónis, f. g. a heatynge or makynge of a thyng verie hotte.

Excalfactórius, a, um, that hath the power and strength to make hotte.

Excalfio, factus sum, fieri, to be made hotte.

Excalpo, calpsi, cálpere, to scratche or clawe, to ingraue or cut in.

Excandefacio, défacis, féci, facere, to thanke or make angrie, to make verie hotte.

Excandescéntia, æ, f. g. a sodaine anger that tarieth not longe, or after some, the inclynacion of the mynde to anger.

Excandésco, cándui, scere, to be verie angrie, to wexe verie hotte.

Excanto, aui, are, to inchant, to charme, somtyme to shutte out.

Excarnificátus, a, um, torne or rent with tourmentes.

Excarnifico, aui, are, to rent and cutte in pieces, to tourment.

Excauo excauas, aui are, to make holowe.

Excauátio, ónis, f. g the making holowe of a thing

Excédo, cessi, cedere, to departe or go forthe, to passe or excede, to die.

Excesisse ex ephébis, he passed boyes age, he wared a man.

Excedere ex pueris, to be passed boyes age.

Excedere officium, to do more than his dutie.

Excedere é via, to go out of the waie.

Excedere vrbe, to departe out of the citee.

Excesisse mihi ætas ex magisterio tuo, I am nowe paste your gouernance and correction.

In magnum certamen res excesisse, the mattier came to great contencion.

Morbus, qui quatuordecim dies excesisse, whiche hath continued more then fortene daies

Excesisse annos decem, he is aboue tenne yeres olde.

Excedere de medio, or de vita, to die.

Excedere digitum transuersum ex loco, to go a fingers breade out of a place.

Excedit magnitudinem fabæ, it is bigger than a beane.

Excesisse é memoria, I haue forgotten it.

Excedere modum, to passe measure.

Excedunt quatragenos denarios libræ, they cost more then ꝛc.

Notæ excessére, the markes be worne out.

Excesisse res ad publicam quærimoniam, the mattier came to the poinct, that the people complained of it openly.

Excedit fidem, it is not to be beleued, it is incredible.

Excessus, us, m. ge. going out, a dying or departyng out of lyfe, deathe.

Excellens, lentis, excellent, surmountyng.

Excellens omnibus vir, a man surmountyng all other.

Excellentia, æ, f. g. excellencie.

Excel-

Excellentia & magnitudo animi, excellency and noble courage.
Excellentia & præſtantia.
Excellenter, excellently.
Excello, cellui, lere, to excell, to paſſe, to ſurmounte.
Excellere & præſtare.
Admirabile quantum inter omnes vnus excellat, a meruailous thyng, howe muche one amonge all other dooeth excell.
Præter cæteros in re aliqua excellere, to be moze excellent then other in any thynge.
Excellere opibus, to be ryther then other.
Excellere animo, ingenio, conſilio, dignitate, vitijs.
Excellere, non nunquam in malam partem.
Excélſitas, âtis, f.g. heyght, altitude, loftineſſe, hauteneſſe of mynde.
Excelſitas animi, the valiantneſſe oz heyght of courage.
Excelſé, loftyly, hautly.
Excelſus, a, um, hyghe oz great, lofte, haute, noble.
Magnus & excelſus homo, a noble man and of haute courage.
Grandis & excelſus orator, an oratour that vſeth an ample and lofty ſtyle.
In excelſum collocare ſimulachrum, to ſette it in an hygh place.
Amplus & excelſus animus, a courageous and lofte ſtomake.
Excelſus & illuſtris locus, an hygh and notable place that euery man maie ſee.
Exceptio, ônis, f g. an exception.
Excepto, aui, are, to take oz drawe to.
Exceptor, ôris, m. g. he that wryteth faſte that, whyche other men dooe ſpeake.
Exceptórius, a, um, that exempteth, oz contepneth an exception.
Exceptus, a, um, excepted taken, receyued.
Exceptitius, a, um, that is taken oz receiued.
Excérebro, aui, are, to beate out the brayne of any thynge.
Excerno, créui, cérnere, to ſifte, to purge: proprely it is to trie out the yll from the good.
Excerniculum, li, a ſieue to trie graine, lime, oz other thyng.
Excerpo, cerpſi, pere, to gather here and there the chiefe of any thyng, to pike out.
Excerpere & Libare.
Excétra, æ, f g. a ſerpent, of whom the head beyng cutte of, three came vp for it. it was alſo called Hydra.
Excálcio, aui, are, to take ones money from him
Excidium, dij, n.g. the ſackynge of a towne oz citee, oz the vtter deſtruction therof.
Excido, éxcidis, cidi, cidere, to fall out of a thyng, to fall awaie, to be forgotten, to ſlippe out of memorie.
Excidit animo, it is out of my mynde.
Excidere animo, to be forgotten.

Excidere formula, to loſe his action.
Excidit numero ciuium, he is not of the number of citezins, he is banyſhed.
Excidit de manibus gladius, the ſwoorde fell out of his hande.
Tibi excidimus, thou haſt forgotten vs.
Huic éxcidit lingua, vt opinor, this ſelow hath loſte his tongue, as I thynke.
Excidere, & elabi.
Fulmina exciderunt cælo, it lightned.
Mihi iſta exciderant, theſe thinges were gone out of my memorie, I had forgotten them.
Excidit mihi nomen, I haue forgotten his name.
Excidit memoria huius rei, oz éxcidit hæc res é memoria.
Excidit mihi oratio, I coulde not ſpeake.
Mens mihi éxcidit, I was aſtonyed.
Fortuitu éxcidit verbum ex ore, he ſpake that woorde by chaunce, oz vnwares.
Nullum ferox verbum éxcidit, in all his communication he chaunced to ſpeake no cruell woorde.
Vxore éxcidit, he is diſapointed of his wife, he ſhall not haue the woman that he thought to haue had.
Excidere ab aliquo, To diſcende oz departe from one.
Excido, cidi, cidere, to cutte out, to cut downe, to deſtroye.
Excidere árborem, to cutte downe a tree.
Excidere lapides é terra, to cutte oz digge ſtones out of a quarrie.
Excidere malum, to take awaie a miſchiefe oz yll thyng.
Excidere & euertere vrbem, To deſtroy and beate downe a citee.
Ex animo excidere, to plucke out of memorie, to make to be forgotten.
Excidere aliquem ex numero ciuium, to baniſhe oz exile one.
Exciet, vſed of olde writers for Excutit,
Excindo, éxcidi, excindere, to ouerthrowe and deſtroy, to cutte out.
Numantiam excindes, thou ſhalte ſubuerte and deſtroy Numantia.
Excindere linguam, to cut out ones tongue.
Excio, ciui, citum, cire: oz Excieo, ciui, éxitum, exciere, to come vehemently, to call out, to waken, to prouoke oz ſtere, to reyſe vp.
Excire ſomno, and ex ſomno, to awake one out of his ſlepe.
Excire foras, to call forth of dores.
Excire lachrymas alicui, to cauſe one to wepe, to make the water to ſtande in ones eies.
Excire tumultum, to reyſe a tumultie, to make a ruffelynge.
Excire hoſtem ad dimicandum, To prouoke ones ennemies to fyght.
Excire aliquem ad cupiditatem diſcendi, with exhortation to make one deſirous to learne.

Exci-

Excipio, excipis, excépi, excipere, to except, to take, to take out or receyue, to entertayne, to vse or inserche, to separate, to take by craftc, to gather, to hyde, to succede, to resiste without any busines. also to take vnwares or sodenly, to herken or here diligently.

Excipere furem, to receyue a felon as an accessarie.

Excipere notis, to write in cifer, or other compendious fourme.

Excipit hos Iuno, id est, eximit, Juno taketh them out.

Comiter excipere aliquem, to welcome a man gentilly at his comyng.

Amplexu excipere aliquem, to imbrace a man louyngly whan he meteth hym.

Excipere hospicio, to entertayne, to lodge.

Excipere benigno vultu, to welcome with a louyng and frendely countenaunce.

Excipere auidis auribus, to here gladly.

Quid memoret, hinc excipiam, I wil stande here and herken what he saieth.

Labores magnos excipere, To take on hym great peyne and trauaple.

Excipere laudem ex re aliqua, to haue praise and commendacion by any thyng.

Excipere pugnam, To receyue the bryntc of the battaple.

Excipere rumores, to intende and hearken for rumours and tales.

Extremum spiritum filiorum excipere, To be with they chylderne at they departyng or death.

Verba alicuius excipere, to hearken and note a mans wordes, as he speaketh them.

Se in pedes excipere, to lyght on his feete.

Excipere incautum, to take vnwares.

Poplitibus semet excepit, he fell vppon his knees.

Excipere onera amicorum, to take on him the charge and burdeyn of his frendes matters.

Ventris onus auro excipere, to doo his easement in a vessell of golde.

Nominatim excipere aliquem, To except one by name.

Excipere, is a worde vsed of phisitions, whan dyuers thynges brased or beaten in a morter, be after tempered with some lycour.

Excipulus, li, mas. g. an instrument to take any thyng in, a weele to take fysshe, a snatche.

Excipuus, a, um, that is taken.

Excisio, cisas, áui, are, to croppe, to teare, to beate.

Excisio, ônis, and Excidio, ônis, fœm. g. a cutting out, a destroyng.

Excisus, a, um, gelded, cutte oute, cutte downe, destroyed.

Excito, excitas, áui, áre, to stere, procure, or encourage, to reyse vp, to erect and buylde.

A mortuis excitare, to reise from death to life.

Excitare somno, and De, é, or ex somno, to wake one out of his slepe.

Summam hominum admirationem excitare, to make men to meruayle greatly.

Excitare alicui amorem sapientiæ, to make a man desyre wysedome greatly.

Excitare ædificium, to erecte or reyse an house

Excitare ciuitatem, to reyse vp and buylde a citee.

Animum excitare, to be of good courage.

Excitare clamorem, to make a great shoute and crye.

Dormitantem excitare, to reyse vp one that is a sleepe, and by translacion, to quicken a negligent persone.

Fletum excitare, to make to wepe.

Cæspites excitare dicitur sus, when in roothyng with the snowte she casteth vp the earth.

Excitare memoriam alicui, to bryngc one in remembraunce.

Excitare risum, to make to laugh.

Excitare varios sermones, to cause men to reise diuers tales.

Excitare stomachum, to comfort the stomach and prouoke appetite.

Tempestates excitare, to stere vp great bustuousnesse and ruffelyng.

Opus excitare, to further the woorke, by settyng seruauntes diligentely to labour.

Ignem excitare, to blow the fier.

Foculum bucca excitare, to blow the fier with his mouth.

Excitare metum, to put in feare.

Sepulcrum é lapide excitare, to builde or make of stone.

Excitatè, vehemently.

Exclamátio, ônis, fœ. g. an exclamacion, a figure of rhetorike, expressyng sorowe, or indignacion.

Exclâmo, ani, are, to crye out, to call for alowde.

Furiosè exclamare, to crye out, as one were madde.

Aliquem nominatim exclamare, to call one by his name alowde.

Exclamat maximum, he cried out alowde.

Exclûdo, clusi, cludere, to shut out, to deliuer, to hatche egges, to make to appere, to refuse and refuse, not to admitte that is required.

Excludere ab hæreditate, to kepe one from his heritage.

Nullo loco excluditur, he is shutte out of no place.

Excludito mihi oculum, si dedero, put out this eye of myne, yf I geue it the.

Excludinur Cappadocia, he can not haue entrance into Cappadocie.

Excludi tempore, to be lette from doyngc a thyng by reson of the tyme.

Honore aliquo nominatim excludi, to be excepted by name from haupngc any office or auctoritee.

Exclusórius, a, um, that excludeth.

Exclûsus, a, um, shutte out.

Excó-

Excógito, aui, are, to fynde or inuente by thynkyng, to thynke earnestly.
Excogitatio, ônis, f. g inuention.
Excogitâtor, ôris, m. g. one that inuenteth.
Excogitâtus, a, um, inuented.
Excolo, excolis, cólui, cólere, to garnysshe or decke, to polysshe, to haue in reuerence.
Excolere officium, and Negligere officium, contrary.
Excolere animos doctrina, to garnysshe the mynde with doctrine.
Excompósito, in order appointed.
Exconsules, & exquæstores, reherced in the code of the ciuile lawe, doo signifie them (as Iuctatus affirmeth) whiche are or haue been in the dignitee of Consul, or Quæstor, but they dyd neuer minister in those offices, nor tooke the aduauntages therunto belongyng. Also they, whose fathers were Consuls or Quæstors, whan they were borne. which assertion is contrary to Petrus Crinitus, who in the xv. booke De honesta disciplina, saieth, that they were called by those names, after they had accomplysshed theyr ministration. which sentence Iuctatus sharpely reproueth Dispunctionũ li. 4.
Excoquo, excoquis, coxi, cóquere, to boyle a thyng vntyll it be dyre, to boyle throughly.
Excóquere malum alicui, to inuent or deuise some payll for a man.
Ignis excoquit vitium metalli, doth consume or purge awap.
Excório, aui, are, to pluche of the skynne or hide of a beast.
Excors, excordis, om. g. a foole or a man heretesse, without spirite or boldnesse.
Excreo, aui, are, to spette out with retchyng.
Excreátio, ônis, f. g. a spettyng out.
Excreábilis, le, that maie be auoyded with retchyng and spettyng.
Excrementa, orum, thynges of digestion expulsed, mopste or dyre, whereof there bee. ix. or dure, fleume, choler, melancoly, vrine, sweat, filthe of the nose, spettill, milke.
Excrésco, crévi, crescere, to growe out, or to growe muche.
In altum excrescere, to growe vp hygh.
Excrétus, a, um, of Excresco, well growen.
Excrétio, onis, f. g. is the superfluitee of excrementes, beyng in the body.
Excrétum, ti n. g. of Excerno, the refuse or offall of any thyng tried or syfted out.
Excribo, looke Exscribo.
Excruciábilis, le, woorthie to be tourmented.
Excrúcio, aui, are, to tourment greatly.
Excruciatur vicem meam, he is verate sorie for my myschaunce.
Excruciat eam animi.
Filij causa cœperam me excruciare animi, I beganne to tourment and vexe my mynde for my soonnes sake.
Excubiæ, arum, fœm. g. plu. nu. watche as well by daie as by nyght.
Agere excubias, to watche.
Habere excubias, to haue a watche.
Excubitor, ôris, m. g. he that watcheth.
Excúbitus, us, m. g. a watche.
Excubo, excubas, cúbui, âre, to watche, as they whiche in battayle or in the garde of a prynces persone doo.
Excubare in muris, to watche vpon the walles.
Pro foribus excubare, to watche at the doore.
Excubat laurus ante limina, a laurell tree is planted before the gate.
Excubare animo, to be watchefull and haue an attentiue mynde on a thyng.
Excubare & vigilare pro aliquo, To take hede and shewe all diligence for a man.
Excubário, ônis, f. g. watchyng.
Excúdo, excúdi, and after Probus, excúsi, excudere, to beate or strike out. sometyme to fynde out with studie, to prynte, to hatche.
Vt primum silicis scintillam excudit Achates, As soone as Achates had stryken fyre out of the flynt.
Cæræ excudunt apes, the bees make wax.
Excúdere oua, idem quod éxcludere oua.
Excudere opus aliquod, to make a woorke, also to prynte a mans woorke.
Excúsor, ôris, ma. gene. a maker of potes and pannes. also a prynter.
Exculco, aui, are, to treade out or wyppe out.
Exculcátus, a, um, troden out. also out of vse.
Verba exculcata, woordes out of vse.
Exculpo, psi, pere, to graue or intaple images. also to geat any thyng by hearyng of one.
Exculpere oculum, to thrust out ones eie.
Exculpere ex marmore, to engraue in marble.
Exculpere nidos gallinarum, to make hennes nestes in a walle.
Vix exculpsi, vt diceret, I coulde scant get hym to tell it.
Exculpere verum, to geat out the truthe of a matter.
Excultus, a, um, garnysshed, adorned.
Excúrio, aui, are, to put out of cõpany or court.
Apollonium ideo excuriauit, quia nihil habebat, therfore dyd he put Apollonius out of the courte, because he had nothyng.
Excúro, aui, are, to dresse a thyng curiously.
Excurátus, a, um, dressed or handled diligently.
Excuratus victus, meate curiously dressed.
Excuratus homo, a galiarde fellowe.
Excurro, excurri, or excucurri, currere, to renne out of a place, to make inuasions, or breake into the ennemies landes, to make an inrode, to assaute enemies in battayle.
Excurrit oratio, whan one maketh digression.
Excurrit insula, the plande is extended.
Deberis mihi decem aureos, & quod excurrit, ye owe me ten crounes and odde money.
Summa excurrens, a broken summe, wherein is odde money.

Ex-

Excurrens in meridiem planicies, a playne fielde extendyng towarde the southe.

Excursio, ônis, f. g. a digression in speakyng, a skirmishe in warres.

Excursiones inuicem facere, to make skirmyshes and inuasions one vpon an other.

Excursor, ôris, m. g. a currour.

Excursus, a, um, that whiche is ouerrunne or passed ouer.

Excursus, us, mas. ge. a course, where one passeth his boundes, a goynge from the pourpose.

Excusabilis, le, that whiche maie be excused.

Excusatius, with more pardon, more tollerable.

Excusatória epistola, a letter of excuse.

Excuso, aui, are, to excuse.

Excusatum me volo, I woulde they shoulde holde me excused.

Excusare aliquem apud alterum, or alteri, to excuse one man to an other.

Excusatum habeas me, holde me excused.

Excusares mare, aut ambiguos flagis, You shoulde take for your excuse the sea, or the vncertayne windes, nowe blowyng in one coste, nowe in an other.

Oculorum valetudinem excusauit, He layde for his excuse that his eies were sore.

Excusatio, ônis, f. g. an excuse.

Accipere excusationem, to admitte ones excuse.

Afferre excusationem, to laye an excuse for ones selfe.

Temporis excusatione vti, to excuse him selfe by the tyme.

Non habet excusationem stultitia, foolyshenesse is not to be taken for any excuse.

Excusor, ôris, m. g. a pynter. also a maker of potte or pannes.

Excusatè, tollerably, without faute, without offence.

Excusè, exactely.

Excussorius, a, um, that shaketh of, or shaketh out.

Excussores equi, flinginge or gambaldynge horse.

Excussores tritici, wynnowers of corne.

Excussorium cribrum, a rangeyng sieue. also a course boulter.

Excussus, a, um, shaken of, chased out, exampned, searched.

Excutio, excutis, cussi, tere, to shake, to chose, to weigh or consider, to examyne, to serche or inquire diligently, to put awaie.

Excutere clauum lapide, to beate out an prons pynne or naple with a stone.

Excutere equitem dicitur equus, when the horse casteth a man from his backe.

Excutient tibi istam verborum iactationem, They wyll make the leaue these proude and boastyng woordes.

Excutere ignem, to strike fyre.

Excutere feras cubilibus, to chase or hunte wylde beastes out of their dennes.

Excutere mentem, to make madde.

Excutere oculos alicui, to pull ones eyes out of his head.

Pacem excusserat orbi, He set all the worlde in an vproze. or he troubled the whole worlde with warre.

Excutere rationem, to examyne an accompte or rechenyng.

Excutere seueritatem veterem, to put away the seueritee and rigour that one hath vsed in tyme passed.

Genus alicuius excutere, to examine of what stocke or kynred a man is descended.

Excuti patria, to be chased or dryuen out of his countrete.

Vires hæreditatis excutere, to examyne and trye out diligently the value of ones heritage.

Excutere debitorem, to value ones goodes, and to examine whether he be able to pay his deptes or no.

Excutere aliquem, to robbe one, to shake one out of his clothes, to searche one whether he haue any thyng about hym.

Excutere iugum, to shake of the yoke.

Excutere lachrymas alicui, to make the teares come out of ones eyes, to make one wepe.

Excutere vomitum, to make one to spue.

Excussi grandine, beaten with haile stones.

Excutere cerebrum alicui, to dasshe out ones braynes.

Excutiunt cerebrum tua dicta, Thy woordes doe beate out my braynes, or trouble my wyttes.

Exdecimo, aui, are, to tythe out.

Exdorsuo, aui, are, to breake the backe bone.

Execeſtides, one, of whom for his immoderate goyng on pilgremage, grew a prouerbe.

Execo, execas, aui, are, to cut, to cut out.

Execare pestem reip. to dispatche or ridde a most pernitious membre of the common weale.

Execrabilis, le, detestable, horrible. sometyme harde.

Execratio, ônis, f. g. an execration or cursyng, a vowe, wherin one betaketh hym selfe to the deuell, yf he doe the thyng.

Execratus, and Execrandus, a, um, detestable.

Exécror, aris, ari, to curse, to detest.

Exéctio, ônis, f. g. a cuttyng of.

Exectus, a, um, cut out, cut of, gelded.

Filius exectus, a chylde cut out of his mothers wombe.

Executio, ônis, fœ. g. an explopting or dooyeng of a thyng.

Exêdô, exedis, or Exedo, exes, êdi, êdere, to eate as a woorme or a sore dooeth, to eate vp, to gnaw, to consume.

Quid te futurum censes, quem assidue exedent? what cale shalt thou be in thynheft thou, whome they shall continually eate out of house and home?

Angor

Angor illum exeſt, anguiſh of mynde conſumeth hym, or maketh hym ppne awaie.

Exedra, exedræ, fœm. ge. a place full of ſeates for philoſophiers or learned men to ſytte and diſpute in. alſo a parloure, or other plate, wher a bedde ſtandeth.

Exegemáticus, a fourme of ſpeakinge, where the poete onely ſpeaketh.

Exegéticon, idem quod Expoſitiuum, vel enarratiuum, by the whiche one expoundeth or declareth a thyng.

Exemplar, âris, neu. g. a perſone or thyng conteynyng an example to folowe or eſchewe, and Exemplum, is the example it ſelfe. As the eloquence of Tullye, is Exemplum, and Tullye hym ſelfe, is Exemplar. Alſo it is an example, wrytten out of a copy. ſometyme for Exemplum, a thyng to bee folowed or eſchued. ſometyme the one is vſed for the other: oftentymes they bothe doo ſignifie an example, where one thyng is compared with an other.

Exemplare, idem quod exemplar.

Exemplárium, rij, n. g. an example or copie.

Exemplum, pli, neu. gen. an example to folowe, eſchue, or bee ware of, a copye, a paterne, a preſident, a counterpaine, an open execution or punyſhement dooen to the feare of other. alſo a ſimilitude, a thyng brought in for the proofe or declaration of a matter. Alſo a thyng that hath been dooen afore tyme.

Sine exemplo tempora, ſuche tymes as neuer hath been ſeen afore.

Si meum eſſet exemplum, If I hadde geuen the example fyrſt, or yf it had been dorn fyrſt by me.

Quod ad exemplum eſt? what maner of fellowe is he? whom dooeth he reſemble? whom is he lyke?

Capere exemplum, looke Capio.

Nullo exemplo aliquid facere, To dooe that was neuer dooen before.

Imitari exemplum alicuius, to imitate an other in his dooeyng.

Ad illud exemplum fit, it is done euen accordyng as you ſay.

Nocet exemplo magis quàm peccato, He dooeth more harme by gyuyng an euill example to other, than by committyng the offence.

Præbere exemplum, to geue an example.

Non tibi exemplo ſatis ſum? Ware not you take a good example by me? or am not I a ſufficient example for you?

Nullo exemplo aliquid facere, to doe a thing ſo as neuer man dyd before.

Malo exemplo facio, I dooe a thyng to the euyll example of other.

Vno exemplo ne omnes vitam viuerent, that all men ſhoulde not lyue after one ſorte or faſhion.

Exemplum teſtamenti, a coppe of a mannes wylle.

Miſi ad Cæſarem eodem exemplo literas, I haue ſente letters vnto Cæſar after the ſame ſorte, or hauyng the ſame tenoure and effecte.

Animale exemplum, a paterne taken of a thyng that is alyue.

Exempla edere, or exempla facere in aliquo, To punyſhe any body openly, to the example of other.

Exempla edi, and exempla fieri in al quem, To bee punyſhed openly, to the example of other.

In quem exempla fient? who is that, that ſhall be punyſhed to the example of other?

Dii te malis exemplis perdant, God ſende the a wycked ende to the example of other.

Exempli cauſa, or exempli gratia, For a proofe of this matter, or for a more manyfeſt declaration of this thyng.

Singularis exempli iuuenis, a yonge man of ſuche vertue and towardneſſe, as there is fewe lyuyng agayne.

Rariſsimi exempli vxor, a wife of ſuche vertue as be but fewe.

Futuros ſub exemplo præmonere, to warne them that ſhall come after, by the example of them that haue been before.

Subiicere aliquid in exemplum, To adde a thynge for an example or declaration of the matter.

Sunt inter exẽpla qui. &c. wryters haue made mention of ſome, whiche. &c.

Eſt in exemplis, it is brought in of wryters.

Exémptilis, le, that which maie bee taken awaie, or taken out.

Exémptio, ônis; fœm. g. an exception, a takyng awaie.

Exemptor, ôris, maſ. g. one that taketh awaie. one that dyggeth ſtones out of a quarrie.

Exemptus, a, um, exempte or priuileged, taken awaie.

Exemptus eſt rebus humanis, He is dead.

Exemptus pœnæ, diſcharged of punyſhement. eſcapyng punyſhement.

Exéntero, aui, are, to pull out the gardyſche or guttes of a thynge, to drawe a fyſhe. And by tranſlation, to cut or pyche ones purſe.

Exenteror miſer, I am tourmented wretch that I am.

Exeo, exiui, ire, to goe out, to iſſue, to byde out, to ende, to be deliuered, to be paſt, to be deferred.

In memoriam exire, to bee in remembraunce.

Exit in fabulam, it is made a tale.

Exit de poteſtate, he is beſyde hym ſelfe, he is not able to gouerne hym ſelfe, he is in ward or vnder a gardian.

Exire domum, to go out of the houſe.

Mane dum ad te exeo, tary vntyll I come forth to you.

Ea dictio exit in, a, That worde endeth in, A.

Exire ære alieno, to come out of debte.

Vt tandem é tot miſeriis exiremus, That ones we myghte bee delyuered from ſo many miſeries.
Exire ex animo, to go out of ones mynde, to be forgotten.
Vt in altitudinem exeant, That they maye growe vp in heyght.
Nec dum exierat inducíarum dies, The daye of the trewſe was not yet as than paſſed.
Exire in herbam aut radicem dicitur granũ, To ſpringe vp, or to growe to a rote.
Exierunt libri, bookes were publyſhed or ſette abrode.
Nihil non conſyderatum exibat ex ore, there came no woorde out of his mouthe but with great conſideracion and aduiſement.
Exire in prælium, to aſſaye fooythe, and geue battaple.
Exire é vita, to dye.
Noſtra licet vita ſupra mille annos exeat, although we lieue aboue a thouſand yeres.
Manéque exire ſepulchris, and the dead bodies to go out of theyr graues.
In vulgus exierat cum dixiſſe, It was reporred or publyſhed abrode among the people, that he ſayed.
In tertium diem probationes exierunt, The proues of the mattier were deferred vnto the thirde daie.
Exire obuiam alicui, to goe fooythe to meete with one.
Exire tela, to eſchewe and auoide dartes and quarelles that be hurled.
Quum mea ſors prima exiſſet, whan my lot was fyrſt taken out.
Exéquiæ, árum, f. g. plu. funeralles, whiche are doone in the buriall of any perſon.
Carere exequiis, to be buried with out ſolemnitee of funeralles.
Exequias celebrare, to kepe a ſoléne funerall.
Cohoneſtare exequias, to bee at ones funerall or buriyng.
Exequiis rite ſolutis, after all ſolemnitees of the funerall were duely finiſhed and done.
Exequiális, le, that belongeth to a funerall.
Exequio, aui, are, to execute the funeralles.
Exéquor, équeris, éxequi, to doo or execute, to accomplyſhe or finiſhe. ſometyme to declare or expreſſe. alſo to punyſhe.
Exequi mortem, to dye.
Exequi ſermonem, to ſpeake.
Quid primum exequar? What ſhall I fyrſt doe, or goe in hande with?
Æternitatem éxequi, to contynewe for euer and euer.
Conſilium alicuius éxequi, To folowe ones counſayle, to doo as one aduiſeth vs.
Exequi delicta, to punyſhe offences.
Ney prò modo omnia delicta exequebatur, Neyther dyd he punyſhe all offences as they were woorthie.
Exequi funus, to be at ones interement.
Incœpta éxequi, to doe that one hath begonne.
Subtiliter numerum éxequi, to caſt or compte.
Exequi procurationem, to doe the parte of a procter.
Exequi egeſtatem, To ſuſteigne and abyde pouertee.
Exequi fugam, to flee.
Funus exequi, to kepe a funerall.
Exequi imperium heri, to doo his mayſters commaundement.
Exequi iniurias, to reuenge iniuries & wronges dooen to vs.
Iter exequi, to go a iourneie.
Laudes eius exequi longum eſſet, it were long to recite and numbre vp the prayſes and commendations therof.
Sedulo munera ſua exequentur, they ſhall doo theyr duetees diligently.
Quæ vix verbis exequi poſſum, Whiche thynges I can ſcantely expreſſe and declare in woordes.
Exequi ius ſuum, to purſue his ryght.
Negotium exequi, to explayte a matier or buſyneſſe.
Exequûtor, ôris, ma. gen. one that executeth or doeth a thyng.
Exequûtus, a, um, executed, dooen.
Exerceo, cui, ére, to exerciſe, to doo, to practiſe, to tyll, to occupie, to vexe, to kepe frõ idelneſſe and reſte, to ſette on warke, to vſe, to gette or wynne. ſometyme to dryue out of the houſe.
Exercere ætatem, to lyue.
Exercere Bacchanal, to bee dronke.
Principem exercere, to practiſe the office of a prince or gouernour.
Exercere diſcordias & ſimultates, to haue debate or contencion.
Exercere ſumptus, to get theyr expenſes.
Exercere tellurem, to occupie and tyll well the grounde.
Exercere cantus, to ſinge.
Exercére choreas, to daunſe.
Arcu ſe exercere, to ſhoote.
Quædam exercere feſtis diebus licet, It is laufull to doo ſome thynges on the holy daie.
Ad quam cõmunes exercemus amores, whiche woman bothe of vs doo loue.
Exercere iracundiam, to ſhewe his wrathe, to vſe crueltee.
Exercere artem, to vſe his ſcience.
Exercere patris nomen, To vſe to dooe lyke a father.
Exercere populationem, to robbe or ſpoile.
Exercere pugnos in aliquem, to buffette one with his fyſtes.
Exercere quæſtionem, to examine.
Exercere regnum, To dooe lyke a kynge, to plaie the kyng.
Exercere vectigalia, To gether and leuye tributes.

De aliqua re exerceri, to be troubled aboute a thyng.

Exerceri ad morem philosophorum, to bee exercised after the facion or maner of philosophiers.

Hic me exerceo, here I am occupied, or here I exercise my selfe.

Exercio, ui, ere, to amende or repayre.

Exercitátio, ônis, f. g. exercise, vse, or custome.

Exercitâtor, ôris, m. g. one that exercyseth.

Exercitátrix, the feminine.

Exercitio, ônis, f. g. the takyng of money for carryng or conueighyng by shyppe.

Exercitâtus, ta, tum, exercysed, vexed, disquieted.

Exercitatus & agitatus curis, vexed and tossed with cares.

Exercitium, n. g. exercise or vse.

Exercito, aui, are, to exercise.

Exércitor, ôris, masc. gener. one that exercyseth or tradeth vp men in any feate. Also a factour, or he that hath all the profyte for conueighyng of wares in a shippe, whether it bee the owner, or one that hath hyred it.

Exercitorius, a, um, belongyng to exercitor. loo he there.

Exércitus, us, mas. ge. an hoste of men of warre.

Exercitum conscribere, to gather an armie.

Exércitus, a, um, exercised, vsed in labour, wered, hardened, troubled, tossed in busines.

Exercitus in re militari, of great experience, or well practised in chiualrie and warfare.

Exercitus in agendis causis, muche practised in pleadyng of matters.

Exersitus multa lectione, a man that hathe read muche.

Exersitus rebus aduersis, one that hath bidden muche aduersitee and trouble.

Exero, éxeris, érui, érere, to go foorthe, to put foorth, to drawe out, as a man wyll drawe out a swoorde. also to lyft vp.

Fulgentem ex exerit ensem, And he drew out his bright swoorde.

Exerere vincula, to stryke of his gyues, or to take out of prison.

Quo caput exeratur, wherby his head may be put foorthe.

Exerere caput, to thruste vp the head. And by translation, to auaunce it selfe, to excell.

Cochleæ exerunt se domicilio, snayles creepe out of theyr shell.

Exerere linguam, to put out the tounge.

Exerere manum, to stretche out the hande.

Exerere uincula, to vnlose bondes.

Exerere mentis secreta, to tell or vtter the secretes of the mynde.

Phœbe vultus exerit, the moone appereth.

Exerto, aui, are, to shewe foorth abrode.

Exértus, a, um, shewed foorth, put foorth, taken foorth.

Exertum brachium, the arme put foorth, or shewed foorth.

Ensis exertus, drawne.

Exésor, ôris, m. g. one that eateth or consumeth.

Exésus, a, um, eaten vp, consumed, gnawen.

Exfilatus, a, um, stitched without.

Exfio, I pourge or clense.

Exfitus, us, m. g. a pourgeyng or clensyng.

Exfódio, éxfodis, exfodi, ere, to dygge out.

Exfundo, aui, are, to caste downe harde to the grounde.

Exgregius, a, um, for egregius.

Exgrúmo, aui, are, to come foorthe of an hys loche.

Exgurgito, aui, are, to take or caste out of the chanell or streame.

Exgurgitare argentum domo, to spende ones monete prodigally.

Exhæredátio, ônis, f. g. a disheritynge.

Exhæredâtus, a, um, disherited.

Exhæredo, áui, âre, to disherite.

Exhæres, édis, com. g. one that is disherited.

Exhæréssimus dies, the day that maketh the leape yere.

Exhalabília, such thynges as beynge sette to the fier doe breath out an exhalacion or fume.

Exhalátio, ônis, f. g. an exhalacion or fume that issueth out of the earthe.

Exhalâtus, a, um, breathed out.

Exhâlo, aui, are, to puffe out, to breath out, to sende foorth a breath or fume.

Animam exhalare, to die.

Lucem supremam exhalare, idem.

Exhalare crapulam, to digeste a surfette.

Vinum exhalare, idem.

Vapores exhalat terra, The earthe sendeth out vapours.

Exhaurio, ausi, ire, to drawe out cleane, to make emptie. By translation, to spend or consume, to pille or robbe, to take from one all that he hath, to wast. Sometyme for exequi, to dispatche or accomplyshe.

Exhaurire labores, to bestowe or spende labour.

Exhaurire poculum, to drynke vp all that is in the cuppe.

Exhaurire ærarium, to waste the commune treasure.

Exhaurit ægrum fluens aluus, the flux consumeth &c.

Exhaurire aliquem, to gette all his money from him.

Ciuitatem exhaurire, to send or put away all the inhabitantes.

Ciuitates bonis exhaurire, to pille and cleane take away &c.

Exhaurire dolorem, to sustayne or endure patiently.

Exhaurire hæredem legatis, to bequeath so many thynges to other, that the heyre hath nothyng lefte for him selfe.

Quum tantum laboris exhaustum sit, seeyng so muche labour is spent.

Ex

Exhaurire partem laudum alicuius, To take awaie parte of a mannes cõmẽdation or prayse.
Exhaurire mandata alicuius, To accomplishe and doo suche thynges as one hath committed to his charge.
Sumptu prouinciam exhaurire, to burdepne a prouince with expenses and charges.
Exhaurire sentinam furum ex vibe, by translation to ridde a company of naughtye packes and lewde persons out of a citee.
Sermone exhaurire solicitudines, with communication to put awaye carefulnesse, and trouble of mynde.
Exhaurire sibi vitam, to kyll hym selfe.
Exhaustum, ti, n. g. that is dooen or fynished.
Exhaustus, a, um, cleane emptied, pylled, spoyled and ryddc of all that one hath, consumed, spente, bestowed.
Opes exhaustæ, richesse consumed and spent.
Exhaustus, one that hath an emptye purse, or whose goodes be cleane consumed Periculi exhausta, perilles that a man hath passed and gone through.
Exhaustus est sermo hominum, men haue no more to saie.
Anno exhausto, the yere being ended.
Bella exhausta, finished, ended.
Exhebenum, ni, neu. g. a stone, wherewith golde smythes doo polyshe golde.
Exhedra, æ, f. g. looke exedra.
Exheribitio, ônis, f. g. a weedyng.
Exhéribo, aui, are, to pluche vp herbes or weedes.
Exherbandus est locus, the place muste bee weeded.
Exhibeo, exhibes, hibui, ère, to proffer, to sette abrode for all men to beholde, to exhibite, to come to shewe ones selfe.
Exhibére negotium, to putte to busynesse or trouble.
Exhibére rationes, to make an accompte.
Exhibere spectaculum, To make commune playes or triumph.
Exhibere alicui affectum parentis, To shewe hym selfe lyke a father to one: to beare a fathers affection towardes one.
Fidem ac benevolentiam exhibere, to shewe hym selfe faythfull and louynge.
Imperium exhibere, to haue the maystry, to beare a rule.
Se iudicijs hominum exhibere, to putte hym selfe to the iudgement of the people.
Iustitiam exhibere, to shewe his iustice.
Laborem difficilem exhibere, to put to great payne and trauayle.
Argutias alteri exhibere, to striue against one with subtilties.
Exhibere negotium, to putte one to busines.
Exhibere molestiam, to vexe or greeue.
Exhibere reum, whan the iuerie bryngeth in the man that he was bounde for personalty, and dischargeth hym selfe.
Exhibere alterum, to represent the fourme of an other man.
Rem saluam tibi exhibebo, I will warrant you your good saulfe agayne, I wyll make it good.
Vicem alicuius rei exhibere, to be in stede of an other thynge, to serue to the same vse.
Exhibitio, ônis, fœ. ge. an exhibition, a geuyng or deliuerance.
Exhibitus, a, um, exhibited, geuen, shewed.
Exhilarátio, ônis, f. g. a comfortyng.
Exhilarátus, a, um, comforted, made merye.
Exhilaro, aui, are, to coumforte or reioyce, to make merye.
Exhilarantur arbores, the trees be comforted.
Exhomologésis, sis, f. g. confession.
Exhórreo, and exhorresco, ui, ère, & scere, to feare horribly or with trembling.
Exhortátio, ônis, f. g. a stomakyng.
Exhortátor, ôris, ma. g. is he that encourageth one that fainteth or wareth slacke in doyng.
Exhortátus, a, um, that exhorteth. comyme passe sluelp, that is encouraged.
Exhórtor, âris, ari, to exhorte vehemently, to encourage or stomake, to cherysshe.
Exhortari canes, to chere the houndes.
Exhortari canes in aliquem, to sette the dogges on one.
Ciues exhortari in hostem, to encorage his contrey men against their enemie.
Equos exhortari, to animate, encourage, or stere vp horses.
Exhúbero, exhuberas, aui, are, to abounde. also actuelp, to make to abounde.
Exibilo, aui, are, to whystle or hysse a man out of the place.
Exiccátio, ônis, f. g. a dryng vp.
Exiccátus, a, um, dryed vp, thorough dryed. also without iuyce, vnpleasaunt.
Exicco, aui, are, to dry, to dryse thoroughly.
Exilare, idem quod exibilo.
Exigo, éxigis, égi, igere, to expelle or shut out, to dryue awaie, to put out, to chase awap somtyme for transigere, to passe, as one passeth the tyme, to experte, to trye or proue, to measure. also for extorqueo, to take by force, to exacte, to make satisfaction. also to require, to demaunde, to inquire, to dooe.
Exigere ætatem, to lyue, to leade his liefe, to passe his age.
Exigere annos, idem.
Exigere vxorem matrimonio, to be diuorsed, to put his wife from hym.
Exigere nomina, to cõpelle men to paye their debtes, to require debtes.
Exigere creditum, idem.
Exigere pecuniam, to demaunde money that is owyng.
Exigere supplicium ab aliquo, to punish one.
Exigere tempus, to passe foorth the tyme.

Tua causa exégit virum à se, For your sake the hath diuuen hir husbande from hir.
Venena suctu corporibus exigere, to sucke the venym out of mens bodies.
Exigere reges ex ciuitate, to expelle kynges out of the cittee.
Exigere aliquem honoribus, to deprine one of office or authoritee, to put or expell out of office.
Exigere lassitudinem é corpore, to put away werynesse.
Exigere vxorem, to put ones wyfe from hym.
Cuius causa hanc erumnam exigo? For whose sake doo I sucker or sustayne this peyne and trouble?
Exigere noctem, to passe the nyght.
Dare & exigere, contrary.
Iura debita policiti tori exigere verecunde.
Exigere pondus, to weygh, to trie the true weighte.
Exigere promissum, to demande and require that one hath promised.
Exigere tributa, to exacte tribute.
Necessitas exigit, necessitee requireth.
Hanc exigam à te operam, I will require of you one thyng, and that is this.
Exigere operam, to make a seruaunt doo his busyneste and labour, to require of a seruaunt his labour.
Exigere columnas ad perpendiculum, To proue and try whether the pillours bee made euen with the plumbe lyne.
Exigere ab aliquo veritatem, to force one to tell the truthe.
Exigere imperatam pecuniam, to leuie money that men were crassed to paie.
Exigere piacula, to constreigne one to make satisfaction for an offence by hym committed.
Mediam dies exigit horam, it is noone.
Exigere ferrum aut gladium, to thruste a sworde through one.
Exigere sues pastum, to dryue out the swyne to the fielde.
Hibernum mare éxigunt, they passe or trauell the sea in the winter.
Ad leges et institura nostra exigere, to measure and examine &c.
Exigere stylo, to expresse in wryting: Quintil.
Exigere interdum apud Cicer. pro Compensare.
Exigere de re aliqua, to reasone and dispute of a matter.

Exiguè, an aduerbe, signifiyng verey littell, hardly, nygardely, slenderly.

Exiguitas, âtis, f. g. littelnesse, smalnesse, slenderneste.

Exiguum, sometyme for exiguè.

Exiguus, a, um, littell, small.
Homo corporis exigui, a man of littell stature. Exiguus animi, of base courage.
Numerus exiguus, a small number.

Exilio, éxilis, ilui, ilij, and liui, lire, to go or hastily, or to leape out, to leape for ioye.
Exiliunt foras, he lepte quickely foorthe of the doores.
Exiluit é sella, he leapte out of his seate, or from his stoole.
Exilui gaudio, I leapte for ioye.

Exilis, exile, slender, small, leane, pyll fedde, vile of small value.

Exilitas, âtis, f. g. slenderneste, thinneste.
Copia et exilitas in dicendo, contrary.

Exiliter, slenderly, thynly.

Exilium, ilij, n. g. exyle, banyshment.
In exilium exigere, agere, depellere, ejicere, to banyshe, to sende in exile.
Ire et proficisci in exilium, to goe in exile or banyshement.
De exilio reducere, to call from exyle, or tourne store one agayne from banyshement.
Exilica causa, a matter ageynste them that be in exyle.

Eximiè, excellently, notably well, passyngly.
Eximiè vtilis, meruaylous profitable.

Eximius, a, um, excellent, pyched, singular, notable, passyng good, chosen out, great.
Eximia spe adolescens, a younge man of excellent towardenesse.
Eximius odor, a great and strong sauour.
Eximia forma, a singular fauoure, an excellent and meruaylous beautie.
Eximia velocitas, notable & passing swiftnesse.

Eximo, éximis, émi, ere, to take awaie, somtyme to dygge out, to excepte, to picke out of a great numbre, to deliuer, to discharge, sometyme to kyll.
Eximere actionem, to barre one of his action.
Eximere ex ærariis, where one hath his Quietus est in the Eschequer, or other lyke place, to discharge one vppon his accompte. Among the Romaynes it was to deliuer and quyte a citizen of the fine and penaltee set vppon him by the Censour, for his myssebehauiour.
Eximere ex reis, to acquite one of an offence, or to shew that the accusation, brought against one is not to be receiued.
Eximere noxæ, to release one of a trespasse committed.
Eximere in libertatem, to take out of seruitude and restore to liberte.
Eximere dubitationem, to put out of doubte.
Exime mihi hunc scrupulum, Solue me this doubte.
Eximere lassitudinem, to put away werinesse.
Eximere de vectigalibus, to exempte from paying tribute.
Vinculis aliquem eximere, to deliuer one out of prison.
Eximere ex culpa, to excuse, to shewe one not to be in any faute.
Eximere memoriæ, to put out of mynde or memoryy.

Eximere

Exime nomen de tabella delatoria, put my name out of the rolle.
Eximere ex obsidione, To deliuer from a siege.
Eximere lapides sub terrâ, To dygge stones out of a quarrie.
Eximere numero, to laie aparte, not to reckon or numbre.
Reum eximere, to quite a person accused.
Ex improuiso, looke ex.
Exin, from hensfoorth. Exinde, idem. afterwarde, from thense forth.
Exinânio, exinânis, iui, ire, to emptie, to bring to naught, to voyde, to take from one all that he hath, to robbe.
Exinanire aluum, to pourge the bealy.
Exinanire nauim, to vnlade a shyppe.
Exinanire vrinam, to make water.
Exinanire aliquem re, to pyll one of all that he hath.
Vastare atq; exinanire agros vectigales, To spoyle and robbe the landes, whereof cometh yerely reuenues to the common treasure.
Exinanitio, ônis, f. g. an emptying or voydyng, a purgeyng of the bealy.
Exinanitus, a, um, pylled, robbed, emptied, brought to naught.
Exinsilio, âui, are, to shewe or put forth.
Exinsperâto, vnlooked for, whiche no man hoped for.
Existimátio, ônis, f. g. suppose, an opinion, a iudgement that one hath conceyued of a thing. Comayne reputacion, estimacion, honour.
Dignitas & existimatio.
Homo magnæ existimationis, a man of great reputacion.
Colligere & parere existimationem, to come in estimacion and credite.
Amittere existimationẽ, to lese his reputatiõ.
Existimationi suæ consulere, to prouide and haue regarde to his honour.
Existimatione damnatus homo, He of whom men haue an yll opinion.
Existimationem suam committere alteri, to truste an other man in a mattier concernyng his honour or estimacion.
Existimátor, ôris, m. g. one that speaketh as he supposeth, and not as a master or instructour, a iudge of any mattier.
Existimo, aui, are, to trowe or suppose, to determe or iudge, to esteme, to thynke.
De alicuius ingenio bene existimare, to haue a good opinion of a mãs disposicion or nature.
Male existimare, contrary.
Vere existimare, to determe or iudge truely.
Ex euentu de alicuius consilio existimare, to iudge of a mans diuise or counsayle by that that foloweth of it.
Suis moribus alterum existimare, to iudge an other man by his owne maners.
Existimatur in probro, It is taken for a reproche. Existimatu facile est, a man may easyly iudge.
Existo, éxtiti, stere, to be, to appere, to rise or come of, to bee sette vp or aduaunced.
Et si hodie ab inferis existat Lycurgus, And yf Lycurgus shoulde this daie appere or rise from death to lyfe.
Existit ex hoc loco difficilis quæstio, there riseth out of this place an harde question.
Existat ille parumper cogitatione vestra, Do you ymagine or suppose a litle in your mindes, that he is aliue.
Summersus equus voraginibus non éxtitit, was no more seene.
Existet ex hac victoria tyrannis, Of this victory and cõqueste, there will aryse a tyranny.
Exitiabilis, le, deadely.
Exitiâlis, le, deadely, or that causeth deathe or mischiefe.
Bellum exitiale, a deadely and cruell warre.
Exitiósus, a, um, idem quod Exitialis.
Exitium, ij, neu. ge. deathe or mischiefe, destruction, A pitiouse or cupll ende.
Esse exitium alicui, to be ones deathe or destruction.
Exitus, éxitus, m. g. a going forth, an issue, an end
Exitus hominis, the deathe of a man.
Exitus anni, the later ende of the yere.
Exitus orationis fuit, The conclusion of his woordes was this.
Aqua exitum reperit, the water hath founde an issue.
Quem exitum res habitura sit non liquet, It is vncertayne what ende or issue the mattier wyll haue.
Contigit exitus quem optamus, it is come to passe as we would haue it.
Imponere exitum rei, to make an ende of a thynge.
In exitu est, it is at an issue or ende.
Ex iure manu consertum vocare, was a forme of contencion for lande in this wyse. The demandaunt saied before the iudge to the tenaũt, The lande, whiche is in ẏ, is mine, I saye it is myne by the lawe, I require the, trie it there with me accordyng to the lawe. The tenaunt answered: from whens thou hast requyred me to trie with the by the lawe: thens I doo ekscoones appeale. Than went they together to the place in demaunde, to the entent, that they shoulde bryng with them a tyrfe of the same ground to the iudge in the citee, and in his presence to remande and answere as for the whole lande whiche was in contencion.
Exiûro, aui, are, to auowe with an othe.
Exlex, lẽgis, com. gene. he that liueth without lawe, or out of lawe, lawlesse, an outlaw.
Exloquor, eris, qui, to speake as it is, to speake all, to speake out.
Exobsecro, aui, are, to make great desyre.
Exocculto, pi, tum, ly.

Exoche, ches, f. g. excellencie.
Exoculâtus, a, um, whose eies be put out.
Exoculasso, aui, ssere, idem quod Exoculo.
Exóculo, aui, are, to put out ones eies.
Exodia, órum, n. g. were wanton topes mynte with verses in a comedie or enterlude.
Exodium, ij, n. g. a songe at the ende of a comedie or enterlude, also the ende of a mattier.
Nullum eius rei exodium inueniebam, I founde no ende of that mattier.
Exolesco, exolui, and léui, lescere, to leaue growynge. sometyme to growe myghtyly, to ware olde, to growe out of vse.
Exoléum fauor, his fauour or estimacion is lost.
Instituta exolescunt, ordinaunces growe out of vse, and be littell esteemed.
Exolêtus, a, um, that is paste growyng. Also olde or out of vse.
Verba exoleta, woordes out of vse.
Authores exoleti, olde authours not vsed to be redde.
Reliqui domi virginem exoletam, I lefte at home an olde maiden.
Exolêtus, ti, m. g. a man abused against nature.
Exoluo, ui, ere, to vnbynde, to paie all clerely, to recompence or geue in rewarde, to deliuer, to loose.
Suspitione exoluere, to deliuer from suspitiõ.
Exoluere religione, to discharge from bowe or conscience.
Exoluere æs alienum, to paie ones dettes.
Exoluere grates, to requite a good turne.
Exoluere idem, to fulfyll that one hath promysed, to kepe promyse.
Exoluere promissum, idem.
Exoluere pœnas, to be punished.
Pœnas morte exoluere, to be put to death for any trespase.
Exoluere aliquem solicitudine, to deliuer one from carefulnesse and trouble of mynde.
Vota exoluere, to accomplysshe and fulfyll that one hath vowed.
Nodum alicuius erroris exoluere, to shewe the verate trueth of a mattier.
Exolûtus, a, um, lewsed, vnbounde, vndooen.
Exómida, æ, f. g. a garment without sleues, a taberde or chymere.
Exómphalon, that swelleth in the nauill by disease or inflammacion.
Exónero, aui, are, to discharge, to vnburden, to vnlode.
Exonerare ventrem, to do ones eaisement.
Plenas colos exonerare, to spinne of all that was on the distaffe.
Exonerare aliquid in alicuius aurem, to tell one a thynge in his eare.
Exonerare aliquem metu, to put one out of feare that he is in.
Exonerare fidem, to accomplysshe and fulfyll ones promyse.
Exopinato, as one looked for.
Exópolis, he that dwelleth in the suburbes of a towne or citee.
Exoptábilis, le, to be wysshed for or desyred.
Exoptâtus, a, um, earnestly wysshed for, greatly desyred.
Exopto, aui, are, to desyre feruently, or to wisshe.
Exorábilis, le, he that is easye to bee entreated in a mattier.
Nulli exorabilis, he that no man can entreate.
Exorabulum, li, n. g. a traicte fourme of desyrynge or askyng a thyng.
Exorâtus, a, um, earnestly desyred, intreated.
Exórbeo, es, bui, ere, to sup vp, and by translacion to sustayne or endure.
Exorbére difficultatem, to endure or abyde great payne.
Exorbére sanguinem ciuilem, to suppe the bloude of citesins, to delyte in the cruell death of his countrey men.
Exórbito, aui, are, to go out of the tracte or carte lose, or to go out of the ryght waie.
Exorbo, aui, are, to make one that he can not see.
Exorcismus, an adiuration or coniurynge.
Exorciso, aui, are, to adiure or coniure.
Exorcista, an adiurour or coniurer.
Exordesco, looke Exsordesco.
Exordine, without ceassyng, in order one after an other.
Exórdior, iris, iri, to begynne.
Exordiri facinus, to begyn a great enterpris.
Exórdium, ij, n. g. a begynnyng.
Exordium dare, to begynne.
Ducere exordium ab aliquo, to take his begynnyng of any thyng.
Exórior, exoriris, or exóreris, iri, to be bore, to appere out, to ryse as the sonne dooeth, to inuade, to assaut or set vpon, to be recreated.
Dies exoritur, the daie appeareth.
Discordia exoritur, discorde ariseth.
Fama exoriebatur, a rumour or bruit dyde spryngе.
Exorta sunt hæc omnia à te, all these thynges beganne at you, or you beganne all these mattiers.
Exóritur illi color, he wareth ruddie.
Rex exortus est Lidyæ, he became kynge of Lidya.
Exornátio, ônis, f. g. a deckyng or trymmyng, garnishyng or apparaylyng. Also a colour of Rhetorike.
Exornâtor, ôris, m. g. he that decketh.
Exornâtus, æ, um, garnysshed, rychly apparailed.
Exorno, aui, are, to garnysshe or make fayre, to apparayle rychely, to ordeyne, sometyme to make foule or out of apparayle.
Exornare, et deformare, contrary.
Exornare se honestis moribus, to garnysshe him selfe with honest maners.
Exornare aliquem magistratu, to geue a man an office.
Exôro, aui, are, to indute or obtayne by desyre, wise hertly, to entreate, to bring to cõformitee.

Exorare veniam, to aske pardone.
Non queo lachrymam exorare, I can not geue a teare out of mine eies by any meanes.
Exorare aliquid ab aliquo, and Exorare aliquem, to obtain of one a thing that he desireth.
Sine te exorem illis hanc veniam, let me obtayne this pardone for them, or forgeue them this offence for my sake.
Exorare filiæ patrem, to entreate the father to forgeue his daughter.
Vnum exorare vos sinite nos, let vs obtayne of you this one thyng.
Mihi exorandus est, I muste entreate hym.
Exors, ortis, om. g. out of felowshyp, not partaker, sometyme excellent.
Exors culpæ, fautelesse, not gyltee.
Exors amicitiæ, not partenet of the frendeshyp or amitee.
Exors matrimonij, he that was neuer maried.
Exorsa, ôrum, begynnynges.
Exorsus, a, um, that begynneth.
Exorsus, us, m. g. a begynnyng.
Exortiuus, a, um, that pertayneth to rysyng, on the eest parte.
Exortus, a, um, that is risen, or that appeareth.
Exortus, us, m. g a rysyng.
Exortus solis, the sonne rysyng.
Exos, ossis, om. g. without bones.
Exossatus, a, um, that hath the bones plucked out or broken.
Exosculatio, ônis, f. g. a kyssyng.
Exosculor, aris, ari, to kysse.
Exosso, aui, are, to bone or pluche out bones, to breake the bones of any thyng. Also to pull out the tryng of a lampreye.
Exostoses, the superfluitee of certaine bones.
Exosus, a, um, actiuely, that hateth or detesteth, passiuely, that is hated or detested.
Exoticus, a, um, straunge, that cometh or is brought out of an other countrey.
Expalleo, lui, ere, to be pale.
Expallio, aui, are, to robbe one of his garmentes, to pluche ones garment from his backe.
Expalpo, aui, are, to grope out, to gette or obtayn a thyng by layre meanes or by flatterie.
Expanditor amnis, a riuer that floweth abrode.
Expando, di, ere, to spreade out, to open as a flower doeth, to displaye.
Expandere dictis, To open, and declare in woordes.
Expandunt alas aues, The byrdes open and spreade abrode theyr wynges.
Expango, panxi, ere, to ordein or appoynct, to set or fasten.
Expapillo, aui, are, to make naked to the paps.
Expassus, a, um, opened, spreade abrode.
Expatior, aris, ari, to wander, to walke abrode, to spreade farre abroade.
Expatiatus, a, um, that spreadeth, walketh, or roweth farre abroade.
Expato, expatras, aui, are, to come abrode or forth to an open place.
Expatro, expatras, aui, are, idem quod patrare.
Expaueo, expaues, paui, ere, and Expauesco, scere, to be sore afrayde or abashed.
Expauere nouitatem, to feare the noueltee or straungenesse of a thyng.
Ad tumultum aliquem expauere, To bee afrayd whan one hereth of tumultee or rumbling.
A primo conspectu eius expauescunt, They were afrayde as soone as they sawe hym.
Expectate, the aduerbe.
Expectate venis, thou comest euen as I wold haue the.
Expectatio, ônis, fœ. g. desyre of thynges certayne and loked for, expectacion.
Plenus sum expectatione, I greatly longe or desyre to knowe.
Contra omnium expectationem, contrary to the expectacion of all men, otherwyse than any man looked for.
In summam expectationem adducere, to put one in great expectation, to make one looke earnestly for a thyng.
Crebras expectationes sui facere, concitare, commouere, to make men looke oftentymes for his commyng.
Summa est expectatio tui, They doe greatly desire you, and loke for your commyng.
Dare alicui expectationem conuiuij, to make one hope or looke for, &c.
Vereor vt amicorum expectationem sustinere possem, lest I be not able to satisfie or fulfill the expectation. &c.
Decipere expectationem aliculus, To frustrate ones expectation.
Mouere expectationem, to make desyrous.
Vincere expectationem omnium, To doe more than any man dyd looke for.
Expectãtus, a, um, desyred, taried & looked for.
Expectati parentes, were yll parentes & worthy to bee hated, as who saieth, their death were daiely to be desyred.
Charus & expectatus.
Expectatissimæ litteræ, letters verie greatly desyred.
Ante expectatum, sodenly, sooner than men looked for.
Expecto, aui, are, to tarie or abyde lookyng for, to obserue or take heede, to hope, to feare leste a thyng will folowe.
Expecto quid velis, I long, or I would fayne knowe, what your will, mynde, or pleasure is, or elles I desyre to knowe what you would.
Expectabo dum venit, I will tarie and loke for hym tyll he come.
Expectemus Tartessiorum regis ætatem, let vs hope to lyue as long as euer dyd the kynge of the Tartessians.
Diem ex die expectabam, I dyd loke styll euery daie.

Mortem alicuius expectare, to hope euery houre for ones death.
Expectare te arbitror, I thynke you do delyre to knowe.
Ad menſem Ianuarium te expecto, I looke for you at Januarie.
Expectoro, aui, are, to put out of the breaſte or ſtomache.
Expeculiatus, he that hath nothyng of his owne.
Expedio, expedis, iui, ire, to delyuer, to ſpede, to carye out, to declare or ſhewe, to tell ſhortly and in fewe wordes, to rydde or diſpatche, to bringe one out of trouble, ſometyme to appoynte, to bringe forth. Alſo to make preparaunce or proviſion, to ſet in a readineſſe.
Expedire manus, to holde vp his handes.
Expedire virgas iubet, he commaundeth rodes to be brought forth.
Expedire ſe omni moleſtia, to diſpatche and rydde hym ſelfe of all griefe and trouble.
Aditum expedire, to make a way to enter.
Cauſam alicuius rei expedire, to ſhewe the cauſe of anything.
Merces expedire, to ſet abrode wares.
Nodum expedire, to vndoo a knot, to diſſolue a doubt, to diſpatche an harde matter.
Pecuniam expedire, to fynde meanes to gette money.
Expedire rem ſuam iudicibus, to proue his matter good before the iudges
Ad bellum expediti iubet, he commaundeth them to be in a readineſſe for the warres.
Expedite rerum capita, declare the principall poynctes of the matter.
Expedire ferrum, to draw a ſworde.
Nomina alicuius expedire, to contente ones creditours, to pay his dettes.
Expedias me hinc, te rogo, I praye you diſpatche me that I may be gone.
Expedi panem, bringe forth bread.
Aggere et crateibus aditus expediunt, they make wayes to goe to it &c.
Alimenta arcu expedire, to gette his liuynge by his bowe: to kill ſuche beaſtes as he will eate, with his bowe.
Expedire ſe ad prælium, to addreſſe & make hym ſelfe in a readyneſſe to battayle.
Si ita expedit, If it bee needefull or expediente ſo to be doen.
Expedire rationes, to diſpatche matters.
Expedire rem, to declare the matter plainely.
Expedire ſe cura, to diſcharge hym ſelfe of care. Expedi, tell on quickely.
Expediba, for Expediam.
Expedit, ſignifieth alſo It is expedient, or neceſſarie. It is come to paſſe.
Expeditum erat, it was expedient, or rather, It was a ſhorte and redie waie.
Expedite, quickely, eaſily, without cumbrance.
Expedite nauigare, to ſayle forthe proſperouſely and with a good wynde, Expeditio, ônis, ſ. g. a ſettyng forth towardes battaile, an expedition, a viage.

Expeditus, a, um, delyuered, diſpatched out of buſyneſſe, redie, in a readineſſe, not letted, eaſye, ſoone prouided and gotten.
Expediti milites, ſouldiours in lyght harnes.
Expeditus & paratus, one well appoynted, and in a redyneſſe.
Expeditum facere, to rydde out of buſynes and trouble.
Expedita excuſatio, a redie excuſe.
Expeditum iter, free paſſage in a mans iourney without combrance.
Expediti legio, expeditus exercitus, Expedita ſubſidia, wherin be ſouldiours in light harnayes, and eaſy to be remoued.
In expedito poſitum, In a redyneſſe, ready to be doen.
Expeditus labor, an eaſie labour.
Expeditior via ad honores, a more readie waie to honour and aduauncement.
Expello, expuli, lere, to expell or put out, to driue awaie.
Expellere in opus, to driue out to worke.
Expellere bonis & fortunis omnibus, to put men from theyr gooddes and all that euer they haue.
Expellere ſententiam, to reiecte a ſentence or opinion.
Expellere aliquem regno, to dryue one out of his kyngdome.
Expendo, di, ere, to ponder or weygh, to conſyder, to examyne ſtreyghtly, to paie truely, to ſpende money.
Expendere ſcelus, To be punished iuſtely for his offence.
Pœnas expendere, to be punyſhed.
Expendere & æſtimare, to ponder and weighe.
Expendere aurum auro, To weyghe golde with golde.
Expendant ſe ipſi, let theym conſyder theymſelues diligently.
Expenſum, ſi, n. g. or Expenſa, æ, expenſe, or diſpenſe, coſte.
Expenſum ferre, to regeſtre in a booke what money one hath delyuered or layed foorthe.
Expenſum ferre, is not onely ſpoken of layeng out money, but alſo of other workes, as, Mentio facta eſt de legione ea, quam expenſam tulit C. Cæſari Pompeius, mention was made of the legion, whiche Pompei ſaied he had delyuered to Cæſar.
Creditores ſuæ negligentiæ expenſum ferre debent, The creditours ought to beare the loſſe, whiche is happened by their negligence.
Codex acceptι & expenſi, a reckenyng booke.
Ne tu expenſum mancipibus feras, That you ſhould not impute or write it amõg your goodes.
Fortunæ omnia expenſa, omnia fortunæ feruntur accepta, what ſo euer good or euyll chaunceth, is imputed wholely to fortune, or they fate, that fortune is cause of it.

Expensus, a, um, weyghed, pondered, consyderd.
Expergefácio, gefacis, fēci, fácere, to awake one out of his sleepe.
Expergefáctus, a, um, waked out of sleepe by an other.
Expergefio, factus sum, fieri, idem quod Expergiscor.
Expergiscor, eris, experrectus sum, sci, to awake.
Cum sole experrectus, he that awaketh at the sonne ryssyng.
Somno experrectus, wakyng out of sleepe.
Expérgitus, a, um, waked by an other.
Expergo, experréxi, expergere, to waken. idem quod Expergefacio: Expergor, the passyue.
Experge te, awake.
Experge te facias, idem.
Expergo, sperſi, gere, to sprincle with licour.
Experrectus, a, um, that awaketh hym selfe, quickened, sterred.
Expériens, éntis, an adiectiue, that trieth or proueth.
Experientissimus homo, a man of great experience, or that vseth to proue or trye matters with great diligence.
Experimentum, ti, n. g. an experiment or proofe.
Capere experimentum, to proue or trie.
Experiéntia, æ, f g experience.
Expérior, iris, iri, to attempt or assaie, to proue, to trie by the lawe.
Experiri ad arborem cornua, to trie his hornes against a tree.
Experiri in paruis, To assaye in litteli matters of small value.
Experiri re ipſa, to proue the thyng in deede.
Experiri certamen, to fyght, to ioyne battail, to assay the hasarde of battaile.
Experiri fortunam, to put in aduenture and proue what wyll chaunce.
Experne, in Plautus is vsed for Experiri.
Experiri iure, To trie for once ryght by the lawe.
Vires suas experiri, to assay what he is hable to doe.
Extrema experiri, to vse the extreame remedi, to put all in hasarde
Ne experior quanti facias vxorem, I trye the how muche thou doest loue thy wyfe.
Experium est, it is tryed by experience.
Ad experiunda vina, To assaie whether the wynes be good or no.
Expers, ertis, om. g. without any parte, lackyng experience, rude, ignoraunt.
Expers doloris, without paine.
Expers lucis, without lyght.
Expers motus, neuer dyngne.
Expers corporis, that hath no bodie.
Ne quis expers tuæ liberalitatis hæret, That euery man myght be partetaker of your lyberalitee.
Expers consilij, that knoweth not what to doe.
Expers linguæ græcæ, that hath no knowlage in the greeke tongue.
Expers amoris gnati, not knowyng that his sonne was in loue.
Laboris expers, that dooeth not labour and trauayle.
Expers fama & fortunis, he that hath losse his credite and all his goodes.
Expers metus, or metu, with out feare.
Expersus, a, um, syrong with syrour or weate.
Expertus, a, um, attempted, taught by experience, that hath proued or tried.
Expertus loquor, I speake that I haue experience of.
Sagittæ expertus, a good archer.
Experta prodigus, wee shew thynges that be proued and tried.
Expertæ industriæ homo, a man whose diligence is well knowen and tried.
Expes, om. g. without hope.
Expeténdus, a, um, worthy to be desyred.
Expetesso, sere, to demaunde or desyre.
Expetisco, scere, to desyre vehementlp.
Expetitus, a, um, desyred greatlp.
Expeto, éxpetis, tiui, or ti, ere, to desyre muche or couete, to happen, to wylle, sometyme to take, to passe ouer. Also to pursue or indeuour to gette, as,
Mirum quin tuum ius meo periculo expetam, it is meruayle but I shall endeuour to get thy ryght with my great daunger. It is also to redounde or tourne.
Nam deum non par videtur facere, delictum suum, suamq; culpam expetere in mortalem vi finat, it is not syttyng for god to do, that he shoulde suffer his offence or faulte to redounde to a mortall persone.
Expetam alterum præ te, I will desyre an other rather then the.
Audire expeto, I greatly desyre to heare.
Expéritur vnguentis radix aspalathi, It is greatly desyred and sought for to make ointments.
Expetit tuam ætatem illud facere, thyne age requireth to doe it.
Expetunt multa iniqua, many vnhappy thynges chaunten.
Primum hoc abs te expeto, syrste of all I desyre this thing of you.
Expetere ab aliquo auxilium, to require one to helpe hym.
Pœnas ab aliquo expetere, To require one to make satisfaction.
Expiábilis, le, that maie bee purged, or for the whiche satisfaction maie be made.
Expiamentum, ti, neut. gene. satisfaction, or a purgation
Expiátio, ônis, f. g. a purgeyng or satisfiyng.
Expilatio, ônis, f. g. a robbyng or pollyng.

Ex-

Expilâtor, ôris, ma. g. a robber, whiche leaueth nothyng behynde hym.
Expilâtus, a, um, ppiled, robbed.
Expilo, aui, are, to robbe or polle, to take by extoztion or decepte, to spoyle.
Expingo, expinxi, ere, to peynct, to peynct out.
Expio, expias, âui, âre, to pacifie god with satisfaction or prayer, whan we thynke he is displeased, to purge by sacrifice.
Tua scelera dq immortales in nostros milites expiauerunt, god hath punyshed our men of armes for thyne offences.
Expiare iniuriam, to make satisfaction or amendes for iniurie that is done.
Luxum populi expiare solent bella, warres are wont to chastise and punishe the riotous liuyng of the people.
Cædem cæde expiare, with one murder to make satisfaction for an other.
Expiratio, ônis, f. g. a breathyng out.
Expiro, aui, are, to breath out, to die, to geue vp the gost.
Expirare animam, to die.
Flammas expirare, To caste or send out great flames.
Expirante libertate, whan the libertie began to decaye and perysshe.
Expirare auras, to cast foorth exhalations or vapours.
Expiscor, âris, ari, to seeke for fysshe, to fysshe out or serche diligently, to get or wynne.
Tandem nescio quid ab eo expiscatur, finally I can not tell what he winneth or getteth by hym, or what he trusteth to haue of hym.
Expisso, aui, are, to make thycke.
Explanate, playnly, manifestly.
Explanatio, ônis, f. g. a declaration, or makynge manifeste.
Explanator, ôris, m. g. one that interpreteth or maketh playne a thynge.
Explanâtus, a, um, declared, expouned.
Explâno, aui, are, to make plaine, to declare, to make manifeste, to expounde.
Explanare verba, to pronounce distinctly and playnely.
Explanto, aui, are, to pull vp that whiche is set.
Explendesco, scere, to appere clerely, to shine, to shyne bryght.
Explco, éui, ére, to fyll, to fulfyll, to fyll vp. Also to satiate, to comforte, to make perfect, to accomplysshe, to content, sometyme to make emptie or voyde.
Exple animum curis, put all care out of thy mynde, or fill thy mynd with cares.
Explere aliquem scribendo, To satisfie and fyll one with writynge letters to hym.
Explere animum suum, to doe his owne pleasure, to fulfill his owne mynd.
Explere animum alicui, to cõtent ones mind.
Explere annos ducentos, To lyue full two hundred yeres.
Supremum diem expleuit, he died, he ended his laste daie.
Susceptum munus explere, to fulfill a charge that one hath taken vpon hym.
Numerum explere, to fyll vp the numbre.
Famem explere, To satisfie or slynte ones hunger. Ipse wpse Sitim explere.
Libidinem suam explere, To do and accomplisshe his pleasure.
Rimas explere, to stop and fyll vp chynkes.
Quod summam talenti attici expleret, which was of the iust value of a talent.
Explebilis, le, that maie be fylled.
Explementum, ti, n. ge. a thyng that fylleth vp.
Explétio, ônis, fœm. gen. a fyllynge, a makyng perfect.
Explétus, a, um, fylled vp, perfecte, accõplished, atchiued, finished. also replenished.
Spectando explétus, satisfied, filled.
Dapibus expletus, filled, replenished.
Explicabilis, le, that may be declared.
Explicate, playnely, manyfestly.
Explicatio, ônis, f. g. an vnfoldyng, a declaration, an expoundyng.
Explicator, oris, m. g. an expounder or declarer.
Explicatrix, the feminine.
Explicâtus, us, mas. g. a declaration, an vnfoldynge.
Explicatus crurum, a castyng of the legges one from an other.
Explicâtus, a, um, declared, made manyfest, vnfolded, dispatched, brought to passe.
Explico, explicas, plicui, and aui, are, to extende, to vnfolde, to displaie, to declare, to tell or shewe a thynge playnely, to deliuer, to ryddo out of trouble, to bryng to passe, to dispatche or make an ende of.
Explicat ensem, he drayweth out his swoorde.
Explicat & cœnas vnica mensa duas, he maketh two suppers at one table.
Explicat caudam pauo, doth sette abroade his tayle.
Cursum explicare citatis gradibus, to renne apase.
Explicat vmbram porticus, maketh abyode shadowe.
Explicare promintiam cinctam periculis, to deliuer.
Explica æstum meum, putte me out of this fantasie or doubt.
Explicant acies, agmen, vel exercitum imperatores, whan they in an open fielde sette their souldiours in arape, redy to battayle.
Explicare alas, to spreade or open the wingers.
Explicare naues, to set shippes in an order redy to fight. Explicare epistolam, to open a letter.
Iter commode explicui, I haue prosperously atchieued and made an ende of my iourney.
Explicatum tibi rem dabo, I wyll dispatche the mattier for you.
Da operam, vt te explices, endeuour to ryd and and dispatche your selfe out of businesse.

Explicare, & expedire negotium aliquod, to ryddo and dispatch a matter.
explicitus, a, um, vnfolded, declared, made an ende of, dispatched.
explicitius, the comparatiue.
explódo, plósi, ére, to drive out with noyse or re bukes, or clappyng of handes.
explorate, for a surette, for a certaintie.
explorato, after it was serched or tryed.
explorátor, óris, m. g. an espie or privie ser chour.
explorátus, a, um, well knowne, or surely knowne.
Exploratum est mihi, I know surely, I am sure. Exploratum habeo, idem.
Explóro, aui, are, to bewail with exclamacion, to assay, to serche out diligently, to proue by diligent serchyng, to be advised, to dyp vp, to exhaust, to espie.
Amenta explorare in digitis, to assay, to proue, to trie &c.
Animum alicuius explorare, to proue ones
mynde, to vnderstande to know it.
Taurus cornua explorat in truncis, doth as say or proue his hornes. &c.
Explorare fugam, to serch and looke for a meane to flee.
Gustu explorare bonitatem panis, to taste, to assay &c.
Exploratum dicere: to speake that he hath tri ed to be true.
Explosus, a, um, convicted or reiected, dryuen out of the place with clappyng of handes.
Expolio, aui, are, to spoyle or robbe.
Expólio, éxpoli, ívi, líre, to polish well and cleanly, to make smoothe and trymme, to make perfite.
Expolire vnguium scabritias, to trimme and make smooth.
Nihil omni ex parte perfectum natura expo
liuit.
Expolítio, onis, f. g. a polyshyng, a trymmyng.
Expolítus, a, um, polished, made smoothe, cleans ly and trymme.
Expóno, sui, ere, to expounde or declare, to put a thynge out of that, wherin it is. sometyme to caste out a thynge, to the entente that it may perysshe, to sette foorth at aduenture, also to spende, to set foorth to be shewed, to laye out, sometyme to paye money.
Exponere in terram copias, to land an armie.
Exponere fœnum in sole, to lay abrode heye in the sonne.
Exponere vasa, to set abrode plaate on cups
bourdes to be seene.
Exponam vobis ex memoria, or memoriter,
I wyll declare to you by herte.
Verbosius exponere, to declare a thynge in many wordes.
Expopulátio, ónis, f. g. a wastyng or spoilyng.

Expópulor áris, ari, to waste, to spoyle, to rob.
Expórrigo, exi, ere, to extende or stretche out, sometyme to prolonge.
Exporrigere frontem, to shew a merie coun tenaunce, to be pleasant and iocunde.
Exportatio, onis, a bearyng out, a conueiyng or caryng out. also exile or banishment.
Exporto, aui, are, to beare or carie out.
Exportauit Syracusis magnam vim mellis, he caried out of &c.
Exposco, posci, poscere, to aske or desyre ins stantly.
Exposcere deos aliquid, to desyre a thyng ins
stantly of the goddes.
Exposcere aliquem, to require one to be delys uered into our handes to be punished.
Expóniti, children caste out to be perished.
Expositio, ónis, f. g. an exposicion or declara cion of any thyng difficult or hard to be vnder standed. also castyng out of a thyng to har darde or daunger.
Expósitus, a, um, that is layed out to the intente it shoulde perishe. also set out, set abroade, or pen to all chaunces, in daunger, declared.
Exposita prouincia ad prædandum, a pros
uince in daunger to be spoyled and robbed.
Expósitus solibus locus, a place open vpon the sonne.
Expostulátio, ónis, f. g. a quarell or complaynt.
Expostulátor, tóris, m. g. he that complayneth of wronge dooen by his frende.
Expóstulo, aui, are, to complayne, to make a quarell, to chyde with one for a thynge, to des maunde, to requyre, to wyll.
Cum eo ne iniuriam hanc expostulem? Is it best that I chide with hym, or take hym vp for this displeasure or not?
Minaciter expostulare, to take one vp sharps ly for a thyng that he hath dooen.
Expostulare computationem, to demande a rechenyng.
Expótus, a, um, idem quod Epotus.
Expresse, manyfestly, playnly.
Expresse dicere, to speake properly and to the poynct.
Expressio, ónis, f. g. a strenyng.
Expressus, a, um, expresse, manifest, openly made,
taken by force.
Expressa senatus consulta, ordinances obtei ned of the senatours by force.
Expressa sceleris vestigia, manyfest and ap parant tokens of the mischiefe.
Expressa in cæra imago, the lykenesse of a thyng printed in wax.
Exprimo, éxprimis, expressi, mere, to presse or wrynge out, to make to doe by force, to cons straine, to wrynge out by force, to expresse, to portray, to drawe. also to resemble, to be lyke, to deserue.
Deinde per lintea exprimuntur, Afterwardes they be streyned thorough a clothe.

Erip

Eripiendum atq; exprimendum eſt, it muſte be taken and wreſted away by force.
Vi lachrymas exprimere, to wreſt out teares violently by rubbyng the eyes.
Expreſsit hoc neceſsitas patribus, neceſſitie conſtrayned the ſenatours to doe this.
Exprimere confeſsionem culpæ, To conſtreigne one to confeſſe that he hath offended.
Exprimere riſum alicui, to make one to laugh whether he will or no.
Vocem exprimere, to make ſpeake by force.
Exprimere & reddere aliquem, to doe ſyke one.
Similitudinem palatij hæc domus exprimit, is lyke.
Exprimere per aures ſanguinem, To make bludde come out. &c.
Exprimere per linteum, to ſtreine thyough a linnen cloth.
Exprimere animam, To pelde the gooſte and dye with great difficultee.
Exprimere effigiem alicuius, To portraie or drawe out ones picture.
Exprimit ſimilitudinem, it reſembleth or is lyke.
Verſibus exprimere, to princte or deſcribe in verſes.
De græcis litteris ad verbum exprimere, to tranſlate out of greke worde for worde. likewiſe Verbum de verbo.
Vt græci magis exprimunt, as the grekes doo expreſſe or ſignifie more naturally.
Exprobratio, onis, a reproche, a twitynge, an vpbrayding.
Exprobro, exprobras, aui, are, to vpbrayde, to twyte. Alſo to laie in reproche. ſometyme to reiecte or diſalowe.
Non exprobrandi cauſa dicam, I wyll not ſpeake it for any reproche vnto you.
Catonis orationes exprobrant calleum aprugnum, Catos orations reproue or diſalow brawne.
Expromiſſor, ôris, m. g. he that promiſeth, or is ſuretee for an other.
Expromitto, ſi, ere, to promiſe or vndertake for an other.
Exprômo, prompſi, ere, to ſhew forth or open, to ſpeake, to vtter.
Exprómere nummos, to take out money.
Audatius exprômam, I wyll vtter or ſpeake more boldely.
Expromitur, is ſhewed, or is imployed.
Expromptus, a, um, taken out, ſhewed abrode.
Opus eſt mihi tua exprompta memoria, I muſt needes haue the ſhewe thy good and redy witte.
Expugnábilis, le, preignable, that maie bee wonne by aſſaut, that maie be vanquiſhed.
Expugnátio, ônis, ſ. g. conquerynge or wynnyng.
Expugnâtor, ôris, m. g. a conquerour.
Expugnâtor pudicitiæ, a ruffian.

Expugnâtus, a, um, conquered, won by aſſaut, ouercome.
Expugno, aui, are, to wynne by aſſaut or force, to conquere, to ouercome, to vanquiſh.
Expugnare aurum alicui, by tranſlation, to get money from one by craft and gyle.
Expugnare carcerem, to breake priſon.
Expugnare fortunas patrias alicuius, to thruſt a man wrongfully from his heritage, and take it to hym ſelfe.
Expugnare propoſitum alicuius frequenti expoſtulatione, by great ſuite and intreatyng to cauſe one to leaue his purpoſe.
Expugnare pudicitiam puellæ, by gyftes and other meanes to wyn a mayden to lewdneſſe.
Expulſim, with often beatyng out.
Expugnare pertinatiam alicuius, to ouercom, to vanquiſhe. &c.
Expúlſio, ônis, fœm. gen. an expellyng or putting foorth.
Expulſo, aui, are, to meue a thyng with muche thruſtyng, or to put awaie.
Expúlſor, ôris, ma. g. one that expelleth or putteth awaie.
Expúlſus, a, um, expelled, thruſt out, put awaie.
Expultrix, the feminine.
Expûmo, aui, are, to caſte out fome.
Expuncti, were ſouldiours diſcharged or put out of wages.
Expungo, punxi, ere, to put awaie or remoue, to put out a woorde or ſentence in writyng, with prickyng it rounde about, after the auncient maner, ſometyme to priche, to croſſe out.
Expungere nomen debitoris, To put a debtours name out of his booke, to croſſe the tale of his dette.
Expungere rationes, to heare and examyne an accompte.
Stipendiis expungere militem, to put a ſouldiour out of wages, to croſſe hym out of the rolle, wherein their names were written that receyued wages.
Expungere nõnunquàm ſignificat pungere.
Expungor, eris, gi, to be cancelled and put out, or raſed. It is alſo ſpoken of iudges when they are put out of cõmiſſion. it is alſo to quitte as,
Munus munere expungitur, one good turne is quitte with an other.
Expuitio, ônis, ſ. g. a ſpettyng forth.
Expuo, expuis, ui, ere, to ſpet out, to voyde out, to caſt out.
Cum illam expueret ex animo miſeriã, when he woulde caſte that trouble and carefulneſſe out of his mynde.
Expurgátio, ônis, ſ. g. a purgeyng or makyng cleane of a thyng.
Expurgo, aui, are, to make all cleane.
Expurgare ſe, to declare him ſelfe innocent of that whiche is laied to hym, to purge or cleenſe ones ſelfe of a faute.
Expurgationem habere, idem.

Ex-

Exputo, ẽputas, aui, are, to shreade or loppe a tree, to cutte cleane awaie. Also to vnderstande perfectly, to conjecte, to imagine or deuyse in ones mynde.

Exputesco, putrui, scere, to rotte.

Exquilię, ârum, a mountayne in Rome, where marche was kepte.

Exquilius, or Exquilinus mons, the same mountayne.

Exquilius, or Exquilinus, a, um, of the hyll Exquiliæ.

Exquiro, exquisiui, ere, to serche or trie out, to enquire diligently, to demaunde or aske.

Intro exquire, sine ita, vt ego dico, go aske within, whether it be as I saie or not.

Quod meum consilium exquiris, in that you desyre to knowe my counsayle or aduise.

Exquirere facta alicuius ad antiquæ religionis rationem, to examyne.

Omnia uerba alicuius sententiæ exquirere, to examine and ponder .&c.

Exquirere a stirpe, to enquire of a mattier euen from the verie roote or begynnyng.

Exquirere iudicium alicuius, to demaunde ones iudgement.

Exquirere mores alicuius, to make enquirie of ones maners.

Precium alicuius rei exquirere, to demaunde and aske the price of a thynge.

Exquisitè, and Exquisitim, exquisitely, with muche studie and diligence.

Exquisitus, a, um, exquisite, muche serched for, picked, singular, excellent, deintie, fyne perfite.

Exquisito opus est, it muste be looked for.

Exquisitæ epulæ, deintie meates.

Iudicio exquisito vir, a man of exquisite and ripe iudgement.

Exquisita doctrina philosophus, of syngular or excellent learnynge.

Exquisita ingenia, excellent, fine and picked wittes.

Exradico, aui, are, to plucke vp by the roote.

Exrogo, exrogas, aui, are, with a newe lawe to abrogate parte of the lawe that was made before.

Exsacrifico aui, are, to offer in sacrifice.

Exsanio, looke Exanio.

Exsaturo, aui, are, looke Exaturo.

Exscribo, scripsi, ere, to wipte out, sometyme to represent and be verie like.

Exscensus, us, m. g. a clymbyng out, a commyng foorthe, as one cometh foorthe of a shippe to lande.

Exscindo, looke Excindo.

Exscribilo, looke Exibilo.

Exsicco, looke Exicco.

Exsignare, idem quod Signare.

Exsordesco, sordui, scere, to become fylthy and dishonest.

Exspumo, looke Expumo.

Exsugo, looke Exugo.

Exta, ôrum, n. g. plu. the inwardes, as the hert, the lyuer, the longes or lyghtes, and the splene.

Extabesco, tabui, scere, to weare or pyne away, to become drie, to consume.

Extabuit opinio, that opinion is worne awaie and come to naught.

Extemplo, foorthwith.

Extemporâlis, le, sodaine, vnpremeditate.

Extemporâlitas, âtis, f. g. a promptnes or readinesse without meditacion or musyng.

Extemporâneus, a, um, sodaine, with out musyng.

Extemporaneus, & Extemporalis oratio, an oration or mattier written without studie.

Extendo, di, ere, to extende, to stretche out, to continue, to prolonge, to make longer.

Extendere in proceritatem, to stretche vp in heyght.

Extendere consulatum, to prolonge ones consulshyppe.

Extenderem preces nisi, &c. I woulde entreate you longer, saueyng. &c.

Ibi suam ætatem extendebat, there he dyd bestowe and spende his tyme.

Extendere se supra vires, to assaie or enterprise more than he can doe.

Extenditur in maiorem partem noctis subsolanus, continueth or abydeth .&c.

Extendere agros, to gette great landes, or to enlarge his landes greatly.

Extendere famam, to make his fame be spred farther abroade.

Extendere iter, to make a great iourney.

Extendere se magnis itineribus, to aduaunce and marche forwarde by great iurneys.

Vitam extendere, to prolonge ones lyfe.

Extensus, and Extentus, a, um, stretched longe.

Extentus sonus, an hyghe and shrill soune.

Extenta itinera, great iourneys.

Extento aui, are, to stretche often.

Extentare vires, to thrust out strength in doyng of a thyng.

Extenuatio, ônis, fœm. g. a makyng of a thyng lesse than it is, a diminishyng.

Extenuâtus, a, um, made thynne, or slender, made lesse.

Extenuo, aui, are, to minishe or make litle, to eleuate, to make leane.

Extenuare & augere, contrarie.

Extenuare in puluerem, to make in pouder or duste.

Vehementer causam extenuare, to diminishe and make a mattier lesse than it is.

Extenuatur cibus dentibus, the meate is chawed with the teeth.

Extenuatur, it wareth lesse and lesse.

Extenuare corpus, To make the bodie leane and slender.

Extenuare census ciuis, in lessynge to sette a citesen at a lower summe.

Exteraneus, a, um, looke Exterraneus.

Extercorâtor, ôris, m. g. one that carieth awaie dounge, a goung kermer.
Extercoro, aui, are, to cleanse, to auoyde dounge or ordure.
Exterebro, aui, are, to perce through. also to inserche curiouselp.
Extergeo, tersi, êre, to wype cleane.
Extergo, tersi, ere, idem.
Exterminâtor, ôris, m. g. one that destroyeth or kasteth downe.
Exterminâtus, a, um, banysshed, dryuen out, put awaie.
Extérmino, aui, are, to dryue out or pul downe, to banysshe, to dryue awaie.
Exterminare, & Reuocare, contrary.
Exterminare ex hominum communitate, to cast out of the felowshyp or companie of men.
Exterminare morbum, to put awaie sickines.
Externâtus, a, um, astonied, mate beside him selfe.
Externo, aui, are, to make madde.
Externus, a, um, whiche is not of that countrey, a straunger, an alien, outward.
De parte externa, outwardly, on the out syde.
Externa bona, outwarde worldes goodes.
Extero, éteris, triui, ere, to beate out, also to whet or grynde, to rubbe harde.
Exterere literam, to put out a letter.
Exterere messem to thresh corne.
Exterráneus, of an other countrey. Also borne or brought forth before the tyme.
Exterreo, uí, ere, to put in feare.
Extérritus, a, um, put in a great feare.
Exterus, a, um, that whiche is not of this countrey or place, straunge, comen farre of.
Extersus, a, um, scoured, made cleane.
Extexo, texui, ere, to vnweaue.
Extillo, aui, are, to dryop out.
Extillare lachrymis, to weepe, to consume with weepyng.
Extimeo, and Extimesco, timui, êre, and extimescere, to haue great feare, to dread muche.
Extimulâtor, ôris, m. ge. one that encourageth or stereth vp men to a thyng.
Extimulâtus, a, um, pricked, stered vp.
Extimulo, aui, are, to pricke, to stere vp, to encourage.
Extimus, éxima, um, the outwardmost or laste.
Extinguo, xi, ere, to put out, properly the fyre, or any thyng that bourneth or is lyght. sometyme it signifieth to slea or destroye, to abolyshe: sometyme to make a distinction, or diuersites betwene thynges.
Extinguere animam alicui, to kyll or straungle to deathe.
Extinguere bellum, to stynte the warre.
Extinguere familiaritates, to breake and dissolue the loue and familiarites that is betwene men.
Extinguere formam, vtterly to disgrace the fauour and beautee of one.
Extinguere furorem alicuius, to suppresse and slake the furie of any persone.
Extinguere infamiam suam, to stynte the euyll fame or yll name that goeth on hym.
Morbo extinguere, to make to dye of a sickenesse.
Obliuione extingui, To bee forgotten and cleane out of mynde.
Leges extinguere, To abolyshe and destroye lawes.
Vestigia vrbis extinguere, to so subuerte and destroie a citee, that no signe of it may remayne.
Extinctio, ônis, fœm. ge. a puttyng out, a destroyng, an abolyshyng.
Extinctor, ôris, m. g. a destroier, one that endeth or maketh an ende of a thyng.
Extinctor patriæ, a destroier of his countrey.
Extinctor coniurationis, he that suppresseth a conspiracie.
Extinctor belli, one that stinteth the warre, or that maketh therof an ende.
Extirpatio, ônis, fœm. gene. a pluckyng vp by the rootes.
Extirpo, aui, are, to pluche vp by the rootes.
Extirpare humanitatem ex animo, to pluche all humanitee and gentylnesse out of a mans mynde.
Extirpare vitia, to roote vp vice and naughtynesse out of the common weale.
Extíspex, tíspicis, m. g. a soothsayer by lookyng in the inwardes of beastes.
Extíspicium, ij, n. g. the crafte of soothsayyng.
Extántia, æ, f. g. apperance aboue the other.
Exto, éxtiti, âre, neut. to be, to remayne, to be apparant, to appere aboue other.
Extat capite solo ex aqua, he appereth with his head onely aboue the water.
Ita vt extra terram paululum extent, so that they appere a littell aboue the grounde.
Extat é terra sesquipede, it is aboue the grounde a foote and an halfe.
Extare & eminere.
Extant libri, orationes, studia &c. id est, supersunt. Extare & intercidere, contrary.
Extat litteris, It is lefte in wrytyng.
Non extat alius author doctrinæ eius, there is none other authour of that learnyng.
Dum id extabit, as long as that shal continue.
Extollo, éxtuli, tóllere, to aduaunce or prayse, to extolle. also to lyft vp, to prolong, to magnifie.
Extollere liberos, to bryng vp children.
Extollere indignationem, to shewe hym selfe to be greatly displeased.
Extollat nuptias, Let hym deferre or prolong the mariage.
Extollere onera in iumenta, to lifte vp packes on beastes backes, to lode.
Extollere in maius, to make a thyng more than it is.
Quem virtus éxtulit, eundem inuidia deprimit, whom vertue hath auanced &c.

Ex-

E ANTE X.

quco, tórsi, quêre, to fynde out the trouth tourmentes, to take awaye by force, to the awaie, to wrest from one by vyolence.
o to put out of ioynte.
orare & extorquere, contrarie.
primere & extorquere.
rorem alicui extorquere, to make one to ew and hate the errour that he was in.
xtorquere veritatem: to extorte the trueth, make one to confesse the truth.
xtorsisti, vt fatear, you forced me to con ſe it.
xtorsit articulum, he hath put a ioynete out his place.
ctor, ôris, m. g. one that taketh from men violence, an extortioner.
ôrtis, ris, com. gen. is he that is made to by, or that is driuen out of his countrete. al
o one that is excommunicated.
rtus, a, um, constreigned by tourmentes.
lso wrested from one by violence.
ra, without, except, saupng.
Extra telorum iactum, out of arrowe shotte, out of gunshotte. It signifieth out of daunger,
e in sauftegarde.
Extra idcum, in earnest, without mockyng.
Extra precium est, it can not be valued or este med.
extra culpam esse, not to be in the faute,
to be fautelesse.
Extra modum, aboue measure.
Extra ordinem, out of order.
Extra ostium, without the doores.
Extra turbam colloqui, to commune togyther apart, from other company.
Extra te vnum, onely you excepted, saupng you onely.
Extra ducem paucosq; præterea, Saupnge the capitayne and a fewe other beside.
Extra, an aduerbe: as,
Extra, similè est amigdalis, on the vtter parte or vttr almondes.
Extra quam, for Nisi.
Extra quam, si quid factum sit. &c. Excepte it be so that a thyng be doen. &c.
Extractio, ônis, f. g. a drawyng out.
Extractor, ôris, m. g. he that draweth out.
Extractorius, a, um, that hath the power or na ture to drawe out.
Extractus, a, um, drawen out by force.
Extraho, extrahis, xi, here, to drawe out, to pro longe, to deferre, also to ridde or dispatche.
Extrahere telum é corpore.
Extrahere scelus in lucem, to discouer, to re ueale.
Extrahere ex animis religionem, to pluche out of.
Extrahere diem, to put of a mattier from daie to daie.
Extrahere certamen, to deferre battayle.
Extrahere iudicium, to deferre iudgement.
Quomodo me inde extraham nescio, I can not tell howe I should geat my selfe frō thens, or out of that busyneſſe.
Extrahere in annum rem aliquam, to pro longe or delaie a mattier a whole yere.
Extrahi rem in suum aduentum iussit, he com maunded the mattier to be prolonged vntyl his comyng.
Extráneus, a, um, strange, of an other countrey.
Extraneus hæres, he that is not the very heire.
Extraordinárius, a, um, extraordinarye, contra ry to the ordinance, contrarie to the order or fa cion commonly vsed.
Extrárius, a, um, that is not of the same howse or kinrede.
Extrémitas, âtis, f. g. the extremitee or vttermost
parte.
Ora & extremitas regionis, the frontiers and boundes of &c.
Extremò, lastely, in the ende, finally.
Extrémus, a, um, sometyme signifieth the begin nynge or the first, sometyme the ende or the last.
sometyme the woorste. also farre of.
Extrema linia, is spoken where a man woulde signifie a thyng to be laste, and after al other.
✠ Extremis digitis attingere, to touche with the tynger toppes, is spoken, where it is signi fied, that a man hath vneth touched or felte a thynge.
Ab extremo narrare, to declare and shewe e uen from the begynnyng.
Extremus labor, the last labour.
In extremo spiritu, euen to the tyme of his deathe.
Hálitus extremus, the last breath.
Hora extrema, the hour of death.
Extremam manum addere, to finish, to make perfecte.
Extrema nox, the latter ende of the night.
Extrema puerítia, the latter ende of his chyld hode.
Supplicium extremum, death.
Durare in extremum, to continue to the ende.
In extremo tertio libro, in the latter ende of the thirde boke.
Ad extremum, in the verate toppe or ende.
also at the last, finally.
Litteræ, quibus in extremis erat subscriptum, a letter, in the ende wherof it was writen or subscribed.
Extremum tunicæ, the hemme of a quote.
Extrema hyeme apparuit, it appeered in the latter ende of winter.
Extrico, tricas, ui, are, to deliuer or shake of a ny thyng that letteth.
Extricare se, to rid him selfe out of busineſſe.
Extricare syluestrem agrum, to [illegible] and bushe
a fielde from trees, thorues, and briers.
Nummos vnde vnde extricare, to gette money from one or an[illegible] how so euer it be.
Extringo, xi, gere, idem quod stringo.
Extrinsecus, outwarde, on the out syde, from without.

without.

☞ Extripode, whan we ſpeake of thynges, whi the are verate true, and not to be doubted, as it were ſpoken of goddis owne mouth.

Extritus, a, um, rubbed out.

Extro, aui, are, to go out.

Extrórſum, from without.

Extrûdo, ſi, ere, to thruſt out, to dryue out.

Extrudere ædibus, and Extrudere foras, to thruſte out at the dooꝛes.

Quam primum fac vt extrudas, See that you ſende hym fooꝛthe with all ſpeede, oꝛ as ſoone as you maie.

Extrudere aliquem, To make one to departe in haaſte.

Extrúctio, ónis, f. g. a buildyng vp.

Extructus, a, um, buylded, made, garnyſhed.

Extruo, éxtruis, uxi, ere, to oꝛdeyne, to builde oꝛ ſet vp.

Extruere & euertere, contrary.

Extruere ædificium in alieno, To builde a houſe in an other mans grounde.

Verba in numerum extruere, to couche and place woꝛdes in oꝛder of certaine ferte.

Focum extruere lignis, to make a fyꝛe.

Menſas extruere epulis, to garniſhe the tables with good meates.

Extruere ſtramenta in aceruum, To lape vp ſtrawe together in an heape.

Cumulum extruere, to make an heape.

Extruere rogum, to make a great fyꝛe.

Extuberátio, ónis, fœ. ge. a ſwellyng oꝛ ryſyng in the bodp.

Extúbero, aui, are, to ſwelle muche, to ryſe vp lyke a bothe. alſo actiuely, to make to ſwell oꝛ ryſe vp.

Extumeo, éxtumes, and Extumeſco, ui, ſcere, to ſwelle oꝛ ryſe vp.

Extúmidus, a, um, that ſwelleth oꝛ ryſeth vp.

Extundo, éxtudi, ere, to fynde out with muche labour, to get out with peyne, to obteyne by foꝛce. alſo with thumpyng to make to ſwell.

Exturbâtus, a, um, thruſted out, pulled vp by the rootes.

Exturbo, aui, are, to put awaie, oꝛ to put out oꝛ from a thyng by violence.

Expellere atque exturbare.

Exturbare homines à poſſeſsionibus, To thruſte men violently from theyꝛ goodes and poſſeſſions.

Exturbare ſpem pacis, to put away the hope of peace.

Exturbare ædibus, oꝛ ex ædibus, to thruſte out of the houſe.

Vt iſtam exturbes ex animo ægritudinem,
That you maie put this paſſion out of youꝛ mynde.

Exturbare mentem alicuius, to make one out of his witte.

Exturbare ſpem pacis, to put awaie all hope
of peace.

Exturbare calculos, to breake the ſtone in bodye.

Exuſsire, to coughe out, to auoyde with ynge.

Exúbero, aui, are, to abounde, lyke Exhu

Exuccus, a, um, without iuyce oꝛ liꝛcour.

Exúdo, aui, are, to ſende fooꝛthe liꝛcour, ſweate out.

Humor exúdat, the humour iſſueth out ſweate.

Exudare laborem, to employe and beſtow
bour and trauaple, to labour vntill he ſwe

Exudare cauſas, to pleade matters with labour and diligence.

Exuerræ, the ſweppynges of the houſe.

Exuerto, ti, ere, to pꝛeuente.

Exúgo, exuxi, ere, to ſucke out.

Exul, éxulis, com. g. a banyſhed man.

☞ Spes alunt exules, euen baniſhed men hope ones to returne in to their countrey: a uerbe, ſignifyng, that there is yet ſome oꝛ that wee ſhould not yet deſpaire, but a day: foꝛ in ſpace cometh grace.

Mentis exul, madde, out of his witte.

Exulceratio, onis, a ſoꝛeneſſe.

Exulceratórius, a, um, that hath the powe nature to make ſoꝛe.

Exulcerâtus, a, um, vexed, made woꝛſe, m ſoꝛe, coꝛrupted with rancour and grudge.

Exulcero, aui, are, to make ſoꝛe, to vexe oꝛ m woꝛſe, to impeire, to coꝛrupte with ran and grudge.

Exulcerare gratiam alicui, to impeire the uour that one beareth to an other.

Exulcerare animum, to diſpleaſe the greuouſely, to make very angry.

Ex vinculis cauſam dicere, To pleade warde.

Exulo, éxulas, aui, are, to be banyſhed, to in exile.

Exulare domo, to be baniſhed from home,
from his owne houſe.

Exultabúndus, a, um, reioyſyng very muche.

Exultánter, ioyouſely, as it were leappyng ioye, braggyngly.

Exultántia, æ, f. g. idem quod exultatio. alſo beatyng, as a ſoꝛe oꝛ the pulſe doeth.

Exultátio, ónis, f. g. a hoppyng oꝛ daunceyng.

Exulto, aui, are, to reioyce exceedyngly, to bra make auaunt pꝛoudely, to magnifie ones ſelfe to triumphe ouer one cruelly, to leape out, leape foꝛ ioy, to bubble, to boyle oꝛ play,
the potte doeth, whan it doeth ſeeth.

Exultim, with leaping and hoppyng.

Exululátus, a, um, that houleth out.

Exúlulo, aui, are, to houle out, to cꝛye out pi ryfully.

Exundátio, ónis, f. g. an ouerfloowyng, a ſuper fluous aboundyng.

Exundo, aui, are, to ouerflowe, to abounde, to be ſuperfluous.

Exungo,

Exungo, xi, gere, to annoynt.
Exungulo, aui, are, to cut of ones nayles.
Exuo, ui, ere, to put of, to despoyle or vncloth, to deprine, to despuer, to vncouer, to shewe out.
Exue mentem, put awaie that mynde or affection.
Amicitiam alicuius exuere, to forsake or leaue ones frendshyp.
Armis exuere aliquem, To take awaye ones harneys, to vnarme a man.
Exuere castris hostem, to dryue the enemies out of their campe.
Ensem vagina exuerat, he hadde drawen his swoorde.
Exuere ferociam, to leaue the fiersenesse and cruelte that one hath vsed in tyme passed.
Fidem exuere, to breake promise, to doo contrary to that that one hath swoorne.
Im gratiam nouitatis exuit, Nowe it is no more pleasaunt or acceptable for the noueltee therof sens that it waxeth olde.
Nonne humanitatē omnem exuisses? should not you haue declared your self, to haue no humanite or gentilnesse at all?
Exuere iugum, and Exuere se iugo, to shake of the yocke of bondage, and sette hym selfe at libertee.
Antiquos mores exuere, To leaue his olde condicions.
Exuere aliquem regno, To dryue one out of his realme, to put one out of his kyngdome.
Exuere se paterno agro, to sell the lande that came to hym by his father.
Exuere senectam, to become yong agayn.
Exuere obsequium, To become disobediente and stubborne.
Exuere tributa, To refuse to pay any more tribute.
Exuperabilis, le, that may be exceded or passed. also actiuely, that maye excell or passe.
Exuperántia, æ, fœm. gene. excellencie, preeminence.
Exuperátio, ônis, f. g. idem.
Exupero, aui, are, to excede, to passe or surmounte.
Exuperat eius stultitia hæc omnia, his folye passeth all these thynges.
Non solum dum anima exsuperabo mea, not onely as longe as I shall lyue.
Exurdo, aui, are, to make deafe.
Vina feruida exurdunt palatum, Hot wynes make dulle the taste.
Exurgo, exi, ere, to arise vp, to arise out of misserie and trouble.
Exurgite ambæ à genibus, ryse vp both and knele no more.
Exurgere de multa nocte, To ryse late in the nyght.
Exurgere de insidiis, to breake out of an ambushe, and set vpon the enemies.

Exurgat foras, leat hym ryse and gette hym forth of the doores.
Exûro, ussi, ere, to burne out.
Exusscito, aui, are, to stirre or reise vp, to waken from sleape.
Exusscitare animos, to quicken and sterre vp the myndes.
Exústio, ônis, f. g. a burnyng.
Exustus, a, um, burned, parched, dried.
Exûtus, a, um, cut of, spoiled.
Exutus campis, dryuen out of the fielde.
Exúuiæ, árum, fœm. ge. plu. spoyle taken from ennemies.
Exuuiæ serpentis, an addres skinne.
Exibaphon, phi, n. g. a salate of herbes.

E ANTE Z.

EZechiel, (a prophete of the countrete Sarera, in Syria, of the line of bishops,) had meruailous reuelacions and visions, and by hym God shewed many great miracles. For in the tyme of a great scarsitee, he by prayer obteyned of god aboundance of fisshe, wherby the people were sufficiently refresshed. Also whan the people were oppressed, he stode and made their ennemies so abasshed with myracles and wonderfull sightes, that they ceassed of theyr enterprise. Beeyng in the countrete of Caldete, he tolde the people of many thynges doen in the temple of Hierusalem, he brought the people out of Caldie to Hierusalem, to the reproche of the infidelles. He beyng in Babylon, iudged the tribe of Dan and Gad, for that they had wyckedly dooen agaynst the loyde, in persecutyng theym, whiche beleued in the lawe. And he shewed vnto them a terrible token. For adders deuoured their chyldren and all their cattall. At the laste he was slayne at Babylon by the duke of the people, because he reproued hym of ydolatrie. He was buried in the fielde Maur, in the monumente of Sem and Arpharad, progenitours of Abraham. He prophecied of the retourne of the childzen of Israel, and also of the comyng of Chryst. He lyued afore the incarnation. 617. yeres.

, VVAS VSED in olde tyme for H, as Fordeum, for Hordeum, Trafo, for traho. &c.

Faba, æ, f. g. a beane. Eristius Lozdus, a phisition of our tyme, affirmeth, that the pulse, whiche we call beanes, is not Faba, whereof Dioscorides, Celsus, Galenus, and Plinius doo wryte: For that is rounde, and lasse than our beane, wherof. xviii. made a dramme, where ours be so great, that some one beane weigheth a dramme, and is somewhat longe and flatte.

Faba cudetur in me, the beane shall be knocked on me, signifying the peyne or blame that lyght on me.

Faba inuersa, some do suppose to be that herbe, whiche is called Lunaria, or Solanum somnificum: reade in Solano.

Faba Pythagorica, signifieth the cõsayle of Pythagoras, where he biddeth we shulde not eate beanes, saying, Faba abstinero, which is by diuers men diuersly expounded. Some declare it for a bare precepte, saying: That for as muche as beanes make the sight dulle, and causeth yll dreames, as Plinie saieth, or as Tullie affirmeth, prouoketh inflaciõ or muth wynde in the body, Therefore Pythagoras forbare the eatyng of them. But Tristorenus affirmeth, that Pythagoras did not eate more of any kynde of pulse thã of beanes, because they easyly loused the brayn. Empedocles saieth, that Pythagoras cõmaũded to abstayne frõ beanes, as it were frõ the acte of lechery, because Cyamos signifieth not only a beane, but also the genitours. Plutarchus expounded this precepte, as yf he had saied: Abstayne frõ the ministration of a cõmon weale, because it is full of perilles, nor can not be without rebuke or damage. In the olde tyme the cõsent of people was declared by beanes, which yet doth remaine at Venice, as well in election of officers, as in iudgemẽtes & sentẽces: for by whyte beanes thinges are affirmed, by blacke beanes thei are denied or refused.

Fabácia, æ, f. g. a beane cake.

Fabáginus, a, um, of beanes.

Fabâlis, le, of a beane.

Fabâle, lis, a beane stalke.

Fabâlis, the refuse or offall of beanes.

Fabaris, a ryuer in Italy, renning by the Sabins.

Fabárius, a, um, pertenyng to beanes.

Fabariæ calendæ, the calendes of June.

Fabella, læ, f. g. a shorte tale.

Faber, a fysshe of the Spanisshe sea, also called Zeus, and is in figure rounde, and of a russet colour. It is lyke to be that fysshe, which is called a lumpe, and of late yeres was founde in the sea about Deuonshire.

Faber, bri, m. g. almost euery craftes man, that woorketh with the hande.

Faber lignarius, a carpentre.

Faber ferrarius, a smithe.

Aurifaber, a goldsmithe.

Faber, bra, brum, pertenyng to a smith.

Fabérrimè, counnyngly, verayle craftily or well.

Fabianus, the proper name of a man.

Fabitor, in the auncyente tyme was taken for a maintenour.

Fabius, the surname of a noble house of the Romaines, which had first that name of sowyng or selling of beanes, as Cicero of the grain called Cicer, Piso of pesen, Porcius of swine. of this name were diuers valyant capitains & wyse counsellours of whom one was called Fabius Maximus, who in his youth exercised both eloquẽce & prowesse: & therfore he after became, as well in armes as in counsaile, a capitaine most excellent: & subduyng many countreies vnto the Romaines, he triumphed .v. times. Beyng made dictatour against Annibal, he so tempered prudence with manhood or prowesse, that by detractyng of battaile, and trainyng Anniball from place to place, and at sundry aduantages skirmishing with hym, he minished his puissance, & preserued the publyke weale of his countrey, whom Minutius (enuyenge hym) in fightyng with Anniball, was vanquisshed, and had ben slayn with all his armie, had not Fabius come to his succor and rescous, who delyuered his aduersarie and all his trayne, and caused Anniball to retyre: who saied then to his hoste: Dyd I not tell you before, that this clowde wold at last bryng vs a storme? calling Fabius a cloude because of his houerynge on the hilles. This man was afore the incarnation of Christ. 200. yeres, and somewhat more.

Fabius Quintilianus, rede after in Quintilian.

Fabrateria, a towne of Campayne.

Fabrè, woorkemanly, craftily. Vrapologum fabricit? quam fabrè? De what a deuice he maketh? howe craftily he handleth it?

Fabrefácio, brefacis, feci, ere, to woorke cunnyngly, to bylde.

Fabrica, cæ, f. g. a woorkhouse, a forge, sometyme the frame or woorke. also the science of a carpenter, the facture, ioignyng or settyng together of a thyng, the makynge or woorkemanshipp. also a wyle or deceite.

Fabrica ferraria, a smithes forge. Aliquam fabricam fingit, he goeth about some wyle.

Quot admoui fabricas? howe many craftye waies dyd I assaie.

Fábrico, aui, are, & Fabricor, aris, ari, to make, to build, to inuent. Fabricare naues, to build shippes. Fabricare gladiũ, to make a swoorde. Fabricare animum, to forme the mynde. Fingere & fabricare.

Fabricâtus, a, um, made.

Fabricâtor, ôris, m. g. a maker.

Mundi fabricator deus, god the maker of the woorlde.

Fabri

Fabricus, a, um, of or perteinyng to a carpenter.
Fabilis, le, belongynge to handye crafftes, as smythes and carpenters.
Fabrianus, a mans name.
Fabricius, a noble Romayne, who beyng wonderfull poore, refused a great summe of money, sent to hym by kynge Pirrhus, touchyng with his handes all his membres, and sayeng vnto the kynges messangers: As long as he mought rule all that, whiche he touched, he could lacke nothyng.
Fabula, læ, fœm. g. a fable or tale. sometyme an enterlude. It is also a litteil beane.
Fabula palliata, a comedie of greke.
Fabula togata, a comedie of latine.
Fabulam incœptat, he beginneth to tel a tale.
Fabula est omni populo, he is a talkyng stocke to all the people.
Iam nos fabulæ sumus, now be we a talkyng stocke for euery man: nowe be we mocked and talked of by euery man.
Fabulam ætatis agere, To passe the whole course and tyme of ones lyfe.
In fabulis esse, to be babbled of abrode.
Fabulæ, spoken in an answere, without any other woorde forgned therwith, amounteth to as muche, as yf one woulde saie, Fables, trifles, fantasies, tapes sometime is added meræ, as meræ fabulæ, verate trifles or fantasies: or as one wold saie, That whiche ye saie, is not to be regarded.
Fabulāris, re, of a tale, or lyke a tale.
Fabulātor, ōris, m. g. a teller of fables or tales.
Fabulinus, was supposed of the paynyms to be a god, whiche had the rule ouer children, whan they began to speake.
Fabulor, āris, āri, to talke, to commune, to mocke or delude, to babble foolyshely.
Mortuo verba fabulare, Thou speakest to a dead man, thou laboures in vayne.
Fabulari falsum, to lye.
Fabulose, lyke a fable or lye.
Fabulosus, a, um, fœm. ge. the inuention of fables and lyes.
Fabulōsus, a, um, muche talked of, that euery man speaketh of, that whereof many thynges be feigned.
Fabulum, li, n. g. a beane.
Facesso, cessi, cessere, to go about to do a thing, to doo, to accomplishe. sometyme to go away.
Facesse hinc, geat the hense.
Facessit vbi negotium, he putteth the to busynesse and trouble.
Facessere periculū, to put in perill & daūgier.
Facēter, merely, pleasauntly, prettily.
Facētiæ, arum, f. ge. plur. nu. merie woordes or dites without dishonestie, merie conceites with a pleasaunt grace.
Acerbæ facetiæ, bityng scornes, tantyng lookes.
Dictum sale & facetiis, full of witte and pleasaunt sayenges.
Facetōsus, a, um, full of mirth and pleasantnesse.
Facētum, ti, n. g. a thyng that is pleasant & merie.
Facētus, a, um, merie, pleasant, that speaketh or doeth pleasantly to make men laugh.
Fācies, ei, fœm. g. a face. sometyme the proporcion of all the body, a visage, a similitude, the figure, fourme, or faction of a thyng, the cheere or countenaunce.
Qua facie est homo? Of what stature is the man?
De facie hominem noui, I knowe the man by syght.
Facies arboris, the fourme or faction of a tree.
Facies honesti, the description and figure of honestee. Contusa in puluere faciem, beateth small lyke duste.
Loci facies, the figure and faction of a place.
Lykewise Facies vibis, stagni, montis, cœli, maris.
Noua illic rerum facies, all is newe there to looke to.
Vertere se in omnes facies, To assaye all the meanes and waies that one can.
Facies, and facij, was vsed of olde writers in the genitiue case.
Facilē, lyghtly or easyly, without feat or dout, without any great greke, without peine.
Illius ciuitatis facile princeps, without controuersie chief and principall of that cite.
Facilē facere possum, si iubes, I can doo it quickely, if you bidde me.
Propter eas, viuo facilius, By theim I geat my lyuyng more easily.
Facilē hic plus mali est q̄ illic boni, without doubte there is more yll in this parte, than good in the other.
Facilē carere, to be well content to lacke.
Facilē patior, I am verate well content.
Fācilis, le, light, easie, facile, gentle, good to be entreated, easie to be pleased, tractable, redie to forgieue, propice, fauorable, gracious, sometyme obedient, peasible, easie to be ruled.
Facilis aduersarius, a weake aduersary, easye to be vanquyshed.
Cæra facilis, softe waxe.
Deos faciles habere, fauorable.
Cibi faciles, meates easy to be gotten.
Iactura facilis, a small losse.
Faciles oculi, rollyng eies.
Facilis & plana via, an easy and playn waie.
Facilis homo, a man easy to please, contrary to Morosus.
Ministri faciles, obedient.
Facillimi mores, pasible maners, and easy to away with.
Populum facilem habere, an obedient people, easie to be ruled.
Facilis ad credendum, prone & redy to beleue.
Facilitas, ātis, f. g. easynesse, gentilnesse, whē one is sooge contented and pleased, promptnes.

Facinerôsus, a, um, full of mischiefe, wicked, vngratiouse.

Facinus, facinoris, n. g. an act or dede. sometyme an yll dede, a great acte.

Facinus indignum nephariũm, tetrum, a shamefull and abhominable acte.

Facinus nobile, a noble dede or enterpryse.

Facinus admittere, cõsciscere, facere, patrare, to committe some shamefull or heynous acte.

Facio, feci, facere, to doo, to be occupied, to make. also to sacrifice, to prokite.

Facere aucupium auribus, to harken as a spie.

Aequi bonique facere, to take in good parte, or in good wooyth.

Animum alicui facere, to geue one courage, to stomache a man.

Facere carnificinam, to execute the office of an hangeman, in hangyng, beheadyng, or quarterying of men.

Facere castra, to pitche a campe, to campe.

Facere certiorem, to assertayne or aduertyse one by letter or messanger.

Facere compendium, to make shorte, to abridge to go a shorte waie to wooyhe, to doo a thynge the sooner.

Facere compotem, to geue to one that thyng, whiche he desyreth.

Facere coniecturam, to coniecte or deeme, to diuine or esteeme.

Facere contumeliam, to doo displeasure.

Facere conuitium, to rebuke, or put to rebuke, to cheeke.

Capitale facere, to make it felony or death.

Cautiorem facere, to make him wiser, to make him more ware.

Concilia facere, to gather to gyther for counsaylyng one an other, to geue counsayle.

Facere copiam, to geue leaue.

Facere copiam alicuius, to leat hym take his pleasure of one.

Facere copiam argenti, to lende monele.

Copiam consilii sui facere, to heare theim that come for counsaile, and to geue it to theim.

Facere consuetudinem, to be familiar.

Deditionem facere, to yelde vp as a man vanquyshed in warre.

Facere delitias, to speake for pleasure, or in mockage. Fac esse, admit it be so, or admit the case.

Fac te esse, qui sum, ymagine that thou were as I am.

Eruptionem facere, to breake or issue out vpon enemies.

Facere fidem, to make one to beleue hym.

Facere frugem, to wynne gaynes.

Facere funus, to minister funeralles.

Gradum facere, to steppe foorthe or steppe vp, to wynne somewhat.

Gratiam facere, to thanke, to release or acquite one of a thyng, to geue leaue, to pardone.

Gratiam iusiurandi facere, to dispence with one for his othe.

Facere gratum, to doo pleasure to one, or to bye a mans fauour.

Facere grauidam, to get with chylde.

Facere iacturam, to haue a losse.

Impetum facere, to renne on a thynge with all force.

Facere inditium, to tell or to geue warnynge of a thynge that he knoweth.

Facere ingenium suum, to doo accordyng to his witte or nature.

Facere insidias, to lie in waite to do harme to one.

Facere iter, to go or ryde.

Iusta alicui facere, to perfourme all obsequies belongyng to deade men.

Lenocinium facere, to kepe baudry.

Facere lucrum, to wynne.

Facere ludos, to mocke or scorne. also to hye foorth plaies.

Facere magni, to esteeme muche.

Modum facere, to kepe measure.

Modos facere, to synge.

Moram facere, to tarye, to prolonge, to detayne.

Morem facere, to bringe vp a custome.

Multam facere, to forfayte a peyne.

Mutuum facere, to do one for an other, to quite.

Facere mecum, to make for my purpose, to hold on my syde, to take my parte.

Facere naufragium, to renne to wreche, to haue a shyppe wrecke.

Naufragium gloriae facere, to lose his glorie and renoume.

Facere negotium, to put one to busines.

Facere nequiter, to doo shrewdly.

Facere nomina, to get debters, as by lendyng as they doo nowe by exchaunge, and in shyftes, properly called vsurpe, and in bargaynes of cattayle, and other lyke, or lettyng of landes. also to borowe monete, to name, to make renomed and famous.

Respondit, secum facere Syllam, he answered that Sylla was of his opinion, or dyd thynke as he dyd.

Obnoxium sibi aliquem facere, to bynde one to be at his commaundement.

Facere otium, to geue to one leysure.

Facere palam, to tel a thyng abrode.

Facere periculum, to proue, to assaie, to bringe in perill and daunger.

Facere pluris, to set more by.

Facere propitium, to make him thyne or his good lorde or maister.

Facere quaestum, to gayne.

Facere reducem, to bring one agayne.

Facere rem, to geat profite or gayne by a thynge to thryue.

Facere reum, to accuse or sewe one in a crymynall cause.

Facere risum, to cause to lawgh.

Facere scelus, to doo a mischeuous deede.

Facere sementem, to sowe grayne.

Facere stipendia, to be in wages in the warres.

Facere ſumptum, to beſtowe coſte.
Facere ſuperbum, to diſdayne one.
Facere technam, to playe a craftye pageant.
Facere terrorem, to put in feare.
Facere tranſacta omnia, to bryngе all thynges to a poynte.
Facere turbas, to make buſineſſe.
Facere vadimonium, to lay in gage or ſurctee, to promiſe to appere at a date appoincted.
Facere verba aut verbum, to ſpeake.
Facere vindemiam, to gather grapes, to make wyne.
Facere vitium, to fall in decaie.
Facere voluptatem, to ſatisfie wyne, thyne, or his pleaſure, or appetite.
Facium vte plurimum amem, I wyll loue the muche. Feciſſe hoc oportuit, needes muſte ye haue done it.
Facio plurimi, I make muche of.
Floccifacio, I ſette not a ſtrawe by it.
Facit ad difficultatem vrinæ, it is holſome for the tranquillion, or for them that can not pis eaſyly.
Non facit ad ſtomachum, it is not holſome for the ſtomache.
Aes alienum facere, to borowe monеie.
Facere ad bonos mores, to helpe or anayle to honeſt behauiour.
Facere ad alicuius palatum, to bee for ones nowne tooth.
Caput facere, to growe to an head, as herbes doo before they beare ſeede.
Facere concurſum, to renne together.
Qui cum Sertorio faciebant, whiche folowed or fauoured the parte of Sertorius.
Facere deſcentionem, to lande out of a ſhyp or boate.
Quamuis paucos vnâ fecerimus dies, Although we taried but fewe daies together.
Facere dolorem, to put to peine.
Facere errorem, to deceiue.
Exempla faciam in te, I wyll punyſhe the to the example of other.
Facere fauorem apud aliquem, to reconcyle.
Finem facere, to make an ende.
Formidinem facere, to put in feare.
Fraudem legi facere, by ſome craft or wyle to delude the lawe.
Funus facere prandio, to eate a mans diner.
Glorium alicui rei facere, to make a thynge greatly eſteemed and ſet by.
Hoſpitium facere, to entertayne or lodge.
Hoſtilia facere, to ſhewe hym ſelfe to be an enemy, to doo dyſe an ennemy.
Facere iudicium, to iudge, to geue iudgement.
Facere manum, to gather a company or bande of ſouldiours.
Medicinam facere, to make a confection. alſo to heale or cure.
Mercaturam facere, to vſe or practiſe the feate of marchaundiſe.

Miſſum facere, to leat go.
Miſſa hæc faciamus, Leat vs ſpeake no more of theſe thynges.
Momentum facere, to bee of ſome weyghte or importaunce.
Facere momentum annonæ, to bryngе downe the price of vittaile or corne.
Huius rei ſibi naturam faciat, Let him by long cuſtome tourne this thyng in to his nature.
Non poſſum facere, quin ad te mittam, I can not chooſe but ſend to you.
Optionem facere, to put to the chooſe.
Opus facere, to labour.
Odium vitæ facere, to make one weerie of his lyfe.
Ouà facere, to lay egges.
Partes facere, to diuide.
Facere pecuniam, to get great gaynes.
Securitatem facere, to make careleſſe.
Facere ſyngraphum, to make an obligation.
Facere prouentum maiorem, to yelde more fruite.
Pugnam facere, to bende the fyſte.
Factus, a, um, made, dooen, wrought.
Argentum factum, plate.
Factio, ônis, f. g. a diuiſion of people in ſundry opinions. alſo an acte, a dooyng. alſo a company or bande of men. ſometyme rytheſſe, and thoſe tee or eſtimacion in a citee.
Cui teſtamenti factio nulla eſt, to whom it is not permitted by the law, to make any teſtament.
Factionum principes, the heades of rebellion or ſedition.
Neque nos tanta factione ſumus, neyther bee we of ſo great authoritee.
Factitius, a, um, made or counterfait to the likeneſſe of an other thyng.
Factitius color, a counterfaite colour.
Factito, aui, are, to doo often tymes.
Carmina in aliquem factitare, to make verſes agaynſt one.
Factitare medicinam, to practiſe phiſike.
Factiôſus, a, um, factious, ſeditious, buſyeyng. alſo ryche, of great authoritee.
Factor, ôris, m. g. a maker.
Factum, ti, n. g. a deede, a thyng made.
Factum atque tranſactum, dooen and brought to good paſſe.
Haud muto factum, I repent me not of that I haue dooen.
Facta, proweſſe and noble actes.
Fortia facta patrum, the valiaunt deedes of our forefathers.
Factûra, æ, fe. g. the facture or makynge of a thynge.
Facturio, iui, ii, ire, to deſyre to doo.
Factus, us, m. g. a makyng.
Fácula, læ, f. g. a lyghte, or lyttell torche.
Faculárii, torche bearers.
Facúltas, âtis, f. g. power to doo or ſpeake, habilitee: ſometyme rytheſſe. alſo faculte, vertue, or ſtrength or ſtrength in a thyng. alſo occaſion, opportu nitee.

Adimere facultatem aliquid faciendi, to leat one that he can not doo a thyng.

Facultatem dare, to geue power or licence.

Si facultas erit, yf we maie, yf we can haue oꝛ poꝛtunitee oꝛ leiſure.

Dare facultatem eligendi, To geue one the choiſe.

Facultas ingenij, a facultee oꝛ ſcience that the wytte is exerciſed in.

Facultas dicendi, eloquence, aptneſſe, oꝛ pꝛõpt neſſe to ſpeake in any thyng.

Facultatem in dicendo habere, to be eloquent oꝛ well langaged, to be a good oratour.

Dare facultatem omnibus ſui irridendi, To geue all men occaſion to mocke hym.

Prætermittere facultatem alicuius rei, To omitte the opoꝛtunitee. &c.

Vtiam eſſet facultatis meæ, I wolde to god that myn eloquence were ſuche that I coulde: oꝛ, I wolde it were in my power to doo it.

Facultas nummorum, ſtoꝛe oꝛ plentie of mo nete, ryches.

Omnia medicamenta proprias facultates ha bent. All medicines haue theyꝛ pꝛopꝛe vertue and ſtrength.

Facultates, tatum, fœm. gen. plu. nu. riches, re uenues.

Facultatibus labi, to leſe theyꝛ goodes.

Facultas operæ vbi mihi erit, whan I ſhall haue leiſure, whan my buſynes will ſuffre me.

Facundè, eloquently.

Facundia, æ, f. g. eloquente oꝛ ſweete and pleaſant ſpeche.

Facundiõſus, a, um, full of eloquence.

Facúndus, a, um, eloquent, well ſpoken, he that pꝛopheſieth thynges to come.

Fæcatus, a, um, hauyng lees oꝛ dꝛegges.

Fæcatum vinum, wyne that dꝛyueth of the lyes.

Fæciniæ vuæ, grapes, wheꝛeof cometh wyne haſ uyng muche lies.

Fæculentus, a, um, fulle of lyes, dꝛegges, oꝛ groundes of any licoure.

Fæcutinus, a, um, pertεynyng to dꝛegges.

Fæx, fæcis, fœ. g. lies, dꝛegges, oꝛ grounde of any kynde of licoure.

Fæx ciuitatis, thei that in a citee doe lyue beaſtly and vicioꝰſly, the dꝛegges and raſcall.

Fáginus, a, um, of a beeche tree.

Fagineus, and fageus, a, um, idem.

Fagus, gi, fœ. g. a beeche tree.

Fagutal, a chapelle in Rome, wheꝛein was a beech tree conſecrated to Jupiter.

Fala, æ, f. g. a towꝛe made of tymbꝛe.

Falacrium, a pꝛomontoꝛie of Sicile, called nowe Melazo.

Falárica, æ, f g. a kynde of dartes thꝛowen out of towꝛes and foꝛtreſſes beſieged.

Falcárius, rij, m. ge. he that fighteth with a bill, oꝛ he that occupieth a hooke oꝛ ſieth.

Falcárius, a, um, pertεynyng to a bylle, hooke, oꝛ ſieth.

Falcâtus, a, um, hooked. alſo any thyng, wheꝛin bee hookes oꝛ other lyke thynge.

Falcati currus, cartes armed with hookes.

Falcícula, læ, f. g. a litteli hooke oꝛ bylle, a ſythe.

Falcidia lex, a lawe, wheꝛby legacies were deſal cate oꝛ cutte of, wheꝛe the fourthe paꝛte of the goodes were not aſſigned to the heyꝛes.

Falcifer, cifera, um, that beareth a bylle oꝛ hooke.

Falcito, aui, are, to cutte with a bylle oꝛ hooke.

Falco, aui, are, to cut of oꝛ mowe, to cut oꝛ lopꝛe with a bylle oꝛ hooke.

Falco, ônis, a hauke.

Falcônes, they that haue crooked toes.

Falcula, læ, f. g. the diminutiue of Falx, falcis, a ſpete, a litteli hooke oꝛ bille. alſo falcule be crooked clawes of lyons, liberdes, and ſuche lyke wild beaſtes. alſo the talons of an hauke.

Fálcula, læ, f. g a certaine birde, the thirde kind of ſwalow, and is called alſo Ripaꝛia, a bank martnet.

Falere, ris, n. ge. a wooꝛde vſed of Varro, for a paꝛte of an houſe to vs vnknowen.

Falernus, a counterie in Campania, nowe in the realme of Naples, wheꝛein gꝛewe the beſt wynes of Italy, called Falernum, Mountfaſcon.

Faliſci, a peꝛple in Italy alſo a kind of puddinges.

Faliſcus, a, um, that is ſtuffed like a puddyng.

Fallacia, æ, fœ. gen. a deceiptfull wooꝛde, oꝛ geneꝛally deceipt oꝛ craftye handlynge, a ſubtill oꝛ craftye deuiſe.

Fallaciõſus, a, um, full of deceipte.

Fallaciter, deceiptfully, falſly.

Fallax, ácis, om. g. that deceiueth oꝛ begileth.

Fallax coniectura, a coniecture that deceiueth a man in his opinion.

Herbæ fallaces herbes that pelde not ſo muche fruite as is looked foꝛ.

Fallo, fefelli, fállere, to deceiue, to beguile, pꝛac ctiſe with wooꝛdes, to be pꝛiuie oꝛ cloſe from, to be vnknowen. alſo to be hydde.

Fallunt amaritudinem edentes abſynthium in fico, becauſe they feele not the bitternes.

Fallere eidem, to breake pꝛomyſe.

Iura tori fallere, to committe adulteꝛye.

Memoria falli, to foꝛgeat.

Nihil me fallis, I know the well enough, thou deceiueſt me nothyng, thou canſt not go any thyng beyonde me.

Niſi me fallit animus, excepte my iudgement deceiue me.

Niſi omnia me fallunt, excepte I bee vtteꝛly deceiued. Opera fallunt, in theiꝛ doonges they deceiue men.

Curam fallere ſomno, To put away care by ſleape, to lye downe and ſleape to put away his care.

Tempus ſermonibus fallere, to paſſe the time in talkyng.

Opi-

Opinionem tuam fefellit eares, that thynge was otherwyse than you dyd thynke.
Opinio de te multum me fefellit, I was great ly deceyued in you.
Fallere promiſſum, not to kepe promyſe.
Spes fefellit, it hath chaunced otherwiſe than we hoped it would.
Cum ſaxa lubrica veſtigia fallerent, Where as the ſlyppery ſtones did make mens fete ſlide.
Tanta celeritate, vt viſum fallant, ſo ſodeinly or ſo quickly, that it can not be ſene.
Num me fefellit hoſce id ſtruere, dyd not I knowe well enough, that they went about ſuche a thyng?
Qux mutatio Neronem non fefellit, whiche chaunge was not vnknowen to Nero, or Nero perceyued well enough.
Qui per biennium fefellerat, which the ſpace of two yere was not knowen.
Fallens, entis, that deceiueth, vnconſtant.
Veſtigium fallens, the ſwete ſlydyng
Fallonia, a treſpas, wherby the tenant forfaiteth to the lorde, that whiche he holdeth.
Falſarius, rii, m. g. a forger of wrytynges.
Falſe, falſely.
Falſidicus, & falſiloquus, a lier or fals reporter.
Falſifico, aui, are, to forge dedes, wrytynges, or ſeales.
Falſificus, a, um, that vſeth to deceyue men.
Falſitas, tatis, f. g. falſehood.
Falſiiuratus, a, um, that vſeth to ſweare falſely.
Falſimonium, nii, n. g. a deceyte or falſehood.
Falſiloquus, a, um, that ſpeaketh falſe.
Falſipatrens, entis that hath an other father, than he that is ſuppoſed.
Falſo, aui, are, to forge.
Falſo, falſely, without a cauſe, wrongfully.
Nec tu me habebis falſo ſuſpectum, Thou ſhalte not ſuſpect me for naught.
Falſum, ſi, n. g. a falſe or vaine thyng.
Tela in falſum iacere, To caſte dartes, and miſſe them that they hurle at.
Falſus, a, um, falſe, vaine, deceyued, counterfait.
Falſum habere, to deceyue.
Haud mihi ſam falſus, I knowe well.
Falſus es, you are deceiued, or it is otherwiſe than ye weene.
Falſum gaudium, vaine ioye.
Falſa lachryma, a feigned teare.
Falſum teſtamentum, a counterfaite teſtament or will.
Vt falſus eſt? howe farre is he deceyued?
Falſi ſub imagine cerui, vnder the lykeneſſe of a counterfaite harte.
Vt falſus animi eſt? how much is he deceiued.
Nec ea res me falſum habuit, neither dydde that matter deceyue me any thyng: or I was not deceyued in that matter.
Falx, falcis, fœ. ge a hooke, bill, or ſieth: alſo an yron of warre, made croked lyke a hooke.
Falx fœnaria, a ſieth to mowe graſſe.
Adhibere frondibus falcem, to cutte or ſhred boowes with an hooke or bill.
Falx arboraria or ſylueſtris, an hedgeyng bill, a hooke.
Falx vineatica, a hooke.
Curare vitem falce, to cutte a vine.
Supponere falcem arriſtis, to mow corne.
Fama, æ, fœm. gene. fame or bruite of a thynge good or yll, a rumour or a noyſe brought vp of any newe thynge: alſo renowme, ſometyme opinion.
Prior famâ, more renowmed, more famous.
Famam diſſipare, to ſowe a bruite or noyſe amonge the people.
Famæ commendationis homo, a man that hath a good name.
Secunda fama, a good renowme or fame.
Fama incolumis, fame of a man that is not diſtayned.
Mœſta fama, heauie tydynges.
Accipere fama, to here by reporte or commynyng of the people.
Dare famæ, to ſpreade abrode.
Famam extinguere, to ſtynte a bruite or rumoure.
Conualeſcit fama, the fame or reporte begynneth to wexe great.
Fama ferebat, the reporte was.
Famam alicuius inquinare, to diſtayne a mans good name.
Accipere famâ, to here ſay by reporte.
Percrebuit fama, it was commonly reported.
Læſerat famam ſub Nerone, In the tyme of Nero he gatte hym an yll name: or he was yll ſpoken of.
Famam temeritatis ſubire, to be coũted raſhe, lewchardie, or vndiſcrete.
Intra famam eſſe, not to be of ſuche eſtimation or value, as the fame goeth.
Fama vulgauerat, it was commuued abrode.
Famam facere, to reyſe a fame or bruite.
Vt hominum fama eſt, as the communyng is among the people, or as men ſaie commonly.
Si vera eſt fama, if it be true that the fame and reporte ſayth.
Famigeratio, ónis, fœm gene. a ſpreadyng of fame.
Famelicoſus, a, um, often hungrie.
Famel, in the Dche tongue, is a ſeruant.
Famelicus, a, um, hungrie, hunger ſtoruen.
Famella, æ, fœm. gener. the diminutiue of Fama.
Famen, minis, n. g. ſpeche.
Fameo, mui, ere, to be hungrie.
Fames, famis, f. g. hunger, famine.
In fame, in tyme of famine or dearth.
Auri fames, couetouſneſſe.
Fame abſumi, to be ſtoruen for hunger.
Fame confectus, hunger ſtoruen.
Famem explere, to ſatiſfye and ſtynte ones hunger.

Leuare famem, to asswage ones hunger.
Fámiger, famigeri, a spreader of fame.
Famigerábilis, le, famous.
Famigerâtor, ôris, a teller of newes or tidynges, or a spreader of fame.
Famigeratio, onis, f. g. a spreadyng of a fame or rumour.
Famigérulus, idem.
Famigerâtus, a, um, renowmed, famed.
Famigero, gêras, aui, are, to publisshe or diuulgate a thyng.
Familia, æ, f. g. a housholde, a familie, or hyred. It also signifieth all the seruantes of the house. sometyme a secte of Philosophiers.
Submouere aliquos familia, to put or remoue out of his house.
Familiâris, re, pertenyng to housholde: also familiar, of the same familie or housholde. also a frende of longe acquaintance.
Familiaria sepulchra, were places of burpall for men and theyr seruauntes.
Familiaris Italiæ arbor, a tree, whiche groweth muche in Italie.
Familiaris sella, a chambre stoole.
Negotia familiaria, housholde affayres.
Res familiaris, a mans propre goodes.
Familiarior aditus, a prime entre.
Familiari pecunia tenui esse, not to be verie ryche, to haue no great goodes or substance.
Familiaris filius, the mans son of the house.
Familiaria vestimenta, rayment for the housholde.
Sermones familiares conferre, to talke familiarlie.
Familiaria sepulchra, Sepulchres for one and for those that be of his familie.
Familiáritas, âtis, f. g. custome, familiaritee, acquaintaunce, familiar frendeshyp.
Summa familiaritate coniunctus, a verie nere and truste frende.
Intrare in familiaritatem alicuius, to become familiar and throughly acquainted with one.
Arcta familiaritate complecti, looke Complector.
Conflare familiaritatem, to geat frendshyp and acquaintaunce.
Dédere se penitus in alicuius familiaritatem, to addicte and geue hym selfe wholly to vse a mans familiaritee and frendshyp.
Intercedit inter nos familiaritas, there is familiaritee and acquaintaunce betwene vs.
Illum à mea familiaritate disiunxit, he made hym to forsake my companie, or to be no more familiar with me.
Familiáriter, familiarly, sometyme homely, also greuously.
Nimium familiariter me attrectas, you handle me to homely.
Familiariter ignotum compellare, to speake to one that he knoweth not, as thoughe he were well acquainted with him.
Familiariter nosse causam alicuius, to knowe ones matter so well as he woulde his proper and priuee affayres.
Familiariter ferre mortem alicuius, to take ones deathe greuously.
Familiariter aliquo vti, to vse one as his familiar frende.
Familiariter aliquem diligere, to loue one hartily, and as his truste frende.
Faminare, of olde writers was vsed for Dicere.
Fáminor, the olde writers vsed for Dicito, say, speake, tell on.
Famósus, a, am, greatly renowmed, famous, muche spoken of. also that hath an yll name, vnhoneste, or that speaketh yll by other.
Vrbs famósa, of great renoume.
Famosa mulier, an harlotte.
Famosa epigrammata, epigrammes written to the infamie of other.
Famul, idem quod famulus.
Fámula, æ, f. g. a woman seruaunt.
Famulanter, humbly, seruisable.
Famulare, aduerbially, lyke a seruaunt.
Famulâris, re, that pertaineth to a seruaunt.
Famulárius, a, um, seruisable.
Famulátio, ônis, f. g. housholde or meynie.
Famulâtus, us, m. g. seruice.
Famulitium, ij, n. g. seruice. Also the meynie, the companie of seruauntes.
Fámulor, âris, ari, to serue.
Fortuna famulante agere aliquid, with the ayde of fortune to doe a thynge.
Fámulus, li, m. g. a housholde seruaunt.
Fanaticus, a, um, madde. In the olde tyme before Christe expelled the diuell (whan that his vtelles were honoured in Idoles) certayne persons, as well men as women, were possessed with diuelles, whiche ladde theim whither they lysted, agaynste theyr proper wyls, and caused theim to speake wonderfull thynges. some also sodaynly and oftentimes dyd tell what shoulde happen. Wherfore they were thought to be inspired with goddes. Those persons were called Fanatici. Sometyme Fanaticus is taken for the keper of the temple or the chappell, where the dyuell gaue answeres.
Fanatica arbor, a tree blasted with lightynge.
Fandi, of speakyng.
Fando, in speakyng.
Ne fando quidem auditum est, neuer any man hearde it reported.
Fandus, a, um, iuste to be spoken.
Fanenses, and Fanestres, people of a towne called Fana, in a countrey of Italie called Marca Anchonitana, in latine Picenum.
Fanesii people in the northe part of the worlde, whose eares be so great, that with them they hyde all theyr bodies.
Fanestris, a towne.
Fannia lex, an honourable and vertuouse lawe made by Augustus, the noble emperour, the

sonne

consent of all states of the citee inforcyng it, all dignitees approuing it, the people gladly receyuyng it. By this lawe, the superfluouse charges in feastes, wherby the citee abounded in vices, were prohibited, and such temperance therin prouided, that in the great plaies of the Romains, and those that were called Saturnales, they shoulde not excede an hundred brasse pens, whiche were ten Romaine grotes, called Denarij: and in our money nowe currant, amounteth to .v. s. vi. d. ob. halfe farthyng: & the fourth parte of a farthing: ten other daies. xii. brasse pens, whiche is xii. d. ob. q. and a lit tel more. Euery other daie .x. brasen pens, whiche was, vi. d halfe penie, and the .vii. part of an halfe penie. This lawe was made. xvii. yeres after the lawe called Lex orchia, wherby was determined the noumbre of theym that shoulde dyne and suppe together, and that the doores should be open whyle they sate, that men myght perceyue, yf any mo came than the lawe had appointed. But this lawe was not so good as the other, for thei thought none come to their frendes, but such as were inuited or boden.

Fannîana, a kynde of peares.

Fannius, the name of diuers oratours and noble men of Rome.

Fanum, ni, n. g. a temple, where the deuill gaue aunswere out of an Idole.

Fanum fortunæ, a citee of Italie.

Far, arris, n. g. somtyme signifieth all maner of corne, all be it amonge auncient philicians it is taken for meale, as wel of wheate as of barley, properly where the corne is beaten in a morter: See Columella libro. 9.

Farcilis, le, apt thyng stuffed.

Farcimen, ĉiminis, n. g. a puddyng or sausage.

Farcio, ciui, ire, to stuffe, also to franke or feede, to satte, to cramme.

Farcire pannum in os, to thrust clothe into ones mouthe.

Farcire alicui centones, looke Cento.

Farfâria, farfugium, or farsaria, an herbe, called also Tussilago, vngula equina, & Bechion, looke Bechion.

Fâfarum, fari, n. g. the popler tree.

Farfarus, or Farfar, a ryuer of Syrie.

Farfenum, a kynde of shrubbes or twigges.

Farina, æ, f. g. meale.

Farina auenaria, ote meale.

Cribro decussa farina, sifted meale.

Farinarius, a, um, pertainyng to meale.

Farinarium cribrum, a sieue to syfte meale.

Faris, farus sum, fari, to speake.

Farrâceus, a, um, of meale.

Farrea, meates made of meale.

Farraginâria, plural. meates made of dyuers graynes.

Farrâgo, inis, f. g. a mixture of sundrie kyndes of grayne and corne: It is that, whiche in Cambridge shyre is called Bolymonge, wherin is barley, otes, and peason, or betches: somtyme it is taken for a mixture of thynges good and bad together.

Farrâta, amonge the olde Romaines were the ceremonies of matrimonie.

Farreâtio, ônis, f. g. a sacrifyce made with a wheaten caake: whan the bryde was brought to churche.

Farreum, rei, n. g. a wheaten caake, also a barne to laye corne in.

Farreus, a, um, of corne or wheate.

Farreus panis, wheaten breadde.

Farrinârium, rij, n. g. a place where wheate or meale is kepte.

Farrinus, a, um, and Farrinaceus, a, um, pertaynynge to wheate.

Fârtilis, le, that is franked or crammed.

Fartilis anser, a franked goose.

Fartim, full stuffed or crammed.

Fartor, ôris, m. g. a puddyng maker, or he that feedeth or crammeth geese, capons, or other foules to fatte theim.

Fartum, ti, n. g. the stuffeyng of a puddeyng or other meate.

Fartum vestis, the bodie.

Fartûra, æ, f. g. the crafte or maner of stuffynge or crammyng.

Fas, n. g. indeclinabile, lefull before god, standyng with the lawe of god.

Fas & iura sinunt, It is permitted bothe by the lawe of god and man.

Nec ego id me facere fas existimo, neyther doo I thynke it lawfull for me to doo so.

Fas habebant, they thought it lefull.

Vulgo fas habetur, it is commonly coumpted to be lefull.

Fascelis, a name of Diana.

Fascia, æ, f. g. a swathell, or swathynge bande, or other lyke thyng of lynen. sometyme any gyrdle. sometyme an hose, greaue, or bushyn, or after some a garter or latchet to fasten ones greaues to his legges. sometyme it is vsed for a cloude.

Deuinctus erat fasciis, he was swathed, or he was bounde, or in bondes.

Fasciæ cretatæ, peinted or coloured hose.

Fascia lecti, the couerynge of a bedde.

Fasciæ orbis, the circles that astronomers calle Zonæ.

Fascia pectoralis, the gorget that women vsed to couer their pappes. Also a mucketer that children weare for rayneynge their clothes.

Nil fascia nigra minatur, the blacke cloude.

Fasciâtus, a, um, swathed, or bounde with swathell bandes.

Fasciculus, li, m. g. a grype or thyng bounden together. It is also a nosegaie, or any thynge knytte together, whiche may bee borne in a mans hande.

Fâscinans, nantis, one that bewitcheth.

Fascinâtio, ônis, f. g. a bewitchyng.

Fáſcino, aui, are, to trankfourme by enchaunt ment, or to bewitche.

Faſcinum, ni, neu. gen. an inchauntment or be witchynge, and one ſo enchaunted is of the common people called, taken, or forſpoken, or forlooked.

Faſciola, læ, fœm. gene. a little bande, a garter, a latchet, wherewith men vſed to faſten theyr legge harnayes.

Faſcio, aui, are, to ſwathe a chylde.

Faſcis, is, maſc. gene. a knytche of woodde or twigges, or any other thing bounden together, a faggotte, a bauen, ſometyme for Onus, a bourdeyne.

Faſces, roddes bounden together, and an axe in the myddle, whiche were borne before the chiefe officers of Rome, in declaryng theyr au thorite, whereof ſome had .vi. and ſome mo.

Faſces in the plurall noumbre is vſed for the offices or magiſtrates, that the people aſſigned or gaue to any noble men.

Faſces ſtramẽtorum vel virgultarum, a bun dell or barden.

Faſcis cocularius, a faggotte of dyre wood.

Faſces ſubmittere, was a kynde of reuerence that the Romaine magiſtrates vſed, either towarde the people, or ſome other noble per ſonages.

Iuſtitiæ faſces princeps ſubmittit, whan he, leauyng his princely traine, or kyngly maie ſtee, ſheweth hym ſelfe in any place of iuſtice to his ſubiectes more pleſauntly.

Faſcis ſagittarum, is taken for a theffe of ar rowes.

Faſcolus, li. m. g. a kynde of ſmall pulſe.

Faſellus, or Faſcelus, li, m g. & f. g. a kynde of bores called a gallion.

Faſiolus, lyke Phaſiolus.

Faſſus, a, um, one that hath graunted or cõfeſſed.

Faſti, orum, or Faſtus, tuum, plu. bookes, wher in were conteined certein ceremonies and cau ſes of ſundrie thynges amonge the Romaines, cõcernyng theyr feaſtes and ſolemnitees, whi che were longe kepte from the knowlage of the common people, vntyll at the laſte they were deuulgate by one Caius Flauius.

Faſti dies, were certaine daies, wherein onely the officer of Rome called Prætor, myghte ſpeake theſe three woordes, Do, Dico, Addico, plea dable daies: Nefaſti dies, contrary.

Faſtidio, faſtidis, iui, ire, to contemne with diſ daine, to abhorre, to haue in abhomination.

Faſtidire preces, to contemne or diſdeigne.

Faſtidit mei, he doeth diſdeigne me. Plaut.

Faſtidioſé, proudely, diſdainefully, ſcornefully.

Faſtidiôſus, a, um, full of diſdeigne.

Faſtiditus, a, um, hated, abhorred, diſdeigned.

Faſtidium, ij, n ge. hatrede, properly where one abhorreth the ſight or preſence of any thynge, contempte, diſdeignefulneſſe, lotherſomeneſſe.

Faſtidium delicatiſſimum, A verye nice lo thynge or diſdeignyng of any thyng.

Faſtidium audiendi, diſdeignfulneſſe in hea ring.

In faſtidium ădducere rem aliquam, to make a thyng lothed, hated, or diſdeigned.

Abigere faſtidium, to put awaye lothſomnes,

Afferre faſtidium, and Creare faſtidium, to make one loth or diſdeigne a thing or perſon.

Eius non poſſum ferre faſtidium, I can not abyde his diſdeignefulneſſe.

Modo ne ſit faſtidio, ſo that it wyll not loth you: or ſo that ye wyll not diſdeigne.

In faſtidio eſſe, to bee lothed or hated, to be nothyng eſtemed.

Faſtidium meũ, wherwith I diſdeigne other.

Faſtidium mei, whan other diſdeygne me.

Faſtidium ſtomachi, lothyng of the ſtomache, when one can not brooke meate.

Faſtigátio, ônis, fœm. g. the makyng of a thyng ſharpe toward the toppe, ſteple wyſe.

Faſtigiâtus, or Faſtigiatus, a, um, reyſed vp ſharpe towarde the toppe.

Faſtigiatus in mucronẽ, ſharpened to poynte.

Faſtigio, aui, are, to make or reyſe vp in height ſharpe towarde the toppe.

Faſtigium, gij, n. g. an altitude or the toppe or heyght of any thyng, a ridge of an houſe: alſo the bottome of a picte or lyke thyng, ſometyme the begynnyng of a matter. Sometyme it ſig nifieth the eſtate of a perſone in any dignite, ſometyme the ende of a thyng.

Summi faſtigia tecti, The ridge or toppe of the howſe.

Faſtigium imponere, is ſpoken whan a man will ſignifie a matter or thyng to be finiſhed or broughte to a poynete.

Faſtigium, idem quod genus.

Tria ſunt agrorum faſtigia, id eſt genera, Thre kyndes or ſortes.

Faſtigium tenere inter homines, To bee of great authorite or power, to be highly aduã ced or in great promotion.

Faſtigo, aui, are, idem quod Faſtigio.

Faſteſſus, a, um, that proudly diſdeigneth other.

Faſtus, us, m. g. hautenelle of mynde, pride, ars rogancie with proude woordes.

Fatâlis, le, pertaynyng to deſtenie, fatall: ſome tyme mortall.

Fataliter, deadely, by deſtenie.

Fatantur, id eſt, Multa fantur.

Fateor, ẽris, faſſus ſum, ẽri, whan a perſon that is culpable or faulte, doeth confeſſe & acknow lage his offence, in maner by conſtreynt. Alſo to vtter and affirme boldely without cõſtreint, boldely or freely to confeſſe.

De ſe ipſo haud cunctanter faſſus eſt, as for hym ſelfe he confeſſed without delate.

Fathiſco, looke Fatiſco.

Faticinus, a, um that telleth deſtenie.

Fatidicus, a, um, that readeth or telleth deſtenies or thynges to come, a ſouth ſayer.

Fa-

Lifer, tifera, um, that bringeth death or peſtilence, deadely.
Fangino, ônis, f. g. a wetyng.
Fangitus, a, um, wetted.
Fangitus corpore, ſeſſus animo.
Fango, axi, are, to make wete, to trouble much, to moue, to conſtreigne, to encourage, to beate or ſtrike, to ſtrike, to ſtere or prouoke, to reſtreigne or let.
Fangere deum votis, to praie and call vppon god dete inſtantly.
Fangere vinculis & carcere, to rule & bringe to conformitee and reaſone by impriſonment.
Spe laudum corda fangit, he doth ernestly ſoſtaine or encorage with hope of prayſe.
Inuecum terga fatigamus haſta. Verg. id eſt, percutimus.
Quæ mare nunc terraſque metu cœlumq; fangit, id eſt, perturbat, commouet.
Fanioqua, a wytche.
Fanioquus, a, um, idem quod Fatidicus.
Fanſco, ſcere, to be wete, to chynke or cleane, to open, gape, or chappe, as the earth doeth in a drouthe, to wexe feynte or feble, to become barreine, and as it were wete of bearynge, as the earthe with ouer muche tylyng.
Area fanſcit, the flooze choppeth.
Accuſatores non fatiſcebant, were not wete.
Fanor, aris, ari, to ſpeake muche.
Fanitas, atis, f. g. fooliſhenelle.
Fanum, ni, n. ge. the ordinaunce and diſpoſicion of almyghtie god, deſtenie, goddes prouidence, ſometyme deathe: ſometyme calamitee or great misfaunce of aduerſitee.
Fano conſulem fieri, To bee made conſull by the ordinaunce of god.
Si fanum tibi eſt, if it be thy deſtenie.
Fani dies, the daie of ones deathe.
Fato concedere, to die.
Fato fungi, to be deade.
In his qui fato ſunt functi, among them whiche be dead.
Veneno fato præcepit, he killed hym ſelfe with poyſon.
Fanor, aris, ari, to plaie the fole or idiote.
Fanus, a, um, that hath ſpoken.
Fanus, a um, vnſauery, without any maner of taſte, ſauyche, that lacketh naturall knowlage, an idiote.
Fanus, a naturall foole, without any wiſedome or good faſion, or after ſome one that ſpeaketh fooliſhe woordes, fooliſhe in woordes or ſayinges.
Fatua dea, called alſo Bona dea, the name of the earthe, ſo called, becauſe chyldren whan they be borne, door not vtter any voyce, before they haue touched the earthe.
Fauces, cium, f. g. plu the chekes, the lawes, the vpper parte of the throte. Alſo a ſtreicte entre into any place. Alſo the mouthe of a riuer.
Fauce is ſometyme redde in the ſingular nũbre.

Immani fauces ducit hiatu, he gapeth meruailouſe wyde.
Crucior bolum tantum mihi è faucibus ereptum, It greueth me ſore, that ſuche a good morſell, gobbet, or praie, is ſnatched out of my mouthe.
Fauentia, a citee in Italie, called commonly, Faenza, an other of Spaine.
Fauentinus, a man of Fauentia.
Faueo, ui, ere, to fauour, to beare good wyll, to be ſtyll and kepe ſilence.
Fauere linguis, to kepe ſilence.
Fauere faucibus, fauere ore, idem.
Inuidere & fauere, contrary.
Honori alicuius fauere, to wil wel the entreſt and forthcraunce of ones honour.
Male fauere alicui, To beare one little good will.
Iſti ſententiæ faueo, I like this ſentence well.
Fauetur, the impersonall.
Fauani, certaine people.
Fauj, people whiche deſcended of Hercules.
Fauilla, æ, fœm ge. a deade ſparke of fyre, hotte aſhes or embres extincted.
Fauiſcæ, certaine cellers in the courte of the capitall at Rome, where were wont to be laied the banners of the Romaines, whiche were borne in warres. Alſo therin was layed the treaſure and money, whiche the prieſtes of the temples in the capitall, dyd employe aboute thinges neceſſarie to their ſuperſtition and ceremonies.
Fauna, idem quod fatua.
Fauni, were named of the poetes ruſticall goddes, and monſtrouſe beaſtes lyke vnto men.
Faunus, an auncient kynge of the olde Latines, ſonne of Picus, he was alſo called Fatuelus, and was father of Latinus, whiche reigned in Latium, whoſe wyfe was called Fatua or Fauna.
Fauoniâna, ôrum, n. g. peares whiche are redde.
Fauonius, one of the wyndes called the ſouths weſte wynde.
Fauor, ôris, maſc gene. fauour, good will, ſupportacion.
Studium & Fauor.
Facere fauorem, to get one fauour.
Emereri fauorem, to deſerue ones fauour or good wyll, to get fauour.
Fauorabilis, le, fauoured of many, fauourable. Alſo that fauoureth.
Inuidioſus & fauorabilis, contrary.
Fauorabiliter, fauourably, with good wyll or ſupportacion.
Fauorinus, a philoſophier in the tyme of Adrian the emperour.
Fauſtè, proſperouſely, fortunately, luckely.
Fauſtianum vinum, wyne made of the graſpes growyng in the middes of the fildes called Falerni.
Fauſtitas, âtis, fœ. gen. good fortune, good lucke, happineſſe.
Fauſtus, the ſonne of Sylla,

Fau-

Faustulus, a shepeheardᵉ, whiche was the nourysher of Romulus and Remus.
Faustus, a, um, prosperouse, foꝛtunate, luckie.
Fautor, ôris, ma. g. one that fauoureth oꝛ supporteth.
Fautrix, icis, f. g. she that fauoureth, oꝛ supporteth, she that sustepneth oꝛ maintepneth.
Fauulus, a little hony combe.
Fauus, ui, m, g. a hony combe.
Fax, âcis, f. g. a toꝛche oꝛ candell, oꝛ other sphe thyng, which burnyng, geueth syght, a chiefe authoꝛ oꝛ mouer, one that inceneth oꝛ stireth a man to any thyng, a cheke sterer oꝛ mouer.
Fax accusationis, the chiefe authour and furtherer of an accusation.
Faces corporis, the motions oꝛ appetites of the bodie.
Dicendi faces, a very eloquent & ernest maner of oꝛacion aboundyng with all sygures of amplification & other oꝛnamentes of Rhetoꝛicke.
Fax seditionis, a thynge that is a great occasion oꝛ maintenaunce of sedition.
Præferre faces, by translation, to shewe the wey, oꝛ pꝛouoke by his exemple.
Addere faces, & subdere faces alicui, to incense and encourage one foꝛwarde in doynge any thynge.
Dolorum faces admouere, to geue one great occasions of soꝛowe and heuinesse.
Faxim, let me dooe.
Lubens faxim, I wyll dooe it with a syght good wyll.
Verbum caue faxis, beware thou speake not one wooꝛde.
Vtinam dij ita faxint, I woulde the goddes woulde bꝛynge it so to passe.
Faxint, let them dooe.
Faxo, I wyll oꝛ shall dooe.
Faxiolus, li, m. g. the fruite of a certayne tree in the realme of Zenega, in Affrike, which are redde with blache spottes.

F ANTE E

FEbricito, aui, are, to be sicke of a feuer.
Febricula, læ, f. g. a little oꝛ easie feuer.
Habere febriculam, to be sicke of an ague.
Febrifugia, looke Centaurium, some thynke it to bee one of the kyndes of the herbe, whiche is called of olde writers Parthenyon.
Febrilis, le, pertepnyng to a feuer.
Febrio, iui, ire, to haue a feuer.
Febris, bris, f. g. a feuer, whiche is an vnnaturall heate kendled at the hert, bꝛought from thens by the veynes and arteryes, by the meane of the spirite and veynes, into all the body, sensibly hurtynge his naturall operation.
Therof be three kyndes, one called Hectica, whiche is in the spirites and pꝛincipall humours, and also in the firme partes of the body, and is eyther by it selfe pꝛoceding of continuall anger, labour, kampyne, exercise of lecherie inflampng and dꝛyng the membꝛes: oꝛ following other sickenesses: sometyme vniuersall, specially in the bodie coleryke oꝛ melancolike oꝛ elles particular, as whan it happeneth after the weakenesse of the kyue pꝛincipall membꝛes, the hert, the longes, the lyuer, the stomache, oꝛ the reynes. The other is named Ephemera, oꝛ Diaria: whiche is an inflamacion of the spirites vitall, naturall, oꝛ animall. In the vitall spirites, it happeneth by wyath inflaming, by thought oꝛ soꝛowe restreignyng, by hotte ayre chaufking, oꝛ by colde ayre stoppyng. In the naturall spirites it happeneth by hunger oꝛ thyꝛst inflampng, by hotte meates and dynkes inflampng, by repletion oppressyng, by superfluous lacke oꝛ stoppyng, by accustomed exercyse neglectynge, oꝛ foꝛbearynge of customable baynes, sweate, oꝛ bloude letting. In the spirites animall it happeneth by to muche beyng alone without recreation, by muche watche oꝛ lacke of sleape: by to muche oꝛ ofte studyng, by a catarre oꝛ reume, by vntemperate heate oꝛ coldenesse of the ayre, oꝛ by to muche laboure oꝛ exercyse. The other feuer called Humoralis, and also Putrida, is in the humoꝛs, the matter whereof is eyther bloudde, cholin, fleume, oꝛ melancholie. This feuer happeneth either by feruentnesse of the sonne oꝛ ayre, oꝛ by lacke of accustomed exercyse, baynes, oꝛ euacuacion, by dayly surfettes, inoꝛdinate wellyng oꝛ meatyng after meales, dꝛinking muche wyne after meate, hot confections oꝛ spices after meales. Of superfluitee of meates & dynkes cometh repletion, which stoppeth the pores of the skynne, and the holes of the little veynes called Capillares, because they be as smal as heres. And that stoppyng oꝛ oppilacion, letteth the ventyng out of the naturall heate: by reason whereof the heate of the naturall humour (nature beyng vnable to rule it) boyleth and sendeth vp fumes, whiche whirlyng about comeh to the herte, and inflameth it: and passyng foꝛthwith by the veines and arteries into all the bodie, maketh the feuer, called Putrida, whiche accoꝛdynge to the humour, wherin it reigneth, taketh a sundꝛie name, as ye shall reade in theyr seuerall places.
Accessio, and Accessus febris, the beginnyng of the feuer, oꝛ the encrease of the feuer.
Ardor febris, the bournyng of the feuer.
Horrores febrium, the chyllynges oꝛ shakynges of the feuers.
Intentio febris, the encrease of a feuer.
Remissio febris, contrary.
Reliquiæ febris, the grudgeing of a feuer, after the courses haue left a man.
Vaga febris, a feuer that kepeth no certayne course.
Abigere, arcere, depellere, submouere, resoluere febrem, to put awaie an ague.

Accessit

Accelsit febris, and Desijt, contrary.
Minui febrem, and intendi, contrary.
Asserre & facere febrem, to bryngе one in an ague.
Febris instar, incipit, augetur, consistit, finitur, decedit, repent, reuertitur, redit.
Corripi febre, and incidere in febrem, to fall into an ague.
Liberare febre, to heale one of an ague.
Remittit se febris, the feuer diminisheth.
Februa, ôrum, plu. sacrifice, and ceremonies for purgeyng of soules. Also all thynges vsed in sacrifice to purge and clense.
Februatus, a, um, that which was so pourged.
Februarius, ij, m. g. the moneth of Februarie.
Februo, aui, are, to purge soules by sacrifyce or prayer.
Februum, i, neu. g. in the Sabynes tongue, is called purgeyng or clensyng.
Februus, is also Pluto called god of hell.
Fecialis, is, m. g. a certayne officer of armes, whiche denounced warre or peace, where as was hostilitee or cause of battayle: whiche maie be nowe taken for an ambassadour, sent for suche a purpose.
Fecialis, le, belongyng to that officer of armes.
Fel, fellis, n. g. the galle, sometyme it is taken for griefe of the mynde.
Felicrae, the herbe called Centaurium, loke there.
Sales suffusi felle, taunting scoffes.
Felicones, men that are neteffarie for nothyng, it hath an other signification, whiche for the abhominablenesse therof I will not wryte: hence it is more expedient that it be vnknowne.
Felis, lis, m. g. a catte, sometyme it signifieth a weasell.
Felix, icis, looke Fœlix.
Felleus, a, um, bitter lyke gall.
Fellico, aui, are, to suche.
Fescina, æ, a citee in Italie, nowe called Bononia.
Fesnum, a towne in Italie in the countrey called Marchia Tarusina.
Femen, minis, n. g. the inner part of the thygh. sometyme the prime membre of a woman.
Feminalia, the heuerying of the thyghes.
Femoralia, lium, n. g. plur. breches.
Femur, ôris, n. g. the vtter and harder parte of the thygh, some englysche it the hamme.
Femur bubulum, an herbe, holsome for the sinewes.
Fenestella, læ, m. g. the proper name of a storie writer, whiche flourished in the daies of Tiberius Cæsar: but Eusebius affirmeth, that he died i the tyme of Augustus.
Fenestella, læ, f. g. a little windowe.
Fenestra, æ, f. g. a wyndowe, sometyme an entre into a thyng.
Fenestram aperire, to open a windowe, to geue an occasion, to make awaie.
Quantam fenestram ad nequitiam patefecerís? How greate a gappe shalt thou open to naughtynesse? Howe great an occasion shalte thou geue to doo lewdely.
Fenestrâlis, le, belongyng to a windowe.
Fenestrâtus, a, um, opened.
Nulla est fenestratior domus, no house is more open.
Fenestrenula, æ, a little windowe.
Fenestro, aui, are, to open.
Ferabites, wylde.
Fera, æ, f. g. a wylde beaste.
Feracitas, atis, fruitfulnesse.
Feralia, ôrum, n. g. plur. a daie dedicate to the infernall goddes to pacifie theym towardes the soules departed. They were also sacrifices made for soules.
Ferâlis, le, deadely or mortall, lamentable.
Feralia officia, solemnitees aboute deade bodyes.
Feralia amicula, wyndyng sheetes, and suche lyke thynges, wherin dead bodies were layed.
Feralis cultus, mournyng apparayle.
Feralis dies, the daie of buryng.
Ferax, âcis, om. ge, fruitfull, or that bryngeth foorth muche fruite.
Ferax miraculorum Asia, Asia bryngyng forth many meruailouse and straunge thinges.
Ferax ingenium, a plentifull wytte.
Feraces agri, fruitfull and fertyle fieldes.
Ferax solum, a ranke soyle.
Ferax bonarum artium seculum, a tyme, in the whiche learnyng & good sciences do florish.
Ferbeo, bui, ére, to boyle or seeth.
Ferculum, li, neu. g. a dysshe with meate, also a pageant caried or borne to be loked on in a triumphe, as were in olde tyme, the images of the goddes, spoyle of the enemies, crownes, ingyns of warre, and other lyke thynges. sometyme it signifieth the stage or place, wherin the pagent is sette.
Feré, almoste, nyghe, well nyghe, lackyng but little, for the moste parte.
Rure feré se continebat, he abode or tarved for the moste parte in the countrey.
Feré in diebus paucis, shortely after within fewe daies.
Qui tum fere multis erat in ore, Whiche was than all moste in euery mans mouthe.
Vtor feré hac veste in sacris faciendis, in doyng sacrifyce, I moste commonly weare this garment.
Vt feré fit, as it chaunceth for the most parte: or as it chaunceth almoste in euery place.
Feré plærumque, for the moste parte, moste commonly.
Ferentârius, a, um, armed in lyght harneies, redie to come quickely to succours, plyng to fight with a darte, sworde, or slyng.
Ferentarius amicus, a friende that helpeth at tyme of neede.

Feren-

Ferentinum, a citee, which after Plinie standeth in the fyrste region of Italie.

Ferentum, a citee in Apulis.

Feréola vitis, a kynde of vynes.

Feretrius, a name of Jupiter, geuen by Rómulus.

Féretrum, tri, neu. g. a beere or coffyn, whereon deade bodies are borne. sometyme a thynge, whereon images, reliques, or iewelles are borne.

Féretrius, a mountayne, of the whiche the house of Pherectre was named.

Feriæ, arum, fœm gene. plu. holy daies, daies vacant from labour.

Feriæ belli, times of vacation from warres.

Feriæ statiuæ, holy daies that come at one certaine tyme of the yere.

Conceptiuæ feriæ, feastes & holy daies, whiche were ordeyned yerely by the prelates and maiestrates, but at no certayne tyme.

Feriæ imperatiuæ, extraordinarie holy daies commaunded sodeinely by officers, for some thyng that hath chaunced.

Feriæ esuriales, fastyng daies.

Feriátus, a, um, vnoccupied or ydle.

Feriati dies, holy daies.

Feriatus voluntate sua à negotiis publicis, one that is not occupied or busied about the affayres of the common weale.

Ferina, æ, f. ge. venison, flesshe of a wylde beast.

Ferina caro, idem.

Ferinus, a, um, wylde as a beast, or pertenyng to wylde beastes, or lyke to a wylde beaste.

Ferio, aui, are, and Ferior, aris, ari, the deponent, to bee vacant from labour, busyneile, and studie, to make holy date.

Ferio, percussi, ferire, to strike, to stabbyshe, to knocke.

Ferire fœdus, to make a league or truse.

Ferire iugulum, to slea, to hit the marke.

Feriunt aures hominum, whan thynges that are spoken dooe pleasauntly stere vp men to herken to them.

Ferire cornu, to bushe with the horne.

Feriam fores, I wyll knocke at the doze.

Oculos feriunt quæcunq; conspici possunt.

Pectus ferire, to strike or knocke ones brest.

Pecunias ferire, to coyne money.

Pugno ferire, to strike with the fyste.

Calce ferire, to strike or kycke.

Ferire rostro, to pecke with the byll.

Ferire securi, to cut of with an axe, to dooe execution.

Porcum ferire, to sacrifice an hogge.

Féritas, átis, fœ. g. a naturall wyldenesse, fiersnesse, cruelitee.

Ferme, almoste, well nere, for the moste parte.

Haud ferme, scantly, hardly.

Fermentesco, tescere, to puffe or rise vppe by leauenynge, & in the grounde to lye lyghte and not faste to gether.

Fermento, aui, are, to medle or myxt well togyther, as leauen with dowe also to leauen.

Fermentare terram, after Calepine, to make fatte the ground: but diuers places in Columella dooe well declare, that Fermentare terram, is to resolue the earthe into dust, & make it light, tenable, and lewse, and not to wasshe, faste, compact, and cloddy together.

Fermentum, ti, n. g. leauen.

Mea vxor tum in fermento iacet, my wyfe is verie angrie, greatly moued, all bestirred.

Fero, fers, tuli, ferre, to beare, to suffre, to susteigne or abyde, to leade or bryngе, to cleyme or go awaie, to take, to name, to shewe or tell, to repoyre, to desyre, to bryngе forth, to haue, to boaste, to take awaie, to receiue, to obteine, to accustome.

Balbum vero, qui est istius rei (quemadmodum scribis) adiutor, in oculis fero, Balbus, who (as you write) is the helper of al this matter, I loue hertile, or I greatly esteeme.

Ferre acceptum, looke Acceptum ferre.

Ferre ad cælum, to extolle or praise a man ouerlyngly.

Ferre in astra, idem.

Ferre ad populum, or Ferre rogationem ad populum, to aske aduyse of the people.

Aegrè ferre, to take it grieuously.

Aequo animo ferre, to take patiently.

Ferre annos, aut vetustatem, to endure long, or beare well his age. It is properly spoken of wyne, or other lyke thynge.

Ferre conditionem, to proffer, to put in the thoyse, to offer a condition.

Ferre expensum, To spende, to laie out, to write expenses, to bestowe.

Vtinam ita fortuna tulisset, I wouldе it had so fortuned.

Ita fama ferebat, so the bruite went.

Fortiter ferre, to abyde or sustreine constantly.

Fructum ex aliquo ferre, to take profyt by one.

Fructum ferre, to bryngе forthe fruite.

Ferre gradum, to go forthe.

Ferre grauiter, to take a thyng grieuously.

Fero tibi iudicem, I am contented to be iudged by suche one: least hym be iudge betweene vs, or iudge the matter betweene vs.

Fer contra manum, geue me thy hande.

Fer me, beare with me.

Ferre molestè, to take a thynge grieuously, or displeasauntly.

Ferre obscure aliquid, To dissemble a thyng, to kepe secret, to make as though it were not.

Paupertatem nam nunq; obscure tulisti, you dyd neuer dissemble or hyde your pouertie.

Odium ferre pro labore, for ones labour and trauaile to be hated.

Ferre osculum, to kysse.

Ferre palam, to speake it abrode, to publisshe a thynge openly.

Partum, or ventrem ferre, to be with chyld.

Pedem

edem ferre, to go swythe, poetice.
ersonam alienam ferre, to plaie an other mans arte.
remium ferre, to bee rewarded or recompensed.
recium ferre, idem.
rimas ferre, to haue the pryce or preeminence,
be chiefe.
palmam ferre, idem.
riuilegium de aliquo ferre, whan the prince or agistrate requireth the people to enacte a thyng prejudice of any particular person.
ferre quæstionem, whan the magistrates desyre e people to ordeyne iudges extraordinare in a ivate cale.
si ita res fert, If neede bee, if the mattier so equyre.
Repulsam ferre, to be refused, or put backe in'a requeste.
Responsum ferre, to haue an answere.
Lætum responsum tulère, They had an heauy unswere.
Ferre sententiam, to shewe his opinion.
Ire obuiam ferre, to go and mete with hym.
Signa ferre, to marche againste ennemies with anners displaied.
Ferre sitim, to suffer thirste.
Suffragia ferre, To geue voyce in election, or or ber consent.
Ferre suppetias, to succour.
Nihil hoc feró, I care not, I passe not on 't.
Ferri, to be borne or caried.
Feror, I go I wotte not how like a madde man.
Dum tempus ad eam rem tulit, whyle tyme ser
ued therfore, whyle it was conuenient.
Dum ætas ferat, while age suffereth or requireth.
Tu ne hoc aliter à me argentum feras? Shalt thou haue this money of me, if thou do not?
Quod posces, feres, what so euer you wyll re quyre or aske, you shall obteyne.
Eius se magistrum ferebat, he saied he was his master.
Et vt ætas illa fert, and as the nacion or condicion of that age is.
Fert animus, it is my pleasure, it pleaseth me,
I am disposed.
Arma ferre aduersus patriam, to warre against his countrey.
Auxilium ferre, to ayde, to helpe, to come to the reskue.
Clam iram ferre aduersus aliquem, To beare grudge and malyce againste one priuilie.
Maiori strepitu quàm populi Romani fert con suetudo, with greatter noyse then the custome and facion of the Romaines was.
In fama ferebat, so the bruite or rumoze went.
Præcipuam gloriam tulit, he had the chiefe re
nome and praise.
Immoderatè, or Immodicè res aduersas ferre,
To take aduersitee too vnpatiently.
Impunè & inultum ferre, to escape vnpunished.
Iracundè ferebat, he was verie angrie and dis pleased with the mattier.
Laudem ferre, to haue great praise.
Ferre laudibus, to extolle, to praise.
Ferre lucem, to abyde the lyght.
Fer in nouitiam meam, geue me knowlage.
Faciet, quæ feret libido, he wyll doe, what so euer his fantasie or pleasure shall leade him to.
Vt natura ferebat, as nature ledde hym: accor dyng to his nature and inclination.
Natura fert, it is a thyng naturall.
Nomen alicuius ferre, to beare the name of any person, to be called after hym.
Neq; id occulte fert, neyther doeth he that priuylie or in corners.
Vt mea fert opinio, as I thynke, as I suppose.
Plagas ferre, to be beaten.
Precium ob stultitiam fero, I haue a rewarde for my foolyshenesse.
Ferre rem vulgo, to diuulgate or tell abrode.
Ferre salutem alicui, to greete or salute.
Sententiam ferre, To speake ones opinion or iudgement.
Non feret, quin vapulet, He shall not goe a waie before he be beaten.
Supplicium ferre, to be punyshed.
Preces deo ferre, to praie.
Victoriam ferre, to haue the victorie.
In quæstionem seruum ferre, to deliuer a ser uaunt to be examined by tormentes.
Via quæ ad portam fert, the streete which lea deth to the gate.
Fertur ad terram vitis, The vyne groweth downe towarde the grounde.
Tributum ferre, to paie tribute.
Fertur, the impersonalle, the reporte is, the bruite is.
Ferunt dixisse, they report that he saied.

Ferócia, æ, fœm. g. fiersenesse.
Ferocio, ciui, ire, to be fierse or cruell.
Ferócitas, ātis, f. g. in shewynge cruelties, fiersenesse, cruelnesse, hastynesse.
Feróciter, fiersely, cruelly.
Feróculus, li, m. ge. one that is somewhat fiers or arrogant.
Feronia, the goddesse of woddes. it was also the goddesse of seruauntes, in whose temple (the head beyng shauen) they were wont to receyue a coped cappe, in token that they were infranchised. it is also a citee vnder the hyll Soractes.
Ferox, ôcis, omn. gene. fierse, arrogant, glorious, hardy, couragious, cruell, vntractable, curst or shewed.
Eó ne es ferox, quia habes imperium in belluas? Arte thou therfore so hastie on men, because thou arte mayster ouer bruite beastes?
Ferox forma, prowde and glorrouse of his beautee.

Ferramentarij, ôrum, ma. ge. they whiche worke in yron.
Ferraméntum, ti, neu. g. an instrument or toole of yron.

Ferramenta tonſoria, barbours toolcs.
Ferrária, æ, f. g. an yron myne.
Ferraria, Ferrer, a titee in Italye. alſo a yromõgere in Spayne.
Ferrárius, a, um, perteynyng to yron, or of yron.
Ferrarius faber, a ſmythe.
Ferraria officina, a ſmythes forge.
Ferraria aqua, The water in the cole trough, wherin ſmythes vſe to quenche hotte yron.
Ferrâtus, a, um, haunge yron on it, or cloſed in yron.
Ferreus, a, um, of yron. And by tranſlation, harde to intreate, vnkynde.
Durus & ferreus. Ferus & ferrens.
Ferreus ſcriptor, an authour that hathe an harde and crabbed ſtyle.
Ferro, aui, are, to ſette yron on.
Ferrugineus, a, um, of the colour of ruſty yron,
a blew colour.
Ferrûgo, înis, fœ. g. ruſte of yron, a murreay colour. ſome call it a ſadde blew. alſo the fringe about a canaby or other lyke thyng.
Ferrum, ri, neu. ge. yron. ſometyme a weapon,
a ſwoorde.
Abſumere ferro aliquem, To kylle one with a ſwoorde.
Adegit ferrum in viſcera, he thraſt his ſwoord into his bealy.
Cernere ferro, to trie by dente of ſwoorde.
Ferrûmen, înis, n. g. glewe, lyſe, ſoulder, or ſuche other byndyng or cleaunyng mattier.
Ferruminátio, ônis, f. g. a ſowdyng with yron.
Ferrúmino, aui, are, to ioygne or myxte together,
proyerly mettalles, to ſoulder.
Fértilis, le, fertile or fruitefull, ranke, battle.
Fertilitas, âtis, fœm. g. fruitefulneſſe, fertilitee, battleneſſe of the growund, aboundance.
Fertiliter, fruitefully, abundantly.
Fertum, ti, n. ge. a cake made of ſundyr graynes and ſpices.
Feruefácio, uefacis, féci, ere, to make hot.
Feruens, entis, that is verate hotte, that ſcalderh, fierce, feruente, chaufked, angrye, vehemente.
Feruens aqua, ſcaldyng hotte water.
Feruens guſtu radix, vehement and burnyng taſt. Feruentes horæ diei, the myddaie.
Feruens ingenium, a fierce or haſty nature.
Feruenter, hottely.
Feruco, es, ui, and Férbui, êre, to bee chaufed or hette, to boyle, to ſeethe, to bee verate angrye.
Ira totus feruet, he is thoyoughely chaufked with anger.
Fora limbus omnia feruent, All the common places of iudgementes bee greatly buſyed and occupyed with ſuites and matters of the lawe.
Feruéſco, ferbui, feruéſcere, to ware hotte.
Feruidé, vehementlyr, with a great heate.
Féruidus, a, um, feruent, verie hotte, ſcaldyng, vehement. alſo diligent.
Férula, læ, f. g. a certayne herbe, haunge a ſtalke lyke to fenell, and, as Turnor iudgeth, may be named fenell grant, or herbe Sagapene. it is taken for a rodde or ſtyche, wherewith chyl-drens handes be ſtryken in ſchooles, called a paulmer. Alſo a cane or reede, a potte lyke.
ſometyme a ſpleynte to ſpleynt a broken lymme or legge with.
Ferulæ manum ſubducere, To go to ſchoole with a maiſter, & to bee beaten as the other bee.
Ferulácens, a um, like the herbe called Ferula.
Ferulárius, a, um, lyke a cane or reede.
Feruo, ferui, ëre, to be hotte, to bee chaufed, or bee angry.
Feruit ſol, the ſonne is hotte.
Feruor, ôris, m. ge. a greate heate or burnyng, vehemencie, great anger.
Ferus, a, um, wylde, cruell, terrible.
Feſcenninum, a town of Campayne, where verſes longe at mariages were fyrſt inuented.
Feſcennini verſus, verſes longe at weddyn-ges, full of ribauldry, ſcoffes, and taunts.
Feſiis pro feriis, aliquando dixerunt antiqui.
Feſſus, a, um, weerie.
Feſſus via, and De via, werie with iourneying.
Feſſus vita, weery of his lyfe.
Feſſus curſu, weery of rennyng.
Artus feſſi, weeri lymmes.
Feſtinans, antis, that maketh haſte or ſpede.
Feſtinánter, Feſtinaté, and Feſtiné, haſtily, quickely, ſwikely, ſpeedily. ſometyme without aduiſement.
Feſtinátio, ônis, f. g. haſte or ſpeede.
Adhibere feſtinationem, to make ſpede.
Feſtinatio, and Otium, contrary.
Feſtinató, ſpeedily, in haſte.
Feſtinâtor, ôris, m. g. one that maketh haſte.
Feſtinâtus, a, um, haſtened, dooen with ſpede.
Feſtino, aui, are, to make haſte, to be troubled,
to hye apace.
✠ Feſtina lenté, ſpede the ſlowely, make ſom haſt: ſoft fire maketh ſwete malte, it is good b merie and wiſe, this is. gr. ſpoken, where man will signifie a thyng to be doen, neyther to haſtyly, nother to ſlowely, but in a conuenie temperance. Se my booke of the gouernour i the chapiter of maturitee.
✠ Comes feſtinationis pœnitentia, haſt bring geth repentance, haſt is haſte mans woe.
Properare & feſtinare.
Feſtinat ad fratrem, he maketh haſte to goe to his brother.
Nihil feſtinat, he maketh no haſte.
Fugam feſtinare, to make haſte or ſpede, to renne awaie.
Mortem in ſe feſtinauit, he haſtened his owne
deathe.
Feſtinant eſſeda, They make ready the waggons or charlottes with all ſpeede.
Quid feſtinas? why hyeſt thou ſo faſte? or what is the mattier that thou arte ſo troubled and maheſt ſuche haſte?
Feſtinor, the paſſiue,

Festinus, a, um, hastie, quicke.
Festue, merily, pleasauntly, featerly, prettily, iolyly.
Festuitas, âtis, fœm. g. mirthe, pleasauntnesse, iopfulnesse.
Festiuo, aui, are, to keepe holy date.
Festiuus, a, um, merry, pleasaunt, pfyouohynge mirth, ioyous: also pertaynyng to holy daies.
Festiuum caput, a mery and pleasaunt felowe.
Festiuus sermo, pleasant and mery talke.
Festra, a lyttell wyndet.
Festûca, æ, f. gen. the yonge tender syzynge of a tree or herbe also a mote also the rodde, whiche the pretor vsed amonge the Romans, in makyng bondmen fre.
Festucârius, a, um, pertaynynge to Festûca, belongyng to the pretors rodde.
Festus, a mannes name, familiar with Domitian.
Festum, ti, n. g. a festiuall date.
Festus, a, um, feastfull or solempne.
Dies festus, an holy date.
Festa pax, a iopfull peace.
O dies festus, O mery and iopfull date.
Festus clamor, a crye or shoute of men festyng and makyng mery.
Conuiuia festa, mery tauntes.
Cultus festus, apparell vsed on holy daies.
Celebrare & agere dies festos, to solemnise and kepe holy daies.
Fesulæ, arum, f. gen. plu. an olde citee in Tuscane, not farre from Florence.
Fex, vocis Fæx.

F ANTE I.

Fiber, bri, m. gen. a beast called a beuer, called also Castor, whose stones are vsed in medicine, and are named Castorium: it is also a kynde of wolfes.
Fibra, æ, fœm. gen. the hyrsynes of a tyuer, or any other thynge. also Fibræ are the extreme partes of the tyuer, the herte, the lyuer, or other thynges, wherin is any diuision. They may be called lappes. also small thynges lyke heares, hangynge at the rootes of herbes or trees, sometyme the small pores of the veynes, by the which the sweate issueth. Also sodde conseled, thynges lyke threedes, which are taken out, eare they make puddynges.
Neq; mihi cornua fibra est, I am not so harde horned.
Fibrâtus, a, um, that hath hyrsynes or smalle thynges hangynge at yt lyke heares, as the beardes of an oyster.
Fibrinus, a, um, of a beuer.
Fibula, æ, fœm. gener. a buckle of a gyrdell or other thynge lyke therto, a tache or claspe. Also a kynde of brydynge it is a brace, in masonrie it is a cramppon or yron hoope, to holde square stones together. Also a thynge that surgions vse to close woundes. sometyme a littell houpe or syringe of brasse.

Tigna coniuncta fibulis, The principall postes ioigned strongly together with braces.
Fibulo, aui, are, to buckle, to ioygne or fasten together tymber or bourdes, or other like thinges.
Ficâria, æ, f. ge. a fygge tree, or rather the place where fygge trees growe.
Ficârius, a, um, that delyteth to eate figges.
Ficatum, ti, neu. gener. the liuer of a hogge or swyne.
Ficédula, æ, fœm. g. a byrde, whiche feedeth on fygges or grapes.
Ficêtum, ti, neu. gene. a place where fygge trees doo growe.
Ficitor, tôris, mas. gen. he that loueth or gathereth fygges.
Ficolea, æ, f. g. a staffe or stake of a fygge tree.
Ficôsus, full of sores in the heade or in the bearde.
Ficte, feygnedly, with counterfaytynge, not sincerely.
Fictile, lis, a thyng made of earthe.
Fictilis, le, earthen or made of earthe.
Fictitius, a, um, feigned, or dissembled, counterfayted.
Fictor, ôris, ma. ge. a counterfaiter, a feigner, a potter that maketh earthen vesselles.
Fictrix, icis, f. g. the feminine.
Fictus, a, um, made to the similitude of a thynge feigned, inuented to no purpose.
Ficulnea arbor, a figge tree.
Ficulneus, a, um, & Ficulnus, a, um, of a fygge tree.
Ficulus, li, m. g. a lyttell figge.
Ficus, secundæ & quartæ declinationis, fœ. ge. a fygge, or figge tree.
Ficus Aegyptia, called also Sycomorus, is a tree, which hath his name of a figge tree, and a mulberi tree, and therfore may be called mulberie fygge tree.
Ficus, ci, masc. gene. a sore or scabbe, growyng in the places of a mans body, where heare is. sometyme a fygge.
Fidei commissârius, a feoffer of truste.
Fidei commissum, a feoffement of truste.
Fidei commissus, a, um, that is committed to one, to be by hym disposed to a certayn vse.
Fideicommitto, mîsi, ĕre, to enfeoffe.
Fideiussor, ôris, a suretee or bondsmen.
Fidelia, æ, fœm. gene. an earthen vesselle, seruynge to diuers purposes. Also a carpenters lyner, chalked to marke out the euen proposition of thynges.
De eadem fidelia duos parietes dealbare, spoken of hym that with one benefite or pleasure woulde deserue thanke of two persons.
Fidelis, e, faithfull, loyall, trusty, sure.
Fidelitas, âtis, fœm. gener. faithfulnes, loyaltee, surete.
Fideliter, Fidelè, and Fide, faithfully, truely, vprightly.

Fidena, æ, or fidenæ, arum, a towne in Italy.
Fidenates, people of the Sabines.
Fidentia, æ. f. g. a confidence, boldenesse, truste, credite, estimacion, tuicion, sauegarde.
Fidenubeo, fidei bes, to be suertee for an other, to wyll a thyng to be doone on his warrandise.
Fidenusio, ônis, f. g. suertethyp.
Fidens, entis, trustynge, bolde, hauyng a good confidence.
Fidenter, stoutly, boldly, with a good confidence. Timide & fidenter, contrary.
Fides, ei, fœm. gen. beleefe, truste, promyse, credite, estimacion, tuicion, saufegarde. It is a stablenesse and truth in promises and couenauntes. It is also a faithfull execution of thynges committed or promysed, faythfulnesse, true dealyng, vprightnes of conscience.
Fides labefactata, affecta, afflicta, credence loste.
Fides publica, assurance or warrantise made in the name of all the rulers, and people for a man to doo or saue a thynge safely without perill or hurte, saue conducte.
Fide nulla es, thou kepest no promise.
Fide bona, without fraude or couen.
Fide sua, mea, tua, iubere, to vndertake.
Fidem accipere, to be beleued.
Fidem astringere, to promyse faithfully.
Fidem deserere, prodere, abrumpere, fallere, frangere, mutare, to breake promise, to be inconstant, to goe from ones woorde, to be inconstant of promise.
Fidem habere, to beleeue. a so to be beleued.
Fidem labefactare, to lose credence.
Fidem liberare, implere, exoluere, præstare, seruare, to discharge ones promise or honestee, to keepe promise.
Fidem publicam dare, to geue assurance or warrantise, to graunt a safe conducte.
Fide tua esse iubes, Thou dost vndertake, thou doest make warrantise.
Fidem excedere, to be incredible.
Fide maius esse, idem.
Fidem rei exhibere, to declare that a thynge is trewe, to shewe a true proofe of a thynge, to doo a thyng in dede.
Fidem dare, to promise, to plight ones trouthe.
Ad fidem veri, for the confyrmacion and declaracion of the truthe.
Fides sit penes authorem, Let the first teller therof answere for the truthe.
Fide nulla homo, or fidei nullius, a man of no credite, a man of no honestie, of no substantiall dealyng.
Fide publica venire, to come vnder safe conducte.
Fronti nulla fides, a man may not bee trusted or beleued by his looke.
Inest in verbis fides, There is in his woordes substantialnesse or truthe.

Absonum fidei, not to be beleued, vnlykely to be trewe.
Haud magna cum re, sed fidei plenus, A man of no great substance, but faithfull and truste.
Abrogare alicui fidem, to credyte a man no more.
Bona fides, substantiall and trewe dealyng, without gyle or craft, contrary to Dolus malus.
Bona fide dicere, to speake as one thynketh in his conference, without fealyng.
Bona fide emere, to bye a thynge without fraude or gyle.
Fac hoc quod te iubemus, mea fide, Do this that we byd you on my warrantise.
A fide aliquem abducere, to entice a man to doo agaynst his othe and conscience.
Abhorret a fide, it is not lykely to be true.
In fidem accipere, to take vnder obedience and protection.
Fidem detrahere alicui, to bynge a man out of reputacion or credite.
Alligare fidem iuramento, to sweare.
Committere se in fidem vel fidei alicuius, to put ones selfe in the tuicion and protection of a man, to truste one to doo with him as he wyll hym selfe.
Fides concidit, his credence is loste, no man wyll truste hym.
Fides constitit, it is proued or tried.
Cum fide, faithfully, trustyly.
Ex fide scribere, to wryte a thyng truely and faythfully as it is.
Si fidem habeat, yf he myghte beleue: yf he myght be in suretie, or yf he myght surely trust.
Res habuit fidem, the thynge was beleued.
Fidem nullam habent, They are nothynge lyke to be true.
Imminuere fidem alicuius, to make a man of lesse credite or estimacion.
Fidem implorare, to desyre ayde or succour.
Fidem interponere, to make warrantise, to assure.
In fide populi Romani manere, to abyde or continue in the protection or saufgarde of the people of Rome.
In fide manere, & frangere fœdus, contrary.
Redde nunc pactam fidem, Now performe that you promised.
Hoc vnum curaui, ut esset mihi fides, That one thynge I a wares endeuoured, that a man myght truste me at my woorde.
In nullius fide esse, to be in the obedience or protection of no man.
Istine parum fides mihi apud te? Doo ye trust me so lyttell? or am I in so smalle credence with you?
Fides mihi apud hunc est, I am in good credite with this man.
Fide alicuius sumere argentum, to borowe money vppon an other mannes credyte or warrantise.

Fides

Fidem ſuam tueri, to maintepne and defende his honeſtee and credite.

Fides, dis, f. gen. the ſtrpng of any inſtrument, ſometyme an harpe or lute, or other ſuche inſtrument with ſtrynges.

Conſpicuus fide, famous and well knowen for his cunnyng on the harpe or lute.

Adhibere fides epulis, to play on the harpe or lute at a feſt or banket.

Diſcebãt fidibus antiqui, men of auncient tyme learned to play on the lute, harpe, or gitterne.

Docere aliquem fidibus, to teach one to play on the harpe, lute, or gitterne.

Iungere vocem fidibus, to ſinge to the lute, or harpe.

Fidicen, fidicinis, m. gen. an harper, or one that playeth on an inſtrument with ſtrynges.

Fidicina, æ, a woman harper or luter, a ſyngyng wenche.

Fidicinius, a, um, of or pertaynyng to an harper, or player on a ſtringed inſtrument.

Fidicula, æ, f. gen. a rebecke or gitterne. alſo the name of a ſterre.

Fidiculæ, arum, fœm. gene. plur. a tourment made with cordes or ſtrynges, wherwith men bee tourmented, to make them confeſſe treaſone or felonye.

Fidiculanus, a noble ſenatour of Rome.

Fidipedes, a kynde of birdes, wherof Aelianus writeth.

Fidius deus, a god among the Romains, ſonne of Iupiter.

Fido, fiſus ſum, fidere, to truſte, to beleue, to put ones hope in a thyng.

Fidúcia, æ, f. gen. truſte, confidence, ſometyme hope, boldenelle, moſt commonly in the good parte, ſometyme in the yll. It is properly that truſte, wherin any thynge is delyuered by one man to an other, to the intent that he ſhall deliuer it whan he is required.

Propter nam fiduciam, for the confidence that he hath in the.

Qua fiducia id facere audeam? Howe maie I be ſo bolde as to doo that?

Fiducia in virtute alicuius, Confidence and truſte that a man hath in ones conſtancie and vertue.

Fiduciam etiam diligentiæ tibi habeo, I truſt well, or I haue a good truſte or confidẽce, that you will be ſo diligent. &c.

Fiducia ſui, hardyneſſe, confidence and truſt in ones owne ſtrength.

Fiduciam accipere, vpon ones faith and promyſe, to receyue poſſeſſion of a thynge, whiche he muſt after reſtore to hym, of whom he receyued it.

Fiduciam committere, to delyuer the poſſeſſion or charge of a thyng on that condicion.

Fiduciárius, a, um, that hath the poſſeſſion, charge or cuſtody of a thyng on condicion to reſtore it agayn, or elles the thyng that is ſo geuen or committed to ones charge.

Fiduciarius hæres, idem quod Fideicomiſſarius.

Legatus fiduciariam optinet operam, a lieutenant of a prince hath great authoritee, but yet ſo that he muſt leaue it, whan his ſouereigne commaundeth.

Philippus Corinthum Nabidi, tanquam fiduciariam dedit, Philip deliuered Corinthe to Nabis, vpon condicion that yf he returned, he ſhoulde reſtore it to hym agayn, otherwyſe to kepe ſtill the poſſeſſion therof.

Fiduciaria mancipatio, aut venditio, a ſtate in landes made vppon confidence or truſte, vpon condicion that it may bee redemed and reſtored agayne, morgage.

Fiduciaria poſſeſsio, a poſſeſſion to an other manneſe, or vpon condicion.

Fidus, a, um, truſtye, faithfulle, ſure, trewe herted.

Figlina, æ, fœm. gen. a potters warehouſe, or potters crafte.

Figlinum, i, n. g. a thyng made of earth.

Figlinus, a, um, that belongeth to a potter.

Figlina creta, potters claie.

Figmentum, ti, neu. gen. the wooꝛke or wooꝛkes manſhyp. ſometyme a lye, or a thyng feygned, a forged tale.

Figo, xi, gĕre, to thruſte in, to ſtycke in, to ſhoote in, to faſten to. Alſo to hange vp, as one hangeth a thyng by a walle. Sometyme to dyppe or faſten in the earthe. ſometyme to ſtrike. alſo to plant or ſette.

Palum humi fixit, he dyoue the ſtake into the grounde.

Ipſe feracẽs figat humo plantas, He maye ſette in the grounde the fruitefull plantes.

Figere ceruos, to hunte deere with bowes.

Figere legem, to ſette an acte of parliament or ordinance on a walle or poſte, to the intent that all men maie reade it.

Amicis parcere, aduerſarios figere, to taunte his aduerſaries.

Figere carnes verubus, to ſpyt meate.

Figere arma, to hange vp ones armour, and by tranſlacion, to bee no more carefull for the warre.

Figere aliquem maledictis, to raile or ſpeake ſpitefully agaynſt one.

Figere mentem in re aliqua, to ſette ones cogitacion or mynde on a thyng.

Oculos figere in aliquo, to looke ſtedfaſtely vpon one, to eye one.

Oſcula figere, to kyſſe.

Figere in poſte, to faſten on a poſte.

Veſtigia figere, to ſteppe ſurely, that one fall not. alſo to ſtop & ſtand ſtil whẽ one is goyng.

Figebantur noſtri diuerſis telis, were ſticked or thruſt in.

Figulâris, re, pertaynyng to a potter.

Figularis creta, looke Figlina creta.

Figulina, looke figlina.
Figulus, li, m. g. a potter.
Figura, æ, f. g. a fygure. also fauoure, shappe, facion, sometyme a scoffe.
Noua figura oris, suche a fauour or face as you haue not ysghtly seen.
Species & figura humana, The fauour and shappe of man.
Figuratio, ônis, f. g. a fourmyng or facionyng, sometyme an ymaginyng.
Figurâtus, a, um, facioned, fourmed.
Figûro, aui, are, to make or fourme, to facion. sometyme to ymagyne, to gesse.
Figurare os pueri, to facion a chyldes pronunciation or speakyng.
Figurare orationem, to garnisshe an oracion with fygures of eloquence.
Figurare tamen potestis, qui. &c. yet you may imagine. &c.
Filâtim, threde by threde.
Filia, æ, f. g. a daughter.
Adultera filia, a bastarde daughter.
Collocare filiam, to geue his daughter in marryage.
Filiaster, tri, m. g. a sonne in lawe by an other wyfe, or an other husbande.
Filica, idem quod nix.
Filicâtum, ti, n. g. a ferny grounde.
Filicula, æ, f. g. ferne growyng on trees, called in greeke Polypodion, in Englishe Polepodium, or waiferne.
Filiola, æ, f. g. a litle daughter.
Filiolus, li, m. g. a litle sonne.
Filistum, a countrey that is now called Ascalon.
Filius, li, m. g. a sonne. Filius etiam in brutis, a colte, a whelpe, or the yong of any beast.
Filij, sometyme dooeth contayne both sonnes and daughters.
Filius terræ, a newe begun gentilman, or a gentylman of the fyrste head. After some a vile persone, of an vnknowen birthe.
Fratris filius, a nephewe.
Fortunæ filius, a fortunate persone, whiche hath prosperous successe in all his doynges.
Iustus filius, a sonne begotten in wedlocke.
Enim filios, to bryng forth children.
Filix, filicis, f. g. ferne or brake.
Filo, aui, are, to spinne or make threede.
Filum, li, n. g. a threde. sometyme the proporcion or draught of a thyng. sometyme a lyne. also the forme or figure of ones visage.
Filum ducere, to spynne.
Deducit aranea filum pede, spynneth.
Trahere filum in acu, to threde a nedell.
Filum orationis, a style or maner of oracion.
Fimbria, æ, f. g. the shirtes or hem of a garment.
Fimbriâtus, a, um, that hath a hemme, purfle, pleat, or wrinkle.
Fimbria, the name of a Romayn, whiche was verye proude and seditious.
Fimetum, ti, n. g. a dounge hyll.

Fimum, a bore, out of the whiche men doo caste dyce.
Fimus, mi, dounge of cattell or of man.
Reddere fimum, to shyte.
Fimum, is sometyme red in the neuter gender.
Fimus columbinus, pygeons dunge.
Fimus ouillus, sheepes dunge.
Finâlis, le, fynall or laste.
Findo, fidi, findere, to cut, to cleaue, to dyuide.
✠ Arario cælum findere, a prouerbe spoken of a thyng impossible.
Finditur cor meum, istius hominis vbi mentio, Myne hert bursteth, or it greeueth verye sore, as often as that man is spoken of.
Finditur illic Euphrates, at that place the water Euphrates is diuided.
Fingo, xi, gere, to make, properly of erth, as potters doe, to fourme, to feme, to counterfayte, to ymagine. to diuise.
Finge animo. suppose, or put the case.
Fingere mores alicui, to facion one in manners. Vultum fingere, to make countenaunce not to be merry or sorowfull, where in deede he is merry or sorowful.
Facere & fingere. Fingere & formare.
Ecæra fingere, to make in ware.
Fingere animo or cogitatione, to ymagyne or conceyue in ones mynde.
Qui ex sua natura cæteros fingerent, which dyd iudge other by theyr owne natures.
Eum te esse finge, qui ego sum, Imagyne thy selfe to be as I am.
Voto aliquem fingere, to wysshe a man such one as we would haue him.
Fingit causas, he picketh quarells, or he fyndeth lettes, excuses, or occasions.
Fingere corpora lingua, with spekyng to facion the bodies of the ponge, as beares and suche doo. Nonne ad senem aliquam fabricam fingit? Doth he not go about some wyle or craft to deceiue the olde man?
Fingere fallaciam, idem.
Falsi quippiam fingere, to forge or inuent some vntrue tale or lye.
Fauos fingere, to make hony combes.
Fugam fingere, to make as one dyd renne or flee awaye. Fingere & fabricare.
Nidum fingere, to make a neste.
Fingere se ad nutum aliorum, to facion one selfe to the mynde or fantasy of other.
Vultus quoq; hominum fingit scelus, The wicked gracious knaue canne facion the countenaunces of men, and make them looke as he lusteth himselfe: or he can counterfayte other mens lookes.
Finio, iui, ire, to finishe or ende, to accomplishe, to determin or appoint sometime to define, to diuide.
Finire vitam inedia, to dye for hunger.
Finiri morbo, to die of a sickenesse.
Laqueo or suspendio finire vitam, to hange ones selfe.

finire prouintiam alicui certo tempore, To mitte or prescribe a tyme, howe long one shall ue the rule of a prouince.
Dem finire, To determine or appointe a cerayne date.
Finitur, the impersonall.
nis, is, m. ge. the ende, the conclusion. also the ntent or purpose, whervnto any other thynge ith relation, or is made or dooen for. some-yme death. also for Fines, the boundes, marhes or vttermost borders af any countrey.
nes, nium, plur. the borders or marches of a ountrese, boundes.
Afferre finem alicui rei, to make a thing haue an ende.
Finem maledictis fecit, he leaueth raylynge.
Finem sermoni facere, to speake no more, to holde ones peace.
Orandi iam finem facito, intrete me no more.
Implere finem vitæ, to fynyshe his lyfe.
Imponere finem bello, To make an ende of warre.
Quem ad finem? To what intente or pour-pose?
nitè, determinately, with a certayn measure.
nnimus, a, um, vngh, ioygnyng, borderyng.
Bellum finitimum, warre among borderers or neyghbours.
nimo, ônis, f. g. a definition.
nitor, ôris, ma. g. a letter of boundes, a bounder of landes.
nitus, a, um, finyshed, ended
o, fis, factus sum fieri, to be made, to bee, to be esteemed.
Nulla adeo ex re istud fit, nisi ex nimio otio,
This cometh of nothynge elles but of to muche idelnesse.
Ex ea re quid fiat, vide, Consyder what will folowe or come to passe by so dooyng.
Fit obuiam casu ei multitudini C. Curio, By chaunce C. Curio met with that route.
Illud fit sæpe, That happeneth, or cometh to passe oftentymes.
Fit absynthium in Arabia, wormewood groweth in Arabie.
Modum fieri non video, I can not see that they vse any measure or meane.
Aliquid cibi fiet, some meate shall bee prepared or made redy.
Commodioris ho valetudinis, I ware better at ease, I begyn to ware stronge.
Qui fit in hac re scrupulus? what doubte is in this matter?
Fingere illum exempla, looke Exemplum.
Mihi non fit verisimile, It semeth not to me to bee lykely.
Fieri non potest quin sentiant, it can not bee chosen, but that they must nedes perceiue it.
Vbi sanctos cœpit fieri, whan I began to be somewhat weery.
Vbi tantos sumptus sibi cotidianos videbit fieri, whan he shall perceyue, that he shal daily be at so great costes and charges.
Ita fit verum, So it is proued to be trewe.
Ne quam in illum vim fieri sinat, Leat hym not sucker any violente handes to be layde on hym.
Quid pecuniæ fiet? What shall bee dooen with the moneye? better than Quid de pecunia fiet?
Tanti fit ab aliis, so muche he is esteemed of
other.
Fiet, be it so.
Hoc nisi fit, except this come to passe.
Firmâmen, inis, neu. gen. that holdeth or kasse-neth a thyng.
Firmamentum, ti, neu. gene a surette or stabi-litee. also that whiche is called the grounde of a cause or matter. Also the firmament or heauen visible. Firmamenta, bee sometyme taken for the sinues.
Firmamentum reipublicæ, the thicke staye and vpholder of the commune weale.
Firmâtor, ôris, m. ge. that maketh stedkast, constant, and sure.
Firmâtus, a, um, stablyshed, fortified, made stronge.
Firmè, and Firmiter, assuredly, stedkastly, constantly, kastely, verae diligently.
Firmè respondere, to aunswere constauntly and boldely.
Firmitas, âtis, & Firmitudo, dinis, f. g stablenesse, constance, surenesse, strength.
Firmitas vinorum, The strengthe and durablenesse of wynes.
Firmitudo animi, constancie of mynde.
Firmo, aui, are, to assure, to make stable or sure,
to affirme, to sauffe, to make stronge.
Aluum firmare, to bynde the bealye, or make one costiue.
Firmare corpora cibo, to strength theyr bodies with meate.
Dotem firmare, to be at a point what he will geue in marriage with his daughter.
Firmare fidem, To perfourme or make assuraunce of promise, to confirme that he hath promised.
Firmare agrum sepibus, To hedge a fielde about.
Firmatæ cibo vires, He is made stronge with good meates.
Et rei firmasti fidem, thou haste made me beleue that thyng the more.
Præsidia firmare, to fortifie garrisons.
Ad spem aliquem firmare, with confortable wordes to put in hope.
Firmare agrum sepibus, to fense or mounde.
Mœnia firmare, to fortifie.
Firmare corpora labore, to harden the bodies with labour, and exercise.
Pacem firmare, to make peace more sure and stable.

Vix quicquam firmare ausim, I dare scantly affirme any thyng for a surrtie.
Iureiurando firmare, to vpholde a thyng with an othe.

Firmus, a, um, stable, constraunt, well fortified, assured, stronge, in good health, lusty.
Cibus firmus, stronge nourysshyng meate.
Satis firmo corpore cum esset, whan he was stronge, lusty, and in good helth.
Firmæ hæ vereor vt fiant nuptiæ, I feare this mariage will not continue longe without some breache.
Rumor firmus, a constant rumour.
Potio firma, a potion or drynke that nourysheth muche.
Vina firmissima, stronge wines that continue long. Firmus ab equitatu, he that hath a strong bande of horsemen.
Iuuenis firmus, stronge and mightie.
Pectus firmum, constant.
Firma valetudo, when one is not sickely or attached with diseases.

Firmum castellum, a citee of Italy.

Fiscales, false accusations of those men, whiche haupng parte of the forfeite, doe bringe men in trouble.

Fiscâlis, le, perteynyng to the kynges treasure.

Fiscella, æ, fœm. ge. a lyttell basket of twygges. it may be vsed for a fraile. also a chese fate. Also it is a thyng made with withies and halters, wherwith cattelle was so moselled, that they mought not bite any pong sprygnges or buddes of trees.

Fiscellum, li, n. g. idem.

Fiscellus, li, a lyttell hyll in Italye, not farre from Tiber.

Fisci, fiscinæ, fiscellæ, great sachelles, wherein were put great summes of moneie.

Fiscina, æ, fœm. g. a great basket, a fraile. also a bagge or sachell to put money in.

Fiscina ficorum, a fraile of figges.

Fiscus, ci, ma. g. a bagge, wherevnto moneie is put. also the kynges escheker, a kynges treasure. somtyme a panyer of osyers vsed in pyckyng of olyues, or a great fraile.

Fiscus lineus, a manor of strayners.

Fissilis, le, that maie be cut, slitte, or cloven.

Fissio, ônis, f. g. a cleauyng or chappyng.

Fissûra, æ, fœ. g. a cut or clift. also the space betwene the fyngers or toes.

Fissus, us, and Fissum, si, n. g. idem quod fissûra. Fissum ani, the clifte of a man betweene the buttockes.

Fissus, a, um, cloven, chynked.

Fistûca, cæ, f. g. an instrument, wherwith piles of woode be dryuen into the grounde, called a water pile sledge or a commander, and stones in a pauement, called a rammer.

Fistucatio, ônis, fœmi. generis, the dryuyng downe of piles, or rammyng downe of stones in pauyng.

Fistucâtus, a, um, dryuen with a commander or rammer.

Fistûco, aui, are, to dryue downe pyles into the earthe with a water pile sledge, or to ramme downe stones in pauyng.

Fistula, æ, fœm. gene. a flute or pipe, as well to conueigh water as an instrument of musicke. also the wesell or rysore bolle, a cuppe or lauer, a dyscase or sore, whiche cometh of a putrified humour, and renneth continually, called in englishe Fistula. somtyme an yrne, by the whiche some fylthe fetche breth. also that, whiche the apothecaries call commonly Cassia fistula.

Fistulâtor, ôris, m. ge. a piper, one that playeth on a flute, or lyke instrument.

Fistulo, aui, are, to be holowe lyke a spounge.

Fistulôsus, a, um, full of holes lyke a spounge.
Fistulosa terra, earth barreyne of nature, whiche serueth neither to tyllage nor pasture.

Fite, the imperatiue of Fio.

Fitiges, the beastes of Aethiope, of a browne colour, haupnge two pappes on the breast as a man hath. They bee not so wylde, but they may bee tamed, nor so tame, but they wyll hurte those that greue them.

Fiuere, olde writers vsed for Fugere.

Fixulæ, olde writers vsed for Fibulæ.

Fixus, a, um, fyrme, faste, stedy, constant, sure, that is not lyghtly chaunged, certayne.

F ANTE L.

Flabellifer, lifera, um, that whiche beareth a fanne.

Flabellum, li, neu. g. an instrument, wherewith in the heate of sommer, wynde is fanned and blowen into mens visages, to coole them, a fanne.
Flabellum seditionis, by translation, a mouer or sterer of sedition.

Flabilis, le, that maye bee blowen, or of the ayre.

Flabrum, bri, or rather flabra, ôrum, neu. ge. a blaste of winde, a blowyng.

Flaccidus, a, um, wythered, feble, weake, hangyng downewarde, lollyng or flaggyng.
Flaccidæ aures, hangyng eares.

Flaccus, a, um, that hath hangyng eares. Sometyme drunken.

Flaces, facium, fœm. gene. plur. nu. the eyes of olyues.

Flagellum, li, n. g. the small branche or twyg of a vyne, or other tree. somtyme a whyppe or scourge, a flayle, wherwith corne is threshed.

Flagello, aui, âre, to whyppe, to scourge, to thresshe, to blame or rebuke.
Flagellare annonam, To dye corne or vytayle ere it come to the market, as forestallers doe.
Flagellare pericis frumentum. Plin. To thresshe corne.

Flagi-

Flagitiosè, vngratiously, mischiefully, wickedly detestably, naughtyly, vnlustely.

Flagitium, tij, n. g. an yll or mischeuous deede woorthie rebuke and punyshement, an heynouse offence, a detestable acte, a synfull thyng, a great trespas, an abhominable vice or naughtye facion. sometyme for Dedecus, dishonour, dishoorship. sometyme a notable errour. also perille.

Flagitium num est, it is by thyne vngratiousnesse, or through thy defaute.

Promptus flagitio, ready to doe mischiefe.

Nam id nobis tam flagitium est, quam illa non facere vobis, quæ modo dixi, For that is in vs as great a faute, as it is in you, not to do thoſe thynges that ye spake of euen nowe.

Flagitio ardere, to be enuiete of a great offence.

Non patiar me tuis flagitiis infamem fieri, I will not suffer my selfe to renne in the slander & obloquie of men through thyne abhominable vices and naughty facions.

Compertus flagitij, one conuict of some detestable faute.

Flagitium facimus, we goe aboute an heynous offence.

Flagitium est, it is yll dooen.

Flagitiosus, a, um, vngracious, full of mischiefe.

Flagito, aui, are, to aske importunately, and with clamour to exacte, to require instantly. also to accuse.

Flagitare plus est quam postulare.

Implorare & flagitare.

Flagitare aliquem, to desyre of one instantly.

Flagitas me vt eloquar, you are verie instant on me, that I should vtter it.

Vt speculatorem flagitari iussit, he commanded hym to be accused as a robber or spoiler of the common weale.

Id me flagitat, he desyreth that thyng of me importunately.

Flagitat frumentum ab Heduis, he exacted wine or grayne of the people called Hedui.

Flagitator, ôris, m. g. he that instantly desyreth or asketh.

Te flagitatore suscepi negotium, at thy instant desyre I toke on me the businesse.

Flagrans, antis, om. g. burnyng, flamyng, very hote, ardent, shynyng bryght.

Flagranter, verate ardently.

Flagrantia, æ, f. g. flamyng or burnyng, bryghtenesse, shynyng, ardent desyre.

Flagrantes oculorum, glisterynge bryghtnesse of the eyes.

Flagratores, they whiche for money doo suffer themselues to be beaten.

Flagrio, ônis, f. g. a slaue vsed to be beaten.

Flagro, aui, are, to bourne with a flame of fyre. sometyme to loue or desyre inordinately.

Flagrare infamia, to be verie yll reported of.

Flagrare inopia, to be in greatte neceſsitee or poouerte.

Flagrare inuidia, to be exceedyngly hated.

Flagrare libidinibus, to be outrageously geuen to the desyre of filthy pleasure.

Flagrare amentia, to bee woodde or starke madde.

Flagrare amore, or ardore alicuius rei, to loue a thynge inordinately. Likewyse Flagrare desyderio & cupiditate.

Flagrat bello tota Italia, warre rageth throughout all Italy, or all Italie is miserably troubled with warre.

Flagrant mutuo odio, They doo hate eche other deadly, or they beare mortall hatred one towarde the other.

Rumore malo flagrare, to haue a very ill name: to be verie ill reported of.

Flagrare studijs, to bee exceedyngly geuen to study and learnyng.

Flagrum, gri, neu. gen. a whippe, a rodde, or scourge.

Flamatica, a tree bourned with lightnyng.

Flamea, clothe or silke of yelow colour.

Flamen, flaminis, n. g. a blaſt of wynde, the blaſt in an instrument.

Flamen, minis, m. g. the great priest amonge the gentiles.

Flameum, mei, n. g. a vayle or typpet of yelowe, whiche women did weare, whan they were newe marped.

Flaminia, a countrete in Italy, called also Aemilia, and commonly Romandiola, in the whiche are the cities of Bononia, Fauentia, Imola, Rauenna, and Ariminum.

Flaminia via, an hyghe waie from the cite of Rome vnto the cite of Ariminum.

Flaminia, æ, fem. gen. the house of the archeflamen.

Flaminica, cæ, f. g. the wyfe of the great priest called Flamen, whiche myght not be diuorced from hir husbande for any cause. also a wedding gowne, whiche was of yelow colour.

Flaminium, or Flaminia, órum, the office of the archeflamen.

Flaminiana ostenta.

Flaminius minister, a seruant attendyng vpon the hygh priest.

Flaminius, the name of diuers Romaynes, of whiche one beyng Consull, was ouerthrowen by Annyball at Trasimenus.

Flamma, æ, f. g. a flame. sometyme perill. sometyme loue.

Flamma fumo proxima est, there is no smoke without fyre.

Flamma concidit, the flame ceaſsed.

Concipere flammam, and Corripi flamma, to bourne, to be on a lyghte fyre.

Incidi in ipsam flammam ciuilis discordiæ, I chaunced on the verie rage or moste perilous tyme of the ciuile warres.

Eripuit se de fama iudicij, he rydde hym

 selfe

teike out of the perill of that iudgement.
Flammatica arbor, blasted with lightnyng.
Flammea, æ, f. ge. an herbe called also Lachnis coronaria, of the frenchmen Candelaria.
Flammeolum, li, n. g. a litteli veple oz typpet.
Flammeolus, a, um, somewhat coloured lyke a flame of fyre.
Flammeārius, rij, masc. gen. he that maketh oz dieth the veples called Flammea, a dyer of peolowe colour.
Flammescere, to be inflamed.
Flammeus, a, um, burnyng oz flampng, that is of the colour of a flame of fyre.
Flammifer, a, um, that bzyngeth oz causeth fyre oz bournyng.
Flammigena, æ, comen of fyre.
Flammiger, idem.
Flammigero, aui, are, to burne in a lyght fyre, to cast out flames.
Flammiuomus, a, um, sendyng out flames.
Flammula, æ, form. gene. a litteli flame. also a certayne herbe.
Flandria, a countrey called Flanders.
Flator, óris, m. g. one that bloweth.
Flatus, us, m. g. a puff oz blast of wynde.
Flaueo, flaues, uere, to be lyke golde oz of peolowe colour.
Flauesco, idem.
Flauinium, a place in Italie.
Flauius, ij, the name of a family in Rome, of the which was Vespasianus, Titus, and Domitia.
Flauus, a, um, pelowe oz of the colour of golde.
Flaua arua, when coyne is ripe.
Flebilis, le, lamentable.
Flebiliter, lamentablie.
Flecto, xi, ctĕre, to bowe, to bende, to leade, to tourne.
In diuersum flectere, to bowe contrary waies.
Inde Capuam flexit iter, he turned his tourney from thens to Capua.
Flectere animum, To attende and settle the mynde on a thynge. Also to tourne the mynde from any purpose.
Flectere genu, To make curtesye, to make a legge.
Flectere in gyrum, to turne rounde.
Flectere Leucaten, to turne his tourney to Leucate.
Flectere aliquem oratione, to perswade oz tourne one to his opinion.
Flegma, looke Phlegma.
Flegmen, flegminis, n. ge. is where with muche goyng the bloud issueth out of the toes.
Fleo, fleui, flere, to weepe.
Flere de morte alicuius, To wepe foz ones death.
Fletus, us, m. g. weepyng.
Abstergere fletum, to wype the eies whan one weepeth.
Fletum ciere, exitare, mouere, to make one weepe.

Comprimere fletus, to cease weping, to stint weping.
Prosequi natos fletu, To weepe and lamente the death of ones chyldren.
Rumpe iam fletus, wepe no maze.
Fletus, a, um, lamented, bewayled.
Fleuo, one of the mouthes of the riuer of Rine. Also a towne by the same ryuer.
Flexanimus, a, um, that tourneth the mynde.
Flexanima oratio, an oracion oz speche, whiche by a mans mynde is stzred to pitie, reioysing oz other lyke affection.
Flexibilis, le, and Flexilis, le, any thynge that maie be easily bowed, oz bent. Also vncertaine, mutable.
Flexiloquus, a, um. that speaketh thinges doubtfull and obscure.
Flexipes, ĕdis, that hath croked feete.
Flexio, ónis, form. gene. a bendyng, bowyng oz crookyng. Also the tunyng of the voyce vp and downe.
Flexumines, certaine swifte horsemen among the Romains.
Flexuose, crokedly, wyndyng in and out.
Flexuōsus, a, um, that is croked, oz hath many tournynges and wyndynges in and out.
Flexūra, æ, f. g. a crookyng oz bowyng.
Flexus, us, mas. gen. a bowyng, a tournyng, chaungeyng oz tunyng of the voyce in pronunciacion.
Flexus sonus, a redowndyng of a towne.
Flexus ætatis, the declinyng of the age in the later parte of the lyfe.
Flexus Autumni, the later part of Autumne.
Flexus, a, um, bowed, bended, tourned, crisped, curled.
Flictus, us, masc. gene. a strikynge oz dashyng against a thyng.
Fligo, xi, ctum, ere, to tourmēt oz vexe, to bruse oz dashe against a thyng.
Flo, aui, are, to blowe, also to make coyne of metall.
Simul flare & sorbere, a prouerbe signifyeng to doo two contrary thynges together.
Floccifácio, floccifacis, feci, facere, to sette naught by.
Illum non floccifacio, I sette not a straw, ruishe oz heare by hym.
Flocci non fecit fidem, He nothyng esteemed his credite oz honestee.
Flócculus, li, m. g. a fyne flocke.
Floccipendo, endi, ere, idem quod Floccifacio.
Floccus, i, mas. gene. a flocke of the shearyng of wollen clothe.
Floccum facere, idem quod Floccifacere.
Floces, flocum, flocibus, lyes oz dzasties of wyne.
Flora, an harlot, taken of the Romaines for a goddesse.
Floralia, ôrum, neu. gen. plu. the feastes of the goddesse Flora.
Florábilis, le, pertaynyng to Flora.

Florales

Florales ludi, playes made in the honour of Flora the harlot, whiche gaue a great treasure vnto the people of Rome.

Florens, entis, om. g. flourysshyng, excellente, beautifull, in great estimation.

Aetate florentes ambo, bothe of theim in the floure of theyr age.

Aduersus & florens, contrary.

Florentus Antonio, whyle Antonie flourysshed, or was in estimacion or authorite.

Florentia, a citee in Italie called Florence.

Floreo, rui, ere, to flourisshe, or to haue floures.

Also to excelle, sometyme to prospere, to be renowned, to be in great authorites or estimacion.

Florere & vigere.

Omni genere virtutis floruit Pericles, Pericles excelled in all kynde of vertue.

Florere laude bellica, to be greatly renowmed for chiualrie, or marciall prowes.

Florere aetate, & forma, to be in the floure of youe age and beautie.

Florere authoritate & gloria, to be in great authorite and reputacion.

Florefco, fcere, to burgen, to bryngе foorthe floures, to growe, to encrease.

Floreus, a, um, made of floures.

Floridulus, a, um, a litle flourysshyng, somewhat beautifull.

Floridus, a, um, garnysshed with floures, somewhat freshe or lustie, flourishyng, iolie.

Gelu flumina constiterunt, the ryuers be frosen ouer.

Superare flumina, to passe ouer the ryuers.

Florifer, florifera, um, that beareth floures.

Floriger, a, um, bearyng floures.

Florianus, an emperour of Rome.

Floriligus, a, um, that gathereth floures.

Florius, a ryuer in Spayne.

Florulentus, a, um, full of floures.

Flos, floris, m. g. a floure.

Apperit florem suum arbor, the tree dooeth blossome.

Flores carpere, decerpere, legere, delibare, to gather floures.

In ipso Graeciae flore, whan Greece moste of all flourished.

Florem amittit puella, cum corrumpitur.

Flos vini, the sauour of wyne.

Flos aetatis, the moste flourishyng tyme of ones age, lustie youth.

Flos Italiae, the floure or principall of all Italie.

Odorus flos, a sweete flower.

Blandi flores, fayre flowers.

Fundit humus flores: bryngeth forth great abundance of flowers.

Nectere flores, to make a garlande.

Flos in filigine, the flower of wheate.

Fluctifragus, a, um, that breaketh the wawes of the sea.

Fluctio, onis, f. g. the remme or pose.

Fluctiuagus, a, um, wandryng in ryuers, waters, or in the sea.

Fluctuans, antis, vncertaine, doubtful, lewse.

Fluctuanter, troublously, doubtfully, lewsely.

Fluctuatio, onis, f. g. flotyng, doubtyng, vncertaintee, wauerynge.

Fluctuatio animi, whan a man doubteth what is beste to bee doen, wauerynge, vnconstantie of mynde.

Fluctuatio stomachi, whan the meate swimmeth in the stomache.

Fluctuatus, a, um, shaken, tossed, moued.

Fluctuo, aui, are, to waue vp and downe as the water goeth: By translacion it signifieth to thynke nowe one thynge, nowe an other, to be troubled or disquieted in mynde, to bee in an vncertayne state or condicion.

Fluctuat animus, my mynde wauereth, or it is nowe in one opinion, nowe in an other.

Fluctuare animo, to be vncertayne what one maie dooe.

Fluctuor, idem quod Fluctuo.

In re aliqua fluctuare, to behaue ones selfe vnconstantly in any thyng

Fluctuose, troublously.

Fluctuosus, a, um, troublous, vnquiete, stormy.

Fluctus, us, m. g. a floude, a waue of water stered by tempeste, businesse or trouble of aduersitee, disquietenesse of mynde through anger, loue or care. sometyme a violent course, or assaute, a great multitude.

Fluens, entis, om. g. flowing, wyde, lewse.

Fluentes buccae, great hangyng cheekes.

Fluentia, the auncient name of the citee called Florence in Italie.

Fluentum, i, n. gen. a ryuer or streame.

Fluescere, to be resolued or relented.

Fluidus, a, um, flowyng, relented, resolued, that is nothing stronge, without stiknes or strength, feeble.

Fluida corpora, nice and tender bodies vnapte to peine or labour.

Fluito, aui, are, to flowe continually. sometyme to flytte or swymme.

Flumen, fluminis, n. g. a great ryuer. sometyme the course of the water.

Ne flumini eius riui esset impedimento, that it myght not let the course of that ryuer.

Aduerso flumine, agaynst the streame.

Increuerunt flumina, the waters were rysen.

Nullius tantum est flumen ingenij, no man hath so aboundant or plentifull a witte.

Flumineus, a, um, of the ryuer.

Aqua fluminea, rennyng water.

Fluminosus, a, um, full of ryuers.

Fluo, xi, ere, to renne as water dooeth, to procede or come of a thyng, to growe plentifully, to spreade farre abrode, to slyppe or slyde, to passe awaie.

Voluptas corporis fluit, pleasure of the bo-dis

die palleth awaie lyghtely, or is of no continuance.

Tempus fluit, the tyme palleth awaie.

Fluere luxu, to be vtterly geuen to riotte and wantonnelle, to swimme in sensualitee.

Fluit ratio a capite, reason proceedeth or commeth from the head.

Ad voluntatem nostram res prosperæ fluunt, thinges chaunce and come to passe euen as we woulde haue theim.

Qorsum fluant eius rationes: what doeth he intende or purpose in his proceedynges.

Fluonia, the name of Juno.

Fluor, óris, Fluxus, us, m. g. & Fluctio, ónis, f. g. a flyxe.

Flustrum, i, n. g. the full tyde in the sea or other water, whiche ebbeth and floweth.

Fluta, æ, fœ. ge. a fysshe lyke to an eele called a lampreye.

Fluuialis, le, of the ryuer.

Fluuiâticus, a, um, and Fluuiátilis, le, that whiche is in the ryuer.

Fluuiâtus, a, um, laied to soke in ryuer water.

Fluuius, ij, m. g. a floude or ryuer.

Fluxè, aboundantly.

Fluxio, ónis, f. g. a flyxe.

Fluxio sanguinis, the bloudie flixe.

Fluxura, lecherye.

Fluxus, a, um, flowyng, vnstable, or that whiche dureth but for a whyle, large or wyde, relented, lecherouse and wanton.

Fluxi, men abandoned to all delicatenesse or pleasures of lecherie and wanton lust.

Fluxa vestimenta, wyde garmentes, hangyng lowse about a man.

F ANTE O.

FObij, idem quod, Fabij.

Focale, is, n. g. a hercheke, whiche men and women dyd weare about theyr chekes. Seneca semeth to take it for a garment to sit by the fyre in. It may be taken for a muffler that women do vse. It is also an yron pynne to make the heare crispe and curle.

Focáneus, nei, m. g. a braunche of a vine, whiche groweth out of a twiste or forked boughe.

Focária, æ, f. g. a fyre panne. Also a concubyne that one kepeth as his wyfe.

Focárius, a, um, of or pertenyng to the herth. Focarius panis, bread baked on the herthe.

Focillátio, ónis, f. g. a nowrishynge or keppynge warme.

Focillo, aui, are, to nourysshe or comforte, to kepe warme, to mayntayne.

Fócilo, idem.

Fócula ventris, nourysshyng meates.

Fóculo, aui, are, to nourisshe or sustaine.

Fóculus, i, masc. g. a little panne, wherin fyre is borne, a little herthe.

Foculum excitare bucca, to blowe the fyre with ones mowthe.

Focunates, people of the Alpes.

Focus, i, m. g. a panne or herth, wherin fyre is, sometyme it signifieth fyre, sometyme priuate houses or tenementes.

Extruere lignis fócum, to make a fyre, to lay wodde on the fyre.

Splendet focus, the fyre burneth.

Pro aris & focis pugnare, a prouerbe, signifyng to fyght and contende as well for the mayntenaunce of religyon and godlynesse, as the safegarde of his countrey and priuate goodes.

Fodare, vsed of olde writers for Fodere.

Fódico, aui, are, to perse or pricke, to boore.

Fodicare dolore, to greue or misuse beyonde.

Fodina, æ, f. g. a place where a thyng is digged, a quarrie, a myne.

Fodio, fodi, fódere, to delue, to digge, to trenche.

Fodere argentum, vel metallum, to myne syluer or other metall.

Fodere ora hastis, to thruste theyr speares a mens faces.

Fodere stimulo, to pricke with a goade.

Fodere terram, to eare or delue the grounde.

Fodiri, is vsed of Columella in the fourthe conjugation.

Fœcundè, plentifully, aboundantly.

Fœcúnditas, átis, f. g. fertilitee, plentie.

Experta fœcunditatis fœmina, a barren woman.

Fœcundo, aui, are, to make fruitfull or plentious.

Fœcundus, a, um, plentiouse, aboundant or fruitfull, battle, as the grounde is, full.

Fœcundi calices, full cuppes.

Fœcundus & vber.

Fœcunda mulier, a woman with childe.

Fœcundissimus melle & felle amor, loue both both great plentie of sweetenelle, and also of sowre, or loue is both verie sweete & very sowre.

Fœciális, looke Fecialis.

Fœdè, villanously, shamefully, vnhonestly, filthyly, cruelly.

Fœderátus, a, um, confederate, one that is in a leagne or alliaunce.

Fœ'dero, aui, are, to confederate.

Fœdifragus, a breaker of leagne or truce or euill course.

Fœ'ditas, átis, f. g. fylthynesse, dishonestie, filthynesse, pil fauouredneſſe.

Fœditas odoris, the noysyng of a stinkyng and poyson sauour.

Fœditas spectaculi, the cruelitee, or horriblenes of that sight.

Notabilis fœditas vultus, notable disfauoredneſſes, or misshap of countinance.

Fœdo, aui, are, to polute or defyle, to destroye, to rente or teare, to consume.

Ora vnguibus fœdans, scratchyng or rentyng ones face with his nayles.

Fœdus, fœ'deris, n. g. a treatie of peace or leagne betweene betwene princis, an entrecourse, a truse after battaile. sometyme it signifieth a lawe made in the tyme of warres. Also aliance betwene frendes.

Fœdus facere, fancire, ferire, inire, icere, to make a league or aliaunce.

Pœnam fœderibus ascribere, to appoynct a penaltee for them that breake leagues.

Gemalia fœdera, aliaunce of mariage.

Polluere fœdus naturæ, to breake the law of nature, to doe against nature.

Fœdus aliquando pro lege, vt, Aequissmo iure aut fœdere ciuitas.

Cauere fœdere de re aliqua, in confirmyng a league to make an exception or caution of any thyng.

Coire in fœdus, to alie, to become federates.

Fœdus frangere, violare, rumpere, to breake a league, contrary to, In fide manere.

Fœdus, a, um, foule, deformed, cursed, or cruel, yll fauoured, lothesome to looke on, fylthy, vnhoneste, abhominable, detestable.

Fœdum exemplum, a vyle and naughtie example.

Fœdum in modum laceratus verberibus, scorged or beaten, that it wolde lothe a man to see it.

Fœdus odor, a poyson stronge sauour.

Fœdissima tempestas, a verie great or foule storme or tempeste.

Facinus fœdum, a shamefull or abhominable acte, a cruell deede.

Fœdum consilium, a shamefull and mischeous counsaple or purpose.

Bellum fœdissimum, a verie cruell warre, wherin is shewed no mercie nor pitie.

Fœlicitas, ātis, f. g. felicitie, prosperitee, abounsdaunce of all thynges.

Fœlicitas terræ, the fruitfulnesse of the erth, fertilitee.

Fœliciter, happilie, fortunately, with good lucke.

Fœlicito, aui, are, to make prosperouse, happy, or fortunate.

Fœlix, icis, om. gen. hauyng aboundance of all thynges, prosperouse, happie, commodiouse, or profitable. Also fatte, fruitfull, plentifull, aboundant, fertyle, sometyme prospise, fauourable or good.

Ramis fœlicibus arbor, a tree hauyng bowes laded with frute.

Fœlix industria, industrie and labour that hath good successe.

Fœlices horti, frutefull gardens.

Fœlix hostia, fatte. ꝛc.

Fœmen, looke Femen.

Fœmina, æ, f. gene. a woman, also in beastes, the female.

Lectissima, primaria, probatissima.

Fœminas implere, by generacion to make the female with ponge.

Fœmineus, a, um, of a woman, or of the female kynde. Fœmineus amor, inordinate or vnmoderate loue.

Fœmininus, a, um, of the female kynde.

Fœnārius, a, um, pertepnyng to haye.

Falces fœnariæ, hookes or sythes for to cutte haye.

Fœnebris, bre, pertepnyng to vsurie, or vnreasonable gayne.

Fœnebres leges, lawes made against vsurie.

Fœneralia, ôrum, the date of paiemēt of the money lent to vsury.

Fœnerātio, ônis, f. gene. vsurie, or the feate or practise of vsurie.

Fœneratitius, a, um, that is lent or taken to vsurie, or that pertepneth to vsurie.

Fœnerātor, ôris, ma. g. an vsurer, or lender for vnreasonable gayne.

Fœneratórius, a, um, idem quod Fœneratitius.

Fœnerātus, a, um, pertepnyng to vsurie.

Fœneratum istum beneficium tibi pulchrè dices, Thou shalt saie thy selfe, that thou hast been well recompensed, or that thou hast had good aduauntage by shewyng this bnekite or pleasure.

Fœnero, aui, are, the actiue, whereof cometh Fœneror the passyue, beyng construed with a datiue case, and sometyme with an accusatiue case, signifieth to lende out to vsurie.

Fœ'neror, aris, ari, the deponent, with an ablatiue case and a prepositiō, to borowe or take monei lent to vsurie: with a datiue case, to lende out to vsurie.

Fœnerat sol lumen suum cæteris syderibus, the soonne parteth or lendeth out his lyght to other planetes.

Fœnerari ab aliquo, To borowe money of a man to vsurie.

Fœnerari aliquid alicui, to lende out a thyng to vsurie.

Fœniculārium, rij, neu. gene. after some interpretours, a place where an armie dooeth lie. it signifieth properly the mowing of hay, or the tyme of hay harueste.

Fœniculum, li, n. g. Fenell, or fenkel.

Fœnile, lis, n. g. an haye house, an haye locke, a place where haye lyeth.

Fœnisĕca, æ, com. g. a mower of haye.

Fœnisĕcium, ij, n. g. haye harueste.

Fœ'nisex, nisĕcis, com. g. a mower of haye.

Fœnum græcum, fengreke.

Fœnum, ni, n. g. haye.

Fœnum cordum, latewarde hay.

Meta fœni, a cocke of hay.

Fœnúsculum, i, n. g. gayne by lendyng.

Fœnus, fœnoris, n. gen. fruit, whiche the earthe bringeth foorthe without any labour. Also vnreasonable and vnmeasurable gayne comyng of that thyng, whiche is lent, vsurie.

Credere fœnus argenti, and dare fœnori pecuniam, to lende out money to vsurie.

Fœnore accipere, to borow money by vsury.

Quum

Quum quinquagesimo fœnore reddit fœlicitas soli, the fruitfulnesse of the ground yelderth fyftie for one.
Trientarium fœnus, fower in the hundred.
Vnciarium fœnus, gaine of one in the hundred.
Fœnus ex triente factum erat besibus, The vsurie was mounted from fower in the hundred, to eight in the hundred.
Magno fœnore versuram facere, by gaine of great vsurie to pay his creditours.
Fœstûca, æ, looke Festuca.
Fœteo, tui, ére, to stynke, to sauour yll.
Fœtidus, âtis, f. g. a stynke or yll sauour.
Fœtidus, a, um, stynkyng.
Fœtifer, a, um, fruitefull.
Fœtifico, aui, are, to bryng foorth, moste commonly as a beaste or birde doeth.
Fœtificus, a, um, that maketh fruitfull.
Fœto, aui, are, the same.
Fœtor, ôris, m. g. stynche, or yll sauour.
Fœtuôsus, a, um, full of dredyng.
Fœtûra, æ, f. gen. the tyme from the conception vnto the byrth. Also the encrease of cattell: sometyme it signifieth encrease or compyng foorthe of other thynges sometyme the settyng foorthe of a worthe.
Fœtus, m. gen. all thyng that is brought foorthe in generation: as, of man, beast, fysche, foule, or other thynge: sometyme the fruite of trees. Also the profite or gayne that cometh of a thynge. Sometyme for Fœtura, the tyme of bryngyng forthe.
Fœtus arborum decerpere, to gather the fruites of trees.
Fœtus oratorum, great plentie or encrease of orators.
Fœtus, a, um, full or great with younge, as a woman with childe, or a beaste.
Canis fœta, a bytche with whelpe.
Fœta, also that is deliuerred of young.
Fœta loca, id est plena.
Fœta ouis, an yewe that hath younge.
Foliáceus, a, um, of or lyke leaues.
Foliâtum, ti, neu. g. a pleasaunt oyntment, that the matrons of Rome dyd vse.
Foliâtus, a, um, leaued, or hauyng leaues.
Foliôsus, a, um, full of leaues.
Folium, ii, n. g. a leafe.
Amittere folia, whan the leaues fall.
Fóllico, aui, are, to snuffe or fetche backe wynde with the nostrilles.
Follicontes calligæ, a kinde of wide buskyns that monkes vsed to weare, as saincte Hierome mentioneth.
Folliculâre, ris, a parte of an ore.
Folliculus, li, m. ge. the huske, wherin the eares of wheate or other corne is enclosed, whan it is grene, called the hose. Also a sacke, wherin corne is put: sometime a ball stuffed with winde. Sometyme it is taken for the bodie of a man, by translation.
Follis, is, m. gen. a bagge or purse, or any thyng made of lether to be fylled: a bellowe, where with the fyre is blowne: also a ball blowne full of wynde. Semblably, a bedde stuffed only with wynde.
Follis fabrilis, a smithes bellowes.
Folitus, a, um, that is couered or wrapped in lether.
Fomentátio, ônis, idem quod Fomentum.
Fomentum, ti, neu. gen. a nourysshement of naturall heate. It is also any thynge layed to the bodie in fourme of a plaister, to mitigate the griefe or payne of any disease, called Fomentation. And by translation applied to the mynde: a thyng that asswageth or mitigateth sorowe or heauinesse.
Fomes, fómitis, m. gen. a chip, or any matter, wherwith fyre is kendled and kepte burnyng. Sometyme it signifieth that whiche kercucly stereth vs to doo a thyng.
Fons, ontis, m. gen. a fountaine or well, the beginnyng or principall cause of a thyng.
Caput & fons, the head and principall.
Origines fontium, well springes.
Ex eodem fonte hæc omnia fluxére, all these thynges had one begynnyng.
Oritur fons, the well springeth.
Ipse sibi malí fons, he is causer of his owne hurte, he made a rodde for his owne taple.
Fons solis, a fountaine in Cyrenaice, which in the daie time is colde, and in the night hote.
Fontâlis le, idem quod fontanus.
Fontanus, a, um, of a fountaine.
Aqua fontana, well water.
Fonteia, a virgyn vestall.
Fonticulus, i, m. g. a littel well or springe.
Fontinalia, órum, the solemne feastes about welles.
Forago, a chayne of parne, or rather a threade, by whiche spinners note so muche as they spynne a day.
Forâmen, ráminis, n. g. an hole.
Foras, out of doores, aduerb. ad locum.
Exire foras ex ædibus, to go foorth out of the house.
Foras locare agellum, To leat foorth a litle piece of grounde to a straunger.
Quo foras vocatus est ad cœnam? whither is he byd foorthe to supper?
Proferre foras aliquid, to bring forth a thyng.
Ne hinc foras ambulet, That he shoulde not walke abrode any whither.
Forátia, æ, f. gene. a marchette woman, whiche selleth egges, chickens, and other lyke thynges at the marchette.
Forâtus, us, m. g. an hole.
Forbea, æ, f. g. all maner of meates, foode.
Forceps, fórcipis, ma. & f. gen. a payre of tonges, or other lyke instrument. Also the clawe of a creuis or crabbe.

Fors

ecus, a proper name of a man.
ula, æ, f. g. a mylche cowe that bryngeth forth calues.
ore, to be here after.
Non putaui fore, I neuer thought it woulde
come to passe.
Cito fore, to be ere it be longe.
Te adme fore venturum spero, I hope that you wyll come to me.
Scio ita fore, I know it wyll be so.
orem, res, ret, I should or myght bee, thou shuldest or myghtest be, he should or myght be.
orensis, se, pertenynge to places of iudgement or courtes, wherin lawes be exercysed. Also a mayour.
Forensia vestimenta, habittes or robes wozne
onely in places of iudgement.
Genus dicendi forense, a kynde of oration, or a forme of eloquence vsed of playdours in the common place.
ores, doores, looke foris.
orfex, forficis, f. g. sheares.
orficula, æ, f. g. little sheares, sissours, a forked thinge of any sheafte.
ori, rum, m. g. plur. the hatches of a shyppe or place, where men bepnge in the shippe walke vp and downe. Also stages or galeries, from whens the noble men of Rome, behelde the the plates called Circenses. Also rozowes in a fielde longe and narowe.
orti, rum, n. g. plur. dounge that is lyquide or thinne.
orica, æ, f. g. a common draught or iakes.
oricula, æ, f. g. a little dooze, hatche, or flap of a windowe.
oris secus, without.
orno, nas, nare, to discharge the bealy of ordure.
orsolus, li, m. g. he that hath a lache.
ortulus, a god amonge the Romaines.
oris, without, or from without, aduerb. in loco.
Foris occludere fores, to shutte or locke the dooze on the out syde.
Foris est animus, my mynde is abroade.
Foris sapere, to be wyse in other mens mattiers. Foris est, he is abzode, he is from home.
Foris, is, f. g. a dooze or gate.
Foremobdere, to bolte the dooze.
Fores aperire, to open a waie, or make an entraunce to a thyng, to geue an occasion.
Fores amicitiæ aperire, to begynne frendeshyp, to geue the first occasion of frendshyp.
Reserare fores, to vnlocke a dooze.
Forma, æ, f. g. fauour, fourme or shappe, sometime beautie, facion, maner. Also for Species, a kynde, as iustice in respecte of vertue.
sometyme a lawe or rule. Also a paterne, a plot of an house, or other thyng, sometyme a chese vatte.
Forma stans, a meane fauour or beautie, neytther exceedyng fayre nor exceedyng foule.
Forma vxoria, idem.

Tædet harum quotidianarum formarum, I am werie of these, which be commonly called fayre women amonge vs.
Accepit formam aratri, It was made lyke a ploughe.
Res proxime in formam latrocinij venerat,
in maner of a robberie.
Formālis, le, formall.
Formitor, ôris, he that facioneth, instructeth, or maketh.
Formatura, ræ, f. g. a facionyng of a thyng.
Formātus, a, um, facioned, made.
Formiæ, a towne in Campania.
Formica, æ, f. g. an emot, ante, or pismere.
Formicans, antis, that moueth lyke the gopnge of pismers.
Pulsus formicans, the pulse strikyng softely as it were antes creppng vnder ones hande.
Formicātio, onis, f. g. that which is commonly called a rynge wozme.
Formicinus, a, um, that pertepneth to antes.
Formicōsus, a, um, full of antes.
Formidabilis, le, that which is to be dreade.
Formidatio, onis, fearyng or dreadyng.
Formidatus, a, um, feared or dread.
Formido, midinis, f. g. dread or feare.
Plenus formidinis homo, a verie fearefull persone.
Formido, aui, are, to haue great feare.
Formido mihi, I feare leaste I shal haue some harme.
Formidat auro, he is a fraude, leaste his money shall be taken from hym.
Formido illum, I feare lest he wyll hurte me.
Verbera formidauere, they were afrayde of stryppes.
Formidolosè, fearefully.
Formidolōsus, a, um, actpuely, that feareth other, dreadfull, terrible, passpuely, that is afrayde of other, fallehearted, fearefull.
Num formidolosus, (obsecro) es? art thou fearfull or false hearted? or doeth thyne herte fayle the man I praie the?
Alterna virtus illis semper formidolosa, the vertue of other is to them alwaie dreadfull or terrible.
Bellum formidolosissimum, a verie terrible
warre.
Formio, a ryuer of Istria, called commonly Cesano.
Formo, aui, are, to fourme, to facion, to make in facion.
Formare carmen, epistolam, orationem alie-no ingenio, to make a verse, an epistle, or oration by an other mans helpe.
In suos mores formare, to make one in con-dicions lyke to hym selfe.
Formare se in alicuius mores, to endeuour to be lyke an other man in condicions.
Iuuentutem formare, to instructe and facion youthe to any thyng.

For-

Formóſitas, âtis, fœm. gen. welfauouredneſſe, comelyneſſe.
Formóſus, a, um, fayre, welfauoured.
Fórmula, æ, f. gene. an inſtrument or dreſſe in wrytyng. A ſtyle in writyng, and a fourme in pleadyng. A rule or faſion.
Formula iniuriarum, an action of treſpaſſe.
Formula cognitionis, the maner of an examination.
Formula excidere, to be barred of his action.
Formulam intendere, to bryng an action.
Formulárius, rij, m. g. a practiſer of the lawe.
Fornacalia, órum, n. ge. plu. daies dedicated to bakyng of bycade, or rather bakers holydays, when certayne ſacrifice was doone in the bakehouſe.
Fornacárius, rij, m. g. a baker.
Fornáceus, a, um, made like a fournais or ouen.
Fornácula, æ, f. g. a little ouen.
Fornax, âcis, fœm. gene. a chymney or ouen, a fournaiſe.
Fornax calcaria, a lyme kylle.
Fornax lateraria, a bryche kylle.
Fornicárius, rij, maſc. gene. he that hath a ſtall or booeth vnder the vaultes or arches of churches or palaices, where they ſell theyr wares to theym that paſſe by, as they do in Weſtminſter halle.
Fornicárius, a, um, pertaynyng to lechery,
Fornicatio, ônis, f. g. a vaultynge or makyng of a vault or archeruſſe, alſo fornication, horedome, lecherie.
Fornicátor, oris, m. g. a lechour.
Fornicátus, a, um, made lyke an arche, that hath committed horedome.
Forábilis, le, that maie bee perced or bored thorowe.
Fórnico, aui, are, to make an arche or a vault.
Fórnicor, aris, ari, to committe fornication.
Fornix, icis, m. g. an arche or a vault. ſometyme a ſtewes or brothelle houſe.
Fornices, were alſo arches in Rome made in the memorie of any noble victorie, or triumph.
Foro, aui, are, to perſe or bore an hole.
Fórpices, ſpillars to clippe heare.
Fors, ó, fors, a forte, fortune, ſometyme it is vſed for Forſan, peraduenture.
Fors fortuna, good fortune or chaunce.
Fors fuat, god ſende the good fortune, god ſpede the well.
Fors viderit, I leaue that to fortune.
Mala fors, yll fortune.
Fórſitan, & forſan, peraduenture.
Fortaſſe, fortaſsis, idem.
Forté, by chaunce, as happe was, as it fortuned, peraduenture.
Forté fortuna, by good aduenture.
Forte fortuna adfuit. &c. by chance, or, as fortune was ꝛc.
Forteſco, ſcere, to ware or be ſtronge.
Forticulus, a, um, a little ſtrong, ſomwhat hardie.
Fortificò, aui, are, to fortifie or make ſtronge.
Fortis, e, ſtronge, puiſſaunt, valiaunt of courage, conſtaunt. Alſo fayre. ſometyme ryche.
Fortis & ignauus, contrary.
Fortis familia, a ryche and ſubſtauncial familie.
Fortis equus, a courageouſe and ſwift horſe.
Fortia facta, valiaunt deedes.
Forte ac vehemens dicendi genus, a weighty and vehement maner of ſtyle or oracion.
Fortes fortuna iuuat, fortune fortherethe bolde aduenturers, nothyng venture, nothyng haue: ſpare to ſpeake, ſpare to ſpede.
Fortis & magnus animus, a valiant and noble courage.
Fortiter, ſtrongly, valiauntly, manfully, conſtantly, myghtily.
Fortiter ferre aliquid, to take a thyng patiently, or with a valiant ſtomake.
Fortitúdo, inis, f. g. ſtrengthe, valyant courage.
Fortuitò, by chaunce, at aduenture.
Fortuitu, idem.
Fortuitus, a, um, that happeneth by chaunce.
Diuinum & fortuitum, contrary.
Subita & fortuita oratio, ſpeakynge without meditacion or ſtudie.
Fortuitus euentus, a chaunce of fortune.
Fortúna, æ, f. g. fortune.
Afflicta fortuna, aduerſitee.
Integra fortuna, proſperitee.
Fortuna, æ, or Fortunæ, arum, goodes, good fortune, aduauncement, eſtate, condicion.
Committere ſe fortunæ, to abyde the aduenture of fortune, to aduenture.
Fortunæ filius, looke Filius.
Ampliſsimæ fortunæ, of ryght hyghe eſtate or degree.
Poſſeſsiones & fortunæ.
Conditio, & fortuna.
Infima fortuna homines, men of moſt vile and baſe condicion.
Fortunis omnibus euertere, To thruſte one out of all that euer he hath.
Fortunatior fortuna, a better chance, a more luckie fortune.
Fortunatæ inſulæ, the fortunate yles, whiche were in the great Ocean ſea, and of Plinie are named to be. vi. of Solinus. iii. of Ptolome. ii. whiche he calleth alſo the yles of goddes, for the holſomeneſſe of the ayre, and wynde blowyng there. Alſo the plentie of good fruites and fertilitee of the grounde. It is thought of ſome men to be thoſe yles, whiche are nowe called Canaria, diſtant from Spaine, towarde the weſte. 1200. myles, after the coumpt of Petrus Martyr. of theſe yles are founden to be. ii. in noumbre. Fyrſt about the yere of our lorde. 1405. a frenche man, called Betanhor, at the commaundement of Katharine, then quene of Caſtell, founde two of theym, and called the one Launcelotte, and the other Forte ventum.

ennum. Soone after one Fernandus Peraria, nd his wyfe founde other two, and called the ns Ferream, and the other Gomeram. After hat the great Canaria was founde by Petrus de Vera, and Wychaell de Moxica. last of all, by commaundement of Fernando, and Es lisabeth late kyng and quene of Spaine, Tene riphe, and Palma, were founde by Alphon ſus Lugo, So that nowe all the .vii. yles bee vnder the dominion of the kynge of Spaine. Not withstandyng some suppose, that these be not the yles, whiche were called Fortunatæ, but rather those more southe, called now of the Portugales, Insulæ capitis viridis.

ortunate, happyly, fortunately, prosperously.

ortunátim, idem quod fortunate.

ortunátus, a, um, luckie, happie, welthie.

ortúno, aui, are, to make prosperouſe, to augment with good fortune.

óruli, forulæ, f. g. a wicket.

orule, a citee of Italie.

óruli, órum, m g plur. hutches, wherin bookes were kepte, nowe they be taken for heuerynges of bookes.

orum, i, neu. ge. a market, where thynges bee solde. Also a place where iudgementes are practised, and matters in lawe pleaded.

Forum agere, to syt in iudgement, to heare & determyne causes.

Foro vti, to doo accordyng to the tyme, to take the tyme while it serueth.

Forum Liui, a citee of Italie called Forli.

Fora, vesselles vsed in pressyng wyne.

Forum, when it is taken for a markette, hath commonly an other worde ioygned therwith: as Forum boarium, the market where cattell is solde.

Forum olitorium, the market, where herbes be solde.

Forum piscarium, the fysshe market.

Forum Cornelij, a towne in Italy called Imola.

Forum Iulij, a region or countrey of Italie, whiche was sometyme called Iapidia, nowe it is called Friuli.

Forum Claudij, Tarentasia in Italie.

Fossa, æ, f. g. a dyche, or dyke, or a mote.

Vallo & fossa munire castra, to cast a trenche and dyche about a campe.

Fossæ marianæ, a citee in the prouince of Narbone called Aigues mortes.

Fossæ Papyrianæ, a citee in Italie called Fosso nouum.

Fossátum, i, n. g. a dyche or mote.

Fossilis, le, that whiche is or maie be digged.

Fóssio, ónis, f. g. a dyggyng or delueyng.

Fossínus, a, um, that is dygged.

Fossor, oris, m g. a dygger, or dycher.

Fóssula, læ, f. g. a little dyche.

Fossum Sempronij, a towne in Italie called Fossombrone. Also Faventia.

Fossúra, æ, f. g. a dyggyng.

Fotus, us, m. g. nourysshynge, keepynge warme and in naturall heate.

Fótus, a, um, nourished, cherysshed, kept warme.

Fouea, æ, f. g. a denne.

Foueo, ui, ere, to nourishe, to susteyne, to maintayne, to kepe warme, to cherisshe, to weate or washe a thyng, to ordeine or set, to defende.

Fouere aliquem, to kepe out his friende, or to fauour or make muche of one.

Fouere in pectore, to thynke priuily.

Fouere oua, to kepe warme egges, as foules doo sytting on broode.

Fouere amorem, to nourishe and maintaine loue. Castra fouere, id est tueri.

Fouebam dolores meos, I dyd nourysshe and maintayne my sorowe and heauynesse.

Fouere iudicium, quod de vobis habet, maintein and increase the good opinion that he hath of you.

Fouere aliquam, to embrace a woman.

Fouere vulnus aqua, to wash a wounde with water, to stinte the bleedyng.

Fouere os multa aqua frigida, to washe the mouthe with muche colde water.

F ANTE R.

Fraceo, cui, ère, to putrifie or age.

Fracesco, scere, idem.

Fraces, ium of oyle.

Frácidus, a, um, more than rype, rotten as fruite is.

Fractúra, æ, f. g. a breakyng or bruysyng.

Fractus, a, um, broken, discouraged.

Fracto animo & demisso est, his courage faileth hym, his herte fainteth, he stoupeth.

Fractæ res, riches or goodes spente or loste.

Fracti bello, wery of warres.

Fracta pronunciatio, an effeminate, womanly and nyce pronunciation.

Frænátus, a, um, that is bridled or restreigned of his will.

Frænigerus, a, um, that ruleth the bridle.

Ala frænigera, the wynge of horse men.

Fræno, aui, are, to bridle, to restreigne, to stop.

Voluptates frænare, to maister the wanton appetites or pleasures.

Frænare populum, to kepe vnder a stubborne or frowarde people.

Iram frænare, to bridle, rule or moderate anger.

Frænum, ni, n. g. a bridle, or the bit of a bridle.

Frænum, morbus est cum glans penis ita contecta est, vt nudari non possit.

Frænos adhibere, to restreigne.

Frenos inijcere alicui, to let one of his pleasure, to bridle hym that would not be ruled.

Frænum mordere, to take the bit in the teeth, signifieth, to fette naught by.

Accipere frænum, by a metaphore to submit, and become subiecte.

Com-

Compeſcere animum frænis, To bydle the mynde.
Da frænum, let hym haue the bydle at will, geue hym the head, leat hym doe as he liſte.
Ducere frænum, contrary.
Eget frænis, he hath nede to be reſtreigned.
Fraga, ôrum, neu. gen. plur. ſtrawe beries, the herbe is called Fragaria.
Frageo, gere, & Frageſco, ſcere, to braſte.
Fragilis, le, fraple, bruckle, ſoone broken.
Fragile & caducum.
Fragile dentibus, That may eaſily be broke with the teeth.
Fragilitas, atis, fœm. ge. frailtee, brouhleneſſe, inconſtancie.
Fragiliter, weakely, inconſtauntly, brouhlely.
Fragitides, the two great veynes, which doe appeare on either ſyde of the neche.
Fragmen, inis, & Fragmentum, ti, n. g. a piece or gobbet of a thyng broken, a fragment.
Fragor, ôris, m. g. the noiſe that is made at the falling or bruſtyng of any great thyng.
Fragôſus, a, um, vneaſy to clime, rough, ſharpe.
Fragoſa oratio, & Lenis oratio, contrary.
Fragrans, antis, om. gen. haupng great or ſoote ſauoure.
Fragrántia, æ, f. g. a great ſauour.
Fragro, aui, are, to geue a pleaſaunt ſauour.
Framea, æ, f. g. a ſpeare or iauelyn.
Francones, people of Germanie.
Frango, égi, ere, to breake, to diſcourage, to vainquiſh, to maiſter, to tame and kepe vnder.
Frangere animum, to diſcourage.
Audaciam hoſtis frangere, to abate his enemies courage.
Frangere authoritatem veteris diſciplinæ, to breake or deſtroye the olde rule or laudable cuſtome.
Fidem frangere, To breake promyſe or appointement.
Frangere hominem, To cauſe one to relente from his purpoſe, to make hym to agre to his requeſte.
Opes inimicorum frangere, to impouerylhe his ennemies.
Sententiam alicuius frangere, to confute ones opinion and make it of no value.
Frangi, not to abyde patiently aduerſitee ſorowe or trouble.
Frangi dolore, to be in extreme ſorowe, or almoſt deade for ſorowe or griefe.
Frangi metu, to be almoſte deade for feare.
Frangi pudore, to be exceadyngly aſhamed, to be out of countenaunce.
Frangere in micas, to breake ſmall, to crũme.
Fregit nauem, he had a ſhyppwracke.
Cupiditates frangere, to miniſter ones wanton appetites.
Frangere & domare nationes, to vainquiſh and kepe vnder nacions.
Patientia aliquem frangere, To ouercome one with patience.
Frangere molis, to grynde.
Frangere conſilia alicuius, to ſtop ones purpoſes, to let that one goeth about.
Franôſus, a deceptuour.
Frater, tris, m. g. a brother.
Frater patruelis, a brothers ſoonne, a coſyn germayne.
Fratres gemini, two twynnes.
Fratris mei gnatus, my nephewe.
Fraterculus, li, m. g. a little or pong brother.
Fraternè, brotherly.
Fraternitas, atis, brotherhede.
Fraternus, a, um, of a brother.
Fratilli, the fringe of tapeſtrie that hangeth nye the grounde.
Fratro, aui, are, properly is ſaied of children breſtes, whan they do grow and ware imbord.
Fratres Aruales, rede before in Aruales.
Fratria, æ, f. g. a brothers wyfe.
Fratricida, æ, fœm. gener. he that hath ſlayne his brother.
Fratrueles, brothers children, coſyn germains.
Fraudátio, ônis, f. g. a deceiuyng or begyling.
Fraudátor, ôris, m. g. a deceiuour.
Fraudátus, a, um, deceiued or begiled.
Fraudo, aui, are, to deceiue priuily by taking awaie that is due, to diſapoynte.
Fraudare aliquem ſuo teſtimonio, when one holdeth his peace, whan his friende is ſpoken of, and will not ſaie well of hym.
Fraudare genium, not to ſatiſfie the requeſte of nature or carnall appetite.
Fraudare ſe victu ſuo, to fare hardely for negardeſhyp, to withdrawe part of his owne liuyng and ſuſtinaunce.
Fraudare ſtipendium, To retayne or kepe backe wage from men.
Fraudare, & Fallere.
Vadimonium alicui deſerere, & eum fraudare, To diſapoynte one and not to appeare at the daie appoynted.
Fraudare creditores, To deceiue his creditours, not to paie his debtes.
Aliquem pecunia fraudare, to geat ones money from hym by ſome wyle or cautele.
Fraudulenter, deceitfully.
Fraudulentus, a, um, full of deceipte.
Fraus, fraudis, fœm. gener. deceipte, fraude, a ſnare or trappe to begile one, diſpleaſure, inconuenience, hurte, damage. Alſo perill daunger.
Fraus & integritas, contrary.
Agere aliquem in fraudem, to bryng one into perill and daungier.
Aſtruere, cogitare, nectere fraudem, to go about to deceiue.
Facere fraudem legi, with ſome interpretation or meane to delude the lawe.
Quod ſine fraude mea populiq; mei fiat, ſauyng myn own right, & the right of my people.

Fert

Fert illi fraudem hæc res, this thyng bzought hym in daungier.

In eandem fraudem ex hac re atq; ex illa incides, Thou shalte fall into the same trappe bothe by this meanes and by the other.

Illicis in fraudem, Thou bzyngest theym to displeasure and inconuenience. Thou dost entice oz allure theym to that thyng, wherby they shall haue hurte, Oz thou tollest them into the snare, oz into daungier.

Modo ne cares mihi sit fraudi, So that that thynge put me to no displeasure, hurt oz inconuenience.

Sine fraude esse, To bee out of perylle oz daungier.

Fraus capitalis, a deadly offence.

Fraus, was vsed of olde wzyters foz Pœna.

Fraudum, was vsed of olde wzyters foz Fraudatum.

Fraxineus, oz Fraxinus, a, um, of asshe, oz asshen.

Fráxinus, i, f. ge. an asshe.

Fraxo, aui, are, to go about the watche.

Fregillæ, a lytell towne in Italy, sometyme a noble citee.

Fremebundus, a, um, that maketh an hozrible and great noyse.

Frémitus, us, mas. gene. a rozynge, pzopzely of waters. sometyme a murmuryng, rumble, oz noyse of people assembled together.

Fremo, mui, ĕre, to roze oz make a noyse lyke great waters, oz lyke a lyon, to murmure and shewe mens selues greatly discontented, to be verie angrie oz greatly moued.

Legiones fremebãtse fraudari stipendio, the souldiers shewed theim selfes greatly discontẽted, that they were deceiued of their wages.

Hæc fremit plebs, the people murmureth and grudgeth greatly at these thynges.

Frendens, dentis, om. gene. gnashyng with the teeth.

Frendeo, dui, dẽre, to grynde the teethe together for anger oz peyne. Also to grunte oz grone foz peyne, to breake oz bzuise.

Frendo, dui, frendere, idem.

Frentani, people of Italy.

Frenum, lowe Frænum.

Frequens, entis, om. gener. Accustomed, muche haunted. Also assembled together, abounding.

Omnibus relictis mihi frequentem operam dedisti, Leaupng all other men, ye haue often holpen me.

Frequens auditorium, a great audience.

Frequens adest, he cometh often.

Frequens est cum eo, he is often tymes with hym.

Frequentes fuimus ad ducentos, we were a great numbze about. ii. hundzed.

Frequens senatus, all the senate gathered togyther.

Venio in senatum frequens, I come ozdinarily into the senate.

Frequens populus, muche people continually resozting.

Frequens vrbs, a citee full of people, a citee of great resozte, a citee of muche haunt.

Frequens forum, the hygh stzete full of people.

Aderat ibi frequens, He was muche there a comer and goer.

Auditor frequens, a scholar that resozteth often to ones lecture.

Frequens numerus, a great numbze.

Via frequens & tuta, a waie muche haunted and without daungier.

Frequens secretis, muche of ones pzyuie counsaile.

Frequentes obuiam prodeunt, they goe fozth in great numbze to mete with hym.

Frequentamentum, ti, neu. gen. in musyke, it is warblyng.

Frequentárius, a, um, of olde wzyters vsed foz Frequens.

Frequentátio, ônis, fœ. gene. an hauntyng, an assemble. also a figure of zethozike.

Frequentia, æ, fœ. gene. a great haunte oz company of folke.

Domum reducebant cum maxima frequentia, with a great companie.

Circumfusus frequentia hominum, haupng a great multitude of people about hym.

Frequentissimæ ædes, an house muche haunted with people.

Frequento, aui, are, to haunt, to go together, to go muche to a place. also to make to be hanted, oz muche vsed. sometyme foz Geminare, to repete agayne.

Frequentare aliquem, to resozte much to one, to visite hym often.

Frequentatur domus, the house is muche resozted to.

Solitudinem alicuius loci frequẽtare, to make a place inhabited, whiche was befoze deserte.

Frequentare templum decet, it is mete that the people shulde resozte muche vnto the churche.

Frequentare populum, to assemble the people in great numbze.

Fressus, a, um, bzoken oz bzuised.

Fressa faba, a beane bzuised oz bzoken.

Fretum, ti, neu. ge. a nartowe sea betweene two landes, as Fretum Herculeum, whiche is in the sea betwene Spayne and the countrepe of Moozes, called the straightes of Marroh.

Fretus, was vsed of olde wzyters in the masculine gender.

Fretus, a, um, of Fruor, trustyng, haupng confidence in a thyng.

De qua tamen magnam spem habemus, freti clementia collegæ tui, wherefof not withstandyng we haue good hope, trustyng on the mercy of your companion.

Quo fretus hoc audebat? vpon whose sup-portacion durste he be so bolde to doo this?

Friabilis, le, soone broken in smalle pieces, that maie be crummed.

Fribolus, almost wooꝛth an halfe peny.

Frico, fricui, and fricaui, frictum, and Fricatum, are, to rubbe.

Frictilla, æ, fœm. gen. a fritter made of flowꝛe and batter.

Frictus, us, m. g. Fricatio, & Frictio, ônis, f. g. rubbyng, fricacion, Frictus, and Frixus, a, um, fryed.

Frigédo, gédinis, idem quod Frigus.

Frigefácio, géfacis, fêci, ere, to coole.

Frigefacto, aui, are, to make colde often.

Frigeño, fieri, to bee cooled.

Frigeo, gui, and frixi, ère, to be colde oꝛ flowe, to bee kapnte oꝛ out of courage, to bee almoste blanke.

Nimirum hi homines frigent, In faith these felowes are blanke: Oꝛ the courage of these men is gone oꝛ well abated.

Vbi friget sermo, whan our communicacion wared colde: oꝛ whan there lacked matter to talke of.

Friget venus, lust of the bodie is colde.

Frigero, aui, are, to coole.

Frigesco, scere, to ware colde.

Frigidárius, a, um, where colde water is kept.

Frigidaria cella, a colde bathe.

Frigide, coldely, vnaptly, vnpleasauntly, without any grace.

Frigiditas, âtis, f. g. coldenesse.

Frigidulus, a, um, somewhat colde.

Frigidus, a, um, colde, dangerous, oꝛ noyfull. also nothyng hotte in a matter, kapnt, flowe, without grace oꝛ pleasantnesse.

Frigidum opidulum, a towne of small roste.

Argumentum frigidum, a slender argument without foꝛce oꝛ pithe.

Frigida negotia, trifelynge matters of no weyght oꝛ importance.

Frigida solatia, slender comfoꝛtes.

Frigidum, foolyshe, that hath no grace, cui Facetum & plausibile opponitur.

Frigida, vsed substantiuely foꝛ colde water.

✠ Frigidam suffundere, pꝛouerbially, signifieth to encourage oꝛ steere to a thing, with flatteryng and fayre wooꝛdes.

Frigilla, æ, fœm. ge. a bꝛyde that syngeth in the colde wether, that whiche is called a chaffinch, oꝛ a spinke.

Fringillago, ginis, fœ. g. a little bꝛyde called the lesse titmous.

Frigo, xi, & frigui, frixum, and Frictum, ere, to fꝛye, to parche.

Frigorificus, a, um, that maketh colde.

Frigor, oris, neu. gene. colde. sometyme feare. sometyme deathe.

Friguſculum, looke Friuiculum.

Frigutio, frigûtis, tiui, ire, to quake foꝛ colde.

Fringilla, idem quod Frigilla.

Frigillarius, a hynde of hawkes, most lyke to be our hobbie.

Frio, aui, are, to bꝛeake small, especially betwixt the fingers.

Frisi, people by Hollande, whereof the countrey is called Friselande.

Frit, the grayne in the toppe of the eare, whiche is lasse than a cozne.

Fritilla, læ, f. g. a fꝛoyle oꝛ pancake.

Fritillus, li, m. ge. a bore, out of the whiche bꝛe were cast on the tables.

Friuiculum, li, n. g. dissencion betwene men and theyꝛ wyues, whiche cometh not to separacion, this wozde is in Vlpian, where some wouldе haue it redde friguſculum, some fricuſculum.

Friuola, ôrum, neu. gen. plu. trenkets, of lyttell value.

Friuolárius, i, m. ge. he that selleth stuffe of lyttell value, a pedlar.

Friuolus, a, um, vayne, lyghte, of no estimacion oꝛ value, that wyll quickely vanishe oꝛ peryshe.

Frixorium, órij, n. g. a fryng panne.

Frondárius, a, um, of leaues.

Frondatio, ônis, fœ. ge. a slyppyng of leaues oꝛ bowes, loppyng of trees, also bꝛowsyng.

Frondátor, ôris, mas. gen. a bꝛouser, a wooddе lopper.

Frondeo, frondui, ère, & Frondesco, scere, to beare oꝛ bꝛyng fooꝛth leaues.

Frondeus, a, um, that is of leaues.

Frondifer, a, um, bearyng leaues.

Frondo, daui, are, to cutte of leaues, oꝛ small boowes.

Frondôsus, a, um, full of leaues.

Frons, frontis, fœm. gener. the foꝛehead, the fronte oꝛ foꝛepart, the entrance oꝛ begynnyng of a thynge, shamefastenesse Also countenance. also it signifieth the foꝛeparte of an hoste. also seueritee, grauitee.

Fronte obducta, corrugata, caperata, contracta, nubila, with an heauie, sadde, frouned, sowꝛe oꝛ displeasaunt contenance.

Frons causæ, the begynnyng of the matter.

Prima fronte, at the fꝛyste, at the entre, at the fꝛymeface.

Porrecta, serena, explicata fronte, with a merp countenance.

Frontem explicare, and exporrigere, to take merply, to be merp and iocunde.

Frontem contrahere, and Obducere, to take sowꝛely, to bee heauye and sadde, to looke displeasauntly.

Frontem ferire, Is spoken, where a man signifieth, that one dyspeyreth an other extremely.

Periit illi frons, he hath lost his countenance, he is past shame.

Frons vrbana, confidence, boldenesse, wantes mefastnesse in requiryng a thyng.

✠ A fronte præcipitium, a tergo lupi, A pꝛouerbe, signifiyng a man to be in the myd-

des des betweene two great daungiers or myſ chiefes.

✠ A fronte & à tergo videre, A prouerbe, no tyng a prouidence and wyſedome, in conſide ryng and weyngе as welle thynges paſte as to come.

Sed vtrum fronte an mente dubitatur, But it is doubtefull or vncertayne, whether he doo it with his herte and mynde, or with the counte nance onely, ſhewyng a fayre face.

Frontem perfrica, caſte awaye all ſhame.

Frontem remittere, to abate of ones ſeuerite, and to become more pleaſant and gentill.

Frons libri, the edge of a booke that is pein ted and coloured.

Frons, frondis, fœ. g. the leafe of a tree with the braunches.

Agere frondem, to bourgein.

Frontâle, lis, n. g. the headſtall of a bridell.

Frontâtus, a, um, that is ſyke a forehead.

Frontâri lapides, ſtones that go thorough, and appere on bothe ſydes of a wall, and are the chiefe ſtrength of the wall. The Grekes call them Diatoni, and Diatori: the Frenche men call theim Perpeins.

Fronto, a learned man, inſtructoure of M. An tonius.

Fronto, ônis, m. g. that hath a brode forehead.

Frontôſus, a, um, that hath a great forehead, or that is not abaſhed.

Frúctifer, a, um, bearyng fruite.

Fructuârius, rij, maſcu. gene. he that taketh the fruite or profyte of a thynge, called of our law yers, Pernour of profites.

Fructuârius, a, um, that whiche beareth fruite, or doeth pertayne to fruite.

Flagellum vitis fructuarium, That beareth fruite.

Scroſa fructuaria, a ſow kepte for breede and encreaſe.

Fructuôſus, a, um, fruitfull, profitable.

Fructuoſiſsimus locus, a verie fertile and fruitefull ſoyle.

Fructuoſa beneficia.

Fructus, us, tuis, & ti, fruite, vſe, commoditee.
alſo all profitte, or reuenues that come of the grounde, or any other thyng. ſometyme meate, alſo the vſe or pleaſure of a thyng.

Fructum capere ex aliquo, to haue profite or commoditee of a thyng.

Alere ſuis fructibus exercitum, to mainteine an armie with his reuenewes.

Frugâlis, le, in the poſitiue degree, no good la tine woorde. But in the ſtede thereof the latine authours vſe Frugi.

Frugalior, Frugaliſsimus, more temperate,
moſte temperate.

Dedo patri me nunc vt frugalior ſim quàm vult, I putte my ſelfe into my fathers handes, to be more honeſt man and of better rule than he woulde haue me.

Nequiſsimus & frugaliſsimus, contrary.

Parciſsimus & frugaliſsimus, a verie thrifty fellow, of great moderacion and temperatneſſe in ſpyenge.

Frugâlitas, âtis, fœ. g. moderacion of ſpyenge, eſpecially in apparayle & diete, ſobre rule, thrif tines, frugalitee, good and honeſt behauour, alſo ſufficiencie.

Frugâliter, têperately, ſobrely, profitably, with out reproche, exceſſe, or ryot.

Parcè & frugaliter viuere, to leade a têperate or moderate lyfe, without exceſſe, or ryotte, to lieue ſparingly and thriftily.

Fruges, or Frux, frugis, fœm. g. encreaſe of all thoſe thinges, which the earthe bryngeth forth, moſte properly of corne and grayne. Sometyme it ſignifieth rente or reuenues.

Recipere ſe ad frugem bonam, of a naughty and lyghte fellow, to become thriftye, and waxe an honeſt man.

Corrigere ad frugem, to chaſtiſe to the intent to make hym an honeſt man.

Euadere ad bonam frugem, To proue in the ende a right honeſt man.

Frugi, of all genders and vndeclined, temperate and meaſurable in dyet, or maner of lyuyng of ones bodie, and ſometyme in apparayle and other thynges, of a good rule or moderacion, moderate, profitable, neceſſarye, thriftie, ſobre, good, honeſte, contrarye to Nequam.

Frugi ædificium, an houſe not ſumptuous.

Frugi homo, a good man, a thrifty man, en dued with manhod and vertue, an honeſt man, temperate in expenſes.

Frugi ſeruus, a truſty ſeruaunt, whiche loketh well to his maſters profite.

Permodeſtus ac bonæ frugi homo, a verie modeſte perſone, and of a righte honeſte bee hauiour.

Frugi es, thou arte a profytable and neceſſary fellowe.

Frugi cœna, a moderate & temperate ſupper.

Frugi victus, an honeſt moderate and tempe rate diete. Cui luxurioſus opponitur.

Frugis, is vſed of Plautus in the genitius caſe.

Frugi filius opponitur luxuriôſo.

Frûgifer, a, um, fruitefull, that beareth fruite or corne.

Frugilegus, a, um, that gathereth together fruite
or corne.

Fruiſcor, ſci, to vſe at libertee.

Frumen, frúminis, n. g. the vppermoſte parte of the throte, the gargyll.

Frumentâceus, a, um, of corne.

Frumentârius, a, um, pertaynyng to corne.

Res frumentaria, prouiſion of grayne.

Locus frumentarius, a ſoyle or place where muche corne groweth.

Re frumentaria laborare, To lacke forrage or corne.

Solum frumentarium, a ſople or grounde apt to beare corne.

Frumentarius, rij, m. g. a forrager, one that maketh proviſion for corne to ſell againe to other.

Frumentarius negotiator, idem.

Frumentatio, ônis, f. ge. a takynge in of corne, harueſt, forrageyng. alſo a diſtribucion of corne and graine among citezens.

Frumentátor, ôris, m. ge. a pourueier of corne, a forrager.

Frumentor, âris, ari, to gather or purueye corne.

Frumentum, ti, n. g. all corne or pulſe. it is moſt vſed for wheate or rye.

Fruniſcor, vſed of olde writers for fruor.

Frunitus, wiſe in vſyng of a thyng.

Fruor, frúeris, fructus ſum, frui, to eate, to bee fedde or nouryſhed, to haue the vſe or profite of a thyng, to vſe with delectacion and profite.

Frui ingenio ſuo, to doo as he wyll, to doo after his owne fantaſy and pleaſure.

Frui otio, to bee at leyſure without buſynes.

Recordatione noſtræ amicitiæ fruor, I take great pleaſure in the remembraunce of oure amitee and frendſhyp.

Frui ſermone alicuius, to take pleſure or profite by hearyng a mans talke.

Frui agrum, to take the profitte of a piece of lande.

Aeternitate fruuntur animæ, ſoules lyue eternally, or ſoules haue fruicion of euerlaſtyng lyfe.

Fruſino, a citee of Campayne.

Fruſinum, a citee of Campayn called Fruſinona.

Fruſtatim, in pieces or gobbettes.

Fruſtillâtim, piece meale.

Fruſtra, in vayn, without any effect or purpoſe.

Fruſtra es, Thou arte deceyued or abuſed.

Fruſtra eſſe, to come to none effect, to profite nothyng, to doo no good.

Fruſtra habere aliquem, to abuſe or deceyue one. Ne fruſtra ſis, That thou bee not diſappointed.

Fruſtra legati diſceſſere, the embaſſadours departed without haueng theyr purpoſe.

Fruſtra gauiſus ſum miſer, I was glad for nothyng, vnhappy body that I am.

Fruſtra eſt homo, It is not as the man thynketh, or he is deceyued.

Ea res fruſtra fuit, that thyng deceyued theyr expectacion, or it came not to paſſe as they looked for.

Fruſtrátio, ônis, fœm. gene. abuſyng or deceyuyng of one.

Fruſtro, aui, are, & Fruſtror, aris, ari, a verbe common after Priſcian, after other a deponent, to deceyue. Alſo to doe a thyng in vayne, or vaynely to employe.

Fruſtrari expectationem alicuius, To diſappoynt one of that whiche he looked for.

Fruſtrari expenſas, To loſe his coſtes and charges.

Imprudenter facta opera fruſtrantur expenſas, warkes made vnaduiſedly make one to loſe all that he hath beſtowed.

Fruſtrari laborem, to loſe his peyne.

Fruſtrari ab aliquo, to be deceyued of one, to be defeated of his purpoſe.

Fruſtrâtus, a, um, that hath deceyued or begiled.

Hæc ſpes me ſæpe fruſtrata eſt, this hope hath begyled me more than ones or twyſe.

Satis adhuc tua fruſtrata eſt fides, Hytherto the truſt that I haue had in the, hath merily well deceyued me.

Fruſtuléntus, a, um, full of ſmall pieces or gobbettes.

Fruſtulum, and Fruſtillum, li, n. g. a litle gobbet.

Fruſtum, i, n. g. a piece or gobbet.

Fruſtum hominis, a lute prette below, that ſeemeth to be but a peece of a man.

Fruſta meri bibunt, They drynk wyne, frozen in to peeces of yce.

Fruſus, a kynde of brambles, whoſe pryckes be not hooked.

Frutetôſus, a, um, haueng aboundance of ſuche great herbes, full of ſhrubbes.

Frutêtum, ti, ſeu Fruticetum, i, neu. ge. a place where groweth herbes with great ſtalkes or ſtemmes, or where ſhrubbes growe.

Frutex, frúticis, maſ. gene. a ſhrubbe, that whiche hath a great ſtalke, and yet it is no tree, as fenell, calles, certayne malowes, and other lyke herbes. ſometyme it is taken for the ſtem or ſtalke.

Frutex, is alſo a certayne tree growyng in Phrygia.

Fruticátio, ônis, f. gen. the bryngyng forth of ſhootes or yong ſpryngs.

Frutico, aui, are, & Fruticor, aris, ari, to ſpryng in ſtalkes, to bryng forth ſpryngs, ſhoots, or ſhrubbes.

Fruticare pluribus culmis, to ſpryng & bryng forth many ſtalkes and ſhotes.

Fruticôſus, a, um, that bryngeth forthe many ſhotes, ſtalkes, or ſtemmes.

Frutinal, a temple of Venus.

Frux, frugis, fœm. gen. vſed of olde writers for corne or pulſe.

F ANTE V.

FVat, for ſit.

Fucátus, a, um, coloured or peincted as ſom women be.

Fucatus nitor, counterfait brightnes or clerneſſe. Fucata and ſyncera & vera, contrary.

Fúcilis, le, falſe coloured.

Fucinus, a lake in Italy.

Fucôſus, a, um, coloured, counterfaited.

Fuco, aui, are, to laye on a colour, to counterfaite.

Fucus, ci, maſcu. gener. a drone or bee without ſtynge, which entreth into hiues, and eateth vp the the bony. Fucus is also a sea herbe, lyke Lactuse, good to die clothe with. also peinctyng, all false or counterfait colour. it is also used for deceipt or false hoode, or any maner colourable deceipte.

Fucus gloriæ, the glosse of renoume.

Facere fucum, to deceyue or begyle.

Sine fuco, without fraude, sincerely, plainly.

Turpill taketh fucus sometyme for ware.

Fucus marinus, an herbe called also Alga marina, wherwith clothe is died.

Fufidius, the name of an oratour.

Fuga, gæ, f. g. flyght, eschewyng of a thynge. sometyme exile, banyshment. also a swifte race or course, swiftenesse.

Fuga honoris, a meane to eschewe an office or promocion.

Nulla fuga malefactis meis, my naughtinesse can by no meanes escape vnpunished.

Dissicere in fugam, and In fugam vertere, to discomfyte, to put to flyght.

Dare, conjicere, conuertere, conferre se in fugam, to flie or renne awaie.

Laboris fuga desidiam coarguit: eschewynge of labour is a token of slouthfulnes.

Fugalia, ôrum, a feaste amonge the Romaines in remembrance of dryuyng out of the kynges, and expelling of Tarquinius, solemnised in the moneth of Februarie.

Fugax, gâcis, om. g. that fleeth lyghtly. also it signifyeth swifte.

Fugacia poma, appulles that will not longe continue, that wyll soone be rotten.

Fugaia, thynges that wyl perysshe and vanysh awaie quickely.

Anni fugaces, which passe quickely.

Fugax contra insequentes crocodilus, it fleeth from them that pursue it.

Fugiens, entis, om. g. fleyng or rennyng away.

Fugiens laboris, abhorryng labour or payne.

Fugiens vinum, wyne that hath lost his vertue: or wyne that will not be long kept.

Fugientes litteræ, blynde letters.

Fugio, gi, gere, to flee, to ren awaie, to escape, to forget, to eschewe, to be vnknowen.

Fugit me ratio, thou vnderstandest not the mater.

De Cæsare fugerat me ad te scribere, of Cesar I had forgotten to wryte vnto you.

Nisi si quæ me forte fugiunt, Except perchance I haue forgotten somewhat: or excepte there be some thynges that I know not.

Oculis aliquem fugere, to be lothe to see one, or looke vpon him.

Non te fugit, ye be not ignoraunte, ye knowe well enough.

Si paululum quid te fugerit, If ye chaunce to forgeat any thynge: or yf ye be oversene in any pointe, be it neuer so litteli.

E manibus fugere, to escape ones handes.

Infamiam fugere, to eschewe infamy or shame.

Fugere, is spoken either of hyppes saylyng or byrdes sleeyng awaie.

Fugin hinc? art thou gone in all the haste? or wilte thou not geat the awaie quickely.

Fugitiuarius, rij, m. g. one that selleth seruauntes that bee runne away, to bryng them ageyn.

Fugitiuus, a, um, fugitiue, not abydynge, starynge awaie, fluttynge, that gladly and quickely renneth awaie.

Fugitiuus seruus, he that renneth frome his master, wylyng neuer to retourne: or goeth to a place, from whense he supposeth that his master can neuer recouer him.

Fugito, aui, are, to vse to ren awaie.

Fugitare patrem, and Fugitare è conspectu patris, to kepe ones selfe oute of his fathers syght: or that his father see him not.

Fugitare quæstionem, to eschewe examinacion by tourmentes.

Fugo, aui, are, to dryue away, to put to flyght.

Fulcimentum, ti, n. g. a bottrell, or that, wherwith a thynge is sustened, a proppe, a shore.

Fulcio, ciui, cire, to suppose, to fortifie, to stay or holde vp.

Benevolentia fulcire imperium, to establysshe and make stronge a kyngedome with benevolence and gentilnesse.

Eius ope fultus, haupnge his good helpe and supportacion.

Fulco, a duke of Angew, the fyfthe kynge of Hierusalem.

Fulcrum, cri, n. g. a beadstede.

Fulgeo, si, gere, and Fulgo, gi, gere, to shyne. sometyme for Fulgurare, to make to lyghten. olde writers used it for Ferire.

Auro et purpura fulgere, to be gorgiously apparayled in purple and golde.

Fulgétrum, tri, n. g. and sometyme Fulgetra, træ, f. g. a vehement and great lyghtnynge, a leame of lyghtnyng.

Fulgidus, a, am, bryght.

Fulgor, ôris, m. g. bryghtnes, shining. sometyme lyghtning, sometyme great noblenesse and glory.

Fulgur, guris, n. g. lightnyng.

Fulgurâlis, le, pertaynyng to lyghtnyng.

Fulginates, a people of Italy.

Fulgurátio, ônis, f. g. the lyghtnynge whan it is in the cloudes.

Fulgurâtor, ôris, m. g. the sender of lyghtnynge, or he that diuineth by lyghtnyng.

Fulgurio, riui, rire, to cast lyghtnyng.

Fulgu ritas, âtis, f. g. lyghtnesse or bryghtenesse, glysterynge.

Fulguritassunt, they are blasted or stryken with lyghtnyng.

Fulguritum, striken or blasted with lightnyng.

Fulguro, aui, are, to sende foorth lyghtnyng.

Auro fulgurat domus, The house shyneth or glystereth all of golde.

Fulica, cæ, f. g. a sea byrde, more than a culuer.

a white lemewe, with a blacke coppe. there bee diuers opinions, and diuerſly this name is taken. after Gaza, it is Cepphus, of ſome called Larus.

Fuligo, ginis, f. g. the ſoote of a chimney.

Fulix, licis, idem quod fúlica.

Fullo, ônis, m. g. a fullar of clothe.

Fullónica, cæ, f. g. fullars crafte, or a fullars ſhop

Fullonius, and Fullonicus, a, um, of or pertepnyng to a fullar.

Fullonicum, ci, n. g. idem quod Fullonica.

Fulmen, minis, n. g. lpghtnyng.

Ictu fulminis deflagrare, to be bourned with lpghtnyng.

Afflare fulmine, to blaſt with lpghtnyng.

Fulmina verborum, great vehemency of wozdes. Fulmina fortunæ, great miſchaunces of foztune.

Fulmineus, a, um, of or belongyng to lpghtnyng.

Fúlmino, aui, are, to lpghten, to ſtryke with lpghtnynge.

Fultûra, æ, f. g. a ſtoze or ſtroppe, a thynge that ſtaieth vp.

Fulſinates, people of Illiria.

Fuluiana, a certayne herbe.

Fuluiaſter, he that imitateth the maniers of Fulvius.

Fuluius, the name of a Romaine.

Fuluus, a, um, a colour mixte of greene and red, a darke pealow. ſometyme greene.

Fumaria herba, an herbe called Fumitorie.

Fumárium, rij, n. g. a ſmoky place, where wyne was laped, to the intent that it myght the ſooner ware olde. alſo the ſhanke, ſhafte, or tonell of a chimnete.

Fumeus, a, um, ſmoky or of ſmoke.

Fúmidus, a, um, ſmoky, that ſmoketh.

Fúmifer, ra, rum, that bzyngeth ſmoke.

Fumifico, aui, are, to make ſmoke, to incenſe, to perfume.

Fumicus, a, um, makyng ſmoke.

Fúmigo, aui, are, to perfume.

Fumo, aui, are, to ſmoke.

Fumôſus, a, um, ſmoky, blacke with ſmoke.

Fumoſæ imagines, olde ſmoky ymages, beyng the monumentes of ones auncеſtours.

Fumus, mi, m. g. ſmoke.

Fumos vendere, is the practiſe of them, which beyng myghe about a prince, or in his fauour, dooe beare men in hande, that they ſpeake for theym to the prynce, whan they ſpeake neuer a wozde, & cauſe men to lyue therby in fooles paradiſe.

Funâle, lis, n. g. a tozche. ſometyme it is vſed for a cozde or halter.

Funâlis, le, pertepnyng to cozdes.

Funales equi, hozſes, whiche coupled with an halter, did go befoze the chariot in a triumphe.

Funalis cereus, a tozche of waxe.

Funámbulus, li, m. g. he that walketh on a rope.

Functio, ônis, fœ. g. the exerciſe of a weighty mattier or office, an office or charge that a man hath to dooe, as in teachynge, in gouernynge a company.

Functus, a, um, dooyng or executyng.

Functi militia, they that be paſt warfare.

Funda, æ, f. g. a ſlynge. alſo a caſtyng net, a ſhell or purſe lyke a nette. alſo a girdle of golde or other mettall, wherin ſtones be ſette.

Fundâmen, minis, and fundamentum, ti, n. g. a foundation, the fyrſt beginnyng or grounde of a thyng.

Fundamenta cæmentitia, foundations made with ſtones and rubbyſhe.

Imitia & fundamenta.

A fundamento, euen from the grounde and fyrſt beginnynge.

Fundamenta iacere, and opera perficere, contrary.

Fundamenta reipublicæ iacere, to begin to eſtabliſhe and ſet in good order the common weale.

Cauſæ fundamenta iacere, to laie the grounde of a mattier.

Fundâtus, a, um, founded, eſtabliſhed.

Fundata legibus ciuitas, a citee eſtabliſhed with good lawes and ordinances.

Fundatiſſima familia, a verie auncient and ſubſtanciall familie.

Fundibulárius, rij, m. g. a ſlynger of ſtones.

Funditare rem, to ſpende goodes in vaine.

Fúnditor, ôris, m. g. idem.

Fúndito, aui, are, to poure out often, to ſpende muche and in vayne, to ſprende riotouſly and prodigally.

Fúnditus, aduerb. from the foundation, vtterly.

Funditus me perdidiſti, Thou haſt vtterly vndooen me.

Funditus perij, I am vtterly vndoon.

Funditus euerſa ciuitas, a citee vtterly deſtroyed and caſt downe euen by the grounde.

Fundo, aui, are, to founde, to make ſtable, to laie the foundation of a thyng.

Fundare nauem, to make or builde a ſhippe.

Fundo, fudi, fundere, to pette or caſte metalle, to poure out, to ſhede, to thzowe downe, to ſpreade or ſcatter, to diſcomfit or vanquiſhe, to geue abundantly, to ſpeke much, to lay downe.

Fundere exercitum, & fundere copias, to diſcomfite an hoſte, to ſlea all the armie.

Fundere lachrymas, to weepe exceedyngly.

Fundere verba, to ſpeake moze than nedeth, to ſpeake in vayne.

Fundere verſus, to make verſes fodainly.

Fundere vrinam, to piſſe muche.

Fundere preces, to praie.

Fundere ex ære imaginem, to caſte an ymage of braſſe.

Fundere flores, to pelde or bzyng foorth flowres aboundantly.

Fundere frugem, to putte oute fruite aboundantly.

Fundere

Fundere corpora humi, to caſte down bodies on the grounde.
Fundere mendacia, to tell lies plentifully.
Fundere orationem incondite, to ſpeake confuſely without pauſynge, as muche as one can vtter at a breath.
Funditur in Rhenum fluuius, the ryuer hath his courſe into the Rhene.
Lauiſsimè fundi, to be ſpredde farre abrode.
Fundum, di, neu. ge. the bottome of any thynge that conteyneth lycour.
Fundus, di, maſcu. gene. that whiche is vſed to bee called lande or ſoyle, a plotte of grounde with an houſe buylded on it. ſometyme it is taken for a foundacion. alſo for the chiefe authour of a thynge.
Funebris, bre, of or perteinyng to funeralles or mournyng for the dead.
Funebria iuſta, the ceremonies doone at the buryng or interrement of one.
Funebre bellum, a cruell and deadly warre, wherin is muche ſlaughter.
Epulum funebre, a feaſt at a burialL
Funeræ, arum, thoſe women that are the mourners at a burialL, as the mothers and ſyſters.
Funeràlis, le, pertenyng to funeralles.
Funereus, a, um, pertenyng to the dead body, or to the funerall.
Funero, aui, are, to bury.
Funeſto, aui, are, to vyolate a place with a dead body.
Funeſtus, a, um, vyolated with dead bodies. alſo mortall, blouddy: alſo perteinyng to dead bodies or deathe, deadly, cruell.
Funeſta vox, a blouddy and cruell ſentence.
Funeſta familia, a familie, wherof one of the houſe is dead.
Perniciosum & funeſtum.
Funetam, boowed or houped as ſome vines be.
Fungibiles res, al ſuch thinges, which be nũbred, waied, or meaſured: as wine, oyle, corne. ꝛc.
Fungor, fungeris, functus ſum, fungi, to exerciſe an office.
Fungi officio ſuo, to doo his duetie or office.
Fungi fato, to be dead.
Fungi vita, idem.
Fungi vice alicuius, or vicem alienam, to be in an other mannes ſteede, to ſupply an other mannes roume.
Functus vita, he that hath finyſhed his lyfe.
Iuſtitia fungatur officiis, leat hym liue accordyng to the lawes of iuſtice.
Fungi munus, or officium alicuius, to doo an other mans office or charge.
Fungi munere, to geue a gyfte or preſent. alſo to exerciſe an office.
Fortuna proſpere fungi, to haue good fortune, to proſpere.
Laboribus functus, he that hath taken peines and trauailes, and is now paſt theim.
Functus honore, that hath ben in any office, or dignitee.
Primo loco fungi, to be the firſt.
Fúnginus, a, um, of a muſcherom.
Fungóſitas, âtis, f. g. the holownelle of a muſcherom, or other ſuche thyng.
Fungóſus, a, um, lyke a mouſcherom.
Fungus, gi, ma. gen. a taddoole, a mouſcherom, a ſnuffe of a candelle. alſo a faute in trees as it were a kynde of blaſtyng. alſo a dulle head, a dolte, a foole, an idiote, that hath no witte or vnderſtandyng.
Funiculus, li, m. ge. a ſmalle rope, a littell corde.
Funis, nis, m. & f. g. a rope or corde.
Funipeus, idem quod funambulus.
Funus, fúneris, neu. g. funerall exequies, or ſolemnitee of buryng. ſometyme it ſignifieth the dead corpe. ſometyme deathe.
Funus facere, to cauſe one to dye, or to keepe a funerall.
Funus facere prandio alicuius, to eate vp ones dyner.
Crudeli funere extinctus, cruell death.
Immaturum funus, vntimely death.
Soluere iuſta paterno funeri, to kepe funerall obſequies at his fathers death or buriall.
Fuo, fui, futum, to bee.
Fur, furis, com gene. a theefe. Fur is taken of Varro, for a doore or great bee. of Vergile for a ſeruaunt or ſlaue.
Fur furem cognoſcit, one knaue knoweth an other, one theefe ſhaketh an other by the hand, lyke will to lyke.
Fur mihi es, thou ſtealeſt awaie my goodes.
Fur diurnus, he that robbeth in the daye tyme.
Fur nocturnus, contrary.
Furax, âcis, om. g. theuyſhe, a great pycher.
Furaces manus, theuyſhe handes.
Furácitas, âtis, f. g. theefte.
Furáciter, theuyſhely, lyke a theefe.
Furca, cæ, fœ. g. a forke, or any thyng made lyke a forke, to vnderſet or proppe vp. Furca, was alſo a facion of galowes, made with two great forkes, and a polle layde ouerthwarte.
Fúrcifer, ri, m g. a ſeruãt, which for ſome light offẽce was cõpelled to beare a forke on his neckhe, haupng both his hãdes bounden faſt therto, & ſo to go through the toune, confeſſyng his deſaute, & exhortyng other, that they ſhoulde not in lyke caſe offend, which was a great reproche. it is vſed for euery villayne hãgrope, or knaue.
Fúrcilis, lis, f. g. a doung forke.
Furcilla, læ, fœ. g. an hepe forke. alſo a galowes.
Furcula, læ, f. g. a littell forke.
Fúrculus, li, m. g. a littell theefe, a picher.
Furfur, furis, m. ge. bzanne.
Fúrfures, furfurum, ma. g. plu. nu. white ſcurfe that falleth out of a mans head or face.
Furfureus, and furfuraceus, a, um, of bzanne.
Furia, æ, or furiæ, arum, fœm gene. the furies of helle, whiche were three, Alecto, Tiſiphone, Megæra. ſometyme the woorme or pryn-full remorse of conscience, whyche horybly tourmenteth the myndes of wycked persons.

Furfurôsus, a, um, full of bran or scurfe, scurvy.
Furémter, lyke a mad bodie.
Furiâlis, le, of or pertenyng to the furies. Or that is proper or lyke to mad folkes.
Furiâliter, madly, or lyke a mad body.
Furiâtus, a, um, made furious or mad, rageinge.
Furibundus, a, um, woode or verie mad.
Furio, aui, are, to make madde or woode.
Furiosè, furyously, madly.
Furiôsus, a, um, madde or woode, frantyke, furious, rageyng.
Vesanus & furiosus.
Furinus, a, um, belongyng to a theefe.
Furnaceus, a, um, baken in an ouen.
Furnaria, æ, f. g. bakers crafte, a woman baker. also a bake house.
Furnariam exercere, to vse or exercise a bakers crafte, or to sette out a bake house or ouen to hyre.
Furnalia, the sacrifyces of the goddesse Furina.
Furnarius. rij, m. g. a baker.
Furnianus, a, um, of Furnius.
Furniana vasa, certayne vesselles, whyche were inuented by one Furnius.
Furnus, ni, m. g. an ouen.
Furo, furis, furere, to bee woode for anger, to rage, to be mad or distraught.
Furere se simulauit, he made as though he wer madde.
De aliquo furere, to be in a great rage or furie, for a thyng doone.
Furere aliquid, id est, ob aliquid.
Furor, ôris, m. g. madnesse. also fury, which is a vehement conturbacion or sterying of the mynde.
Furor, âris, ari, to steale, to attayne to a thynge by pryuie and secrete meanes.
Furtificus, a picker or pryuie stealer.
Furtim, by stealthe, pryuily.
Furtiuus, a, um, that whyche is doone by stelth, or verie pryuily, or that is stolen awaie.
Furtiuæ litteræ, and furtiua scripta, letters, which no man can rede, but onely he, vnto whom they be sente, as letters in cifer.
Furtiuæ excursiones, pryuie rodes or skyrmyshes.
Furtiuè, idem quod furtim, by stelth, pryuily.
Furtum, ti, n. g. theefte. it is defined to be a deceyptfull handlyng or vsyng of any thyng, or the possession therof, to haue therby gayne or aduauntage, whiche is by the lawe of nature prohibited to be suffered. it is sometyme any acte that is dooen pryuily, to the intent it shulde bee secrete, a crafty wyle to deceyue one. sometyme auoutrie.
Furti teneri, aut obstringi, to be answerable to felonie.
Furtum facere, to steale.
Furunculus, li, m. g. a little theefe. also a beaste called a stote, that hylleth rabettes. it is also a sore called a felō. also a sore called a cankar, whiche breaketh out in the fyngers with great wheales, and muche peyne. sometyme a knob in a vine, lyke a warte.
Furuus, a, um, darke, blacke.
Furuæ hostiæ, sacrifices dooen to Pluto and Proserpine.
Fuscina, æ, f. g. a speare wyth many teeth, wher with fyshers door take troutes or pikes, by throwynge of it, a troute speare, an pike speare.
Fuscinula, læ, f. g. a flesche hooke.
Fusco, aui, are, to make browne.
Fuscător, ôris, mas. ge. he that maketh blacke, darke, or cloudie.
Fuscus, a, um, browne of colour, not fully blacke, lyke a more, or one bourned in the sonne.
Fusca vox, a lowe voyce, whan one speaketh in the throte, as he were halfe hoarse.
Fusè, in length, longe, abundantly, plentifully.
Fusè latèq; dicere, to speake of a thing at lyght
Fúsilis, le, that whiche is molten.
Fusim, abrode as it were molten.
Fusio, ônis, f. g. a melting, a founding, a pouring out, a spreading.
Fusor, ôris, m. g. a founder, a melter.
Fusorius, a, um, pertenynge to foundryng or meltynge.
Ars fusoria, the craft of meltyng or foundyng.
Vas fusorium, a meltyng potte.
Fustigâtio, ônis, f. g. a beatynge wyth a staffe
Fustigo, aui, are, to beate wyth a staffe.
Fustis, tis, m. g. a clubbe, a staffe, a cudgell.
Caput aperire fuste, to breake ones head with a cudgell.
Fustuárius, rij, m. g. a minister, whiche serueth to beate men wyth staues.
Fustuarium, rij, a beatyng with staues.
Fusus, si, m. g. or fusum, si, n. g. a spyndell.
Fusûra, æ, f. g. a meltyng or foundynge
Fusus agrestis, the herbe, called also Aristilis.
Fusus, a, um, molten, scattered, or spred abrode
Fusus humi, stretched on the ground.
Fusi fugatiq;, slayne and put to flyght.
Per herbam fusi, lyenge alonge on the grasse.
Crines fusi, heares dissheueled or hangynge about ones eares.
Fusa cupressus, a large & great cypresse tree.
Fusa in omnes partes vitis, a vyne tree spredde abrode on euery syde.
Fusum corpus, a bodie playne and smoothe.
Fútile, lis, a cuppe vsed in the sacrifice of Vesta, whiche was so brode at the mouth, and so narowe at the foote, that it coulde not stande.
Fútilis, le, that whiche wil be soone powred out.
Futilis, he that speaketh all that he knoweth lyght or vnaduisedly, vayne, vnprofitable, babelyng foolyshly.
Futilis homo, a blabbe, that can kepe no counsayle, a telle tale, one that hath a long tongue, one in whom is no stay.

Futi

Futilis alacritas, dissolute, or vncomely myrth, or gladnesse without cause.
Futili de causa, for a vayn and trifling cause.
Futilé, and futiliter, foolishely, dissolutely.
Futilitas, atis, f. g. lyghtnesse, foolishnesse, fooly the babbling.
Fútio, tis, tire, to poure out, or renne out.
Futis, a vessell, wherewith water was poured in to a lauer, to bringe water into a parlour or supping chambre.
Futo, aui, are, to blame.
Futúrus, for Profusus.
Fumo, tui, tuere, to doo the acte of generation.
Futurus, a, um, that shall be hereafter.

G ANTE A.

GABA, a towne in Galilee.
Gabaa, a citee of Syria.
Gabales, a people of aquitayne in Fraunce.
Gabalum, a toune in France nygh to Narbona, where verape good cheese was made.
Gabalus, li, m. g. a galowe tree or gybet, whereon men be hanged.
Gabalus, the name of Heliogabalus, before he was emperour.
Gabaon, a citee in the holy lande, nygh to Rama, where Salomon doyng sacrifice, spake with god.
Gabaonitæ, men of that towne.
Gabata, tæ, f. g. a potage dysshe.
Gabba, a citee in Syria.
Gabii, orum, a citee in Italy, whiche the Romayns destroyed.
Gabiensis, and Gabinus, a, um, of the people called Gabij.
Gabinius, a Romayn imbassadour, whiche restored Ptholome to his kyngedome.
Gabinus cinctus, a garment with two lappes, wherof the one caste backewarde, dyd gyrde hym that dyd weare it, whiche garmente the consull ware, whan he denounced warres.
Gabriel, signifieth the puissaunce or myghte of god.
Gaddir, a citee of Spaine.
Gades, dium, f. g. plur. num. two yles by the further partes of Spayne beyonde Granade.
Gaderes, a citee of Syria, not far from Ascalon.
Gadira, a place nere to the vttermoste boundes of Spayne: to whiche whan Hercules came, and thoulde passe no further, he sette vp there his pyllours.
Gaditánus, a, um, of or belongynge to the yles Gades.
Gaditanum fretum, the entree out of the occean sea, in to the sea called Mediterraneum, haupng Spayne on the northe syde, and the Wooyes on the southe.
Gæon, a great ryuer, whyche renneth through Ethiope and Aegypt, & is now called Nylus.
Gagates, m. g. or Cages, a stone called Jeate, & a ryuer in Lycia, where that stone was fyrste founde.
Gagites, tis, m. g. a precious stone, of notable vertue, founde in the Egles neast: it is called also Aetites. if it be shaken, it semeth to haue an other stone within it.
Gaioli et lagunculi, marchepaines and other lyke fine breade.
Galactis, idem quod tithymalus.
Galactobdolon, idem quod galeopsis.
Galactites, a precious stone of white colour.
Galactophagus, an eater of mylke.
Galactopota, a drynker of mylke.
Galanga, gæ. f. g. a spice called Galingale.
Galanthis, the handemayde of Alcmena, by whose crafte she brought forth Hercules, whan she was let by Juno & Lucina: in despite whereof, shee was tourned into a weasyll, called Gala.
Galata, an yle not farre from Medina.
Galatæ, or Gallograeci, people of Galatia.
Galatea, a nymphe or mayden of the sea, and was daughter of Nereus and Doris.
Galatia, or Gallograecia, a countrete in the lesse Asia, lopnynge to Phrygia and Lidia.
Galaxias, a precious stone.
Galba, a Romayne, whiche in his tyme was verate eloquente.
Galbæ, arum, f. g. maggottes or small wooymes that breed in meate.
Gálbanus, ni, for g. or Gálbanum, ni, neu. g. a gumme of a certayne tree, whiche is muche vsed in plaisters. also a kynde of garmentes, whiche delycate persones vsed, of a bryghte whyte colour.
Galbanâtus, a, um, that weareth the garmente called galbanum.
Galbaneus, a, um, of the gum called Galbanus.
Galbeum, a certayne kynde of ornamentes that women vsed.
Galbinus, a, um, delycate, wanton, or nyce.
Gálbulus, li, m. g. the cypresse nutte, or lytell rounde ball, wherin the seede is contayned.
Gálbula, læ, a certayne byrde.
Gale, gales, f. g. a weasyl.
Galea, æ, f. g. a helmette or salet.
Galeâtus, a, um, that weareth an helmet or salet.
Galena, æ, f. g. that part of the syluer ooze, that is lefte after the tynne and syluer is tryed out: of the whiche blacke leade is made.
Galenus, a noble phisician (borne in Pargamo, sonne of Nicon a great geometrician) in the arte of phisike, excelled all other before his tyme and sens, in so muche, as in his ministration, counselle, or doctryne, he neuer had reproche, as he him selfe wryteth. also liuynge, as some doo wryte .Lx. yeres (after he passed the age of .xviii. yeres, vntyll the tyme of his deathe deathe) he was neuer vered with any ſyches neſſe, except the grudge of a feuer of one day, as he ſaieth in his warke De ſanitate tuenda, and that happened onely by to muche labour. He flourysſhed in the tyme of the emperours Marcus Comodus, and Pertinax, and dyed onely for feblenelle of age, after the incarnation of Chriſte, about. 160. yeres.

Galeo, aui, are, to put on a ſalette or helmet.

Galéola, læ, a wyne potte, ſomewhat facioned lyke a ſalette.

Galeobdolon, idem quod Galeopſis.

Galericulum, li, n. g. an vnder bonet or rydyng cappe. alſo a pirwike.

Galerita, æ, f. g. a larke.

Galeopſis, in latine Vrtica labeo, called of the apothecaries Scrophularia maior, or after ſome Agripalma, an herbe hauyng a verate ſtrong fauour, and is muche lyke a netull: it is called Archangell, as ſome doo ſuppoſe, or blinde nettle.

Galeótes, tis, a kind of lyſardes, extreme enemie to ſerpentes, for they can not abyde the ſight of this beaſt.

Galèrus, ri, m. g. and Galerum, ri, n. g. a hatte. alſo a pirwike.

Galeſus, a ryuer of Calaber, by the citee Tarentina.

Galeos, called of the latines Muſtela, and Lampetra, a fyſche muche lyke a lampzey, or rather after ſome a lampzete it ſelfe.

Galgulus, li, m. ge. a bryde, whome yf one doo beholde, that hath the pelowe iaundiſe, foorth with the man becometh whole, and the bryde dyeth.

Galilea, a countrete, whiche marcheth on Syria, Arabia, and Aegypt.

Galion, idem quod Galeopſis.

Galla, æ, f. g. a fruite called gaulles.

Gallária, a lampurne.

Gallia, a noble region, ſette betwene Spayne and Germany, and on the eaſte bordereth on the mountaynes Alpes. That whiche longeth to Germanie, was called Belgica, and was conteyned betwene the ryuers Scaldes, and Sequana. That parte, whiche marcheth to the mountaynes, was called Celtica, or Lugdunenſis, and was conteyned betwene the ryuers Seyne and Geronde. That whiche bordereth on Spayne, called Aquitania, was bounded with the mountaynes Pyrenæi. Cæſar bounderth the parte called Celtica, with the ryuers Rhone and Geronde: and Aquitania with the hylles Pyrenæi, and the ryuer of Geronde. Agrippa deſcribeth Gallia betwene the ryuer Rhene, the mountaynes Pyrenæi, the occean ſea, and the mountaynes Gebenna, & Iura. Moreouer that, whiche is nowe called Lumbardie, was called Gallia Ciſalpina.

Galliamuſcata, a certaine electuarie, verie pleaſeous and comfortable.

Gallicanus, a, um, Gallicus, a, um, and Gallus, a, um, of Fraunce.

Gallicæ, arum, a kynde of ſhoes that the frenche men vſed to weare in foule weather.

Gallicinium, cinij, neu. g. the tyme in the nyght, whan the cocke croweth.

Gallina, æ, f. g. an henne.

Supponere oua gallinis, To ſette a henne bryoode.

Gallinaceus, a, um of an henne.

Gallinaceus, a houſe cocke.

Gallinaceus pullus, a chycke.

Gallinago, náginis, a wood cocke.

Gallinarium, rij, neu. ge. a place where poultrie is kepte, a cubbe.

Gallinárius, rij, m. g. he that kepeth poultrie.

Gallipes, that hath a foote lyke a cocke.

Gallium, an herbe, lyke vnto clote, but it hath no burres nor pryckes, and groweth on ſtone walles. it is called cheſe wurt or courde wurte.

Gallo, aui, are, to be madde.

Gallogræcia, a countrete in Aſia, called Galacia, the people therof be called Gallogræci.

Gallonius, a ſumptuous and a voluptuous perſone, of whome Cicero maketh mencion.

Galliulo, as, and Gallulaſco, to beginne to haue a bigge voyce, as yong ſtriplinges at the chaunge of their voyce.

Gallus, li, ma. ge. a cocke, a frenche man, a preeſt of Cybeles. alſo a ryuer in Phrygia, the water wherof if it be dronke vnmoderately, maketh one mad.

Gallus, a, um, of Fraunce.

Gamale, a towne in Iudea.

Gammarus, ri, m. g. a fyſche called a lopſter, or creuiſe of the ſea.

Gammoides, an inſtrument that ſurgians vſe to take matter out of wounders.

Gamos, in latine Nuptiæ, mariage, wedlocke.

Gamphaſantes, a wylde people of Aethiope, why che can handell no maner of weapon.

Ganea, æ, fœ. g. and Ganeum, nei, neu. gen. a brothell houſe, a houſe of baudry and ryott, alſo Ganea is taken for gluttony.

Ganeo, ónis, m. g. a ruffian, a haunter of baudy houſes, a riottour. alſo a rauenour of delycate meates.

Gandari, people in the eaſte parte of Aſia, by the ryuer Indus.

Gangabæ, ſlaues and porters that carye burdeynes among the Perſians.

Gangaridæ, people betwene Aſſyria and India not farre from the ryuer Ganges.

Ganges, a great ryuer, that diuideth India, called in holy ſcripture Phiſon, one of the. 4. ryuers, whiche come out of Paradiſe. Ioſephus dooeth interpretare it Inundatio. The breadth therof (as Solinꝰ writeth) is in the narrowest place. viii. myles, in the brodeſt xx. myles. Ariſtianus writeth, that where it is narrowest, it is in bredth. 100. furlonges, whiche is. viii. myles.

In

In many places it ſpredeth ſo wyde, that where the grounde is moſt playne, nor any hygh place appereth, no man maye diſcerne any thyng on the other ſyde. In the ſhaloweſt place it is .100. foote deepe. There renneth into it .xvii. great ryuers, euery of theym able to beare a ſhyppe. In this ryuer of Ganges is an yle, and therin a great citee, called Palybotra, the countrete is named Phyſia, the kynge wherof (as Plinye writeth lib. 6. cap. 19.) hath alwaie in wages 600000. foote men. 30000. horſemen, and 9000. elyphantes.

Gangéticus, a, um, of that ryuer.

Gangetica tellus, India.

Ganglion, or Ganglion, a ſickeneſſe in the heade of a beaſte, wherewith the heade becometh full of water. Ganglion, is alſo the wreſtynge of a ſinewe.

Gangréna, æ, f. g. a ſore called a canker.

Ganictor, a mannes name.

Gannio. niui, and nĭ, nire, to make a noyſe lyke a fore, to barke or houle lyke a dogge. alſo to mutter or erie betweene the teeth, as one doeth that is beaten.

Gannitus, us, m. g. barkynge lyke a fore, the com playnyng or weeppng of one that is beate.

Ganimedes, a Troiane chylde, which was feigned to bee raupſhed of Jupiter, and made his butlar.

Ganza, æ, f. g. a goose.

Garamantes, people in Aſrike, in the middell of Libya, whiche are blacke Mooꝛes.

Garamanticus, a, um, of the people Garamantes.

Garamantes, a certayne kynge, whoſe daughter Garamantis, Jupiter raupſhed, and on hir begeete Hierba.

Garganus, a hille in Apulia, called now Mons ſancti Angeli.

Gargarus, ri, m. g. and Gargara, orum, neu. ge. the toppe of the mountayne Ida. alſo a lake of Phrygia, out of the whiche iſſuen the ryuers Scamander and Simois.

Gargarizatio, ónis, f. g. a waſhynge of the mouthe and throte, to expelle fleume oute of the head, gargelyng.

Gargarizo, aui, are, to gargell or waſhe the mouthe and throte.

Gargarizans, a, um, gargarpſed.

Gargarizâtus, us, m. g. idem quod gargarizatio.

Gargerius, the doage, whiche kept the oxen of Geryon, whom Hercules ſlewe, whan he ſtole theym.

Garrio, riui, rire, to babble, to chatte or ſpeke ma ny wooꝛdes foolyſhely to no purpoſe, pꝛoꝛpely to chirpe as byrdes dooe.

Garrulitas, âtis, f. g. chatynge, iangling, babbynge.

Garrulus, a babblar.

Garrulus, a, um, that chattereth, babbleth, or ſpeaketh many vayne wooꝛdes.

Garrulæ aues, birdes that chirpe & ſyng muchꝛ.

Garum, ri, n. g. ſauce made with fyſhe ſalted.

Garumna, æ. fœ. ge. a ryuer in Fraunce called Geronde.

Garus, ri, a certayne fyſhe.

Garyophyllata, ſome thynke it to be the herbe called herbe Benet. ſome ſuppoſe it to be that, whiche Pliníe nameth Geum. The roote of this herbe gathered in Marche, ſmelleth lyke cloues. And Plinie writeth, that Geum hath blacke rootes, which dooe ſmell verye ſweetely, looke Gariophilata.

Garyophilli, the ſpice called cloues.

Garyophillus, Ruellius calleth it Garyophillea, a gyloſer, nexte to the roſe, the fayreſt and ſooteſt flower. It is alſo the tree that beareth cloues.

Gaſter, called alſo Gaſterium, a certayne kynde of veſſell.

Gaſtrimargia, gluttony, ingurgitacion.

Gaudeo, gauiſus ſum, ere, to reioice, to be glad, to delite or take pleaſure in a thyng.

Gaudere in ſinu, to reioyce by him ſelfe.

Triumpho & gaudeo, I tryumphe & reioice.

Hunc ſcio mea ſolidè gauiſurum gaudia, I knowe well, that he will be ryght ioyous and gladde of my myrth and gladneſſe.

Gaudebis facto, Thou wylte be gladde that it hath been dooen.

Gaudeo mihi, I am glad foꝛ myne owne part.

Id gaudeo, I am glad of that.

Fruſtra gaudere, to bee glad in vayne, to reioyce without a cauſe.

Gaudium, dĭ, n. g. ioye, myrth, an affection of the mynde, conceyued of an opynion of a thyng good or pleaſant.

Gaudium capere, compleri, and affici gaudio, to reioyce, to be gladde or merye.

Gauia, æ, a certayne byrde, which I iudge to be a ſea cob, or a ſeagoull.

Gauiſus, a, um, gladde or merye.

Gaulus, a litell rounde bote, or a paſſe to receyue mylke. Herodotus taketh it foꝛ a great ſhyppe.

Gaurus, an hill in Campania.

Gauſape, n. g. indeclinabile, a frieſe or roughe garment, that ſouldioures vſed. a mantell to caſt on a bedde. alſo a carpet to lay on a table. ſome call it a dagſwayne. ſome dooe expounde it a velvet cloke. It is taken of Perſius foꝛ a longe bearde.

Gauſapina, æ, idem.

Gauſapina penula, a rough garmente vſed to be wozne in wynter.

Gauſapina cubicularia, a rough friſe frocke to weare in ones chambꝛe.

Gaza, æ, f. g. the treaſure of a kynge. alſo a citee in Paleſtyne.

Gazella, æ, a beaſte in the partes of India, of whom cometh muſke. Antonius Muſa wꝛiteth, that there be of theim in Aſrike, in figure lyke a roe. Serapio ſaieth, that they haue hoꝛnes.

alſo

alſo long teeth and white, aboute .ix. ynches in length, ſtandinge out of theyr mouthes lyke a boze. This beaſt naturally hath a ſuperfluous blould congeled on his brealt, and groweth lyke an impoſtume. And whan it is rype, the beaſte goeth to a tree or a ſtone, and rubbeth thereon his brealte, tyl the humour breaketh out, lyke vnto corrupte matter, whiche at the fyrſt ſtynketh, but whan it hath ben hãged a whyle in the aire, it waxeth rype: and than hath it an odozyferous ſauour, and is called muſke. Gazella, is not a ciuet, as ſome ſuppoſe: for the ciuet is lyke a great cat, and the ſweete humoure that cometh from hym, is lyke ſweete, and is founde betweene his ſlankes. wherefore vnto it is geuen a newe name, and is called Cibeta.

Gazophillacium, ij, n. g. a cheſte or place where treaſure is kepte, a iewell houſe.

GEbbanitæ, a people dwellynge in Arabia deſerta, by the redde ſea.

Gebenna, a citee in Sauoy, called Genena, where, among the women ſpecially regneth a diſeaſe called Bronchocæle, whiche is a boſnyng or ſwellyng vnder theyr chinnes. Alſo Solinus nameth the parte of Alpes, lopnyng to Sauoy, Gebenna.

Gebuſeus, the ſonne of Canaan, of whome the olde inhabitauntes of Hieruſalem were called Gebuſei.

Gedanum, a towne of Germanie, in the mouthe of the ryuer Viſula, called now Dantz.

Gedeon, the name of a iudge in Iſraell.

Gedroſia, a countrete in Aſia.

Gehenna, is taken in holy ſcripture for hell.

Gela, a ryuer in Sicile.

Gelãbilis, le, that may be froſen.

Galaſco, ſcere, to be froſen

Gelãſinus, ni, m. g. one of the foze teeth, whiche be ſhewed in laughyng.

Gelaſinus, he that laugheth to make other men laughe.

Gelatina, næ, f. g. a kynde of ſauce.

Gelãtio, ônis, f. g. a freſyng.

Gelicidium, dij, n. g. a froſte.

Gelidè, coldely, as it were froſen.

Gélidus, a, um, colde as iſe.

Gellius, a learned man, whoſe woꝛkes remayne at this date.

Gello, a maydens name.

Gelo, aui, aui, to freeſe. ſometyme actiuely, ſometyme neutrally.

Geloi, or Gelones, a people nowe called Tartarians.

Gelon, one that attempted to poyſon kynge Pyrrhus.

Gelos, a poꝛte or hauen of Caria.

Gelothophyllis, lidos, an herbe, whiche (as Plinius wꝛiteth) beyng dꝛunken in wine with myrꝛe, maketh laughyng without ceaſſyng, except the kernels of pyne appulle myxte with pepper and honie, in the wyne of dates be dꝛunken after it. This herbe is founde about the ryuer Boryſthenes, in the furtheſt parte of Ruſſia, and alſo in the countrete Baſtꝛe.

Gelotopæus, he that maketh other folkes laugh.

Gelu, n. g. vndeclined, yce, ſometyme colde.

Gelus, li, m. g. was vſed of olde wꝛyters.

Gemea, æ, a wynge of ſouldiers amonge the Macedonians.

Gemellar, a certayne veſſell to put oyle in.

Gemellária, æ, f. g. an inſtrument, by the which oyle renneth out of the preſſe.

Gemellipera, the name of Latona.

Gemellus, a, um, lyttle or ſmall twinnes: ſometyme double.

Gemellæ vites, vynes that beare two maner of grapes.

Gemelli, is ſometyme taken for two horſes dꝛawyng together in a carte.

Gemibundus, a, um, full of wailyng.

Geminãtio, ônis, f. g. a doublyng or repetyng.

Geminãtus, a, um, doubled, repeted.

Gémino, aui, are, to double.

Geminus, a, um, the numbꝛe of two. ſometyme lyke. alſo Geminus is a twinne, where many chyldꝛen are boꝛne at one burdeyne, although they be. iii. or mo. Alſo it is the name of a man, whiche in Hebꝛue and engliſh is Thomas.

Acies geminæ, the two eies.

Gemini nominis errore ſeruatus eſt, he was ſaued out of danger, by reaſon that both his names were not knowen.

Gemina audacia, lyke boldeneſſe or ſtomacke.

Gemini, is alſo a ſygne in the firmament of Caſtoꝛ and Pollux.

Gemiſco, gemui, ſcere, idem quod gemo.

Gemite, es, f. g. a certayne pꝛecious ſtone, hauynge the ſygure in it of handes clenched together.

Gémitus, us, m. g. a waylynge, lamentynge, or mournyng, a pitefull grone or ſygh.

Gemma, æ, f. g. a ponge budde of a vyne, alſo a pꝛecious ſtone.

Gemmaſco, ſcere, to begyn to budde.

Gemmãtus, a, um, budded. alſo ſet with pꝛecious ſtones.

Gémmeus, a, um, of or lyke a pꝛecious ſtone.

Gémmifer, a, um, that bꝛyngeth pꝛecious ſtones.

Gemmo, aui, are, to budde or ſpꝛynge as a ponge graſſe or vine doth.

Gemmóſus, a, um, that whiche is all of pꝛecious ſtones.

Gémmula, æ, a litteil budde or pꝛecious ſtone.

Gemmulæ, be alſo freſhe floures in the ſpꝛynge tyme, whiche garniſhe the medowes and fieldes as it were with pꝛecious ſtones.

Gemo, mui, ere, to grone or waple, or to make a lamentable noyſe, to be ſoꝛy or lament.

Gemit cymba, The bote craketh beyng ouer charged.
Gemitur, the paſſiue.
Gemit turtur, the turtil ſyngeth mournyngly.
Gemodes, precious ſtones, whiche are ſuppoſed to encreaſe and bryng foorth ponge, they eaſe women trauaylyng of chylde.
Gemoniæ ſcalæ, a place, from whens the bodies of perſones condemned were thrown downe at Rome.
Gemonidæ, women great with chylde.
Gemuſa, æ, fœ. ge. a ſtone or lyke greke vnder the ſpyttell toe.
Gena, æ, f. g. the eye lyd as well vpper as nether. it is ſometyme taken for the cheke, ſome take it for the ball of the cheke vnder the eie. ſome for that part of the face, where the beard beginneth fyrſt to grow.
Pubentes genæ, when the bearde beginneth to ſpringe.
Humectare genas, to weepe.
Genauius, a, um, gluttonous.
Genealogia, æ, f. ge. a pedegree, a genelogie.
Gener, generi, maſcu. gene. he that marieth my daughter.
Generabilis, le, that is eaſyly engendred.
Generalis, le, generall.
Generaliter, generally.
Generaſco, raſcere, to engender.
Generatim, by euery kynde ſometyme generally.
Sigillatim & generatim, contrary.
Generatio, ônis, fœm. ge. a generation, an engendryng.
Generator, ôris, m. g. he that engendreth.
Gĕnero, aui, are, to engendre as the male doeth, to bryng foorth as the female dooeth, to ſpryng as herbes doo, ſometyme to inuent.
Generoſe, nobly.
Generoſitas, âtis, f. g. nobilitee, the eſtate of gentill men, ſometyme aptnes to generation.
Generoſus, a, um, of a gentyll or noble kynde, excellent, couragious.
Generoſus princeps, a puiſſant and couragious prince.
Generoſus equus, an horſe of a good race, a couragious horſe.
Arbores generoſæ, trees which beare plentee of good fruite.
Gĕneſis, geneſeos, f. ge. generation, nativitee, alſo the planette, vnder whiche one is borne.
Genethlia, ôrum, neu. g. plu. ſolemnitee or feaſtyng at the date of ones byrthe.
Genethliacus, an aſtronomer or other like, whiche by the ſterres ſette at a mans nativitee, telleth his fortune.
Genethliacus, a, um, belongyng to a mans nativitee.
Genetum, ti, a promontory, wherin is a temple dedicated vnto Jupiter.
Geneua, a towne in Sauoy.
Genezareth, a great mere or ponde in the lande of promiſſion, called alſo Mare Tyberiadis.
Genialis, le, that is geuen to voluptee and pleaſure, and to make good chere, full of myrthe and pleaſure.
Genialis torus, ſiue lectus, a byrde bedde.
Genialis dies, a date addict to voluptuouſneſſe and pleaſure, or to be merry and iocund in.
Genialis homo, a man in his houſe verate liberall and freſſhe.
Geniáliter, deyntyly.
Genialiter viuere, To liue delicately and myſtonly.
Géniana, næ, f. g. a precious ſtone, procurynge punyſhement to a mans enemies.
Geniæ, olde veches full of vnhappynneſſe.
Geniculâtim, ioynt by ioynt, at euery ioynte.
Geniculáris, the herbe called Lychnis coronaria.
Geniculâtus, a, um, that hath many ioyntes, or knottes, as the ſtemmes of herbes or ſtrawes.
Geniculum, li, neu. gen. the ioynt of a ſtraw, or ſtalke of an herbe.
Genij, men whiche do geue all theyr ſtudy to eatyng and drynkyng.
Geniſta, æ, fœ. ge. a ſhrubbe, whiche hath littell ſedes lyke lintels, growyng in coddes, and a yelow floure, whiche bees delite in: they vſe it for bandes to bynd vines, and for diuers other purpoſes: lothe Spartum.
Génimen, niminis, n. g. generation.
Genitâle, lis, n. g. the membre of generation.
Genitâlis, le, pertaynyng to the byrth or nativitee of a man.
Genitale ſolum, the naturall cuntrete or place where a man is borne.
Genitale ſemen, the ſeede of generation.
Genitalis dies, the date of nativitee.
Genitales trunci, ſtockes of trees that be fertile, and haue ſtrength to beare.
Genitáliter, by generation.
Genitiua, ſometyme generation. ſometyme the ſede of generation.
Genitiuus, a, um, that hath power to ingender, or that whiche procedeth with generation.
Genitiuæ notæ, markes wherwith a manne is borne.
Génitor, ôris, m. g. a father.
Genitores omnium vitiorum Græci, The Greekes, fathers and begynners of all vicious lyuyng.
Génitrix, icis, f. g. a mother.
Genitûra, æ, fœm. ge. generation, engendryng, conception. ſometyme for Horoſcopos, the obſeruation of the tyme of ones byrthe. alſo the ſeede of generation.
Genitûra herois, the herbe Polygonon.
Genitura Titani, the herbe Sideritis.
Génitus, a, um, begotten, engendred.
Genius, ij, ma. gene. an angell. among the paynyms ſome ſuppoſed it to be the ſpirite of man. ſome dyd put two gouernours of the ſoule, a good and an euell, Bonus genius, & malus ge-genius, which neuer departed from vs. Some tyme it is taken for nature it selfe, or delectation moued by nature, the grace or pleasauntnesse of a thyng.

Genio dare operam, & indulgere genio, To lyue voluptuously.

Genium defraudare, to abstayn from all thynges pleasaunt.

Geno, genui, genere, idem quod gigno.

Genocha, a beast lesse than a fox, in colour a darke yelowe, full of black spottes. I suppose it to be a blache genet, the furre wherof is in Englande estemed aboue all other furres.

Genon, a kynd of opnions, whiche haue a sharpe taste.

Gens, entis, fœm. gen. a nation, a people. Some tyme a kynrede.

Gens Aelia, a kynrede compacte of many families.

Minime gentium, in no wyse in the worlde. The latin men of olde tyme did take these wordes, as who shulde saie thus: a thynge that all the people of the worlde iudge in no maner wise to bee doone.

Nusquàm gentium, no where. Likewyse gentium is vsed after these aduerbes, Vnde, vndecunque, vbinam, vbiuis, vbique, vbi, quo, quando, longe, and it is an expletiue, added festiuitatis gratia.

Sine gente, vnnoble.

Gentiâna, æ, f. g. an herbe called Gentian.

Génticus, a, um, of a nation or people.

More gentico, after the maner of that people.

Gentilis, a kynsman of the same name or stocke. Sometyme it signifieth a Gentile or Paynym. Sometyme a countreie man.

Gentilis, le, proper or familyar to that people or kynrede, or that hath the same name.

Gentiles dominorum serui, seruauntes hauyng the same name that theyr masters haue.

Gentilitas, âtis, gentilitee, the multitude of the people or familie, the frendeshyp and alyaunce betwene men of the same stocke and kynred.

Gentilitas in herbis, the sople or place, where the herbe groweth, or the likenes of nature and propertee.

Gentilicius, a, um, of the people or nation, or that a people nation or kynrede hath of long tyme vsed.

Gentilitium hoc illi est, this cometh to hym of kynd: he hath this of his auncestours.

Gentilitium nomen, the surname or auncient name of a mans auncestours, declaryng their originall begynnyng.

Gentilitia sacra, ceremonies of that countrey or people.

Gentilitium est, It is a proper vse or custome among them taken of theyr ancestours.

Genus, idis, a kyng of Illiria, called now Sclauony, whiche was the fyrst finder of the herbe called Gentian.

Genu, n. ge. in the singular numbre vndeclined, plu. genua, genuum, genibus, the knee.

Aduoluor genibus vestris supplex, I fall downe at your knees humbly intreatyng you.

Nixus genu, kneelynge.

Genua submittere, to kneele, to make curtsie.

Genu terram tangere, to make so lowe curtsye, that his knee toucheth the grounde.

Genua, a great citee called Geane.

Genualia, a kynde of hoses to keuer the knees.

Genuinus, a, um, proper, peculiar, naturall.

Genuinum frangere in aliquo, & genuino rodere, to bachebyte or sclander, to speake yll of one behynde his backe.

Genuini dentes, the innermoste cheke tethe.

Genuinus sermo, The naturall speche of mothers tungue.

Genus, generis, neu. gene. is the begynnyng of euery thynge, either of the person that ingendreth it: or of the place where it was ingendred, a kynred, a stocke, a linage, a parentage. It is also a sorte, a maner or facion.

Orestes à Tantalo ducit genus, Orestes hath his begynnynge of Tantalus, or is descended lineally of Tantalus.

Plato genere Athenienſis est, Plato is of the bloudde or auncestrie, an Athenian. also it signifieth kynde.

Genus vitæ, a kynde of lyfe.

Genus mortis, a kynde of deathe.

Genus animalium, a kynde of beastes. also it signifieth that, whiche contayneth many sundry kyndes, as Animal comprehendeth a man, a byrde, a fysche, and euery of them is Genus to that whiche is cõprehended in them. As a brute beaste is Genus to an horse, a lyon, a bull, a dogge. &c. a byrde is Genus to an egle, a crowe, a larke, a sparowe. &c. a fysche is Genus to a whale, a porpeise, an haddocke, a playce. &c.

Genere summo prognatus, descended of a noble familie or stocke.

Genere paterno ab Hercule oriundus, descended or haupng his begynnyng of Hercules on the fathers syde.

Genus humanum, or genus hominum, mans kynde.

Genus Thebanum, the nation or people of Thebes.

Est genus hominum, there is a sorte or facion of men.

Generis grati est, he cometh of a kind stocke.

Eiusdem generis, of the same sorte.

Vno genere pisces capere, to take but of one sorte of fysshes.

Geodes, a certaine stone.

Geodésia, f. ge. a science of thynges concernyng sensible greatnesse and figure.

Geodætes, he that hath that science, a diuider of grounde, a measurer of lande.

Geográphia, æ, f. g. the description of the erth.

Geomantia, æ, fœ. ge. superstitious worckyng in sorcery, loicery, by circles and prickes in the earth.

ómetres, is, or Geómetra, æ, m. g. a geomes rician, a measurer of the earth.
ométria, æ, fœ. g. geometry, measuryng, and proportionyng of figures in the earth.
ométrica, órum, feates or poyntes of geos
metry.
ometricé, like a geomettrician, or accordyng to the preceptes of geometrie, by demonstration.
Geometricé eruditus, lerned in the science of geometrie.
ométricus, a, um, of or belongyng to geos
metry.
orgi, people of Asia, haupng that name of tyls lyng the earth.
órgia, as, fœm. gene. culture and tyllyng of the earthe.
órgica, órum, bookes writen of husbandry.
orgicus, a, um, belongyng to husbandry.
ranium, ni, neu. ge. herbe Roberde, as some doe iudge: other call it Pinke nettle, or Cras nes bill.
ranogeron, ri, neu. gene. idem.
raniopodion, the herbe called Lachnis coros
naria.
rra, a citee of Portugall, called Caceres.
rgonia, a towne in Spayn standyng on an hygh hyll.
rmanè, brotherly.
Fraterne & germanè.
rmania, a countrey called of some Duchelande, of some Almayne, it is described by Ptolome
the. ii. chapter, to be bounded on the west with the ryuer of Rhene: on the northe with the sea Germanicus oceanus: the south west part with the ryuer Donowe, the east side is bound ded with the bendyng of Donowe: vnto the hylles of Sarmatia. The name of Germany extendeth nowe further: for therin are compre hended many great countreys and citees, whiche sometyme were part of Gallia Belgica, that is to say, from the ryuer of Rhene westewarde, vnto ouer sea Mare Britannicum.
rmani, people of Germany, or Germaines.
rmanicus, a noble man of Rome, father to Caligula the emperour.
rmánicus, a, um, of Germany.
rmánitas, átis, fœm. ge. brotherhood of bro ther germaynes.
rmánus, a substantiue, brother of one father and one mother.
rmánus a, um, come of the same stocke, right and verie true, not counterfeite.
Germanum nomen, the proper & right name.
Mea germana pania, my verye and naturall countrey.
Germani Attici, the right and true followers of the Attike eloquence.
Germanissimus Stoicis, verie right the Stois kes in opinion.
Germana germæ, verie sisters.

Frater cognatione patruelis, amore germás nus, by nature a cousyn germayne, in loue, á verie brother germaine.
Germen, gérminis, neu ge. a braunche of a tree or herbe, a yong sprygng.
Germinális, le, that sprygngeth or braunctheth.
Germinales arbores, Trees that sprygng of a kernell or seede.
Germinasco, scere, to shoote or sprygng vp.
Germinátio, ónis, f. g. a sprygngyng, a brácheng.
Germinátus, us, m. g. idem.
Gérmino, aui, are, to braunche out, to shote out yonge sprygnges.
Gero, gessi, erere, to beare, to carp. sometyme it signifieth to haue, to do, to exercise, to behaue.
Gerere amicitiam, to practise frendeship, to be ours frende.
Quorum sunt de gerenda amicitia præclás rissime scripti libri, whose bookes we haue, howe to practise frendshyp, very well writen.
Gerere bellum, to make warre.
Gerere honores, To bee in honour or authos ritee.
Gerere magistratum, to exercise an office.
Gerere morem, to obeye.
Gerere negotium, to doo his busyneste.
Patrem spectè gerere, to bee lyke his father.
Animo morem gessero, I will satisfie my mynde, I will folow myn appetite or fancie.
Gerere prætoram, to be in the office of a iudge.
Gerere pudorem, to be shamefast.
Gerere rempublicam, To mynister the pus blyke weale.
Simu tatem cum aliquo gerere, to be at vas riaunce with one.
Gerere cornua, to weare or to haue hornes.
Gerere consulatum, or Consulem, to beare
the office of a consull, to be consull.
Quemadmodum nos geramus, howe we may behaue our selfe.
Animum muliebrem gerere, to haue a wos manly herte or courage.
Fidem fluxam gerere, not to be faithfull and truste of promyse.
Ingenium callidum gerere, To haue a crafty and subtill witte.
Veteres inimicitias cum Cæsare gerebat,
There was olde grudge and malice betweene
hym and Cæsar.
Morsu onera gerunt, they carp their burdeins in their mouthes.
Gerere partum or vterum, to bee great with chylde.
Bene rem suam gerere, to play the good hus bande, to doo his businesse well and thryftly for his owne profite.
Personam ciuitatis gerere, To represente the state or person of the hole cite or cõminaltee.
Reuiso quidnam hic rerum gerat, I come as gayne, to see what he is dooyng here.
Scini exẽplo rem de compacto gerit. I pers sepued

repued by and by, that the mattier was agreed betwene theim.
Res alias geris, Thy mynde is on other mattiers.
Gessit se contra disciplinam meam, He hath dooen contrary to myne instruction.
Tutelam ianuæ gerit, He kepeth the gate.
Gerontocomion, nij, n. g. an hospitall, wherin old men are kept, an almes house.
Gerra, æ, fœ. ge. the name of. iii. cities: One in Syria, an other nere to Traconites, the thyrde in Arabia felix.
Gerræ, arum, fœm. g. plu. nu. lattyse made with twigges. also trifles and thinges of no value.
Gerræ ficulæ, trifles.
Gerres, fyche of the kynde of herrynges. it maye be called pylchardes.
Gerro, ônis, f. gen. a talker of trifling thynges or light mattiers.
Gérula, æ, a mayde that kepeth a chylde, and beareth hym aboute.
Gérulus, li, m. g. a porter or a man hyred to cary burdeyns.
Gerrus, a ryuer of Scythia.
Gerunda, a citee in Spayne called Girona.
Gerundium, a gerunde, a nowne participiall.
Gerusa, a citee of Sarmatia, called nowe sainct Georges.
Gerúsia, æ, fœm. ge. a place where the counsayl was assembled at Lacedemonia, like as the senate house was at Rome.
Geryon, or Geryones, a kyng of Spayne, whom Hercules dyd slea, and toke from hym certayn bulles and kyen of notable greatnes.
Gescorêta, tæ, fœm. g. a kynd of boates, whiche some call proscumia.
Gesodumum, a citee of Norrice, called Saltbourg.
Gesum, si, neu. gene. a certayne weapon for the warre, as a swoorde or a woodknife. some take it for an halberde.
Gessampini, trees whiche beare cotten, wherof cloathes be made.
Gessoriacum, as some suppose, was the towne, whiche is nowe named Calais, Layland saieth Bologne.
Gessus, a ryuer of Jonia.
Gesta, ôrum, neu. g. thynges whiche haue been doen, actes.
Gestâmen, inis, n. gen. what so euer is borne, a burdeyn or cariage, a mace, a scepter.
Gestátio, ônis, fœ. g. the exercise, where a man is caried or borne on any thyng. Also a place whither men be caried either for theyr helth, or for their solace and pastyme, in manier of a galery or parlour.
Gestatórium, ij, n. g. that wherin any thynge is caried or borne, a flagon, a horselitter.
Gestatórius, a, um, that which is caried, or wherin one is caried.
Sella gestatoria, a chaire wherin one is caried, or that male be remoued from place to place.
Gestâtus, us, m. g. caryng.
Gesticularia, æ, fœm. ge. the keate of them that daunce with poppettes. also a daunsynge or tumblyng wenche.
Gesticularius, a, um, pertaynynge to signes or tokens of mynthe, with meuyng the bodye or handes.
Gesticulâtor, ôris, mas. ge. he that playeth with poppettes.
Gesticulor, aris, ari, to make signes or tokens of mynthe, as in daunsynge, to make mouable gesture.
Carmina gesticulari, to daunce accordyng to numbre and measure of verses.
Gestiens, entis, hoppynge or skyppyng.
Lætitia gestiens, hopping or skyppyng for ioy.
Gestio, ônis, fœm. gen. an exploutyng or boryng of a thyng.
Gestio, tui, ire, to shewe the affections of the mynde by meuynge of the bodye or any parte therof, and male be referred both to mynthe, sorowe, or any other passion or appetite of the mynde. sometyme it signifieth to desire. also to despyre gladdely.
Quid est, quod sic gestis? What is the mattier that ye leape or skyppe so? or that ye fetche suche gambaldes?
Gesticulósus, a, um, full of mouynge, busy in mouynge.
Gestito, aui, are, to beare or weare ofte tymes.
Gesto, aui, are, to beare longe.
Gestat ventrem, she is with chylde.
Annulos gestare, to weare rynges.
Gestare collo, to weare about ones necke.
Gestare aliquem in sinu, to sette muche by a man, to loue hym hertely.
Gestas animum meum, Thou knowest my thought or mynde.
Non obtusa adeo gestamus pectora, we be not so harde herted.
Gestus est mos, it was obeyed or dooen accordyng to theyr wyll or pleasure.
Gestuósus, a, um, full of gesture.
Gestus, a, um, borne, or don, ministred, executed.
Gestus, us, m. ge. gesture or countenaunce with meuyng the body, demeanyng, demeanure.
Sometyme for Gestio, a doyng or exploutyng.
Getæ, people whiche some suppose to be those whiche are in Norwaie and Gothia. Some saie that they be more in the northeast in Scythia, pertaynyng to Europa: some thinke that it is the people of the countreys Valachia & Transiluania.
Gethium, the herbe called a liue, a chiue or a cliuet.
Getuli, a people of Affrike.
Gétulus, a, um, and Getulicus, a, um, of the people Getuli.
Geum, an herbe called in Englyshe auennes.

Glarus, a litell yle in the sea Ionium, whetvnto men condemned were exiled.
Gibber, eris, ma. ge. idem quod Gibbus.
Gibber, a, um, and Gibber, eris, & hoc re, that hath a crooked backe, or a great bunche on any parte of the body. sometyme that appereth or standeth vp aboue other.
Gibbōsus, a, um, idem quod Gibber, a, um.
Gibbus, bi, m. ge. a great bunche or swellynge of the flesshe in any part of the body.
Gibbus, a, um, for conuexus, that hath the round
figure of a thyng embossed.
Giganteus, a, um, of or belongynh to gigantes.
Gigantomachia, a battayle which gigantes prepared agaynst the Goddis, as Poetes feigned.
Igas, antis, mascu. gener. a gyaunt, a man or woman farre exceedyng the common stature of men, of whom as well holy scripture, as other credible writers do make mention. Plutar-chus writeth, that Sertorius, a Romayne capitayne, beeyng in Mauritania, brake downe the sepulchre of Antheus, and therin was fouīd the body of a man, of suche monstrous great-nesse, that the same Capitayne moeued with a reuerent feare, caused the monument to bee reedified. Plinie writeth, that in Creta, an hyll fell downe, and there was founde the body of a man, in length. xlvi. cubites, whiche was supposed of some to be the body of Orion, of some the body of Etiō. Sabellicus affirmeth, it was reported to hym of a credible person, that in the south part of Candie, was foūde vnder a great tree, the head of a man as great as a wyne vessel called Volium. Howe great that vessell is at Uenice, where Antonius wrate, I can not tell, with vs it is taken to bee the greatest vessell, whiche was sometyme a tunne. But he saith, one of the teeth of that head remayneth at Uenice, of wonderfull greatenesse, by the whiche they that se it may make som gesse to the greatnesse of the head. Solinus remembreth, that in the warres, which the Romayns hadde in Candie, in a great rage of water, the grouīd beyng broken vp, there was found the body of a man in length. xxxiii. cubytes: whiche Flaccus and Metellus (than capitaynes of the Ro-mayns hoste) beholdynge, wondered, whiche they before woulde not beleue, whan they onely herde it reported. About. xxx. yeres passed, I my selfe, beynge with my father syr Ri-charde Sipot, at a monasterye of regular chas-nons, called Iuy churche, two myles from the citee of Sarisbury, beheld the bones of a dead man founde depe in the grounde, where they digged stone, whiche beynge ioygned together, was in length. xiiii. foote and. x. vnches. wherof one of the teethe my father had, whiche was of the quantitee of a great walnutte. This haue I writen, because some men wil beleue nothyng, that is out of the compasse of their owne knowlage. And yet some of theim presume to haue knowlage aboue any other, contemnyng all men but theim selues, and suche as they fauour.

Gigeria, ōrum, n. ge. a meate made of garbage of pullayne and other thynges.

Gigno, gēnui, or ginui, gignere, to ingender or geat. sometyme to make, to cause.
Gignere & procreare.
Quæ piper gignunt, whiche bryng forthe pepper.
Gignere capillum, to breede heare.
Oua gignunt pisces, Fysshes bryde and bryng forth spaune.
Ad has & huiusmodi fortunæ occasiones gignimur, we bee borne to abyde these and suche lyke chances and aduentures of fortune.

Gilo, a citee, the people whereof bee called Gi-lonites.

Gillus, a man of Tarentum.

Giluus, a, um, peolow, lyke honye.

Gingiber, lyke Zinziber.

Gingidium, dij, neu. gen. an herbe that groweth muche in Syria, or Cilicia, lyke to wilde turneppes, but more bitter, and hath a small roote, somewhat white and pleasaunt to see to: Pli-nie and Dioscorid. saye, that it is a strange herbe: some Physitions take it for Cheruile, they are deceyued, that take it for Fume-terrie.

Gingiua, æ, f. ge. the gumme or lawes, wherin
the teethe bee sette.

Gingeria, idem quod Gigeria.

Gingiuula, æ, f. g. a litell gumme.

Gingrina, æ, fœ. g. a kynde of small pypes, makyng a noyse lyke the churkyng of bryddes.

Gingrio, griūi, grij, grire, to churre or make a chirme as bryddes doo.

Ginzeriator, a piper, a mynstrell.

Gion, a great ryuer in Egypte, otherwyse called Nilus.

Girgillus, li, mas. gene. a reele, whereon threede is wounden.

Giruli, fysshes, whiche I suppose to be mes nowes.

Gith, or git, neu. gen. indeclinabile, an herbe, whiche is nowe called Nigella Romana, the sede therof is blacke lyke vnto onyon seede, and is verie soote. And the sauour therof exhausteth reumes of the head.

Githago, cockle, growynge amonge corne that is rype.

Glabella, æ, f. gene. the space betweene the browes ouer the nose.
Glabellus, a, um, that is bare without heare.

Glaber, a, um, smoothe without heare, pylde.

Glabreo, brēre, to become naked, bare or pyld, without heare.

Glabreſco, ſcere, to be without heare or ſmothe.
Glabrétum, ti, neu. ge. a place, haupng nothyng growpng in it, a plot that will beare no corne.
Glabriónes, they whiche lacke heare.
Glábrior, ôris, the comparatiue of glaber.
Glabro, aui, are, to make bare, pplð, or ſmooth, without heare or woulle.
Glaciâlis, le, where yſe is, that maie or is wont to be froſen or tourned into yſe.
Polus glacialis, the noꝛthen pole.
Glaciâtus, a, um, congeled, froſen alſo for Coagulatus, gathered to a curde or creame.
Humor glaciatus in grandines, congeled.
Glacies, ei, fœ. g. yſe.
Ignis exoluit glaciem, diſſoluith, or melteth.
Glacio, aui, are, actiuely to freeſe, or tourne to yſe. ſometyme for Glacior, to bee froſen or congeled.
Glacior, aris, ari, to bee froſen.
Humor glaciatur in gemmas, the humour is congeled into pꝛecious ſtones.
Glácito, aui, are, to make a nopſe lyke a gander.
Gladiator, oris, m. gen. one that playeth with a ſwoꝛde. Amonge the Romaynes they were men, whiche fought vnarmed with ſwoꝛdes.
Gladiatórius, a, um, pertepnyng to that maner of fyghtyng.
✠ Gladiatorio animo, ſpoken pꝛouerbially, whan one with a ſtubburne or ſpitefull mynde intendeth to hurt an other, thoughe it be to his owne great perpll and daunger.
Gladiatorium, is ſomtyme vſed abſolutely for the rewarde geuen to ſwoꝛde players.
Gladiatúra, æ, fœ. g. the acte or feate to fyght or plate with a ſwoꝛde.
Gladiolus, li, m. ge. a littell ſwoꝛde, a woodde knyfe. alſo the name of an herbe like to ſedge, haupnge a pealowe floure, lyke in fourme to a floure delice.
Gladius, ij, maſ. gene. a ſwoꝛde. alſo a hynd of fyſhe, whiche hath a bone in his foꝛeheade lyke to a ſwoꝛde.
Dediſti gladium, qui ſe occideret, pou haue geuen hym an occaſion to deſtroye or caſt away hym ſelfe.
Gladio noſtro conficere ſententiam alicuius, With our reaſon or perſuaſion to confounde an other mans opinion.
Diſtringere, enudare, educere gladium, To dꝛawe out a ſwoꝛde.
Recondere gladium, to put vp a ſwoꝛde in his ſcaberde.
Suo ſibi hunc iugulo gladio, I kyl hym with his owne ſwoꝛde, I confounde hym with his owne woꝛdes.
Gladio plumbeo iugulare, to conuince with a weake argument.
Cinxit ſe gladio, he dyd put on his ſwoꝛde.
Conficere gladio, to kill.
Tranſegit ſeipſum gladio, he thꝛuſt hym ſelfe thꝛough.

Glandárius, a, um, that belongeth to maſte.
Glandaria ſylua, a wood haupng muche maſt, or that is kept to beare maſt.
Glandátio, ônis, fœ. ge. feedyng of ſwyne with maſte, called paunage.
Glandula, æ, fœm. gen. a littell acoꝛne or maſt. alſo that parte of a ſwynes neche that hath many hernelles.
Glandomirum, a citee in Spayne, called now Mondauedo.
Glans, glandis, or Glandis, glandis, f. g. maſt growpng on okes, beeches, cheſtens, and other lyke. ſometyme the fruit of all trees. it is alſo a pellet of leade, or a plommet of leade, which men vſed in warre for a wepon. alſo a hernell growpng betweene the ſkyn and the fleſhe. and moꝛeouer the foꝛeparte or nut of a mans yarde. it is alſo a ſuppoſitoꝛie.
Glans Iouis, a cheſten.
Glans Aegyptia, Myrobolanꝰ.
Glans vnguentaria, the fruite of a tree much lyke Mirice, of the biggenes of a filberde, out of the hernell cometh a certaine humour, which is vſed to pꝛecious oyntmentes.
Glandulôſus, a, um, full of hernelles or maſte.
Glandifer, ra, rum, that whiche beareth maſte.
Glandium, dij, n. ge. the parte of a boyes neche, the ſhielde or gamonde. after ſome the neche of the boꝛe.
Glaphirus, a, um, iocunde, pleaſaunt, ingenyous, polyte, holowe, famous, ſubtill.
Glanus, or glanis, a certayne fyſhe.
Glárea, æ, f. g. pꝛoꝛpely grauell.
Glarea & arena, grauell and ſande.
Ieiuna glarea, dꝛye and bareyne grauell.
Glareôſus, a, um, grauelly, full of grauell.
Glaréola, læ, fœ. g. ſmall grauelle.
Glaſtum, ſti, neu. g. an herbe, called alſo Isatis in englyſhe wad, wherewith woulle and woollen clothes are dyed blewe, the leaues are lyke to great ſoꝛrel, but greatter and thycker. Columella writeth, it was ſo communely knowen in England, than called Bꝛitayne, that the people with the iuyce therof, coloured their bodies and viſages, to ſeeme terrible to their ennemies. Of this herbe, wad is made in this wyſe: They grynde it with wheles of woodde, rennyng in a compaſſe trough, vntill the iuyce bee out of the herbe, and than they make it into balles, and laye theim on a bourded flooꝛe a certaine ſpace vntyll they be puttrified and dyed into powder. But the makyng therof hath remayned vnknowen in Englande. 1000. yeeres, and mo, vntill nowe of late an honeſt marchaunt man (zelous of the common weale) hath erected ſones nouryſhed that herbe in his gardeyn at London, and by the example, which he ſawe in countreies beyonde the ſea, he makyng howſes and mylles, to his impoꝛtable charges hath nowe experienced to make the ſame wad to the ineſtimable commodite of this realme

ꝑ it bee wooꝛthyly imbꝛaced, the marchantes name is goodman, a name eyght agreable unto his qualitees, who deſeꝛueth to be incou-raged, that by his thanke and rewarde, other maie the rather endeuoꝛe them ſelues, either to inuent by their wittes, oꝛ to attempte by the example of other countreys, to augmente the weale and honoꝛour of this realme of Englad.
Glaucia, æ, f. g. the herbe Chelidonia.
Glucito, aui, are, pꝛoꝑely to make a noyſe lyke a whelpe.
Glaucinus, a, um, of the colour called Glaucus, looke there.
Glauciolus, li, m g. a hoꝛſe with a wall eye.
Glaucium, cij, n. g. is a ſoꝛte of an herbe, whiche
the pothecaꝛies do commonly call Memitha, whi che is vſed in medicine foꝛ diſeaſes in the eies.
Glaucôma, mătis, n. g. and Glaucomatum ti, n. g and Glaucôma, mæ, f. g a humoure in the eies lyke vnto ſtall, which letteth the ſyght.
Glaucopis, pidis, com. gen. a man oꝛ woman with graie eies: oꝛ after ſome, hauyng a cerꝛyble and ſꝛey bꝛyghtneſſe in their eis, lyke to the eies of a lyon oꝛ an oule.
Glaucus, a, um, blew oꝛ gꝛey as the ſkie is, when it hath littell ſpeckes of grey cloudes: but An-tonius Thyleſius, in his boke of colours ſaith, that Cæſius color, and Glaucus, is all one, ſayyng that glaucus, is moꝛe common: and de-ſcꝛyueth them bothe to haue a certaine ſꝛey bꝛyghtneſſe and ruddineſſe, as in the eies of a lyon oꝛ an oule. alſo in the ſhynnes of yonge mothy bꝛanches, and in cheſt nut ſhales: In hoꝛſes he calleth it a baie, but not a bꝛyght baie.
Glaux, glaucos, an owle, alſo an herbe, whiche is iudged to be named trikoly, veꝛy ſtꝛaunge in England.
Glaucus, a god of the ſea. alſo many men weꝛ cal led by that name. one, boꝛne in Samos, founde eyght the ſoudyng of bꝛaſſe. it is alſo the name of a fiſhe.
Gleba, æ, f. g. a tuꝛfe oꝛ piece of earth, a clodde,
alſo a piece of a ſtone.
Gleboſiõr, the comparatiue of Gleboſus.
Glecon, ci, n. g. oꝛganmint, oꝛ penie royall, vt quidam arbitrantur.
Gleſſina, an yle in the noꝛthe ſea, called Mare Germanicum.
Gleſſum, ſi, n. g. chꝛiſtall oꝛ beꝛill: the frenche men call it a certaine kynde of ambꝛe gumme.
Gleucinum, ni, n g. ople, whiche doeth come from the olyues befoꝛe they be preſſed.
Glicon, aceris genus eſt, called alſo craſſine-nium.
Gliraꝛium, rij, n. g. a place where kieldе myſe oꝛ baꝛꝛes be nouꝛyſhed.
Glis g liris, m. g a kieldе mouſe, whiche ſleepeth all the winter, alſo a bat oꝛ eeremouſe.
Glis, gliſis, fœ. g potters claie.
Glis, gluis, f. g. a thiſtell.
Gliſco, ſcis, ſcere, to gꝛowe, to waxe fatte, to toſ uete oꝛ deſpꝛe keruenly.
Gliſcente in dies ſeditione, The ſedition increaſyng euery daie moꝛe and moꝛe.
Certamen gliſcit, the battaile waxeth moꝛe fieꝛce.
Terra gliſcit, the eaꝛth waxeth fat.
Globo, aui, are, to gather oꝛ make ꝛound togeꝛther.
Glôbulus, li, m. g. a littell ꝛounde take oꝛ pellet.
Globôſus, a, um, ꝛounde as a boule.
Globus, bi, m. g. a boule oꝛ other thyng veꝛie ꝛounde. alſo a multitude of men oꝛ beaſtes gathered ꝛounde togeꝛther.
Globus armatorum, a company of men of waꝛꝛe.
Glócido, aui, are, to cackle as an hen doeth.
Glocio, ciui, ire, idem.
Glómero, aui, are, to wynde in ꝛounde, to gather togeꝛther in an heape. alſo in an hoyſe it is to go pleſantly.
Fœdam glomerant tempeſtatem, the foule blacke cloudes gather togeꝛther.
Glomerâmen, minis, n. g. a ꝛounde bottome.
alſo pilles.
Glomeramina ouis, id eſt, ſtercus ouinum.
Glomerácio, ônis, f. g. wyndyng ꝛounde on a bottome. alſo the pleſant pace oꝛ aumblyng of an hoyſe,
Glomus, mi, m. g. and glomus, mĕris, n. g. a bottome of thꝛede.
Gloꝛia, æ, fœ. ge. the conſente of good men in the pꝛaiſe of a man oꝛ woman, called renoume, gloꝛy.
Operoſa gloria, gotten with gꝛeat tꝛauel.
Plæꝛique in gloria ducunt, many thynke it a gꝛeat gloꝛy and renoume.
Gloria deflorata, gloꝛy oꝛ renoume diſgraced.
Gloria & ſplendor.
Gloꝛifico, ônis, f. g. gloꝛifyng.
Gloꝛiabundus, a, um, that gloꝛieth oꝛ maketh as uaunt.
Gloꝛiola, a diminutiue of Gloria.
Gloꝛioſe, gloꝛiouſly, with gꝛeat pꝛaiſe. ſomes tyme in the yll part, vainglouſely, pꝛoudely, bꝛaggyngly.
Gloꝛioſe amiciri, to be richely and goꝛgeouſly apparailed.
Gloꝛioſe mentiri, to lie goodly.
Gloꝛior, âris, ari, to gloꝛy, to auaunt oꝛ boſt, to thintent to haue pꝛaiſes, to extol with boſtyng.
Gloꝛiari apud aliquẽ, to one, oꝛ in his peꝛſone.
Gloꝛiari contra aliquem, againſt one.
Gloꝛiari de re aliqua, of a thyng.
Gloꝛiari in re aliqua, in a thyng.
Gloꝛiari aliquid, to gloꝛie oꝛ make his auaunte of a thynge.
Gloꝛiôſus, a, um, gloꝛious, goodly, exceꝛlent, no table, gꝛeatly eſteemed oꝛ pꝛeiſed. ſometyme in the yll part, vainglooꝛious oꝛ boſtyng hym ſelfe.
Pꝛæclarum & gloꝛioſum, a thyng foꝛ the whi che one hath gꝛeat renoume and gloꝛy.
Gloꝛioſum in vulgus, that is eſteemed foꝛ a goodly & excellent thyng of the common weale.

Glorioſa mors, a glorious deathe, worthye great prayſe and renoume.
Glos, gloris, f. g. the houſbandes ſyſter, or brothers wyfe.
Gloſſa, æ, for. g. a gloſe or expoſition of darke ſpeche.
Gloſſema, ătis, n. g. a worde not muche vſed.
Gloſſemáticus, he that maketh a comment on a booke.
Gloſſographus, phi, m. g. he that maketh interpretacion of ſtraunge and harde wordes.
Gloſſopetra, a preciouſe ſtone lyke a mans tunge, whiche is ſuppoſed not to growe in the earth, but to fall from heauen in the wane of the moone.
Glottis, glottidis, f. g. a tunge. alſo a certayne bryde of the kynde of quailes, which hath a long tungue.
Glubo, bi, ĕre, to pulle of the barke or rynde of a tree.
Glubere pecus, to flea the ſkyn of a beaſt.
Glucidâtum, a ſweete and delectable thyng.
Gluchon, the herbe pulegium.
Gluma, æ, f. g. the huſke of wheate.
Gluo, glui, ere. to ſtreigne or wrynge harde.
Gluten, tinis, & glútinum, i, n. g. glewe.
Glutinaméntum, ti, n. g all glewyſhe mattyer, as paſte, and ſuche lyke.
Glutinátor, óris, m. g. one that gleweth.
Glútino, aui, are, to glew, to ioygne, to ſoulder.
Glutinóſus, a, um, clammy, glewyſhe.
Glútio, tiui, ire, to ſwalowe.
Glutire vocem, to make a noyſe in the throte. lyke a rauen, or as one were ſtrangled, to rattel in the throte.
Gluto, ônis, m. g a glutton.
Glutus, a, um, vnited, compact, beaten or thruſt harde togyther.
Glycerium, licoriſe.
Glycerium, rii, f. g. a womas name in Terence.
Glyciamérides, a kynde of delicate meate.
Glycea, ôrum, ſores in the noſe.
Glycis ancon, the herbe abrotonum.
Glycon, a mannes name in Horace. Alſo the phyſition of Panſa the Romayne, which was ſuſpected to haue poyſoned his maiſter.
Glycirrhiza, lykoriſe
Glyciſida, æ, an herbe called a pionie.

C ANTE N.

GNaphalium, an herbe, whiche is alſo called Chamæzelon, whoſe leaues are ſo whyte and ſofte, that they ſeme to be flore. Ph. lib. 27. cap. 10.
Gnaphalos, idem quod gnaphalium.
Gnaphalon, a certayne flore.
Gnapheus, a certaine fiſh, called alſo Fullo. Barb. in Lozol.
Gnaphos, a teſtille, whiche tuckers or clothe wor-kers doo vſe, alſo idem quod Gnaphalium.
Gnarrauit, and Gnarrauiſſe, for Narrauit, and Narrauiſſe.
Gnarè, ſkylfully.
Gnaritas, ătis, for. g. ſkylfulneſſe, experience, knowlage.
Gnariter, for Gnarè, wyttyly.
Gnarus, a, um, ſkylfull, knowyng, experte. lo-tyme well knowen or perceiued.
Gnarus ſum loci illius, I knowe that place well.
Armorum ac militiæ gnarus, experte and ſkilled in feates of armes, & policies of warre.
Nulli magis gnarum quàm Neroni, to man better knowen, than to Nero.
Gnathos, a cheeke or iawe, wherof cometh the Paraſites named Gnatho.
Gnatus, ti, m. g. a ſoonne.
Gnauiter, diligently, luſtyly, valiantly.
Gnauus, a, um, quicke, luſtie, actyue, apte and vſed in vſyng.
Gneſius, ſei, m. g. the ryght ærgle, of meane bygneſs, and of colour taunte. Plin. lib. 10. cap. 3.
Gneus, the name of certayne noble Romanes.
Gnide, a certayne kynde called Vrtica, looke there.
Gnidius, a, um, of the citee Gnidus.
Gnidus, a citee of Lycia,
Gnitur, Gnixus, olde wryters vſed for gignitur and nixus.
Gnoma, æ, f. g. an inſtrumente or rule to meaſure landes. alſo a ſentence, an opinion.
Gnomon, ônis, m. g. the toothe, whereby the age of an horſe is knowen. it is alſo that, which ſheweth the howres in a cloche or diall. alſo a rule to knowe any thyng by.
Gnopholion, ĭi, n. g. of ſome is taken for the herbe called cudderwurte.
Gnoro, for Noro.
Gnoſco, for Noſco.
Gnoſis, gnoſidos, a woman of the citee Gnoſos.
Gnoſius, Gnoſus, and Gnoſiacus, a, um, of the citee Gnoſos.
Gnoſos, a citee in Candie.
Gnoſtici, deteſtable heretikes, who on good frydaie, aboute the ſonne ſette, aſſembled men & ponge women togyther, not ſparyng daughters nor ſyſters. After nyne monethes paſſed, they mette agayne in the ſame place, and there they plucked the childerne newly borne from theyr mothers, and cuttyng theym in peces, and receiuyng theyr bloude in pottes and cuppes, they bourned the bodie into aſhes, which they dyd mixe with the bloudde, and preſerued it to put into theyr meates and dynkes. They alſo affirmed, that neither the lawe of nature, nor lawes made by men, were good, and that the vertues were nothyng.

GObeum, a towne in Fraunce, called Le four.

Gobio, onis, and Gobius, bij, masc. gen. a gogeon.

Gobrias, a noble Perſian in the tyme of Darius.

Goetia, æ, fœm. gener. a ſpice of witchecrafte, called alſo Theurgia.

Goliás, a puiſſaunt kynge of the Philiſtians, whom Dauid, beyng yet a chyld, ſlewe, whan the Jewes were afrayde to fyghte with hym man for man. His ſtature was, as the Bible reherſeth, vi. cubites, and a ſpanne, which was x. feete, lackyng iii. ynches, accomptyng it with the feete of men lyuynge at that tyme, whiche vndoubtedly were moze than they be nowe. His habergeon weyghed fiue thouſande ſicles, whiche is. ii. M. and. 500. ounces. And the yron of his ſpeare, weyghed. 600. ſicles, which is. 300. ounces: wherby his greateneſſe and ſtrength maye bee coniected, to exceede any man lyuyng in this tyme.

Gomor, is a meaſure of the Hebzues, and is the tenth parte of Ephi. Wherfoze it conteyneth of our ſtanderde meaſure, nyne pyntes, an halfe pynte, a quarter, & about halfe an ounce. It is ſomtyme taken for as muche cozne as one may receyue betwene his armes.

Gomor, after Budeus and Glarian, the tenth parte of Ephi, and Ephi is the ſame meaſure that Amphora, Imphora is. 9. galons, ſo that Gomor is a galon and almoſt a pint.

Gomorrha, & Gomorrhum, a citee in Judea, whiche was conſumed for horrible ſynne againſt nature.

Gonagra, græ, the goute in the knee.

Gongylium, of Hippocrates and Galene is vſed for a pyll in medicine, and for the ſimilitude therof, it ſignifieth the rape roote, whiche is rounde, or rather nauew or turnepe. It is alſo called of ſome Gongyles, or Gongylis, idis.

Gonnus, a citee in the vpper part of Theſſaly.

Gonorrhæa, æ, f. g. a diſeaſe whereby a mannes ſede goeth from hym vnwyttyngly, and they, which haue that diſeaſe, be called Gonorrhæi.

Gordianus, the name of three Emperours, the father, the ſonne, and the nephewe.

Gordium, the principall citee of Phrygia.

Gordius, a poore houſbande man of Phrygia, (hauyng but two yoke of oxen) in the tyme of a ſedition in the countrey, was by aunſwere made of an Idolle, choſen kynge there. whan he came with his wayne, where the counſayle was kept, and beeyng made kynge, and cauſyng the ſedition to ceaſſe: He made his yoke to bee hanged vp in the Temple of Jupiter, the cordes therof beeynge made in ſuche knottes, that it ſeemed impoſſyble to bee vndwen.

Gorgias, a famous Rhetozitian in the tyme of Socrates, who inuented the craft to diſpute and aunſwere ſodeynely to euery queſtion or matter, that was propoſed in a continuall ozaleontinꝰ.

tion: And by teachynge Rhetozike, became ſo ryche, that he was the fyrſt that dyd frette an ymage of gold in the temple of Apollo at Delphos, he beeynge of age. 108. yeres, ſurmounted almoſte all men of his tyme, in bodyly ſtrengthe, perfectneſſe of lences, quyckeneſſe of wytte, and ſtableneſſe of memozie.

Gorgones, monſtruous women, whiche were vaynquiſhed by Perſeus.

Gorgoneus, a, um, perteynyng to Gozgones.

Gorgónia, æ, f. g. cozalle.

Gorgonius, the name of a neatye kelowe in Lozace.

Gorgóphorus, a, um, that beareth the Gozgõs, the ſurname of Pallas, becauſe ſhe had the head of Medusa peynted in hir ſhielde.

Gorogition, a Troian.

Gortina, or Gortys, a citee of Candie.

Gortynius, a, um, of that citee.

Goſſampinus, ni, fœm. gen. a tree, whiche bzeareth cotton.

Goſſipium, ij, n. g. idem. alſo the cotton of the ſame tree made Plin. lib. 19. cap. 1.

Gothia, an yle by Denmarke called Gutlande, not farre from Noꝛwaie.

Gothi, people, of whom the firſt came out of Gutlande, vnto whom reſoꝛted a great multitude of other people as wel out of the cuntreies now called Prutia, Liuonia, Ruſsia, and Tartaria, as dyuers other partes, called ſometyme Scythia: and makyng ſundzy hynges, dyd depopulate and bzyng in ſubiection the moze parte of Europa, and fynally deſtroied Rome, and inhabited the parte of Italy, nowe called Lumbardie: and ſhewyſe ſubdued the royalmes of Caſtile and Aragon.

G ANTE R.

GRab, a fiſtula, or diſeaſe in the eye.

Grabãtus, bati, maſcu. generis, a poore mans couche. alſo a bed that men vſed in the olde tyme to take their eaſe vppon at after noone.

Graccanus, a, um, of Gracchus.

Gracchuris, a citee of Italy.

Gracchus, the name of a noble familie or houſe in Rome.

Gracile, ſclenderly.

Gracilens, entis, idem quod Gracilis.

Gracileſco, ſcere, to waxe or becom leane, thyn, or ſclender.

Grácilis, le, and Gracilentus, a, um, leane, ſclender, thynne, ſmall, pleatie.

Gracilis liber, a thyn booke, that hath not muche paper.

Gracilitas, ãtis, fœm. gene. leanneſſe, ſclenderneſſe, ſoftneſſe.

Gracilitũdo, dinis, f. g. idem.

Gracus, ci, & graculus, li, m. ge. a byrde called of some a Jaye: but Erasmus in his adagies, so often as this worde Κολοιὸς, doeth come in vse, doth still translate it Graculus, and Aristotle maketh .iii. kindes of those birdes, whiche he calleth Κολοιὸς, the description of the first, agreeth in all poynctes vnto the corniche choughe: the description of the second vnto our chough, properly called monedula, the third I know not: by the descriptions of Aristotle, I thynke nothynge lesse true, then that the Jaye shulde be any of the three kindes of those birdes, whiche be called Graculi.

✠ Graculo cum fidibus nihil, The Jaye hath naught to dowe with the harpe, spoken of theim, whiche lackyng eloquence or good letters, dooe shorne thepm that haue good learnynge. And Graculus inter musas, an vnlerned amonge lerned men, a childisshes talker amonge eloquent men.

✠ Semper graculus assidet graculo, One knaue will kepe an other companie, one prattler will be with an other, like will to like.

Gradarius, a, um, that aumbleth.

Gradarij equi, aumblyng horses.

Gradatim, in order, or by course, a lyttell and a lyttell, by leisure, by degrees or steppes.

Gradatim & pedetentim.

Minutatim & gradatim interrogare, To demaunde in diuers shorte questions, descendyng to the purpose by lyttell and lyttell.

Gradatim amicos habet, he hath diuers sortes of frendes, some that he setteth more by than other some.

Gradátio, ônis, fœm. gener. a fourme of speakynge, whan of the fyrste sentence spryngeth the seconde, of the seconde, the thyrd, and so forth.

Gradátor, ôris, m. ge. a great goer.

Gradátus, a, um, made with grieces or steppes.

Gradiuicola, one that worshippeth Mars.

Gradiuus, one of the names of Mars.

Grádior, gráderis, gradi, to goe by steppes, or to steppe, to walke.

Gradus, us, m. genit. a grise or steppe, a degree in consanguinitee, a degree or estate of honour, or promotion. sometyme an occasion or meane, a pace in goeyng, a rounde in a ladder.

De gradu deiici, To be caste downe from his place: wherby is signified to be abassed or moued from constancie of mynde.

Deturbari gradu, hath the same signification.

Gradu dimoueri, To be putte out of estimacion or authoritee.

Gradu mouere, to cause one to steppe backe, to make to recule or geue backe.

Pleno gradu tendere, to goe or marche forth a great pase.

Accelerare gradum, to go apace.

Vt adderent gradum, that they wouldе make spede forwarde.

Adiuuare gradū baculo, to walke with a staf.

Modico gradu ire, to go softely.

Facere gradum, to steppe. also to make a meane or waie to any thyng.

Inferre gradum, to auaunce forwarde and to bppon ennemies.

Gradum iacere ad aliquam rem, To make an entree, waie, or begynnyng to a thyng.

Omni gradu amplissimo dignus, worthye moste hygh honour and aduauncement.

Militiæ gradu deiicere, to putte one out of the roume that he is in, and make hym a common souldiour.

Græcánicus, a, um, come out of Grece.

Græcé, in greke.

Græce loqui, to speake greke.

Græcia, æ, fœm. gene. (the fountayne of prymesse and doctrine, and nourise of eloquence) a great and famous countrey, conteynyng these noble regions, Epirus, Acarnania, Aetolia, Phocis, Locris, Acaia, Messenia, Laconia, Argos, Megaris, Attica, Bœotia, Doris, Phthiótis, Thessalia, Magnesia, Macedonia, & Thracia, All the whiche of late yeres were vnder the porke of Christes religion, and nowe alas, to the great discomfort of all perfecte christen men, are vnder the moste cruell subiection and seruitude of the great tyrannes the Turke, and become barbarouse, lyuyng in the beastely superstition of the fals prophete Mahomete.

Græciensis, se, of Grece, or comynge out of Grece.

Græcisso, are, to folowe the greke.

Græcor, áris, ari, to reuelle in banketynge and rybauldry.

Græcostasis, a place where ambassadours stode tyll they were sent for into the senate.

Græculus, a, um, a diminutiue of Græcus.

Græcula rosa, a certayne rose, no bigger then a violet. Plin. li. 21. ca. 4.

Græcus, ci, m. g. a man borne in Grece.

Græcus, a, um, of Grece.

Græca salix, redde willowe.

✠ Ad Calendas græcas, a prouerbe, signifyeng neuer.

Graiúgena, æ, com. g. a greke.

Grallæ, arum, crouches, stylts, or shaches.

Grallátor, ôris, m. gen. he that goeth on stylts or shaches.

Grallatórius, a, um, the adiectiue.

Grallatorius gradus, a great or longe stride, suche as one taketh that goeth on stylts.

Gramen, grámmis, neut. gener. grasse. some tyme all herbes togethet, the swarthe. also an herbe called Sanguinaria, Dactylon, or some Dens canis, of Dioscorides, Coronopus, that is to saie, crowes foote. It spredeth and groweth by knottes, and is more pleasant to beastes, than any other herbe or grasse: some take ſtiche ſtitchwoort for the true graſſe, but they are decetued.

Gramia, æ, f. g. a fleume in the eyne.
Gramioſi oculi, eies that be ſore of that diſeaſe.
Gramma, ătis, n. g. a letter, alſo idem quod ſcrupulum vel ſcrupulum, a ſcruple, the .xxiii.
part of an ounce.
Grammeus, a, um, of graſſe.
Grammoſus, a, um, growen with graſſe or herbes.
Grammaticus, triſyllabum, a chaunceliour.
Grammias, a precious ſtone, of the kynde of iaſpis, hauing a rounde white circle about it.
Grammatica, æ, or Grammatice, es, fœ. gen. grammer.
Grammatica, ôrum, the ſtudye or ſcience of grammer.
Grammaticè, an aduerbe, ſyke a grammarian.
Grammaticè loqui, to ſpeake congruely.
Grammaticus, maſ. ge he that teacheth grammer, or expounded authors, a profounde grammarian.
Grammaticus, a, um, pertaynyng to grammer.
Grammaniſta, a ſmatterer in grammer, a meane grammarian.
Grammatocyphon, phi, n. g. he that wryeth on his knee.
Grammatophylacium, cij, n. g. a place where the records or common wrytynges be kepte.
Gramine, a length, without breadthe.
Granarium, ri, neu. gen. a graynarde, wherein corne is kepte.
Granata, a royalme and citee in Spayne, lyeng nyge to the ſea called Mare mediterraneum, whiche was vnder the ſubiection of the Moores eyght hundred yeres. It the laſt, by the great wyſedome, polycie, and proweſſe of Fernando, and Eliſabeth, of famous memorye, late kynge and quene of Spayne, was ekeſ ones reſtored vnto Chriſtendome, and the Moores expelled.
Granatum, i, n. g. a pomegranarde.
Granatus, a, um, that hath many cornes or ketnelles.
Malum granatum, a pome granarde.
Grandebalæ arum, f. g. heares in the arme holes.
Grandæuitas, ătis f. g great age, auncientee.
Grandæuus, a, um, verey olde, auncient.
Grandeſco, ſcere, to ware great, to groowe.
Grandiculus, a diminutiue of Grandis.
Grandigro, aui. are, to go away apace.
Grandiloquentia, æ, f g.a ſtately eloquence.
Grandiloquus, a, um, eloquente, he that ſpeaketh as it were with a greatte magnifycence in wooꝛdes.
Grandinatus, a, um, hurt or wounded with haile.
Grandino, aui, are, to hayle, artyuely.
Grandinoſus, a, um, full of hayle.
Grandio, ri, ire, to make great.
Grandis, de, auncient or great, of great value,
Grandis natu, well ſtryken in yeres.
Grande æs alienum, great debte.

Grande gaudium, great ioye and myrth
Grandis ætas, auncientee.
Grandis littera, a great capitall letter.
Genus dicendi grandius, a moꝛe loftie and ample ſtyle.
Grandi pecunia mercari, to bye ſoꝛ a great ſumme of monete, to bie verey dere.
Grandis natu, a verale auncient or aged perſone.
Grandior virgo, a maide of a good bigge ſtature.
Grandior homo, a well aged man.
Granditas, ătis, f. g. aboundaunce of peres, auncientee.
Granditas verborum, ampleneſſe of wooꝛdes, hygh and loftie ſpeakyng.
Grandiuſculus, a, um, ſomewhat great, of a good ſtature or age.
Grando, inis, f. g. hayle.
Granicus, ci, m. g. a ryuer of Bithynia, at the whiche great Alexander ouerthꝛewe and put to flyght the power of Darius.
Granum, i, n. g graine or corne alſo the. 566. parte of an ounce.
Graphiárium, ij, n. g. a caſe, wherin penſels were kept it may be called a pennar.
Graphiaria theca, idem.
Graphice, es, f. g. caruyng in boꝛ, or other ſyke thynge.
Graphicè, properly, well and cunnyngly.
Graphicus, a, um, counnyngely, or perfectely wꝛought.
Graphicus homo, a proper man.
Graphis, graphidis, fœ. gen. the arte of poꝛtraicture, after Budeus, the deſcription or deſignation, or drawyng out of a wooꝛke that is to be made.
Graphium, ij, n. g. a penſell, wherwith men doe wryte in tables.
Graſſatio, ônis, robbyng.
Graſſator, ôris, m. g. he that by hygh wales lyeth in a wayte to robbe or ſlea men alſo an ex ſoꝛ ſonne.
Graſſatûra, æ, f. g. idem quod graſſatio.
Graſſoniæ, ſtinkyng ſauoures about a bodie.
Graſſor, aris, ari, to robbe or ſlea men paſſynge by the hygh wales. alſo to go or come on with a vyolent rage. Therfoꝛe in a ſodayn and vioꝛlent peſtylence, it is ſaied, Morbus graſſatur, the ſickeneſſe kylleth men in great numbꝛes ſoꝛ deynly and it is taken in the yll parte, or els in the good parte, and ſignifieth to goe earneſtly to a thynge.
Vt in ſe hac via graſſaremur, that we myght aſſayle the, or ſette vpon the this way, or after this faction.
Ad gloriam virtutis via graſſatur, he contendeth to come to glory by vertue.
Graſſari, ſometyme taken in the good parte ſoꝛ Procedere. An ſe iure graſſari non vi, id eſt, procedere. ſometyme to walke.

Gratabundus, a, um, and Gratans, antis, om. g. geuyng thankes, thankefull.

Grate, kyndely, thankefully, gratefully.

Grates, f. g. plur. thankes.

Agere grates alicui, to geue one thankes.

Gratia, æ, f. g. grace, fauour, sometyme it signifieth thanke, a benefite, a rewarde, peace, or loue, cause or respecte, prayse, authoritee, fauour.

Mala gratia, signifieth displeasure.

Mea, tua, vel eius gratia, for myne, thyne, or his sake.

Gratiam habere, to thanke, to bee myndefull of a benefyte, to haue mynde to requyte a benefyte.

Gratiam inire, to get thanke.

Ab eo gratiam hanc inibo, I will geat this thanke of him.

Gratiam referre aut reddere, to requite or doe one good tourne for an other, or one displeasure for an other.

Ad gratiam, for fauour, or to please.

Si quid benefacias, leuior pluma est gratia, If ye doe them any pleasure, they haue lyttell or no consideration at all.

Componere gratiam, to make at one, to reconcile.

Gratiam facere delicti, to pardone an offence, to forgeue.

Petere gratiam ab aliquo, to aske pardon or forgeuenesse of one.

Petere gratiam alicuius, to desyre to haue ones fauour and good wyll.

Apud Lentulum ponam te in gratiam, I will bryng you in fauour with Lentulus, or I wyll reconcile you to Lentulus, or make you at one with Lentulus.

Recipere in gratiam, to loue and take one into fauour agayne after some breache or varyaunce.

Redire in gratiam, to bee at one, to be reconciled, to come agayne in fauour.

Restituere in gratiam, to bryng in fauour agayne, to reconcile.

Redigere in gratiam aliquos, idem.

Retinere, or tenere gratiam alicuius, to kepe ones selfe in a mans fauour, to kepe one his friende. Gratias scribere, to geue thankes to one in writyng.

Cum illo magna est mihi gratia, He and I bee greate frendes, or we bee nowe throughly reconciled.

Cum illo nulla est mihi gratia, He and I be not frendes, Or he and I neuer loued together.

Tibi gratia est, I thanke you.

Ea gratia, for that cause.

Cupio gratiam tuam, I desyre to haue your fauour and good wyll.

Negligere gratiam alicuius, Not to passe whether he haue ones good wyll or not.

Iusiurandi gratiam facere, to discharge or quyte one of his othe.

Gratiæ, the graces, looke Charites.

Gratidia, the name of a woman of Naples in Horace.

Gratificor, aris, ari, to gratifie or doe a thyng thankefull: or to conferre a benefite, or to do a good tourne, to make one bounde to hym by dooyng some pleasure.

Gratiam gratificari, to doo a pleasure.

Gratificatio, ônis, f. g. a gratifying.

Gratiose, for fauour, cui opponitur Sordide, for brybes or gyftes.

Gratiôsus, a, um, verye thankefull. also in fauoure or credite with the people, gentil, pleasaunt.

Gratiosa amissio, a lycence to departe, purchased by vnlaufull fauour.

Apud omnes ordines gratiosus, in fauour, & well esteemed with all sortes of men.

Gratis, an aduerbe, betokenyng without reward, without desert, for nothyng.

Habitare gratis in alieno, to dwelle on an other mans grounde without payyng rent.

Seruire gratis, to serue without wages.

Gratis diligere virtutes, To loue vertues for theyr owne sakes, not for any aduantage or profyte.

Gratanter, thankefully.

Gratitûdo, dinis, f. g. kyndenesse.

Grator, âris, ari, to geue thankes to god with lyftynges. also to reioyce of good fortune. also to speake a thyng thankfully.

Gratuitò an aduerbe, signifyinge of good will, without benefite, freely.

Gratuitus, a, um, without rewarde, or wages.

Gratuita amicitia est, Frendshyp is a thyng that shoulde be without hope of recompence.

Innata est homini probitas quædam gratuita, There is ingendred in man, a certayne goodnesse or honestee, which is neyther allured with pleasures, nor hyred with profyte, but is for onely for the loue of vertue it selfe.

Mercenarius & gratuitus, contrary.

Gratulabundus, a, um, that doeth reioyce or geue thankes.

Gratulâtio, ônis, f. g. sometyme it signifieth a reioycyng of some good fortune happened to hym selfe, or to an other man. sometyme a geuyng of thankes.

Gratulor, âris, ari, to make ioye, and to bee testifie in woordes, that thou art gladde of the good fortune, either of an other man, or of thy selfe, to be glad or reioyce on ones behalfe.

Gratulor tibi, quod tam. &c. I am glad, that you so.

Gratulor mihi, cui hoc sæculo. &c. I am glad on myne owne behalfe. &c.

Gratulor tibi istum magistratum, I am glad that you haue that office. Elsewyse, Gratulor tibi ob istum magistratum, and De isto magistratu. Ioui, cæterisque dijs gratulatum, to geue gre: dewoute thankes vnto Iupiter and the other gods.

Tibi de hac tua felicitate gratulor, I am ioyous on thy behalfe of this prosperite that thou arte in. Sometyme it signifieth to geue thankes vnto god, to praie or dooe our deuocion to god.

Aduentum gratulantur, They saied I was welcome, or that they were gladde of my comynge.

Gratulor tibi hanc rem, or Gratulor tibi in hoc, I am glad that this hath chaunced to you.

Gratus, a, um, that remembreth or recompenceth a good turne, agreable, delectable, kynde, thankfull, pleasaunt, acceptable, taken in the good parte, in good gree.

Memor & gratus.

Gratum se præbere, to shewe ones selfe thankfull and kynde.

Gratissimum mihi feceris, you shall dooe me a great pleasure.

Gratum & optatum.

Gratum in cibo, sauoury or pleasant in meate.

Gratum iucundo odore, pleasant with a delectable and swete sauour.

Grato animo esse, to haue a thankefull and kynde mynde.

Grauastellus, an auncient father.

Grauate, & grauatim, grenously, displesantly, peynefully, hardely, with an euell will.

Quim grauate pater dedit? With what an euell will did my father geue it?

Id grauate concessum est, That was hardely graunted, and with an euel will.

Grauatus, a, um, greued, bourdened, troubled with the murre or distillacion in the head. also he that doeth a thynge, as it were halfe against his will.

Grauatus somno, drousy for sleape, that he can scant holde vp his head.

Grauatus vulneribus, he that hath many sore or greuous woundes.

Grauedinósus, a, um, that hath an heauy heade, heauy or vnlusty, disposed to do nothyng, that hath the murre or pose, or that causeth it.

Grauédo, uédinis, f. g. heaunesse, greke, disease. also the murre or reume of the head.

Graueolens, lentis, that hath a very euell sauour.

Graueoléntia, æ, fœ. gen. stynche or stynkynge sauoure.

Oris graueolentia, a stinkynge breath.

Graueſco, scere, to be loded or bourdened, to wexe heauy.

Indies valendo graueſcit, he is euery daie sycker and sycker, he waxeth euery daie wors and wors.

Malis publicis indies graueſcentibus, The great euels and mischeues in the commune weale waxyng daiely more and more.

Graucons, cordis, he that hath a great herte.

Grauidus, aus, f. g. greauesse with childe, or with childe.

Grauido, aui, are, to get a woman with childe.

Grauidus, a, um, great with child, or with yong.

Grauida mulier, a woman with child.

Grauidam facere mulierem, to geat a woman with childe.

Grauida est é Pamphilo, she is great with child by Pamphilus.

Grauiloquus, he that speaketh grauely and seriously.

Grautonarium, a citee in Almayne called Wansbergh.

Grauis, heauy, grenous, peynfull, sore. sometyme substanciall, weighte, of great weighe or importaunce, graue, or haupnge grauitee, sage, discrete, contrary to lyghte or wanton. also great or puissant. sometyme olde or aged, sure or constant, plentuouse or full also stynkynge, haupnge a stronge sauour or plie apte, sometyme difficile and harde.

Terra grauis, lande loded with corne.

Grauis nuncius, One that bryngeth heauy tydynges.

Graue precium, an high prpce.

Grauis annis miles, an auncyente and aged souldiour.

Grauis senecta, impotent for age.

Grauí teste priuatus sum amoris erga te mei, I haue lost a substanciall witnesse of my loue towardes the.

Grauis Marte, great with chylde by Mars.

Morbo grauis, feeble and lapnte with the fits heuesse.

Quanto tuus est animus natu grauior, tanto sit ignoscentior, The more graue, sage, and discrete your wysdome is, by reason of your age, so muche the more ready let the same bee, to forgeue and pardon.

Grauis vinculis, laded with pyons and fetters.

Grauis somno, so heauy and drousy, that he can scante holde vp his head for sleape.

Grauis vulneribus, sore wounded.

Grauis vtero, great with chylde.

Graue absynthium, wormewood verye bitter, and vnpleasant in taste.

Grauis aduersarius, a sore and dreadfull enmy.

Aes graue, wedges or ingottes of golde or syluer. Grauis annona, dearth of corne.

Grauis armatura, a complet harneys, contrary to Leuis armatura.

Grauis author, a substanciall author of good authoritee.

Grauis halitus, a strong or stinkyng breathe.

Imperium graue & stabile, a fyrme or durable rule or imperie.

Grauis manus, a hande, full of money, or some other thynge.

Grauis paupertas, great neede, extreme powerte. Graues remi, great and mighty oares.

Grauis senectus, peynefull olde age.

Grauis supellex, goodlye and ryche stuffe of houses houſeholde.

Vereor, ne tibi ſim grauis, I feare leaſt I trou ble you.
Grauius erit tuum vnum verbum quàm cen tum mea, You ſhall doo more with one worde, than I ſhall with an hundred: Or one woorde of your mouth ſhall more preuayle, than an hundred of myne.
Hæc dum incipias, grauia ſunt, Theſe thynges be harde tyll a man hath ones begun them.
Grauiſsimum anni tempus, the moſt daunge rous and perylous tyme of the yere.
Non dum audiſti, quod eſt grauiſsimum, you haue not yet heard the greateſt matter, or that is moſte heynous or greuous.
Grauis odor, a ſtronge ſauour.
Oratio grauis, graue or diſcrete wordes.
Grauis ſonus, a baſe or lowe ſowne.
Grauiſsima ſunt, ad. &c. they are of verye great efficacie, to &c.
Grauiſcæ, a caſtell of the Tuſcans.
Grauitas, ātis, f. g. grauitee, authorite, ſageneſſe, diſcreteneſſe of mynde, weyghtineſſe, heauy neſſe. alſo the greuouſeneſſe or greateneſſe of a thynge.
Grauitas odoris, the ſtrongneſſe of ſauour.
Grauitas doloris, the greatteneſſe of ſorowe or peyne.
Grauitas audiendi, auditus, & aurium, dul neſſe in hearyng.
Grauitas cœli, the vnpleſantneſſe of the ayre.
Grauitas oris, a ſtynkyng breath.
Grāuiter, & grauè, greuouſely, peinfully, heauy ly, ſubſtantially, muche wyſely, ſaddely.
Grauiter accipere, to take diſpleaſantly.
Grauiſsimè ægrotare, to be verye ſore ſicke.
Grauiter crepuerunt fores, the doores made a great creakyng or noyſe.
Nimis grauiter cruciat adoleſcentulum, He vexeth the poore ponge man to ſore.
Grauiter in aliquem dicere, to ſpeake ſharpe ly and rygorouſely agaynſt one.
Grauiter aliquid facere, to dooe a thynge diſ creetely and wyſely.
Grauiter increpare, to chide or rebuke ſharply.
Grauiter iraſci, to be verye angry.
Grauiter & acutè ſonare, contrary.
Grauiter diſſentiunt inter ſe, they are at great diſcorde and varyaunce betwene theym ſelues.
Grauiter ſpirare, to haue a ſtronge ſauour.
Grauiuſculus, a, um, the diminutiue of grauis.
Grauo, aui, are, to greue or burdeine, to lode.
Grauor, āris, ari, to be greued, or to take grees nouſely, to be lothe to dooe a thyng.
Quæ ſi quis grauabitur, whiche thynge if any man be diſcontented or diſpleaſed with.
Gregālis, le, of the ſame flocke or company, of the common ſorte.
Gregāles tui, thy companions.
Gregarius, a, um, of the common flocke or ſorte.
Gregarius canis, a curre dogge.
Gregarius miles, a ſouldiour taken at aduen ture, not choſen, a common ſouldiour, of ſmall eſtimacion.
Gregarius paſtor, the cheif ſheparde, whiche hath the charge of the hole flocke.
Gregātim, in ſundry flockes or companies.
Gremiāle, lis, n. g. an apron.
Grémium, ii, n. g. the ſpace betwene the two thighes, ſpecially of a woman.
Greſsibile, lis. n. g. apte to goe.
Greſſus, us, m. g. a ſteppe or goyng.
Superbus greſſus, a proude or ſtately maner in goeynge.
Greſſus, a, um, that goeth.
Grex, egis, m. g. a flocke, a route or company, a bende of men.
Grex hominum, a companie of men.
Dux gregis, a bull.
Grex equarum, a herde of maares.
Grillus, looke Gryllus.
Griphus, i, m. g. a nette, a riddle, an intricate darke ſentence, harde to be aſſoiled.
Gronni, people of Spayne.
Groſſapina, æ, f g. cotton.
Gróſſulus, li, maſ. gen. a ſpitell kygge, that is not rype.
Groſſus, i, m. g. a greene kygge.
Groſſus, a, um, great, groſſe.
Gruina, næ, f. g. herbe Robert.
Gruma, æ, f. g. a myddle place, from whens ye iiii. waies. Alſo a thyng, wherwith grounde is meaſured.
Grumulus, li, m. g. a diminutiue of Gruma.
Grumus, i, m. g. a barrowe or hilloche.
Grundio, and grunnio, iui, nii, ire, to grunte lyke ſwyne.
Grunnitus, us, m. g. a gruntyng of a ſwyne.
Gruo, grui, ere, to crye lyke a crane.
Grus, gruis, m. or f. g. a crane.
Grillus, i, m. g. a beaſt more than a graſſehop, whiche deſtroyeth corne, Grillus, is alſo Xe nophons ſonne.
Gryneus, a, um, of Grynia.
Grynia, a towne of Aetolia, in the borders of Ionia.
Gryps, gryphis, or Gryphus, phi, m. g. a gryfe or gryffon.
Grypus, i m. g. he that hath an hooked noſe like an haukes byll.

G ANTE V.

GVaiacum, a tree growynge in the ylo newe founden, the one called Cortera the other Hiſpaniola, whiche be not fa from the equinoctiall lyne, whiche tree is ve the toppe full of branches, the leaues verye ſmall, and meruailous grene it beareth fruite of the quantitee of a kylderde nut, hauynge wit in it a kernell, and without a thynne ſkale. There is of this tree thyee kyndes. The wood wood of the one is hard & heup, within blacke, without pale coloured, haupng lynes somwhat russette. The other is somewhat whyter without, but blacke within, not in so great a compasse. The thyrde is white within and without, haupng verie small lynes, This wood boiled in water hath been founde an excellent remedy agaynst the frenche poches, and also the goute.

Gubernáculum, li, n. gene. the sterne or rother of a shyppe, and by translacion the gouernance of a common weale.

Gubernacula reipublicæ tenere, to haue the rule or gouernaunce of the common weale.

Accedere ad gubernacula reipublicæ, to com to beare a rule in the common weale.

Dejcere senatum à gubernaculis reipublicæ, To put the senate from the gouernance of the common weale.

Sedere omni tempore ad gubernacula reipublicæ, To be alwaies occupied in the gouernaunce of the common weale.

Gubernátio, ônis, f. g. the gouernyng of a shyp, the ruling of a common weale.

Gubernátor. ôris, m. gene. a mayster of a shyp. also a gouernour of a countrete, a ruler.

Gubernátrix, ícis, the feminine.

Guberno, aui, are, to gouerne, to rule.

Guesseli, beastes lyke to mise, whiche haue their doung as swete as muske.

Gula, æ, fe. gene, the gullette or weysande. somtyme gluttonye.

Gula follis, the nose of the bellowes, where the wynde cometh out.

Gulbocæ, the greene shales of walnuttes.

Gulosé, gluttonously.

Gulósus, a, um, gluttonous.

Gulosus lector, one that hath redde muche.

Gummátus, a, um, dressed with gum or rosen.

Gummatæ arbores, trees that bryng forthe gumme.

Gummi, neu. gene. vnderlined, gumme whiche droppeth from trees.

Gummínum, oyle made of gumme.

Gummátio, ônis, f.g annoyntyng with gumme.

Gummósus, a, um, that hath muche gumme.

Gurdi, orum, fooles.

Gurges, itis, m. ge. a swalowe or depe pitte in a water, or a goulfe. sometyme the streame. somtyme the perillous daungier of the sea. By trãslation, a naughty and wycked persone, haupng in hym as it were an hole sea of mischiefe.

Gurges cæruleus, the sea.

Gúrgito, aui, are, to swalowe or deuoure.

Gurgúlio, ônis, m. ge. the gullie or gargill of the throte bolle. It is also a worme that breedeth in garners, and eateth vp corne.

Gurgustiolum, li, n. g. a litteli cabyn or cotage.

Gurgustium, ij, n. gen. a darke and vile habitacion, a cabyn or cotage.

Gustatórium, ij, neu. gener. a place where men were wonte to banket.

Gustátus, us, m. ge. taste.

Gusto, aui, áre, to taste, to haue a lyttell knowlage or experience in a thyng.

Primis labris gustare, To tast or wete the lippes a litteli, to haue a litteli smacke or sauour of a thyng.

Gustare eius sermonem volo, I will heare what he will saie.

Gustus, us, m. ge. taste.

Veræ laudis gustum non habent, They haue no smacke or taste of trewe prayse and commendacion.

Gutta, æ, f ge. a droppe.

Guttátim, by droppes, one drop after an other.

Guttátus, a, um, that hath as it wer drops in it.

Guttans, antis, om ge. that droppeth awaie.

Guttulus, li, m. ge. a litteli cruet or lyke thyng.

Guttur, úris, n. ge. the throte.

Gutturósus, a, um, that hath a swollen throte.

Gutturnium, nij, n. ge. a lauer or pewer.

Guttus, i, m ge. a cruet or other lyke thynge, out of the whiche lycour is poured droppyng. also an oyle vessell.

G ANTE Y.

GYarus, i, or Gyara, æ, lowe Giarus.

Gyas, the name of a Troiane.

Gygæus, a lake of Lydie.

Gygémorus, a litteli hyll not far from Thessaly.

Gyges, the sonne of Dascylus, one of the seruauntes of Candaules, kyng of Lydia (as Herodotus writeth) or his companyon (as Trogus reherseth) was also kynge of Lydia, by this meanes. Candaules had a wyfe, whom for the inordinate loue he bare to hir, he supposed to be the fayrest woman liuynge. On a tyme he prayled his wyues beautee vnto Gyges, addyng therto, that he moughte the better beleue hym, he would cause hym to see hir naked. But Gyges refused, dissuadynge as muche as he could Candaules frõ that folye, with right wise exhortations. But Candaules obstinately persistyng in his folysche fantasy, dyd set Gyges in a secrete place, where he behelde his wyfe naked goynge to bedde. And as Gyges departed, the lady beheldc hym. And finally the mattier disclosed vnto hir by hir husbande, she intended to bee reuenged. For in that countrey it was an intollerable reproche to a man or woman, to bee seene naked. wherfore calling vnto hir such of hir seruauntes, as she specially trusted, she sent for Gyges: who beyng come, she purposed vnto hym this election, eyther he hym selfe to be slayne, or elles to prompte to slea Candaules, and take hir to his wife, and the realme with hir. which he abhorryng, and a good whyle resistyng, with sundry persuasions, at the laste he chose, rather than to dye hym selfe, to slea Candaules, as he dyd lyng in his bed, by the meanes of the queene, whom he tooke to his wyfe, wyfe, and was kyng of Lydia. Plato lib. 2. de iusto, telleth, that Gyges had a ryng, of such vertue, that whan the bzoder parte therof was tourned to the palme of his hãde, he was seene of no man, but he myght see all thynges: And whan he tourned the ring on the cõtrary parte, he was hym selfe seene openly. by the meanes wherof he slewe Cãdaules, and cõmitted adulterie with his wyfe. There was also an other Gyges, a great graunt, & bzother of Briarẽus.

Gymnas, ãdis, f. g. exercise.

Gymnasiarchus, i, oz Gymnasiarcha, æ, m. g. the chiefe maister of ỹ schwle oz place of exercyse, the pzincipall of a hall, ỹ head of a halle oz colledge.

Gymnásium, ij, neu. g. a place where is common exercise of the body. somtyme a schoole house, a colledge oz hall, suche as be in the vniuersitees.

Gymnastes, he that teacheth chylderne to exercise them in wzastlyng, oz other sybe.

Gymnásticus, oz Gymnicus, a, um, belongyng to exercise.

Gymnastium, the acte of exercise.

Gymnisi ludi, plates exercised naked.

Gymnos, signifieth naked.

Gymnosophistæ, philosophiers of Inde, whiche went alwaies naked.

Gymnus, a beaste, whiche cometh of an hozse and an asse mare.

Gyndes, a great riuer of Assyria, which Cyrus caused to be diuyded into xlvi. chanelles oz streames.

Gynæconitis, that parte of the house, whiche serueth onely foz women.

Gynæconomus, the grekes called hym, that in olde tyme had the charge, to ouersee the numbze of guestes at feastes.

Gynæpritus, li, m. ge. a great louer of women, an amourous person.

Gynæcanthe, vitis alba.

Gynæciarij, they, whiche beyng in a house together with women, after cloath is made, doe clense it, and cut of the knottes of the thredes.

Gynæcêum, a nouretry, oz secrete place, where women onely doo abyde.

Gypsatus, a, um, playstered.

Gypsatæ manus, in Ciceros epistle of his seuenth boke to Trebatius, is taken after some interpretours foz white handes, oz after some foz deceiptfull oz crafty handes.

Gypso, aui, are, to playster.

Gypsum, i, n. g. playster.

Gyratus, turned rounde.

Gyrinus, i, m g. a tadpolle.

Gyro, aui, are, to compasse, oz go in circuite.

Gyrus, i, m. g. a circuite oz compasse.

Agere gyros, To turne rounde, oz to renne rounde, as a hozse doth in a carrire.

Ducere in gyrum rationis, to bzynge with in the compasse of reason.

Gytheum, a towne, whiche Hercules and Apollo buylded together, and the inhabitãtes of the same towne be called Gytheates.

HA, an interiection of chastysynge oz warnyng, that a thyng should not be doon.

Habéna, æ, foz. g. the rayne of a bzydell, sometyme it signifieth power oz rule.

Habenas adducere, To holde streicte the bzidell.

Habenas remittere, to slacke the bzydell.

Laxissimas habere habenas, to haue the bzydell at wille.

Tradere habenas alicui, To committe to one the authozite to rule oz gouerne.

Rerum habenæ traduntur Hasdrubali, the gouernaunce oz rule of the commune weale, was committed to Hasdzubali.

Habénula, æ, f. g. a litteli rayne of a bzydell.

Habentia, æ, f. ge. was vsed of olde wzyters, for the hauyng of a thyng.

Habeo, es, ui, ére, to haue, to holde, to possesse, to occupie, to esteeme oz suppose, to tarie, to dwelle, to handell oz intreate well oz yll, cruelly oz gentylly. Also foz seruare, to kepe diligently.

Habere, is often tymes vsed with aduerbes, whiche beyng spoken by a nowne substantiue, shoulde be the datiue case. As Negligenter habere parentes, foz Neglectui, to vse the parentes negligently. So Humaniter habere, for Humaniter tractare. Communiter res habere, foz Rerum communionem habere. Habere, foz Inuenisse. Spero me habere, qui hanc meo excruciem modo, I thinke I haue found a waie to vexe him and anger euery veyne in his herte, euen as I will my selfe.

Habeo audire, I can here, oz rather I muste here. Habeo policeri, I can promyse, oz I must promise.

Haberi aliquo numero, To bee had in some estimation.

Clodij animum perspectum habeo, I knowe oz I perceyue ryght well what Clodius intendeth. Habere bene seu male, to do oz fyndyng well oz yll, to bee in good health.

Bene habet, it is well.

Male me habet, it greeueth me.

Habere concionem, to preache, to declare a thyng to the people.

Habet eum arcte, he kepeth hym shoxt oz from libertee, he holdeth hym streicte.

Fortunas suas venales habuit, he solde all his goodes.

Frustra habere, to be decey[illegible]

Habet frustra, he is disappo[illegible]

Habere gratiam, to thanke. it is pzopzely in the mynde, whan we remembze suche benefites as we haue receyued, and haue a good will to requite the same agayne.

Iam habeo, I despise no moze.

In custodiis haberi, to be kepte in pzison.

Habere obuiã, to encounter oz meete with one.

Pensi habere, to take hede.

Prorsus

rorſus neque facere, neque dicere quicquam enſi habebat, he cared not what he did, nor what e ſpake.
rincipatum habere, to be more excellent.
abere quæſtui rempublicam, To minyſter the ealth publike for his owne profite.
abere delectum, To muſter, and take vp men o the warre.
habere rationem, to haue regarde or conſyderaon.
habere rationem cum terra, to labour the earth, o be occupied in manurynge and tyllyng of the rounde.
Res ita ſe habet, the thynge is at this poynt, the matter is in this caſe.
habere rem cum muliere, to meddell with a oman.
habere rem cum aduerſario, to contende.
e munditer habere, to bee cleanly.
ermonem habere, to common or deuiſe.
habeo tibi fidem, I beleue the, I truſt the.
Nunquam ſecus habui illam, atque ſi me ex nata ſſet, I neuer entreated hir otherwyſe, than yf e had been myne owne naturall daughter:
arce ac duriter ſe habere, To lyue ſparyngely nd hardely.
Nimium te habui delicatum, I haue brought the o to nyerly, I haue made to muche of the.
egre habet, he is diſpleaſed or diſcontented.
habet eos ſomnus, they are a ſleape.
habere in tenebris, to kepe in a darke houſe.
Ibi habet, he dwelleth here.
habeo dicere, I can ſaye ſomewhat.
Hec habui de amicitia dicenda, This muche I ad to ſaye concernyng amitee and frendſhip.
icut plerisq; mortalium habentur, as it chanth moſte commonly amongeſt men.
Reſpondendum habeo, I muſt anſwere. Lyheſ Præcipiendum, tolerandum, dicendum haeo. Deportatum habere, to haue caried away.
Verbum habuimus Curionem, Curio was vehemente agaynſt vs.
Habet res admirationem, The thynge is wonerfulle.
Habere ætatem, to leade ones lyfe Alſo to bee of good age.
Bene habere ætatem, to lyue pleaſantly.
Bonum habe animum, bee of good cheere.
Habere in animo, to thynke, to intende, to purpoſe, to bee mynded.
Dicebat ſe nonum habere annos, He ſayed he was thyrtye [illegible] olde.
Animum [illegible]es habet, This thyng vexeth or troubleth me, or maketh me carefull & penſiue.
Quæ nos anxios habent, whych thynges make vs aſtonied.
Quos authores habet, whiche authoures he doeth folowe
Belle habere ſe, to be merye and in good helthe.
Bonum ciuem illum ſemper habuit, he founde hym alway a ryght good citizen.
Bonum cælum locus habet, the place ſtandeth in an holſome ayre.
Habere caſtra, to campe.
Nullam mei cogitationem habuit, He neuer thought on me, he had no regarde to me at all.
Compertum habere, to knowe ſurely, to haue ſure proofe of a thyng.
Habere conſilium, to conſult, to hold a counſell.
Ne quem conſcium ſuorum haberet, that none of his companyons ſhould knowe it.
Vt intrantium exeuntiumque conſpectum habeat, that he maie ſee theim that go in and out.
Certamen habere cum aliquo, To contende or ſtriue with one. Likewiſe Habere controuerſiam and contentionem.
Conſtitutum habere, To haue throughly determined.
Conuiuium habere, to kepe a feaſte.
Meam culpam habeto, Blame me, laye the faute on me.
Curæ rem aliquam habere, to take good hede of a thynge.
Curſum ſecundum naues habuere, the ſhyppes had proſperous ſayling.
Indelitus habere, to loue one tenderly, to make one his derling, to bringe vp wantonly.
Derelictui habere, to neglecte, to take no hede of a thynge.
Deſpicatum, and deſpectui habere, to deſpiſe, to contemne, to ſette naught by.
De Cæſare ſatis hoc tempore habeo dictum, I haue ſpoken ſufficiently of Cæſar, for this tyme.
Dignum me habuit, he thought me wourthye.
Habeat me ipſum ſibi documento, Leat hym take me for an example, or leat hym take an exaumple of me.
Habet dolorem capitis, His head aketh, he hath the head ache.
Pro haud dubio habitum eſt, it was thought for a ſurette, or they thought ſurely.
Habet effigiem, he is lyke.
Expertem conſiliorum omnium illum habebat, He made hym priuie to nothyng: or he kepte ſecrete from hym all that euer he intended or wente aboute.
Habui excuſationem, I cleered, or I excuſed my ſelfe. Habere fidem apud aliquem, to be in credite with one.
Habere fidem alicui, to beleue, to truſte.
Gratiſſimum habent, They delyte greately, they haue a great pleaſure.
Quod apud alios gratiam habet, whiche thyng to ſome is acceptable and pleaſaunt, or pleaſeth ſome well.
Habere honorem alicui, to honor, to reuerence one. Habet honorem, he hath attayned the office or aduancement.
Hebere honore, for In honore, To haue in eſtimation or reuerence.
Iuſeſtum habere, to vexe, to trouble.
Immunitatem omnium rerum habent, they be chary charged with nothyng.

Impune habere, to escape quite.
Iter hac habui, my iourneye late this waie.
Nullo loco habere, to set naught by.
Vt hodie diem luculente habeamus, That we maie this date be merry and make good chere.
Habere ludibrio, to mocke, to skorne.
In magno negotio habui, he endeuored or laboured earnestly.
Ad manum habere, to haue in a redyneſſe.
In manibus, and ſub manu habere, to haue in hande.
In matrimonio habere, to marry.
Si ita me haberem, if I were in that caſe.
Hoc male habet virum, this greeueth the man, or greeth hym by the ſtomache.
Quæ te nunc habet ſolicitudo? what is it that maketh you ſo heauy or carefull?
Nullum momentum habere, to be of no weyght or importance, to helpe nothyng to the purpoſe.
Habeo hunc morem, or hoc moris, this is my faſhion or cuſtome.
Eius naturam habet, he is of his nature, he is kynde to him.
Notam impudentiæ habere, to be noted for an impudente perſone.
Habui numerum ſedulò, I remembred well the numbre.
Offenſionem habet, it dooeth diſpleaſe.
Odium in aliquem habere, and odio habere aliquem, to hate.
In ore habere, to ſpeake oftentymes, or muche of a thyng or perſone.
Habere religioni, to make conſcience, to make ſcrupulous.
Scis quo modo tibi res habet? wil't thou knowe howe the matter ſtandeth with the? or dooeſt thou knowe howe thou ſhalt be handled?
Parum habuit hoc facere, he thoughte it but a ſmall thyng or ſpight matter this to doo.
Nihil ſecretum alter ab altero habebant, They kepte nothyng ſecrete the one from the other.
Sic habeto, perſwade your mynde thus, bee you ſure of this, or knowe you th s for a ſurete.
Sic habere ſine, put the caſe, or ſuppoſe it ſo to be.
Sub ſigno habere, to kepe ſake, as it were vnder locke and kaie.
Omnes ſolicitos habui, I had all my houſeholde or meyny, as buſy as coulde be.
Studiò ne id ſibi habeat: Dooth he that of purpoſe or for the nonce?
Hoc tu tecum tacitò habeto, keepe this ſecrete to thy ſelfe, and tell it to no man.
Habeo tibi res ſolutas, I haue paied the.
Habe tibi, take it to the.
Vacationem militiæ habere, to make a reſpite of warre.
Bene habent tibi principia, thou haſte a good beginnyng, thy beginnyng goeth well forwarde.
Habeſit, of olde writers vſed for Habeat.
Habeſſus, a citee of Aſpria.

Hăbilis, le, kete, apte, handſom, mete, conuenient.
Habilis enſis, an handſome ſworde.
Habilis locus pandendis retibus, a fete place to lape or ſpreade their nettes in.
Habilis frumentis terra, a grounde or lande apte to beare corne.
Hăbile cundendo ferrum, yron mette to be beaten and knocked with an hamer, as when it is well het in the forge.
Habilior, the comparatyue, more able or mete.
Hăbilitas, ătis, f. g. abieneſſe, ketenelle, aptenelle, handſomeneſſe.
Hăbitabilis, le, that maie be inhabited.
Hăbitĭculum, li. n. g. and Habitatio, onis, f. g. a dwellyng place or habitacion.
Hăbitior, ôris, more corporate, in better plyght or lyking, more full of fleſſhe, rounder, more plumme.
Eſt paulo habitior, he is somewhat fat, rounde or in good lykyng.
Habitatio, onis f. g. habytacion, dwellyng.
Hăbitător, óris, m. g. a dweller and byder in a place, an inhabytante.
Hăbito, aui, are, to dwell.
Grauiter increpuit tanti cenſorem habitare, He blamed ſharpely, that a cenſoure ſhoulde dwell in ſo coſtely an houſe, or in an houſe of ſo great rent.
Triginta aureis dixiſti eum habitare, You ſaied that the houſe, wherin he dwelleth, coſte xxx. crownes: or that he paieth. xxx. crownes for his houſe rent.
Bene habitare, to dwell in a cõmodious place.
Habitare laxè & magnificè, to dwell in a ſumptuous and great houſe.
Qui in foro habitant, whiche doo none other thyng, but continually pleade matters in the common place.
Tecum habita, dwell at home, lyue at thyne owne coſte or charge.
Habitare ad occaſum, to dwell towarde the weſte.
Quorum in vultu habitant oculi mei, whoſe countinances I doo continually beholde.
Habitūdo, tudinis, f. g. the ſtate, plyght, or lyking of a body.
Habitudo corporis, the plyght or lykyng of the body.
Graciles habitūdo, the ſlender ſtate of the body. Tenuis habitudo, ſpare or leane ſtate.
Quæ habitudo eſt corporis? Howe rounde or fatte, or in howe good ſtate or lykyng is my body?
Habitus, us, m. g. the fourme or ſtate or diſpoſition of the bodie, ſometyme of other thynges alſo apparaple, the faſion or countenaunce of a man.
Lugubri habitu venerat, he came arayed in mournyng apparaple. Alſo it ſignifieth a propertie or qualitee, which a man hath conceyued by education, longe exercile or cuſtome.

Habitus

Habitus loci, the situacion of a place.
Habitus verborū, the garnyshyng of wordes.
Habitu aliquo se augustiorem facere, to make hym selfe more honorable with some kynd of apparaile or ornamente.
Permutare habitum cum aliquo, to chaunge apparell with one.
Residere in malum habitum, to fall or turne to an ill state or disposicion of the bodie.
Habitus, a, um, had, rompted.
Habita est semper eius soror, she was alwaies taken to be hir sister.
Vt patrem tuum vidi esse habitum, As farre as I coulde perceyue by the facion of your father.
Habitus est tibi hic honor, Thou haste this rewarde or promocion geuen the.
Duro imperio habitus, ouer roughly or cruelly handled.
Habitus magnæ authoritatis, greately estemed, or in great reputacion.
Habraham, is interpreted father of many dyuers people.
Hac, hyther: sometyme by this place, this way.
Ita nunc hac, an illac eam, sum incerta consilij, Now whether I maie goe this waie or that waie, I am vncertayne.
Hac non alia successit aggrediamur via, this way it cometh not to passe, leat vs nowe assaye an other facion.
Hac iter est, my iourneie lyeth this waie.
Hactenus, hytherto, so muche, to this tyme.
Sed hæc hactenus, but this much haue we spoken of the matter.
Hadramitani, people of Sicilie.
Hadria, æ, fœ. g. a citee of Italy on the sea syde, by the which the sea betwene Italye and Slauonie, was named Mare Hadriaticum.
Hádria, æ, m. ge. a bosome or gulfe of the sea, or the sea it selfe, called Hadriaticum.
Hadrianopolis, a citee of Thracia.
Hadriánus, a noble emperour, in all sciences excellently learned, he was after Christus incarnacion. 109. peres, and reigned. xxi peres.
Hadrobolum, li, n. g. a kynde of sweete smellyng gumme that groweth in Media.
Hebudes, are fiue yles beyonde Scotlande. ii. daies sayling.
Hedera, looke Hedera.
Hederátius, a, um, looke Hederatius.
Hædile, or Hœdile, lis, neu. g. a stable, wherin kidds be kepte.
Hædillus, li, m. g. a littell kidde.
Hædinus, a, um, of a kidde.
Hædina caro, kidds flesche.
Hædui, people of Fraunce, whiche bee now called Burgonions, and Burbonoises.
Hædulus, li, m. g. a littell kidde.
Hædus, or Hœdus, i, m. g. a kidde.
Hædi, be also certayne sterres.
Hæliolæ, a kinde of excellent grapes, of colour betwene purple and blacke.
Hæmogogon, the Pionie.
Hæmacátes, a stone of a bluddy colour.
Hæmanthinum vitrum, a kynde of glasse.
Hæmatites, æ, m. gen. the sanguinarie or blould stone, whiche beeyng rubbed, will bleede.
Hæmodes, an hyll of Lycia.
Hæmon, a Thebane.
Hæmonia, the countrete called Thessalia.
Hæmorrhagia, a disease muche lyke the Emoroides, but somewhat differing from it.
Hæmorrhoia, æ, f. g. idem quod Hæmorrhois.
Hæmorrhois, roidis, fœm. gen. a disease in the fundement, like teates or wartes, out of the whiche issueth bloude called Emoroides or piles. also a serpent, of whom if a man be stryken, he bleedeth to death.
Hæmus, looke Aemus.
Hærba, looke Herba.
Hærbaceus, a, um, looke Herbaceus.
Hærbarius, looke Herbarius.
Hærbesco, scere, looke Herbesco,
Hærbidus, a, um, & Hærbosus, a, um, looke Herbidus, & Herbosus.
Hæredíolum, dioli, neut. gene. a diminutiue of Hæredium.
Hæredípeta, dipetæ, m. g. a crauer of gooddes, flatteryng men to be their heyre.
Hæreditarius, a, um, pertepnyng to inheritance, or that cometh by inheritaunce.
Bona hæreditaria, gooddes whiche doo come by inheritaunce.
Hæreditarium nomen, compng by succession.
Hæréditas, átis, fœm. gen. inheritaunce or succession.
Hæreditas caduca, lande fallen by exchete to the lorde, of whom it is holden.
Hæreditatem adire, to take possession of his inheritaunce.
Hereditatem auertere, auferre, eripere, deторquere, To geat ones inheritaunce wrongfully from hym.
Hærédium, dij, n. ge. lande, wherin a man hath a state of inheritance, or rather a littell ferme, manour, or piece of grounde.
Hæreo, si, ére, to cleaue or sticke to a thyng. sometyme to doubte, to stoppe or bee at a staye, to styche in the dyers, whā one can not dispatche or rydde hym selfe of a busyneſſe.
Hæret in te omnis culpa, All the blame is put in the or all the blame is layed on thy necke, or resteth in the.
Perij, lingua hæret metu, Alas that euer I was borne, my tungue is tyed, or I can not speake for feare. likewise Vox faucibus hæret.
In complexu alicuius hærére, to hange vpon one imbracyng hym.
Hærére in equo, to syt on the horsebacke.
Pugnus in mala hæreat, Leat thy fyst lyghte on his cheke, or gene hym a bose on the eare.
Hærens in terga Romanus, The Romayne fouldiours purſuynge theym harde at thyr backes.

Sed illud nobis hæreat, But leat vs haue this alwaie in mynde.
Peccatum hæret in eo, the faute or blame reſteth in hym.
Hæret Gneo Pompeio, he cleaueth to Cneius Pompeius parte.
Hæret in ſalebra oratio, by tranſlacion whan one ſtoppeth and can go no further.
Hærere apud meretricem, to loue an harlotte ſo inordinately, that he can not bee out of hir company.
Vt hæream in aliqua parte apud illam, That I maie be an hanger on in one parte or other with hir.
Hærebat nebulo, The knaue was in doubte, and coulde not tell what to ſaie.
Hæret hæc res, this mattier is in a perplexitee, or ſtycketh in the briers.
Hæres, édis, com. ge. an heyre, or he that ſucceedeth one in his landes or goodes.
Hæredem ſcribere, to make one heyre by teſtament.
Hæredes ſecundi, heyres in remainder.
Hæredem inſtituere ex deunce, to make one heyre of a leuen partes of his gooddes.
Hæreſco, ſcere, to ſtycke faſte, or be thruſt in.
Hæreſiárches, an arche heretike.
Hæ'reſis, is, fœ. ge. a ſect, an hereſy, a fyrme opinion either in good or yll.
Hæréticus, ci, m. g. an heretike.
Hæſitátio, ônis, f. g. doubt.
Hæſitántia, æ, f. g. idem.
Hæſitantia linguæ, ſtuttyng.
Hæſitátor, ôris, m. ge. he that doubteth or wotteth not what to doo.
Hæ'ſito, aui, are, to ſtycke in, to doubt, to feare, to ſtagger.
Hæſitare lingua, to ſtammer or ſtutte.
Hæſitare inter lætitiã & metũ, to wauer, or to be in a mammeryng betwene gladneſſe & feare.
Hæſitare & cunctari.
✠ In eodem ludo hæſitas, prouerbially, thou art in the ſame daungier that I am, or thou art as muche troubled or wrapped in the briers as I am.
In eo maximé hæſitabat, he ſtucke moſte in this poincte.
Hagiógrapha, holy ſcripture.
Hagiographus, a writer of holy ſcripture.
Hagios, holy.
Hagnos, pure, cleane.
Halalcómene, or Halalcomenæ, a towne of Bœotia.
Halcyon græce, and (as Varro ſaieth) Halcedo latine, the daughter of Æoluus, and wife of Ceyx, whom ſhe beholdyng to be drowned, for ſorowe drowned hir ſelfe. wherefore the poetes write, that they were bothe tranſformed into byrdes, and called Halcyones, reade before in Alcyones, vede the deſcripcion of theis birdes. Plí. lib. 10. cap. 32.
Halcyóneum, ei, a certayne medicine, whiche is made of the neſtes of the birdes Halcyones.
Halcyóneus, a, um, of Halcyon.
Halcyonei dies, looke Alcyon.
Halec, halécis, n. & f. ge. a fyſſhe called an heryng. alſo a ſauce made of fyſſhe.
Halécula, æ, f. ge. a litteil hearyng, a pilcharde.
Hales achne, the herbe called Spuma ſalis.
Haléſina, a citee of Sicilie.
Haleſina regio, a countreie, wherin is a well, the water wherof beeyng alwaies quiet a playne, yf one ſtandyng by it doo plaie on a ſtaune, or other lyke pype, the water in the well will eyſe as it daunced, in ſo muche that at the laſt it wyll mounte and renne ouer the byrmes of the well: and the pype ceaſſyng, the water will fooryth with fall and become quiete.
Haleſus, a ryuer and hill not farre from Ætna.
Halia, a nymph of the ſea.
Haliacmon, a ryuer of Macedonie.
Haliæ'etus, a kynde of egles that haunteth about the ſea. It is taken of ſom for a faulcon, of ſome for a goſſehauke: but I take it to be rather that wee call an oſpreye, whiche birde, when he hoouereth ouer a fiſhe pon'e, all the fiſhe turneth vp their beleeſ: and he taketh his praye: and therfore is verie hurtfull to fiſhe poolis.
Hálica, looke Alica.
Halicácabus, an herbe called of the apothecaries Alkekengi, the frenche me name it Coqueret.
Halicallios, called alſo Dorion ſtrichnus, and erithros, an herbe holſome againſt all diſeaſes of the bodie, as Xenocrates affirmed.
Halicaſtrum, tri, neu. ge. a kynde of ſedge, vide Col. lib. 2. cap. 6.
Halicarnáſſus, a citee of Caria, whiche was ſometyme chiefe of all the countreie.
Haliéutica, orum, n. ge. bookes conteynyng the propertees of fyſſhes.
Halimon, mi, neu. gene. a thorne lyke to a white thorne, growyng by the ſea ſyde, and hath leaues lyke to an olyue tree, but they be broder. other deſcribe it thus, to be a ſhrubbe, apte to hedge with, ſomewhat lyke to the bremble, called Rhamnus, without prickles, hauyng a harde leafe, but ſomewhat broade, and groweth in hedges and places nere the ſea. of this herbe ſpeaketh Dioſco. lib. 1. Theophraſtus, lib. 4. & 7. de cauſis. Paulus lib. 1.
Halipleumon, a fyſſhe of the ſea.
Hálinon, ni, ople of Almons.
Haliphlæos, a tree, hauyng ſo bitter fruite, that no beaſt but ſwine will touche it.
Hálipleumon, a certayne fyſſhe.
Halito, aui, are, to vapour out, to ſende out a breathe.
Halituoſa, thoſe thynges, which may be auoided by the pores.
Hálitus, us, m. g. breathe or vapour.

Effare

Eſtare extremum halitum, to dye, to geue the laſte gaulpe.

Noxius terræ halitus, an vnholſome vapour that ryſeth out of the earthe.

Halius, liádos, fœm. gene. a certayne ſmall ſhip or bote.

Halizones, people of Paphlagonie, ſo called becauſe they are inuironed about with the ſea.

Hallucinor, áris, ari, to be in a dreame, to be deceyued, to erre, or to take a mattier wronge, to take one thing for an other. loke Allucinor.

Hallus, li, m. g. or Hallux, úcis, m. g. the great toe, whiche lyeth ouer the next toe.

Halmades, bee olyue bearies, condite in bryne, as Varrius affirmeth, who ſaieth, that Colymbades bee they, whiche doo ſwymme in theyr owne oyle, all be it (as he ſaieth) men doo confounde the one name with the other.

Halmas, the herbe Polygonon.

Halmyris, a kynde of colewoortes, criſpe and deintie to eate.

Halo, áui, áre, to ſende forth ſauour, to breath.

Halo, ônis, fœm. ge. a myſte, whiche ſometyme happeneth to bee about the moone, in maner of a rounde circle.

Halonesos, an yle in the ſea Ægeum, nere to Thracia.

Halophanta, or Holophanta, æ, m. g. a great liar.

Halosis, ſis, f. g. captiuitee.

Halter, eris, or Halterę, êris, a plummette or weight of leade, whiche daunceers on cordes do holde in theyr handes.

Halus, li, fœm. gener. an herbe called of ſome Colonea.

Halycarnaſus, looke Halicarnaſſus.

Halycus, looke Halyæcus.

Halys, a great ryuer of Paphlagonia.

Hama, æ, fœm. g. a great hooke vſed in citees to pull downe houſes in daunger of fyre.

Hamadryades, nymphes or fayries of the woodes.

Hamulus, le, pertaynyng to an hooke.

Piſcatus hamulis, fyſhyng with an hooke, or angling.

Hamatus, a, um, to bee furnyſhed with hookes.

Hamati munera, gyftes or preſentes that be geuen for aduauntage.

Hamax, æ, f. g. a planette called the vii. ſterres.

Hamaxampeus, parte of the ryuer Hypanis.

Hamaxobii, a people of Sarmatia, ſo called for their harde and rygged lyfe.

Hamilcar, looke Amilcar.

Hamiota, æ, m. g. an angler, or a fyſher with an angle or hooke.

Hamites, æ, ma gene. a precious ſtone lyke the ſeame of a fyſſhe.

Hammon, onis, m. g. Jupiter in the Egyptian tongue.

Hammonis cornu, a precious ſtone, of colour like golde made eſteemed in Aethiope.

Hammoniacum, and Hammonitrum, looke Ammoniacum.

Hamo, aui, are, to croke.

Hamonium, nij, maſcu. gener. a darke ruddy colour.

Hamotrahónes, fyſhers, or they that drawe the bodies of dead men with hookes.

Hámulus, li, m. g. a litell hooke. alſo a crooked inſtrument that ſurgions vſe.

Hamus, i, m. gene. a hooke. ſometyme a chayne. alſo a thynge made of yron, that ryche men ſet about theyr coffers. It is alſo an yron combe, wherwith they kembe flaxe or hempe.

✠ Semper ubi pendeat hamus, let thy hooke hange alwais, thou mayſt happe to haue ſomewhat: hope ſtill, for in ſpare cometh grace.

Hanapis, a ryuer of Scythia.

Hannibal, the ſonne of Hamilcar, the moſte noble and valiant capitayne of the Carthaginenſes, who making warre with the Romanes ryual peres, contended with them in proweſſe and policie, wynnyng from theim their dompnions in Spayne and Italye. Finally, beyng vanquiſhed by Scipio, he fled to Antiochus kynge of Aſia, afterwarde to Pruſias king of Bithynia, of whom vnder the colour of amitee, he was betrayed, and ſhoulde haue been deliuered to Flaminius, that tyme ambaſſadoure to Pruſias. But Hannibal perceyuyng it, chooſyng rather to dye, than to come into the handes of the Romayns, toke poyſon, whiche he kepte for that purpoſe, ſayyng, Leat vs delyuer the Romains from the care and feare, which they haue of vs, with a fewe mo wordes of indignacion, and ſo dyed, before he mought be delyuered. ſome write this name without, H.

Hanno, a noble man of Carthage, which perſuaded theim to make peace with the Romaines, but he could not be hearde.

Hanum, or Hanus barbatus, a veſſelle with a great bealy, wherin wine or water was wont to be brought to the table.

Haphe, es, fœm ge. a colour on the body, lyke to theim that be leprous. alſo the caſtyng of duſt on the wreſtlers, after they were annoynted with the ſwete oyle. Alſo the topgning of wreſtlers whan they meete togeither. Pollux taketh it for the fyrſt dyng of any thyng.

Hapſus, ſi, m. g. an handefull of woulle, or other lyke thynge.

Hara, æ, fœ. g. a ſwynes ſtye or cote. Alſo a place made for geeſe to ſytte abroode in.

Harena, vide ante in Arena.

Hariolátio, ônis, f. g. a ſoothſaiyng.

Hariólor, aris, ari, to diuine, geſſe, or tell thynges before.

Hariolus, li, m. g. a ſoothſaier.

Harma, a village in Beotia vnfrequented, called of theim a carte or chariotte, looke the prouerbe, Vbi per Harma fulgurauit.

Harmala, of ſome is taken for the ſede of rue.

Harmodius, and Ariſtogiton, two notable ci-ncens of Athens.

Harmodorus, a poete.
Harmónia, æ, f. g. harmonie or melody.
Harmónicus, a, um, pertepnyng to harmonie or melodie.
Harmonides, a Troiane carpenter, whiche made the shippes that brought Paris into Grece.
Harmosini, certayne magistrates in Sparta, which chastised the frowardnesse of women towarde theyr husbandes.
Harpaction, a kynde of brymstone.
Harpagium, the towne, where (as the Greekes feigne) Ganimedes was taken awaie.
Harpago, aui, are, to take by violence.
Harpágo, ônis, m. g. a grapple of a shippe. also a coupers instrument, wherewith he dyqueth on houpes, an addise. also a hooke or instrument, wherwith they take vp thynges fallen into welles or pyuers, a dragge.
Harpalice, a womans name, the daughter of Harpalus, kynge of Thrace, and queene of Amazones.
Harpalus, a traytour, whiche forsooke Alexander, and fledde to Athens.
Harpasa, a towne of Asia.
Harpastum, i, n. g. a facion of great balles lyke to a foote balle.
Harpax, âcis, m. g. a grapplyng yron for to claspe shippes togyther. Also a polle with an hooke on the ende, that shippe men vse.
Harpax, agis, ma. ge. idem quod Vertifillum, a wherue.
Harpe, es, f. g. a swerde lyke to a sythe, suche one as the poetes feigne Mercurie to cutte of Argus heade with all, and Perseus the head of Medusa.
Harpocrates, the god of silence.
Harpocratem reddere, to put one to silence.
Harpocratis meminisse, to kepe silence.
Harpyiæ, monstruous byrdes, haupnge maidens visages, and talons of a meruaylous rapacitee. wherefore menne that bee rauenous and great gatherers of gooddes, be named sometyme Harpyiæ.
Haruga, a sacrifice.
Haruspex, ícis, m. g. a diuinatour, or teller of thynges to come, by lookynge in beastes bowelles. Also he that obserueth tymes in doynge of thynges.
Haruspica, æ, the feminine of Haruspex.
Haruspicina, æ, f. g. the arte of hym that is a diuinatour.
Haruspicinus, a, um, pertepnyng to diuination.
Haruspicium, ij, n. g. the diuination or tellynge of thynges to come by lookynge in beastes bowelles.
Hasdrubal, a noble capitayne of Carthage.
Haspis, idis, the bowynge made lyke a circle in the roufes of houses, or of a wheele.
Hasta, æ, f. g. a speare: sometyme it is taken for open sale of gooddes, because a speare was pitched where suche sale was made.
Hastam abijcere, signifieth to leaue suite, to dispayre of the matter in variaunce, to mistrust his matter and geue ouer.
Hastæ puræ, were without yron, and in the olde tyme were geuen for a pryce to them that vanquished first in battayle.
Subire sub hasta, to be solde.
Hastárium, ij, selling vnder the standerde.
Hastátus, a, um, that vseth or beareth a speare.
Hastati milites, speare men in the fore front of the battayle.
Hásticus ludus, rennyng at the tilt with speares.
Hastile, lis, n. g. a speare staffe.
Hastula, æ, f. g. a litrell speare, a launcyn.
Hastula regia, an herbe called also Asphodelus, and Albucus, looke there.
Hau, an interiection of the minde being troubled.
Haud, in no wyse.
Haud abs re, not without a cause.
Et haud cõmodi est, it profiteth hym nothyng.
Haud consuetudine hoc facis, you were not wont to doo this.
Haud dubiè, without doubte.
Haud dudum, not longe sens.
Haud ferme inuenias, a man can scantly fynde.
Haud ita decet, it is not semely.
Haud mora, immediately, without delay, foorthwith.
Haud immerito, not without a cause.
Haud perinde, not so muche.
Haud stulte sapis, ye are no small foole.
Haud procul abfuit, it lacked but litell.
Haud secus, none other wyse.
Haud quaquè, no, not.
Haud inuitò, wyllyngly.
Haud nihil, some thyng.
Haurio, si, sui, rij, rire, to drawe or take out, to here, to see, to take a thynge gredily, to waste, to fatigate or make weery, to make empty, to consume, to endure or suffre, to drynke, to swallowe, to let out, as in woundynge to make one bleede.
Hausit cœlum, he began to take breath.
Hausit corda pauor, feare made theyr courages faynte.
Hausi dolorem acerbissimum, I tooke or conceyued verye great heuinesse.
Haurire supplicia, to suffer punishements or peynes.
Haurire artes, to learne good sciences.
Calamitatem haurire, to endure or suffer misserie and trouble.
Haurire cibos, to eate and swalowe downe meate gredily.
Flamma aut incendium multos hausit, The fyre consumed and deuoured many.
Auribus gaudium haurire, to heare glad and ioyfull tydynges.
Latus alicuius haurire, to geue one a great wounde in his syde.

Laude

Laudes haurire, to gette or wynne prayse.
Haurire lucem, to be borne.
Poculum haurire, to drynke vp.
Vt solidos hauriant tauros, That they coulde swalowe downe whole bulles.
Hauritorium, ij, neu. gene. a whele of a well, or a bucket, or any thing, wherby water is drawen out of a welle.
Haustrum, i, n. gen. a wheele of a well to drawe water with.
Haustus, us, masc. gen. a draught in drynkyng, a suppyng, a drawyng vp of water.
Haustum facere, to drynke.
Exiguis haustibus bibere, to drynke a litteli at ones.
Haustus, a, um, drawen, taken out, swalowed, drowned, supped, or drunke vp.
Haustæ mari naues, shippes sunken or drounded in the sea.

H ANTE E.

HEana, næ, fœm. g. a foundacion, also basyng of a shippe.
Heautontimorumenos, the name of one of the comedies of Terence, which is as muche to saie, as tourmentyng hym selfe.
Hebdomas, dómatis, or Hebdómada, æ, f. gen. a weke. also the noumbre of seuen in dayes, yeres, or other tyme.
Hebe, hebes, the daughter of Juno, who was butler to Jupiter before the raupshyng of Ganimédes, and she was called of the Paynims the goddesse of youthe.
Hebenouichon, the herbe called Capillus veneris.
Hébenus, i, fœ. gen. or Hébenum, i, neu. gen. a tree, wherof the woodde is blacke as geare within, & it beareth neyther leaues nor fruite, lyke Ebenus.
Hebeo, ui, ére, to bee dull.
Hebes, hebetis, om. gen. slowe, dulle.
Hebetiores aures, eares somewhat dulle of hearyng. Likewyse Oculi hebetes.
Hebes ac rudis.
Hébetem reddere aliquem, to make one slow, heavy, or dull to doe any thyng.
Gusta hebes, that is not quycke in taste.
Hebes atque pecus, as dull as a beast.
Dolor hebes, that greueth not sore.
Hebesco, scére, to waxe more dull or slowe.
Hebescit acies authoritatis, his authoritee decayeth for lacke of vse.
Hebetáno, ônis, f. g. a dullyng.
Oculorum hebetatio, the dulnes of the sight.
Hebetátrix, tricis, fœm. gen. that maketh dulshe or dull.
Hebetesco, seu Hebetasco, scere, belongeth properly to the eyes, to bee dull in syght. also as the edge of a knife is dull.
Hebeto, áui, áre, to make dull or blunte, some-tyme for Hebeo, to bee dull or saynt, as the stomake whan it is diseased.

Hebetúdo, tudinis, f. g. dulnesse or dullyshnesse.
Hebtónes, of men in olde tyme were called pynt sothes.
Hebræi, Jewes whiche came of Abraham.
Hebráicus, a, um, an hebrician, or of hebrue.
Hebron, a village by Hierusalem.
Hebrus, a ryuer in Thrace, into the whiche Orpheus head was caste: It is nowe called Mariza.
Hecale, the name of a verye poore woman.
Hecameda, the daughter of Tesinor, whiche was geuen to Hector for a gifte.
Hecate, a name of Diana, Juno, or Proserpina. It is also the name of the daughter of Perses, a woman of notable cruelnesse, whiche poysoned hir owne father. An other Hecate, was daughter to Perseus and Asteria.
Hecatombe, bes, fœ. g. a sacrifice, wherin were kylled an hundred beastes.
Hecatompilos, the thicke citee of Parthia, whiche had an hundred gates.
Hecatompolis, lis, fœ. ge. a countrey hauyng an hundred citees therin.
Hecatompus, pi, ma. gene. he that hath an hundred feete.
Hecaton, an hundred.
Hecatonchiros, ri, m. gen. he that hath an hundred handes.
Hecatontarchus, tarchi, masc. gene. a capitayn of an hundred men, a centurion, or petie capitayne.
Hécta, æ, fœm. gene. the perynge of a man and a litteli puffe, whiche ryseth in bread, whan it is bake. sometyme it signifieth a trifle, a thyng of no value.
Hic homo hectæ me facit, This man setteth nothyng by me, or estemeth me nothyng.
Héctice, es, or Héctica, æ, f. gen. the feuer that consumeth.
Hector, oris, the sonne of Priamus, the most noble and valiant of all the Troians.
Hecuba, the wyfe of Priamus kynge of Troie, daughter of Cysseus kynge of Thracia, a woman of noble courage and moste vnhappy fortune. For hauynge all hir soonnes & husbande slayne, hir fayre daughter Polyxena kylled vpon the graue of Achilles, hir other daughter Cassandra taken prisoner, beholdynge the noble citee of Troie bourned, hir selfe in captiuitee, hir youngest soonne Polydorus kylled: she finally waxed madde, and dyd byte and stryke all men that she met, wherfore she was called dogge, and at the last was hir selfe kylled with stones by the Grecches.
Hecubæ sepulchrum, a promontory of Thrace.
Hecyra, a mother in lawe, and the name of a comedie in Terence.
Hédera, æ, f. g. yuye.
Hederáceus, a, um, of or belongyng to yuy.

Hederalis herba, the herbe pute.
Hedériger, a, rum, that beareth pupe.
Hederósus, a, um, full of pupe.
Hedicrum, cri, n. g. a parfume of ſweete oyle, whiche maketh one to haue a pleaſaunte and fayre colour.
Hedioſmium, a mynte.
Hedioſmos, mi, m. g. an herbe called a mynte, or ſpereminte.
Hedonius, expence in volapteuous thynges.
Hedra, a ſeate, vnde cathedra.
Hedui, people in Fraunce, nowe called Burgonions, looke Hædui.
Hedypnois, in Plinie ſemeth to be dentdelyon, or prieſtrowne.
Hedyſmata, um, n. g. ſweete ſauces.
Hegeſias, a philoſophier of the ſecte called Cirenaica, who with his eloquence dyd ſo vehementlye ſet fooyth the incommodities of mans lyfe, that many, whiche hearde hym, kylled theym ſelfes.
Hegeſipile, the daughter of Olorus, kynge of Thrace
Hegeſippus, a ſtorie writer.
Hegeſiſtratus, one of Epheſus.
Hegeuinatia, a citee of Germanie called Gnitz.
Heheu, an interiection of ſorowe.
Hei, an interiection of ſorowyng or wailynge, ſometyme of erhortyng.
Hei mihi, alaſſe for me that euer I was borne.
Hélulo, aui, are, to waple cryng out.
Heibunion, nij, neut. gene. idem puod Dictamum.
Helciarius, ij, ma. ge. a ſhypman that drayeth thynges of great weyght into a ſhyppe with ropes, or one that drayeth the ſhyp to the ſhore, or from the ſhore.
Hélcium, ij, neu. gen. the harneys of carthorſes, wherby they drawe.
Helcýſma, átis, n. g. the refuſe or ſcomme of ſiluer after it is tryed out.
Helei, a famouſe people of Peloponeſus, whiche had the rule of the plaies called Olympici.
Hélena, æ, or Helene, es (the daughter of Iupiter and Leda, wyfe of Tindarus kynge of Lacedemonie) for hir wonderfull beautee, was twyſe rauiſched. Firſte at the age of nyne yeres by Theſeus: afterwarde by Paris the Troiane, than beyng wyfe vnto Menelaus, whiche was the onely occaſion of the tenne yeres ſiege, and fynall deſtruction of the moſt famouſe citee of Troye, with the deathe and loſſe of moſt noble princes, and of people innumerable. looke more in Troia.
Helenium, nij, n. g. an herbe commonly called Enula campana, in engliſhe Heirycampane.
Hélenus, a Troiane.
Heliades the daughters and the ſoonne of Nereꝛa, that is to ſaie Phaetuſa, Lampetia, and Lampetuſa, whiche lamented ſo muche the death of theyr brother Phaeton, that therwith they dyed, and were tranſformed (as poetes feigne) into trees, out of the whyche cometh the gumme called Electrum, in engliſhe ambre, wherof beades be made.
Helias, the prophet of Thelbis of the countrey of Arabie, a leuite of the tribe of Aaron. He dwelt in Galiad: for Thelbis was an habitacion dedicated vnto prieſtes: in the tyme of his byrth, his father Sobac dyd ſee in a viſion, that men apparailed in white dyd cal the childe, threwe hym into the fyre, and gaue to hym a flame of fyre to eate. The father reſpyted, went to Heruſalem, and ſhewed his viſion to the prieſtes: and he that gaue anſwere, ſayd vnto hym: beware thou diſcloſe it not. The declaracion of this childe ſhall bee lyght, and his worde a demonſtracion, and ſhall iudge Iſrael in the ſworde and fyre. This is that Elias, that brought fyre thyrſe out of heuen, and bare rayne in his tongue, and was taken vp into heauen in a fyry ſtorme. That whiche is wryten more of Elias in the Bible, maie be there redde.
Helice, a citee of Achaia, ſwalowed vppe of the ſea.
Helicon, a mountayne in Beotia, dedicate to the muſes.
Helicéres, and Helicæ, rynges and hoopes, that menne and woomen vſed to hange at theyr eares.
Heliocaminus, ini, m. g. a ſollar ſet in a ſunny place, where the heate of the ſunne may be receiued, whiche was vſed in the olde tyme.
Heliócopis, the name of a nymphe.
Heliochrýſos, an herbe, haupnge a yelowe floure, a marygolde, or rather that herbe, whiche is called Chryſanthemon.
Heliodorus, a famouſe Rhetorician of the Grekes.
Heliogabâlus, ſuppoſed to bee the baſtarde ſonne of Antonius Caracalla, emperoure of Rome, and (as Lampridius writeth in his lyfe) of Semiamitra: or as Egnatius writeth, of Scenodes, his coſen: he was made emperour after Macrinus, and Diadumenus, beyng but a bope of .xvi. yeres olde. He ſo muche exceaded in deteſtable lechery, and promoyned of vyle perſones, and rybaldes: that fynally he was hated of all men, and at laſte dragged and drawen thorough the citee of Rome, and throwen into the ryuer of Tiber. Albeit he was warned afore of aſtronomers, that he ſhoulde dye a violent death: and therfore had prouided ropes of ſylke (yf nede were) to hange hym ſelfe, ſwordes of golde to kylle hym ſelfe, ſtronge poyſons in Iacinctes and Emeraudes to poyſon hym ſelfe, yf he were inforced. Moreouer he made a verye hygh towre, haupnge the flooꝛe of boordes heuered with plaates of golde, and bordered with preciouſe ſtones, from the whiche, he would throwe hym ſelfe ſelfe downe, whan he were pourſewed. But all this notynge auayled, for he was ſlayne by knaues. More of hym maye you reade in the lyfe of Alexander Seuerus, which I dyd tranſlate into Engliſhe, and called it the ymage of gouernance.

Helophyton, ti, n. g. the herbe ſmilax.

Helopos, pi, maſcu. gene. the herbe Helitropium magnum.

Heliotacte, es, f. g. idem quod ebulus.

Heliopolis, a citee in Grecia, called alſo Corhinthus. An other in Egypte, an other in Sicile, where Chryſippus was borne.

Helioſcoptum, a littel tree lyke a fygge tree, with leaues lyke a plane, but greatter and blacker. After Plinie it is a kynde of ſpurge, haupnge leaues lyke pourſelane, wherin culuers greatly delite.

Helioſchinum, ni, n. g. an herbe lyke to ſmallage, whiche groweth in watry groundes, and hath but one leafe. Plin. li. 19 cap. 8. but ſome thinke it to be ſmallage it ſelfe.

Helioſcopium, called alſo Herba ſolaris, becauſe the flower of it turneth awaye with the ſonne, both at his riſynge and goynge downe: yet although the day be cloudie. Plin. & Var.

Helis, lyke Elis.

Heliſæus, the prophete of Abelmuth, of the lande of Rubim: whan he was borne in Galgalis, the towe of golde in Delom cryed ſo loude, that he was heard at Hieruſalem. Ano the prieſt ſayed, that it ſignified, that a prophete was borne that daye, whiche ſhoulde diſſolue and breake in peces, images heried and caſt of metrall. Was by meruailes almighty god ſhewed by hym, whiche ye maye reade in the Bible.

Helius, a mans name. alſo the ſonne.

Helitis, a certayne kynd of the oſſall or flower of braſſe, when it is molten. Dioſc.

Helix, icis, f. ge. of ſome is taken for a kynde of wyllowe tree, of ſome for Iuie.

Hellanodices, cæ, m. ge. the iudge in any game or contencion.

Hellas, adis, a riuer & countreie of Acaia: Greece was ſo called of Hellen, Deucalions ſonne.

Helle, the daughter of Athamas kynge of Thebans, whiche was dzowned with hir brother Phrixus in the ſea by Byzance.

Helleboroſus, a, um, he that hath receyued or taken to muche of the herbe called Helleborum.

Helleborum, i, n ge. or Helleborus, i, m. gen. an herbe, the roote wherof pourgeth melancolye. looke in Elleborus Helleborus albus, neſyng pouder.

Helleborus niger, ſette wozte.

Helleborum edere, is a prouerbe ſpoken to men, which are verie melancolye, or ber wylde brayned.

Hellen, the ſon of Deucalion, of whom the Gretes were named Hellenes.

Helleſpontus, is the fyrſt part of the ſea, whiche dimideth Europa from Aſia, and is in breadth but. vii. furlonges, whiche lacketh one furlonge of a myle. It is nowe called Brachium ſancti Georgij.

Helminthobotane, the herbe Abrotonon, good to kill wormes.

Heloi, in hebrue ſignifieth god almyghty.

Helops, opis, maſc. gen. a certayne fyſhe, idem quod Accipenſer.

Helorus, a ryuer in Sicile. alſo the ſonne of the ryuer Iſter, ſlayne by Iaſ.

Heluari, rauenous eaters.

Heluatia, æ, f. g. a garment, whiche was vſed in Lydia, and was of the colour of a cowes hyde.

Heluatio, ônis, fœ. g. gourmandyſynge or tyrannous rauyng.

Heluellæ, arum, f. g. ſmall wooztes or herbes.

Heluéolus, looke Heluolus.

Heluetij, people called Swiſſers, or Dutches, by deſpyte of warres, enemies to all mankynd, ſubiectes neyther to god nor to prince, as redie for money, to ſerue as well Turkes as chriſtian princes.

Heluo, ônis, m. gen he that in eatyng and drynkyng, ſpendeth all his ſubſtaunce, a ruffian, ſometyme a glutton only.

Heluo librorũ, an inſaciable reader of bokes.

Heluo patriæ, a vicious perſone, that deuoureth the common treaſure, and deſtroieth his countreie.

Heluor, ãris, ãri, to eate rauenouſely, to rauen, to deuoure, to conſume.

Gurges, atque heluo.

Heluolum vinum, claret wyne.

Heluus color, betweene red and white, like the colour of clothe, called frenche taunye.

Heluolus, a, um, A diectiuum, of that colour.

Heluolæ vuæ, grapes of that colour.

Helxine, xines, f. ge an herbe called pelitorye of the wall. alſo the woode called withwind.

Helymus, and Panopes, the companyons of Eneſta kyng of Sicile.

Hem, an interiection of blamyng, diſdeignyng, meruaylyng, or ſhewyng, exclamation or tryſtyng to.

Hem ſerua, howe take heede.

Hem, for Ecce, as,

Hem libero, loe, I deliuer the.

Hem Danum tibi, Se ponder is Danus.

Hem, is vſed alſo in pitying, as can Chryſis? hem. Is Chryſis dead in deede? alaſſe for pitie. Alſo in aunſwerynge: as,

Hem, quid eſt? howe what is the mattier?

Hem Simo, Oh maiſter Simo.

Hem, in reioyeyng, and ſignifieth, heydate, or ſome ſuche lyke thyng.

Hem aſtutias, Oh ſubtyll deuyſe, Ironicè.

Hemereſios, that dureth but one day. alſo a table, whiche Pamphilus, Apelles maiſter, peinted in one daie.

Hemeridion, whiche dureth but one daie.

Hémeris, a kynde of trees, whiche beareth maste.
Hemerobius, one dates sustinaūce. Also a wo3me o3 flie, whiche lyueth but one date.
Hemerocalles, lilium syluestre. Diosc. li. 3.
Hemerodromus, i, m. gene. a courrour, which renneth many myles in one date.
Hemicadia, vesselles called a tperce, halfe an hog3 gces heade.
Hemichōrium, rij, n. g. halfe a daunce.
Hemicrānea, æ, fœ. g. a peyne in halfe the heade called the migrim.
Hemicrānicus, i, mascu. gene. he that hath the migrim.
Hemicyclus, i, mas. gene. a compasse chapie, o3 halfe a circle.
Hemidrachmium, mij, neu. gene. idem quod Triobulum.
Hemina, heminæ, f. g. a measure, which is halfe Sextarius, tenne ounces of measure, which lacketh. ii. ounces of our halfe pynt, and conteyneth in weyght of oyle. ix. ounces, of wine. x. ounces, and of hony xv. ounces.
Hemina, idem quod Cotyla, lohe there.
Heminarius, a, um, that is of the measure called Hemina.
Hemipléxia, idem quod Paralisis, pause in halfe the bodye.
Hemineron, a kynde of saulte fishe, called also Pelles, & saperda Cosacinus.
Hemionos, Mandragora magice.
Hemiola, læ, f. g. gayne of all and halfe as muche, As pf of. iiii. s be gotten. vi. s.
Hemiolus, li, m. g. a proporcion in arithmetike, conteynyng the whole numbre and halfe that numbre, as. iii. to. i. xv. to x.
Hemiónium, ij, n. ge. o3 Hemionitus, nitidos, fœ. ge. the herbe, whiche is commonly called Hartes tunge, as Leonicenus supposeth, it is good agaynst all peces.
Hemis, halfe.
Hemisphérium, ij, n. g. halfe the compasse of the visible heauen o3 firmament, halfe a circle.
Hemistichium, ij, n. g. halfe a verse.
Hemitogium, gij, n. g. halfe a gowne.
Hemitritæus, an halfe tercian feuer, whose cours is euery. xxvi. houres, o3 which hath the course of a tercian.
Hemitrichon, a kynd of salte fishe.
Hemodes, certayne pies in the douche sea.
Hemorrhois, lohe Emorrhois.
Hemus, a great mountayne in Thrace, nyghe to the sea Propontis, whiche is syxe myles in height.
Hendecasyllabus, a verse of. xi. syllables.
Hendiadys, lohe Endiadys.
Henetia, was sometyme vsed for Venetia.
Heniochi, lohe Enyochi
Hénula, æ, f. g. a lyttell chapell.
Heo, an interiection, hoe in callyng one.
Hepar, hépatis, n gen. latine dicitur lecur, the lyuer. also a certayne fysshe.
Hepatárius, a, um, pertenyng to the lyuer.
Hepática, an herbe called Lyuerwoo3t, reade after in Lichen.
Hepáticus, a, um, of the lyuer, o3 that is disseased in the lyuer.
Hepatites, a pzecioule stone of the figure of the lyuer.
Hepatitis the herbe called Eupatorie.
Hephestites, æ, m. g. a stone, which representh ymagenas, a myzrour o3 glasse dooeth.
Hepiolus, li, m. g. a flye lyke a butterflye, whiche flieth at nyght into the leame of a candell.
Hepsema, muste boyled to the thyzde parte.
Hepta, seuen.
Heptagoniæ, the name of a place.
Heptapâchys, the measure of. vii. cubites.
Heptaphillon, an herbe called tozmentyll.
Heptaphônes, a certayne hauen, o3 rather a dalkyng place, o3 place of exercise at Olympia, of that seuen voyces.
Heptaphleuron, ri, n. g. an herbe called Plātayn.
Heptápolis, lis, was sometyme the name of Aegypte, by reason of seuen cities that were fyld in it.
Heptáporus, a pyner by Trope.
Heptápylos, that hath seuen gates.
Heptemimeres, where a syllable naturally long is made longe in a verse, whiche dooeth happen in the begynnyng of the fyrst foote.
Heptéres, a galley hauyng seuen rewes of oors.
Hera, ræ, fœ. g. the name of Juno. It is also the maistresse of a famyle o3 housholde. It is also an herbe called Clarie.
Heraclea, a towne in the confines of Europe, an other in Italy, an other in Sicile, an other of Ponte, called nowe Naxio pontus. It is also a cittee of Lydia, wherof the touche stone is called Heraclius lapis.
Heracleon, o3 Heraclion, an herbe lyke to Origanum, It groweth in watepe places, and hath a flower lyke a lyly, and whan the flower is fallen, it hath an head lyke a poppe. It is also an other herbe growyng in plaisshes, hauyng a lyttell stalke, whiche exceedeth not foure fyngers hygh, hauynge a red flower and leaues lyke Coziander. This herbe healeth all woundes, yf it be layd vnto them. Heracleon, is the stone Magnes.
Heracleo, a notable theefe o3 robber.
Heracleótici, a kynde of crabbe fish.
Heracleon, a grammarian of Egypte, which wrote commentaries on Homere and other.
Heracleopolis, the name of three cittes, one in Egypte, an other not farre from Pelusium, the thyzde not farre from the mouth of Nilus.
Heracleotes, æ, one of Heraclea.
Heracleoticus, & Heraclius, a, um, of Heraclea Heracleotica nux, a walnutte.
Heraclius lapis, the lode stone, & also the touche stone. It is vsed prouerbially for one that hath a fyne witte, and an exacte iudgement.

Hera-

Heracleus, the name of dyuers emperours.
Heráclia, æ, f. g. a kynde of the water lyly, called Nenuphar, hauyng a whyte flower.
Heraclides, the name of a philosopher of Pontus, a sophister of Licia, a grammarian of Sicile, and of a famous peincter of Macedonie.
Heráclitus, a philosophier, which alwaies wepte whan he beheld the people, consideryng how busy they were to gather treasure, and how negligent in the well bryngyng vp of theyr chyldren. His warkes of a purpose were obscure and harde to be vnderstande. An other of that name was an excellent renner.
Herba, æ, fœm. gen. an herbe. also generally all thynge that groweth on the earth, not beynge woodde. sometyme a weede. sometyme grasse.
Proiectus in viridi herba, laied alonge in the greene grasse.
Herbam dare, aut porrigere, where a man yeldeth him, or confesseth him to be vanquished.
Seges in herba est, the corne is bladed or new shot vp aboue the grounde.
Herba paralysis, the smalle dapsle.
Ars herbaria, the knowlage of the simples.
Herbáceus, a, um, of herbes or grasse, that groweth or springeth vp lyke an herbe.
Herbáre, to bryng forth herbes.
Herbárius, and Herbaria, he or she that dooeth gather herbes for phisitions. also he which knoweth the propreties of herbes, and maketh medicines of theim.
Herbárius, a, um, perteinyng to herbes.
Herbásco, or Herbésco, scere, to make herbes or weedes to growe, or ware into an herbe.
Herbidus, a, um, full of herbes or grasse.
Herbidus color, the colour of herbes, greene.
Herbifer, ra, um, that beareth or bryngeth forth herbes or grasse.
Herbigrada, æ, fœm. gen. a snayle that goeth on the grasse.
Herbilis, le, that belongeth to herbes, or that is fedde with herbes or grasse.
Herbilis anser, a grased goose.
Herbósus, a, um, full of herbes or grasse.
Herbin, a citee of Sicile, called Saincte Nicolaus.
Hérbula, æ, f. g. a little herbe.
Herbulum, the herbe Erigeron.
Hercæus, a, um, one of the surnames of Jupiter
Hercinia, a great woodde in Germanie, the which is in bredth nyne dayes iournèye, and in length sixty daies iournèye, as Cesar writeth. Pomponius Mela affirmeth it to be sixty dayes iourney in length.
Hercisceor, sceris, sci, or Ercisceor, sci, to make partition betwene coheyres, and to assigne to eche of theym theyr portion. Thereof cometh Familiæ herciscundæ, a tittle in the digestes of the lawe ciuile. looke Ercisceor.
Hercle, or Herculè, a woorde vsed to ornate a sentence in maner of an othe, as god helpe me, truly, in faythe, Meâ quidem herclè certè in dubio vita est, Without doubte my lyfe is in daunger in deede.

Herculanium, a towne of Campaine.
Herculânus, or Herculeus, a, um, of Hercules.
Herculanus morbus, the falling sickenesse.
Herculanus nodus, a certayne knotte harde to bee vndooen, whereby a subtyll question or sillogisme maie be signyfyed. Festus Pompeius writeth, that in olde tyme the custome was, that whan the newe maried byride went to bed, she shoulde be gyrte with a woollen gyrdell, knyt with Hercules knot, whiche the housbande for good luche shoulde vndooe in the bedde, that he myghte bee fortunate in getting of childzen. For Hercules is reported to haue. 72. soonnes, and one daughter, as Aristotle writeth De natura animalium, lib. 7. cap. 6.
Herculeana pars, & Herculeus quæstus, It was the custome of men in olde tyme, to auowe the tenth part of theyr goodes vnto Hercules, and that tenth part was called Herculeana pars.
Herculea, an herbe commonly called Millium solis, of Dioscorides, Lithospermon.
Herculeè, valiantly, myghtyly, strongely, lyke Hercules.
Herculeius, a Romaine, whiche fauoured the parte of Marius.
Hercules, seemeth to bee a generall name gyuen to men excellyng in strengthe, all other of their tyme. Cicero De natura deorum, writeth, that amongest auncient writers were founde sixe Hercules. Varro affirmeth, there were thre and forty. Finally there is no notable mention made but of two, the one called Hercules Aegyptius, or Libycus, whiche is supposed to bee Osyris, of whom is written hereafter. The other (long after hym) was sonne of Jupiter & Alcmena, called Alcides by his proper name. And for his incomparable strengthe and labours (taken for the common profit of mankynde) he was named also Hercules. All be it Berosus affirmeth Hercules to bee the sonne of Osyris, and kynge of Aegypte, and was called Hercules Libyus, because he conquered Libya. Saynct Hierome on the tenthe chapiter of Genesis writeth, that this Hercules perfourmed the twelue notable labours, which poetes write of, and not Alcides, soonne of Alcmena. The fyrst labour (as Diodorus writeth) was the sleayng of a lyon in the woodde Nemea, that farre exceded all other lyons in greatnesse, whiche moughte not be slayne with mettall, nor stone, wherfore he was constreigned to slea hym with his handes. The seconde labour was the kyllyng of Hydra the monster, in the kennes of Lerna, whiche had a hundred neckes with serpentine heades. And whan one was stryken of, there dyd aryse eyghtesoones two other heades. The thyrd labour was the taking of the great wylde boze of Erimanthus, whiche wasted the countrest of Arcadia, and all people dzadde him. But fynally Hercules tooke hym a lyue, and bearynge hym on his shoulders, brought hym vnto kynge Euristheus. The fourthe laboure was the battayle, whiche he had alone with the great noumbze of men called Centauri, that were of great strength, and swifte as hozses. All theym he slewe, whan they assaulted hym. The fyfth was the takynge of the great harte in rennynge, whiche foz his swiftenesse had his hoznes gylted. The sixte was the destruction of the bzydes Stymphalides, whiche consumed the frutes and grayne of the countreies adioygnynge. The seuenthe was the makynge cleane of the halle of Augeus, beynge full of dounge, the whiche Hercules perfourmed by wysedome, bzyngynge the ryuer Pygnio throughe out the hall. Which by the swyfte course of the streame in one daye, caryed awaye the doung, without any reprothe vnto Hercules. The eyghe was the bzyngynge of a bull from Creta into Grece, drawynge hym alonge the sea. The nynth was the takynge of Diomedes kynge of Thracia, and castynge hym to his hozses, who feedynge theim with mannes flesshe, was hym selfe of them deuoured. And after Hercules breakynge those wylde hozses, and makynge theim gentyll, bzoughte theym to Euristheus. The tenth labour was his voiage into Spayne, and sleayng of Gerion and his soones, and takynge the great kyne, whiche he gaue to a kyng in that countrey, who continually after warde, dyd perely offer in sacrifice, to the honour of Hercules, one of the bulles, that came of those kyne. The eleuenth, was his goeyng into hell, and fetchynge thens Theseus and Perithous, and bzyngynge with him in a chayne Cerberus, the dogge of hell, haupnge three heades. The twelfth and last labour was the taking of the golden appulles, out of the gardeins Hesperides, & sleaynge the terrible dzagon, whiche continually watchyng kepte those appulles, which were called golden foz the beautee of theim. Some saie they were sheepe, whose fleeces were of the coloure of golde, and the dzagon signifieth the diligence and strength of the shepeherde, whiche kepte theim. These were the twelue labours of Hercules, wher of grewe this prouerbe, ↛ Herculei labores, where the labours doo seme impossible to be atchieued.

↛ Herculis cothurnos, was vsed foz a prouerbe, wherein a thyng of little importaunce was set foorthe with great eloquence oz other thynge, solemne, more apte foz a greatter mattier. as one shoulde put Hercules hosen on a chyldes legges. Wherwith accozded the saiynge of the wyse kyng Agesilaus, whan one commended to hym a Rhetozician, which by his crafty eloquence made trifles and small thynges to seme great. The kyng answered, That fowler deserueth no praise, which putteth a great shoe on a verale ipttel foote, meanyng thereby, that the woozdes shuld as well accozde with the mattier, as the garmente with the persone. This is so common a vyce nowe a dayes amonge studentes of eloquence, that in wzityng and speakynge, they seeme to pzepare the hose befoze they knowe the measure of the legge, whereon they wyll put it.

Hercules Gallus, as Lucianus wryteth, was in the olde tyme in Fraunce, an Image made lyke an olde man, with a balde head, and wzinkte, his heare verie whyte, the skynne of his face cruelled, and as it were bourned with the soonne, wearynge on him a lyons skynne, and bearyng in his ryght hande a great clubbe, in his lefte hande a bowe, a quiuer at his backe, drawynge after hym a multitude of people, tyed by theyr eares, with a litteli chayne wrought with aumbze and golde, but they were so easily tyed, that laughyng and with good cheere they wyllyngely folowed, and as it seemed, would not bee louse: and the other ende of the chayne was tyed at Hercules tungue, who looked towardes theym with a laughyng countenance. This ymage signified eloquence, whiche foz the puissaunce thereof, resembled rather Hercules than Mercurie. And his age betokened, that foz the most parte eloquence is substantiall and vehemente. That Hercules, oz rather eloquence dzaweth men by the eares tyed to his tounge, signifieth the affinitee betwene the tounge and the eare: and theyr glad and voluntary listwyng, signifieth with what delectation eloquence dzaweth men vnto hir persuasions and exhoztations.

Herculis genitura, the herbe called myrtus sylwestris.

Herculis sanguis, id est, crocus.

Herculis farina, id est, Irion.

Herculis portus, a citee of the Massilians, called nowe Villa Franca.

Herculis turris, a citee of Cyrene called Zuyra.

Herculeus, a, um, puissant oz myghtie.

Herculeus morbus, the fallynge sickenesse.

Hercynia, looke Hercinia.

Here, foz heri, yesterday.

Herebus, the deepest place in Helle. Looke Erebus.

Heri, yesterday.

Hericius, ij, m. g. an yzchyn oz hedgehogge.

Herilis, le, pertaynynge to the lozde oz master.

Herilis filius, foz Filius heri.

Herifuga, æ, m. g. one that renneth awaie from his master.

Herillus, a philosophier of Calcedonie, the scholar of Zeno, whiche put the chiefe goodnesse in science and knowlage.

Herenaceus, cei, and Herix, icis, mas. gen. an hedgehogge.

Herlinus, one of the Centaures.

Herma, æ, m. g. an ymage of Mercurius. It is taken also foz a firmamente oz establyshynge.

sometyme

sometyme the balaste of a shyppe. It is also an ymage, the head whereof may be chaunged.

Herma, be also ymages sette or layde on sepulchres.

Hermæa, after Ptholomee, the vttermoste citee of the iesse Assyne. After Mela, a promontory of Mercurie, called Cabo de Nubia.

Hermaphroditus, the soonne of Mercurie and Venus. Also he that is bothe man and woman.

Hermagoras, a famous rhetoryan of Sofia.

Hermathena, was twoo ymages togyther of Mercurie and Minerua.

Hermeas, a famous capitayne vnder Antiochus magnus.

Hermenij, a people by Colchos.

Hermerótes, tum, small ymages, properly of litle chyldren with wynges.

Hermes, mis, or metis, Mercurie.

Hermes trimegistus, the name of a famous philosopher of Egypte.

Hermæsi, a confection made by the Persians with hony, myrhe, saffron, the wyne or iuyce of dates, the kernelles of pyne appuls, whiche beyng taken of a man with myrhe, and of women after they be conceiued, shall bryng forth children in personage and witte very excellent. Democritus writeth of a hyne medicine, by the whiche chyldren, faire, good, and fortunate, shall be begotten.

Hermiona, a towne of Greee.

Hermione, the daughter of Menelaus and Helene, beyng a chylde, was by Tindarus, the father of Menelaus, in his absence affiaunced to Orestes, the soonne of Agamemnon. but afterwarde she was maryed by hir father vnto Pyrrhus, soonne of Achilles, whome Orestes dydde slea, wedded Hermione, and had by hir three soonnes, Tessamenes, Corinthus, and Orestes, the younger. There was an other, Hermione, daughter of Mars & Venus, and wyfe of Cadmus, whome the poetes fayned to bee (with hir husbande) tourned into a serpent.

Hermiones, people in the vttermost borders of Germany, called nowe Pomerani.

Hermippus, a poete of Athenes. also a philosopher in the tyme of Adrian.

Hermocrates, a famouse sophister vnder the emperour Seuerus.

Hermodactylus, li, m. g. is supposed to be that, which of Aetius and Paulus is called Ephemeron. Actuarius maketh mention of two kyndes called Hermodactyli, which are as muche to saie, as Mercury digiti, in englyshe Mercuries fyngers, for the similitude that they haue with fyngers, wherof the one is white, the other redde: Whiche Ruellius supposeth to bee that, whiche the Arabians call Been rubeum, and Been album.

Hermodorus, a philosopher of Ephesie, whiche caused the .xii. tables to be made. Also a philosopher of Sicile, the scholar of Plato.

Hermogenes, the proper name of a famouse Rhetorician.

Hermóglyphus, phi, m. g. a grauer of ymages.

Hermolaus, a grammarian of Constantinople. an other of the same name conspired agaynste Alexander.

Hermon, a litteli hyll that standeth on Jordan.

Hermópolis, the name of a citee that Hercules buylded.

Hermopolium, a place where ymages were set out to sell.

Hermupoa, an herbe called Mercurie.

Hermupotanion, idem.

Hermus, a ryuer, which in the middes parteth the fieldes of Smirne, and falleth from the hyll Dorylio, and deuideth Phrygia from Caria, wherein Virgile supposed to be golden sande.

Hérnia, æ, fœ. gen. the disease, whereof men bee called bursten, for that theyr bowels or other matter is fallen into theyr coddes.

Hernici, people of Campania.

Hernion, nij, n. g. the herbe Eringion.

Hernioſus, a, um, he that is bursten.

Herodes, the soonne of Antipater, whiche in the tenth yere of Augustus, was of the Romaynes declared kynge of the Jewes: and he reygned. 37. yeres. Of that name were dyuers other kinges, of whom Iosephus writeth abundauntly.

Herodianus, a noble historiane, whych in Greeke wrote most eloquently and truly the liues of the emperours, from Marcus philosophus, to Gordianus the ponger, whyche boke is moste eloquently translated into latyne, by Angelus Politianus.

Herodius, a birde named a faulkon. Theodorus calleth it Ardeola, sancte Augustine Fulica: Suidas Ciconia.

Heródotus, was a noble historian, borne in the citee of Halycarnassus in Asia. He wrote moste eloquently a general historye of the actes doone in Europa, and Asia, by the space of. CC. and xl. yeres, vntyll the warres among the greekes, called Bellum Peloponeiacum, which Thucidides, with an equall style wrate and perfourmed. He flourysshed before the incarnation of Christe, two hundred yeres.

Heroicus, a, um, noble or pertaynynge to nobleneſſe.

Heroica ætas, a tyme wherin are many noble men.

Heroicæ personæ, noble personages.

Hérois, róidis, fœ. g. a noble woman. Heroina, æ, idem.

Heron, an oratoure of Athenes.

Heros, herois, an halfe god, or he whiche for the loue of vertue, sustaynyeth great labours and perylles. also he that excelleth in any faculties or science.

Herostratus, a poore folyshe man, who to haue a perpetuall fame, bourned the moste famouse temple

trmple of Diana at Epheſus, & after detected him ſelfe, and was put to deathe.

Herpacantha, idem quod acanitha.

Herpes, a ſore riſyng of to muche aboundance of Melancholie. alſo a certaine beaſte. Pli. li. 30.

Herpetta, or hérpeta, a tetter.

Herſilia, the wyfe of Romulus the fyrſt kynge of Romaynes.

Herus, i, m. g. a lorde or maiſter.

Heſichius, a learned man in the tyme of Anaſtaſius the Emperour, whiche wrate an hiſtorie, as well of the Romayne emperours, as of other nations.

Heſione, was daughter of Laomedon kynge of Trope, and ſiſter to Pyramus, whom Hercules at the fyrſte deſtruction of Troie gaue in marrage to Thelamon, a noble prince of the Grecians.

Heſiodus, an auncient porte of the Greekes, whiche fyrſt wrate of huſbandry, whom Virgile folowed in his georgikes.

Heſperia, Italy.

Heſperia vltima, Spayne.

Heſperides, the three daughters of Atlas, whiche kepte the gardens, wherein greewe the golden appulls, that were taken awaie by Hercules.

Heſperidum horti, the gardens, wherein were the golden appuls nowe called orenges.

Héſperis, ris, f. g. an herbe, whiche ſmelleth more in the nyght than in the daie tyme.

Héſperum, a promontory in Afrike.

Heſperus, i, m. g. the weſte ſterre, that foloweth the ſonne goyng downe, the euenyng ſterre.

Heſſeni, people of Paleſtine, which would neuer eate pigeons.

Heſtérnus, a, um, of yeſterdaies, or of the daie before.

Heſterna potatione hæſitantes, yanyng and gaping of the reuel that they kept the day before.

Heſtiæa, is a parte of Theſſaly, ſaieth Strabo and Ptholomee, and in Homere it is a towne of Euboea, Stephanus ſaith, it is a citee in Acarnania.

Heteróclíton, ti, n. g. that is excepted out of the common maner of declinyng or varyng, Heterocranea, neæ, f. g. a diſeaſe in the head, whan it aketh and ſwelleth, and hath litell rounde puſhes and ſores ryſyng in it.

Heterogenius, a, um, of an other kynde.

Heteromaſchala, and Heteromalla, orum, n. g. garmentes that be friſed onely on one ſyde. It is ſometyme taken for velues.

Heterónimon, that hath an other name.

Hetruria, the countrete of Tuſcane, wherin is the citee of Florence.

Hethburgum, gi, Edenbrough in in Scotland.

Hetruſcus, a, um, of the cuntrey called Hetruria.

Hetruſca diſciplina, a certayn doctryne taught in Tuſcan, concernyng the interpretacion of tyghtnynges, tokens in the firmamente, and thynges monſtrous, whiche was of ſuche eſtimation among the auncient Romayns, that was decreed by an ordinaunce of the Senate, that into fyre partes of that countrey, ſhould be ſente fyre ſoonnes of noble men, to learne that arte.

Heu, alas, it is conſtrued with a nominatyue, a datyue, and an accuſatyue caſe.

Heu mihi, alas that euer I was borne.

Heus, an aduerb of calling. ſomtyme of ſorowing

Hexaclínum, clini, n. g. a parlour, wherein ſix perſones maie ſuppe, or rather a place, where be. vi. ſupppnge beddes, as they vſed in olde tyme.

Hexagónum, ni, n. g. fyre cornerde.

Hexámeron, of fyre daies.

Hexámeter, i, m. g. a verſe of .vi. fete.

Hexapeda, a meaſure called a fathom.

Hexáphorum, i, n. g. a litter or chayre to be born by fyre men.

Hexaplum, uel Hexapla, an example.

Hexáſticum, i, n. g. a kynde of barleye, the eare wherof hath .vi. rewes of corne. alſo .vi. verſes togyther.

Hexecontálithos, thi, n. g. a little pretious ſtone, whiche hath dyuers colours.

Hexéres, ſhyppes with fyre orders of ores, as haue nyne fyre ores in one ſeate.

H ANTE I.

HYacinthus, the herbe Delphinion.

Hians, ántis, om. g. gappnge, openyng, chappyng, deſyryng or lokyng gredyly for a thyng.

Hians oratio, a ſtyle that is not well compacte but by reaſon of meetyng of vowels togyther, ſoundeth vnpleaſantly.

Hiarbas, the ſonne of Jupiter, which was kyng of the Getulyans, and made warre againſt Dido queene of Carthage.

Hiáſco, ſcére, to gape, to open by hym ſelfe, or ſpreade as flowers doen.

Hiato, aui, are, to gape, to open.

Hiatula, looke Chamæ.

Hiátus, tus, m. gen. a gappng or openynge of the mouthe.

Hiatus terræ, the gappng or chynkynge of the grounde.

Hiberia, and Hiberus, looke Iberia.

Hibericum, ci, n. g. an herbe, whiche (as Dioſcorides ſaieth) is called of ſome Androſæmõ, of ſome corion: ſe his deſcription apud Dioſcoridem lib. 3. cap. 146.

Hiberis, looke Iberis.

Hibernia, the yle called Irelande. Betwene England and Spaine in the Ocean ſea, on the eaſt it hath England with in one daies ſailyng: on the ſouth it hath France: Spaine on the weſt diſtant three daies ſailyng: on the northe the maine ocean ſea. it is not farre from Scotlande.

Hibiſcus, ſci. m. g. and Hibiſcum, ſci, n. g. an herbe herbe, whiche Galenus calleth wylde malowe. It is also called Althea, Marthe malow, or wa-ter malowe. Ruellius saith, that it is the same that the apothecaries cal Bismalua, or Malua-viscus, whiche is the double malowe: it is na-med the marsh malow. But Virgile in Alexi, semeth to take it for a kynde of bulle rusches, or ponge stootes or twygges.

Hibla, loohe Hybla,

Hibris, hibridis, a wylde hogge, engendred be-twene a wylde boze and a tame sowe.

Hic, hæc, hoc, a pronowne, this or that.

Hic amor, hoc studium, that is your desyre, therabout you god.

Hic quis est, who is this?

Hic somnus est mihi, This is my maner of sleapyng.

Vna hac spes est, There is no hope but this.

Hæc, is vsed of Terence in the feminine gen-der, plurall numbre.

Hac re, for this cause, also by this meanes.

His legibus, on this condition.

Ne comparandus hic quidem ad illum est, This fellow is not to be compared to the other.

Hic, an aduerbe, here in this place. sometyme in this matter or busyneile. also in this state or condition. Hic is sometyme taken for Tum.

Hic illi sientes, rogare atque orare cœperunt, Than they blouderyng and weepyng began to desyre and praie.

Tu si hic sis, aliter sentias, yf thou were I, or as I am, thou wouldest thynke otherwise.

Hicce, hæcce, hocce, for hic, hæc, hoc.

Hiccine, hæccine, hoccine, for hicne, hæcne, hocne.

Hiccine est Simo? Is this Simo? sometyme it is taken doubtfully, as,

Haud nihil ambigam hiccine fuerit Ascā-nius, an maior quam hoc, I doubte somwhat whether this were Ascanius, or an other elder than he.

Hidruntum, I towne of Calaber, called com-monly Otronto.

Hiena, loohe Hyena.

Hiera, In ple betweene Sicile and Liparis, de-dicated to Vulcane. Also the name of a wape, and of a woman, the wyfe of Thelaphus kyng of Asia, whiche in beautee was supposed to excede Helena.

Hiera, a confection.

Hieracites, æ, m. g. A certayne precious stone.

Hieracium, In herbe, which some do suppose to be sowthystle. But by Fuchsius, it appeereth not to be the same, but somwhat like, and there-fore is called Sonchites, And Lactuca syluē-stris, in Englishe of some dent de lyon, but other wel expert in the nature of herbes, take it to be an other herbe.

Hieracopodion, the herbe called Lychnis agria.

Hieranosos, morbus sacer.

Hieranthemis, the flowre of the herbe Camomill.

Hierapicra, cræ, fœm. gen. a medicine to purge fleaume and choler, and sometyme it is called onely Hiera. It tsok sundrye spices confectio-ned in a powder.

Hierapolis, A cuee in Asia.

Hierarchia, æ, f gen. the holye gouernaunce or principalitee.

Hierática, æ, f. g. fyne paper.

Hieremias, A prophete, borne (as Epiphanius writeth) at Anathothis, and slayne by his peo-ple at Taphnas in Egypt But afterwarde the Egyptians had hym in great honour, and bu-ryed hym in the place, where Pharaos palace stode. For he draue thense serpentes and Cro-codiles. This prophete before the alteracion of the temple, tohe the arch or holy cofer, and that which was in it, and caused a stone to swalowe it vp, saiepng to the priestes and auncient men, that were present, Our lorde is departed from Sinai to heauen, and shall retourne with an holy puissance, and this shall bee the signe of his comyng, whan all people shall honour a tree. he saied moreouer vnto them, Neuer man shal open this arke, neither priest nor prophete, ex-cepte Moyses the electe of god. The tables within it, no man shall vnfolde, except Aaron. And at the resurrection fyrste this arke shall ryse, and shall come out of the stone, and shall be sette in mount Sina, and all saintes shall resorte thereunto, there to receyue the lorde, and shall flee from the enemy, whiche would haue destroied them. And he sealed the stone, wrytyng theron the name of our lorde. The sig-gne was like as it were grauen in ysen, and a cloude than couered the stone, but no man knoweth that place.

Hieri, people beyonde Sauromatas, whiche be balde and flatte nosed, euen from the nativi-tee. They are verye iuste people, and neuer warre one on an other.

Hieris, id est, consecratrix.

Hiero, onis, a kyng of Sicile, whiche was lyke a priuate persone, verye rude and homely, and of his nature intractable and fierce. But after he became sicke, and recalled from busyneile (the feuer nowe and than takyng hym) he became a man of good maners and honorable. And in the meane tyme that he was not vexed with the feuer, he fell to learnyng. Wherfore beyng re-couered, he vsed the compaine of Simonides, Pindarus, & Bacchilides, moste excellent poe-tes at that tyme lyuyng: who in their wrytynges brought his name in an honourable remem-brance. In other of that name of Athens, was familiar frende and scholar with Nicias.

Hierobotane, es, f. g. An herbe called Vermen.

Hierobryneas, a kynd of the herbe Geranium.

Hieroceps, an ple in Cyprus nere to Paphos.

Hierocomion, mij, n. g. a lasershouse.

Hieroduli, ministers in temples and churches.

Hieroglyphicæ, misticall or enigmaticall letters or Ly-or Cyphers among the Egyptians, which were ymages signifying holy sentences.

Hieron, vel Hiereon, A chappell.

Hieromyrtos, idem quod ruscus.

Hieronicus, ci, m. gene. he that is victour in the games called Sacra certamina.

Hieronymus, the most noble & famous interpretour of holy scripture. He was after the incarnacion of Christe about. 387. yeres, as he hym selfe writeth. He was borne in a towne called Strido, which was in the confines of Hungarie and Dalmatia. His fathers name was Eusebius. There was an historiographer and a philosophier of Rhodes of this name. Also a tyran of Sicilie, the soonne of Hiero.

Hierophánta, æ, m. g. the declarer of misteries or holy scripture.

Hyerophylax, idem quod Aedituus.

Hyerosiarchus, the cheefe preest.

Hierosolyma, æ, and Hierosolyma, orum, or after the Hebrues Hierusalem, the chiefe citee of Iudæa (as Eusebius writeth) in compas about. vi. miles, and an halfe. And as the same author saieth, lib. 9. præparationis euangelicæ, cap. vltimo, it was called Hieron Solomonis, that is to saye, Salomons temple And after, by corruption of speeche, was called Hierusalem and Hierosolyma, But Lyranus on the. xxvii. chap. of Genes. writeth, that it was first builte by Melchisadech, and by hym called Salem, that is to saie peasible. For as much as he was kyng of peace and iustice. also that it was called Solyma, Luza, also Bethel, Hierus, Hierosolyma, & Aelia. Albeit Iosephus de bello Iudaico, lib. 7. cap. 26. affirmeth, that the first builder therof, was Chanam, whiche made there a temple, and called it Hierosolyma, where before it was called Solyma. S. Hierome de locis Actorum apostolorum, saieth, that the citee was called Aelia, of Aelius Adrianus the emperour, whiche eftesoones repaired it, after that it was destroyed by Titus, and made it larger. It was fiue tymes wasted, and laste destroied by Titus, after the incarnacion of Christe. 73. yeres.

Hierosolymarius, the surname of Pompeie for conquerynge of Hierusalem.

Hierotheus, the proper name of a man.

Higra, a roote of pepper.

Hila, a small gutte or ars gutte.

Hilarè, merily, iopously.

Hilaresco, scere, to be mery.

Hilaria, plur. the. viii calendes of Aprille, whan the daie and night haue equall houres, and the daie begynneth to increase.

Hilaris, re, and Hilarus, a, um, merye or iopous, pleasaunt.

Hilarem hunc sumamus diem, Let vs spend this daie merily.

Hilarem in modum, merily.

Hilara vita, a mery and pleasant lyfe.

Hilaritas, âtis, fœm. ge. mirth, pleasauntnesse, iocundenesse.

Hilaritatem afferre, to make mery or iocunde.

Hilaritate conspergere, idem.

Hilaritus, vsed of Plautus for Hilariter.

Hilarius, the proper name of a man.

Hilaro, aui, are, to make one mery or iopouse.

Hilarŏdus, di, ma. gen. a synger of wanton and delicate songes.

Hilaror, âris, ari, to be mery.

Hilárulus, a, um, mery and pleasant.

Hilla, læ, or Hilla, orum, idem quod Hila.

Hillus, the soonne of Hercules by Dianyra.

Hilum, i, n. ge. the littell blacke, whiche is in the ende of a beane. It is sometyme taken for nothyng or nought, or verie littell.

Himera, a ryuer in Sicile, diuided in to two partes, the one fresche water, the other salte.

Hin, is a measure of the Hebrues, whiche after the accompte of Senalis, is of our measure one gaion, and a pynte, and receyueth in poyse of wyne. xvi. li. di, and two ounces: of oyle. xi. li. of hony. xxv. li.

Hinc, an aduerbe, signifying from hens. sometyme for that cause.

Hinc illæ lachrymæ, For that cause were the teares, or that was the matter wherefore he wepte.

Hinc loci mei, from my countrete or towne that I cam fro.

Hinc scibo iam vbi siet, I will wyte of hym nowe where he is.

Hinc illinc, here and there.

Hinc & illinc, on euery syde.

Hinc inde, idem.

Hinc illinc venit, He cometh I knowe not from whens.

Hinc ciuis est, She is a citisen of this citee.

Hinc, for Ex hac parte.

Hinc inde, euery where, rounde about.

Hinnio, iui, ire, to neie lyke an horse.

Hinnitus, us, m. g. neiyng.

Hinnulus, li m. g. a faune or hynde calfe.

Hinnulus leonem, there is to be vnderstande cæpit, vicit, or prouocat, The hynd or faune tooke, vanquysshed, or prouoked the lyon to battaple. A prouerbe applyed to a person feble or ignozant, whiche by any meane hath vanquished hym, whiche is more puissaunte than he: or prouoketh to battaple, or contendeth with hym, whiche is wiser or better lerned than he hym selfe.

Hinnus, hinna, & hinnulus, la, a mule engendred betwene an horse and a she asse.

Hio, aui, are, to gape, to chappe, to open, to cleaue. also to wonder or meruaple.

Hiant flores, the floures doo spreade.

Hiauit humus, the ground chapped or opened.

Hiare vocalibus sermo dicitur, when vowels mete vnpleasantly in an oracion.

Semper ad spem futuri hiat, he looketh gredy delye,

H ANTE I.

ulpe, or he gapeth alwaie for that, that is to come.

oſciamus, lothe Hyoſciamus.

ppace, es, f. g. thiefe made of mares mylke.

ppico, áui, áre, to fetche breath quickly.

ppigium, ii, n. g. carpage on horſebacke.

ppigius, idem quod armiger.

ppago, inis, f. g. a ferie bote to cary ouer horſes.

ppagogeus, gei, m. g. an inſtrumente, wherewith ſtones are poliſhed.

pparchus, a notable aſtronomer that wrote agaynſt Plato. Alſo a comicall poete. It is alſo the ſoonne of Piſiſtratus the tyran. It ſignifieth a capitayne of horſemen.

ppalus, a philoſophier, the ſcholar of Pythagoras.

ppe, the daughter of Chiron the Centaure.

ppeas a kynde of crabfyſhe.

ppei. cometes or blaſyng ſterres, haupng manes lyke horſes.

ppelaphus, looke Equicerum.

ppenemia, the egges of a certayne kynde of hennes, whiche conceiue by the wynde.

pperides, an oratour of Athens, ennemie to Demoſthenes.

ppiades, dum, f. g. images of women on horſebacke, as the women of Amazon were alwaies pictured.

ppiæ, ben a kynd of creatures in the countrey called Phœnicia, whiche be ſo ſwyfte, that it is impoſſible to ouertake them.

ppias, a Rhetorician (as Appuleius ſaieth Floridorum. 2.) excelled all men in the multitude of ſcrafres, and was equall to any man in eloquence. he came on a tyme to Piſa, to the great triumphe called Olympicum, and all thynges that he dyd weare vppon him, was of his owne makyng, his ſhoes, patens, and cote wrought of the fyneſt threde, with iii. threde ſtitches, a baudrike of baudkin, with chaungeable colours and ſundry pictures, a mantell of whyte ouer all, a ryng on his fynger with a ſtone, wherein was a fignet moſt perfectly wrought. All this dyd he worke with his owne handes alſo he caried with hym a lytle oyle bottel, with a narow mouth, and the reſidue rounde and flat, with a litteli inſtrumente to ſtryke ſweate from his body hangyng therat. He plaied excellently on euery inſtrument, and ſange his own verſes in all kyndes, whiche no man coulde amende. In all partes of logike, rhetorike, and philoſophie, he vanquiſhed many, and was vanquiſhed of none. He ranne, wraſtled, & dyd other feates of actiuitee, that all men beholdyng hym, were therwith abaſhed. Finally, he ſemed not to be ignorant, weake or vnable in any thyng. Not withſtandyng Plato in two dialogues, bryngeth in Socrates diſputyng with hym. in the one interchynge what beautee is, in the other what a lye is. he conſidereth and proueth Hippias to bee an arrogant and ignorant foole, foraſmuch as praiſyng beautee, he wiſte not what beautee was, and boſtyng that he knewe any other man, coulde decerne a lyer from a trewe man, he coulde not make of them a diffinition. By this it appereth, howe muche the common iudgemente of men varyeth, and is inferiour to the iudgement of a perfecte wyſe man, as Socrates was.

Hippatrus, i, m. g. an horſe leache.

Hippice, ces, f. g. an herbe, whiche if a man beare in his mouth, he ſhall neuer feele hunger nor thirſte. Plin. lib. 25. cap. 8.

Hippius Tyrius, was he that firſte made ſhippes, whiche ſerue onely for bourdeyn, called in latine Naues onerariæ.

Hippo, m. g. the name of ii. cities in Affrike, of one of them ſaincte Auguſtyne was biſhop.

Hippicum, ci, n. g. a meaſure of grounde, containyng eight miles.

Hippóbotos, a feder of horſes, a horſehearde.

Hippocampæ, & Hippocampi, fiſſches lyke horſes on the fore parte.

Hippocámpinus, a, um, of thoſe kyndes.

Hippocentauri, were a people in Theſſalia by the mounte Pelius, whiche were alſo called Centauri, the which were the firſte that were ſene in Greece ryding vpon horſes, whereof came the fable, that Centauri were halfe men and halfe horſes.

Hippócomus, i, m. g. an horſe coiſer.

Hippocrates, the name of a phiſition moſt excellent,

Hippocrene, a fountayne in Bœotia dedidicated to Apollo, and the ix. muſes.

Hippodamia, or Hippodame, the daughter of Oenomaus, kynge of Arcadia, vnto whome it was tolde by the ſoothſayer, that whan his daughter dyd marie, he ſhoulde die. Therefore, whan ſhe came to the yeres of mariage: he ordeyned a tryce of rennyng with chariottes, and cauſed to be proclaymed, that who ſo euer dyd vanquiſhe him therin, ſhuld haue his daughter to wyfe: and he that was vanquiſhed by hym, ſhoulde dye. Many of the wooers were ſlayne. At laſt Pelops, deſyryng to haue the ſaied mayden, promiſed promyſe to Myrtilus, whiche draue the kynges chariot, that yf he dyd wyn the tryce, Myrtilus ſhuld lye with Hippodamia the firſte nyght: vpon the which couenaũt Myrtilus made the axeltree of ware, by occaſion wherof the chariot fell downe and was broken. wherfore Oenomaus ſlewe hym ſelfe, and Pelops enioyed the lady and the roialme. whan Myrtilus axed that whiche was promyſed hym: Pelops threwe him into the ſeanert adioynyng, whiche thereof was euer after called Mare Myrtoum. There was an other lady called Hippodamia, whiche was wyfe to Perithous, for whom the bataile was betweene

the

the people called Centauri, and them whiche were named Lapythæ.

Hippódamus, mi, m. g. A breaker of horses. Also the name of a learned man of Miletia, whiche wrate fyrste of the good state and gouernance of a citee.

Hippodorus, a prince of Athens, which to seeme gentle to the people, vsed great seuerite towardes his owne children and kynsefolke.

Hippódromus, mi, m. g. a brode waye, wherein many horses may renne together.

Hippoglottion, tij, n. g. the herbe, whiche some call Daphnoïdis, some carpophillon.

Hippoglóssa, sæ, fœm. ge. an herbe like an horse toungue, whiche Ruellius supposeth to be that whiche is called Laurus Alexandrina, it hath a leafe like a toungue.

Hippolapathum, i, n. g. an herbe called patience.

Hippolochus, Bellerophons sonne, father of Glaucus. an other of the same name was the sonne of Antimachus the Troiane.

Hippolyte, the wyfe of Acastus kynge of Magnesia. An other was queene of Amazones, whom Hercules vanquished, and gaue hir to Theseus.

Hippolytus, the sonne of Theseus, who at the complaynte of Phedra his stepmother, was pursued by his father, and he in a charyotte, sleepyng, was ouerthrowen among the sharpe stones, & rente all to peeces. Afterwarde Esculapius reuiued & restored hym to lyfe. wherfore he woulde be called Virbius, that is to saie, twise a mã, for as muche as he had twise lyued.

Hippomáchia, æ, f. g. a tourneiyng and iustyng on horse backe.

Hippómachus, the name of a famous minstrel.

Hippómanes, n. ge. an herbe, wherof if horses doe eate, they forthwith renne madde. It is also a venemouse humoure, rennyng out of the shape of a mare, whiche if a man hap to receiue inward, he shalbe mad. Plinie sauth, that it is a little fleshe in the forehead of a colte when he is new foled, blache and as bygge as a date, whiche the mare plucketh awaye with hir teethe, as sone as she hath foled. And if any man do take it awaye before hir, she will neuer after loue hir fole.

Hippómanes, the herbe, called also Apocynon.

Hippomárathrum, thri, n. g. wilde fenell.

Hippomenes, the nephew of Neptune, whiche ouercame Athlanta in rennyng.

Hippona, a goddesse, whom horsekepers dyd worship.

Hipponax, a greke poet borne in Ephesus, who was deformed in visage, but in style sharpe and vehemẽt, in so muche as whan a cunnyng peincter, named Bubalus, had peincted his yll fauoured face, to make men laugh at it: Hipponax made against hym suche vengeable verses, that for anger & shame he caused hym to hange hym selfe in his house.

Hipponómus, an herde or keper of horses.

Hippopéra, ræ, f. g. a male or bougt.

Hippophaes, the herbe called tasyll. It is also called Labrum veneris, and Virga pastoris.

Hippophyes, idem.

Hippoplanus, he that begyleth in sellyng of horses.

Hippopodes, people in the Scythicke ocean, whiche haue feete lyke horses.

Hippopótamus, mi, m. g. a beast brynge in the riuer of Nile, hauinge feete like an ore, his backe & mane like an horse, and neyeth like an horse, a wyndyng taile, and tusked like a bore.

Hippos, an horse.

Hippopion, matter in the eye.

Hipphorbus, bi, m. gen. an horse herde, or one that feedeth horses.

Hipposelinon, ni, n. g. some suppose it to be the herbe called smallage, or marche. It is also called olus atrum.

Hippotela, læ, f. g. a fole of an asse.

Hippotóxota, tóxotæ, mas. gene. an archer on horsebacke.

Hippûris, ris, f. g. an herbe called in latyn Equisetum, or Cauda equina, in englisshe horsetayle. but it is commonly called cattes tayle.

Hippus, a ryuer in Asia rennyng into Ponto.

Hipsicratea, the wyfe of Mithridates.

Hir, hiris, f. g. the palme of the hande.

Hira, a citee by the sea side, not far from Pisa. also the gut, whiche is called Ieiunum.

Hircinus, a, um, gotysshe, or of a gote.

Hircipilus, li, m. g. a man that is hearie.

Hircósus, a, um, that stynketh like a gote.

Hirquus, i, m. gen. the corner of the eye. Also he that is goggle syede.

Hirculus, li, m. g. a kynde of spikenarde.

Hircus, i, m. g. a gote bucke. it is also the rank sauour, whiche issueth out of the arme holes.

Hirnea, æ, f. g. a certayne vessell.

Hires, idem quod gnaphalion.

Hirpiæ, certayn families not farre from Rome, whiche doyng sacrifice to Apollo, went vpon the fyre, and were not hurt therwith.

Hirquinus, a, um, idem quod Hircinus.

Hirquitalus, i, ma. gene. a childe, whiche passeth the age of xiiii. yeres, and beginneth to be bred with lecherie.

Hirquitallire, to enter into that age or appetite to lecherie.

Hirrio, iui, ire, to narre lyke a madde dogge.

Hirsúta, æ, fœm. ge. the roughnesse of heares or bristels.

Hirsútus, a, um, rough, heary, full of bristels, mosy, and by a metaphore austere, vnpleasant.

Hirtius, a consul of Rome, whiche was vanquished in battaple by Antonie.

Hirtus, a, um, idem quod Hirsutus.

Saxa hirta dumis, roches full of bushes and brambles.

Hirtæ sepes, hedges made of thornes & briers.

Hisdo,

ido, rádinis, f. g. an horse leathe or blonde ackar.
ido erarij, by translacion, one that wasteth or consumeth the common treasure.
undinaria, idé quod Chelidonia, lobe there.
undinus, a, um, or rather hirundininus, a, m, of or belonaynge to a swalowe.
undo, inis. f. g. a swalowe.*
ciacus, ci, m. g. he that galpeth muche.
co, ci, ícére, to gaulpe as one dooeth for slugs idenesse after sleepe, or for lacke of sleepe.
lso it is to proffer to speake, or open the mouth
o speake, to mutter, to be astonied, amased, r in doubt what to doo. also to chappe or bee pened.
maelita, a saracen.
pania, uel Hispalum, a citee in Spayne nowe alled Sibilia, or Siuile.
pania, a countrey in the west part of Europa alled Spayne, sometyme called Iberia, and esperia. It is inuironed on the southe parte with the sea Mare Mediterraneum, whiche diideth Europa from Africa, on the northe part with the sea Mare Cantabricum, on the weste with the great ocean sea: On the east with the mountaynes Pyrenæi, and the parte of the rois alme of Fraunce called Aquitania, & Narbo-nensis. This countrey is diuided by Ptholo-mee into three regions, Bethica, wherin is Gra nado, Siuil, Co dubа. &c. Lucitania, wherin is Portugal, Galicia &c. Taraconensis, wher-in is Castile, Lyons, and Arragon. At this tyme it conteyneth fiue royalmes, Granado on the southe parte towarde Affryke: Portugal, on the west: Galitia and Biscaie on the northe, Arragon on the east, Castile and Lyons in the middle. Muche of the west parte by reason of rockes, forestes, and lacke of water, is not fertile nor well inhabited. The northe parte by reason of muche colde is not plentuous. The south parte is wonderfull fruitefull. It is in lengthe (as Strabo writeth) 6000. furlonges, wouthe is 850 myles. In breadth 5000. fur-longes, which is 625. myles. Plinius (nerte unto Italy) extolleth it in fertilitee, aboue al other countreys. Solinus compareth it with the best countreys in plentie of grayne, wynes, oyle, syluer, golde and yron. Statius & Clau dius, do no lesse commende it.
Hispaniensis, se, that was borne or bred in other countreys, and lyueth in Spayne.
Hispanus, a, um, that is borne or bred in Spaine.
Hispidosus, a, um, full of brystles.
Hispidus, a, um, brystled, or rough heared.
Hister, i, m. g. a player or tumblar.
Histria, a citee in Sudæa.
Histiæus, a tyran of Milesia. Erasmus saith, it was a very wyly and subtyle man of the yle of Samos, a friende of Darius, of whose newe inuention of letters sendynge, Au. Gell. wryteth lib. 17. cap. 9. Noct. Attic.

Histonium, a towne in Italie, not farre from the mount Garganus.
Historia, æ, f. g. an history.
Historicè, es, f. g. a declaracion of an author in maner of an history.
Historiális, le, and Historicus, a, um, of or pertayning to histories, history wise.
Histórious, ci, m. g. a writer of histories.
Histricus, a, um, perteinyng to players.
Histrio, ónis, com. g. a player in enterludes, or stage playes.
Histriónia, æ. f. g. and Histrionica, æ, the feate or science of stage players.
Histriónicus, a, um, and Histrionalis, le, idem.
Histrix, histricis, f. g. a beaste haueynge sharpe pyckes on his backe, called a porke pyne.
Hiulce, as it were with chappes or gappes.
Hiulco, aui, are, to make to gape or chynke, to cleane.
Hiulcus, a, um, gappynge or chynckynge, as the grounde is in a great dyrthe.
Hiulca gens, a tortuous and deceitfull people.

H ANTE O.

HOc, is vsed for tanto. when quo or quod fo-loweth.
Hoc vide, a forme of latine speche, vsed in Terence and Plautus, sygnifyinge that wee take in englyshe, See I praie you.
Hoc, this or that.
Crede hoc meæ fidei, beleue this thyng on my warrantise.
Quid hoc hominis? what felowe is this.
Hoc litterularum, this shorte letter or little epistle.
Hoc mentis, this myde lykewise Hoc morbi, sceleris, noctis, lucis, &c.
Hoc est, quod ille &cet. this is the cause why
he. &c
Huius non facio, I set not this much by hym.
Hodiè, to daie, nowe, at this tyme, in these daies,
in this age.
Hodiè mane, to day in the mornyng early.
Nunquam hodie, no tyme to day.
Non facies hodie? Non dices hodie? and such lyke are spoken for a vehemencie to enforce one the more.
Hodiernus, a, um, of this daye.
Hodierno die, to daie, nowe at this presente tyme.
Hodierno mane, idem quod Hodiè mane.
Hodœdocus, ci, m. g. a robber by the highe waie.
Hodœporicum a booke to carie in iourney, which maie be called a iournall: or a booke, wherein iourneies from place to place be described.
Hodœporus, ri, m. g. a trauayler by the waie.
Hœdus, looke hedus.
Hœmorrhoidis, a byrde, whiche by Plinies des cription, I thynke to be our redshanke.

Hutchins,

Hœrichius, a Greeke, very counnyng in ymage makyng.
Hoi, an exclamacion of one that wepeth.
Holcus, a certayne herbe.
Holmus, a mortar, a cuppe made like a horne.
Holocaustum, i, n. g. properly the beast, whiche hauyng his bowels taken out, is layed whole on the altare, and bourned.
Holobrizæ vestes, garmentes all of pure golde.
Holóboræ vestes, garmentes whiche be heame and stiffe, with golde that is wrought in theim.
Hológraphum, phi, n. g. a testament all written with the hande of the testatour.
Hololampus, all in a flame.
Holophanta, looke Halophanta.
Holor, ôris, m. ge. a swanne.
Holoserica vestis, a garment all of sylke.
Holopechion, a hole cubite.
Holostea, a certayne herbe.
Holus, looke Olus.
Holus, alias Homolus, an hyll of Thessaly.
Homelium, lij, n. g. a certayne kacion of cappes.
Homericus, a, um, of Homere.
Homeromastix, tigis, mas. gene. the reprocher of Homere. Generally Homeromastices, bee taken for all reprochers and kalse detractours of learned men.
Homérus, the chiefe of all poetes, whose proper name was Melesigenes. But because he was blynde, he was called Homérus, whiche in the tungue called Ionica, signifieth blynde. Cicero, Tuscul. 5. saieth, It is written, that Homer was blynde, yet se we his picture and not his poeme. For what cuntrey, what marches, what host, what naute, what mocions of myndes, as well of men as of beastes, are expressed in suche wyse, that he maketh vs to see that he sawe not? Plutarchus in the boke whiche he wrate of hym saith, that in his two warkes he comprehendeth bothe the partes of man. For in Illiade he described strength and valyantnesse of the bodye, In Odyssea he dooth sette foorth a perfecte paterne of the mynde. Not withstandyng for his vndiscrete kablyng of goddes and goddesses, Plato excluded hym out of his weale publike.
Homicida, æ, com. gene. a murtherer, a mankiller.
Homicidium, ij, n. g. murder or manslaughter.
Homilia, liæ, f. g. a sermon.
Homo, inis, m. gen. as saieth Phocas, the excellent grammarian, but the common rules teache it to be the common gender, a lyuing creature hauyng capacitee of reason, subiect to death, a man woman or childe.
✠ Homo bulla, a man is but a buble, a prouerbe signifiyng the shortnesse and uncertentie of mans lyfe, resemblyng it to a bubble of water, whiche shortly ryseth, shortly vanysheth, and commeth to nothyng.
✠ Homo homini deus, Man is mans god, applied to him, which with any singular benefite, helpeth a man aboue his expectation.
☞ Homo trium literarum, signifieth sometyme in mockage a man of a noble linage, because noble men wrate their forenames, their names and surnames with three letters, as P. Cor. Scipio. C. I. Cæsar. It is sometyme taken for a theefe, because Fur, hath in it but three lemm.
Asini homines, fooles, asses.
Ansatus Homo, a man with his armes a kembowe.
Nemo homo est, there is no man.
Homo sum, I am a man, I may be deceiued.
Homo es, thou shewest thy selfe like a man, thou playest the man.
Nihil minus hominis videtur, There seemeth nothyng to me further from mans nature, a more vnsemely for a man.
Sic homo est, suche is his facion, or this is the facion of the man.
Homo, and Quisquam, bee eleganthy ioigned to gether, not with standyng that Quisquam alone, signifieth as much as Homo quisquam.
Homocapnus, ni, m. g. a man that lyueth alway in the smoke, or by the fyre.
Homœomeria, lyke nesse of partes.
Homeoptóton, ti, neu. g. a figure, when many membres of a sentence haue like fall of cases.
Homœôsis, a similitude.
Homœoteleuton, a figure, when clauses of a sentence ende like.
Homogalactus, ti, m. g. a foster brother.
Homógenes, nis, com. gen. of one kynde.
Homoglossus, of the same tongue or language.
Homole, an hyll of Magnesia.
Homoleum, a cap of the olde facion.
Homolium, a towne of Magnesia.
Homológia, æ, fœ. gene. a confession, consent, or couenaunt.
Homolotti, a people.
Homográphia, like writynge or penmanship.
Homologare, to consent.
Homophónos, of one soune.
Homóphylus, of one kind or tribe.
Homopsychus, of one minde.
Homonæa, the proper name of a woman, whereby is signified concorde.
Homónymon, mi, n. gen. where many thynges haue one name, but diuers in effect: as a man, whiche is alyue or peynted, diuided by this addition, a verie man, a peynted man.
Homosipyi, they whiche sleape together vnder one rouke.
Homousios, sij, m. g. of lyke substance.
Hómulus, Homúncio, & Homúnculus, a litle man, or of small reputacion, a dwarfish fellow.
Honestamentum, i, n. g. a thyng that commendeth or setteth foorth.
Honestas, âtis, f. g. honestie, dignitie, woorshyp.

onestas & turpitudo vitæ, contrarie.
ignitas & honestas.
eité, honestly.
esto, aui, are, to rewarde with honour, to ake more honorable, to make more esteemed, commend or set forthe.
estum, i, n g. honestie.
estus, a, um, honeste, of good behauoure, of od reputation, comelye, fayre, beautiful, wel houred.
ies honestissimus alicui, a day on the which man hath great honour shewed hym.
omines honore honesti, men aduaunced to onour and dignitee.
onesta oratio est, his wordes or sayeng is asonable. Ille erat honesta facie ac liberali, e hadde a good and well fauoured face, or he as bothe fayre and well fauoured.
onestus conuentus, an assemble of worship ull and honourable persons.
onesto loco natus, descended of an honest nd substantiall kynred or familie.
Honestissimum testamentum, a wyll discretly and wyselye made.
nor, or Honos, óris, m. g. honour, dignitee, sometyme beaultie, also reuerence, honestee, sometyme sacrifice, a rewarde geuen to a man.
also funerall obsequie.
Honorem præfari, is where one shall speake of any thynge that is not honeste, than to saie, sauyng your reuerence.
Quo honore est? in what office or dignitee is he? or in what reputacion is he? or howe is he esteemed?
Afficere aliquem honore, habere honorem alicui, and in honore habere aliquem, to doe honour to one, to haue in reuerence.
Honore augeri, to be aduaunced to hygher honour and dignitee.
Honore florere, to bee in great honour and estimacion.
Honorem congerere, deferre, dare, to promote, to geue office or dignitee to one.
Perfunctus honoribus amplissimis, he that hath been in great dignitee and authoritee in the common weale.
In honore esse apud aliquem, to be in reue-rence with one, to be muche esteemed and set by.
Honoribus vti, to beare office, to bee in authoritee.
Honori habere consulatum suum, to entende to great honour and reputacion by ministryng his consulshyp.
Honore summo ei fuit, it was great worshyp and honour to hym.
Honorabilis, le, honourable, worthy honour.
Honoraria, places made at Rome, to the honour of Bacchus.
Honorárium, rii, n. g. a present geuen to princes, ambassadours, great officers, and iustices at their first comyng, or executyng of their authoritees. Also a custome, that the Decurions paied for their admission into the courte.
Honorárius, a, um, pertaynyng to honour.
Honorarius arbiter, a worshyppfull man ap-poynted by the Pretor, to be an indifferent iudge betwene two parties.
Honorarius tumulus, a monument or hearse set vp to the honour of any person, where the bodie is not present.
Honorate, honourably, worshyppfully.
Honorâtus, a, um, that is in honour, estimacion and reuerence, worshipfull, honourable.
Honoratus vir, a worshyppfull personage.
Honorificentissime, in a very honorable forme or maner, very honorably.
Honorifico, aui, are, to doe honour, or to honor.
Honorifice, idem quod honorate.
Honorifice appellare, to name one after a very worshipfull and honorable faction.
Honorificus, a, um, that bryngeth honour, honorable, worshipfull, done or spoken to a mans honour or worship.
Honôro, aui, are, to honour, to doe reuerence.
Honôrus, a, um, that is with honor, honorable.
Hora, an houre, also tyme of an houre, a date or a yere.
Crastina hora, to morowe.
In horas, euery houre.
Omnium horarum homo, a felowe at all assaies.
Dum hæc dicit, abiit hora, while he spake these thynges, a whole houre passed awaye, or the tyme passed.
Horæum, ræi, neu. gener. sommer honny. it is also a sauce made of fisshe.
Horárius, a, um, that is the space of an houre.
Horárium. rii, n. g. the space of an houre.
Horatius, a famouse poete, borne at Venusium, a man excellent in sharpnesse of witte, & quick-nesse of sentence: he was addict to Epicures secte, somewhat wanton in maners, though he liberally note the vices of other men in his verses called Satyri, in balades to synge to the harpe (whiche were in. xviii. sondrie kyndes of verses) he passed all other that wrate in latine.
He was in good fauour with the emperour Augustus, by the meanes of Mecœnas thempe-rors minion, who toke in hym for his mirthe and witte muche delectation: to whom, and to Augustus, he wrate diuerse epistels in verse, comprehendyng great wisedomes in compendious sentences: and died whan he was. 57.
yeres olde, as Eusebius writeth. he was after the incarnacion of Christe about. x. yeres. Of his name were diuers notable Romayns.
Horctum, olde writers vsed for Bonum.
Horda, æ, f. g. a cowe great with calfe.
Hordeáceus, a, um, of barley.
Hordeárij, they whiche dooe sprue with eatynge barley.
Hordeárius, a, um, pertaynyng to barley.

Hordearium æs, money geuen to ſouldiers to bie coꝛne.
Hordearia pruna, plummes of the colour of barley, when barley is ripe.
Hordeum, dei, n. g. barley.
Hordeum murinum, called alſo of Plinie Phœnicia, is wall barley, that groweth on mudde walles.
Horia, a fiſhars bote.
Horiola, a littell fiſhars bote.
Horizon, zóntis, neu. gen. a circle diuidyng the halfe ſphere oꝛ outer parte of the firmament, from the other halfe, where to our ſight, it ſeemeth, that the heauen toucheth the earth.
Horméſion, a pꝛecious ſtone of fiꝛie colour.
Horminóde, es, m. g. a greene ſtone, compaſſed with a circle of the colour of golde.
Horminum, ni, neut. gener. an herbe, called of the frenche men Tout bonne. looke Orminum.
Horno, an aduerbe, ſignifiyng, this yere.
Hornótinus, a, um, of this yere, oꝛ of one yeres growyng.
Frumentum hornótinum.
Hornus, a, um, of this yeres, oꝛ of one yeres contynuance.
Agnus hornus, this yeres lambe.
Hornæ fruges, this yeres graine.
Horológium, gĩ, n. g. a diall oꝛ a cloche.
Horológium ſolarium, a diall.
Horomaſdes, amonge the Caldees was named the good god.
Horontes, loke Orontes.
Horóſcopo, aui, are, to marke the houre.
Horóſcopos, the diligent markyng of the tyme of the birthe of a childe.
Horóſcopus, pi, m. gen. that part of the firmament, whiche euery houre riſeth from the eaſt: aſtronomers call it the aſcendent.
Horóſcopus, a, um, euery thyng, wherin houres be marked.
Horrearius, rĩ, m. g. the keper of the barne.
Horreo, rui, rére, whan a man thynketh that his heare dooeth riſe. alſo to quake foꝛ colde oꝛ feare. ſometyme to feare matche, to be aſtonied oꝛ to wonder, to be rough, as fieldes vntilled oꝛ out of culture.
Horrent agri, the fieldes are vnpleaſant and vnfruitefull.
Omnium conſpectum horreo, I am afeerde to come in any mannes ſyght.
Horrére alicui, to feare leſt ſome harme will chance to a man.
Horrére minas alicuius, to feare a mannes thꝛetnynges.
Horrendus, a, um, dꝛedefull, hoꝛrible, terrible.
Horrens, éntis, hoꝛrible, that ſetteth vp the hꝛiſtils, as a lion, oꝛ dogge.
Horreſco, ſcere, whan a man feleth within hym great colde oꝛ trembling to begynne, as in a feuer, oꝛ in a great feare: ſometyme to quake, to feare, alſo to ſhake as coꝛne doeth with the wynde.
Horreum, rei, n. gen. a garner, a barne, where coꝛne is laied. ſometyme a ſtoꝛe houſe, where any other thyng is kepte.
Horribilis, le, hoꝛrible oꝛ terrible, fearefull.
Horrificus, a, um, idem.
Horride, without any good fauon oꝛ pleaſure.
Horriditas, âtis, idem quod Horror.
Horridulus, la, lum, timoꝛous, ſomwhat vnpleaſant, rough, rude.
Horridus, a, um, hideous, terrible, oꝛ he that quaketh foꝛ colde, oꝛ feare, ſtiffe foꝛ colde, rough, out of culture, nothyng cleanly, vnſeemely, oꝛ trymme.
Horrida & inculta vita, a rude & homely life.
Deformis atque horridus homo, an vyll fauored and foule perſone, lotheſome to beholde.
Inculta & horrida ſcripta, wꝛitynges without grace oꝛ eleganꝛy.
Hórrifer, rifera, rum, that bꝛyngeth colde weather.
Horrifico, aui, are, to make afeerde, to make to quiuer oꝛ tremble.
Horripilo, aui, aui, to grow rought.
Horriſonus, a, um, hauyng a terrible ſounde oꝛ voyce.
Horror, ôris, ma. gen. a ſhuueryng oꝛ quakyng foꝛ colde oꝛ feare. ſometyme the cruelneſſe oꝛ terribleneſſe of ones loke. alſo a religious oꝛ reuerende feare.
Horrore perfundi, To be in ſuche feare, that one quaketh oꝛ ſheuereth.
Horſum, hither, oꝛ hitherwarde, an aduerbe.
Hortário, ônis, f. g. Hortamen, minis, & Hortamentum, ti, n. g. idem quod Hortatus.
Hortâtor, ôris, m. gene. one that counſaileth oꝛ moueth to a thyng.
Hortatrix, the feminine.
Hortatiuus, a, um, that belongeth to exhoꝛtation oꝛ mouyng.
Hortâtus, us, maſc. gene. an exhoꝛtation oꝛ counſaile hoꝛtyng.
Horténſia, æ, fœ. g. the daughter of Hortenſius, a woman moſt eloquent.
Hortenſius, an excellent oꝛatour of Rome, of wonderfull memoꝛie.
Hortenſis, ſe, pertaynyng to a garden, oꝛ of a gardeyne, oꝛ that groweth in a garden.
Hortenſius, a, um, idem.
Hortor, âris, ari, to exhoꝛte, to counſaile oꝛ moue to a thynge.
Hortari canes, to chere the hounds. Item equos.
Horrari equos.
Hoc te iam diu hortor, cum duobus accuſ.
Hortari vt capiat.
Hortari ad perficiendum.
Iiſdem de rebus hortor.
Hortari aliquem de pace. &c.
Hortus, ti, m. ge. a knotte gardein, oꝛ a gardein foꝛ pleaſure, oꝛ an oꝛcheparde.

Hor

Horti penſiles, gardeins made in the toppes of houſes.

Horti, in the plurall numbre, is moſte cõmonly vſed for an orcharde or gardein of pleaſure.

Hortus, was vſed of olde writers for Villa.

Hortulus, li, m. g. a litte gardeine.

Horula, a litteli houre.

Horus, an Egyptian, whiche wrate and declared the ſecrete maner of writyng, whiche the Egyptians vſed, called Hieroglyphica. Horus was alſo the ſoonne of Iſis.

Hoſa, a riuer of Tuſcan, called now Wartha.

Hoſtomicus, ſickely.

Hoſpes, hoſpitis, com. g. an hoſt that receiueth ſtraungers or gueſtes into his houſe alſo a geſt, whiche lodgeth in an other mans houſe. alſo a ſtranger, or a man inhabityng out of the countrey.

Hoſpita terra, a countrey, whereby a man may ſauſibly paſſe.

Hoſpes vrbis, a ſtranger that knoweth not what is done in the citee.

Hoſpes in re aliqua, one that is ignorant in a thynge, or knoweth not what belongeth to it.

Hoſpes in voluntatibus ſuorum ciuium, one that knoweth not the mynde or wyll of his citezins or countrey men.

Hoſpita, tæ, a ſtrange woman.

Hoſpitalia, lodgeyngꝛes in an houſe, which ſerue onely for ſtrangers.

Hoſpitális, le, vſyng a gentill entertaynement, or gladly receiuynge a ſtranger: or that belongeth to an hoſt or gueſt, or to entertaynement of ſtrangers.

Hoſpitalis Iupiter, ſo called becauſe ſtrangers or geſtes when they were yll intreated in theyr lodgeynges, called hym to wytneſſe, deſyrynge hym to reuenge them.

Hoſpitáliter, lyke a geſte.

Hoſpitálitas, átis, f. g. hoſpitalitee, entertaynement of frendes or gueſtes.

Hoſpitiolum, i, a diminutiue of Hoſpitium.

Hoſpitium, ii, n. g. an houſe alway redie to receiue frendes ſometyme a lodgeyng. alſo an hoſpital. ſometyme frendſhip ſhewed in hoſpitalitee, frendely familiaritee betwene perſones, whan one man cometh boldely to the others houſe, entertaynement.

Renuntiare hoſpitium alicui, to forſake ones houſe, where he hath ben interteined

Excipere aliquem hoſpitio, to lodge or interteyne one in his houſe.

Pro hoſpitio, quod mihi cum illo eſt, for the familiaritee that is betweene him and me.

Liberale hoſpitium, a liberall entertaynement of frendes or ſtrangers.

Hoſpitium & amicitia.

Hóſpitor, áris, ári, to receiue frendely into his houſe. alſo to lodge in a place as a gueſte or ſtraunger.

Hoſpitatur aqua in eo loco, the water reſteth in that place.

Hoſpitus, a, um, ſtraunge, alſo that gueſteth or receiueth gueſtes.

Hoſpita æquora, id eſt, Vicina.

Hoſpita flumina, riuers that may be paſſed in a bote or ſhyppe.

Hoſſimi, they that be borne without noſethrilles.

Hoſtia, æ, f. g. an hoſt or ſacrifice offered to atteyne victory of ennemies.

Hoſtiátus, a, um, that is laded with ſacrifices.

Hóſticus, a, um, hoſtile or ennemy.

Hoſtilis, le, perteinyng to an ennemy.

Hoſtiliter, lyke an ennemy.

Hoſtilitas, átis, fœ. ge. hoſtilitee, enmitee.

Hoſtimentum, i, n. g recompence, one for an other

Hoſtio, iui, ire, to recompence, to aſſuage or abate, to offende, to ſtrike.

Hoſtis, is, com. gen. an ennemy.

Hoſtium, ii, n. g. a meaſure of an hundreth and forty buſſhels alſo a dooze.

Hoſtórium, ii, n. g. the ſtaffe, wherwith all meaſures be made euen, a ſtrike.

Hoſtus, i, the quantitee of ople, that the olines pelde at euery preſſyng.

H ANTE V.

Hvber, hûberis, n. g. a pappe or bdder.

Huber, hûberis, om. g. fruitefull, plentuous, aboundant.

Huber aqua, plentee of water, muche water.

Ferax & huber.

Huber & fœcundus author, an authour that is plentiouſe and full of good matter.

Huberior ſpes, greatter hope.

Edictum huberrimum, an ample and large commaundement.

Huberrimus fructus, great plentee of fruite.

Hubero, aui, are, to make plentuous or fruitfull. alſo to be aboundant.

Huberrimè, verie plentuouſely.

Hubértas, átis, f. g. plentie, aboundance, fruitfulneſſe, fertilitee.

Hubertas mammarum, aboundance of mylke in the breaſtes.

Hubertas ſoli, fruitefulneſſe or fertilitee of the grounde.

Hubertas virtutis, the great fruitefulneſſe of vertue.

Hubertim, plentuouſely.

Hubértus, a, um, aboundant or plentiouſe.

Huc, hyther.

Huc abij cum illo, I came from thens hyther with hym.

Huc coram adducam, I wyll bryng hym hither before you.

Huc prouiſo, I come hyther to ſee.

Ergo huc redde, than reſtore it hyther to me again.

Omnia hæc verba huc redeant, All theſe woordes come to this ende, or bee ſpoken to this intente.

Rem huc deduxi, I brought this matter to this poynte.
Huc & huc, nowe on the one syde, now on the other, nowe to the tone syde, now to the tother.
Hac illuc, hyther and thyther.
Hui, an interiection of wonderynge, sometyme of sorynge.
Hui meam sororem? Ho my syster?
Hui tam cito? Ho, ho, so shortely, so soone?
Hudum, for Sudum.
Huic, to that place. also to hym or hyr.
Huiusce, the genitiue case of Hic, hæc, hoc, compounded with ce.
Huiusmodi, & huiuscemodi, suche, of that sorte.
Hulula, læ, f. g. a thrike oule.
Húlulo, aui, are, to howle.
Humánitas, átis, fœ. g. humanitee, or nature of man, kyndenesse. also doctrine, pertaynynge to man, learnyng, liberall knowlage, gentylnesse, meekenesse, curtesie, gentill behauiour, cruelitee, pleasauntnesse in maners.
Humanitas & modestia.
Immanitas & humanitas, contrary.
Comprehendere aliquem humanitate, To shew gentlenesse towarde.
Politior humanitas, good learnyng.
Vir humanitate politus, a man adowrned with cleane learnyng.
Humánitus & humanè, gentylly, curtesely, meekely.
Humánitus, aduer. of men, after the facti of me.
Humanus, a, um, gentyll, tractable, courteys, meeryfull, freendely, humayne, learned, counynge.
Si quid mihi humanum contigerit, If I chaunce to dye.
Hoccine humanum est? Is this a gentyll touche?
Humanus calculus, The stone ingendred in a mans body.
Humanum genus, and Humana gens, mankynde.
Humana specie & figura esse, To haue the shappe and figure of a man.
Humátio, ónis, f. g. an interrement or buriall, a putting in to the grounde.
Humátor, óris, m. ge. one that burieth.
Humátus, a, um, buried, layde in the earth.
Humectátus, a, um, made moyste or weete.
Humecto, aui, are, to make moyste, to weate.
Humectus, a, um, moyste or weete.
Humeo, mui, ere, to bee moyste or weete.
Humerus, i, m. g. the shoulder.
Ab humero pendebant sagittæ, his arrowes hanged at his shoulders.
Extollere in humeros, To take vppon his shoulders.
Humeris rempublicam sustinere, by translation to sustayne & beare vp the cõmune weale, as it were vpon his shoulders.

Humeri in bobus.
Humeri in gallinaceis.
Humerále, lis, neu. gen. a thyng to weare on the shoulders.
Humerósus, a, um, that hath great shoulders.
Humesco, scere, to ware wete, to bee wete.
Humescentes oculi, eyes wet with weepyng.
Húmidulus, a, um, somewhat moyste or wette.
Húmidum, i, n. g. moysture, weatnesse.
Húmidus, a, um, moyst, weate.
Húmifer, mifera, rum, that bryngeth moysture or humour.
Humificus, a, um, that maketh moysture.
Humigátus, a, um, moysted.
Humílio, aui, are, to make lowe, poore, or abiecte.
Húmilis, le, base, lowe, also symple or poore, abiecte, vile, humble, of lowe condition.
Humilis & excelsa Luna, contrary.
Humilis vitis, a vyne kepte lowe by the grounde.
Humilis & abiectus.
Humilis animus atque demissus, a lowe and base courage.
Humilis sepultura, simple or of small cost.
Angusta mens & humilis, idem.
Humilis ars, a vyle craft, ydell esteemed.
Humili atque obscuro loco natus, descended of a base or vnknowen stocke.
Oratio humilis & abiecta, cui contraria Alta & excelsa.
Preces humiles, humble prayers.
Humiles habitare casas, to dwelle in small cotages.
Humilis statura, a dwarfysshe or lowe stature.
Humilitas, átis, f. g. baseneſſe or lowenesse.
Humilitas generis, a baseneſſe of ones stocke or kynrede.
Humi, alowe, or on the grounde.
Fusus humi, lyeng alonge vpon the grounde.
Humiliter, lowely, humbly.
Húmifer, a, um, that beareth the grounde.
Humo, aui, are, to burye or hyde.
Humor, óris, m. ge. humour or moysture, water or lycour.
Euocare corruptum humorem, to drawe out the corrupt humour.
Humus, i, fœm. gene. earthe beeynge moyst, the grounde.
Tollere se humo, to ryse from the grounde.
Hungaria, reade after in Pannonia.
Hunni, people, whiche came out of Scythia, and inhabited Hungarie.

H ANTE Y.

HYacinthia festa, were solemne ceremonies doone in the nyght.
Hyacinthinus, a, um, of violet colour.
Hyacinthizontes, the fourth kynde of the stone smaragdo.

Hya-

acinthus, called also Vacinium, hath leaues like vnto poyret, an hande brodthe in heyght, lesse than a maydens lyttell fynger, greene of colour, the toppe lynge downe full of purple floures, and the roote rounde. The flower spryngeth out in sprynge tyme, with the violet, and before the rose. Of this flower were feigned two sundry fables. One, that it was a boy that Apollo loued, whom by mysfortune he slewe, wherfore he tourned hym into this flower. An other fable is, that it sprange of the bloudde of Aiax, the valyaunt Greeke, and that certayne veynes of the flower, seme to expresse the figure of these two letters A I. that herbe, whiche is commonly called Hyacinthus, is named in Englishe Crowtoes. It is also a precious stone of the coloure of golde, called a iacinct, which hath a soueraygne vertue agaynst the common plague, specially if it be sore wozne, that it doo touche the veyne that cometh from the herte.

Hyades, are. vii. sterres, whose names are Ambrosia, Eudora, Pasithoë, Coronis, Plexaura, Pytho, & Tythe, They bee troublouse, and cayse stormes and wyndes. They goe downe the fourtenthe Calendes of Maie. Poetes name them the daughters of Atlas, & Aetheria, wherfore they been also called Atlantides. But because in lamentyng theyr brother Hyas (slayne by a lyonesse) they wozned away and dyed, and therfore translated by Jupiter in to the firmament: They were afterwarde called Hyades, by the name of theyr brother. Some saye, that they were the nourrices of Bacchus, and were called Dodonides Nymphæ, of a town and forest called Dodona. The Romayns called them Succulæ. Also Paralicium.

Hyæna, looke Hyena.

Hyalárgus, gi, m. g. a glasyer.

Hyale, a nymphe, one of the companyons of Diana.

Hyálinus, álina, um, glassye, or of the colour of glasse.

Calices hyálini, drynkyng glasses.

Hyalus, i, m. g. glasse. It is sometyme taken for greene colour.

Hyantius, and Hyanteus, a, um, of Bœotia.

Hyas, ántis, one that was gouernour of Bœotia, of whom they were called Hyantes.

Hyas, hyadis, lyke Hyades.

Hyarbas, lyke Hiarbas.

Hyberia, a region in Asia toyngyng to Armenia, enuironed with the mountayn Caucasus. It is also the olde name of Spayne.

Hyberna, nórum, n. g plu. places where men of warre do reste them in wynter

Hybernaculum, i, neu. ge. a place prepared for men of warre to wynter in.

Hyberna, æ, f g. Irelande.

Hybernicus, a, um, of Irelande.

Hyberno, aui, are, to make abode in wynter.

Hybernus, a, um, pertaynyng to wynter.

Hybernum cubiculum, a wynter chaumber.

Hyberni agni, lambes eaned in wynter.

Hybernum tempus, wynter season.

Hyberus, a great ryuer in Spayne, nyghe to Tarrhacon.

Hyblæus, a, um, of the mountayne or citee Hyble.

Hyble, es, or Hybla, æ, a citee in Sicile, and a mountayne nygh to it, whereon groweth plentie of tyme. And therfore the honye that is there, is of all other moste pleasant.

Hybræas, an orator.

Hybridæ, swyne halfe wylde.

Hybris, hýbridis, fœm. gen. a dogge, engendred betweene an hounde and a mastyue, called a lymmer, or a mungrell. Also a kynd of haukes, whiche seldome is seene in the daye, but seketh his praie in the nyght.

Hycca, a great fysshe, whiche Hermolaus Barbarus taketh for a sturgion.

Hydarnes, or Hydarnus, a noble man of Persia.

Hydaspes, a greatte ryuer in Indie. Looke Idaspes.

Hyderos, ri, m. gene. a disease whan the chynne is fylled with water.

Hydra, dræ, fœm. geuer. a water serpent. It was also a monster, with whom Hercules foughte, and as soone as he hadde stryken of one heade of the monstre, an other sprange vp immediatly.

Hydram secare, to meddle with an endeleste matter, or where one mischiefe happeneth after an other.

Hydor, hydas, or hydos, idem quod aqua.

Hydragógus, gi, m ge. he that dryngeth water to a place by furrowes or trenches.

Hydrárgyrum, ri, neu. gene. a certayne thynge wherwith siluer is gylte in the steade of quicke syluer.

Hydræleon, water mixte with oyle.

Hydrastina, næ, f. g. wilde hempe.

Hydraulax, lácis, m. g. a water sorowe.

Hydráulicus, a, um, pertaynyng to organes, or to an instrument made to drawe vp water.

Hydráulis, lis, m. g. an organe player.

Hydráulus, i, m. g. an instrument to pusshe out the water by violence, or rather to drawe vp water out of a depe place. Also a peyce of organes.

Hydria, æ, f. g. a water potte.

Hydrocéle, hydrocéles, a disease whan a man is bursten, or when the humour falleth into one of the stones.

Hydrocélicus, ci, m. g. he that is bursten.

Hydrolápathon, thi, n. g. a water docke.

Hydromantia, tiæ, f. g. diuination in callyng of spirites to appeare in water.

Hydrómeli, n. ge. vndeclinable, water and honye sodden together.

Hydromphalon, a deade humour gathered about the nauell.

H ANTE Y.

Hydronterocele, the diſeaſe of burſtynge.
Hydrophóbia, æ, ſ. g. a diſeaſe, when the patient feareth water exceedyngly.
Hydrophobus, bi, m. g. he that is a feardе of water, or hateth water.
Hydropycus, a, um, that hath the dropſie.
Hydropiper, ſemeth to be the herbe, which the Apothecaries commonly call Eupatorie.
Hydrópſis, ſis, ſ. g. idem quod Hydrops.
Hydropota, he that drynketh alwaie water.
Hydrops, dróps, the dropſie. It is a ſickeneſſe (as Trallianus wryteth) whiche commeth of the lyuer, made ſo colde, that it maie not ſuffi cientlie boyle the meate that is receiued, and conuerte it into the ſubſtaunce of pure bloude, but turneth it into a watry ſubſtaunce, wynd or fleume. By occaſion wherof (as Galenus and Paulus ſaie) the lyuer beynge feeble, the colde mattier, whiche aboundeth, iſſeuеth into other membres, wherof cometh pll habyte and fygure of the body. It proceedeth of .iii. cauſes: of a primatyue cauſe, as by muche colde drynke immediatelie after labour, bainynge, goynge longe in the ſonne, or drynkynge muche faſtyng. Of a proceedyng cauſe: as of an pll complexion, hotte or colde, or oppilacion, whereby good humours are let to be ingendred, and pll humours to be expulſed. Of a ioynct cauſe: as of water or wynde poſſedynge either all the membres, or onelie them whiche ſerue for nourſhemente of the bodye: of this ſickeneſſe bee three kyndes, Tympanites, Aſtites, Hypoſarcha, Reade more of theym in their places.
Hydrus, druntis, or Hydruntum, i, a citee in Calabria, by the ſea ſyde.
Hydrus, i, m. g. a water ſerpente. idem quod Natrix.
Hydruſa, a citee in the countrey of Athens. Alſo an Ilande called Andros.
Hyela, a citee in the countrey of Oenotria.
Hyemâlis, le, of wynter.
Hyemalis dies, a wynters daie.
Hyemalis vis, ſharpeneſſe of wynter.
Hyemalis locus, a colde countrey.
Hyemátio, ónis, ſ. g. a winteryng.
Hyemo, aui, are, to reſte in the wynter tyme, to wynter, to make colde wether.
Hyemâtus, a, um, froſen.
Hyems, ĕmis, fœm. gen. wynter, tempeſt, great wetherynge, ſometyme ayer.
Magnitudo hyemis, great wetherynge in the tyme of wynter.
Adulta hyems, the myddle parte of wynter.
Affecta hyems, wynter allmoſt ended.
Sub caſum hyemis, a little before the ende of wynter.
Matura hyems, a tymely wynter, cui apponitur tarda hyems, a late warde wynter.
Hyems iam præcipitauerat, it was towardes the later ende of winter.

Hyæna, næ, ſ. g. a beaſte lyke a wolfe, which hath a mane lyke an horſe ouer all his backe & necke, but the heares be longer and harder.
Hygris, a citee of Sarmatia, called commonly Cabardy.
Hygremplaſtra, moiſt playſters.
Hygromyra, orum, moiſte ointementes.
Hygrotes, in trees is the gumme or moiſture that droppeth out.
Hyla, æ, or Hylas, læ, the companion of Hercules, whom he loſte in the borders of Ionia.
Hylæa, a countrey, after whiche a parte of Scythia is called Hylæum.
Hilæus, a Centaure, whoſe incontinence was cauſe of the warres betweene the Lapithes, and the Centaures.
Hylas, a lake of Bithynia, in the whiche (as ſome ſuppoſe) Hyla, Hercules companion was drowned.
Hyllus, the ſonne of Hercules by Deianira.
Hylonome, a woman of the centaures, which after hir houſebande was deade, ſlewe hir ſelfe with his ſwoorde.
Hymantopodes, a lame people in Ethiope, which haue clubbed or croked feete.
Himella, a riuer.
Hymen, minis, neu. gen. a ſkinne in the fore parte of a mayden, whiche whan ſhe is deflowred, is broken. Alſo a longe, longen at weddynges.
Hymenæus, ei, ma, ge, the god of mariage, that ſometyme taken for mariage, alſo a longe of verſes longe at mariages.
Hymera, the name of a ryuer.
Hymetrus, an hyll by Athens, where was hony of all other moſt precioule.
Hymettius, a, um, of the hyll Hymettus.
Hymnus, ni, maſc. gene. a praiſe in a longe, an hymne.
Hyoſcyaminus, a, um, of henbane.
Hyoſcyamos, an herbe called henbane.
Hyoſiris, a certayne herbe lyke dentdelyon, which beyng bruiſed, is verie holſome for woundes.
Hypacaris, a ryuer of Scythia.
Hypæpa, a citee where were meruayloꝰ fayre women.
Hipæthrium, or Hypæthrum, i, n. g. an alleye a gardein, or galery without any couerynge.
Hypagógeus, gei, m. g. an inſtrument, wherwith ſtones are polyſhed.
Hypágum, gi, n. g. a certayne inſtrument belongynge to a ſhippe, as ſome ſuppoſed: but it is rather the ſame that hypagus is, looke there.
Hypallage, es, a figure, whan woordes be ordred ſtande contrary wyſe.
Hyppanis, a ryuer in Scythia. Vitruuius ſayth, li. 8. cap. 3 it is in Pontus. M. Tull. Tuſc. quæſt. lib. 1. ſayth, that Hyppanis, from a parte of Europe, renneth into Pontus.
Hypera, a roode, tied to the ende of the ſayle parde.

Hippus

ypparchus, a philosophier that wrote of the pla netes and tymes of the yere.
ypanis, or as some doo write, Hypanis, Arria-nus calleth it Hyphasis, a great ryuer, whiche renneth out of the mountaynes of Scythia, into Indie, and cometh into the famous ryuer of Ganges, and is in breadth vii. furlonges, as Diodorus writeth lib. xviii. The streame therof is so swyfte, that no man may passe ouer it by the space of. v. daies sailyng. The water is freshe. After that it cometh within iii. daies saylynge of the sea, it is wonderfull bytter, by reason of a bitter fountayne, whiche renneth into it. In this ryuer the great Alexander finished his iourney, and went no further into Indie, but dyd there sette vp. xii. altars of stone, euery of them fifty cubites in greatnesse.
Hypata, a cyte of Thessaly.
Hypatia, a woman of Alexandria excellently learned in Astronompe, and diuers other sciences.
Hypatus, ti, m. g. a consull.
Hypatos, a ryuer of Phœnicia.
Hypenemium, mii, n. g. an egge, whiche proueth not vnder an henne or other byrde.
Hypelates, a hynde of Laurell.
Hypecoon, a weede growing among corne, ha-uyng leaues lyke rue.
Hypenor, a Troian, whom Diomedes slewe.
Hyper, in latine Super, aboue.
Hyperaspites, stis, vel stæ, m. g. a protectour,
a defender, a great shielde.
Hyperbaton, or Hyperbaton, a figure, whan a woorde is transposed from the playne order of construction, to make the oration more pleasant, as, in duas diuisum esse partes.
Hyperbole, es, f. gen. excesse in aduauncyng or depressyng, as, Hygher than heauen, Whyter than snowe, swyfter than lightnynge, slower than a snayle, woorse than the deuell.
Hyperbolicos or Hyperbolicé, the aduerbe, spoken excessiuely, eyther in augmentynge or diminysshyng.
Hyperbolicus, a, um, exceedyng credence.
Hyperborei, people dwellyng in the furthest part of the northe. And as some suppose, vnder the northe pole called Polus Arcticus. Pomp.
Mela writeth, that the countreye is but lyttell, hauyng the sunne ouer them, and is fertile of it selfe, the people verate iuste, lyuyng longer, and more pleasauntly than other men, alwaye without busynesse or labour, knowynge neys ther warre nor debate. Lyke to this dothe Pli-nye write, lib. 4. cap. xii. Solinus saieth, that some men doue appoynt them rather to Asia, than to Europa. Other doue sette them meane betweene the soonne goeyng downe with the Antipodes (whiche are people hauyng their face against ours) and the sonne ryslyng with vs. Fynally he saieth they bee in Europa, where they haue. vi. monethes cõtinually date,
and. vi. other monethes continually nyght. the wyndes there be alwaies holsome. they knowe neyther sykenesse nor vnquietnesse. wherfore Strabo writeth lib. xv. that some men affirme, that they dyd lyue a thousande yeres. Festus Pompeius wryte, that they exceded the lyfe of man, lyuyng aboue. 100. yeres. And therfore were they called Hyperborei, as it were exceedyng the common terme of mannes lyfe. And whan they bee weerye and redyous of their lyfe, as Mela and Solinus write, makyng good cheere with their neyghbours, and hauynge garlandes on their heades, they throw theym selues from a certayn rocke into the depe sea, estemynge that to bee the beste death and fourme of buryyng.

Hypercatalecticum metrum, where abundeth one syllable or two.
Hyperechius, a grammarian of Alexandria.
Hypéricon, ci, neu. gene. an herbe called sainct
Johns wort.
Hyperides, one of the ten oratours of Athens,
whose tungue was cutte out by Antipater.
Hyperion, some calle the brother of Saturne, whiche gouerneth the course of the planettes,
and therfore is named father of the Soonne, the Moone, and the morowe. sometyme it is putte for the sunne.
Hypermnestra, one of the fyfty daughters of Danaus, whiche saued her husbande Linus or Linceus.
Hypérmeter, or Hypermetrus, i, a syllable a-boundyng in a verse.
Hyperthyron, a transumpte or haunce.
Hyperthyrum, that which is nexte ouer the brow of a man.
Hyphear, a kynd of glass mixtieme.
Hyphen, where dyuers woordes bee pronounced vnder one accente: as, Quandoquidem, vtcunq; &c.
Hypnales, adders, whiche stynging a man, he dyeth sleappng.
Hypocaustum, sti, neu. gene. a hotte howse or stewe.
Hypochyma, a grape humour, couerynge the eye,
called also Glaucoma.
Hypocóndrium, drii, neu. gene. the inwarde parte of the body aboue the nauill, and vnder the stomake.
Hypócrisis, sis, f. ge. dissimulacion, feigned hypocrysie, hypocrisie.
Hypócrita, æ, m. g. an hypocrite.
Hypocupres, bowes of Wirche tree.
Hypodesis, or Hypodéma, ătis, n. g. a shooe.
Hypodiastole, idem quod subsținctio.
Hypodidáscalus, an vnderscher or substitute in teachyng.
Hypoglossis, the little flesshe that fasteneth the tonge to the nether parte of the mouth.
Hypógeum, ei, n. ge. a place vnder the ground.
Hypogeson, idem quod Aizoum.
Hypoglossida, lyttell rounde thynges made by physike

phylike to lye vnder ones tongue, whiche is diſeaſed with reumes or greke in the thyote.

Hypolapathum, thi, n. g. an herbe lyke to docke, named patience, and is a kynde of ſorell.

Hypomnema, ătis, and Hypomnématum, ti, n. g. an expoſition or comment.

Hyponemia oua, egges that birdes bryng forth when they be troden of other ſhe byrdes, or females, whiche be vnprofitable, & wyll not be hatched.

Hypomnematógraphi, wryters of commentaries.

Hypoſélinum, ni, idem quod olus atrum, loke there,

Hypopodion, dii, n. g. a foote ſtoole.

Hypopyon, where matter renneth out of the eyes.

Hypoſytes, an inner garment.

Hypoſarcha, one of the kyndes of dropſy, whereby all the body bolneth or ſwelleth.it cometh by the encreaſyng of blonde colde, thyn, and watrie, infuſed into all the membres, in the defaut of the thyrde digeſtion, cauſed by the weakeneſſe of the ſtomache and lyuer, the wayes whereof beyng ſtopped, the power wherby ſuperfluitees are ſeparate and expulſed, is made feeble, wherby the body gathereth vicious iuyce and wyndes.

Hypoſphagma, where the ſkynne of the eye by ſome ſtroke is ſo harte, that the blondde ſodeinly ſpreadeth ouer the eie.

Hypoſtaſis, ſeos, fœ. gen. ſubſtance. It is alſo that whiche doeth ryſe in urine, where there is good digeſtion, if the reſidence be white, light and riſyng in faſhion lyke a peare the ſmall ende vpwarde.

Hypotheca, a pledge alſo a doctrine.

Hypotheſis, an argumente, matter, or cauſe, wherupon one ſhould argue, diſpute, or ſpeake.

Hypothicos, a linnen rother.

Hypothyra, ſeu Hypothyrides, the dooze, or rather the place open, where the dooze is, the dooze roume.

Hypothyſon, a groundſill or threſholde.

Hypozeuxis, a figure contrary to Zeugma, whan euery clauſe hath his propre verbe.

Hypozigia, all drawyng cattell.

Hypochoriaſis, a diſeaſe in horſes eyes, riſyng of a humour, that cometh out of the heade.

Hypſa, a riuer of Sicile.

Hepſea, a blynde womans name in Horace.

Hypſenor, the ſonne of Dolopio, whiche was ſlayne by Euripilus at the ſiege of Troie.

Hypſicratea, the wyfe of kynge Mithridates, whiche folowed hym in all his warres, beynge armed lyke a knight.

Hypſiphile, the daughter of Thoas kynge of Lemnos, whiche whan the women there, by a common conſent, had ſlayne all the men of that countrete in one nyght, ſaued hir father. After whan Jaſon goeynge towarde the conqueſte of the golden fliece, came vnto Lemnos, the beyng in loue with hym, conceiued by hym two children twynnes, and whan they were borne, the women of the countrey wolde haue put hir to deathe, for the ſauyng of hir father: but ſhee in ſleepyng was taken by pyrates, and geuen to Lycurgus kynge of Nemea, whose ſonne ſhe nourylſhed. But whan the Argyues went to deſtroye Thebes, Hypſiphile, whyle ſhe went to ſhewe to the Argyues a fountayne, lefte the chylde lyeynge on the graſſe, who was ſlayne by a ſerpente. Wherefore whan the father of the childe wolde haue put hir to deth, the kynges of the Argyues defended and ſaued hir. Some other wryte, that Hypſiphile (whan the perceyued Jaſon dyd not retourne to hir againe, accordyng to his promyſe) threwe hir ſelfe into the ſea, and was drowned.

Hyrcania, a countrey in Aſia.

Hyrcanius, a, um, of Hyrcania.

Hyrcanum mare, the ſea nowe called Mare Maiocuk, or Mare de Sala.

Hyrium, a citee of Apulia, called commonly Leſina.

Hyrtacus, a Troiane, father of Nyſus, Eneas companion.

Hyſginum, a colour lyke ſcarlet.

Hyſſopites, æ, m. g. and figurately, a. g. a wyne made with hyſſope.

Hyſſópus, pi, m. g. or Hyſſópum, pi, n. g. an herbe called hyſſope.

Hyſteralgia, peyne of the bealy.

Hyſtorologia, & Hyſteron proteron, a maner of ſpeakyng, where the laſt is ſet before the firſt, and as it is ſaied, the carte before the horſe.

I ANTE A.

I, OF OLDE wryters was vſed for V, as Maximum for Maximum.

I, is the imperatyue mode of Eo, and doeth ſignifie, go thou. It is alſo a fourme of ſpeakyng, whan we dooe coteyne, exhorte, or mocke any man.

I nunc, & rebus nimium confide ſecundis, Go to and put all thy truſt in proſperitee.

I nunc, & dormientem excita, Go thy way and awake hym.

Ia, was the ponger daughter of Atlas, and ſounded as muche as a voyce.

Iacchus, one of the names of Bacchus, called god of wynes.

Iacea nigra, is (as Brunfelcius ſuppoſeth) the herbe, which is called Morſus diaboli.

Iáceo, cui, ẽre, to lye, to extende out, or dwell, ſeigth ſometyme to be, to be ydle, to ly vnknowe, to bee vnable, to be dead, to bee contemned or naught naught set by, to be vyle, and of no ꝓice.

In medio campus iacet, In the mydde is a fielde.
Ille iacet, he is dead.
Maximas vero virtutes iacére necesse est, vos iuuate dominante, Carnall delectation ruynge, nedes must excellent vertues be nothyng sette by.
Iacent, they are without vertue, courage, or estimacion.
Iacent virtutes, vertue is naught set by.
Iacent precia, they are of a lowe ꝓice.
Iacet grauiter, he lieth sicke.
Iacet oratio, the oracion is without any grace or spirite, or hath no lyfe or quickenesse.
Iacens animus, a desperate mynde, or out of courage.
Iacente te, thou beyng sicke.
Iacére alteri ad pedes, to lye at ones feete, humbly intreatyng hym.
Iacére prostratum, to lye alonge.
Iacere in oblitione & silentio, to bee forgotten and nothyng spoken of.
Iacére in occulto, to be nothyng renoumed or famouse.
In lacertis alicuius iacere, to lye clypped in ones armes.
Iacere inultum to remaine vnpunished, or to be without reuengemente.
Iacere in marore, to remayne in great heauynesse.
Iacere in sordibus, to lyue as a desperate persone, that passeth not what becommeth of hym selfe.
Rationes iacent, I can not tell what to saie.
Iacent studia, studie and learnyng is nothynge regarded.
Iacent his testibus, they are confounded with these witnesses.
Iacére, to be deade.
Iacens, lyng, beyng situate, also slow, sicke.
Segnis & iacens.
Iacio, ieci, iácere, to throwe, to caste, to hurle, to shoote sometyme to set or lay, to make, to tell, to speake, to publyshe abrode.
Iácere fundamentum, to set or laie a foundacion: by translacion to geue an occasion, or to make awaie to any thyng.
Præceps se iecit in agros, He ranne headlonge into the fieldes.
Iacere aggerem, to make a bulwarke or contremure.
Edicta in populum iácere, to publyshe or set abrode proclamations.
Gradum or aditum iácere, to make awaie or entrance to a thynge.
Odorem iaciunt, they sende out a grete sauour.
Contumelias & probra in aliquem iácere, to saie or speake yll of one.
Iácere minas, to threatten or manace.
Querelas & querimoniam iacere, to complayne.

Iacere ridiculum, to speake or bryng forth a merry geste, to be laughed at.
Iacere sermones, to common or talke.
Significationes iacere, to shewe by tokens and signes, to signifie.
Iacob, a patriarche, soonne of Isaac.
Iacóbus, a ꝓꝑe name, in englyshe James.
Iactans, antis, castyng, bostyng, crakynge, auaunt tynge.
Iactantior gestus, ꝓioude or stately gesture, or braggе.
Iactanter, bostyngly, braggyngly, ꝓioudely.
Iactátio, ônis, f. g. a verynge or troublyng, a tossyng or shakyng, a mouynge or gesturyng, a castyng, a bostyng, crakynge or auauntyng.
Iactatio corporis, the mouyng of the bodie.
Insolentiam & iactationem hominum ferre, insolencie and braggyng.
Temporum nostrorum iactatio, the trouble.
Iactantia, idem.
Iactátor, ôris, masc. gen. a craker or boster, a glorious persone, hat maketh auaunte of his owne ꝓꝑe.
Iactátus, a, um, tossed hyther and thyther, bryuen from coaste to coaste.
Iactátus, us, mas. gen. a tossyng, a castynge, a mouyng.
Iactito, aui, are, to beate often.
Iacto, aui, are, to throwe, to reuolue, to caste or tosse in the mynde, to vexe, to throwe downe, to beate, to auaunte and glorye, to speake vaynely, to set foorth, to tosse, to cast out.
Iactare brachium, to wagge or swynge the arme.
Iactare caput, to caste the heade nowe on the tone syde, nowe on the tother.
Iactare oculos, to gase about, now on one side, nowe on an other.
Iactare pectore curas, to caste and reuolue in ones mynde diuers serious matters.
Iactari febri, to bee tourmented with a feuer or ague.
Iactare dicta iocosa, to bryng forth merry scoffes or gestes.
Iactari sermonibus, to be communed or talked of abrode.
Iactatur hoc vulgo, this is commonly talked abrode.
Iactare se magnificentissime, to ꝓꝑe and auaunte ones selfe aboue the moone.
Ventis iactamur, we be driuen and tossed nowe into one coaste, now into an other.
Iactari vitio, to be spitefully spoken of, to be railed agaynst.
Iactuose, and iactuosus, are redde in no good authour.
Iactúra, æ, f. g. losse, damage, ꝓꝑely thynges cast out of a shyppe in tyme of tempest.
Iactus, a, um, caste, laied.
Iactus, us, m. gen. a throwe, a hurle, a caste, a draught draught with a nette in fyshyng.

Iaculabilis, le, that maye be hurled or caste.
Iaculátio, ónis, f. ge. Iaculamen, & Iaculamentum, ti, a shotte or cast with a darte or iauelyn.
Iaculátor, óris, m. ge. he that hurleth a darte or iauelyn, or one that shooteth.
Iaculatórius, a, um, that pertayneth to shootyng or castyng of dartes.
Iaculátrix, tricis, f. g. the feminine.
Iáculo, aui, are, is sometyme read.
Iáculor, áris, ári, to shoote or caste darte.
Iáculum, li, neu. gene. any thynge that maie bee shotte or caste darte, moste commonly a darte or lyghte iauelyn.
Iáculus, li, ma. gene. a serpente that lyeth vnder trees, and lodaynly with a meruailous violence, pearceth any beaste, which happeneth to passe by hym.
Iadera, a towne of Illyricum.
Ialysos, a citee of Rhodes.
Iam, now, yet, moreouer, ouer and besydes this, furthermore, also incontinent, or foorthwith, immediately, by and by, ere it bee long, now at the length sometyme for Tunc, than.
Iam ne imus? why tarye we? shall we not go nowe?
Iam diu, longe agone, a great while, long sens.
Iam dudum, nowe late, but a while sens.
Iam dudum, is spoken of a short tyme, as of one, two, three, or foure houres, and is most commonly ioigned with verbes of the presente tense, and signifieth the acte to contynue styll.
Iamdudum, a pretty whyle sens and yet styll.
Iam dudum hic adsum, I haue been here a good whyle.
Iam dudum animus est in patrinis, my mynde is on my dyner, and hath been a good whyle.
Iam dudum, sometyme for Iam primum.
Iam iam, euen nowe, by and by, streyght waye.
Iam inde, incontinent after.
Iam olim, a great whyle agone, also in tyme paste.
Iam pridem, a lyttell whyle paste, but late. sometyme foorthwith. also a good whyle agoe, long sens. Iam pridem, is spoken of somewhat longer tyme than Iam dudum, as of fiue or sixe monethes or yeres, or more, or lesse, as the thyng requireth: and is ioygned with the present tense, as Iam dudum is.
Iam tum, for that tyme, euen than, or euen at that tyme.
Iam, already, er this, by this tyme.
Iam redisse oportuit, Thou shouldest haue been here agayne by this tyme.
Iam, for Amplius: as,
Neque iam lactantes appellantur, Neither be they any more called suckyng pygges.
Iam, for post hac: as,
Vestrum iam consilium est, Now hereafter it is your parte to consulte or take hede herefor.
Iam biennium est cum mecũ ille rem cœpit, It is now fully two yeres sens he began.
Iam à pueris, euen of lyttell babes or children.
Plus iam anno scio, It is more than a yere sence I knewe it.
Iam diu est, quod ventri victum non dare, Ye haue not found my belly meate and drynke many a date.
Iam diu factum est, postquam bibimus, It is a great whyle sens we dranke.
Iam iamq; quickely, speedily, by and by. all from hens forth.
Iam inde ab adolescentia, Euen from his young age.
Iam indevsque à pueritia, continually, euen sens he was a litteli chylde.
Iam nunc, euen nowe.
Iam pridem est mihi amicissimus, He is great frend of myne, & hath been many a day.
Iam primum, nowe fyrst of all, now and neuer before. also furste and formoste.
Iambeus, that is of the foote in meetre called Iambus.
Iamblicus, a philosophier of Pythagoras sect, scholar of Porphyrius.
Iambus, a foote in meter, hauyng the fyrst syllable shorte, and the other longe.
Iamesa, a crehe of the Britayne sea.
Iamno, a towne of the people called Balearis.
Iana, the name of Diana.
Ianassa, a nymphe.
Ianiculum, li, neu. gen. a parte of Rome, and a mountayn in it. also a gate of the same name.
Ianira, the daughter of Oceanus and Tethys.
Iánitor, óris, masc. gene. a porter or keper of a gate.
Iánitor carceris, a keper of a prison.
Ianitrix, the femmine.
Ianitrices, bee also the wyues of two brethren.
Iantha, a daughter of Oceanus and Tethys.
Ianthinus, a, um, violet colour, or purple.
Ianalis, le, of Ianus.
Ianua, æ, fœm. ge. a gate, sometyme a doore: by translation, a waie or entrie to a thyng.
A ianua quærere aliquem, to aske for one at the gate or doore.
Quamquam qua nolui ianua sum ingressus in causam, Although I haue entred into my matter by that occasion that I would not haue entred by my good will.
Ianuarius, the moneth of Ianuer.
Ianual, n. g. a kind of cakes consecrated to Ianus.
Ianus, some suppose to be Saturne, some to bee Japhet, one of the soonnes of Noe: Lactantius calleth hym the superiour worlde or heauen. He was made hauyng two faces or visages, either because the heauen tournyng, the yere tourneth where it began: or elles because it knoweth what is passed, and foreseeth what shall happe. Ianum claudere, in old tyme signified to make vniuersall peace. For in the temple of Ianus at Rome, were two doores, whiche were opened when han the Romanes made warre: and whan warre was finished, and all thynges in quiete, han were they that Janus was also a place in Rome, whither vsurers resorted.

anus, the father of Prometheus, soonne of Celum & Terra.

apigia, a countrepe in the realme of Naples, cal ed Calabria.

apigium, a promontory in Iapigia.

as, the propre name of Aetolus.

ax, Iapigis, the soonne of Dedalus, kynge of Calabria, whiche of hym was called Iapigia. also a westerne wynde, whiche cometh out of the partes of Apulia.

bas, looke Hanbas.

chas, the chiefe of the philosophers of Inde.

con, ci, n. g. idem quod Dracontium maius.

ides, the soonne or neuewe of Iasius.

is, Athalanta, the daughter of Iasius.

sius, the brother of Dardanus, and soonne of Electra. also Iasius is the father of Palinurus.

minum, a tree, & litle floure called Iasemine.

on, asonis, he that kyst conquered the golden fleece, and made the notable expedition in to Cholchos, the sonne of Aeson and Alsimede.

onium, a promontorie of Cappadocia, called S. Thomas.

rideus, a, um, of the colour of Iasper stone.

spis, idis, a stone called Iasper.

ponix, nicis, m. g. a precious stone as white as snowe.

sum, an yle of Caria, lynge towarde the maine lande.

atraleptes, tæ, m. g. a phisition or surgion, which cureth with ointementes.

atraleptice, ces, f. g. curyng by ointementes.

atronice, a booke of phisike.

atros, a phisician.

aua, a tree in Spayne called Lara.

axamatæ, people about Scotis.

axartes, a ryuer of Scythia in Asia.

axtes, a ryuer of Scythia.

aziges, people of Metanasta in Europe, on the south parte of Germany, called nowe Septem castra, commonly Sibenburgh, it hath on the north, Armania: on the west and south, Germanie & Pannonie inferior: on the east Dacia.

IBernia, looke Hibernia.

Iberia, the auncient name of Spayne. also an other countrepe nygh to Armenie. It is of some written with H.

Iberi, & Ibres, Spanyardes, or men of the other Iberia.

Iberica, cæ, f. g. an herbe, called of olde writers Spartum.

Ibéris, or Hibéris, an herbe like to cresses, but muche greatter, the stalke is a litell cubite of heyght: In sommer it beareth a white flowre, and hath a litell seede, whiche groweth about all the stalke. Hermolaus doeth interprete it wylde cresses. Manardus writeth, that some men call it Lepidium: Aetius calleth it Cardamina, whiche in latin is Nasturtium, in englysh cresses. wherfore I thynke it to be a kynd of cresses.

Ibéricus, a, um, of Iberia.

Iberus, a ryuer in Spayne.

Ibi, there, than, whan that was dooen.

Ibi vbi est, there as he is.

Duxi vxorem, quam ibi miseriam vidi? I maryed a wyfe, what miserie and wretchednesse dyd I perceyue to be therin?

Ibi homo me cœpit obsecrare, Than he began to entreate me.

Imo & ibi nunc sum, Yes mary, and thereabout I am, or therupon I thynke or muse.

Ibidem, there, or in the same place. sometyme in the same thynge.

Ibidem mihi adnutat, he becked to me out of the same place where he was.

Ibidem loci res erit, the matter wyll be in the same case.

Ibicus, a portes name of Regium in Italy.

Ibis, ibis, vel bidis, f. g. a foule or byrde of Egypt, whiche is high, and hath syxe legges, and a longe bill. Thei profite muche to the countrete in kyllyng and eatyng of serpentes, which out of Libya, be carped into Egypte, with a southern wynde. also it is taken for an ennuious person. looke Plin. li. 8. cap. 27.

ICadius, a notable robber.

Icaria, an yle in the sea Icarium, whiche is also called Icaros.

Icaris patronymicum, of Icarius.

Icárus or Icarius, the father of the chaste Penelope. There was an other Icárus, the soonne of Dédalus, who hauyng wynges, with his father, flewe out of the yle of Crete: But whan he flew hygher than his father commanded: the waxe, wherwith the fethers of his wynges were glewed, melted with the heate of the soonne: And the fethers fallynge of, Icarus was constreygned to fall into the sea, afterward called Mare Icarium. Also Icarus is a mountayne in the region of Athens.

Ichneumō, néumonis, m. g. a beast of Egypt, whiche is now called a mouse of Indie, of the great nesse of a catte, and is fashioned lyke a mouse, who creepeth into the body of a crocodyll, whan he gapeth, and eatynge his bowelles, sleeth hym. it is also a kynde of waspes.

Ichneuta, idem quod Ichneumon.

Ichrei asinus, the herbe mallowe.

Ichnográphia æ, f. g. is a plot concernyng buildynge, wherin is onely contayned the place, wheron the buildyng shall stande, hauyng light by deſcribed with rule and compaſſe, the fourme and faction of euery court quadrant, and floore therin comprehended. alſo an inſtrument like a compaſſe, wherwith are made the deſcripcios of the ſonne.

Ichthicuſa, the ple called Icaros.

Ichthylóbolus, li, m. g. a fyſcher.

Ichthyocólla, a fyſche, of whoſe ſkynne water glewe is made: And the ſame glewe is called alſo Ichthyocolla.

Ichthya, æ, fœm. ge. an inſtrument, wherwith a chylde beyng deade in the mothers wombe, is cutte forth.

Ichthyóphagi, people by ſouth Indie, which dwe eate onely fyſche, and alſo theyr cattell is fedde therwith. They weare garmētes of fyſche ſkynnes. Alſo (as Strabo writeth) theyr houſes be made with whales bones and oyſter ſhelles. The rybbes of the fiſches make the beames and rafters, of the iawes are made the doores, of the backebones are made morters, wherin the fyſche is pounned, and dried at the ſonne, and thereof they make breadde myngled with a litle tell wheate. Arrianus, lib. 8. wryteth, that the ribbes of whales (ſeene there, by the capitains of kynge Alexander) were about. xxxvii. foote. di. longe, wherwith their houſes were builded.

Ichthyopóla, læ, ma. gene. a fyſchemonger, a ſeller of fyſhe.

Ichthyopolíon, polii, n. g. a fyſche market.

Ichthyotrophium, phii, n. g. a powde or ſtewe, wherin fyſhe is nourſhed or fedde.

Ichthys, a promontory in Scaia.

Ico, ici, ere, ictum, to ſtryke.

Icere fœdus, to make a league or truce.

Icon, iconis, f. g. an ymage.

Icónicus, a, um, ſo peincted or fourmed, that in euery membre the very ſimilitude is expreſſed.

Icóncula, a litle ymage.

Iconiſmos, mi, m. g. a deſcripcion.

Iconium, a towne in the countrey of Sicile: an other in Aſia the laſſe. it is alſo a mans owne image like him ſelfe.

Icoſium, a towne in Mauritania Cæſarienſis, buylded by the companions of Hercules.

Ictéricus, he that is diſeaſed with the iaundiſe.

Ictérus, icteri, m. g. a byrde, which if a man ſeche of the iaundiſe doe ſee, he ſhall be healed.

Ictéros, a ſpeckeneſſe called the iaundiſe.

Ictis, idis, a white weaſill, whiche deſtroyeth bee ſtalles, and eateth the hony. After Erasmus it is a fireet. For he ſaith, the latines call it Viuerra. looke the prouerbe, I modo venare leporem, where he correcteth a place in Plautus.

Ictus, a, um, ſtriken.

Ictus, us, m. g. a ſtrype or ſtroke, a blowe.

Ictus fulminis, a blaſtyng with lyghtnyng.

Ictus ſerpentis, the ſtyngyng of a ſerpent.

Languidus ictus pulſium, a feeble beatyng of the poulſe.

Declinare ictum, to auoyde a blowe.

Ictū, is ſometyme red in the genitiue caſe.

Ictus, a famous wreſtlar of Carentine, which to be the ſtronger, abſteyned from women all his lyfe.

I ANTE D.

ID, that, looke Is.

Id quod res eſt, which is trouthe, as the matter is in deede, as the truthe is.

Id ætatis, of that age.

Id curat ſcilicet, he careth much therfore. whe the is ſpoken, as who ſaieth, he careth nothyng for it.

Id locorum, for Id.

Id temporis, at that tyme, or ſuche a tyme.

Id temporis eſt, the tyme is ſurhe.

Ida, æ, fœm. gene. a mountayne, whiche ſtretchyng nyghe Troye.

Idæi dactili, people called alſo Coribantes. whi a precious ſtone lyke a mans thombe, where be many founde in Candie.

Idæus, a, um, of the mountayn Ida.

Idálium, a mountayne and cyte in the Ile of Cyp yres dedicated vnto Venus.

Idálius, a, um, of that mountayne, or of Venus.

Idanthyrſus, a famous kyng of Scythia, which ſubdued a great parte of Aſia.

Idas, æ, the huſbande of Marpiſſa, a man of ex ceilent fauour and beautee.

Idaſpes, a ryuer rennyng by Parthia and Ind and at laſt falleth into the great ryuer called In dus. In this ryuer is founde muche golde and precious ſtones.

Idcirco, or Iccirco, therfore, for that cauſe.

Idea, the figure conceyued in imagination, or were a ſubſtaunce perpetualle. and lyke as one ſcale proceedeth many pyrates, ſo of one Idea of a man, procede many thouſandes of men. and ſemblablye of other Ideas, procede thynges innumerable. So that Idee, be as were externall examples, wherby all other thynges be created. and this is Idea, whereof Plato to ſpeaketh.

Idem, the ſame thyng, or the ſame man. alſo like or ſemblable.

Idem ex qui ſoles, Thou arte the ſame man that thou were wont to be.

In eiſdem illis locis, in the verie ſelfe ſame places.

Idem dicere ſemper, to bee alwaies in one mynde or opinion.

Vno & eodem tempore, at the verie ſelfe ſame tyme.

Alter idem, one as lyke as it were the ſelfe ſame perſone.

Animus erga te idem eſt ac fuit, My mynde or affection towardes you is as it hath bee afore tyme.

Idem ætatis, for eiuſdem ætatis.

Magis eadem, more lyke the ſame woman.

Dianam & Lunam eandem eſſe putant, they ynke Diana and the moone to be all one.

em valet acſi pater iudicaret, It is all one as your father dyd iudge the matter ridem, eſtiones, nowe and than amonge, er nowe and than, often or dyuers tymes,
th a certayne ſpace betweene.
, for that cauſe.
is, a, um, of the mountayne Ida.
graphiæ litteræ, a pryuate letter.
graphum, phi, n. g. a pryuate writyng.
ma, ómatis, n. g. a propre fourme of ſpeech.
pálthia, æ, f. g. the propre facion of a diſeaſe.
x, ícis, com. ge. a man or woman vnlearned.
ſum, the ſame thyng, or one thyng.
on, a ſoothſayer, the ſoonne of Apollo and terra.
lum, li, n. g. a litteli Idolle.
lólatra, æ, m. g. a woorſhipper of ymages, an dolater.
lolatria, triæ, f. g. pdolatrie, woorſhipppnge
f pdols.
lothýtum, ti, neu. g. that whiche is offered nto pdolles.
lothýtia, æ, offerpng to ymages
lum, li, n. g. an pdoll, an ymage.
meneus, a hynge of Candie, whiche came with he Grecians to Troie. In his returne beynge rouded with tempeſtes, he vowed, that yf he eturned ſaulfe into his realme, he woulde of-er what ſo euer he mette fyrſte. Whereforе han he woulde haue offered his ſoonne, who yrſt mette hym at his landpnge: the people a-ole agaynſte hym, and dzaue hym out of the ountrey. Than ſayled he into Apulia, and uilded a citee, whiche he called Peulia, on the mountayne Salentinum in Calabze.
nte, aptly, conuenientely, fitly.
neus, a, um, apt, meete, prope, conuenient:
ſo able, ſufficient, profytable.
doneus author, a ſubſtantiall and ſufficiente author.
doneum tempus, a conuenient tyme.
Aptus & Idoneus.
uea, órum, n. g. plu. meete and apte places.
ea, the daughter of Pzetus kynge of Argones.
lia, idulæ, f. g. a ſheepe that was offred euery Ides vnto Jupiter.
umæa, a region in Syria iopnynge to Egypt, and bordereth vpon Paleſtina.
lume, a citee in the countrete called Idumæa, about the whiche are aboundance of palme or date trees.
us, idaum, plu. tantum, the Ides of monthes, whiche doo diuide Nonas from Calendas.
yia, the wyfe of Aeæta, kynge of Colchis.

I ANTE E.

Ecinoróſi, men ſpeke in the ſpuer.
lecorária, æ, f. g. an herde called ſpuerwoort, lecur, lécoris, & lecinoris, n. g. the ſpuer of a man or other thyng ſpupng.
lecuſculum, li, n. g. a litell ſpuer.
leiune, barely, baſely, coldely, ſcienderly.
leiunium, nij, neu. g. faſtyng, or the tyme that men doo faſte, faſtyng date.
leiúnitas, átis, f. g. barenelſe, baſenelſe, or ſcien-derneſſe of ſtyle.
leiúno, aui, are, to faſte or abſteyne.
leiúnum, i, n. g. the gutte, whiche goeth downe to the foundement. leiúnus, a, um, faſtyng, that faſteth. And by a metaphore, gredy, hungry, bare or bareyne, ſterile. leiunum ſolum, a bareyne grounde.
leiunus ſtilus, a bare or baſe ſtile, that is not thyng enrychyd with weighty and pythy ſen-tences.
leiuni penates, an houſe of ſmall chere, or colde roſte.
leiuna auiditas, a gredy appetite to meate.
leiuna ſaliua, faſtyng ſpittle.
leiunus animus, a baſe mynde of ſmall capacitee.
lens, euntis, goyng.
lentaculum, li, n. g. a breakefaſt.
lento, aui, are, to eate meate afore diner, to breake ones faſte.
lerna, a ryuer of Spayne.
leruſalem, the chefe citee of Judea.
lés, eis, a cite of Iewry, ſituate vppon a promontory of the ſame name.
lesus, the ſoonne of god, and of the moſte pure virgine Mary. Although in the common tranſlation of the Bible in latine, it ſemeth there were dyuers other Jewes ſo named: yet in the hebrue tunge, as Reuchline writeth, in his boke
De verbo mirifico, there was ſome diuerſitee in the letters of the name of our ſauiour, from theim that were in the other called lesus.
For in his glorious and wunderful name were the vowelles called Tetragrammaton, with one conſonante, called Schin, whiche is one S of the hebrues, wherin was a myſticall or hyd ſignifi-cation of his diuinitee, although the whole name be interpreted Sauiour who beyng equall in diuinitee with god the father, begotten of hym before the worlde was created, and without tyme, wyllyngly for the redemption of man, deſcended in to the body of the bleſſed vir-gine, and was conceyued in hir by the holy goſt, the thyrde perſone in godhead, and of hir borne
the .3962. yere after the creation of the worlde:
and beyng god and man, lyued here .32. yeres in fourme of pouertee, and than beyng betrayed by his owne diſciple, was by the Jewes (his owne people) moſt cruelly nailed on the Croſſe,
the yere after the creation of the worlde 3994.

IGitur, therefore, from thens forth, afterward, than.
Quid igitur faciam? Than what shall I doo?
Ignārus, a, um, ignorant, not knowyng.
Ignarus es morum meorum, thou knowest not my factions.
Ignarus philosophiæ, one that hath no skyll in philosophie.
Ignarus docendi, he that knoweth not the waie to instructe or teache.
Ignarum sences quarum lachrymarum esse me, you thynke that I knowe not why you weepe.
Ignatius, an holy bysshop of Antioche, the thyrde after saint Peter, disciple to saincte John the Euangelist. In the tyme of Traian he was condemned to be deuoured of beastes, and as he was ledde towarde Rome with tenne men of warre, whom for there cruelnes, he called Leopardes, he by the waye confirmed all christen men in the faith, as well by prayers as by letters, saiyng in this wyse: So that I maie finde Christe and imbrace hym, I would there should come vnto me fyre, gybbettes, beastes, crasshyng of bones, rentyng of all the bodie, and all the tourmentes of the deuell. When he harde the roryng of lyons, whyche should deuoure him: he ioyously saied: I am the wheate of Christe, let me be grounde with beastes teeth, that I may be founde to be pure and fyne manchet. He was martyred after the incarnation aboute .lxxx. yeres.
Ignauè, cowardly, slowely, with a false herte.
Ignāuia, æ, f. g. cowardenesse: also lacke of courage, lyther nesse.
Ignauit, he made hym a foole.
Ignauiter, idem quod ignauè.
Ignāuus, a, um, cowarde, lyther, vnmanly, false herted, that taketh away the strength or courage of a thynge. also vnprofitable, good to no vse, of no strength or force, slouthfull.
Ignauus, i, a slouche, a lusshe, a lubber, a lurdeine, one that will doo no labour, one that loueth to doo nothyng but eate, drynke, and sleape.
Ignauus dolor, sorow that maketh one sluggysshe, slouthfull, or vnlusty.
Succus ignauus, a iuyce that hath no force nor vertue.
Igneo, es, ere, to bee on fyre, to tourne to fyre, to burne.
Igneſco, ſcere, idem quod igneo.
Igneſcunt iræ, id eſt, accenduntur.
Igneus, a, um, that is brighte, or shyneth lyke fyre, fyrye.
Ignia, certayne faultes, whiche earthen pottes haue in the nealyng.
Igniārium, ij, n. g. any thyng, out of the whiche fyre may be stryken. also wodde that taketh and kendleth fyre quickely. It may be vsed for a fyre boxe.
Igniārius lapis, a flynt stone, out of the whiche fyre is stryken.
Igniculus, li, m. g. a sparke of fyre. It is also a instinction that a man naturally hath to vertue and honestee.
Virilis igniculus, a sparke of manly courage or vertue.
Igniculus deſiderij, the motion or instinction of ones desyre or appetite.
Ignifatio, fēci, ere, to sette on fyre.
Ignifer, a, um, that beareth fyre.
Ignifluus, a, um, that floweth with fyre.
Ignio, iui, ire, to inflame.
Ignipes, ignipedis, that hath a fyrye foote.
Ignifpicium, cij, n. g. diuination by fyre.
Ignipotens, one of the surnames of Vulcane.
Ignis, is, maſcu. gene. fyre. sometyme it is taken for an harlotte. sometyme for loue. sometyme lightnyng.
Ignis ſacer, a sore, wherin is an exulcerating inflammation and bournyng.
Ignis ſancti Antonij, a disease, which doth mortifie and corrupte the membre.
Adiuuare ignem, lowe Adiuuo.
Debacchatur ignis, the fyre ragith.
Ignem elicere, or excutere, to stryke fyre.
Subijcere ignem, to put fyre vnder a thynge, and by translation to minister matter of enuy or hatrede.
Facere ignem, to make a fire.
Aſtrorum ignes, the sterres.
Ignitabulum, li, n. g. a fyre panne.
Ignitus, a, um, fyry, verie hotte.
Ignitum vinum, verie hotte or strong wyne.
Ignituomus, a, um, he that spitteth fyre, the lame is sometyme so called.
Ignobilis, le, vnnoble, vnknowen, foolyshe, of none estimacion.
Ignobilis & inglorius.
Surdæ & ignobiles herbæ, herbes that be not knowen, or any thyng spoken of.
Ignobile gramen, a vile weede that groweth euery where.
Ignobili de loco natus, of a base or vnknowen stocke or kynred.
Ignobilitas, ātis, fœm. gene. baselnes of kynde, vnnoblenes.
Ignominia, æ, f. g. reproche, infamie, slaunder, rebuke, dishonour.
Concisus ignominijs, spitefully slaundered with yll reportes.
Ignominia eſt, it is taken for a great rebuke or dishonour.
Ignominia notari, to be defamed.
Afficere ignominia, to defame, to slaunder, to put to dishonour.
Ignominiārius, a, um, defamed. I woorde out of vse.
Ignominiōſus, a, um, infamous, slaunderous, reprochefull, dishonourable.
Ignom.nis, ne, without renoume, not famous, of no no estimacion.

rantia, æ, f. g. ignozaunce, lacke of knowe ge, and is referred to the witte of a person.
rantio, ônis, lacke to be knowen, and perteyneth to the thyng oz arte.
ion negligentia, sed ignoratione rerum ostium factum est, It chaunced not throughe negligence, but by meane I dyd knowe nothyng, oz by reason that all thynges were to me vnknowe n.
gnoratio sui, whan one foz pryde dooeth not knowe hym selfe.
ôro, aui, are, not to knowe, to be ignozant.
Ne quid huius rei ignores, That you maye not be ignozant in any poynt of this matter.
gnoras me, you knowe not what a felowe I am, oz what maner of man I am.
gnorat nomen suum, he hath forgotten his owne name.
gnoratur, the passiue.
noscibilis, le, tollerable, to be pardoned.
noscens, entis, that quickly forgeueth oz pardoneth.
noscéntia, æ, f. g. pardonyng, forgeuyng.
noscéntior, the comparatiue of ignoscens, id est, propensior ad ignoscendum, more redy to forgeue oz pardon.
nosco, noui, scere, to learne and knowe perfectly. also to forgeue, to pardon, to haue excused, not to knowe oz be ignozant.
A me quæ feram ignoscite, Doo you knowe oz learne of me diligently suche thynges as I will tell you.
Ignosco, is somtyme a verbe actiue, and transitiue, and gouerneth an accusatiue and a dative case: as, Ignoscas mihi hoc vnum delictum, pardone me this one faute.
nôtus, a, um, vnknowen. also ignozant. somtyme Ignotus, is vsed foz Ignobilis.
Obscurus & ignotus.
Pondus auri ignotum, an vnknowen substance of golde and moneie.
Terra ignota, an vnknowen countreie.

I ANTE L.

La, læ, fœ. g. the least portion of a thyng that may be imagined. also the stuffyng of a pudding oz other lyke thyng.
lia, oz Ilua, an yland in the Tuscane sea, where is great plentie of cozne.
le, lis, n. g. plu. Ilia, lium, the guttes.
leos, vel Ileus, lei, m. g. the colyke.
lex, ilicis, fœm. ge. a tree called of some holme, wherof one kynde beareth grayne, whiche the Arabians call kermes.
lia, lium, n. g. great guttes.
Iliacus dolor, the frettyng of the guttes.
liacus, a, um, of Troia.
lias, adis, the warke of Homere of the siege of Troie, Ilias malorum, a prouerbe vsed whan many & great mischiefes & misfortunes happē to a man.

Ilerda, a citee of Spayne called Leyda.
Iliberis, a citee in the prouince of Narbon.
Ilicet, quasi ire licet, a worde, wherby it was notified to the iudges, that they myghte departe whan they would. As one would saie, goe whā ye luste, oz ye maie depart whan ye will, ye may goe shake your eares, and signifieth the matter to be ended. Also by and by, quickely, incontinent. sometyme it is an aduerbe of affirmyng.
Ilicétum, ti, n. ge. a place where holme groweth.
Ilicetus, a, um, of holme.
Ilicó, looke Illicó.
Ilienses, auncient people of the yle Corsica.
Iligneus, oz Ilignus, a, um, idem quod iliceus.
Ilione, the proper name of a daughter of Priamus.
Ilioneus, the proper name of a Troian.
Ilissus, the name of a ryuer in the prouince of Athens.
Ilithyia, a name of Diana.
Ilium, the palace of Priamus. It is taken foz Troie.
Ilius, a, um, of Troie.
Illabefactus, a, um, that was neuer made weake oz feeble.
Illâbor, eris, abi, to slyde oz slyppe in, to renne oz flowe in, to fall in, to enter in.
Illabi animos, to fall oz slyde into the myndes of men.
Mediæ illabitur vrbi, it slydeth forth into the myddes of the citee.
Illaborâtus, a, um, that whiche is made oz done without labour.
Illac, on that syde.
Hac atque illac perfluo, I renne out oz leake on euery syde.
Illacerabilis, le, that can not be torne oz rent.
Illacessitus, a, um, vnstered, vnprouoked.
Illachrymabilis, le, vnmercyfull, that will not bee moued with pitee.
Illachrymo, aui, are, to weepe oz lament vehementlye. sometyme to sweate oz sende foorthe a moyste humour.
Illachrymare mortem alicuius, To weepe oz lament foz ones deathe.
Illædo, læsi, ædere, to violate oz breake.
Legem illædere, to breake a lawe.
Illæsus, a, um, not hurte.
Illætabilis, le, without myrthe, oz lackyng myrthe oz pleasure, sorowfull.
Illapsus, us, m. g. a slydyng oz fallyng in.
Illaqueo, aui, are, to tye oz bynde, to snare, oz entangle.
Illátebro, aui, are, to hyde in corners.
Illaudabilis, le, and Illaudatus, a, um, not worthy to bee named, woorthye no praysle oz commendacion, woorthy no honest report.
Ille, he: sometyme foz Aliquis, some man. It is often vsed Emphasis gratia.

Ille

Ille Cato, that same my frende Cato, that is so renoumed and knowen.
Ego ille, euen I the verate same person, that &c. Lyhewyse Ipse ille, Noster ille, Ille iste, Ille alter, bee eleganteely ioigned together for a more expresse notifying of the thing or persone.
Ne illum talem præripiat tibi, Lest she should begyle the of suche a holy felowe as he is: or of hym, beynge a man of so great price and worthynesse.
Illæc, for Illa hæc.
Illécebræ, thynges delectable, that drayweth and allureth the mynde to imbrace it, a flikeryng enticement, a lure.
Illecebrosè, wantonly, with a wanton intysyng or allurying.
Illecebrôsus, a, um, that whiche pleasauntly allureth one to fauour it.
Illectamẽtum, i, neu. ge. a lure, a prouocation, an inticement.
Illecto, aui, are, to drawe pleasantly.
Illectum, a thyng vared.
Illectus, us, m. ge. an inticyng or allurying.
Illectus, a, um, pleasantely stirred or prouoked, intised, allured, tolled.
Illegitime, vnlaufully.
Illegitimi, vnlaufully begotten, basterdes.
Illepidè, vnpleasantly, without grace.
Illépidus, a, um, without delectacion or grace, vnpleasant.
Illex, illicis, o. g. that enticeth or allureth, wãtõ.
Illex oculus, a wanton eye.
Illex, égis, om g. lawlesse.
Illi, for illic, or ibi, there.
Illibâtus, a, um, vntouched, vntasted, pure, vncorrupted.
Illiberâlis, le, vngentyll, without kyndnesse or curteysy, vnhonest, nothyng liberall.
Illiberalis labor, a seruile labour.
Illiberale facinus, an vncurteys pageant, an vnhonest acte.
Illiberâlitas, âtis, f. g. vngardshyp.
Illiberâliter, vngentilly, exceedyngly yll, mischeuously, vncurteysly, vnhonestly.
Illiberis, a citee of Narbon, after Pomponius: after Ptolomee, the chiefe citee of Granade in Spayne.
Illic, there. also for Ille, he.
Illicet, nowe go to, incontinent, take Licet.
Illicio, illicis, éxi, ĕre, to prouoke or stire pleasauntly, to allure, to entice, to tolle.
Is me hac illexit fraude, he tolled or inticed me by this crafty meane.
Illicere in fraudem, take Fraus.
Illicitè, vnlaufully.
Illicitus, a, um, vnlaufull, vnhonest, vncomely.
Illicium, ĩ, neu. ge. a prouocacion, a thyng that allureth or inticeth.
Illico, anon, by and by, in all the hast. sometyme in the same place.
Illido, si, dere, to dryue or beate to a thynge, to dasshe, to strike vehemently.
Illidere dentes alicui rei, to thrust one teeth into a thyng, to byte
Fluctus littori illidũtur, the wawes beate or dasshe agaynst the bankes.
Illidere manus, to clappe the hande together.
Dentes illidere labellis, to byte his lippes.
Illigâtus, a, um, intangled, knitte, or fastned.
Illigatus alicui amicitiâ, coupled with ouer frendshyp.
Illigo, illigas, âui, âre, to bynde, knytte, or fasten to, to entangle.
Illigare alicui bello gentem aliquam, to cause a countreie or people to take parte with him in a warre that they haue agaynst any other.
Illigari Romano bello noluit, he would not bee intangled, or he would not medle or haue any thyng to doo in the Romayn warres.
Sic illigat sententiã verbis, he doeth so knyt or compacte the sentence with wordes.
Illimis, me, without mudde or fylme.
Illinc, from that place, from that parte. sometyme for Ab illa, from that woman.
Hinc illinc, I can not tell from whens.
Illinio, illinis, iui, ire, to annoynt ouer.
Illino, illinis, lini, léui, linĩ, ĕre, to annoynt harde, to spotte or soyle.
Tectis aurum illinire, to gylte theyr houses.
Illinere chartis aliquid, to put in writyng.
Illipula, an hylle in Spayne called commonly Ilipa, or Ilpa.
Illisus, a, um, dryuen or beate to, dasshed against, or that dasheth or beateth against a thyng.
Illisus, us, mascu. gene. a beatyng or dasshyng against a thyng.
Illiquefacio, quefacis, feci, ere, to melte or make liquide.
Illiterâtus, a, um, vnlerned.
Illiteratum & insulsum.
Illitus, illitus, m. g. an annoyntyng or smerying.
Illitus, illita, um, noynted, smered.
Illitum veneno donum, a present infected with poyson, spoken whan a thynge is geuen for a mischeuous intent.
Illitus fuco, peincted with a falle colour.
Illiusmodi, of that sort, or of that facion, suche.
Illò, to that place, thyther.
Illocabilis, le, that can not be lette out.
Illocabilis virgo, a mayden that can not be maryed.
Illôtus, a, um, foule, vnwashed, slubbered.
Illotis manibus rem aggredi, to go about a great thyng without reuerence, or dishonestly to handell a thyng of great estimacion.
Illotis pedibus, fere idẽ. Also without [illegible] thyng.
Illuc, thyther, to that place. also for Illud, that thyng. Huc atque illuc, hyther and thyther.
Illúceo, lúces, xi, ére, & Illucésco, scere, to be lyght or clere, to shyne, to apere or shew it selfe.
Vbi illuxit, whan it was daie.
Ea nocte, cui illuxit dies cædis, On the night before efore the daie that he was murdered or slain.

Comitas in maximis ingenijs maximè illucet, Curtesy or gentylnesse in moste noble natures weth moste of all appeere and shewe it selfe.
Ctor, âris, ari, to striue or wrastle, to struggle.
do; si, ere, to mocke, to hurte in tappynge or slapyng, to laugh to scorne.
ludere corpori mulieris, to doo vilany to a woman. Penè illusi vitam filiæ, I haue almost lost awaye my doughter.
llado in telas, Idonei in quibus sic illudatis? whom you shoulde mocke after this facion?
lludens in Albutium, scoffing at Albutius, a mockyng Albutium.
Dignum me putas quem illudas? Doest thou iudge me a mete man for the to mocke?
Non impunè in nos illuseris, Thou shalt not laughe vs to scorne, and escape free thy selfe.
lluminatè, playnely, clearely, eloquently.
lumino, aui, are, to geue lyght, to make playn, to make more beautifull.
lluminus, a, um, without lyght.
luis, ne, darke whan the moone doth not shine.
lusio, ônis, f. g. a mockyng or scornyng.
lva, a citee of Spaine.
lustramentum, i, n. g. that maketh more beautifull, manifeste or playne, that doeth commende or sette forth a thyng.
lustratio, ônis, f. ge. a beautifyng, a makyng of a thyng manyfest and playne.
lustratus, a, um, made lyghtsome, made famouse & knowen, declared, also manyfestly proued.
lustris, stre, famouse, cleare, noble in renoume, excellent, well knowen, lyghtsome.
Noctes illustri, in a fayre cleare nyght.
Nihil illustrius dicere possum, I can saie nothing more noble or excellent.
Obscurum & illustre, contrary.
Nihil est ad gloriam illustrius, quàm calamitas ipsa, nothyng bryngeth greattee renoume or praise than calamitee and trouble it selfe.
Illustris & lata via, a fayre broade waie.
lustro, aui, are, to make lyght or cleare, to make famouse or well knowne, to sette forth þ which is hyd, to declare, to make manyfest or playne.
Illustrauit tuam amplitudinem, it commended your nobleneſſe, and made it more famouse and knowen.
Præfacere & illustrare.
lusus, a, um, mocked to scorne.
Vestes illusæ auro, wrought here and there with threddes of golde.
luuabilis, le, that which can not be washed away, or purged from fylthe.
luuies, ei, fœm. g. vncleanneſſe, fylthynesse in man or garement.
Cultus & illuuies, contrary.
lyberis, a citee of Pyrenee.
lyris, illyris, or Illyrium, a countrey which hath on the north both the countreis Pannonia superior and inferior, on the weast Histriam, on the east Mysiam superiorem, on the south the sea Hadriaticum. that countrey is nowe called Sclauonie, or wendenlande.
Illirica, æ, idem quod Iris.
Illyricus, a, um, of Illyria.
Ilorci, a towne.
Ilua, an Ilande by Tuscan, lyke Iba.
Ilurcis, a citee of Iberia.
Ilus, the kynge of Troianes sonne, that buylded Ilium.

IMaginarij, bearers of baners, wherin be images peynted.
Imaginarius, a, um, dooen for a fourme or facion, and not in effecte, that is onely imagined and conceiued in the mynde, and can not be in deede.
Imaginaria emptio, a byeng, that is only for a facion to kepe a custome.
Imaginarius miles, a souldiour only by name that neuer was in the warres.
Imaginâtio, ônis, f. g. an imagination.
Imaginâtus, a, um, figured or fourmed into an image.
Imagino, aui, are, to make images, or to counterfete.
Imâginor, âris, ari, to imagine, to conceyue.
Imaginôsus, a, um, full of images.
Imâgo, imâginis, f. g. an image, a similitude, a representation of a thyng, a lykeneſſe, a counterfete, a paterne, an exemple, the proporcion, the resemblaunce.
Imago rei mihi ob oculos obuersatur, me thynketh I see it.
Imago priscæ frugalitatis, an exmple.
Liberalitatis imago, a similitude of liberalitee, but not very liberalitee.
Vitæ imago, an example or paterne to lieue after.
Nocturnæ imagines, visions or sightes in the nyght.
Super hac imagine cognitionis, vnder this colour or pretence of triall or examination.
Imago expressa, a lyuely image.
Concipere animo imaginem alicuius rei, to conceyue the facion of a thyng in ones mynde.
Imagines maiorum, a petigree, the lyne of ones auncestrie. It is often taken for the nobleneſſe of ones auncesters, and was among the Romaynes, as the armes of noble men be amonge vs.
Imagines subitæ, nobilitee lately ryseu. As of them whose fathers or grandfathers were aduaunced to hyghe authoritee, onely by the fauour of princes.
Imaguncula, a little image.
Imaus, a mountayne in India.
Imantopodes, a people of Ethiope, whiche haue croked legges.

Imbecillis,le,& Imbécillus,a,um, feble,weake.
Imbecillis medicina, a medicine of lyttell ſtrengthe or vertue.
Imbecillitas, âtis, fœ. ge. febleneſſe,weakeneſſe, imbecillitee.
Imbecilliter, febly,weakely,feyntely.
Imbéllia, æ, f. g. cowardyſe.
Imbellis,le, vnapt to warre, cowarde or weake, nothyng manly, timorouſe, fearefull, without courage, womanlyke.
Annum imbellum agere, To paſſe with out warre.
Dies imbellis, a date wheron no battaile is faughte, nor other manly worke or enterpryſe dooen.
Imber, bris, m. g. a ſhowre, rayne, water, euery wattrie humour, ſometyme wepyng.
Imberbis, be, beardeleſſe.
Imbibo, imbibis, imbibi, ere, to drynke in, to receyue in.
Malam opinionem de aliquo imbibere, To conceyue an yll opinion of one.
Imbrex, imbricis, m. g. or f. g. a gutter made of tyle, by the whiche rayne is conueyghed from the houſe. It is alſo the gutter or ruſſe tyle, whiche is croked and halfe rounde.
Imbricâtim, lyke the tylyng of an houſe, with ruffe tyle.
Imbricâtus, a, um, layde with croked tyle. Alſo rough lyke the topgnyng of tyles on an houſe, or lyke a tyle.
Imbricati vngues ſimiæ, halfe rounde.
Imbricata ſementa, layde one vpon an other lyke tyles.
Imbricium, ij, neu. ge. the couerynge or eueſyng of the houſe, with ruffe or croked tyle alſo idem quod Imbrex.
Imbrico, imbricas, aui, are, to make like a croked tyle, to couer with tyle, or other like thynge.
Imbricôſus, a, um, full of gutters, or full of ruffe tyles.
Imbricus, imbrica, um, rayne, or that bryngeth rayny wether.
Imbridus, a, um, ſtormy, rayny.
Imbrifer, a, um, idem quod Imbricus.
Imbrius, a, um, of the towne or Ilande, called Imbrus.
Imbrus, an Ilande of Thrace, and a towne in the ſame is ſo called.
Imbubino, aui, are, to defyle with menſtruouſe fyre.
Imbulbito, aui, are, to defile with chyldernes dryte.
Imbuo, imbuis, bui, ĕre, to dye clothe or lyke, to infecte, to ſtayne, to moyſte or weate, to inſtructe, to teache as one teacheth his prentice.
Imbuere gladium ſcelere, To committe ſome naughty and deteſtable murder.
Imbuere, & inſtituere.
Imbuere ingenium artibus, To inſtructe and adorne the mynde with good ſciences.
Imbuere animos errore, to infect mens myndes with errour.
Vt eum his imbuas opinionibus, That you wold put theſe opinions in his mynde: or that you wold inſtruct hym with thoſe opinions.
Imbui caſtrenſibus ſtipendiis, to take wages in the warre.
Imbûtus, a, um, dyed, infected, ſtayned, inſtructed, ſeaſoned, nouſled, moyſted, deped.
Veſtis imbuta ſanguine, be rayed with blode.
Imbutus præceptis philoſophiæ, nouſled in the preceptes of philoſophie.
Imbutus liberalibus ſcientiis, furniſhed with liberall ſciences.
Sacramento imbutus, He that hath taken an othe.
Literis græcis imbutus, learned in the greke tungue.
Bellum odio imbutum, a warre full of hatrede, ſpite and malice.
Imitabilis, le, that maie bee folowed.
Imitâmen, inis, neu. g. Imitamentum, counterfaite, a folowyng.
Triſtitiæ imitamenta, ſimulation of ſadneſſe, feigned or counterfaited heauineſſe.
Imitâtio, ônis, imitation, folowyng.
Imitâtor, ôris, maſ. gene. one that folowth the example of a thyng.
Imitatrix, the feminine.
Imitâtus, a, um, folowed, imitated, counterfaited.
Imitor, âris, ari, to folowe the example of an other, to counterfaite, to imitate, to be lyke in facion.
Folium alas auium imitatur, the leafe is lyke to a byrdes wynges.
Imitari chirographum alterius, to counterfaite an other mans hande or writyng.
Imitatur ſermones hominum, it endeuoureth to ſpeake like a man.
Mœſtitiam imitari, to feygne ſadneſſe or heuynelle.
Immadeo, immades, mâdui, ère, to bee moyſte or wette.
Immânis, ne, cruell, outragious, fierce, huge, great, horrible.
Immane & manſuetum, contrary.
Importuna & immanis natura, an outragious and fiers nature.
Quæſtus immanis, vnreaſonable lucre or gayne. Ferus & immanis hoſtis, a fierce and a cruell ennemy.
Immanis numerus, a wonderful or exceding great numbre.
Immanis moles, a huge heape.
Vulnera immania, horrible great woundes.
Immane, wounderful, incredible, meruaylous to bee ſpoken.
Immánitas, âtis, f. g. cruelte, greatneſſe, outragiouſeneſſe.
Immanitas precij, the vnreaſonable greatneſſe of the price of any thynge.

nſuetus, a, um, vngentyll, vnpleaſant, vns ttable, cruell, wylde.
rceſco, cui, ceſcere, to corrupt, putrifie, or te.
aure, before the tyme or ſeaſon.
aturitas, ãtis, ſ. g. vnryppenelle, to muche ſt in doyng a thynge before the tyme.
maturitas ſponſarum, when maydens bee t able to be maried.
aturus, a, um, that is not rype, out of ſeaſ
n, that is taken or dooen before the tyme.
maturum conſilium, to haſty counſayle.
llius immaturus obiit, His ſoonne a ponge an dyed before his tyme.
maturа mors, deathe that preuenteth the na rall tyme.
mediate, immediately, forthwith, by and by,
thout tarying.
medicabilis, le, that can not be healed or cu
d.
memor, ŏris, om. g. forgetfull, he that doeth ot remembre.
mmemor es dicipli? Haſt thou forgotten a ſcholar of thyne owne teachyng?
memorabilis, le, vnwoorthy remembrance, ometyme exceedyng great, that can not be re membred.
menſus, a, um, of ſuche greatneſſe, that it can ot be meaſured, paſſyng all meaſure, vnmeaſ urable, exceedyng.
Labor immenſus, exceedyng great labour.
Opes immenſæ, exceedyng great, and innumer able rychelle.
Euphrates immenſum attollitur, the ryuer Eu phrates is ryſen vp exceedyngly or paſſyng all meaſure.
Immenſo plus, more beyonde all meaſure.
Gula immenſa, vnreaſonable gluttony.
Immenſum iter, a wonderfull great iourneye.
mẽnſitas, ãtis, ſ. g. exceedyng greatneſſe.
meo, ãui, are, to goe in, to enter in.
mẽrens, entis, om. g. that hath not deſerued.
mererenter, vndeſeruedly, without a cauſe.
mergo, merſi, gere, to drowne or to plunge a thyng in the water, to diepe.
Immergere ſe in conſuetudinem, to enter into deepe familiaritee or acquaintaunce.
Immerſit ſe in caneum, He is gotten into a ta uerne, or he hath thruſt him ſelfe into a tauerne or brothels houſe.
Vbi iſter amnis immergitur, where the ryuer
Iſter falleth into the ſea.
Immergere ſe in voluptates, to drowne ones
ſelfe in pleaſure.
mmerito and Immeritiſsimo, an aduerbe, with out deſeruyng, without cauſe.
mmeritus, a, um, idem quod immerens.
Immerita gratia, thanke or fauour not deſer
ued. Immerito meo, without my deſerte.
mmerſabilis, le, that can not be drowned.
mmetatus, a, um, ỹ is not bounded or meſured.

Immigro, immigras, aui, are, to go dwell in a place, to enter in.
Immigraui in ingenium meum, I came to myne owne rule, or to bee ruled by myne owne wytte.
Immigrauit auaritia in rempublicam, coues touſeneſſe entred into the common weale.
Imminens, entis, om. g. that is at hande, or ſyke to come to paſſe ere it be longe.
Imminens ingenium, a rennyng witte.
Imminens Dario, willyng to aſſayle Darius.
Geſtus imminens, an earneſt & lyuely geſture.
Immineo, nui, nẽre, to hange or houer ouer a thynge as it would fall, to be at hande, to bee ſyke to come to paſſe ere it be longe, to take hede or eſſye. alſo to be nygh. ſometyme to ſtand by.
Mors propter incertos caſus quotidie immi
net, Death through vncertayne chaunces, is ey uery day nigh, or at handz, or hangeth euery daie ouer our heades.
Bellum imminet ab Tarquinis, It is at the poynt to haue warre with the Tarquines.
Imminet exitio alterius, he is readye to ſlea the other.
Imminent in fortunas noſtras, They are at hande and ready to robbe vs of our goodes, or ſeeke or eſpie an occaſion to robbe vs.
Impendere & imminere.
Inſtare & imminere.
Imminebat in occaſionem, he was ready lo
kyng for ſome opportunitee or occaſion.
Imminebant animis in propinquam ſpem,
They had a good hope that the thynge woulde come to paſſe ere it were longe: or they loked ey uery daie that it ſhoulde come to paſſe.
Imminent duo reges toti Aſiæ, two kynges ſeeke meanes and occaſions to bryngeall Aſia vnder theyr dominion.
Imminere rebus, to eſpie or ſeeke occaſion, to geat the imperiall dominion.
Qui deditioni imminebant, whiche did ſeeke and eſpie opportunitee to yelde vp the citee.
Imminuo, minui, uere, to diminiſhe, to make leſſe, to abate, to cut of.
Imminuere caput alteri, to breake ones head.
Imminuere ius, to defalcate or miniſhe the aus thoritee or ſtate of a perſone.
Amplificare & imminuere, contrary.
Imminuere ſummam, to abate of a ſumme, to diminyſhe.
Imminuere maieſtatem, to commyt treaſon.
Imminuere pudicitiam virginis, to deflowre a maiden.
Imminutio, onis, a diminucion, a makyng of a thyng leſſe, or more ſclender.
Imminutus, a, um, made leſſe, diminiſhed, decaied Immiſceo, ſcui, ſcere, to mingle together, to put in a morter to beate or pouder, to pouder.
Immiſcere ſe alicui bello, to meddle or take parte in any warre.
Immiſcere ſe coloquijs, to begynne to talke or fall in communication with other.

Immiscere se rei alieni, to meddle in an other mannes matter.
Immiserabilis, le, that no man dooeth pitee, help, or succour.
Immisericordia, æ, f. g. vnmercifulnesse, lacke of pitee.
Immisericorditer, without pitee, vnmercifully, cruelly, rigorously.
Immisericors, ordis, om. g. vnmercifull, without pitee.
Immissio, onis, a sendyng or puttyng in, a settyng, a grafftyng.
Immissum, laped in to abyde, as a beame into an house or other lyke thyng.
Immissus, a, um, sent in, cast in, put in, laped in, suborned, sent priuily, let slyppe. also longe.
Immissa barba, a longe bearde.
Canes immissi cerui, the dogges let slippe at harres.
Immitis, te, om. g. cruell, without pitee, rigorous, vngentyll.
Immitia poma, appulls which are not pet rype. Lykewyse Vua immitis, a soure or hard grape.
Immite & turbatum cælum, a tempestuous & troublous wether, a verate vnpleasant ayre.
Immite pectus, a cruell and hard herte.
Immite Pelagus, a troublous sea.
Immitto, misi, ere, to sende in, to suborne or bryng in craftyly, to cast in. sometyme it signifieth to let growe in length.
Neque barbam immiseris istam, Neyther leat this beard growe in length.
Respicimus dira illuuies immissaque barba, we beholde, O what an horrible spyghtfull, & a beard growen in length also to bryngе or sende on the contrary part.
Hoc futurum esse dixerunt, vt post breue tempus immitteret deus regem, qui expugnaret Iudæos, It should come to passe (saied thei) that god should sende to the contrary parte a kyng, which should vanquisshe the Jewes.
Aiũ Tarquinium à Cicerone immissum aiebant, ne Crassus suscepto malorum patrocinio, rempublicam turbaret, some saied that Tarquine was suborned, or caused by Cicero priuily so to dooe, lest Crassus in takyng on hym the defence of misdoers, should therby cause trouble or sedition in the weale publike.
Immittere rudẽtes, to let goe ye ropes or cables.
In medios hostes se immisit, he thrast him selfe into the myddes of his ennemies.
Aliquos in bona alterius immittere, to sende men to robbe, spoile, and take ones goode from him. Lykewyse Immittere in rempublicam.
Immitrere se in voluptates, to drowne hym selfe in sporte and pleasure.
Immittere iniuriam in aliquem, to do iniurie or wronge to one.
Ne in aures immittas tuas, Dooe not geue eare to it, dooe not heare it.

Immo, or rather Imo, but rather, yea rather, yea, yea but. sometyme nate, nate rather.
Immo pernegat, nate he denieth it vtterly.
Immo optima causa est, yes mary, it is a verey rightfull and good cause.
Immo certe, without doubte.
Immo aliud, nate it is not that, it is an other thynge.
Immo etiam, nate or yea, but that more.
Immo vero, Immo etiam, Immo certe.
Immobilis, le, vnmouable.
Immobilibus oculis contueri solem.
Immoderatè, immoderately, vnmesurably, intemperately, to beyonde measure.
Immoderatè ferre res secundas, to prosperre to be proude or lofte.
Immoderatè ferre res aduersas, contrary.
Immoderãtio, ônis, f. g. immoderatenesse, vnmesurelynesse.
Immoderãtus, a, um, immoderate, intemperate, without meane or measure, out of rule, vnruly, wylde.
Immodestè, out of measure, also to much lasse, vnmannerly, malapertely.
Immodestia, æ, malapertenesse, lasinesse, immodestye, vnsobernesse.
Immodestus, a, um, without temperaunce, immodestie, wylde, vnruly, vnsobre, vnmanerly, malapertte, lasciue.
Immodesti mores, malapertte behauour.
Immodestum iocandi genus, an vnmanerly or to lasciue a facion in scoffyng or mockyng.
Immodicè, to muche, out of measure, exceadyngly, immoderately, to beyonde measure.
Immodicè ferre, idẽ quod Immoderatè ferre.
Immodici, many.
Immódicus, a, um, great or muche, vnreasonable, vnresonable, to muche, excessiue, sometyme to many.
Immodica oratio, to longe.
Labor immodicus, excessiue labour.
Immodulatus, a, um, not scanned or song in measure, vnpleasant, without melodie proporcion or measure.
Immolatio, ônis, f. g. a sacrifisyng.
Immolãtor, ôris, m. g. one ye offereth in sacrifice.
Immolãtus, a, um, builded, erected.
Immolo, immolãs, ãui, ãre, to offer in sacrifice.
Immórior, immori, to dye on a thyng.
Ferro immori, to die on a swoordes poinct.
Studijs immori, to be continually in studie.
Immorór, ãris, ãri, to abide or continue in a thyng.
Immorari honestis cogitationibus, to bestowe muche tyme in musyng and thinkyng on honest thynges.
Immortalis, le, immortall, that lyueth euer, that shall neuer decay, or faple.
Immortalia facinora, actes that wyll neuer be forgotten.
Herba immortalis, a weede that wyll neuer be kylled.

Immor-

ortalitas, ātis, fœ. g. a perpetuall lyfe, im ortalitee, euerlastingnes, euerlasting name, erpetuall memorie.
Mihi immortalitas parta est, I am nowe in euen.
Commendare immortalitati, and Reddere mmortalem alicuius memoriam, To make ne remembred and spoken of so longe as the orlde standeth.
nortaliter, immortally, perpetually.
mmortalé, for Immortaliter.
mōtus, a, um, that is not moued or stirred, edfast, imouable, firme, cōstant, ꝑ varieth not.
Fides immota, firme, constant.
umina immota tenere, to loke stedfastly.
mulgeo, mulsi, or mulxi, gére, to mylke, or ylke in.
Labera infantium labris immulgere, To ylke in to the childes mouth.
mūgio, mūgis, giui, or gii, gire, to lowe, to ore, to make a great noyse as the sea dooth.
mundus, a, um, foule, vncleanly, filthy, slut yshe, neasty.
mūnis, ne, exempt, without office or charge,
ree, that payeth no tribute.
Virtus immunis non est, Vertue is neuer dell, but doeyng somewhat.
Immunis & vectigalis, contrary.
Immunis huius mali, nothyng suspected of his offence.
Immūnis militia, exempt from goyng to war.
mūnitas, ātis, s. ge. franches or libertee.
Dare immunitatem, To graunte libertee, to exempte.
munificus, a, um, that beareth no office nor charge.
munitus, a, um, not defended, not fortified, vnfenced.
murmuro, aui, āre, to murmure within one,
to make a great noyse.
Syluis immurmurat Auster, maketh a great noyse.
Immurmurare palato, To make a mumblyng in the rouke of the mouthe.
mūstulus, Immūsculus, or Immissiulus, li, m. g.
after Festus it is a kynde of egles, but not so strong as the Egles, and appereth only in the sprynge tyme; Plinie writeth, that some tooke it for a yong Vulture, and Massarius, for a yong egle, before his taple wareth white.
mmutabilis, le, vnchaungeable, that can not bee chaunged, constaunt.
mmutabilitas, tātis, fœ. ge immutabiliter, vns chaungeableneſſe, constancie.
mmutatio, ōnis, s. g. a chaungeyng or alteryng.
mmutātus, a, um, chaunged altered. also vn changed.
mmutesco, mūtui, scere, to be dumbe, to kepe silence, not to haue a worde to say.
mmūto, āui, āre, to chaunge, to alter sometyme not to chaunge one thyng for an other.

Adeo homines immutari? Is it possible for men to bee so chaunged or altered?
Immutare se in re aliqua, to chaunge or alter his mynde in a matter.
Alienare à se aliquem, & se illi immutare,
To chaunge his mynde towarde hym, and of a frind to become a foe.
Immutare aliquid de institutis, to alter.
Immutare vultum, to chaunge countenance.
Imo, lowe Immo.
Imola, imolæ, a citee of Italy, sometyme called Forum Cornelij.
Impacātus, a, um, not pacified, not apeased.
Impāctio, ōnis, fœ. g. a strikyng or dashyng to gether of two thynges.
Impāctus, a, um, dashed or beaten agaynst a thyng.
Impactus in carcerem, cast in prison.
Impāges impāgis, fœ. g. a tenon, whiche is put into the mortays. also a pynne that is dryuen into tymber, to make it toygne and abyde.
Impālleo, lui, lére, to ware pale.
Impāncro, āui, āre, to inuade or go into a place.
Impar, imparis, om. gene. not equall, not suffi cient, vnlyke, odde.
Impar certamen, in contention, or in games nyng, where is an vnequall matche.
Imparātus, a, um, vnready, vnpourueyed, vns prepared.
Imparati tum à militibus, tum à pecunia, not hauyng in a redinesse either souldiers or mo ney: or vnprouided both of souldiers and also of money.
Imparens, entis, om. g. disobedient.
Impāriter, vnlykely, vnequally, vneuenly.
Impartio, lowe Impertio.
Impasco, aui, scere, or Impascor, impasceris,
idem quod pasco, or pascor.
Impastus, a, um, vnfed, vnpastured, hungry.
Impatibilis, le, that whiche can not bee suffered or sustayned, vntollerable.
Impatibilis cruciatus, intollerable tourmētes.
Impātiens, entis, om. g. vnpacient, that can not suffre or abyde a thyng.
Impatiens vetustatis, that will not endure longe.
Laboris impatiens, that can not abyde
labour.
Impatiens hyemis, that can not abyde the sharpenesse of winter.
Impatienter, impatiently, hardely, with great peyne.
Impatiēntia, æ, s g. impatience, vnsufferableneſſe, whan one can not endure or suffer a thyng, as,
Impatientia frigorum.
Impāuide, boldly, stoutely, without feare, with a hardy stomake.
Impāuidus, a, um, that feareth not, bold, stout,
without dreade.
Impeccabilis, le, that can not offende or doo amysse.

Impedâtus, a, um, vnderset, propped vp.
Vitis impedata.
Impedimentum, ti, n. g. lette, impediment.
Impedimenta, the cariage and other thynges necessary, that goeth with an hoste.
Nisi quid impedimenti in via passus est, Except he had any lette by the waie.
Impedimento esse, to lette.
Superabat impedimenta naturæ, he dyd ouercome the lettes and incommodites of nature.
Inferre impedimentum, to lette.
Pati impedimentum, to be lette.
Impédio, impedis, diui, ire, to lette, to staye, to cumbre, to disturbe, to intangle, to bring in the briers.
Impedire se & implicare, to intangle or wrap hym selfe in busynesse.
Impedire, and Expedire, contrary.
Impediri & alligari in re aliqua, To be cumbred or intangled in a mattier.
Impedire iter, to stoppe ones iourneye, and make that he can not haue free passage.
Nihil impedio, I lette you not. also I passe not, I care not.
Frænis impediuntur equi, The horses be bridled.
Pudore impedior, I can not for shame.
Impeditio, ônis, fœm. ge. a lettyng, hyndryng, or cumbryng.
Impeditus, a, um, properly he that hath his frete so bounde, that he can not goe, lette, cumbred, entangled, broughte in the briers, shakled, popstered.
Iter impeditum, a troublous or combrous iourney.
Viden' me tuis consiliis impeditum? Dooest thou not see, that thorough thy counsayle I am brought in the briers?
Impedo, impedas, aui, are, to vnderset, to prop vp, to stake vp with a forke or other thyng.
Impéllo, impuli, ĕre, to persuade instantely, to inforce, to thruste violently, to driue forwarde, to pluche downe, to enfeeble.
Impulit vt crederem, he persuaded me to beleue it: or he forced me with reasons to beleue hym, whether I wolde or no.
In fraudem impelli, To bee persuaded to a thing that wyll bee to his hurt and daunger.
In fugam impelli, to be putte to flyght.
Ad iram impellere, to stire to anger.
Impellere in spem, to put in hope.
Impellere atque hortari, to persuade and exhorte to a thyng.
Impelli, atque incendi ad aliquid faciendum, to bee stirred and incensed to doo a thyng.
Impellere mugitibus auras, to moue the ayre with his loude crying.
Impéndeo, impendes, di, dĕre, to hange ouer ones head, as it were readie to fall, to be lyke to chaunce or happen within shorte space, to be nere at hand.
Tanta tibi impendent mala, So great mischieues hange ouer thy head, or bee lyke to fall or chaunce to the ere it bee longe.
Impendĕre & imminere.
Impendet procella reipublicæ, Some great storme of trouble or busynesse wyll chaunce to the common weale ere it be longe.
Impendebat mons altissimus, There hyng hende ouer a verie high mountayne.
Impendentis mali nescius, not knowyng of the great mischiefe that was at hande.
Impendent te mala. Terent. mischief hangeth ouer thy heade.
Impendio, verie muche or more, exceedyngly more and more.
Impendio magis animus gaudebat mihi, my hert was meruaylous ioyfull and glad the more and more.
Sed loquatior impendio & promptior, but verie talkatiue, to to full of wordes and meruylous redy therto.
Ille impĕdio magis odit Senatũ, he is so much hateth the Senate, or the nobles of the citie.
Ille minus minúsque impendio curæ, he is by me still lesse and lesse by a great sum.
Impendiósus, a, um, that spendeth more than nedeth, to liberall.
Impéndium, ij, n. ge. expence or coste, lamentyng gayne by vsury.
Ad assem impendium reddere, to pay me euery farthyng of his costes & charges agayn.
Rationem impendiorum posse re, to demande a reckenyng of that is layde out.
Conferre impendia in educationem, to bestow some coste vpon ones bringing vp.
Impendo, di, dĕre, to spend or laie out money, to bestowe, to employe.
Impéndere de suo, To bestowe of his owne coste. Biennium impéndere, to bestowe the space of two yeres. Ephewyse Operam, curam, studium, sumptum, laborem, tempus, vitam impendere.
Impenetrábilis, le, that can not be perced or entred into, impenetrable.
Pudicitia impenetrabilis, of chastitie or honestee vncorruptible.
Impenitrâle, lis, neu. g. that, wherof the inner most parte can not be entred into.
Impensa, benefites.
Impensa, æ, fœm. gene. expence, coste, charge, sometyme a benefite.
Officiorum impensam facere, To shewe diuers friendely pleasures and good turnes to one.
Impensas agere in rem aliquam, to bestowe coste.
Parcere impensæ, to spare coste.
Leuis impensa, lyght coste.
Ingentes impensæ, contrary.
Impensè, greatly, exceedyngly, passingly aboue other.

Est impense improbus, he is a very ylle man.
Impense doctus, verye well lerned.
Impensibilis, le, without consideration.
Impensius, extedynge, moze greuouse oz displeasaunt, moze ernestly, extedyngly much.
Impensus, a, um, bestowed, layed out. Also eyche, boundant, vehement, great. Sometyme intolerable, greuous, peinfull.
Impensa voluntas, for propensa.
Impensa libido, extedyng great.
Impense preces, great oz vehement prayers.
Ingrato homine nihil impensius, moze vntollerable.
Cura impensior, greatter care.
Imperator, óris, m. g. the chiefe capitayne in warres, nowe the emperour.
Imperator vitæ & necis, that hath in his power both lyfe and death.
Imperatorius, a, um, belongyng to an emperour oz great capitayne.
Imperatrix, icis, f. g the empresse.
Imperatus, a, um, commaunded, bydden.
Imperata facere, to doe that one is cõmanded.
Imperceptus, a, um, that can not be taken oz perceiued.
Impercussus, a, um, vnstriken.
Pedes impercussos mouere, to moue the feete without noyse.
Impéritus, a, um, that was neuer lost oz destroied.
Imperfectus, a, um, vnperfecte.
Imperfossus, a, ũ, that is not digged oz thrust thoroughe.
Imperiosè, stately, tyrannously, proudely.
Imperiosus, a, um, imperiouse, lozdely, stately, full of commaundementes.
Imperiosus vir, a maisterly man, rigorous, oz cruell in gouernaunce.
Imperiosus sui, he that maystereth the passions and affections of his owne mynde.
Imperiosa Dictatura, of great authozitee.
Imperitè, vnexpertely, vnlearnedly.
Imperitia, æ, f. g. lacke of knowlage, ignorance, vnskilfulnesse.
Imperito, áui, áre, to rule oz gouerne.
Imperitus, a, um, not experte, easy to be deceiued, vnlearned, rude, ignorant, vnskilfull.
Imperitus & callidus, contrary.
Imperitum vulgus, the rude and ignozant people.
Imperita multitudo, the simple people.
Imperitus rerum, hauyng no experience of the worlde, not knowyng the worlde.
Imperium, ii, n. g. a solemne commaundement, a preeminence in gouernance, authozitee totall, power, dominion, empirie.
Arbiter imperij, gouernour of the empire.
Imperium exequi, to dooe that is cõmanded.
Satis pro imperio quisquis es, stately oz imperiously spoken what so euer thou be.
Facile est imperium in bonis, it is an easye thyng to gouerne honest men.
Si quid impery est in te mihi, If I haue any authozitee to comaunde the.
Imperium tuum est apud nos, we remembze well that you commaunded vs.
Accipere imperium, and abnuere & Detrectare imperium, contrary.
Imperium tuum demutat, he doeth agaynste your commaundement.
Habere imperium, to be maister oz gouernoz.
Duro imperio habitus, gouerned cruelly oz rigorously.
Proferre imperium suum, to shewe his authoritee oz power. also to enlarge his seignorie oz dominion.
Cum imperio esse, to be in authozite, to beare a rule, to be in some great rule oz office.
Omnes imperium esse Publio Scipioni in Hispaniam iusserunt, All commaunded that Scipio should haue the gouernance of Spaine.
Imperuiatus, a, um, that is neuer sworne by.
Impero, imperas, aui, are, to commaunde, to commaunde with authozitee, to enioyne, to haue the maistrie and lozdeshyp ouer other, to rule.
Imperare cupiditatibus, to rule the desyres oz appetites of the mynde.
Imperare animo nequiui, quin &c. I could not chose, I could not rule my mynde.
Imperare dolori, to ouercome sozow, and take it patiently.
Imperare sibi silentium, to settle hym selfe not to speke.
Imperare tributum, to exacte oz require tribute oz payment of money.
Equites imperare ciuitatibus, to command and ozdeyne citees, to set foozthe hozsemen oz men of armes.
Obsides imperare, to command oz require hostages oz pledges for assurance of peace.
Imperor, the passiue.
Impermissus, a, um, vnlaufull, that is not permytted.
Impersonâlis, le, that hath no persones.
Impertérritus, a, um, nothynge abashed oz afraied, stoute, hardy.
Impertio, tiui, tire, & Impertior, tiris, tiri, to parteipate with one, to geue parte of that, whiche he hath, to communicate.
Impertire salute aliquem, and alicui salutem, to salute.
Impertitur, parte is geuen.
Impertit tibi multum saluti, he saluteth you hertely. Studium philosophiæ impertire, to bestowe parte of ones study in philosophie.
Huic rei aliquid temporis impertias, bestowe sometyme vpon this matter.
Impertire aliquem osculo, to kysse one.
Dolorem suum alicui impertire, to communicate his sozow with one, oz to tell him of it.
Sed cesso herum hoc malo impertire, to tell my maistres of this mischefe.

Colegæ meo laus impartitur, part of the prayse is geuen to my companion in office.
Impertire alterum rem alterius, and alteri de re aliqua, to make an other part taker of a thyng to gyue hym part of it.
Imperturbatus, a, um, not disturbed, not troubled, nothyng abasshed.
Imperturbata lux, a clere and caulme day without wynd or cloudes.
Impéruius, a, um, that can not be passed or gone thorough.
Impesco, scere, to put a beast into a good pasture to fede.
Impetigo, ginis, f. g. a trynge woorme.
Impetor, impetis, tiui, tere, to inuade, to assayle or set vpon.
Impetrabilis, le, that may be gotten by desyre.
Impetrabilis dies, a daye, in the whiche a man easily obteyneth his desyre.
Impetrabilis orator, an oratour that easily obteyneth that he would haue.
Impetratio, ônis, f. g. an obteinyng by prayer.
Impetrátus, a, um, obteyned by desyre.
Impetrasso, trâsi, ssere, to get by desyre or instaunce.
Impetritus, a, um, infixed, mortayled, as it were in a stone.
Impetro, impetras, áui, âre, to obteyne by requeste.
Impetrare & exorare.
Impetrare cum gratia, and voluntate impetrare, to obteyne with ones good wyll.
Ex pœnitentia veniam impetrauit, he beynge sory for that he had don, obteyned forgeuenes.
Impetuósus, a, um, violent or hasty in wrath.
Impetus, impetus, & impes, pĕtis, m. g. violence, an inuasion, a vehemency, a brayde, a brunt, a rase or lese in rennyng.
Impetus animi, vehemencie of the mynde.
Impetum dare vel facere, to inuade, to renne with a great randon on any thyng.
Primo impetu, at the fyrst assaute, at the fyrst brunt. Impetum excipere, to receiue or abide the brunt. Impetus repentinus, a sodein braide Feruntur omni impetu, they renne with all their violence and force.
Capere or sumere impetum, to fetch his leafe, and renne with all his myght.
Vno impetu, one after an other without taryng. Impetum facere in bona & fortunas alicuius, to inuade and take awaie wrongfully by force a mannes gooddes and possessions.
Impexus, a, um, vnkembed, vndecked, vntrimmed.
Impico, impicas, áui, âre, to pitche or couer with pitche.
Impiâtus, not pourged of synne, contaminate, defyled.
Impiè, wickedly, cruelly, mischeuously.
Impietas, atis, f. g. hatred of god, cruelnes, wickednesse, impiete.

Impiger, gra, grum, diligent, not slowe, bysye, quicke.
In scribendo impiger, diligent in wrytyng.
Vir ad labores belli impiger, a diligent man and meete to abyde the peynes and trauayles of warfare.
Impigrè, diligently, without slouthe, quickely.
Impigritas, âtis, f. g. diligentnesse, quickenesse, valiantnesse.
Impingo, pĕgi, pingere, to hytte one in thy wyng some thyng at hym, to throwe against a thyng, to beate or dasshe.
Dicam tibi impingam grandem, I will lay weyghty matter to thy charge.
Impinges me in magnam litem, thou wylt cast me.
Impingere fustem alicui, to geue one a knocke with a cowgell.
Caput parieti impingere, to knocke ones hed agaynst the walle.
Impingere compedes, to put on gyues.
Impingere culpam in aliquem, to lay the blame on one.
Impingere nauem, to renne the shyppe on a roche, or to dryue hym on lande, or to renne the shyp on grounde.
Impingere alicui epistolam, to sende a letter to one. Impinge pugnum si mutuerit, geue hym a bore on the eare, yf he speake one woorde, & yf he ones whysper.
Venenum impingere, to poyson.
Vulnus impingere, to wounde.
Impingi, sometyme for Impelli.
Impinguo, aui, are, to make fatte.
Impio, aui, are, to defile, to distayne ones lyfe with a dishoneste or foule deede, specially against god or his parentes.
Impius, a, um, cruell, hatyng god and good men, wicked, that careth not for god, an vngracious man, a mischeuous man.
Implacabilis, le, that can not be pleased, pacified, appeased, or reconciled.
Implacâtus, a, ũ, that is not pleased or contented.
Implácidus, a, um, idem.
Implacabiliter, after that sorte that he can not be pleased or reconciled.
Implâno, aui, are, to deceiue.
Impleo, eui, ere, to fyll, to fulfyll, to accomplish, to put in execution.
Implere vicem alterius, and Vices implere pro alio, to take in hande an other mannes charge, to exercise an other mannes office, to do an other mannes dutie.
Implet vlnas hominum quatuor, it is fully two fathomes about.
Canes implentur vno coitu, Bytches are with whelpe with ones lyenyng.
Religionis iustæ impleuit, he made them moost folowers of honest religion.
Adolescentem suæ temeritatis impleuit.
Impleuit centum annos, he was fully an hundred

ed yeres olde.
marmudinem inimici impleuit, he shewed n selfe as rigorous and sharpe as if he had n his ennemie.
iem sermonibus implere, to passe the daie talkyng.
ducentanis auxilij hostes impleuerunt: they d spred the rumor or bruite ouer all theyr enes ies, that.&c. ures implere sermonibus, to fyll ones eares
th babblyng.
ormidinis implere, to put in a great feare.
fficium suum implere, to do his dutie.
romissum implere, to kepe promise, to fulfyl s promyse.
xtemplo spei impleuit, by and by he put him great hope: or made hym conceyue a great ope.
mplere superstitione, to make verate superes tious. Vides, cuius debes implere vestigia,
Thou seest, whose steppes thou shouldest folow Cursum vitæ implere, to leade the hole course
f ones lyfe.
Numeros principis implere, to doe in all poin es as a prince shoulde doe.
Xaro modius grani noui, xvi. libras implet, it seldome that a Roman bushel of corne doth ot weigh xvi. pounde.
plexus, a, um, wounde in, folded in. somtyme or Complexus, sometyme for implicitus.
plicitus, a, um, wrapped or tyed fast together, latted or broided, intangled.
mplicitus morbo, attached or deteigned with ckenesse.
Miseria implicitus, wrapped in miserie.
mplicitus suspicionibus, suspected of dyuers matters.
Colligatum atque implicitum, knit and plat ed together.
plicatio, onis, fœ. g. a plattyng, broidyng, or intaglyng one within an other, a wrappyng ne within an other.
plicite, obscurely, intricately.
plico, implicas, aui, are, to wrappe in, to folde
m, to plaite, to broide, to set one within an o ther, to tye fast, to deteine, to lette.
Implicat ad speculum caput, she bounde vp her head at a glasse.
Implicatus ad seueritatem videbatur, he semed to be bent and geuen to seuerytee.
Implicari familiaritate alicuius, to be alyed or ioyned with one.
Implicarum teneri legibus, to be wrapped in the penalties of the lawe.
Implicari occupationibus, to be greatly occu pied and busied with diuers matters.
Collo implicuit brachia, she clipped him about the necke.
Crines implicat auro, she platteth or broydeth her heare with golde.
Impedire & implicare se, to let and entangle.

Implicata res controuersijs, the matter is wrap ped in many controuersies.
Implicari, to be inuironed and beset with en nemies.
Imploro, aui, are, to desyre lamentably, to aske helpe and ayde with teares and weepyng.
Implorare & obtestari.
Implorare & supplicare.
Implorátio, onis, f. g. a lamentable desyryng of a thyng.
Implûmis, me, without feathers.
Impluo, implui, or implaui, pluere, to rayne in.
Ne malum impluat mihi, that the mischiefe maie not fall on me, or lyght on my necke.
Implûtus, a, um, wette in the raine.
Impluuia, æ, f. g. a clobe to weare in the rayne.
Impluuiatus, a, um, coloured as it were wette in the rayne.
Impluuiata, garmentes of that coloure.
Impluuium, ui, n. g. a place or little courte in the house, whereby they vsed to receyue rayne water.
Impolitia, æ, f. g negligence about the weale pu blike. also rudenesse, vncleanlynesse.
Impolite, grosely, rudely, without polishyng, ho mely.
Impolitus, a, um, not polished, rude, or rough.
Impollûtus, a, um, vndefiled, not distayned.
Impomenta, thinges set on the table after supper.
Impono, sui, ere, to put one thyng on an other, to put in, to set vpon, to appoynct, to bobbe, to de ceiue, to blynde ones eies: also to geue, to im poyne, to laie to ones charge.
Imponere alicui, to abuse or deceiue one.
Calculum imponere, to cast accompt.
Imponere claues alias portis, to chaunge the keyes of the gates.
Clausulam disputationi imponere, to con clude or make an ende of the disputation.
Imposuit exercitum Brundusii, he layed his host in garison at Brundusium.
Iniuriam alicui imponere, to doo wronge to one. In stipendium argentum imponere, to as sesse what men or townesshyps shall paie to the souldiours wages.
Laborem imponere, to appoint hym businesse.
Imponere sibi laborem, to charge hym selfe with great peine and trauaple.
Imponere legem, to set a lawe on a thyng.
Imponere legem alicui, to appoint a man
what he shall doo.
Imponere summam manum, to atchieue the thyng that a man goeth about.
Imponere fastigium, idem.
Manum imponere, to begynne.
Modum imponere prosperæ pugnæ, to hold a meane, or to vse temperance, where the bat taple is prosperous.
Imponere mulctam, to set a peyne, as iudges doo.
Necessitatem imponere, to constreigne.
Onus imponere, to geue in charge, to charge,
to bour;

to bourdeyne.
Imponere præsidium ciuitati, to set a garrison in a citee.
Imponere precium, to set a price.
Silentium imponere, to commaund silence.
Imponere nomen, to geue a name.
Speciosaque nomina culpæ imponis Medæa tuæ, and thou Medea thou geuest an honest name to thy misdoyng.
Mihi imposuit, he blynded myne eie.
Imponere aliquid alicui cum fide, to committe a thyng into ones handes, trustyng that he wyl doo it feithfully.
Consulem imponere, to appoynt and ordeine
a consull.
Dominum aliquibus imponere, to set a maister or ruler ouer any people, and make theym subiecte.
Imponere exitum, or finem, to atchieue, to make an ende.
Quidquis onetis impone, laye what burdein so euer ye will vpon me.
Imporcatus, a, um, couered in the ridge.
Imporco, áui, áre, to make a balke in earyng of lande, or rather to make a ridge.
Imporcitor, or imporcator, óris, m. ge. he that maketh balkes in earyng.
Importo, aui, are, to carp, bryng, or conueigh in.
Importare fœcunditatem, to make fruiteful or apt to beare chyldren.
Importare adiumenta, to bryng ayde, helpe, or succour.
Contagionem importare, to infect, to bryng infection into a place.
Periculum importare, to bringe daungier.
Importátus, a, um, brought, caried, or cõueyd in.
Importune, impoztunately, without reason. also out of season.
Importúnitas, tátis, fœ. gen. impoztunitee, whiche hath no commoditee of tyme nor of place, vnreasonableneste, crueltee, outragiousnes. also vnreasonable and immoderate incõtinency.
sometyme a detestable acte agaynst all honestee and reason.
Importũnus, a, um, out of season, vnconuenient, that hath no regarde of person, place, or tyme, impoztunate, vnreasonable, vrgent, cruell, outragious. also without succour, helpe, or quiete. somtyme vnconuenient.
Ille fuit senex importunus semper, That olde fole was alwaie vnreasonable.
Importunum tempus, no conuenient tyme.
Importunum ingenium, a lyght and foolishe witte.
Corda importuna domare, cruell, outragious.
Importunus & crudelis.
Immanis & importuna natura, a cruell and outragious nature.
Importunus & amens tyrannus, an outra-
gious and wodde tyranne.
Importuósus, a, um, without poyte or hauen.

Impos, impotis, om. g. vnable, without pebre.
Impos animi, one beyde hym selfe, one that can not rule hym selfe, wylde, vnruly.
Impossibilis, le, vnpossible.
Impósitus, a, um, set on, laied on, put on.
Nomen impositum, a name geuen to a thyng.
Impósitus, us, m. g. idem quod impositio.
Impositio, ónis, f. g. a puttyng or settyng on a thyng.
Impositiuus, a, um, that is put, set or geuen on a thyng, vnnaturall.
Impostor, óris m. g. he that deceiueth with promises, or selleth false ware for good also a sum-iurer, a iuggler, a deceiuer.
Impostúra, æ, f. g. fraude, gyle, sleyght, bobbe, trumpery, deceyt in byyng and selling.
Imposturam facere, to deceiue in maner of saied.
Impótens, entis, om. g. he that can not rule his appetites or affections, wylde, outragious, vnable to rule hym selfe, wylfull, one that hath no shape of hym selfe, mischeuous, wicked. some-tyme it is vsurped for puissant, or that hath great power. also weake, feeble, impotent, vnable to doe nothyng.
Adeo impotenti esse animo? Shuld he be so farre out of reason?
Impotentissimus tyránnus, a tyranne of bey great puissance and dominion.
Impotentissimus homo, a peraie naughty an wicked felow.
Impotens homo, hable to doe nothyng.
Impotens amor, immoderate loue.
Impotenti est animo, he is of an outragious wylfull stomache or appetite: or he can not master, subdwe, refreigne, withdrawe, or rule his passions of his mynde.
Impotens dominatus, a proude, cruel, or wil-full dominion and power.
Fortuna superba & impotens, that maketh vn-ruly or wylfull.
Impotens iræ, not able to moderate his wrath.
Impotenter, wyldly, wylfully, outragously, also naughtyly, vniustly, cruelly.
Impoténtia, æ, f. g. debilitee, infirmitee, also vn-fulnesse, vnrulynesse. sometyme immoderate power. also vnabilitee to resist.
Impotentia animi, when he is not hable to rule his affections.
Impræsentiarum, at this tyme, or for this present tyme.
Impransus, a, um, that hath not dined, fastyng.
Imprecor, ãris, ári, to desyre, to wysshe, to curse.
Impressio, ónis, f. g. a violent assaulte, a pun-tyng or markyng.
Impressionem facere, and Dare, to assaulte and set vpon fiersly.
Viatque impressione euertere, to ouerthrowe with force and violence.
Impressio vocum explanata, a plaine and de-stincte pronunciation, when one speaketh as he would poulde marke euery woꝛde.

primis, chiefely, ſpecially, fyꝛſt of all.
primo, imprimis, preſsi, primere, to pꝛynte, to ſeale, to marke.
Signum imprimere pecori, to marke cattal.
Imprimere veſtigium, to ſet ones fote, to ſtep.
Imprimere vulnus, to woounde, to cutte.
Imprimi in animũ, to be pꝛynted in the mynd.
Imprimere ſigilla annulo, to ſele with a ryng.
Dedecus reipublicæ imprimere, to do diſhoꝛ nour to the commun weale.
Imprimere vnguem, to pinche.
Imprimere maculam laudibus alicuius, to diſ ſteine ones pꝛayſe.
probabilis, le, that can not be pꝛoued.
probatio, ônis, fœm. gene. a diſalowyng, a reꝛpouyng.
probe, pll, naughtyly, vnhappyly.
próbitas, tatis, fœ. g. diſhoneſtee, vnthꝛyftyꝛ neſſe, wantonneſſe, obſtinacie, malapertneſſe, rauyn, wylyneſſe.
probo, improbas, aui, are, to diſalowe, to diſpꝛayſe, to condemne.
probus, improba, um, an pll man, a caitiſe, diſhoneſt, obſtinate, wanton, malapert, wily, vnſatiable, vnſhamfaſt, impudent, cruell, pll fauoured.
Improba facies, an pll fauoured face.
Facinus imbrobum, a ſhꝛewde tourne.
Labor improbus, great trauayle.
Improba merx, vnlefull marchandiſe, oꝛ of ſmalle pꝛofite, naughty ware.
Improbum os, a lewde oꝛ miſchenous tung.
Improbi poſtes, rotten poſtes, oꝛ being in any wyſe vnſufficient.
Improbiorem faciem non vidi, a moꝛe leude face, oꝛ il fauoꝛed.
Improbus anſer, vnſatiable, hurtful.
Improba carmina, wanton, laſciuious.
Diuitiæ improbæ, pll gotten. alſo great.
Improbum teſtamentum, a teſtament vnſuffi cient, lacking the circumſtance oꝛ fourme.
Nulli aliæ rei eſt improbus, He geueth hym ſelfe to none other naughtyneſſe, oꝛ he dooeth not amiſſe in any other thyng.
pprobro, aui, are, to diſpꝛeyſe, to rebuke.
pprocêrus, a, um, lowe, not hygh, not talle.
pprofeſſus, a, um, not pꝛofeſſed.
pprolis vel impolus, he whiche is not yet a eſtelyn.
ppromiſcuus, a, um, vnmyngled, not confuſe, oꝛ intricate.
ppromptus, a, um, nothyng pꝛompt oꝛ redy.
pproperâtus, a, um, that is not haſtened.
ppropêrium, rii, n. g. imbꝛaydyng of a defaut.
ppropero, aui, are, to imbꝛayde a man with ſome defaute. alſo to make haſte in.
ppróprius, a, um, vnpꝛopꝛe.
ppropriè, vnpꝛopꝛely, not featly, not conue niently, vnnaturally.
proſperè, not pꝛoſperouſely.

Improtectus, a, um, not defended.
Imprôuidus, he that pꝛoundeth not foꝛ the tyme compnge.
Impróuidus, a, um, that whiche cometh ſodeyn ly, and vnlooked foꝛ.
Improuida tela, paſſiuely, darres oꝛ arrowes that one ſeeth not, oꝛ is not ware of.
Pectora improuida, vnſkilfull mindes, not foꝛſeing daungier, oꝛ ſimple and true mea nyng hertes.
Improuidè, without any foꝛeſyght, rathely, vn circumſpectly.
Improuiſè, & improuiſo, vnthought on, oꝛ vn looked foꝛ, ſodeynly, vnwares.
Improuiſus, a, um, ſodayn, vnwares, that was not foꝛſeen and taken heede of.
Improuiſior, the comparatiue.
Imprûdens, déntis, om. gene. vnware. alſo not circumſpecte, fooliſhe, ignoꝛant, vnwittyng, vnknowyng.
Imprudens, id eſt, incogitans, vnware, vnad uiſed foꝛ faute of remembꝛaunce oꝛ conſide ration.
Imprûdens harum rerum, not knowyng of thoſe matters.
Dolet dictum imprudenti adoleſcenti, This ſaieyng greeued the fooliſhe yong man.
Imprudentem opprimere, to take one ſoden ly ere he be ware.
Non imprûdens aduerſabar, I was not a gaynſt it without a cauſe.
Imprudénter, vnwyſely, vnaduiſedly, fooliſhely, by ignoꝛance, vnwyttyngly, rathely.
Imprudéntia, æ, f. gen. lacke of foꝛeſight, that it was not thought on, ignoꝛance.
Per imprudentiam, vnware.
Impubes, pûbis, vel impûbis, be, & impûber, puberis, om. g. a man chylde beſoꝛe the age of xiiii. yeres, a mayden beſoꝛe xii.
Impûdens, éntis, om. g. ſhameleſſe, ouer bolde, impudente.
Impudénter, vnſhamefaſtly, without ſhame, diſ honeſtly, vnaduiſedly, wantonly, impudently.
Impudéntia, æ, f. ge. impudencie, vnſhamefaſt neſſe, ſawcyneſſe.
Impudicitia, æ, fœm. ge. vncleanneſſe of lyuyng, wantonneſſe.
Impudicatus, a, um, ſtupꝛated.
Impudicus, a, um, vnchaſt, vncleane in lyuyng, leude, wanton. alſo ſaucy, malapert.
Impugnâtus, a, um, reſyſted, ſtryuen agaynſt, ouercome.
Impugnátio, ônis, fœm. ge. a fightyng againſt, a reſiſtyng.
Impugno, áui, âre, to reſiſt, to fyght agaynſt, to ſtriue agaynſt, to impugne.
Terga hoſtium impugnare, To fyght at the ennemies backes.
Impugnare morbum, to dꝛyue away a ſickneſs.
Impúlſo, áui, âre, to perſuade often.
Impulſus, a, um, perſuaded, pꝛouoked, inſoꝛced.

Ims

Impulsum bellum, a warre almost finished.
Impulsus, us, m. ge. a vehement motion or persuasion, an inforyng.
Impulsu suo, tuo, vestro, by thyne, his, or your persuasyon.
Impulsu primo, at the fyrst motion.
Impúlsio, ônis, fœ. g. a motion, a persuasion to doo a thyng.
Impulsor, ôris, masc. gene. he that persuadeth vehemently, he that inforceth or moueth to doo a thynge.
Impunè, without damage, without punyshement or greefe, without daunger.
Haud impune in nos illuseris, thou shalte not laugh vs to scorne, and escape quite thy selfe.
Credin' te impunè habiturum, or abiturum? Doodest thou thynke to escape vnpunished?
Siquidem istuc habueris impunè, yf thou escape quite with this.
Impune ferre, to scape quite.
Quia impune illis fuerunt, because they were not punished for it.
Impunius id se facturum putauit, he thought he might doo it with lesse daunger.
Impûnis, ne, vnpunished, without peyn, vnhurt.
Impúnius, with lesse danger.
Impunissime, without any danger at all.
Impunissime licet facere, You maie dooe it without any danger at all, or no man saiyng blacke is your ete.
Impúnitas, tâtis, fœm. gene. lacke of punyshement, liberte without punishement, pardon of punishement.
Impunitas & licentia.
Spes impunitatis, hope to escape vnpunished.
Veniam & impunitatem dandam puto, I thynke good, that they be pardoned & forgeuen.
Impunitus, a, um, vnpunyshed, quite, forgeuen his faute.
Impurâtus, a, um, idem quod impurus.
Impurè, dishonestly, vilely, naughtyly, lewdly.
Impúritas, âtis, f. g. infamie, dishonestee, naughtynesse, filthy and vncleane behauiour.
Impûrus, a, um, dishoneste, vile, reprocheable, flurtyshe, naughty, lewde.
Homo impurus, a naughty felowe.
Haud impurus, an honest man.
Imputâtus, a, um, vncutte, or neuer cutte.
Imputâtor, ôris, ma. gen. a reprocher, one that laieth thynges to other mens charges.
Imputo, imputas, âui, âre, to impute or ascribe, to lay the blame or defaute, also to reckon one thyng with an other, or to accompt one summe with an other. Sometyme to lesse a certayne summe of moneie to bee paied, to pretende or laye a thyng for excuse.
Imputresco, putrui, trescere, to rotte, to rotte within a thyng.
Imus, a, um, the lowest or moste low, the depest.
Ima auris, the nether parte of the eare, which is softe.

Imus pes, the sole of the foote.
Imus sonus, the base in songe.
Imo à pectore, from the bottom of the hert.
Ab imis radicibus eruere, to pluche vp hart by the rootes, to pluche vp rootes and all.
Sensibus imis reponere, To keepe surely in mynde or remembraunce
Imæ radices montis, The verie bottom of the hylle.
Summus & imus, contrary.

I ANTE N.

IN, signifieth, In.
In, in composition sometyme is voyde, as, Inaudio, for Audio, Immuto, for Muto, Sometyme it increaseth, as Inaro, inaras, are, Sometyme it signifieth In, as, Infundo. Sometyme Super, as, Infusus, id est, superfusus. Sometyme it is priuatiue: as, Inauditus, vnheard.
In aduersum, on the contrary parte.
In annum, for one yere, or for a yeres space.
In bonis, amonge good men.
In cœnam, for supper.
In conspectum aspice, looke before the.
In diem addicere, to sell vpon condition, that a thyng bee dooen by a daye.
In diem viuere, to lyue without carynge for morowe.
In dies singulos, daie by daie.
In horam, for an houre.
In horas, from houre to houre, also often tyme.
In lucem, vntyll daie.
In magno munere, for a great rewarde.
In manu vel manibus est, It is in his power, at hande, or ealy, or in hande.
In malum dari, to bee geuen aparte or vtterly. In meam partem, on, or for my parte.
In medium afferre, to bryng forth to a common vse or commoditee.
In mentem venire, to come to mynde or remembrance, to bee considered.
In nauem ingreditur, he went into the shyp, he tooke shyppyng.
In noctem, vnto nyght.
In numerato habere, ready or at hande.
In numerum ludere, to daunce by measure.
In ordinem ducere vel cogere, To bryng downe from authoritee, to mynyshe estimacion or power.
In ore est omni populo, all the people speaketh of it, it is in euery mans mouth.
In partem, for thy parte.
Age sis tu in partem nunc iam hunc delude, atq; amplexare hãc, Go to now for thy parte, deceyue hym hardyly, and take her vnto the.
In partem dimidiam decoquere, to boyle it to the halfe deale.
In paucos dies, for a litterll whyle.
In pedem, for euery foote.

Is

ternis nummis in pedem tecum transegisse bat, he saied, that he bargayned with the foz cens a foote, oz foz euery foote. iii. pens.
crendinum, after to morowe, oz two daies
se. In portu sum, I am sauf.
osterum, finally, in conclusion, from hens
th, hereafter.
otestatem esse, vnder the rule, oz at the pleas of one.
præsentia, at this tyme.
præsens, idem.
rimis, chiefly, specially, aboue all other
ges.
rimo & publico, at home and abzode.
rochus est, it is easy to dooe, oz to bzynge to se.
rompta est, it is easy to know, it is apparant.
ropatulo, before all men.
in propinquo certamen erat, Nowe was the tayle at hande, oz the daie of the battayle was ie.
roximo, at hande.
ublicam redigere, to confiscate, to take foz a faute.
re ipsa, by experience, in deede.
re tua, foz thy profite.
re præsenti, in a playne and euident mattier.
rem nostram, it is foz our profite.
rem præsentem excutere, to come on the de whiche is in demaunde.
rem præsentem perducere, to bzynge the mats to lyght, to expzesse the thynge perfectly, to de re the mattier so ipuely, that one may perceyue as well as though he sawe it.
rem præsentem venire, where the landes in de te dooe come in viewe by the assignements of ges, vnto them whiche be called viewers, whe shall see the bounds and quantitee of the des in variance.
serum, vntyll nyght.
speciem, by dissimulation, foz a countenance,
a face.
ucemos paucos in speciem captiuos, feignyng at they caried a fewe pysoners with them rechra classis in speciem, It seemed a layze d great naup.
spem venire, to begyn to hope.
tempore, in season, opozturnately.
tutum eduxit legiones, He bzought his army
t of daungier into a sure place.
uiros diuidere, to geue to euery man.
n vniuersum, generally.
utranque partem, of the one syde and other,
oz bothe parties.
n ægritudine has ædes emit, he bought this ouse agaynst his wyl.
animo est, it pleaseth me, oz I purpose oz innde.
breue, brekely.
Denarijs collatis in capita, Euery man paiyng a penie.

In cogitando, whyle I thynke.
In commune consulas, Loke on the mattier in differently foz vs bothe.
In crastinum vocare, to bydde one come to mo
rowe.
In culpam dicere, to speake to ones rebuke.
In animis nostris es, Thou hast woonne our hearten.
In diem, foz a great whyle hereafter. also foz
one daies space.
In hoc factum est, It was dooen foz this cause oz foz this intent.
In incerto res mihi sita est, I am vncertayne
what to dooe.
In insidijs esse, to lye in an ambushe, to lye in a wayte to deceyue.
In integro res nobis erit, Our mattier shall be in as good case as euer it was.
In itinere, whyle we went by the waye.
In itinere est, he is comyng.
In manibus habere, to fauour, to set much by.
Mater virginis in medio est, The maydens mother is here before you.
In militem, in capita, in naues, id est, pro quo libet milite, pro singulis capitibus, pro singu lis nauibus.
In modum seruilem, after a seruyle faction.
In modum amici, lyke a frende.
In more est, the faction is.
In morem, after theyr faction.
In orbem, one after an other by course round aboute.
In pedes me conieci, I ranne away.
Ego fui illic in re præsenti, I was there present at the deede dooyng.
In ridiculo habere, to make a laughyng stocke.
In summa, brekely.
In superuacuum, in vayne.
In suspenso relinquere, to leaue vncertayne.
In tantum, so muche.
In omne tempus, foz euer.
In totum, vtterly, all togyther.
In transcursu, and In transitu, by the waie, inci dentely.
In nimis imis habent rebus, They compt it as vile a thyng as can be in the worlde.
In vicem, in stede, in place.
In vulgus gratum, acceptable to the common people.

Inabruptus, a, um, not violated, not broken, oz that can not be broken.
Inaccessa, an Ilande in Egypte, to the whiche is no comynge.
Inaccessus, a, um, that no man dooeth oz can come to, oz that is not lawfull foz any man to come to.
Inachia, the countrete of Peloponesus.
Inachides, the sonne oz neuewe of Inachus.
sometyme one of Argius.
Inachis, the daughter oz neece of Inachus.
Inachius, the fyrst kynge of Argiues.

Inad-

Inaduersum, on the tother parte.
Inadulábilis, le, that will not be flattered by any meanes.
Inædifico, áui, âre, to builde in a place, to build vp togyther with other thynges. also to destroy that is builded.
Inæquâbilis, le, idem quod inæqualis.
Inæquabiliter, idem quod inæqualiter.
Inæquâlis, le, vnequal, not euen.
Inæqualiter, vnequally.
Inæquo, aui, are, to make playne or euen.
Inestimábilis, le, vnestimable, that can not be valued.
Inæstuo, aui, are, to boyle, to boyle vehemently, to be verey hotte.
Inaffectatus, a, um, not affectate, not curyous.
Inalbesco, scere, to waxe pale or white.
Inalgesco, scĕre, to become colde or chilly.
Inalpini, the people that dwell vpon the Alpes.
Inamábilis, le, not amiable, that hath no grace nor pleasantnesse woorthy to be beloued.
Inamaresco, scere, to waxe bitter or vnpleasant.
Inambitiósus, a, um, seekyng no preferrements, not ambicious, not sumptuous, not gorgious.
Inambulátio, ônis, a walkynge vp and downe in a place.
Inámbulo, aui, are, to walke vp and downe in a place.
Inamœnus, a, um, vnpleasaunt.
Inanimatus, a, um, idem quod inanimus.
Inanescere, to be vayn, and of no estimacion.
Inaniæ, arum, voyde and emptie thynges.
Inaniloquus, a babblar, that speketh vayne woordes.
Inánimus, a, um, without soule.
Inánio, iui, ire, to make emptie, to emptie.
Inânis, ne, emptie, vacant, voyde, vayne, vnconstant, poore, that hath nothyng, vile, light in estimacion, vnprofitable.
Inanis accedit, he cometh without bryngyng any thyng with hym.
Mensa inanis, emptie table.
Inanis equus, a vacant or leare horse that beareth nothyng.
Inanissimus prudentiæ, vtterly without all wysedome.
Inane crimen, a lyght accusacion.
Inane, substantyuely, great emptinesse, a voyde place. sometyme the ayre.
Inánitas, âtis, & Inanitio, ônis, f. g. emptynesse, voydenesse, vanitee.
Inaniter, vaynely also for Frustra, in vayne.
Inapparátio, ônis, f g. lacke of preparacion or prouision.
Inapértus, a, um, not open, euidente or playne, secrete, priuie.
Inardeo, arsi, dére, & Inardesco, scere, to burne, to be on fyre, to be exceedyng hotte, to be more and more inflamed.
Inarefactus, a, um, made dry or dryed to poulder.
Inareſco, inarui, scere, to dry vp, to waxe dryer and dryer.
Inargentâtus, a, um, not couered or inclosed in syluer.
Inargute, vnwittily, without subtilitee.
Inarme, an ple in the Tuscane sea. Also a mountayne.
Inaro, inaras, áui, âre, to tylle or husbande the gentily.
Inartificialiter, without crafte or cunnyng, vnartificially.
Inascensus, us, m. g. the assendyng into a place.
Inassatus, a, um, idem quod Assatus.
Inaspectus, a, um, not seene.
Inassuetus, a, um, not accustomed, vnwonte.
Inattenuátus, a, um, that is not made more slender, thynne or lesse, not diminished.
Inaudax, âcis, fearefull, without stomacke or courage, cowardyse.
Inaudio, iui, ire, to heare, to heare speke, to heare playnely.
Inaudiuncula, æ, a subtill knacke or quiddite that one hath not heard of.
Inauditus, a, um, neuer heard of, strange to heare. Inauditum in omni memoria, that was neuer heard of, sens the woyld first began.
Inauditum damnare, to condemne a person, not hearyng his cause, or what he can saye for hym selfe.
Magnitudo inaudita, an incredible greatnesse.
Inauditum damnari, to be condemned and neuer come to his answere.
Inauguro, aui, are, to aske counsayle of the Augures, what shall folowe. also to dedicate, or consecrate.
Inauguratò, the aduerbe, takyng the aduise or counsayle of Augures, or soothsayers.
Inaurâtus, a, um, gylted, couered with golde.
Ináuris, ris, f. g. a ryng or other iuell hangyng at the eare.
Inauritus, a, um, without eares.
Inauro, aui, are, to make ryche. also to gylte.
Inauspicâtus, a, um, vnluchy, vnfortunate, that was not doen by counsaile of the Augures.
Inauspicatò, vnluckyly, without counsayle of the Augures or soothsayers.
Inausus, a, um, that no man dareth enterprise to dooe.
Incæduus, a, um, not vsed to be cut.
Incæro, aui, are, looke Incéro,
Incalesco, lui, scere, to be or waxe very hotte.
Incalfácio, calfacis, fēci, fácere, to make hotte.
Incallide, vnwittily, nothyng subtilly.
Incallidus, a, um, simple, without craft, or subtilitee, nothyng wyse.
Incalo, incalas, aui, are, to calle.
Incandesco, dui, scere, to be very hotte myry. to be greatly inflamed, to bee all fyre, to be angrye.
Incanesco, scere, to waxe hore or whyte headed.
Incantátio, ônis, f. g. & Incantamentum, i, n. g. a charme, an inchantment.

o, aui, are, to charme, to enchaunt.
is, a, um, very hoze for age.
ſtro, aui, are, to halter, or to bynde with halter.
gãtus, a, um, not chaſtiſed, vncorrected.
im, in vayne.
e, vnwyſely, without takyng hede.
us, a, um, vnware, that hath no foreſight, circũſpect, that taketh no hede, vnprudente.
that is not foreſeene and taken heede of.
n incautus futuri, that ſeeth or taketh hede that is yet to come.
o, incauas, aui, are, to make holow.
lo, ceſsi, cedere, to go or walke, to go with eaſy pace, to ſhewe great grauitee or maieſtie in goyng, as princes doe, to goe yet great pace, to ſette yet a lorde. alſo for Venire or accedere, to come.
cedere magnificè per ora hominum, to ſette yet lordes through the ſtreetes that men may ſee them.
rmenonem incedere video. I ſee Parmenonem comyng or ſtirryng yet a lorde.
oliter incédere, to go with a nyce, tender, delicate, or gyngerly pace.
cedit pedes, he goeth on foote. lebris, bre, not haunted or reſorted to, not yelding famous.
ndiarius, ij, a naughty perſone, that ſetteth houſes or barnes on fyre, to the intent to robbe the ſpoyle, or for ſome other miſchiefe.
ndium, dij, n. g. a light fier burnyng a houſe or other thynge. ſometyme enuie.
ncendia vires poſuêre, the fier is aſſwaged.
ndo, di, ere, to inflame, to ſet fyre on a thing, to incenſe, to animate or geue courage, to make verie angrye, to vexe, to moue, to chaufe, to inflame in loue, to make verie deſyrous.
ncendi ira, amore, deſyderio, dolore, to be inflamed with anger. &c.
ncendere in ſe odia, to get the yll wylles of men towardes him, to ſtere vp hatred toward him ſelfe.
ncendere odores, to bourne parfumes.
cenſinarium, rij, n. g. the name of the Inner treaſorie in the tẽple of Saturne i Rome, where treaſure was kepte againſt extreme neceſſitee & daungier. it was called alſo Cimiliarchium.
cenſio, ônis, f. g. and incendium, ij, n. ge. a burnyng, a lyght fyre that bourneth an houſe or other thyng. ſometyme enuy.
centio, ônis, f. ge. harmonie or melodie of inſtrumentes, or of men ſyngyng together. alſo a charme or inchantement.
cenſus, a, um, of Incendo, ſet on fyre, inflamed, hauyng a great deſyre or courage.
cenſus, a, um, of Cenſus, not regeſtred in the numbryng of Citezens, or one that woulde not be regeſtred or inrolled.
centiuus, a, um, that pricketh, ſtirreth, or inciteth to a thyng.

Inceps, olde writers vſed for Deinceps.
Incepſit, for Incepert.
Incepto, aui, âre, to begyn, to go about, and is referred to great, bold, and hardy enterpriſes.
Video quod incepter facimus, I ſee what he begynneth to doo, or I perceyue wher about he goth, or what a pranke he is about to play.
Quid inceptas? what mynde you to enterpriſe? Quo iter inceptas? whether art thou about to goe?
Inceptor, ôris, m. g. a begynner.
Inceptum, i, n. ge. and Inceptiô, ônis, fœ. ge. a begynnyng, an enterpriſe.
Inceptus, a, um, begunne.
Incerâtus, a, um, couered with ware, cleared.
Incerniculum, li, n. g. a rangeyng ſieue, wherin corne is cleanſed, ere it be ground. alſo a ſarce.
Incerno, creui, nere, to ſyfte, to ſyft in, to try by ſyftyng.
Incero, incéras, aui, âre, to couer with ware.
Incerto, aui, are, to make doubtfull or vncertayn.
Incertum, ti, n. ge. ſubſtantiuely, doubtfulneſſe.
Incertus, a, um, vncertaine or doubtfull, vnconſtant, waueryng.
Fecit animi vt incertus foret, he brought hym in the caſe that he was vncertayn what to do.
Incertus ſum, Incertum eſt mihi, and Incertum eſt, abſolutely, I can not tell, I know not.
Aura quauis incertior, more inconſtant than the wynde.
Nihil eſt incertius vulgo, more vnconſtant, leſſe to be truſted.
Incerto me, vnknowyng to me.
Incertus ſententiæ, he that can not tell what to ſaye in a matter.
Incerto ſcio, for Clam me eſt, I knowe not, I can not tell.
Inceſſo, ceſsi, or ſiui, ſſere, to come, to approche, to be at hande, to inuade, to ſet vpon, to aſſaple, to vexe, to tarre, to make angry, to doo diſpleaſure to one, to accuſe.
Inceſſere hoſtes iaculis, to caſt dartes or iauelyns at the enemies, to aſſaple or ſet vpon enemies with dartes.
Inceſsit ambos inopia, bothe of theim are vexed with powerte.
Cupido eum inceſsit, there toke hym a deſyre, there came a fantaſy vnto hym.
Is inceſsit mos, they haue taken ſuch a cuſtom.
Cum Autumnus inceſſerit, when Autumne cometh or approcheth.
Timor patres inceſsit, The ſenatours or rolaſſaplours began to dreade and feare.
Inceſsit homines admiratio, men began to meruaple.
Verbis amaris inceſſere, to rate with churliſhe and vnkynde woordes.
Inceſſere aliquem dolis, to go about to deſtroye by ſome craftye meanes.
Ipſum ingens cupido inceſſerat, He hadde a great mynde, deſyre, or fantaſie.

Noua

Noua religio in te iſtæc inceſsit, This holyneſſe, ſuperſtition, or ſcrupulouſnes of conſcience, is come vpon the but late.
Seditio inceſsit, there roſe a ſedition.
Tenebræ inceſſunt, The nyght approcheth, it wareth darke.
Valetudo eum inceſsit, he fell ſycke.
Inceſtè, polutedly, fylthyly.
Inceſtificus, a, um, that poluteth or defyleth.
Inceſto, avi, are, to polute, to defile by inceſte.
Inceſtuôſus, a, um, he that doeth often polute.
Inceſtus, a, um, poluted, defyled.
Inceſto flagitio polluere, to pollute by inceſt.
Inceſtus ſermo, fylthie and vile talke.
Incéſtus, us, m. g. or inceſtum, i, n. g. lecherye committed with one that is nygh of kynne or alyaunce to hym that committeth it. alſo it ſignifieth all maner of polucion.
Inchoâtus, a, um, begon, vnperfecte.
Inchoo, inchoas, âui, âre, to begyn. alſo to per-forme.
Inchoare & perficere, contrary.
Spem longam inchoare, to prolonge hope.
Incido, cidi, ere, to cut, to graue, to kerue, to en-tayle, to cutte of, to cut awap.
Incidi marmori, to bee graued in marble.
Incidere in æra, and in æs, to graue in copper or bꝛaſſe.
Leges incidere ligno, to carue lawes in tables of woodde.
Incidere ſermonem, to breake communica-cion. Inciſa, loſt.
Spe inciſa priuſquam prædicta dies adeſſet, hope beyng loſte ere euer the ſaied daye was comen.
Lingua inciditur, the tonge is cutte.
Ludum incidere, to breake of game.
Sermonem incidere, to leue of talke.
Singultus verba incidunt, he could not ſpeake for ſobbynge.
Incidere neruos, to diminiſſhe ones power.
Incidens, entis, that falleth downe, that chaunceth. Incidens portis exercitus, an armye after the diſcomfiture tennyng in at the gates of the citee.
Incido, incidis, di, ĕre, to happen, to fall ſodenly ly, to come by chaunce, to chaunce ſodeynly vpon a thyng.
Incidi in latrones, I chaunced to mete with theeues.
Incidere in æs alienum, to fall in debte.
Incides in eandem fraudem, Thou ſhalt fall into the ſame ſnare.
Iocularium in malum inſciens pene incidi,
I had vnwares almoſte fallen into a ſhrewde ſporting matter.
In eorum mentionem incidi, I chaunced to ſpeake of them, or to mencion them.
Incidit mihi in mentem, it fell into my minde,
it came to my remembrance.
Aliud ex alio incidit, one thyng ryſeth of an other, or one thyng cometh to mynde by of an other.
Incidunt ſæpe cauſæ, dyuers chaunces tymes doo falle.
Incidit mentio de Philippo, They chan to ſpeake or make mencion of Philip.
Qui iſtæc tibi incidit ſuſpectio? How it vpon you to ſuſpect this?
Inciduus, a, um, that is not laufull to bee that is not wont to bee cutte. Sylua Inciens, a woman nygh hir tyme in trauayle
chylde.
Incile, lis, n. g. a gappe, a trenche or dyche.
Inciles, trenches to conuey water from a ryuer into a medowe or other lowe grounde.
Inciles canales, gutters in ſtreetes ar
paued.
Inciliæ, gutters, trenches, or dyches.
Incilo, aui, are, to blame or reproue, to reiche.
Incinctus, a, um, gyrded, inuironed, cloſed in.
Incingo, cinxi, cingere, to gyrde, to gyrde about,
to inuiron, to compaſſe in, for cingere.
Vrbem incingere mœnibus, to walle the ci tee about.
Incino, incinis, nui, ere, to ſyng, properly to ſeme a ſmall breaſt, to ſowne pleaſantly, and with melody.
Incipio, incipis, cœpi, ere, to begynne.
Facinus incipis, Thou goeſt about an ill naughtie acte.
Incile, idem quod inciſim.
Inciſim, peece meale, gobbet meale, by ſmal intences and membres.
Inciſio, ônis, f. g. inciſion or cuttyng. alſo the poynteyng of a ſentence.
Inciſûra, æ, f. ge. a cutte or garle. alſo Inciſu be the lynes in the palme of the hande.
Inciſum, i, n. g. a ſhoꝛt membre of a ſentence.
Inciſus, a, um, cut, graued, or carued in.
Inciſus, us, m. g idem quod Inciſio.
Incitabulum, li, Incitâmen, and Incitamentum,
neu. ge. a prouocation, a ſtirryng or moouyng
a thynge that encourageth.
Incita, incitæ, f. g. pouerte, neceſſitee.
Incitatè, with a certayn mouyng, quyckneſſe, or vehemency.
Incitátio, ônis, fœ. g. an inſtigacion, a mouyng or ſtirryng.
Incitâtus, a, um, moued, ſtirred, encouraged, al
ſo vehement, troubled.
Incitega, a thynge whereon great veſſelles of wyne are couched.
Incito, incitas, âui, âre, to prouoke, to moue, to ſtirre, to encourage, to excite.
Incitare ad ſcribendum, to moue or prouoke
one to wꝛite.
Incitare currentem, To encourage one to a thynge that he is prone vnto, or well entered all ready.
Incitat auiditatem, It prouoketh appetite to eate.

Inci

citare milites in aliquem, to encourage his uldiours agaynst one.
citare equum, To galoppe with his horse: to ake his horse renne a mayne.
tus, us, m. g. idem quod Incitatio.
tus, ex In & Citus, swyfte.
mito, aui, are, to call vpon often.
mo, aui, are, to call for one, or crye out on e rebukefully, to call in, to chyde, to raple, to olde at one.
nclamare aliquem magna voce, To call for e aloude.
nclamare nomine, to call by name.
eruos, or seruis inclamauit, he called vpon is seruauntes: or he chidde or scolded with his ruauntes.
neo, inclares, clarui, rere, or Inclaresco, ere, to be knowen of all men, to bee notable famouse.
lemens, entis, om. ge. vngentil, vncurteis,
urlyke, rygorous, mercyleſſe, voyde of pitee.
lementer, without mercy, cruelly, sharpely, rygorously, vngentilly.
nclementer dicere, to speake churlyshly, crully, or rygorously.
lementia, æ, fœ. g. crueltee, lacke of mercye, rgoure.
linâtus, a, um, inclined, bended, prone, somewhat decayed, warpyng toward the ende.
nclinatus morbus, a sycknesse begynnynge
o weare awaye.
nclinatior ad pacem animus, a mynde more one or inclined to peace.
linâtus, us, m. g. for Declinatio, a declinyng,
after the grammarians.
linatio, ônis, f. g. an inclination or bowyng.
nclinationes rerum & temporum, the muations or alterations of matters and tymes in he common weale.
linamentum, ti, neu. g. a declination or de-uation.
lino, aui, are, to incline, to bowe downe, to decay, to appayre, to waxe worse.
Hæc animum inclinant, these thynges somewhat bende my mynde.
Hos vt sequar inclinat animus, My mynde somewhat inclineth to folowe these men.
Inclinatacies, whan the hoste dooeth recule.
In vtium inclinare, to begyn to be naught.
Inclinare opes ad Sabinos, rege inde sumpto videbantur, The chiefe substance and power seemed to turne to the Sabins, after that a king was made of theyr people.
Cum omnē culpam in collegam inclinaret, whan he had layed all the blame to his felowe.
Inclinata respublica, the publike weale wexed.
Inclinante se fortuna ad causam plebis, while fortune dyd somewhat bend or leane towarde the quarell of the people.
Inclinauit sententia, he thought thus, or was of this opinion,

Inclinauit eō sententia, the most parte were of that opinion, or the more parte bente that waie.
Inclinare in fugam, to be redy to flee.
Inclinauit se sol, it was past noone.
Phalereus eloquentiam primus inclinauerat, was the first that began to corrupte eloquence:
or to make it apayre and decaye.
Inclinare in fugam, to begyn to flee.
Includo, si, ere, to include or shutte in, to close in.
Includi in periculum legis, To bee vnder the penaltee of the lawe.
Includere se domi, to kepe hym selfe at home
in his house.
Illigare & includere aliquid in scyphis aureis, to engraue likewise, Includere & insculpere gemmam, to enchase or graue.
Includere viam, for præcludere, to stop the passage or waie.
Includere in carcerem, and in carcere.
Includere aliquem in dialogum, to make one a speaker in a dialogue.
Admiratio incluserat vocem, He was so as-mased or astonied at the matter, that he couldo not speake.
Dolor includit vocem, He can not speake for sorowe.
Dolor inclusit lachrymas, he couldo not wepe for sorowe.
Inclusia, æ, f. g. a garment that the Romans vsed, and may be called a petticoate.
Inclusio, ônis, f. g. a shutteyng or closyng in.
Inclusus, a, um, inclosed, shut in.
Inclytus, inclyta, um, glorious, famous, of great renoume, excellent.
Incoactus, a, um, voluntarie, not constreigned.
Incoctile, lis, n g. a pot, wherin meate is sodden, also a brasen or copper vessell tynned within.
Incóctilis, le, that is sodden in a thyng. also that is tynned, spluttered, or gylded.
Incoctus, a, um, vnboyled or rawe. also boyled together with any other thyng.
Incoctæ mulieres, women whiche doo tryn theyr heares to muche.
Incœnatus, a, um, not hauyng supped.
It incœnatus cubitum, he goeth to bedde supperleſſe.
Incœnis, ne, without supper.
Incœno, aui, are, not to suppe, to go supperleſſe.
Incœpto, aui, are, Incœptum, i, Incœptor, oris,
Incœptio, ônis, looke Incepto &c.
Incogitabilis, le, and Incogitatus, a, um, idem quod incogitans.
Incógitans, antis, om. g. rashe, foolyshe, vnaduised, without consyderation.
Incogitántia, æ, fœ. g. inconsiderancie, vnaduis-ednesse, rashenesse.
Incógnitus, a, um, vnknowen.
Incohibesco, scere, not to restraigne.
Incoibilis, le, that can not bee sette or myngled together, A woorde out of vse.
Incola, incolæ, com. ge. one that dwelleth in an other countrete than that he was borne in.

Incola arbor, a tree brought out of an other countrete, and planted with vs.
incolæ orientis, the inhabitantes of the east partes of the worlde.
Incolátus, dwellyng in a straunge countrete.
Incolo, incolis, ui, ere, to dwell in a place, to inhabite.
Incolit vitam inopem, he leadeth a poore life.
Incoli locus dicitur, to bee inhabited.
Incólumis, e, holle, safe, without sykenesse, lacke kyng no reparation or amendement.
Post hac incolumem sat scio fore me, I know ryght well I shall be well ynough: or out of all daunger from henseforth.
Incolumem se ad suos recepit, he retourned safe home to his frendes or company.
Gratulor incolumi tibi, I am glad that you be in good helthe.
Incolumis status, helthe, prosperitee.
Aedes incolumes, an house that needeth no reparation.
Incolúmitas, tátis, f. g. helthynesse, safetee.
Incomes, itis, that hath no companyon or felow, vnaccompanied.
Incómitas, átis, fœ. g. the beeyng without company, after Calepine, but the place of Varro, whereof he gathereth it, hath Incomitatis, the dative case plurall of Incomitátus.
Incomitátus, a, um, beyng wythout companye, alone, idem quod incomes.
Incomitio, áui, áre, to commit suche an offence, for the whiche one must be brought before the conuocation or assemble of people, an olde woorde out of vse.
Incommendátus, a, um, not commended.
Incommodè, vncommodiously, pll fauouredly, vnprofitably, vngaynely, nothyng to ones paie or appetite, vnhansomely, vneasyly.
Incommóditas, átis, and Incommodátio, ônis, f. g. incommoditee, damage, displeasauntnesse.
Incómmodo, aui, are, to hurte, to doo displeasure, to hynder, to disprofite.
Incómmodum, di, n. ge. damage, hurt, displeasure, daunger.
Incommoda ferre alicui, to hurte, to doo displeasure.
Nauigare incommodum est, It is an yll or daungerous thyng to saple or be on the sea.
Incómmodus, a, um, incómodious, damagerous, hurtful, noysom, vngayne, vnhansom, vneasye.
Nisi tibi incommodum est, except it be trouble or lette to you.
Incommunè, equally, indifferently for al partes.
Incompactum, vnioigned, or yll ioigned.
Incomparábilis, le, incomparable.
Incompertus, a, um, vnknowen, not proued, not tryed.
Incompertum est, it is vnknowen or vncertayne, we can not tell.
Incompertũ habeo, I know not for a surtee,

Incompositè, without order or araie.
Incompósitus, a, um, without order or araye, or of faction, nothyng pretty.
Incomprehensibilis, le, that can not be comprehended or numbred.
Incomprehensus, a, um, not comprehended.
Incomptus, a, um, not decked or trimmed.
Inconcessus, a, um, denied, not graunted.
Inconciliate, pll, vnadusedly.
Ne inconciliate quid nos postules, That thou maiest require nothyng of vs, whereby we shoulde owe the displeasure, or be thy bad frendes.
Inconcilio, aui, are, to trouble, to sette at discorde or variaunce.
Inconciliare sibi aliquem, To make one his enneme.
Inconcinniter, nothyng prosperly or fayre.
Inconcinnus, a, um, vnmeete, yll proportioned, vnapte, nothyng fitte or pleasaunt.
Inconcussus, a, um, stable, that can not be shaken.
Incondite, aduerbium, without facion, or without order.
Incónditus, a, um, out of order or facion, rude, also wearysome. sometyme vnburied.
Corpora incondita, bodies vnburied.
Inconditus turbidúsque clamor, a confused clamoure or noyse of many voyces myxed together.
Orator inconditus, That disposeth not his wordes well.
Inconditus motus, a leaping, daunsing, a mouing without facion or order.
Inconditus, a, um, vnmade, vnbuilded.
Inconfessus, a, um, not confessed.
Incongelábilis, le, that can not be froten.
Incongruens, entis, om. gen. incongruent, not consonant or agreeyng, absurde.
Inconniuens, entis, om. ge. that moueth not the eye liddes, that twinkleth not with the eyen.
Inconscius, a, um, not knowyng nor wityng.
Inconsequentia, æ, f. g. a conclusion or ende.
Inconsiderantia, lacke Inconsyderantia.
Inconsolábilis, le, that can not bee comforted.
Inconspectus, a, um, not displesed or contemned.
Inconstans, antis, om. ge. vnconstaunt, lyghte, wauerynge, nowe in one mynde, nowe in another, not agreeyng with it selfe.
Inconstanter, vnconstantly.
Inconstántia, æ, fœ. g. inconstancie, lyghtenesse, wauerynge.
Inconsuetus, a, um, vnaccustomed, vnwont.
Inconsultè, without counsayle, or vnaduisedly, vnwysely.
Inconsúltus, us, m. g. not demaundyng of counsayle, not geuyng of counsayle.
Inconsulto meo, without my counsayle.
Inconsúltus, a, um, lackynge aduise or consideration, he that wyll not aske counsayle, rashe, fantasticall, or lyghte. also one that is not asked counsaile of some tyme he that hath no counsayle geuen hym.

Incon-

onſultum conſilium, vnwyſe counſayle, for e counſayle geuen without aduyſement.
ſumptus, a, um, not conſumed.
ſutilis, le, without any ſeame.
ſutus, a um, vnſowed.
ſyderantia, æ, f. g. lacke of conſideracion, aduiſednelle, raſhenelle.
ſyderate, vnaduiſedly, raſhely.
ſyderatus, a, um, and Inconſyderans, ans , without conſideracion or aduiſemente, he, fooliſhe.
taminatus, a, um, vndefyled, not ſpotted or yned.
tentus, a, um, not ſtretched out, not wreſt vp, ſlacke.
tinens, entis, he that is not chaſte, or kee
th hym not to one woman, that can not re igne and rule him ſelfe.
tinenter, incontinently.
tinentia, æ, f. g. incontinencie.
ontinentia virinæ, the renuynge of ones wa
e from him whether he wyll or no.
uéniens, entis, vnconuenient, vnſeemely,
yng. alſo that dooeth not agree.
quo, inquoquis, xi, ere, to ſeeth or boyle in ynge, to ſeethe or boile togyther. alſo to to e with ſluer, tynne, or leade.
oqui ſole, to be ryped in the ſunne.
rdio, aui, are, to put into a mans herte, to rſwade hym.
porális, le, that hath no body.
porcus, a, um, without a body.
poro, aui, are, to impzynte or ſet vpon ones odye.
rrectus, a, um, vncorrected.
rrupte, vncorruptly, purely.
rruptus, vncorrupted, pure, cleane, ſincere.
xo, aui, are, to ſit as women or tapſters doe,
uthout a ſtoole.
reátus, a, um, neuer created.
rebreſco, increbrui, or bui, ſcere, to waxe, to e ſpzede or muche knowen.
increbuit rumor, the rumour or bzute increas ed or went abzoade.
Increbuit res prouerbio, it was commonly ta ken vp for a prouerbe, or it grew to a prouerbe.
Auſter increbuit, the ſouthwynde waxed bygs ger.
Vndæ magis increbreſcunt, the ſea waxeth
moze troublous.
redibilis, le, incredible, not to be beleued,
meruaylous.
Incredibilis ſum, no man wyll beleue me.
redibiliter, incredibly.
rédulus, a, um, that wyll beleue nothyng.
redúlitas, átis, f. g. incredulitee, lacke of bes leefe.
crementum, i, n. g. increaſe.
Incrementum ſtumi, the ryſyng of a ryuer.
crépito, aui, are, to blame or rebuke often.
crepitus, a, um, chydden, blamed, rebuked.

Increpo, increpás, ui, are, to ſowne or make noiſe, to creake alſo to rebuke, to rate, to blame, to chyde, to prouoke.
Increpare aliquem anaritiæ, to blame one of couetouſneſſe.
Simul atque increpuit ſuſpitio tumultus, By and by as ſoone as there was heard any ſuſpi cion of tumulte or ruſſlyng.
Hæc in eum increpantur, theſe thynges bee layde to his charge, or he is blamed for theſe thynges.
Stimulo tardos increpuiſſe boues, to pzicke with a goade.
Lyram increpare digitis, to play on the harpe.
Increſco, eui, ſcere, to growe muche, or more and more.
Incruentátus, a, um, not diſteined with bludſhed.
Incruentus, a, ũ, without bloud ſhed, not bloudy.
Incruſtátio, ônis, f. g. a pargettyng or couerynge with harde mattier lyke a cruſte.
Incruſto, aui, are, to pargette or make harde or in a cruſte.
Incubátio, ônis, Incubitio, ónis, f. g. Incúbitus, us, & Incubátus, us, m. g. lyng in, ſittynge to hatche egges, ſittyng abzoode.
Incúbo, bónis, m. g. he that ſetteth all his ſtudye on treaſure.
Incúbo, incubas, cúbui, and cubátui, bare, to lye in or vpon, to cleaue to, to ſit ouer a thyng, to ſytte on egges as an hen dooeth, to occupye, to poſſede, to inbzace, to nouryſhe, to dwell in, to tare. alſo to lye and ſleape, to the intent to haue ſome viſion or anſwere of the ydoles, as they vſed in olde tyme, to be verye muche in a place, and is taken in the yll parte.
Alicui pecuniæ incubare ſpe atque animo, to be verye gredy and deſyrous of monete, and ſet ones whole mynde and truſt vpon it.
Nox ponto incubat, it was as darke as nyght vpon the ſea.
Incubare oua, or ouis, to ſytte a bzoode vpon egges.
Incubare theſauris, to keepe monete locked vp,
and as it were to ſpt abzoode on it.
Incúbare theſauris publicis, to vſurpe & kepe
the common treaſure as his owne by force.
Incubátor, ôris, m. g. one that is muche in a place.
Incúbito, aui, are, the frequentatyue of Incubo.
Incúbitus, dextri lateris, lyng on the ryght ſyde.
Incubus incubi, a ſpirite, whiche aſſumyng the forme of a man, medleth with a woman. alſo that which is called the mare, wherwith men ben oppreſſed in theyr ſleepe.
Incudo, ônis, m. g. he that worketh on an anuil.
Inculco, aui, are, to poure in, and by tranſlacion, to repete a thyng often, and as it were to beate or poure in to ones memory. alſo to make one to take whether he wyll or no.
Inculcare munus, plusquam offere, to offer a charge to one whether he wyll or no.
Inculcátus, a, um, poured in, often repeted, bras ten into the memorye.

Canis rabiosi morsibus inculcata, poured into the bytynges of madde dogges.
Tradita atque inculcata libertas, lybertee whiche men had of theyr auncestours, and haue continually ben brought vp in.
Inculpâtus, a, um, blamelesse, not fautie.
Vita inculpata, a lyfe that can not be blamed in any poynt: a perfect honest lyfe.
Inculté, rudely, without eloquence.
Inculcus, a, um, vnhusbanded or vntilled, rude, nothyng eloquent.
Inculius, us, m. g. vncleanly apparaylyng, contrary to Cultus, negligence in apparaylyng.
Incumba, bæ, f. g. a parte of a pillour in makyng of arches, whereupon the arche specially resteth.
Incumbo, cúbui, cúmbere, to endeuour, to take in hande, to happe, to leane vppon, or fall on a thyng. also to be inclined to some thynge, to geue all diligence and studie, to synke downe vpon a thyng.
Incumbo ad or in studia, I geue my mynde wholly to studie and learnyng.
Ad salutem reipublicæ, or in rempublicam incumbere, to trauaile about the common weale, to endeuour with all study and diligence to help the common weale.
In causam incumbere, to mainteine that parte.
Incumbere gladium, or in gladium, to synke downe on a swordes poynt, and slea hym selfe.
Incumbunt tecta centenis columnis, The rouk is borne vp with an hundred pillours.
Sed mihi incúbunt, But the bourdeyne of these thynges charge or ouerlade me, or lye heaup on my necke.
Qui in te ipsum incubuerunt, whiche are fallen or thrown on thy necke.
Baculo incumbens, leanyng on a staffe.
Incumbere ad bellum omni studio, to geue all ones care and studye to the maynteynaunce of warre.
In eam curam incumbe, Geue all your care or study to this, or endeuoure this with all diligence. Incúmbe toto pectore ad laudem, Geue or apply all your whole mynde and courage, to great prayse.
Incumbere ad, or in perniciem alicuius, to go about with al diligence, to purchase ones deathe or destruction.
Ad voluntatem perferendæ legis incubuerat, He would haue had that lawe made.
Ad lenitatem nimiam incumbunt mores, The maners of men be bente or inclined to to muche gentylnesse.
Incunabula, órum, n. g. plu. all that longeth to the swatheynge of a chylde, thynges pertaynynge to infancie, it is also taken for the begynnynge of thynges. Also for the place where one was borne, or the fyrst beginnyng of ones stocke or kyndrede.
Ab incunabilis, euen from our infancy.
Incunabula & rudimenta.
Incunabulum, li. n. g. a cradell.
Incuratus, a, um, vncured, vnhealed.
Incuria, æ, f. g. negligence, yll husbandry, carelesnesse.
Incuriosé, negligently, without care.
Incuriósus, a, um, careless, negligent.
Incuriósus proximorum, that is not careful for those thynges that folow next.
Incurro, incurri, rere, to renne agaynst one, to iutte, to renne, to meete with one by chaunce.
In tenebris incurrere, in the darke to meete with agaynst a thyng.
Incurrere & incidere.
Incurrit ager in agrum, one fielde entreth or lieth within an other.
Incurrere in aliquem verbis, to inuaighe gaynst one with woordes.
Incurrere in loca, to make inrodes or inuasions. In aliquem incurrere, to renne violently agaynst one.
Incurrere in oculos, to come in ones syght that looketh not for it, or would not meete.
Quæ in odia hominum incurrunt, whiche thynges be hated of men.
Incurrere in voces maleuolorum, to be slaundered or yll spoken of, by malicious persons, or suche as do not fauour vs.
Incurrere circensibus, to fall on the same day that the plaies called Circences are kept.
In quem diem incurrat nescio, I can not tell vpon what daie it falleth.
In varias reprehensiones incurrere, to be blamed for dyuers thynges.
In vrbanitatem hominum incurrere, to be mocked or stocked at.
Incurritur, the impersonall.
Incúrsio, ónis. f. g. inuasion of ennemies or inrode, a iuttyng or meetyng of thynges together.
Incursionem facere, to inuade or make an inrode or foyrete vpon ennemies.
Incursionibus vastari, to be ouer runne, spoyled and wasted by ennemies.
Incursans, antis, om. g. that iutteth or byndeth gaynst a thyng sodenly.
Incúrsito, áui, áre, the frequentatyue of incurso.
Incurso, áui, áre, to renne agaynst a thynge, to iutte, to iutte vpon a thyng, to make inrodes and inuasions vpon ennemies.
Incursare aduersis cornibus, to iutte or renne togyther as rammes doe.
In fortunas hominum incursare, to inuade mens possessions and goodes, and by couetous power to take theym awaie.
Pugnis aliquem incursare, to renne or ouer thumpe and beate him with his fistes.
Incursus, us, m. g. idem quod incursio.
Vis & incursus pluuiarum, the force and violence of rayne.
Incurvesco, scere, to bow downe, or be crooked.

Incur

uo, aui, are, to make crooked.
uus, a, um, crooked.
, údis, f. g. an anuyll.
ndem incúdem tundere, to labour alway out one thing, to repete one thing continual to harpe alwaie vpon one strynge.
cúdi reddere, by translacion to correcte, to lyche, to amende.
sátio, ónis, f. g. a blamyng.
so, áui, are, to accuse, to blame, to fynde ute with.
uid me incusas? why blamest thou me? or by lapest thou blame or faute in me?
ui alterum incusat probri, he that laieth a ute to an other mans charge.
stoditus, a, um, not kepte.
sus, a, um, coyned or dented in.
dio, incutis, cussi, ere, to strike or dasshe.
cutere scipione in caput alicuius, to rappe
m on the pate with his walkyng staffe.
cutere pedem terræ, to stampe on the grounde with his foote.
ncutere colaphum, to geue a blowe.
Desyderium ciuitatis incutere, To make one elyous of the cite.
ncutere errorem, to deceyue, to bryng in an rour or false opinion.
Metum incutere, to make afrayde.
Morbum incutere, to make syche.
ncutere alicui nuntium, to bryng one tydyn es sodeynely.
Pudorē incutere, to make ashamed or abashed.
aganter, diligently, with great serchyng.
agátio, ónis, fœ. gen. a diligente searchyng serchyng out.
agátor, óris, ma. gene. a diligent sercher or sercher out.
agatrix, the feminine.
dago, aui, are, to seke or serche, to vente, to seke out as an hounde dooeth.
Indagare & odorari, to seke and smell out.
Omnibus vestigiis indagare, to serch out dili gently by all signes and tokens that male be.
dago, inis, fœ. g. a serche, also the settyng vp of a toyle or nettes about a parke or forest, to take dere or wylde beastes.
Et syluas vastaq; feras indagine claudit.
ce, from thens, there, from thense forth, af terward, from that man or woman. sometyme for ob id, for that thyng.
Vxorem duxit, nati filij duo, inde ego hanc maiorem optauī mihi, he tooke a wyfe, I had by hir ii. sonnes, from hym I tolde this, whiche is the elder, and made hym myn heire.
Inde ab initio, from the fyrst begynnyng.
Inde est, ther of it cometh.
Inde ab incunte ætate, euen from his youth.
debitus, an vnduebe, where a man ought not to haue paied
debitum, i, n. g. a thyng that is not due.
debitus, a, um, not due, not owen.

Indécens, entis, om. gen. vnsyttynge, vnconue nient, vnsemyng.
Indecenter, vnsemely, vncomely.
Indécet, it mysbecometh.
Indeclinabilis, le, that can not be eschewed or auoyded. also vndeclined. sometyme constant, that will not bende.
Indeclinabilis animus, a constant and immus
table mynde.
Indécor, óris, not regarded, not semely.
Indecore, vnhonestly, vnconuenyently, vncomly.
Indécoris, re, idem quod indecor.
Indécórus, a, um, vnsemyng, vncomly, vnhonest.
Indefatigabilis, le, that can not be wered or tired
Indefensus, a, um, without defence.
Indefessus, a, um, that can not be wered or tired.
Indefinitus, a, um, not determined or discussed, obscure, darke.
Indeflétus, a, um, that is not lamented or wayl led for.
Indeflexus, a, um, not bowed, not tourned.
Indeiectus, a, um, that is not caste downe or ouerthrowen.
Indelebilis, le, that can not be put or rased out.
Indemnátus, a, um, that is whole, vntouched, not demynished.
Indemnátus, a, um, agaynst whom no sentence is pronounced of the iudge, or agaynst whom no iudgement is geuen.
Indemnis, ne, adiect. without hurte or harme,
without domage defended.
Indémnitas, átis, fœm. g. eschayng of damage, escaping without hurte.
Existimans indemnitati suæ consuli posse, thynkynge that he mought eschewe damage or daunger.
Indeplorátus, a, um, not bewailed or lamented.
Indeprauátus, a, um, not deprayed or corrupted.
Indeprecabilis, le, that will not be intreated, or that will not forgeue.
Pœna indeprecabilis, punishement without remission.
Indeptus, a, um, gotten, or that hath gotten.
Indesertus, a, um, not deserte.
Indesses, désidis, not sluggish, quicke, diligent.
Indesinenter, alwaies, continually.
Indetonsus, a, um, not shauen or notted.
Indeuótio, ónis, f. ge. slackenesse in dooynge of thynges godly and honest.
Index, indicis, om. g. he that accuseth or appea cheth an other man. also he that to escape pu nyshement, or for some reward, discloseth the conspiracie, whervnto he was made priuie. It is also the forefynger, a touchestone to try golde. also the table of a boke, wherebp certayn chapiters or notes be founde.
Leonum animi index cauda, sicut & equorum aures, that whiche sheweth their courage.
India, a great tythe countrey, called in englishe Indie, lyyng on the southe easte partes of the worlde, whiche as Ptolomeus writeth, is in two partes. The one is called Inde within the ryuer of Ganges, whiche on the west is bounded with Aracosia & Gedrosia, on the east with the great ryuer called Ganges, on the nozth with the hill called Imaus: On the south and west, with part of the Indian sea. The other part of Indie without Ganges, is bounded on the weste with the sayde ryuer Ganges, on the nozthe with parte of Scythia and Serica: on the east with the region called Sinarum, on the south with the Indian sea. Nearchus, great Alexanders admirall, affirmeth (as Trogus writeth) that it was four monethes iozney by the playnes of Indie. Megasthenes saied, that the bzeadth of Indie from the east to the west, cõteyneth 16000. furlonges, whiche is. 2100 miles. The length from the nozth to the south. 22000. furlonges, which is. 2850. myles. Ctesias affirmeth it to be as muche as the residue of Asia. But Onesicritus, whiche wzate the actes of Alexander, demeth it to bee the thyzde parte of Asia. There is alwaye two sommers, and fruites and grayne twyse gathered. The wyndes be alwais temperate, the beastes and foules muche greatter than in other countreeys, and of moze dyuers kyndes. The names of the countreies and citees there, bee nowe otherwyse than they were in the tyme of the ancient writers. They whiche bee nowe knowen, shall be declared in theyr places, with the mountaynes and ryuers, whiche are great aboue all other.

Indicatio, ônis, and Indicatûra, æ, f. g. the pzising oz setteyng the pzice of a thyng. Indicatio is sometyme an affirmyng oz auowyng.

Indicâtus, a, um, shewed, declared, accused, also pzised.

Indicium, ij, neu. gen. is where one, whiche was participatour in an offence, dooeth discouer the actes and diuises of his companyons. also a sygne, a token.

Indicio esse, to betoken oz declare, to notifie by a signe oz token, to be a signe oz token.

Quale ingenium haberes, indicio fuit oratio, your communication well notified of what disposition you were.

Indicium profiteri, voluntarily to disclose ones selfe, and all his companions.

Ex indicio nihil periculi est, there is no leoperdie, oz daunger in disclosyng the mattier.

Indico, indicas, aui, are, to disclose, to manyfest, to make openly knowen, to demonstrate, to apeache, to accuse, to set oz telle the pzice, to deliuer in possession that whiche is bought, to detect, to shewe, to tell, to declare.

Num color pudoris signum vsquàm indicat? Dooeth his colour shewe any maner token of shamefastnesse?

Indicare in vulgus, to telle abzode.

Res ipsa indicat, the thyng it selfe declareth.

Indico, xi, ere, to denounce, to declare solemnly, and foz a great cause, as battaile, saultyng, generalles, counsailes, triũphes, and other great thynges. also to sette a tribute oz taxe, and to appoynt oz commaunde.

Indicere consiliũ, to call oz cõmand a counsell.

Indicere iustitium, to commaunde a vacacion, oz as we vse to saie, to keepe no terme.

Indicere pecuniam populo, to sette a tax, subsidie on the people.

Bellum indicere voluptati, to stryue and fight agaynst our volupte and pleasure.

Sibi bellum indicere, to torment oz vex one selfe. Cœnam indicere, to commaunde supper to be prepared, to bespeake a supper.

Bellum indicere veteri, to fast.

Inimicitias indicere, To declare and notify ones selfe to bee an enemy.

Indicere sibi legem innocentiæ, to byd one selfe to lyue vpryghtly.

Indictio, ônis, fœ. g. the space of. xv. yeres of a tare graunted by the people.

Indictiuus, a, um, that whiche is declared oz proponed, that is denounced.

Indictus, a, um, declared oz denounced solemnly, also not spoken, not defended, not declared.

Indicta causa, the cause oz matter not knowen, declared oz defended.

Indiculum, a diminutiue of Indicium.

Indidem, from thens, from the same place, lyke with, the same.

Indies, daiely, from daie to daie.

Crescente indies multitudine, the multitude oz numbze daiely increasyng.

Indifferens, entis, om. g. indifferent, that is not ouer rigozouse oz cruel. also that dooth not diffe.

Indifferens homo, that putteth no difference betwene thynges.

Indifferenter, indifferently.

Indifferenter ferre, to take the matter indifferently, not to be greatly displeased.

Indifferentia, æ, indifferencie. also lyberte, greablenesse.

Indifficilis, le, verate harde oz difficulte.

Indigena, æ, om. gene. of the same countrey towne bozne and bzedde.

Indigenitalis, le, idem quod indigena, a word out of vse.

Indigentia, æ, f. g nede, necessitee, lacke.

Indigeo, indiges, digui, ẽre, to lacke to haue nede.

Hoc bellum indiget celeritatis, This warre nedeth speede and haste.

Quasi tu huius indigeas patris, As though thou haddest any nede of me thy father.

Malo virum pecunia, quàm pecuniam virum indigentem, I had lieffer haue a man that lacketh money, than money that lacketh a man.

Indigeo addiscere, I had nede to learne.

Indigeste, without ozder.

Indigestio, onis, yll digestion.

Indiges, indigetis, a god made of mortall men, some take it foz a pzimate god, perteynyng to pe

rticular places.
gestus, a, um, without order or disposicion.
gumenta, orum, bookes contempng the na s of goddis, and the mystical signification them.
gnito, aui, are, to name, to call by name, to si nifie, as it were to shew with ones finger.
gnabundus, a, um, angry, shewynge his in gnacion or wrathe.
gnatio, ônis, f. g. angre, wrath, indignacion.
gnè, vnworthyly, vnhonestly, cruelly, wic
dly, villannously.
digne ferre or pati, to disdeigne, to be dis
ntent, to take greuously.
dignissimè interierunt, They dyed moste sterably or wretchedly.
gnitas, âtis, f. g. indignitee, vnworthynes, vn blenesse, dishonestee, crueltee, sometyme vile sse or basenesse of condicion.
gnor, âris, âri, to disdeigne, to fume, to fret, chafe, to thinke scorne, to be madde angry,
be stampyng and staryng wood.
gnus, a, um, vnworthy, miserable, vnhonest, amefull, cruell, impious, horrible, detestable.
Tu indignus qui faceres tamen, yet ye were o mete man to doo it.
ndigna homine dubitatio est, Of that matis
e it is no honestee for a man to doubte.
ndignum facinus, a shamefull or vnhoneste
ete. Indignum illi facis, thou dooest not well y hym, he hath not deserued it.
ndignum in modum, after a cruell or vnhos estly sorte or facion.
digus, indiga, um, nedy or lackyng.
Nihil indigus ensis, haupnge no nede of a worde at all.
diligens, êntis, om. g. negligent, nothyng di ligent or laborious.
Indiligens hortus, a gardeyne that is not well trimmed or husbanded, negligently kepte.
diligentia, æ, f g. negligence. Veri indiligenti a, negligence interchepng the truthe.
diligenter, negligently, with no diligence.
dipiscо, scère, & indipiscor, eris, sci, to obteyn to purpe, to geat, to ouertake.
Indipisci pugnam, to obteyne victorie.
Multum in cogitando dolorem indipiscor,
By musyng or thynkyng on diuers matters, I fall into great sorowe and heuinesse.
Indipisci animo, to cunne by herte, to holde in remembraunce.
Nunquàm pol indipiscet postea, Truely he shall neuer attayne to it, or geat it after.
discretus, a, um, not seuered, not separated, onetogyther, also lyke, not differyng.
Indiscretæ similitudinis res, thynges of lyke esse that can not be discerned.
discriminâtim, indifferently, without diuersitee.
diserté, without eloquence.
diserus, a, um, without eloquence, not well languaged.

Indispositè, without order, disposicion, or aray.
Indissolúbilis, le, that can not be dissolued.
Indissolûtus, a, um, not dissolued, knit togyther.
Indistinctè, vndistinctly.
Indistinctus, a, um, not dystincte, confuse.
Iudistrictus, a, um, not hurte.
Inditus, a, um, put or set in.
Indiuiduus, a, um, that may not be diuided or se parated.
Indiuisus, a, um, not diuided or separated.
Indo, indidi, ere, to put or set in, to geue.
Indere catenas captiuis, to put chaynes vpon captiues and prisoners,
Indere nomẽ alicui, to geue a name to a thyng.
Indere titulum, to set a title on a thyng.
Indócilis, le, a dullard that can not be taught, vn apte to be taughte. Also naturalle, that is of nature without instruccion.
Indocilis & Tardus.
Indoctè, vnlearnedly.
Indoctus, a, um, vnlearned, vntaught.
Indolèntia, æ, f. g. lache of peyne.
Indóleo, indoles, lui, ére, and indolesco, scere, to be sory.
Indóles, indolis, f. g. towardnesse and disposicis on to vertue in chyldren, in men token of ver
tue. also veray nobilitee or honour, aptenesse to good or pucll.
Specimen indolis dare, whan in youthe one sheweth a lykelyhode of towardnesse to vertue.
Socrates proximè videtur accedere ad Laconi cam indolem, to reslemble the peyne of the La cedemonians.
Lætæ indolis adolescens, a ponge man of a mery and plesant nature.
Tanta indoles in Lauinia erat, So good or ver tuous a nature there was in Lauinia.
Equorum indoles, the rase of horses.
Fructuum indoles, the terrage, verdure, or lente of frutes.
Frugum indoles, the good growthe and ful
nesse of grayne.
Homines in quibus est virtutis indoles, men, in home appereth a manifest token of vertu and honestee.
Cum hac indole virtutum ac vitiorum, shes wyng these tokens of the good and yll inclina cion that was in hym.
Indomábilis, le, that may not be made tame.
Indómitus, a, um, wylde, vnbroken, vnruly.
Indómitus equus, an horse vnbroken.
Indórmio, miui, ire, to geue to muche study to a thyng also to sleape in doyng a thyng, to bee slowe or slacke.
Desidiæ indormire, to sleape in slothfulnes, to become verate slouthfull and pdell.
Indormire causæ, to be negligent and slowe in a mattier.
Indotatus, a, um, not indowed with any gyftes,
that hath no dowyr geuen.
Indubitabilis, le, idem quod indubitatus.

Indubitanter, vndoubtedly.
Indubitè, without doubt.
Indubitâtus, a, um, vndoubted, certayne.
Indubito, aui, are, not to doubte.
Inducię, arum, f. g. plur. truce or peace for a certayne tyme.
Inducię exierant, The truce was past.
Inducias facere & inire, to make truce.
Pactæ inducię, truce made.
Induco, xi, ere, to induce, to bryng in, to perswade, to allure, to incline, to deceiue, to cancell, to rase or strike out, to dekete, to put on, properly hosen or shoen, to infixe or stablysh, to couer or caste ouer.
Ita induxi in animum, I haue so infixed or stablished in my mynde, I haue so perswaded my selfe. In errorem inducere, to bryng into a fals opinion. In memoriam inducere, to bryng into mynde or remembrance.
In spem inducere, to bryng in hope or truste.
Inducere morem, to bryng in a custome.
Inducere seditionem in ciuitatem, to reise a sedition. Inducere colorem picturæ, to laie colour on a picture.
Inducere parietes, to pargette walles.
Inducere scuta pellibus, to couer.
Inducere exordium, to begin.
Inducere cuti nitorem, to make the skin beaut full and fayre.
Senectus inducit rugas, Olde age maketh men wrinkled and ryueled.
Ne illis animum inducas credere, Let it not synke into your mynde to beleue them.
Inducere animum ad meretricem, to caste ones loue vpon an harlotte.
Promissis aliquem inducere, to induce or perswade one to do a thyng with faire promises.
Ad misericordiam inducere, to moue to pitee or mercy. Senatus consultum inducere, to rase out or foredoo a decree made by the senate.
Inducere nouercam filiæ, to mary an other wyfe whyle his daughter is alyue.
Inducere calceum alicui, to put on ones shoe.
Inducere rotam, to tourne or rolle a wheele.
Inducere scuta pellibus, to couer targates with skynnes.
Aliquem inducere, to deceiue one.
Inducere fructum dicuntur arbores, to bryng foorthe fruite.
Inductio, ônis, f. g. a forme of argument, proceedyng from the particulars vnto the vniuersalles. also an argument, whiche by gettynge the assent in thynges not doubtefull, proueth the thynge whiche is intended. sometyme a cancellyng or rasyng out.
Inductio animi, a perswasion.
Inductio aquarum, a conueighyng of water.
Inductus, us, m. g. a perswasion or inducyng.
Inductus, a, um, brought in, induced, perswaded, moued, ledde, rased, striken out, laied vppon in stede of an other thynge, caste ouer, smered or anopnted.
Quæque sub inducta latuit sinuilla fraude in hoc ouer it.
Indúcula, æ, f. g. a littell garment.
Indugredi, for ingredi.
Indulco, aui, are, & indulcoro, aui, are, to make swete.
Indulgens, entis, gentyll, that sufferyth one to haue his wyll and pleasure. sometyme he, to whom gentylnesse is shewed.
Indulgenter, fauourably, without rigour, to gentilly. Indulgenter aliquem habere, to vse or intreate fauourably and gentilly.
Indulgentia, æ, & Indulgitas, atis, gentilnesse sufferance, tocherynge. also mercie.
Nimia indulgentia, inordinate and to much tenderneslle.
Indulgeo, dulsi, ere, to graunt lyghtly, to consent to a requeste. also to geue respite, to be gentyll and mercifull, to pardon, to leue one his wyll, to cocker or make to much of one, to geue licence, to permitte. also to geue his mynde or studie to a thynge.
Indulge valetudini tuæ, Take hede to thy helth, cherysshe or make much of your selfe, vnder your helthe.
Nimium illi indulges, Thou art to tender on hym, thou lettest him haue to much of his owne will, or to much of his owne wylle.
Indulsit balneum fieri, He graunted lyghtly, that a bayne should be made.
Indulgere lusibus, to addicte and geue your selfe to fantasies, pastymes or trifles.
Indulgere abdomini, to geue him selfe to beastly cheere, to fede and cherisshe the carkeys to much. Indulgere nouis amicis, to make much of newe friendes.
Indulgére desyderio alicuius, to graunt that one desyreth or would fayne haue.
Quid ego Indulgeo dolori? why doe I geue my selfe to sorowe and heauynesse?
Luxuriæ indulgere, to abandon ones selfe to pleasure and wantonnesse.
Nimis me or mihi indulgeo, I folowe mine owne appetite to much.
Lachrymis indulsit, he wepte much.
Abolitionem publice indulgere, to permitte openly, to graunte.
Qui malis moribus nomen oratoris indulgent, whiche permitte and graunt, that they, whiche liue ill, may be called orators.
Peccatis amici indulgere, to suffer and pardon the misdoynges of ones frende.
Indulges filio vestitu nimio, you suffer your soonne to haue to sumptuous or costly apparel.
Indumentum, i, n. g. a garment.
Induo, dui, ere, to put on a garmente or other lyke thynge, to transforme or translate, to cast in, to annoynt.
Inducre personam alterius, to speake in the name or stede of an other man.

Inde

nduor hanc veſtem and hac veſte, I haue on his garment. nduere perſonam iudicis, to preſent or do the office of a iudge.
nduere poſtes pice, to lape on pitche on the poſtes. Induere ſibi ingenium nouum, to haunge his nature. Speciem latronis induere, o vſe the faction of a theefe.
Veuſtatem induere, to become olde.
ndui fructu, to bee charged or laded with fruite. Indui ſua confeſsione, to be taken by his owne confeſſion.
nduit ſe in florem, it bloſſometh.
Quid erat indutæ? what garment had ſhe on?
nduere ſibi ueſtem, and ſe veſte.
nduere annulum digito, to put a ryng on his fynger.
nduitur etiam pedibus aurum, he weareth golde on his feete alſo.
Arma induere, to put on harneys.
Soleas equo induere, to ſhoe an horſe.
Terra tantis ſegetibus induebatur, the ground was laded with ſo muche corne.
Induere ſibi nomen to geue hym ſelfe a name,
to take on hym a name.
Falſam ſibi ſcientiæ perſuaſionem induerunt,
They haue perſuaded them ſelues to be learned,
and be not in deede.
Simulationem rei alicuius induere, to couns
terfaite or feigne.
Videte in quot laqueos ſe induerit. Mee you into how many ſnares he hath brought him ſelfe, or in how many ſnares he hath intangled and wrapped hym ſelfe.
In id ipſum ſe induit, quod timebat, he hath brought him ſelfe into the ſame inconuenience, that he feared,
Induere ſe re aliqua, to entangle ones ſelfe in a matter.
Vultus ſeueros induere, to looke ſadderly and grauerly.
nduperior for Impedior.
nduperator, ôris, m. g. for Imperator.
nduro, indures, rui, rere, and Indureſco, ſce-re, to bee harde or ware harde.
ndûro, âui, âre, to harden, to make harde.
ndus, i, m. g. a noble ryuer, that cometh from the great mountayne Taurus, and incloſeth Inde on the weſt, and renneth into the Indis an ſea. Into this ryuer ren. xix. great and famous ryuers, the leaſt of theym more than the great ryuer of Danowe, where he is broadeſt.
Strebo ſaieth, that they, whiche do wryte moſt moderately of Indus, do affyrme, that he is in breadth fiftie furlonges, whiche is twelue myles and an halfe. The water therof cauſeth great fertilitee, whan it ouerfloweth, and therof many ſundry pleaſant and holſome fruites doe ſpringe without labour.
Induſiarius, ii, m. g. a maner of peticotes.
Induſiâta, æ, f. g. idem quod Induſium.

Induſiâtus, a, um, cladde in a peticote.
Induſium, ii, n. g. a peticote, or rather a ſhyrte.
Induſtria, æ, f. g. a vertue, comprehendyng both ſtudy and diligence, induſtrie. alſo trauayle or labour.
De induſtria aliquid facere, to doo a thynge of purpoſe or for the nones.
Induſtria, idem quod de induſtria.
Ob eam induſtriam hodie ducam ſcortum ad cœnam, Becauſe thou doeſt ſpie and watche ſo diligently what I dooe. &c.
Induſtrie, wittyly, with diligence, with induſtry.
Induſtrius, a, um, that is witty and actiue, dilis gent, laborious, glad to trauayle or take peyn in a thyng.
Indûtus, us, m. g. arayyng or apparaillyng, the puttyng on of a garment.
Induuiæ, apparayle.
Indúuium, ii, n. g. the barke of a tree.
Inebriæ aues, byrdes whiche in the diuination of the Augures forbyd any thyng to be doen.
Inebrio, aui, are, to make dronke, to be dronken.
Inédia, æ, f. g. hunger, fampne.
Inéditus, a, um, not put abrode or declared, not publyſhed.
Ineffabilis, le, that can not bee ſpoken or pronounced.
Inefficax, âcis, om. gen. of no force, vertue, or ſtrengthe.
Ineffigiâtus, a, um, vnfaccioned, without good proportion, without faction or fourme.
Inelaborâtus, not counnyngly wrought or done.
Inelegans, ántis, om. g. without eloquence, no thynge prette or feate.
Ineleganter, nothynge preatyly.
Ineluctabilis, le, that can be ouercome or paſſed with no labour or trauaile.
Inemendâbilis, le, that can not be amended.
Inemptus, a, um, not bought.
Inenarrabilis, le, meruaylous, that can not be declared or vttered.
Inenarrâtus, a, um, not declared or expouned.
Inenodábilis le, that can not be diſſolued.
Ineo, ui, ire, to begyn to go in, to enter in, to deſerue, to get, to wynne, to obteine, to treate.
Inire, is ſometyme where the male leapeth the female, as the horſe couereth the mare. alſo to conſider and vnderſtande.
Inire curſum, to begyn his courſe.
Inire fœdus, to make a league or treatie of peee.
Inire fugam, to flee as men do in battayle.
Gratiam inire, to get thanke or frendſhyppe with doyng ſome pleaſure for a man.
Gratiam ab vel cum aliquo & apud aliquem inire.
Inire magiſtratum, to enter into an office,
Inire pacem, to make peace.
Inire bellum, to make warre.
Inire uiam, to ſpede a waie.
Rationem inire, to ſeeke meane, or to conſis der how a thyng maie bee dooen, to conſult, to ſeeke.

recken, to make an accoumpte.
Inire societatem, to fall in felofhyp with one.
Inire suffragia, to affemble people for an election, or to conſent to anp matter.
Inita ſubductaque ratione, all thynges reckned or well accompted.
Ineunte ætate, in pouthe.
Ineunte vere, at the beginnyng of the ſpryngе of the pere.
Caue ne falſam gratiam ſtudias inire, Beware that thou deſyre not to haue or pyke a thanke of me vndeſerued, or that thou goe not about to make me thanke the for nothyng.
Inſit te vnquam febris? Dyd the feuer euer take you? or were you euer ſicke of the ague?
Conſilium cum aliquo inire, to conſult or take counſayle with one.
Conuiuium inire, to go to a feaſt.
Inire imperia alicuius, to ſerue or to become ſubiecte to one.
Nexum inibant, they were caſt in pryſon, they were layed in chaines.
Inire numerum, to numbre.
Inire prælium, or pugnam, to begynne battayle, to geue the onſette.
Ratio de integro ineunda eſt mihi, I muſt be fayne to begyn my reckenynge or accompte all newe agayne.
Cubile alterius inire, to lye with an other mans wyfe.
Ineor, iris, iri, the paſſyue.
Ineptè, foolyſhely, fondely, vnwyſely, without good purpoſe, not to the purpoſe.
Ineptia, vnaptenеſſe, fondeneſſe, folyſhyng, tryflyng.
Ineptio, iui, ire, to trifle, to do or ſpeake a thyng vnmeete for the purpoſe.
Ineptus, a, um, vnapte, foolyſhe, vnconuenient, vnmete, fonde.
Labor ineptus, vayne & vnprofitable labour.
Inepta lenitas, foolyſhe and fonde gentyleneſſe out of tyme and place.
Cauſa inepta, a folyſhe excuſe.
Ineptum eſt, it is a verye folye, or a thynge vnconuenient.
Via inepta, an yll and troublous waye.
Ineptus, a trifler, vſyng nothyng in order, vnapt to the purpoſe.
Inequitabilis, le, that can not be rydde thyrough.
Inermis, me, vnarmed, a man polden.
Inermo, aui, are, to vnarme, to take ones harneys from him.
Inermus, a, um, idem quod inermis.
Inerrans, antis, that moueth not, or goeth not from place to place.
Inerrantes ſtellæ, fixed ſterres.
Inerro, aui, are, idem quod erro.
Iners, ertis, omnis. gen. without any ſcience or crafte, ydell, ſlouthfull, not occupied, nothyng ſpuely, folyſhe or dull, without corage or ſprite, not able to helpe it ſelfe. alſo vnprofitable, ſome tyme barrayne.
Iners, & ignauus.
Aetas iners, olde age.
Iners membris, not able to helpe it ſelfe with the partes of the body.
Ad repugnandum iners, not able to reſiſte.
Glebæ inertes, barrayne clodders.
Aqua iners, ſtandyng water.
Admiſſarius iners in venerem, not defyrous to leape the mares.
Caro iners, vnſauory fleſh, nothyng quicke of taſte.
Inertes querelæ, vnprofitable.
Sal iners, without quickeneſſe or ſauour.
Tempus abibit iners, ſhall paſſe away without doyng of any thyng.
Inertia, æ, ſ. ge. lacke of crafte, ydelneſſe, negligence, ſlackeneſſe, vnluſtyneſſe.
Ineticula vitis, a vine, whereof the wyne is ſo good, that none yuell proceedeth therof, neyther the wyne that neuer maketh one drunk.
Inerudite, vnlearnedly, without knowlage.
Ineruditus, a, um, vnlearned.
Ineſco, ſcis, ſcere, to lay a bayte, alſo to begyn.
Ineuitabilis, le, that can not be eſchewed.
Inexaturabilis, le, that can not be ſatisfyed.
Inexcogitatus, a, um, not inuented, nor ymagined.
Inexcultus, a, um, rude, not trimmed, nat husbanded.
Inexcuſabilis, le, vnexcuſable.
Inexercitus, a, um, not exercyſed, vnoccupied.
Inexercitatus, a, um, idem.
Inexhauſtus, a, um, neuer fulled or ſpent. alſo that can neuer be conſumed or ſpent.
Inexorabilis, le, that can not be intreated.
Inexpectatus, a, um, not looked for.
Inexpertus, a, um, not proued or aſſayed. alſo vtterly not experte.
Inexpiabilis, le, that can not be pourged, that can not be appeaſed.
Inexplanatus, a, um, that is not made playne.
Inexplanata lingua, a tongue that is halfe ſped, and can not well pronounce.
Inexplebilis, le, that can not be fylled, vnſacyate.
Inexplетus, a, um, that is not complete, or made perfecte.
Inexplicabilis, le, that can not be declared or expounded. alſo intricate, that can not be vnfolded. A thynge, out of the whiche a man can not ridde him ſelfe.
Inexplicitus, a, um, intricate, obſcure.
Inexplorate, or Inexplorato, without ſerche.
Inexploratus, a, um, not ſought or tryed before.
Inexpugnabilis, le, vnpreignable, that can not be wonne or ouercome by any aſſaute.
Inexputabilis, le, that may not be noumbred, that can not be compted or reckened.
Inextinctus, a, um, that is not extinct or quenched.
Inextirpabilis, le, that can not be rooted or digged out.
Inexuicabilis, that can not be ſhaken of or diſſeuered.

lued, a thynge that one can not tydde hym fe of.
uperabilis, le, that can not be paſſed or ouercome.
bre, vncunnyngly, vncraftily, yll fauoredly.
bricatus, a, um, not wrought.
ceius, a, um, vnpleaſaunt.
cundia, æ, f. g. lacke of eloquence.
cundus, a, um, not eloquent.
mia, æ, f. gen. infamie, ſclaunder, yll name, yll reporte, obloquie.
nurere infamiam alicui, To make one haue ſhrewde name, that he ſhall neuer after putte waye.
mis, me, infamed, ſclaundered, yll reported of, that hath an yll name.
nfamis digitus, the myddell fynger.
nfamem fieri, To be in infamie and obloquie of men, to renne in ſclaunder of men.
nfame os, a ſclaunderous tungue, or that vſeth vile or filthy communication.
Frigoribus infames Alpes, the Alpes muche ſpoken of for the horrible cold that is on them.
Likewiſe Infamis annus peſtilentia.
Cauit ne ea res ſibi infamiæ eſſet, He tooke hede, that that thing ſhould not hurte his name, or bryng hym in any obloquy or yll name.
famo, aui, are, to infame or yll report, to ſclaunder, to make to haue an yll name. ſometyme to telle abrode.
fandum, ſo great that it maie not be vttered: or ſo horrible and nought, that it maie not be ſpoken. Infandum, as one ſhuld ſaie, O horrible chaunce, not to be ſpoken or mencioned.
fans, ântis, om. gen. a chylde that can not yet ſpeake. alſo euery thing that is verie yong alſo it ſignifieth not eloquente. ſometyme an vbcote that can not ſpeake, or that lacketh vtterance.
Remouere infantem, to weane a chylde.
Pullus infans, a ponge chycken.
nfantéria, æ, f. ge. a woman lyng in chyld bed.
nfántia, æ, f. g. chyldehode, infancie, babeſhip. alſo foolyſheneſſe, lacke of vtteraunce, lacke of eloquence.
nfantilis, le, pertenyng to chyldehod.
nfarcio, ſi, ire, to infarſe or ſtuffe, to fylle, to poure in.
Infarcire verba, whan one vſeth wordes out of order and place to fyll vp hys ſtyle.
nfatigabilis, le, that can not be wearied or tired.
nfatuo, aui, are, to make foolyſhe.
nfauſtus, a, um, vnlucky, vnfortunate.
nfector, ôris, m. g. a dyer of colours.
nfectus, us, m. g. dyng or ſtenyng.
nfectus, a, um, infected, dyed, ſtayned, poyſoned.
nfectus, a, um, of In, and Factus, vndoen, not made, not finyſhed.
Infecta pace, without any peace made.
Infectum reddere, To vndoe that whiche is doen.
Infectum argentum, money not coyned.

Damni infecti promittere, to promiſe, if any damage come by our faute, that wee will pay for it, or make it good.
Omnia infecta fiunt, ſuppoſe nothyng were doone.
Infecta dona facere, to reuoke or call agayn that one hath geuen.
Infectum fieri nõ poteſt, it can not be vndone.
Infelix, lowe Infœlix.
Infenſo, aui, are, to vexe, to trouble.
Infenſus, a, um, diſpleaſed, moued with anger or hate towardes an other, that beareth malice.
Infenſus & inimicus.
Infer, for Intra, an olde wooyde.
Inféri, they that be vnder other, that ar in hell.
Infériæ, arum, f. g. plu. ſacrifice doone to infernall goddis, or theim whiche be deade.
Inferior, us, lower, inferiour, more baſe, of leſſe reputacion, the comparatiue of Inferus.
Infernâlis, le, infernall.
Infernas, âtis, om. ge. that is belowe, benethe, or in the nether part.
Inferné, alowe, or benethe.
Infernus, hell.
Infernus, a, um, lowe, nethermoſte, deepeſt.
Dij inferni, infernall goddis.
Rex infernus, Pluto.
Inféro, tuli, ferre, to bryng in, to carry or beare in, to throw in, to adde to, to caſt in, to cõclude.
Inferre arma, to make warre vpon.
Bellum inferre, idem.
Inferre crimen alicui, to laie to ones charge.
Inferre ſermonem, to talke.
Stuprum inferre, to commytte auoutrie or fornication with a kynſewoman.
Inferre pecuniam, to paye monie.
Inferre ſe in vrbem, to go or remoue hym ſelfe into a cities.
Inferre in ignem, to caſte into the fyre.
Inferre ſe, to inuade, to ruſſhe on, to enter with violence. alſo to iette or go braggyngly into a place.
Per medios infert ſe, he ruſhed or entred with violence into the myddes of theim.
Ad hunc modum me intuli, I went in braggyngly after this ſorte.
Abortus inferunt, they cauſe abortion or trauaylyng before the tyme.
Cæcitatem inferre, to make blynde.
Caritatem annonæ intulere, They brought or cauſed derthe of vitaple.
Cauſam inferre, to lay an excuſe for hym ſelfe, to ſhewe a reaſon why.
Faces tectis inferre, to ſette houſes on fyre.
Gradum inferre, to marche towarde.
Inferre ſe in periculum capitis, to put hym ſelfe in daunger of his lyfe.
Inferre manus alicui, To laie violent handes on one.
Inferre mentionem, To make mencion or ſpeake of.

Mor-

Mortem inferre, to kyll.
Inferre oculos, to looke, to regarde.
Inferre pedem, to steppe in, to goe in, to enter vpon.
Signa inferre, to aduaunce forward the standerdes, to marche forwarde with baners displayed.
Sumptum inferre ciuibus, to put the citizens to coste or charge.
Inferre vulnus, to wounde.
Calamitatem ciuitati inferre, to be the cause of the destruction of the citee.
Cladem inferre, to geue an ouerthrowe, to discomfite or slea.
Iniuriam inferre, to doo iniurie or displeasure, to doo wronge.
Litem capitis in aliquem inferre, to commence an action concernynge lyfe & deth agaynst one.
Inferus, infera, um, lowe, benethe.
Aetas inferior, the age or tyme before.
Inferius maiestate sua rati, thynkyng it not semely for their maiestee.
Inferum mare, the Tuscan sea.
Inferueo, bui, uére, and Inferuesco, scere, to be scaldyng hotte, or to seethe.
Inferuefácio, féci, fácere, to make hotte.
Infestè, maliciously.
Infestiuus, a, um, vnmete for disport, vnpleasant.
Infesto, aui, are, to doo displeasure with sundry incursions or rodes.
Infestus, a, um, that geueth all studye and diligence to doo displeasure, malicious. also dangerous. sometyme that is vexed or in ieoperdy, or that hath deadly and mortall enemies.
Infesta signa, standerdes or baners displaied in battayle agaynst enemies.
Infestus, a mortall ennemie.
Infestus ager, a daungerous countreie to passe through.
Infestus animus, a malicious mynde.
Habere mare infestum, to robbe and do mischief on the sea, to make it dangerous to passe.
Infesta fortuna, aduersitee.
Infesta talus alicuius, Cui multi sunt inimici.
Infestus & inimicus.
Itinera infesta, waies daungerous to passe, by reason of theeues or ennemies.
Infibulo, aui, lare, to claspe together.
Inficetissime, very pl fauoredly, or deformedly.
Inficiàlis, le, that pertepneth to denyng.
Inficias ire, to doubte or denie, to goe from a thyng in woordes.
Inficiátio, ônis, f. g. a denyall.
Inficiátor, ôris, m. g. he that denieth det, or that is laied to his charge.
Inficio, inficis, féci, ere, to dye clothe, to staine or infect, to corrupte, to colour.
Inficere pocula veneno, to poison the drynke, to put poyson in the cuppe.
Inficere prauis moribus, to infecte and corrupt with yll maniers.
Inficior, aris, ari, to denye or dissemble, to go from a thyng in woordes.
Infidélis, le, vnfaithfull, not heppynge promyse.
Infidélitas, âtis, f. ge. vntrueth, vnfaithfulnesse, infidelitee.
Infidus, a, um, vnfaithfull, not to be trusted, trapterous.
Infigo, fixi, ere, to fasten or styche in.
Infimates, the base people.
Infimus, infima, um, the lowest or moste base, moste vile, of least reputation.
Infimo loco natus, descended of a very base stocke or kynred.
Infimis precibus aliquid petere, most humbly and lowely to desyre a thynge.
Infindo, idem quod Findo.
Infinitè, infinitely, continually, alwaies. sometyme without measure or reason.
Infinitus, a, um, infinite, that hath none ende.
Infinita altitudine spelunca, deepe beyonde measure.
Infinitum imperium, exceedyng large, without bowndes.
Infinitior, the comparatiue.
Infinitio, ônis, Infinitas, âtis, and Infinitudo, inis, f. g. infinitenesse, generalitee.
Infirmátio, ônis, f. g. a confutation.
Infirmâtus, a, um, made weake or feeble.
Infirmè, weakely, feruntly, not firmely.
Infirmitas, âtis, f. ge. vnstableneese, weakenesse, sickeneese, infirmitee.
Virium infirmitas, lacke of strength or puissance.
Valetudinis infirmitas, feebleneese, sickenesse.
Infirmo, aui, are, to make weke or feble. also to dissolue.
Infirmare veritatẽ, to speake against the truth.
Infirmus, a, um, syche, weake, feeble. also variable, vnconstant.
Infirmæ nuptiæ, mariages not lyke to endure.
Infirmi saporis vinum, wyne not quicke or sharpe in taste, that drinketh not of the berbon.
Infirmus animus, an vnconstant mynde.
Infit, he sayed, he beganne.
Infixus, a, um, fastened, or that sticketh in.
Inflammo, aui, are, to inflame or set on fyre.
Inflammare & incendere.
Inflammari, to be in a great loue or desyre of a thynge.
Non feci inflammandi tui causa, I dyde it not to the intent to stere vp your mynde, or to make you the more ernest or hot in the matter.
Inflammare inuidiã, to increase enuy or malice.
Inflátio, ônis, f. g. inflacion, breedynge of wynde in the body.
Inflâtus, a, um, blowen or puffed vp, proude.
Inflâtus, us, m. gen. a blowyng or puffynge in, a blowyng in an instrument.
Inflatus diuinus, a diuine inspiracion.
Inflecto, xi, ere, to boowe or pipe, to croke, to tourne.

Infleflectere genu, to make curteſie, to make a ge.

eſtigium curſus ſui inflectere, to tourne or ppe out of his courſe or raſe.
flectere ius gratia, to bende or wreſte the law
r fauour.
orbem inflectere, to bende rounde.
nodum inflectere, to knitte or a knotte.
xibilis, le, that can not be bended or bowed.
nflexibilis obſtinatio, vnruly ſtubburneſſe.
xio, ônis, f. g. a bowyng or bendyng.
xus, a, um, bowed, bent, crooked, tourned.
flexa in ſe cornua, hornes crooked inward.
go, xi, gĕre, to caſt violently, to ſtryke.
nfigere pœnam, to puniſhe.
nfigere grauiores vſuras, to make to pape reatter vſurie.
nfigere colaphum, to geue a blowe.
nfigere vulnus, to wounde.
urpitudinem ſibi infligere, to diſtaine his wne honeſtie.
o, âui, âre, to blowe in, to puffe vp, to blowe an inſtrument.
nflare buccinam, to blowe a trumpette.
nflare ſonum, to make a ſowne with a pype, to lowe an inſtrument.
nflare ambas buccas, to puffe vp bothe the heekes, ſpoken prouerbially of angry perſons.
nflare ſpem alicuius, to encreaſe ones hope.
nflauit animos rumor, the rumoure made theym more couragious, or puffed vp theyr mindes and made theym more proude.
uo, inſtuis, xi, ĕre, to renne into a thyng, as atter or other lycour dooeth, to flow in: and by tranſlacion, to enter in in great numbre.
Influere in animos hominum, to fall in the fa-uour or loue of men. alſo to ſynke or enter into mens myndes.
Bona omnia nobis influunt, all wealth hap-neth to vs with out trauaile.
fódio, infodis, infódi, infódere, to digge in.
fœcúnditas, âtis, f. g. barenneſſe.
fœcundus, a, um, baraine, vnfruitfull.
felicitas, âtis, f. g. aduerſitee, miſfortune.
fœliciter, vnhappily, vnfortunately.
felicito, aui, are, to make vnfortunate or vnluckye.
nfœlix, licis, om. ge. vnhappye, vnfortunate,
barrayne, vnprofitable, vnfruitfull.
Infœlix fama, a rumoure bringyng yll tidyngs.
Infœlix ingenium, a naughty wytte, a naughty nature.
Arbor infœlix, vnfruitefull.
nformátio, ônis, f. g. informacion, a knowlage naturall impreſſed in the myndes of man.
nformátus, a, um, begun to be facioned.
nformis, me, without facion or fourme, rude.
Exitus repentinus et informis, ſodayne and villanous.
Informo, aui, are, to ſhape or forme, to inſorme, to inſtructe or teache good maniers, to begyn to woorke a thynge, as a caruer to make an ymage, to drawe out the facion of a thynge, to facion, to inſtructe.
Areas informare, to drawe out plottes in a gardeyne.
Informare deum coniectura, to ymaygne in our myndes, what maner thyng god is.
Inforo, inforas, âui, âre, to declare at the barre in a place of iudgement, to pleade. alſo to perforate or make an hole in.
Infortunâtus, a, um, vnfortunate, vnluckye, vn-happy.
Infortúnium, nĭi, n. g. yll chaunce, miſfortune, calamytee, miſchif, miſaduenture, yll happe.
Infoſſus, a, um, dygged in.
Infra, a prepoſition, vnderneth, in numbre it ſignifieth laſſe or fewer.
Infra, an aduerbe, benethe.
Me infra ætatem ſibi ſui poſuit, he ſayed I was scant ſo olde as his ſoonne.
Multo infra, of muche leſſe value.
Infra ſe ducere aliquid, to eſteme a thyng not to be woorthy or ſeemely for hym to doo.
Infráctio, ônis, f. g. breakyng.
Infractio animi, a bathment or diſcouragemynge of the mynde.
Infractus, a, um, vnbroken, ſure. alſo broken all to pieces.
Infractus animi, ſtyffe of courage. ſometyme
it ſignifieth diſcouraged, decaied.
Loquela blanda & infracta, ſuche talke as nurces vſe to lytell infantes, leauyng out halfe wor-des and ſentences.
Infractæ fortunæ homines, id eſt, concuſſæ.
Infrænâtus, a, um, not bridled.
Infrænati equites, horſemen that haue no bry-dels on theyr horſe heades.
Infræno, aui, are, to bridle, to refrayne.
Infrænare nauigia anchoris, to ſtay the ſhippes with anchors.
Infrænare, & domare.
Infrænus, a, um, that hath no bridle, vnruly.
Infrágilis, le, not brittle, that can not be ſoone broken, or diſcouraged.
Infrangibilis, le, that can not be broken or diſcouraged.
Infrĕmo, infremis, ŭi, ere, to make a great noyſe or murmuryng.
Infrendeo, infrendui, ère, to craſhe the teeth together for angre.
Infrendes, frendium, com. ge. chyldren lat-hyng teeth.
Infrĕquens, entis, om. ge. not greatly haunted or reſorted to. alſo that reſorteth or cometh ſel-dome to a place.
Sum Romæ infrequens, I vſe not to come muche at Rome: or I am but ſeldom in Rome.
Infrequens ſum vocum latinarum, Gel. I vſe the latyne tonge but ſeldome.
Infrequentia, æ, f. g. a ſmall aſſemble, where as be but fewe perſons, contrary to Frequentia.

Infris

Infricâtus, a, um, frotted or rubbed.
Infrico, infricas, aui, or cui, are, to rubbe in, to rubbe vpon.
Infrigo, infrigis, frixi, ere, to frye togyther.
Infringo, égi, ere, to breake to pieces, to abate, to diminiſhe, to diſcourage.
Infringere aliquem, to abate ones courage, to make hym ſtowpe or bowe.
Infringere animos, to diſcourage.
Infringere colaphum, to geue a blowe.
Conatus aduerſariorum infringere, to ſtop or let the enterpriſes or endeuoure of our ennemies. to diſappoynte theym of that they go about.
Spem infringere, to put out of hope.
Infriata, broke into ſmall crummes, or pouder.
Infrio, aui, are, to breake or crumbe in ſmall.
Infructuôſus, a, um, vnfruitfull.
Infructuoſæ preces, prayers that nothynge auayle.
Infrunitus, a, um, foolyſhe, that knoweth not howe to vſe a thyng. alſo foolyſhely braggyng, vayngloryous.
Infucâtus, a, um, coloured or peincted, couered or hyd, to the intent to deceiue.
Infûco, aui, are, to couer a thyng, intendyng deceite, to peynte, to colour.
Infula, infulæ, f. g. the labell that dyd hange on euery ſyde of a myter. It was in the olde tyme the attier, that prieſtes dyd weare on theyr heades. They were alſo tappettes of lynnen, wherwith temples were hanged.
Infulcio, ſi, re, for Ingerere, to put in often.
Infulgens, éntis, idem quod fulgens.
Infumibulum, buli, n. g. the ſhanke or tunnell of a chymney.
Infumo, infúmas, aui, are, to dyre in the ſmoke.
Infundibulum, li, n. g. a tounnell, wherinto lyc cour is poured, whan veſſels are fylled. alſo a hopper of a mylle, or rather the place, wherinto they powre the corne.
Infundo, f di, ere, to powre in, to hylle on.
Infundere vitia in ciuitatem, to ſpreade vice and naughtyneſſe in the citee.
Infurnibulum, li, n. g. a picle, wherwith breade is ſet into the ouen.
Infuſcâtus, a, um, made darke or obſcure, or duſky.
Aqua infuſcata, the water beyng troubled, or thicke with mudde, infuſcatus malenolentia, corrupted or diſteyned with malice or euell wyll.
Infuſco, aui, are, to make duſke or darke.
Infuſcare vinum merum, to alaye wyne with water.
Infuſcare ſaporem, to corrupte the taſte, and make it woorſe.
Infuſcata aqua, water that is troubled or muddie.
Infuſcari barbarie, to be corrupted ꝯ.
Infuſcus, a, um, idem quod fuſcus.
Infuſa, ſome vſe it for Clyſters.
Infûſus, a, um, poured in, or poured vpon.
Infuſûs, us, m. g. and infuſio, onis, f. g. a powryng in or vpon.
Ingémino, aui, are, to double, to repete often. ſometyme neutrally, as Auſter ingeminat.
Ingemiſco, ſcere, idem qnod Ingemo.
Ingemo, ingemis, ui, ĕre, to lament, to bewayle muche, to grone.
Ingénero, aui, are, to ingender, to make.
Ingeniculor, aris, ari, to bowe the knee or make curteſie.
Ingeniculus, a figure amonge the ſterres called nowe Hercules.
Ingenioſe, wittyly.
Ingeniôſus, a, um, witty, haupng a very good pleaſant witte.
Ingénitus, a, um, begotten, ingendred in, or of nature, geuen of nature.
Ingénium, ii, n. g. properly the nature, inclination, diſpoſition or propertee of a thyng. alſo wytte.
Suo uiuere ingenio cœpit, he began to lyue after his owne nature or fantaſie.
Vena benigna ingenii, a pleaſant veyne of wit.
Acuere ingenium, to ſharpen the wit.
Ad ingenium redit, he cometh to his nature as gayne.
Ita mihi ingenia ſunt, my wytte is ſo dyuers.
Ingenium ſoli aut terræ, The nature of the grounde.
Ingenium cœnæ, the rounnyng dyuyne and preparyng of banketyng diſſhes and ſubtileteers. Ingenium patris habet, quod ſapit, he is lyke his father in wyſedome.
Mobiliſsimus ingenio, a verye vncertayne perſone.
Socrates patria quidem Athenienſis, ingenio vero Spartanus, Socrates was of Athens in countrey, but in condicions a Lacedemonian.
Ingens, entis, wonderfull great.
Ingens animus, a great courage.
Ingentis ſpiritus vir, a man of a verye lofty hy mynde or great courage.
Pecunia ingens, a great ſumme of monye.
Gratias ingentes agere, to geue verye harty thankes.
Iras ingentes concepit, he was verye angry.
Ingenuâtus, ta, tum, comen of an honeſte ſtocke, or kynrede, that hath an honeſte and liberall nature.
Ingenuè, freely, frankely.
Ingenuè educatus, brought vp lyke a gentyll man.
Ingenuitas, âtis, f. g. freedome, honeſtee, nobleneſſe or gentyleneſſe, in perſones of free and liberall nature.
Ingénuus, a free man borne, a gentyll man.
Ingénuus, a, um, naturall, free borne.
Ingenua facta, noble actes.

Inge

genux artes, liberall artes or ſciences.
genui mores, gentylmanly maners.
cies ingenua, an honeſt and comely face.
ro, ingeris, geſsi, erere, to bryng in, to put , to powre in, to throwe downe on.
ngerere cibum, to geue one meate.
ngerere dicta in aliquem, to chyde with one,
lapſylle of one, to raple at one.
ngerere malum, to doo diſpleaſure.
innia mala ingerebat, he dyd the wooſte at he coulde.
ſculum ingerere, to kyſſe one paſſyng by.
ngerere pugnos in vultum alicuius, To umpe one on the beaky with his fyſtes.
e ingerere, to auaunce hym ſelfe in compas pe, or to be malapert, to put forth hym ſelfe in poryng of thynges.
ngerere aquam, to poure in water.
Dicta in dolium pertuſum ingerere, pro erbially, to ſpeake in vayne, to loſe labour.
ngeram mala multa, I wyll geue hym many ſpewde wooydes.
axa ingerere in ſubeuntes, to caſte downe ones on theim that go vndernethe.
menen ſolo ingerere, to ſowe ſeede.
Vulnera ingerere, to geue many wounder.
Tela ingerere, to throwe or caſte dartes at nnemies.
Scelus ſceleri ingerere, to heape miſchik vpon miſchik.
geſtabilis, le, that can not be borne.
geſtus, a, um, borne in, poured in, prokered to one whether he will or no.
gigno, genui, gignere, to engender within.
gnus, ani, ſ. g. pouerlee, after Perottus.
glomero, aui, are, idem quod Glomero.
glorius, a um. of no renoume or fame.
Honoratus & Inglorius, contrarye.
gluuies, ei, m. gen. gluttonye, rauenyng. alſo
the crate or gorge in byrdes.
gluuiōſus, a, um, gluttonous, rauenous.
grandeſco, grandui, ſcere, to waxe great.
gratè, vngratelye, vnthankefully, agaynſte ones wyll.
gratis, the ablatiue caſe, maulgre one.
Vobis inuitis atque amborum ingratiis.
Tuis ingratiis, maugre thy heade.
ngratificus, a, um, idem quod ingratus.
ngrātis, agaynſt my wyll or our wyll, without my loue and my leaue, with an euell wyll.
Libenter & ingratis, contrary.
ngratitudo, dinis, vnkyndneſſe, vnthankfullneſſe, vngratitude.
ngratus, a, um, vnthankefull, vnpleaſaunt, not acceptable. conſtreined, or ageinſt a mans will.
alſo vnkynde, and not remembryng frendſhyp or benevolence.
Ingratus ſapor, an vnpleaſant taſte.
Ingratus vt dormiam, That I maie ſleape whether I wyll or no.
ngraueſco, ſcere, to waxe more heuy or weyghs tie, to waxe more peynfull, to become wooyſe and wooyſe.
Ingraueſcit in dies malum, the miſchik increaſſeth daiely, and wareth wooyſe and wooyſe.
Ingraueſcere furore, to encreaſe in furie more
and more.
Releuari & ingraueſcere, contrary.
Ingraueſcit annona, vitaple ryſeth ſtyll to an hygher price.
Ingrāuo, ingrauas, āui, āre, to make heauy or greuous, to make wooyſe.
Ingrēdior, ēris, grēdi, to enter in, to goe in, to walke, to begynne.
Ingredi iter pedibus, to begynne to go a iour-neie on foote.
Ingredi mare pedibus, to wade in the ſea.
Quanquam ingreſſus eſſem dicere, although
I had begunne or was about to ſhewe or tell.
Hi qui ingrediuntur ad ſtudium, They whiche begynne to learne or to geue theim ſelues to ſtudye.
In ſpem libertatis ingreſſus ſum, I began to hope for libertee.
Veſtigiis patris ingredi, to folowe his fathers ſteppes.
Ingredi in vitam, to bee borne.
Ingredi in conſpectum populi, to ſhew hym ſelfe in the ſyght of the people.
Quam vitam ingrediar dehinas, declare to me what kynde of lyfe I ſhould begynne to leade.
Orationem ingredi, to begyn to ſpeake.
Ingrēſsio, ōnis, ſ. g. an entryng or goyng in.
Ingreſſus, us, a walkyng, a maner of goynge, alſo a begynnyng.
Ingruo, ingruis, ūi, ere, to inuade, to aſſayle with violence and puiſſance, to be imminent, properly ſpoken of battayle or tempeſt.
Ingruente eſtate, ſommer beyng neere come or at hande.
Ingruens periculum, a daunger nere at hande.
Ingruit frigus, there wyll bee a greate colde wortly.
Noſtri contra ingruunt, our men on the other ſide aſſaile them with great force and violence.
In agreſtes ingruerant morbi, inuaded or came ſodenly vpon theim.
Inguen, inguinis, n. g. the parte about the pry-uie membre of a man or woman.
Inguinaria, æ, ſ. ge. an herbe, whiche cureth the diſeaſes in priuie membres, ſome thynke it to be agrimonie.
Inguinium, a citee in Liguria, ancient and riche.
Ingurgito, aui, are, to deuoure gluttonouſly, to gourmandiſe, to caſte in as it were in to a great ſtreame or bottomleſſe pitte, where it is lyke to bee ſwalowed.
Ingurgitare ſe in flagitia, To geue hym ſelfe to all naughtyneſſe and myſchiefe without meaſure.
Ingurgitare ſe in philoſophiam, to geue hym ſelfe to muche to the ſtudy of philoſophie.

Ingur-

Ingurgitare ſe in copias alicuius, to ſpoyle a man of his ryches.
In ſe merum ingurgitare, to ouer charge hym ſelfe with wyne, to ſurfet with drynkyng.
Inguſtabilis, le, that can not be taſted, that nothyng can abide to taſt.
Inguſtâtus, a, um, not taſted.
Inhábilis, le, vnapte, vnable, vnmete.
Inhabilis magnitudinis nauis, a ſhip that by reaſon of the biggenesſe is vnwildie.
Inhabitábilis, le, inhabitable.
Inhabito, aui, are, to dwell in a place.
Inhæreo, inhæſi, ere, to cleaue or ſticke to.
Inhærebat oculis memoria imaginis, We thought I dyd alwaies ſee that ymage, Or that ymage was alwaies in myn eyes.
Inhæreſco, ſcere, to ſtycke faſte. idem quod inhæreo.
Inhálo, aui, are, to breath vpon one.
Inhibeo, inhibes, bui, ere, to forbydde, to lette, to ſtoppe.
Inhibere aluum, to ſtynt or ſtoppe the laſke.
Inhibere, & inciture auiditatem, contrary: to take awaie ones ſtomache, and to make one haue an appetite.
Nauciam inhibere, to ſtynt vomityng.
Inhibere frænos, to plucke backe the brydell, to rayne the horſe.
Inhibere quo minus aliquid fiat, to leat that a thyng bee not dooen.
Inhibere remos, to ceaſſe rowynge.
Manum eius inhibuit, he helde his hande as he was about to ſtrike.
Inhibere imperium, To manace or threaten, that he wyll vſe his authoritee or power.
Inhibere nauem, to caſte anker, or to ſtaye a ſhyppe whiche is vnder ſayle, that ſhe ſayle not a full courſe.
Imperia inhibita vltro citróque, They menaced to vſe their power or auctoritee one agaynſt an other.
Inhibere ſupplicia alicui, to threten punyſhemente.
Inhibitio, ônis fœm. ge. an inhibition, a forbidyng a ſtoppyng.
Inhibitio remigum, The ſtoppynge of the ſhyp or bote with ores, as they door whan they tourne it.
Inhio, aui, are, to gape. alſo to couete muche.
Bona mea inhiant, they gape after my goodes.
Illum inhiant omnes, they all loke gredyly for his compng.
Inhoneſtè, diſhoneſtly.
Inhoneſto, aui, are, to diſhoneſt.
Inhoneſtus, a, um, diſhoneſt, yll fauoured.
Inhonorâtus, a, um, lackyng honour, contrary to Honoratus.
Inhonôrus, a, um, without honour.
Inhorreo, horrui, rere, and Inhorreſco, ſcere, to abhorre, to quake for feare, to tremble.
Inhoſpes, he that will lodge no man.
Inhoſpitâlis, le, vnapte for lodgeynge or intertaynyng.
Inhoſpitálitas, âtis, f. g. contrary to hoſpitalitie whan one will lodge or intertayne no man.
Inhóſpitus, a, um, not meete, apte, or tomanage to intertayn, barbarous, rude, dangerous.
Inhóſpita tecta, houſes where no man may be Inhumanè, vngentylly, vncourteyſly, cruelly.
Inhumánitas, tâtis, fœ. g. inhumanitee, vngentrineſſe, vncourteiſie.
Inhumanus, a, um, cruell, vncourteys, vngentyll without all humanitee.
Non adeo ſum inhumano ingenio, I am not of ſo vngentill a nature or faſion.
Inhumâtus, a, um, vnburied, not layed in the earth.
Inhumo, inhumas, aui, are, to putte into the grounde, to interre, to laie in the earthe.
Inibi, euen there, anon, among them.
Iniéctio, ônis, f. g. a caſtyng in.
Manus iniectio, a ſeiſure of lande.
Iniectus, a, um, caſte in.
Iniectus, us, m. g. a caſtyng in or vpon.
Iniectò, aui, are, to caſt or put in often.
Inijcio, inijcis, iéci, iicere, to caſt or throwe into to caſt at ſome thynge, to throwe with violence to put on.
Inijcere manum, to ſeyſe or take poſſeſſion of a thynge.
Inijcere manus in aliquem, to apprehende or attache one, to arreſt one.
Inijcere ſcrupulum alicui, to put one in doubt
Inijcere ſtudium alicui, to ſtere, to prouoke, incourage, to make deſyrous Tantum iniecit ardoris, he made them haue ſuche a courage, he put theim in ſuche a heate or ſo inflamed theim.
Beneficium inijcere, to doo a pleaſure to one proudely and contemptuouſly.
Catênas & vincula inijcere, To laye chaynes or pyons on one, to bynd.
Certamen aliquibus inijcere, to graue occaſion of contencion or ſtryfe.
Cunctationem inijcere, to cauſe a matter to be prolonged.
Curam alicui inijcere, To make ſolicitous or careſull.
Inijcere fugam inimicis, to putte ennemies to flyghte.
Inijcio illud quod &c. I adde or ſaye that moreouer. &c.
Cum mihi in ſermone inieciſſet, whan he had ſignified or made mencion to me as we talked together.
Inijcere mentem alicui, to put one in a fantaſie or mynde to doo a thyng.
Inijcere metum, to make aferde.
Inijcere ſpem, to make one to cõceyue an hope.
Iniecta mihi eſt ſpes, I haue an hope.
Inijcere tumultum ciuitati, to rayſe a tumult ie busyneſſe or ruſſlyng in a cite.

Iniecit ſe in medios hoſtes, he entred & ruſ hed into the myddes of his ennemies.
Cogitationem alicui iniecere, to make one to thynke or muſe on a thing, or to haue a fantaſy.
Frænos furoris iniecere, To refreigne or ſtop nes furie.
inimicé, lyke an ennemy.
inimicitia, æ, f. g. hoſtilitee, contrary to amitee, nemitee. Inimicitiæ ſunt inter eos, They are fallen at variaunce.
inimico, aui, are, to make ennemies.
inimicor, aris, ari, to practiſe hoſtilitee.
inimicus, i, m. g. an ennemie.
inimicus, a, um, not frendly, of or pertenynge to an ennemie, hurtfull, noiſum.
Vultus inimicus, no frendly countenance.
Inimica oculis, hurtfull or noiſom to the eyes.
inimitabilis, le, that no man can imitate or fo lowe.
inde, from thens, out of that place.
iniqué, miſcheuouſely, or vniuſtely, vnequally,
not indifferently.
Inique facis, it is yll doone of you.
Inique iniurius, that dooeth wrong without a cauſe.
iniquitas, âtis, fœ. g. partialitee, contrary to iuſ tice, vnequalitee.
Iniquitas loci, whan one hath the vpper hande or better grounde of the other.
Iniquitas temporis, the ſtreicte or daungerous condicion of any tyme.
iniquus, a, um, not euen or playne. alſo not in differente or iuſte, vnequall, angry, that beareth yll will. ſomtyme great. alſo ſtrayte or narowe.
Iniqua conditio, no indifferent, equall, or rea
ſonable condicion.
Iniqui ſermones, detraction, yll wordes.
Iniquo animo ferre, To bee myſcontented or ſorowfull, to take greuouſely.
inita, orum, n. g. plu. nu. ſacrifice dooen vnto Lares. Initiorum dies, daies on the whiche thoſe ſacrifices were kept.
initiamenta, ôrum, n. g plu. the fyrſt inſtructiõs in any kynd of religion, ſcience, or knowlage.
initiatus, a, um, inſtructed or entred into rules concernyng religion.
initio, aui, are, to inſtructe a thynge concernyng religion, to geue ordres. alſo to begyn to doo a thynge.
initior, âris, ari, to be weaned as chyldren bee.
initium, i, n. g. begynnyng.
Initii capere, ſumere, facere, ponere, to begyn.
ino, as, are, âui, âre, to walke in.
initor, óris, m. g a ſtation.
initus, initus, m. g. the leappng or couerynge of a mare by an horſe.
initus, a, um, begunne, entred.
Initum verbis beneficium comprobare, To accompliſche in deede a pleaſure begunne in woordes.

Iniucunditas, âtis, f. g. vnpleaſauntneſſe.
Iniucundè, vnpleaſauntly.
Iniucundus, a, um, vnpleaſaunt.
Iniudicâtus, a, um, not iudged.
Iniuges, cattell neuer yoked or broken, whiche were ſometyme ſacrificed.
Iniungo, xi, ere, to enioyne, to commaunde, to appoynt, to laie on as a man will adde to a great burdeyne.
Iniunxit cum eo amicitiam, for Coniunxit.
Ne quod detrimentum reipublicæ iniungant, That they make dooe no harme to the common weale.
Iniungere iniuriam, to dooe iniury or diſple ſure. Neceſsitatem iniungere alicui, to con ſtreigne one.
Munus iniungere alicui, To geue to one the charge or office to doo a thyng.
Ne tibi tantum laboris iniungas, Owe you not put your ſelfe to take ſo muche peynes.
Iniurâtus, a, um, vnſworne, that ſweareth not,
that hath not ſworne.
Iniuria, æ, fœm. gen. wrong, iniurie, reproche, damage, diſpleaſure, offence, vnryght: taken as an aduerbe, it ſignifieth without cauſe, with out deſerte.
Ab iniuria obliuionis ſe aſſerere, to make his name immortall, to bringe his name in perpe tuall memorie.
Iniuriæ ciuium, wronges doen to the citizens.
Obuiam ire iniuriæ, to preuent and leat iniu
rie, hurte, or wrong.
Soluere iniuriam, to reuenge wronge or iniu
rie dooen.
Nec iniuria, and not without a cauſe.
Non iniuria illud tibi accidit, That chaunced not to the without thy deſerupng, or thou dyd deſt deſerue ſo muche.
Offerre iniuriam immerenti, to doo wronge to one that dooeth not deſerue it.
Iniuria tua, through thy defaute.
Iniurior, âris, ari, deponent, to doo wronge, in iurie, harme, or diſpleaſure.
Iniuriosè, wrongfully, iniuriouſely.
Iniuriôsus, a, um, that dooeth wrong, that hurt eth or endamageth an other.
Iniurius, a, um, wrõgfull, he that dooeth any thing agaynſt the lawe or reaſon, vnreaſonable.
Iniurium eſt, for iniquum eſt.
Ipſus ſibi iniurius videatur, he maye ſeme to hym ſelfe to be vnreaſonable.
Iniuſſus, us, m. g. vnbiddyng.
Iniuſſu imperatoris, without the emperours commaundement.
Iniuſſus, a, um, not commanded or bydden.
Iniuſſa virescunt gramina, without ſowyng or huſbandyng.
Iniuſtè, vniuſtly, wrongfully.
Iniuſtitia, æ, f. g. miuſtice, wronge.
Iniuſtus, a, um, vniuſte. alſo exceadyng iuſte
meaſure.

Innâbilis, le, that can not be ſwimmed in.
Innaſcor, ceris, ſci, to be ingendred in one. ſometyme idem quod Naſci.
Innato, innatas, aui, are, to ſwymme in a place.
Innatare aquis, and aquam, to ſwymme in the water.
Innâtus, a, um, ingendred.
Id vitium omnibus innatum eſt, That vyce or faulte is naturally in all men, or all men haue it of nature.
Innatus, and Aduentitius, contrary.
Innatus his diſciplinis animus, a mynde framed of nature to theſe learnynges.
Non mihi auaricia vnquàm innata eſt, it was neuer my nature to be couetous.
Innauigábilis, le, that can not be ſayled in.
Innecto, xui, ere, to knytte, tye, or bynde.
Innitor, ĕris, inniti, to aſſaye, to endeuoure, to leane vpon.
Innititur haſtæ, he leaneth on his ſpeare.
Cubito innixa, leanyng on her elbow.
Inno, aui, are, to ſwymme in.
Innŏcens, entis, om. gene. vnharmefull, innocent, harmeleſſe.
Innocenter, innocently.
Innocéntia, æ, fœ. gene. integritee, true intent, innocencye.
Innócuus, a, um, vnharmefull, he that doeth no harme, or he to whom no harme is dooen, not hurted.
Innoteſco, tui, ſcere, to be knowen.
Innouo, innouas, aui, are, to make newe, to renewe.
Innóxius, a, um, wherin is no damage, that can doo no harme, harmeleſſe, blameles. ſometyme that hath no harme dooen to it, that is not hurted.
Vt ſit innoxius ab iniuria pecorum, That he bee not hurte of the cattell.
Innûba, æ, f. g. ſhe that was neuer maried.
Innúbilo, aui, are, to make obſcure, darke, or clowdye.
Innúbilus, a, um, kayre & clere, without cloudes.
Innûbis, be, idem.
Diés innûbis, a kayre day without cloudes.
Innûbo, nupſi, nubere, to be maried or brought home to a mans houſe.
Innûbus, bi, m. g. he that was neuer maried.
Innumerábilis, le, innumerable.
Innumerabilitas, âtis, fœ. g. where bee ſo many that they can not be numbred.
Innumerabiliter, without numbre.
Innumerato, in a readyneſſe.
Innúmerus, a, um, and Innumerôſus, a, um, idem quod innumerabilis.
Innuo, innuis, nui, ere, to graūt or aſſent w̄ nodding of the head, to geue tokenyng of a thyng.
Innuptus, a, um, vnmaried.
Innutrio, nútris, triui, ire, to nourſhe, or bryng vppe together.
Innutritus, a, um, nouriſhed, brought vp, foſtred, trayned in a thyng.
Ino, huius inus, the daughter of Cadmus, wyfe of Athamas kyng of Thebes, whyche (her husbande beyng madde, and Learchus her ſonne ſlayne) threwe hir ſelfe into the ſea.
Inous, a, um, of Ino.
Inoblitus, a, um, myndfull, that forgetteth not.
Inóbrutus, a, um, not ouerwhelmed or drowned.
Inobſcûro, aui, are, to make vnknowen, or of no fame or memorie.
Inóbſequens, entis, om. ge. diſobedient, vnkynde, burne.
Inobſeruábilis, le, that can not be obſerued or marked.
Inobſeruâtus, a, um, not obſerued.
Inocciduus, a, um, that neuer vſeth to fall.
Inocco, aui, are, to harrowe in, to couer with earthe.
Inoculátio, ônis, fœm. gene. graffyng, when a bud of one tree is cut of rounde with a parte of the barcke, and ſette on an other: or when an hole is bored in a tree and a kernell put in with a little lome.
Inoculator, ôris, maſ. ge. he that vſeth to graffe on that wyſe.
Inodôro, aui, are, to make a ſauour, to perfume.
Inodôrus, a, um, without ſauour.
Inoffenſe, with out ſtoppe or ſtaie.
Inoffenſus, a, um, vnhurt, againſt the whiche a man hath no hurte, that doeth not offende, displeaſe, or hurt.
Inoffenſa via, an eaſie and plaine way, that one dooeth not hurte hym ſelfe in.
Inoffenſa tempora à valetudine vitare, To kepe all ones ſyde without ſyckeneſſe.
Inofficiôſus, a, um, that dooeth againſt kynſtee and reaſone, or that doeth no good vnto or pleaſure to his friende.
Inofficioſum teſtamentum, where the father by teſtament geueth awaie from his ſonne, landes or goodes without cauſe.
Inoleſco, lui, & leui, ſcere, to waxe great, to growe bygge, and ſometyme actiuely, to make to grow in.
Inominátus, a, um, vnhappie, foryſpoken.
Inopâco, aui, are, to ſhadowe, to make darke, as trees in a wood doot vnder them.
Inópia, æ, fœ. ge. pouertee, lacke of thynges neceſſarie, neede, ſcarcitee.
Inopia argenti, lacke of money.
Inopia tecti, lacke of an houſe to dwell in.
Inopinábilis, le, that no man woulde euer haue thought.
Inopinans, antis, om. g. not thinking, vnwares.
Inopinanter, ſodeinely, vnwares.
Inopinate, and Inopinato, vnthought on, otherwyſe than one loked or hoped.
Inopinâtus, a, um, vnthought on or vnlooked for.
Verba inopinata, wooydes that eſcape a man vnwares.
Inopinatum & inſperatum, pinus, a, um, idem quod Inopinabilis.

piósus, a, um, needie, without all helpe or succour. In olde wooꝛde.
pportúnus, a, um, vnmeete, out of season, inconuenient.
ps, inopis, om. g. poore, needie, lackyng helpe. Also vnburied.
nops ab amicis, dispurueied of frendes, without frendes.
nops amicorum, idem.
Auxilij nops, that hath no ayde or helpe.
Verbis nops, that lacketh wooꝛdes.
ora, deafes without mouthes.
orátus, a, um, not expouned, or declared.
Re morata reuerterunt, they retourned againe without declaryng or openyng the mattier to them that thei were sent to.
ordinátus, a, um, out of oꝛder or aꝛray.
oriot, eris, iri, idem quod orior.
ornátè, without eloquence.
ornátus, a, um, that is not decked or trimmed.
quam, I saye, or dyd saie.
quantum, in as muche, or foꝛ as muche.
Inquantum potest plurimum, as muche as can be possible.
Inquantumcumque magnitudine creuerunt, how muche so euer they haue growen or encreased in bygnes.
quies, étis, and Inquietus, a, um, vnrestfull, vnquiete.
Inquieta nox, an vnquiete nyght, in the which men take no rest.
Inquieta ingenia, vnquiete natures, desiryng sedition and busines.
quies, étis, f. g. care, vnquietnesse, watche, lacke of rest.
quietáno, ônis, and Inquietûdo, dinis, fœ. ge. disquietyng, trouble, vnreste.
quieto, aui, are, to vnquiete or trouble.
quilino, aui, are, to dwell in a strange place.
quilinus, ni, m. g. he that dwelleth in a place, where neyther he nor his ancesters were borne, he that dwelleth in an other mans house.
quinamentum, i, n. g. fylthe that defyleth or polluteth.
quinate, filthily, dishonestly.
quinátus, a, um, defyled, distained.
quino, inquinas, aui, are, to defyle or pollute, to staine, to die, to distaine.
Inquinare famam alicuius, to distayne a mans fame or good name.
quio, inquis, inquit, I saye, thou sayest, he saieth. Eccum me inquo, here I am say thou. Aliquis inquiat, some man would saie.
quiro, siui, rére, to inquire, to make inquisition, to serche, to aske, to demande.
quisitio, ônis, f. g. inquisition, serche.
Tu caue inquisitioni ne mihi sis, See that thou be not from home, & cause me to seke the abrode quisitor, ôris, m. g. he that maketh inquisition or serche foꝛ a thyng.
Inquisitus, a, um, serched or inquired foꝛ.
Insalúbris, bre, vnholsome.
Insanábilis, le, vncurable, that can not be healed.
Insanabile ingenium, a witte or nature that can not be reformed, amended, or brought to reason by any good meanes.
Insanè, madly, with a fury or rage.
Insánia, æ, f. g. madnesse, peuishnesse, dotage, frowardnesse.
Insania villarum, excesse or great sumptuousnes in buildyng of houses or manours.
Insánio, iui, ire, to be madde or peuishe, to dote, to doo vnaduisedly, sometyme to make verses.
Nisi ego insanio, except I be a verap foole, and vtterly deceiued.
Insánitas, átis, f. g. idem quod insania.
Insânus, a, um, madde, peuishe, dotyng, regardyng no counsayle, froward, vntractable. sometyme great. sometime foꝛ valde sanus, very sage & prudent: as, Pers. Insano multum laus danda magistro.
Insani fluctus, great waues exceedyng troublous.
Insanæ substructiones, meruayllous great buildynges or bulwarkes.
Insanæ vites, vynes bearyng fruite beyonde measure.
Insanum, aduerbialiter, wounderfull great, greatteiy.
Insatiabilis, le, vnsaciable, sometyme that doeth not saciate or fyll.
Insatiabiliter, vnsaciably.
Insatiátus, a, um, vnsaciate.
Insatiuus, a, um, that is not planted, grafted, or sowen.
Insaturábilis, le, vnsaciate, that can not be filled.
Insaturabiliter, vnsaciably.
Inscendo, di, dere, to go vp, or to clymbe.
Inscendere currum, to go into the the chariot or waggon.
Inscendere in arborem, to clyme vp into a tree.
Inscendor, the passyue, to be clymed or leaped vp on.
Insciens, entis, vnwittyng. also not thynkyng on that he dooeth, foolysshe, fonde.
Non inscientè, not without your knowlage, you not beyng ignorant in the mattier.
Insciens feci, I dyd it vnwares, or not wittyng Me absente atque insciente, whyle I was absent, and not knowyng of the mattier.
Abi sis insciens, awaye foꝛ or foole that thou arte. Inscientem atque imprudentem dicere ac facere omnia, to consider and regarde not thyng that he dooeth, or to doo and saie all thynges vnknowyng and vnaduised.
Insciénter, ignorantly, by ignorance, foꝛ lacke of knowlage.
Insciéntia, æ, f. g. ignorance.
Inscitè, nothyng prettily or hansomly, foolysshly.
Inscitia, æ, f. g. ignorance, folye, foolysshe, folysshnesse, lacke of knowlage, vnskylfullnesse.

Propter lini vſus inſcitiam, because they knew not the vſe of lynnen or flax.

✠ Inſcitia confidentiam parit, none is more bolde than blynde baparde.

Inſcitus, inſcita, um, nothynge feate or preatie, dyſpleasant, foolyſhe.

Quid eſt inſcitius? what is more foolyſhe?

Inſcius, inſcia, um, ignorant, not knowyng.

Inſcribo, ſcripſi, ſcribere, to wryte in or vppon, to name or intitle.

In fronte inſcribere, to wryte in ones forehead.

Monumento ſe medicum inſcripſit, he caused to be grauen on his tumbe that he was a phiſician.

Inſcribitur Panathenaicus, It is intitled Panathenaicus.

Aedes inſcribere, to wryte on the doore that the houſe is to be ſolde or let.

Corpus inſcribere, to rente, to mangle, or make ſtarres and ſignes of woundes on ones bodye.

Puluis inſcribitur haſta, the duſt was raſed with the ſpeare.

Inſcriptio, onis, ſ. g. an inſcription, a tytle, a note, a marke.

Inſcriptiones frontis, markes bourned in ones forehead with a hot yron.

Inſcriptum, ti, n. g. a ſuperſcription. alſo a lyttle byllet or letter, ſuche as marchantes haue out of the cuſtome houſe.

Inſcriptus, a, um, vnwrytten, wrytten vpon, named or entitled.

Inſcripta epiſtola patri, the letter was wrytten to his father.

Alia eſt ſcripta, alia inſcripta.

Inſculpo, ſculpſi, ſculpere, to ingraue, carue or entaple.

Inſculptum in animo, pryntes or faſtened in ones mynde.

Inſeco, inſecas, inſecui, are, to cut in.

Inſecabilis, le, that can not be cut.

Inſectatio, onis, a raylyng or ſpeakyng againſte one with al the pl wordes that a man can diuiſe.

Inſecto, aui, are, is ſometyme read in the actyue voyce.

Inſector, āris ari, to purſue or renne after.

Inſectari aliquem haſta, to purſue one with his ſpeare.

Inſectari lapidibus, to renne after one, and hurle ſtones at him.

Inſectari aliquem maledictis, to raple, to ſpeake all the ruel that a man can diuiſe againſt one.

Inſectus, a, um, cut in.

Inſecta animalia, be all flies and wormes that be diuided in theyr bodies, the head and breaſt from the belly and taple, as bees, waſpes, emmotes or pismeres, and ſuche lyke.

Inſecūtus, a, um, that foloweth immediately.

Inſedabilis, le, that can not be quieted or made ſauage.

Inſedabiliter, ſo that it can not be quieted or pacified.

Inſedātus, a, um, vnquiet, or not quiet, troubled.

Inſémino, aui, are, to ſowe in.

Inſeneſco, ſénui, ſcere, to continue longe, and as it were to ſpende all ones lyfe in a thyng.

Inſenſibilis, le, and inſenſilis, le, vnſenſible.

Inſepultus, a, um, not buried.

Inſéquens, entis, that enſueth or foloweth immediately.

Inſequens annus, the nexte yere folowyng.

Inſéquor, ĕris, qui, to folowe, to enſue, to purſue, to ſpeake vnfrendely agaynſt one.

Inſequi contumelia, to raple or chyde.

Inſerēnus, a, um, cloudie, not fayre or clere.

Inſero, inſeris, ſerŭi, rere, inſertum, to ſet in, to ioigne, to put in, to caſt in, to entermingle.

Manum in ſinum inſerere, to put ones hande in his boſome.

Quod admirandis ſuis inſeruit, whiche thynge he dyd put or wryte amonge his wonders.

Bellis ciuilibus ſe inſerere, to medle or take parte in ciuile warres.

Collum in laqueū inſerere, to put ones necke in the halter.

Inſero, inſeris, inſéui, inſitum, inſerere, to ente, plant, to engraffe, to inſtill, to ſow in or among.

Inſerere frumentum arboribus, to ſow corne among trees.

Inſerere hortos, to ſowe or plant.

Inſerpo, idem quod Serpo.

Inſerto, aui, are, to ſet to, to put in often.

Incertorium, rij, n. g the bond or thong, wherewith a terget or buckler is hanged on a mans arme.

Inſéruio, uiui, ire, to ſerue, to do pleaſure or ſeruice to one gladly and voluntarily.

Inſeruire ſuis commodis, to prouyde or doo all that one can for his owne aduauntage.

Inſeruire honoribus, to geue all his diligence to purchaſe honour and aduancement.

Inſerui valetudini tuæ, cheryſhe your helthe, as doo as it ſhall be moſt conuenient for your health. Plebi ſumma ope inſeruitum eſt, they endeuoured with al diligence to pleaſe the people.

Inſibilo, āui, āre, idem quod Sibilo.

Inſiccatus, a, um, dryed.

Inſidens, the participle of inſido.

Inſidens, entis ſytteyng on or in, chaunceyng.

Equo inſidens, ſittyng on his horſe.

Inſideo, inſi ſes, ſedi, ſidēre, to ſytte on, to ſette in, or be in, to beſiege, to abyde in a place.

Inſidere equo, to ſytte on horſebacke.

Inſidere in ſella, to ſyt on a ſtoole.

Inſidet pedibus dolor, The peyne reſteth in the feete.

Si tibi penitus inſediſſet iſta ſuſpitio, yf this ſuſpition had been ſo vtterly ſetled or rooted in your mynde.

Quod non in memoria mea penitus inſedet derit, whiche dydde not sticke fast in my mes morye.

Insidere itinera, To lye in wayte in the waies that men muste passe by.
Quingẽtis militibus arcem insederat he kept the garrison with fiue hundred souldiours.
Insideri, the passiue.
Insidiæ, ārum, f. g. plu. nu. wyles to intrappe a man ere he be ware, an ambushe, a conspiracie.
Demisdius nihil agendum putat. he thynketh it mete that nothyng should bee doone secrets fully and craftily.
Ex insidiis aucupari, to lye in awayt, to espy.
Consurgere ex insidiis, To breake out of an ambushe.
Parare insidias vitæ alicuius, To conspire a mans deathe.
Insidiator, ōris, m. gen. he that layeth wayte to deceyue.
Insidior, āris, ari, to practise wyles, to entrappe or betraie a man, to laye awayte to deceyue.
Insidiosè wyrily, craftily, deceytfully, falsely.
Insidiosus, a, um, full of wyles or deceitfulnes, false.
Insido, insidis. sēdi, ere, to enter to the intent to abyde, to lyghte into a thing, to settle in a thyng.
Insidere memoriæ, to sticke or settle in ones memorye.
Insidor, the passiue.
Apes variis insidunt floribus, light downe and lute vpon
Insigne, nis, n. g. a notable signe or token.
Quod erat insigne, wh che was an euidente token. Ad memoriam insigne, a thyng worthy remembraunce
Insigne regium, the habite and estate royall.
Insignia, all thynges notable and manyfest.
Insignia, orum, signes or tokens of honoure, wherby euery estate or great authoritee is knowen, as robes, maces, swordes borne vpright, cappes of maintenance, and other like thyn-ges also tokens of doctrine and vertue, as staf ues tipped with syluer, whiche headyls beare before doctours, hoodes furred, crownes of laurell It maie be also taken for the armes or badges of gentyll men.
Insigno, iui, ire, to note with some signe. also to doude knyghtes.
Insignire aliquem, to marke one.
Insignire animum cladibus to make a peere notable by great murder and slaughter.
Insignis, ne, notable, whether it bee in good or yll: as, insignis virtute, and insignis vitiis.
also excellente, marked with some speciall token to be knowen. euident, apparant, manye fest, sometyme great.
Insignis ad deformitatem puer, a chylde very yll fauoured and mysse shapen.
Res insignis ad decus & ad gloriam, a thyng notable to gette honour and glorie.
Insignis auro & purpura, gorgiously appa-relled in golde and purple, & thereby the more notable.
Cum aliquo insigni iudicio, meæ erga te beneuolentiæ, with some euident and apparant token of my good wyll towarde you
Insigne odium, manifest and apparant hatred.
Insignitè, and insignitèr, notably, excellentely, greately.
Homo insignitèr malus, a verie naughtye persone, notably knowen to euery man Insignitèr facta magnā est iniuria, great wrōg is doone to hym verie euidently.
Insile, is. n. g. the treadle of a weauers loome.
Insilio, insilui, insilitum, or insiliui, ire, to leape in or vp. Tergo alicuius insilire, to leape on ones backe. insilire in equum, to leape to horse backe.
Insimul, together, a worde seldome vsed.
Insimulatio, ōnis, f. g. an accusation or appeale.
Insimulo, aui, are, to accuse, to detecte, to lay to ones charge, properly a crime that is not true, but a forged matter. also to feigne or dissemble, to make semblaunce to doo a thyng.
Quod illum insimulat durum, id non est, where as he accuseth hym, or layeth to his charge, that he is hard or streite, it is not so.
Insimulare aliquem auaritia, to laye to ones charge that he is couetous.
Insinuatio, ōnis, f. g. a colourable & craftye begyn-nyng of an oration, dissemblyng some thynge, where the matter may not be fauourably hard.
Insinuātus, a, um, an adiectiue.
Insinuo, aui, āre, to put in ones bosom, to bryng into, to conueigne, to put in a mans mynde cos uertly and craftily.
Aliquem alteri insinuare, to bryng one in fa-uour with an other.
In causam insinuare se, to considre the ground of a matter.
Insinuare se, by craftye meanes by littell and littell, to creepe into fauour or credence.
Insinuare se in consuetudinem, to enter in acquaintance, or be come familiar with one.
Insinuare se in sermonem aliquorum, to en-terlace communicat on with theim, whiche be all ready talkyng of a mattier.
Insinuant se mala, euyls and mischiefes creepe and enter in by littell and littell.
Insinuare se in quam maxime familiarē vsum,
To offer ones seife to doo all the pleasure and seruice that is possible for a man.
Insinuat, for insinuatur.
Insinuatis manibus, the handes claspyd one within an other.
Insipidus, a, um, vnsauoury.
Insipiens, entis, without discretion, foolyshe, vnwyse.
Insipo, aui, are, to cast, a woorde out of vse.
Insipienter, vnwisely, without wisedome, and discretion.
Insipientia, æ, fœ. gen. folye, foolishenesse, lacke of wisedome.

Insisto, stiti, sistere, to sette fast and firmely, to endeuour, to prouoke or solucite. sometyme to assiste, to persiste, to continue, to inforce, to labour earnestly, to pursue a matter diligently, to rest, to stop or stande styll, to pause as one would speake no more. sometyme to leane vpon. Insistebat in manu Cereris dextera simulachrum pulcherrimè factum victoriæ, Ther was in the right hand of Ceres an ymage of victorie moste pleasantly wroughte.

Aliquod negotium insistere, To goe about some affayre or busynesse.

Hastæ insistere, to leane on a speare.

Mente & animo insistere in rem aliquam, to employe all wytte and mynde on some thyng.

Omnes itinera insistant sua, leat euery man goe his owne waie.

Quam insistam viam? what way shall I kepe?

Vestigiis alienis insistere, To folowe other mens doynges.

Insistere vestigiis laudum suarum, to continue in his well dooyng.

Viis insistere, aut ingredi, to tary by the way, or to go fooythe.

Vno crure insistere, to stande stedyly on one legge. Ne insistas credere huic, Doo you not beleue this felowe.

Si in singulis insistere velim, yf I would abide and speake at length of euery one of them.

Insistere digitis, to stande on ones toes.

Insitio, ônis, f. g. graffyng.

Insitîtium, ii, neu. gen. that is grafted or set in, not natiue.

Insitîtius, a, um, straunge, not naturall, that is sette in by arte.

Insitîtius sermo, Cui patrius opponitur.

Insitium, i, n. g. a graffe sette in the stocke.

Insitium, a iegot or other syke meate, stuffed with egges and flesshe chopped or mynced.

Insitiuus, a, um, that is grafted or putte in, not naturall.

Insitor, ôris, m. ge. a graffer.

Insitus, insitus, m. g. idem quod Insitio.

Insitus, a, um, ingendred in a thynge naturally, grafted in.

Insociabilis, le, that can not be toigned or mynsled together, or brought in one companye or felowshyp.

Insolabiliter, without comfort, so that he coulde not be comforted, desperately.

Insolâtio, ônis, f. g. a sunnyng.

Insolâtus, a, um, sunned.

Insolati dies, sunny daies.

Insólens, éntis, om. g. not wont or accustomed, haut, arrogant, presumptuous, not tahyng it as he hath dooen.

Insolens infamiæ, not wonte to haue an yll name or sclander.

Bellorum insolens, not wont to haue warre.

Insoleus verbum, a woorde not vsed of good authours.

Lætitia insolens, immoderate ioye.

Insolens ostentatio, a proude auauntyng or bostynge.

Insolenter, arrogantly, seldome, not accustomedly. Superbè & insolenter.

Insolentia, æ, fœ. ge. seldomenesse of vse in any thing, vnhantyng of a place. also presumption, wanton pryde, newe founde lordynesse, lue tahyng state vppon one, presumptuous vaunting, arrogancie, insolence.

Insolite, not as it was wonte.

Insólitus, a, um, not wonte, not accustomed, not vsed, straunge.

Ratio dicendi insolita, a maner of speakyng not vsed.

Insolitus ad laborem exercitus, an army not accustomed to trauayle.

Insólitus rerum bellicarum, not accustomed or brought vp in warrefare.

Insólo, aui, are, to drye in the sunne, to ley out in the sunne, to bleache.

Insolubilis, le, that can not be lensed, vnbounde, or vndooen, or that can not be recompenced.

Insolubile beneficium, a benefite, that can not be requited.

Insolûtus, a, um, not paied.

Insomnia, æ, f. g. lacke of power to sleape.

Insomnis, ne, without sleape, that watcheth alwaye.

Noctes insomnes, nyghtes without sleape.

Noctem insomnem ducere, not to sleape all nyght longe.

Insomniósus, a, um, troubled or vexed with dreames, that dreameth muche in sleapyng.

Insómnium, nij, n g. a vayne dreame.

Insono, ihsonas, ui, âre, to sowne.

Insons, ôntis, com. ge. innocent, or not gylty, without faute.

Insonus, insona, num, without noyse, an olde woorde.

Insopitus, a, um, watchefulle, not drowsye or sleappynge.

Inspectâtio, ônis, f. g. a beholdyng, a lokyng on.

Inspéctio, ônis, f. g. a beholdyng, an ouersyght, a lookyng on, a controllement, a viewynge or consyderyng, a seeyng.

Inspectionem alicuius rei habere, to haue the charge to viewe and consyder a thyng.

Inspecto, aui, are, to beeholde attentively, to wayte on, to lokc in or vppon.

Inspector, ôris, m. g. an ouerseer, a controller, one that hath the charge to see & allowe wares or chaffer that is commonly solde.

Insperabilis, le, that no man would hope or loke for, past all hope.

Insperans, antis, that hopeth not for a thyng.

Insperâtus, a, um, not hoped for, sodayne, not looked for.

Ex insperato, otherwyse than one hoped or looked for.

Inspergo, spersi, gere, to sprynkle or cast vppon.

ſpicio, inſpicis, exi, ſpicere, to beholde, to ouerſee, to controlle, to conſyder a thynge throughly, to viewe, to ſe. che.
Vis ne te inſpiciamus à puero? wylt thou that we ſhould conſyder what maner of felowe thou haſt bene euen from thy chyldehod?
Inſpicere ſententiam alicuius, Diligentely to attende and conſyder what one meaneth.
Inſpicere hominem propius, to viewe or beholde a man, to conſyder more earneſtely what maner of felowe one is.
Inſpicere aliquem experimentis, to aſſay and proue what maner of man one is.
Inſpico, áui, áre, to make a thynge ſmall or ſharp lyke to a wheate eare, whã it ſhooteth out of the boſe.
Inſpiro, áui, are, to inſpyre, to blowe in.
Granaria aquilonibus inſpirentur, Let the graners be ſo made, that the northe wyndes may blow in.
Inſpirare aliquid oculo per fiſtulam, to blowe in a thyng in to the eye. &c.
Alicui litteræ inſpirare, for Aſpirationem præponere.
Inſpoliatus, a, um, not robbed or ſpoyled.
Inſpuo, inſpuis, ſpui, ere, and Inſputo, aui, are, To ſpytte on.
Inſputo, aui, are, to ſpytte on one.
Inſtabilis, le, vnſtable, vnconſtante, lyghte, that can not tarye or abyde in one place, or in one ſtate.
Vultus inſtabilis, a wylde or ſhyttyſhe looke.
Inſtabilitas, átis, f. g. vnconſtancie, inſtabilytee.
Inſtans, antis, an inſtaunte, the leaſt parte of tyme.
Inſtanter, inſtantly.
Inſtantia, thynges that be preſent.
Inſtantia, æ, f. g. earneſt and continuall diligence, earneſt vehemencie of oracion.
Inſtar, n. g vndeclyned, as it were or lyke, and is referred to meaſure, quantitee, or lykeneſſe.
Simulatque inſtar quatuor digitorum erit, ſo ſoone as it ſhall be foure fyngers longe.
Inſtar quinque modiorum, to the meaſure of fyue buſſhelles.
Duarum inſtar legionum, about the numbre of two legions.
Vrbis inſtar, as it were a citee, or lyke a citee.
Inſtar refectionis exiſtimas mutationem laboris, you eſteme the change of labour to be a refreſſhyng.
Inſtar voluminis erat epiſtola, The epiſtle was great lyke a booke or volume.
In quo inſtar omnium auxiliorum erat, which could doe as muche as all the other ayders or healpers.
Inſtar, is ſometyme vſed for Exemplar.
Si proponatur inſtar quoddam operis, id eſt Exemplar, a platte, a paterne.
Ad inſtar exercitus, for Ad ſimilitudinem exercitus.

Inſtat, It is nygh, it is come, it is euen at hande.
Cæſar vbi ſe diutius duci intellexit, & diem inſtare, qua die frumentum militibus meturi oportebat, Whan Cæſar perceyued, that he was delayed, and the daye was nyghe come, that he muſt nedes deliuer corne to his men of warre.
Inſtatio, onis, f. g. the aprochepnge of a thynge.
Inſtauratio, ônis, f. g. reedifyng, repayryng, renewyng.
Inſtauratiuus, a, um, that pertayneth to renuyng or repayryng.
Inſtauro, aui, are, to newe make or begyn agayne any thyng. ſometyme to renue, or reforme, to reedifie, to repayre.
Inſtaurare bellum, to make warre eftſones, to renue the warre.
Inſtaurare tunicam aduerſus hyemem, to proupde or make a coate agaynſte the colde of wynter.
Inſtaurare acies, to repayre an armye that is diſcomfyted.
Inſtaurare cædem, to commyt a newe murder.
Epulas inſtaurare, to renewe a feaſte or banket with moꝛe diſhes, to bryng in an other courſe. alſo to begyn a banket agayne.
Inſterno ſtrauí, ĕre, to couer, to ſpreade vpon, to laye abrode vpon.
Terræ inſterni, to be buried.
Equus regio inſtratus ornatu, an horſe roially arrayed.
Inſtigans, gántis, om. g. ſtyrynge, mouynge, perſwadyng.
Inſtigante te, Thorough thy perſwaſion or motion
Inſtigátio, ônis, f. g. a motion, or pryckynge forwarde.
Inſtigátor, ôris, m. g. a motioner, one that pricketh and moueth a man to a thyng.
Inſtigátus, us, m. g. an inſtinction, motion, or pryckyng forwarde.
Inſtigo, aui, are, to moue, ſtyre or pricke forwarde.
Inſtillátio, ônis, f. g. infuſion or powryng in by lyttell and lyttell.
Inſtillo, áui, áre, to put or powre in by lyttell and lyttel, to let in by droppe meale, to fal in droppe by droppe.
Inſtimulo, áui, áre, to pricke, to ſtyre, or to motion to a thyng.
Inſtinctor, ôris, m. g. a motioner or mouer, a perſwader.
Inſtinctus, us, m. g. an inward motion, an inſpiracion, an inſtinction or perſwaſion.
Inſtinctu alicuius facere, to doe a thynge by a mans perſwaſion or motion.
Inſtinctus, a, um, inwardly moued.
Inſtingo, inxi, gere, to moue inwardly, a word out of vſe.
Inſtipulor, áris, ári, to demaunde or require of one, whether he wyll geue or doe a thynge for hym, and he anſwereth, yea, Or to couenaunt by demaundyng and promiſyng.

Inſtita, inſtitæ, ſ. g. a purſe, a garde.

Inſtito, aui, are, to repugne or withſtande.

Inſtitor, tôris, m. g. a chapman, a mercer. Alſo he that ſelleth apparaple and fyne ſtuffe, goyng aboute therewith. Alſo a merchauntes factour. The ſygne named the ſeuen ſterres, is ſometyme called Inſtitor veſtis.

Inſtitor eloquentiæ, a vaunter and ſetter fooythe of eloquence, a marchaunte of eloquence.

Inſtitôrius, a, um, perteignynge vnto chapmanſhyppe.

Actio inſtitoria, an accion agaynſt the mayſter for the acte of the factour.

Inſtitrix, icis, ſ. g. a woman ſeruaunt that ſelleth wares for her maiſtreſſe.

Inſtituo, tui, ere, to inſtitute, to begynne, to inſtructe or teache, to trayne, to breake or haue the fyrſte breakyng, to ordeyne or appoint, to purpoſe or aduiſe, to enter, to prepare, to furniſhe or make in a readineſſe.

Aueo ſcire, quarum rerum rationem inſtituat, I would fayne knowe whereabout he goeth, or what he intendeth to dooe.

Senex inſtitui lyra non erubeſcebat, Beynge an olde man, he was not aſhamed to be taughte to playe on the harpe.

Inſtituere ſibi amicos, to purchaſe and geat frendes.

Animum ad cogitandum inſtituere, to ſette tyll or applye the mynde, to thynke or muſe on a thynge.

Curſum cum inſtitueris, whan thou haſte once begunne thy courſe to reune.

Hæredem inſtituere, to appoynte or ordeyn an heyre.

Inſtituere in animo, to purpoſe, to intende.

Naues inſtituere, to prouyde and furnyſſhe ſhyppes.

Nauem inſtituere, to cauſe a ſhyppe to bee made.

Negotium inſtituere, To goe about a buſyneſſe.

Orationem cum aliqno inſtituere, to tourne or bende his communication to one.

Vitem inſtituere, to plante a vine.

Ita vt facere inſtituit, As he hath begunne to dooe.

Argumenta in corde inſtitui, I haue heaped vp reaſons and argumentes in my mynde.

Accuſationem inſtituere, to commence an action, or make a complaynt by byll.

Aſtutiam inſtituere, To inuente a craftye meane.

Certamen ſibi inſtituere cum aliquo, to purpoſe to be at barlaunce with one.

Collegium inſtituere, to founde a colledge.

Conſuetudinem inſtituere, to enter into familiaritee. Aphewiſe Inſtituere amicitiam cum aliquo.

Delectum militum inſtituere, to rayſe or muſter men for the warres.

Quæſtum ſibi inſtituere, to begyn a way to haue gayne or profyte by it.

Vitam ſapiẽter inſtituit, he appointed his lyfe, or prepared hym ſelfe wyſely.

Inſtitûta, ôrum, n. g. plur. ancient maners and cuſtomes. alſo ordinaunces.

Inſtitûtio, ônis, ſ. g. inſtruction, doctrine, teachyng. alſo a purpoſe to declare or teache.

Inſtitutio & diciplina.

Inſtitûtum, ti, n. g. an ordinance, a decree, a lawe, a good maner or cuſtome, taken by reaſon and vſement. ſometyme a purpoſe or intente. alſo beginnyng.

Pro meo inſtituto, for my purpoſe.

Inſtituto Platonis, after Platos ſchoole or lore.

Abduci à ſuis inſtitutis, to bee withdrawen from theyr purpoſes, or from theyr accuſtomed maner.

Meo inſtituto vſus ſum, I did after myne accuſtomed faction.

Conſtitutione atque inſtituto maiorum, After the cuſtome and maner of our forefathers.

Inſtitutum vitæ capiendum, ſome maner or trade of lyuyng muſt be choſen.

Inſtitûtus, a, um appoynted, ordeyned, inſtructed, taught, trayned, begon, entred.

Inſto, inſtiti, are, to require inſtantly, to be earneſt on one to doe a thynge, to ſollicite, to vrge to, to reſiſte, to perſiſte, to preace on, to worke on or immediately, to folow, to inforce, to purſue and folowe ſtreyghtly, to auouche or affyrme earneſtly. alſo to be nygh.

Veſtigns alicuius inſtare, to folowe one foote by foote. alſo to imitate or folowe ones doo ynges.

Inſtat, it is nowe.

Periculum inſtat, daunger is at hande.

Inſtant a me tibi bona, I am at the poynt to do the good.

Quod nunc inſtat agamus, Let vs dooe that is nowe moſte neceſſary.

Inſtare operi, to haſten a worke forwarde inſtantly.

Rectam inſtas viam, It is euen as thou ſaieſt, thou art in the ryght waie.

Hac an illac iter inſtitit? went he this waie or that waie?

Ille inſtat factum, He auowed or ſaied earneſtly that it was ſo.

Inſtat ire ad deum, id eſt, perſeuerat.

Inſtabat certo vultu index, The accuſer auouched it with an earneſt countenaunce, or did ſtande earneſtly in it.

Inſtrãgulum, li, n. g. idem quod Stragulum.

Inſtrâtum, i, n. g. a counterpoynte. alſo it ſignifieth all tapeſtry, whiche ſerueth to couer any thyng. alſo the trappier or the apparaple of an hoyſe, horſe, an horſe clothe.

Inſtrātus, a, um, couered, trapped.

Inſtrenuus, a, um, not valiaunt and hardy, not diligent prompte and hardy to do thynges, vnnoble, vnhoneſt.

Animus non inſtrenuus, a noble and gentyll courage.

Inſtrepo, inſtrepis, pui, pere, to make a trasshyng, craſchyng, or noyſe.

Inſtringo, ſtrinxi, gere, idem quod Stringo, To bynde or ſtreygne harde. After ſome to vnbynde.

Inſtructio, ônis, f. g. a ſettyng in araye or order, a teachyng or inſtructyng.

Inſtructio exercitus, ſettyng of an armie in araye.

Inſtructor, ôris, m. g. he that maketh preparation or furniſheth.

Inſtructus, us, maſc. gener. furniture, apparayle.

Inſtructus, a, um, inſtructed, taught, furniſhed, garniſhed, appointed with all neceſſaries.

Inſtructiores peditum copiæ, The footemenne were in better order and better appointed.

Vir inſtructiſſimus, a man furnyſhed with all manor of thynges neceſſarie or conuenient.

Quam inſtructus ad perniciem ſit? How well appointed he is to vndoo or caſte awaye a man?

Inſtrumentum ti, neu. gen. an inſtrumente or toole. Alſo ordinaunce of warre, veſſell, and all neceſſaries of houſeholde and houſebandry. Sometyme it ſygnifieth a deede or charter concernyng lande, dettes, or couenauntes. Alſo that ſerueth for an ayde or helpe to doo or to attayne a thyng.

Inſtrumentum regni, a writyngе or inſtrumente, concernyng the ſtate royall.

Inſtrumentum venatorium, all thynges belongyng to huntyng.

Inſtruo, inſtruis, uxi, ere, to ſet in order or aray, to arme, to inſtruct, to furniſh with all thynges neceſſary, to prepare.

Domum inſtruere, to garnyſſhe an houſe with all thynges neceſſary.

Epulas inſtruere, to prouyde for a feaſt or banket.

Inſidias inſtruere, to prepare thynges to intrap or deceiue one.

Inſtruendæ fraudi aliquanto intentior, ſomewhat buſy in deuiſyng how to deceiue.

Inſtruere accuſationem, to prouide writynges, letters, witneſſes, and all thynges neceſſarie for an accuſation.

Inſtruere aciem, to ſet an army in order of battayle.

Menſas inſtruere epulis, to furniſſhe the tables with muche meate or many diſhes.

Inſtruere nauigia, to furniſſhe ſhyppes with all abilimentes and takelynges.

Inſtruamus qua in oratione, Let vs teache in what maner of oracion.

Inſtupens, entis, om. g. beyng aſtonied, that is without ſence or feelyng.

Inſuaſum, ſi, n. g. a kynde of yelow or tawnie colour, as that hath, whiche is hanged in the ſmoke.

Inſuauis, ue, vnſweete, ſower, ſtynkynge, vnpleaſaunt.

Inſubidè, raſhely, without aduiſement.

Inſubidus, a, um, raſhe.

Inſubres, Lumbardes, properly men of the duchie of Melayne.

Inſubtiliter, not ſubtilly.

Non inſubtiliter, wittily, craftily.

Inſuccandus, a, um, that muſt be moiſted with licour.

Inſucco, aui, are, to make moiſt with licour,

Inſuefactus, a, um, accuſtomed, taught, brought in vre.

Inſueſco, ſuēui, ſcĕre, to be wonte, to vſe for a cuſtome, to practiſe.

Inſuescere corpori meretricis, id eſt, conſuetudinem ſtupri habere.

Inſueuit pater optimus hoc me, my father did accuſtome me to this.

Inſueſci, the paſſyue.

Sic inſueſci debent, ut in &c.

Inſuetus, inſuēta, um, not vſed, not accuſtomed, not wont. Inſuetus nauigandi, not vſed to be on the ſea.

Inſuetum iter, a waie that hath not ben accuſtomed to be gone in, a waie vnhaunted.

Inſuētus mos, a faſhion that hath not been vſed.

Inſuētus moribus Romanis, not accuſtomed to the manier or behauyour of the Romayns.

Inſuetus laboris, not wonte or vſed to labonre.

Inſuetus vera audire, not wonte to here the truthe of mattiers.

Inſuefacio, feci, facere, to accuſtome, to bryngе in vre.

Inſula, læ, f. g. an yle inuironned with water. It is alſo an houſe in a towne, hauyng none other houſe ioigned to it, but ſtrectes on euery ſyde of it.

Inſulāris, re, belongyng to an yle.

Inſulārius, rii, m. g. he that hepeth a noble mans houſe or manour.

Inſulārius, a, um, moſt vile, properly men banyſſhed into yles to dygge mettall.

Inſulātus, a, um, made an yle.

Inſulsè, vnwyſely, foolyſhely.

Inſulſitas, tātis, fœm. gener. foolyſhenеſſe, vnſauouryneſſe, lacke of grace, or pleſauntneſſe.

Inſulſus, a, um, without ſmache of ſalte, vnſauourie, foolyſſhe, without wyſedome, that hath no grace, that hath no quickeneſſe or luſtyneſſe, that hath no pleaſant faſion neither in woordes nor geſture, nor otherwyſe in his behauiour, and conſtes consequentely verie foolisshe, and suche as no man hath any pleasure in.

Exflagitatio insulsa, a foolysshe request.

Insultátio, ónis, f. g. a leapyng vp, outragious mockyng or scornynge, a reprochyng of one in woordes, a braggyng agaynst a man, as though he had ouercome him.

Insulto, aui, are, to leape vp, to leape for ioye or to scorne, to speake or doo me in the reproche of a man, to mocke.

Insultare fores calcibus, to knocke or beate ones heeles agaynst the dooze.

Insultûra, ræ, fœ. gen. leappnge vp or into a thynge.

Insum, ines, fui, to be in some thyng.

Seueritas ineſt in vultu, There is in his face, or countenaunce, sagenesse and grauitee.

Quicquid hic ineſt, what so euer is here within.

Is mihi candor ineſt, I am of that gentylnesse or curtesie.

Ineſt nobis spes, we haue a hope.

Insummo, aui, are, to fynisshe.

Insúmo, psi, mére, to spende or laie out money, to bestowe, also to take to hym.

Operam frustra insumere, to bestow labour in vayne.

Sumptus in rem aliquam insumere, to bestow coste.

Mentes insumite dignas cœptis, take to you courages. &c.

Insuo, insui, insuere, to sowe in, and by translation, to ioygne to, or togyther.

Insúper, furthermore, moreouer, also aboue, ouer, vpon, from aboue.

Insuper quam, for Prætérquam.

Insuper his, more ouer than this, ouer and beſydes these thynges.

Duos insuper consulatus gesit, he was twise Consull togyther.

Insuperábilis, le, that can not be ouercome or brought vnder.

Insurgo insurrexi, ere, to ryse vp agaynste a thynge.

Insusurro, aui, are, to whisper, to make a hum mynge.

Insusurrare alteri, or in aurem alterius, To whisper in ones eare.

Insuscéptus, a, um, not receyued or taken.

Insyncérus, a, um, not pure, corrupte.

Intabesco, idem quod Tabesco.

Intáctilis, le, that can not bee touched, or that will not be touched.

Intactus, a, um, not touched, not corrupted, vndefiled, not deflowred, not violated, not hurte.

Intacti religione animi vir, a man that hath no remorse or scrupulositee of conscience, or without all religion or feare of god.

Intactus á sibilo, neuer hissed at.

Intactus infamia, hauyng his good name neuer distayned.

Intaminatus, a, um, not defyled or distayned.

In tantum, so muche.

Integer, integra, um, if it bee spoken of age, it signifieth ponge and lusty. if it be spoken of a man, it signifieth honest in all poyntes and qualities. In a thyng it signifieth entier and whole. Also salfe, sounde, not broken, or wered with labour, vncorrupted, pure, not deflowred. sometyme sobre.

Integer ævi, lusty of age.

Integer ab labore, not wered.

Integrum se seruare, to kepe hym selfe indifferente, and meddle with neyther of the parties.

Mulier ætate integra, a woman beyng in hyr best peres, or beyng in the flower of hir tyme or nothyng broken with age.

Exercitus integer, an army whole and sounde, in the whiche no man hath perished or myscarryed.

Integra res and perdita, contrary.

Integer sanguis, pure and vncorrupted blood.

Integra valetudo, perfect good helth.

Ab integro, a fresshe, a newe.

Homo integer & sanctus, a perfecte honest man.

Omnia integra principi relinquere, to medell nothyng in any mattier, but to reserue all whole to the prince.

Integri, cui onusti vino & cibo opponantur, sober, not actased or out of temper through surfetyng.

Vt integri defessis succedant, that the freshe lusty men shoulde come in theyr places that be werie.

Integra æstimatio, a mans estimation whole and sounde, or not distayned or diminished.

Cum tibi in integro tota res esset, when the whole mattier was in your handes, or in the case that ye myght haue doen as ye lysted.

Non est integrum, it is past remedy, it can not be holpen.

Integrum esse, to be at a mãs libertee, or in his power.

Non est integrum Cn. Pompeio, consilio iam vti nuo, It is not now in Pompeies power to doo after your counsayle.

Ego si mihi esset integrum, susciperem hoc crimen, if I were at my lybertee, I would take that blame vpon me.

Constituent quid agant, quibus integrum est, they whiche yet haue doen nothynge, leat them take hede what they doe.

Si mihi esset integrum, if it were in my power. Or yf it were to doo that I haue done.

In integrum restituere, to bryng it to the first estate, to restore it to the poynete that it was at.

In integro esse, is spoken, where in any matter or affayre, there is nothynge doen, but that euery man may dooe as it lyketh hym.

Sed quoniam hæc iam neque in integro esse possunt possunt, But for as muche as there is no remedy, or that these thynges maie not be holpē, or maie not bee in as good ease as they were.

tego, integis, texi, tegere, to couer, to thetche.
tegrasco, scere, to bee renued.
tegre, truely and diligently, sincerely, purely.
tegritas, ātis, f. ge. honestee, without corruption, innocencie, integritee.
Corporis integritas, good disposicion of the body, helthynesse of the body.
Fraus & integritas, contrarie.
tegro, integras, aui, are, to begynne agayne, to renue.
tegumentum, ti, n. g. a couerynge.
Integumenta flagitiorum, clokes or couerin-ges of naughtynesse.
tellectuālis, le, of vnderstandyng.
tellectus, us, m. g. vnderstandyng, knowlage, intelligence, sometyme the signification of a woorde.
Intellectus saporum, tastyng, or the iudgemēt of tastes.
Intellectum consequi, to attayn to the knows lage or vnderstandyng of a thyng.
Intellectus disciplinarum, knowlage, learnyng, science.
Cum intellectum acrimoniæ, without any perceiuyng or keiryng of eigerneſſe.
Habere duplicem intellectum, to haue twoo significations.
ntellectus, a, um, vnderstanded, perceiued, knowen.
ntelligens, entis, om. g. vnderstandyng, wyſe,
cunnynge.
Intelligens iudicium, a learned and substantiall iudgemente, that proceedeth of a great knowlage.
Intelligens principis, he that perceiueth the princis nature and inclination.
ntelligenter, playnely, so that it maie be easily vnderstanded.
ntelligentia, æ, fœm. ge. the perceiuynge of the mynde, vnderstandyng, intelligence.
ntelligibile, that maie be vnderstanded.
ntelligo, and sometymes Intelligo, lexi, ligere, or legere, to vnderstande, to perceyue.
Intelligere animum alicuius, to knowe and perceyue ones mynde.
Non satis intelligo, I doo not well perceyue.
Intelligo de gestu, quid respondeas, I perceyue by thy gesture or mouyng of thy bodye, what thou woldest answere.
Male intelligere, not to vnderstande or perceyue well, to take a thyng amisse.
Non intelligitur quando obrepit senectus,
No man feeleth or perceyueth whan olde age
creepeth vpon hym.
Intemerata, perfecte sacrifices, all thynges obserued.
Intemerandus, a, um, holy, consecrat, that maie not be prophaned.

Intemerātus, a, um, vndefyled, vncorrupted, not troubled, not violate.
Intemerata fides, credence or faithfulnesse not distepned.
Intemperans, ntis, om. g. he that dooeth euery thyng without order or measure, vntemperate, he that is not maister of his owne appetites.
Intemperans sum in rei cupiditate quam nossti, I couete or desyre that thing that ye woot of, beyonde all measure.
Intemperantia, æ, f. g. intemperancie, whan one can not rule or moderate his appetites & lustes.
vnruinesse of mynde, seruage to pleasure.
Intemperantia risus, whan one can not refreygne laughyng.
loci intemperantia, immoderate gestynge,
whan one can not forbeare.
Intemperanter, vntemperatelp, vnmodestly.
Intemperate, prouderly.
Intemperātus, a, um, vntēperate, without meas-sure or moderation.
Intempēriæ, ārum, f. g. plu. nu. goddesses, has vpng power to doo harme, the furp or trouble of mynde by remorse of conscience, that suffreth
a man to haue no quiete.
Quæ intemperiæ nostram agunt familiam?
what furie disquieteth. &c.
Intemperies, ēi, f. g. vntemperatnesse.
Intemperies cœli, vntēperatenesse of the ayre.
Intemperies amici, The furie or folp of ones frende.
Intempestus, a, um, quiete, without noyse or trouble.
Intempesta nox, mydnyght, whan all thynge is in silence.
Grauiscæ intempestæ, id est, pestilentes &
sine temperie.
Intempestas, ātis, f. g. idem quod Intemperies.
Intempestas cœli, yll wetheryng.
Intempestiue, vntymely, out of due tyme or order, out of season.
Intempestiuus, a, um, a thynge out of due tyme or season.
Intempestiua epistola, a letter that cometh out of season.
Intendo, di, dĕre, to bende, to stretche or retche as a man dooth the stryng of a bowe or lute, to streigne. also to loke diligently on a thynge, to knitte or tie, to inforce with myght, to endeuour or go about, to intende, to thynke, to increase or augument. also to late abyde, or to sette nettes: and by translation, to pretende, to purpose.
Intendere animum, to sette or fire the mynde.
Intendere formulam, to bryng in an action a-gaynst one.
Animum or ingenium intendere, or intendere neruos animi & ingenii, To holde the mynde greatly busied or occupied on a thyng, to streigne the mynd or wytte, that is, to geue verie exacte aduertisemēt, and to prouide therin to the

to the vttermoſt.
Intendere arcum, to bende a bowe.
Aciem acrem in omnes partes intendere, to looke diligently about on euery ſyde.
Intendi acies longius non poteſt, a man can ſee no further.
Quo animum intẽdat facile perſpicio, I perceyue right well, what he doeth intend, or what his intent or meanyng is.
In regnum Adherbalis animum intendit, he gaue or ſette his mynde to obteyne Adherbals kyngdome.
Intendere actionem, to commence an action.
Mitigare & intendere leges, contrary, to diminyſhe and to augment the rigor of the lawes.
Animo intendere, To purpoſe or intende in ones mynde.
Totum in Annibalem intendebant bellum, They dyd bende the whole puiſſaunce of the warre againſt Annibal.
Hi in quos crimen intendebatur, they whiche were accuſed, or to whoſe charge the matter was layde.
Curam alicui rei intendere, To take verie good hede of a thyng.
Intendenda in ſenem fallacia, I muſte fynde ſome wyle to deceyue the olde man: or I muſt ſtreigne a ſinewe or ſtretche a veyne, to begyle this olde man.
Intendere vocem, to ſtreigne the voyce, or to ſpeake as loude as one can reache.
Intendere duas manus, to holde vp the handes to the goddis.
Gloriam intendit.i. auxit, it increſed his glory.
Iter cæptum in Italiam intendere, to continue his iourneie into Italy.
Neruos intendere, to ſtretche the ſinewes.
Periculum intendere alicui, to threaten to do one a diſpleaſure.
Qui ſe intenderant aduerſarios, whiche had declared them ſelues to be ennemies.
Intendere (ſine adiecto) for Contendere.
Hanc ſe intendit eſſe, ſhe goth about to feine, that ſhe is that woman.
Quo nunc primum intendam? whither ſhal I nowe fyrſte go?
Officia intendebant, They dyd theyr dutees to the vttermoſte.
Intendere vincula, to bynde.

Intenſio, or intẽtio, ônis, a ſtreignynge, a retchynge, a ſtretchyng, a bendynge, diligence, a wyll, a meanynge, the mynde, the fantaſy, the intention, the aduertiſement or erneſt conſideration of the mynde, the bendyng, or ſettyng of the mynde on a thyng, among orators the propoſicion that laieth the faut to ones charge.
Intentio vocis, a brayng or a ſtreignynge of the voyce, ſpeakyng a loude.
Intentio & remiſsio animi, contrary.
Intẽtio operis, id eſt, propoſitio, deliberatio.
Notatur id intentione diligenti, that was diligently marked or obſerued.
Perdere intentionem, To leeſe his action or ſute in the law.

Intenſus, a, um, or Intentus, a, um, ſette or fixed, intentiue, diligently bent or ſette to a thyng. alſo ſtretched, rectified, bended, ſtreigned, inhanced or augmented, ſet foorth or pyght in the vttermoſt.
Intentus arcus, a bow bended.
Intentior cuſtodia, a more diligent keping.
Intentis oculis contemplari, To beholde ouſtedfaſtly.
Intentis alimentorum preciis, the pryce of victaple beyng inhaunced or augmented.
Intentior ſermo, earneſt and vehement ſpeakyng with a loude voyce.

Intentátio, ônis, a menacyng with the hande.
Intentátus, a, um, not aſſaied.
Intentati gladij, menacyng one an other with their ſwoordes drawen.
Intentatus & nouus amicus, a newe friende, that was neuer proued nor tried.

Intentè, diligently, with earneſt conſideration.

Intento, aui, are, to menace, to ſtretche out often, to put out as one dooeth his hand.
Intentare imperium Romanum, to denounce or menace punyſhement by the Romayns.
Intentare manus in aliquem, To put out ones hande towarde a man, as we do in threatnyng.
Intentare manus alicui, to lay handes on one.
Intentare & minari.
Sicam intentare, To make ſigne or threten to ſtrike with ones dagger.
Crimen inuicem intentant, they laye eche to others charge.

Intentus, us, m. g. a ſtretchyng or retchyng.
Intentus palmarum, a ſtretchynge out of the hindes againſt one, where many men doe threatten ſome one perſone.

Intentus, a, um, loke Intenſus.

Intepeo, intẽpes, tepui, tepẽre, and Intepeſco, ſcere, to waxe luke warme.

Inter, betwene, among.
Inter cœnam, for in cœna, at ſupper tyme.
Inter nos amamus, wee loue together one an other.
Inter opus, whyles he was buſy.
Inter paucos dies, in a ſhorte tyme.
Inter pœnam, beyng in tourment.
Inter ſacrum & ſaxum, in the poynt to periſhe and be vtterly loſte.
Inter vias, on the waie tydyng or goyng.
Inter omnes potentiſsimus odor, The moſt ſtrongeſt ſauour of all other.
Eſt inter cauſas timoris, It is one of the cauſes of our feare.
Inter conuentum, for in conuentu, in an aſſemblie or company gathered together.
Qui inter tot annos ne appellarit quidẽ &c. whiche in ſo many yeres ſpace &c. Liberyſe Inter tot dies.

Inter

Inter hæc, pro Interea, in the meane ſpace, whyle this was in doyng.
Inter illud gaudium, whyle he was in that ioye or gladneſſe.
Inter initia principatus, whan he was fyrſt created prince or made ruler.
Inter manus auferri, to be caried out betweene men.
Inter ſeſe fabulantur, They talke one with an other Inter ſe amplexari, to embrace one an other.
Inter vina, as they were drynkyng.
Quum inter homines eſſet, whan he lyued here in the worlde.
Inter nos ſordemus alteri, one of vs diſpleaſeth or irketh not an other.
Inter ſe diſtantes ternis pedibus, beeyng .iii. foote a ſunder, or one from an other.
Inter omne tempus, all the whyle.
Bene inter vos dicatis, Say well one of an other. Bonis inter bonos neceſſaria amicitia eſt, frendſhip is of neceſſitee betwene good me.
Interábico, áui, áre, to inclyne ſomewhat to the colour of white.
Interamna, æ, a citee in Italy.
Interánea, órum, n. g. plur. the inwardes of a man or beaſte.
Interaneus, a, um, that whiche is within.
Interaréſco, ſcere, to be dried vp, to waxe dyle.
Interbibo, bibi, bere, to drynke all out.
Interbito, áui, áre, an olde worde for Interuenio.
Intercalátis, re, and Intercalárius, a, um, put or ſet betweene.
Intercalâris dies, the date of the leape yere.
Intercalâris menſis, the monthe, in the whiche certayne dates were ſette, that lacked to make the yere complete, which moneth is Februarie, Rede aboundantly hereof in Polino and Macrobio, which wolde be tedious to write in engliſhe, ſpecially in this Dictionarie.
Intercala is verſus, a ſingular verſe often reherſed amonge other verſes Some doe call it in engliſh balades and ſonges, the foote or refrete of a dute.
Intercalâris annus, the leape yere.
Intercalo áui, áre, to ſet or put betweene, as a mã putteth a date, moneth, or yere. Sometyme to deferre.
Intercapédo, pédinis, f. g. a ſpace or pauſe, a ſpace of tyme or place that is betweene two.
Poſt intercapedinem temporis. &c.
In eorum vita nulla eſt intercapedo mali tiæ.
Intercédo, ceſſi, cédere, to make interceſſion, alſo to go betweene, or be betwene, and is referred as well to tyme and place, as any other thynge. alſo to lette or prohibite.
Quadringẽtorum remigum obſequio contra ſe intercedit, that letted that .400. watermen, whiche rowed, dyd not obey hym.
Veteres mihi neceſſitudines cum his omnibus intercedunt, There is great amitee of a longe tyme betweene vs.
Tribuni interceſſerunt, the Tribunes dyd lette or prohibite.
Intercedit mihi tecum amicitia, There is amitee betwene the and me
Pro alio intercedere, to anſwere for an other man, to make prompſe, or be ſuretee for an other.
Interceſſêre pauci dies, in a fewe dayes after, a litteli while after.
Quæ ratio vbi cum illo interceſſerat? what acquentaunce haddeſt thou with hym? or what haddeſt thou to doe with hym?
Dies non dum decem interceſſerant, ten daies were not per come and gone.
Si nulla ægritudo huic gaudio interceſſerit, If no heauineſſe be myxte with this ioye.
Non quia intercedẽdum putem imaginibus, not becauſe I wolde denie ymages to be hadde.
Senatus authoritas grauiſſima interceſſit, id eſt exstitit.
Cum genere humano quaſi ciuile ius interce dit, All men in the worlde be as it were the citeſens of one citee, whiche be ſubiect to certaine common ordinances and lawes.
Si diſſentio interceſſerit, yf there chaunce to come any ſedicion in the meane tyme.
Interceſsio, ônis, ſ. g. a prohibicion, a withſtanding, a gayneſaying, whan one ſteppeth in and letteth a mattier, that it proceedeth not.
Interceſsioni cedere, to geue ouer, and not to proceede in a mattier becauſe of the prohibicion.
Interceſsio Tribunorum, a let or prohibicion of the Tribunes agaynſt the authoritee of other officers.
Interceſſor, ôris, m. g. he that letteth a mattier, that it mait not goe forwarde. alſo an interceſſour or mediatour.
Abncere interceſſorem, with a vehement perſuaſion to repelle hym that withſtanderh or gayneſaieth any mattier.
Interceptus, a, um, preuented, taken vp before, taken vp by the way.
Interceptus mortalitate, preuented with deth.
Intercéptio, ônis, ſ. g. a taking vp of a thyng before or by the waie, a preuentynge.
Interceptor, ôris, m. g. he that preuenteth an other in takyng of a thyng.
Intercido, cidi, ciſum, cidere, to cut a ſunder in the middes, to dekaitate, to cut downe or of in the meane tyme.
Intércido, cidi, ere, intercâſum, to decaie or periſhe betweene this and that.
Apud quem gratia beneficij intércidit, whiche greeth no thanke for a good tourne.
Perire & intercidere.
Extare atque intercidere, contrary.
Intercidit memoria beneficij, the benefite is forgotten.

Quod ſi intercideritibi aliquid, If thou haue forgotten any thyng.

Intercidere, ſometyme for Cadere.

Memoria ille intercidit, he is forgotten, he is out of mynde or memory.

Intercinctus, a, um, interlaced.

Intercino, cinui, nere, to ſyng betwene or in the myddell of a thynge, as in comedies or interludes, whyles newe perſonages be in preparynge.

Intercipio, intercipis, cepi, cipere, to preuent or apprehende one vnware, to take vp before, to take vp by the wape, to take in the middes or in the meane whyle. ſometyme to take all.

Intercipere iter, to kepe or incloſe a waie, that men may not paſſe.

Ne qua interciperet obliuio, that it myght not be forgotten.

Intercipere literas, to take letters on the waie from hym that carieth them.

Intercipere ſermonem, to interrupte a mans tale or purpoſe, as he is ſpeakyng.

Quod nos capere oportet, hic intercipit, the profite that we ſhoulde haue, this man taketh vp before.

Intercipi morbo, to be attached with ſome diſeaſe, or to fall ſycke as one is about to doo a thynge.

Regnum intercipit, he tooke on hym the gouernance of the kyngdome in the meane whyle.

Interciſe, by choppes or cuttes, as it were cut in gobbettes and morſelles.

Interciſio, ônis, f. g. a cuttyng of in the myddes.

Interciſio ſtomachi, a gnawynge or bytyng of the ſtomache.

Interciſus, a, um, cut of in the myddes.

Interciſi dies, were daies diuided, parte holy daies, part wooꝛke daies: certaine daies, in the which ſome houres it was leful to geue iudgement on mattiers, and in ſome not, we may vſe it for them, which we call halfe holy dayes.

Interciſæ pactiones, couenantes or agreementes diſſolued and broken.

Intercludo, cluſi, cludere, to ſhutte in, to ſtoppe ones iourney, to let, to ſtop the paſſage before one come.

Intercludere corporibus ſuis aduentum inimicorum, to bee them ſelues in the warre to lette theyr enemies to enter with theyr own bodies.

Dolore intercludi, id eſt, impediri, to be leat through ſoꝛowe and heuineſſe.

Fugam intercludere, to kepe the paſſages that they eſcape not.

Libertatem intercludere, to leat them that they can not go in and out at theyr pleaſure.

Spem commeatus intercludere, to put them from hope to haue vittaples.

Commeatum inimicis, and Inimicos commeatibus intercludere, to keepe or ſtoppe the paſſages, that vittaples can not come to theyr enemies.

Aditum intercludere, to lette that one can not enter.

Animam intercludere, to ſtifle or ſtrangle.

Intercluſio, ônis, f. g. a ſtoppyng or lettyng, a thynge in of a thyng with an other.

Parenthieſis intercluſio, the two halfe circles notynge the parenthelis.

Intercolumnium, nij, n. g. the ſpace betwene pillors.

Interconcilio, âui, âre, to wynne the fauoure or loue of men.

Interculco, aui, are, to treade downe harde togyther with the feete, to ſtampe.

Intercurro, curri, currere, to renne betwene, to go betweene.

Intercurſus, us, m. g. a comyng betweene men to pacifie them, intercceſſion, a rennynge betwene or amonge.

Intercurſo, âui, âre, to renne betwene often.

Intercus, intercutis, a diſeaſe betweene the ſkyn & the fleſhe: whan it is an adiectiue, it ſignifieth inwarde.

Intercutibus vitijs madentes, ouer wet with inwarde vices.

Interdatus, a, um, diſtributed, digeſted, or put betweene.

Interdico, dixi, cere, to prohibite grenouſly, to reſiſt or leat, to forbydde.

Interdico alicui aqua & igni, was a condemnation in Rome, whereby one was depriued of the vſage of water and fyer, wherby he was conſtreigned to departe out of the limittes of the empire of Rome.

Interdicere de vi hominibus armatis, to ordeyne that he, by whoſe meanes one ſuppoſed, that he is put out of poſſeſſion with force, ſhall let hym repoſſeſſe in poſſeſſion.

Veſtigijs interdicere, to forbyd one, that he ſhall not go vpon a certayne place or grounde.

Nihil interdico, I wyll not let the, I care not for it.

Interdico tibi domo mea, I forbydde the my houſe.

Priſco Italia interdictum eſt, Priſcus was baniſhed Italie, or forbidden to tary in Italy.

Cui nemo interdicere poſsit, whom no man can let or reſiſt.

Interdixit fieri, he forbad it to be doen, or commanded that it ſhould not be doen.

Interdixi tibi de medicis, I forbad, or I commaunded you, that ye ſhoulde not vſe the counſaile of phiſitions.

Interdixit, ſometyme for Edixit. the paſſiue is vſed with an ablatiue: as, interdicor aqua & igni: or with a datiue: as, Aqua & ignis interdicuntur mihi.

Interdictum, ti, n. g. a prohibition, a menace. ſometyme a determinatiô of the poſſeſſion of a thyng in debate.

Interdictus, a, um, forbidden, prohibited.

Interdictio, ônis, f. g. a prohibition, a forbiddyng.

erdictus, us, mas. gene. a space betwene full sentences.

érdiu, in the daie tyme.

érdius, was vsed of olde writers.

erduatim, and Interatim, was vsed of olde writers for Interdum and Interim.

erdum, sometyme.

érea, in the meane while, in the meane season. also neuertheless.

Interealoci, in the meane space.

Interea dum is venit, In the meane season whyle he cometh.

Quum interea, for Quum tamen.

téreo, interis, interiui, or rii, rire, to dye vtterly, to perysshe. sometyme to be slaine.

Interire fame, to perysshe or dye for hunger.

Interire naufragio, to perysshe or be drouned in a shyppe wreche.

Nihil valentius est, à quo intereat, There is nothynge of greatter power, by the whiche it muste perysshe or bee extincte, dissolued, or brought to nought.

Intery, alas I am but dead.

nérmis, téritus, mas. gene. death, destruction, ruine, vtter decay.

nterèquito, áui, áre, to ryde betwene.

nteresse, ab Inter & esse, to be present.

Publicis consiliis interfuimus, we were present at the common counsayle. also to bee betwene.

Triduum non interest ætatis, vter maior sit, there is three dayes difference betwene them in their age.

Interest inter duos amnes.

Interesse nobis dicitur deus, pro adesse.

Nostro sermoni interfuit, he was present as our communication.

In conuiuio interesse, to bee at a feast.

Id morari victoriam rati, quod interesset amnis, supposyng that the cause why, that they had not forthwith the victory, was for almuche as the ryuer was betwene theim.

Triginta firmè interfuere anni, there were almoste thirtie yeres betwene theim.

Interest, ab in, re, est, it is profitable, it is behouable, it belongeth, it pertayneth, it maketh mattier, and maie be ioyned to these ablatiue cases, Mea, tua, sua, nostra, vestra, whether it be personall, or impersonall.

Si nihil interest regis, peto, vt dum dico, vinculis liberer, if it be no mattier to the kynge, I praie you, whyles I doo speake, lette me be without gyues.

Nihil interest tui, it is no mattier to the.

Magni sua putabant interesse, They thoughte that it made muche for the purpose, or for their profite.

Nihil interest eius, It maketh no mattier to hym.

Interest eius, it is his parte, or it is for his profitte.

Quid ergo interest, proferantur necne? what maketh it mattier, whether they bee brought forth or no?

Nec interest discentium, quibus quidque nominibus appelletur, it maketh no mattier to theym that doo learne, by what names any thyng is called.

Permagni interest, It maketh muche of the mattier.

Inter hominem & beluam hoc maxime interest, This is the moste diuersitee betwene a man and a beast.

Quod interest, tenent Arabes, That that lieth betwene theim, the Arabians possesse.

Interesse, to differre, and is commonly toygned with the preposition Inter.

Interesse & differre.

Interest in infinitum, there is a wounderfull great differrence.

Hoc interest, this differrence there is.

Stulto intelligens quid interest? what differrence is betwene a wyse man and a foole?

Vt vidit tua interesse, as soone as he sawe it to bee for your profite.

Nostra nihil interest, it maketh no matter to vs. Magni mea interest, it is greatly for my profite: or it is verie behouefull for me.

Interest, is vsed with these genitiue cases, Magni, plurimi, tanti, quanti, and with these aduerbes, Facile, multum, plurimum, plus, parum, Numquid, minus, minime. &c.

Tantum interest, so muche matter it maketh.

Vtriusq; nostrum permagni interest, it is verie behouable for vs bothe, or verie greatly for our profite.

Ostendam, quantum salutis cõmunis interfit, I will shewe you, how greatly it shall be for the profite of the common weale.

Interest, sine casu, it is profitable.

Non interest, quid faciat morbum, it maketh no mattier what causeth the sycknesse.

Nihil ad rem interest, it maketh nothynge to the mattier.

Interfacio, intérfacis, feci, facere, to sette hande to the worke that is in dooyng.

Interfaciendo muro, whyle the wall was in makynge.

Interfáris, fátur, fári, to interrupte one as he is speakynge, to speake whyle an other man speaketh.

Interfátio, ônis, fœm. gene. an interruption of ones tale.

Interficio, intérficis, féci, ficere, to slea, to kyll, to murder.

Vita interficere aliquem, for vita priuare.

Interficere messes, id est, perdere & cremare.

Interfectus, a, um, kylled, slayne, murdered.

Interfectus omni supplicio, cruelly slayne.

Interfector, ôris, mas. gene. one that killeth, a murderer.

Interfieri, to perysshe, to be consumed.

Intér-

Intérfluo, fluxi, fluere, to flowe betwene.
Interfluus, a, um, that flowyth betwene.
Interfœmineum, a womans priuie token, whereby she is knowen from a man.
Interfringo, frégi, fringere, idem quod Infringo, to breake or burste.
Interfundo, fúdi, fundere, to powre betwene.
Intérfuro, fúrere, to be in a fury or rage, to bee woode.
Interfûsus, a, um, spilled or shed betwene twain or by the waie. also that flowyth betwene.
Intergerinus paries, a walle added to an olde foundacion or wall, to susteyn it: or rather a partition wall to diuide mens grounders.
Intergero, gessi, gerere, to carry or beare betwene.
Interi, they that be within.
Interiaceo, interiaces, iácui, cêre, to lye or bee betwene.
Spacium quod sulcis intériacet, the space that is betwene the forowes.
Intériacet Capuam & Capuæ.
Quæ inter Capuam Tipharamque intériacet, whiche lieth betwene Capua and Tiphara.
Interibi, in the middle of that place. also for interea.
Interiectus, a, um, put or cast betwene, laied or beyng betwene.
Interiectæ collibus valles, valleys lienge betwene the hilles.
Interiecti inter philosophos, & eos qui rem pub. administrent, whiche be neyther philosophers, nor yet ministers of a comon weale, but meane betweene them both or partly alone of the one and the other.
Interiectum tempus, the meane tyme.
Singulæ singulis saxis interiectis, euery one hauyng a stone laied betwene it and the next.
Interiectus inter mare & cælum, placed betwene the water and the firmament.
Inter horum ætates interiectus Cato. Cato beyng betweene them both, after the one and before the other.
Paucis interiectis diebus, after a litell while.
Interiectus, us, masc. g. a laying, putting, or casting betwene.
Interiectio, ônis, f. g. a putting betwene.
Intericio, intériicis, ieci, iectum, ere, to caste or put betwene or amonge.
Interim, in the meane space or tyme, in the meane season. also sometyme sodeinly, otherwhile, among all other matters.
Interim scit, interim nescit, sometyme he knoweth, sometyme he dooth not.
Interim multis modis odisse cœpit, sodeynly he began to hate hym wonderfully.
Quum interim, for Quum tamen.
Interimo, émi, imere, to spill.
Vitam tuam interimam, an olde fasion of speakyng.
Interimi veneno, to bee poysoned.
Interimere & conseruare, contrary.
Intérimit me hæc oratio, these wordes hyll myne herte, or greue me verie sore.
Interemptio, ônis, f. g. a killyng or slayng.
Interior, & interius, the inner.
In interiore epistola scribis, you write in the middle of your letter.
Intéritus, us, m. g. death, destruction, ruine.
Interiungo, iunxi, gere, to tary, to reste.
Interiungere equos, To vnterme the horses, that they maie reste.
Interiungere dextras, to take one an other by the hande.
Interius, more inwarde.
Intérlino, lini, lini, or léui, nêre, to stryke out with a penne, to blotte out.
Delere & interlinere, to race and blotte out.
Intérloquor, eris, térloqui, to speake in a mans tale, to interrupte.
Interlocutio, ônis, f. ge. a speakyng betwene.
Interluceo, lúces, lúxi, lucêre, to shyne betwene or in the myddes: sometyme to appere or be seen in the myddes.
Interlúco, aui, are, to make a glade in the myddle of a woodde, to loppe or cut away bowes, where they lette the lyght.
Interlucátio, ônis, fœ. g. sache a cuttyng or loppyng of trees.
Interlúnium, nii, n. ge. the space of tyme, in the whiche neyther the olde moone doth appere, nor the new moone is seene.
Intérluo, térlui, ere, to flowe betwene, to wasshe betwene meales, or other actes.
Interluêre manus, to wasshe the handes betwene two actes or deedes dooeyng.
Interluuies, ei, fœ. g. a brooke or ryuer that renneth betwene.
Intermâneo, térmanes, mansi, manêre, to tary in the middes of a thynge or place, or to abide among Intermédius, a, um, in the myddle, that lyeth or is betwene two.
Interménstruus, a, um, idem quod Intermestris.
Intérmeo, âui, âre, to go or flowe betwene.
Intermenstruum, strui, n. g. the tyme when the moone is at the poynete to chaunge, the coniunction of the soonne and the moone.
Intermestris, stre, belongynge to the space betwene the olde moone and the newe.
Intermestris luna, the coniunction of the moone and soonne, when the moone is not seene.
Intérmico, micui, âre, to shyne in the middes or among.
Intérminor, aris, ari, to threten sore, to charge vpon a peyne.
Interminatus sum, ne faceres? bydde not I charge the streytly, or vpon a great peyne, that thou shouldest not dooe it?
Viro suo interminatur vitam, she threted to kyll hir housbande.
Interminâtus, a, um, and Interminus, a, um, that that hath no bonde nor ende.

Intermiſceo, miſcui, ſcere, to mingle with other.
Intermitto, miſi, mittere, to leaue or put of for a tyme, to diſcontinue, to deferre, to be ſlacke in doyng.
Obſides dare intermiſerant, they were ſlacke in geuyng hoſtages or pledges.
Intermittere & reuincire, To leat paſſe for a whyle, and to retayne or holde ſtyll.
Non intermittere, id eſt, continuare, not to ceaſſe.
Non vnum intermittit diem, quin veniat, he faileth not one daie, but that he cometh, he commeth euery daie duelp.
Iter non intermittere, to continue on his iourney ſtyll.
Tui mentionem intermitti non ſinit, he ſpeaketh of you alwaie, or he will not ſuffre you to be forgotten
Opus intermittere, to leaue of or geue ouer ones woorke for a whyle.
Non intermittit cælum niteſcere, the weather is alwaie faire and clere.
Nec diem nec noctem intermittit, he ceaſſeth or reſteth neyther daie nor nyght.
Conſuetudinem intermittere, to forbeare familiaritie or reſorte.
Officium intermittere, to be ſlacke in dooeyng ones duetie.
Intermiſſus, a, um, leat paſſe for a tyme.
Intermiſſa tecta, houſes ſtandyng aſunder, or one from an other.
Intermiſſus, us, m. ge. a letting paſſe, a pauſyng.
Intermiſſio, ônis, f. ge a ceaſſyng, a diſcontinuyng, a pauſyng, a vacation from a wooꝛke or labour for a tyme.
Sine vlla intermiſſione, without ceaſſyng
Intermiſſionem facere alicui, To ceaſſe from a thyng, or to geue it ouer for a whyle.
Intermiſſio literarum, whan one ceaſſeth for a certaine ſpace, and writeth no letters.
Intermorior, mortuus ſum, intérmori, to periſhe or die vtterly, to die as a thyng is dooeyng. ſometyme to be loſte, caſte awaie, or nothyng eſteemed.
Intermoriuntur officia, friendelp pleaſures be loſte, or vtterly forgotte.
Intermortuæ conciones, id eſt, languidæ, without ſpirite or lyfe, halfe deade.
Intermortuam memoriam renouare, To renewe the memoꝛie of one that was vtterly forgotten.
Intermorui mores, coꝛrupte and naughtie maners.
Intermorturus, a, um, as it were halfe deade halfe alyue, at the poynete to die, paſte hope of lyfe.
Intermundium, dij, of inter, and mundus: as, Inter columnium of Inter and Columna.
Intermurâlis, le, that is betwene two walles.
Internaſcor, nâſceris, nâſci, to growe or ſpringe vp amonge or betweene.
Internâtus, a, um, that is growen or ſpronge vp amonge or betweene.
Internecinus, a, um, pertaynyng to the ſlaughter or diſtruction of a great meyny.
Bellum internecinum, a mortall warre to the vtter deſtruction of one of the parties.
Internecio and internicio, ônis, f. g an vniuerſall ſlaughter, a kyllyng, a ſlaeyng.
Ad internecionem cæſi, well neere all ſlayne, fewe lefte alyue.
Intérneco, aui, are, to ſlea all at ones, to kyll a great multitude together.
Internecto, nexui, néctere, to knytte or tie together.
Intermidifico, âui, âre, to make the neſt betweene or amonge.
Intérnigrans, antis, beyng ſomewhat blacke.
Intermiteo, intérnites, nitui, nitére, to ſhyne or be bryght among or betweene.
Internodium, dij, neu. gene. and ſometyme Internodius, dij, maſc gen. a iopnte in a mans fynger or legge, the ſpace betwene two iopntes or knottes.
Interno ſco, nóui, ſcere, to knowe a thyng amõg other thynges, to diſcerne from other.
Fures internoſcere non poſſunt, they can not deterne theues from other men.
Internúncio, âui, âre, to go in meſſage betwene.
Internúncius, cij, m. g. a meſſanger or meane betweene two perſones beyng at variaunce, or that goeth in meſſages betweene two.
Intérnus, a, um, that is within, or inwarde.
Intero, interis, intriui, intérere, to crumme in, to grate in or with other thynges.
Tute hoc intriſti, omne exedendum eſt, ſelfe doe, ſelfe haue. hote ſuppe hote ſwallow Interordinium, nij, n. ge. a ſpace betweene two thynges, that be in a rewe or ordre.
Interpellâtio, ônis, f. ge a leat in a mans buſyneſſe, a diſturbance, and interruption, a calling on one, whan he is ſpeakyng or dooyng.
Interpellâtor, óris, m. ge a diſturbour or letter of other, that they maie not dooe theyr buſyneſſe, an interrupter.
Interpello, aui, are, to interrupte or let one that is ſpeakyng or dooyng anything, to diſturbe. a ſo to requyre, to aſke or demaunde.
Si interpellas, ego tacebo, if thow interrupte me, I will holde my peace.
Interpellare debitorem, id eſt, appellare, to requyre or demande his debt, to entre an action againſt his debtour.
Interpellare partam victoriam, id eſt, impedire, to hynder or leat.
Interpellare ſtuprum, To leat an aduoutrie that was intended.
Res interpellata, a mattier diſturbed and broken vp.
Interpel atus, a, um, interrupted, diſturbed, diſcontinued. ſometyme deſyred or intreated.
Interpenſiua, certayne pieces of tymber, cloues bourdes, or sometyme stones, whiche are set thō the corners of the wall, to the endes of the rafters, to conueygh rayne water into the spoutes.

Interpensiui parietes, walles, whiche rise vpon an other wall, or flowre, and haue no foundacion in the grounde.

Intérplico, plicui, plicâre, to folde vp betweene.

Interpolátio, ônis, fœ. ge. newe dressyng or polishyng of thynges.

Vestimenta interpolata, garmentes newe dressed.

Interpolâtor, ôris, m. gene. and Interpolátrix, tricis, he or she that refresheth or dresseth olde thynges, and doeth make them seeme new.

Intérpolis, le, and Intérpolus, la, lum, renewed, refreshed, new dressed, new scoured or polished Vestimenta intérpola, Garmentes newe dressed.

Intérpolo, aui, are, to renewe or refreshe any thynge, to polyshe trimme or decke, as it were made newe, to make freshe, as they do that sell olde stuffe in steede of newe, to dresse newe, as fullars dooe, to newe periette or whitelyme, to peynete newe where as olde peynetynge hath bene before. sometyme to purge or trie, as frankynsence is whan it is made.

Interpôno, sui, nere, to put or sette betwene, to resiste, to intermeddell, to myngle, to suborne.

Interponere fidem publicam, to promyse vpō the credence and consent of all the people, to geue a saulfe conducte.

Quid interponerem tuæ audaciæ? what shuld I set to lear thy presumpcion or boldnesse?

Interponere aquam, To myngle water with wyne.

Authoritatem interponere, by his authorite to commaunde a thyng to be dwen or not to be dooen.

Accusatorem interponere, to suborne and set vp an accuser.

In aliquam rem fidem suam interponere, to promyse and bynde hym selfe vpon his faieth and credite for the assuraunce of a thyng.

Suum iudicium interponere, To speake or geue his iudgement in a mattier.

Iusiurandum interponere, To auowe with an othe.

Moram interponere, To deferre, to delaie, to prolonge, to driue of a mattier.

Nomen alicuius in re aliqua interponere, To set ones name in a thyng for a colour or fraud.

Interponere postulatum, To make requeste, or to proffre conditions of peace, to the entent, that his ennemies shoulde not prepare agaynst hym.

Se interponere, to intermeddill.

Me nihil interpono, I meddill nothyng in the mattier.

Operam suam pro aliquo interponere, To trauaile or dooe the best he can for a man.

Interpósitus, a, um, sette or put betweene, also myngled.

Diebus aliquot interpositis, after a litell whyle.

Interpósitus, us, ma. gen. a puttyng or settyng betweene.

Interpositio, ônis, f. ge. a puttyng betweene, an interlaynyng.

Interpremo, pressi, premere, to stop or close in.

Interpres, prétis, om. gene. an interpreter, an expounder, a translater. also a sticklar betweene two, whiche are at variaunce, a medyatour, a meane, a truche man. sometyme a soothsayer or diuinour.

Interpretaméntum, ti, n. ge. and Interpretátio, onis, fœ. ge. an interpretation or translacion. sometyme a coniecture or iudgement.

Interpretâtus, a, um, expounded, declared, interpreted.

Intérpretor, âris, âri, to interprete, to expoune, to declare, to translate. also to iudge or esteme.

Virtutem ex consuetudine vitæ interpretémur, leat vs iudge the vertue of the persone by his custome of lyuyng.

In bonam partem interpretari, To take it in good parte.

Peruerse interpretari, to meane thowdly: or rather to take a thyng yll.

Interpretari somnium, to expoune a dreame.

Quum huius verba interpretor, as farre as I can gather by this mans woordes.

Interpunctus, a, um, distincted with poynctes.

Interpunctum, ti, n. g. a poincte, a distinccion.

Interpúnctio, ônis, f. g. idem.

Interpurgo, aui, are, to purge.

Interputo, áui, âre, to cutte betweene, to cutte of rounde, to prune trees.

Interquiesco, quiéui, escere, to rest or pause in dooyng a thyng.

Interrádo, rási rádere, to scrape about: also to polyshe, to kyle.

Interrásile, that whiche is plaine betwixt two partes, grauen or imbosed.

Interrasilis, le, scraped, polyshed, kyed.

Intérrex, régis, masc. gene. he that ruleth in the meane tyme betwene the ceassyng of the authorite of one principal gouernour, by death or other wyse, vntyll an other be elected into the same office.

Interregnum, ni, n. gene. the saied meane tyme of gouernaunce or rule.

Inire interregnum, to take vpon hym the rule or gouernaunce after the death of a prince, vntyll an other be chosen.

Intérritus, a, um, not feared, not abashed.

Intérrogo, áui, âre, to demaunde a question, to aske: sometyme to accuse, to appeale.

Interrogari legibus, to be tried by examinacion, that they had offended agaynst the lawes.

Interrogátio, ônis, f. g. a question or demaunde.

Interrogatiúncula, læ, f. g. the diminutiue.

Interrumpo, rúpi, rúmpere, to breake in the mid-

des,

bes, to interrupte or leat one that is speakyng.
Ordinem interrumpere, to confounde.
Colloquia interrumpere, to interrupte men that be talkyng.
Interrúptus, a, um, disturbed, broken in the middel, interrupted, letted. also discontinued.
Longis interuallis intertrupta consuetudo, fas miliariter discontinued a longe space.
Interruptis vocibus loqui, to speake as one dooeth that sobbeth or weepeth.
Interruptum & continuatum, contrary.
Interrupte, by stoppes.
Interscálmium, mij, n. g. the space betweene the ores in a bote or galey.
Interscapilium, lij, n. g. the space betweene the shoulders vnder the neche.
Interscindo, intérscidi, dere, to cut in the myddes.
Interscríbo, scripsi scribere, to write betwene, to interline.
Intérseco, aui, are, to cut in the middell, to stop in speakyng, as one did cut of his woordes
Intersectio, ónis, fœm. gen. a cuttyng of in the middell.
Intersépio, intersépis, sepsi, pire, to diuide in the middell with some closure.
Interspta, the gristyll, whiche maketh partition betweene the nosethrilles.
Interseptus, a, um, stopped, closed, shutte.
Iter interceptum, a waie stopped.
Intérsero, sérui, sérere, to put betweene, to mingle.
Intérsero, seui, sertre, to sowe, sette, plante or grosse betweene, or in the middes.
Intérsono, ui, are, to make a noyse in the middes or betweene.
Interspiro, áui, áre, to breath betwene, to vent.
Interspirátio, ónis, f. g. a breathyng betweene, a venting.
Sine interspiratione, with out fetching of breath.
Interstérno, stráui, stérnere, to strawe betwene, or throwe thynges betweene.
Interstíngo, stinxi, stingere, to quenche out.
Interstinctus, a, um, distincte, diuided, marked here and there, pricked in diuers places.
Interstitium, tij, n. g. a distance or space betwene.
Interstitium lunæ, the space betwene the olde moone and the new.
Interstitio, ónis, f. g. a ceasyng, a vacation, a pausyng.
Interstrépo, strépui, strépere, to make a noyse among other.
Interstringo, strinxi, stringere, idem quod Stringo.
Intersum, looke Inter est.
Intertextus, a, um, wouen or wrought betwene, or tinseld, as cloth of tinsell or baudekyn.
Intertignium, nij, n. g. the space betwene two rafters or two other beames or plankes in building.
Intertingo, tinxi, tingere, to dip here and there.
Interstruo, struxi, strúere, to loigne diuers thynges together.
Intértrahio, traxi, trahere, to drawe out.
Intertrigo, ginis, f. g. gallyng in a man or beaste by long goyng, ridyng, or rubbyng of one thyng agaynst an other.
Intertrimentum, ti, n. g. the wast or losse of a thynge by wearyng or occupiyng, losse to both partes: also the refuse of golde or syluer, that is lost in the tryng.
Intertritúra, æ, f. g. idem.
Interturbo, aui, are, to trouble exceedyngly, to disturbe, to enterrupte.
Interturbátio, ónis, f. g. a disturbyng.
Intéruaco, áui, áre, to be vacant or voyde betweene.
Interuallum, li, n. g. the space betweene the stakes in makyng of trenches: and therof euery distaunce of tyme and place.
Annuum interuallum regni, the space of a yere whan there is no kyng.
Dare alicui interuallum soluendi, to geue one a respite or leysure to pate.
Interualla requietis habere, to haue dyuers tymes, wherein he maie reste, or bee at quiete and take ease.
Longo interuallo, after a longe space of tyme that a thyng hath not bene.
Interuallis moueri, to bee moued at sundrie tymes with pause betwene.
Cur ex tanto interuallo rem desuetam vsurparent: why shoulde they vsurpe a thynge, that hath not ben accustomed so longe time?
Ne interuallo quidem facto, makyng no delaie, without any tarying.
Interuallâtus, a, um, the adiective.
Interuallata febris, a feuer that leaueth a man, and cometh after agayne.
Interuello, velli, or uulsi, vellere, to pluche vp here and there.
Interuénio, intérueni, uéni, ueuire, to come in the meane whyle, to be present amonge other, to come vpon one sodeinly as he is doyng a thyng, to make meane to one for a man.
Iræ interuenium, variaunce and debate falleth now and than betweene theym, Interuentus, us, m. g. a comyng betweene, a comyng sodeynly vpon men, as they be doyng or speakyng.
Interuentor, óris, m. g. he that cometh sodeinsly vpon men, and letteth theym. sometyme a suretee.
Interueniens, entis, that cometh betwene. somes tyme that floweth or renneth betwene. somes tyme that lyeth or is situate betwene.
Interuénium, nij, n. g. the space betweene the veines in the earth.
Interuerto, uerti, uertere, to take awaie craftely, to conueigh awaie falsely that was lent to one, or committed into his handes. sometyme for Subuertere, or Euertere, to tourne vp sette downe, to abolyſhe, to deſtroie. ſometyme for Decoquere, to conſume and ſpende riottouſly. Interuertere aliquem, Interuertere aliquem re aliqua, and Interuertere rem aliquam.

Interuigilo, aui, are, to lie wakynge nowe and than.

Interuireo, téruires, uirere, to be greene among other colours.

Interuiſo, uiſi, uiſere, to viſite amonge, or nowe and than.

Intérula, læ, f. g. a ſhyrt or ſmocke.

Interundo, aui, are, to diſtincte a thing, as it were with waues of water.

Intéruomo, uómui, uómere, to poure or caſte out among other thynges.

Interuſúrium, ri, n. ge the vſe or commoditee of a thyng in the meane tyme, or vſurie that riſeth in the meane tyme.

Inteſtábilis, le, that by the lawe can make no teſtamẽt, or that can not bee taken for a witneſſe. alſo infamous, not to be beleued. ſometyme it ſignifieth deteſtable.

Inteſtatò, the aduerbe, without makynge of teſtament.

Inteſtátus, a, um, that dieth without makyng any teſtament, inteſtate. alſo that dieth makynge none heire by teſtamẽt. alſo one out of credẽce, whom no man will take for a witneſſe: ſometyme not commicte with witneſſes.

Inteſtina, órum, n. gen. the bowels, or inwarde part of man, or other thing liuyng, the entrailes Inteſtinus, a, um, that belongeth to the inward partes, or that is all within.

Inteſtinum bellum, where people dooe warre within theyr owne realme.

Inteſtinum odium, hate with hert and mind, mortall hatred, priuie and ſecrete grudge, great and ſpitefull malyce longe boyne in mynde.

Inteſtinum opus, The inwarde buildynge of tymber and parget, ſeelyng with wainescotte, topgnyng woorke.

Inteſtina peſtis, a great and daungerous conſpiracie.

Inteſtina diſcordia, a ciuile diſcoyde.

Inteſtinum, ni, n. g. or Inteſtinus, ni, maſ. gen. a bowell, a gutte.

Intexo, texui, texere, to enterlace, to weaue in, to knitte in, to folde in, to platte with other thynges.

Intexere aliquem in dialogum, To bryngе in one ſpeakyng in a dialogue.

Intimus, intima, um, moſt inwarde, moſt ſecrete, alſo he whom a man moſte ſpecially fauoureth.

Intimus illi ſum, I am one of his heeryt frẽdes.

Intimus eſt eorum conſilijs, He is chiefe of their counſeyle, or he is of theyr priuie and ſecrete counſaile.

Odium intimum, malyce or grudge deepely rooted in ones ſtomake, mortall hate.

Intime, verate inwardly, from the bottome of the herte, verate affectually.

Intimo, intimas, aui, are, to ſhewe, to ſignifie, to denounce.

Intimari, ſometyme for Ingredi, to enter in.

Intinctus, us, m. g. ſauce.

Intingo, xi, ere, to depe as one dooeth his fauger into ſyrope.

Intingere calamum, to put his penne in to the inke.

Intolerábilis, le, intollerable, that can not be ſuffered or borne.

Intolerabiliter, intollerablie.

Intolerandus, a, um, idem quod Intolerabilis.

Intólerans, antis, vnpacient, that can not ſuffer or beare, impotent.

Intolerantiſsima laboris corpora, bodies that can ſuffer no labour or hardneſſe.

Intoleranter, vnpacientlyy, ſo that no man can abyde it.

Intolerantia, æ, f. g. impatience.

Intondeo, tondi, dere, to clyp or ſheare rounde about.

Intono, intonas, tonui, are, to thunder, to make a rumblyng. And by tranſlacion, to ſpeake dehementlyy with great perſeuerance and ſtomacke.

Intonſus, a, um, not ſhorne, not clypped, not notted.

Intorqueo, intórques, ſi, quẽre, to thruſte in by throwynge of a darte, or other ſuche thyng. Alſo to tourne or wynde in, to folde or wrap rounde about a thyng.

Intorquere mentum, To wrythe or wreſte the chynne.

Intorquere telum in aliquem, to hurle a dart at one.

Intortus, a, um, tourned or wynded in, wrinckled, crooked, wrapped about. ſometyme obſcure, ambiguouſe, intricate.

Intorti capilli, curled heare.

Intorta cauda, a crooked or wrinckled tayle.

Oratio intorta, a darke maner of ſpeache, a crabbed or obſcure ſtyle.

Intortum bruſcum, id eſt criſpum.

Intra, within, ſometyme amonge.

Intra famam, leſſe than the opinion that men haue.

Intra modum, leſſe than a meane, ſhorte of a meane.

Intra cubiculum, id eſt in cubiculo.

Intra calendas, id eſt in calendis.

Intra quatuor annos, within leſſe than the ſpace of. iiii. yeres.

Intra legem epulari, To beſtowe leſſe vpon a banket, than is permitted by the lawe.

In interiori epiſtola ſcribis, you write in the myddle of your letter.

Intractábilis, le, intractable, vnruly.

Intractátus, a, um, not handled, not tamed, not broken, wylde.

Intrárius, a, um, idem quod intimus.

Intrarius amicus, a ſpeciall friende.

Intrâtus, a, um, entred into. Rarum.

Intrémo,

intrémo, intremis, ui, ere, to tremble greatly, to feare.
intremísco, miſcere, idem.
intrépidé, boldely, without feare.
intrépidus, a, um, nothynge afeerde, nothynge abaſhed.
intributio, ônis, f. g. a contribucion.
intrico, aui, are, to wrappe.
intrinſecus, within, on the inner parte, on the inſyde.
intritus, a, um, brayed in a mortar.
Intrita panis, bycade brayed with other thynges. Aqua intrita facta, bread or other thyng brayed with water.
intrita, æ. f. g. or Intritum, intriti, n. g. garlyche or other meate ſtamped or brayed in a morter, tyne morter. ſometyme earthe that bryche or tyle is made of. It is taken of Varro, for the lome or clape that men graffe with. Or after Feroalbus, for the dregges of wyne.
intro, into a place.
Intro ad nos, into our houſe.
Intro ſpectare, to looke in.
intro, aui, are, to enter or goe in.
Intrare in familiaritatem, to enter into familiaritee.
Aedem & in ædem intrare.
Intrare in affectum, to enter or ſyncke into the affection or mynde.
introclúdo, ſi, ere, to ſhutte in.
introdo, dédi, âre, to enter or preaſe in, or to caſt in.
introduco, duxi, ere, to bryngе or leade in, to maintayne or holde an opinion in teachyng, to bryng in an aſſertion or doctrine.
Præſidium in oppidum introducere. Introducere ambitionem in ſenatum, id eſt Inducere.
Introducere conſuetudinem, To bryng in a cuſtome.
introductio, ônis, f. ge. a bryngyng in. Alſo an introduction or begynnyng of any thyng.
introéo, introis, iui, ire, to goe in.
Introire in vitam, to be borne, to enter into life.
Introire ad aliquem, to go into the hous to one.
introfero, tróttuli, ferre, to beare in.
introgrédior, eris, introgrédi, to go in.
introitus, us, m. g. a goyng in, an entraunce.
Introitus in cauſam, a begynnyng or entryng into a matter.
intromitto, miſi, ere, to leat in.
Intromittere mares ad feminas, to putte the males to the females.
introrſum, or introrſus, into, within, on the inner parte.
introrumpo, rúpi, rúmpere, to breake in, to enter in by violence.
introſpicio, tróſpicis, ſpexi, ſpicere, to looke in, to ſee diligently, to vew, to conſider erneſtly.
introuoco, aui, are, to call in.
intrúdo, trúſi, ere, to thruſte in violently.
Intubum, or intubus, looke Intybum.

Intúeor, éris, intúitus ſum, éri, to beholde, to looke vpon, to take heede.
Intento animo aliquid intueri, to conſyder a thyng in ones mynde attentyuely.
Intueri aliquem, and in aliquem. Intueri in ſummos homines. To beholde and conſyder the lyfe and maners of the moſt noble perſons.
Seipſum intueri, To looke vppon his owne faultes.
Intúitus, us, m. g. a beholdyng or lokyng vpon.
Intumeo, intumes, túmui, tumére, and Intumeſco, meſcere, to ſwell, to ryſe vp, to be puffed vp, to bee ſomewhat hyghe, to ſwell for anger.
Intumeſcere alicui, id eſt, iraſci.
Intumeſcens locus, a place ſomewhat ryſyng in hyeyght.
Intumulâtus, a, um, not buryed, not layed in graue.
Intuor, eris, intûtus, or intúitus ſum, intui, to ſee, to beholde, antiquum.
Inturbâtus, a, um, not diſturbed, not troubled.
Intúrbidus, a, um, not troublous or buſy.
Inturis, idem quod Capparis.
Intus, in a place, ſometyme from within.
Dic me rogare, vt aliquis intus prodeat, ſaie that I deſyre one to come foorth to me.
Intus euocabo aliquem foras, I will call one foorthe.
Intus domum noſtram, for Intra.
Intus in crumena, in my purſe.
Hic intus, here within.
Intus domiſ, at home and within the doores.
Intus ſibi cauére, prouerbialiter, ſpoken of theym that ſtudie onely for theyr owne vſe.
Intus, ſometyme for Intro.
Intuſium, idem quod inducium.
Intûtus, a, um, vnſure, not in ſafegarde, not out of daunger, not kepte, not defended.
Quouſq; cuntando rempublicam intûtam patiemini? howe long prolongeyng the tyme wyll you ſuffer the common weale in ieoperdy?
Intybáceus, a, um, or Intubaceus, of cichorie or endyue.
Intybum, intybi, n. g or Intybus, bi, m g. or f. g. ſemeth to be the generall name of all kyndes of endyue and Suckorie. Yet Dioſcorides diuideth it into. ii. kyndes, the one wylde, the other, whiche is ſowen, and of that alſo he maketh ii. ſorte. o, the one with a broade leafe, whiche I take to bee the endyue, the other with a narrow leafe, whiche I take for the comnune & garden cichorie. that whiche is wilde, hath alſo ii. kyndes, the one called Succorie or hardewes, and the other Dent de leon.
Inuado, ſi, ere, to inuade, to enter, to apprehend, to aſſayle.
Cum ferro in aliquẽ inuadere, to renne vpon one with a ſworde.
Conſulatum inuadere, To take vpon hym a conſulſhyp by vnlawfull power or violence.
In fortunas hominum inuadere, to take mens goodes wrongefully from them, to robbe, to pyll, to vse extorcion, and rauen.

Biduo tria milia stadiorum inuadit, he goeth.

Capillos alicuius inuadere, To leape to one and pull hym by the heare.

Inuade viam, go on thy waie.

Tanta libido inuaserat, suche a fantasie came in theyr brayne, or suche a desyre came vpon theim, or they were so desyrouse.

Eum morbus inuasit grauis, he was attached with a greuouse sykenesse.

Bellum inuadere, id est, incipere.

Inuadere collum alicuius, To leape in ones necke.

Ea inuasit homines habendi cupido, suche a couetousenesse fell or began to reigne among men, or entred into the hertes of men.

Tantus terror inuaserat, so great a feare came vpon theim.

In arcem causæ inuadere, To enter into the chyefe poynct of the mattier, and there as the effecte of the mattier resteth.

Inuáleo, inuales, lui, lere, and Inualesco, scere, to wax strong, to bee confyrmed or stablysshed, to growe in vse. Some tyme to become weake, to growe out of vse.

Inualuit consuetudo, it grewe to a custome or vse, or a custome is taken vp or growen in vse.

Inualentia, æ. f. g. idem quod Inualetúdo.

Inualetúdo, inis, fœ. ge. feblenesse, weakenesse, sickenesse.

Inuálidus, a, um, feble, weake, impotent, of litle force or vertue, not valiaunt and stronge.

Inuéctio, ônis, f. g. a bryngyng or conueyghing in. Also inueyghyng or speakyng vehemently agaynst a thyng.

Inuectiuus, a, um, inuective, that belongeth to inueyghyng, or speakyng agaynst.

Inuectitius, a, um, idem.

Inuectiuæ orationes, orations made agaynst one, reprouyng his maners and lyuyng.

Inuectus, us, mascu. gene. a bryngyng or conueyghynge in.

Inuectus, a, um, caried or brought in.

Inueho, inuehis, uexi, here, to carie in a thyng, to carie a thyng into a place.

Inuehebant se hostes, the enemies preased in vpon theim.

Inuéhor, éris, inuehi, depon. to rebuke one vehemently, to rate, to raple, and with violente and sore woordes to inueygh against one.

Equo inuehi, to be on horse backe to ryde.

Flumine inuehi, to rowe or saple.

Inuectus portum, for in portum.

Inuenditus, a, um, not solde.

Inuénio, inuenis, uéni, ire, to fynde a thynge which a man seeketh for, to inuent or imagine, to knowe or trie out, to get, to obteyne.

Inuenitur apud authores, & in authoribus, it is redde in authours, or it is founde written in authours.

Inuenire aditum, to fynde the meane to ryse or haue accesse.

Certum inueniri non poterat, the certainte or trueth coulde be knowen by no meanes.

Quod labore inuenerit, id est parauerit, that he hath gotten by his labour and trauayle

Nomen inuenire nouum, to get a new name.

Nomen latinum non inuenit, it neuer hadde name in latine.

Obtrectatores inuenire, To be yll spoken of by naughtie tongues.

Salutem fuga inuenire, By flyght to escape saufe.

Inueneris, ex me quidem nunq̃ fies certior, enquire or aske of whom thou wylt, thou shalt neuer knowe it of me as long as thou lyuest.

Hoc mali non pridem inuéni, id est, intellexi, sensi, It is not long sens that I haue perceyned this displeasure.

Inueni quod agam, I haue mucked, or I haue bethought me what to doo.

Finem non inuenit, It was not etched or ended. Laudem inuenire, to gette prayse or commendacion.

Inuenias vbi habitet, enquyre out where he dwelleth. Viam inuenire, to fynde a waie or meane.

Inuentárium, rii, n. g. an inuentorie.

Inuéntio, ônis, f. g. an inuention, a fyndyng.

Inuentiuncula, æ, f. g. an inuencion.

Inuentor, óris, m. g. a fynder out, an inuentour, or fyrst authour.

Inuentrix, tricis, f. g. the feminine.

Inuentum, i, n. g. an inuention or deuise.

Inuentus, us, m. g. idem quod Inuentio.

Inuentus, a, um, founde out.

Inuentum reddere, to fynde out.

Inuento est opus, it muste be founde out.

Inuenustè, vnpleasantly.

Inuenustus, a, um, vnpleasant, without grace.

In verba iurare, to bee sworne as princes counsaylours and seruantes be sworne vnto them. also to doo fealtee.

Inuerecundus, a, um, vnchast, without shame, impudent. Inuerecunda frons, id est, perfricta, without shame.

Inuergo, verxi, ere, to encline, to poure in.

Inuérsio, ônis, f. g. a tournyng in and out, tournyng of the wrong syde forwarde.

Inuersum, in numbre and order.

Inuérsus, a, um, tourned in and out, tourned backewarde.

Inuersa verba, woordes tourned backewarde, as Vola, for Lauo.

Consuetudo inuersa, a custome chaunged cleane contrary.

Inuerto, ti, tere, to tourne in, to tourne by syde downe, to tourne in and out after the vulgare speeche, Properly to tourne euery thyng contrary to the ryght fourme and facion.

Inuertere verba, to bryng out woordes, so that wee wee speake one thyng for an other.

Ad locum annulum inuertere, To turne the ringe againe in to his place.
Nego iura aliquod inuertere, To disturbe a matter, and tourne it vpside downe.
Inuertere ordinem, to doo or saie a thyng backewarde.
Inuertere scrobes oleis, To dygge places to plant olyues in.
Quam se cito inuerterit? Howe quickly hath he tourned or changed hym selfe?
nuespera scere, to waxe nyght.
nuestes, stium, m. gen. ponge chyldren without heare, or after some, they that be vnarmed.
nuestigabilis, le, that maye not bee founde with sekyng.
nuestigátio, ônis, fœ. g. a serchenge or sekyng out, a tracynge.
nuestigator, tóris, m ge. one that maketh diligente serche or enquirie for or of a thyng.
nuestigo, aui, are, to seeke or fynde out by the steppes and print of the feete, as hunters doo, to trace. And by translation, to make diligente serche of or for a thyng, to enquire.
Vbi nuestigem, where maie I fynde whiche way he went?
Quærendo nuestigari possit, By diligente searchenge and seekyng, it may be found out.
Diligenter de aliquo nuestigare, to make diligente serche and enquirie for one.
nuestio, ire, to adorne or garnysche a thyng, to trymme.
nuestis, ste, that hath no heare or bearde, idem quod impubis.
Inueterasco, scere, to waxe of force or strength, to bee confirmed by long vse, to growe in custome also worne out, almost consumed. somtyme to be longe in a place.
Inueterati, olde shewes or vnthryftes, men waxed olde in vnthryfty iuuenall.
Inueterátio, ônis, f. ge. the growyng of a thynge in vse by longe custome.
Inueterátus, a, um, cõfirmed by long vse, growen in custome, olde, auncient.
Inuétero, aui, are, to kepe tyll it be olde or stale, to growe in vse, or be establysshed by long custome.
Inueterauit hæc opinio, This opinion hath been long in mens myndes.
Inueterauit consuetudo, a custome is taken vp or growen in vse.
Quorum nomen inueterauit hominum famæ & sermonibus, whose name hath bene of long tyme renoumed, & of reputation among men.
Inuicem, together, one the other. also for per vices, one after an other, by course somtyme for be warde, or contrario, againe on the other name thoone for thy parte or my parte.
Dyd not forsligunt, they loue one an other.
Inuicti urbanas, inuicem rusticas scribe, and thanne ye knowest the affayres of the cuntre, for thy parte againe, wryte what is dooen in the countrete.
Inuicem crimen intentare, To laye one to an others charge.
Inuicem obstant, They leat one an other.
Loquamur inuicem, leat vs speake one after an other by course.
Inuictus, a, um, valyant, myghty, that can not be ouercome or vanquished.
Inuictum se à labore præstare, not to be ouercome with labour and peyn, not to be werred.
Inuidentia, æ, f. ge. greke to beholde or here that an other man prosspereth.
Inuideo, inuides, uidi, ére, to haue enuy at an others prosperitee, to hate, somtyme to disdeygne. also to see inwardly or through a thynge. sometyme to denie a thyng to one: as, Natura inuidit oleum Africæ.
Inuideo tibi doctrinam, I haue enuy at thy learnyng.
Inuidebant omnes mihi, euerye one hadde grudge and enuy at me.
Honorem alicui, and honori alicuius inuidere, To be greued with the honour and aduancement of an other.
In eo, cui inuidetur, the impersonall.
Inuideor, the passiue.
Inuidetur, the impersonall.
Inuidia, æ, f. gen. enuy, hatrede, yll wylle, grudgeyng, the yll byuite or opinion that the people haue of one, despite.
Inuidia facti sui, The displeasure of his acte or attemptate, or the deede wherof he was enuied or hated.
Inuidiam conciture alicui, to byyng one in hatred or yll opinion.
Facere inuidiam, idem.
Inuidia temporum, id est iniuria, malignitas.
Quærere inuidiam in aliquem, to seeke meanes to byyng one in hatred and yll wyll.
Inuidiam regiæ largitionis, for hatred and despite of the kynges prodigalitee.
Cumulare sibi inuidiam, To purchase hatred and displeasure.
Habere inuidiam, to bee hated or enuyed, to be odious or displeasaunt.
In inuidia esse, idem.
Rapere, trahere, adducere in inuidiam, To make one hated and maligned, or to haue the yll will and displeasure of men.
Vertere inuidiam alicuius rei in alterum, To tourne the blame, hate, or displeasure of a thyng to an other.
Conferre inuidiam mortis alicuius in alterũ, to make one hated for the deathe of a man.
Flagrare, or conflagrare inuidia, to be greatly spited or hated.
Inuidiã crudelitatis ex re aliqua colligere, to be noted & taken for a cruell persone for doyng of a thyng. to bee hated or haue yll will or displeasure of men for his crueltee in any thynge.

Inuidiæ esse alicui, to cause that one is hated or enuied.
Inuidiola, æ, f. g. a litteil enuy or hatred.
Inuidiosè, enuiously, odiously, spitefully.
Inuidiôsus, a, um, enuious, sometyme enuied, or odious, hated, spited.
Inuidiosa res, a thynge that bredeth enuy or hatred. Inuidiosum iudicium, a iudgemente or opinion, wherof men haue an yll opinion, or wherwith men be displeased or discontented.
Inuidiosum nomen, an odious name.
Inuidiosum ad bonos, or apud bonos, That is odious to good men, that men of honestee doo hate.
Putabant absentis damnationem multo inuidiosiorem fore, they thought that his condemnation wold be muche more odious and displeasant, because it was in his absence.
Inuidus, inuida, um, that hath enuie, that enuieth, enuyous.
Inuigilo, aui, are, to haue watche of a thynge, or to late watche, to watche diligently, to care, to take good heede.
Inuinus, a, um, that neuer drinketh wyne.
Inuiolabilis, le, that can not be violated or broken.
Inuiolatè, purely, uncorruptely.
Inuiolâtus, a, um, not violated, not corrupted, pure, not hurte.
Inuisitâtus, a, um, not visited.
Inuiso, uisi, sere, to goe to see, to visite.
Ad eum inuiso, I go to hym to see.
Domum alicuius inuisere, to visite, to come to ones house to see hym.
Inuisus, a, um, neuer seene, also hated or odious, that we can not abyde to see.
Inuisus deo, hated of god.
Inuisior, and Inuisissimus.
Inuitabilis, le, delectable, iocunde, pleasant.
Inuitâtio, ônis, f. g. and Inuitamentum, i, n. g. idem quod inuitatus.
Inuitatus, us, m. g. a biddyng or desyryng, an allurynge or prouokyng.
Inuitâtus, a, um, boden as to a feast or banket, desyred to come, allured, inuited
Inuito, aui, are, to bydde, to calle, to desyre to come, to allure, to entice. also to delite to fill the beally.
Inuitare & allectare.
Inuitare animos visu, to delyte and recreate mens myndes by seeyng it.
Inuitare ad cœnam, to byd or desyre to come to supper.
Domum aliquem inuitare, to desyre one to come home to his house.
Inuitare ad legendum, to allure.
Gloria inuitantur præclara ingenia, excellent wittes be allured with glorie.
Inuitare in hospitium, and hospitio, to desyre one to come to his house, and take suche fare and lodgeyng as he hath.
Inuitat genialis hyems, delyteth.
Inuitare aliquem poculis, to drynke to one.
Inuitare se in cœna, to drynke or quaffe largely.
Inuitare in prædam, to entice one to a grate pray.
Vomitiones inuitare, to prouoke vomite
Inuitè, inuitius, tissime, against ones will, vnwillyngly.
Inuitus, a, um, vnwillyng, or against ones will, by constrayne, against herte and wynde.
Inuita Minerua aliquid facere, to do a thyng against nature.
Inuitis omnibus, in spite of all theyr teethe, maugre theyr heades.
Inuitus facio, I doo it against my stomache.
Inuitus huius solutionis, not willyng that she should be paied.
Non inuitus, with a good wyll.
Inuius, inuia, um, lackyng a waie, or where any thyng can passe.
Inuia, places that can not be passed by.
Inûla, inulæ, f. g called Elenû. Helenacampana.
Inûltus, a, um, that is not punished, sometyme without ieoperdie, without hurt or danger.
Inumbro, aui, are, to make shadowe. sometyme it signifieth to defende.
Inuaco, aui, are, to catche as it were with an hoke.
Inundâtio, ônis, f. g. a floudde, a deluge.
Inundo, aui, are, to ouerflowe or surrounde.
Sanguine inundare, to ouerflowe in bloode, to be all full of bloode.
Inunctio, ônis, f. g. an annoynting.
Inungo, unxi, ungere, to annoynt.
Inunguem to the point, perfectly.
Inuocâtus, a, um, not called, not bydden.
Inuôco, inuocas, âui, âre, to calle in, to call for helpe. also not to calle.
Inuocare subsidium, to desyre aide or succour.
In auxilium aliquem inuocare, to desyre or call vpon one to helpe hym.
Inuólito, aui, are, the frequentatyue of Inuolo.
Inuolo, inuolas, laui, lare, to steale away in ones hande, to late violent handes on one, to take in ones hande, to flee in, to enter in quickly.
Inuolare intro, to flee in.
Inuolare in aliquem, to leape or renne violently on one.
Vix me contineo, quin inuolem in capillum, I can vneth refreigne my selfe from fleyng vpon hym, to pulle hym by the heare.
Inuolare in possessionem, to take possession of a thyng hastily.
Inuolûcre, cris, a barbours clothe cast aboute a mans necke in shaupng Inuolûcris, cre, and Inuolucer, cris, cre, that can not flee, not ready to flee.
Inuolûcrum, i, n. g. euery thyng which ens by to couer or wrappe an other thyng in, or the vt
Inuolucris simulationum tegi, euery thyng co crafty couerynges of dissimulacy ion.
Inuoluo, uolui, ere, to wrappe, [illegible] ides, to th ter, sometyme to platte. sometyme to put in.

Inuoluere se literis, to geue hym selfe wholly to study. Lykewise Otio se inuoluere.
inuolutus, a, m.g & Inuoluola, æ, f.g. a wooyme lyke a canker, whiche is on vines, and whan he is taken of, he wrappeth hym selfe rounde to gyther.
inuolutus, a, um, wrapped, folded in, couered.
Inuolutum bellum, warre, cloked vnder the name of peace.
inurbanè, vncurteysly, rudely, homely, after no maner of gentyll lore.
inurbanus, a, um, vncurteyse, rude, homely in maners, without honest ciuilitee.
inurgeo, es, ursi, gère, to thrust, to force.
inuito, aui, are, to plunge and washe theym selues in water as geese and duckes doo.
inuro, ussi, ere, to marke a thynge with an hotte yron, to enamell or woorke with fyre.
Inurere alicui notam censoriam, to bringe to one a notable reproche, to put to a notable rebuke.
Inurere infamiam alicui, to bryng vp a sclaunder on one, whiche will neuer be laied.
Leges inurere, to make lawes to the perpetuall dishonour of a weale publike.
Inurere dolorem, to put to great peyne and sorowe.
Inurere famam superbiæ, to make one to bee noted for a proude persone.
inusitatè, and Inusitatò, strangely, not after the accustomed facion.
inusitatus, a, um, not wonte, newe, straunge.
inustus, a, um, bourned in, marked with an hot yron.
inutilis, le, vnprofitable.
inutilitas, atis, f. g. vnprofitablenesse.
inutiliter, vnprofitably.
Inuuium, a towne in Almayne, called Insprough.
Inuulnerâtus, a, um, not wounded.
Inuus, is the rusticall god of the Paynyms, called also Pan.

I ANTE O.

IO, an interiection, signifying sometyme greefe, as in Tibullo. Vrorio, Oh, I burne. sometyme exceedyng gladnesse, as in Ouidio. Dicite io Paean.
Io, the daughter of Inachus.
Iocinalis, the herbe called also Onobrychis.
Ioannes, a proper name of hebrue, and signifieth the grace of god.
Ioannes Baptista, sonne of Zacharias, and Elisabeth, of the trybe of Leui, was sanctified before he was borne, & declared by an angell, that his name should be Iohn. And because his father dyd not foorthwith beleue it, he was speecheles vntyll the eyght day after the byrth of the chylde, and that he had wryten in tables, his name is Iohn: than was his mouth opened, & he spake glorifying god, & made thã the psalme: Benedictus dominus deus israel. This Iohn was of suche perfection & holinesse, that our Sauioure Christe testified of hym, that he went in the spirite and trouthe of Helias the prophete: but yet was he more than a prophete, and the messanger, prompted by the prophete Malachias, that god wolde sende, which shulde prepare the way before hym. Semblably Iohn testified of Christ, that he was the true lyght that lyghteth euery man, that cometh into the worlde, and that he was in the worlde, and the worlde was made by hym, and that he bare recorde, that he was the soonne of God. Iohn lyued in wylderneesse, his garment was of camelles heares, his girdell of a skyn about his loynes, his meate Locustæ and hony of the woodes. He baptised onely in water, teachyng repentance and the approchyng of the kyngedome of heauen. But because he saied to Herode, it was not lefull for hym to haue his brothers wyfe, he was by hym put in prisone, and fynally at the petition of the daughter of Herodiades, who daunced before hym (by the persuasion of Herodias, who was his brothers wyfe) his head was striken of, and in a dishe brought by the maiden vnto hir mother in open banket. Iosephus antiquitatum li. 18. calleth hym a verey good man, who commanded the Iewes to labour to geat vertue, to obserue Iustice amonge them selues, to keepe true religion towarde God & by baptisme to ioigne togyther in one. also he saieth, that many men thoughte, that in the battayle betweene Herode and Aretha, by the iust vengeance of god, for puttynge Iohn Baptiste to death, the hoste of Herode was vtterly destroied. He was borne before Christ carnally monethes, and was put to death before Christ suffred his passion, one yere.
Ioannes, apostle and Euangelist, sonne of Zebedæus, brother of James the apostle, called the more, was of Christ moste tenderly beloued, and in tyme of the emperour Domitian, was exiled into Pathmos, where he wrate the Apocalypsis. After the death of Domitian, in the tyme of Nertinar, he returned to Ephesum, and there remaynyng vnto the tyme of Traiane, he rayled many churches, dyd set theym in order, and beyng of great age, dyed lxvii. yeres after the passion of Christe, as Sophronius writeth, and was buryed at Ephesum. Polycrates, an ancient and holy bysshop in Asia, in his epistle to Victor, bysshop of Rome, writeth in this wyse: Also Iohn, whiche layde his head vpon our lordes breast, who was the chiefe priest, and ware the pontificall plate or table, martyr and doctour of the churche, slept at Ephesum. He wrate his gospell last of all the Euangelistes in the last ende of his yfe, wherin he declareth the diuinite of our sauiour, more than any of the other, whiche by the holy goſt was reſerued vnto hym.

moze

Iocaſta, was daughter of Creon, and firſte wife of Laius kynge of Thebes, after whoſe deth ſhe beyng ignorant, maried Oedipus hir naturall ſoonne. After that hir ſonnes Polynices & Etheocles, whiche ſhe had by Oedipus had one ſlayne the other in battayle, ſhe alſo kylled hir ſelfe.

Iocátio, ónis, fœ. g. a merp ieſtyng, a thyng ſpoken in bourde.

Iocans, antis, om. g. that ſpeaketh a thyng merily, ieſtyng, booꝛdyng.

Iochabella, the name of Moyſes mother.

Ióco, and iocoſé, in ſpoꝛte, merily, in game, in ieſte, in bourde.

Neſcio, hæc ioco an ſerio dicat, I can not tell whether he ſpeaketh theſe thynges in game oꝛ in earneſt.

Iocor, âris, âri, to ſpeake merily oꝛ in diſpoꝛte, to ſpeake in ieſte, to booꝛde.

Iocóſus, a, um, & ioculáris, re, mery, ſpoꝛtfull, pꝛouoꝛyng mypthe.

Iocoſus homo, a pleaſant and mery man full of ieſtes.

Ioculárius, a, um, that is ſpoken in ieſte, a ſpoꝛtyng matter.

Iocularium malum, a ſhꝛewd ſpoꝛting matter.

Ioculáriter, merily, in ieſte, in waye of ſpoꝛte and bourdyng.

Ioculátor, óris, m. ge. a ieſter, one that ſpeaketh merily and in booꝛde.

Ióculans, antis, idem quod Iocans.

Ióculus, li, m. g. a lyttell ſpoꝛte oꝛ mypthe.

Iocus, ci, m. g. plu. ioci, oꝛ ioca, a merye woꝛde, diſpoꝛte, ieſte in woꝛdes.

Iohel, a pꝛophete boꝛne in Bethon, in the lande of Rubim, he pꝛophecied muche of Hieruſalem, and finall concluſion af Gentiles.

Iol, a citee of Numidia.

Iólaus, the ſonne of Iphiclus, of whom the peoꝛple of Sardinia were named Iólenſes.

Iolcos, a towne of Theſſaly.

Iöle, the daughter of Euritus, kynge of Ieto lia, whom Hercules loued ſo muche, that he ſerued hir in a womans apparayle, and ſpanne on a dyſtaffe.

Ion, a ſtone of violet colour. alſo the name of a greeke poete.

Iön porphirion, the blew violet.

Ionas, a pꝛophete of the countreie of Cariathamaum, not farre from Azotus, a citee of the Grekes, nigh to the ſea in Syꝛia, in the tyme of Helias, and was the ſoonne of the pooꝛe wydowe, and him dyd Helias reſtoꝛe vnto lyfe foꝛ the hoſpitalitee of his mother. whan he came to full age, he was by almighty God ſente to the great citee of Ninive in Aſſyꝛia, & as he would haue fledde from the loꝛde, and haue turned his iourney vnto Tharſos, he was deuoured of a whale, and beynge at the laſt caſt vp into the lande out of the whales mouthe, whan he had been thꝛee daies in his bealy, he went forth and pꝛeached in Ninive in ſuche wyſe, that the people by penance reſtreigned the ſwoꝛde of god, whiche was ready to ſtrike them. Afterward Jonas, vexed with heupneſſe of mynde, returned to his countreie, noꝛ there long dyd dynge, takynge with hym his mother, went to the lande of Sur, and as he haunted the lande of Saar, he there dyed, and was buried in the gꝛaue of Cinezeus the Judge. He pꝛophecied, that whan men ſhoulde ſee in Hieruſalē many people come from the weſt partes of the world, than ſhuld the citee be deſtroied vnto the bare earthe. Ionas, in hebꝛue ſignifieth a culuer, a deſtroier of people.

Ionia, a region in Greece of Aſia, wherin were the citees of Epheſus, Miletus, Priene, and other, and the people therof be called Iones, and the tungue Ionica, and the ſea lyeyng to it Mare Ionicum.

Iónicus, ca, um, & Iónius, a, um, and Ioniacus, a, um, of Ionia.

Ionthi, wartes oꝛ litle pimples in the face.

Iopas, a kyng of Aferike, one of Didos woers.

Ioppe, es, fœ. g. a citee of the countreie of Paleſtina, not farre from Hieruſalem, ſtandyng by the ſea, ſome men doo ſuppoſe it to be the hauen, whiche is called Poꝛte Jaffe.

Iordânis, a kayre ryuer in Iudea, whiche diuideth Galilee from the reſidue of Iudea, and falleth into the dead ſea.

Ios, an yle where Homerus was buried.

Ioſeph, the ſon of Jacob the patriarke, was thoꝛough enuy ſolde by his bꝛetherne vnto a marchant, who bꝛought hym into Egypt, and gaue hym to Putiphar, great maiſter of houſholde with kynge Pharao, whoſe wyfe bourned in concupiſcence, becauſe Joſeph would not conſent adultery with hir, cauſed him to be caſt into pꝛiſon, wher he declaryng to the kynges cupbearer the ſignification of his dꝛeame, was afterward by the ſame cupbearer remembꝛed vnto kynge Pharao, when he had dꝛeamed a dꝛeame, whiche he wold haue expounded. And he expoundyng the kynges dꝛeame, was made high ſtewed of his rotalme. So that by his moſt excellent wyſedome ſuche aboundāce of graynes was bꝛought into the kynges barnes, and there kepte durynge the. vii. plentuous yeres, that the ſeuen ſcarce yeres next enſuyng, it ſufficed not onely to reliue all the people of Egypt, but alſo refreſched other countreis, and made the kynge exceedyngly riche. Moꝛeouer the bꝛetherne of Joſeph, beynge ſente by Jacob theyr father to dye coꝛne in Egypte, not knowyng theyr bꝛother Joſeph, were by hym ſundꝛye tymes appꝛehended, and compelled to feeche theyr younger bꝛother Beniamyn, and at the laſte Joſeph diſcoueryng hym ſelf vnto theym, cauſed causyd them to feteche his and their father into Egypte, with all his kamplie, where they were honourably entertayned of kyng Pharao and Joseph. And Joseph had there two soonnes, Ephraim and Manasses, and lyued a hundred and ten yeeres. Joseph signifieth increase, or a great officer. he dyed before the incarnation about. 1652. yeres.

Josephus, the sonne of Mattathias, a prieſt of Jherusalem, wrate in Greke the battaple of the Jewes, and destruction of the Citee by Vespasian and Titus, whereat he hym selfe was presente. He wrate also of the antiquitee of the Jewes. He was amonge the Romayns had in suche reuerence and honoure, that his ymage was sette vp in the citee. He had the spirite of prophecie, and beynge prisoner, tolde vnto Vespasian, that he shoulde be emperour of Rome. Also in his booke of antiquitees he writeth in this wyse. At this tyme was Jesus a wise man, yf it be lefull to call hym a man, he was a doer of wonderfull workes, and a teacher of those men, whiche willyn-ly dooe here thynges that be true, he soigned vnto hym many Jewes and also Gentiles, this man was Christ. Whan Pylate, by the enuy of the chief men of our nation had iudged hym to be put on the crosse, he forsooke not theim, whom from the beginnyng he loued, but appered to theim the third day, eftesoones alwe, accordyng as the prophetes by diuine inspiration spake before of hym, and that innumerable myracles shuld be done by hym. Hitherto wrate Josephus. wherby appereth his excellent wysedome, and speciall grace, whiche he had receiued: and it repugneth not muche, that in his herte he imbraced the feith of Christe. He was after the incarnation of Christ lxvi. yeres.

Iota. the name of a greke letter.

Iotapata, a citee in Syria.

Iouianus Pontanus, a poete.

Iouinani, were men of armes so called of Martis man the emperour, whiche dyed valiauntly in the countrete of Illyria.

Iouis glans, the chestnutte.

Iouis, the genitiue case of Iupiter, or after Priscian of the nomi. Iouis.

Iouiste, compositum ex Ioue & iuste.

I ANTE I.

IPhianassa, the wyfe of Melampos, whom for her beautee Juno tourned into furie or madnesse.

Iphiclus, son of Alemena, borne with Hercules at one byrth, but Hercules was gotten by Jupiter & Iphiclus by Amphitrio. And whã two seruẽts came to the cradell of Iphiclus, and slewe hym, after whan they came to Hercules, he tooke in euery of his handes one, and slewe theim. There was an other Iphiclus, the sonne of Phylacus & Clymene, who Hesiodus saieth, was so lyght and swyfte, that he ranne vpon the eares of wheate as they grewe, and dyd not hurte theim. also that he ranne on the water as well as on the lande. Reade Cœlium Lectionum antiq. lib. 2. ca. 5.

Iphicrates, a noble man of Athenes.

Iphidamas, the soonne of Antenor.

Iphimedia, the wyfe of Aloeus.

Iphigenia, the daughter of kyng Agamemnon, whom he offred in sacrifice goyng to Troie.

Iphimassa, idem quod Iphianassa.

Iphinous, one of the Centaures.

Iphitus, the sonne of Praxonidis, which fyrst ordeyned the solemne plates called Olympiada. also an other of Troie.

Ipmon, id est, muscus.

Ips, ipos, a litell wourme breedynge in hoznes and vines. Erasmus saith, hurtfull to hoznes and vines.

Ipse, ipsa, ipsum, he, she, that same, by demonstratyng or shewyng the person or thing spoken of.

Ipse egomet, I my selfe.

Rem ipsam dic, tell hym the verate mattier.

Ipsior, ipsissimus.

Idem hoc ipsum, the verate selfe same thynge.

Res ipsa indicat, the mattier it selfe declareth.

In ipsis nuptiis, at the verate poynct of the mariage.

Eo ipso die, on the verate same date.

Ipsemet, he hym selfe.

Ipsippe, to hym and to none other.

Ipsulces, plates imbosed ipke to figures or ymages of men or women.

I ANTE R.

IR, the holownesse of the hande. sometyme it signifieth the hole hande.

Ira, ræ, f. ge. wyath, anger, an appetite to punyshe hym of whom we be offended.

Accensus in iram, inflamed with anger.

Concitare iram alicui, to make angry.

Nunc meum cor cumulatur ira, Nowe doot I ware muche more angry.

Iram euomere in aliquem, to vtter his wyathe or anger towardes one.

Facere aliquid per iram, To dooe a thynge in his anger.

Iræ sunt inter eos, they be fallen out.

Recanduit ira, he waxed angry agayne.

Fræna ponere iræ, to moderate anger.

Iracunde, angerly, with a stomacke, spitously.

Iracundia, æ, fœm. g. anger quickely moued and for a lyght cause, displeasure agaynst one, a desyre to be reuenged.

Iracundiam cohibere, continere, reprimere.

Omitte tuam istam iracundiam, quiete your selfe, appease your selfe.

Iracundus, a, um, shortly or soone angry, hasty, enclined naturally to anger, quyckely moued and and for a lyght cause, quickely displeased.

Iracundus est, he is as angre as a waspe.
Irascor, eris, irasci, to be angrye, to bee moued, to bee displeased.
Irascor ubi illud dictum, I am displeased with the for so sayyng.
Irasci vicem alicuius, id est dolere.
Irasci & stomachari.
Irascuntur admonitioni, they be angrie with them that doe monisshe or tell them of any thynge.
Irate, angerly.
Irâtus, a, um, angrye, troubled, greatly moued.
Iratum habere aliquem, to haue ones displeasure or yll wylle.
Iratum mare, the tempestuous or troublous.
Iratior, iratissimus.
Irceus, a kynde of puddynges.
Ircipes, an harrowe.
Ire, and Iri, looke Eo.
Irenarches, & Irenarcha, m. gen. he whiche is in authoritee to see peace kepte in a countrete or citee. whiche among vs maie bee called a Iustice of the peace.
Iria flauia, a citee of Spayne.
Irinum, oyle of Yreos.
Irinus, irina, num, that is made of the flower deluce.
Iris iridis, fœm. ge. the rayne bowe. It is also a flower deluce, the rote wherof is viraie sote, and is commonly called Yreos. it is also a certayne precious stone.
Irio, named in Greke Ericimon, in Englishe winter cresses, it groweth about townes and water sides.
Iris syluestris, viola est purpurea.
Irnella, æ, fœm. gene. a certayne vessell vsed in sacrifice.
Ironia, æ, fœm. g. a figure in speakyng, whan a man speaketh otherwyse than he thynketh, as in scoffynge or bourdynge, callyng that faire whiche is foule in dede, that good, which is yll, that eloquente, whiche is barbarouse, semblably, reasonyng contrarye to that I thynke, to the intent to mocke hym, with whom I reason or dispute.
Ironicè, mockyshely, scoffyngly.
Irónicus, he that vseth that facion in speakyng.
Irpices, rakes with yron teeth, wherwith they drewe vp weedes, some take it for an harrow.
Irpini, certayne people.
Irrádio, áui, áre, to shyne vpon, to cast his beames vpon, as the sonne dooeth, to lyghten.
Irrâsus, a, um, vnshauen, vnrased, rough. that is not polysshed.
Irrationalis, le, vnreasonable, without reason.
Irrauceſco, raucui, scere, idem quod irraucio.
Irraucio, rauci, ire, to bee hoarse.
Irredimitus, a, um, that can not be redemed or repayred.
Irredux, réducis, om. g. from the which one can not retourne fake agayne.
Irreligâtus, a, um, vnbounde, lewse.
Irreligiôsus, a, um, vngodly, not religious, vn deuoute, without feare of god.
Irremeabilis, le, that, from the which one can not come agayne.
Irremediabilis, le, that can not bee holpen with any remedy, that can not be remedied.
Irremunerabilis, le, that maye not be rewarded or recompenced.
Irreparabilis, le, that maie not be repayred or restored to the fyrst estate.
Irrepertus, a, um, not founde.
Irrépo, pſi, ere, to crepe in, to enter in by stelth, or priuily by littell and littell.
Irrepere in tabellas publicas, to bee written or inrolled in the commune regesters priuily or by stealthe.
Irrepere in hominum mentes, To enter into mens myndes by littell and littell.
Irreprehensus, a, um, that can not be reproued, without faute, not blamed.
Irrequiêtus, a, um, without reste or quiete, stirryng, euer doeyng, busye, active, full of trouble.
Irresectus, a, um, not cut, not pared.
Irresolûtus, a, um, neuer lette slacke, or louse.
Irrétio, irretis, iui, ire, to take or holde in as it were in a nette, to entangle, to snare, to allure, to tolle.
Irretitus, a, um, taken, lapte in with traine or fayre prompes, snared, allured.
Irretortus, a, um, streyght, not crooked or bente awrye.
Irreuerenter, vnreuerently.
Irreuerentia, æ, f. g. vnreuerence.
Irreuocabilis, le, that can not bee reuoked or called agayne.
Irreuocabilis constantia, constancie that can not bee chaunged by any meanes, immutable.
Irreuocâtus, a, um, not called agayne.
Irrideo, rides, irriſi, dêre, to mocke, to laugh to scorne. sometyme to laugh.
Irridiculè, not merely, vnpleasauntly.
Non irridicule, merely.
Irrigátio, ônis, f. g. a waterynge.
Irrigâtus, a, um, watered.
Irrigatus plagis homo, one beaten vntyll he bleede.
Irrigo, irrigas, áui, âre, to water grounde, to bryng water into the fieldes out of a ryuer.
Irrigare aquam in locum aliquem, to conuey water into a place.
Irriguus, a, um, the ground or fielde that may be easily watered. sometyme the water that maie be easily derined into the fieldes.
Irrigua fontibus terra, a ground hauyng many welles or fountaynes.
Fons irriguus, a fountayne that watereth any place.
Irripio, ere, to pluche in.
Irrisio, ônis, fœm. gen. a mockyng, a delusyng, a laughe a laughyng to scorne.

sor, óris, m. g. one that mocketh or laugheth to scorne.
sus, us, masc. gene. a mocking, or laughynge to scorne.
risui esse, to be laughed to scorne.
sus, a, um, laughed to scorne.
rabilis, le, quickely made angry or moued.
ramen, inis, or Irritamentum, ti, neu. gene. a thyng that stereth or prouoketh.
ritatio ónis, fœm. gene. a stirryng, incensyng, or prouokyng. sometyme for cupiditas, an appetite or desire.
ritatus, a, um, prouoked, stirred, moued to anger, angry.
rito, irritas, áui, áre, to make voyde, and of none effect.
rito, as, re, haupng the last syllable saupng one longe, to prouoke, to kendle wrathe, to stirre vp, to incense.
ritus, irrita, um, voyde, of none effecte or force.
Qua irrita, egges that proue not vnder an henne or other byrde.
Irritus spei, disapointed of that he loked for.
Preces irritæ, vayn prayers that be not herd.
Ad irritum cadit spes, Our hope is vayn and cometh to nothyng.
Quod modo erat ratum irritum est, that was euen nowe ratified and allowed, is now voyde and of none effecte.
roboro, raui, rare, to make stronger, or of more force, to confirme.
rogátio, ónis, f. g. a settyng or imposyng of a tribute, penaltee, or lyke thyng.
Multæ irrogatio, a condemnynge to pay a forfaite.
rogátus, a, um, imposed, sette vpon.
rógo, irrogas, áui, áre, to impose or sette vpō, to ordeyne.
Irrogare leges, to make lawes.
Irrogare pœnam, to punysshe.
Tributum irrogare, to sette a tribute or payement.
Irrogare mulctam, to sette a peyne or forfaite.
róro, áui, áre, to sprynkle or wette with dewe or moysture, to caste a dewe vpon.
rubeo, irrubes, bui, bère, and rubesco, scere, to be redde, to ware redde.
ructo, aui, are, to beliche, to beliche out.
rúgio, irrúgis, giui, ire, to braie out.
rrugo, ani, áre, to make wrinkled.
rrumo, aui, are, to rushe in.
rrumpens, breakyng in violently.
rrumpo, rupi, ere, to breake in or enter with force. sometyme to breake a sunder.
Irrumpere oppidum, to breake into a towne by force.
In castra irrumpere, to assayle ennemyes in theyr campe.
rruo, irruis, irrui, ere, to renne hastyly or rushyngly into battayle, or vppon any thynge, sometyme to fall in or caste in, to rushe in.
Irruit in mediam aciem, he rushed into the myddell of the army.
Irruere in odium alicuius, To caste hym selfe wylfully without any consideration into the displeasure or hatred of a man.
In mala irruere, To renne wylyngely in to naughtynesse.
Irtiola, æ, f. g. a kynde of vines.
Irus, i, m. g. a beggar, of whom Homere maketh mencion, who was great and feerdie, and beyng in Ithaca, the countrey of Ulysses (he beynge absente) cōsumed his vitayles with the wowers of Penelope. wherfore Ulysses at his returne home, slewe hym with his fyste.
Iro pauperior, as verate a beggar as lyueth, as poore as Job, in extreme necessitee.

I ANTE S.

IS, a citee eight dayes iournye from Babylon.
Is, ea, id, a pronowne, whiche signifieth he, she, that, sometyme suche.
Is fuit, suche a man he was.
Iam ea ætate sum, I am nowe of suche age.
Ea re, therfore.
Iibus, for iis.
Eapsa, for ea ipsa.
Id, for ob id.
Nunc id prodeo, nowe I come forth for that cause or therfore.
Id, for Hoc.
Id modo dic, Saie this onely.
Id, for per id.
Vt id ostenderem, that I myght declare or shewe by that meanes.
Id ætatis, of that age.
Id diei, on that daie.
Id honoris, of suche honour or estimacion.
Ad id locorum, to that place, also to that time.
Id temporis, at that tyme, in those daies.
Nec id nobis virium erat, we were not of such puissance or strength.
Id genus hominum, that sorte of men.
Isaca, the ryuer in Englande called Exe.
Isæus, a famous Rhetorician, whiche inuented to make euery matter compendious.
Isagóge, ges, f. g. an introduction
Isagógicon, a waye to introduce or begynne to teache.
Isagora, a mans name.
Isandrus, the sonne of Bellerophon.
Isapis, a ryuer nygh to Lecenia.
Isara, a ryuer comyng out of the ryuer of Rone, where the hyll called Cenenus, is ioigned to the Rone, and so renneth by Vienna into the gulfe of Venice.
Isaria, an ile against Velia, called also Oenotris.
Isatis, tis, f. g. woode. made before in Glastum.
Isauria, a region of Asia neygnyng to Cilicia, some doo take it to be parte of Cilicia.

Isau-

Isaurum, a citee in the cuntrete of Pamphilia.
Isca, a citee in Deuonshyre called Exeter.
Iscalis, a towne in Somerset shyre called Ilchester.
Ischia, æ, fœ. g. the huckle bone. It is sometyme taken for the ache in the said bone, which vulgar phisitions doo call Sciatica.
Ischiadicus, vel Ischiacus, a, um, that hath the ache in the hyppe, commonly called Sciatica.
Ischias, chiadis, f. g. the ache in the huckle bone.
Ischuros, idem quod fortis, stronge.
Ischomache, the name of Hipodamia.
Iscia, idem quod Isatis.
Iscopolis, a citee of Capadocie called Tripolie.
Isiacus, i, the preest of the goddesse Isis.
Isis, a certaine plaister, holsome against melancolie.
Isis, called also Io, one of the harlottes of Jupiter, whom he tourned into a cowe for feare of Juno his wyfe.
Isinum, ni, n. ge. a certayne puddynge, some call it an pisynge.
Ismael, was the soonne of Abraham by Agar his wyues mayden, of whom the Sarazens be called Ismaelitæ, as they bee called also Agareni.
Ismarus, i, m g. & plur. Ismara, orum, a mountayne in Thracia.
Ismene, the daughter of Oedipus.
Ismenias, the name of an excellent mynstrell, whiche played on the shaulmes.
Ismenides, the women of Thebes.
Ismenus, a ryuer in the cuntrete of Bœotia, named of Ismerus, the soonne of Pelasgus.
Isocinnamon, mi, neu. gen. an herbe called also Daphnois.
Isocolon, where two sentences are in like length.
Isocrates, the name of a famous oratour, of wonderfull eloquence, out of whose schoole proceded the most excellent orators of Grece.
Isodomon, a fourme of buyldyng, where euery thyng is equally streyght.
Isonomia, æ, fœ. g. equalitee of lawes, as where they bee indifferente to all maner of persons.
Isopleuros, thre edged.
Isopyron, ri, neu. gene. an herbe called of some Phaselium, and hath leaues lyke annise.
Isostathinos, a confection against the cough.
Ispalis, a citee in Spayne called nowe Sivile.
Ispolum, a citee of the Allumbrians, called now Ispellum.
Israel, signifieth a man seyng god. also the name of Jacob the patriarke, and the people of the Jewes were called by that name. Howe be it sometyme it was attributed onely to ten tribes, the tribes of Juda and Beniamin, beyng seuered from them.
Issa, an Ile in the Venecian sea, lopngynge to Slauonie.
Issus, a citee in Sicile, and a ryuer of Syria.
Iste, ista, istud, this or that.
Ista ipsa de re, of the verye same matter, e
Istæc, this waie.
Ister, a great ryuer called Danubius, in Dutche Donowe. It cometh out of an hyll in Germanie, called of Plinie Noba, of Ptolomee Abnoba, of Tacitus Arbona. It receyueth into it thre score riuers, wherof the more part be nauigable, and renneth by Swaue, Bauer, Austrike, Hungarie, Walachia, and so throughout Europa, and falleth into the sea called Pontus in seuen sundry places, as Solinus and Mela write. But Plinius and Tacitus allowe but fiue. Herodotus, Arrianus and other but fiue, while it is in Germanie, it is called Danubius, and whan it cometh into a parte of Thracia called Istria, where it is broder, it is than called Ister.
Isthmus, mi, m. ge. a narowe parte of the cuntrey, where two seas are but a small distaunce asunder, enclosyng the lande on both syders. In suche a place is sette the citee of Lamithus in Grece. There be diuers suche places in Grecia, and of them were certayne places called Isthmia.
Istic, there where thou arte.
Istic, istæc, istoc, for iste hic, ista hæc, istud hoc.
Istæc res est, the matter is euen as you saie.
Istinc, from that place, from there.
Isto, thyther.
Istoc, out of this place.
Istonium, a towne of Italy called Gnata.
Istorsum, thytherwarde.
Istria, æ, a parte of Italie, marchyng on Illiria, called nowe Slauonie.
Istuc, for Istud.
Isus, the sonne of Priamus.

I ANTE T.

ITA, an aduerbe of auntweryng or affirmyng, and sometyme signifieth yea, sometyme so, so muche.
Ita est, euen so it is.
Ita loquor, yea so I saye, yea I assure you that it is so.
Ita aiunt, so men saie.
Ita me deus amet, so god loue or helpe me.
Itane? but is it so? or is it as thou saiest? also it signifieth a note of disdeigne.
Itane contemnor abs te? Dooest thou so litell by me?
Itane beatus quidem est? Is he therefore thus happy?
Ita negotium est? so the case requyreth, so the busynesse requireth.
Ita opus est facto, so muste it be doone.
Ita sane, yea truely.
Ita vt erat, as it was in deede.
Ita vt fit, as it happeneth.
Dum rus eo, cœpi egomet mecum inter viam, ita vt fit, vbi quid in animo est molestiæ aliunde, eam ex alia cogitare, whan I went downe into ito the countrey, by the waie, as it happeth ften tymes, whan any displeasure cometh to y mynde, I bethought me of one thynge and ther.

ta est homo, suche is the mans nature, suche
s his faction. Likewise, Ita ingenium eius fuit.
ta animatus fui, I was in the mynde, I was o mynded.
ta enim vero, yea verely.
ta inquam, so I tell you.
ta vestra est benignitas, so benigne and gen-tyll ye be.
ta ingenio sumus omnes, wee bee all of this nature.
ta erat res, the matter stode so, suche was the case.
ta nunc viget mos, so the faction is nowe.
Non ita multi fuerunt, there was not suche a great number.
Non ita valde, not so greatly.
Non ita dissimili sum argumento, the argument and summe of them bothe is not muche vnlyke.
Non ita multo post, shortely after, a lyttell whyle after.
Ita fabro est, it is so sodeynely.
Ita prorsum oblitus sum mei, I am so cleane beside my selfe.
Ita vti esset filia, euen as though she had ben myne owne daughter.
Ita nati sumus, we be so borne, or we be borne to that, or to that ende.
Ita, sometyme for Igitur, or Italy.
Itaq, penul. cor. wherfore than, and therfore.
Itaque, and so.
Italia, a noble countrey, whiche is inuironned on the weste with the mountaynes Alpes, on the northe with the sea Adriaticum: on the easte and the southe with the sea Mediterraneum, and Fretum Siculum: it also conteyneth these regions, Liguria, Ethruria, Vmbria, Flami-nea, Latium, Aprutium, Campania, Apulia, Venetia, Picenum, Gallia Cisalpina, called Lumbardie, the length therof (after Plinie) is. 1020 miles: the breadth in some place betweene the two seas. 410. miles. it was some-tyme named Magna Græcia, because it was inhabited with Grekes, as Myrsilus writeth.
Solinus resembleth the figure therof to an oken leafe, stondyng more in length than in breadth, towarde the ende beyng diuyded, as it were into two hornes, wherof the one lyeth towarde the sea Ionium: the other loketh to the narow sea of Sicile, called Fretum Siculum: in the narrowest place it passeth not in breadth. xx.
myles.
Italica, a citee in Italia, whiche by an other name is called Corfinium. There is an other in Spain, where Silius Italicus was borne.
Italicensis, a citesin of Italica.
Italicus, a, um, of Italie.
Italus, an Italian.
Itea, called also Salix, the kindes of willow.
Item, in lyke maner, so, also, euen as, afterward.
Iter, iteris, or itineris, neu. ge. a iourney, also a waie, a goyng. Sometyme an intente, entere prise, or pourpose.
Iter habeo ad Cæsarem, I take my iourney to the emperour.
Iter conficere, to perfourme a iourney, to go or ryde a iourney.
Iter facere, to go a iourney.
Iter diei, a dales iourney.
Iter deuium, a die waie.
Accelerare iter, To make spede forwarde on his iourney.
Longum iter agere, to make a great voiage, to go a longe iourney.
Supremum iter carpere, to die.
Iter necessarium eo die illi erat Lanuuium, nedes he must goe that day. &c.
Iter aquarium, id est, meatus, conductes.
Comparare se ad iter, to prepare hym selfe to go out of towne.
Iter eo contuli, I went thither.
Conficere iter pedibus, to iourney or goe on foote.
Iter habet Capuam, he wyll goe to Capua.
Nobis iter est, we muste goe.
Esse in itinere, to be on the waie iourneying.
Ingredi iter equo, to iourney, or take his iour-ney on horse backe.
Iusta itinera, whole iourneyes.
Iter pronum ad honores, an easie or redie waie or meane to honour.
Ire nostris itineribus, to go the waie that we haue gone, to folowe our faction or trade.
Itinera loci alicuius, holes or caues in any place.
Iteratio, ônis, for. g. a repetition, a renewyng, a begynnynge againe also the seconde earyng or castyng vp of the grounde. sometyme the seconde pressyng of Oliues, and the oyle that cometh of the seconde pressyng.
Itero, iteras, âui, âre, to doo a thyng eftsoones, to go backe againe, to renewe, to repete, to dwe or saie againe, to begyn a fresshe, to iterate.
sometyme to goe.
Aequor iterare, to saile againe, to make a new viage on the sea.
Iterare verba, to repete woordes againe.
Sæpe iterando eadem, with often repetyng one thyng.
Iterare campum, terram, agrum, pro iterum proscindere, arare, To tyll or caste vppe the grounde againe.
Iterum, eftsoones or again, the second tyme.
Iterum ac tertium nominaui, I named hym twise or thrise.
Iterum consul, consull the second tyme.
Iterum & sæpius, more than ones or twyse, sixtentymes.

Ithaca,

Ithaca, an yle, lyenge before Ithasis, & was Ulisses countrey, therof called Ithacus.
Ithacesius, a, um, of Ithaca.
Ithome, a towne in Peloponeso, an other in Thessalie.
Ithonea, or Ithonia, a citee of Boeotia, of the whiche Pallas was called Ithonia.
Ithyphallus, the name of Priapus, the moste dishonest and abhominable idoll. Also ithyphalli, were dishonest persons, whiche in honourynge theyr idoll Bacchus, daunced, haupng betweene theyr legges membres of horrible greatnesse.
Ithyra, a towne in the mountayne of Taurus towarde Parthia.
Ithyreus, a, um, of Ithyra: somtyme of Parthia.
Ithyreæ sagittæ, arrowes of the Parthians.
Ithytherion, Iuie.
Itiadendros, the herbe Hippuris.
Itidem, so lykewyse, after the same sorte or faction, semblably.
Vt hoc tibi doleret itidem, vt mihi dolet, that this thynge dyd greue you as muche as it greueth me.
Itidem vt cognata si sit, euen as thoughe she were my kynswoman.
Itinerárium, rij, n. ge. a comentarie or booke of remembraunce, cõteynyng thynges committed in iourneys. Also it is a calender of myles in the distaunce of places, with the tyme of abode in euery place, lyke to testes of princes.
Itio, ónis, f. ge. a goyng, a comyng.
Obuiam itio, a meetyng.
Ito, aui, are, to go muche or often.
Itrion, rij, swete calabred.
Iturissa, a citee of Spayne.
Itvrea, a region in Arabia or Syria, of which the people are called Ituræi.
Itus, us, m. g. idem quod itio, onis.
Quid noster itus & reditus? what our goyng and comyng?
Itymoneus, a valiaunt man, the sonne of Hyperchus.
Itys, the sonne of Tereus and Prognes, who (as poetes feygne) was toorned into a pheasaunt. Erasmus saith, Itys is a byrde, called Phasianus of Phaside, a ryuer of Scythia.

I ANTE V.

IVba, the name of a beast. also the name of a kyng of Mauritania.
Iuba, bæ, fœm. gene. the maane of a horse or other beaste.
Iuba gallinaceorum, The soft feathers in a cockes neche lyke a maane, whan he holdeth vp his heade.
Iubar, iúbaris, n. g. a sterre, whiche is also called Hesperus and Lucifer. it is somtyme taken for brightnesse, a soonne beame, somtyme the noblenesse of a prince or great man.
Iubatus, a, um, that hath a maane.

Iubeo, iussi, iubére, to commaunde, to desyre, wyshe, to exhorte, to decree, to ordeyne, to appoynte.
Iubeo te saluére, god saue you, I wyshe you well to fare.
Dionysium iube saluére, commende me to Dionyse, salute Denyse in my name.
Iubeto habere animũ bonum, bidde hym haue a good hert: or dyd hym be of good chere.
Iube matrem sperare, bidde my mother haue a good hope in the matter.
Iúbilo, áui, áre, to declare in the voyce the ioye and gladnesse of the herte, whyche maye not be expressed with wooydes.
Iubilátus, us, m. g. a cryng out, a shoute.
Iubilum, li, n. ge. ioye and gladnesse in voyce, or with a shoute, not expressed in wooydes.
Iucundè, merily, gladly, pleasaunt ly, delicately, sweetely.
Iucúnditas, átis, fœm. ge. delectacion, pleasure, reioysynge.
Dare se iucunditati, to geue hym selfe to pleasure myrthe or ioylitee.
Iucundor, áris, ári, to be ioyous and mery.
Iucundus, a, um, that whiche is the cause that an other reioyseth, delectable, pleasaunt to se or here. also louyng.
Odor iucundus, a pleasaunt and delectable sauour.
Iucundi agri, goodly and pleasaunt fieldes, that delite a man to beholde them.
Iudæa, a countrey in Asia, which hath on the west Mare Cyprium: on the nozth Phœnice and Syria: on the easte Arabia: on the southe the lande of Aegypte. it receyued that name of Judas, the sonne of Jacob the patriarche, where vpon it was called Chananæa of Chananæus, the fourthe sonne of Cham.
Iudæi emplastrum, a salue layde to a sore heade.
Iudæi, not onely the people of Judea, but also they be so called, whiche doo obserue theyr superstition. They were expelled out of thys realme of Englande in the tyme of kynge Richarde the fyrst, for theyr crucifier in despyte of christen children, lyke as they haue ben out of Fraunce and Spaine: and nowe of late out of Portugall: which now bee suffered eche soones to repayre hyther, and here to inhabite vnder a counterfaite colour of faythe, wherby no lyttell corruption is happened in our religion by their secret woorkyng, many of them beynge phisitions of the body, but prime murderers of christen mens soules, as it wyll ones more plainely appere, to our no lyttell perill, shame and dishonour, excepte god wyll shortely put into the hertes of gouernours to remembre what mortall and naturall hatred the killers of our saviour, and his obstinate ennemies and blasphemours haue borne alwaie towarde vs: prayeng in theyr Synagoges for our destruction: & after dente ones gotten, vnder the cloke of phi ke, wilfully and iopously kylleth vs.

icus, a, um, of Iudea.
icus lapis, called also Terolithos, a stone unde in Iudea, whiche is of the quantitee
d figure of an akozne, oz of an olive (as Sos nus writeth) white and kayze, with an ozder f lines so correspondent, that they seme to be wought with the hande and tourne. Albers
s mineralium, libr. i. calleth it Cægolites.
ex, iudicis, com. g. a iudge.
udex ordinarius, He that hath authozitee of is pzopze iurisdiction, to sitte in iudgement without commission, as the chiefe iustice of Eng lande, the mayze of a citee incozpozate, and a bozoner.
udex delegatus, he that sitteth by commission,
as all other iudges and iustices.
Iudex obnoxius gratiæ, that will be partiall.
Sedere iudicem in aliquem, To bee iudge in ones cause.
Constituere iudicem, to appoynct a iudge, to examyne oz trie a mattier.
Iudicatus, a, um, iudged.
Homo iudicatus, a man condemned.
Iudicatio, ônis, fœm. gener. the question come in iudgement. sometyme iudgeyng oz sentence geuyng.
Iudicatò, an aduerbe, whiche signifieth with a iudgement oz consyderation.
Iudicatum, ti, neu. gene. the thing iudged oz de termined.
Iudicatum facere, to obey the sentence oz iud gement.
Iudicâtus, us, mas. gene. iudgement, authozitee to iudge.
Iudiciâlis, le, of a iudge, oz pertenyng to iud gements.
Iudiciârius, a, um, pertenyng to a iudge, oz that whiche is to be iudged.
Iudiciaria controuersia, where the iudges dwe not agree in one opinion.
Lex iudiciaria, a lawe made foz iudges and iudgementes.
Quæstus iudiciarius, gayne that the iudge hath by sellyng of his sentence, bzibes.
Iudicium, ci, n. gene. iudgement, examination, suite, also a sentence oz opinion.
Iudicia legitima, iudgementes geuen accoz dyng to the determyned law writen, oz by aun cient custome appzoued.
Iudicia publica, iudgementes geuen by them, whiche be called iudges, and haue places cer tayne, and dooe not renue theyz commission, as the iudges of the kynges benche and com mon place.
Iudicium capitis, iudgemẽt in causes criminall.
Iudicium dare, to graunt a commission to here and determine a mattier.
Iudicium rescindere, to reuerse a iudgement.
Iudicium habere de aliquo, to haue an opinio of one. Also Iudicium habere, to haue respecte, consyderation oz regarde of a thyng.
Iudicio perfundere, to bzyng one to the point to be condemned.
Iudicium accipere, to take on hym to defende
ones cause.
Adzcere in iudicium, to accuse, to bzyng be foze a iudge.
Iudicium agi dicitur, whan the iudge is exa mynyng the mattier.
Deferre iudiciũ à subsellijs in rostra, to bzing
a mattier from the iudges to the people.
Exercere iudicium, To sit in iudgement and examination of mattiers.
Pronuntiare iudicium, to pzounce his sen tence oz opinion.
Iudicium non reddere, whan the magistrate wyll not receyue a mãs suite oz pzocesse, oz wyll not here his cause.
Meum iudicium fuit, myne opinion was, I thought this.
Si flexerit iudicium suum, if he become vncon stant and chaunge his opinion.
Limatum & politum iudicium, an exacte and fyne iudgement.
Suum iudicium interponere, to geue his iud gement, to tell his aduise.
Confligere iudicio, to contende oz sue one an other in the lawe.
Iúdico, âui, áre, to iudge, to deeme, to suppose, to geue sentence, to condemne.
Iudicaui animo meo, I thought in my mynd.
Iudicare & perpéndere.
Ex aliorum ingenio me iudicat, he iudgeth me by the nature oz disposicion of other.
Pecuniæ iudicatus, condemned in a certayne summe of money, oz in a fozfaiture.
Sub formula iudicare, to minister iudgement accozdyng to the rigour of the lawe.
Iudicassit, foz iudicauerit.
Iuernia, Irelande.
Iugâlis, le, that is poked.
Iugale, vinculum, the bonde of matrimonie, wedlocke.
Iura iugalia, lawes of matrimonie.
Iugales, hozses coupled together.
Iugamentum, ti, n. ge. a thyng that fasteneth oz
coupleth lyke a poke.
Iugâtus, a, um, poked, ioygned, coupled.
Iugata vitis, a vine rennyng on a frame.
Iugantinus deus, was among Paynims the god, whom they supposed to haue authozized ouer
the ridges of hylles.
Iugârius, rii, ma. gen. he that dziueth a ploughe with oxen, oz a waine. also a streete in Rome, where was an aultar of Iuno, at the whiche, if any were wedded, they supposed that matrimo nie to be most surely ioygned.
Iugâtio, ônis, f. g. a certaine rent payed foz euery acre of ground: from whiche paiment none can be quited, but by the pzince.

Iugatórius, a, um, that is poked to drawe.
Iugeratim, by sundry furlonges.
Iúgere, to erie lyke a kyte.
Iúgerum, iugeri, vel iugeris, à nominatiuo Iuger, datiuo iugero, accusatiuo, & vocatiuo iugerum, ablat. iugero, & iugere, plur. nom. accus. & voca. iugera, gen. iugerum, dati. & ablat. iugeris vel iugeribus, as muche ground as one yoke of oxen wyll eare in a date. Columella saieth it conteyneth in length. 240. fote, in breadth. 120. whiche multiplied one with the other, conteyneth. 28800. feete. It may be vsed for our acre, which conteineth muche more, as in breadth lower perches, that is. 66. fote: in length. 40. perches, that is. 640. fote, whiche multiplied riseth to. 43560. fote.
Iuges, oxen lyke in greatnesse, called yokes or payres.
Iugis, continuall.
Fons aquæ iugis, a well that alwaie springeth, that is neuer drie, likewise Iugis puteus.
Iúgiter, continually, alwaie.
Iuglans, andis, f. g. a wall nutte.
Iugo, aui, are, to yoke or couple together.
Iugósus, a, um, ridged, full of ridges.
Iúgula, læ, f. g. a celestiall signe called Orion.
Iúgulo, aui, are, to slea, not onely with weapon, but also with spitefulnesse.
Transfertus ad inanimata: Scelus est iugulare falernum: Marti.
Quartana neminem iugulat, the feuer quartaine sleaeth no man.
Iugulare mortuos, to kyll deade men: a prouerbe applied to them, whiche doo speake or write to the rebuke of men that are drade, or (as Erasm⁹ doeth thynke it more apte) it maie bee saied by them, that impugne a booke, whiche is of all men condēned or reasoneth against a sentence of all men reiected: or dispraiseth a thyng, whiche is of all men abhorred.
Hominem suis verbis iugulare, to catche and confute one in his owne woordes.
Iugulare suo gladio, idem.
Iugulare plumbeo gladio, to conuince with a weake argument.
Iugulátio, ónis, f. g. a sleapng or kyllyng.
Iugulum, li, neu. gen. or Iugulus, li, m. ge. the fore parte of the necke, whiche is diuided into two great sinewes, Dexter & sinister.
Iugulum ferire, to slea, properly in the necke.
Iugulum petere, whan an orator or a man of lawe toucheth vehemently the poynete of the matter: and with manifest and fore argumentes and reasons, semeth to assaute and oppresse the contrary parte, as it were with sharpe weapons.
Dare iugulum, to offre the necke.
Ostentare iugulum, pro capite alicuius, to put his lyfe in daunger for ones safegarde, Iugum, gi, n. ge. a yoke, a couple of oxen yoked together. also the ridge of an hyll or banke. also the beame, wheron weauers doe tourne their webbe. Also a thyng lyke to a galowes, vnder the whiche in signe of reproche, they that were vanquyshed, were constreygned to crepe, whiche was made with two speares standyng, and one speare ouerthwarte. also a frame, wherein vines are sopgned: also a beame, wheron balances doo hange. also the syde beames in a shyppe, in the whiche the transomes are fastened: or rather the seates, wheron the rowers sitte. it is also a rolle of rymber, wherein the imbroderer or woorker of carpettes doeth rolle vp the thyng, that he woorketh on. It is also the signe called Libra. sometyme as much ground as two oxen can eare in one daie: by translation it is taken, for seruitude or bondage.

Iugo subdere, to yoke.
Iugum subire, to be yoked.
Iugum aquilarum, a couple of egles.
Iugum impiorum, a couple of naughty parties confederated together.
Demere iuga fatigatis bobus, To vnyoke weerie oxen.
Ciuitatis iugum deiicere a ceruicibus, to set at libertee.
Pari iugo niti, whan two labour willyngly together with lyke prynes and diligēce.
Iugum accipere, to take the labour or bonde seruitude, to be in subiection vnder one.
Iugurtha, a kyng of Numidia.
Iugurthinus, a, um, of Iugurtha.
Iulep, a clarified potion.
Iuli, are the moslynesse or softe heares, which doe growe on the beardes and visages of younge men, before they be shauen. Sometyme it signifieth the same young men.
Iulia, a kynrede, whiche proceded from Ascanius, soonne of Eneas called Iulus. also a towne in Cales in the countrey of Spayne.
Iuliânus, a, um, and Iulius, a, um, and Iúleus, a, um, of Iulius, or of the monthe of July.
Iuliani milites, id est, Cæsariani. kyndred of Iuliani anni, and Iuliana Vectigalia.
Iúleæ voces, pleasaunt and sweete voyces.
Iulióbona, Hounflete in Fraunce.
Iulióbriga, a towne in Spaine called Logroina.
Iuliómagus, Angiers in Fraunce.
Iulis, a citee in the ile of Cea, the countrey of Simonides the poete. also a kynde of fyshe.
Iulium Carnicum, a citee in the dukedome of Austriche.
Iulius, the moneth of July, which toke his name of Julius Cesar.
Iulus, as Varrius writeth, is that, whiche clusereth fast to a hasyll nutte or filbert, clusterwise in a compact hardnesse, and as it were a bearded longe sinewe hangyng by one stalke.
Iulus, otherwyse named Ascanius, the sonne of Eneas. Julus is also a kyndell woorme with many feete, breedyng in vines and okes, whiche is also called Conuoluolus, Inuoluolus, and Iolula: it is also the moysnesse of the outward part of fruites. also the pong fruite immediatly after that the floures bee fallen. Iuuula is also a kythe, whiche is guyde vnto whales, whiche also is called Vegetus. It is moze ouer a longe dedicate to Diana.

Vol

ncentum, ti, n. g. euery beaste that dzaweth oz beareth bourdeyns. also a lyttell carre.

ncentarius, a, um, that belongeth to cattell.

Mola iumentaria, a hozse mylle.

ncidus, a, um, thyn, shlender lyke a bulle rusche.

ncinus, a, um, of a bulle rusche.

ceus, a, um, that is made of bulle rusches. also thynne and shlender, and lyke the facion of a bull rusche.

ceum, ti, neu. gen. a place where bulle rusches growe.

ico, ônis, f. g. a byzd, called a redde sparow, some what lesse thyn a sparow, with a lõg taile, a blache heade, and the residue duskie.

cõsus, a, um, full of bull rusches.

ctim, iopnctly.

ctio, ônis, f. g. a iopnynge.

ctura, æ, f g. a iopnynge oz couplyng together.

ctus, a, um, iunged, coupled.

Iuncti matrimonio, maried together.

Quintio iunctus hospitio, verate familiar with Quintius, by reason that he was often lodged in his house.

nculi, meates called iunkettes. Also a freshe cheese made on rusches, called a iacheman.

ncus, ci, m. g. a bull rusche.

ncus odoratus, is of two sozres: one is of Plinie called Triangularis: of Dioscozides Inguolosus: of Theophrastus Cyperus: the stalke is littell and red, and if it bee bzuised, it smelleth lyke to a rose: the best groweth in Arabia and Nabathea: the worst groweth in Africa. An other sozte is rounde, and hath floures, whiche be medicinable: and it is of the apothecaries called Squinantum. Reade in Dioscozides, in englishe Squinant.

ngani, people in the countrey of Liguria.

ngo, iunxi, gere, to iopne, to couple, to poke.

Iungere vulpes, To poke oz couple foxes: a prouerbe signifying to doo a thyng, whiche is impertinent, oz without any reason.

Affinitates iungere, to make alliaunce by mariage one with an other.

Iungere equos ad currum, to put the hozse in the carte.

Arma Rutulis iunxit, he iopned his power, oz toke parte with the Rutulians.

Fœdera iungere, to make a leage oz alliance.

Oscula iunxerunt, they kyssed eche other.

uniculus, li, masc. gene. a longe twygge of a vine, whiche dooeth shoote out of length, and wolde be laied on a frame, it is otherwise called Draco.

unior, the comparatiue of iuuenis, younger.

uniperus, ri, f. g. a swete bushe called Iuniper.

Iunix, nicis, f. g. a younge coowe oz heifar.

Iunius, a prozre name of the Romains, as Iunius Brutus, Iunius Columella. It is also a moneth called June. Foz whan Romulus had first diuided the people into olde men & young, called in latine Maiores & Minores, he honoured theim with two moneths, callyng the one Maius, oz Maie: the other Iunius, of young men called in latine Iuuenes.

Iuno, was daughter of Saturne and Opis, sister and wyfe of Iupiter, called also Hera.

Iuno moneta, sone after that kynges were expelled out of Rome, there was a great earth quake at whiche tyme there was heard in the Capitoll, out of the chapell of Iuno, a voyce, warnyng them, that they shulde make a full pacification of hir wzathe, and so doyng the earth quake ceassed. Of that warnyng, whiche in latine is Monitio, she was called Iuno Moneta: and to the honour of hir was made one chapell in the Capitoll by Camillus, an other on the hyll called Iuentinus, wherin was set hir idoll brought from the citee called Veiæ, destroied by the Romaines: bothe these chapelles were called Ædes Iunonis Monetæ.

Iunonius, a, um, of Iuno.

Iunonicolæ, the surname of the Phalisicians.

Iunonigena, the surname of Vulcan.

Iunonia, one of the iles called insulæ fortunatæ.

Iupiter, Iúpitris, oz Iupiteris, after Prisician, not Iouis, whiche cometh of the nominatiue case Iouis: the sonne of Saturnus & Opis, kyng of Creta, who dzaue his father out of his realme, and was a man valyaunt and wyse, but euer dyngly geuen to lecherye, in deflourynge as well maydens as wyues. Not withstandyng for his prowesse and witte, after his deathe, he was of all the grekes honoured for a god, and called father and kynge of goddes. His name was in suche estimacion amonge the gentyles oz paynims, that they gaue to hym soueraintee in all thynges: In so muche as they also named hym god of hospitalitee. And therfore whan any thyng was violated, eyther by the good man of the house, oz by his gueste, they called on Iupiter Xenius: whan truste in frendeshyp was broken, they called to take vengeaunce Iupiter Philius: whan companions betrayed one an other, Iupiter Heterius, whan kynsmen, Iupiter Homoginus: whan they whiche were in league together deceyued eche other, than cried they Iupiter Enliorcius.

Iura, a mountayne in Fraunce, whiche dyuideth byghe Burgoyn from Swyzerlande.

Iuramentum, ti, n. g. an othe.

Iurâtus, a, um, that hath swozne.

Iurandum, di, n. g. idem quod iusiurandum.

Iurato, with an othe.

Iuratus est mihi, id est, iurauit.

Iurisconsultissimus author, a learned wryter of good credence.

Iureiurare, idem quod iurare.

Iurátor, ôris, m. gen. one that ſweareth, he that witneſſeth a thyng to be true with an othe.

Iurgiôſus, a, um, bſaulyng, full of contencion.

Iurgium, gi, neu. g. a bſaulyng oꝛ a ſmall contencion.

Iurgo, aui, áre, to bſaule oꝛ chyde.

Iurgor, áris, ári, idem.

Iuridiciâlis, le, belongyng to the lawe.

Iuridicus, a, um, accoꝛdyng to the lawe, oꝛ belongyng to the lawe.

Iuriſconſultus, ti, m. g. a lawier, an interpꝛetour of the lawe.

Iuriſdictio, ônis, f. gen. iuriſdiction, power, oꝛ authoꝛitee to miniſtre and execute lawes, as diuers citees and countreys haue by the grantes of emperoures and kynges.

Iuriſperitus, ti, m. g. idem quod iuriſconſultus.

Iuro, áui, áre, to ſweare.

Iurare aras, poëtice, foꝛ aris tactis iurare.

Iurare in leges alterius, to ſweare to keepe the lawes oꝛ ordinaunces of an other.

Iurare in verba alterius, to dooe fealtee, oꝛ to be ſwoꝛne a ſubiecte to one.

Conceptis verbis iurare, To take a ſolemne othe, the wooꝛdes thereof beyng recited to him that ſweareth, by an other.

Iurare alicui, to ſweare to be true to one.

In aliquem iurare, to conſpire a mans deſtruction oꝛ vndooyng.

Iurarunt inter ſe, they conſpired.

In hæc verba iurat ipſe ad idem iuſiurandum adigit Afranium, he ſwoꝛe after this foꝛme and maner. &c.

Iurulentus, a, um, full of iuyce, licour, oꝛ bꝛoth. alſo ſodden in pottage oꝛ bꝛothe.

Cibus iurulentus, ſtued meate.

Ius, iuris, neu. gen. lawe, as well of nature as ciuile and of cuſtome, auctoꝛitee, libertee, power, ryght: ſometyme the place, where the lawe is miniſtred.

Ius annulorum donare, was among the olde Romaines the ſame almoſte, that is nowe to make knyghtes.

Ius municipale, a pꝛiuate law oꝛ cuſtome, whiche a citee oꝛ towne hath with in it ſelfe foꝛ the good oꝛdꝛe of theyꝛ common weale.

Ius moribus conſtitutum, ryghte made of cuſtome.

Ius dicere, to geue iudgement, to miniſtre iuſtice.

Ius dicis, thou ſpeakeſt reaſon.

Ius bonum dicis, your requeſt is reaſonable. it is reaſon that ye ſaie, ye ſpeake reaſon.

Iure, with good cauſe.

Iure vel iniuria, by ryght oꝛ wꝛonge.

De iure meo, tuo, ſuo decedere, to omitte ſome parte of the rigour oꝛ extremitee of the lawe, oꝛ of that a man maie laufully dooe.

Summo iure agere, To take the extremitee of the lawe.

Ius eſt facere, it is lefull ſo to dooe.

Summum ius, the rigour of the lawe.

Iuris ſui eſſe, to bee ſubiecte oꝛ bounde to no man, to be at libertee.

Tametſi meo iure poſſum, although I maie by good ryght and authoꝛitee, and no man ſaie me naie.

Ius ſuum obtinere non poteſt, he can not obteyne his ryght, he can not haue iuſtice and reaſon in his affaꝛye.

Siculi hoc iure ſunt, the Sicilians haue this maner of lawe, oꝛ miniſtryng of iuſtice.

Ius naturale, a lawe oꝛ oꝛdinaunce pꝛocedyng of nature.

Ius gentium, a common lawe among all men, agreeyng to naturall reaſon.

Nundinatio iuris, ſellyng of ryght and iuſtice foꝛ money, bꝛiberie amonge iudges and maiſtrates.

Ius honorarium, oꝛ Prætorium, oꝛdinaunces added by the pꝛætoꝛs, eyther foꝛ the expoſition oꝛ makyng perfecte of the lawe ciuile.

Ius ſingulare, a ſpeciall oꝛ particular lawe in any certayne caſe.

Ius priuatum, a pꝛiuate lawe conteynyng the vtilitee of one perſone.

Ius facere, to dooe ryght. Alſo to be of the force of a lawe, oꝛ to be obeyed as a lawe.

Concedere in ius, ditionemq; alicuius, to become obedient and ſubiect to one.

Ius reddere, to miniſtre iuſtice.

Pari iure eſſe cum aliis, to bee ſubiecte to the lawe euen as other be, and to haue no more pꝛiuilege than other haue.

Ius petere ab aliquo, to bee vnder ones iuriſdiction.

Ius petis, fateor, it is reaſon and ryght that you requyꝛe, I graunt.

Optimo iure prædia, manoures oꝛ ſeruyces, that haue veraie good pꝛiuileges oꝛ franchiſes, and bounde to nothyng.

Meo iure agere, to dooe that I maie by my lawfull authoꝛitee, and no man ſaie me naie.

Ius, iuris, n. g. pottage, licour, bꝛothe, gruell.

Ius conditum, pottage well ſeaſoned.

Iuſculum, li, n. gen. bꝛothe, wheꝛein meate hath bene ſodden.

Iuſſulentum, ti, neu. gene. ſodden in pottage oꝛ bꝛothe.

Iuſſurandum, di, n. g. a ſolemne othe oꝛ pꝛomyſe made to god.

Iuſſurandum dare, to ſweare, to make an othe.

Iuſſurandum offerre, to pꝛoffre to take an othe foꝛ the confiꝛmation of a thyng.

Exigere iuſſurandũ, to require one to ſweare, to cauſe one to take an othe.

Interponere iuſſurandum, and firmare iureiurando, to ſweare, to confiꝛme with an othe.

Iuſſus, a, um, commaunded.

Iuſſus, us, maſ. gen. plural, iuſſa, oꝛum, a commaundement.

ſſam, ſi, n. g. a commaundement.
Iuſſa exequi, to dooe ones commaundement.
Iſa, órum, n. g. plu. ſacrifices dooen for deade men: now it maie be vſed for funerall exequies. Alſo ordinaunces or cuſtomes, meete, conuenient, or neceſſarie to be dooen.
Iuſta ſoluere, facere, peragere, is properly in funerall obſequies, to dooe and perfourme all thynges thervnto neceſſarie, or belongeyng.
Iuſtis exequiarum carere, to be buried withs out accuſtomed ſolẽnitees, or funerall pompe.
Iuſta reddere, to yelde or dooe his accuſtomed labour or taſke.
Iuſta operum peragere, idem.
Iuſta exigere, to vſe extremitee, to requyre the vttermoſt, to conſtreygne one to do his taſke to the vttermoſte.
Ad iuſta perducere, to bryngе by ſpttell and ſpttell to his ordinarie and accuſtomed labour and taſke.
Percipere iuſta, to receyue our due, or that that is appoynted and ordeyned for vs.
ſtè, iuſtely, laufully, ryghefully.
ſtò, idem.
Longius iuſtò, longer than neede is, or than is meete.
ſtificus, a, um, that maketh iuſtyce.
ſtinus, an emperour, comen of a poore hyne rede (his mothers brother Juſtinus emperour before hym beyng but a ſwyne hierde) ſucceeded his vncle at the age of. xliii. yeres in the empire, and gouerned it nobly the ſpace of xl. yeres, augmentyng it honourablie. He cauſed the lawes ciuile, diſperſed in infinite volumes, to be reduced into. 50. bokes (called the Digeſtes) and. iiii. bookes of Inſtitutes to be made, and likewyſe the Code, conteynyng the decrees of emperours, although he hym ſelfe knewe no letters. An excellent prynce, if he had not bene corrupted with auarice, and the hereſie of Eutichianus: he was after the incarnation of Chriſte. 570. yeres.
ſtitia, æ, f. g. iuſtyce, a perfecte vertue (as Ariſtotle ſaieth) referred to a ſecounde perſon, and therfore chiefe of all vertues, more wonderfull than the bryght ſterres Heſperus and Lucifer, comprehendyng in it all the partes of vertue: this is called Juſtice vniuerſall. But there is a more particular Juſtice, whiche in the lawe ciuile is deſyned to be a conſtaunt and perpetuall will, geuyng to euery man that belongeth to hym, whiche is called his ryght. more abounդantly hereof ſhall ye kynde in my worke called the Gouernour.
ſtitium, tij, neu. ge. a ceaſſyng for a tyme from miniſtracion of lawes in places iudiciall, a vacacion.
Iuſtitium edicere, to pronounce a vacation or ceaſſyng from the miniſtracion of the lawes.
Iuſtitium remittere, to ende the vacation, to begynne the terme.

Iuſtus, a, um, equall, meane betweene two extremitees, ryght, laufull: ſometyme fauourable, good, tractable. ſometyme it ſignifieth great, full, perfecte.
Iuſtus, a iuſte or rightous man, an vpryght and true meanyng man. It is taken often tymes, in holy ſcripture for a vertuous man or a good mã.
Iuſta pars, the great parte, the full or laufull parte. ſometyme it ſignifieth amonge lawiers, true or verate.
Iuſtus filius, his verate ſonne, or he that hath the whole or perfect ryght and tytle of a naturall ſoonne.
Iuſta magnitudo, neither great nor little, meane or indifferent biggnes.
Dies iuſti, a delate & tyme of. xxx. daies, geuen by the lawe to theim that were condemned, eyther by writyng, or their owne confeſſion, that they myght make redie their paiemẽt. Alſo. xxx. daies cõtinuall that a baner of redde dyd hange in the toppe of the caſtell, whyle an armie was gathered and warre indicted.
Iuſta ſeruitus, ſeruice without rygour.
Iuſtæ inimicitiæ, great hoſtilitee.
Iuſti honores, honours due.
Iuſto labore, with great labour.
Iuſtum teſtamentum, a laufull teſtament.
Iuſtus exercitus, a full or great armie, an armie roiall.
Iuſtum prælium, a ſtronge and great conflict, meete to be called a battaple.
Iuſtus hæres, a rygh'tous and laufull heire.
Iuſta claſsis, a full and perfecte naule.
Iuſtus dominus, the rygh'full poſſeſſour, maiſter or owner.
Iuſtus vas, a ſufficient ſuretie.
Iuſta & inaterfamilias and Pellex, contrary.
Iuſtam operam reddere, To wooyke his full taſke.
Iuturna, the ſyſter of Turnus.
Iuuámen, minis, n. g. helpe.
Iuuenália, plaies vowed for the helth of yong mẽ.
Iuuenális, le, pertεynyng to youth.
Iuuenalis dies, a date celebrated to youthe.
Iuuenalis, is alſo the name of a poete, whiche wrote Satyres.
Iuuenari, idem quod Iuuenéſcere, to playe youthely partes.
Iuuencus, & Iuuenca, younge, not onely men but alſo beaſtes, a ſteere or heyfer. And Iuuenculus a diminutiue of Iuuencus.
Iuuenéſco, ſcere, to ware or be younge.
Iuuenilis, le, ponge, pertεynynge to youthe.
Aetas iuuenilis, youthe, or after the faction of younge folkes.
Iuueniliter, youngely, lyke a younge man, chyldyſhely.
Iúuenis, a younge man.
Iúuenis, ne, an adiectiue. ſometyme for Iuuenilis.
Iuuenes anni, younge yeres.
Iuuenta, æ, f. g. youthe, idem quod Iuuentus.

Iuuentas, the goddesse of youthe.
Iuuentus; tûtis, f. ge. youthe. sometyme a multitude of yonge men. also the goddesse of youth.
Iuuerna, the olde name of Irelãde called of some Iuernia, & Hibernia.
Iuuo, iuui, âre, to healpe, to ayde, in the thyrde person, to delyte, to please.
Iuuat mihi, it dooeth me good. It is a pleasure to me.
Nec vnquàm quicquàm me iuuat, quod edo domi, that whiche I eate at home, dooeth me no good, or reioyseth me nothyng.
Iuuitũ me, hoc tibi profuisse, I was verie toyouse, that that thyng dyd profyte the.
Iuuare dolorem, to ease the grieke.
Iuuare auxilio, to helpe, to ayde.
Quando ita tibi iuuat, whan that it dooeth so please you, seyng you be so disposed.
Valde me iuuat, it greatly delyteth me.
Iuxta, a præpositiõ, nyghe, by, neere to, sometyme for simul or Coniunctim. sometyme for secundum or Post.
Iuxta Marcum Varronem doctissimus, excepte Varro, or neste Varro, of all other most excellentlie learned.
Iuxta, an aduerbe, euen lyke, accordyng, aswel, as well one as the other.
Nunc vero quo in loco res nostræ sint, iuxta mecum omnes intelligitis, nowe howe the matter standeth: ye all knowe as well as I. or els, in what case our businesse is: ye vnderstand all as muche as I dooe.
Iuxta boni maligni, strenui & imbecilles, euen lyke the good and the badde, the valiant and the vnwarlyke.
Iuxta hyeme atq; æstate bella gerere, to make warre as well in wynter as in sommer.
Spem ac metum iuxta grauatus, troubled as well with hope as feare, or bothe with hope and feare.
Fœminæ iuxta ac mares, as well males as females.
Iuxta acsi frater esset, euen as muche as though he had bene my brother.
Iuxta magnis difficilem, no lesse difficile or harde to atchyue, than matters of great weyght and importaunce.
Iuxta esse, to be familiar.
Iuxta cum ignarissimis, as lyttle as they that knowe leste.
Iuxtim, nighe to, neere by.

I ANTE X.

IXia, a certayne herbe called of some Camelion.
Ixion, a kyng of Thessalia, who falsely brake promyse with his wyues father, and threwe hym into a pytte of fyre. He also called by Iupiter vnto a feaste, styred Iuno to committe adulterie, whiche Iupiter perceyuyng, made a cloude lyke vnto Iuno, and delyuered her to hym, on whom he begate the people called Centauri. But whan he aduaunted, that he had companied with Iuno: he was dryuen downe into hell, and there bound to a wheele alwaies tournyng and full of serpentes, as portes seyng.
Ixioneus, a, um, of Ixion.
Ixionides Perithous, the sonne of Ixion.
Ixon, a great whyte byrd of the kynd of eaures.
Ixos, called in latine Viscum, in englyshe mistletoe, or mistledene.

I ANTE Y.

IYnx, Iyngis, fœ. gen. a byrde, called of some Torquilla, whiche hath a speckled necke, and a tongue lyke a serpent, asperde, or hikwop.

L ANTE A.

LABASCO, scere, & Labascor, ĕris, to fayle or decaye, to be feble to falle, to fayntе, to begynne to geue ouer.
Labascit, victus vno verbo, he fayneth or geueth ouer, and is ouercome with one poore woorde.
Labatus, a mannes name, often mencioned of Plutarche.
Labdacus, a kynge of Thebes, father of Laius, who was father of Oedipus or Edippus.
Labecula, læ, f. g. a litteli spotte or blemyshe.
Labefácio, labefacis, féci, fácere, to brake or destroye, to make weake, or feble.
Labefacere aliquem, To feare one from his purpose, to make one chaunge his mynde.
Labefacere fidem suam, to leese his credite.
Labefáctio, ónis, fœm. gene. a makyng to falle downe or out.
Labefacto, aui, are, to make feble or weke, to apayre, to subuerte, to corrupte, to destroye, to vndoo, to caste downe.
Labefactare fidem alicuius precio, to corrupte with bribery.
Labefactare & euertere rem publicam, to destroye and subuerte the common weale.
Labefactare aliquem, idem quod Labefacere aliquem.
Labellum, li, n. g. a lyppe. Also a caudron, a manner of lyttle fate or lyke vessell.
Labeo, a mans name.
Labeo, ônis, m. ge. a man hauyng great lyppes. also a netele called a blynde nettle.
Labeonia, æ, f. g. the herbe Marrubium.
Laberius, a poete, a gentyman of Rome.
Labes, bis, fœ. g. a great violence of water, tempest or hayle, or an horrible quake or gappyng of of the erth. Also a spot which sodeynly happeth to thynges that are smothe, and by translation, a faute, a vice, a destruction.

Labes conscientiæ, remorse or grudge of conscience.

Innocentiæ labes, corruption of honestee.

Labes reipublicæ, destruction, or confusion of the common weale.

Inferre labem alicui, To destayne ones honestee, to defame.

bm, æ, f. g. idem quod labium, after Nonius.

icanum, a towne in Italy.

ici, the inhabitauntes of that towne.

ienus, a noble man of Rome, capitayn vnder Cesar in Fraunce.

icus, was the name of the son of Minos, who was named also Glaucus.

bilis, le, vnstable, whiche wille soone falle, slyppertye.

bina, næ, f. g. slypperneste.

bio, is a fysshe, which I suppose to be in englysh called Codde with great lyppes. It was also the surname of a Romayn.

bium, bii, n. g. a lyppe.

bo, aui, are, to fall downe sodeynly, to feynt.

Dentes labant, the teethe fall out.

Genua labant, his knees falter vndernethe hym.

Sermone labare, to speake vnconstantly and as one were aferde.

Labant animi, theyr hertes faile theim.

Memoria labat, The memorye sayleth or deceaueth.

Vita labat, id est non recta est & integra.

bor, eris, lapsus sum, labi, to slyde, to dye, to fall, to fall downe by ygnoraunce and ygnoraunce, to deceaue, to fall in pouertee, to erre, to offend, to syn, to doo amysse, to crepe or goe, as a snake doth, to swymme, as an eele or lamprey sometyme to doe.

Tempora labuntur, tyme passeth awaye by ygnoraunce and ygnoraunce.

Pennis labitur, he flieth.

Labebar longius nisi me retinuissem, I was about to make further digression, or to go further from the purpose. Lapsus, deceyued of that he hoped for.

Labi imprudentia, To offende or doue amysse vnwares.

Labi mente, to falle madde.

bor, oris, m. g. labour or trauayle, and often in poetes, perill, daunger, calamitee, trouble.

Frangere se laboribus, to hurte hym selfe with labour.

Lunæ labores, the eclipse.

Imponere laborem alicui, to charge one with labour.

Insumere magnum laborem, To bestowe great labour or trauayle

Labori esse, to put to peynes or labour, to trouble.

Laborem impendere, to bestow labour.

Primos lucinæ experta labores, hauyng trauailed of her first childe.

Laborâtus, a, um, made with peyne, studye, and trauaile.

Laboriæ, the name of a countrete in Italy, vulgarly called Terra laboris, the land of labour.

Labôrifer, a, um, that susteyneth labour.

Laborinus, a fielde in Campania, where the stubble of corne is so great, that the people dwe bourne it in stede of woodde.

Laboriôsus, a, um, laborious, peynfull, full of labour, difficile, that can not be brought to passe without great labour.

Laboriosus homo, a peynfull man.

Laboriosum opus, a woorke that can not be brought to passe without great labour and trauayle.

Laboriosa deambulatio, a walkynge that wearyeth the body.

Laboriosæ exercitationes, peynfull exercises.

Laborioſe, peynfully, hardly, with great peyne.

Labôro, aui, are, to labour, to bee in heuynesse or grief, to be sycke or faynte, to be in danger.

Animo laborare, to be carefull.

Ex renibus laborare, To haue peyne in the reynes.

Fame laborare, to dye for hunger.

Fœnore laborare, to bee in debte by reason of vsurie.

Laborare frigore, to be almost dead for colde.

Ingenio laborare, to be troubled in witte.

Laborare iniuria, to suffre wronge.

Laborare morbo, to bee sycke.

Nihil laboro, I care not, I passe not on it.

Non laboro, idem.

Odio apud hostes laborare, & contemptui inter socios, To be hated of his ennemies, and not regarded of his frendes.

Laborare podagra, to haue the goute.

Vitiis laborare, to be vicious.

Laboratur vehementer, they studie diligently to bryng a matter to passe.

Nota infamiæ laborare, to haue an yll name.

Esse in labore, to labour.

Laborare in aliquo, to loue one ardently.

Laborare vtero, to trauayle of chylde.

Ac mundi moles operosa laboret, shuld trauayle or be in daunger of perysshyng: or shulde haue muche adoo to escape perysshyng.

Nec quarta loqui persona laboret, leat hym not be to busy.

Arma laborare, id est, laborando conficere.

Laborauí amari ab eo, I trauayled or endeuoured earnestly to wynne his fauour.

Laborat é dolore, she laboureth of chylde.

Laborat é dolore capitis, he is sicke or diseased with peyne in the head.

Laborare ex desyderio, to be verie desyrous.

Laborare ex inuidia, to be enuied or hated.

Vt is, cuius cornu in acie laboraret, that he, whose wyng of the battayle was the weaker, or that kynd dyd kepe or begyn to recule.

Si causa laboramus, yf our part in the matter be the wooꝛse: or if our cause or quarel be odious or nothyng pleasant or fauourable.

Hostibus externis laborare, to be greatly troubled, vexed, or combred with forreyne enemies.

Opinione arrogantiæ laborare, to be compted a proude and arrogant persone.

Re frumentaria laborare, to haue scarsitee of corne and grayne.

Nihil est quod labores, there is no cause why ye should be carefull, anxious, or troubled in mynde. Valde laboro, I am verie carefull and solicitous.

Quasi de verbo, non de re laboretur, As though the controuersie or contencion wer for the wooꝛde, and not for the thyng selfe.

Pestilentia laboratum est, There was a great pestilence.

Labrax, bracis, m. g. a certayne fische, with a wyde panyng mouth. Aristotle nombreth hym among them that lyue by praie and rauenyng. His tongue is bonie and cleaueth fast: his herte triangle. About Miletum, a citee of Asia, are many of these fisches very great. This fisch delyteth in freshe water. Some thynke it that fische, whiche in latine is called Lupus.

Labrôsus, a, um, that whiche hath a border, brymme or brynke.

Labrum, bri, n. g. a lyppe. also the brymme or brynke of a ryuer or fountayne. also a vat or lyke vessell to be layned in. sometyme a vat for wyne after it is pressed. It may be vsed for a keele vat, wherinto ale or biere is put. also a cesterne that receyueth water rennyng out of the cockes of cundites.

Labris primoribus attingere, to taste or saie.

Labrum superius, the vpper lippe.

Labrum Veneris, is taken for tasill, although Dioscorides dooeth not remembre, that it serueth to the vse of toukars, but assigneth that rather to other two herbes, the one called Hippophaes, or Hippophyes, and the other Hippophæstos.

Labrusca, æ, f. g. a wylde vine.

Laburnum, a tree growinge on the mountaynes called Alpes, the wood wherof is white and harde, and hath a flower a cubite in length, whiche no bee will touche, he groweth but in dyuers places, and hateth water.

Labyrinthus, a place made in suche wyse, that who so euer came into it, could not passe out without a verie perfect guyde, or without a threde leadyng hym, whereof the bottome or clewe should be lefte at the entree. Of this name were three principall places: One in Aegypte (by the patern wherof the other wer made) described by Herodotus (who writeth that he saw it) saiyng, that it was aboue the great poole called Myrios, toward the citee of Crocodiles. Strabo in his. xvii. booke calleth the said poole or mere Maris. Herodotus in Europe saith, that first there were. xii. halles couered, sixe toward the northe, & vi. toward the south, all inclosed with one wall. within the wall were houses in two diuers sortes: one sorte vnder ground, an other aboue ground ouer them, euery sorte beyng in numbre. 3500. The entrance (as he saith) he beheld, the nethermost he mought not be suffered to see: but as he herde by reporte of them, whiche saw it, he wrote. The ouermoste, whiche he dydde beholde, excelled all wooꝛkes of mens handes. for he went from a hall into parlours, from parlours into chambers, from chambers into other solars, and from parlours into other halles. The beame, which bare the flooꝛes, was of stone, wrought with imagerye, euery halle inuironed with pilers of white stone. In the ende of this Labyrinthus standeth a stone, large beneth, and smalle on the toppe, called Pyramis, whiche is of length. xl. pâces, in the whiche are wrought great images, and therat is the entrie vnder ground to the other Labyrinthus. In other Labyrinthus, was in Creta, made by Dedalus, by the commandement of Minos for a prison: but it was muche lasse than the other. But by diuers dooꝛes, entrynges and issuynges out, it deceiued theim, whiche cam into it. The thyrde was in Italy by a town called Clusium, made by kyng Porsena: and (as Plinie and Varro write) was of square stone, the sides. 30. foote brode, in height. 50. foote. Into the which who so euer wente, without a clewe or bottome of threde, coulde neuer retourne. On this place stoode. v. pyramides or steeples, one at euery corner, & one in the middle, euerie of them 150. foote high: on the toppes of them great bolles of brasse, and theron horses with wynges, from whiche dyd hang chaynes, hauyng belles at theim, which mened with wynde, rendred a sharpe sounde. also vpon the foure bolles of brasse stoode foure other pyramides of sharpe pilloure, whose height Varro durst not reherse, because it semed a thyng incredible. All these thynges were made by great kinges, whiche hauyng abundance of treasure, and lacking learnyng, dyd set their delite in suche vayne ostentation.

Labynetus, the sonne of Nictocris, quene of Babylon.

Lac, lactis, n. g. milke: and in Plautus sometyme Lacte in the nominatiue case.

Lac gallinaceum, the mylke of a henne, a prouerbe applied to theim, whiche lacke nothyng or to thynges, whiche for the scarcitee of theim, be verie precious.

Lactis coagulatio, Turnynge of milke to cruddes.

Lactis

Lactis abundantia, copia, fœcunditas, plentie of milke in womens breastes.
Bubulum lac, coow milke.
Humanum lac, womans milke.
Lacæna, a kynde of apparaile. also a woman of Lacedemonie.
Lacænus, a, um, of Lacedemonie.
Lacca, a certayne gumme.
Laccobriga, a citee of Spayne.
Laccia, æ, f. g. a kynde called a cheuyn.
Lacedæmon, a noble citee in Greece, called also Sparta, in the region of Achaia, the countrete is called Laconia.
Lacedæmónius, a, um, of Lacedemonie.
Lacer, & lacerus, a, um, torne or rent, mãgled in peces, dismembred, that hath lom part of the body torne or rent. Of olde writers Lacer was used for hym that had his eares pulled of.
Laceras gentes colligere, id est, sparsas.
Lacerátio, ónis, fœm. ge. a rentyng or tearyng, a mangleyng.
Lacerna, æ, f. gen. a facion of clokes, serueyng as well for men and women, poore and riche, as for souldiors in warfare. The Romans used them on their gownes to kepe them warme, whan they sat long in beholdyng playes.
Lacernátus, a, um, clothed, or cladde in suche a manet cloke.
Lacero, aui, are, to rent in pieces, to mangle and cut in pieces, to teare, to dismembre, to torment.
Lacerare diem, to lose the date, to spende the tyme about nought, to spend the day in vayn.
Comas, capillos, vra, vestem lacerare.
Lacerare vnguibus, to scratche.
Lacerare rem suam, To spende his gooddes prottouslp.
Lacerare famam alicuius, To speake and report yll of a man, to hurte and distreyne his good name.
Lacerari dolore, to be grieuously tourmented with sorowe and peyne.
Lacerare homines male suadendo, to bryng men in poueretee with yll counsayle.
Lacerare optimum virum incesto ore, with a naughtie and villanous toung to speake yll of a verale honest man.
Lacerta, tæ, f. g. or Lacertus, ti, m. g. a lisarde, an euet. also a certayn kynde of fysche.
Lacertósus, a, um, hauyng great brawnes and strong sinewes.
Lacertus, ti, m. ge. the arme from the elbowe to the wrelte of the hande, properly the brawne and sinewes of the arme.
Lacesso, siui, & cesi, ssere, to rente, or go about to rent the good renoume of a man. Also to prouoke, stirre, or egge a man to wrathe, displeasure, or contencion, with woordes, wrytyng, or acte, and is taken bothe in the good parte and the yll: to raple on a man, to priche a man with som yll language or act, sometyme to desyre instantly. also to tyngle as a mans body dooeth.
Stimulo iuuencum lacessere, to priche an oxe with a goade, and make hym draw.
Ciere & lacessere.
Lacessere ad pugnam, to prouoke to battail.
Lacessere maledictis, To tarre or prouoke to wrathe with yll woordes.
Sermones lacessere, id est, excitare, to raple bruite or communicacion.
Vah quibus illum lacerarem modis, Oh, how I would dismembre hym.
Sponsione lacessere, to prouoke one to sticke to the triall of a mattier, by layynge downe a gage or paune.
Lacessior, ris, ri, the passiue.
Lacessitus, a, um, prouoked, stirred, egged.
Lachanizo, ani, are, to be feble, weake, or feynt.
Láchanum, ni, n. g. all kynde of herbes, whiche serue for the potte called woztes: or after some a kynde of sepers made with herbes.
Lachanopoles, a seller of herbes.
Lachanopolium, the herbe market.
Lachesis, one of the three ladies called Parcæ, which poetes dyd feigne to haue the rule and continuance of mans lyfe.
Láchryma, mæ, f. g. a teare in weppng.
Lachrymas afferre, mouere, ciere, to make or cause one to wepe.
Lachrymas tenere, compescere, cohibere, comprimere, continere, To ceasse and leaue weppng, to wepe no more.
Dare lachrymas, to wepe.
Implere verba lachrymis, to wepe as he speketh, to wepe at euery woorde.
Hinc illæ lachrymæ, This is the cause of his weppng, or that moued hym to wepe, and properbially, this is the cause why he doeth it, or why he dooth complayne.
Lachrymæ arborum, the mopsture that dystilleth out of trees, and tourneth to gumme.
Lachrymabundus, a, um, weeppng, readye to wepe, weeppng ryght.
Lachrymábilis, le, lamentable, to be bewailed.
Lachrymátio, ónis, f. g. weeppng.
Lachrymationum salutæ, gumme that distilleth out of trees.
Lachrymationes oculorum, a disease whan the water standeth alwayes in ones eyes, as though he dyd weepe.
Lachrymans, antis, om. g. weeppng.
Láchrymo, aui, are, and Lachrymor, aris, ari, to wepe.
Lachrymare ex abitu amici, To wepe for his friendes departyng.
Num id lachrymat virgo? Dooeth the maiden wepe for that, or therfore?
Lachrymósus, a, um, full of teares, that prouoketh to wepe. also that that distilleth out mopsture lyke teares.
Fumus lachrymosus, smoke that maketh a man man to wepe.

Lachrymoſé, as though one dyd wepe.
Lachrymula, æ, f. g. a litle teare.
Laciburgium, a citee in Germany, called Roſtoiſtum.
Lacides, garmentes that be rent.
Lacinia, æ, f. g. a redde muſherom, whiche ſpryngeth at the roote of a cheſten tree.
Lacinia, æ, fœm. ge. gardyng of a garment, pro-pyely where the ſkyrtes be cut in ſundry facions, a hemme, a fringe.
In lacinias, in pieces, in iagges.
In lacinias diſtribui, to bee ſundred or ſette a parte, as cattell be whan ſome be infected.
Laciniâtus, a, um, that is garded, hemmed, or plaited.
Laciniâtim, diſparpled abrode.
Laciniôſus, a, um, cutte in ſundry facions, wyn-dyng and tournynge diuers wayes, iagged, full of plaites.
Lacinium, an elbowe of lande lyng betweene the ſea called Adriaticum, and the ſea Ionium.
Lacinius, a, um, of or belongyng to that pro-montorie.
Lacio, lacui, & lexi, lácere, to bryng into a ſnare, or to wynde one in, to deceyue hym.
Lacippo, a citee of Spayne.
Lacon, ônis, a man of Lacedemonie.
Laconia, the countreye where Lacedemone ſtandeth.
Lacónicus, a, um, of the countrete Laconia.
Laconicum, ci, n. ge. a hotte houſe or dry bayne.
Laconiſmus, mi, m. ge. a ſhorte kourme of ſpeak-ynge, conteynynge muche ſentence in a fewe wordes.
Lactâtus, us, m. g. geuyng ſucke or mylke.
Lactans, antis, om. gene. that hath mylke in the breaſtes or dugges.
Lactantia, is vſed of Celſus for all manier of meates made of mylke.
Lactarius, a, um, that maketh meate of mylke, that is made of mylke, and that bryngeth forth mylke of it ſelfe.
Lacteo, tére, to ſucke mylke.
Lactes, lactium, fœm. ge. plu. places within the ribbes of a man benethe the nauill, ſo tender, that it mate not ſuffre any wounde or ſtroke, as Prorbus ſaieth. Some ſaye that they bee caules, wherein the ſmall bowelles doo lye. After other, the ſmall guttes, by the whiche the meate paſſeth.
Lacteſco, ſcere, to be tourned into mylke, or to be filled with milke.
Lacteus, a, um, of mylke or lyke mylke. alſo that whiche is nourſhed with mylke.
Lacteus porcus, a ſuckyng pygge.
Collum lacteum, a neck as white as mylke.
Lacticinia, orum, neu. gen. white meates made of mylke.
Lactidiaci, they that be ſtryken about the nauill.
Lacto, aui, are, to geue ſucke, to feede with milke, alſo to deceyue with fayre wordes, to allure with fayre promyſes.
Lactôris, a certayne herbe, which is full of mylke. reade Plin. li. 24. cap. 13.
Lactúca, cæ, f. g. an herbe called letuce.
Lactucinij, the ſurname of certayn Romayns.
Lactúcula, læ, f. g. a lyttel letuce.
Lacûna, æ, f. ge. a dyche, wherin water ſtandeth, alſo a trenche, whereby fieldes are drayned. Some englyſhe it a ſinke, in pauyng a hole lower than any other place.
Lacuna, in wrytyng, is whan any thynge lacketh, as mendum, is that, whiche is corrupted or faulte.
Lacuna famæ, a blemiſhe in ones good name, infamie.
Vide, ne quæ lacûna ſit in auro, Se that there be nothyng of the monie lacking.
Lacunam explere, to fill a diche.
Lacûnam rei familiaris explere, To repayre and reſtore agayne a mans ſubſtance that was conſumed and ſpent.
Laculis, idem quod filix.
Lacunâtus, a, um, that hath diches or litle holes.
Lacûnar, âris, n. ge. a beame. alſo ſuche a thyng as dooeth yet hang in marchâtes houſes ouerth wart theyr halles, whereon be ſet a great num-bre of candels.
Lacûno, aui, are, to make diches or holes.
Lacunôſus, a, um, full of diches or holes, not euē.
Laculſculus, li, maſ. gene. a litle dyche or hole, a beame or planke.
Lacus, cus, or ci, m. gene. a poole or deepe place alwaie full of water, whiche is deuided into brookes and ryuers. alſo the veſſelle, whiche re-ceyueth wyne whan the grapes are preſſed. alſo the principall beame, that goeth ouerthwarte the houſe. ſometyme a planke.
Lacus Lemanus, Lolan in Peemountayne.
Lacuturres, great cabages.
Lacydes, a philoſophier of Cyrene.
Lada, the herbe, wherof Ladanum is made.
Ladas, a man, who ranne ſo ſwiftely, that on the ſande he left no print of his foote.
Ládanum, a gumme, whiche renneth from an herbe called Lada, or Ledum, whiche is com-monly called Labdanum, and is moſte vſed in pomaunders.
Ladon, a ryuer in Arcadia. alſo one of Icteons dogges.
Læander, a yong man, which for the feruente loue that he bare to a fayre mayden called Eros, vſyng to ſwym from Abidus to Seſtos, ouer the ſea called Helleſpontus, at the laſte was drowned, whom Eros beholdynge to be dead, threwe hir ſelfe into the ſea from a hygh towre: of whom Muſæus and Ouidius, in his epiſtles doo write.
Lædo, læſi, dere, to hurte or doo diſpleaſure.
Lædere famam, to hurte ones good name, to ſclaunder, to backebite.

Fidem lædere, to breake promise, to doo contrary to league and agreement.
Lædere maiestatem, To derogate any thynge of the kynges authorite or prerogatiue, to cõmitte treason.
Læsæ religionis culpa, hereſy or lollardy, contempt of religion or ceremonies.
Lædere aliquem iniuria, to doo one inturte or wronge.
Ludibrio lædere, to laugh to ſcorne.
Nulli os lædere, to ſpeake yll of no man in his preſence.
Ferro lædere, to cutte.
Lædi odore, to be annoied or offended with an yll ſauour.
Lælius, the familiar frende of Scipio African.
Lærgia, æ, f. g. gluttony.
Lærgus, gi, m. g. a glutton, a ſmell feaſt.
Læmuſchaton, ti, neu. ge. the rewarde geuen to hym that vanquiſhed at playeng or fightynge with weapons.
Læna, æ, f. ge. a garment lyned, whiche the diuiſiours, called Augures, did weare. alſo a cloke that ſouldiours dyd weare vppermoſt.
Laertes, a citee in Cilicia.
Laertes, the father of Vlyſſes.
Laertiades, the name of Vlyſſes.
Laertius, a, um, of Laertes.
Laertius, the name of one, whiche wrate the lines of philoſophiers.
Læſtrigones, were people in the confines of Hiſpania, whiche doo eate mans fleſhe.
Læſus, a, um, hurte, offended, violated.
Læſus tælis, peryſhed with weapons.
Læſio, ônis, f. g. hurtyng, harmyng, annoiyng.
Lætabilis, le, gladde or ioyfull.
Lætamen, looke Letamen.
Lætè, ioyouſly, gladly, merily, alſo plentuouſly, fruitefully, abundantly.
Lætifico, aui, are, to make gladde.
Lætificare terram ſimo, to doung the ground, to make the ground fatte with doung.
Lætificor, âris, ari, to be made ioyous or gladde.
Lætificus, a, um, that maketh gladde.
Lætiſco, ſcere, to be gladde, a worde out of vſe.
Lætitia, æ, f. g. gladneſſe, reioyeyng of the mynde, whiche doeth appeere alſo outwardely.
Lætitiam facere, and dare, to make glad.
Lætitiam apertiſsime tulimus omnes, all we ſhewed our ſelfe to be verye glad and ioyous.
Lætitûdo, dinis, idem quod lætitia.
Læto, aui, are, to make gladde. an olde woorde out of vſe.
Lætor, âris, ari, to be gladde, or to reioyce with outwarde ſignes.
Lætor vtrunq; I am glad for bothe of thoſe thynges.
Lætus, a, um, ioyous and gladde. alſo luckye, fortunate, fertile.
Lætum prodigium, luckie.
Lætus homo, a gladde man.
Læta ouis, a good sheepe.
Læta ſeges, & lætum legumen, plentifull corne and grayne. All other thynges not haueynge lyfe, beyng called Læta, doo ſignifie delectable to beholde, or that dooe pleaſe the eye of the beholder.
Lætius audere aliquid, to venter or enterpriſe to doo a thyng merily.
Alterum intraſſe lætum eſt, to haue entred in to the one is a token of good fortune.
Lætum ſolum, a fruitefull grounde.
Læta indoles, a pleaſant and mery nature.
Læua, æ, f. ge. the lefte hande.
Ad læuam, on the lefte hande.
Leua petentibus, to them that go on the lefte hande.
Læuâtus, a, um, made ſmoothe.
Leue, abſolute, a ſmoothe thyng.
Læ'uigo, aui, are, to plane or make playne, or to polyſhe, to make ſmoothe or ſlyke.
Læuis, leue, ſmoothe or playne, lyght.
Ora leuia, facis that be ſmoothe without beardes.
Læ'uitas, tâtis, fœm. gen. playnneſſe or ſmotheneſſe, lyghtneſſe.
Læuitas inteſtinorum, ſlipperines of the guttes.
Læuo, aui, are, to make ſmoothe, idem quod Leuigo.
Læuor, ôris, m. g. ſmootheneſſe.
Leuorſum, towarde the lefte hande.
Læuus, a, um, lefte, on the lefte ſyde. alſo lyght, by tranſlacion, fooliſhe, loke Leuus.
Tempore læuo, id eſt importuno, out of ſeaſon, vnconuenient.
Lumen læuum, id, eſt, noxium, noyous.
Læuus homo, an ouerthwart & fooliſhe felow.
Laganum, ni, n. g. a thyn cake made with floure and water, wherunto was put fat broth, pepper, ſaffron, & cynamom, a fritter, a pancake.
Lagari verſus, verſes, whiche dooe halte in the myddes of the foote.
Lagaron, is the parte of the body frõ the ſtomake to the naupll, called alſo Hypocondrium.
Lagêna, æ, f. ge. a flagon or bottell. alſo a meaſure conteinyng eight cotulas, or 4. ſextarios.
Lagêos, a kynde of grapes, called in latine Leporaria.
Lagia, one of the names of the yle of Delos.
Lagôis, a kynde of fyſſhe, whiche male be called the hare fyſhe. alſo a bryde, whoſe fleſhe is lyke a hares.
Lagonon, the frettyng of the guttes.
Lagophthalmos, mi, he that hath eies lyke a hare, or in whom the ouer liddes of the eies dooe not meue downewarde.
Lagôpus, gópodis, fœm. gene. an herbe of the kynde of trefoyles, called trinitee graſſe. ſome calle it hare cummine. ſome ſuppoſe it to be Dentdelion: Other Caryophillacium, among the Germaynes it is called Harefoote, and ſo phiſitions name it among vs. It is alſo a bird, ſcene moſte commonly in the Alpes, and hath his feete rough as it were with the heare of a hare or conie, the reſidue all white: it neuer eateth but in the place where it was bred, and neuer will be made tame. Plí.

Lagotróphia, æ, fœm. genc. a warren or parke of haares.

Lagúncula, læ, f. g. a little flagon or bottell.

Lagyges, people in Sarmatia.

Lagyra, a citee of Cherſoneſus.

Laicus, ci, m. g. a laie man.

Laicus, a, um, prophane, not conſecrate.

Láis, a common harlotte in Greece, who was of ſuche excellent beautee, and therwith ſo pleaſant, that vnto hir out of al Greece, there cam to Corinthus, where ſhe dwelled, men noble and riche in great numbre, to company with hir. On a tyme cam to hir Demoſthenes, the greateſt oratour of Greece, and deſyred to lye with hir: of whom ſhe aſked for one nyght a thouſande Dragmas, whiche amounted to the rate of our monete at this preſente tyme, to. xxiii. li. xix. s. x. d. the whiche Demoſthenes heryng, departed, ſaiyng in this wyſe, I will not repent me at that price, or I will not bye repentance ſo dere. ſome write, that ſhe demanded. 10000. dragmas, whiche was a talent.

Laius, a kynge of Thebes, & father of Oedipus, whom Oedipus vnwares ſlue in battail, and wedded his wyfe, whiche was alſo Oedipus mother called Iocaſta. rede after in Oedipus.

Laletania, a countreye in Spayne, the people wherof be called Laletani.

Laliſio, ónis, m. g. a colte of a wylde aſſe.

Lallo, aui, are, to ſpeake like a babye: in the which worde the greke dooeth approche nerer to the engliſhe than to the latin, as Babazin, whiche made a latin worde, is babare. it may be tranſferred to the nource, that babbleth with hir child, whan ſhe geueth to it the dugge.

Lama, mæ, f. ge. the raggednesſe of rockes: after Feſtus, it is the gatheryng together of waters.

Lambito, aui, are, to ſpeke or lappe.

Lambo, bi, bere, to licke with the toung, to lap. alſo to touche, to flowe or renne ſoftely.

Lambotus, a ryuer of Affrike.

Lambrus, a ryuer in Italy, whiche meeteth with the ryuer of Po, called Padus.

Lambrani, people dwellyng about the ſaied ryuer of Lambrus.

Lamella, æ, f. g. a diminutiue of Lamina, a litle thynne plate.

Lamentábilis, le, lamentable.

Lamentárius, a, um, that cauſeth lamentacion.

Lamentátio, ónis, fœ. g. lamentyng or wailyng, waimentyng.

Lamentátus, a, um, lamented, bewayled.

Lamentor, áris, ari, to lament or bewayle.

Lamentum, ti, neu. gen. a bewaylyng or lamentyng.

Lamia, a beaſte, whiche hath a womans face, and the feete of a horſe. It was alſo the ſurname of a noble Romayn, and alſo of a famous harlot.

Lamiæ, be women, whiche beholdyng children, or geuyng to them gyftes, doo alter the fayre of theim: whiche children be after warde called elfes, or taken with the fayrie, and ſome ſuche women will ſucke the bloud from children. They be alſo thoſe, whiche be called ladies of the fayrie, whiche doo allure yong men to company carnally with theim: and after that they bee conſumed in the acte of lechery, they cum to deuoure theim.

Lámina, æ, f. g. a plate of mettall.

Lamirus, one of the ſonnes of Hercules.

Lamna, for lamina.

Lamium, mij, n. g. archangell, or deade nettle.

Lámpada, dæ, idem quod Lampas.

Lampas, lámpadis, fœm. gen. a leame of fyre or bryghtneſſe of the ſon, moſte vſed for a lampe, alſo a torche.

Lampetia, the daughter of the Sunne by Neera, whiche with hir ſyſter Phaetuſa, kepte flyes in Sicile.

Lampetra, a fyſſche called a lampry.

Lampetus, the ſyſter of Phaeton.

Lampeus, an hyll in Arcadie.

Lampia, a ryuer in Arcadie.

Lampon, the name of an hoſte. alſo of a ſoothſayer, that vſed to ſweare by a goote: whereof grew a prouerbe, Lampon iurat per anſerem. loke there.

Lampſacius, the ſoonne of Cilix.

Lampſacum, a towne on the ſea ſide called Helleſpontus, in the ſyde of Aſia, where Priapus was honoured.

Lampſacênus, a, um, of Lampſacum.

Lampſana, loke Lupſana.

Lampýris, pýrios, f. g. a gloe worme, or a worm called a gloe beard, whiche ſhyneth by nyght.

Lamyrus, a kynde of liſardes, or euettes. alſo one of Hercules ſonnes.

Lana, æ, f. g. woull.

De lana caprina rixari, to contende for a thyng matter.

Lana facta, parne.

Lana infecta, woull that is not ſpunne.

Lana pectita, carded.

Ducere lanam, to ſpinne, to ſpinne woller.

Trahere lanam, idem.

Lana leporina, the ſofte heare of an hare.

Lanária, an herbe, whiche fullers doo vſe, when they ſcoure clothes. ſome ſaie it is that, whyche apothecaries doo call Condiſi.

Lanáris, re, that beareth or hath woulle.

Lanare pecus, beaſtes hauyng woull.

Lanárius, rij, m. g. a woull man, or he that ouerſeeth or ſelleth woull, alſo a woulwinder.

Lanátus, a, um, cladde or wrapped in woull.

Lanatæ vites, a kynde of vines, whiche hath a certayn moſyneſſe vpon woulle.

Lanatus lupus, a fyſſhe, ſo called for his whitenes alſo

L ANTE A.

ꝛelle and ſoftneſſe.
Lanuiore canitie, with moze cotten.
ncearius, rij, m. ge. he that beareth a launelyn.
ncea, æ, fœm. gen. a Spanyſhe Launelyn with a bzode head.
nceatus, a, um, armed with a launelyn. alſo wounded with a launelyn.
ncino, aui, are, to ſtryke, to rente with the teethe, to thruſt through.
nea, æ, f. g. idem quod Laniena.
nerum, a garment made of vndyed woull.
neus, a, um, woullen, oꝛ made of woull.
Laneum latuſculum, a ſide as ſofte as woull.
Laneus lupus, a fyſhe white and ſoft.
nga, gæ, fœm. gene. a breſt, whiche is found about the ryuer of Po.
ngia, a fountayne in Nemea, a countrey of Arcadia, where the hoſte of Argiues was reherſed, whan they went agaynſt Thebes.
ngueo, langui, guêre, to languyſſhe, to bee ſycke, to be feynt, to be aferde, to be ydell, to decaye, to diminyſſhe.
Languêre è via, to be wery of iourneying.
nguêſco, ſcere, idem.
nguidus, a, um, feynt, ſycke, aferde, ydell.
Languidus pulſus, a feynt pouyſe, that ſtryketh feebly.
Languidior, ſomewhat ſlacke in dooyng a thynge.
Authoritas languida facta eſt, the authozitee is diminyſhed oꝛ decayed.
nguidè, feebly, feyntly, negligently, ydelly, without quyckeneſſe of ſpirite.
nguidulus, la, lum, the diminutiue of Languidus.
nguor, ôris, maſ. gene. languor, kayinge of ſtrengthe, and naturall moyſture, languyſſhynge, feeblenеſſe, feyntneſſe. Sometyme wetrynеſſe.
ngurium, rij, n. g. languettes of ambze, like to longe beadeſtones.
niena, æ, f. ge. the fleſſhe chambles, oꝛ ſhoppe, where fleſſhe is ſolde, the ſlaughter houſe. ſometyme it ſignifieth diſmembryng.
nicium, cij, n. g. clothyng, oꝛ the craft of makyng woullen clothe.
nifer, ra, rum, that beareth woull.
niger, ra, rum, idem.
nifex, idem quod lanificus.
nificium, cij, n. ge. cardynge oꝛ ſpynnynge of woull, wooꝛkyng of woulle.
nificus, ci, m. ge. he that dooeth wozke woull to make it mete foꝛ the clothier. it may be called alſo a woull wynder.
nio, aui, are, to cutte lyke a boucher, to teare oꝛ rent in pieces oꝛ gobettes, to quarter.
Laniare dentibus, to teare with the teeth.
niatus, a, um, rent, toꝛne, cutte in pieces.
niatus, us, m. gen. a tearyng, a quarteryng, a cuttyng in pieces.
niſtrium, rij, n. g. boucherye.

Lanionius, a, um, perteinyng to bouthers craft.
Laniſta, æ, m. g. he that had the rule ouer ſwoꝛd players, and cauſed theim to be taught, and after ſolde theim. alſo that oꝛdeined birdes to fight, it may be taken foꝛ a maiſter of fence.
Lanicius, a, um, woullen oꝛ of woull.
Lanium carnarium, a ſlaughter houſe.
Lanius, nij, oꝛ Lanio, ônis, m. g. a boucher.
Laniuium, oꝛ Lanuuium, a citee in Italy, belonging to the Romayns.
Lano, aui, are, to put in woull, oꝛ to dreſſe with woulle.
Lanóculus, li, m. g. he that couereth the blemiſſhe in his eye with woull, oꝛ he that weareth a cloth before his eye.
Lanôſus, a, um, full of woulle, oꝛ hauyng muſche woulle.
Lanubium, a citee of the Latines.
Lanuginôſus, a, um, moſſy.
Lanûgo, ginis, fœm. ge. the ſofte heares oꝛ moſſe ſyneſſe in the viſages of childzen and women. alſo on fruites called peaches, and ſome herbes, as long woꝛt, clary, and ſuche other. alſo the down feathers in bꝛydes. it is alſo the ſawe duſt oꝛ other powder, whiche cometh of wood whan it is perced.
Lánula, læ, f. g. a diminutiue of Lana.
Lanuuini, the ſtones couered with ſofte heare.
Lanuuium, lyke Laniuium.
Lanx, cis, f. g. a dyſſhe, whiche of ſome is called a potteynger. alſo a balance.
Laocoon, the ſonne of Priamus.
Laodamas, one of the ſonnes of kyng Alcinous.
Lãodamia, the wyfe of Protheſilaus. alſo the daughter of Bellerophon.
Lãodicea, a citee in Aſia.
Lãodice, oꝛ after ſome Laodoce, one of Priamus daughters, whiche was maryed to the ſoonne of Antenoꝛ, kyng of Thrace.
Lãodocus, the ſonne of Antenoꝛ the Troian.
Laómedon, ontis, the father of Priamus.
Laomedonteus, a, um, and Laomedontius, a, um, of Laomedon.
Lápathum, thi, n. ge. called alſo Rumex, the generall name of all ſoꝛell, as Oxylapathum, oꝛ Lapathum acutum, ſoꝛrell, as well wyld as of the gardeyn. Hippolapathon, a great ſoꝛell lyke a doche, but hauyng the taſt of ſoꝛell, and is called Patience. this wozde Lapathum, of ſome is vſed foꝛ the doche.
Lapethos, a citee in Cyprus.
Lapicida, æ, maſc. gene. a dygger of ſtones in a quarreye.
Lapicidina, æ, f. g. a quarey of ſtones.
Lapidario, ônis, fœ. gene. a ſtonyng, a hurlynge of ſtones.
Lapidárius, a, um, perteynyng to ſtones.
Lapidâtor, ôris, m. gen. a hurler of ſtones, one that hurteth men with ſtones.
Lapideſco, ſcere, to bee made oꝛ tourned into a ſtone, to waxe harde as a ſtone.

Lapi-

Lapido, aui, are, to ſtryke with ſtones. alſo to ſtryke ſometyme without ſtones. ſometyme to rayne ſtones.
Lapidatum eſt, it rayned ſtones.
Lapillus, li, maſ. gene. a littell ſtone. alſo a pꝛecious ſtone.
Lapio, piui, pire, to make harde as a ſtone, an olde wooꝛde.
Lapis, lapidis, maſ. gene. a ſtone, but leſſe than that, whiche is called Saxum. Sometyme it is taken foꝛ a myle. ſometyme an hille. by tranſlacion a negligent perſone, that beſtyꝛreth hym not in dooyng a thyng.
Ad tertium aut quartum lapidē, At the thyꝛde oꝛ the fourthe myle, becauſe in olde tyme myles were noted by ſtones.
✠ De lapide empti, ſlaues oꝛ bondemē. A pꝛouerbe, ſignifiyng perſons of moſt vile condicion, which were bought in the markette place, ſtandyng vpon a ſtone.
Lapidem verberare, pꝛouerbially to labour in vayne.
Quid ſtas lapis? why ſtandeſt thou ſtyll thou dead ſtone?
Lapis incuſus, a ſtone pecked and dꝛeſſed foꝛ a myll.
Appetere lapidibus, To aſſayle oꝛ ſette vpon with ſtones.
Lapideus, a, um, of ſtone, oꝛ harde lyke a ſtone.
Lapideus murus, a ſtone walle.
Lapideus ſum, I am as heauy as a ſtone.
Lapideo imbri pluit, it rayneth ſtones.
Lapidoſus, a, um, ſtonye, full of ſtones, harde lyke a ſtone.
Lapithæ, people of Theſſaly, of whom Perithous was kyng.
Lapitheus, oꝛ Lapitheius, a, um, of the Lapithes.
Lappa, æ, fœ. gen. the generall name of all burres growyng on herbes, whiche wylle ſtycke to any thyng.
Lappaceus, a, um, of oꝛ lyke a burre.
Lappāgo, ginis, f. g. an herbe like to Anagallis, ſauyng that it hath no leaues.
Lapſana. Plinius and Theophꝛaſtus doo write, that they were called of the Arcadians wylde Colewoꝛtes, and of the phiſicians (as Theophꝛaſtus ſaieth) Cera with the rootes hereof, boyled in mylke, all the hoſte of Julius Ceſar lyued at Dirrachium, a longe tyme, whereof came the pꝛouerbe, Lapſana viuere, where men do liue nygardly and wꝛetchedly, this herbe is named in Engliſhe wilde cole, oꝛ Carlohe.
Lapſio, ōnis, f. g. a fall, a ſlydyng oꝛ ſlippyng.
Lapſo, aui, are, to fall often.
Lapſus, us, m. gen. a fall, a ſlydyng, alſo a ſmall offenſe doone by negligence, an ouerſight.
Lapſus linguæ, tꝛippyng of the tonge.
Lapſus memoriæ, failyng of the memoꝛy.
Lapſus, a, um, fallen, ſliden, that hath offended oꝛ erred.
Lapſis paucis diebus, after a fewe daies.
Lapſus ſerpentum, the glidyng of a ſerpent.
Lapſus fluminum, the rennyng of ryuers.
Laqueâre, laquear, ris, & Laquearium, ria, n. g. the ruffe of a chambꝛe, whiche is embowed oꝛ fretted. alſo a playn beame in a roufe.
Laqueatus, a, um, haltered, ſnaried, tied, oꝛ bounde faſte, ſometyme it ſignifieth holowe oꝛ boowyng.
Laqueata tecta, embowed roofes.
Laquearum aureo templum, a churche hauyng the beames of the ruffe gylted.
Laqueus, lăquei, m. g. an halter, any thyng that one is ſnared oꝛ intangled in, a gynne.
Laquei legum ac iudiciorum, The ſnares of lawes. ꝛc.
Lar, the ſingular noumbꝛe of Lares, lokethere, it is taken foꝛ an houſe, ſometyme the inner parte of an houſe, alſo foꝛ a chymney and the fire.
Lara, vel Larunda, a mayden, whiche ſhewed to Juno the wanton paſtimes of Jupiter with women, foꝛ the whiche Jupiter did cut out her tongue, and commaunded Mercurius to bꝛyng hir to hell: who begotte on hir two ſonnes, whiche were called Lares.
Laranda, a citee of Lycaonia.
Lararium, rii, n. ge. a pꝛiuate chapell oꝛ cloſet in a mans houſe.
Larcus, a panne, wherin coles be caried.
Lardum, di, n. g. larde, the fatte of bakon.
Larentia, a famous harlot, which becauſe ſhe nurſed the people of Rome hir heire, they named hir a goddeſſe, and called hir Flora.
Lares, goddes, whiche the paynyms did ſuppoſe euery perſon had belongynge vnto hym: they were alſo called Penates: both the which wordes bee alſo taken foꝛ pꝛiuate dwellynges oꝛ houſes. Mei lares, mei penates, My houſe oꝛ dwellyng place.
Largē, abundantly, liberally, bountifully.
Vino largius epulas celebrare, to dynke wine more largely at a feaſt.
Largior, largiris, gīti, to geue liberally, alſo to graunte, ſometyme to permitte.
Beneficium ex facili largiri, to doo a pleaſure quickely.
Si tempus non largitur, if the time ſuffer not.
Largiri Ciuitatem, to make one a citezin.
Largiri ſe vtrō, to offre hym ſelfe willyngly.
Largitor de tuo puer, geue liberally of that is thyne owne, thou lauyp boye.
Largitas, ātis, f. g. largeſſe, oꝛ liberalitee.
Largitio, ōnis, fœ. ge. liberall expence to winne a mans purpoſe, largeſſe, pꝛodigalitee.
Largiſſimus, a, um, that floweth abundantly.
Largiloquus, qui, he that hath many woꝛdes.
Largiter, idem quod largē.
Vapulabis largiter, thou ſhalt be well beate.
Largiter peccaſti, Thou haſte dooen a great offence.
Largitor, ōris, m. ge. a liberall ſpender, a pꝛodigal

gall perſone, bountefous in gruyng.
rgitus, for Largiter.
rgus, a, um, large or verie great, alſo free of expence, bountious, liberall, prodigall.
Dat nemo largius, he geueth no man more liberally.
Largus opum, riche.
Animo largus, of great courage.
Lux larga, great lyght.
Largus opera ſua, that is no ſparer of his labour.
Largus lachrymarum, that wepeth muche.
Vino largiore vti, to drynke more than one is commonly accuſtomed.
Imber largus, a great ſhowre of rayne.
Largæ opes, great riches.
ridum, vel Lardum, laarde, or the fatte of an hogge ſometyme ſwynes fleſhe ſalted.
rina, the name of a famous woman of Italy.
rine, a fountayne in Attica.
riſe, a citee of Eolia.
rinna, a towne of Beotia.
riſa, the name of diuers citees, one in Theſſalia, wherof Achilles was called Lariſſeus: an other in Elia, wherof Jupiter was called Lariſſeus, the thyrde in Italye, an other in Crete.
rius, a broode or a great poole by the citee of Comum.
rix, láricis, fœm. ge. a great tree, whiche hath leaues lyke a pine appull, the wood de long and apte for buyldyng of inwarde woorkes, it hath in it a thynne roſen of the colour of hony of Athenes, it perysheth not, neyther by rottynge, nor by eatyng of woormes, nor wyll burne in a flame, nor be brought vnto coles, but by a long ſpace of tyme be conſumed. alſo it will not ſwymme on the water as other trees doo, and therfore be they eyther caried in ſhippes, or els laide on fyre trees pinned together, this tree maie be called in engliſche Larch tree. The gumme, which cometh from this tree, is called Laricea rheſina, whiche is vſed in the ſtede of Terebinthine, ne that is diſcommended of Jetius.
rodi, people in Scythia.
rua, æ, f. g. and Laruæ, arum, plur. a ſpirite, whiche appereth in the nyght tyme. ſome call it a hegge. ſome a goblyn. ſome a goſte or an elfe. alſo a maſker, or he that weareth a viſour. alſo the viſour it ſelfe.
aruale, an ymage deformed, pale, leane, and horrible to beholde.
aruâtus, a, um, that is feared with a ſpirite, and is become madde. it ſometyme ſignifieth a maſker, one wearyng a viſour, diſguiſed.
arus, called in greke Cepphus, a certayne bird of the kynd of ſeamewes: of this ſorte there is a little birde, haueng many feathers, whiche at the tyme that the bryngeth forth ponge, crieth out. She liueth by eatyng the ſome of ſalt water, of hir cam the prouerbe.

→ Larus parturit, Larus doeth lape, applied to them, whiche promyſe muche, and great thynges, and fynally doo geue or bryng forth nothyng, in regard of that whiche they promiſed. I thynke this bird is called in engliſche a ſterne. In the prouerbe Larus hians, Eraſmus ſaith, Larus is a gredy deuouryng birde.
Laſanum, ni, n. g. a chambre potte or ſtoole.
Laſciuia, æ, f. g. wantonneſſe.
Laſciuio, ſciuis, ſciuiui, uire, to bee wanton: alſo to growe or ſpryng rankely.
Laſciuus, a, um, lecherous bothe in lyuyng and wordes, wáton in behauiour or with women, diſhoneſt, that ſpeaketh or dooeth thynges fowlyſchely, without regard of vertue and honeſtee. Pagina laſciua, a writyng conteynyng wanton thynges.
Laſer, láſeris, neu. g. a gumme or iuice renning out of a tree, whith is taken of the beſt writers to be that, whiche is called of the apothecaries Aſa fœtida.
Lacer, is the iuice or gumme, that commeth of the ſhrubbe or herbe called Lacerpitium: the frenche men call this gumme, Benioin.
Laſerpitium, tij, n. g. is of Antonius Muſa ſuppoſed to be the ſweete roſen called Belſewyne, or Bougewyne: ſome ſuppoſe it to bee the tree, of whiche cometh that roſen or gumme.
Laſerpitium Gallicum, the herbe called Peſilis tonge of ſpayne.
Laſerpitiâtus, a, um, that is tempered or mixed with the iuyce of Laſerpitium.
Laſibus, olde writers vſed for Labibus.
Laſſâtus, a, um, wearied, tried.
Laſſeſco, laſſus ſum, ſcere, to become wery.
Laſsia, an ile in the ſea Egeum, it was alſo called Andros.
Laſsitûdo, dinis, f. g. werineſſe.
Laſſo, aui, are, to wery, to tire.
Laſſulus, a, um, the diminutiue of Laſſus.
Laſſus, a, um, wearied, tired.
Laſſus de via, wearie with goyng or turneing.
Rebus laſsis, in aduerſitee. Laſſa terra.
Laſthenia, a woman, whiche was Platos ſchollar, comyng alwaie in to his ſchoole in mans apparaile.
Laſtaurus. i. hirſutus circa virilia.
Laſus, a man in tyme of Darius, that wrote firſt of muſyke.
Latace, ces, f. ge. an herbe, whiche the kynges of Perſia were wont to geue to ambaſſadours, wherin they hadde this ſuperſtitious beleue, that bearyng about theym that herbe, where ſo euer they were, they ſhoulde haue plentie of all thynges, and ſhulde not peryſhe for hunger or thyrſt. The fygure of this herbe I coulde neuer fynde in any authour.
Late, abroade in many places, farre abroade, ſometyme for Diuturnus, longe.
Latius loqui, To ſpeake more largely vppon a thyng.

Late

Late patet, it belongeth to many.
Late longeq; diffusum, spreade abroade well neere in all quoftis of the worlde.
Famæ latius consulere, to prouide that his re nowme mate continue longe tyme.

Látebra, æ, & Látebræ, arum, f. g. plu. a pryuie place, where men dooe hyde theym. sometyme it signifieth an excuse.
Latebras querentes, hydelynges.
Latebræ ferarum, couert for dere, or denne for wylde beastes.
Latebram habere, to haue an excuse or pretente to cloke the matter.
Ex latebris erumpere, to cumme abroade.
Latebram periurio querere, to sweare wplily vnder a colour, to the entente to deceyue a man.

Latebricola, læ, fœ. gene. one that dwelleth in a pryuie place.

Latebrosè, pryuily, secretly, as it wer in a corner.

Latebrôsus, a, um, that is full of denne to hide or lurke in.
Latebrosus locus, where as bee many pryuie places.

Lateo, tui, têre, to be hydde, to bee secrete, to be vnknowen.
Nec latuerunt eum doli, he knewe they deceyte full well.
Latet mihi causa, I know it not.
Res latuit patrem, he knew it not.
Latet plerôsque, it is vnknowen to the moste parte.
Latet in herba, it lyeth hyd in the grasse.
Latuit ad hanc ætatem, it was vnknowen euen to these dates.

Latenter, pryuily, secretely.

Laterâlis, le, belongyng to the syde.

Later, láteris, m. g. bryche, tyle.
✠ Laterem lauas, thou waschest a tyle. A prouerbe, signifyng, thou labourest in vayne.
✠ Láterem elixas, a prouerbe, hauyng the same signification.

Laterani, yomen of the garde.

Lateranus, the name of a consull of Rome, of whose house was made a churche in the citee of Rome of saynct John, whiche is nowe called Lateranensis.

Laterária, æ, fœm. gene. a place, where bryche or tyle is made.

Latérculus, li, m. g. a littell bryche or tyle.
Crudi laterculi, bryche before it is baked.

Lateritius, a, um, made of tyle or bryche.
Lateritius paries, a bryche wall.

Laterna, næ, f. g. a lanterne.

Laternarius, rij, m. g. a lanterne bearer.

Laterones, yomen of the garde.

Lateruncularius, a, um, of or belonging to theffe.
Lateruncularia tabula, a theffe bourd.

Latex, láticis, masc. gene. all maner of licour or iuyce, but it is most commonly taken for water or wyne.
Latex scythicus, rayne water.

Lathyris, fœ. g. an herbe of the kynde of spurge, called commonly Caraputia.

Latiâlis, le, and Latiaris, re, of latin, of that part of Italye, whiche was called Latium.
Latialis sermo, the latine tongue.

Latibulo, aui, are, to be hyd.

Latíbulum, li, n. ge. a denne or bury, where beastes dooe hyde theym. sometyme it is vsed for a secrete place, or caue, wherin men be hydde.

Laticlâuium, uij, n. g. the garment of a senatour, sometyme it signifieth the dignitee of a senatour, and Laticlauij, is taken for the Senatours.

Latifólium, lij, n. g. and Latifólia, æ, f. ge. that whiche hath brode leaues.

Latifundium, dij, neu. ge. a great or large fielde, great and large possessions, also that hath a great or large fielde, or large and great possessions.

Latinæ, narum, sacrifices to Jupiter, vsed of the Latines, who first dyd ordeyne them.

Latine, in the fourme of latine, after the facon of latine, in latine.
Latiné scire, to be skilled in the latine tonge.

Latinitas, âtis, f. g. latine speache.

Latinienſis, se, idem quod Latinus, a, um.

Latinus, a, um, latine or of the people called Latines.
Latinæ consuetudini tradere, to translate out of latine.
Vertere in latinum, idem.

Latini, people of Latium in Italie.

Latinus, ni, the propre name of the father in lawe to Eneas.

Latio, ônis, of Fero, fers, a bearyng.
Legum latio, an ordeynyng and publishyng of lawes.
Latio suffragij, a geuyng of voyce or sentence in assignyng or choosyng of any magistrate.

Latisco, to ware brode.

Látito, aui, are, to hyde often, to lurke. also not to appere whan one is sommoned to appere in the lawe.

Latitátio, ônis, f. g. a hydyng, or lurking.

Latitûdo, dinis, bredth, largenesse, latitude.
Latitudo possessionum, largenesse of possessions, great possessions in landes.

Latium, tij, n. g. a parte of Italie, betweene the riuer of Tibris and Liris, wherin standeth the citee of Rome.

Latius, a, um, of that countrey.

Latmius, is a mountaine of Caria, and Latmus, a mountaine in Jonia, where poets fayne the moone kylled Endymion.

Lato, latescere, to be broade.

Latomiæ, or Latumiæ, arum, plu. was a pryson in the citee of Siracusis in Sicilia: and other in Spartha. It is also a quarrey, out of the whiche stones are digged.
Ad latomias damnari, To be condemned to woorke in the quarreys or mines alwaye.

Látomus, mi, m. ge. a mason, one that cutteth and digge biggeth stones out of a quarrey.

ôna, the mother of Apollo and Diana.
onia, called also Diana, and is also taken for the moone.
onius, a, um, of Latóna.
Latonigenæ dij, Apollo and Diana. tous, Apollo.
tor, ôris, m. g. a bearer, a carier, one that geeth or maketh lawes.
trâtus, us, m. ge. a barkyng or baiyng of dogges. also a vehement speakyng against one.
Remugit nemus latratu, the woodde ringeth with the crie or noyse of the houndes.
trâtor, ôris, m. g. he that barketh, a barker.
tres, a seruaunt.
tria, æ, f. g. the honour and scrupee, wherwith god onely is woorshypped.
trina, æ, f. g. a lynke. also a siege or takes.
tro, aui, are, to barke as a dogge doeth: and by translation to crie out and baie at one like a dogge whan he barketh.
Stomachum latrantem lenire, a curiyng stomake desyring meate.
tror, âris, âri, the passiue.
trocinium, cinij, n. gen. theefte, robbery. Also warfare.
Agitare latrocinia, to vse robbynge.
trocinor, âris, ari, to robbe by the hygh way. also to serue in warres. tro, ônis, com. gener. a robber by the hygh waie. also a souldiour retayned. Amonge the Romains, it were those, whiche were alwaie aboute the emperours persone, as the garde is aboute the kyng. Also Latrones, seu Latrunculi be chessemen. Latro is also vsed of poetes for an hunter.
Prælia latronum ludere, to play at chesse.
trocinâtio, ônis, f. g. a robbyng.
trunculus, li, m. gen. a lyttell theefe or robber. also a chessleman.
truncultor, ôris, m. ge. a iustyce of gayle deliuerie, or any iustyce, whiche doeth geue sentence on theues. also a prouost marshall.
tumiæ, arum, plural. quarryes, where stones are digged.
tus, a, um, of fero, fers, borne. Also geuen, ordeyned, publyshed.
tus, latior, latissimus, broade, ample, large, conteynyng a great rowme.
Lata culpa, a grosse negligence, whan a man perceiueth not that thyng that euery man vnderstandeth.
tusculum, li, n. g. a lyttle syde.
tus, teris, neu. g. a side. it is often tymes taken for the strength and durablenesse of the voyce and breath in speakyng.
Adiungere aliquem lateri suo, to appoynete one to kepe his soonne companie alwaie.
Homines a latere, men that are verie familiar and in great fauour with princes.
Accommodare ensem lateri, To putte on a swerde.
Cingere latus ense, idem.
Latus ense peregit, he thrust hym through the syde with a swoorde.
Latus campi, the syde of any feilde.
Latus clauus, a senatours robe or garment. It is put sometyme for the dignitee of a senatour.
Lauâcrum, cri, n. g. a bathe or bayne: it is nowe taken for a fonte.
Lauâtio, ônis, a washyng, a bayne or bathe.
Lauatrina, næ, fœm. ge. a synke, wherinto foule water is caste or swepte, wherby pauementes ar made cleane.
Lauce, an ile in the sea called Pontus.
Laudabilis, le, laudable, commendable.
Laudare alterum ad aliquem.
Laudâtio, ônis, fœm. gen. a prayse or commendacion.
Laudo, aui, are, to prayse, to commende. also to cite or name.
Laudo testem, I take to witnesse.
Cum exceptione laudari, To be prayed in all thyng saueng one, to be prayed with a but.
Laudare authorem, to cite or name the authour or the persone, of whom he had the thyng.
Laudâtus, a, um, prayed, commended.
Laudâtor, ôris, m. ge. one that prayseth or commendeth.
Laudâtrix, tricis, f. g. the feminine.
Laudabiliter, commendably, woorthy prayse.
Laudaciuus, a, um, that prayseth.
Laudicœnus, ni, m. g. he that is hyred for a supper to prayse a man: or for a supper promysed, doeth prayse a man.
Lauer, láueris, neu. ge. and sometyme fœ. g. an herbe growyng in the water, like to Alisander, but haueng lesse leaues: some doo call it bilders, or Bellragges: some name it yealow water cresses.
Lauerna, a goddesse, vnder whose protection theues were in Rome.
Lauinia, the daughter of kyng Latinus, for whom Eneas and Turnus fought together.
Lauinium, a citee in Italie called also Laurẽtum.
Lauo, laui, are, and Lauo, ui, ere, to washe.
Lauare peccatum suum, to purge hym selfe of that is laied to his charge.
Laura, suche a place of pleasure at Samios, as Anton was at Sardis.
Laurea, æ, f. gene. a leafe of laurell or baie tree. sometyme a garlande made of laurell. somtyme a laurell or baie tree it selfe.
Laureâtus, a, um, crowned with laurell, wearyng a garlande of laurell.
Laurens, entis, or Laurentis, te, of the towne called Laurentum.
Laurẽtia, æ, f. g. the wife of Faustulus, whiche nourished Remus and Romulus.
Laurentalia, certaine feastes dedicated to Laurentia.
Laurentum, a citee in Italie, called also Lauinii.

Laureo, aui, are, to put on a garlande of laurell.
Laureola, æ, f. g. a crowne or garlande that victours ware in theyr triumphe.
Laureolis, assises, that come of the tryngе of siluer in golde smithes forges.
Laurétum, ti, n. gen. a place, wherin dooe growe laurelles or baie trees.
Laureum, a place in the countreie of Greece, called Attica.
Laureus, a, um, of laurell.
Laurices, a kynde of Hares.
Láurifer, and Láuriger, ra, rum, that weareth a garlande of laurell.
Laurinum, ni, n. g. oyle of laurell or baies.
Laurinus, a, um, of laurell or lyke to laurell.
Laurion, a place in Attica, where syluer was dygged.
Lauro lauinium, a citee in Italy by Laurentum.
Laurus, ri, or Laurus, us, fœm. gen. a laurell or baie tree.
Lausus, the soonne of Mezentius.
Laus, laudis, fœ. gen. prayse, commendacion, renowme, glorie, euery mans good report.
Armatæ laudes, martiall renowme.
Dicere laudem alicuius rei, to prayse or sette foorthe the commendacion of a thyng.
Ei laudi datum est, it was counted a prayse to hym: or he was praysed or commended for it.
Efferre laudibus, to extolle.
Habere laudes de aliquo, To prayse one, to speake in commendacion of one.
Laudem non habet, it is not to be commended: it is not praysed nor esteemed.
Laudem inuenire, To geat prayse and commendacion.
Sperauit magnæ laudi fore, he hoped that it woulde be great prayse to hym.
Tua laus fuerit, The prayse shall redounde to you: or you shall be praysed for it.
Latinè loqui, est in magna laude ponendum, It is a thynge greatly to be praysed and esteemed to speake latine well.
Laude afficere, to prayse.
Lautè, elegantly, minionly, trimly, gaily.
Lautè vestitus, minionly apparayled.
Lautè diuersari, to be honourably lodged, to be well intertayned.
Lautè loqui, to speake eloquently.
Lautè munus administrasti tuum, Ye haue dooen your office or duitee honourably, or to your great prayse.
Lautia, ôrum, neu. g. plur. presentes, whiche the Romains did send to ambassadours of other realmes.
Lautiæ, is somtyme vsed in the feminine gendre.
Lautia, æ, fœm. g. magnificence and netenesse in diners and banquettes.
Lautrices, the wynes of two brotherne.
Lautulæ, weate baynes.
Lautus, a, um, & Lotus, a, um, washed. also nete or cleane, elegant, riche, minion, triche, hãdsome.
Lautus homo, a minion, prayse, or nete person.
Lauta ciuitas, a riche and noble citee.
Lax, discrepte, grie: a woorde out of vse.
Laxátus, a, um, lewse, set at his lyberte.
Laxamentum, ti, n. g. release, recreation, libertee, refreshyng.
Laxamentum & veniam non habent leges, lawes remitte and perdone no punishement.
Laxamentum dari legi, to enlarge a lawe that it be not so rygorous.
Laxamentum dare, to geue rest and recreation from labour.
Láxitas, âtis, f. gen. release, pardone, loustesse, lyberte.
Laxitas domus, largenesse of an house, your renowme.
Laxè, lowsely, largely.
Habitare laxè & magnificè, to dwell in a great large house nobly.
Anguste & laxè, contrarie.
Laxissime ambulare, to haue a verie large roome to walke in.
Laxe distare, to be far a sunder.
Laxo, aui, are, to louse or set at lyberte, to release, to open, to make larger.
Laxare manipulos, was in battayle, whan the sundrie bendes or companies of foote men were set in a raye, one man a conuenient distance from an other, that they mought fight the more at their lyberte.
Laxare & astringere, contrary.
Annona haud multum laxauerat, the price of wittayle was fallen litell or nothyng.
Tempus laxare, to extende & prolonge the tyme.
Laxare animum à laboribus, To remoue the minde from labour, to be at quiete.
Laxare animum molestiis, idem.
Laxum, an aduerbe, signifieth wyde.
Laxus, a, um, louse, large, wyde, soft, weake.
Funes laxi, cordes not stretched out.
Laxas dare habænas, to geue bridell at will.
Laxæ opes, great ryches.
Laxum tempus, and Laxa dies, a longe terme or tyme.
Cum ipse alium diem laxiorem dederim, whan that I my self haue prolonged the tyme, or geuen a longer date or terme.
Ager laxus, a broade or wide fielde, Angustus contrary.
Arcus laxus, a bowe vnbent.
Calceus laxus, a wide showe.
Domus laxa, a great house with muche roome.

L ANTE E.

LEa, leæ, and Leæna, æ, f. g. a lioneſſe.
Lea, is also a kynde of colewortes.
Leæ, an Ilande by Cyrenaica, a region of Affrike.

Leæna,

ena, a lionesse: it was also the name of a common woman at Athenes: who (after that Har-modius and Aristogiton had slayn Hipparchus the tyran) beyng tormented in sundrie factions, to the entent she shoulde discouer the confederrates of that murder, spake not one word, but byting in sunder hir tonge, she spitte it in the face of Hippias the tyran, who caused hir to be tormented.

ander, the name of a man.

archus, the sonne of Athamas and Ino, whom the father beyng madde, slewe in the stede of an herte.

badia, a citee of Boeotia.

bedus, a citee.

beris, ridis, a serpentes huske or hale, or olde byrdes skynne, whiche he casteth of.

bes, bētis, m. g. a caudron to boyle in.

bynthos, one of the iles called Cyclades.

canomanticus, a certayne kynde of southsayers, that vsed their diuination with bas-sons of water.

canomantia, æ, fœm. gene. a kynde of diui-nation by water in a basin, whiche the rusticall people in the olde tyme vsed among the Alps rians. They filled a basin full of water, in to the whiche, after certayne wordes spoken, spi-rites entred, whereby was hearde a litteli sowne or whisperynge: by the whiche the in-chaunters perceyued thynges to come, and made aunsweres accordynge. Ioannes Zeses, in his comment on the Iliados of Homere, maketh mencion of two kyndes of Lecanomantia: one olde was, whiche Vlisses vsed: an other newe founde, whiche is by water in a depe basin, into the whiche was put golde, siluer, ambre, copper, and stones, wherat myght be no women, or they which had offended with women. But this vayne science is forboden among christen men, lyke as Nicromancie and Geomancy is.

echia, æ, f. g. a kyne, whiche some haue taken to be Tuny, for the similitude of theym.

ectica, æ, f. ge. a thyng lyke to a bedde, wherin riche and noble men were borne by six seruants tyll mate be taken for a lycter.

ecticarij, they whiche bare Lectica.

ecticariola, she that attendeth on a lycter bearer.

ecticula, a litteli chaire or lycter caried betwene men.

ectio, ônis, fœm. g. readyng, a lesson, chopse,
a gatherynge.

ectipes, an herbe.

ectisterniâtor, ôris, m. g. a chamberlayn, or he that maketh the beddes.

ectisternium, a solemnites amonge the pagans, whan in the honour of theyr gods, Iupiter, Iuno, and Minerua, beddes were spreadde in the temples, in the whiche kyste the idolles were laied, in the residue as many as mought lie and eate.

Léctito, aui, are, to reade often. Also to gather often.

Lecton, one of the toppes of the mountayne called Ida.

Lectrum, a parte of Itia lyng into the sea.

Lector, óris, m. g. a reader.

Lectus, us, m. g. a chopse.

Lectus, a, um, read, also chosen, pitched, selected.

Lectúrio, ire, to desyre to reade.

Lectus, ti, m. g. a beadde. It is vsed somtyme for a table, because they vsed in olde tyme to eate theyr meate syttyng on beddes.

Léctulus, li, m. g. a lyttell bedde.

Lécythus, thi, mascu. & fœm. gene. a potte of earthe, whiche serued onely for oyle, an oyles glasse or viole.

Leda, the wyfe of Tindarus kynge of Laconia, with whom (as poetes doo fable) Iupiter in the forme of a swanne dyde companie, and she brought foorthe two egges, of the one came Pollux and Helena, whiche was raupi-shed by Paris: of the other came Castor and Ciptemnestra: Pollux and Castor bee called Ledæi.

Legea, one of the nymphes.

Legâlis, le, belongyng to the lawe.

Legúmen, nis, n. g idem quod Legumen.

Legatárius, ri, ma. gene. he to whom any thyng is bequethed.

Legataria prouincia, a prouince appoynted to one.

Legátio, ônis, fœm. g. an ambassade or office of an ambassadour.

Accipere legationem, To take on hym the charge of a Legacie.

Gerere legationem, and fungi legatione, to be an ambassadour.

Legatio libera, a legacy or lieutenantesshyppe purchased by fauour, to the entent that one male with more authoritee prosecute his owne priuate matters in the countrey whither he is sente.

Votiua legatio, whan one purchaseth the title of an ambassadour or lieutenant, ỹ he male the more honourably perfourme a vowe that he hath made.

Legatiuum, ui, neut. gener. that is geuen to the ambassadour for his expence, his dietes, his al-lowaunce.

Legatitius, a, um, pertenyng to legacies.

Legátor, óris, ma. gene. he that bequetheth any thyng, the testatour.

Legátum, ti, n. g. a legacy or bequest.

Legátus, ti, ma. gen. an ambassadour, that hath commission to treate of matters. He that is sent onely to salute or congratulate, is called Oratour. It is also a lieutenant or generall capitayne of an armie.

Legerda, a citee in great Armenie.

Legibilis, le, legible, that male be redde,

Légifer, idem quod Legislator.

Legio, ônis, f. g. a companie of men of warre, contempng commonly. 6000, foote men. 732. horsemen: or after Varro. 12500. menne of warre: But it is manifest in Liui, that the nombre of a legion is vncertayne. It is also a towne in Cornwall, now called Lesnard.

Legion, the chefe citee of Castile called Lion.

Legionárius, a, um, of or perteinyng to a legion.

Legirupa, æ, m. g. a breaker of lawes.

Legislátor, óris, mas. gen. a maker or geuer of lawes.

Legitimé, laufully, accordyng to the lawe.

Legitimus, a, um, accordyng to the lawe, lawfull, rpght, conuenient, meete, iuft.

Legitimi dies, daies in banke before ordinarie iudges, whan the partie shoulde appere or pleade: or els it male be daies of returne in the kynges benche or chaunceric.

Legitima iudicia, iudgementes confirmed by lawes written or auncient custome.

Legitimo functionis tempore expleto, the ordinarie tyme of his ministryng being expired.

Legiuncula, læ, f. g. a small legion.

Lego, aui, are, to sende as an ambassadour, or as a legate, or deputee, to committe or appoynct, to bequeth. also to assigne or impute.

Cassium sibi legauit, he toke Cassius to bee his lieutenant.

Famulum legare aliquo, to send his seruant any whither.

Legare negotium alicui, to commit a charge or busynesse to one.

Legare fortunæ, to assigne or impute to fortune, to blame or laie the fault on fortune.

Consulem legare ad id bellum placuit, their pleasure was, that the consull should be sent as chiefe capitayne to that warres.

Legare aliquid alicui, to geue a thyng to one by testamente.

Lego, legi, gere, to gather, to rede, to passe by, to chouse, to strike. sometyme to steale.

Legere sermonem alterius, to hearken what one saieth.

Legere vestigia, to folowe one steppe by step.

Legens oram Italiæ, sailyng along by the sea coast of Italie.

Légula, læ, f. g. a killette.

Legulcius, lei, mascu. ge. a lawier, a student of the lawe.

Légulus li m. g. a gatherer of small thynges, as grapes or olyues.

Legûmen, mînis, n. g. all maner of pulse, as beanes, pease, vetches, tares. &c.

Legumêntum, ti, and Legarium, rii, neu. gene. the same.

Leleges, or Lelegæ, people, whiche were alwaie wandryng: and inhabited sometyme in Thessalie.

Leitus, one of the. v. capitaynes of Boetia, that went to Troie.

Lelaps, lelapis, one of Acteons dogges.

Lema, æ, f. g. a teare congeled. Erasmus saith, that Lema is a congeled humour in the eie, that hurteth the sight.

Lemânus, a poole, into the whiche the ryuer of Rone renneth, called in frenche Lausane.

Lembunculus, li, a diminutiue of Lembus.

Lembus, bi, m. g. a swifte litell shyppe, which male be called a barke.

Lemma, mâtis, n. g. an argument.

Lemnia terra, that whiche is nowe called Terra sigillata.

Lemniſci, órum, m. g. plu. labelles hangyng downe from garlandes. also iesses belongyng to an haulke.

Lemniſcâtus, a, um, that hath suche labelles, or iesses hangyng downe.

Lemnius, a, um, of Lemnos.

Lemnos, one of the Iles called Cicladas, where in Vulcan was nourished. The women of this ile beyng in a furie, that their husbandes were longe absent in warres, whan they came home (conspiryng together) slewe theym all in one nyght, except Hipsiphile the kynges daughter, saued and conueighed by her father. Reade in Hipsiphile.

Lemonium, nii, n. g. an herbe.

Lemoſi, they that weepe lyghtly.

Lemouices, Lymosin in Fraunce.

Lémures, murum, m. g. plur. spirites, whiche do walke by night with horrible figures.

Lemuria, órum, neu. ge. plu. feastes dedicate to those spirites.

Lenæum, a holy daie kept at Athenes.

Lenæus, one of the names of Bacchus.

Lena, næ, f. g. a woman baude.

Lendiginoſus, a, um, full of nittes.

Lenè, idem quod leniter.

Lenimentum, ti, and Lenimen, minis, n. g. that maketh pleasaunt or sweete, that taketh away the sharpenesse or eigernesse of a thyng.

Lenio, iui, ire, to pacifie, to moderate, to appeale, to treate gentilly, to make playne or smoothe, to comforte. Quo illam mihi lenirent miseriam, that they myght ease me of the sorowe or care that I was in.

Lenire tempeſtates, to appeale the tempestes.

Lenis, ne, not soone angrie, soone contented or pleased, full of sufferance, that whiche hath no roughnes, meke, tractable, softe of condicions, gentyll, modest, mylde, pleasaunt in taste, contrary to eiger and tarte.

Lene & aſperum, contrary.

Venenum lene, an easy poyson, that killeth a man without peyne.

Vinum lene, delicious and pleasaunt wyne.

Ingenio leni eſſe, to haue a gentyll nature.

Lenes cibi and acres, contrary.

Lénitas, tâtis, and Leniténdo, dinis, f. g. meekenesse, gentilnesse, easinesse to please, softenesse, smoothe smoothenesse. Also pleasauntnesse in taste, sawourablenesse.

nter, softely, swetely, moderately, gentyly.
no, ônis, com. gener. a baude, a marchaunte of hoores.
nobates, a treader of grapes.
nocinium, nij, n. gen the practise of baudrie.
Somtyme immoderate & exequisite cleanlynesse or eleganey to stere a man to vice, a vicious pleasauntnesse, a pleasaunt inticement or lure.
nocinor, aris, ari, to practise baudrie Also to speake faire or allure one with woordes, and other pleasaunt thynges sometyme to gette fa-uour, to make a thyng to haue the more grate.
nônius, a, um, pertenyng to baudes.
ens, lendis, f. g. a nitte.
ens, lentis, farm. gene. a hynde of pulse, called lyntelles.
✠ Ante lentem augere ollam, to vse to muche haste, to fish before the nette.
✠ In lente vnguentum, a prouerbe, signifiyng the thing to be absurde: as farre from the purpose as Magnificat from mattens: as mete for this matter as swete oyle in potage Lens palustris, duckes meate or water lintel-les, whiche in standyng waters lieth houeryng.
enter, easyly, softly, slowly.
Lente ferre, to suffre or take patiently.
Lente agere, to doo a thynge slowely, and negligently.
Lente ac fastidiose aliquem probare, to proue by lyttell and lyttle in longe continuaunce.
Lentissime mandere, to eate verye slowely and leysurely.
lenteo, tui, tere, to be softe, tendre, to be pliant.
Lentesco, scere, to be smothe or redre, to become clammy lyke glew, pitche, or birde lime.
lenticula, læ, f. g. a pulse called chittes.
Lenticula, a maner of vessell, out of the whiche kynges and princes were anoynted. a Chrisi-matorie also a rounde redde thynge lyke a lyntell in mens visages.
Lenticularis, re, lyke a chitte or latche.
Lentiginosus, he that hath in his face or body many lyttle redde markes lyke lyntelles.
Lentigo, iginis, f. g. a thyng lyke a lyttle warte in the face, redde or blacke.
Lentiscus, a lyttle tree, out of the whiche cometh a swete gumme called Mastix, mastix tree. of this tree they make tooth pickes: and fyne dust to scoure the teethe.
✠ Lentiscum mădit, spoken proverbially of one that trymmeth hym selfe to curiously.
Lentisciuus, a, um, made of the tree Lentiscus.
Lentisciferus, a, um, that beareth these trees.
Lentitia, æ, f. g. softenesse, pliantnesse.
Lentitudo, dinis f. g. slowenesse, negligence.
Lento, aui are, to doo a thyng softely, easily, or slowly. also to make pliant or flexible.
Lentor, ôris, mas. gen. a clammy and glewyshe humour.

Lentulus, a cytezyn of Rome.
Lentulus, a, um, a diminutiue of Lentus.
Lentus, a, um, softe, gentyll, tendre, pliant, that bowseth easyly, calme, slowe, remisse, secure, careless, at reste, idell, cleauyng, or clammie, longe in doyng a thyng sometyme colde. also that continueth long.
Lento grada ire, to go slowely or softe pace.
Lentus ignis, a softe fyre.
Lentior pugna, a slacke batayle with out fier-cenes.
Tellus lenta, clammie.
Lentus humor, a colde humour.
Lenta vinacitas, whan one is long in dyeng.
Lenta mora, longe tarieng, lyngeryng.
Lenulus, a lyttle or ponge bawde.
Lenunculus, li, mas. gen. idem. also a lyttle fy-shars bote.
Leo, a mans name of Byzaunce.
Leo, les, leui, lere, to anoynt or smere ouer.
Leo, ônis, m. g a lion. also a shell fysshe called a lopstar. also a signe in the firmament.
☞ Leonem ex vnguibus æstimare, To esteeme the lion by his talons: A prouerbe, signifieng, to perceyue by a lyttle what the whole matter meaneth: or by a peece of a thyng what the whole is.
✠ Leonem radere, spoken where one attempteth a thyng dangerous and all most impossible.
☞ Leo risit, a prouerbe, touchyng them, whiche be sowre of countynaunce, fyerse, and vncourteyse.
Leochares, the name of an excellent grauer.
Leodamas, the proper name of a philosophyer.
Leon, a philosophyer.
Leonides, a kyng of the Lacedemonians, whiche dyde incredible feates of warre agaynst Xerxes kynge of Persia: and fynally was slayne in defendynge Grece, with 4800 grekes only, agaynst .xvii. hundred thousande of the hoste of Xerres. There was also an other Leonides, whiche was tutour to kynge Alexander, whan
he was a childe.
Leoninus, a, um, of a lion.
Leonina, næ, fæ. ge. an herbe, whiche groweth on hilles, whose floures are lyke to a lions mouthe, whan he gapeth.
Leontice, ces, f. g. an herbe, called also Lacalia, and hath lyttle seedes lyke to a margarite, and is called of the apothecaries Carui agreste.
Leontini, people of Sicilie
Leontios, a kynde of precious stones.
Leontopetalon, li, n. g. an herbe, hauyng leaues like to colewortes, the stalke hauke a foote hygh, the seede in huskes as great as smalle pease,
the roote like a rape roote, greate and blacke, whiche helpeth agaynst the styngyng and bytyng of all maner of serpentes.
Leontophonon, a lyttle woorme, whiche if the lion do byte, the lyon dieth incontinent.
Leontophona, næ, f. gen. a lyttle beaste, whose hrade is turned into aſches, wherwith men doe myxte fleſhe and caſt it into the waies, wherby lions dooe paſſe, wher of if they dooe eate, they die incontinent.

Leontopodion, dij, neu. gene. an herbe called Pee de leon, whiche hath floures lyke roſes vnſpreadde.

Leontopodium, an herbe, which ſome do take is lyke to that, whiche is called Marigouldes, ſome ſuppoſe it to be the herbe, which is called Dent de lion.

Leopardus, di, m. g. a leoparde.

Lepaduſa, the yle of Sicilie.

Lepidé, pleaſauntely, preatily, with a grace, honeſtly.

Lepidé memoras, this is well ſaied of you.

Lépide ſtratus lectus, mintonly, trimmely.

Vin' tu lepidé facere? will ye dooe well?

Lepidium, an herbe, whiche Virgilius Marcellus ſuppoſeth to be that, whiche the apothecaries dooe call Senrac. Ruellius deſcribeth it to haue leaues whan they be yong, lyke to laurell, but they be ſofter. Finally it is lyke a ſwoorde blade rebated: the ſtalke riſeth in height a cubite, and hath a great roote with a thycke rynd, and a pithe lyke to woodde. Some phiſicions dooe call it Tittandor. Dioſcorides affirmeth Lepidium and Gingidium, to be all one, whiche Gingidium ſome dooe call cherule.

Lepidotes, tis, f. ge. a precious ſtone, lyke to the ſcales of fyſhes.

Lepidulé, the dimmutiue of Lepidé.

Lépidus, a, um, nete, polite, pleaſaunt, as well in ſpeache as in geſture, that hath a good grace, preatie, mery.

Mores lepidi, pleaſaunt maniers.

Lepida occaſio, a good occaſion.

Lepidum nuncium, mery tydynges.

O capitulum lepidiſsimum, O luttell preatie ſeat goll poll.

Lepiſta, tæ, f. ge. a lyttle potte or viole.

Lepor, and Lepos, ôris, m. ge. pureneſſe or neteneſs in ſpeche. Alſo the good grace and deleſtableneſſe in ſpeche, geſture, or dooeynge a thyng, pleaſauntneſſe.

Leporarium, rij, n. ge. an incloſure, or place incloſed, wherin are kept any beaſtis for pleſure, or huntyng, a parke, a cunnygare.

Leporinus, a, um, of an hare.

Leporis palatum, an herbe called Sowthiſtel, in greke Sonchus.

Lepra, præ, f. g. lepre.

Leprium, a citee of Achaia, an other in Arcadia.

Leptenacra, a promontorie of Indie.

Lepris, the name of two citees in Akrike the laſſe.

Leptoludiæ, blache fygges.

Lepton, an herbe of the kynde of Centaurie.

Leptophillon, li, n. ge. a kynde of Spurge that hath briode leaues.

Lepus, the weyght of a karat and an halfe.

Indyeas Iciatus in tres poſteriores libros ſaieth, a karat is the thyrde parte of Obolus, whiche is halfe a ſcrupull.

Lepus, léporis, m. g. an hare.

✠ Duos ſimul inſequor lepores, I ſtiche after two thynges atones, and am lyke to ſpede both: betweene two ſtooles my taple is like to goe to the ground.

Lepuſculus, li, maſ. g. a leueret or ponge hare.

Lepus, a certayne fiſche, whiche is poyſon to a man, and a man to hym.

Leria, one of the yles called Sporades: the people therof are called Lerij, of whoſe maners grew a prouerbe, Lerij mali.

Lerne, or lerna, a lake or a fenne in Achaia cheſ Argos, and a fenne, in the whiche was the ſerpēt Hydra with many heades as ponres fayne. Into this lake the people of the citees of Argus and Mycene dyd throw all the erthe and ſweppynges of theyr ſtretes and houſes, wherof came the prouerbe, ✠ Lerna malorū, wherby was ſignified an heape of miſchiefes: or any perſon, in whom is all vice and abhomination.

Lerneus, a, um, of Lerna.

Leros, an ilande in the ſea Icarie.

Leſtóſa, a citee of Spaine, called now Tomía.

Leſbos, an yle in the ſea called Egeum, where was the citee Mytilene.

Leſbius, a, um, of the yle of Leſbos.

Leſbia regula, is ſpoken, where as reaſon is applied to the acte, and not the acte to reaſon: where the law is accommodate to maners, and not maners to the lawe. Hereof ſpeaketh Ariſtotle Mozal. lib v. of that, which is infinite, the rule is infinite like the leaden rule of Leſbos, which ſerueth for buildyng, and is chaunged to the faction of the ſtone.

Leſſus, us, m. ge. a lamentable voyce vſed in the buryng of men, as we doo ſaie, alas.

Leſtorum, a region of Indie.

Leſtrygones, a people in the extreme part of Italie, whiche dyd eate the companions of Vlixes roſting them on bzoches.

Leſtrygonus, a, um, of that people.

Letalis, le, mortall, deadely.

Letáliter, mortally, deadely.

Letata corpora, bodies of them that be ſlayne.

Letâtus, a, um, ſlayne.

Letâmen, minis, n. g. compoſte, dong, or muke, laied in the feldes to make corne and graſſe to growe plentyouſely.

Letania, or Litania, a ſupplication or common prayer.

Letargia, or Lethargus, whiche of ſom is called Veternus, is (as Paulus Egineta writeth) a diſeaſe in that parte of the heade, in the whiche the the power of reaſon is cōteined, poſſeſſyng the ſame place that phrenely dooeth, that is to ſaie the brayne: but the cauſe and matter be contrary. For in this is continuall neceſſitee of ſlepe, f slepe, harde to be awaked, the matter beyng moyste and verie colde humour, waschyng the brayne, and compellyng one to slepe. Alexander Trallianus addeth therto, that therin is suche a forgetfulnesse, that he which is sicke, can not remembre whatsoe he wolde speake. Constantinus saieth, that where somtyme they doe gape, they do forget to close theyr mouthes. It is sometyme called Vera, and then is it of a more colde matter. and sometyme it is called Non vera, and than is it of a colde matter mixte with a lyttle blonde or choler: seldome it happeth of Melancholy. sometyme it followeth an other sickenesse, as a fleumatike feuer, or the sickenesse of the longes called Peripneumonia. In these diseases by heate the fleume is made subtyll, and is plucked vppe to the brayn, where a continuall feuer and that bee together: somtyme the feuer departeth in the space of seuen dayes, and leaueth behinde that sickenesse.

thárgicus, ci, m. gen. he that hath the slepyng or forgetfull sickenesse.

thara, looke Letara.

the, a ryuer of helle, the water whereof as sone as it is dronke, causeth a man to forgette all thyng that is passed. it is also a ryuer in Thrike.

theus, a, um, of that ryuer.

thifer, ra, rum, deadely, byngyng or causyng deathe.

thificus, a, um, causyng deathe.

tho, aui, are, to slea.

thum, or Lethum, ti, n. g. deathe.

Leto interire, to bee slayne.

Eripere se letho, to take his owne life.

eua manus, the lefte hande.

euámen, minis, and Leuamentum, ti, n. g. solace, comfort, cõsolacion, that diminisheth iuell or sorowe, and maketh it more tollerable.

euátio, ônis, f. gen. a consolacion, an easyng, a diminishyng of peyne or sorowe.

euátus, a, um, lifted vp.

euca, a promontorie or elbowe of lande, nyghe to Corinthus.

eucachátes, tis, ma. gene. a precious stone that is white.

eucadia, an ile by the bosome of the sea called Ambracium.

eucacantha, is (as Io. Agricola affirmeth) a thornie bushe comyng vppe in hedges and ditches, hauyng white swete floures: or els a kynde of square thistils, full of prickes. Manardus supposeth it to bee that, whiche the Arabians call Bedeguar. Ruellius affirmeth it to bee that, whiche Dioscorides calleth Rhamnus: the Romayns Albam spinam, white thorne, growyng in hedges, hauyng streight vp braunches full of prickes, lyttel leaues, somewhat longe, fatty and softe. Some is whiter than other, the darker coloured hath broder leaues, and somwhat ruddy, the twigges be in length almost fyue cubites, the fruite white, brode, thynne, fashioned like a codde. Nowe haue ye the sundrie discriptiõs of the great lerned men of this tyme: diuine what Leucacantha is: for so to so diuers opinions I can not fynde one englishe, except I shoulde call it white brier. this Leucacantha is cõmonly after some mens opinion named Carduus S. Mariæ, our ladie thistle.

Leucámthemis, an herbe, which phisitions of late dates call Camomill, loke Chamœmelon.

Leucæthiopes, a people of Affrike.

Leucargilion, lij, n. g. white clate.

Leucas, cadis, fœm. gen. a towne in the countrey of Leucadie.

Leucaspis, a Troian, whiche sailed with Eneas into Italie.

Leucates, a mountayne in Epiro. also an yle.

Leuce, a kynde of mosphru.

Leuce, a lyttell towne, not farre from Smirna, also an herbe lyke Mercurie, hauyng a white line in the middle of the leafe. Leucerodius.

Leucippus, a philosophier.

Leucocrýsos, a precious stone.

Leucogea, a precious stone.

Leucogei, certayne hilles in Italie by Naples.

Leucóion, leucóij, n. g. the generall name of all kyndes of violettes: not withstanding it is properly taken for the winter gilofer, whiche is a kind of violettes.

Leucola, an ile by Cypres.

Leucôma, mătis, n. g. the webbe in the eie whan it is rooted. also the white of an egge. also the table, wherin the names of iudges or officers be written, and the actes of euery yere regestred, called also Album.

Leucon, a kyng of Pontus, slayne of his brother Oxilocus for adulterie. A husband man of the same name.

Leucónium, nij, or Leuconicum, ci, neu. gene. white cotton.

Leucopetalos, a white precious stone with strakes of golde.

Leucopetra, a promontorie of Sicilie.

Leucóphæus, phæi, ma. gen. a browne or russet colour.

Leucophæátus, a, um, that weareth a russette garment.

Leucophlegmantia, a white dropsy.

Leucophlegmatia, or Leucophlegmatias hyderos, one kynde of dropsy, wherin all the body swelleth vnequally.

Leucóphorum, ri, n. gen. that they souldre golde with, borax.

Leucophthalmos, a precious stone lyke a white eye.

Leucopus, white of naturall colour.

Leucosia, an ile against Pestanum, in the sea Thyrrenum.

Leucosiria, a countrey, whiche is nowe called Cappadocia.

Leucosydorum cubitus, a place in Cappadocia.

Leucostictos, a stone that hath white spottes in it.

Leucothea, the goddesse, whiche was called Matuta and Aurora.

Leucothoe, the daughter of Orcamus of Babylon, whom (beyng gotten with childe by Phebus) hir father dydde burie aliue: but Phebus (as poetes fayne) dyd transforme hir into a tree, out of the whiche renneth frankyncens.

Leucrocuta, a beaste in Inde, as great as an asse, hauyng legges lyke an herte, the heade, necke, tayle, and breast of a grate or badger, the feete clouen, a wide gapyng mouth vp to the eares: with stedre of teeth, one hole bone, in his voyce he will resemble the speche of a mã. Plinie sayeth, this beastes head is of the facion of Melis, and Melis is the beaste called Taxo, whiche is a grate or badger. Solinus sayeth, he hath the head of a camell, whiche vnchaunce was the faute of the wryter or prynter, whiche vnto Meli, added Ca, and made it Cameli.

Leuctra, plur. and Leuctrum, or Leuctra, singu. a towne of Beotia.

Leuctricus, a, um, of Leuctra.

Leui, one of the sonnes of Jacob the patriarke.

Leuiathan, a dragon of the sea. It is taken in holy scripture for the deuell.

Leuiculus, a, um, somewhat light. also wanton.

Leuidensa, æ, for. g. a garmente made of course clothe, suche as men vsed in old tyme to geue to guestes or their acquayntance.

Leuidensæ munus, spoken prouerbially of a simple gifte and of small value.

Leuifidus, a, um, of lyght or small credence or trouste.

Leuipes, uipedis, om. g. swifte, light of foote.

Leuir, léuiri, m. g. the husbandes brother.

Leuis, leue, lyght, liger, easy, vnconstant, small, vile, of litteli value, of small reputacion.

Leuia vina, small wynes.

Leuis armaturæ milites, lyght souldiours.

Leuis armaturæ excursio in oratione, lyghte argumentes, that men bryng before they come to the pithe of the matter.

Leuis author, of no authorite.

Leuis homo, an vnconstant man. also a vile person of small estimacion.

Leuia hæc sunt, these are but trifelyng & lyght thynges, or matters of small importance.

Leui brachio aliquid agere, to doo a thynge sleightyly, or negligently.

Dolor leuis, id est paruus.

Impensa leuis, small coste or charge.

Precium leuius, a more easy price.

Reprehensio leuis, a small rebuke.

Leuis labor, a lyght and easy labour.

Leuita, among the Jewes was a minister in their ceremonies vnder their prestes, a deacon.

Léuitas, tâtis, f. g. lightnesse, inconstancie.

Léuiter, lightly, vnconstantly, small, meanely, easyly, pacyently.

Leuiter agnoscere, to haue a litteli knowlage of a thynge.

Leuiter antigerse studia, to be a student for a litle whyle, to haue but meane learnyng.

Leuiter inter se dissidere, there is a litle variance betwene them.

Leuiter eruditus homo, a man of small learnyng, or meanly learned.

Leuiter aspersus laudibus, praysed a litell.

Leuines ferre, to take paciently.

Leuiter inflexum, a litteli bowed.

Vt leuissime dicam, to speake most gently, that I may not speake the extremitie.

Leuissime læsus, hurte very litteli.

Leuiter aliquid tangere, to touche or speake of a thyng briefly, or in a fewe wordes.

Bene volumus leuiter lenonibus, we are bawdes but small fauour.

Leuius lædit, it hurteth lesse.

Leui somnus, a, um, that is soone slepeth, that is lyghtly or soone awake.

Leuo, aui, are, to lyfte vp. sometyme it is take for wape, to abate, to minyshe, or mitigate, to make easy or lyght, to helpe, to vnbourden.

Leuare aliquem onere, to discharge one of his burdeyne.

Leuare animum, to recreate the mynde.

Leuare annonam, to minyshe the price of victuales.

Leuare tributum alicuius agri, to take wythrente for a certayne plotte of grounde or peice of lande.

Leuare facinus alicuius, to extenuate or make smal a mischeuous dede.

Leuare ictum serpentis, To heale one stounge with an adder.

Leuare laborem alicui, To ease one of his labour, or to put hym out of peyne.

Leuare metum alicui, to put one out of feare.

Leuare morbum alicui, To make his sickenes more easy.

Leuare populum frumento, to helpe the people with corne in tyme of scarsitie.

Leuare suam authoritatem, to minyshe his authoritee.

Leuare amicitias remissione vsus, to leese of frendshyp by litteli and litle.

Calamitatem innocentium leuare, To helpe theim that be troubled wrongfully, to deliuer theim out of trouble.

Leuare dentes penna, to picke the teeth with a quille.

Paupertatem alicui leuare, to healpe one that is in pouertee and nede.

Promissa multa fidem leuant, he that promiseth many thynges, is not lyghtly beleued.

Ieuare sese ære alieno, to pate his debtes.

Sumptum leuare, to diminische ones charges, to make that he spende not so muche.

Leuare vincula, to slacke the bondes that one is tyed with.

Leuare plagam, in graffyng after the stocke is sawed, to pare the heade smoth he with a knyfe.

Leuis,

ius, or rather Læuus, a, um, lefte. also whan it is spoken of worldely thynges, it signifieth lefte, vnhappy: contrary, whan it is referred to celestiall thynges, it betokeneth right, fortunate, prosperous. For that whiche to vs is the lefte hande, to theim, whiche are aboue, and doo looke towarde vs, is the ryght hande, looke Læuus.

Leuphana, a citee of Germanie, called comonly Hanoler.

Leutychides, a kynge of Lacedemonie.

Lex, legis, fœ. g. lawe. also a statute or decree, a rule to folowe, a couenant or condition.

Lex municipalis, The peculiar lawe, whiche euery citee hath.

Lex orchia, a lawe, whiche assigned, howe many persons shoulde be boden to supper, and that men shoulde suppe at their doores, to the intent that it myght appeere, how the lawe was obeied.

Lex plagiaria, wherby men were whipped.

Leges Cẽturiatæ, lawes made by thassemblees called Comitia Centuriata, rede Comitia.

Leges Curiatæ, lawes made in the assemblee called Curiata comitia, whiche were called by curies.

Leges Tribunitiæ, lawes made by all the cõmon people, whiche wer also called Plebiscita.

Lege agere, to sue in the lawe: also, to put the law in execution.

Legibus soluere, to dispense or graunt a pardone to one, to doo any thyng contrary to a lawe made.

Sancire leges, to ordeyn and stablisshe lawes.

Hac lege, on this condition.

Astringi legibus, to be subiect to the lawes.

Lege vendere, whan the lawe geueth authoritee to selle.

Hanc ad legem formanda vobis oratio est, after this rule. ꝛc.

Leges perlege, rede the conditions.

Abrogare lege, legi, and legem, to abrogate parte of a lawe.

Lexis, lexeos, f. g. a woorde.

Lexipyreti, medicines, whiche doo heale men of feuers.

Lexouij, or Lexuuij, people in hygh Fraunce about Burbon.

L ANTE I.

Li, one of the wiues of Jacob the patriarke.

Lix, be holes in the toppe of a mast, whiche doo receyue the hailers or ropes.

Liba, an yle in the Indian sea.

Libadion, an herbe called the lesse Centory.

Libámen, báminis, Libamentum, ti, n. ge. and Libátio, ônis, fœm. gen. a taste or sale taken, properly in sacrifice.

Libanius, the name of a great rhetorician.

Libánicus, a, um, of frankincense.

Libanocnes, a precious stone like to frankincens.

Libanos, a tree growynge in Arabia, out of the whiche reuneth frankincense, whiche of Euripides is called Libanos, and the tree Libanotos: contrary wyse of Sophocles and Galenus, the tree is called Libanos, and the gum Libanôtos.

Libanôtis, tidis, f. g. an herbe called Rosemary.

Libanotus, a wynde, whiche bloweth blowe out of the northweast.

Libanus, a mountayn betwene Arabia and Phœnicia. It is also a tree, whiche bryngeth foorth incense.

Libárius, rii, m. g. he that selleth takes.

Libâtus, a, um, tasted, assated, sacrificed, taken out of an other thyng, lobe Libo.

Libarnum, or Libarna, a citee of Liguria.

Libella, læ, f. g. the diminutiue of Libra, it was also a smalle coigne, and of theim were twoo sortes: one was worthe the tenth part of Sesterius, the other the tenth part of Denarius, idem quod As, assis. It is also the line and plummette of a mason or carpenter.

Libellaticus, ci, m. g. he that for feare of punishment is content to haue his name regestred amongthe ydoll woorshyppers.

Libéllio, ónis, m. ge. a writer of bookes. also a carier of letters.

Libéllulus, li, m. g. a verie littell booke.

Libellus, li, m. gen. a littell booke. sometyme an epistoll, a supplication, a libell or declaration in the lawe, of debte, trespas, couenant, and other lyke, a citacion, a rolle conteynyng notes made for memorie, a letter sette vp on a poste or walle. sometyme a poynt or article, a bill of complaynt, also a certayne measure.

Libelli supplices, supplications made to great men.

Libellus memorialis, a litell regester, scrow, or table made for memorie.

Libellorũ præfecti, maisters of the requestes, whiche doo receiue billes of supplication, beyng put vp to the kyng or prince.

Libellos agere, to be maister of the requestes.

Libellos signáre, to aunswere to the billes of request.

A libellis, maister of the requestes.

Libens, entis, om. g. willyng, gladde.

Libenti animo, gladly.

Me libente, with my good will.

Libentissimis omnibus, with euery mannes ryght good will.

Libens, for Libenter.

Libenter, willyngly, gladly.

Bene libenter victitas, thou louest to fare wel, and make good chere.

Libentia, æ, f. g. a delectacion, a pleasure.

Libentina, one of the names of Venus, or Proserpina.

Liber, liberi, the kinder of wine, called also Bacchus and Dionysius. it is sometyme put for wyne.

wyne. sometyme for the sonne.

Liber, libri, ma. gen. a booke or warke writen, the inner rynde of a tree. sometyme a regester, an Inuentorie.

Liber, libera, erum, free, at libertee, not bounden, large or great, bolde or franke. also without businesse or lette, not subiect.

Libero aëre viuere, to lyue in open ayre.

Literæ liberæ, letters, wherin one spareth not to shew his mynd freely and frankely.

Tempus liberum, a vacant tyme, or durynge whiche season one may doo what he listeth.

Liber ab irrisione, not mocked.

Liber à legibus, not subiecte to lawes.

Liber religione animus, a mynde without all religion or feare of god.

Liberum est mihi, I maie, it is in my power or choyse.

Libero corde fabulari, to common his mynd boldely.

Liber lectulus, whan one lyeth alone without a bedde felowe.

Liber locus, a place, where one maie doo his pleasure without feare or correction.

Laborum liber, that laboureth not.

Relinquere liberum alicui, To leaue to ones choyse, to dw or thynke what he listeth.

Liberâlia, órum, n. g. a solemne or festiuall day dedicate to Bacchus.

Liberâlis, le, liberall, comely, well fauoured, full of largesse, full of liberalitee.

Liberales artes, the liberall sciences, or sciences belongyng to a free man.

Liberalis forma, a good fauour.

Liberale ingenium, a free courage, an honest nature or disposition.

Liberale iudicium, & liberalis causa, where a man contendeth for his libertee.

Liberales ioci, vsses & merie sapingis mete for honest men.

Liberalis, and Auidus, contrary.

Liberalis facies, a well fauoured & good face, a face or fauour shewynge tokens of honestee and grace, honest.

Liberale contugium, honeste wedlocke betwene two persons free borne.

Liberâlitas, tâtis, f. g. liberaliter, bountie, honest intreatyng or dealyng, freenesse in geuyng or bestowyng.

Liberâliter, liberally, abundantly, largely, freely, honestly, lyke an honest body.

Exercitum quem in Asia ductauerat, luxuriosé, nimisque liberaliter habuerat, The army, whiche he had with hym in Asia, he let theim haue to muche their pleasure.

Liberaliter eruditus, well taught, brought vp in honest learnyng.

Liberaliter viuere, to lyue without vile occupation.

Liberaliter tractare, to intertein liberally.

Liberaliter polliceri, to promyse largely.

Seruire liberaliter, to doo ones dutie in his seruice honestly.

Liberâtor, óris, m. g. he that deliuereth.

Liberâtio, ónis, f. g. a setyng at libertee.

Liberè, frankely, liberally, without constreynt or let, boldely, freely, without feare.

Libere viuere, to lyue at pleasure.

Educari libere, to bee brought vp honestly like a gentyll man.

Libere loqui, to speake freely and boldly, forbeyng no daunger.

Liberi, órum, m. g. plu. children as well women as men, and sometyme it is spoken of one.

Auctus liberis, he that hath a childe borne.

Liberides, conyes.

Libero, aui, are, to deliuer, to set at libertee, to bryng out of bondage.

Liberare creditorem, To contente or satisfie hym, of whom money is borowed, to paye debtes.

Culpæ aliquem liberare, to discharge one, to shew hym to be blameles.

Liberatus sum tua opera, I am ryddē out of daunger by thy helpe.

Liberare se ære alieno, to paie his debte.

Liberare aliquem metu, to putte one out of feare.

Liberare fidem suam, to dwe that he promised.

Libertas, tâtis, fœ. ge. libertee taken well neuer alwaie in the good parte.

Dare libertatem alicui, to make one free.

Recipere libertatem, to receyue agayn their franchise or libertee.

Vindicare in libertatem, To deliuer out of bondage, to sette at libertee.

Libertinus, a, um, that is manumised or made free. also borne of one that was a seruaunt.

Libertus, and Liberta, he or she that of a bonde man or woman is manumised or infranchised, a late seruaunt.

Liberum arbitrium, free wyll.

Libet, it liketh or contenteth, it pleaseth.

Libuit, it was my pleasure so to doo, I was disposed, it was my phantasye, lust, or appetite.

Cætera quæ cuiq; libuissent, whiche liked euerie man in his owne phantasie.

Quoniam libitum est vobis, because it hath pleased you.

Si libitum fuerit, yf it come in his head.

Libethra, a caue, wherin was a well called Libethros, where the Muses beyng conuersant, were therfore called Libethrides.

Libethrides, the Muses or ladyes of sciences.

Libethrij, a people of Persia, vtterly rude and vnlerned.

Libethrus, a mountayne in Macedonia, where the Muses dyd dwell.

Libidinarius, an haunter of lechery.

Libidinôsus, a, um, lecherous, wylfull, pleasant.

Libidinosæ dapes, curious and exquisite fare.

Libidis

idinoſe, lecherouſely, wpkullye, after ones owne appetite.

idinor, âris, ari, to plaie the lechour.

ido, bidinis, fœm. gen. ſenſualitee, vnlefull appetite or luſte. ſometyme it ſignifieth onely appetite or wyll.

itina, æ, fœm. ge. a goddeſſe, in whoſe temple were ſolde all thynges pertepnynge to ſepultures or funeralles. ſometyme for buryng, or ſellyng of ſuche thynges as appertepne to buryng. alſo the charge and expenſe at buryinge. alſo for deathe, or the beere, wheron dead bodies are carped.

bitinarius, rij. m. g. he that hath the ſurueipng and charge about buryinges.

bo, bonis, a citeſyn of Rome.

bo, aui, are, to taſte any thynge. ſometyme to touche. ſometyme to ſacrifice. ſometyme to take or pyke out in readyng of authoures that which lyketh one.

Libare guſtu potum, to taſte or ſap the drinke.

Oſcula libauit natæ, he kyſſed his daughter.

Cibum libare digitis, to touch.

Cibi libati ore alicuius, taſted.

Thura libare diis, to ſacrifice.

bora, a citee in Spayn, called ſometyme Elbora, nowe commonly Talauera.

bra, bræ, f. g. a pounde, wherof be thre ſortes, one called Troiana or Publica, conteinpng. 16. ounces: whiche all occupiers in weighynge doe vſe commonly: An other is called Romana, contepnyng. 12. ounces, whiche the Romanes were wonte to vſe, and this doe our potticaries vſe: and of this pounde doe all the auncient writers ſpeake. The thirde pounde is called Marca, Octonaria, or Nummularia, whiche conteineth but. viii. ounces, that is, halfe ſo muche as the common pounde: by this pounde they doe weigh money. alſo a meaſure of lyquour conteinpng. 12. ounces. Sometyme a payre of balaces. it is alſo one of the. 12. ſignes. ſometyme a carpenters lyne, a maſons rule.

Libra Romana, after ſome, was equall with our pounde ſterlyng: but more truely, it is twyſe ſo muche. For Libra conteyneth. 100. denarios, and euery denarius. is in value a grote ſterlyng.

Libra attica, reade in Mina.

Libralis, le, that is a pounde weight or meaſure.

Libramentum, ti, n. ge. equall poyſe or weight, the tongue of the balance.

Libramenta tormentorum, ſtrynges, thonges, and cordes, belongyng to ingins of warre.

Libramenta plumbi, great weightes of leade put into the ingin called Aries.

Librâmen, brâminis, n. gen. the caſtyng or hurlyng of a darte.

Librâria, æ, fœm. g. a librarie, or a woman that weigheth out woull or flaxe.

Librâria taberna, a booke ſellers ſhoppe.

Librarium aramentum, prynters inke.

Librarius, rij, m. ge. a ſcriuener, a bokebynder, one that kepeth a libyarie. alſo he that weieth out flaxe, woull, or parne.

Librarius, a, um, perteinyng to bokes, balances, or of a pounde weight.

Libraria fruſta, powndeſtones, or thynges weighyng a pownde.

Librarium, rij, n. g. a groſſe regeſter.

Librâtor, tôris, m. g. a conueigher of water from well ſpryngs to cundites, conſiderpng the leuell of the places.

Librâtôres, hurlers of ſtones in warres.

Librile, lis, the hangyng equally of the balance, the beame of the balaūce.

Librilla, or libella, ſtones tyed by ſtrynges, or thonges, to hurle at men, vſed in olde tyme in the warres.

Libripens, dis, m. g. he that holdeth the balance in his hande, and weigheth, a weigher.

Libro, aui, are, to weyghe, to poyſe, to make weightie, to houer, to leuell, to counterpoiſe. ſometyme to diuide equally.

Librare tela, to caſt dartes with great violence.

Librat ſeſe ex alto Aquila, The egle houereth or ſoreth on high.

Libs, bis, m. g. a wynde, the whiche bloweth out of the ſouthe.

Libum, bi, n. g. a cake.

Liburni, people of the countreie called Liburnia. alſo common meſſangers.

Liburnia, a parte of Dalmatia or Slauonie, now called Croatia.

Liburnum, ni, n. g. Liburna, næ, and Liburnica, æ, fœm. gene. a lyghte and ſwyfte ſhyppe, a foyſte.

Liburnus, a, um, of Liburnia.

Libya, was amonge the Greekes, the generall name of all Africa: Notwithſtandyng it is of the Romaynes taken onely for that parte of Africa, whiche is from Aegypte to the weſt ocean, contepnynge Cyrenaica, Africa minor, Numidia, and Mauritania: The Spaniardes dwe commonly call them all Moores.

Libya interior, is bounded on the north with the two contres called Mauritane, with Africke the leſſe, and Cyrenaica: on the eaſt with Aethiope: on the ſouth with Aethiope the further: on the weaſt with the Occean ſea. In this countrey be the Garamantes and Getules.

Libycinus, a, um, of Libya.

Libycis, cidis, a towne in Judea on the eaſte part of the ryuer of Jordan.

Libycontes, ſtones, whiche are not very cleere.

Libycus, a, um, of Libya.

Libyophænices, people in Africa.

Libys, and Libyſſa, a man and woman of Libya.

Libyſſa, a citee of Bithynia, called commonly Polmen.

Libyſtinus, the ſurname of Apollo.

Lica, licæ, the name of one of Hercules compaſſpons,

Licam-

Licambes, a tirte of Lacedemonia.

Licenter, licentiouſely, ouer freely, with to muche libertee, to boldely or raſhely.

Licentia, æ, f. g. licence, vnlefull or immoderate libertee, power to doo a thyng.

Licentia temporum, a tyme whan euery man vſeth great libertee, and almoſte dooeth what he lyſteth.

Licentior, licentius, ouer liberall or free, diſſolute.

Licentior epiſtola, a letter, wherin one wꝛiſteth his mynde freely.

Licentior vita, a diſſolute and an vnruly lyfe.

Licentiôſus, a, um, raſche, vſyng vnlefull libertee, licencious, diſſolute.

Liceo, licui, cere, n. paſſ. to be pꝛiſed, or ſet at a pꝛice, or for howe muche it ſhall be ſolde.

Liceor, cêris, ceri, dep. to ſette the pꝛice hyghер, to ſhewe for how muche a man will ſelle it. alſo to cheapen, to offre a certayne pꝛice.

Licet, it is lefull. ſometyme it is vſed for maie.

Mihi licet, I maie. Tibi licet, thou mayeſt.

ſometyme be it ſo, admitte it.

Licuit eſſe otioſo Themiſtocli, Themiſtocles mought haue been without trauayle.

Nobis non licet eſſe tam diſertis, we can not be ſo well ſpoken or eloquent.

Per me vel ſtertas licet, Thou maieſt ſleape for me vntyll thou routeſt: or I will geue the leaue to route.

Licet mihi id de te diſcere, I maie learne this of you.

Licet. the aduerbe, be it, although.

Lichas, a meaſure, whiche exceedeth not foure fyngers.

Lichen, lichênis, m. g. or Lichéne, nes, fœ. g. a foule breakyng out, whiche begynneth about the chynne: and therfore is called Mentagra. ſome doo take it for the frenche pockes. but it ſemeth not ſo to be. alſo an herbe called Iperwoꝛte.

Lichnis agreſtis, called alſo Tragonaton, and Anthirrhinos, an herbe lyke to lyne ſeede, hauyng almoſt no roote, and a blue floure, with ſeedes lyke a calfes ſnoute. It groweth among coꝛne in ſome countreies.

Licianus, a poete in the tyme of Martiall.

Liciatorium, torii, n. g. a weauers ſhytell, or a ſpike womans rauell, wheron ſpike or threde beeyng wounden, is ſhotte through the webbe or loome.

Licitans, antis, he that cheapeneth, or he that inhaunceth the pꝛice.

Licitâtio, ônis, fœ. g. a cheapenyng, a pꝛyſyng, a ſettyng of the pꝛice, an open ſale.

Licium, cii, n. g. and Licia, ôrum, neu. g plur. thꝛedes, whiche ſpike women doo weaue in lyntels or ſtooles.

Licinia, æ, f. g. a hynde of olyue trees.

Licitor, âris, ari, to cheapen, to bydde a certayn pꝛice for a thyng, to pꝛiſe, to ſet the pꝛice hyghер, alſo to fyght, to deale blowes.

Licitâtor, ôris, m. gen. one that inhaunceth the pꝛice, one that in cheapenyng pꝛofeceth more, a chepner, a chapman. ſometyme it ſignifieth a broker.

Licitatorem apponere, to ſubozne one, to pꝛyſe or bidde moꝛe for a thyng.

Licité, lefully.

Licitò, idem.

Licitus, a, um, laufull.

Licoctonia, an herbe, whiche male be called woulfe beane.

Lictor, ôris, m. g. a ſergeant, or other lyke miniſter to execute coꝛporall punyſhement. I Conſul of Rome had. xii. other head officers ha vi. whiche bare euery one in theꝛ handes rodes and axes bounden togyther, to doo with theim execution, as they wer commanded.

Lictorius, a, um, pertenyng to ſergeantes and other lyke officers.

Lidoron, a tile, in length one foote and an halfe, in bꝛedth one foote.

Lien, ênis, or liênis, lienis, maſ. gen. the ſpleen, the milte.

Liénicus, and lienôſus, a, um, that is ſycke in the ſplene.

Lienôſum cor, an herte that ſwelleth.

Lienéria, æ, fœ. gen. ſlyppernelle of the gums, the flixe.

Lienéricus, a, um, that hath the flx.

Ligâmen, gâminis, n. g. a bonde.

Ligamentum, ti, n. g. and ligatura, æ, f. g. idem.

Ligarius, a Romayne.

Ligellum, li, n. g. a litle houſe or cottage.

Ligeon, a certaine tree. alſo an herbe.

Ligilium, an herbe mentioned in Columella.

Liger, ligeris, m g a riuer in Fꝛance called Loire.

Lignarius, a, um, of woodde, or that goeth by woodde.

Lignarius faber, a carpenter.

Lignâtor, ôris, maſc. gene. a carper of woodde, one that maketh pꝛouiſion for wodde, a woodmonger.

Lignâtio, ônis, f. g. a hewyng, bearyng, fetchyng or puruеyng of woodde. ſometyme a grou, where is muche woodde.

Ligneus, a, um, of woodde, trine.

Ligneolus, a, um, a litle thyng made of wodde.

Lignile, lis, n. g fuell, or a woodde ſtacke.

Lignor, âris, ari, to go to carp woodde, to go to puruеigh wood, as ſouldioures doo in an army.

Lignôſus, a, um, as harde as woodde, harde lyke woodde.

Lignum, ni, n. g. woodde.

Ligo, aui, are, to bynde.

In catenas ligare, to bynde in chaynes.

Ligatus, a, um, bounden.

Ligo, onis, m. g. a ſpade.

Ligogiaphi, common regiſtrers, or auditoures.

Ligula, læ, f. g. a litell tunguе, a latcher, it is alſo a ſpoone called Cochlear, which in meaſure cons

ontepneth.iii dragmas, ℈ one scruple.

guria, a part of Italy, from the hille called Apeninus, vnto the sea called Tuscum, also frō the ryuer of Varus, vnto the ryuer called Macra. In it be the cities Genua, Sauona, Naulum, Albigena.

gurinus, called also spinus and acanthis, a birde that fedeth much vpon thistles, and hath a naturall hatered against the asse, and singeth pleasantly: it is supposed to be a grene finche, yet some haue taken it to be the nightingall, as Sermus writeth.

gurio, ligūris, liguriui, or liguriī, rire, to eate greedyly, or to deuoure sweete or deynte meates. also to eate or pike morsels dentily or curiously.

Farta ligurire, to eate stollen meate.

Ligurire lucra, by litell and litell to robbe a man with pylfyng and pollyng.

Ligurire rē aliquā, to desire or couete a thyng gredily, to the intent to fare the better by it.

guritio, ônis, fœm. gen. gredyneſſe, immoderate appetite.

gus, liguris, of the countrete of Liguria, a Januens, of Janewaie.

gusticum, or after som Liguſtinum mare, the sea that is by Jeane.

gusticum, or after som Libysticum, an herbe growyng commonly in the hilles of Liguria, it is called of the apothicaries Leuisticum, Lumbardie louage.

gusticus, a, um, of Liguria.

guſtrum, tri, n. g. a tree, haupng leaues like an olyue tree, but they bee broder and softer, and more grene of colour, which doeth beare white flowres and soote, whereof is made an oyle called Oleum Ciprinum. And this tree doeth growe in watrye places, as willowes and salowes doe, and beareth a blacke fruite like to an elder tree. They which doo take it for the bushe called Pyuet, be much deceiued. This is maister Elyotes sentence, whose iudgement I will not suppresse, because certaine thinges in Plinies descripcion semeth to confirme his opinio, as that liguſtrū groweth only in watrie places: and also that the same tree is commonly taken to be Cypros, whereas Fuchsius writeth it and sayeth, it is not Cipros: how be it by the description of Ruellius, and certayne iudgement of most phisicions this Liguſtrum is called Pyuet or prymprint. It is also an herbe, whiche some men doo call Maior, and groweth by hedges.

Lygies, are people of Asia, which with Xerxes warred agaynst the Grekes.

Lygistus, the sonne of Phaeton, of whome Liguria was named.

Liliaceus, a, um, of lilyes.

Liliētum, ti, n. g. a place where many lilyes do growe.

Lilium, lij, n. g. a lilye.

Lilium conuallium, the herbe liche to a lilie called Lilie of the valley.

Lilybeum, a towne or promontorie in Sicile, where one of the Sibilles lieth buried.

Lima, æ, f. g. a file.

Vltima lima defuit meis scriptis, the last correction, emendation or castigation, whiche is as it were a filyng or polishyng.

Vti lima mordacius, to correcte, or mende a writyng to rigorously or sharpely.

Liber rasus lima, a boke corrected.

Limaria, the fysshe called Tuny, whan it doeth not exceede one foote in length.

Limātus a, um, filed, polysshed, also trymme, pure, nete, elegant. Tersus & limatus.

Limatus oratione, That hath a pure and eloquent style.

Limātulus, a, um, a litle filed, pure, nete, subtil.

Limatūra, æ, fœm. g. powder, whiche cometh of filynge.

Limax, mācis, masc. gene. a snaple, also a man, whiche prieth or seketh for some thyng, to consume or steale it.

Limbolārius, rij, m. gene. a maker of gardes or purfles.

Limbus, bi, m. ge. a purfle, a garde, a hemme of a garment.

Limen, liminis, n. g. signifieth not only the thresholde of a doore, but also the haunce. somtyme it signifieth the entree of the doore somtyme frendshyp, after the exposicion of Seruius. also the place where one standeth.

Ad limina seruus, a porter.

Limen cubiculi, the entrance into the chābre.

Limina imperij, the frontiers of the realme.

Limen, mēnis, a porte or hauen.

Limenarcha, chæ, m. g. the warden of the portes.

Limes, limitis, m. g. a crosse pathe or waie, also a bonde or buttyng in fieldes.

Limeum, an herbe, called of the frenchemen Venenum cerualium.

Limiosalcum, a cuee of Germany, called commonly Gnisna.

Limitātio, ônis, f. g. a boundyng.

Limitāneus, a, um, belongynge to the marches or bounder.

Limitanei agri, fieldes lyynge in the extreme marches of a countrete.

Limitanei milites, souldiours, which were appoynted to kepe and defende the marches of the empire.

Limni, an yle on the east part of Irelande.

Limitātus, a, um, bounded, limitted.

Limito, aui, are, and Limitor, aris, ari, to bounde or limitte, howe farre a thyng dooeth extend, to diuide or departe.

Limitrophi fundi, landes, the possessors whereof are bounde to sende the corne that cometh of those landes to find the souldiers, that kept the bowndes of the empire.

Limo, aui, are, to file, to polyshe, to trymme, to take take awaie that is superfluous, to diminysche.

Limare commoda alicuius, To pare awaye parte of ones profites.
Ornare & limare.
Politius limare aliquod opus, To amende a worke more exactly.

Limónes, num, fœm. gen. fruite called limons, whereof no mention is made of ancient authors, except it be among theim, which are called Citra.

Limónia, æ, fœ. gen. a kynde of the herbe called Anemone.

Limónium, nij, n. ge. an herbe growyng in medowes or moorysche groundes, hauyng leaues lyke to beetes, but lesse and more weake, and hath a stalke lyke a lyly, full of leaues, and a redde seede, wintergrene.

Limonum, a towne of Poitiers in Fraunce.

Limôsus, a, um, full of slyme or mudde, muddy.

Limpha, æ, f. g. water.

Limpidus, a, um, clere, pure, bryght.

Limpitûdo, dinis, f, g clerenesse.

Limuici, or Limouices, Lymosin in Poitiers.

Limulus, a, um, somewhat a skew or awry.

Limus, mi, masc. gene. a vesture from the brest downewarde Also mudde or slyme, clay, whiche is in the water.

Limus, a, um, crooked, awry, askew.
Limis oculis spectare, To looke wantonlye on the one syde, to caste a wanton eie, to looke a skewe.

Linamentum, ti, neu. g. lynnen, threede, that is made of flaxe. also lynte.

Linárius, rij, m. g. a woorker of linnen, that occupieth or selleth flaxe or lyne.

Lindos, a citee of Rhodes.

Lindum, a citee in Englande, whiche some doo suppose to be Lincolne, some Lynne.

Linea, æ, f. g. a carpenters lyne or corde. it signifieth also euery lyne generally, either made or imagined to be. also a degree of kynrede.
Linea margaritarum, a long rew of perles on a threade.
Lineam ducere, to make a lyne, to rule a boke.

Lineamentum, ti, n. g. the facion or proporcion of a body or visage drawen out.

Lineâris, re, pertenyng to a lyne.

Lineo, aui, are, to drawe lines, to drawe out the figure of a thyng with lines.

Lingo, xi, gere, to lycke with the tongue. also to sucke downe by litteli and litteli.

Linctus, us, ma. ge. lyckyng or suckyng downe, lappyng.

Lingones, people of Fraunce in the countreis called Langres.

Lingua, guæ, fœ. gene. a tongue. also a language. also an instrumẽt, wherwith men do take medecines or salues out of a boxe. it is sometyme taken for raylyng or sclander. also a promontorie or hylle.
Bisulca lingua, a forked tungue.
Commertia linguæ, communicacion.
Deerat lingua palato, I coulde not speake.
Properante lingua legere, to reade fast.
Titubante lingua loqui, to stutte.
Linguas scire, to be skylled in the tungues.
Egestas linguæ, the lacke in any toung, when it hath not latte wordes to expresse any thyng.
Lingua hæsitare, to stutte.
Linguas hominum effugere, to escape detraction or sclander.

Lingua bula, an herbe called Lang de boef.

Linguax, âcis, om. gen. a great speaker, full of woordes, a babblar, a iangler, long tunged.

Lingula, æ, fœ. ge. a litteli tungue. also a latchet or lyngell. also Lingua, & Lingula, doo sometyme signifie a spoone, or a longe instrument lyke a spoone, that apothecaries vse. also a facion of swoordes made lyke a tungue. It seemeth also to signifie a long trough of tymber or stone, wherin wyne or water dooeth renne.

Lingula edolata, a litteli tenon to putte in a mortes.

Lingulaca, a wooman full of woordes. also a spyche called a sole. also a certayne herbe, which groweth about well sprynges. also a byrde called in Greche ὑλάστις. because it hath a longe tonge. Irist.

Lingulâtus, a, um, that hath a tongue.

Liniger, ra, rum, that beareth lyne or flax.

Lino, leui, nire, to annoynte, to rubbe vppon softelye.

Lineo, aui, are, to make lynes, to drawe out the proporcion of a thyng.

Lino, lini, liui, or leui, linere, to annoynte or laye on some thyng that is sicke, to smere or rubbe, sometyme to laye oyntment or other moisture on a thynge.

Linóstrophron, phri, n. ge. an herbe, which is also called Marubium, Horehounde.

Linozóstis, stis, f. g. an herbe called Mercurie.

Linquo, liqui, linquere, to leaue.
Linqui animo, to swounde, to faint.
Linquentem reuocare animum, To retire from sownyng.

Linteárius, rij, m. ge. a mercer of lynnen, a lynnen draper.

Linteâtus, a, um, that weareth a rotchet, surplis, or other lynnen vesture.

Linteo, ônis, m. g. a lynnen weauer.

Linteólum, li, n. gen. a peece of lynnen cloth, a lynnen ragge or cloute.

Linteus, a, um, of lynnen.
Lintei libri, bookes made of lynne.

Linternum, a towne in Campania, where Scipio Africanus dyed, and is buried.

Linternus, a, um, of Linternum.

Linternus, a ryuer in Campania.

Linteum, tei, n. g. a sheete. it is also taken for a lynnen clothe. sometyme for a sayle.

Linter, lintris, m. and f. g. a litteli bote made of a holowe tree.

Linum,

m, ni, n. g. lyne or flare. ſometyme a thyerde.
ſo a cable or rope in a ſhyppe. ſometyme a ca-yng nette or dragge.
, plu. nettes, haies, that beaſtes be taken in.
s, the moſt ancient poet, a Theban, whom irgilius calleth the ſon of Apollo and Uraa, one of the. ix. muſes.
, or rather Lynx, a beaſt, whiche hath the face a lyon, the body ſpotted lyke a Panther, and of the greatneſſe of a doe, whoſe vrine is ſo-rpnly tourned into a ſtone.
ra, ræ, fœm. gene. an yle by Greece. alſo a ſte playſter.
ris, a ryuer in Cilicia. alſo a kynd of liſardes.
ppiſchia, æ, fœ. ge. a ſwoundyng, where one emeth to be dead.
pio, ui, ire, to be poꝛeblynd or ſandblynde,
dymme of ſyght.
pitur, the impeꝛſonall.
pitúdo, dinis, f. g. the bleꝛednelle of the eies.
pus, a, um, bleare eied, haupng dꝛoppyng eies.
pana, ôrum, ſcrappes or leaupngs of vitayles,
other thynges.
pâmen, quáminis, n. gen. greece or tallowe, olten ſewet, larde, dꝛippyng.
quefácio, quefacis, fêci, fácere, to melte.
quefactus, a, um, melted, made liquide.
Coagula liquefacta lacte, grene cheſe.
queho, liquefis, to be made liquide.
queo, licui, liquêre, to bee liquide or ſofte,
o oyle.
quentia, a ryuer in Lumbardy.
queſco, ſcere, to relente, to melte, to become ofte or liquide.
Liqueſcere voluptate, to bee wanton, delicate,
nd all geuen to pleaſure.
quet, it appereth, it is ſure, it is cleere, it is ma-nifeſt, it is apparant or well pꝛoued.
Liquet inter nos, we be ſure, or we know cer-taynly.
Non liquêre dixerunt, They ſaied the matter was not ſufficiently or manifeſtly pꝛoued.
Liquet mihi deierare, I maye boldely ſweare without ſpotte of conſcience.
quidò, playnely, apparantly, purely, cleerely, manifeſtly, without ſpotte of conſcience, of certaynte.
quidé, idem quod liquidò.
quidus, a, um, liquide, renning and ſoft. ſome tyme pure, clere, without dꝛegges, grounde, or mud.
Liquidus venter, a bealy that hath the flixe.
Liquidus animus & tranquillus, a mynd with out care or heupneſſe.
Liquidum auſpicium, id eſt, optimum.
Liquidum, ſubſtantiuely, water.
liquo, aui, are, to melte.
liquor, liqueris, liqui, to bee diſſolued, to bee melted.
liquor, ôris, m. g. humour, lpcour.
Lira, æ, f. g. a ridge of lande, whiche is ouer the furrowe. ſometyme it ſignifieth an harpe.
Liræ, be triſles or tapes. Liræ in latine (ſaith Eraſmus) are Sulci, in engliſhe furrowes.
Liratim, in ridges, ridge by ridge.
Lirimiris, a citee of Germanie.
Lirinus, a, um, of lilyes.
Lirinon, ni, n. g. oyle of lilyes.
Liris, a ryuer in Italye, by the towne called Minturnæ.
Liro, aui, are, to make ridges.
Lis, litis, f. gene. debate, variance, controuerſy.
Lites, pꝛoperly ſtryuyng in wordes.
Litem æſtimare, to aſſeſſe damages and coſtes for the plaintike in an action.
Litem conteſtari, I ſuppoſe doeth ſignifie as muche as that, whiche our lawiers doo ſaie, to interpleade, whan one, whiche is not par-tie to the action, cometh in, or is called in, to pleade with the other, to thentent to ſaue his title, or intereſt, whiche is ſuppoſed, that he hath with theim.
Litem capitis in aliquem inferre, to accuſe one of a matter concernyng life and death.
Litem habere cum aliquo, to haue ſuite in the law with one, to be at variance with one.
Intendere litem alicui, To ſue out a pꝛoceſſe againſt one.
Litem perdere, and Lite cadere, to loſe his action.
Componere lites inter aliquos, to ſet men at one that be at variance.
Litem ſuam facere, where one medleth in an other mans mattier, as it were his owne: or ſo to pleade or defende a mattier, that he ſemeth to ſpeake in his owne cauſe, and not in an other mans.
Inſtrumentum litis, that one bryngeth in to iuſtifie his cauſe.
Liſus, a ryuer in Thracia, which Herodotus writeth, was dꝛunke vp by the armye that Xerxes kyng of Perſia ledde into Greece.
Liſſus, a citee of Dalmatia.
Litatò, the aduerbe, by pleaſynge of god with ſacrifice.
Litátio, ônis, fœm. gen. a pleaſyng of god with ſacrifice.
Litâtum, geuen to god.
Litera, æ, fœ. g. a letter, a wꝛityng. ſometyme a bylle or ſcrowe.
Litera ſalutaris, was in the olde tyme A, as be tokenyng abſolupnge. Litera triſtis, B, as ſig-nifiyng condemnyng.
Literæ fugientes, blynde letters, whiche eyther in defaut of the pnke, or of the parchement, or for auncientee maie not bee redde.
Literæ, arum, plur. tantum, a letter or an epiſtle ſent to one. alſo an ordinaunce or commandement of a pꝛince or magiſtrate. alſo letters, wꝛi-tynges, deedes, ſciences, knowlage, lernynges.
Literam longam facere, to be hanged.
Trium literarum homo, a theke.

Ad literam, letter by letter, euery letter.
Ad similitudinem tuæ literæ, lyke to thy hand or writyng.
Literis mandare, to write.
Nullam literam scripsi, I wrate nothyng.
Literæ publicæ, common regesters, writynges or deedes.
Literas attingere, to study.
Abdere se literis, to geue hym selfe wholly to studye.
Literárius, a, um, perteinyng to letters or scrikes.
Literatè, lyke a lerned man, cunnyngly, lernedly.
Literatius latine loqui, moze cunnyngly.
Literátor, ôris, m. ge. a grammarian, or a maister of grammer.
Literatûra, æ, f. g. grammer, learnyng, writyng, cunnyng.
Literátus, a, um, cunnyng, learned. also that hath letters graued in it.
Literatum otium, tyme that one applyeth wholly to studie.
Literôsus, a, um, greatly learned.
Litérula, læ, f. g. a litle letter, a scrow or bill. Literulæ, sometyme studie of good lernyng.
Lithargyrum, ri, n. g. litarge or white leade.
Lithargyros, idem.
Lithiasis, sis, f. g. the greke of the stone.
Lithocolla, læ, fœ. g. a cement, wherwith stones are ioigned together.
Lithoglyphus, phi, m. g. a grauer in stones.
Lithologéma, gématis, n. ge. a heape of stones.
Lithos, a stone.
Lithospermon, called commonly Milium solis, an herbe, whiche hath sedes lyke stones, and groweth amonge corne, it cureth the stone of the bladder. some suppose it to bee grummell or grap mple.
Lithostrôtus, ti, m. g. and Lithostrôtum, ti, n. g. a place paued with square stones.
Lithotomia, æ, fœm. ge. a masons warkehouse or quarry.
Lithótomus, mi, m. g. a mason.
Lituen, tícinis, m. g. a blower of a smal trũpette.
Litigâtor, ôris, m. g. a striuer.
Litigatrix, the feminine.
Litigiósus, a, um, full of stryfe or contencion, a wrangler.
Litigium, gĩi, n. g. debate or variance.
Litigo, aui, are, to varye, to stryue, to sue one an other.
Lito, aui, are, to please god with sacrifice, and to obteyne ones desyre. sometyme for Sacrificare, to sacrifice.
Litóreus, a, um, and Litorâlis, le, of the sea side.
Literôsus, a, um, belongyng or lyke to the sea syde or bankes.
Lituania, a countrey, which is part of Sarmatia, called Luten, and topgneth to Polonia on the northe, and is vnder the kynge of Poole.
Litûra, æ, f. g. a blottyng or strike thyough that, whiche is writen, cancelyng.
Litûro, aui, are, to blotte or stryke thyough, to cancelle.
Litus, or littus, ŏris, n. ge. the bankes as well of the sea, as of a great ryuer. sometyme lande bordyng on the sea, called the sea syde.
Litus, ta, tum, enoynted, spotted, smered.
Lituus, tui, m. g. a crooked staffe, whiche the diuinours, called Augures, helde in theyr handes, whan they apoynted places in theyr dyuination. also a scepter and a trumpet.
Patitur lituos equus, The horse abideth the noise of the trumpet.
Strepunt litui, the trumpettes sowne.
Liueo, uere, to be blacke and blewe, to enuie.
Liuesco, scere, idem.
Liuidus, a, um, blacke and blewe with beatyng or stryking, enuyng, spitefull, malicious.
Liuius, the prince of latine historiens.
Liuius Andronicus, the first latine poete, which wrate comedies or tragedies in latine: also he wrate the seconde warres of Carthage also he wrate xxii. bookes of the peerely actes of the Romayns, whiche were called Annales.
Liuonia, a parte of Sarmatia, beyonde Lyuonia northwarde, hauyng on the west the sea called Germanicum.
Liuor, liuôris, ms. ge. the colour, which is left on the skynne, after beatyng or whyppyng, called commonly blacke and blewe, a leadye colour. sometime it is taken for enuye or spyte.
Liuor edax tibi cuncta negat, The gnawyng enuy denieth the all thyngs.
Rabiem liuôris acerbi, nulla poterit placare quies, No quiete can content the rageyng of bitter enuy.
Liuorem contrahere, to wax blacke.
Lix, licis, f. g. asshes.
Lixa, æ, fœm. gen. or Lixæ, arum, plur. a stryker vpon, whiche carpeth woodde or water to an hoste, or to the kytchyn, drudges and slaues that folowe the army.
Lixabundus, a, um, that for a small reward beareth moste vile seruice.
Lixiuium, ui, n. ge. or Lixiuia, æ, f. g. lye made of asshes to washe clothes cleane.
Lixiuius, a, um, of lye.
Lixo, aui, are, to seethe.
Lixos, a towne and ryuer in Affrike.
Lixus, a, um, sodde.

L ANTE O.

Loba, æ, fœm. gene. a kynde of the grape called Milium, whiche hath great bunches fiue foote lyngh. It is also the leafe which groweth nexte the grounde in euery bunche of grapne.
Lobos, the lappe of the eare.
Locarium, ri, n. g. the hire of a house or lodgyng.
Locatárius, ri, m. gen. he that letteth a house or lande, a lessour.

ratio, ônis. a lettyng to hyre, a lettyng out, a takyng of wozke by great.

rator, ôris, ma. ge. he that letteth a house oz lande, a lessour. also he that letteth woorke: oz he that taketh woozke by great.

rcellus, li, m. g. a lyttle place.

rito, aui, are, the frequentatiue of Loco.

ro, aui, are, to place, to set oz late, as a house ys sette in a place, a foundacio is laied: also to lie vp, as a thynge is to be kepte: also to let a thyng to hyre, oz rent, to make a lease, to put out a thyng to be dooen oz wzought. sometyme to geue in mariage.

locare filiam, to bestowe his daughter in mariage.

locare agrum fodiendum, to bargayne with one a great to delue his grounde.

locare argentum, to laye out his money on a pynge.

Argentum locare fœnori, to lende money vpon vsurie.

Ro cornibus equites locare, to sette oz place the horsemen in the wynges.

Faciendum locare, to put woorke to be made.

In numero veterum locare, to numbze among the auncientes.

Insidias alicui locare, to goe about to deceiue hym.

Operam suam locare, to take vpon hym to doe thynge foz wages.

Locare beneficium apud gratos, to doo a pleasure oz benefyte foz kynde and thankefull persones.

Locare fundamentum, to laye the foundacion.

Locasti optime operam, thou hast well bestowed thy labour.

Locrium, a cuntre of Germanye, called nowe Lutonia, commonly Foxeheim.

Locris, cridos, a countrey in Greece.

Locrenses, and Locri, people of Locrus, there were also people so named in Greece.

Locrus, a cuntre in the vttermoste parte of Italie, whiche was named Magna Grecia.

Locamentum, ti, neu. ge. a place made with boardes, wherin tame culuers, and other birdes oz conies are kepte to breede, a dooue cote.

Locarium, a coffyn to put a booke in.

Locatus, a, um, deuided into sundzie places.

Locosus, a, um, that hath many holes oz places.

Loculus, li, m. g. a lyttle place. also a purse, a cage to kepe money in, an almoure, a lyttell chest, a biere, whereon dead bodies are bozne to be burped.

Locuples, pletis, om. g. ryche, aboundaunt, sufficient.

Locuples fideiussor, a sufficient suretie.

Locuples oratio, a copious and plentuous tale. Locuples testis, a sufficient witnesse.

Locuples author, a substauncial authour of good credence.

Locuples tabellarius, a sure and trusty carryer.

Locupleto, aui, are, to make ryche oz plenteously possessions, to inryche with landes and possessions. Locupletare eloquentiam, to make his eloquence moze copious.

Locus, ci, m. g. Pluraliter hi loci, & hæc loca, a place. also a case, condition, oz state, occasion, opoztunitee, leysure: sometyme loue, estymacion oz fauour that one is in. sometyme a familie oz hynrede. also steede: as,

Loco patris te habeo, I take the in stede of my father.

Locus obiurgandi, occasion to chyde.

Ex loco inferiore agere, looke Ex.

Priore loco causam dicere, to pleade fyrst, to speake in his defence bekoze the thyng be layed to his charge.

Nullo loco deesse, id est, nunquam.

Secundo loco, foz Præterea, furthermoze, moze ouer.

In eum locum res redijt, the matter is come to that state oz poynte.

Loco meliore, in better condition oz state.

Eodem loco stare, to abyde in the same state.

Difficili loco res est, the matter is in a harde case. Esse magno loco apud regem, to be in great fauour with the kynge.

Quem locum apud Cæsarem teneret, in what estimacion oz fauoure he is with Cæsar.

Obscuro loco positus, litteli esteemed, no thyng famous.

Tenere principem locum, to be in great estimacion and authozitee

Eodem se loco habiturum, that they wolde haue them in lyke estimacion and fauour.

Nullo loco numerat, he setteth nothynge by it, oz he esteemeth it nothynge.

Te in germani fratris dilexi loco, I haue loued you euen as my naturall bzother.

In eorum locum succedere, to come in theyr steede oz place.

In locum alterius consulatū petere, to labour to be made consull in an other mans place.

Si in istoc essem loco, if I were in that place.

Loco aliquid querere, to aske oz inquere a thynge in tyme and place conuenient.

Literæ non loco redditæ, letters geuen oz deliuered out of season.

In loco, in seasō. also sometyme, in some case.

Locum dare aliquid faciendi, to geue tyme and space to doo a thyng.

Dare locum rationi, to geue place to reason, to vse reason.

Dare locum alicui oratori, to here an oratour speake, to geue hym audience.

Nihil loci est segniciæ, there is no tyme noz leysure to be negligente.

Nihil est preci loci relictum, none intreatie wyll serue.

Respirandi non est locus, he hath no leysure to fetche bzeathe.

Nullum locum prætermitto, I let passe none occas-oeration.

De ſummo loco adoleſcens, a ponge gentyl man of a noble ſtocke or linage.
Loci, plu. nu. the ſecrete partes of a woman.
Locuſta, tæ, a flie with longe hynder legges, whiche bourneth corne with touchynge of it, and deuoureth the reſidue. In India be of theym three foote of length, whiche the people of that countrey dooe eate. it is alſo a ſea fiſſhe lyke to a creuis, called a lopſter.
Locútor, ôris, m. g. he that ſpeaketh muche.
Loculeius, lei, m. g. a prater or a tanglar.
Locútus, or Loquutus, a, um, that hath ſpoken.
Locútio, or Loquútio, ônis, f. g. a ſpeakyng, a ſayyng, a woorde.
Lodicula, æ, f. g. a little ſhete.
Lodix, icis, f. g. a ſhete.
Lœdoria, a bytynge taunte.
Lœlaps, a blaſt of wynde turned from the erth vpwarde.
Log, is the ſame meaſure of the Hebrues, that Sextarius atticus is amonge the Greches, rede more in Sextarius.
Logarion, rij, n. g. a rekenynge boke.
Lógica, æ. or Lógice, es, f. g. logyke, one of the liberall ſciences, the craft of realonynge or argumynge.
Logion, gij, n. g. a place where iudges geue ſentence. alſo a gatherynge of rent, or other reuenues.
Logiſtoricum, ci, n. g. a booke conteinynge the declaration of notable ſayynges.
Logodæ'dalus, li, m. g. a vayne talker, whiche vſeth eloquente woordes, without quickeneſſe of ſcience: or doeth more ſtudie for the aptneſſe of an oracion, than for the graunce of the ſentence.
Logógraphi, orum, n. g. they that write bookes of accompte.
Logomáchia, æ, f. g. a contencion with woordes, or an vndeſcrete altercation.
Logos, a woorde, a ſayyng. Logi, plu. triflynge woordes, or vayne language.
Logotheca,
Lohos, a thycke ſirupe.
Loligo, liginis, f. gen. a fyſſhe, whiche hath his heade betweene his feete and his bealy: and hath alſo two bones, one lyke a knyfe, the other lyke a penne.
Loliguncula, a diminutiue of Loligo.
Loliárius, a, um, belongyng to tares.
Lolium, lij, n. g. a vicious grayne, called raie or darnell, whiche commonly groweth amonge wheate: and if it be eaten in whotte breadde, it maketh ỹ head gyddy, as if a mã were dronke.
Lombricus, ci, m. g. a lampzey.
Lomentum, ti, n. g beane meale.
Lonchitis, the herbe called Xiphion.
Londinum, the noble citee of London. Eraſmus on the prouerbe, Rhodũ ſacrificium, writeth, that Londinum is deducted of Lindus, a citee of Rhodes, whiche ſtephanus calleth Lindonium, Longa Alba, a citee in Italie.
Longæuus, a, um, longe liued, of many yeres continuaunce, auncient.
Longánimis, me, he that ſuffereth longe.
Longanon, nônis, m. g. or as ſome write it Longauo, a gutte, out of the whiche ordure iſſueth.
Longé, an aduerbe, ſignifieth longe, farre ſomtyme muche, and is ioyned with the comparatiue: ſometyme exceedyngly, greatly, with alſo perlatiue, and other nownes, verbes and aduerbes.
Longe lateq; diſperſum, ſpreade farre abrode.
Longe abieram, I was gone a good waye paſte.
Longe gentium abeſt, it is verie farre hens.
Longe proſpicere, to forſee matters.
Longe melior, muche better.
Longe doctiſſimus, excellently well learned.
Longe cæteris artibus antecedit, it farre exceleth all other ſciences.
Longe aliter eſt amicus, & amator, a friende and a louer differ verie muche.
Res aliter longe euenit, the matter hath chaunced farre other wyſe.
Longe mihi alia mens eſt, I am farre of an other opinion,
Longe princeps, farre more excellente than other.
Longe vſque illic in Campis habitat, he dwelleth a great waie hence in the fieldes.
Longe principes habentur Hedui, the people called Hedui, be in farre greater eſtimacion and honoure than any of the other.
Longe primus ciuitatis eſt, he farre excelleth all other of that citee.
Longe plurimi, verie many.
Eius iudicium longe antepono, I preferre his iudgement verie muche.
Ab his longe diſſentimus, we be farre of a other opinion than they, or we agree not with theym in any wyſe.
Longe errat, he is greatly deceyued.
Non aberit longius, it will not be verie long ere he come.
Longiſsime abeſt à vero, he is verie farre from the truth of the matter, he is far wyde.
Quid longiſsime meminiſti? what is the farthest thynge, that thou canſt remembre?
Longinquitas, tãtis, f. g. either longe diſtaunce of place, or length of tyme.
Longinquus, a, um, farre of, ſtraunge, that endureth longe.
Morbus longinquus, a ſickeneſſe that hath longe continued.
Longinqua linia, a longe line.
Sermo longinquus, a long communication.
Longinqui, they that dwelle farre of.
Ex longinquo, venire, to come out of farre countreyes.

Longi

Longinquis bellis obrui, To be ouer charged with longe and continuall warres.

Longinquum loqui, to make a longe proceſſe.

Lóngipes, gipedis, om. gene. that hath a long fote.

Longiſco, ſcere, to be longe: or after come to pꝛeake.

Longitúdo, dinis, f. ge. length as well of tyme, place, as other thynges.

Conſulere in Longitudinem, to pꝛouide foꝛ the tyme to come, oꝛ a great while hereafter.

Longiuſculus, a, um, ſomewhat longe.

Longulus, a, um, idem.

Longulé, ſomewhat farre, ſomewhat longe.

Haud longule, not verie farre.

Longobardi, Lombardes.

Longobardia, a region of Italie, called Lumbardye.

Longum, a longe tyme.

Longurio, ônis, a longe ſlymme.

Longurius, rij, m. g. a longe polle ouerthwarte in hedges.

Longus, a, um, longe.

Longior ſum quam tu, I am taller man than thou.

Longum pede, a fote longe.

Nimium longi ſumus in rebus apertiſsimis, we make to longe a pꝛoceſſe, oꝛ to many woꝛdes in matters that be verie playne and euident.

Longior eſſe nolo, I will not ſpeake many woꝛdes, oꝛ I wyl not tarie long in the matter.

Haud longum eſt id quod orat, It is foꝛ no longe tyme that he doeth intreate you.

Atque adeo longum eſt nos illum expectare, dum exeat, and it woulde be to longe foꝛ vs to tarie vntyll he come foꝛth.

Longum eſt, it were a longe mattier to tell.

Ne longum faciam, that I maie tell you in fewe woꝛdes oꝛ bꝛiefely.

Nihil mihi longius eſt, nothing is to me moꝛe pꝛeiudicial, oꝛ there is nothing that I moꝛe deſpꝛe, oꝛ woulde moꝛe kepne.

Longum vale, fare well foꝛ euer and a daie.

Lopas, lópadis, f. g. a ſhell fyſhe.

Loquácitas, tátis, f. g. babblyng.

Loquaciter, babblyngly, with many woꝛdes.

Loquáculus, a, um, that hath many woꝛdes, a great talker.

Loquácito, aui, are, to babble oꝛ ſpeake muche.

Loquax, âcis, om. g. full of woꝛdes, to muche talkatiue.

Loquela, læ, f. g. ſpeache.

Loquentia, æ, f. g. ſpeakyng.

Lóquitor, âris, ari, to ſpeake muche oꝛ often.

Loquor, lóqueris, loqui, to ſpeake, to ſaie.

Ad voluntatem loqui, to ſpeake at pleaſure what men liſt.

Loqui ad voluptatem, to ſpeake to delite and pleaſe the audience.

Loqui pꝛoꝛrectiore fronte, to ſpeake boldly.

Loqui in eandem ſententiam, To ſpeake the ſame thyng, to be of the ſame opinion.

Pergin' hero abſenti male loqui? doeſt thou ſo ſpeake ill, oꝛ rayle agaynſt my maiſter in his abſence?

Loquere mihi nomen tuum, tel me thy name.

Loqui ore duarum & viginti gentium, To ſpeake. xxii. diuers languages.

Quid tu tecum loquere? what dooeſt thou mutter to thy ſelfe?

Loquuntur Annales, loquuntur hiſtoriæ, id eſt, referunt.

Loquitur res ipſa, the mattier it ſelfe is manyfeſt, and nedeth no ſpokes man.

Loquitur fama, the bꝛuite is, the rumoure ſheweth.

Sæpius iſta loquemur inter nos, we will commune of theſe thynges oftener betweene our ſelfes.

Loquuntur vulgo, they talke abꝛode cõmonly.

Lora, ræ, oꝛ Lorea, æ, f. g. a dꝛynke made of gꝛapes after that they be pꝛeſſed, called ſeconde.

Loramentum, ti, n. g. a thonge, a bonde, a coꝛde.

Lorárius, rij, m. ge. a ſeruant, whiche ſerued to bynde men, oꝛ to beate them, whan they were by theyꝛ maiſters commaunded.

Loreus, a, um, of thonges oꝛ bondes.

Lorica, æ, f. ge. a cote of fence, a cote of maile, a bꝛigantine, an haberion, the defence oꝛ munition of euery thyng, agaynſt that whiche maie hurte oꝛ perpſhe it. alſo the coppyng of a walle. alſo Lorica is in makyng of flooꝛes, the vppeꝛ courſe oꝛ cruſte made with marble beaten, lyme, and ſande. it is alſo the walle plate beꝛe foꝛe that moꝛter is laide on it.

Loricátio, ônis, f. g. harnepſyng with an habergeon, cote of fence, oꝛ ſuche lyke.

Loricâtus, a, um, armed with an haberion, a bꝛigantine, a cote of fence oꝛ other lyke.

Loricion, a mantell.

Lorico, aui, are, to put on an haberion, cote of fence, oꝛ other bynde of harneys.

Loricula, læ, f. g. a diminutiue of Lorica, in waꝛ fare it is a munimẽt oꝛ foꝛtification, that the beſiegers of a citee doe make, betweene theiꝛ campe and the citee, alſo a place made vpon walles, lyke an open galerie, with gꝛates of tymber oꝛ hurdels, to kepe men fꝛom fallyng.

Lóripes, ripedis, com. ge. whoſe feete are as if they were bounden oꝛ gꝛyded.

Lorum, ri, n. ge. a thonge of lether, oꝛ a colar, oꝛ other lyke thyng, wheꝛewith beaſtes are bounden oꝛ tyed. Sometyme a whippe, oꝛ wheꝛewith a man oꝛ beaſte is whipped. Alſo the rayne of a bꝛidell.

Cædere loris, to whippe.

Lotaringia, a countrey beyonde Picardie and Noꝛmandie.

Lothoringia, a countrey called Lozayne.

Lótio, ônis, f. g. of Lauo lauas, a waſſhyng.

Lótium, tij, n. g. vꝛyne oꝛ piſſe.

Lotometra, a kynde of breade.
Lotophagi, people in Affrike, whiche doe liue by eatyng onely of a fruite called Lotos.
Lotus vrbana, an herbe, garden Clauer.
Lotus syluestris, of this kynde are the herbes called here melilotes.
Lotos, tidis, and Lotus, ti, fœ. g. a notable tree in Affrike or herbe, of whose fruite if a stranger dooe eate, he doeth incontinently forgeat his owne countrey.
Lotos, lotidis, a nymphe, the daughter of Neptune, whiche fleeyng from Priapus, was turned into a tree of that name.
Lotura, ræ, f. g. a washyng, a rynsyng.
Lotus, a, um, washed, rynsed.
Loxa, a riuer in Englande called Firth.
Loxias, one of the names of Apollo.

L ANTE V.

LVbens, entis, om. g. that doeth any thyng with a good will or gladly.
Lubente me facies, pou shall doe it with my good wyll, or I am ryght well contente, that pe dooe it.
Lubenti animo, with a good wyll.
Lubens, and Lubenter, gladly.
Lubentia, æ, f. g. myrthe, pleasauntnesse, grace, most proprely in woordes.
Lubet, it lyketh, it pleaseth.
Lubet quicquid facias, it pleaseth me what so euer pe dooe.
Lubido, pro libido, sensuall appetite.
Lubido est obseruare quid agat, I haue a desyre to espye what he dooeth.
Id lubido est scire, I woolde fayne knowe that.
Lúbrico, aui, are, to make slipper.
Lúbricus, a, um, slipper, wauerynge, mutable, variable, weetkul. somtime redy to slype or slyde.
Oculi lubrici, whiche be alwais stirring.
Lubricus locus, a slyppery place. Also a daungerous & harde matter to intreate or speake of.
Lubrica adolescentia, youth, wherin one maie quickely offende or dooe amysse.
Lubricè, daungerously, perillously, doubtfully, waueringly, vnconstantly.
Lubricum, ci, n. g. slipperneſſe.
Luca, a citee in Italie, of whiche the inhabitaunts are called Lucenses.
Lucæ boues, were taken of the olde latines for elephantes.
Lucani, people of the countrey of Lucania.
Lucania, a countrey belongyng to the royalme of Naples, betweene Pople and Calaber.
Lucanica, cæ, f. gen. a puddyng made of porke, a sausage.
Lucanus, a famous poete, whiche wrote the battayle betweene Cesar and Pompei.
Lucar, money bestowed in woodes, dedicate to goddes called Luci.
Lucaria festa, feastes, whiche the Romayns made in holy wooddes.
Lucellum, li, neut. gene. a lyttle gaine, a small market.
Lucens, centis, om. g. that whiche hath his light of an other thyng, shynyng bryght.
Lucentia, a citee of Spayne.
Lucentum, a citee of Spayne called Sulana.
Luceo, luxi, lucere, to shyne.
Lucesit, it wareth daie.
Lucet, it is daie. Focus lucet igne, the fyre burneth in the chymney.
Luceres, the thirde part of the people of Rome, distributed by Tatius and Romulus.
Luceria, a citee of Apulia.
Lucerius, a kyng of Arden, whiche holpe Romulus against Tatius.
Lucerna, æ, f. g. a lampe, a candill, a lyght.
Lucerna simplex, a lampe with one marche.
Lucerna eadem scripsi, I wrote it by the same candell: or I wrote it at the same tyme.
Nisi me lucerna desereret, except the lampe hadde gone out, except my candill hadde gone out.
Lucernula, a sconce, a lyttle lampe or candill.
Lucesco, scere, to be bryght or clere as daie.
Lucetia, one of the names of Juno.
Lucetius, a name of Jupiter.
Luci, by daie, in the mornyng.
Lucibile, that, whiche is lyght of it selfe.
Lucido, aui, are, to make clere, or to geue lyght.
Lucidus, a, um, clere, bryght, lyght.
Lucifer, ri, m. g. the daie sterre.
Luciferus, ra, rum, that bryngeth lyght.
Lucifico, aui, are, idem quod Lucido.
Lucifugus, a, um, that fleeth from lyght, and desyreth in darkenesse.
Lucigena, ingendred of lyght.
Lucilius, the name of an olde poete.
Lucina, one of the names of the moone, called the goddesse of byrthe.
Lucinia, idem quod Lucina.
Lucini, they whiche haue lyttle eies, and smalle syght.
Lucius, a mans name.
Lucius, a fysshe.
Lucomones, certayne men.
Lucretia, a noble woman of Rome.
Lucretilis, an hill in the countrey of the Sabines.
Lucretius, a latine poete.
Lucrificabilis, le, that bryngeth gayne or profite.
Lucrifacio, feci, facere, to wynne or get a vauntage or profite.
Lucrifacere nomen, to get a name.
Lucrifacere iniuriam, to dooe wrong and escape quite.
Lucrifactus, a, um, wonne, gayned.
Lucrifio, factus sum, fieri, to be wonne or gotten in aduauntage.
Lucrifuga, he that fleeth from lucre or gaynes.
Lucrinum, a towne of Apulia.
Lucrinus, a mere or great water in Campania.

Lucrio, onis, a couetous man, an inordinate gayner.
Lucror, aris, ari, to gayne or to wynne.
Lucrosus, a, um, full of gayne or lucre.
Lucrum, cri, n. g. lucre or gayne.
Quid mihi lucri est te fallere? what profyte or wynnyng shoulde I haue to deceyue you?
Luctа, æ, f. g. a wrastlyng.
Luctamen, minis, n. g. Luctatus, us, m. g. and Luctatio, onis, f. g. a wrastlyng, a struggelyng.
Luctatius Catulus, a citezin of Rome.
Luctator, oris, m. g. a wrastlar.
Luctifer, ra, rum, cause of waylyng.
Luctificus, a, um, idem.
Luctitor, tari, to wrastle often.
Lucto, idem, quod Luctor.
Luctor, aris, ari, to wrastle, to struggle, to endeuor, to take great peyne, to contende.
Luctari complexu, to wrastle by the middle.
Luctantes venti, wyndes whurlynge one against an other.
Luctuosus, a, um, lamentable. also that causeth heauinesse and mournyng.
Luctus, us, ma gen. weppng and waylyng, the habite of mournyng, lamentacion.
Squallor & Luctus.
Luctum operire, to hyde or dyssemble ones waylynge.
Lucubratio, onis, f. g. studiyng by candill lyght, or a worke studied and made by candil light.
Lucubratorius, a, um, belongynge to studie or makyng of a worke by candill lyght.
Lucubro, aui, are, to make any thynge by candill lyght.
Luculenté, clerely.
Luculenté vendere, to sell at a hygh price.
Luculenter, gentilly, prouerely.
Luculenter scribere, to write honestly, gentilly, and playnely.
Luculentus, a, um, full of lyght, clere, faire, beautifull.
Luculenta fœmina, a very fayre women.
Luculenta plaga, a great wounde.
Luculentæ diuitiæ, abundant ryches.
Luculentus author, he that writeth in a gentyll style.
Luculentus homo, a famous man.
Facinus luculentum, a notable acte.
Oratio luculenta, a pleasaunt and easy stile.
Luculenta conditio, a fayre offre.
Luculenta familia, a ryche house, familie or kynrede.
Luculenta forma, id est, egregia, præclara, insignis, goodly fauour.
Luculentitas, tatis, f. gen. beautifulnesse, lyghtsomenesse, goodlynesse.
Lucullus, the name of a noble Romayne.
Lucumo, a mans name, of whom the Tuscians were called Lucumedi.
Lucus, ci, m. ge. a hyghe and thycke woodde, a grouе. sometyme it signifieth light, whan it is of the fourth declinacion. It is also a citee in Spayne by Compostella, whiche is nowe called Lucensis. also a promontorie of Hetruria, called commonly Petra sancta.
Lucus Augusti, a citee in Spain called Oluca.
Ludia, æ, fœm. gen. a daunsyng or merye wenche full of sporte.
Ludibrium, brii, n. g. a mocke, or any thyng that is mocked, a vayne and trysyng thynge to be laughed at.
Habere ludibrio, To mocke, to laughe, to laughe to scorne.
Ludibrio esse, to be mocked, to be a laughing or testyng stocke.
Ludibrio erant minæ Tribuni, the menaces of the Tribune were mocked and iested at.
Ludibrio iesum in aliquo, To bee mocked or scorned of one.
Ludibundus, a, um, playyng or full of playe.
Ludicrum, cri, n. g. any playe or pastyme, or an interlude.
Ludicrus, or Ludicer, cra, crum, pertaynyng to playe or mirthe. also lyght, mockyng.
Meum cor cœpit facere artem ludicrã, myne herte beganne to leape in my body.
Ludificabilis, le, that maketh sporte or pastime, mockynge.
Ludificatio, onis, deceyuyng, mockyng.
Ludificatus, a, um, mockyng, that mocketh or deceyueth. Also that is mocked or deceiued.
Ludifico, aui, are, to mocke, to deceyue.
Ludij & Ludiones, players in enterludes or stage playes.
Ludimagister, a schoole maister.
Ludio onis, m. gen. and Ludius, dij, m. gene. a player in enterludes.
Ludo, lusi, ludere, to playe, to mocke or deceiue in game, to laugh to scorne, to ieste, to make disporte, to dalye, to spende or make pastyme, to sporte, to playe as one doeth on instrumentes, to write verses.
Ludere in numerum, to daunce measure.
Ludere operam, to lose his labour, to spende labour in vayne.
Ludere otium, to passe the tyme.
Ludere aleam, and alea, to playe at dyce.
Consimilem luserat lusum, he had played a like pageaunt.
Ludere par impar, to playe at euen and odde.
Ludere dolis aliquem, To deceyue one by crafty meanes.
Ludus, di, masc. gene. playe in actes, mirthe in woordes, a sporte, a game, a pastyme. also a schoole or place of exercise, where any arte or feate is learned.
Ludos aliquem facere, to mocke one.
Ludum aperire, To teache, to begyn to keepe a schoole.
Quos mihi ludos reddere? what prankes or pageantes woulde he playe me?
Operam ludos facere, to lese his labour.

Ludō, in ſporte.
Ludus eſt illa perdiſcere, It is a paſtyme or ſporte to learne thoſe thynges.
Vt ludos facit, howe he is diſpoſed to mocke, teſte, or dalie.
Ludi, in the plurall numbre bee taken for thoſe thynges, whiche we call ſpghtes: as the pageãtes at London on Midſomer nyght. ſometyme for ſuche triũphes as be made by kynges, with iuſtyng and turneiyng.
Ludi Circenſes, was rennyng with chariotes, in the great compaſſed place at Rome called Circus.
Ludi compitalitij, called alſo Ludi liberales, were plaies made in high waies to the honour of Bacchus, called alſo Liber.
Ludi Florales, were abhominable plaies vſed at Rome in the preſence of all the people, in the whiche onely common women plaied all naked in wanton woordes and motions, ſatiſfyng the peoples deteſtable appetites.
Ludi gladiatorij, were farre from all humanitee, and a ſpectacle of cruelitee. For in them men without quarell and harneis fought in great numbres with weapon, eche couetyng to kyll other: and to ſhewe all poynctes of beaſtes ly cruelitee, diuers of theym haupnge nettes made of cordes, to drawe vnto theym their aduerſaries.
Ludi gymnici, were exercitſes in rennyng, leapyng, throwpuge of the darte or ſtone, and wraſtlynge.
Ludi lupercales, wherin gentyll mens ſons, beyng naked, and haupng lyttell whippes in their hãdes, ran about beatyng euery man that they mette, laughyng vpon theym.
Ludi Megalenſes, were plaies made to the honour of hir, whiche was called mother of goddes.
Luentinum, Powes landes in wales.
Lues, luis, fœ. g. peſtilence in men, murrayne in beaſtes, a great and comon deſtruction.
Lugdunum, ni, neu. g. a citee in Fraunce called Lions.
Lugdunenſis Gallia, the thirde parte of France, called nowe the countreie of Lyons. it hath on the north, the Engliſh ſea, on the weaſt partly the Occean, partly the countreie Gupan, on the eaſt the riuer Sopne: on the ſouth Narbon.
Lugeo, luxi, lugẽre, to mourne, to lament.
Lugetur, the imperſonall.
Lugodinum, called alſo Traiectum, a citee in Hollande named Utriche.
Lugubris, bre, pertepnyng to mournyng.
Veſtis lugubris, a mournyng garment.
Lugubris eiulatio, a lamẽtable cry or wailing.
Lugubre, and Lugubriter, lamentably.
Luma, mæ, f. g. a kynde of Brembles.
Lumbago, ginis, fœm. gene. febleneſſe of the loynes.
Lumbare, brethes of hoſen.
Lumbricus, ci, ma. gen. a wooime breddе in the earthe, or in the body of a man or beaſt. alſo
Lumbrici, are lyttle fyſches taken in ſmall riuers, whiche are lyke to lampurnes, but they be muche leſſe, and somewhat peolowe, and are called in Wilſhire prides.
Lumbifragium, ij, breakyng of the loynes.
Lumbulus, li, m. g. a diminutiue of Lumbus.
Lumbus, bi, m. g. the loyne, the haunche.
Lumariæ falces, hedgeyng bylles or hookes, where with they cut downe brambles.
Lumen, inis, lyght, alſo a dale, an eie. ſometyme an expoſition or enterpretation.
Lumina præferre, to inſpire.
Luminibus obſtruere, to ſtoppe vp the lyght, to lette that the lyght maie not come into an houſe. And by tranſlation, to obſcure the brute or glorie of an other.
Secundo lumine, for Secundo die.
Caſſus lumine, deade.
Acies luminum, the eie ſpght.
Orbus luminis, blynde.
Alterum luminum eruit, he plucked out one of his eies.
Lumina ciuitatis, the moſt notable perſons of a citee.
Lumen probitatis proſpicere in aliquo, To perceyue great vertue and honeſtie in a man.
Sine lumine animi, without knowlage of learnyng and ſciences.
Lumeta, places full of brembles.
Luminare, ris, neut. gener. that whiche geueth lyght, a lyght. And by tranſlation a noble and famous man.
Lumino, aui, are, to lyght, to geue lyght.
Luminoſus, a, um, full of lyght.
Luna, æ, f. g. the moone.
Luna viceſima, The twentie daie after the chaunge of the moone.
Luna, a towne of the Lygurians. Alſo a promontorie in Portugal.
Lunaria minor, an herbe ſuppoſed of ſome to be that whiche is called mortis herba.
Lunaris, re, pertepnyng to the moone.
Lunarium, a promontorie, called nowe, Mont Iouis. Schalæ Annibalis, and Mouini.
Lunaticus, he that is madde or ſycke at a certayne tyme of the moone.
Lunatus, a, um, lyke a moone.
Lunenſis, theſe.
Luno, aui, are, to bende or croke lyke the new moone.
Lunula, læ, f. g. a lyttell rynge.
Luitio, onis, a paiyng of raunſome.
Luo, lui, ere, to paie, to ſatiſfie, to purge, to ſuffre puniſhement or death.
Luere capite, to haue the heade ſtryken of, to ſuffre death.
Luere maculas ſanguine, to pourge or waſhe awaie the infamie of naughtie actes, by the wrongefull death of other.

Lucre

Luere peccata, to ſuffer puniſchement for offences. Quomodo ergo hoc lues? than how will you ſatiſfie for this?

Supplicia crucibus luerat, he was hanged.

Luere, to paie raunſome.

Lupa, æ, ſ. g. a female woulfe. alſo an harlot.

Lupanar, aris, n. g. a bꝛothels houſe.

Lupanaris, re, pertepnyng to a bꝛothell houſe.

Lupanarium, rij, n. g. an harlots houſe.

Lupfurdum, a citee in Germanie called now Miſna, vulgarly Meiſſen.

Luparius, a hunter of woulfes.

Lupatum, ti, n. g. and Lupatus, ti, m. g. an harde bytte.

Lupercal, a place dedicate to Pan the god of ſhepeherdes.

Lupercalia, ſacrifices and plaies made to Pan.

Luperci, miniſters of that ſolemnitee.

Lupia, a riuer in Germany called Neccharum.

Lupinum, pini, & frequentius neutr. gene. Lupinus, ni, m. g. a kynde of pouſſe cozne, hauyng one ſtalke, the leake in fyue diuiſions, the codde creuiſed about, hauynge in it fyue oꝛ ſyx graynes, harde, bꝛoade and redde. They be commune in Fraunce and Italy, but here vneth knowne.

Lupinus, a, um, of a woulfe.

Lupor, aris, ari, to meddle with common harlottes.

Lupulus, & Lupus ſalictarius, an herbe called hoppes, wherwith bere is bꝛued.

Lupus, i, m. g. a woulfe, alſo a bitte foꝛ an hoꝛſe. alſo an hooke to dꝛawe vp thynges out of a pyte. Alſo a kynde of ſpiders. Alſo a fiſche, whiche ſome men take to bee a pyke.

✠ Lupus eſt in fabula, a pꝛouerbe whan he cozneth that is ſpoken of.

✠ Lupum auribus tenere, a pꝛouerbe in thynges that be daungerouſe, eyther to retepne oꝛ to let goe.

Lura, æ, the mouthe of a bottell oꝛ lether bagge.

Lurco, aui, are, and Lurcor, aris, to eate raueniouſely.

Lurco, onis, m. g. a deuourer of his owne ſubſtaunce, a gullygutte.

Luridus, a, um, veraie pale, wanne of colour.

Luridus ſol, the ſoonne whan it ſhineth pale.

Luror, oris, m. g. paleneſſe, wanneſſe.

Luſcinia, æ, ſ. g. a nyghtyngale.

Luſcinidi, æ, ſ. g. a lyttell nyghtyngale.

Luſciioſus, oꝛ Luſcitioſus, a, um, poꝛeblynde, that ſeeth lyttle in the nyght oꝛ in the moꝛnynge. Oꝛ after ſome, he that ſeeth better in the nyght, than at myddaie oꝛ by candle lyghte.

Luſcitio, onis, the ſaied diſeaſe.

Luſcus, a, um, poꝛeblynde. ſometyme a man hauyng but one eie.

Luſio, onis, ſ. g. a plaiyng.

Luſitania, the realme called Poꝛtugale.

Luſito, aui, are, to plaie often.

Luſius, a tyuer in Arcadie.

Luſor, oris, maſc. gen. a plaier, alſo one that deceiueth.

Luſorius, a, um, pertepnyng to plaie.

Luſoria fulmina, lyghtenynges that hurte noꝛ thynge.

Luſorium nomen, a debte oꝛ tytell of debte onely pmaged to be.

Luſpiæ, a citee of Calabꝛe called commonly Leccio Lezo.

Luſtralis, le, pertepnynge to riotte and lecherie. ſometyme a thynge dooen euery fyfte yere. alſo pertepnynge to the ſolemnitee called Luſtra.

Luſtratio, onis, and Luſtramen, inis, a pꝛgeyng by ſacrifice, a goyng about oꝛ circuite.

Luſtrici dies, the daie whan a childe is firſte named, whiche in men childꝛen was the nynthe daie, in women childꝛen it was the eyghte day. It maie nowe bee vſed foꝛ the daie of chriſtenyng of childꝛen.

Luſtrificus, a, um, idem quod Luſtralis.

Luſtro, aui, are, to goe about in circuite. it was alſo amonge the olde Romaines, to leade about an armie, a ſhepe, a ſowe, and thꝛee bulles, thynkynge that thereby the hoſt was pꝛged of ſuche greuous offences as had ben committed agaynſte theyꝛ goddes. Alſo to conſtder in the mynde, to ſhadowe, to beholde, to looke about.

Arua luſtrare, to go about the feeldes.

Luſtrare exercitum, to muſter an armie.

Luſtrare animo, to conſider in the mynde.

Luſtrare oculis, to beholde oꝛ looke rounde aboute.

Luſtrare vrbem, to purge the citee by ſacrifice.

Luſtrare lampade, to geue lyght.

Luſtror, the paſſyue, to be purged.

Luſtror, aris, ari, the deponent, to haunte bꝛothelles houſes oꝛ ſtues.

Luſtrum, i, n. g. a denne oꝛ caue of wilde beaſtes in wooddes, an hyd place and vyle, an houſe where gluttony and lecherie is haunted. Alſo the hauntynge of the ſame vices. ſometyme it ſignifieth the ſpace of fyue yeres. alſo the generall purgacion of the citee by ſacrifyce euery fyfte yere. Glareanus, in his Chꝛonologia wꝛiteth, that Luſtrum amonge the Romaines, is as much as Olympias amonge the Grekes, whiche is the ſpace of. iiii. yeres: And ſo Acron expounded this place of hoꝛace, Fortuna luſtro proſpera tercio, &c.

Luſus, us, m. g. a plaie. oꝛ ſpoꝛte, without any arte, it is pꝛoꝛpelp in childꝛen. Alſo dalyng, paſtyme, recreacion.

Lutamentum, ti, n. g. any thyng made with lome oꝛ moꝛter.

Lutarius, a, um, that lyueth in mudde.

Luteola, æ, a little floure of the colour of yelow, in greatneſſe and ſauour not muche vnlyke a violet, alſo a litle birde, not muche vnlyke a goldfynche called a ſiſkin.

Lutensis, se, that is nourysshed with claye, mud, or durte.

Luteolus, a, um, somewhat yelowe.

Luter, eris, m. g. a cuppe, wherin wyne is delayed with water.

Lutesco, scere, to be tourned into claie, or to bee thicke lyke clape.

Lutetia, the citee of Paris in Fraunce.

Luteum oui, the yolke of an egge.

Luteus, or Lutea, a bryde, whiche some iudge to be our yelow ham, or yelowring.

Luteus, a, um, yelowe.

Vulcanus luteus, the fyre, or the flame of the fyre. Luteus color, the colour of yelowe approchyng towarde redde, of the colour of the yolke of an egge, or of ware newe made.

Luteus, a, um, of Lutum, that is made of claie, lome, or morter.

Vasa lutea, earthen vessell.

Luteus homo, a vyle rascall of no estimacion.

Lutea meretrix, a fylthy and vyle harlotte.

Luto, aui, are, to clay, sometyme to spotte or fyle.

Lutra, æ, f. g. a beuer, or a beaste muche lyke to it, whiche gnaweth trees a sunder, and doeth haunt great waters, and ipueth lyke an otter.

Lutum, i, n. g. clape.

In medio luto esse, by translacion, to bee entangled or wrapped in a mattier, to bee in daunger.

Lutum, i, n. g. priore longa, a yelowe floure.

Lux, ucis, f. g. lyght, daie, sometyme brightnesse, or clerenesse, sometyme an eie.

Luce clarius, as manifest as can be.

Luce vicesima, the .xx. daie.

Luce & palam, openly & in euery mans sight.

Luce, in the daie tyme.

Luce prima, early in the mornyng.

Finis huius lucis, the ende of this lyfe.

Lucis vsuram dare alicui, to suffer one to liue.

Luce clara, whan it was bryght daie.

In luce, a broade in the syght of men.

Lucus, olde writers vsed for Lux.

Primo lucu, perly in the mornyng.

Luxatus, a, um, out of ioynt, put out of place.

Luxo, aui, are, to lose or make lose, to put out of ioynt.

Luxuria, looke Luxus.

Diffluere luxuria, to renne at roueres, to ryotte.

Luxurio, aui, are, to excede, to abounde more than necessarie, in the bodye or personage, to be wanton or gyuen to riote, to spryng, to growe to plentifully or rankely.

Luxurior, aris, ari, to abounde excessyuely in thynges concernyng the myndc or goodes.

Also to be wanton with to muche welthe or prosperitee.

Luxuriosè, riotously, to aboundantly, to rankely.

Luxuriosus, to prosperouse, or lyuyng into muche pleasure.

Luxuriosus, a, um, riotous, of ill rule, exceedyng in aboundaunce, that groweth or springeth to rankely.

Luxuriosus cultus, excessyue and to sumptuous apparaylyng.

Nimis luxuriosa fuit illa lætitia, that gladnesse was to muche or to exceedyng.

Luxuriosa vitis, a vyne that shoteth out braunches to rankely.

Luxus, us, m. ge. luxuria, & luxuries, ei, f. ge. all superfluitee or excesse, as well in carnal pleasure as in sumptuouse fare, apparaple, or buildyng, riotte.

Lyæus, one of the names of Bacchus, called god of wynes.

Lyæus, a, um, of Bacchus or of wyne.

Lycæum, looke Lyceum.

Lycæus, or Lyceus, a mountayne in the countrey of Archadia.

Lycambes, a Thebane, whom Achilocus ratyng with verses, caused to hange hymselfe.

Lycaon, aonis, the kynge of Archadia, whome Jupiter tourned into a woulfe.

Lycaones, people of Asia the lesse, nere to Lycia, as writeth Ptholome. Also woulfes with maanes.

Lycaonia, a countrey in Asia. after some writers, it is a parte of Arcadia.

Lycaste, one of the daughters of Priamus.

Lycastos, a citee of Candie.

Lyceum, Aristotles schoole in Athenes. also a schoole of Ciceros in his place at Tusculum.

Lyceus, a mountaine in Arcadie, dedicate vnto Pan.

Lychas, Hercules seruaunt.

Lychnis, nidis, f. g. an herbe, whose floure openeth by nyghte, and kyst springeth, and longest dureth: whiche in drinke, helpeth them that be stungen with the scorpion.

Lychnites, white marble.

Lychnobij, they whiche doce tourne the nyght into daie, and daie into nyght.

Lychnuchus, i, m. g. idem quod Lychnus, also a braunche, hauyng many candlestycks or lampes, with candles and lyghtes in them.

Lychnus, i, m. g. a matche of a candle. sometime the selfe candle.

Lycia, a countrey in Asia the lesse, betweene Pamphilia and Caria, in the whiche are two great citees, Patara and Myra. Sometyme there were .70. citees.

Lycidas, the name of a Centaure, & of a shepherde in Virgyle.

Lycimnius, the brother of Astiochia.

Lycion, a thynge made with the iuyce of an herbe, wherwith sore eies be cured.

Lyciſca, a dogge commen of a woulfe & a dogge.

Lyciſcus, a dopes name in Horace.

Lycium, Idem quod Lyceum, alſo a medicine made of a kynde of brembles.

Lycius, one of the names of Apollo.

Lycoctones, a venemouſe herbe, called alſo Aconitum.

Lycophron, a grammarian and writer of tragedies of Calcedonie.

Lycophthalmos, a pretious ſtone that hath foure diuers colours.

Lycopolis, a citee of Egypte.

Lycopus, pi, mother wozte.

Lycopſis, after Dioſcorides deſcripcion, ſemeth to be the herbe called houndes tonge.

Lycoris, the name of a nymphe.

Lycormas, a ryuer rennyng out of Aetolia.

Lycos, a kynde of ſpiders.

Lyctonia, a citee of Crete.

Lyctus, a citee of Crete, named of Lyctus, the ſonne of Lycaon.

Lycurgus, a kyng of the Lacedemonians, whiche gaue to theim their fyrſt lawes.

Lycus, a riuer in the countrete of Caſaria. alſo the name of diuers men.

Lydda, a citee of Judea, called Rhama.

Lydia, a countrete in Aſia, on the eaſte ſoppynge to Phrygia, On the nozthe to Myſia, on the ſouthe vpon part of Caria. In this region is the hylle called Tmolus, out of the whyche cometh the ryche ryuer called Pactolus. Reade of theym in theyr owne places.

Lydimali, poſt hos Aegyptii, A prouerbe applyed where two pueli perſones bee compared togyther, and the one beyng founde verie vngracious: the other deſerueth the leſſe diſpraiſe.

Lydius, a, um, of Lydia.

Lydius lapis, a touche ſtone, wherewith the fyneneſſe and courſeneſſe of golde is treyed. It is alſo vſed ſometyme for a prouerbe, applied to theym that haue an exacte and quiche iudgement.

Lydus, a, um, of the countreye of Lydia. Alſo Lydus, is the ſoonne of Hercules. In other the ſoonne of Athys, and brother of Tyrrhenus, of whom Lydia was named. Lydus, the ſonne of Syges.

Lyenteria, or Liẽteria. For I fynde it written ſometyme with Y, and ſometyme with I, is a flixe of meate vndigeſted, ſent forth in the ſame qualitees, that they were receyued, without alteracion in colour, ſauour, or ſauoure. Of this ſyckeneſſe bee two kyndes. The one (as Paulus wryteth) cometh of the exulceracion of the bowelles, that is to ſaye, woundes or ſores in theym. Or of other dyſtyllacions or reumes. The other cometh of debilitee of the powers, whiche ſhoulde retayne in the ſtomache, that ſhoulde ſerue for nouriſhement. Cauſes of this ſickeneſſe be twelue. The qualitee of the meate receyued, the quantitee of that whiche annoyeth, oppreſſyng the ſtomache, and infeebleyng his vertue retentiue, muche effuſyon of melancolie to the mouth of the ſtomache, muche and laboryouſe ſtyrryng, immediately after meales, the ſtomache beyng fulle, muche drynke with meate or after, cauſyng the meate to renne downe to haſtyly, lacke of order in eatyng, rewme deſcendyng into the ſtomache, muche fleume gathered in the ſtomache and bowelles, feebleneſſe in digeſtion, and the vertue retentyue in the ſtomache, debilitee in the vertue attractyue in the lyuer, by reaſon of opilacions and inwarde ſores, by the touchyng wherof the meate ſlypeth awaie, by cloſeneſſe of the pores and paſſages of the bodye, wherby all ſuperfluitees be tourned inwarde.

Lygdamum, the name of a towne.

Lygdamus, a Sicilian of the citee of Syracuſis, a puiſſaunt wreſtler, whoſe bones after his deathe were founde to haue no marowe.

Lymira, a ryuer and a citee in Lycia.

Lympha, æ, f. g. water.

Lymphâticus, a, um, madde, furiouſe, fallen out of his witte, by ſeeyng ſome thyng in the water.

Lymphaticus pauor, a feare that putteth a man out of his wittes.

Lymphâtus, phata, atum, Idem quod Lymphaticus.

Lympho, aui, are, to trouble, to make madde.

Lymphor, âris, ari, to be madde or out of ones wytte.

Lympidus, da, dum, cleere, ſmoothe. Looke Limpidus.

Lynceſtius, a, um, of the water that maketh men drunke lyke wyne.

Lynceſtus, a water, which maketh men drunke lyke wyne.

Lynceus, a, um, of the beaſte called Lynx. alſo that ſeeth verie ſharpely.

Lynceus, diſſyllabum, a man, who (as Varro wryteth) coulde ſee ſhyppes on the ſea, a hundred and thyrtie myles from hym, and bydde numbre theim. Some wryte, that he coulde ſee thorough a walle. and therefore, they that haue verie ſharpe ſyghtes, bee ſayed to haue Lynceos oculos, the eyes of Lynceus.

Lynceus, a mans name, that firſt founde out the mettall mynes of braſſe, ſyluer, and golde

Lyncurium, curii, n. g. a pretiouſe ſtone congeled of the vryne of the beaſt called Lynx.

Lyncus, a kyng of Scythia.

Lyndus, a citee in the yle of Rhodes, where they dyd ſacrifice to Hercules with reproches and curſes.

Lynter, tris, a cocke bote.

Lynx, lyncis, m. g. or fœ. g. a beaſte lyke to a woulfe, hauyng many ſpottes, whoſe ſyghte pearceth perfe all thynges. It is alſo a bryde, which hath a tunge lyke a ſerpent.

Lyra, ræ, f. g. an harpe.

Lyricen, ricinis, com. g. an harper.
Lyricus, a, um, perteinyng to an harpe.
Lyriſtis, tis, com. g, idem quod Lyricen.
Lyrſeus, a well, out of the whiche iſſueth the ryuer of Inachus.
Lyris, a ryuer of Campayne.
Lyrneſſus, one of the citee of Trope.
Lyſander, kynge of Iacedemonia, Whan it was layed vnto hym for a repzoche, that he dydde moze by ſubtiltee, than by pzoweſſe: He dyd aunſwere in this wyſe, where the lyons ſkyn doth not auayle, a man muſt ſowe or tye a forces ſkynne vnto it. Not withſtandynge, that pzactiſe is ſeldome commended in any noble man.
Lyſanias, an oratour of Greece.
Lyſiades, a philoſophier of Athens.
Lyſias, an oratour moſt pleaſaunt, of whome Quintilianus ſpeaketh.
Lyſicrates, a man whiche in his olde age dyed his whyte heares blacke, that he myght ſeeme ponge.
Lyſimachia, a citee in Ponto, whiche fell downe with an earthequake.
Lyſimachium, chij, n. g. is thoughte of Matthaeolus, to bee the herbe, whiche we call marigolds. Leonicenus taketh it to be that, whiche dyers dooe occupie, and is called alſo Lutea & corneola, whervnto Ruellius accozdeth and ſaith, it is that, wherwith clothes are dyed greene. By this deſcription it ſeemeth to be the weede called wooddewaxen, growyng in paſtures, ſomewhat lyke vnto bzoome, with ſmal yelowe flowers, whiche is ſo bitter, that no beaſte wyll eate of it. but other take this Lyſimachia to be an herbe named Looſtrife, or herbe wylow, wherof be two kindes, one that hath a yelow flower, the other a purple.
Lyſimachus, a noble man of Macedonie, the ſcholar of Caliſthenes, and one of the moſte valiant capitaynes of Alexander.
Lyſipe, one of the daughters of Pzetus kyng of Argyues.
Lyſippus, an excellent karuer.
Lyſis, ſis, f. g. a ſolution or leuſyng, a chinkynge or openyng of a walle.
Lyſiſtratus, the bzother of Lyſippus.
Lyſius, a ryuer of Arcadie.
Lytta, tæ, fœm. gener. a wooꝛme in a dogges tungue, whiche is taken oute, while he is younge, leaſt afterwarde he ſhoulde be madde.
Lyus, a ryuer of the leſſe Aſia.

MACAE, people of Arabia felix.
Macareus, the ſoonne of Aeolus, whyche deflowred his ſyſter Canaces.
Macaria, the daughter of Hercules. alſo a feenne or marriſe in Baraton.
Macariſmos, mi, maſ. ge. idem quod beatitudo.
Macarius, the name of a man, in latine it ſignifieth bleſſed.
Macedo, onis, a man or woman of Macedonie. alſo the ſonne of Oſiris, of whom Macedonie was named.
Macedonia, æ, fœ. gen. a royalme in Greece, fyrſte called Emathia. On the nozth, it bounderth (as Ptholomeus wzyteth) vpon the ſydes of Dalmatia, Meſia ſuperior, & Thracia: On the weſte it ſtreicheth to the ſea Jonium. Plin deſcribeth it to ioygne ſouth and weſt to Thracia, and that the ſouthe ſyde lyeth on the backes of Theſſalia and Magnetia, the nozthe on Peonia, and Paphlagonia. That it hath alſo on the ſouthe Epirus, on the nozthe Illyria: whiche the varieth not muche from Solinus, who ſaith, that it is diuided from Thracia with the riuer Strimon. it is now vnder the Turke.
Macedónicus, ca, cum, and Macedonius, of Macedonie.
Macellarius, a, um, that belongeth to the chambulles.
Macellaria taberna, a bouchers ſhoppe, a victaylyng houſe.
Macellarius, ij, m. g. a victaylour or ſeller of all maner of victayle.
Macellóta, æ, f. g. a gardeyne dooꝛe.
Macellum, macelli, neut. gener. a place where all manier of victayles is ſolde, a chambles.
Macellus, a, um, ſomewhat leane.
Maceo, cui, & Macéſco, ſcere, to be leane, to become leane.
Macer, cra, crum, leane, thynne, barayne.
Macer Aemilius, an olde poete, whiche was in Ouides tyme, who (as he ſaieth) wzate of byrdes in verſes Alſo of the vertues of herbes. But it was not that Macer, whoſe wzkes we nowe haue, of the vertues of herbes, but rather he, whom the ponger Plinie prouoked to wzyte ſome thynge lyke vnto his vncle. Fynally, that lyttell booke of herbes, is right profytable in dyuers places to be conned by herte of a ponge ſcholar, whyche delyteth in that mattier. Not withſtandyng the fyrſte Macer wzate moze eloquently, and is commended therefoze of Quintilian. He wzate alſo of the battaple of Troie, and of venemous beaſtes.
Macer or Macis, or Macir, is nowe in doubte, whether it bee the ſpyce, commonly called Macis, Mace, whiche is an huske or rynde, about the nutmygge, for as muche as Dioscorides wryteth of Macer, where he neuer made mention of nutmygge. And Plinie saieth, that Macer is the rynde of a certayne roote of a tree of the same name. Dioscorides also saieth, that it is a thycke rynde, muche strengnyng the tungue, whiche taste is not perceyued in our macis, and they are also verye thynne. Galene calleth theim dyse in the thyrde degree, and equall in heate and colde, but wee kynde theym hotte in taste. Iuicene affirmeth theym to bee hotte and dyse in the seconde degree, whiche is confirmed by Constantine, who saieth, they be rindes of the boughes of the trees that bare nutmygges.

Macerátus, a, um, made leane, watered, soked, or made softe with lyeng in the water.

Macerésco, scere, to be made or become softe with lyeng longe in lycour.

Macéria, æ, & Macéries, ei, fœ. gen. a wall of stone without morter, made in the steede of an hedge. also leannesse.

Mácero, aui, are, spoken of the bodye, signifieth to make leane or thynne, or softe, by steepyng in lycour, to soke in the water, to water kyche. Referred to the mynde, it signifieth to vexe or inquiete, to hurte with care or vnquietnesse.

Noli te macerare, hurte not your selfe with care or sorowe.

Salsamenta hæc macerentur probe, least these salte fysches be well watred.

Oua aceto macerata, Egges layed to soke in vyneger.

Maceth̃o, idem quod mentha.

Machabæus, the fyrst of that name was Judas, the thyrde soonne of Mathathias the Jewe, a valyaunt man in his kayths, and of an inuincible courage. In so muche, that with thre thousande men, he vainquyshed Lysias, the lieutenaunt of kynge Antiochus, and his soonne, and with them. xl. thousande footemen, and vii. thousande horsemen, and slewe of theym fyue thousand. Afterwarde in Galilea, he slewe of the hoste of Timotheus (an other of the kynges Capitaynes) fyrst thre thousande, and afterwarde eyght thousand. After that by a village called Adasis, he with a thousand faught with Nicanor, a capitayne of kyng Demetrius and nyne thousande with hym. At the whiche battayle, Nicanor was slayne, and of the nyne thousande almoste none escaped. Finally, to muche trustyng to his prosperitee in warres, in goeyng agaynst Bacchis (a capitayne of kynge Demetrius, who hadde a great hoste) and takyng with hym but. ii. thousande, of the which at the last remained with hym but onely. viii. hundred. He faughte tyll it was nyght, and made a wounderfull slaughter of ennemies. But whyles he inforced hym selfe to come to Bacchis, the whiche was on the ryghte wynge of the battayle: he faughte so nobly, that he scattered that wynge, sleayng many about him. Fynally, beynge enuyronned with the lefte wynge, and stryken with many woundes, was slayne with muche difficultee. After the incarnation of Christe about. 305. peres.

Machæra, a swoorde, a dagger, a knyfe.

Machæronion, idem quod Xiphion.

Machæróphorus, phori, m. g. a swoorde bearer.

Machæropios, ĩ, m. g. a cutlar, or a bladesmyth.

Machaon, the sonne of Esculapius, an excellent surgion.

Máchina, æ, fœ. g. a thyng craftily inuented, or a crafty inuencion. a subtille deuise, an instrument, an ingine.

Vt omnes adhibeam machinas, that I may assay all the meanes possible.

Machinas post bellum adfers, when the stede is stollen, thou steakest the stable doze.

Mundi machina, the composicion and woorke manshyp of this worlde.

Dolum ad aliquem machinámve commoliri, to woorke deceite or craste agaynst one.

Machinalis, le, belongyng to ingins or instrumentes of warre.

Machinamentum, ti, n. g. idem quod Machina.

Machinárius, ĩ, one that slyngeth or casteth with an ingine of warre.

Machinárius, a, um, belongyng to instrumentes or ingins of warre.

Machinátio, ônis, fœm. gene. a subtill inuencion or diuise, a crafty endeuour, an ingine or instrument.

Machinâtor, tôris, an inuentour, a diuyser, an authour, a maker of instrumentes or ingines.

Máchinor, nâris, nari, to inuente craftily, to deuyse, to imagyne, to goe about disceiptfully.

Macia Romana, the herbe called Anagallis purpurea. Dioscor.

Macidos, a citee of Thrace.

Mácies, éi, fœ. gen. leannesse.

Macilentus, a, um, leane.

Macio, aui, are, to make leane.

Macis, looke Macer.

Machomacha, a citee.

Macra, a ryuer, whiche renneth betweene the mountaynes of Liguria.

Macreo, macrui, macrere, to be leane.

Macresco, scere, to waxe leane.

Macritûdo, túdinis, f. g. leannesse.

Macro, aui, are, to make leane.

Macrobĩ, people in Affrike, the whiche of Pomponius be also called Mæreni. Their countree is enuyronned with the ryuer of Nilus, lyke an Ilande. They lyue halfe as muche longer as men doo here. and bee fayre and goodly personages, reuerende and louers of vertue. There is more golde than in Persia, and therfore that whiche is lesse precious, they doo more esteme, deckynge theim selues with ornamẽtes of copper and brasse, and makyng gyues of golde. They dooe lyue commonly a hundred and and twenty peres, and dooe walsche theym felues in a fountayne, whiche causeth theyr bodyes to smelle lyke violettes.

Macrobius, the name of a great learned man.

Macrochæra, ræ, fœm. ge. a garment with long sleeues, lyke Chirodota.

Macrochir, he that hath long handes.

Macrocatalectos, a woyde endyng in a longe syllable.

Macrocemnũ, mountaynes by the ryuer of Ister.

Macrocephali, people by Bosphoyus.

Macrocollum, lli, n. g. paper royall.

Macrocosmus, id est, Longus mundus.

Macror, ôris, m. g. leannesse.

Mactator, tôris, a kyller, a slear, a murtherer.

Mactatus, a, um, slayne, sacrificed.

Mactâtus, us, mas. gen. a kyllyng of a thyng, to sacrifice.

Mactea, or Mattya, a delicate sauce or meate, of the which all delicate meates are called Mactea.

Mácticus, he whiche hath great cheekes, and a gaypng mouthe.

Macto, aui, are, to slea or kyll, also to beate, to hurte, to doo displeasure, to handell yll, to cast downe headlonge. somtyme to honour. also to encrease.

Ferunt laudibus, mactant honoribus, They extolle with prayseyng, they increase in honour.

Mactare deos, for Mactare dijs.

Mactare Orco, o doo sacrifice with one to Pluto, the god of hell.

Mactare supplicio, to punish.

Mactare damno aut malo, to hurte, to doo displeasure.

Mactra, æ, fœm. g. an hutche, wherein breade is put. some doo call it a brake, where with dowe is wrought, or rather it is the kneadyng trough or tubbe.

Mactus, a, um, more encreased, augmented And is vsed most commonly in the vocatiue case.

Macte amare, id est maximè.

Macte animi, bee of good courage.

Macte virtutis & virtute, or Macte virtute esto, proceede in vertue, goe forth and doo well.

Macti ingenio, men of excellent wyttes.

Mactus esto hoc sacrificio, Whan one speakyng to god saieth, Pleaseth it you to take this sacrifice in good parte, or that this sacrifice maie please you.

Iuberem mácte virtute esse, I woulde byd him encrease and goe forwarde in this vertue and towardenesse that appereth in hym.

Mácula, æ, f. gen. a spotte, a blemysshe, a marke or token, wherby a thyng is knowen. also infampe or reproche. somtyme the masshe of a nette or hole betweene the threedes. also a nette.

Eluere maculam, to putte away an infampe or slander.

Imbutus macula sceleris, to be distayned with some foule and dishonest acte.

Inurere æternas maculas, To dyshonestie for euer.

Máculo, aui, are, to spotte or make foule, to defile, to sople, to dishonest, to distayne.

Maculare nomen alicuius crimine, To defame.

Maculôsus, a, um, speckled, spotty, full of spottes, vncleane or foule, dishonest.

Maculosus homo, a man greatly distayned with infampe.

Macyberna, a citee of Sithonia.

Madagastar, an yle beyonde the furthest parte of Ethiope, southe, founden by the Portugalles, in the tyme of Emanuell, kynge of Portugall. This Yle is in circuite. 4000. myles, and is verie riche. Therein be great elyphantes, lyons, panthers, and suche other beastes. The inhabitauntes be of Mahometes sette.

Madaurense, a citee in Afrike.

Madefácio, defacis, feci, ere, to weate, to wash, to bayne.

Madefio, factus sum, fieri, to bee moysted or made weate.

Madeo, dui, ere, to be weate or washed.

Madere vino, to bee dronke.

Madere metu, to sweate for feare.

Madesco, descere, to sweate or bee thoroughe weatte.

Madian, a citee beyonde Arabia, on the southe parte, in the desserte of the Saralins, against the east parte of the redde sea.

Mádido, aui, are, to make weate.

Mádidus, a, um, weatte or washed with breour. sometyme dronke. also imbued.

Madifico, aui, are, to make weatte.

Madon, a certayne kynde of white vines.

Madonais, that whiche is called of the pothecaries Nenuphar.

Mador, óris, m. g. moysture. sometyme sweate.

Madulsa, æ, m. gen. a dronkarde, he that hath a swilled soule. it is also red Madusa, without l.

Mæander, a ryuer of the countreye of Phrygia. Erasmus saith of Lydia, whiche hath many turnynges and windynges, and of that all crooked and subtille tournyng waies, meanes, and diuises be called Mæandri. There is also of that name a mountayne in India. Mæander, is also a picture made with tournynges and wyndynges lyke a Labyrinth.

Mæandri more, crookedly, wyndyng in and out subtylly.

Mædia, a citee in the royalme of Thracia.

Mæe, a kynde of great crabbes of the sea.

Mæmacteticon, the moneth of September.

Mæmoe, the herbe Illecebra.

Mæna, æ, a sea fysshe, called of Venecians Menola, to vs vnknowen, some take it either for herryng or a kynd of them.

Mænades, furiouse women, whiche serued in the sacrifice of Bacchus.

Mænala, neu. g. plur. or after some, Mænalum, sing.

ſing. an high mountayne in Arcadie.

Mænalius, for Arcadicus, therfore Mænalium carmen, is taken for an inchauntment.

Mænalius aper, a boze of Arcadia.

Mænalius, a, um, of the mountayne Mænala.

Mænapij, Gellars, or people of Gellarlande. alſo cleues.

Mænoles, one of the names of Bacchus.

Mænomenon, ni, neu. g. a kynde of honye that maketh men madde.

Mænulæ, pitcherdes.

Mæonia, a countreie in Aſia the leſſe, called alſo Lydia.

Mæónius, a, um, of Mæonia. Homer the excellent poete was called Mæonius, either becauſe he was borne in that countreie: or elles that his fathers name was Mæon.

Mæonidæ, men of Lydia.

Mæónis, a woman of Lydia.

Mæotæ, a people of Scythia.

Mæótis, ótidis, or tidos, a great meere in the countrete of Scythia, which is alwaies froſen. Mæotidis paludes, fennes, whereunto the ſaied ryuer or mere renneth.

Mæreo, Mæror, Mæſtitia, & mæſtitudo, Mæſto, & Mæſtifico, are, Meſtus, a, um, loke after in Mœreo, Mœror. &c.

Magilia, or Magaria, orum, n. g. plu. villages.

Magis, mágadis, an inſtrument of muſike.

Magi, among the Caldees and Perſians, were men of excellent knowlage in philoſophie naturall and mathematicall, and knewe the hyd vertues and operations of thynges. The ſonnes of the kynges of Perſia were taught by them to gouerne and miniſter their publike weale, accordyng to the kourme of the vniuerſall order & gouernance of the celeſtiall worlde. Suche were Magi, or the thre kynges that ſought Chriſt, and offred to hym golde, myrre, and frankincenſe, adaptyng their preſente vnto the double nature of hym, vnto whom they gaue it, who was both god and man, kyng and preſte. Nowe is that name improperly vſed for a wytche, an inchaunter, a woorker with pil ſpirites, which maie bee better called Venefica, Nicromanticus, Incantator, or other names, as before and after bee reherſed.

Magia, æ, f. ge. magike, whiche is in two ſortes. One is the ſecrete knowlage of the naturall qualitees and hyd operations & cauſes of thinges, and that is called Magia naturalis, naturall magike. An other is ſuperſticiouſe and deuyliſhe, called wytchecrafte, ſorcerye, or other lyke deteſtable names, which is vnlefull by the lawes of god and man.

Magice, es, fœ. gene. the art of wytchecrafte or magike.

Magicus, a, um, pertaynyng to magike.

Magida, a kynde of breade.

Magidæ, kytchen bourdes or inſtrumentes pertaynyng to the kytchen,

Magidaphori, they whiche accompanie and goe with the maiſter of the game.

Magirus, ri, m. g. a cooke.

Maginor, aris, ari, to trifle, to goe ſlowely about a thyng.

Magiriſcium, ij, n. g. a littell cooke.

Magis, idis, fœm. g. a kneadyng troughe. alſo a platter or charger, ſomtyme a round bourde.

Magis, moze, rather.

Magis lubet quam perdere, I had lieffer than to loſe it.

Vbi moleſtus magis eſt, whan he beganne to be ſomewhat buſy with me, or to diſquiete or vere me.

Magis ex vſu, moze for your profite, moze profitable.

Magge, for Magis.

Magis ac magis, moze & moze, oftener tymes.

Magiſter, ſtri, maſc. gen. a maiſter or teacher of ſciences. Alſo he that is ordeyned by an officer to ſell a debters gooddes.

Magiſter populi, the chiefe ruler of the people, by the whiche name the Dictatour among the Romaynes was called.

Magiſter ſcriniorum, an officer lyke to the mayſter of his Rolles.

Magiſter ſcripturæ, ſeemeth to be a generall Surueyour, or he that hath the lettyng out of pastures.

Magiſter ludi, a ſchole mayſter.

Magiſtri morum, the Cenſors.

Magiſter nauis, a ſhyppe mayſter.

Magiſter pecoris, an hearde, a paſtoure, a graſyar.

Magiſter morum, a Cenſor, that hath the charge to correcte yll maners.

Magiſtellus, ſtelli, the dimmutiue of Magiſter.

Magiſtérium, rij, neu. g. the dignitee or office of a mayſter.

Magiſtra, the feminine of Magiſter, the mayſtreſſe or teacher.

Magiſtrátus, us, m. gene. a great officer, a man hauyng authoritee in gouernaunce of people, all be it that ſome haue more authoritee by the lawes, and ſome leſſe. Alſo the power, office, authoritee, or dignitee of a ruler. An head officer among the people.

Abire magiſtratu, to leaue his office, to goe out of office.

Gerere magiſtratum, to beare office, to be in authoritee.

Magiſtratum imminuere, to diminyſh the authoritee or priuilege of an office or dignitee.

Magiſtratum habere, to be an officer or ruler, to bee in authoritee.

Mandare magiſtratum, to aſſigne or appoynt an office.

Magiſtro, aui, are, to rule.

Magma, ătis, n. ge. a confection made of diuers ſwete ſpices in paſte, onely for the ſauour, as pomaunders and waſhynge balles, ſometyme it is taken for the dregges of swete Magma croci opies.

Magmentum, ti, neu. gene. a great increase or ayde.

Magna Græcia, the parte of Italy from Laurentum to Cumas.

Magnalia, great thynges to be wondred at.

Magnanimitas, ātis, fœm. ge. valpauntnesse of courage or herte, nobleneſſe of stomake, magnanimitee.

Magnánimus, a, um, that hath a valpant herte or courage, that whiche hath a noble and lofty stomake.

Magnarius, a great marchaunt.

Magnas, ātis, & Magnatus, m. g. a noble man, a man of great estimation.

Magnata, a citee of Irelande.

Magnes, ētis, m. ge. the lode stone, that hath the vertue to drawe yron vnto hym. Whiche vnproperly, we vse to call adamant, where Adamas, is the diamand, as is afore declared.

Magnes, a poete of Athens.

Magnesia, a parte of Macedonie.

Magnesia, Hyppolite the wife of Theseus hynge of Magnesia.

Magnetes, tum, head officers among the Macedonians.

Magnetes, or Magnesij, people of Magnesia.

Magnificè, nobly, honourably, roially.

Magnificè accipere, to entertayn honourably.

Magnificè compellare aliquem, To speake to one with verate honourable and reuerend wordes.

Hic me magnificè effero, Herin I aduance my selfe roially.

Magnificè incedere, To goe lyke a great lorde or gentyman, to goe with a solemne maieſtee.

Magnificè vtiles, verate profitable.

Magnificè loqui, to speake with a grauitee or maieſtee.

Manificè viuere, To lyue noblye and lyke a gentyll man.

Magnificentia, æ, f. g. a disposicion and administracion in dowrige or makyng of great thynges and sumptuous, magnificence.

Magnifico, aui, are, to extolle, to exalte, hyghly to preyse and commende.

Magnificus, a, um, that dooeth great thynges, great, noble, honourable, sumptuous.

Magnifica verba, hygh and braggyng wordes, full of ostentation.

Succus magnificus in vsu, a iuyce gretly vsed.

Magnificus apparatus, great and sumptuous prouision.

Magniloquentia, æ, fœ. g. a lofty and hygh stile or maner in speakyng.

Magniloquus, qui, he that speaketh lofty and proude wordes, or that hath a lofty style.

Magnipendo, magnipendi, ere, to haue in great estimacion, to sette muche by.

Mágnitas, magnitātis, vsed of olde writers for magnitudo.

Magnitudo, inis, fœ. g. greatneſſe, amplenesse, largeneſſe.

Magnitudo animi, excellencie or nobleneſſe of herte or courage.

Magnopere, greatly, verate muche.

Non magnopere laboro, I care not muche.

Quid magnopere potuit facere? what great thyng coulde he dooe?

Nec magnopere visum, little seene.

Magnopere censeo, I thynke verate good and expedient that ye doo so.

Magnum, the herbe named Ballote, or Marrubium.

Magnus, a, um, great, large.

Haud magni precij, of no great value.

Pueri magni, great mens chyldern.

Magno animo vir, a man of great courage.

Magno natu vir, an auncient man, a man of great age.

Maior natu, elder.

Maior quadraginta annis erat, he was about xl. yeres olde.

Magnum fecit, he dyd a great thyng.

Magnum esset, it were a great labour, it were a great matter.

Magna ex parte, for the more parte, most commonly, almoste, well nere all.

Magnam partem in his occupati sunt, They were occupyed most parte about these thinges.

Magno vendidit, He solde it deere, or at a great price.

Magni erunt mihi, I wyl set muche by them.

Magnum, for valde.

Magnum clamat, he crieth out lowde.

Maior morbus, id est comitialis.

Maiorem in modum, greatly, as muche as I can.

Magna pars Arabiæ, The more parte of Arabie.

Magnus socer, my wyues grandfather.

Maior socer, my wyues great graundfather.

Maior patruus, my grandfathers vncle.

Maior magistratus, the Consul.

Magnus portus, the hauen called Portsmouth in Englande.

Mago, the name of diuers men.

Magog, the sonne of Japhet.

Magudaris, or Magidaris, fœm. ge. a kynde of the herbe named Lacerpitium, after some only the stalke of that herbe: after other the rote of it.

Magus, i, m. g. lyke Magi.

Mahumethes, or Mahumetha, was borne in Arabia (as the more parte dooe write) of a poore house or familie, and fyrst was a byar and seller of Camels. Afterwarde he fell acquaynted with a munke called Sergius, whiche was an heretike, by whose meanes he declared hym selfe to bee a prophete, and tooke on hym to re-fourme as well the olde lawe as the newe, and made other lawes, the whiche for theyr pleasauntnesse, allured vnto theym muche people: So, gatherynge vnto hym a great hoste, fyrste he wasted Syria, & wan Damascum, the chiefe citee therof. And haupng in his ayde the Arabians called Scenitæ, a valyaunte people (who had displeasure agaynst ỹ Emperour Heraclius, because he payed them not theyr wages) he wanne other great Royalmes, and at the age of forty yeres, dyed (as some doe suppose) of the kallynge sychenesse, which he longe tyme dydde dyssemble, keypnynge, that the angelle Gabriell was than sente vnto hym in message, whose brightenesse he myght not sustepne. he was buried at Medina. iii. dales iourney from the redde sea, an hundred myles from Mecha, where is now the chiefe temple of his law. He was after the Incarnation of Chryste, syxe hundrede yeres.

Maïa, a hynde of crabbedfishe.

Maia, the mother of Mercurius. Also one of the sterres called Pleiades.

Maïalis, lis, m. g. a barowe hogge.

Maiestas, atis, fœ. gen. maiestee, the greateneſſe, dignitee, or excellent estimacion or honour of a hynge, prynce, emperour, or greate manne.

Amonge the olde Romaynes it was the power and authoritee of the people of Rome, vnto whom Appellacion, called Prouocatio, was from all other dignitees. The dignitee of the Senate was called the authoritie of the Senate.

Tantus autem consensus municipiorum coloniarumque prouinciæ Galliæ, vt omnes ad authoritatem huius ordinis, maiestatemque populi Romani defendendam, consspirasse videantur, There is nowe suche agreement of wylles, of the townes confederate and subiecte vnto vs in the partes of Fraunce, gouerned by vs, that all men there, dooe seeme to conspyre, howe they maye defende the authoritee of this Senate, and the Maiestee of the people of Rome.

Maiestas imminuta, is where any man goeth aboute to derogate any thynge of the hynges authoritee royall, as also of the empyre and hygh power of the people of Rome. It maye bee taken for treason.

Si maiestas est amplitudo ac dignitas ciuitatis, is eam minuit, qui exercitum hostibus populi Romani tradidit, If Maiestee bee the honoure and authoritee of this citee, he goeth aboute to appayre it, whiche hath delyuered the hoste to the ennemies of the people of Rome.

Maiestas est in Imperij atque populi Romani dignitate, quam minuit is, qui per vim, multitudinem ad seditionem vocauit, Maiestee is in the authoritee of the Empyre and people of Rome: Agaynst whom, he playnely committeth treason, who so euer he bee, that violently prouoketh people to a sedicion.

For the woorde Minuere maiestatem, the laster wryters dyd vse, Lædere maiestatem.

Maiestatis crimen, is treason agaynst a hynge.

It was amonge the Romaynes conspiracie agaynste the Senate and people, whyche was also called Perduellio, and of Historians is named Coniuratio. And it is more than Maiestas imminuta, For therein onely they dooe derogate or take away some parte of the royall authoritee or honoure dewe to the persone or citee. In the other they endeuour to destroy theym vtterly, or to brynge theim in subiection.

Maiestatem conseruare, To haue or retepne stylle the dignytee of an Emperour or hynge or people, in one lyke honoure and reuerence.

Maiestatem constituere, to preserue authoritee that it decaye not, but to retepne stylle the estimacion therof.

Maiestatem soluere, to brynge his maiestee or authoritee in lesse estimacion.

Retinere maiestatem, to keepe his authoritee or dignitee.

Maiestas in oratione, maiestee or grauitee in speakynge.

Maior, óris, greatter, looke Magnus.

Maiorána, næ, f. g. an herbe called maioram.

Maiores, auncetours, progenitours.

Maiorina, a hynde of olyues, the whiche be not rype beefore the fyrste Idus of Februarie.

Maiulium, li, n. g of certayne late wryters is taken for lettuse.

Maius, Mai, m. g. the moneth of Maye.

Maiusculus, a, um, somewhat bygger, of good stature or age.

Mala, læ, f. g. the balle of the cheke.

Malabatrum, a certayne leafe, whiche in Indie swimmeth in pooles and dyches, without a roote. of it is made the swete oyle called Malabathrinum: looke Dioſc. it is named of the Mauritanes Terebull.

Malabathrinum, ni, is called vnguentum foliatum, a pleasaunt oyntmente.

Malaca, a citee in Spayne.

Malache, ches, f. g. a hynde of malowes, the stalke wherof dooeth growe into the greatneſſe of a tree.

Malachites, a stone of a darke greene coloure.

Malachia, æ, fœ. g. caulme of the sea. also greefe of the stomache, not sustepnynge meate, abhorrynge all thyng, as a woman with chylde. Some dooe calle it abhominacion of the stomache. But it is more truly the longyng of women with childe, and ouercastynge of theyr stomache, if they haue not that they longe for.

Malacisso, aui, are, to kneade or make softe.

Malachra, called also Maldacon, a tree growynge in Bactria, as bygge as an olyue, haupng leaues lyke an oke, and fruite lyke fygges. out of this tree issueth the gumme called Bdellium.

Mala-

Malacoſtracha, ſofte as fyſſhe without ſhelles.
Malacocraneus, idem quod molliceps.
Malacus, a, um, ſofte.
Malchus, an hiſtoriographer.
Malocociſſus, an herbe with a ſmall ſtalke, and a leafe lyke to Pute, and windeth about euerie thynge that it ſtandeth nye. it is called of ſome ſigillum Mariæ.
Malagma, ătis, neu. ge. a mollifyinge plaiſter, wherby hard impoſtumes be made ſofte or ripe.
Malaſſo, aui, are, to make ſofte or rype. Alſo to exerciſe.
Male, yll, vnhappyly, vncommodiouſely, miſchieuouſely.
Male exceptus, yll intreated, ylle handeled, ſhrewdly welcome.
Male accipere, to intreate one yll.
Male accipere verbis, to geue yll language to one. Male audire, to bee yll reported of, to haue an yll name.
Male cadere, to chaunce yll.
Male cogitare de aliquo, to haue an yll opinion of one.
Male conciliatus, he on whome a man hathe loſte all that euer he hath beſtowed.
Fugitiue prodi, male conciliate, Come forth mycher, on whom I haue loſte all that euer thou coſteſt me.
Male formido, I am yll or ſore affraped.
Male maceror, I am yll vexed, I am yll at eaſe.
Male me habeo, I am ſycke, vexed, or diſquieted in mynde.
Male me habet hæc res, I am ſory or yll apaied for that matter, or that matter greeueth me ſore.
Male mereri, to doo diſpleaſure to one, to deſerue diſpleaſure.
Male meritus eſt de me, he hath yll intreated me, or hath doen me diſpleaſure.
Male metuo, I am yll afearde.
Male moratus, yll manerde.
Male morigerus, diſobedient or frowarde.
Male odi, I hate deadly.
Male optare, to curſe.
Male precari, to aſke a vengeance.
Maleſuadus, or maleſuada, he or ſhe that geueth ſhrewde counſayle.
Male vertat illi, God ſende hym yll lucke therof, yll maye he brooke it.
Male animatus erga aliquem, he that beareth little good will towarde one.
Male ſibi conſulere, to dooe yll, or to take an yll waie for his owne parte.
Male credere, to truſt one that is lyke to deceyue hym.
Male dicis? Doeſt thou threatten me?
Male docet te mea lenitas multa, my gentilneſſe, or my fauourable facion mr̃teacheth the many thynges, or geueth the occaſion to dooe yll in many thynges.
Hoc male habet virum, This greeueth hym, or byteth hym by the ſtomache.
Male mulctari, to be beaten, puniſhed, or yll handled.
Male viuere, to lyue poorely.
Male veſtitus, yll apparailed.
Malea, a promontorie or hille lying into the ſea by Laconia, whiche is daungerous for ſhippes to paſſe by.
Maledicè, ſclaunderouſely, reprochefully.
Maledicéntia, æ, fœ. g. detraction, yll reporte.
Maledico, maledicis, xi, ere, to curſe, to raile, to cheche, to ſpeake yll to.
Maledictio, ônis, f. g. ſclaunder, yll ſpeakyng.
Maledictum, ti, neu. ge. a cheche, a rebuke, a ſhrewde woorde, an yll reporte.
Conferre, congerere, conicere maledictum in aliquem, and Inſectari aliquem maledictis, to ſpeake yll or myſreporte of, to rayle at one, to cheche.
Maléd̃icus, a, um, yll tunged, that ſpeaketh yll of men, that raileth.
Maledicentior, maledicentius, Maledicentiſſimus, a, um.
Malefácio, malefacis, fèci, facere, to doe yll.
Malefactum, ti, n. g. a ſhrewde tourne, an yll deede, a diſpleaſure.
Maléfica, a witche, whiche with ſorcerie doeth hurte to men or beaſtes.
Maleficentia, æ, f. g. myſdoeyng idem quod maleficium.
Malefice, myſchieuouſly, harmefully.
Maleficioſè, idem.
Maleficium, ij, n. g. damage, wronge, diſpleaſure, hurte, a miſchieuous deede, an yll acte, a ſhrewde tourne.
Maléficus, a, um, hurtefull, noyſome, that doeth hurte.
Maleloqui, & Maledicere, to curſe.
Maleuentum, i, n. g. a citee in Campania called nowe Benenentum.
Maléuolens, entis, Idem quod Maleuolus.
Maleuoléntia, æ, f. g. malice, yll will.
Maléuolus, a, um, malicious, that beareth yll will, that beareth grudge.
Maleus, a mountayne in India.
Maliaca, a citee in Spayne called nowe Malgrado.
Maliacum mare, the ſea about Theſſaly.
Malicórium, ij, neu. ge. the rynde of a pomegranade.
Malica, a citee in Theſſaly.
Maligné, enuiouſely, diſdeygnefully, malycyouſely.
Malignitas, ătis, f. g. wickednes, malignitee, enuye, malyce, yll will, vnprofitablenes, the vice contrarie to liberalitee, nygardſhyp.
Fortunæ malignitas, the frowardneſſe of fortune.
Malignor, & Maligno, to beare malice, to bee hatefull.

Malignus, a, um, wicked, cruell, enuious, couetous, sparyng, to muche a niggarde.
Aditus maligni, straight entrees.
Maligna via, an yll waie.
Maligna lux, a dymme lyght.
Nec malignus, nec effusus, not to bricke nor to longe: not to little nor to much.
Malignus ager, grounde that is yll to bee brought to tylthe.
Malimnus, an hille of Sicilie.
Malinachalla, a plante growynge in Egypte.
Malinus, a, um, of or made of an appull tree.
Malum, æ, f. g. knauery, naughtinesse, contrary to vertue and goodnesse. sometyme it signifieth subtiltee with deceyte, referrynge al thynges to his owne profite.
Malum cœli, the vnholsomenesse of the ayre.
Malum soli, the naughtinesse of the grounde.
Malitiosè, subtilly, craftyly, wyly, deceyptefully, sprtefully, with an intent to beguyle.
Malitiosus, a, um, craftye, subtille, deceiptefull, wely.
Malum Rom. the herbe called also Anthemis: looke there.
Malleator, oris, m. g. he that wooryeth with a hammer, mallet, or beetyll.
Malleatus, a, um, hammered.
Malleo, aui, are, to wooyke with an hammer or mallette.
Malleolaris, re, as a twigge or bough.
Malleolaris virga, idem quod malleolus.
Malleolus, i, m. g. a little hammer. it is also a small bough or twygge of a vyne, shotynge out of the stalke. Also Malleoli, be sometyme taken generally for smalle stiches. They bee sometyme taken for the bones of the ancle.
Malleus, ei, mas. gene. an hammer, a mallet, a beetle.
Mallos, a citee of Cilicia.
Malluuium, ij, neu. gene. & Malluuiæ, arum, fæ. gene. a basen, wherein men dooe wasshe their handes.
Malo, I had leifer or rather, mauis, mauult. Quidnis iam malo quam. &c. I will rather suffre nowe any misaduenture in the worlde, than yt.
Malobathrum, thri, n. g. a sweete herbe growynge in Indie vppon waters without roote. Also a sweete ointment, wherewith men were wonte to wasshe their heare. some wryte it Malabadrum.
Malocion, the herbe called also Lichnis coronaria.
Malogranatum, a pome granate.
Maltho, aui, are, to couer with the slyme or clay called maltha.
Maltha, thæ, f. g. a clare, whiche toutchynge any other matter or substaunce, setteth it on fyre, rede in Asphaltum, & Bitumen.
Malua, æ, fœ. gen. an herbe called malowes, or holyhockes, which is named to be one kynd of malowes.
Maluáceus, a, um, pertcinynge to malowes, or lyke malowes.
Maluaticum, ci, neut. gene. of some is vsed for malmesey.
Maluauiscus, reade in Althea.
Malum, li, n. g. an apple.
Malum punicum, a pomegranate.
Malum terræ, reade Aristolochia.
Malum medicum, citrum, Hespericum, Assyrium, aureum, an orenge or lymon.
Malum Coroneum, vel Cydoneum, a quince
Malum epiroticum, Romanis orbiculatum, pome paradise.
Mala struthia, mustea, melimela, certayne kindes of quinces.
Malum caninum, the mandrake.
Malum terrestre, idem.
Malum, substantyuely, an yll thynge, a shrewde tourne, a mischiefe. Also labour, veracion, sickenesse, griefe, payne, beatynge, punishement.
Dare malum, to dooe a shrewed tourne or displeasure, to hurte.
Cauere malum, to beware and take hede of a mischiefe.
Non potest ad salutem conuerti hoc malum, this mischiefe can neuer bee recouered or eased.
Malum habere, to haue a shrewde displeasure.
Malum pondus, a false weight.
Vitare malum, to eschewe an yll mischiefe.
Malum, beyng an interiection, signifieth with a mischiefe, or lyke thyng.
Quid vos malum ergo me sic ludificamini? than wherfore with a mischiefe do you thus mocke me?
Quidtua (malum) id refert? what with a mischiefe recheſt thou therfore, or haste thou therwith to dooe?
Malus, a, um, yll, contrary to good.
Non vides quantũ mali ex eare excites? doest thou not perceyue, howe muche inconuenience thou stirrest vp therby?
Malæ fidei possessor, he that wittyngly possesseth an other mans landes and goodes wrõgfully.
Malus, li, m. g. the maste of a shyppe.
Malus, li, fœ. g. an apple tree.
Malus Assyrica vel medica, an orenge tree.
Malus Persica, a peach tree.
Malus cotonea, a quince tree.
Malus Punica, a pomegranat tree.
Malus armeniaca, the fruite whiche some doe call an Abricoke.
Mamercus, a bysshoppe of Vienna, whiche first ordeyned the rogacõ or procession weke. 444. yeres after Christe.
Mamers, in the Osse tongue, the name of Mars.
Mamertes, one of Corinthe.

Mamertini, people in Campania.

Mamiras, a roote, haupng dyuers rounde bunches, which is good to take away scarres. Ruellius thinketh it that, whiche is called Doronicum Romanum.

Mamilla, æ, f. g. a lyttle dugge or pappe.

Mamillâre, ris, n. ge. a kercheefe, wherwith women dooe couer their pappes.

Mamma, æ, f. g. a dugge or pappe. Somtyme it is taken for the mother or nourse. Also a graunde mother. Sometyme the budde of a tree before it be spronge out.

Primam mammam dare, to geue fyrst sucke.

Mammare, To geue the dugge or breaste to a chylde.

Mammeata, a woman with great dugges or breastes.

Mammeatus, and mammosus, a, um, haupnge great dugges.

Mammôna, æ, f. ge. in the language of Syria, worldely substaunce, ryches.

Mammothreptus, ti, m. g. the chyld that sucketh long, so is it interpreted by saincte Augustyn in his exposicion vpon the psalmes. Notwithstandyng Erasmus in ratione concionandi, interpreteth it a chyld wantonly brought vp.

Mammula, æ, a lyttle teate or dugge.

Mamolaria, idem quod Acanthium.

Mamolaria, the herbe Acantha.

Mamphula, æ, f. ge. a certayne breadde vsed in Syria, whiche ere it bee throughe baken, falleth into coles.

Mamphur, phuris, a rounde peece of tymber, that turners vse.

Mamurius, a notable smithe or engrauer, in the tyme of Numa.

Mamurra, a gentylman of Rome.

Mana, in the olde tyme was taken for Bona, good.

Manâlis, le, that, out of the which lycour alwaie renneth.

Manalis fons, a welle that alwaie sprynged.

Manalis lapis, the doore of hell, by the whiche soules ascende to heauen. Also a stone by the temple of Mars, whiche whan the Romayns in a drought brought into the cite, there folowed alwaie rayne.

Manans, antis, rennyng.

Manantia vlcera, rennyng sores, or sores that encrease and ware more and more.

Manapia, a towne in Ireland called waterford.

Manceps, mancipis, m. ge. a farmer that byeth or hyreth a thyng of the people, one that byeth or byeth vp thinges a great, and after selleth or selleth them at a greatter pryce, for his owne aduauntage. also one that selleth a thynge on warantyse. Sometyme any other crafte man or huckster.

Mancipes conducti, they that take on them to dooe a thyng of great for money.

Mancinati, persons condemned.

Mancipâtus, a, um, bonde, brought in seruage.

Mancipâtus, us, a selling with warantyse.

In mancipatum venire, to be solde solemnely before witnesse with warantyse.

Mancipâtio, ônis, fœ. g. the assurednce by lyuery and possession.

Mancipi, or Mancupi, indeclinable, the interest or ryght of a thyng.

Mancupi emptio, the solemne forme or maner of byeng any thyng before witnesse, by lyuery and seysion, or possession takynge, with other thynges executed, requisite for the assurance of the bargayne and sale.

Mancipi res, all thynges that maie be alyened from our possession to others also those thynges that be in our full and proper possession.

Mancipium, or Mancupium, ij, n. g. that whiche is solemnely bought before witnesses, the contracte or bargayne of a thing solde with warantyse. Also a mans proper goodes or catell. somtyme a bondeman, a prisoner, a captyue.

Fortuna nihil dat mancipio, Fortune geueth nothyng to a man to possesse for euer.

Mancipij sui esse, to bee his owne man, and none other mans subiecte or seruant.

Mancipio, or Mancupio accipere, to take possession or lyuerie and seysone, to take a thynge with warantyse of hym that geueth or selleth it.

Mancipio, or Mancupio dare, to deliuer possession reserupng a rente, to geue or selle a thyng with warantyse.

Vita mancipio nulli datur, lyfe is geuen to no man as his owne proper possession.

Mancipo, aui, are, to deliuer in bondage, to deliuer possession, to make lyuerie or seysone, to dispossesse our selfe, and geue possession to another. Also for Vendere, to sell.

Mancupes, the principall takers of lande or other thyng, wherof groweth yearly reuenues. Also they that dooe take on them to performe any woorke in great.

Mancus, a, um, lacking one hande. Also generally, that whiche lacketh any thyng necessarie, maymed, vnperfecte, weake.

Manca cognitio, vnperfecte knowlage, where some thyng lacketh.

Fortuna manca, weake, of no puisance.

Mandane, Astiages daughter, mother to kyng Cyrus.

Mandatârius, he to whom a commaundement is geuen.

Mandâtor, ôris, m. gen. he that willeth or chargeth one to dooe a thyng. he that suborneth a teltale or false accuser.

Mandator cædis, he that suborneth or procureth one to committe a murther.

Mandâtum, ti, neu. g. a commission, also a commaundement, a charge.

Mandata conficere, perficere, exequi, facere. To doe the thynges that one is commaunded or charged.

Dar

Dare mandata alicui ad aliquem, To wyll or charge one to dwe certayne thinges by an other that goeth as messenger betwene.

Fallere mandata alicuius, To deceiue one, and not to doo that a man wylleth or chargeth hym to doo.

Habere mandata ab aliquo, To haue commission, commaundement or charge of one, to dwe or saie a thynge.

Mandata addere, to geue in charge or commission moreouer.

Mandâtus, us, m. gen. a byddyng, chargeyng, or commaundyng.

Mandâtus, a, um, geuen in charge or committed to one to dooe.

Mandela, a village of the Sabynes.

Mandibula, læ, fœm. gen. a iawbone, wherin the teeth be sette.

Mando, ônis, m. gen. a great eater, or he that is alwaie eatynge.

Mando, di, ere, to chewe meate or grynde it with the teeth.

Lenissimè mandere, to chewe meate softly.

Mando, aui, are, to commyt, to charge, to commaunde, to bydde, to geue in charge.

Memoriæ mandare, To remembre, to put in remembraunce, to leaue in memorie or for a memoriall, to putte in wrytynge. Also to conne by herte.

Mandare æternitati, to wrote a thynge, to the entent it shoulde be in perpetuall remẽbraunce.

Mandare curam, to leaue the charge vnto one.

Mandare fidei alicuius, To put a man in trust with a thyng.

Mandare literis, To put in wrytyng or memorie.

Mandare monumentis, to put the acte of any man in perpetuall remembraunce.

Mandare se fugæ, to renne awaie.

Mandare terræ semina, to put seede into the grounde, to sowe grayne or seedes.

Satin hoc mandatum est tibi? is this byddyng enoughe for the?

Mandare in vltimas terras, To banyshe or sende to the vttermost partes or ende of the worlde.

Bona nostra hæc tuæ mando fidei, I committe all these my goodes to your fidelytee. Or I putte you in truste, with all these my goodes.

Humo mandare aliquem, to burie one.

Versibus mandare, to write in verses.

Honores mandare, To geue offyces or dignities to one. Likewyse Mandare magistratum.

Mandonius, a Spaynysshe capitayne.

Mandra, æ, fœ. g. an houell or other lyke place, wherin cattell dooe saue theym selfes from the heate of the soonne, or from tempestes, a beastes stall.

Mandrágora, æ, f. g. mandrake, an herbe which Dioscorides saith was of som called Circea, because it was feined, that Circe the great sorceresse, vsed the roote thereof in hir amorouse drynkes. The iuice of the roote, or wyne wherin the roote is boyled, will cause one to slepe a deade slepe. wherfore surgions dooe vse to geue it to theym, whom they wyll cutte. It is also vsed for other purposes in physycke. of this herbe be two kyndes, the male and the female.

Mandrabulus, a man that founde a great treasure: on whom goeth a prouerbe.

Mandro, a poore shypman, which throughe prosperouse fortune, grewe at length to bee a great capitayne.

Manduces, images caried about in pagẽtes with great cheekes, wyde mouthes, and makynge a great soune with their teeth.

Manducus, ci, idem.

Mandûco, aui, are, and manducor, aris, ari, in olde writers, to chewe meate, to eate.

Mandûco, ônis, m. g. a great eater.

Mane, yearly, also in the morenyng.

Mane & mani, dixerunt veteres.

Hodie mane, to daie in the morenyng yerly.

Tam mane, so yearly in the morenyng.

Dormire totum mane, to sleepe all the morenyng. A mane diei, euen from the morenyng.

Multo mane, and bene mane, verie yearly.

Nimis mane, very yearly or to yearly.

Maneo, mansi, ẽre, to abyde, to tarie, to stande styll, to remayne, to continue, to persiste, to happen hereafter, to be lyke to chaunce hereafter. sometyme for expectare, to abyde looking for.

Manere promissis, to kepe promyse, to sticke to ones promyse.

Manere ad exercitum, to tarie with the armye.

Manere aliquem, to abyde looking for one.

Quicunque te manent casus, what chances so euer bee like to fall to you, or shall come to you hereafter.

Manet te bonum, some good fortune wyll chaunce to the.

Periculum ingens manet, nisi. &c. there will great daunger ensue or folowe, except. &c.

Mansit Siluius postea omnibus cognomen, qui Albæ regnauerunt, All that reigned after at Alba were surnamed Siluii, or had this surname Siluius.

Lex manet, cui opponitur abrogata est.

In officio manere, To dooe his dutee diligently.

Si sententia tua manet, if you bee still in that opinion.

Manent causæ, the same causes or leattes be still.

Id mihi manet, that tarieth with me, or I haue that still.

Manere in conditione, to sticke to the offer that he hath made.

Manere in fide, to be true.

Manebitur, the impersonall.
Manedum, tarie a whyle.
Manes, mânium, plu. tan. m. g. the good and badde aungell: sometymes they bee taken for diuelles, sometyme for goddes, sometyme for spirites or soules not pourged of synne. some tyme for the peynes, whiche soules doe suffer.
Manes, an heretyke, whiche affirmed him selfe sometyme to be Iyke Christe, sometyme to bee the comfortour that was promysed to come.
Manethus Mendes, a preest of Egypte.
Mango, ônis, com. g. was taken for a seller of boyes to abhominable vses, whiche accustomed to peincte and decke theim, to sell them the better. It is taken also for suche a one as polyscheth and peincteth a thynge with a false colour, to sell it the derer. it is sometyme taken for a seller of horses, a horse coyser that pampereth vp his horses to make theym seeme kayre.
Mangónicus, a, um, pertenynge to that crafte.
Mangónium, ij, n. g. the crafte to make thynges saleable.
Mangónizâtus, a, um, trymmed, polished, peincted, pampered or pozred vp, to bee the better solde.
Mangonizo, aui, are, to polysh, peyncte, or trim a thyng, to make it moze vendible, or to be better solde.
Mania, æ, f. g. madnesse, teade in Phrenitis.
Mania, a cittee of Persia.
Mania, was also amonge the gentyls a goddesse called the mother of theym, whiche were called Lares, or Larui, vnto the whiche goddesse they vsed a while to offer mens heades in sacrifice. But after by meanes of Iun. Brutus, which was consull, they chaunged ỳ sacrifice into gar lyke heades, and the knoppes of popies. It was also that, wherwith nourices dyd put childzen in feare whan they cried, whiche women vse to calle the bugge, or the gobblin.
Maniæ, arum, f. g. plu. defourmed personages.
Mánicæ, arum, plur. manakles to tie the handes together: also gauntlettes and splintes: also mittaynes and longe gloues.
Mánica, æ, f. g. a sleeue of a garment.
Manicâtus, a, um, sleeued or hangynge sleeues.
Manicata vestis, a garment with sleeues.
Manichæi, a seete of heretykes, so named of an arche heretyke called Manes.
Manicon, an herbe called also furialis.
Manicula, læ, f. g. a lytle hande.
Manicus, ci, m. g. a madde man.
Manifestárius, a, um, clere, euident, openly knowen, notozious.
Manifestaria res est, the thyng is very eupdent and notably knowen.
Manifestarius fur, a theefe notably knowen.
Manifeste, clerely, manifestelye, eupdentelye, playnely.
Manifesto, an aduerbe, clerely, playnly.
Manifesto, aui, are, to manifest or make aparant.

Maniféstus, a, um, manifeste, clere, euident, playne.
Manifestum habere, to knowe surely.
Manifestus mendax, proued a lyar. lyke wyse manifestus vanitatis, flagitij, ambitionis, delicti.
Manifestum facere, to declare playnely.
Manilius, the name of a noble house amonge the Romaynes.
Manimoria, thynges that dooe abyde in remembraunce.
Maniolæ, ples agaynst Indie, beyonde the ryuer of Ganges, where as bee roches of Adamant stones, which dooe drawe vnto theym shippes that haue yron nayles. Maniolæ were also little puppettes made of bowe, geuen to childzen.
Manipulâris, & Maniplâris, a capitayne of a bande of men. A standerde bearer.
Manipulâris, re, of or belongynge to a bande of men.
Manipulâtim, by bandes or companies of men.
Manipulus, li, mas, gen. an handefull, a grype, a bande of men, proprely of. x. souldiours.
Manipulus fœni, a bottell of hye.
Manius, the name of certayne Romaynes.
Manliana, a cittee of Portugale, an other of Tuscane.
Manliana imperia, cruell gouernaunce, or rule without any mercy.
Manlius, the name of dyuers noble romaynes.
Manna, in holy scripture was a certayne delicate thynge, whiche god rayned to the Jewes, beynge in wyldernesse, whiche laye on the grounde whyte, and lyke to the sede of Coliander, and was wonderfull pleasaunt in eatyng, and by lykelyhode holsome, as engendrynge no putrifaction. nowe, we dooe commonly name it aungelles foode. Manna vsed in phisike, is in .iij. sortes. One is a dewe congeled on trees in certayne places, and falleth as meldew dooeth here in Englande, & is gathered and solde verye deare for a medicine to purge choler easylie. some supposed it to be that, whiche Dioscorides calleth Eleæomeli: some, that which he calleth Saccharum. But manardus and Musa, dooe affirme the contrary. Not withstandynge that, whiche Galene in his worke de alimentorum facultatibus, calleth Melrotis, seemeth to be this Manna. But Avicen putteth it amonge those thynges, whiche were founde after Galenes tyme. In other Manna, called Manna thuris, is the crumbes or fragmentes of frankencense, whiche with the rynde of the tree, falleth in the gathering of frankensence. The fyrst is temperate betweene hotte and colde without any degree, this other is of the temperature of incense, but that it is more byndyng.
Mannor, aris, ari, to steale.
Mannulus, li, and Mannus, i, m. g. a nagge, a lit-ytell hoyse.

Manus, the soonne of Teuton, of whom the Almaynes descended.

Mano, aui, are, to renne out, as lycoue dooeth. Also to droppe out, to appere out as sweate out of the pores. Also to descende, to procede, to goe abroade, to spreade abroade.

Manat tota vrbe rumor, the bruite therof was spreade and sowne through the citee.

Manantia vlcera, sores that dooe waxe more and more.

Lachrymæ manauere genis, the teares trickled downe his cheekes.

Manat picem hæc arbor, pitche renneth out of this tree, or this tree sweateth or sendeth out pitche.

Gelidus toto manabat corpore sudor, all his bodie was in a colde sweate.

Manat sudore, he sweateth.

Manabant omnibus gaudio lachrymæ, they all wepte for ioye.

Latius manabit hæc oratio, this kynde of oration will serue to many other thynges, or be vsed in many other thynges.

Manabat indies latius, it daiely encreased and went further abroade.

Manobalistæ, wer darres wrought with leade. also they whiche vsed to beare theym.

Mansio, onis, f. g. the abydynge or tarieynge in a place, lodgeyng or baityng. Someteyme it signifieth a daies iourney. but amonge auncient writers it signified the place where an host dyd rest in iourney. Also the places, where curriours or men ridynge in poste, dooe change their horses or waggons, were called Mansiones. The space of the first, after the accoumpte of olde capitaynes, was. 150. furlonges, whiche is. 18. miles, a halfe mile, and a quarter of a mile.

Mansisterna, a pitchar potte.

Mansito, aui, are, to abyde longe. Also to cham or chaw often.

Mansus, stollen.

Mansuefácio, ecis, fēci, facere, to make gentil or tractable, to make taame.

Mansuefactus, a, um, made gentill or taame.

Mansues, for Mansuētus.

Mansuesco, scere, to waxe taame or gentyll. sometyme for Mansuefacere.

Mansuetárius, rij. m. gen. he that breaketh an horse, or maketh any other beast taame.

Mansuetúdo, dinis, f. g. meekenesse, gentylnesse, a moderate temperaunce betweene pryde and simplicitee.

Mansuetè, meekely, gentylly, tamely.

Mansuētus, a, um, meeke, gentyll, taame.

Hæc ego putabam omnia esse humani ingenij, mansuetique animi officia, I thought all these to be the partes of a gentyll nature, and of a tendre herte.

Mansum, si, neu. gen. meate, whiche the nurces dooeth chewe, and after geue it to the chylde, puttyng it into his mouthe.

Mansus, a, um, of Mando, mandi, chewed.

Mansutius, a gourmaundour or great eater.

Mantēlum, li, mantēlium, ij, and mantele, lis, n. g. a towell or napkyn, wherwith men dooe wipe their handes, whan they haue washed. also a cloke.

Mantelum mendacij, a cloke or couer to hide ones lies.

Mantes, tis, m. g. a diuinour or coniectour of thynges to come.

Manteum, tei, n. g. a place, where dyuelles in is dolles gaue aunsweres.

Mantia, æ, f. g. diuination. also the bushe called rubus: looke there.

Mántice, tices, f. g. the arte of diuination.

Mántica, cæ, f. g. a bagge. sometyme a cloke, a wallet.

Manticora, a beaste, whiche is in India, in bodie lyke to a lyon, but more rough, hauyng a face lyke to a man, and in his mouthe two rewes or sette of teeth, the taple of a scorpion, and the voyce of a small trumpette, and is of coloure redde, and will neuer be made taame.

Manticula, læ, fœm. gener. a little bagge or purse.

Manticulária, towells or other lyke thynges, wherwith men dooe wype their handes.

Manticularius, rij, m. g. a stealer of napkyn. also a piche purse or cut purse.

Manticulátio, ônis, f. g. slyghte, decepte.

Manticulor, aris, ari, to dooe a thynge slyly, as to piche a purse.

Manule, lis, idem quod Mantelum.

Mantinea, a citee in Greece.

Mantis, idem quod Mantes.

Mantiscinor, āris, āri, to steale or picke craftily.

Mantissa, æ, f. g. the addition in weyght, somewhat ouer.

Mantius, the soonne of Melampus.

Manto, the soonne of Tiresias the Theban prophet, who led his father, whiche was blinde.

Manto, aui, are, the moste auncient writers vsed for frequenter manere, to tarie often tymes.

Mantua, a noble citee in Lumbardie, where Vergill the excellente poete was borne.

Mantuanus, a, um, of Mantua.

Mantuariæ tunicæ, sleeued iackettes.

Manuālis, le, of the hande, or that fylleth the hande, or that is holden in the hande.

Manualis, idem quod iuncus marinus.

Manuarius, ā, um, manuall, that belongeth to the hande.

Manubiæ, arum, f. g. pl. the praie take of ennemies, the bootie: after some, the capitaynes parte of the praie. Also a spoyle taken of some noble person that yeldeth. also money, for the whiche the praie was solde.

Manubiālis, læ, perteinynge to a praye or bootie.

Manubialis pecunia, money that the praie is tolde for.

Manubinárius, a, um, parte taker of a praye or booty.

Manubrioluʒ, li, n. g. a little hafte or handyll.

Manúbrium, brij, n. g. the hylte or handill of a weapon or inſtrument.

Oſſea manubria, bone hakes.

Manui, amonge the olde Romayns in their ſonges called Saliares, ſignified good or honeſte men.

Manuleâtus, a, um, haupnge longe ſleeues, or that weareth a garment with longe ſleues: and by tranſlation, a nice, tender, & delicate perſon.

Manuleata tunica, a cote with longe ſleeues, looke Chirodota.

Manulearius, rij, m. g. he that maketh garmentes with longe ſleeues.

Manum, clere, wherof cometh Manè, the morninge.

Manumiſsio, ônis, f. g. an infranchiſemente of a bonde man.

Manumiſſus, a, um, infranchiſed, manumiſed.

Manumitto, miſi, mittere, to manumiſe or infranchiſe a bonde man.

Manufactus, a, um, made with hande.

Manuor, idem quod Furor.

Manupréccium, cij, n. g. the rewarde or wages for wooркeman ſhyppe.

Manuria, a cote with ſleues.

Manus, us, f. g. a hande, a mans hande in wrytyng, a writyng, a ſubſcripcion with ones owne hande. alſo a grapull to faſten ſhyppes together. ſometyme it ſignifieth a multitude of men in the arde of one: ſometyme power. alſo the noſe or ſnoute of an olyfante.

Manus iniectio, attachement. alſo ſeaſon or ſeyſure of a thynge, wherunto we make title.

Manum inſcere, to ſeyſe or take poſſeſſion.

Mittere manus ad rem aliquam, to ſeyſe or take poſſeſſion of a thyng to ſome vſe.

Manu conſertum ex iure vocare, to chalenge tyght or propyetee in a thyng, and offre to trie it by the lawe. Reade Gell. li. ix. Cicer. pro Murena, and De oratore, lib. i.

Manum conſerere, to fyghte hande to hande.

Manum ferulæ ſubducere, to ſuffre to be corrected in learnyng, to be contente to be taught, to be learned, ones to haue gone to ſchoole, and now to be paſt teachyng.

Manum non verterim, I wyll neuer go about it, I wyll not turne my hande for it, I paſſe not muche, I care not.

Manum habere ſub pallio, to be ydell, to bee nothyng ſpuely or ſterynge.

Manibus pedibúſque, with all myght and maine, with hande and foote, with toothe and nayle, as muche as in hym lieth, al that euer he maie right buſily.

Manibus pedibúſque ire in ſententiam, is in a parlyament, great counſayle, or other great aſſembly, to haue the conſente of many men, where ỳ greatter parte cõſentyng to one mans opinion or ſentence, door goe towarde hym, holdyng vp theyr handes, in tokẽ that they be therunto agreed.

Mittere manum, in dice playyng to pardon one that caſteth the throwe, wherby he leſeth all.

✠ Manum de tabula, a prouerbe, ſignifyng, leaue whyles it is well.

✠ Manum & mentum, was an olde prouerbe, wherby men were warned of chaunces, whiche happened ſodeinly, and in ſo ſhorte a tyme as a man myght bryng his hande to his chyn. lyke to the ſame is an other prouerbe of the grekes, Multa quidem cadunt inter calicem ſupremáque labra: reade that in, M. ante. V.

Compreſſa in pugnum manus, the fyſte.

Manus oculatæ, handes lookynge alwaie to receyue that was promyſed.

Mea manu ſcriptæ literæ, letters of myne owne writynge.

Plena manu, liberally, bountefully, copiouſely.

Æquis manibus abſcedere, ſo to departe frõ battayle, that neyther can tell whiche hath the better hand, to departe on euen hande.

Afferre manus, to hyll.

Inter manus accipere aliquem, to take one vp alofte, and carie out betweene men.

Manu capere, to wyn in war by ſtrong hande.

Collidere manus, to clappe the handes together. Vix continet manus, he booeth ſcantly holde his handes.

Dedere manus, to yelde.

Victas dare manus, idem.

Manu docere, to teache playnly.

Manibus prælium facere, to ioyne battayle, to fyght hande to hande.

Habere ad manum, to haue in a redineſſe.

Imponere ſummam manum, to make an ende of a thyng, to make perfecte.

Intentare manus in aliquem, to laie handes vpon one.

Manus multas poſcit hoc opus, this woorke requereth the helpe of many.

Pulſare vtráque manu, to thumpe with both the fiſtes.

Hoc ſuccedit ſub manibus negotiũ, this thyng cometh well to paſſe, or hath good ſucceſſe.

Eſſe manus alicuius, to helpe one.

In manibus veſtris habetis, it is in your power. Eſt in manibus liber, the boke is abrode in euery mans hande.

Plus illi in manu eſt, he is rycher, he hath greatter ſubſtaunce.

In manus ſumere, to take in hande.

Tendere manus, to holde vp the handes as men doe in prayeng and deſiryng.

Tollere manus, to caſt vp the handes for ioy.

Longa manu dare, to proffre and promyſe a thyng, but not to geue it out of hande.

Breui manu dare, to geue foorthe with that one

one promyseth.
Res ad manus veniebat, it came to that poynt that they fought for the mattier.
Inter manus versari, to be abroade in mens handes.
Per manus, and De manu in manum, frome hande to hande, from one to an other.
Præ manu pecuniam dare, to geue money before hande.
Quod mihi fuit præ manibus, that I had in my handes.
Sub manu, at hande.
Pro manus, precio aliquid dare, to geue any thyng for the woorcmanshyppe.
Manzizanion, of Actius is taken for the roote of Colocasia.
Mapilia, órum, neu. gen. plu. cotages buylded rounde lyke ouens.
Mapeti, a cyttee of Sarmatia, called commonly Lopa.
Mappa, æ, f. g. a table clothe.
Marasmus, is a kynde of the feuer called Hectica, in the whiche the moysture of the substanciall partes of the bodye is exhauste or dried vp, and the flesshe resolued. wherfore Galenus exhorteth the phisicion, not to go about to cure hym, whom this sicknesse hath attached. For although he doue extinguisshe the heate, yet will the dryenesse, that is lefte, lyke vnto age, consume the patiente. The causes therof be the same, whiche are of Hectica, the one and the other is called in englysshe a consumption feuer: but this maie be called a mortall consumption, because it is incurable.
Marathus, idem quod Hippomarathon.
Marathon, a towne & a fielde in the countrey of Atheneſſe, distaunt from thens .x. mile, where Theseus slewe a terryble bull, and Miltiades vanquisshed the Persians.
Marathrites, a kynde of wyne, haupyng fenell infused, good for the eye syght.
Marathusa, an ile, wherin is aboundance of fenell, and it is also called Clazomenia.
Marathrum, thri, n. g. idem quod fœniculum, fenell, whiche is hotte and dry in the secounde degree.
Marcella, a womans name.
Marcellus, a proper name.
Marceo, cui, cere, to corrupte, to be rotten.
Marcere vino, to be consumed with dronken nesse. Marcet animus, his courage kaplethe hym, his mynde is slouthfull and heauie, he is without courage or lyke.
Marcesco, scere idem quod Marceo, to waxe rotten or corrupted, to become vnlustie.
Marcescere otio vel desidia, to be loste with idelnesse and slouthe.
Marcescente adhuc stomacho pridiani cibi onere, the stomache beyng yet oppressed and feeble with the meate that he hadde eaten the date before.

Marchasita, idem quod Pyrites, as Georg. Agricola testifieth.
Marchia, a countrey in base Germanie.
Marchias, a notable robber in the woodde Dodonia.
Marculus, li. m. g. a hammer, or other lyke instrumente, that a copper smith dooeth vse.
Marcidus, a, um, rotten, feeble, vnlustie.
Marcidæ aures, hangyng eares.
Marcidus somno, vnlustie with to much sleepe.
Marcipanes, a kynde of bread named of the inuentour marchepaine.
Marcipor, marciporis, ma. gen. the seruaunt of Marcus.
Marcomani, people in Germanie, whiche are now supposed to be eyther of Boheme, or of Morauia.
Marcor, óris, m. g. corruption or putrifaccion, sluggardie.
Mardi, a people adioygnyng to Persia.
Mardonius, one of Xerres capitaynes.
Mare, ris, n. g. the sea. it is sometyme putte for any great water.
Mare cœlo miscere, to trouble all the worlde.
Mare Mediterraneum, the sea, whyche cometh from the weste ocean, and entreth by the streictes of Marroche, and passeth betweene Spayne and Barbarie, diuidyng Europa from Africa, and entreth into Asia, tyll hynge not withstandynge diuers particular names: as Balearicum, Ligusticum, Tirrhenum, Carpathium, Aegeum. &c.
Infestum mare habere, to trouble the sea.
Mari terraque querere, to seke euery where, bothe by sea and by lande.
Mare rubrum, the redde sea, betweene Egypt and Palestine.
Mareotis, ótidis, a poole or meere in Egypte. also a parte of Libya, and a parte of Epirus.
Margea, a certayne fountayne.
Mariotides, grapes of the countrey of Mareotis.
Marga, æ, f. g. a kynde of earthe called marle, whiche is a fatte clate and chalke myngled.
Margaridæ, small dates, rounde and whyte.
Margaris, margaridis, fœ. gen. a kynde of date trees.
Margarita, æ, f, g. and Margaritum, ti, ne. ge. a perle: a margarite. sometyme generally all pretious stones are called Margaritæ. somtyme a date.
Margaritarius, rij, m. g. a seller of perles.
Margaritefer, ra, rum, that whiche bryngeth foorthe or hath plentie of perles.
Margiana, a region in Asia.
Margites, the name of a very foole, after whom all notable fooles bee so called.
Margo, márginis, com, g. the brymme or edge of any thynge, the margent.
Margines imperij, the boundes or marches of the empyre.
Marginatus, a, um, that hath a brode margent.

Márgino, aui, are, to make brynkes, brymmes or margentes.
Margus, a riuer in Illa.
Maria, æ, f. g. a proper name.
Mariaba, the chiefe citee in Saba.
Mariandini, people of Bithinia.
Mariandinum, a countrey in Illa, where Hercules ouercame Cerberus.
Marianus, a hyll in Spayne.
Marica radix, the herbe called also Iris.
Marica, a goddesse.
Maridunum, the towne of Caier Marthen in wales.
Marinus, a, um, of the sea.
Marina aqua, salte water of the sea.
Marinus color, id est, varius color.
Marionus, Lunemburghe in Almayne.
Maris, a ryuer rennyng into Ister.
Mariscæ, vnsauery figges, wylde fygges, fygges whiche doo open that the seedes doo appere. Also great pyles or hemorroides in the fundement.
Mariscus, ci, m. g. or Mariscum, ci, n. g. a hynde of bull russhes.
Marita, tæ, f. g. a wedded woman, a wyfe.
Maritális, le, pertenyng to wedlocke.
Capistrum maritale, the bonde of wedlocke.
Maritigenus, a, um, come of the hynd of Mars.
Maritimus, a, um, of the sea syde, of the sea cost.
Marito, aui, are, to wedde: and is spoken also of trees, as to set vines to elmes or other trees.
Maritari, to be made great with ponge.
Maritus, ti, m. g. a wedded man, an housebãde, sometyme it is taken for a cocke, sometyme for the bucke gote, or the male in any couple.
Marius, the proper name of a noble Romayn.
Marmarica, a countrey in Affrike, betwene Cyrene, Libya, and Egypte, hauyng on the north the Egyptian sea.
Marmaridæ, people of Affrike, marchyng to Aegypte.
Marmaritis, tidis, fœ. ge. an herbe, supposed of Dioscorides to bee Fumytorie.
Marmor, ŏris, n. g. marble stone.
Marmorárius, rii, m. gene. he that wourketh in marble, a marbler.
Marmorátio, ônis, f. g. buyldyng with marble.
Marmoratus, a, um, wrought with marble, that is couered with marble.
Marmoratæ laudes, images of marble, set vp for the memorie of any man.
Marmorátum, ti, n. g. a thyng made of marble.
Marmóreus, a, um, of marble.
Marmorósus, a, um, harde like marble.
Maro, ronis, the name of the most excellent poete Uergyll.
Maronia, a citee of the Ciconiãs, where is verale good wyne, and after some so strong, that if twentie tymes so muche water bee put to, it kepeth his strength stylle. also the herbe centaurie.

Maronæus, a, um, of Maronia.
Marpesus, an hill in the yle called Parus.
Marpesius, a, um, of the same hyll.
Marpissa, the daughter of Euenus, and wyfe of Idas.
Marplacidæ, shyppes or barges vsed in Medua.
Marra, æ, f. g. a mattocke to pare awaie weedes.
Marrubium, bii, n. g. an herbe called horehoũde: it is hotte and drie in the second degree.
Marrucini, people in Italie.
Mars, martis, called the god of battayle. sometime it is taken for battayle.
Mars communis, the vncertayn chaunce of warre.
Marte suo, of his owne proper witte without any counsayle.
Martis capillulum, the herbe Eringium.
Martis sanguis, the herbe Asarum.
Marticola, a worshypper of Mars.
Marsi, people in Scythia.
Marspiter, the father of Mars.
Marsia, a countrey in Italye. it is also a riuer rennyng by Spamea.
Marsius, and Marsicus, a, um, of Marsia.
Marsúpium, pii, n. g. a pouche or purse.
Marsyas, the name of a famous historiographer, & of certaine other men. also a ryuer of Phrygia named of one Marsyas, a minstrel.
Martia, Catos ponger daughter.
Martia, æ, f. g. a water in Rome, verie hollome and excellent.
Martiaca, wages geuen to souldiours.
Martiacus, a, um, belongyng to warres.
Martiális, le, borne vnder the planet of Mars.
Martiánus, a, um, of Mars.
Martiális, the name of a poete, who wrote Epigrammes.
Martius, the name of dyuers Romaynes.
Martius, a, um, pertenyng to Mars.
Martius Campus, a fielde at Rome dedicate to Mars, where the yong men of Rome dyd exercyse theim self. Also there were their assembles, for the election of their great officers.
Martius mensis, the monthe called Marche.
Martyr, martyris, com. ge. a martyr, a witnesse.
Martyrium, martyrdome.
Marulium, vide maiulium, lettuce.
Marullus, the name of a Romayne, ennemie to Cesar. Also of a poete, and of a grammarian.
Marum, ri, an herbe, whiche Galen saith, is like maioram, but of greater sauour.
Maruda, a certaine measure, conteinyng two of the measures called Cotylæ.
Mas, maris, the male of euery hynde.
Masalia, a riuer of Crete.
Maschala, an ingin, wherwith the fardels bee hoysted in and out of shyppes, suche as wee call a Crane.
Maschalion, after some is a basket, made of a date tree, because a twigge of the date tree is called Maschale, some take it for a rope.

Mascu-

Maſculeſco, ſcere, to be manly, great or wiſe, to be comen of the male kynde.
Maſculētum, ti, n. ge. a place where male vines dooe growe.
Maſculinus, a, um, maſculine, that is of the male kynde.
Maſculo, aui, are, to make manly or ſtronge.
Maſculus, a, um, manly, great, wyſe, ſtronge, hardye.
Maſculus, li, m. g. a man.
Maſdoranus, a mountayne, which diuideth Parthia from Ermenia.
Maſſaniſſa, lorde Maſſiniſſa.
Maſſetum, ti, n. ge. the leafe of an herbe, of the whiche cometh Bentowyne, or after ſome the ſalue of that herbe.
Maſſa, æ, m. g. a ryuer in Libya.
Maſſa, æ, f. g. paaſte, a lumpe of any thyng.
Maſſa auri, a wedge of golde.
Maſſa ferri, a barre of iron.
Maſſagetæ, a people in Aſia, whiche rennyng on horſe backe through defartes, dooe drynke their horſe bloude mixte with mylke: they alſo dooe eate their parentes, if they die for age: but if they be ſicke, they caſt them to wylde beaſtes, to be deuoured.
Maſſica, a countrey in the ſouthe parte of Spain.
Maſſicum, ci, neu. gen. wyne of the mountayne Maſſicus.
Maſſicus, a mountayne in Campania, where is very good wyne.
Maſſilia, a citee in hygh France, called Marſiles.
Maſſilienſis, ſe, Maſſilitanus, and Maſſilioticus, a, um, of Marſiles.
Maſſiniſſa, a kyng of Numidia, and great friend to the Romayns.
Maſſyla, a countreye in Affrike amonge the weſtern Moores.
Maſſylus, Maſſylius, and Maſſyleus, a, um, of Maſſyla.
Maſſo, aui, are, to make in paaſte, to make thicke.
Maſticcos, reuerende, honourable.
Maſtiche, ches, fœ. gene. a ſoote gumme called Maſtix.
Maſtigia, æ, f. ge. and Maſtigeus, gei, m. gen. a knaue wooꝛthy to be beaten.
Maſtigóphorus, ri, a felowe wooꝛthy to be whipped. alſo a certaine miniſter, which with whippes remoued the people wher there was muche preaſe.
Maſtix, tigis, m. g. a whippe, a ſcurge.
Maſtos, a teate of a ceſterne, whereby water doeth renne out by a cocke or ſpoute.
Maſtrúca, cæ, f. gen. a garment, whiche men of Sardinia vſed to weare.
Maſtrucātus, a, um, that weareth ſuche a garmente.
Maſtrupari, to touche diſhoneſtlye the priuie membꝛes of a man.
Maſurius, the name of a famous lawier, whiche wꝛate on the lawes ciuile.

Maſytipos, idem quod anagallis purpurea.
Matella, læ, fœ. g. an vrinall or other veſſell ſeruyng to that purpoſe, a water potte.
Mattellio, ônis, m. g. idem.
Mataeotechnia, the vanitee, whiche is in a ſcience or crafte.
Mateola, læ, a lyttle betyll or mallet.
Mater, matris, f. gene. a mother, a dame. ſometyme a nource.
Matrem gerere, to dwe the parte of a mother, to execute the office and dutie of a mother.
Mater ſyluæ, of ſome is taken for Iuie.
Matercula, æ, f. g. a lytell mother.
Materfamilias, genitiuo, matrisfamilias, fœ. g. an houſewyfe, good wyfe of the houſe, ſhe that hath gouernaunce of other women, bee ſhe maryed or vnmaryed: ſometyme a wyfe.
Matermatrima, ſhe that hath a mother lyuyng.
Maternus, a, um, motherly, of a mother, on the mothers ſyde.
Materia, æ, and Materies, ei, f. g. mattier, wherof any thynge is made, be it mettall, woodde, ſtone, erthe, or any thyng els. It is often taken for all maner of tymber or wood. alſo the body of the tree vnder the barke. alſo occaſion.
Materies dicitur etiam de equis.
Materia libri, the mattier, argument, or prepoſition, wherof a booke intreateth.
Materiālis, le, that whiche is of ſome mattier.
Materiárius, rij, m. g. a carpenter.
Materiárius, a, um, of tymber, or belongyng to tymber.
Materiaria fabrica, carpenters crafte, or a carpenters ſhop.
Materiátio, ônis, f. g. and Materiatûra, ræ, f. g. tymbꝛyng.
Materiátus, a, um, tymbꝛed, made of ſome mattier.
Aedes male materiatæ, ill tymbꝛed.
Matérior, aris, ari, to warke in tymbꝛe.
Materiari, idem quod Lignari.
Matéris, ris, f. g. a frenche ſpeare or tauelyn.
Matértera, æ, f. ge. an aunt or mothers ſyſter.
Mathemáticus, ci, m. gen. he that is cunnyng in aulgrym, muſike, geometrie, and aſtronomie.
Mathéſis, ſis, f. g. and Mathéma, thématis, n. g. lernyng by demonſtration.
Matinus, a hyll of Calabꝛe.
Matrália, n. ge. plur. the ſolemne feaſtes of Matuta, called the mother of goddis.
Matreſco, ſcere, to bee lyke a mother, to waxe mother lyke.
Matricida, æ, m. g. he that kylleth his mother.
Matricária, idem quod Amaracus.
Matricidium, dij, neu. gene. murdꝛyng of ones mother.
Matrimónium, nij, n. g. wedlocke, matrimony.
Matrimus, mi, m. g. whoſe mother yet lyueth.
Matrix, tricis, fœ. ge. the mother or matrice in a woman, in the whiche the chylde is conceyued. in herbes or ſhrubbes it is the pyth. Alſo matrix, trix, is any female hynde, that conceyueth and beareth. Also the cytee in a countreye where as the archbyshops sea is called Matrix vrbs, whiche in greke is called Metropolis. It is also the pithe of a tree.

Matrix arbor, a tree that bringeth good grasses.

Matrôna, æ, fœ. ge. a wyfe, a matrone. also the name of a ryuer in Burbon.

Matronâlis, le, pertεynyng to a wyfe.

Matruelis, lis, f. g. my mothers brother sonne.

Matta, tæ, f. g. a matte.

Mattea, idem quod Mattya.

Mattiacæ pilæ, sope balles.

Mattyacum, a towne in Germanie.

Mattici, men with great cheekes and broade mouthes.

Mattya, orum, n. g. a deynty dyshe, costely and precious meate.

Mattyolicus, a costly feeder, a glutton.

Matula, læ, f. g. a water potte, an vrynall. also a timorous and fearefull felowe.

Maturâtus, a, um, made rype. also hastened.

Maturata concoctio, id est, perfecta.

Maturato opus est, it muste bee dooen with speede, he must make spede.

Maturâtio, ônis, f. g. makyng spede or haste.

Maturatè, hastyly, quickely.

Iube maturate illam exire huc, byd hir come forth quickely.

Maturè, tymely, not to soone, not to late, in season, in good tyme, in a good houre also betymes, earely, quickely, with the soonest.

Mature mittere, to sende in due tyme.

Maturrime, and maturissime, the superlatiue.

Matureſco, maturui, scere, to bee rype.

Maturitas, tâtis, f. g. ryppenesse in all thyng, and as it were perfection, maturitee, opportunitee good season, tyme conuenient.

Nondum est maturitas illud faciendi, it is not yet tyme conuenient. &c.

Matûro, aui, are, to make rype or perfect, to doo a thyngt perfectely in due tyme and measure. sometyme to dooe a thyng spedyly or quickly, to hye, to make haste, to make speede.

Id vt maturent, that they would make haste with all, or dooe it spedily.

Cœpta maturare, to make spede to atchieue thynges that one hath enterpryised.

Mortem maturare, to hasten ones deathe.

Ni maturatum ab eo esset, excepte he had made good spede.

Maturare & properare.

Matûrbr, âris, âri, idem quod Matureſco.

Matûrus, a, um, rype, perfecte Sometyme it signifieth aged. also quickely dwen or with spede.

Matura ætas, full or perfecte age.

Maturus homo, an aged man.

Maturus cibo, meete or ready to be eaten.

Cum multo maturius surrexisset, whan that he rose farre more earlp.

Maturior facultas dicendi, more ripe, perfect, or pleasant eloquence.

Maturam senectutem reddit, it maketh one soone olde.

Tempus maturius, a more due or conuenient tyme, a better opportunitee.

Matura cibo olea, ripe to eate.

Annis maturus, aged.

Militiæ maturus, of age mete or hable for warre.

Tempus maturum vino, a tyme mete to geue the siche man wine.

Matura viro virgo, a mayden that is mariage able.

Maturum facere, to dispatch a thyng quickly.

Matuta, tæ, f. g. the morynng or morowe.

Matutinus, a, um, of the morowe, or morynng.

Tempus matutinum, the morynng.

Matutinum, ni, n. g. the morynng.

Matutino, in the morynng.

Matutinis omnibus, euery morynng.

Mauors, ortis, Mars, sometyme battaple.

Mauortius, a, um, pertεynyng to Mars, or to battaple.

Mauri, people called Moores.

Mauritania, the countreye nowe called Morisco, or of Moores, lyynge on the west parte of Africa, betweene the sea called Mare Mediterraneum, on the northe, and Libya on the South. Martianus saith, that in length it is ten tymes eight and thirty myles, whiche is thre hundred and foure score myles: and in bredth towarde the southe. iiii. hundred thre score and vii. myles. It is diuided in to two countreis, Tingitana, and Cæsariensis. Tingitana hath on the west, the Ocean sea: on the north the streite of Marrohe, called Fretum Herc. vnto the ryuer Malna: on the east Cæsariensis, on the south Getulie and Lybia. Cæsariensis hath on the weast Tingitanam, on the north the sea Sardoum, vnto the ryuer Ampsagus: on the south the mountaines of Lybia, and the countreye of Getulie.

Maurus, a, um, and Mauruſius, a, um, of Mauritania.

Mauſoleum, ſolei, n. gen. a sepulchre or tombe, which Artemisia made for hir husband Mausolus, whiche for the excellent workemanshyp, was accompted for one of the vii. meruayles of the worlde: and for the famousnesse thereof, euery great and notable sepulchre is called Mausoleum.

Mauſolus, the kyng of a realme called Caria.

Maxilla, læ, f. ge. the cheke bone, the iawe bone, sometyme the chynne.

Maxillaris, re, belongyng to the iawe bone.

Dens maxillaris, the cheke toothe.

Maximates, the greatest men in authoritee.

Maxime, verye much, verye greatly, most of all. also chiefely, especially. sometyme yea truely, yea verily, without any doubte.

Si cognata esset maxime, if she were the nerest kynsle kynsewoman that I haue in the worlde.

Maxime indigere, to haue verie great nede.
Maximópere, very greatly, very earnestly.
Maximitas, tátis, f. g. auncient writers vsed for greatnesse.
Maximus, a, um, greatest or moste in estymation.
Maximus, a counnyng peynctcr.
Maxima vestalis, the abbesse.
Maza, æ, f. g. idem quod Massa.
Maza, saith Erasmus, is a thing made of milke and flower, that vplandishe men vsed in stede of breadde.
Mazaca, a citee in Cappadocia, vnder the hyll called Argeus, nowe called Cesaria.
Mazara, a kynde of dartes vsed in warre.
Mazax, a people in Africa.
Mazeras, a ryuer in the mouthe of the sea, called Mare Hircanum.
Mazeres, a souldiour of kyng Cyrus.
Mazónomum, mi, n. gen. a platter or charger, wherein meate is caried.

ME, the accusatiue case of Ego, vsed of olde writers also for mihi.
Meabilis, le, that floweth or renneth easyly.
Meander, a ryuer in Phrygia, which by sundrye wyndynges, at the laste falleth into a creeke, which diuideth Miletum and Priena in Greece.
Meapte, myne owne.
Mearus, a riuer of Spayne.
Meárus, arus, m. gen. a passage or waye. also the pores of the body, out of the whiche dwe come sweate and vapours.
Meatus syderum, the course and mouyng of the planettes.
Mecastor, a fourme of swearyng, as who shulde saie, so Castor helpe me.
Mechánica ars, an handy crafte.
Mechánicus, ci, mascu. gener. an handy craftes man.
Mecistus, one of the companyons of Aiax Telamonicus.
Mecium Aegyptis, anagallis est.
Mecœnas, átis, minyon to Augustus the emperour, & because he was the supporter of great learned men, all fauourers and succourers of learned men bee so called.
Mecon, in greke, is Popy in englyshe.
Mecon agrium, gith.
Mecon rotas, wild poppie.
Mecon ceratitis, poppie that is horned.
Mecon emeros, poppie of the gardeine.
Meconium, the iuyce of the leaues and heades of poppie, whiche some doo vse in the stede of Opium.
Meconium, in Dioscor. idem quod Enemone.
Mecum, with me, with my selfe.
Mecum facit, it maketh for my purpose.
Mecum sentit, he is of myne opinion.
Mecum vna simul, together with me.
Meci, idem quod anagallis.
Mecyberna, a towne of Macedonie.
Meda, a citee of Thessaly.
Medarga, for Erga me, towarde me.
Medata, idem quod Marrubium.
Medea, wyfe vnto Iason, a wytche, a cruelle woman, she was doughter of Oetes kynge of Colchos, and Hipsea his wyfe, whose history is knowen sufficientlyn in all tungues.
Medeis, Medeides, patronymicum fœmininum, of Medea.
Medéla, læ, f. g. remedy by medicine.
Medera, ræ, fœ. g. an Ilande in the Ocean sea, situate from Spayne southwest, beeyng distant from the poynct of the land of Spayne, called Caput sancti Vincentij, almost. 100. miles.
Medeor, éris, eri, to heale or cure, to remedy.
Quas minus mederi possis, whiche you can not cure or remedy.
Mederi frumentariæ inopiæ, to remedie, to helpe.
Ars medendi, physicke.
Contra serpentum ictus medetur, It healeth the stynggynges of serpentes.
Mederi reipublicæ, to helpe and succour the common weale.
Mederi alicui, To ayde one and delyuer hym out of trouble.
Medecicastes, the bastarde daughter of Priamus.
Media, a countrete in Asia, haupng on the north the sea called Hircanum, on the weste Armenie the more, and Assyria, on the southe Persia, on the east Hircania, and Parthia.
Medianum, looke Mesenterion.
Mediânus, a, um, that whiche is in the myddle.
Mediastinus, stina, um, the myddelmoste.
Mediastinus, i, m. g. a drudge or lubber, whiche doeth all manier of vyle seruice in the house, as to sweepe or clense the house, carye woodde to the kytchen, and other lyke drudgerye.
Mediastrinus, ni, m. g. the seruant that hath the rule of the house vnder his maister.
Medibilis, le, in state to bee healed, curable.
Médica, cæ, an herbe, whiche hath leaues like clauer, & rodes writhen in againe like a water snaile, and therfore may be called horned clauer, for I know no other englishe name. Of other it is thus described, an herbe haupng thre leafes alway greene, verie good meate for horses: beyng ones sowen, it continueth. x. peres.
Medica malus, an orenge tree.
Medica mala, Orenges.
Medicábilis, le, curable, sometyme medicinable.
Medicamentárius, rij, m. g. a physicion
Medicamentárius, a, um, pertaynyng to medicine or physike.

Medicâmen, inis, & Medicamentum, i, n. gen. the Medicina.

☞ Pecunia præsens medicamen est præsentaneum, redie money, redie medicine.

Medicamentôsus, a, um. that is medicinable, that cureth, that healeth.

Medicatio, ônis, fœ. g. healpng, curpnge, ministrpng of phisike.

Medicâtus, a, um, mprte in dzugges oz medecine. Also medicinable, haupng vertue oz strength.

Medicatus sapor, an holsome and medicinable sauour.

Res medicatissima, a thpng verate holsome and medicinable.

Medicata pocula, phisicall potions.

Languida permulcens medicata lumina virga, with his rodde of vertue, Loquens de Mercurij caducea.

Medicina, æ, fœm. gene. phisike, a medicine, a remedie, an healpng oz curpnge. sometyme popson.

Medicinam facere, to cure, to minister phisycke.

Medicinam adhibere reipublicæ, To ayde oz succour the common weale beyng in decay.

Medicinæ faciendæ locus non erit, It will be impossible to remedy it.

Medicinæ, nârum, potticaries shoppes, places where potticaries oz phisitions dwelle.

Madicinâlis, le, medicinable.

Médico, aui, are, & Medicor, âris, ari, to heale oz cure, to helpe.

Médicus, i, m. g. a phisition.

Médicus, a, um, pertepnpnge to phisike, oz of Medea.

Medidies, idem quod Meridies, not vsed.

Medietas, âtis, f. g. medietee, the verate mpddel betwene two.

Medimnus, i, m. gen. oz Medimnum, i, ne. ge. A measure of the Grecians, whereof were twoo sozte. One was called Atticus, and conteyned of our measure fiue gallons, one pottell, and one quarte. An other was called Georgicus, whiche was of our measure, one bussell, a peche, and one pynte. It receyued. xlviii. Chœnices.

☞ Medimnus, after Budei, conteineth two of the measures called Amphora, euerie Amphora, thze modios: euerie modius. 16. Sextarios, and Sextarius of our measure is a pinte and an halfe, whiche accompted pzoueth, that Medimnus is of our measure. xviii. galons. wherfoze they are deceiued, whiche affirmen, Medimnum and Modium, to be one measure.

Mediocris, mediocre, measurable, in a meane, moderate, noz to great, noz to littell.

Mediócritas, âtis, f. g. a meane.

Intra vel citra mediocritatem, Of the baseste sozte.

Vltra vel supra mediocritatem, Above the meane sozte.

Mediócriter, meanelye, measurablye, competently, with a meane and moderation, reasonably well.

Mediocriter ne delectat? Doth it not greatly delyte vo?

Non mediocriter ferre, to bee greatly moued with a matter, to take it verye displeasauntly.

Mediolanium, a cuee oz towne in England, in Lepcester shyze, called Manchester.

Mediolanium, the cuee of Dzlyance in France. Also a cuee in Westphalia in Almayne, called Munster: Whiche (foz as muche as the people thereof were infected with the heresie of the Anabaptistes, and other detestable errours) was destroyed by the pzinces of Almayne, about the yere of our lozde god, a thousande, fiue hundzed, thirty and nyne.

Mediolanum, the chiefe cuee of Lumbardie, called Myllane.

Mediolum, a towne in Spayne.

Mediomatrices, Mastright in Brabant.

Medióximus, a, um, meane, oz in the mpddes.

Medioximi dij, meane goddis.

Medipontus, an instrument, wherewith ropes be made.

Meditabundus, a, um, carefull, studyous.

Meditamentum, menti, idem quod Meditatio.

Meditatè, studiously, perfectely, on the fyngers endes, with meditation and study.

Meditatio, ônis, f. g. a thynkpng oz diuisyng in thought, studye, musyng, meditation. Also an exercise as well of mynde as of bodye.

Meditatórius, a, um, that whiche belongeth to meditation.

Meditâtus, a, um, that hath mused oz bethought it selfe what to dwe oz saye. also that whiche hath been studyed, mused, oz thought on.

Venit meditatus alicunde ex solo loco, He cometh from some place, where he hath been alone, and bethought hym, oz studied, mused oz pzouided what he will saie.

Mediterraneus, a, um, in the mpddell of the lande, and furthest from the sea.

Mediterreus, a, um, idem.

Méditor, âris, âri, to thynke deeplye, & in thynkyng to fynde out, to studye oz muse on a thyng in ones mynde, to exercyse, to pzactyse & assaye howe well one can doo, to pourpole, to layesnares, to synge oz playe sweetely.

Meditari fugam, to thinke to flee.

Meditari se, to exercise hym selfe.

Meditari dolum cerui, to hunte harties.

Meditrina, the goddesse of phisike.

Meditrinália, orum, neu. g. ceremonies vsed by theim, whiche dzanke muste oz newe wyne.

Meditullium, ij, n. g. the mpddle.

Medium, a certaine herbe.

Medius, a, um, the mpddes, equally distaunte from the extremitees. sometyme meane, neyther to be pzayse oz dispzayse. sometyme manifest.

Medium commune, among all.

Medio

Medio vel de medio tollere, to kyll.
Medius amicus, a friende of two that be at variaunce, and taketh parte with neyther of bothe.
Media vocabula, woordes, whiche maye be spoken in a good or yll part. As Tempestas, signifieth tempeste and tyme. Facinus, A notable deede, good or euyll. Valetudo, healthy or sykenesse, and other lyke.
Dies medius, the myddle daie.
Plus media parte, moze than halfe.
Medium arripere, to take one by the myddle.
Mediam mulierem complectitur, He imbzaced the woman about the myddell.
Medium responsum, id est dubium.
Asserre in medium, to bzyng abzode to a cõmon vse or profite.
In medium consulere, for In commune.
E medio excedere, to dye.
Pellere é medio, to thzust awaie.
In medio relinquam, I will define nothynge, I will leaue it in doubt, vncertayne, or to the iudgement of other.
Medio tempore, for Interea, In the meane season.
Venire in medium, to come in.
Medio æstu, In the myddell of the day whan it was most hotte.
Media mulieris ætas, The flowze of a womans age.
In media potione exclamat, In the middes of his draught he cried out.
Medium tenere, to kepe a meane.
In medio positum est, It is common and easy for euery man to haue.
In medium consulere, To prouyde or doo for a common profite.
E medio discedere, to departe out of a place.
Medium vulgus, the people.
In media vrbe, in the herte of the citee.
Ex media morte rapere, To take out of deathes mouthe or dooze.
Mediusfidius, an othe, whiche although somtyme it hadde an other signification, yet may it nowe in a commune fourme of speakyng, bee vsed in this wyse. By the fayth of my bodye. Sens Dius for Iupiter, and Fidius for Filius, be nowe out of vse.
Medix, an high magistrate amonge the people called Osci.
Medo, onis, mulse, or water and honie.
Medod, one of the Centaures.
Medon, the bastarde soonne of Oileus. Also one of Penelopes wowers.
Medua, an hauen in Italy.
Meduacus, a riuer about Uenice, called nowe Brent.
Medulla, læ, f. g. marowe, which is in bones, in herbes and shrubbes it is the pyth.
Mellis medulla, spoken prouerbially of a thing verie pleasaunt and sweete.

Medullina, a mayden of Rome, which beyng rauished by hir father, killed hym in sacrifice.
Medullitus, inwardely, into the marowe, depely, effectuously, euen from the herte.
Medullo, aui, are, to take out marowe. somtyme to expresse vtterly.
Narra iam rem nobis omnem atq; emedulla, Tell and expresse vtterly vnto vs all the whole matter.
Medusa, the herbe Lonchitis. Dioſc.
Medusa, a lady, of whom fables doe report, that by Minerua her heares were tourned into adders, and they, which behelde her, were tourned into stones, whom Perseus afterwarde slewe. She is sometyme taken for one of the furies of hell.
Mefanfilium, a certaine weapon to throwe.
Mega, a promontorie of Mauritania, called commonly One, or Oue.
Megabizi, or Megalobici, priestes of Diana, whiche alwaies were gelded, and are taken for weake and effeminate persones.
Megæra, a fury or tourmentour of hell, whom Papynius dyd suppose to prouoke and steere men to woodnesse.
Megalenses, and Megalesia, playes to the honour of Cibyll.
Megalesia, the festyuall daye dedicate to Cibele, called the mother of goddes among Papynius.
Megălium, lij, n. g. a swete ointment.
Megaloprepéia, an honourable facion, in gyuyng or imployng of great thynges, which beseemeth a man of great courage.
Megalopolis, a great citee of Arcadie.
Megaloprepes, he that doeth great thynges accordyng to his dignitee.
Megara, a citee belongynge to Athenes. It was also the name of one of Hercules wiues. Also an hyll in Sicilie, where is great plentie of bees.
Megareus, Megareius, Megaricus, and Megarus, a, um, of Megara.
Megaris, idis, a countrete in Acaia.
Meges, one of the princis of Grece, that went to Troie.
Megistânes, bee they, whom we do call nobles or peeres of a roialme.
Mehercule, an othe, swozne by Hercules.
Me Hercules, idem.
Meio, minxi, ere, to pysse.
Mel, mellis, n. g. honny.
Mel meum, my sweetyng, my honie one.
Melabathrum, idem quod Parthenium.
Melænæ, the ple Cozeyra.
Melæne, a towne in Arcadie.
Melamirum, a fishe, hauynge his name of a blacke taile.
Melampelos, Helxine. Dioſco.
Melampyenos, idem quod Melampyrum.
Melamphillum, an ple in Asia.
Melamphillum, i, a hynde of the herbe called Acanthus, lobe there.

Melam-

Melamphyllis, an yle in Samothrace, and Samos is also called Melamphyllis.
Melampódium, a kynde of the blacke Helleborus, so named of Melampode the poete or shepeherde, lyke Helleborus.
Melampus, a mans name. also one of Acteons dogges.
Melampygus, a reuenger, he that redreſſeth thynges. Hercules was so surnamed, by reason his toutte was blacke and all hayry.
Melampyrum, or Myagros, an herbe full of branches, of thre foote high, and a sede lyke fengreke.
Melancólia, æ, fœ. ge. melancoly, blacke choler. sometyme madneſſe.
Melancólicus, a, um, melancoly.
Melancóryphus, phi, m. g. called also Ficedula and Atracapilla, lyke ther.
Melandria, the leane partes of the fyſche called Tuny.
Melándrium, drij, neu. gene. a certayne herbe, growyng among corne, and in medowes, with a whyte flowre, after Plinie: other take it for the pith of an ake. some for a kind of okes.
Melanion, the purple violet.
Melanes, a mountaine in Arabia deserta, called nowe Mons Sinai, and Mons S. Catharinæ, of the Hebrues Sur desertum.
Melanteria, inke or blacke.
Melanthia, the daughter of Deucalion, by Pyrrha his wyfe.
Melanthemon, id eſt, Anthemis.
Melanthium, thij, neu. gen. an herbe, called also Nigella Romana, Sith.
Melanthius, the name of a Troian, and of diuers other men.
Melanthus, one of them that Bacchus tourned into Delphins.
Melanûrus, uri, m. gen. a kynde of pearches, called ruffes.
Melappium, a kind of Apples.
Melas, the name of diuers ryuers.
Melas, anos, m. g. a kind of morphewe.
Melculum, li, n. ge. a wanton worde, spoken by louers vnto their paramours, my little hony.
Mele, the nominatiue plurall, songes or balades.
Meleager, or Meleagrus, the sonne of Oeneus, kyng of Calydon.
Meleagræa, the citee called Caledon.
Meleagrides, birdes, whiche we doo call hennes of Genny, or Turkie hennes.
Melegina, an yle in the Venecian ſea.
Meleta, Dipſacus.
Melenetus, a kynde of Faukons verie lyttell of body, blacke and puiſſaunt, whiche haunteth mountaynes, and feedeth her birdes alone, a merlyan, as I ſuppoſe.
Meles, etis, a ryuer by Smyrna.
Melesigenes, the proper name of Homere.
Meletius, a byſshop in Aegypte of Arrius ſect.
Melfrugum, an herbe that groweth alwayes among corne, named whyte melilote.
Melgemelia, a kind of apies.
Meli, honie.
Meliboea, a citee in Theſſaly.
Melia, a tree, bryngyng forth a verie pleaſant frute.
Meliboides, a certaine ſtone in Dioſco.
Melicæ gallinæ, a kynde of thoſe, whiche we call Turkie hennes.
Meliboeus, a shepardes name.
Melicéris, idis, or Melicéria, æ, fœ. gen. A ſore or ſkabill in the head like an hony combe, out of the whiche cometh an humour lyke honye.
Melicerta, the ſon of Athamas and Ino, whom the Gentiles dyd honour for one of the goddes of the ſea, called also Palemon.
Melichros, chri, m. g. a ſtone, ſometyme blacke, ſometyme peolowe.
Melichrýſis, a precious ſtone in India.
Melicraton, ti, neu. gene. wyne and honny ſodden together.
Melicus, ci, m. g. a muſitian.
Meligene, the yle Melites.
Melilôtus, ti, m. g. an herbe called Melilote.
Melimeli, melimelis, n. gen. the ſyrupe of quinces, condite in hony.
Melimélum, li, n. g. a ſweete apple.
Melina, a ſweete thaulme.
Melina, æ, f. g. a certayne garmente.
Meline, the herbe called milium after Varro: but in Dioſc. it is panicum.
Melinum, melini, n. g. the herbe called Baulme. also oyle of the bloſſomes of appuls. Also an oyntment, and a verie whyte colour.
Melinus, a, um, a verie whyte colour, or after ſome, whyte ruſſette, or ginger colour. Melinus color in Dioſc. is taken for Luteus.
Melior, the comparatiue of Bonus, better.
Melioreſco, ſcere, to ware better.
Melipecta, meates made with hony.
Melion aqueum, the ſecond kind of Satirion.
Meliphyllon, the herbe called Baulme.
Melipontus, idem quod Medipontus.
Melis, lis, fœ. g. a beaſte called a gray, a brocke, or a badger.
Meliſſa, a woman, who with hir ſiſter Amalthea, nourſhed Iuppiter. It is also an herbe commonly called Baulme.
Meliſſophyllon, loohe Apiaſtrum.
Meliſſus, the name of hym, which fyrſt dydde ſacrifice vnto gdols. also the name of an auncient philoſophier.
Melita, ſiue Melite, an yle lyyng betwene Sicile and Affrike, After Plinie, li. 3. ca. vlt. it lieth betwene Corcyra nigra, and Illyricum, where in is plentie of hony, and is nowe called Malta, Where at this tyme the company of the knyghtes Hoſpitelers dooe inhabyte as they dyd at the Rhodes.
Militæon, idem quod Meliſſophyllon.

Meli-

Melitæi canes, & Melitenſes, were preaty lyttell houndes, in the whiche ladyes toke pleaſure and delyte, whiche were brought out of the lande ple of Melite.

Melites, a precious ſtone of the coloure of an orenge.

Melittes, tis, a drynke made of hony and muſte or new wyne, alſo a precious ſtone.

Melitton, ônis, m. ge. a place where bees bee nouriſhed.

Melius, the name of him that accuſed Socrates.

Melius, the comparatyue of Bene.

Accipit hominem nemo melius, id eſt lautius, better, or more deintily, or with better there.

Meliuſcule, ſomewhat better.

Meliuſculus, a, um, ſomewhat better, a littell amended.

Melizandrus, he that wrate the ſtorie of the warres betweene the Lapithes and the Centaures.

Mella, a ryuer of Fraunce.

Mellarium, ri, n. g. ſubſtant. the place where the bees that make hony bee nouriſhed.

Mellarius, ri, m. g. an hony man, or ſeller of honye.

Mellarius, a, um, of hony.

Mellátio, ônis, f. g. the tyme of dryuyng of hyues, whan hony is taken out.

Mellátum, ti, n. g. newe muſte, wherein honye is ſodden.

Melene, a citee in Arcadia.

Melleus, a, um, of honie. alſo ſweete.

Vox mellea, a ſweete voyce.

Mellica, a hynde of pulſe, of the colour of red, of the fourme of Mill.

Melliceris, looke Meliceris.

Melliculum, idem quod Melculum.

Mellificátio, ônis, f. g. makyng of hony.

Mellificium, ii, n. g. idem.

Mellifico, aui, are, to make honyp.

Mellifer, ra, rum, idem quod Mellificus.

Mellifluus, a, um, ſweete as honye, that out of whiche hony floweth.

Mellificus, a, um, and Mellifer, that maketh honye.

Melligenus, a, um, that is of the ſame kynde that hony is.

Mellinum, idem quod Melinum.

Melligo, liginis, fœ. g. a mell dewe, whiche falleth on the leaues of trees, and ſometyme on corne.

Mellilla, my honyp, my ſweetynge, a wooyde of wanton daliers.

Melliloquus, a ſweete ſpeaker.

Mellifones, they whiche doo practiſe dyeſtynge of hony.

Mellitones, a place where bees be nouriſhed.

Melliturgus, gi. m. g. a wooyker or maker of hony.

Mellitus, a, um, mixte with hony, condite in honye alſo ſweete, pleaſant, delectable.

Mellium, lii, n. g. a dogges collar.

Melizonum, a confection made with hony clarified.

Melo, a ryuer called alſo Geon and Nilus.

Meloboſis, a nimph.

Melocabus, a citee in Germanie.

Melódes, dis, m. g. he that ſyngeth counnyngely and ſweetely.

Melódia, diæ, f. g. melody, ſwete ſyngynge.

Meloeſſa, an Ile by Sicile, in the whiche was great plentie of chepe.

Melophillon, milfoile.

Melomeli, n. g idem quod Melimeli.

Melones, mellons, pompons.

Meloſmos, the herbe polium.

Melonia, a goddeſſe among the Romayns.

Melos, one of the Iles called Cyclades.

Melos, odis, n. g. melodie, harmonie.

Melopepones, melons.

Melóta, æ, f. g. a ſhepes fell or ſkynne.

Melothrus, a certaine herbe or ſhrubbe, vitis alba.

Melpomene, one of the. ix. Muſes.

Melus, a towne of Theſſalie, beſieged and wonne by Nicias the athenien Capitayne, namely by famine, wherof grew the prouerbe, Meliæa fames.

Membrâna, æ, fœ. g. parchemente or velume, wherin men doo wryte. Alſo the vppermoſte ſkynne of any thynge. Sometyme it is taken of Lucretius for the figure or proporcion of thynges.

Directa plumbo membrana, ruled parchemente.

Membrana ligni, the thyn ſkyn betweene the barke and the woodde of a tree.

Membranáceus, a, um, lyke parchement.

Membráneus, a, um, of parchement or velyme.

Membránula, æ, fœ. g. a little rolle or ſcrolle of parchement.

Membrare, to fourme membres.

Membrátim, by euery membre, membre by membre.

Inciſe & membratim, to ſpeake in ſhorte clauſes or membres, and not to vſe luſt periodes.

Membratûra, æ, fœ. g. the ſettynge or order of membres or partes.

Membróſus, a, um, haupng a great membre.

Membrum, bri, n. g. a membre, a part of ones body, the fleſhe that couereth the ſinues, veynes and bones of any parte of the body. In oration, a ſhorte ſentence.

Abalienata membra, partes of the body beſoummed.

Muliebribus membris puer, a tender chylde.

Dormitorium membrum, a ſleappynge chambre, a part of the houſe appointed to ſleape in.

Memerylus, a littell tree lyke a citron tre.

Memet, my ſelfe.

Memini, I remembre.

Memini videre, I remembre that I ſawe it.

Hoc

Hoc me memini dicere, I remembre wel that I saied this.

Memineris meminisse, see that you remembre.

De quibus plurimi meminerunt, Of whiche thynges verate many haue made mention.

Omnia quæ curant meminerunt, They remembre all thynges that they set theyr myndes vpon.

Memmius, a citesyn of Rome.

Memnon, the soone of Thiton, whiche came to the ayde of the Troyans.

Memnónius, a, um, of Memnon.

Memnoniæ aues, bydes whiche were supposed to growe of the asshes of Memnon.

Memor, óris, om. g. that remembreth, myndfull, sometyme that is remembred.

Memorábilis, le, woorthy remembrance, woorthe to be reported, to be spoken.

Erit mihi hoc factum mortuo memorabile, this acte shall be had in memorie, when I am dead and rotten.

Memorabiles duces, capitaynes of woorthy memorie.

Memorandus, a, um, to be remembred or spoken of.

Memorátor, óris, m. g. he that speaketh, reporteth or maketh mention of a thynge.

Memorátus, us, m. g. a remembryng.

Memória, æ, f. g. memorie, remembraunce.

Patrum memoria, in our fathers daies.

Post hominum memoriam, sens men were men.

Ex omni memoria ætatum, In all cronicles and stories that a man can reade.

Omnis memoriæ facile princeps, withoute controuersie, the noblest person that euer man can remembre,

In omni memoria inauditum est, it was neuer herde of any tyme, or sens any man coulde remembre.

Vsque ad hanc memoriam, euen to these daies, euen to this present tyme.

Vt mea memoria est, as farre as I remembre.

Ab recenti memoria perfidiæ, because they had freshely in memory, theyr late vntruthe or falsehoode.

Memoria falli, to forgette.

Memoriæ proditum, or traditum est, It is left in writyng, it is written.

In memoriam redigere, Reducere in memoriam, Reuocare animos ad memoriam, to call to remembraunce, to cause to remembre.

Memoria tradit, it is written.

Redeo in memoriam mortuorum, I remembre them that be dead.

In memoriam redite quæso, I praie you remembre, or call to remembrance.

Princeps huius memoriæ philosophorum, the chiefe philopher of this age.

Superiori memoria, in tyme paste.

Tanta multitudo, quanta mea memoria nũquam fuit, So great a multitude as neuer was sens I coulde remembre, or in my tyme.

Memoria teneo, I remembre.

Memoriále, a thynge whiche shoulde be remembred, a memoriall.

Memoriális, le, belongynge to the memorie.

Memoriola, æ, f. g. a litteli remembrance.

Memoriósus, a, um, he that hath a good memorye.

Memóriter, perfectely by herte, or with good remembraunce, redyly.

Memoriter cognoscere, to knowe perfectely by herte.

Memoriter respondere, to answer promptly.

Mémoro, aui, rare, to remembre, to tell or repounde, to reporte, to saie, to make mention, to recite, to reherse.

Memorant, men saie, tell, or reporte.

Verbum est verum quod memoratur, It is true that is commonly saied.

Nomen tuum memora mihi, tell me thy name.

Incredibili memoratu est, it is a thyng incredible to reporte.

Memphi, people of Memphis.

Memphites, patronymicum, m. g.

Memphitis, patronymicum, fœm. g.

Memphis, a great and famous citie in Egypt.

Memphiticus, a, um, of that citee.

Memphricus, a hynge of Britain, whiche slue his brother Malis.

Mena, næ, f. g. a littell fysche, blacke or blewe in sommer, and white in winter. Theodorus Gaza doeth translate Mænides, callyng them sometyme Aleces, whiche we call hearrynges. and Menidia, he translateth parua Alecula, lytteli hearrynges called pylchardes.

Menæchmi, the name of a comedie in Plautus.

Menæchmus, a philosophier of Platos secte, whiche wrate vpon his bokes De republica. also an historiographer, that wrate the historie of Alexander Magnus.

Menalcas, a shepehardes name.

Menalippe, the sister of Antiope queene of Amazons, whom Hercules vanquished.

Menalippides, the name of .ii. poetes.

Menalippus, he that slue Tydeus. an other of that name was brother of Tydeus.

Menapij, people of the countreie called Gellerlande, or Gylderlande, and Cleue.

Menander, a famous poete, a writer of comedies. also a notable heretike, whiche folowed Simon Magus.

Menaria, an Ile in the sea betwene Carthage and Sicile.

Menceps, he or she that is out of theyr witte.

Menda, æ, f. g. & mendum, di, neu. ge. an errour, a faute or vice in writyng. If it be applyed by a metophore to the body, it is a faute or blemyshe.

Mendácium, ij, n. g. a lye, a leasynge, a falle inueninvention, a falſe tale.

Componere & conflare mendacium, to inuent or make a lye.
Mendáculum, & mendaciunculum, li, n. ge. a lyttell leasyng.
Mendax, âcis, com, g. a lyar.
Mendaciloquus, a, um, that telleth lyes.
Mendecicum, one of the mouthes of Nilus.
Mendecium, a certayne ointment.
Mendicábulum, li, n. g. beggyng.
Mendicátio, ônis, a beggyng.
Mendicátus, a, um, begged.
Mendicitas, átis, f. g. & mendicimonium, nij, beggery.
Mendico, aui, are, to begge.
Mendicare sibi malum, to purchase hym selfe a mischiefe.
Mendicula, æ, fœ. gen. a certayne vesture or garmente.
Mendiculus, li, m. g. a diminutiue of mendicus.
Mendicus, a, um, that goeth on beggynge, a beggar, poore, nedy.
Mendix, an office amonge the olde Italyanes called Osci.
Mendosé, vncorrectly, with faultes.
Mendósus, a, um, faultie, full of faultes, or errours.
Mores mendosi, maners naughty and vicious.
Mendrum, idem quod Limonium.
Mendum, idem quod menda.
Meneceus, the son of Creon, kynge of Thebes.
Menecina, a citee in Oenotria.
Menecis, the vttermost citee of Phocis, towarde the weste.
Menécrates, was an arrogant and proude physition, who because he chaunced to heale sundry persones, of whose healthe men dyd despayre, and therfore in commendyng hym, called hym Iupiter: he after that named hym selfe Menecrates Iupiter.
Menedemus, the name of diuers philosophiers.
Menelaus, was kyng of Lacedemonia, brother to Agamemnon, and housebande to the fayre Helene, for whom Troye was destroyed.
Meneletus, ti, m. ge. a bryde lyke to a small egle, and of the kynde of Aegles.
Menelcus, trissyllabum, one of the Centaures, also one of Ixeons dogges.
Menes, the fyrst that reigned ouer Egypt.
Menesthéus, was duke of Athens, sonne of Theseus & Phedra. Also Diomedes charyot man.
Menesthius, the sonne of Arythous and Philomedusa.
Menestho, one of the nymphes.
Meniána, órum, n. ge. buildynges outwarde in ryuerettes or galeries, properly when they be builded after suche facion, that the edifice iutteth out a good length from the pillar or other part of the house, wheron the buildyng especially resteth.
Meniantes, the herbe trifolium.

Meninges, the rifme, wherin the braine is inclosed.
Meninx, an yle against the Ile Afrike.
Menion, the pionie.
Menippus Phœnix, a philosophier. Also Menippus is the name of diuers other learned men, Of whiche one was Ciceros mayster.
Menis, idem quod Mena.
Menius, the sonne of Lycoan, who cursyng Iupiter, was strycken with lyghtnyng.
Menlana, a citee of Spayne, called commonly Marcia.
Mennonia, a certaine white precious stone.
Menotius, Patroclus father.
Menoles, the name of Dionysius.
Menophilus, an eunuche, to whom Mithridates (beyng ouercome by Pompeius) committed his daughter to kepe.
Menósgada, a citee in Germanye called nowe Egra.
Mens, entis, fœm. gener. the highest and chiefe part of the soule. sometyme it signifieth the mynd, wylle, intent, or memorie. sometyme aduise or counsayle.
Mente captus, a madde man.
Mentis compos, of whole mynde or perfect remembraunce.
Vna mens omnibus, They had all one mynde or will.
Abderitica mens, id est stupida.
Nostram accipe mentem, Heare our counsayle or aduise.
Suæ mentis esse, to bee in his ryght wittes.
Hæc mihi in mentem veniebant, these thynges came into my mynde or remembraunce, or I remembred these thynges.
Cum Dolobellæ venit in mentem, whan I remembred Dolobella.
Mensa, æ, fœm. gene. a table or bourde to eate on. sometyme dyner or supper. also a dysshe or trencher. also a counter or table that bankers doe vse.
Astare mensæ domini, to stande waityng on his maysters table.
Angusta mensa, a chéder supper, of small cost.
Secundæ mensæ, banketyng dysshes after supper.
Est in mensa, he is at diner or supper.
De mensa mittere, to make a dysshe and sende from the table to one.
Mensárius rij, m. gen. the banker or exchaunger, of whom men doo borowe money vpon gayne, called exchaunge.
Menses, in plurali, idem quod menstrua.
Mensio, ônis, f. g. a measuryng.
Mensiflora, a certaine herbe, called in Greke Menanthos.
Mensis, sis, m. g. a moneth. sometyme for Menstrua, the naturall purgation of women.
Mensis sextilis, Auguste.
Mensor, ôris, mas. gene. he that dooeth lay out the bounders of lande, betwene man and man, or towne and towne. Also he that measureth out the grounde, where the armye shall pytche theyr campe.

Menstrua, ôrum, n. g. plur. a womans naturall purgacion called floures.

Menstruâlis, le, pertenynge to the monethe, or of the space of a moneth, or durynge the tyme of a moneth.

Menstruâtus, a, um, that whiche hath floures lyke to women.

Menstruum, prouision, victuale or wages geuen to souldioures for a moneth space.

Menstruus, a, um, that whiche happeneth euery moneth, or is doen monethly.

Menstrua aduersaria, rolles or regesters for a moneth space.

Mensularij, idem qui mensarij.

Mensûra, æ, f. g. a measure.

Mensurnus, a, um, monethly, after Calepine. But the place that he citeth out of Cicero, hath Menstrui.

Mensus, a, um, measured.

Menta, & Mentula, læ, f. g. the priuie membres of a man.

Menta, tæ, f. g. an herbe called mynt.

Menta hortensis, speremynt.

Mentagra, æ, fœ. gen. a disease that couereth the face with a foule shabbe. It was called of the Greekes Lichen. Some supppose it to bee the same disease that is nowe called the Frenche pockes.

Mentastrum, i, n. g. wylde mynt.

Mentercosa, a citee of Spayne.

Mentibor, for Mentiar, I shall make a lye.

Mentigo, inis, f. g. the scabbe, which is among shepe, called the pockes.

Mentio, ônis, f. g. mencion.

Facere mentionem, to make mencion.

Incidere in mentionem, to chaunce to speake of. In mentione terræ dicetur, It shall bee declared whan we shall speake of the earthe.

Mentior, îris, tiri, to lye, to feigne, to counterfayte.

Mentiri se esse aliquem, to feigne to be an other persone.

Mentiri sexum muliebri motu, to feygne hym selfe to bee a woman, to make semblance in gesture as though he were a woman.

In aliquem mentiri, to make a lye vpon one.

Colorem fuco mentiri, to make a fayre colour with paynting.

Mentiri, to write falsse.

Mentitus, a, um, feygned, counterfaite. also that hath lyed.

Mentûsa, a citee of Spayne, called communely Jaen.

Menuthias, an plande in the southe parte of the worlde, called Madagascar, or Insula sancti Georgij, the inhabitauntes wherof folowe Mahumet.

Menoas, the famous ryuer, whiche is nowe called Danubius.

Mentor, ôris, an excellent grauer of vessell.

Mentum, i, n. g. a chynne.

Menus, a ryuer in Germanie. Also a mans name, whiche loued exceedingly Solitarinesse.

Meo, aui, are, to go, to flowe.

Meonia, a countrey of the lesse Asia, called after Lydia.

Meonides, a man of Meonia.

Meopte ingenio, by myne owne wytte, of myne owne nature.

Mephiticus, a, um, stynkyng.

Mephitis, tis, f. g. a stinche, or yll sauour, which procedeth of corrupte water or ayre, myxt with earthe.

Merâcus, râca, um, pure, without any myxture.

Vinum meracum, wyne without any water.

Miráculus, a, um, a diminutiue of Meracus.

Miraculum vinum, wyne but a litle alayed.

Mercalis, le, vendible, or that whiche may be boughte.

Mercans, antis, he that byeth.

Mercâtio, ônis, f. g. a byeng.

Mercatûra, æ, fœ. gen. the feate of merchaundyse.

Mercaturam facere, to practyse the feate of merchaundyse.

Mercâtor, ôris, m. g. euery byer, a merchaunte byeng and sellynge.

Mercâtus, us, m. ge. byeng, a marte, a fayre, a market place, a place where ware is solde.

Indicere mercatum, to proclayme that a marte or fayre shall be.

Mercatus, a, um, bought.

Mercêdula, æ, f. g. a diminutiue of Merces.

Mercenarius, a, um, that serueth for hyer or wages.

Merces, êdis, f. gen. wages, the rewarde of labour or seruice, rent, reuenues. Sometyme damage or hurte that foloweth of a thyng.

Prædiorum merces, reuenues of lande.

Mercimônium, nij, n. g. that which is tourned in byeng and sellyng, ware.

Mercor, âris, âri, to bie, to bye to sell for gayne.

Mercari alicui, to bye for one.

Mercari ad certam summam, to bye at a certayne price.

Mercari græca fide, to bye with redie money.

Mercari præsenti pecunia, idem.

Mercurialis, lis, fœm. gene. an herbe, called Mercurie, of whiche bee two sortes, male and female.

Mercurialis, le, of Mercurie.

Mercuriales viri, learned men.

Mercuriales, a colledge or companie of men, instituted to the honour of Mercurie, Mercurius, was of the paynims called god of eloquence, and messanger of Jupiter. It is the name of one of the vii. planetes.

Mercurij dies, wenysdaie.

Merc

Mercurij basis, of the magicians is taken for the herbe called Halimum.
Mercurij genitura, the herbe Buphthalmos.
Mercurij sanguis, eadem quæ Verbenaca.
Mercurij semen, dill.
Merda, æ, fœm. ge. the excrement or ordure of a man or beaste.
Merdo, aui, are, to expell ordure, to shyte.
Merenda, æ, f. ge. meate eaten at after noone, a collation, a noone meale, a bonet.
Mereo, meui, ére, & Méreor, éris, éri, to deserue, to merite, to gette, also to take wages, to serue for wages, to doo a pleasure or good tourne, to exercise a vyle occupation. also to serue in warres.
Merere stipendia, To take wages as a souldyour, or to be a souldiour.
Merere alicui, to doo seruice to one.
Merére equo, to be a man of Armes, or to serue on horsebacke in warres.
Merére pedibus, to be a footeman in warres.
Mereor bene de te, I doe somewhat for the. I deserue to haue the my friende, or to haue thy fauour, I do the pleasure.
Male mereor de te, I do the displeasure, I doe yll deserue thy fauour.
Quid merearis, vt te dicas. &c. what aduantage can you haue to saie. &c.
Quid meriar, quamobrem mentiar? what aduauntage or rewarde shulde I haue to lye?
Nouissima exempla meriti, they that haue deserued extreme punyshement.
Quid de te meruí? what offence or displeasure haue I doon you?
Neque re, neque verbis merui de te vt faceres quod facis, I neuer dyd nor saied any thyng, wherfore you shoulde dooe by me as ye dooe.
Offensam mereri, to wynne or get displeasure or yll wylle.
Meré, purely.
Meretricié, whorysshely, lyke an harlotte.
Meretricium, ij, n. g. whoredome, or brothelrie.
Meretricius, a, um, pertaynyng to brotheirie or whoredome.
Meretricor áris, ári, to liue in brotheirie, to plaie the harlotte.
Meretricula, æ, f. g. a diminutiue of Meretrix.
Méretrix, icis, fœm. gene. an harlot, a brothel, an whore.
Merga, æ, fœm. g. a pytchefork, for to take vp sheaues. also merle or white earthe like chalke, wherwith ground is made fatte or fertile.
Mergo, the herbe Clymenon.
Merges, mergitis, fœ. g. a gripe of corne, or so muche of hey or corne as one taketh vp with a pytche forke at ones.
Mergo, si, gere, to droune in the water, to depe, sometyme to ouerwhelme.
Mergere vitiis suppliciis, to put to extreme punyshement.
Mersus secundis rebus, ouerwhelmed with prosperitee, drowned in welthe.
Mergulus, an instrument, wherin the matche of a lampe is conteyned.
Mergus, ôris, m. g. a bucket to drawe vp water.
Mergus, i, m. g. a foule of the sea lyke to a gull, whiche diueth vnder the water to take fysshe, and by often dyuynge perceyueth fygnes of tempest comyng, and than sodaynely with a great cry, flyeth out of the middle of the water, to the lande, a cormorant.
Mergus, gi, a vyne or other small tree, whiche is bowed, and hath the toppes bowewyse, turned and set in the grounde.
Meridiânus, a, um, pertaynyng to noone.
Meridiano, at noone tyde.
Meridiani, is vsed for sworde players.
Meridiátio, ônis, fœ. gen. noone rest.
Meridies, ei, m. g. myddaie, noone tyde.
Meridio, aui, are, and Meridior, aris, ári, To dyne, to eate meate at noone, to slepe at noone.
Meridionâlis, le, of the southe.
Meriones, a noble man of the Greekes.
Meris, idem quod tripolium.
Merismorion, the melyssophillon.
Merismos, a figure called also Distributio, wherby the oracion is distributed into sundrie sentences.
Meritó, woorthylie, with good cause.
Merituísimo, the superlatiue.
Mérito, aui, are, to gayne, to bee woorthy, also to serue in warres.
Meritórius, a, um, that whiche is leat or set for aduauntage.
Meritoria taberna, an house, wherunto a man is receyued for his money.
Meritorium cœnaculum, a chambre set out to hyer.
Meritorium, an house or shop set out to hyer.
Mérítum, ti, n. ge. a benefite or pleasure, a good tourne, sometyme a rewarde.
Meritum est meum, it is my defaute.
Meritum est tuum, you haue deserued that I shoulde dooe you this pleasure.
Merito meo, woorthyly, rightuously, as I haue deserued.
Pro merito, as one hath deserued.
Merito vestro maximas gratias agere debemus, you bee woorthye great thankes, or you haue deserued of vs great thankes.
Méritus, a, um, deserued, due, conuenient, also that hath deserued.
Meritus, a mountayn in the thyrde parte of Europe, beyonde Greece.
Mero, was in scorne the name of Tiberius Nero, because he was so great a drynker of wyne.
Merobibus, a, um, that drynketh wyne without water.
Merocles, is, m. g. a litteil stone of the colour of leke, whiche sweatteth a lycour lyke to mylke.
Meroe, an Ile in the great riuer of Nilus in Egypte.

Merope, Plenas the wyfe of Sisyphus.
Meropes, men of diuers languages.
Merops, merópis, m. ge. a byrde, whiche doeth eate bees, and whose nature it is to kepe theyr parentes, whiche neuer cumme abroade, and to norisshe theim as them selfe were norisshed being yong. Plinie.
Méropus, a mountayne in Greece by Thessaly.
Meros, an hyll of Indie, at the foote whereof is the citee called Nisa.
Mersa, a place, where Moyses, by castynge in woodde, made the pestilent and bitter waters holsome.
Merseon, of the Egyptiās is taken for ambrosia.
Mersito, aui, are, to drowne or putte vnder the water often tymes, to dippe in often.
Merso, aui, are, to drowne often, to dye in often.
Merto, aui, are, idem.
Mertrix, the second kind of Geranium.
Merula, æ, f. ge. a byrde called a blacke macke or owsell, with a yelowe beake. Also a fysshe called merlyng or whityng. Also the name of diuers men: one in Varro de re rustica.
Merum, i, n. ge. wyne vnalayed, without water.
Merus, i, m. g. the thyghe Also an hyll in India dedicated vnto Bacchus.
Meruopium, of the Aegyptians is vsed for Serpillum.
Merus, a, um, soole, mere, pure.
Nugæ meræ, verale trifles.
Scelera mera loquuntur, they speake of nothyng but mischiefe.
Meri bellatores, verale warriours.
Merum vinum, pure wyne, not alayed with water.
Mera spes, onely hope and nothyng els.
Merx,ércis, fœ. g. any kynde of marchaundyse, chaffer, ware that is bought and solde.
Esculentæ merces, vitayles solde to eate.
Esse in merce, to be solde.
Mes, in the Arabian tōgue is a peale of the Grekes (as Manardus writeth) libro. 1. Epistō 3. Serapio saieth, that it is a grayne, hauyng in it a fygure of an eye, with the apple therof verale blache.
Mesa, the myddle partes of a house or buildyng.
Mesa, a riuer that renneth by Brabant, the lande of Luke and Gellar, called the Mase.
Mesapia, a countrey called also Apulia.
Mesapus, the sonne of Neptune, of whom that countrey was so named.
Mesaricæ venæ, certaine veines, called also Mesentericæ.
Mese, a certayne wynde.
Mesembria, a towne belongyng to the Megarenses.
Mesauli, entrees betwene the halle and the parlour, or other roomes in a house.
Mesentericæ venæ, are veynes, whiche lyke to rootes of trees, doue receyue nourysshemente from the stomache and bowelles, disposyng it into all the bodie.
Mesenterion, rii, n. ge. is a bowel, ioygned with the mydrelle and vnto the backe, whiche letteth that the iuyce of meates be not sucked to hastily or vnprofytably, by the other bowelles. Julius Pollux writeth, that Mesenterion, is a thynne compacte of veynes and sinewes ioygnyng to the reynes and stomake, sendynge nourysshemēt vnto the lyuer. Galenus, in Anato. saieth, that it is sette in the myddes of the bowelles, and is also called Mesarchon, because he wrappeth and encloseth all the veynes, whiche doe come from the liuer vnto him, with also the arteries adioynyng vnto hym. it is also called in latine Medianum.
Mesia, a countrey, ioygnyng to Hungary, Myse.
Mesochorus, ri, m. ge. he that playeth on a flute or other pipe in the myddes of the daunces.
Mesocraneum, the crowne of the heade.
Mesoleucos, ci, m. ge. a precyouse stone, blacke, hauyng a whyte strake in the myddes. Also a certayne herbe lyke Mercurie.
Mesomelas, a kynde of precious stones, called Achates, whiche beyng white, is dimded with a blache lyne.
Meson, was one whiche fyrst inuented to bryng into comedies, seruauntes and cookes, whereof it is supposed that in olde tyme, the cookes of citees and townes, were called Mesones, as straunge cookes were called Tetuges. Celius, antiq. lect. lib. 3. Meson was also a certayne Astronomer.
Mesonauta, æ, a drudge in a shyppe, or a shyppe page, whiche doeth all vile seruice in the shyp.
Mesonyxion, mydnyght.
Mesopotamia, a countrete in the orient, lyyng betwene the twoo noble ryuers Tigris and Euphrates, and hath on the south Babylon, and on the northe the great mountayne called Caucasus.
Mespilus, li, fœm. gene. a medlar tree, or open arse tree.
Mespilum, li, n. g. a fruite called a medlar.
Messala Coruinus, a noble senatour of Rome, of whom Tullie in his booke of oratours, called Brutus, writeth in this wyse: I may not omit to speake of the excellēcie of Messala Brutus, doe not thynke, that any is lyke vnto hym in constance, care, and study about the weale publyke, also in eloquence, wherein he wonderfully dooeth excelle. And not withstandyng, beeyng suche a man, two yeres before he died, he so loste his remembraunce, that he forgate his owne name, whiche hath happed to diuers other men of great wisedome and learnyng. He liued in the tyme of Julius Cesar and Augustus emperours.
Messalina, wyfe to the emperour Claudius, a woman of insaciable lecherie.
Messana, a citee in Sicilie.
Messapia, a parte of the countrete of Apulia.

Meſſene, a citee in Greece.
Meſſeni, the people of that citee.
Meſſenia, a region in Achaia, haupng .xviii. moſt tapnes, in the whiche was a citee called Meſſene.
Meſſias, Chriſte.
Meſſis, ſis, f. g. haruеſt. ſometyme it ſignifieth the coyne, or the geapes new mowen or gathered.
Meſſibus, ꝑ per meſſes, in the haruеſt tyme.
Meſſio, ônis, f. g. a reappng.
Meſſor, ôris, m. g. a reaper, a haruеſt man.
Meſſorius, a, um, perteinyng to reappng.
Falces meſſoriæ, ſiethes or reappng hookes.
Meſſus, a, um, reaped.
Meſtles, one of the capptaines that came to ayde the Troyanes.
Meſuium, a town in Germany called Maidburg.
Met, a ſillable added to a ꝓnonowne.
Meta, tæ, f. g. a but or pricke to ſhoote at, ꝓpꝛpꝛly made brode beneth and ſharpe towarde the toppe lyke a ſuger loke, ſometyme a marke or gol in the fielde, wherunto men or horſes do renne. ſometyme a bounde in landes. alſo a rieke or cocke, of coyne or here. alſo the lower ſtone of a mylle.
Meta ferni, a cocke of hey.
Meta lactis, a cheſe made lyke a ſuger loke.
Meta diſtillatoria, a ſtillatorie.
Metabaſis, ſis, f. g. a paſſage.
Metabole, chaunge.
Metagónium, a ꝓmontoꝛie or mountayne lyeng into the ſea, whiche diuideth Africa from Numidia.
Metalepſis, a figure, whereby a wooꝛde is put from his common ſignification.
Metalli, hired ſouldiers.
Metallici, they whiche dooe dygge and wooꝛke mettall out of the mynes, wherin mettalle is founde.
Metallicus, a, um, belongyng to mettall.
Metalliſer, ra, rum, that ingendꝛeth mettall.
Metallum, li, n. g. mettall.
Metamórphoſis, ſeos, f. g. a tranſformation or chaungeyng of figure.
Metaphora, a tranſlation of wooꝛdes from their ꝓpꝛe ſignification.
Metaphrænum, ni, neu. ge. that parte of the backe, whiche is againſt the herte, the ſplene, the lunges and the lyuer.
Metaphyſica, ôrum, thynges ſupernaturall and the ſcience of them.
Metapſychôſis, a paſſing from one bodie to an other.
Metaplaſmus, mi, a figure called tranſformation. it is a tranſlatyng of wooꝛdes, beyng in ꝓſe. into a fourme of meter, either foꝛ neceſſitee, or foꝛ to augment the elegancie.
Metapontum, a citee in the realme of Naples.
Metapontini, people of that citee.
Metátio, ônis, f. g. a diſpoſition.
Metátor, ôris, m. g. he that diſpoſeth or ſetteth trees in oꝛdꝛe in a vineparde or any other place.

Metathéſis, where one letter is tranſpoſed from one place in a wooꝛde into an other, as Timber, tymbꝛe.
Metaurus & Metaurum, a riuer of Vmbria, whiche renneth into Flaminia.
Metellus, the ꝓpꝛe name of diuers noble Romaynes.
Metempſichoſis, ſis, f. g. the tranſpoſyng of ſoules, after the opinion of Pythagoꝛas, out of one body into an other.
Meteóra, are bookes of Ariſtotle, wherin he treateth of ſterres, and ſuche other celeſtiall thynges.
Meteoria, ſpeculation in hygh thynges
Meteorólogus, gi, m. g. he that is ſtudious in ſuche ſpeculation.
Meteoros, hygh.
Meteoróſcopus, pi, m. g. a beholder of hygh thynges.
Methirion, looke Chamedaphne.
Méthodus, di, f. g. a compendious or redy way or a rule certayne to learne any ſcience by.
Methone, a citee of Peloponeſus, called nowe Modona.
Methymna, a citee in the ple of Leſbos.
Methymnæus, a, um, of that citee.
Meticulóſus, a, um, timoꝛous or fearfull.
Meticulus, a, um, fearfull.
Metiocus, the ſoonne of Miltias of Athens.
Metior, tiris, tire, to mette or meaſure, to geue by meaſure, to paſſe or go ouer, to eſteme, to iudge.
Summum bonum honeſtate metiri, to eſteme the chiefe goodneſſe to be in honeſtie, or perfecte felicitee to conſiſte in honeſtie.
Omnia, quæ ad beatam vitam pertinent, ventre metiri, to iudge felicitee to reſte in nothyng but in banketyng and makyng chere, or in eatyng and dꝛinkyng.
Mihi iſtic nec ſeritur, nec metitur, that belongeth nothyng to me.
Metis, one of the daughters of Oceanus and Tethis.
Metiſcus, Turnus chariot man.
Metius Suffetius (a capitayn of the people called Albani) was of Tullus Hoſtilius, kyng of Romaines called to battayle againſt the people Fidenates. He came, but abydyng which hoſte ſhuld haue the victoꝛie, he abſteyned to fyght. wherfoꝛe Tullus, after that he had vanquiſhed his ennemies, cauſed Metius to be tied to ſundꝛy hoꝛſes, ꝑ to be dꝛawen in ꝑces. alſo Metius is the name of diuers other.
Meto, méſſui, métere, to reape.
Metœcus, was he, whiche came out of one countrete or citee, and dwelled in an other. Suche were wont to paye certayne head ſpluer, whiche was named Metœcium, ꝑ was the value of .xii. dꝛagmas.
Meto, aui, are, is ſometyme redde foꝛ metor.
Metona, looke Methone.

Metonymia, a figure called denominacion: as Bacchus, for wyne: Venus, for lechery: Cupido, for loue.

Metopóscopus, pi, m. g. he that considereth a mans face, and therby iudgeth his condicions or affectes.

Metópion, pij, n.g. ople of almondes. also a tree in Affrike, whiche distilleth downe gumme lyke tosen.

Metor, âris, âri, to sette boundes, to measure lande, to dispose.
Castra metari, to pitche a campe.
Metata etiam passiue dicitur.

Metra, a famous harlotte, the daughter of Erisichthon.

Metrēta, a certayne measure, wherof bee twoo sortes: the one is called Attica, and conteyneth of wine a hundred poundes, of ople. 90. pounde, of hony a .150. poundes, and is of our measure. vi. gallons, one pottell, and one quarte: and so it receiueth. xii. Choas atticas. The other is called Georgica, but it is of equall measure with Attica.

✠ Metrēta (as Dioscorides saith) conteyneth ten congios: that is of our measure. x. galons. x. pintes, whiche is a leauen galons and a quarte. In all these comptes of measures you must vnderstande, I take sextarius, by whiche all other is tried, to be .24. ounces, that is a pinte and an halfe. if it be but .18. or .20. ounces then is it easely cast accordyng to that rate.

Métricus, a, um, pertaynyng to measure.

Metrodorus, a philosophiers name, a folower of Epicure. also the name of certayne other philosophiers.

Metrópolis, lis, fœ. g. the chiefe citee.

Metropolitánus, a, um, of that citee.

Metropolites, the bysshop of the chiefe citee.

Metrum, tri, n g. a measure, a verse.

Metuens, entis, om. g. that feareth.

Metuo, métui, metuere, to feare or dreede with tremblynge.
Metuere ab aliquo, to feare lest one wil harme me. Metuo mihi, I feare leste I shall haue harme. Metuere de aliquo, to feare leste he shulde haue harme.
Male metuo, I feare shrewdly.
Metuo crimen, I feare it wyll bee layed to my charge.
Metuo fratrem, ne intus sit, I feare my brother leste he be within.
Metuo tibi, I feare lest some harme will come to you. Haud metuo, I fere not, I passe not.
Metuo meo amori moram, I feare he wyll prolonge or deferre my mariage.
Ab Annibale metuens, fearyng Annyball, lest he would wooryke them some mischiefe.
A me insidias metuunt, They feare leste I wil betraie them.
Metuo reipublicæ malum ab eo, I feare he woll wooryke the common weale some harme.

Metuit de vita, he feareth that he shal dye, or that it wyll coste hym his lyfe.
Metuo quid agam, I can not tell what to doe.
Iam metuo, patres quot fuere, Nowe I know not how many fathers there were.
Metuo vt subsitet, I feare he wyll not be able to holde his owne.

Metus, us, m. g. feare, drede. sometyme religion. A moto metu, all feare layed apart.
Facere metum alicui, to make one afrayde, to put one in feare.
Incutere metum, idem.
Liberare aliquem metu, to put one out of fear.
Ponere aliquid in metu, to feare.
Sum in metu, I feare.
Inanem metuebat metum, he feared in vaine, he has woorse afeerd then hurte, he was afrayed of his owne shadowe.

Metutus, a, um, feared.

Metys, the refuse of wax.

Meu, an herbe, haupnge a stalke and leaues like to anyse.

Meum, a certayne herbe seldome in Englande, it is called Meu or Duch dill.

Meuania, a citee in the parte of Italy called Umbria, wherin Propertius the poete was borne.

Meuda, loohe Limonium.

Meueuia, a citee in wales, called saint Dauid.

Meuius, a foolysshe poete, ennemie to Virgile and Horace.

Meus, a, um, myne.
Mea quidem sententia, in myne opinion.
Meo nomine, for my cause, on my behalfe, for my sake.
Meum est, it is my dutee or my parte, or myne inuencion.
Meus sum, I am myne owne man, or subiecte to no man, or in no mans daunger.
Non est mentiri meum, It is not my nature or propertie to lye.
Si hoc esset meum, yf it were in me to doe this.
De meo nihil addo, I adde nothynge of myne owne inuencion.
Meus and tuus, bee sometyme vsed as substantyues.
Mea manu scriptæ litteræ, letters of myne owne hande writyng.

Mezentius, father of Lausus, a wicked persone, contemnyng the goddis.

M ANTE I.

MI, to me: it is also the vocatyue case of Meus.

Mica, cæ, f. g. a verye small portion of any thyng, as a crum of breadde, or of glasse, sande, or mettall beyng fyled.
Mica salis, a corne of salte.

Miaspho, of the magicienes is vsed for Cyclaminus.

Micans, shynyng, glisteryng.

Michale, a ſorcereſſe among the Centaures.
Mico, auí, are, to gyſter or ſhyne.
Micant gladij, the ſwoordes doo brandyſhe.
Micant venæ, the veynes doo beate.
Dignus, qui cum in tenebris mices, is applied to one, whiche is reputed to bee an honeſt man and a truſty, whiche wyll keepe touche and deceiue no man. It maie be in this wyſe tranſlated in a cõmon ſorme of ſpeakyng: He is one, with whom thou maieſt aſſuredly bargayne. alſo Micare digitis, a certayne plaie, that pet is vſed in Italie, it is to holde vp nowe one fynger, nowe tow, as men doo whan they treate or bargayne together by ſignes.
Auribus micat equus, the horſe moueth his eares.
Cor tremore micat, my hearte panteth for feare.
Crebris micat ignib⁹ æther, it lighteneth often.
Micat animus, the herte leapeth.
Miconis, a hynd of wild lettuce.
Miconium, an herbe called Popy.
Microcoſmus, mi, m. g. a lyttel worlde.
Micrologia, æ, fœ. ge. curioſitee about thynges of no valure.
Micrólogus, gi, m. ge. a littell communication.
Micropſichia, æ, fœ. g. feble courage, feyntneſſe of hert.
Micróplichi, they whiche haue feynt hertes.
Micturio, riui, rire, to piſſe, or to haue wylle to pyſſe.
Mictyris, poore folkes pottage.
Micypſa, a kyng of Numidia.
Midas, a wourme breedyng in beanes, alſo a certayne caſt at the dice.
Midas, a kyng of Phrygia, who excelled all other in rychelſe, who fowlyſhly preferred Pan before Apollo in ſyngyng.
Auriculas aſini Midas habet, ſpoken prouerbially of fooles, and of them that haue groſſe and corrupt iudgementes.
Midioa, dę, n. g. a certayne ſhyppe.
Miezi, a towne in Macedonia.
Migrátio, ônis, f. g. a remouyng in iourneie.
Migro, aui, are, to remoue from one place to dwell in an other.
Migrare in mucronem, to be pointed.
Migraſsit, for migrauerit.
Migrare de, or ex vita, to dye.
Mihi, ſometyme it ſignifieth to me. ſometyme againſt me.
Si quid peccat Demea, mihi peccat, Demea what ſo euer it is that he hath dooen amyſſe, it is againſt me, it is my harme, and none others. Sometyme it ſignifieth of me, or by me. Syrus eſt prehendendus, atque adhortandus mihi, Syrus muſte be gotten and counſayled by me: or I muſte exhorte or counſayle Syrus.
Hic mihi quãto nunc rectius ſapit, quàm ego met mihi? Howe muche wyſer is he nowe in this caſe for my behoue and profitte, than I am for myne owne.
Mihi, is often added Feſtiuitatis gratia.
Mihimet ipſi, to me my ſelfe.
Mihipte, Cato vſed for mihi ipſi.
Milax, the herbe called alſo Volucrum, and Gymenon.
Miltiades, a noble capitayne of the Athenienſes, who with 11000. Grekes vãquiſhed. 600000. Perſians in the fielde of Marathon. Afterwarde, by the people of Athenes, he was condemned and caſte into priſon, where he died, and nought not be ſuffered to be buried, vntyll his ſoonne had taken vpon hym the gyues, whiche his father dyd weare.
Miles, militis, com. gener. a man of warre, a ſouldiour.
Miles, is ſomtyme vſed in the feminine gẽder.
Milites, be ſometyme vſed for ſergeantes, beadyls, or ſomners, belongyng to magiſtrates and iudges.
Miletus, a citee in Ionia, an other in Creta, an other in the yle of Lesbos. Miletus is alſo the ſonne of Sol and Paſiphae, whiche builded that citee in Ionia.
Mileſius, a, um, of that citee.
Milétum, a cite in the countreie of Athens.
Miliaria, an herbe, whiche windyng about the graine, called millet, killeth it: it is good alſo againſt the goute in beaſtes.
Miliaria, a bird that eateth milium.
Miliaris, a ſerpent.
Miliaria, æ, f. g the litle bird called a linet.
Militâris, re, belongyng to warfare.
Militaris homo, a man of warre.
Militaris via, the high waie.
Militaris, the herbe, called alſo Coniza, loke there. alſo it is the ſame, whiche is called Lactoris, it is verie medicinable to greene woundes.
Militárius, a, um, idem quod militaris.
Militáriter, warrely, lyke a ſouldiour.
Militia, æ, f. gen. warre, warrefare, the exerciſe of warre.
Dare nomen militiæ, to offre hym ſelfe to be bilde to go to warre.
Militia vacare, to bee exempte from goyng to warre.
Militiæ, the genitiue caſe, aduerbially in the warre, or at warrefare.
Milito, aui, are, to goe on warrefare, or to bee in warres.
Milium, lį, neu. ge. a ſmall graine called millet or hirſe.
Milium indicum, wheat of Turket.
Miliárius, a, um, of or pertenyng to mille, or that is fedde with mille.
Mille adiectiuum, plur. tantum, indeclin. a thouſande.
Mille paſſus, a myle.
Mille, neu. gene. ſubſtantiuum, plur. millia, a thouſande.
Mille annorum, a thouſande yeres.

Milli, is redde in auncient writers in the ablatiue case singular.

Milléſimus, a, um, the thousande.

Milleſima pars, the thousande parte.

Millefólium, or Millefolia, an herbe called milfoyle, parrowe, or noseblede.

Millépeda, æ, fœm. g. a woorme haupng a great numbze of feete.

Milleſies, a thousande tymes.

Milliárius, a, um, of a thousande weyght.

Milliárius grex, a flocke of a thousande.

Milliárium, rij, n. ge. and Milliare, ris, n. gen. a myle. also a caudzon. also a pillar in Rome, wherin was grauen all the waies of Italy.

Millies, a thousande tymes, verie often tymes.

Millum, li, n. g. and Millus, li, m. g. a mastiues colar, made of leather with naples.

Milo, lonis, the name of one, whiche at the game of Olympus, with his bare hand slewe a bulle, and afterwarde carped hym a furlong, and the same day eate hym euery morselle. It was also a noble Romayne, for whom Tullie made an oracion, conteynyng incomparable eloquence.

Milo, is also an hille in India.

Miltiades, idem quod Miltiades.

Miluina tibia, a cornet or smalle shaulme.

Miluius, uŋ, or Miluus, ui, m. g. a hyte, and by translacion, a rauenyng pollyng man. There is also a fyshe and a sterre of the same name.

Miluinus, a, um, of a hyte, or lyke a hyte.

Miluinus pullus, a ponge hyte.

Miluinus pes, an herbe called Kitefote.

Milyas, a place in Asia.

Mima, æ, fœ. g. a tumblyng or dansyng wenche, that counterfaiteth the gestures and factions of other.

Mimalion, a yong man that loued Athalanta of Arcadie.

Mimallis, an plande.

Mimallones, or Mimallonides, dum, fœm. ge. women serupng Bacchus.

Mimas, a mountayne in the lesse Asia, of the whiche the foresaied women were named.

Mimeſis, ſis, f. g. a figure called imitacion, counterfaitpng other mens woordes and gesture.

Mimmernus, ni, m. ge. a writer of verses before the tyme of the. vii. wise men.

Mimula, læ, f. g. a diminutiue of Mima.

Mimus, mi, m. ge. a boorder, or a rayler, whiche in mockyng other men in gesture and countenaunce, deth fowlowe theim, feignyng to be the same persones, whom they doe reprooue.

Mimi, be verses counterfaityng muche wantonnesse without any reuerence, haupnge not withstandyng some wyse sentences myngled therwith.

Mimicus, a, um, of suche wanton facion.

Mimógraphus, phi, mas. gen. a wryter of suche wanton matters.

Mina, næ, fœm. g. after some is the value of our pounde sterlyng: but more truly it is the same amonge the Greekes, that libra is amonge the Romayns. c. crownes frenche. xl. s. sterlyng. it also among the greekes sometyme signified a poyse, or weight. sometyme a coyn. The poyse was of thre sortes: one was called Mina attica, whiche weighed. xii. ounces, and an halfe, whiche was more than the Romane pounde by iii. drammes: for the Romane libra, contained but 96. dragmas, and the Athenes pounde contained an hundred. Mina medica weighed. xii. ounces: Mina Alexandrina weighed. xx. ounces. whan it signified coyne, there was of it also two sortes, one called Mina, or Mna attica Solonis, which conteyned a hundred dragmas: of our moneye nowe currant. xlvii. s. n.d. In other was Mina, or Mna vetus, which was lxxv, Dragmas, xxxv. s. xi. d. q. Budeus estemeth Minam Atticam, at. c. crownes frenche: of our money, after Tonstall. xl. s. or as I thinke. xxxiii. s. iiii. d. if we take Denarium to be a groate sterlyng, as Tonstall teacheth, and as it is most true. for in euerie Mina is. c. Denarij. Mina, is also a measure of grounde, conteynyng. 122. fote in lengthe, and as muche in breadth.

Mina Italica, as Diodorus saieth, was a poild weight, and. iiii. drammes.

Decem minæ, or mnæ, be of our money xxii. li xv. s. ii. d. or to accompte after Tonstallus, xx. l' sterlyng.

Centum minæ, or mnæ, be. 239. li. xi. s viii. d. or after the computacion of Budæi and Tonstall. 200 l' sterlyng.

Mina ouis, a sheepe pylde vnder the bealy.

Minácíæ, arum, fœ. gen. plur. vsed of Plautus for Minæ.

Minæ, arum, f. g. plu. threatnynges, menacynges, eyther in woordes or signes. also battlementes of walles, or lyttell pinnacles.

Minas iactare, to threten.

Clamore ac minis aliquem insequi, to crye out vpon one and threten hym.

Minax, ácis, om. g. full of threatnynges.

Mináciter, threatnyngly with shrpdyng and sharpe woordes, sacyngly.

Minarrio, ris, rire, to trouble lyke a doue or pigeon.

Minas, the name of a gygant.

Minátio, ónis, f. g. a threatnyng.

Minanter, threatnyngly.

Minæi, people of Arabia, nyghe to the red sea, where frankyncense chiefely groweth, and is of that place called Minæum.

Mincius, a ryuer of Italy, whiche compasseth the citee of Mantua, and renneth in to the great ryuer of Po, called Padus.

Minera, & Mineralia, are of some vsed for mines, out of the whiche mettall is dygged.

Minerua, uæ, f. ge. the goddesse of doctrine and wysedome, whiche was also named Pallas. Sometyme Minerua is vsed for nauire, wher-of crafte.

Crassa Minerua, vel pingui Minerua, grosse ly, rudely.
Inuita Minerua, agaynst nature.
Sus Mineruam, prouerbially spoken, where an vdeote or fole teacheth a wyse & learned man.
Mineruæ sanguis, the herbe Chamæpitis.
Mineo, aui, are, to dye redde, to coloure with redde leade.
Mineruæ, a promontorye of Campayne, called commonly Capo Mineruæ.
Minerual, and Mineruale, lis, n. ge. a rewarde geuen sometyme by scholars vnto theyr maysters, in meate or drynke.
Mineo, a ryuer.
Mineus, a Theban, whose daughters were turned into battes or rerempice.
Mingo, minxi, gere, to make water, to pysse.
Minarius, a, um, of sinople or of redde leade.
Miniacus, a, um, made of red leade or sinople.
Miniária, æ, fœm. ge. the place where sinople is dyged.
Miniatus, or Miniáculus, a, um, lyke synople, or of the colour of sinople, or vermelon.
Miniati libri, lymned bookes, hauyng letters of dyuers colours.
Miniatula cera, redde wace.
☞ Miniatula cera notare, to note a thyng to bee amended or corrected.
Minilas, an hylle in Thessaly, called after Orchomenus.
Minime, least, also no, in no wyse.
Minime gentium, least in all mens opinions, no in any wyse.
Minime doctus, vnlearned.
Minime sapiens, vnwyse.
Minime mirum, little meruayle.
Minime feceris, dwe it not.
Minime, somtime muche lesse. also at the least.
Minime gratum spectaculum, no pleasaunt syght.
Minime omnium, no in any wyse.
Minime tribus diebus, at the least thre daies.
Minime multi, fewe.
Minimus, a, um, least, smallest.
Minimus natu, the yongest.
Minimus digitus, the lyttell fynger.
Minimo emit, he bought it almost for naught.
Minimi precij homo, a vile persone, of no estimacion.
Minima quidem ex parte, lyttell or nothyng at all.
Minimum, an aduerbe, at the least.
Minimum, a substantiue, a very small thyng, the least thyng in the worlde.
Minimòpere, verace lyttell.
Miniscitur, for reminiscitur.
Minister, stri, m. g. a seruaunt, a minister.
Minister, stra, strum, that serueth or ministreth.
Ministérium, sterij, neu. ge. seruice. sometyme generally, all woorke. sometyme ministeria, bee seruauntes.
Ministra, stræ, a woman seruaunt.
Ministrátor, ôris, m. gen. he that mynistreth or serueth.
Ministratrix, the femynine.
Ministratórius, a, um, pertaynyng to ministracion or seruice.
Ministro, aui, are, to serue, to geue a thynge in doonge seruice, to proffer to, to delyuer to, to mynister.
Ministrare poculum, to serue one of drynke, to wayte on his cuppe.
Ministrare victum, To fynde, to geue meate and drynke.
Minitabiliter, idem quod minaciter.
Minitabundus, a, um, threatnyng sore.
Minitans, antis, om. g. threatnyng.
Minito, aui, are, and minitor, aris, ari, to threten sore, to menace.
Minitari ferrum & flammam, to threatten to slea and to bourne.
Minitare malum, to threatten to dooe one a shrewde tourne or displeasure.
Mino, aui, are, to leade.
Minium, nij, neu. g. sinople, redde leade, or vermelon.
Minius, a ryuer in Spayne.
Minoa, a citee in Sicilie, an other in the yle called Imorgos by Sicilie.
Minon, the herbe mandragoras.
Minor, âris, ari, to threten, to menace. also to stande out further than other.
Minatur mortem illi, he threetneth to slea hym.
Minor, ôris, the comparatiue of Paruus, lesse, smaller, yonger.
Minor natu, the yonger.
Minoris dimidio, lesse by halfe.
Minor filius, the yonger sonne.
Quasi istic minor mea res agatur, quàm tua, as though this belonged not to me, as muche as to you: or as though this concerned not as muche my profite as yours.
Minos, Minôis, a kyng of Crete, that fyrst gaue theym lawes, whom paynyms for his excellent iustice, supposed to be chiefe iudge of hell.
Minoius, and Minous, a, um, of Minos.
Minois, noidis, patronymicum fœmininum, of Minois.
Minotaurus, ri, a monster in Creta, whom the poetes feigne to bee borne of Pasyphae, the wyfe of kynge Minos, beyng part lyke a man, parte lyke a bulle, which beeyng inclosed in the place called Labyrinthus, was fedde with mānes fleshe. He was slayne by Theseus, with the healpe of Iriadna daughter of Minos.
Mintha, an hylle, named of Mintha Plutos harlotte.
Minthos, dunge or oordure.
Minturnæ, a citee in Campania.
Minuo, minui, minuere, to mynyshe, to make lesse.

Minue-

Minuere æs alienum, To paye parte of ones debtes.
Vt aliqua pars laboris minuatur mihi, That some parte of my labour maye be cutte of, or that I maie haue somewhat the lesse peyne.
Minuere, absolutely, somtyme for Decrescere.
Ne minueris hæc quæ facis, continue and doe as ye dooe styll.
Minuere controuersiam, to appease or finish a controuersie or variance.
Minuere imperium matris, To dooe agaynst his mothers commaundement.
Minue iram, quiete your selfe, appease your selfe, be not so angry.
Maiestatem per vim minuere, To rebelle, to make a commocion.
Minutizo, aui, are, to synge small, or to feigne in syngyng.
Minus, lesse. somtyme for Non.
Minus intellexi, I dyd not vnderstande it.
Minus audacter, not so boldely or stoutely.
Minus credere, not to beleue.
Minus memini, I doo not remembre.
Minus venit, he cometh seldomer.
Minus minusque obtemperat, he obeyeth me lesse and lesse.
Minus duo millia hominum effugerunt, ther escaped not two thousande.
Amicorum hic habens minus, hauyng fewer friends here than you haue.
Quo fiant minus, That they maye not bee brought to passe.
Minus quinquennium est quod. &c. It is not fyue yeres, sens. &c.
Nunquàm nix minus quatuor pedes alta iacuit, The snowe was there neuer lesse, than foure fote depe.
Minusculus, a, um, littell, preatie.
Minuscula epistola, a littell epistoll.
Digitus minusculus, the littell fynger.
Minutal, tâlis, neu. g. a meate made with herbes and other thynges chopped together, a sullell.
Minutarius, a sellar of trifles or smalle haberdashe ware.
Minutatim, peece meale, in gobbettes. also by littell and littell, leysurely, with leysure.
Minutatim interrogare, to aske by diuers and sundry questions.
Minutè, the aduerbe, smally.
Minutim, in littell pieces or morselles.
Minutia, æ, fœ. g. the smallest thyng that may be seene. it is also the name of a virgin Vestall.
Minutio, onis, f. g. a mynishyng.
Minutulus, a, um, littell, preatie.
Minutum, idem quod Lepta.
Minutus, a, um, mynished, small, littell.
Minutus animus, a feble courage, a feint hert.
Fruges minutæ, corne, grayne, differynge from pulse.
Quæstiunculæ minutæ, littell questions.
Minutæ litteræ, smalle letters.

Minyæ, people of Thessalia.
Minyeius, a ryuer renning out of Thessaly.
Mion, the herbe, called also Hippomarathum.
Mira, wounders or meruayles.
Mirabilis, le, meruaylous, wounderfull, to bee woundered at.
Mirabilis suauitate, wounderfull pleasant and sweete.
Mirabilem in modum, meruaylously.
Mirabiliter, meruaylously, wonderfully, greatly, exceedyngly.
Mirabiliter multa, verie many thynges.
Mirabiliter lætor, I am wonderfully or exceedyngly gladde.
Mirabilitas, atis, f. ge. wonderyng, meruayling.
Mirabundus, a, um, that meruayleth or woundereth.
Miraculum, li, n. ge. a miracle, a thyng exceedyng nature or commune reasone, a monstruous thynge.
Mirandus, a, um, to bee woundred or meruayled at, meruaylous.
Mirandum in modum, wounderfully, exceedyngly.
Miratio, onis, f. g. meruaylyng, wonderyng.
Mirator, oris, m. ge. a wounderer, a meruailer, one that esteemeth a thyng muche.
Miratrix, tricis, the femmine.
Miratus, a, um, meruaylyng.
Miratus, us, m. g. a meruaylyng.
Mirè, wonderfully, meruaylously, exceedyngly.
Mirius, the comparatiue.
Mirificè, idem quod mirè.
Mirifico, aui, are, to make woonderfull.
Mirificus, a, um, wonderfully done, meruailous.
Miriones, men hauyng wyde mouthes.
Mirinus, a hyll of Thessaly.
Mirmeciæ, werres in the priuie partes.
Mirmillones, challengers at fyghtynge with swoordes.
Miro, aui, are, is somtyme founde in olde writers for miror.
Miror, aris, ari, to meruayle, to lyke a thyng, to wonder at, to be in loue with, to beholde with great delectation & pleasure, to esteme greatly.
Mirari se, to please hym selfe well, to be hyghe glorious.
Mirari aliquem, to haue one in great admiration, to esteme hym muche.
Mirus, a, um, meruaylous, wonderfull.
Mirum in modum, in a meruaylous facion.
Mirum, aduerbialiter, in answeryng, as one shoulde saie, a wonderfull thyng.
Ne cui sit vestrum mirum, meruayle none of you.
Mira sunt nisi. &c. It is great meruaile but that. &c.
Mirum nimis est, It is a thynge greatly to be meruayled at.
Non mirum facis, you doo no new or strange thyng, or nothyng to be meruayled at.

Miris

Miris modis, meruaplously.
Mis, the genitue cafe of Ego.
Misanthropos, he that hateth the companye of men.
Miscellaneus, a, um, that is myxte togyther with ony⁹der.
Miscellanea, thynges myxte togyther, o⁹ a woo⁹the conteinyng diuers thatters myxte to⁹gyther.
Miscellus, a, um, myxte o⁹ myngled of dyuers thynges.
Miscellæ vites, vines that may bee myngled with any other, o⁹ may be planted in any place indifferently.
Miscellæ vuæ, grapes that smake wyne is made of fo⁹ seruauntes.
Miscellum, a hynde of culuers.
Misceo, scui, scere, to myxte o⁹ myngle togyther, to temper togyther, to confounde togither, to trouble, and make greatte confusion of thyn⁹ges, to dooe a thynge oute of o⁹der o⁹ reasone. Sometyme it signifieth to serue one of dzinke.
Miscere tumultum, to set men in a ro⁹e, to make a commocion.
Miscere vinum aqua, and aquam vino, To temper o⁹ alaie wyne with water.
Iura istæc tua misceto, ne me admisceas, Bynge in, o⁹ meddle of thyne owne matters, in suche wyse, that thou b⁹ynge not me in a⁹monge theym: o⁹ that thou make not me parte taker of theym.
Omnia miscere, to trouble and confounde all thynges.
Miscere uenenum, to temper poyson fo⁹ men to dzynke.
Miscere certamina, to steppe in and fyght a⁹monge other.
Misellus, a, um, a diminutiue of Miser.
Misenum, a promontozie by Cumæ.
Misenus, the soonne of Æolus, Eneas trum⁹pettoure.
Miser, misera, erum, wzetched, miserable, pitu⁹ouse, in thraldome and trouble, heauye, som⁹tyme sicke, sometyme innocent.
Miserimus fui fugitando, ne quis me cog⁹nosceret, I was veraie pyle troubled, encum⁹bzed and vexed, o⁹ (as we saie) in a peche of troubles, with rennynge oute of the way, that no man myghte knowe me. O⁹ I was weee⁹y, tyred, and fayne with rennyng. &c.
Nemo est miserior me, no man is moze mys⁹erable, o⁹ in woyse cafe than I.
Miseram me, Ah wzetched woman that I am.
Me miserum, Alas, that euer I was bo⁹ne.
Miseris modis, pitiously, that it would pitee one to see it.
Miser animi, animo, ex animo, he that hath greate heauinesse and so⁹owe of herte.
Quem minus miserum credere est? whome shoulde a man beleeue to bee in better cafe o⁹ condition?

Perij miser, Alas I am vndoen wzetched man that I am.
Miserum, an interiection of so⁹owyng, as one wolde say, a pitifull thynge to remembze.
Miserabile, fo⁹ Miserabiliter.
Miserabilis, le, myserable, wzetched, lamenta⁹ble, to be pitied.
Miserabiliter, myserably, lamentablye, wzet⁹chedly.
Miserandus, a, um, to be pitied. idem quod mi⁹serabilis.
Miseranter, idem quod Miserabiliter.
Miserátio, ônis, f. g. pitee, merey, compassion.
Miserátor, ôris, m. g. he that dooeth an acte of charitee on hym, whom he pitieth.
Miserè, myserably, wzetchedly, pitiefully, vnfo⁹tunately, greatly, veraie muche, excedyngly, desperately.
Vt stultæ ac miserè omnes sumus religiosæ, Is all we women w foolysche, and perilous ful of superstition.
Miserè amat, he loueth excedyngly, he is veray depe in loue, o⁹ loueth desperately.
Misericors, ordis, om. g. mereyfull, piteefull, that hath pitee and compassion, that is so⁹ze fo⁹ an other mans pil, tender herted.
Miséreor, éris, éri, and sometyme Misereo, mi⁹seres, to haue pitee, to pitee, to be so⁹y fo⁹ o⁹nes distresse o⁹ mysery.
Mei miseret nemo, no man pitieth me.
Miseret, the impersonall, it pitieth.
Miseret me vicem tuam, I haue pytee of youz pile chaunce, o⁹ I am so⁹y fo⁹ youre misfo⁹⁹tune.
Miseret me, I haue pitee.
Miseretur, I am moued with pitee.
Misertum, vel miseritum est, men haue com⁹passion o⁹ pitee.
Misereſco, scere, to be moued with pitee
Miséria, æ, f. g. mysery, wzetchednesse, infelici⁹tee, distresse, misfo⁹tune, aduersitee.
Misericórdia, æ, f. g. pitee, mercy, compassion, that one hath on an others miserie.
Misericordior, the comparatyue of Miseri⁹cors.
Misericórditer, piteefully.
Miséritus, myserably.
Miseritûdo, inis, idem quod Miseria.
Miseror, âris, ari, to haue pytee and compassion fo⁹ ones mysery, to lamente ones mysefo⁹⁹tune.
Misocali, they whiche hate all hynde of learnynge o⁹ honest knowlage.
Misodûlon, li, n. g. the herbe called Ocimum.
Misopathos, the herbe called also Ocimastrum.
Misoponus, he that hateth labour.
Misogýnia, an hyll in Campania.
Missenus, an hyll in Campania.
Missiculo, aui, are, to sende often.
Missile, lis, a darte, stone, o⁹ other thynge that is thzowen.

Missilis

Miſsilis, le, that maie be throwen, caſte, or hurled.
Miſsiles res, thynges that be ſcattered or throwen among children.
Miſsilia, thynges, whiche the auncient emperoures were wonte to caſte amonge the people, as breadde, cakes, ſweete ointementes and ſuche lyke, whiche was dooen in the Theater, in the feaſt called Saturnalia.
Miſsio, ônis, f. g. a ſendynge awaye, a meſſage, alſo leaue to departe.
Miſsito, aui, are, to ſende often.
Miſsus, a, um, ſent awaye, caſte, hurled, ſhotte forthe, lette paſſe.
Miſſum facere, to ompt or paſſe ouer a thyng. alſo to geue leaue to departe.
Miſsam facere vxorem, to caſte of and forſake ones wyfe.
Miſſa iſtæc facito, leat theſe thynges paſſe.
Miſſa facio, I leat you dooe what you wyll.
Nos miſſos face, ſpeake no more to vs of the mattier, trouble vs no more with the mattier, leat vs alone.
Miſſum facere vadimonium, not to appeere at the date appoynted.
Miſſo conuiuio, after the table was take vp.
Miſſo officio, leauyng apart honeſtie, or that one is bonde to dooe by honeſtie and reaſon.
Miſſus us, m. g. a caſtyng, a hurlyng, a ſendyng, a courſe, whan one thynge cometh in a diſtance after an other, a turne, a courſe in ſeruice at the table.
Miſtûra, æ, f. g. a mixture, a temperature.
Miſtus, and Mixtus, a, um, mingled tempered.
Miſy, is that whiche the apothecaries dooe call Vitriole.
Mitella, æ, f. g. a littell miter.
Mitè, gentilly, myldely, patiently.
Miteſco, ſcere, to ware tame, to become gentyll or tractable, to ware caulme, or quiet. ſometyme to ware rype or mellowe.
Miteſcente hyeme, towarde the ende of wynter, whan the tyme wareth more warme and pleaſaunt.
Mare miteſcit, the ſea wareth caulme.
Miteſcit diſcordia, the diſcorde or variance is appeaſed or allayed.
Mithra, the Perſians do call the ſoonne, and alſo the chiefe prieſt of the ſoonne.
Mithriaca, ôrum, n. gen. plur. ceremonies of the ſunne.
Mithridâtes, a puiſſaunte kynge of Ponthus in Aſia.
Mithridâticum, i, n. g. a medicine lyke to Triacle, called Mithridate.
Mithridation, an herbe, haupnge two leaues compng out from the roote lyke Acanthus, and in the middes a ſtalke bearyng a redde flower.
Mitifico, aui, are, to pacifie or make quiete. ſometyme to concocte or digeſt.
Mitigâtio, ônis, f. g. an appeaſynge, an aſſwagynge, a makyng of a thyng more quiete, gentyll, or eaſy.
Mitigatórius, a, um, that hath ſtrength to myttigate or aſſwage.
Mitigo, aui, are, to mitigate, to ſwage, to appeaſe, to make ripe or mellowe.
Vaſci & mitigari, contrary.
Cibum mitigare to ſeethe meate.
Mitigare dolorem, to aſſwage ones ſorowe.
Iras mitigare, to appeaſe ones anger.
Febrem mitigare, to make a feuer more eaſy or leſſe pepnfull.
Mitis, te, meeke, ſymple, mylde, gentyll, ſoft, tractable, not ſteerynge, caulme, quiete, without ſurges or waues. alſo rype, mellowe.
Mitis & manſuetus, and Ferus & Immanis, contrary.
Mores mitiſsimi, verie gentylle and pleaſaunt behauiour, verie eaſy to away with.
Mitiorem in partem interpretari, to interpret a thyng gentilly.
Nihil poterat illo fieri mitius, There coulde no man in the woylde be more gentyll than he.
Mitia poma, rype and mellowe appuls.
Mite ſtagnum, a ſtandyng water, a quiet water, without waues or ſurges.
Mitra, æ, f. g. a myttre. It was alſo a tyre of men and womens heades amonge the Aegyptians. it may alſo be vſed for ſuche a coyfe as yonge maidens and damoſels vſe to weare.
Mitrax, a ſtone of the colour of a roſe, but againſt the ſoonne it is chaungeable.
Mitrin, an yle, ſixe daies ſaylynge out of England, wherein is great plentie of tynne.
Mitrula, a diminutiue of mitra.
Mitto, miſi, mittere, to ſende, to leaue or laye a parte, to lette paſſe, not to ſpeake of, to geue, to caſte, to hurle, to bryngе forthe, to putte forth, as a tree dooeth leaues or fruite.
Mittere ſanguinem, to leat bloudde.
Obuiam mittere, to ſende to meete.
Præcipitem mittere, to caſt hedlonge.
Salutem mittere, to ſalute by an other, to ſende greetyng or commendacions.
Subſidium, and ſubſidio mittere, to ſend aide or ſuccour.
Vocem mittere, to ſpeake, to crye.
Mittere vocem contra aliquem, to ſpeake againſt one.
Voces furiales mittere, to ſpeake ragyngly lyke a mad man without ryme or reaſon.
Mittere folia, to bryng forth leaues.
Mitte lachrymas, leaue weepynge, weepe no more.
Mitte male loqui, leaue your yll language.
Pro nobis mitte precari, intreate no more for vs.
Sed mitto de illo, But I wylle ſpeake no more of hym.
Mitte id quod ſcio, dic quod rogo, Let paſſe that I knowe, and tell me that I aſke the.

Mitto

Mitte me, let me goe, lette me alone, trouble me no more with the matter.
Mittit legatos se venturum, He sent woord by ambassadours that he would come.
Mittere in seruitutem, to put in bondage and subiection.
Mittere sub iugum, To make to go vnder the galowes in signe of reproche.
Facere & mittere ridiculum, to speake a merry thyng to be laughed at.
Mitte ambages, leaue these long circumstaunces, and telle the thyng in a fewe woordes.
Mitto iam osculari & amplexari, I will not speake nowe of kyssyng and embrasyng.
In possessionem mittere, When the magistrate for the frowarde contempte or none appearaunce of the partie sendethe the demaundaunte to take possession of his house & goodes: Or when that the demandaunt is prenced, sendeth his seruauntes to take possession and seisen.
Mittere ad nomen, to sende to the musters, to be billed for the warre.
Manus mittere, to seyse, to take possession.
Mittere signum, to signifie, to geue a token.
In ora populi mittere, to make one to be talked or communed of among the people.
Mittere in consilium, to leat the Iudges depate, to geue sentence after that the oratour hath finished his oration, or the lawyer his plea.
Mitte hanc noxam, forgeue me this fauté.
Mitte hunc ire, leat him goe.
Mitas frænum affectibus, Bydell thyne affections.
Mitylene, es, & Mitylenæ, arum, a citee in the yle of Lesbos.
Mina, is an Arabike woorde, & signifieth the iuyce of fruites, boyled vntyl it be as thicke as honye. It is nowe onely taken for a spruce made with the iuyce of quynces, wyne, and sugar or hony, as it was in olde tyme.
Mixtarius, a cuppe, wherein wyne is alayed with water.
Mixtus, a, um, lyke Mistus.

M ANTE N.

MNa, idem quod Mina.
Mnas, the name of a pyrate in the tyme of Pompeie.
Mnasea, a pocte.
Mnemonæ, in latine are called modiparatores.
Mnesium, a certaine herbe growyng in Egypte.
Mnemónica, órum, ne. gen. plur. preceptes for memorie.
Mnemósyne, es, f. g. the mother of the. ix. Muses, and is interpreted memorie.
Mnemósynon, ni, n. g. a monument, token, or pledge lefte with a mans friende for the memorial of any thyng.

Mnesarcus, a famous philosopher.
Mnesitheum, the herbe Buphthalmos. also Iunipera parua.
Mnesteræ, wooers.
Mnestheus, the name of a Troiane.

M ANTE O.

MOAB, a citee of Arabie. also the name of one of the sonnes of Loth, of whom the people are called Moabitæ.
Móbilis, le, mouable, soone moued, vnconstant, mutable, wauerynge.
Mobilia ingenia, wauerynge wittes.
Mobili animo esse, to haue an vnconstaunte and wauerynge mynde.
Mobilitas, átis, f. g. mouableneſſe, waggyng, inconstancie, lyghtneſſe.
Mobiliter, mouablye, with mouyng, vnconstauntly.
Mobilito, aui, are, to moue.
Mocontiacum, or Moguntia, the citee of Mentz in Almayne.
Moderabilis, le, measurable, moderate.
Moderámen, ráminis, n. gen. and Moderátio, ónis, f. g. moderation, temperance, modestie, gyydyng, gouernaunce.
Moderanter, moderately, temperatly.
Moderaté, moderately, meanly, with moderation and reason.
Moderaté ferre, to take patiently.
Moderátim, leysurelie, by littell and littell.
Moderátor, tóris, ma. g. a gouernoure, a ruler, a mayster.
Moderátrix, tricis, fœ. g. the feminine, a gouernesse, a Regent.
Moderátus, a, um, moderate, temperate.
Nihil habere moderati, to haue no modestie or honest temperance in thynges.
Módero, aui, are, to measure, to put a meane.
Móderor, áris, ári, to gouerne, to rule, to set a measure in thynges, to moderate.
Ex sua libidine nos moderantur, They rule, measure, and order vs, by their owne wylfull appetite.
Linguæ moderandum mihi est, I muste refrayne and rule my tunge, I must kepe silence.
Modeste, temperately, sobrely, aduisedly.
Modéstia, æ, f. g. modestie, temperance, softenesse, humilitee, humbleneſſe.
Modéstus, a, um, temperate, well aduised, modeste, that vseth a meane in all his doynges.
Modestus vultu, demure.
Modiális, le, that whiche conteyneth a bushell.
Modiátio, ónis, idem quod modius.
Modicè, meanely, measurably, reasonably, moderately, temperately, with a meane, not to muche nor to littell, nor to many nor to fewe. also brefely.
Modice ab humo extantia, a littell aboue the grounde.

Ea res modice me tangit, It greueth me but litle, or I passe but litle for it.
De re pauca ac modicè loquutus est, he spake of the matter in fewe woordes, and briefely.
Modicè hoc faciam, I will doo this measurably.
Modicè ferre, To take patiently and moderately.
Modicè spernere, To contemne measurably, and not to muche.
Modicellus, a diminutiue of Modicus.
Módicum, i, n. g. a litteli or small thyng.
Modicum, an aduerbe, a litteli.
Módicus, a, um, that exceedeth not, measurable, litteli, small, fewe.
Modicus cultu, meanely apparayled.
Modici fuimus ea in re, we were but brief in that matter.
Originis modicus, of a base or meane stocke.
Modico gradu ire, to go a softe pace.
Eques modicus, a meane gentyman, not exceedyng in richesse.
Facultatibus modicus, not very riche.
Modicus animus, a moderate mynde, content with fewe thynges.
Modicum iudicium, a meane iudgement.
Modificátio, ônis, fœm. g. measuryng or dyuyng ynge in measure.
Modificor, âris, ári, to take the measure of a thyng, to measure.
Modiolus, li, m. ge. a litteli bulshell. also a bucket, wherewith water is drawen out of a well, or a potte fastened to a wheele, whiche dyrngeth vp water, and powreth it out. Also a litteli dyrnkyng cuppe lyke a goblet, and an instrument that surgions vse.
Modiolus in rota, the naue of the whele.
Modiparatores, men ordeyned to see measure kepte.
Modius, ij, m. gen. and sometyme Modium, dij, neu. ge. a bulshell. It was proprely a measure of dry thynges, whiche contayned. xvi. Sextarios, of our measure, one galone, one pottelle, and one quarte, sauing foure ounces measure. If Modius Romanus doe conteine. 16. Sextarios, and euerie Sextarius be. 24. ounces, as Budeus proueth, then is modius of our measure. 16. pintes, and. 16. halfe pintes, whiche is iuste. iii. galons. I meane of wine measure, but if Sextarius be. 18. ounces, as physicions doe take it, then is Modius but. ii. galons and one quarte. if Sextarius be. 20. ounces, then is it accordyng to that rate. Plinie saith, Modius doth cõmonly weigh .16. pound, and then it differeth not muche from our pecke.
Vide postea in Sextario.
Modius agri, grounde conteynyng euery way an hundred feete.
Modo, nowe, nowe late, of late, whyle ere, a litteli whyle agoe, proprely it signifieth a tyme very litteli past: but sometyme it signifieth tyme present or instant. sometyme it signifieth so that.
Non refert modo id faciat, it maketh no matter so that he doo it.
Id modo dic, saie this onely.
Modóne id demum sensisti Pamphile? perceiuedst thou not it euyll nowe Pamphilus? or haste thou found that out nowe at the laste, and neuer before?
Modo ago, nowe I doo it.
Modo veni, I came but late.
Modo introi, I went in but euen nowe.
Modo faciam, I will dooe it by and by.
Modo ait, modo negat, sometyme he saieth yea, some while he saieth nay.
Modo non, id est propemodum.
Modo vt, for Dummodo, so that.
Modo, for Saltem, at the least wyse.
Modo, is sometyme vsed for Quidem, and tamen.
Modo, for Interdum, sometymes.
Modulámen, láminis, neut. gene. Idem quod Modulatio.
Modulate, aptely with measure.
Modulátio, ônis, fœ. ge. measure, modulacion, pleasaunt tune.
Modulátor, ôris, m. g. he that syngeth or tuneth a thyng in measure.
Modulátus, a, um, don or song by measure, tuned.
Modulátus, us, m. g. tunyng, singyng in measure.
Módulor, âris, ári, to make or dooe a thynge by nombre or measure. also to syng, to speke with pleasant tune and accent.
Modulari vocem, To measure and tune the voyce.
Módulus, li, m. gene. the measure of a thynge, a songe, modulacion, the tyme in syngyng. also a measure that carpenters vse.
Modus, i, m. g. maner, measure, meane, forme, facion, waye, quãtitee, ende, the syse of a thyng. also tyme or measure in musike.
Omnium par modus sit, That there bee lyke proporcion or measure of all these thynges.
Etsi nihil scripsit, nisi de modo agri, although he wrate nothyng but of the quantitee of the fielde.
Modus vini maior, To muche vse or drynkyng of wyne, or more vse of wyne than one was wont.
Modo nostro, after our facion, as we wylle our selues.
Modum habere, to kepe a rule or order in any thyng.
Modum statuere, to geue a rule.
Sumere iustum modum cibi, to make a full and perfect meale.
Scias posse habere iam ipsum suæ vitæ modum, Wete you wel, that he maie haue the rule and gouernaunce of his owne syfe.
Omni modo differre, so to varie that one is lyke an other in nothyng.

More

More modoque, after the maner and facion.
Omni modo laborare, to labour or endeuour with all meanes possible.
Modum constituere, idem quod Statuere modum.
Modum adhibere alicui rei, to doo a thynge after a certayne maner and meane.
Saltare ad tibicinis modos, to daunce after the mynstrelles playyng or tunes.
Modus agri, measure of lande.
Modum facere, habere, seruare, to keepe a measure or meane.
Hoc modo, after this facion in this wyse.
Ad hunc modum, idem.
Meo modo, as I wyll my selfe.
Bono modo fiat, Leat it bee dooen after an honest sorte.
Multis modis, id est vehementer, greatly, earnestly.
Extra modum, beyonde all measure.
In modum pilæ, after the facion of a balle.
Pacis modo, as it were in the tyme of peace.
In modum amici, lyke a freende.
Nisi tibi aliquem vitæ modum constitueris, If you take not some certayne maner or trade of lyuyng.
Nullus mentiendi modus est, They dooe nothyng but lye.
Lupis natura maiorem modum dedit, Nature hath made woulues bygger or greatter.
Non facere modum lugendi, neuer to ceasse or make an ende of weepynge and wailynge.
Nullo modo, without measure or ende.
Statuere modum inimicitiarum, to hate with measure.
Statuere modum imperii diuturnitati, To prefyxe a tyme howe longe the Authoritee of an office or gouernaunce shal continue, and whan it shall ende.
Mœchisso, aui, are, to commit auoutrie, to play the lecheour.
Mœchor, âris, âri, to committe auoutrie.
Mœchus, chi, m. g. an auoutrer, a lecheour.
Mœmagas, a towne of Fraunce called Nemours.
Mœnia, nium, n. ge. plur. walles of a towne or castell.
Cingere mœnibus, to walle aboute.
Circúndatus mœnibus, walled aboute.
Mœniana, idem quod Meniana.
Mœnis, a ryuer in Germanie that renneth into Rhene.
Mœnitus, a, um, walled about.
Mœrens, entis, sadde, lamentyng, mournyng.
Vultus mœrens, a sadde and heauye countenaunce.
Mœreo, mœstus sum, & olim mœrui, êre, to be sorowfull and sadde, to be heauy in hert, to lament, to mourne.
Mœreo casum huiusmodi, I am sorowfully that it should so come to passe.
Filij mortem mœrere, to lament the deathe of his soonne, to be sorowfull for the deathe of his soonne.
Mœri, rorum, idem quod Muri.
Mœris, a sorcerer.
Mœro, aui, are, to make one sadde and heauy, an olde woorde.
Mœror, ôris, m. g. sorow and heuinesse of hert, sadnesse.
Iacet in mœrore meus frater, my brother is in great sorowe and heauinesse of herte, or he is all a morte.
Mœsia, a prouince in Athens, nygh to Pontus.
Mœste, sorowfully, sadly, heauyly.
Mœstuer, heauyly, sorowfully.
Mœstitia, æ, f. g. idem quod Mœror.
Flectere os in mœstitiam, to make semblance of sorow or sadnesse.
Inferre mœstitiam, to make heuy and sadde.
Incessit mœstitia animos, They felle into a great sadnesse or dumpe.
Tanta in mœstitia fui, I was so heauy, sadde, or sorowfull.
Mœstitûdo, tûdinis, f. g. idem quod Mœstitia.
Mœsto, aui, are, & Mœstifico, aui, are, to make sorowfull.
Mœstus, a, um, sory or sorowfull, sadde, heauy full of lamentyng and mournyng.
Mœstæ aræ, sacrifices to the infernall goddes.
Timor mœstus, feare, makynge men heauy and sorowfull.
Moga, a countrey in Asia, called nowe Cæsaria.
Moguntia, a noble citee in Germany, called Mense.
Mola, æ, f. g. a mylle. It is also a great piece of fleshe without shape, growen in a woman, whiche causeth them sometyme to thynke that they be with chylde. It is also a cake made of meale and salte.
Molæ trusatiles, or versatiles, hande mylles.
Molæ asinariæ, mylles tourned with asses.
Molæ operam dare, to geat his lyuynge by tournyng the mylle.
Molâris, ris, m. g. the cheeke toothe, also a piece of a broken mylstone.
Molâris, re, & Molárius, a, um, pertaynynge to a mylle, or wherof a mylle is made.
Molarius equus, an horse whiche dryueth about a malte mylle.
Molendinarius, a, um, idem quod Molaris, re,
Molendinárius, ij, a myller.
Moles, lis, f. g. a thyng that is verye great and weyghtie, greatnesse, a great ryse, heape, or dam made in a riuer, or in the sea to stoppe the water. sometyme the mouynge of any great thyng. sometyme it is taken for difficultee.
Tarda mole se ferre homines crassi & magni dicuntur, to go a softe pace.
Molibus ferarum mirabilis, meruaylous for the huge great wylde beastes that be therin.
Tantæ molis erat, so harde or great a thynge it was.

it was.

Iniuriæ molē sustinere, to abyde and susteyn the great iniurie or wronge, that one doth to hym.

Molestē, greuously, peynfully.

Molestè ferre, to take greuously, to be ylle content, to be displeased.

Molestia, æ, f. g. grefe, peyne, trouble, disquietyng.

Sine molestia, without any trowble or busynesse.

Molestiam addere, to put to more peyne and grefe.

Molestiam exhibere, aspergere alicui, and Molestia afficere aliquem, to trouble, to disquiete, to put to peyne.

Ne nauseæ molestiam suscipias æger, Leste you beyng sycke, shuld trouble your stomache, and cause your selfe to vomite.

Molesto, aui, are, to greue, to offend, to doo displeasure to one, to trouble, to put to peyne.

Molestus, a, um, that whiche greueth, offendeth, or discontenteth, greuous, peynefull, troublous, that vexeth or disquieteth, sometyme for Difficilis, harde, difficulte.

Molesta tunica, a garment, whiche was mixte with some matter, that gathereth fyre, put on some persons, whiche should suffer deathe.

Vbi molestum non erit, whan it shall bee no disease to you.

Multum molestus ei fuero, I wyll vexe euery peyne in his herte.

Vbi molestus mihi est, whan he began to bee somewhat busy with me, or whan he disquieted or vexed me, or would not suffer me to bee in reste.

Nisi fortè molesti interuenimus, If our comyng doo not trouble or disease you.

Molettina, næ, fœ. gener. a morter or querne, wherein any thynge maye bee grounde with hande. It was in olde tyme vsed for a bakehouse. It may bee nowe taken for a mylle.

Molilagi, they whiche haue an yll pronounciation.

Molile, lis, neu. gen. an instrumente that was sette on the shoulder of a man, horse, or asse, to drawe the mylle.

Molimen, liminis, n. g. the force or endeuoure in dooyng a thynge.

Molimentum, i, n. g. idem.

Molior, iris, iri, to moue, to remoue, to force and streigne hym selfe to dooe a thyng, to deuyse or inuente, to goe aboute to dooe a thyng, to make or worke, to bee taried or let.

Moliri classem, to prepare a naule.

Moliri iter, to goe a iourney.

Moliri habenas, to rule.

Moliri insidias, to laie snares, to laye in a wayte.

Moliri arcem, to buylde a fortresse.

Moliri bellum, to make warre.

Dum moliuntur, dum conuntur, annus est, Whyles they sette forwarde, and whyle they attyre, pyghe, and trymme theym selues, it is a whole yeere.

Minoribus aratris moliuntur, they woorke or labour with smaller plowes.

Bipennem moliri in vites, to cut the vines.

Moliri fugam, to seeke a meane to flee.

Fulmina moliri, to lyghten, to make or cause lyghtnyng, actiuely.

Locum moliri, to prepare the place.

Opera moliri, to labour, to woorke.

Viam moliri, to seeke out the waye with great peyne.

Moliri corruptelam iudicij, to go about or endeuour to corrupte the iudges.

Moliri terram, to labour the earthe.

Moliri in aliquem locum, to endeuour to go or come to a place.

Moliri iacula, to hurle dartes.

Moliri moram, to tary.

Molitio, ônis, fœ. g. endeuour or goeyng about a thynge.

Agrorum molitio, the labouryng of the earth.

Molitor, ôris, m. g. a myllar.

Molitor, oris, mas. gen. he that endeuoureth or goeth about a thyng, he that enforceth or strengneth hym selfe to doe a thyng. also a worker, a maker, an authour.

Molitrix, icis, the feminine.

Molitrix tricis, the feminine of Molitor, a woman myller.

Molitura, æ, f. g. grynding.

Mollesco, scere, to ware softe, to bee pacified from wrathe, to be throughly softe.

Molestra, æ, f. g. a thepes fell.

Mollicina, æ, f. g. a fine clothe or sylke.

Mollicellus, a, um, or Molliculus, tender, delycate, wanton, womanlyke, somewhat softe.

Molliceps, a bird, no bigger then a thrushe, but that he hath a head verye big for the proporcion of his bodie. some thinke he is called a thynke, a lyon murder.

Mollifico, to make softe or tender.

Mollimentum, ti, n. g. a swageyng or easyng.

Mollio, lui, ire, to make soft or tender, to pacifie or appease, to make wanton, nyce or delicate.

Animos mollire, to make the myndes of men gentill and quiete. also to effeminate, to make tender and delicate.

Mollire impetum, To represse the vehemency or rage of a thyng or persone.

Mare mollire, To make the sea calme or quiete.

Mollire hominem, To pacifie, to appease, to tourne ones mynde, and induce hym to doo that he is desyred.

Mollipes, lipedis, that hath a softe foote.

Mollis, le, softe, tender, temprate, sometyme pleasaunt, easy to be pleased, ryght.

Molle ingenium, a wyt which lyghtely taketh

Mol

Mollis homo, a man effeminate or womanly, not hardy or constant of wytte, inuolued in wanton pleasures and sensuall appetite.
Animus mollis, in the good parte, a softe and gentill mynde easy to be pleased.
Castaneæ molles, eyppe chestens.
Collis mollis, an hyll nothyng stiepe, easy to go vp and downe on.
Hyems mollis, a mylde and gentyll wynter, nothyng rough or sharpe.
Mollissimus odor, a verye pleasaunt sauour, nothyng stronge or ranke.
Versus molles, verses of loue, wanton and amorous verses.
Vinum molle, a pleasaunt wyne that is not eyger and sharpe in drynkyng.
Molles sententiæ, fauorable sentences without seueritee.
Molles amplexus, amorouse embracynges.
Mollis lex, a gentyll lawe nothyng rigorous.
Mollis cultus, delicate and nyce apparayle.
Mollis oratio, gentyll and pleasant woordes.
Mollities, ei, & Mollitia, æ, f. g. softnesse, tenderneesse, delicateneesse, womanlyneesse.
Mollities maris, the caulmeneesse and quietnesse of the sea.
Enciunda hæc mollicies animi, This tenderneesse or nyceneesse of hearte muste bee putte awaye.
Molliter, gentyly, with good wyll, easyly, delycately, patiently, softely, womannely, nycely.
Molliter se curare, to lyue delycately, to cherysshe ones selfe nycely.
Molliter sustine nunc me, Softe man, be not to sharpe or rigorous with me.
Ferre molliter, to take patiently.
Mollitudo, dinis, f. g. softneesse and gentylneesse. idem quod Mollities.
Mollitus, a, um, made softe, tender, or delicate.
Mollusca, æ, fœm. ge. a nutte with a softe shale, a eylberde.
Molluscum, i, n. gen. the wenne or bunche of the tree called Acer.
Molorchus, a shepeherde in the woodde Nemea, whiche receyued Hercules whan he cam thyther to kyll the lyon.
Molossia, a parte of Epire.
Molossus, a, um, of Molossia.
Molus, a mans name in Homere.
Molo, lui, molere, to grynde.
Ni purges & molas non comedes, Noe labour no profite: gape tyll thou be fedde, and thou shalt famish for hunger.
Moloch, was an ydoll of the Immonites, signifying in hebrue a gouernour or counsailour. It was also called Molchom, somtime Milchom.
Moloche, the great malowe or holyhoche: some call it beyonde sea rose.
Molochinus, ni, m. g. a colour lyke to the floures of malowes, somewhat purple.
Molochinarius, rii, masc. gene. he that dyeth the said colour.
Molorthus, i, m. gen. a plummule, suche as masons and carpenters doo occupie in squaryng of stone and tymber.
Molossa gens, people in the part of Greece, called Epirus, they were also called Molossi.
Molossus, a mastiue dogge. It is also a foote in meter.
Molothros, a kynde of white vines.
Molucrum, cri, n. ge. a square piece of tymber, whereon the paynyms dyd sacrifyce. It is also the trendyll of a myll. Also the cwellyng of a womans bealy, whiche doeth happe as well to maydens as to wyues.
Moluris, a locuste, whiche destroieth corne, the Germaines call it a Tournwibell.
Moly, molyos, n. ge. an herbe of all other most prayised of Homere, whiche thinketh it to haue that name of the goddesse it is saide to be inuented of Mercurie, & to haue great vertu against witchecrafte: loke for the description in Dioscoride. li. 3. cap. 52. and in the commentaries of Barbarus, and Vergilius on the same place.
Molybdena, æ, fœ. g. a veyne of leade or syluer. It is also one of the kyndes of the herbe called Persicaria.
Molybditis, tis, f. g. the spume or fome of leade.
Momar, a foole, in the Sicilian tonge.
Momen, inis, n. g. idem quod momentum.
Momentaneus, a, um, that which dureth but for a whyle, or shortely altereth.
Momentarius, a, um, that whiche is doone in a litteli space.
Momentosus, a, um, that is of some weyghte or value.
Momentum, i, neu. gen. the least part of tyme, whiche can not be assigned, a moment. It is also a portion more or lesse of any thyng or matter. also the estimacion or value of a thyng. also a weyght or poyse.
Nullius est momenti, It is of no weyght or value. also it is of no strength or vertue.
Pari momento sors, it is one chaunce of lyke value or effecte.
Momento, aduerbially, in a moment, quickly, incontinent.
Momento temporis, or horæ, quyckely, at one tyme or houre.
Ne minimi momenti esse ad. &c. to bee of none effecte, vertue, or force, to helpe nothyng to a thyng.
Paulo momento, easyly, with the least thyng in the worlde.
Afferre momentum, to helpe or profyte to a thynge.
Permagni momenti est, It is of great value, force, or strength, or it helpeth muche.
Perleui momento fortunæ, with the leaste chaunge of fortune that can be.
Nullum habet momentum, It healpeth or serueth nothyng.

Momus, mi, m. g. a god of reprehencion And of him all curious reprehenders bee called Momi.
Momo satisfacere, to contente hym, whom almoste no man can please.
Momo iudice decertare, to contende afore a rigorous and extreme iudge, or hym that will fynde a faute quickely.

Mona, called of the grekes Mõna, is an ple nygh to Britanny, puissaunt of people in the tyme of Cornelius Tacitus, where they that fled from the Romayns were succoured, I suppose it to bee the Ile nowe called Man, and not Anglesey, for as muche as that is ioygned to Britayne. There is also an other Ile of that name in the ryuer of Rhene, nigh to Frysclande, and not onely nyghe to Britayne.

Monarda, and also Monarina, the ple of Man, by the east parte of Irelande.

Monachris, a mountayne in Arcadia.

Mónachus, i, m. ge. a solitarie persone. all be it that it is vsed for a monke.

Monæsis, a kyng of Parthia.

Monarcha, æ, m. ge. a prince that ruleth alone without peere or companion.

Monárchia, æ, fœm. gen. the rule of one, a monarchy.

Monas, mónadis, f. g. the numbre of one, vnitee.

Monastérium, ri, n. g. a place solitarie.

Monaulos, a pype, a recorder.

Monédula, æ, fœm. ge. a bryde called a choughe or cadesse.

Moneo, üi, ẽre, to warne, to put in remẽbrance, to put in mynde, to aduertise, to counsayle, to bydde one to dyner or supper.

Monére, and Admonere, is to tell a man his faute, with a certayne correction or chidyng.
Nisi ipsa res moneat, Excepte the thyng selfe byd byd me or geue me occasion.
Habeo pro illa re illum quod moneam probe, I knowe what to tell hym in his eare for that well ynough: Or I haue to put hym in mynde for that thyng well ynough.

Monéta, æ, f. g. monete, also the name of Juno.
Proferre aliquid ex nostra moneta, to inuent somwhat of our owne wit, to bryng out somwhat of our owne deuise and inuention.

Monetális, le, pertaynyng to monete.

Monetárius, ri, mas. gene. a maker of moneye, a coyner.

Monile, lis, n. ge. a colar or bee that women vse to weare about their neckes, an ouche. It is also a poitrell of an horse.

Monimentum, i, n. g. a signe, a token, a tombe. lyke more in Monumentum.

Monitio, ónis, f. g. a warnyng, a chydyng, a rebukyng, an aduertisyng.

Mónitor, óris, m. ge. he that warneth a man or putteth hym in remembrance, a prompter, an aduertiser, a monysher. He that prompteth players in an enterlude or comedie.

Monitórius, a, um, that whiche dooeth warne or exhorte.

Mónitum, i, neu. ge. a monicion, a warnyng, an aduertisement, a checke, a rebuke, a precepte, a lesson, a counsayle.

Mónitus, us, m. g. idem quod monitio.

Mónitus, a, um, monished, warned, aduertised.

Monna, lyke Mona.

Monobeli, they which haue a long thynge lyke to spittes. also they that bee verye nyghe in stature, & aboue other. Lampridius in vita Alex.

Monoceros, ôtis, m. g. an vnycorne.

Monochordium, dij, neu. g. an instrument hauyng many strynges of one soune, sauyng that with small pieces of clothe, the sownes bee distincte, as Claycordes bee, and for that reason, some thinke it may be vsed for the claricordes.

Monochromateus, a, um, belongyng to poyntratures of one colour.

Monochromatos, a poyntrasture of one colour.

Monóculus, li, m. g. a man hauyng but one eie.

Monódia, æ, f. gen. a lamentable or mournyng song, suche as is songe in funerals.

Monoclonos, the herbe Artemisia.

Monogenion, the pionie.

Monodos, the sonne of Pyrrha, who in stede of teeth had but one bone, lyke as hynge Pyrrhus had.

Monœcchus, an hauen of Liguria.

Monógamus, mi, ma. ge. he that neuer had but one wyfe.

Monogrammi, men leane and pale coloured.

Monogrammus, a pincture onely drawen with a lyne.

Monológium, gij, n. g. a lõg tale of one matter.

Monomachia, æ, f. ge. a battayle, wherin onely two men doo fyght.

Monómachus, chi, m. g. he that fyghteth alone without helpe of any other man.

Monomeri, people in the east part of the worlde, whiche haue but one legge, wherewith they go by leapes more swyftly than any beast.

Monophágia, æ, f. g. a meale of one only meate or dysshe.

Monophthalmus, idem quod monocidus.

Monopódium, ij, neu. gen. a table sette on one foote or trestyll.

Monopolium, lij, neut. gener. where one man engrosseth thynges, to haue all in his owne hande, that no man maie gayne but he onely. It may be also one countrete or market, that taketh awaye the gaynes from other countretes or marketes.

Monops, a beast in Mœonia, of the bignesse of a bull, whiche fleing from the hunters, casteth out a certaine fierie excremẽt, which if the hunters touch, it distroyeth theim.

Monoprôton, a woorde haupng but one case.

Monoscéli, men in Indie, whiche haue but one legge, so great, that therwith they couer them selfe from the sunne.

Mo-

Monoſtylon, li, n. g. where as is but one pyllar.
Monóuropos, pi, maſ. gene. ſolitarie, of one faſhion alwaies.
Monoxylon, li, n. gen. a bote made of one piece of timber.
Mons, ontis, m. gen. a mountayne or hyll. alſo an heape of thynges, or any other thynge in the fourme of an hylle.
Præruptus aquæ mons, a gret waue of water.
Mons frumenti, a great rike or heape of corn.
Montes aureos policeri, prouerbially ſpoken of them that make large promiſes.
Mons ferratus, a countrete in Italy.
Monſtrábilis, le, that maie be ſhewed.
Monſtrátio, ônis, f. g. a ſhewyng or declaryng
Monſtrátor, óris, m. g. one that ſheweth, declareth, telleth, or teacheth.
Monſtrátus, us, maſc. gene. a demonſtration or declaring.
Monſtrificé, monſtrouſely, ſtraungely.
Monſtrificus, and monſtrifer, a, um, monſtrous, that hath ſome figure contrary to nature.
Monſtro, aui, are, to ſhewe, to declare, to telle, to teache, to proue.
Monſtroſé, monſtrouſely, ſtraungely, contrary to nature.
Monſtróſus, a, um, monſtrous.
Monſtrum, tri, n. ge. a monſter, that whiche exceedeth or lacketh in naturall fourme or order. alſo any thyng that is dooen agaynſt the comune courſe of nature, in what kynde of thing ſoeuer it be, a token or ſhewyng, any thynge that in ſignifiyng an other thyng, doeth ſhewe it. ſometyme for monſtratio.
Monſtrum hominis, non dicturus? thou myſchapen knaue, wylt thou not ſpeake & tell me?
Monſtra deum refero, I make relatiõ of thoſe thinges to you, that ỹ goddis haue ſhewed me.
Monſtra narrare, to ſhewe verie ſtrange thynges contrary to nature.
Montánus, the name of a poete.
Montapium, n. g. idem quod horioſélinum.
Montánus, a, um, of a mountayne.
Montana nunc ſunt omnia, It is hyllie or full of hylles nowe in euery place.
Monticola, æ, com. gene. he that inhabiteth or dwelleth vpon hylles.
Monticulus, li, m. g. a littell hyll.
Montifringilla, a birde named a bramling.
Montigena, borne on an hille.
Montiuagus, a, um, wandryng by hylles.
Montóſus, a, um, full of hylles, hylye.
Monumentum, i, n. ge. a remembrance of ſome notable acte, as ſepulchres, ymages, pylleres, great ſtones, inſcripcions, bookes, & other lyke: wherby any thynge excellent concernyng great wyttes, cunnyng, enterpriſe in armes, puiſſaunce, or richeſſe is remembred, a memoriall.
Monumenta, writynges, hiſtories, tokens, cognyſances, armes, and ſuche lyke.
Monycha, æ, the name of ſaincte Auguſtines mother.
Mónychus, a gygant, one of the Centaures.
Monyma, the wyfe of kyng Mithrydate, whiche after that hir huſbande was vanquyſhed, kylled hir ſelfe.
Monymus, a mans name.
Mopſopia, the countrete of Athens.
Mopſus, the name of a poete. it is alſo a sheepes herdes name.
Mora, æ, fœ. g. tarieng, leyſure, delaie, prolongyng, ſlackneſſe, ſlowneſſe. alſo a ſtaye that ſurgions vſe in ſplyntyng of ſore legges.
Moram creare, to prolong the tyme, to delay.
Afferre moram, and Moram facere, idem.
Per hunc nulla eſt mora, he letteth it not.
Nec mora vlla eſt quin eam vxorem ducam, There is no lette but that I maie wedde hir.
Faxo haud quicquam ſit moræ, I wyll ſee that there ſhall be no delaye or tarieng.
Inijcere moram & religionem iudicandi iudicibus, to make the iudges aferde or ſcrupulous, and to deferre iudgement.
Quid ergo erat moræ, & tergiuerſationis? Than what was the lette, and that he went not farther in the mattier?
Dimoue vocis moras, tell brefely.
Nullam moram dare, To geue no delaye or leyſure.
Vt non habeat aliquid moræ, That it haue no lette.
Nullam moram interponere, to make no delaie. Hoc mihi mora eſt, This letteth me or cauſeth me to tarie.
Ne in mora cum opus ſit ſies, Let vs not tarie on you, whan nede ſhall be.
Neque iſtic neque alibi vlla erit in me mora, Neither in this mattier, nor in any thyng elſe you ſhall haue any lette or tarieng in me, or you ſhall not tarie on me, or I am ready to doo as you wyll haue me.
Sine mora, without delaie or tarieng, quickly, incontinent.
Nulla eſt in nobis mora, we be ready, there is no lette in vs.
Ne in mora meis nuptiis egomet ſiem, That I my ſelfe prolonge not or hynder not myne owne mariage.
Moram afferre ſupplicij, To cauſe ones puniſchement to be deferred.
Moras quærere, to make delaies.
Morâlis, le, pertenyng to maners, morall.
Moramentum, ti, n. g. tarieng, abode, lette.
Morâtor, óris, m. g. a tarier, a letter, a hinderer.
Moratórius, a, um, belongyng to tarieng or delaie makynge.
Moratoria cautio, a determinaciõ of a iudge or magiſtrate, to paye at a date appointed, which one hath in reſpite.
Morâtus, a, um, that hath maners good or yll, that is well or yll mannered.
Ita nunc adoleſcentes morati ſunt, Of ſuche naughty conditions bee younge men nowe a dayes.

Morata oratio, an oration that representeth the maniers and facions of hym that speaketh.
Moratus bene, well manered.
Bene moratæ ciuitates, cities in good facion and order, and well gouerned.
Morâtus, a, um, of Moror, that hath taried or abyden.
Morbidus, a, um, syche or shabbed.
Morbificus, a, um, that whiche causeth disease or sykenesse.
Morbôsus, a, um, full of sickenesse, sickely.
Morbus, bi, m. g. sykenesse, a disease, a soze.
Morbo affici, to be syche.
In morbo esse, idem.
In morbum delabi, to fall sicke.
Morbo laborare, to be syche.
Ex morbo conualescere, assurgere, euadere, to be recouered from sykenesse.
Morbus arcuatus, the iaundise.
Morbus animæ, a vice inueterate and harde to be cured, as ambition, auarice. &c.
Morbus animi, trouble or veraction of spirite.
Morbus regius, the yelow iaundise.
Absumi morbo, to be soze vroken and woxne with sickenesse.
Afflictari morbo, to be greuously syche.
Confirmata valetudo a morbo, healthfully recouered after sykenesse.
Contrahere morbum, to geat a disease.
Crudescit morbus, The sickenesse cometh a newe or waxeth fresshe agayne.
Depellere morbum, to put awaie a disease.
Facere morbum, to breed or cause a disease or sykenesse.
Iactari morbo, to be longe sicke.
Inuasit morbus, the sykenesse tohe hym.
Leuari morbo, to be eased of his sickenesse.
Tentari morbo, to be attached with sickenesse or disease.
Mordácitas, âtis, f. ge. a vytyng.
Mordax, âcis, om. g. he that dooeth byte, be it with the teeth or with language.
Mordax folium, a leafe that biteth the tonge with the sharpenesse of his taste.
Mordeo, momordi, êre, to byte, to detracte or rebuke vehemently, to greue.
Mordere frænum, to gnawe on the vyydell, whiche is spoken, where it signifieth one to repugne against seruitude and bondage.
Mordere clanculum, to speake yll of one behynde his backe.
Iniquo dente mordere, to speake yll of one for malice without a cause.
Dente inuido mordeor, I am enuiously sclaundered.
Si hoc te mordet, yf this thynge greue you or byte you by the stomache.
Mordicibus, for Morcibus, with vytynges.
Mórdico, aui, are, to hurte with vytyng.
Mórdicus, an aduerbe, vytyng harde and fast, as a man holdeth a thynge fast with his teeth.
Mordicus tenere, to holde faste, to persist obstinately in an opinion or sentence.
Abripere nasum mordicus, To byte of ones nose.
Morêtum, ti, n. gen. a kynde of cakes made of mylke, wyne, cheese, and herbes.
Moria, æ, f.g. in greke, is in Englysh foolishnes or folye.
Moribundus, a, um, dying.
Morigerátio, ônis, f. g. obeying.
Morigeror, âris, ari, and sometyme Morigero, aui, are, to obey, to doo as a man biddeth, to conforme his maners to an other mans wyll.
Morigerus, and Morigerâtus, a, um, obedient.
Morini, people in Fraunce dwellynge about Turwane.
Mório, ônis, m. g. a foole.
Morion, ŋis, n. g. a certayne precious stone. also the male mandrake.
Morior, moriris, vel móreris, moriri, vel mori, to dye.
Moriar, a maner of an othe, signifiynge, I wouldne I shoulde dye, or I praie god I dye.
Fama beneficiorum moritur, Benefites bee forgotten or out of memorie.
Certum est moriri, quam. &c. I had lieuer dye, than. &c.
Moror, âris, ari, to tary, to abyde, to dwell continue or reste in a place, to leat or cause to tary, to estreme or passe on a thyng, sometyme Morari, passiuely, is to be madde.
Non moror, I wil not let, there is no let in me.
Dextram moratur manum, he stopped or helde his right hande.
Egoniet conuiuas moror, I my selfe cause my gestes to tary.
Quid moraris abeuntem? wherefore doost ye holde and kepe hym bache still? why doo ye cause hym to tary that wolde be gone?
Moros, ri, m. g. a foole.
Morosè, waywardely, frowardely.
Morósitas, âtis, fœm. gen. waywardnesse, frowardnesse.
Morósus, a, um, waywarde, frowarde, ouerthwarte, dyuers in conditions, whom no man can please, more curious than needeth.
Arbor morosa natu, a tree that doth scarcely proue or growe in a place, or that is dangerous to grow.
Morôtis, & Morosis, a madnesse or frensie, where a man loseth his memorie.
Morpheus, dissyllabum, the soonne or seruant of the god Somnus.
Morphna, idem quod Plangа.
Mors, órtis, fœ. g. deathe. Mortes, is sometyme read in the plurall numbre.
Absumi morte, to dye.
Accersere mortem, and cõciscere sibi mortẽ, To procure his owne deathe, to kyll hym selfe.

Afficere morte, and Afficere mortem, to put to deathe.
Morti dare aliquem, to put to death, to kyll.
Eripere aliquem morti, to saue ones lyfe.
Minari mortem, to threatten death, to threatten to kyll one.
Multari morte, to bee put to deathe.
Mortem obire, and occumbere morti, mortem, and morte, to dye.
Morti aliquem obijcere, to put one in daunger of his lyfe.
Morticátim, bytyng one an other.
Morsiúncula, æ, f. g. a litteil byte or snatche, a taunte or checke.
Morsus, us, m. g. a byte with the teeth, a taunte in speakyng, also greefe, payne, sorowe, sclander. also the fastnyng or buckling of harneys.
Vnci morsus, whan the anhor fastneth or taketh holde in the grounde.
Morsus, a, um, bitten.
Mortális, le, mortall, deadly, ꝑ is subiect to death.
Mortales leges, lawes that will not contynue but be for a tyme.
Mortalior, the comparatyue.
Mortális, lis, the substantyue, a man.
Mortalitas, átis, f. g. mortalitee: sometyme it is taken for mortall men.
Mortárium, ij, n. g. a morter, wherein thynges are brased or grounden. It is also the place where lyme and sande be mengled togyther, to make morter.
Morticini, coynes whiche bee on mens feete.
Morticinus, a, um, dead, or of that whiche is dead, corrupt, carrayne.
Morticina caro, murrayne flesshe, whiche dyeth by it selfe, carrayne.
Mórtifer, a, um, whiche causeth any thynge to dye, deadly.
Mortiferum bellum, deadly warre.
Mormális, le, pertenyng to dead men.
Mórtuus, a, um, dead, without courage or spirite.
Mortuum mare, a great mere in Syria, wherein no heauy thynges may synke.
Mortuo verba facere, to speake to a dead mã, prouerbially signifiyng to speake in vaine.
Moruetrum, a citee in Spayne, where Sagunum in olde tyme dyd stande.
Morula, læ, f. g. a little tariyng.
Morum, ri, n. g. a mulberry or blacke berie.
Morus, i, fœ. g. a mulberry tree, and a bremble that beareth blacberies.
Morus Aegyptia, called also Sicomorus.
Morus vaticana, the bramble or blache berie tree.
Mos, moris, m. g. a manier, a condition, custome, a facion, a guise.
Morem gerere, to obeie.
Moris antiqui homo, an honeste man of the olde facion.
Adumbrare morẽ alicuius, to folowe an other mans maniers.

Mos est, the facion is.
Non est moris, it is not the facion.
Omnium more, as all men be wont.
Ferarum more, lyke beastes.
Meo more, as I am wont, as my facion, maner and custome is to doo, as I will my selfe.
Nouo more aliquid facere, to doo a thynge as it was neuer doen before.
In morem fluminis, as it were a ryuer, lyke a ryuer.
Conformare mores, to facion his maniers.
More magis hæc scribo, quàm quo te monẽdum putem, I wryte this rather after myne accustomed facion & manier, than that I thynke it nedefull to admonyshe you.
In patriis est moribus, Our auncestours were wont.
Decedere de suo more, not to doo as he was wont, to leaue his olde wont.
Morem gerere animo, to doo his pleasure.
Moribus, accordyng to the maner and custom.
Mos bonus, a good facion.
Incessit mos, lyke Incessit.
Pacis morem imponere populis, to geue lawes of peace to the people.
Manet mos antiquus, the olde facion tarieth styll.
Perducere aliquid in morem, To bryng a thyng in custome or vse.
Morem antiquum referre, to bryng agayne the olde facion or maner.
Morem tenere, seruare, retinere, to kepe a facion, maner or custome.
Ad cœli mores, solij ingenia, according to the qualitee of the ayre & nature of the grounde.
Mos nunquàm illi fuit, it was neuer his facion he was neuer wont.
More hominum euenit, It hath happened after the commune course of the worlde.
Mosa fluuius, a ryuer whiche is called the Maze, and renneth betweene the duchie of Brabant, and the lande of Luke.
Mosca, a ryuer in Moscouia.
Moscatulæ, peares, which dw sauour like muske.
Moschata, Moschomyra, Moschelea, certayne confections or ointmentes in Aetius.
Moschea, æ, fœ. ge. a temple, wherin the people, whiche worshipped idolles, haue recourse to praie in, namely the temple of the Turkes and other Mahumetanes.
Moschenion, a certayne rose, that hath a stalke like a mallow.
Moscouia, a great countreie in the north part of the world, beyonde Polonia, which contepneth in length. 400. myles and aboue. The people therof bee called Moscouitæ, in englyshe Moscouites. They haue a great duke, who nameth hym self emperour of Russie. They bee christened, and doo obserue the rites of the Grekes. Their language is the tongue of Slauonie, whiche is also vsed in Boheme and Poole.

Moſcua, is the chiefe citee of that countrey, throughe the whiche the ſayde ryuer of Moſca doeth renne.

Moſchocaryon, called alſo nux vnguentaria, or myriſtica, a nutmigge.

Moſchum, chi, n. g. muſke.

Móſculus, a caulfe, alſo an herbe.

Moſcus, a region in Aſia, nyghe to the ryuer of Phaſis, deuyded into three partes. In the one doe dwell people called Colchi, in the ſeconde Hiberes, in the thyrde Armenij.

Moſes, ſeke Moyſes.

Moſillus, a diminutiue of Mos.

Moſinæcæ, or rather Moſinæſi, people in the northe parte of Aſia.

Mortabilis, le, alwaie mouyng.

Motacilla, læ, f. g. a byrde called a wagge tayle.

Motiuus, a, um, mouyng, not abydyng.

Moto, aui, are, to moue often.

Motor, ôris, m. g. he that moueth.

Motus, a, um, moued.

Motus, us, m. g. mouyng. ſometyme a commotion. ſometyme a motion or cauſe.

Vano motu iactans brachia, ſwyngyng his armes fondely.

Feroci motu quatiens caput, ſhakyng his head fiercely.

Motus animi, id eſt perturbatio.

Afferre motum reipublicæ, To trouble the commune weale.

Audiſti conſilij mei motus, ye haue herd the cauſes of my counſayle and purpoſe.

Moueo, moui, ere, to moue, to ſtirre, to remoue, to put awaie, to departe from a place, to entice, to allure, to prouoke. alſo to change or alter.

Mouere calculos in vtráque parte, To make difficultie in the one part or the other, to moue doubtes on bothe partes.

Mouere animum, to ſtirre or allure the mynd.

Mouere caſtra, to remoue the campe.

Mouere tragœdias, to make a great ſturre or buſyneſſe.

Mouere camerinam, To ſtyre thynges whiche ſhall bee to his owne diſpleaſure that begynneth it.

Mouere hæredes, to put the heyres out of poſſeſſion.

Mouere nuptias, to trouble the weddyng.

Mouere ſtomachum, to cauſe one to bee verie angrye, alſo to prouoke to vomite.

Ego iſtæc moueo, I care muche therfore, or do paſſe muche therupon, ſpoken in mockage.

Mouere aliquem à ſententia, To make one chaunge his opinion.

Mouere ſenatu, vel de ſenatu, to put one out of the ſenate, or to deprriue hym of that authoritee.

Mouere aluum, or ventrem, to make one ſolubie or diſpoſed to the ſtoole. Likewiſe Mouere vrinam, to make to pyſſe.

Mouere te ocyus, Beſtyre the apace or quickly.

Poſtquàm Canuſio mouerat, After he remoued from Canuſium.

Ego me de Cumano moui, I remoued or departed from Cumanum.

Moue abs te moram, id eſt feſtina.

Mouere bellum, or arma, to reyſe vp men to warre.

Dolore mouere, to ake, to put to peyne.

Fletum mouere, to make to wepe.

Indignationem mouere, to make one greatly diſpleaſed or verie angry.

Loco mouentur oſſa, bones bee put out of ioynte. Mouere ſe ad motum fortunæ, To chaunge as fortune chaungeth.

Mouere mentionem de re aliqua, to ſpeake or make mencion of a thyng.

Riſum mouere, to make to laughe.

Sudorem mouere, to make to ſweate.

Nuſquàm te veſtigio moueris, moue not a foote out of the place thou ſtandeſt in.

Mouere cerebrum, to trouble the witte.

Si vllam literam moueris, If ye put awaye onely one letter.

Mouere expectationem, to make deſyrous.

Mouere aliquem poſſeſsione, to put one out of poſſeſſion.

Mouere ſuſpitionem alicui, to make one ſuſpecte.

Motiúncula, æ, f. g. a litteli motion or ſtirryng.

Mox, anone, ſoonethwith, by and by, ſhortly after, after a whyle. ſometyme for Deinde, as Proxime laudatur Syriacum, mox Gallicum. Quam mox, howe ſoone.

Moyſes, or Moſes, ſignifieth drawen vp or taken vp from the water. It was the name of a noble prophete, ſoonne of Amram, of the tribe of Leui, who brought the Iſraelites from the bondage of Pharao kynge of Aegypte, with moche wonderfull myracles, and gouerned them with exceedyng wyſedome & patience. He dyed after the incarnation of Chriſte. 1462 yere, beyng of the age of. 120. yeres, his eyen beyng neuer dymmed, nor his teethe loufe.

M ANTE Y.

MVceo, múcui, mucêre, to be filthy or beſmued, palled, or deade, as wyne whiche hath loſt his verdure.

Mucéſco, ſcere, idem quod Muceo.

Múcidus, a, um, filthy, vinewed, palled. Panis mucidus, vineued breed.

Mucor, ôris, m. g. filthe, vinewe, ſuche as is on breade or meate longe kept, hoyneſſe.

Mucro, ônis, m. ge. the poynete of a ſwoorde or knyfe. ſometyme it is taken for a ſwoorde. alſo the ſharpe toppe of herbe leaues, or any other thynge.

Retundere mucronem, To make the poynete blunte. In mucronem deſinere, to haue a ſharpe poynt or toppe.

Mucro

Mucro defenſionis, the chiefe poynte of ones defence, that toucheth the matter nereſt.

Mucronatus, a, um, poynted.

Mucronata folia, leaues that haue ſharpe toppes.

Mucrónor, áris, to be ſharpe poincted.

Mucus, i, m. ge. the ſpithe that cometh out of the noſe, ſnuyll.

Mucóſus, a, um, ſnattye, or ſnyuelled, fulle of ſnuyll

Mugil, ilis, vel Mugilis, lis, m. g. a ſea fyſche, of all ſhaled fyſches moſte ſwyft, of colour white, they bee of the Grekes called Ceſtrei & Ploræ. They commonly be named Cephali. Of theim bee ſundry kyndes, as it ſhall appere in their places. It is an vnſaciable fyſche, & hath a great bealy, and therfore except he bee empty, he abydeth ſtyll in a place, and beyng akrayde, he hydeth his head, weenyng that all his bodye is alſo hydde. They are ſo deſyrous eche of the kyndes of the other, that whan fyſchers haue taken the males, and tyed theym by a lyne, and leat theim down into the ſea: all the females, whan they perceyue the males, doo gather together, and comyng to theym are taken in the nettes. Likewyſe doth the male kynde, and they folowe the female kynde: about Narbon in France, where it is taken, they call it a Muge.

Muginor, aris, ari, to murmure, to triſle and go ſlackely about a thyng.

Mugio, giui, ire, to bellowe lyke a cowe or bull. ſometyme it ſignifieth the noyſe of thunder or great wyndes.

Solum mugit, the grounde groneth.

Mugitus, us, m. ge. bellowyng of kyne or other noyſe lyke.

Mugitus nemorum, the roryng and noyſe that woodes make with the blaſteryng and blowyng of the wynde.

Mugonia, a gate at Rome, wherby cattell dyd enter into the citee.

Mula, æ, f. ge. a mule gotten of an horſe ſtalion, and a female aſſe, as Columella writeth. In Syria (as Ariſtotle writeth) mules do both geat and byng fourth foles. There hath ben of them founden at Athens, which were 80 yeres olde, as that authour writeth. It is alſo the name of an herbe lyke to Scolopendrium, ſo tranſlated by Theodorus Gaza, where the Greke worde is Hemionos, whiche Dioſc. calleth Aſplenon, ſee there.

Mularis, re, pertaynynge to a mule.

Mulcedo, inis, f. g. a gentill or ſweete handlyng or intreatyng.

Mulceo, ſi, ére, to pacifie, to appeale, to mittigate, to ſwage, to make ſweete, to annoynt, to poliſhe, to pleaſe, to delite.

Mulcere fluctus, to make quiete the waues of the ſea.

Mulciber, ciberis, one of the names of Vulcan, called god of fyre. It is ſometyme taken for the fyre.

Mulcta, tæ, fœ. g. a penalty, a condemnation, a fine ceſſed. lyke Multa.

Mulctam dicere, To gene an iniunction, to ſet a peyne, to amerce, or condemne to paye a forfayte.

Mulctam irrogare, idem: lyke Multa.

Mulctam committere, to forfayte, to renne in the peyne, to incurre the peyne.

Mulctam remittere, to pardon, to releaſe or remitte the penalice.

Mulcto, aui, are, to punyſhe be the pourſe, to amerce. lyke Multo.

Mulctra, æ, f. ge. the mylkyng, the payle where into it is mylked. ſometyme the mylke ſelfe.

Mulctrále, lis, and Mylctrum, i, neu. g. a mylkyng payle.

Mulctus, us, m. g. mylkyng.

Mulgeo, ſi, or mulxi, gere, to mylke or ſtroke.

Mulgére hircos, ſpoken prouerbially of a thyng verye abſurd and contrary to reaſon.

Mulgo, aui, are, to publyſhe.

Mulicbria, brium, n gen. plu. naturall euacuations, which women haue, called theyr floures. It is alſo vſed for lecherye, vnclenlyneſſe.

Muliebris, liebre, pertaynyng to women, womanlyke, fearefull, timorous, vnconſtant, waueryng.

Muliebre folliculum, dicebant vuluam.

Muliebris animus, a fearefull, vnconſtant or waueryng mynde.

Muliebris ſententia, an vnconſtant opinion, that is quyckely chaunged.

Muliebris fides, ſlypper credence.

Muliebritas, tátis, f. ge. delicatenelle, tendernes.

Muliebriter, womanly, delycately, tenderly, effeminately.

Mulier, mulieris, fœ. ge. a woman, properly ſhe that is no virgin, and by tranſlation, a weake and effeminate perſone.

Mulier, is ſometyme vſed for a wyfe.

Mulier, pro ea vel illa dicitur.

Mul ércula, læ, f. g. a diminutiue of Mulier.

Mulierárius, a, um, that foloweth or doteth on women. alſo that whiche is dooen or prepared by women.

Mulierária manus, womans helpe, or rather a company of womanly or effeminate perſons.

Muliero, aui, are, to effeminate or make lyke a woman.

Mulieróſitas, átis, fœm. gen. the vice of louyng many women.

Mulieróſus, a, um, of or belongyng to women.

Mulieróſus, ſi, m. g. a great louer of women.

Mulio, ónis, m. ge. a dryuer of mules, a muletour. It is alſo a certayne kynde of gnattes.

Mulionius, a, um, that belongeth to a muletor.

Mulius, ii, m. ge. idem quod Mulio, after Calepine. But Acron in that place of Horace reſteth Mitinus.

Mullens, ei, m. ge. a kynde of flowes of purple colour, whiche the kynges of Alba ware, and afterwarde the noble men of Rome.

Mullulus, i, a diminutiue of Mullus.

Mullus, i, m. gen. a fysshe of a meane quantitee, haupnge two barbes or wartes on the nether lyppe, the colour towardes greene, with some pealowe lynes, whiche some haue thought to be called a mullette. In greke it is called Trigle. Among the auncient Romayns it was in suche estimacion, that in the tyme of Claudius the emperour, Iunius Celer, one that had been Consull, paied for one of the saide fysshes. viii. thousande Sestertios, whiche after the rate of this present tyme, is of our mony. lii. li. xiii. s. iiii. d. or after Constalles accompte. 40. pound sterlinge, with us the woorde is vsed for a barbyll, and sowt semeth by the descripcion to be.

Mulseus, a, um, sweete as hony.

Mulseus sapor, a sweete and pleasaunt taste.

Mulsum, i, n. g. wyne and hony sodden together, swete wyne, bastard or muscadell.

Mulsus, a, um, any thyng myxt with hony. also sweete, delectable.

Mulsa loqui, to speake fayre and pleasaunt woordes, to flatter one.

Mulsa mea, my sweetyng.

Multa, æ, f. g. a penaltee, a fine, a mercement or forfaite. loobe Mulcta.

Multam petere, to sewe one to haue hym paye the penaltee or forfaite.

Irrogare multam, to condemne one to paie the penaltee, forfaiture, or amercement.

Multatitius, a, um, pertaynyng to a forfaite or peyne assessed.

Multatus, a, um, condemned to pay the forfaite.

Multatio, ônis, f. g. a condemnyng to pay a certayn penaltee, a punysshyng by the purse.

Multangulus, a, um, that hath many corners.

Multesima pars, a parte representyng an infinite quantitee.

Multibarbus, a, um, he that hath muche heare on his bearde.

Multibibus, a, um, he that drynketh muche.

Multicauatus, a, um, full of holes.

Multicaulis, le, haupng many stalkes.

Multicanus, a, um, that is very holowe.

Multicolor, ôris, com. g. of dyuers colours.

Multifacio, fèci, facere, to make muche of, to esteme muche.

Multifariam, an aduerbe, many wayes, in many factions.

Multifarie, idem.

Multifarius, a, um, dyuers in maners and condicions.

Multifer, ra, rum, bearyng abundantly, or bearyng many thynges.

Multifidus, a, um, haupng many slittes, clifftes or crenisses, diuided in many partes, full of scotches.

Multiforàrilis, le, with many holes.

Multiforis, re, and Multiforus, a, um, that hath dyuers holes.

Multiformis, me, of many factions or figures.

Multiformiter, in diuers factions, diuersely.

Multigèneris, re, of dyuers kyndes.

Multigenus, a, um, idem.

Multiugis, ge, and Multiugus, a, um, diuers, manyfolde, of many sortes.

Multiuuges literæ, letters intreatyng of diuers matters.

Multiloquus, a, um, full of speeche, that hath many woordes.

Multimodus, a, um, of diuers sortes, factions, or maners.

Multinùmus, a, um, haupng muche money, or that wherwith one getteth muche wonne.

Multipartitus, a, um, beyng diuided into many partes.

Multipes, multipedis, and Multipeda, æ, f. g. haupng many feete.

Multiplex, licis, om. g. manyfold, diuers sortes.

Multiplex animus, a variable or chaungeable mynde.

Multiplicabilis, le, that may bee multiplied or augmented.

Multiplicatio, ônis, fœ. ge. multiplyng or augmentyng.

Multiplicàtus, a, um, multiplied, augmented.

Multipliciter, diuersely or manyfoldly.

Multiplico, aui, are, to multiplie or to make muche more, to augment.

Aes alienum multiplicare, to renne more and more in debte.

Multiplicare gloriam, to encrease or augment ones glory.

Multipotens, entis, om. g. of great power, that can doo muche.

Multiscius, a, um, knowyng muche.

Multisonôrus, a, um, that maketh a great noise or sowne.

Multisonus, a, um, haupng a great sound, or many soundes.

Multùla, ôrum, neu. g. plu. garmentes made of fine threedes or sylke, whiche propyrly women did vse.

Multiuagus, a, um, wandryng muche abrode.

Multitùdo, inis, fœm. gen. a multitude or great numbre.

Multiuidus, he that seeth muche.

Multiuolus, a, um, that willeth or desyreth many and dyuers thynges.

Multo, & Mulcto, aui, are, to punysshe, to punysshe by the purse, to condemne, to put fro, to intreate yll, to disorder, to vexe, to put to peyne.

Exilio aliquem multare, to condemne to banysshement.

Morte multare, to punysshe by deathe, to put to death.

Multare verberibus, to beate.

Multari virgis, to be whipped.

Multari patria, to exile, to bannysshe.

Multare bonis omnibus, to putte one beside all all that euer he hath, to condemne hym to lese all his goodes.

Male multabo ipsum, I will punysshe hym sharpely.

Multata consilia à fortuna, whan fortune turneth ones purposes to his great displeasure.

Multare matrimonio, to deuorce or dissolue matrimonie.

Multo, ioyned to aduerbes & prepositions doeth augment the vertue or vehemencie of theym.

Multo aliter, and Multo secus, far otherwyse.

Multo ante, longe before.

Multo ante ponere, to preferre a great deale.

Multo præstat, it is muche better.

Multo minoris vendidit, He solde it for muche the lesse.

Is quæstus nunc est multo vberrimus, by so doyng (as the worlde goeth nowe) a man maie gett a meruaylous good liuyng, or now a daies, that is the veraie chiefe and principall waie to gett monete enough.

Multópere, for Magnópere.

Multum, an aduerbe, signifieth muche, sometyme a longe season.

Non ita multum, not so greatly not so longe tyme.

Multum fleuit, he dyd wepe bitterly, a great whyle.

Multum tacuit, he helde his peace a great whyle.

Salue multum, God speede hertily, god geue you an hundred good morowes.

Sulpitio vtebare multum, you were veraie familiar with Sulpitius.

Multus, a, um, muche, many.

Multus in opere, oftentymes in busynesse, or veraie muche occupied.

Multus sermo ad multum diem, muche communication a great parte of the daie.

Multa nocte, late in the nyght.

Multo mane, in the morenyng betyme.

Multus in admiratione, greatly esteemed or sette by.

Multus in eo fuit, he spake muche of that matter, Or he was verie busy in that thyng.

Multa, for Multum, muche.

Multis modis, diuers waies, also greately, truelye.

Nomen tuum multum est, in his locis, ye be muche spoken of in these quarters.

De multa nocte profectus est, he departed forth late in the nyght.

Multis paruibus maiorem esse, to bee muche greatter.

Multi sudoris est, it is a veraie paynefull matter, One muste take great payne and trauaile in it.

Multissimus, is sometyme vsed for the superlatiue.

Multus, sometyme for Multiplex.

Minus multi, fewer persons.

Muluca, a ryuer of Mauritania.

Mulus, i, m. g. a mule, also a certayne spyce.

Muli mariani, clothes, wheron fardelles were trussed and borne by men.

Muli mariani a prouerbe referred vnto them, whiche bee obedient vnto euery comandement, bee it neuer so greuous. It may also be applied vnto them, which be inuolued in perpetual and intollerable labours and busynesse.

Muli mutuum scabunt, Mules doo gnaw one an other, A prouerbe, applyed to persones yll and defamed, whan one of them commendeth the other.

Munda, a citee of Spayne.

Mundánus, a, um, worldely, or of the worlde.

Múnditer, cleanly.

Mundities, ei, & Munditia, æ, f. g. cleanlynesse.

Mundifico, aui, are, to clense.

Mundo, aui, are, to wype, to make cleane.

Múndulus, a, um, to curyous in trymmynge it selfe.

Mundus, i, ma. ge. the worlde, a womans whole attyre or ornamentes.

Mundus, a, um, cleane, neate.

Munerális, le, pertaynyng to gyftes.

Munerárius, rii, m. g. he that at his owne charge maketh pastyme vnto the people, with men taught of purpose, to fyghte hande to hande vnto the vttérance.

Múnero, aui, are, to reward.

Múneror, áris, ári, idem.

Mungo, xi, gere, to make cleane, properly the nose.

Múnia, órum, n. g. plu. offices due to bee dooen of any state or condition of men by the lawe.

Munia regis subire, To take on him the charge and office of a kyng.

Belli pacisque munia, offices or charges, that men beare other in warre or peace.

Múniceps, nicipis, com. ge. a citisen or burgesse enioieyng the libertees of the towne. Amonge the Romains properly they that were receyued and made free of the citee.

Municipális, le, priuately or peculiarly belonging to one citee.

Municipale ius, the priuate law of euery particular citee.

Municipalia magisteria, ciuile offices in euery citee or towne.

Municipátim, towne by towne.

Municipium, ii, n. gen. euery citee or towne, hauyng the same libertees that the citee of Rome had. A citee or towne incorporate, hauyng their proper officers and lawes.

Munifex, nifícis, om. gene. that hath or dooeth take the charge or office, committed to hym to do, that is in office.

Munifice, largely, bountifully, liberally.

Munificéntia, æ, f. g. liberalitee in geuyng of rewardes, largenesse, bountee.

Munificus, a, um, liberall, bountefull, free of gift.

Muni-

Munificentior, more liberall. Munificentiſſimus, moſt liberall In the olde tyme Munifici, were taken for them, whiche conſented to that, whiche their frendes dyd or ſpake.

Munimen, inis, & munimentum, i, n. g. a fortification of a towne or caſtell.

Munio, iui, ire, to fortifie, to prepare, to repayre.

Munire á frigore, to arme hym, or make defence agaynſt the colde.

Munire viam, to make the waie of ſuche ſorte that no man may paſſe. ſometyme to make a waie, that one maie paſſe eaſily, alſo to make a cauſſey.

Aditum munire, to make a way to a thyng or perſone.

Hortum munire, to encloſe his gardeyn.

Munis, he that beareth the charges, whiche the people ſhoulde dooe.

Munitio, ônis, fœ. g. a fortreſſe or ſtronge holde for the warres.

Munito, aui, are, the frequentatiue of Munio.

Munitor, ôris, m. g. he that dooeth fortifie.

Munitus, a, um, made ſtronge to defende, fortified, fenced.

Munus, méneris, n. g. a gyft, a preſent, a charge, a dutie, or office, a gratuitee or benefite, a frendely pleaſure ſhewed to a man.

Munera, common plaies or gaye ſyghtes for the people to beholde, to reioyce them, prepared by officers of cities, as in Rome ſundry plaies, ſwoorde plaiers called Gladiatores, huntyng of wylde beaſtes. Alſo nowe in the cities of London, the watches and ſyghtes on Mydſommer nyght.

Munus vitæ, Cicero.

Omni munere vitæ, in all affayres, wherwith a man in his lyfe dooeth meddle.

Corrumpere aliquem muneribus, to corrupt with bybbes.

Tuum munus eſt, it is your parte or office.

Ad omne officij munus inſtruere, to inſtruct and teache what one ſhulde dooe in euery thyng, or what ones office or dutie is to dooe in all thynges.

Munus promiſsi conficere, To dooe that one hath promyſed.

Deferre munus, to apoint an office or charge to one.

Munus fungi, defungi, perfungi, explere, exequi, adminiſtrare, efficere, to dooe the office or dutie that one is charged with.

Munuſculum, i, n. ge. a lyttell gifte or preſent, a ſmall charge or office.

Munychia, órum, the ſolemnitees of Pallas.

Munychia, an hyll to warde Cherroneſus.

Munychyates, a citee in Arabia Petrea, where Mahumetes ſepulchre is, called nowe Medina Talnabi.

Muræna, æ, f. g. a lampraie.

Murænula, æ, fœ. gene. a ſmalle chayne, whiche women dooe weare.

Murális, le, pertaynyng to a walle or bulwarke.

Muralis corona, a garlande geuen unto hym, which firſt ſcaled the walles and entred, in the ſiege of a towne or citee.

Ictus muralis, a ſtroke that one hath from one that ſtandeth on the walles.

Muralis herba, an herbe called Perietoſe or Pelitoſe, idem quod Helxine.

Machinæ murales, ingins to ouerthrowe and beate downe walles.

Murátus, a, um, walled.

Murcea, æ, the goddeſſe of ſlouthe.

Múrcidus, a, um, without aduiſement, ſlouthfull, foolyſhe.

Murcidum, li, n. ge. the ſeede of that, whiche is called Lentiſcus.

Murcus, ci, m. ge. a ſlouthfull or ſluggyſhe perſone, which dooeth cutte of his thombe, becauſe he wyll not go to warre.

Murex, múricis, ma. gen. a ſhell fyſhe, of whom commeth the lycour, whiche maketh purple colour. ſometyme it ſignifieth the ſame colour. alſo an herbe, whiche groweth in a pytte, where no ſunne ſhyneth. Murex, is alſo the ſharpneſs of a ſtone or roche.

Murgentina vina, a certayne kynde of wines.

Murgino, aui, are, to tarye, to bee ſlouthfull.

Murgis, a boſome of the ſea in Spayn.

Murgitana regio, a countreie in the ſouth parties of Spayne.

Murgiſo, ônis, maſ. gen. an idell or ſlouthfull perſone.

Muria, æ, fœ. ge. a maner of ſauce, whiche they made in old tyme of the lycour of certayn fyſhes, and eſpecially of Tunye. Alſo water, wherin ſalte is ſodden, bryne.

Stilla muriæ, a droppe of bryne.

Muriáticus, a, um, beyng longe in bryne.

Muricátim, lyke the ſhelle of the fyſhe called Murex.

Muricátus, a, um, crooked lyke the ſhelle of the fyſhe Murex.

Muricati greſſus, id eſt formidoloſi, pauendi, where one goeth fearefully, as if he went on caltrappes or thornes.

Múrices, cum, fœm ge. are caltrappes lyke the yron pyches ſo maigned, that beyng thrower, one ſtandeth alwaie vpryght, vſed in battayle for horſmen.

Muricida, a mouſe hyller, a ratte hyller. alſo an herbe, which the Germaines call woulf wort, but we may call it rather Moulbayne.

Muries, ei, a bryne made with ſalte ſodden in water. alſo a cake of ſalte, wherwith the virgins Veſtales dyd ſacrifice.

Murilegulus, li, m. g. he that gathereth the fyſhes called Murices.

Múrina, or Myrina, æ. fœ. g. a wyne mixte with ſpyces, lyke ypocras.

Murinus, a, um, belonging to a mouſe.

Murinus, a, um, of Múrina, hauyng a ſoote ſago)

not like to ypocras or wyne, made with spices.
Murmulonica scuta, targettes, wherwith men fought vpon walles.
Murmur, murmuris, n. ge. the noise of rennyng water, and therof euery other sphe nopse.
Murmurãdo, ônis, fœ. ge. a grutchyng or bzuslyng in the mynde with nopse, a murmuryng or mahyng a nopse sphe the water, a reppynynge in speahyng softely.
Murmurillum, i, n. g. a littell nopse or hushyng.
Murmurillo, aui, ase, to mutter or speake softe to ones selfe.
Murmuro, aui, are, to murmure or make nopse sphe to water, to mutter, to repine, to gainsay.
Intestina murmurant, id est crepant, the beasts crooleth.
Murmuror, aris, ari, the deponent, was vsed of olde writers for Murmuro.
Murrha, æ, fœm. g. a stone of dyuers colours, cleere as Chrystall, haupnge spottes pourple and white.
Murrheus, & Murrhinus, a, um, of that stone called Murrha, wherof pottes, tables, and other vesselles were made: there bee of them diuers sort from Armie.
Murrocli, a cittee of Pannonia.
Murranus, an auncient kynge of the Latines, after whom all his successours wer so called.
Murtia, one of the names of Venus.
Murtius, an hill at Rome called also Auentinus.
Murus, i, ma. gene. a walle, a bulwarke. And by translation, a defence or munition that sauceth a man from daunger.
Mus, muris, m. g. a mouse or ratte.
Mus araneus, a kynde of mpce called a shrew, whiche if it go ouer a beastes bache, he shall bee lame in the chyne, if it do byte any beast, it swelleth vp to the hert, and the beast dieth.
Mus vrbanus, a mouse of the cittee or towne.
Musa, æ, f. ge. a sweete songe.
Musæ, arum, Muses, whiche were maydens, whom poetes fepgned to bee the daughters of Jupiter and Memozie, and that they were ladies and gouernours of poetrie and Musike. They were in numbze nine, or after some but thre. Som call them geuers of eloquence, and doo name them goddesses. It is sometyme taken for poetrie or study of humanitee.
Musæ mansuetiores, studies moze gentyll or delectable.
A musis auersus, he that hath forsaken the studye of eloquence, or that is vnapt to lernynge or study.
Delectare se cum musis, to delyte hym selfe with study and learnyng.
Musæa, Musaica, & Musiua, bee warkes counnyngly pepncted, that in some places they seme to bee emboced out, in some place grauen, although it be all playne.
Musæum, ei, n. g. an house, wherinto men learned in all sciences vsed to repayze, and to dispute, and may bee well vsed for a college, or house of learned men. It is also an house dedicated to the Muses, suche one was fyrst made by the kynges of Egypte, called Ptolomei, in Alexandria.
Musæus, a, um, of the Muses.
Musæus, the name of thre auncient poetes, one in the tyme of Orpheus, whiche went with Jason to the wynnyng of the fleese of golde. An other of Thebes the sonne of Thamyra, before the battaple of Troie. The thyrd of Ephesus in the tyme of Eumenes and Attalus kynges of Pergamum.
Musca, æ, f. g. a flye.
Muscaria, æ, f. g. a bzusshe.
Muscarium, ii, neu. ge. a flappe to dryue away flyes. It is also the toppe of fenell, dyll, and other sphe herbes, wherin the seedes be.
Muscarius, a, um, pertepnyng to flyes.
Araneus muscarius, a spider that taketh flies.
Muscenton, ti, n. g. a certayn rose that springeth of a stalke with many smalle bzaunches, and hath leaues sphe to an olyue tree,
Muscerda, æ, f. g. mouse dunge.
Muschus, a beaste which beareth muske, a muske catte.
Muscinus, a, um, of a flye.
Muscio, ônis, f. g. a catte.
Muscor, âris, ari, to be couered with mosse.
Muscôsus, a, um, mossy, couered with mosse.
Muscipula, æ, f. ge. a trappe, wherewith myce or rattes bee taken.
Muscula, æ, f. g. a small flye.
Musculôsus, a, um, harde or stpffe with muscules or brawnes of harde flesche and spneweg compacte togeither.
Musculus, i, m. ge. a lyttell mouse. sometyme an engine of warre, whereby they are defended, whiche doo approche the walles of a place besieged, to fill the ditches. It is also a littel fysh, which guydeth the whale, that he dro not renne vpon rochis. also a certaine piece of harde flesh compacte with sinewes in the bodye, whiche dwe enclose the spirituall membres.
Muscus, i, m. g. mosse, which groweth in welles and other moyst places sometyme on trees, specially in colde countreies.
Muscus marinus, a mosse growing in the sea where corall doth springe.
Muscum demetet, he moweth before the medow be growen, he is to hastie.
Musea, orum, n. g. plu. lohe Musæa.
Musica, æ, or Musice, ces, fœ. g. musyke. It was vsed in olde tyme for studie of humanitee and liberall knowlage, and especiall poetrie.
Artem tractare musicam, to wryte comedies.
Música, ôrum, n. g. plu. musyke.
Musice, delectably, or in an harmony, also perfectly, that nothyng lacketh.
Musicus, a, um, pertepnyng to musike.
Musicum studium, the studye in mahynge of comedies.

Muſicus, i, m. g. a muſician.
Muſimon, ſimonis, m. g. a littell nagge, aſſe, or mople.
Muſmones, ſheepe with hearp woolle.
Muſſitabúndus, a, um, that ſpeaketh to hym ſelfe priuily, or mutterynge betwene his teeth.
Muſſitandus, a, um, to bee ſecretely conſydered and not ſpoken or vttered abrode.
Muſſito, aui, are, to ſpeake or talke alone, a frequentatiue of Muſſo, lyke there.
Muſſo, aui, are, to mutter betwene the teethe, as they dwe that dare not ſpeake for feare, to murmure, to reppne, to grounte, and complayne with ſofte noyſe, to talke ſoftely and ſecretely, to kepe ſilence. alſo to doubte.
Non decet muſſare bonos, Good men ſhulde not kepe ſilence: or it is not meete that honeſt men ſhould holde their peace.
Tace, muſſa, holde thy peace, kepe ſilence, not a worde but mum.
Muſſat dicere, he is in doubte whether it bee beſt to tell it or no.
Muſtace, ces, fœ. ge. a tree haupng leaues lyke a laurell, but greatter and weaker.
Muſtáceus, ĩ, m. g. Muſtáceum, ei, n. g. a cake or paſte made to comforte the ſtomake.
Muſtárius, a, um, belonging to muſt or new wine.
Muſtax, a kynd of laurell, with a great leafe.
Muſtéla, læ, fœ. g. a beaſte called a weſell. alſo a fyſh lyke to a lampzete, or as it ſeemeth by Pliſnie, a lampzete it ſelfe.
Muſtela, a mans name, whom Cicero fauoured muche.
Muſtelinus, a, um, of a weſyll.
Colore muſtelino eſt, he is tawnye lyke a weſell.
Muſteus, a, um, ſweete as muſte or newe wyne. alſo freſhe, newe.
Liber muſteus, a booke lately made, that is yet freſhe and newe.
Caſeus muſteus, ſofte cheſe.
Poma muſtea, apples ſwete lyke newe wyne.
Muſtulentus, a, um, idem quod Muſteus.
Muſtricola, a ſhoemakers laſte, wherby he ſhapeth a ſhoe, or an inſtrument made with two rules, betweene the whiche the ſhoe is putte, whyle the ſole is in ſowyng.
Muſtum, i, neu. gene. newe wyne, newe ale, or wurte, newe beere, or any thynge that is newe and freſhe.
Muſtus, a, um, newe, yong, late made, freſhe.
Mutábilis, le, chaungeable, mutable, vnconſtant.
Mutabilitas, átis, fœ. ge. chaungeableneſſe, alteryng, wauerynge, inconſtancie.
Mutátio, ónis, f. g. a chaunge. alſo an exchaunge.
Mutatio ſedis, chaungeyng of ones dwellyng place, banyſhement.
Mutátus, a, um, chaunged, altered.
Quantum mutatus ab illo Hectore? &c. howe lykē vnlyke that Hector? &c.
Mútticus, a, um, an adiectiue.
Mutica ſpica, an eare of corne without a beard.
Mutilátus, a, um, minyſhed in ſom thing, or where ſom thyng is cut of, maimed, made vnperfect.
Mutili, horned beaſtes of nature, lackynge hornes, as oxen, gotes. &c.
Mútilo, aui, are, to cut of, to minyſhe, to take away, to maime, to make lame or vnperfect.
Mútilus, i, m. g. lyke Mutilus.
Mútilus, a, um, lackynge ſome principall parte, mutilate, lame, maymed, vnperfect.
Mutina, æ, fœm. g. a citie in Italy, called in the vulgar tunge Modona, whiche is now vnder the ſubiection of the duke of Ferrare, where was the great batayle betweene Auguſtus and Brutus.
Mutinenſis, ſe, of Mutina.
Mutinenſis color, a naturall colour, as wolle or clothe neuer dyed.
Mutio, iui, ire, to ſpeake ſoftely, or with an vnperfecte voyce, to mutter.
Mútito, aui, are, to leaſt one an other. alſo to exerciſe or dooe a thyng often.
Mutius, was a noble familie of the auncient Romayns, in the whiche one was called Mutius Scæuola, who at the tyme that Poſſena kynge of Tuſcanes, layd ſiege to Rome, came in a beggers apparayle into the campe of Poſſena, and intendyng to haue ſlayn the kyng, ſlewe his ſecretary. wherefore he was taken and brought to a great fyre to bee bourned, into the whiche he wyllyngly thruſt his hand that had fayled to ſlea the kyng, and ſuffered it to bee bourned to aſſhes, affirmyng that beſydes hym, there were thyre hunderde that had vowed to make hys attemptate. Wherwith the kynge beyng abaſhed, & fearyng their inuincible courage, made peace with the Romaynes, takyng pledges of them: and reiſyng his ſiege, departed without moleſting of them euer after.
Muto, aui, are, to chaunge, to tranſlate, to barter or exchaunge one thynge for an other, to tranſlate from one place to an other, to chaūge from one nature or colour to an other.
Haud muto factum, I doo not repent me.
Ego quod dixi haud mutabo, I wyl not reuoke that I haue ones ſaid.
Fidem mutare, not to kepe promyſe.
Id mutauit, he hath chaunged his mynde in that.
Sedem & locum mutare, to forſake his countrie or habitation, & go dwel in a ſtrange place.
Solum mutare, idem.
Mutare conſilium, to chaunge his purpoſe.
Mutare mores, to chaunge his condicions.
Mutare aliquid cum aliquo, To make an exchaunge with one for any thyng.
Mutare alia re aliam, to chaunge one thynge for an other.
Mutare merces, to batter, to chaunge ware or for ware.

Mutare gaudium mœrore, to tourne ioy and myrthe into sadnesse.
Exilium patria sede mutauerat, He banished hym selfe voluntarily, he willyngly went into exile.
Mutare se in formam alterius, to disguyse ones selfe and make hym lyke an other.
Mutari in marem, to becom of the male kinde.
Vestem cum aliquo mutare, to change cotes or garmentes with one.
Mutare sedem ex sede, to go or fle from place to place.
Si queam mutare, If I coulde amẽde the faute or make it otherwyse.
Mutri ciuitate, to be made free of one citee, & lose the ryght of an other that he had before.
Muto, onis, the priuie membre of a man.
Mutatitio, ônis, f. g. a borowyng.
Mutatitius, a, um, borowed.
Mutulus, i, n. ge. a stale cut out of stone or tymber in buyldynge, to beare vp the summer or other lyke thyng. In masonry it is called a corbell, in tymber worke, a bragget, shoulderyng or suche lyke.
Mutitans, ântis, om. g. despysyng to borowe.
Mutunus, who was also called Priapus.
Mutuò, together, or one an other.
Mutuò diligebant, they loued one an other.
Mutuo, aui, are, to lende, sometyme to borowe.
Mutuor, âris, âri, to borowe, to take of an other.
Mutuari in sumptum, to borowe money, to bestowe in busynesse.
Mutè, mutually, one to an other.
Mutus, a, um, that can not speake, dumbe.
Mutum dices, Thou shalt perceyue me to be a dumbe man, and not to speake a woorde.
Mutus illicò, he was dumbe by and by, and had not a woorde to sate.
Magistratus mutus, the lawe.
Mutuum, i, n. g. a lone, that whiche is borowed.
Mutuo appendere, to lende.
Mutuum rogare, to aske agayne that whyche was lent, or desyre one to lende vs.
Mutuum in amicitia, mutuall affection and loue in frendshyp.
Mutuus, a, um, lente or borowed, mutuall one for an other.
Argentum nusquàm inuenio mutuum, I can borowe monete no where.
Mutuus amor, mutuall loue, where one loueth an other equally.
Mutuas pecunias sumere, to borowe money.
Mutua carne inter se vescuntur, The one eateth the fleshe of the other.
Mutua inter se fiducia negligentiores sunt, by trustyng the one in the other, they be more negligent.
Operas mutuas tradere, to helpe one an other.
Terror mutuus, whan bothe the parties feare one an other.
Mutuis vulneribus se concidere, to wounde one the other verap sore.
Mutuum mecum facit, he doeth for me, as I dooe for hym.
Mutua fiunt à me, I wyll to hym as he wylleth to me, or I dooe by hym as he dooeth by me, or I woulde hym as good wyll as he woulde me.

MYa, æ, f. g. a shell fysshe in the sea called Bosphorus, whiche bryngeth foorthe litteil redde stones, and rounde. it signifieth also a flye. it is also a chyldes playe called Hodman blynde, whiche some call Myia.
My facere, to doubte, to be halfe aferde.
Myagros, gri, m. g. a certayne herbe, haupng a stalke lyke fenell, the iuyce wherof is good for sores in the mouthe.
Myagrus, called also Myodes, the god of flies.
Mychale, the name of a sorceresse in Ouide.
Mycana, æ, & Mycena, æ, & Mycene, enes, a citee in the parte of Grecia called Peloponesus, and a littel region, where Agamemnon reigned, called nowe Morea.
Myceneus, a, um, of Mycena.
Mycerinus, the sonne of Cheops kynge of Aegypte.
Mychon, the name of a famous peynter.
Mycopros, mise dunge.
Mycone, es, & Myconus, ni, one of the yles called Cyclades.
Myconij people of that yle, whiche be naturally balde, and of them balde men bee called Myconij
Mydas, a woorme breedyng in beanes.
Mydia, an yle named also Delos.
Mydon, soonne of Atymnis, slayne by Antilochus, at the siege of Troye.
Mydriasis, sis, f. g. a sycknesse of the eies, where no colour of the eyes is chaunged, but maketh theym muche broder, all be it it taketh away the syght, or maketh a man to see the lesse: and the thynges which are seene, to seeme lesse than they are.
Mydusa, ea quæ Anchusa.
Mygala, læ, f. g. a fielde mouse, with a longe snoute, called a shrewe.
Mygale, les, f. g. a ratte.
Mygdonia, a parte of Macedonia, on the sea syde, where Niobe was tourned into a stone. Aristotle sayeth, that it is a part of Phrygia, topgnyng to Lydia. Solinus sayth it was called Bebrycia, and after Bithynia.
Mygonides, the son or nephu of Mygdonus.
Mygdonis, idis, fœ. ge. the doughter or neece of Mygdonus.
Mygdonus, the brother of Otreius.
Mylæ, a certayne towne.

Myle,

Myla, æ, f. g. an herbe, with a rote lyke an onis on.

Mylachris, idem quod Mylæcos.

Myle, idem quod moly.

Myle, es. fœ. g. a roote of docke or wylde sorell, whiche beyng sodde, is good against the tothache.

Mylæchos, a butterfly, whiche is in mylles.

Mylos, a mylle.

Mymphur, a tourners spindell or pynne, wherson he tourneth or warketh any thynge.

Myoctonos, the roote of Aconitum, whiche is good to kylle mise, called also luparia.

Myoparo, onis, a kynde of shyppes vsed in the sea called Mare Tirrhenum, a kynd of other small shyppe, that pyrates and robbers dyd commonly vse.

Myophinos, ni, m. g. a killer of mise.

Myopia, nearesightednesse.

Myops, opis, he that can not see, but that he holdeth nere his eies, nearesighted.

Mypsei, a people of Thrace, whiche yelded to Darius.

Myosota, or rather Myosis. lyke alsine.

Myra, a citee in Lycia.

Myrapidia, orum, a kynde of little peares, very pleasant & odoriferous, and therefore be called Muscata, or Moschatula.

Myriarches, a capitayne of x. thousand men.

Myriades, many tymes ten thousande.

Myrias, adis, the number of ten thousande.

Myrica, æ, or Myrice, es, fœm. ge. called of the latynes Tamarix, of the apothecaries Tamariscus, a litteli bushe called in Italy Tamarico, in English Tamariske.

Myrina, a queene of Amazons.

Myrinus, ni, m. g. the male kynde of a lamprey, whiche hath a toothe out of his mouthe.

Myriophillum, li, n. g. an herbe called Mylefoyle.

Myristica nux, a nutmygge.

Myrlea, a towne of Bythinia.

Myrmetias, a precious stone, hauyng litle knottes lyke warres.

Myrmecides, a cunnyng caruer of smal thingnes.

Myrmecites, m. g. a stone, wherin is the figure of an emote.

Myrmecium, cii, n. g. a kynde of spiders lyke an emott, hauyng a blacke bealy with whyte spottes. also a litteli rough warte.

Myrmicoleo, a lytle beast that deuoureth emots.

Myrmidones, the people called also Hellenes.

Myrmilon, the name of a stage player.

Myrmillones, were swoorde players, where the one prouoked the other to battayle.

Myrobalanum, ni, n. g. a frute growynge in India, lyke vnto plummes or damsyns, whereof bee dyuers kyndes, whiche dooe easyly pourge all superfluous humoures, and also comforteth nature, in so muche that a man whiche eateth theym, beyng condite, shall not lyue oldlie.

Myrobrecharij, or Myrobrechi, they whiche doe make sweete oyntmentes, or rather they, which bee oynted or perfumed with sweete oyles.

Myron, onis, the name of an excellent caruer, also olde oyle.

Myropôla, æ, m. g. a seller of oyntmentes, or sweete oyles.

Myropólium, ij, a place where oyntementes are solde.

Myrotheſium, ij, neu. ge. a boxe of sweete oyntments.

Myrrha, æ, f. g. a sweete gumme called Myrre.

Myrrhis, an herbe called mosthecruell. also an herbe lyke to hemlocke.

Myrrha, the daughter of kyng Cinyra, whiche wued her owne father filthyly.

Merrheus, & Myrrhinus, a, um, of myrre.

Myrrinum vinum, wyne condite with myrre.

Myrſenium, nij, n. g. a kynde of fenell, hauyng greatter leaues, and a sharpe taste.

Myrſinites, an herbe of the kynde of spurge. also a precious stone, hauynge the colour of honye, and sauour of Myrre.

Myrſine, myrtus ſylueſtris.

Myrteria, spurge.

Myrſinus, a citee in Peloponeſus.

Myrſum, a towne in the parte of Greece, called Peloponeſus.

Myrſus, the father of Candaules.

Myrtatus, a, um, or myrtidanus, a, um, that is made of Myrtels.

Myrrêtum, ti, ne. ge. a place where mirtel trees bee set.

Myrteus, a, um, & Myrtinus, of myrtels.

Myrtilus, a chariot man of kyng Oenomaus.

Myrtidion, the herbe called Geranion.

Myrtites, a kind of oyle condite with mirtell.

Myriapétalum, li, n. g. the herbe called also Poligonatum, because it hath many knottes.

Myrtoſelinos, the herbe named moule eare.

Myrtoum mare, a portion of the sea, whiche is betwene the sea called Aegeum & Ionium.

Myrtus, i, fœm. g. a litteli tree, bearyng beares of sweete odour, a myrtle tree, or a myrt tree.

Mys, ios, the name of a cunnyng grauer. also a shelf sysshe of the sea, called Mus aquatilis, & Mus marinus.

Myſia, a countreie towarde Greke lande, whiche is diuided into two partes, heigher and the lower. the higher hath on the north Dacia: on the east, Dalmatine: on the south Macedonie on the east Thrace: this is nowe called Seruia. The lower Myſia hath on the weast Dacian: on the north Sarmacie: on the east the sea Euxine: on the south Thrace. this is nowe called Valachie and Bulgarie. Ptolomeus writeth of two countreies called Myſia, the more and the lasse, and bothe in Asia beyonde Bithynia, not farre from Ida.

Myſi, certayne people.

☞ Myſorum poſtremus habetur, proverbially he is e is neglected and contemned: he is cast at the arres arse.

ſta, æ, m. ge. he that learneth or is experte in yſteries of religion.
ſtagógus, gi, m. g. the chiefe interpretour of yſteries and ceremonies.
ſtérium, ij, neu. gene. a myſterie, a thyng ſerete or hydde in woordes or ceremonies, or a eremonye, wherein some secrete thyng is vnderstande.
ſticus, a, um, myſticall.
ſtillus, a cowes name in Marcíall.
ſtris, ſtris, m. g. a fyſhe called a sea mouse.
ſtus, a certayne fyſhe.
thologia, æ, f. g. a declaration or exposition of fables.
thos, a fable.
thridátes, loke Mithridátes.
tilos, a kynde of meate vsed of the vplandiſh men in Italie.
ſos, a kynde of bege tree, of the abundaunce wherof the countrei Myſia was named.
xabia, that whiche the apothecaries call Sebeſten.
xa, æ, f. ge. the fyth that cometh out of ones
oſe, ſnyuell.
xon, ónis, m. ge. ſnottie, he that hath a ſny-ueled noſe. also a certayne fyſhe.
xos, xi, m. g. a ſnuffe of a candell.
xus, a prieſt of Diana, glorious, and a ſtoute talker.

NABATHAEA, a part of Arabia felix, lyenge be-twene the Perſian ſea, and the redde ſea.

Naæra, the hande mayde of Cleopatra, that wylyngly died with hir maiſtreſſe.

Nabathei, people inhabyt-yng the countreie called Arabia felix, verate continent, and in preparyng and keepyng their commodities, ryghte prudent, as Strabo wit-teth, in whom ye may reade more abundantly of theyr maners, not muche expedient to be de-clared in this place.

Nabis, a beaſt in Ethiope, haunyng an head lyke a camell, a necke lyke an horſe, and feete lyke an ore.

Nabius, a ryuer in Spayne.

Nablium, ij, neu. gen. an inſtrument of muſike, muche lyke an herpe, and hath a more ſweete and pleaſant ſowne, called also Pſalterium.

Nabriſſa, or after some Nebriſſa, a citee in Spayne.

Nabuchodónoſor, the ninth kyng of Babylon, or the thyrde kynge of Caldeis, named of Be-roſſus, Nabogodroſus, of the hebrues Nabu-gadnaſar. he by the occaſion of his great and wounderfull dominions, kelle into ſuche pryde, that he woulde haue his ymage honoured for god. wherfore Almighty god, ſodeynly trans-fourmed hym in to an horrible monſter, hay-uyng the head of an ore, the feete of a beare, the taple of a lyon, and dyd eate hey as a beaſt. And after he had in that fourme dooen penaunce by the cõtinuall prayers of Daniell the prophete, god beyng moued with mercy, reſtored hym to his priſtinate fourme, and afterwarde he lyued well, and commaunded that the verate god of heauen ſhould bee onely honoured. He was be-fore the incarnation of Chriſte. 633. yeeres. He reigned. xliiii. yeres.

Naccæ, fullers of clothe.

Nactus, a, um, the participle of Nanciſcor, ſig-nifieth gotten or obteyned.
Inde nactus eſt laudẽ incomparabilem, theres by he hath gotten prayſe incomparable.

Næ, truely, or nowe in good faythe: alſo for valde or nimis, verate greatly.
Næ illi vehementer errant, Truely they bee farre out of the wate, or in a wrong opinion.
Næ ego multo lubentius emerim diuorſo-rium Tarracinæ, Nowe in good faithe, I had lieffer haue bought at Tarracina an houſe to lodge in.
Næ ille facili me vtetur patre, In faythe he ſhall haue me a gentyll father.
Næ iſte haud mecum ſentit, He and I be of farre contrary appetites, or he is nothing of my mynde or opinion.

Næra, a womans name.

Nænia, æ, or Næniæ, arum, fœ. gen. plur. a la-mentable ſonge, ſonge at the deathe or buriall of a man. ſometyme the ſonge that the nourſe dooeth wantonly ſynge, whan ſhe dandeleth hir chylde.

Nænia, was also taken for a goddeſſe.

Nænius, a poete.

Næuianus, a, um, of Næuius.

Næuus, i, m. gen. a molle or other lyke naturall marke in the body.

Nagnia, called nowe Narnia, a citee in Italye.

Nagnata, a citee in Irelande.

Naides, elfes or fayries, hauntyng ryuers and fountaynes.

Naim, a citee of Galilee.

Nãis, nãidis, a ryuer in the eaſte, whiche renneth out of the mountayne of Taurus, into the ſea called Pontus. Also a nymphe of the water.

Nam, a coniunction cauſall, ſette moſt common-ly in the fyrſte parte of a ſentence, and ſometyme dooeth not ſo muche ſhew the cauſe of the thing, as the begynnyng or entryng into the matter.
Nam, in the ſeconde or other place, ſignifieth for. ſometyme it is putte for Autem, fyllyng onely the ſentence, without any other ſignifi-cation.

Namquid, and Namquis, for Sed quid, and ſed quis, or Quid autem, or quis autem.

Mam quid ita? And why ſo I praye the?
Nam quando in bonum verteris vitia, id eſt quando autem.
Nam eſt longe aliter in verſibus, Truely or certaynly it is. &c.

Namnitæ, people of Nauntes.

Nanciſcor, nactus ſum, nanciſci, to geat, to obtayne, to fynde.
Cum plus otij nactus ero, whan I ſhall haue more leyſure.
Nanciſci aliquem otioſum, To fynde one at leyſure, or without buſyneſſe.
Spem maximam nactus eſt, he hath conceiued a verie good hope.
Si nihil nanciſcor mali, If I geat no ylle, or if I chaunce to haue no yll by the mattier.
Piſces ex ſententia nactus ſum, I haue gotten ſuche fyſhe as I wouldе haue.
Nancitor, for Nactus erit.

Nanque, ſette afore other wordes, ſignyfieth truely, put after, it betokeneth for. ſometyme for verum, or Sed.

Nanum, a littell brode veſſell, called alſo Scitula barbatus.

Nanium, a littell woman.

Nanus, a, um, a dwarfe, or a verie littell perſone or thyng.

Nannetes, a towne in littell Britayne, called Nauntes.

Naocaphthum, idem quod Naſcaphthum. loobe there.

Naparæi, people in Ethiope.

Napæi, people of the Ile of Leſbos.

Napeæ, Goddeſſes of floures and wooddes, or rather elfes, hauntyng wooddes.

Naphtha, æ, f. g. a certayne kynde of maunde or chalkye clape, ſomewhat liquide, (as Strabo writeth) whereunto yf fyre bee putte, it kendleth in ſuche wyſe, that yf a littell water bee caſte thereon, it bourneth more feruentely, and maie bee extincted only with great aboundance of water, or elles with vinegger, alume & bytdelyme. There is wounderfull plentee thereof founde by Babylon in the countreie called Ecbatanis, as Plutarchus writeth in the lyfe of great Alexander.

Napina, a gardeyn of nauewes.

Napitæ, people of Scythia.

Napus, pi, a Nauewe, or as other call it, turnepe, long rape, or nauet gentle, it is a kynd of Rapes. It is ſoone boyled, and nourſheth but littell. The greekes doo call it Bunias.

Nar, a ryuer whiche renneth into Tyber. Ther is an other ryuer of that name in Germany, whiche cometh out of the great ryuer of Danubius, or Donowe.

Narane, a ryuer in Dalmatia, aboute an hundreth myles from Epidaurus, Narbaſis, a towne in Spayne.

Narbo Martius, called commonly Narbona, a citee in Fraunce.

Narbonenſis prouincia, a parte of Gallia, lying upng on the eaſte, the mountaynes Alpes, on the ſouth Mare Gallicū, on the weſt the mountaynes Pirenei, on the north the mountayne Iura: It contepneth the countreis called Sauoye, Dolphyny, Prouance, and Languedoche. It was in the old tyme called Gallia Bracha.

Narcaphthum, lyke Naſcaphthum.

Narciſsinus, a, um, of Narciſſus.

Narciſsites, a precious ſtone, which hath veynes lyke pup.

Narciſſus, the ſonne of the ryuer Zephiſus, which was turned into the floure called Narciſſus. It is alſo a certayne ryuer.

Narciſſus, ſi, m. ge. an herbe & floure, hauyng the leaues nerte the ground lyke to Daffadyl, or broder lyke to a lylye, the ſtalke bare and grene. In the toppe therof is a floure white or purple, the ſeede in a thyn ſkynne, blacke, great and long, the roote beyng rounde. it is called white Laus tibi, or white daffodill.

Narcoticus, a, um, ſtupefactiue, or makyng a membre inſenſible.

Nárdinus, nárdina, um, of Nardus, ſmellyng or hauyng the taſte of Nardus.
Nardina pyra, certayne ſwete peares.

Nardus, i, fœ. g. a plant, wherof Plinie remembreth nyne kyndes, but Spica Nardi, is of Gaſlene and Plinie ſuppoſed to come out of Inde, whiche ſome men thynke we lacke, it is called ſpikenard. That whiche we haue, cometh out of Syria.
Nardus gallica, ſome ſuppoſe to be lauander, or that whiche is called Spike.

Nárica, cæ, f. ge. a certayne littell fyſhe, whiche ſwimmeth verie ſwyftely.

Naris, ris, f. g. the noſethyrlle.
Emunctæ naris homo, a witty man that hath a fine iudgement in thynges.
Obeſæ naris homo, he that ſmelleth nothyng, he that hath a groſſe iudgement in matters.
Indulgere naribus, to mocke, to ſcorne.

Narius, a ryuer in Umbria.

Naritia, an Ile in the ſea Aegeum.

Narna, or Narnia, a towne in Italy, alſo a citee of Umbria.

Narniæ, or Narnienſes, people of Narnia.

Narnienſis ager, the countreye about Narnia, where the grounde with rayne wareth durtie, and in drie weather durtie.

Narona, a ryuer of Dalmatia, called nowe Narenta.

Narrábilis, le, that maie bee ſhewed, declared, tolde, or ſpoken.

Narrátio, ónis, f. ge. a narration or reporte of a thyng, a ſhewyng, a declaration, a tellyng, an expreſſyng.

Narratiúncula, læ, f. g. a littell narration.

Narrátor, óris, maſc. gene. he that ſheweth or telleth.

Nar-

Narrâtus, us, m. g. a shewynge, a declaracion, a tellyng.
Narrâtus, a, um, shewed, tolde, declared.
Narro, aui, are, to shewe, to telle, to reporte, to declare, to expresse. also to saie.
Narrare stomachum, to speake what he thinketh, to vtter his stomake.
Narrato omnem rem ordine, Shewe hym all the matter in order as it is.
Bonum ingenium narrás adolescentis, By your sayng the ponge man is of a good and gentyll nature.
Quid narras? what sayest thou? a maner of admiracion and meruaillyng as one shuld say, It is a wonderfull thyng that ye tell.
Opinor narras? Saie you I thynke.
Narro tibi, I saie to you.
Quas mulieres narras? Of what wome speake you? or what women be they that ye speake of.
Narses, a mannes name, an Eunuch of the Emperour Iustinian, whiche was a valyaunte and prudent capitayn.
Nartes, people of Italy, called also Interamnates.
Narthécium, cij, n. g. a place apte or conuenient to kepe spyces or medicines in.
Narthex, thecis, m. ge. the herbe called Ferula, looke there.
Naryium, a towne of the people called Locrenses where is greate plentie of excellente and good pytche.
Nasamones, people dwellynge in the myddell of the landes of Libya Amonge whome is founden the precious stone called a Carbuncle.
Nasamonites, tis, m. gen a stone of colour sanguine, with litell blacke veynes.
Nasamonius, & Nasamoniacus, a, um, of the people Nasamones.
Nasciphum, a verie precious and odoriferous woodde, brought out of Indie, wherof they make verie pleasant parfumes.
Nascor, nasceris, sci, to be borne, in herbes or trees it signifieth to spryng or growe.
Nascitur ventus, The wynde riseth or begynneth to blowe.
Nasci in pedes, to be borne the fete forward.
Natus ex tanta familia, descended of so riche and noble a familie.
Penelope natus, Penelope was his mother.
De pellice natus, haupyng an harlotte to his mother. Ego profecto egregie ad miseriam natus sum, Truly I am notably borne to misery, wretchednesse, misfortune, or aduersitie.
Ex me atque ex hoc natus es, I am thy mother, and this man is thy father.
Nasci iusta vxore, to be borne in lawfull wedlocke. Natus sumo genere, of a noble lineage.
Natus male volente genio, borne in an yll howre.
Natus animo leni, he that is of nature gentyll and easy to be pleased.
Natus laudi, borne to praise and renoume.
Annos ad quinquaginta natus, well nere fyfty yeres olde.
Copiosissime nasci, to spryng or growe very plenteously.
Nascuntur fascinora, discidiæ. &c. they spryng ryse or bee ingendred.
Vnde iste error natus sit, wherof this errour dyd come ryse or spryng.
Ne plus mali nasceretur, That no more myschefe should ryse of the matter.
Nata est sententia, the opinion dydde ryse or spryng. Nata herba ad spem fœniceſiæ, The grasse dyd growe or spryngе to the tyme of hey harueſt.
Nascens, entis, om g. growyng. spryngyng.
Nasica, the surname of a noble Romayn called Scipio.
Nasiterna, a vessel with hãdels, & a wide mouth.
Nasium, a citee in Fraunce called Nanse.
Nassa, æ, fœ. g. a weele or bowenet, wherwith fysshe is taken.
Nassus, si, f. g a certayne tree, the woodde wherof is of purple colour, and groweth plentifully in the ile of Medera.
Nastes, the brother of Amphimacus, whiche came to helpe the Troians.
Nastrutos, they which see better in the euenynge then at nowne: and can see nothinge but that is harde at their eies.
Nastipades, a kynd of spice cakes.
Nastopoei, they which make those cakes.
Nastophagi, they which eate those cakes.
Nastúrtium, ij, an herbe called Cresses, whiche was among the persians in suche estimacion, that the ponge men, whan they wente on hunting, dyd eate none other meate, supposynge that therby, they spyrites were made more quicke and liuely.
Nasus, i, m g. a nose. sometyme it is putte for sharpeneſſe or quickeneſſe in speche wherfore we say of hym that can prettily taunt or mocke one so that vneth it can be perceiued, Hic nasum habet.
Naso suspendêre, to mocke couertly.
Nasus collisus, a nose as flatte as a cake beaten to ones face.
Nasutulus, a, um, a diminutiue of Nasutus.
Nasutè, wittily, mockyngly.
Nasúula, a shrewde wenche.
Nasútus, ti, m. g. he that hath a great nose. also he that can taunt or mocke wittily. sometyme it signifieth hym that hath a great instrument
Natáles, natálium, pl. the roche or familie, wher of one cometh, parentage.
Natalibus clarus, noble of bloudde.
Obscuri natales, base bloudde.
Natalibus restituere, to make a gentylman, and to geue to hym armes.
Natalitia dare, to make a feast at the dayes of ones byrthe.
Natális, le, and Natalitius, a, um, pertaynyng to birth, as, Natalis dies, the day of the birthe or natiuitee. Natalis, is somtyme spryngyng or growyng. Natalis, is the seede, wherof any thyng spryngeth or is ingendred.

Natâlis, lis, m. g. Natale, lis, and Natalitium, tij, n. g. the date of ones byrthe Celebrare natalem suum, to kepe solemne the day of ones byrthe. Vrbis natalis, the daye on the which the citee was fyrst builded.

Natalitia prædicta, diuinations of astronomers, concernyng ones natiuitee.

Natales diuersarum gentium, the originall or beginnyng of dyuers nations and countreis.

Natâtilis, le, that swymmeth or can swimme.

Natâtile, lis, n. g. a ponde or other place, where geese, duckes, or fysshes dooe swymme.

Natatitius, a, um, that whiche dooeth swymme

Natâtor, ôris, m. g. he that swymmeth.

Natatórium, rij, neut. gener. a place made to swimme in.

Natâbulum, idem.

Natâtio, ônis, f. g. swymmyng.

Natâtus, us, m. g. a swymmyng.

Natans, antis, and Nans, antis, om. ge. swymmyng.

Nates, tis, plu. hæ nates, natum, a buttocke.

Natex, nâticis, fœ. ge. of Plinie called Nerita, is a fysshe, baunge a shell, great, rounde and smoth, saupng that there bee on it like to redde seedes of popie.

Natinâtio, was vsed for negotiatio.

Natinatóres, trauaylers about many thynges, or busy and seditious persons.

Natio, is the name of a goddesse.

Nátio, ônis, f. gen. the people of a countreie (as Festus writeth) whiche had their begynnyng in the same place, where they dwell, and came not out of other countreies. it somtyme signifieth a felowshyp, companye, or sorte of men, bepnge in an order.

Natio candidatorum, the ordynarie felowshyp of theim, whiche do sue for great offices.

Natio me hominis impulit, &c. The mans countreie caused or forced me. &c.

Natiuitas, tâtis, fœ. g. byrthe, natiuitee.

Natiuus, a, um, naturall, that is naturally ingendred in a thyng.

Natiuus color, naturall colour.

Natiuus sal, salte growen in the place where it is founden.

Natiuum malum, naturall mischiefe.

Natiua verba, woordes not diriued frō other.

Natiui dei, goddis, whiche haue begynnynge and endyng.

Natiso, a ryuer in the countreie of Uenice.

Nato, aui, are, to swymme often. somtyme it signifieth to go, to sail, to be rowed in a barge or galey. somtyme to trouble or shake. somtyme to grow or shoot forth a litle vnder the erth, as the rootes of some trees and herbes doo.

Natrix, tricis, m. & f. ge. idem quod hydrus, a water snake. also an herbe, the roote wherof smelleth lyke a gote.

Natûra, æ, f. g. nature. it was of some gentiles taken for god, creatour of all thynges. Seneca lib. 4. de beneficiis: what other thyng is Natura than god or reson diuine, sowen in all the worlde, and the partes therof. Arist. phisi. 1. Nature is the beginnyng and cause of mouyng and rest in that thynge, where it is by it selfe, and not by any other thyng happenyng. somtyme it signifieth maners, conditions, and fassions. also naturall inclination or affection. somtyme the priuie membre of mankynd or beest.

Naturæ satisfacere, to dye.

Naturæ cedere, or concedere, idem.

Naturæ suæ rationem habere, to haue regarde vnto his conditions.

Si ex rerum natura exemeris, if you take from amonge men.

E natura rerum euellere, to destroy vtterly.

In rerum naturam cadere, To chaunce somtyme, to come somtyme to passe.

Huius rei sibi naturam faciat, Let hym by custome and exercise bryng this into his nature, or make this thyng as it were naturall to hym.

Sequi naturam ducem, to folow nature as his capitayn and leader in ones doynges.

Natura, in the ablatiue for Naturaliter.

Natura insitum est, we haue it of nature, it is naturall in vs.

Naturâlis, le, naturall, accordyng to nature, of nature. Naturales filij, naturall children, lawfully begotten.

Desyderia naturalia, pro cupiditate cōcundi.

Naturâlia, plu. tantum, priuie membres.

Naturâle, sing. is somtyme redde in the same signification.

Naturâliter, naturally, of nature, accordynge to nature.

Natu, onely in the ablatiue case is ioigned with these adiectiues, Magnus, Parnus, Grandis, Magno natu homines, auncient men.

Minor natu, the ponger.

Quanto tuus est animus natu grauior, The more sage, graue, and discrete that your wyfes dome is by reason of age and long experience.

Natu maior, the elder.

Natu maiores, elders.

Natu grandis, olde or auncient.

Natus annos sedecim, sixtene yeres olde.

Natus, a, um, borne, growen, brought forthe. looke nascor.

Natus, ti, m. g. a son somtyme it signifieth a colte.

Nata, tæ, f. g. a daughter.

Nauâlis, le, pertepnyng to shyps, or that is done with shyppes.

Bellum nauale, warre on the sea.

Naualis corona, looke Corona.

Naualis materia, all thynges necessarye to make shyppes of.

Sorij nauales, rowers in shyppes.

Gloria

Gloria naualis, glory and renoume for victorie and nobleneſſe on the ſea.

Nauāle, lis, n. ge. the docke where ſhyppes are laide vp or made, at Venice the arcenale.

Naualis, a citee in Germany.

Nauarchus, chi, m. ge. the patron or mayſter of ſhyppes, a pilote, a conducter of ſhyppes.

Nauarchis, chidis, f. ge. the patrons ſhyppe, the admirall ſhyppe.

Nauci, n. ge. indeclinabile, a ſhaale or pille of a nutte, the ſhinne or partition in the middes of a wall nutte, euery littell thynge of no value, a thyng of naught.

Nauci eſſe, to bee woorth nothyng.

Naucifácio, feci, facere, to ſette naught by.

Nauclericus, & Nauclerius, a, um, pertaynyng to the maiſter of a ſhyppe.

Nauclérus, ri, and Nauiclárius, rij, m. g. a ſhyp maiſter.

Naucratis, a citee in Aegypte, the inhabitantes wherof be called Naucratitæ.

Naufrágium, gij, n. g wreche on the ſea. ſometyme it ſignifieth loſſe or detriment.

Naufragium facere, to loſe a ſhyp by tẽpeſt: & by tranſlacion, to haue great loſſe of goodes.

Naufragia rei familiaris, great loſſe of goodes

Hæc vna ex hoc naufragio tabula me delectat, This onely apde, healpe or ſuccour in this great calamitee doeth comforte and delyte me.

Náufragus, gi, m. gen. he that eſcapeth on hyue after the ſhyppe is loſt. it is ſomtyme taken for one fallen in pouertee.

Naufragus patrimonio, one that by his owne faute is fallen in pouertee.

Náufragus, a, um, pertaynyng to ſhyppwreche.

Nauta, æ, f. g. a holowe tree lyke a ſhyppe, occupied whan grapes be gathered.

Naufragus, a, um, idem quod naufragus.

Naucula, æ, f. g. a litle ſhyppe.

Naucella, a diminutiue of naucula.

Nauculárius, rij, m. g. he that letteth ſhyppes to hyre. ſometyme a pylote, a ſhyp mayſter.

Nauculátor, oris, idem.

Nauiculor, aris, ari, to gouerne a ſhyppe. ſometyme to go on the water in a ſhyppe or bote.

Nauiculária, æ, fœ. gen. the arte of gouernyng a ſhyppe or rowyng.

Nauiculariam facere, to fraight a ſhyppe, to ſette ſhyps to hyre for caryng of marchandiſe.

Nauigábilis, le, where a ſhyppe may paſſe, nauigable.

Nauigátio, ónis, f. ge. exercyſe in goeyng on the water, ſaylyng.

Náuiger, uigera, gerum, whiche will beare a veſſell.

Mare nauigerum, The ſea that will beare a veſſelle.

Nauigium, gij, n. g. all ſoztes of veſſels to ſaile or rowe in. ſometyme for ſaylyng. alſo the conſtructyng or gydyng of a ſhyppe.

Nauigia ſpeculatoria, brigantines or ſhyppes of eſpiall.

Inſtæuare nauigia anchoris, to caſt anchors, to ſtaie the ſhyps with vowyng of anchors.

Inſtruere nauigia armamentis, to fournyſche the ſhyppes with abilimentes or takelyng.

Vectoria nauigia, ſhyppes to tranſporte and conueigh men from place to place, paſſagers.

Nauigium interiit, the ſhyppe was loſt.

Nauigiólum, li, n. g. a littell barke.

Náuigo, aui, are, to go or bee caried on the waſter in a veſſell, to ſayle.

Nauigare in portu, to be in ſuretee, to be out of daungier.

Nauigatur, the imperſonall.

Nauis, uis, f. g. a ſhyppe.

Nauem deprimere, to drowne a ſhyppe.

Nauis pomparica, a ſhyp made with chambers and banketyng parlours, onely to ſolace with, it is alſo called Nauithalmus.

Rector nauis, a ſhyppe mayſter.

Moderamen nauis, the gydynge or gouernyng of a ſhyppe.

Actuariæ naues, lyke Actuarius.

Longæ naues, great ſhyppes or galies, goyng bothe with ores and ſayles.

Naues onerariæ, great ſhyppes made for burdeyn or cariage, ſuche as hulkes be, that vſe onely the ſayle and not ores.

Aeratæ & Roſtratæ naues, ſhyppes or galeys, that haue theyr ſtemmes armed with braſſe.

Piſcatoriæ naues, fyſſher botes.

Prætoria nauis, the admyralles ſhyppe.

Vulnerata nauis, a ſhyppe ſtryken, perced, or bouged with ordinaunce.

Conſtratæ, and tectæ naues, couered ſhyppes.

Deferri naui, to bee caried, or ſayle on the ſea in a ſhyppe.

Appellere nauem, lyke Appello.

Conſcendere naues, to take ſhyppyng.

Deſcendere ad naues, To goe downe to the rode where ſhyppes lye.

Naues conſtruere, fabricare, ædificare, facere, to make or buylde ſhyppes.

Moliri naues ab terra, To bryng the ſhyppes from lande to take the ſea.

Subducere naues, to bryng the ſhyppes in to the hauen.

Reficere naues, to repayre ſhyppes hurte by tempeſt or battayle.

Vna nauis eſt bonorum omnium, by tranſlacion, All good and honeſte citeſens bee of one conſent and wyll together.

Náuita, tæ, idem quod Nauta.

Náuitas, átis, f. g. diligence, ſtyrynge, quicknelle.

Náuiter, for gnauiter, diligently, with deſterytee, valyantly.

Nauithalmus, a ſhyppe or barge, that noble men vſe for pleaſure, with gorgious chambers and other ornamentes.

Naula, læ, fœm. gen. an inſtrument of muſike, called also Psalterium.

Naulium, a diminutiue of Naula.
Naulium, a towne in Lumbardie.
Naulum, li, n. g. the fraite or fare paied for passage ouer the water.
Naumachia, æ, f. ge. a battaple on the water, or the place where the battaple is.
Naumachiam committere, To fyghte with shyppes on the sea.
Naumachiárius, rij, m. gen. he that dooeth battaple on the water.
Naumachiárius, a, um, pertaynyng to that forme of battaple.
Naumachiarius pons, a bridge, on whiche they passe into the shyppes to fyght.
Nauo, aui, are, to employe with all his power, to dooe, ayde, healpe, or endeuoure with all diligence.
Nauare operam, to dooe all his endeuour, to helpe with all his power.
Vt nostram in te beneuolentiam nauare possimus, That we maie dooe all our endeuoir, to shewe what good will we beare you, or that we maie declare our beneuolence & louyng mynde towarde you.
Naupactus, a towne of Ieaia, taken frō the Uenetians by the Turkes, called nowe Lepanthum.
Naupégus, gi, m. g. a shyppwright or carpenter.
Náuplium, pli, a fyshe lyke a cuttell.
Nauplius, Palamedes father.
Naupliades, the sonne or nephew of Nauplus.
Nauportus, a ryuer in Slauonie.
Nauscit, whan a beane openeth it selfe in the earth to spryng.
Nausea, æ, f. gen. disposicion or will to vomite. sometyme abhorryng of thynges.
Nauseam discutere, to put awaie the disposition of vometyng.
Nauseam facere, to prouoke to vomite.
Inhibere nauseam, to stoppe vomityng.
Nauseátor, ôris, m. gen. one that vomiteth. also one that lotheth or disdeigneth a thyng.
Nauseóla, a diminutiue of Nausea.
Nauseósus, a, um, that whiche prouoketh one to vomete.
Nauseo, aui, are, to haue an appetite to vomite. sometyme to abiect or abhorre a thynge, to despise, to contemne, to lothe.
Nauseabundus, a, um, disposed to vomite.
Nausicae, es, and Nausicaa, æ, f. g. the daughter of Alcinous kynge of Pheaces, who kyndyng Ulysses, after that he had escaped drownyng, brought thym to hir fathers palaice.
Nausithous, the sonne of Neptunus, and father of Alcinous.
Naustibulum, li, n. ge. a hyue lyke a shyppe.
Nauta, or Náuita, æ, com. g. a shyppe man.
Nautea, teæ, f. g. the ordure, which issueth out of the pumpe of a shyp. also currioure bleche. also a certayne herbe, which currioure doe vse, some take it for Anagyris, Náuticus, ci, m. g. a shyppe maister.

Náuticus, a, um, belongyng to shyppes or shypmen. Nauticus panis, bisshette.
Nautilus, li, of some called Pampilus, a certayne shell fyshe, of the forme of a bote, and dooeth swymme the bealye vpwarde.
Nautilia, the craefte of shypmen.
Nauus, a, um, quycke, actiue, valyaunt, that dooeth a thyng sodaynly, without muche busdy, diligent.
Nauus & Ignauus, contrary.
Nauus & industrius homo, a diligent and peynefull man.
Naxium, ij, n. ge. a hynde of wheatstones in thyle of Lypres.
Naxius, a, um, of Naxos.
Naxos, an yle in the sea called Ægeum, one of the Cyclades, not farre from Paros, renoumed for the white marble there growyng.
Nazareus, a man dedicate onely to the seruice of God, or that had a special vow for a tyme.
Nazareth, a litteli towne in Galilea.
Nazara, a citee in Cappadocia, called also Cesaria.

NE, an aduerbe, signifiyng forbyddyng, or dissuadyng, and is ioigned sometyme to the imperatiue, sometyme to the subiunctiue, sometyme to the optatiue mode.
Ne, beyng an aduerbe of forbyddyng, maie indifferently bee ioygned with a verbe of the subiunctiue mode, or els of the imperatiue: Non maie neuer be ioygned with the imperatiue.
Tu ne cede malis, geue thou no place to aduersitee. Sometyme it is a coniunction copulatiue, and signifieth No, or neyther. sometyme it is causall, as Vide ne pereas, Take hede that thou doo not lose thy selfe: or beware that thou cast not awaie thy selfe.
Ne multa, to make shorte, without many wordes, or in fewe woordes.
Ne plura, it sufficeth, it is enough.
Ne longum faciam, to make shorte, to be shorte.
Ne sim saluus, si aliter scribo ac sentio, I praie god I bee dead, yf I write otherwyse than I thynke.
Ne viuam, and Ne valeam, idem.
Est'ne hic Crito sobrinus Chrisidis? Is not this Crito, cousyn germayn to Chrysis?
Honestum ne factu sit an turpe dubitant, they doubt, whether it be honest to do or no.
Neue hoc, neue illud, neither this, nor that.
Ne dicam, I will not saie, or I dare not saye. This clause (Ne dicam) if it folowe a substantiue, the adiectiue is put in the accusatiue case: but if it bee put betwene a substantiue and an adiectiue, the one and the other shalbe the nominatiue case.
Homo imprudēs, ne dicam stultum, not stultus,

tus, because the substantiue (Homo) goeth before.

Crudelis, ne dicam impius, & sceleratus Castor, not sceleratum Castorem, for as muche as the substantiue Castor foloweth. In other cases is none ambiguitee. For alway the adiectiue and the substantiue muste accorde, as, Non faceres hæc magistro conscio, ne dicam præsente, not præsentem.

Mihi qui ne detur, that he maie not be geuen to me, or that I maie not haue hir.

Vt ne ducas, for vt non ducas.

Ne hoc quidem tacebit Permeno, Parmeno will not kepe this secrete neither.

Ne quid nimis, nothyng exceedyng, or nothyng too too.

Ne dicam grauius, That I maye saye no woorse of it.

Ne my quidem, applyed to hym that dare not speake one woorde.

Ne, an aduerbe racionall for Ergo. Verg.

Mene incepto desistere victam? what shall I than beeyng vanquysshed or put by, ceasse from myne enterprise? or leaue of my pourpose as vayne?

Ne amicis nihil tribuamus, epulamur, to the intent that our friendes shall not thynke, that we will doo nothyng for their sakes, we doos eate and bankette.

Ne, sometyme signifieth demaundynge, as, Datur'ne illa hodie Pamphilo nuptum? But shall she be maried to daie vnto Pamphilus? Egóne? who I?

Nea, an yle betweene Lemnos and Hellespont.

Neades, beastes in the yle Samos, as Aelianus writeth: of whiche the bones be so bigge, that they be kept for a meruaile: and their voyce so strong, that they shake the earth.

Neæra, a womans name, mother of Phaetusa, and Lampetia.

Nearthus, a ryuer in Calaber.

Nealces, a famous pemeter.

Neapolis, a noble citee of Campania, sette on the borders of the sea, called Mare Mediterraneum, and was fyrst called Parthenope. Of this citee the countreye of Campania, Apulia, and Calabria, be now called Regnum Neapolitanum, the realme of Naples. Ther is also a citee of this name in Affrike, an other in Caria.

Nearchus, a yong man of excellent fauour and beautee.

Nebis, a ryuer in Spayne.

Nebrides, the skynne of redde dere and falow.

Nebrion, herba ceruina, vel elaphoboscos. Dioscor.

Nebrundes, the genitours of beastes.

Nebrites, singu. num. a precious stone dedicate to Liber.

Nebula, æ, f. g. a litteli white cloude.

Quasi per nebulam audire, i. leuiter, nõ attente.

Erroris nebula, the cloude of errour.

Dilait nebulas Titan, the sonne putteth away cloudes.

Nebulo, lônis, m. gen. a knaue, a vile felowe of no estimation.

Nebulósus, a, um, cloudie.

Nebulosus ager, a countreie hauynge oftentymes cloudes ouer it, wherby it is temperate.

Cælum nebulosum, a cloudie weather.

Nec, nor, neyther, oftentymes for Non.

Nec opinato, by aduenture, sodeynly, otherwise than was thought.

Quæ nec opinanti accidunt, whiche chance to me not thynkyng, or nothyng doubtyng of the mattier.

Nec opinata res eos perculit, The thynge wherof they doubted not, or thought not on, astonied theim.

Nec iniuria, not without a cause.

Nec ita multo post, not verie long after.

Nec mirum, and no meruaple at all.

Nec sicut vulgus, and not as the commune sorte of the people.

Neo caput nec pedes habet, It is a confuse mattier, it hath neyther head nor tayle, nor begynnyng nor endyng.

Nec illud, nec omnia sunt, quæ dicit, It is somwhat that he saieth, all though it be not all: or, I can not say, but that it is somwhat that he saith, and yet it is not all.

Nec eo minus, and yet neuertheleese.

Nec quicquam aliud quàm fleturum, And that he woulde doo nothyng but wepe.

Persolui gratia non potest, nec malo patri, a man can not recompence or shewe pleasure for pleasure, no not to an yll father.

Necátus, a, um, slayne.

Necatus veneno, poysoned.

Necatus fame, stamshed.

Nec dum, not yet.

Necessarie, idem quod necessario.

Necessario, necessarily, of necessitee, nedefully, of force, ineuitably, without redemption, without chopse.

Nec non, also.

Necesse & necessum, of force, that must nedes bee, necessarily.

Sed necesse est, but it must nedes be.

Necesse fuit facere, I myghte not choose but doo it, nedes I must haue doen it.

✠ Necesse habere, to haue nede.

Necessarius, rij, m. gene. a kynseman, a verais neere frende.

Necessarius, a, um, necessary, nedefull, ineuitable.

Necessitas, tátis, f. g. nede, necessitee, an aliance or bonde of amitee, neere frendeshyp.

Necessitates, necessary and vrgent businesses or affayres.

Astringi & cogi necessitate, to bee constreyned or forced of necessitee.

✠ Necessitati parendum est, vel necessitas inexora-exorabilis, Neceſſitee hath no lawe, or nedes muſt that nedes will be.

Datur neceſsitati venia, he that coulde not chooſe muſt nedes be pardoned.

Ea quæ habent aliquam neceſsitatem, ſuche thynges as muſt nedes, or as be neceſſary.

Neceſsitatem imponere, iniungere, afferre, to conſtreigne.

Neceſsitate coactus, feci, I was forced or conſtreigned of neceſſitee to doo it.

Reliquis tribus virtutibus neceſsitates propoſitæ ſunt. &c. The other three vertues bee forced of neceſſitee, or muſt nedes. ⁊c.

Neceſsitudo, dinis, f. g. idem quod neceſsitas.

Facere neceſsitudinem alicui, to conſtreigne one. Facere neceſsitudinem alicui cum aliquo, to make acqueynted or familiar.

Neceſsitudinibus publicis implicitus, lette or troubled with the vrgent affayres or neceſſary buſineſſes of the commune weale.

Adiungere ad ſuam neceſsitudinem bonos viros, to aſſociate to him in familiaritee and frendſhyp good and honeſt men.

Coniungere neceſsitudinem cum aliquo, to become acqueynted and familiar with one.

Omnibus neceſsitudinibus circumuentus, bounden or in daunger to one for a thouſande pleaſures that he hath ſhewed hym.

Recipere aliquem in neceſsitudinem, to receyue or numbre one among his frendes and familiars.

Intercedit alicui neceſsitudo cum aliquo, he is familiar, or well acqueynted with hym.

Neceſsitudo eſt mihi cum illo, he and I bee familiar, or I haue good acqueyntaunce with hym. Neceſsitudinem habui conſtitutam, I was acquaynted or familiar.

Nouas neceſsitudines adiungere, to get new frendes and acquayntance.

Nos ſumma neceſsitudine attingunt, They are verate familiar with vs, or they bee oure nere frendes.

Neceſsitudinem colere, to cheriſh and maintayne acqueyntance, or frendſhyp.

Necun, auncient writers vſed for Nec cum.

Nec ne, or not.

Neco, necáui, necâtum, and nécui, nectum, necare, to ſlea, to kyll.

Necos, a kynge of Egypte.

Necromantes, tis, m. g. a necromancer, he that calleth vp damned ſpirites.

Necrománticus, idem.

Necromántia, æ, f. g. necromancy.

Necrópolis, a citee of Aegypt.

Nectar, néctaris, n. g. a pleaſaunt ſycour, which the poetes feigned to be the drynke of goddis ſometyme it ſignifieth immortalitee.

Nectareus, a, um, immortall, diuine, ſweete, pleaſant.

Nectarea herba, an herbe, called alſo Inula Campana, Elicampane.

Nectarites, a drynke made with the ſame herbe.

Necto, nexui, and nexi, nectere, to knytte, wynde or bynde lates or other ſuche thynges.

Nectere aliquid ex duabus rebus, to make one thyng of twayne.

Nectere cauſas, to make excuſes.

Nectere aliud ex alio, to hange one thyng by an other.

Nectere dolum alicui, to inuent a meane to receyue or mocke one.

Necti, the paſſiue of Necto, whan the detour was deliuered to his creditour in bondage. Coronam néctere alicui, To make a garlande for one.

Moras nectere, to make delaies.

Nectus, a, um, of Neco, kylled without weapon, as with famine, colde, and ſuche lyke.

Nécubi, leſt in any place. ſometyme in no place.

Necubi regum deſiderium eſſet, That they ſhuld not be deſyrus of kynges in any place: or that they ſhoulde not lacke or want a kynge in any place.

Videndum necubi aqua conſiſtat, They muſt bee ware, that the water dwe not ſtande or reste in any place.

Nécunde, leſt from any place.

Circumſpectans necunde impetus in frumentatores fieret, lokyng rounde about, that they ſhould not inuade or bycalle vpon the forragers from any place.

Necya, æ, f. ge. a funerall ceremonie at the graues of deade men.

Necyomantia, diuination by callyng vp of dead ſpirites.

Necýdalus, li, m. gen. a certayne wourme, of the whiche the ſylke wourme cometh, or whiche in the ſpace of fyue weekes is turned into the ſylke wourme called Bombix.

Nedum, not onely, and is vſed two waies, either whan bothe clauſes bee reduced to one verbe: as Funderem pro te ſanguinem, nedum pecuniam, I wolde ſpende for the not onely my money, but alſo my bloude: or elles whan eche clauſe hath his proper verbe. as, Funderem pro te ſanguinẽm, nedum pecuniam tibi crederem, I wolde not onely lende you money, but alſo ſhedde my bloude for you, or put my lyfe in daungier for your ſake.

Ne crederem tibi óbolum, nedum vitam meam, I wolde not truſt the with one halfe penye, mache leſſe with my lyfe.

Nedum morbum remouiſti, ſed etiam grauedinem, Thou haſt not onely put away the ſyckeneſſe. ⁊c.

Nefandus, a, um, horrible, not to be named.

Nefarius, a, um, curſed, vnwoorthye to lyue, wycked, myſcheuous.

Nefans, antis, om. ge. idem quod Nefandus.

Nefarie, wyckedly, naughtyly, myſcheuouſly.

Nefárium, rij, n. g. a wicked or deteſtable acte.

Nefas indeclin. neu. gene. a thyng deteſtable, a wicked

wicked acte, a curſed decde.
Nefas habetur, it is compted a heinous thyng.
Nefaſtus, a, um, vnluckye, vnhappy.
Nefaſtus, ſometyme for Nefarius.
Nefaſti dies, daies, in the which it was not leſull to ſpeake three woordes, Do, dico, addico, daies, on the whiche it was vnlefull to pleade in the lawe.
Nefrendes, um, com. g. pigges weaned, called ſhotes, after ſome weathers, after others, yong infantes.
Negabundus, a, um, that denyeth.
Negatio, ônis, f. g. a denyng, a nay.
Negans, antis, denyng, ſayng nay.
Negánna, æ, f. g. idem quod negatio.
Negatiuus, a, um, that denieth.
Negatus, a, um, denied.
Negito, aui, are, to deny.
Neglectim, careleſly.
Neglectus, us, m. g. ſmall regarde, contempt.
Neutiquã hæc res neglectui eſt mihi, I make in no wiſe neglecte this affaire or buſineſſe: or I muſt in no wiſe be negligent in this matter, or I make in no wiſe forget this matter.
Neglectus, a, um, not regarded, contemned, not paſſed vpon, nil looked to.
Negligéntia, æ, fœ. g. negligence, recheleſneſſe, nil lookyng to a thyng.
Negligentia fortunæ, contempte of fortune, and thynges caſuall.
Négligens, entis, om. g. negligente, retcheleſſe, that palleth on nothyng.
Negligentem feceris, ye ſhall make hym retcheleſſe, or in ſuche caſe, that he will paſſe on nothynge.
Negligens ſui, negligent or recheleſſe in thynges pertaynyng to hym ſelfe.
Negligenter, negligently, recheleſſely, ſometyme contemptuouſely.
Négligo, glexi, gligere, to neglect or haue lyttell regarde to a thyng, to be retcheleſſe in doyng a thyng, to contemne, not to paſſe vpon, to make nil to a thyng.
Periculum fortunarum & capitis negligere, not to feare to putte all his gooddes and lyfe in daungier.
Non negligere aliquod negotium, not to be recheleſſe in dooeyng a thynge.
Minas alicuius negligere, not to paſſe on or make accompte of menacynges or threatnynges.
Nego, aui, are, to deny, to refuſe, to ſay nay.
Negato eſſe iuram, ſaie ſhe will not go.
Negaris ſæpe eſſe domi, They ſaie often tymes that thou arte not at home.
Quin te ductarum neges, but that ye will refuſe to marry hir.
Negãt quenq; virum bonum, niſi ſapientẽ, they ſaie that no man is good, but only a wyſe man.
Negotiális, le, pertaynynge to marchandyſe, or occupation.
Negotiátio, ônis, fœ. g. occupiyng of marchandiſe, buyng and ſellyng.
Negotiátor, ôris, m. gen. a marchaunt man, an occupier, a factour.
Negótior, âris, ári, to exercyſe marchaundiſe in ſtraunge countreies. alſo to be in buſyneſſe.
Negotiari animas dicuntur medici, To geat their lyuyng by byllyng of men.
Negotiósus, a, um, buyng muche buſyneſſe in body or mynde, full of buſyneſſe.
Res negotioſa, a buſy and peynfull mattier.
Negotioſi eramus nos noſtris negotiis, we were buſyly occupied in our affayres.
Negotioſa & moleſta prouincia, full of peyn and trauaple.
Negótium, ij, n. gen. buſyneſſe, affayre, charge, care, trouble.
Dare negotium, to geue in charge.
Sui negotij benegerens, he that doeth wel his buſyneſſe, or that exploiteth well his affaires.
Plurimum in eo negotij habui, I trauapled muche in it, I had muche a doe with it.
Negotium mãgnum eſt nauigare, atque id menſe quintili, it is muche a doe to ſayle there, ſpecially in the monthe of July.
Negotium faceſſere, exhibere, confiare, facere, to trouble or vexe one, to putte to buſyneſſe, to put in daungier by accuſyng or layng ſome thyng to his charge.
Eſt mihi negotium, I haue ſomwhat to doo.
Ita negotium eſt, the mattier ſo requireth.
Nullo negotio, without peyne, eaſily.
Nil eſt negotij, it is lyghtly dooen.
Sed quid negotij, quamobrem ſuccenſes mihi? what is the mattier why thou art angry with me?
Obiectum eſt mihi negotiũ, I am in trouble.
Offerre ſe negotiis alienis, to meddle in other mens matters without any commaundement.
Negotij ſum plenus, I haue as muche to do as I can tourne me to.
Id ſibi negotij credidit ſolum dari, he thoughte he ſhoulde haue had none other buſyneſſe but this. Humana negotia, worldely affayres.
Mirabar, quid hic negotij eſſet ubi, I meruayled what buſyneſſe thou haddeſt here, or what thou haddeſt here to doe.
Quaſi negotij nihil ſit, as though there were nothyng to doe.
Pompeio cum Cæſare eſt negotium, Pompeie hath buſyneſſe with Cæſar, or hath ſomewhat to do with Cæſar.
Negotia reipublicæ, the affayres of the commune weale.
Negotium meum non eſt, It is no buſynes or mattier of myne.
Negotiorum curator, a ſolicitour, or a factor.
Negotiolum, li, n. g. a lyttle buſyneſſe or mattier.
Neleides, patronymicum of Neleus, as it were of the progenie of Neleus.
Neleus, the father of duke Neſtor.
Neléus, and Neleius, a, um, of Neleus.

Nemanſus, a citee of Narbon, called commonly Nimes.

Nem, ſometyme, alſo excepte.

Nemea, a woodde in Greece, where Hercules ſlewe. iii. horrible lyons.

Nemeæus, a, um, of Nemea.

Nemertes, a kaȝie of the ſea.

Nemeſis, the name of a goddeſſe, whom the paynims ſuppoſed to be the punyſher of greuous offẽders, ſome call hir Foꝛtune Suidas ſaieth, that Nemeſis, is iuſtice, complaynt, exȝoche, enuy, foꝛtune. Eraſ. Nemeſis, is a goddeſſe, the reuenger of inſolencie and arrogancie: ſhe is called Adraſtia of Adraſto, the kynge, that firſt conſtituted to hir a temple.

Nemeti, people of a citee in Germanye, called Spꝛyes.

Nemetobriga, a towñe in Spayne called Valdenebro.

Nemo, néminis, com. g. no man, oꝛ no woman, no bodye.

Nemo non, euery body.

Nemo homo, foꝛ nemo omnino, none at all.

Nemo vnus, no one man.

Nemo eſt hominum, qui metuat minus, there is no man alyue, oꝛ no man in the woꝛlde, that feareth leſſe.

Nemo omnium, no man kyuyng, no man in the woꝛlde. alſo not one of theim all.

Nemo hoc neſcit, euery man knoweth this, oꝛ all the woꝛlde knoweth this.

Non nemo, many, ſome, certayne perſones. ſometyme euery man.

Nemo hercle quiſquam, in kayeth no man in the woꝛlde.

Contigit tibi, quod haud ſcio an nemini, id eſt, vlli.

Nemo diuûm, foꝛ nullus diuorum.

Neminis, Cato vſed in the genitiue caſe.

Nemo, is ſpoken of women.

Hoc ſcio vnum, neminem peperiſſe hic, I know this one thing, that no body is bꝛought a bedde here.

Nemorâlis, le, pertaynyng to a wood oꝛ groue.

Nemorenſis, ſe, idem.

Nemorenſis rex, the chiefe pꝛieſte of Diana.

Nemorinagus, a, um, that wandꝛeth in a wood oꝛ groue.

Nemoróſus, a, um, full of woodꝛes.

Cupreſſu nemoroſus, full of cꝛyes trees, oꝛ haunyng many cꝛyes trees.

Nempe, an aduerbe of confirming, and is ſometyme vſed with an interrogation, ſometyme without, foꝛbecauſe, truely, ſometyme it ſignifieth foꝛ.

Nempe negas ad beate viuendum ſatis eſſe virtutem? Doo ye deny than that vertue. &c. oꝛ, ye dooe denie than, that vertue is ſuffycient to perfect felicitee, doo ye not? without interꝛogation: as, Nempe omnia hæc verba huc redeunt, All theſe wooꝛdes in deede come to this poynt.

Recta via illuc. G. Nempe ad Pamphilum, that is to Pamphila: oꝛ ye meane I am ſure in Pamphilas houſe.

Nempe, in anſwerynge: Expedies? D. Certe Pamphile. P. Nempe vt modo, yea in dede as thou dyddeſt whyle ere.

Neemias, a Jewe, cupbearer to Artaxerxes, kyng of Perſia, a man of great learnyng and holyneſſe, who weyng in great fauour with the kynge, obteyned bothe licence and ayde to mendike the citee of Hieruſalem, afoꝛe the incarnation of Chꝛiſte. 447. yeres.

Nemrod, is interpꝛeted rebelle, oꝛ gouernour ſleeppyng: he was the ſonne of Chus, ſonne of Cham, the ſeconde ſonne of Noe. he is of ſome written Nimrod, of ſome Nembꝛoth. He was alſo called Saturnus Babylonicus, and was the fyꝛſt that toke on hym to reigne ouer men, and attempted to buyld the great towꝛe of Babylon, intendyng to haue ꝛeyſed it aboue the cloudes, thynkyng theꝛby to haue eſcaped, if any floudde ſhoulde efteſones haue happened. He was befoꝛe the incarnation of Chꝛiſt 2170. yeres, after the cꝛeation of the woꝛlde. 1788. yeres.

Nemus, nemoris, a woodde ſeruyng foꝛ pleaſure, a groue.

Nenunt, was vſed of olde wꝛiters foꝛ Niſi, etiam, nempe.

Nenum, was of olde tyme vſed foꝛ Non.

Neo, neui, ere, to ſpynne.

Neobóle, the daughter of Lycambis.

Neocles, a philoſophꝛer of Athenes.

Neodunum, a citee in Fraunce in the countreye of Lyons, called Leonduli.

Neogamus, newly wedded, a bꝛyde groome.

Neómagus, a towne in Fꝛance called Nemure. It was alſo a citee in Bꝛytannia, whiche ſommen ſuppoſe to bee Cheſter.

Neomenia, æ, fœ. ge. the moone whyle ſhe is in chaungeyng and lackyng lyght, the tyme of the new moone.

Neóphytus, ti, m. gen. a man newly entred into any pꝛofeſſion, a new man. alſo a tꝛee oꝛ heꝛbe newe ſpꝛongen vp.

Neoptólemus, mi, maſc. gene. a yonge oꝛ newe ſouldiour, a knyght newely made, it was the ſurname of Pyꝛrhus, whiche was the ſonne of Achilles.

Neotéricus, ci, m. g. one of late tyme.

Nepa, æ, oꝛ Nepes, pis, a ſcoꝛpion: heꝛof Eraſmus doubteth, looke the pꝛouerbe, Imitabor Nepam. alſo the firſt kynd of the heꝛbe called aconitum.

Nepenthes, n. g. a dꝛynke confectioned oꝛ made by Helene, wyfe of Menelaus, whiche cauſed theym that dꝛanke theꝛof, to foꝛget all ſoꝛowe. Some ſuppoſe it to bee made with the heꝛbe, called Boꝛage, in latin Bugloſſa. wheꝛfoꝛe that heꝛbe is of ſome men ſo called.

Né-

Népeta, or Népita, a citee in Tuscane. it is also an herbe called Calampnt, but therof be two sortes: the ons more, with leaues somewhat hore, whiche I suppose to be Nep: the other lesse, hauyng leaues lyke peny royal, but somwhat greatter: whiche of some men is called wylde peny royall, and groweth in plasshye groundes. Dioscorides semeth to make three kyndes of Népeta.

Nephália, órum, n. ge. plur. the feastes of sobre men, where no wyne is vsed, but only meathe.

Néphele, les, a greke word, signifieth a cloude. it was also the name of a woman, mother of Helles, whiche gaue the name to the sea called Hellespontus.

Nephelides, small spottes in the eies.

Nepheleus, a, um, of Néphele.

Nephritis, phritidis, f. g. a sickenesse and greefe in the raynes.

Nephriticus, a, um, that hath peyn in the raines.

Nepos, nepótis, m. gene. the soonnes sonne, or daughters sonne, a nephew sometyme it is taken for a nece. it also signifieth a riottous person, a ruffian.

Nepótes, signifieth all the succession folowyng sonnes and daughters.

Sororis nepos, id est nepos ex sorore.

Nepos in suo patrimonio, he that riottously spendeth or wasteth his heritage.

Nepotes in vite, The ponge braunches that springe euery yere out of the vine, and are cut awaie.

Nepotínus, a, um, of a nephew, or of a ruffian, or riottous spender.

Nepótor, aris, ari, to lyue or spende riottously, to lyue lyke a ruffian.

Nepotátus, us, masc. gene. riot or superfluous dispenses.

Nepótulus, li, m. g. a diminutiue of Nepos.

Neptis, tis, f. ge. the sonnes daughter or daughters daughter, a nece.

Neptúnius, a, um, of Neptune.

Neptúnus, ni, m. g. the god of the sea.

Neptunália, órum, neu. gene. plur. feastes of Neptune.

Neptunine, nes, the daughter or nece of Neptune.

Nepus, sluttyshe.

Nequa, lest by any waies or place.

Nequalia, detrimentes.

Nequam, a noune vndeclined, an yll man, one that is lecherous and an yll lyuer of his body. also he that is good for nothynge, a naughtye vnthryft, vngracious, vnthrifty.

Tanto nequior, the lesse grace is in the.

Frugi, and Nequam, contrary.

Eiusdem agilitatis homo frugi, melius quàm nequam faciet, If there be two men of semblable agilitee or wyldnesse & besterryng of theim selues, an honest felowe shall dooe any thynge that he is set vnto better than shall an vnthrifty felowe or a naughty packe.

Nequam & cessator, an vngracious vnthrifte and loyterer.

Nunquàm vidi hominem nequiorẽ, I neuer sawe a more vngracious knaue or a more vnthrifty person.

Nequam vitis, id est, inutilis.

Nequam, sometyme for Nequiter.

Néquando, at no tyme, lest at any tyme.

Nequáquam, no, not, in no wyse.

Neque, a coniunction, neither.

Neque enim hoc possum negare, and without doubt I can not denye this.

Neque tu haud dicas tibi nõ prædictum, saie not, but that ye were tolde of it before.

Nequedum, not yet.

Neque quicquam quàm, for tantum, nothynge els or onely.

Neque secus eo, and yet neuer the lesse.

Neque vt opinor, sine tuo. &c. And as I thynke not without. &c.

Neque id quidem facient, And I knowe sures ly, they will not graunte that neither.

Néqueo, quíui, nequítum, nequire, I can not.

Nequeo quin fleam, I can not chose but wepe.

Nequitur, the impersonall.

Nequis, nequa, nequod, vel nequid, lest any body, or lesse any persone.

Nequíssimus, worst of all, moste vngracious, or vnthryfte.

Nequicquam, in vayne, also no.

Nequino, aui, are, to denye. also to playe the wanton.

Nequinum, a citee in Italy now called Neruia.

Nequinunt, olde writers vsed for Nequeunt, they make not.

Nequis, lest that any man, or that no man.

Nequitia, æ, fœm. ge. vnthryftynesse, where one is geuen to all voluptuousenesse and lecherye, naughtynesse, vngraciousenesse, negligence, lewdnesse. also crafte, gyle.

Quantam fenestram ad nequitiam patefeceris? Howe great a gappe shulde you breake open vnto naughtinesse? or how great occasiõ should you geue hym to lyue lewdly and naughtyly?

Frugalitas, and Nequitia, contrary.

Néquiter, vnthryftily, vngraciously, lewdely, naughtyly.

Nequiter & frugaliter, contrarie.

Nequitus, was vsed of olde writers for nequiter.

Nereides, fairies of the sea.

Nereus, a god of the sea. and sometyme it is put for the sea.

Nerine, nes, the daughter or nece of Nereus.

Nerio, nerienis, the wyfe of Mars.

Neris, idem quod Nardus montana.

Nerite, a kynde of shell fysshes.

Neritos, an yle in the myddell sea. also an hyll in the yle Ithaca.

Neritius, a, um, of Neritos, Ulysses was so called.

Nerium,

Nerium, rij, neut gener. a tree or shrub, whiche hath leaues lyke an almonde, whiche some doo call Oleander, some Rosagine, some rose laurell. it is also a promontorie or elbowe of lande in Galitia, lyyng into the west sea, not farre from Compostella.

Nero, called also Domitius, an emperor, sonne of Gn. Domitius Nero, adopted into themspire by Claudius, who maried his mother Agrippina: although he were broughte vp by the reuerende and wise Seneca, yet by the incurable corruption of his nature, he became horrible vicious, in so muche as he caused hym selfe to be gelded, and cutte in the forme of a woman, and so to bee abused, and by his cruelte made his owne mother to bee slayne, and the cite of Rome to bee bourned, he in the meane tyme playyng on a harpe, and syngynge the destruction of Troie. Finally he beyng hated of all men, was slayne in a caue, wherinto he fledde, whan he was but. xxii. yeres olde, and had reigned. xiiii. yeres, in the. lvii. yere after the incarnacion of Chriſte.

Nerua, æ, f. g. an harpe or lute strynge.

Neruiceus, a, um, of synewes.

Nerui, people inhabityng in Tourney and the countrete adioignyng.

Neruium, ij, idem quod Neruia.

Neruiani, people nygh to Rome.

Nerulonenſes, people in Campania.

Nerulum, a towne in Lucania.

Neruoſus, a, um, hauyng great sinewes or many sinewes it also signifieth strongely, strongly made in body.

Neruoſus orator, an oratour that hath a pithy and earneſt style.

Neruóſitas, ãtis, fœm. g. the hauyng of sinewes or strengthe.

Neruoſe, strongely, pithily, vehemently.

Neruus, ui, m. gen. a sinewe, and by translacion force or strengthe. also a fetter or gyue, wherewith the legges are tyed. also the strynge of an instrument or bowe.

Neruos intendere, and Contendere omnes neruos, or contendere omnibus neruis in re aliqua, To endeuour with all force and myght, to employe all diligence possible.

Nerui reipublicæ, prouision for defence of the countrete, strengthe and puissance of the common weale, that is to saie, strong men, treasure, shippes &c.

Nerui belli, monete and men of armes.

Sine neruis, without ypth & strength, weake.

Neruis virtutis incidere, To make vertue weake and feeble.

Incidere neruos virtutis, To make vertue feinte or feeble.

Corripere aliquem in neruum, to cast one in to prison, or in to fetters.

Adducere arcum, or neruum, to draw a bowe.

Erumpit sagitta neruo pulsante, the arrowe fleeth out of the bowe.

Sagittam aptare neruo, to sette his arrow in his bowe.

Concordia neruorum, the tune or agrement of the stringes of an instrument.

Percutere vel pulsare neruos, to stryke the stringes.

Neruulus, a diminutiue of Neruus.

Nerua, called also Cocceius (a Gentile) was a good and noble emperour. In the begynnyng of his reigne, he set at libertee all christen men, whiche were accused or banished: He so muche exceded in liberalitee toward poore men, that he thereby lackynge treasure, caused his apparayle, plate, and ryche stuffe to bee solde for his necessitee, and ordeyned, that the children of poore men shoulde be kept with the common treasure, and determyned nothyng by hym self, but onely by the consent of excellent wyse men: yet not withstandyng his syncerite and vertuous lyfe, he lacked not traitours, whom he dyd tollerate wonderfully, and at the last dyed of the age of. lxxi. yeres, whan he had reigned one yere and iii monethes, after the incarnation of Chriſte. 99. yeres.

Neſa, a countrete in the yle of Sicile, taignyng to Aetna.

Neſcio, neſciui, neſcire, not to knowe, to bee ignorannt.

Neſcio alios, me ſcio quidem &c. as for other men I knowe not, for myne owne parte, I am eyght sure, that &c.

Neſcio quid circumſpectat, He loketh about hym what so euer the matter is.

Lætus eſt neſcio quid, he is merry what so euer the matter is.

Si ſapis, quod ſcis, neſcis, yf thou bee wyse, thou wylt holde thy peace, or kepe it as secrete as though thou knewest nothing of the matter.

Irasci neſciunt, they can not, or they will not be angry.

Latine neſcit, he is ignorant in the latin tong, he can not speake latine.

Hic neſcit, niſi fœnus fabulari, he can talke or speake of nothyng but of vsurie.

Neſcio quid mihi animus præſagit mali, I can not telle howe my mynde geueth me, that some yll or mysfortune will chaunce ere it bee longe.

Vt quo ſe vertat, neſciat, id eſt, neſciet, that he shall not wotte whither to turne hym.

Neſcitur, the impersonall, it is not knowen.

Neſcius, a, um, that is not knowen, or doeth not knowe.

Neſi, people of Scythia in Europe.

Neſia, a nymph of the sea.

Neſium, or Neſis, an yle by Campania.

Neſſotróphium, phij, n. ge. a place where ducshes be kept to be made fatte.

Neſſus, a Centaure, whiche rauyshed Deianira Hercules wyfe, who beeynge wounded to death, gaue gaue to Deianyra a poyſon, wherwith Hercules thirte beyng waſhed, and putte on hym, his body dyd rotte with moſte horrible peynes, which he not ſuſteynyng, dyd enter into a great fyre, and leat hym ſelfe be burned.

Neſtor, neſtoris, a duke of Greece, whiche came to the ſiege of Troie, who in geuyng counſell was reputed moſte excellent, and lyued (as he hym ſelfe ſaied) thre mens ages.

Neſtorides, the ſonne or nephue of Neſtor.

Neſtorius, a great heretike, biſhop of Conſtantinople, the yere of our Lorde. 419. who denyed Chriſt to be god Of him the heretikes holdyng that opinion, were called Neſtoriani.

Neſtus, a ryuer of Thrace.

Netrides, a hynd of oliues.

Neu, for neue, or non.

Neu lachryma ſoror, wepe not ſyſter. ſometyme it ſignifieth not, whan it is doubled.

Neuſe, neu Pompeium abſentem imperatorem aduerſarijs ad ſupplicium tradant, obſecrat, he deſpyed theym, that they woulde not betraye neyther hym nor Pompeie theyr captayne beyng abſent, vnto their ennemies to bee put to cruell deathe.

Neuceria, a citee in Umbria, a parte of Italy.

Neue, or not, nor yet.

Neugmate, for Negare.

Neuola, a ryuer.

Néuolo, neuis, neuult, for Nolo, nonuis.

Neuri, people of Scythia, of whom it is writen, that in ſommer they wer turned to wolues.

Neuricus, a, um, that hath greke of the ſinues.

Neurobâta, æ, ma gene. a walker on cordes or ropes.

Neuſtria, Normandy.

Néuter, tra, trum, triſſyllabum, after Priſcian, none of theim, neither the one nor the other, neither of the two. The latyne writers vſe not to ſaie, Néuter neutri, but rather néuter alteri: Nor proprie ip, vterq; vtriq;, but vterque alteri.

Neuter vtri inuidet, the one dooeth not enuye the other.

Néuter anguis, id eſt nec mas, nec fœmina.

Néuna alteri officit, neither doth hurte other.

Neuter alterum diligit, neyther of theym loueth other.

Néutrum ab altero ſeparo, I dooe diuide or ſeparate neither of theim from other.

Neutrâlis, le, that is a neuter, and belongeth to neither of the parties.

Neutro, aduerbium, neither to the one parte, nor to the other.

Neutróbi, idem.

Néutiquam, in no wyſe, in no condition.

Neuus, ui, m. ge. a mole, or other lyke marke in the body or viſage.

Nex, nécis, fœ. ge. violente deathe with weapon or other force.

Artifices necis, inuenters of ſtraunge deathes and tormentes.

Conciuit ſibi ipſi necem, he killed hym ſelfe.

Dedere aliquem neci, to kyll, to put to deth.

Eripere necem alicui, to ſaue ones lyfe.

Neci datus, ſlayne.

Néxilis, le, any thyng that maie be knyt.

Nexi, were free men, whiche bonde them ſelfe to ſerue, to be therfore acquited of their dettes.

Nexo, aui, are, or Nexo, nexui, nexere, to knyt often.

Nexus, a, um, knitte or bounden.

Nexu ſolutus, diſcharged of bonde.

Nexa res pignori, a thyng laied to morgage.

Nexum æs, money that one is bound to paye or delyuer.

Nexum inire, to be wrapped in bondes, to become ſeruaunt or bondeman to his creditour for faute of paiement.

Nexus, us, m. ge. a bonde, an obligacion, wherwith one is obliged to doo a thyng, a knotte, a tyynge.

Nexu vincti, they that are bounde to ſerue for theyr debt.

NI, yf not, but yf, excepte, leſte that. Ni, was vſed of olde writers for Non, alſo for Ne.

Ni teneant curſus, for Ne teneant.

Mirum ni domi eſt, It is meruaple but that he is at home, or if he be not at home.

Ni metuam patrem, yf I dyd not feare my father, or if it were not that I am afraide of my father.

Niæthos, a ryuer in Sicile.

Nicæarchus, a famous peincter.

Nicandrus, or Nicander, a famous poete, which wrote of poyſons.

Nicânor, nicânoris, a grammarian of Alexandria in the tyme of Adrian the emperour.

Nicator, nicâtoris, m. ge. a vanquiſher. it was the ſurname of Seleucus.

Nicea, and Nicia, a citee in Bithynia, where was holden the holy counſail againſt Arrius. In the whiche was preſent the noble Emperour Conſtantinus Magnus. There is an other citee of that name in Fraunce.

Nicedula, idem quod Cicindela.

Nicerotiânum, ni, n. gen. a ſweete and pleaſant oyntment.

Nicepſus, a greke phiſition and a great magician, about the yere of our lorde 650.

Niceréria, orum, n. g. plu. rewardes for victorie, as rynges, colars of golde, or garlandes. ſome doo write it Niceretia.

Nicetes, a ſophiſter in the tyme of Alexander, excellently learned.

Nicias, a noble man of Athens. it is alſo the name of certayne other.

Nico, one of the Tarentines that conſpyred against hapnſt Iannibali.

Nicocreon, a tyran of Cyptes.
Nicolaitæ, were heretikes, whiche tooke that name of Nicolas, one of the. vii. deacons in the tyme of the apoſtles, who beyng blamed of theim for his ialouſy, broughte his wyfe, who was fayre, amonge all the diſciples, ſayynge, that who ſo wouldo, ſhulde vſe hir, thynkyng therby to pourge hym ſelfe of ialouſye: wherof other yll men takynge occaſion, beleued, that euery man mought lefully vſe euery woman that he luſted, which hereſy (as reaſon wouldè) was condemned immediately, but it is to bre feared, that it is not clerely extincte.
Nicolai, vſed of Auguſtus for great dates.
Nicolaus, a mans name.
Nicomachus, the name of dyuers men.
Nicomedes, a kyng of Bithynia.
Nicomedia, a noble citee in Bithynia, where Conſtantinus magnus the emperour dyed. it is nowe called of the turkes Nicor.
Nicophanes, a counnyng peinctor.
Nicópolis, a citee in Epire, where Octauian vainquiſhed Antonie and Cleopatra.
Nicoſtrata, called alſo Carmentis, was mother vnto Euander, kynge of Latines, and a pro-pheteſſe.
Nicoſtratus, a famous oratour of Macedony. There was alſo a poete and a mynſtrel of the ſame name. alſo an excellẽt plaier of comedies.
Nicromantia, lyke Necromantia.
Nictátio, ônis, fœ. g. a wynkyng or twynkilyng with the eies.
Nicto, tere, to vent or open as a hounde or ſpa-nyell doeth, whan he hath the ſent of the game.
Nicto, aui, are, to wynke, to twynkle with the eyes.
Nictor, âris, ari. idem. alſo to endeuour or ſtire with any parte of the body.
Nidamentum, i, neu. gen. a place where byrdes make their neſtes.
Nideo, dère, to ſhyne, to geue a ſauour.
Nidifico, aui, are, to buylde a neſte.
Nidificus, a, um, that maketh a neſte.
Nidor, ôris, m. ge. the ſauour of a thynge bour-ned or roſted. ſometyme grinnyng or ſhewyng of the teethe. ſometyme bygyhneſſe.
Nidulor, âris, ari, to make a neſte. alſo to ſyt a broode on egges.
Nidulus, li, m. g. a littell neſte.
Nidus, i, m. g. a neſte. ſometyme the byrdes that be in the neſte, alſo a veſſell lyke a neſte. Alſo bores or cheſtes, wherin groſſers or mercers doo put their wares, be called Nidi.
Diſtrahere aues nidis, to pull birdes out of their neeſtes.
Loquaces nidi, chyrpyng yong birdes.
Conſtruere nidum, to make a neſt.
Nigella, læ, fœm. gene. an herbe, that beareth a blacke ſeede of good ſauoure, whiche profiteth agaynſt reumes.
Nigellus, a, um, browne of colour, ſomewhat blacke.
Niger, gra, um, blacke. ſometyme it ſignifieth purple. ſometyme darke: by tranſlation dead, alſo hurtfull, perillous, yll, naughty.
Nigra vena, id eſt, Mediana.
Nigrum marrubium, idem quod ballote.
Nigrum papauer, gith.
Nigidius figulus, an auncient Romayne, whiche was a philoſophier, of the ſecte of Pythagoras, and wrate wonderfull ſubtilly, about the yere of our lord. xlviii. he dyed in exyle.
Nignia, a certayne herbe, which taketh away the ſcarres of woundes.
Nigir, a ryuer of Libya.
Nigra, idem quod anemone.
Nigrans, antis, that is blacke, or darke.
Nigrêdo, grédinis, f. g. blackeneſſe.
Nigreo, & nigreſco, nigrui, ère, and ſcère, to become blacke.
Nigrefácio, grefacis, féci, fácere, to make blacke
Nigrefio, fieri, to be made blacke.
Nigrico, aui, are, to be ſomwhat blacke.
Nigrinus, a mans name in Luciane.
Nigris, a fountayne in Ethyope, which ſome ſup-poſe to bee the head of the famous ryuer Nilus.
Nigrities, ei, Nigritia, æ, and Nigritudo, nis dinis, f. g. blackeneſſe.
Nigro, aui, are, to make blacke, or to be blacke.
Nigror, ôris, m. g. blackeneſſe.
Nihil, n. g. indeclin. nothyng or nought.
✠ Nihil cum fidibus graculo: Nihil cum amas racino ſui, The dawe hath naught to doo with a late, nor the ſow with ople of maioram. A prouerbe applied to hym, whiche preſumyng of his wytte, meddleth with thynges that he can no ſkyll of.
Nihil ad noſtram hanc, nothyng in compari-ſon of this mayden that I ſpeake of.
Nihil ad te, it pertayneth nothynge to the, or it maketh no matter to the.
Nihil ad hanc rem eſt, it belongeth nothynge to this purpoſe.
Literarum admodum nihil ſciebat, he was nothyng lerned, or he was vtterly vnlearned.
Nihil admodum territus, feard nothyng at all.
Nihil agere, To labour in vayne, to loſe ones labour.
Nihil prætérquam vigilatum eſt, they dyd nat-thyng but watche.
Nihil audio, id eſt non audio.
Nihil mihi cum illo fuit, I had nothyng to doo wit hym.
Nihil eſt, it is an eaſy thyng, alſo there is no hope at all.
Nihil eſt quod, there is no neede, there is no cauſe why.
Nihil eſt quod dicas mihi, alium quærebam, It ſhall nothynge auayle the to ſaye vnto me, I ſought an other man.
Ego quid agas nihil intelligo, I can not per-ceyue tepne wherabout thou goeſt.

Nihil eſt æque quod faciam lubens, there is nothynge in the worlde, that I would doe ſo gladly.
Nihil intereſt dactylus ſit an creticus, it maketh no matter.
Nihil moror, I paſſe nothyng vpon, I dooe nothyng eſteme.
Nihil mihi potius fuit quàm. &c. I deſyred nothyng more than. &c.
Nihil quàm, for nihil aliud quàm. &c.
Nihil ſcio, for Neſcio, I can not tell.
Nihil rerum omnium eſt, There is nothyng in the worlde.
Nihil dum, nothyng yet.
Mea nihil refert, dum potiar modo, I paſſe not what I doo, ſo that I maie haue it.
Nihil feſtinare, to make no haſte.
Nihilum, li, n. g. idem quod Nihil.
Redigi ad nihilum, to be brought to nothyng to bee brought to verie poore eſtate.
Nilum, for Nihilum.
Nihili, of no price or value.
Cui minus nihilo eſt, whiche hath leſſe than nothyng.
Iſti nihilo ſum aliter ac fui, I am none otherwyſe towarde hym, than I haue been afore tyme.
Non hoc de nihilo eſt, this is not for naught.
Nihilo magis, neuer the more, neuer the rather Nihili melior, no better.
Nihilo minus, neuer the leſſe, not withſtandynge.
Quæ nihilo minus, vt ego abſim confici poſſunt, whiche maie well enough be diſpatched, all though I bee not there.
Nihilifacio, feci, facere, to ſette naughte by, to eſteme nothyng.
Nihilipendo, di, dere, idem.
Nil, nothyng. ſometyme for non.
Nilgenus, a, um, engendred, or bredde in, or of Nilus.
Nilion, lij, n. g. a ſtone lyke a Topace, but that is more duskyſhe.
Nilótis, nilótidis, f. g. of Nilus.
Nilus, a famous and great ryuer, rennyng thorough Ethiope and Aegypte, & is ſuppoſed to bee one of the ryuers of Paradyſe, called in holy ſcripture Gehon. Ill be it to me it ſeemeth vnlykely, for as muche as in Geneſis it is wrytten, that Gehon enuyronneth all Aethiopia, where is no mencion made, that it paſſeth thorough Aegypte, all bee it, that Egypt and the ryuer of Nilus wer more nygh to Moyſes, whan he wrate the Geneſim, than Aethiope was. And alſo Nilus was famouſe for the vertue of the water therecof, whiche ouerflowynge the countrepe of Aegypte, made the grounde wounderfulle fertyle manye yeeres after, ſo that without labourynge, the earthe broughte forth abundaunce of ſundry graynes & plantes, delectable, and profytable. Alſo drakes of ſundry kyndes, without other foureme of generacion, eſpecially whan the ryuer came to the depeneſſe of. xl. cubites. likewyſe whan it exceded not. viii. cubites, there ſucceded muche ſaſmine and ſcarſitee.
Nilus, is ſometyme vſed for a diech or mote, lyke as Euripus is.
Niliacus, & Nilóticus, a, um, pertaynyng to the riuer Nilus.
Nimbâtus, a, um, opned with ſwete oples.
Nimbifer, feri, the brynger of ſtormes.
Nimblis, an yle in the ſea called Ionium.
Nimbus, i, m. ge. a great ſhowre of rayne, a ſodeyne ſtorme of rayne or hayle, a great blaſte of wynde, a tempeſt of wether, by tranſlacion, a ſodayne and great fall. alſo a veſſell, out of the whiche wyne is drawen, or as ſome haue it a certaine potte, for wine, or water, or to kepe perfumes. ſometyme a cloude, wherin the goddis deſcended downe.
Cinxerunt æthera nimbi, the cloudes be ſett rounde about, as it is commonly before a great ſtorme.
Crepitant nimbi culminibus multa grandine, there is a great ſtorme of hayle.
Denſi funduntur ab æthere nimbi, a great ſhoure of rayne doth powre downe.
Nimbôſus, a, um, ſtormy, tempeſtuous.
Nimirum, pwys, ſurely, in faith, certainly, vndoubtedly. ſometyme it ſignifieth Scilicet, that is to ſay. ſometyme At, ſometyme it is added to an anſwere.
Vter melior dicetur orator? nimirum qui homo quoque melior, Whiche ſhall be ſayed to be the better orator? euen he that is alſo the better man.
Nimirum hi homines frigent, In faith theſe men be blanke, or out of courage.
Nimis & Nimium, doo ſignifie exceſſe in muche or lyttell.
Nimis magnus, to great.
Nimis paruus, to lyttell.
Nimis bonus, to good.
Nimis malus, to yll.
Nimis cito, to ſoone.
Nimis diu, to longe, or verie longe.
Nimis male metuo, I feare greatly, or I am verie greatly afearde.
Nimis q̃ cupio, and Nimis velim, I woulde verie fayne.
Nimis pulcher, verie fayre.
Nimietas, âtis, fœ. g. ſuperfluitee, exceſſe, great abundaunce.
Nimiè, and Nimiò, aduerbes, ſignifynge to muche, exceſſiuely.
Nimius, a, um, to muche, exceſſiue.
Nimius animi, he that hath to great a corage.
In dando nimius, to liberall, prodigall.
Nimium quàm delectabiliter, very pleſantly.
Nimium iſtoc abhinc, Thou wenteſt to farre that that wate.

Illud non nimium probo, I doo not allowe that greatly.
Nimium lubenter, with a ryght good wyll, verate gladly.
Ego te nimio plus diligo, I loue the muche better.
Nimio ſatius eſt, It is muche better.
Nimius, and Modicus, contrarye.
Nimiopere, an aduerbe ſignifiyng, to exceadyngely.
Ninguis, guis, fœ. g. was vſed of olde wryters for Nix.
Ningo, or Ninguo, ninxi, ere, to ſnowe.
Ninguidus, a, um, where there is muche ſowne.
Ningulus, la, lum, vſed of olde wryters, for Nec vllus.
Ninive, ſeu Niſibis, a citee in Aſſyria, buylded by Ninus, in compaſſe three dayes iourneye. There was an other citee of that name, in the corner of Iudæa towarde Arabia.
Ninos, a citee of Aſſyria, called alſo Ninus, and Ninive.
Ninus, kyng of Aſſyria, and ſonne of Belus, was the fyrſt that made warre. he conquered vnto Indie, and vainquiſhed Zoroaſtes kynge of Bactria, whiche fyrſt inuented art magike, and alſo cauſed fyrſt money to be currant. He had to his wyfe Semiramis he reigned. lii. yeres, before the incarnation of Chriſt 2055. yeres.
Niobe, bes, daughter of Tãtalus kyng of Phrygia, wyfe of Amphion, a woman of muche wyſedome, who brought foorth ſeuen ſoonnes, and as many daughters of excellent beautee, whereof ſhe vaunted and preferred hir ſelfe before Latona, mother of Apollo, and Diana. whereof Latona beyng angrye, commaunded Apollo to ſlea all the ſonnes, and Diana, all the daughters For whiche deede Niobe (thorough diſcomfort and heuyneſſe) loſte hir ſpeeche, and remayned without meuynge. Wherefore the poetes feigned, that ſhe was tranſformed into a ſtone vppon the ſepulchre of hir chyldren.
Niphæus, a mans name.
Niphates, a ryuer of the great Armenie.
Nireus biſſyllabum, the ſoonne of Caropus, the moſte beautifull of all the Greekes that came to Troie.
Niptum, i, n. g. a lauer, bathe, or bayne.
Nis, of olde tyme was vſed for nobis.
Niſa, a womans name in Virgill.
Niſſa, a citee in Lidia. alſo the name of diuers men.
Niſæe, a nymph or fayrie.
Niſeus, a place in Media, where was a good breede of fayre horſes.
Niſeus, a, um, of Niſus.
Niſi, except, but, but yf, ſauyng, yf not.
Niſi me animus fallit, If I bee not deceiued in myne owne mynde.
Niſi tu caues, yf thou take not hede.
Niſi quod, ſauyng that.
Hanc niſi mors mihi adimet nemo, There ſhall no man take hir from me but death.
Niſi quid pater aliud velit, Excepte perchaunce your fathers mynde bee to haue it otherwyſe.
Niſus, a kyng, of whom it is written, that he had one golden heare, the whiche cauſed hym alwaies to bee victorious. But his daughter called Mirrha, at the requeſt of one, with whoſe loue ſhe was taken, ſtale awaie the ſaied heare, wherby hir father was vanquiſhed and ſlain. it is alſo a kynd of haukes.
Niſus, a, um, the participle of Nitor.
Niſus, us, m. ge. endeuour, inforcement, labour to doo a thyng.
Niſyros, an yle nygh to Greece.
Nitédula, læ, f. ge. a glowe woorme that ſhyneth in the nyght. alſo a kynde of ſmall myce.
Nitela, æ, or nitella, fœ. g. clearenelle, gayneſſe, bryghtneſſe, alſo the ſmall glytteryng thynges in duſte or ſande, a toothe pycker. ſometyme it ſignifieth eleganey in ſpeeche.
Niteus, entis, ſhynyng, beautifull, gay.
Niteo, tui, ere, to be neate or cleane in body, garmentes or other thynges, to be beautifull and gaie. alſo to ſhyne.
Niteſco, ſcere, idem.
Nitibundus, a, um, endeuouryng, trudyng, trayſtyng to a thyng.
Conſpiratu nitebundi, puttyng their confidence or truſt eche in other with one aſſent or agreement.
Nitidè, cleanly, gorgiouſely, gaiely.
Nitido, aui, are, to make bryghte or cleane, to make neate or trymme.
Nitidiuſcule, the diminutiue of Nitide.
Nitidus, a, um cleere, neate, gaie.
Sol nitidus, the bryght and clere ſunne.
Verba nitida, eloquent and goodly woordes.
Nitriobriges, people of Narbon in Fraunce, nowe called Mount pellier.
Nitor, niteris, niti, to endeuour, to enforce or labour to doo a thynge, to leane to, to put truſt and confidence in a thynge, to bee ſtyffe, or to reſiſte agaynſt a thynge, to take peyne, to trauaple.
Nititur haſta, he leaneth to or on his ſpeare.
Niti alis, to flye.
Nititur in coniectura, it reſteth in coniecture.
Niti pari iugo, to take as muche peyne the one as the other.
Niti pro aliquo, to take ones parte, or to labour in defendyng his cauſe.
Niti gradu, to walke.
Maiorum conſilio & authoritate niti, To gouuerne hym ſelfe by the counſell and authoritee of his elders, to leane to the counſaile. &c.
Niti ad gloriam immortalem, to endeuour to get a name for euer.
Cuius in vita nitebatur ſalus ciuium, In whoſe lyfe conſiſted the good ſtate or wealthe of of the citee.

Nitens aduersus populum, thoulderynge or theustyng agaynst the people.
Nitor, ôris, m. g. cleannesse, bryghtenesse, gaynesse.
Nitaria, æ, the place where Nitrum groweth.
Nitrâtus, a, um, myxte with Nitrum.
Nitria, a countrete in Egypt, and the name of .ii. cities aboue Memphis.
Nitrôsus, a, um, where Nitrum is, or of the sauour of Nitrum.
Nitrum, i, n. g. a kynd of salte, whiche some suppose it to be ỳ, whych is called salte peter: but it is not true, for Dioscorides writeth, that Nitrum is of a lyght ruddy colour or whyte, has vyngе holes lyke vnto a spunge, and was put in to the potte with herbes, whereby they were made more tender and apte to be eaten. And I had some geuen to me, whiche was of a carnation colour, and not glisterynge, lyke our salte peter.
Rubentis nitri spuma. Ouid.
Niuâlis, niuâle, pertaynynge to snowe.
Aqua niualis, that commeth of snowe.
Oscitum niuale, a colde hysse.
Niuale cœlum, rayny wether.
Niualia loca, snowy places.
Niualis dies, a daye in the whyche it snoweth.
Niuârius, a, um, of or belongynge to snowe.
Vas or colum niuarium, a colander or a bolle with a clothe sette on the bottome to streynge lyquour thorough, a cleboll.
Saccus niuarius, a kynde of fyne strayners, as it were an ypocras bagge.
Niuâtus, a, um, made colde with snowe.
Niueus, a, um, lyke snowe, snowy, of snowe.
Niuôsus, a, um, full of snowe.
Nix, iuis, f. g. snowe.
Nixor, aris, ari, idem quod Nitor, niteris,
Nixurio, nixurĩ, ire, to attempt or endeuour to doo a thyng.
Nixus, a, um, borne or brought forth into the worlde, trustyng to, leanyng to, staied vp.
Nixus, us, m. g. the byrthe of a chylde. also endeuour.
Nixus, i, a sterre or planet in the firmament.

N ANTE O.

NO, aui, are, to swymme.
Nare contra aquam, to swym agaynst the streame.
Nôbilis, le, noble, famous, excellente in any thyng good or yll, well knowen.
Iis nunquam nobilis fui, id est cognitus.
Nobili loco natus, descended of a noble stocke, a gentyll man borne.
Nobiles, gentyll men.
Ad multa nobile fel, a gall verate excellente in medicine for many thynges.
Scelere nobiles, men famous and knowen amonge all other for theyr mischiefe.
Nobile facinus, a notable and famous acte, muche spoken of.
Nobilitas, atis, nobilitee, estimacion, noblenesse of byrthe, excellencie, and worthynesse, bruite and renoume.
Nobilitâtus, a, um, ennobled, made famous or notable, whether it be good or ill.
Nobilitata phalaridis crudelitas.
Nobiliter, nobly.
Nobilito, aui, are, to make noble, to promote to dignitee, to bryng to renoume, to bryngе to notable infamie by any thyng.
Flagitiis aliquem nobilitare, to be the cause that one doeth seme ill, by which he commeth to notable infamie.
Noceo, cui, cere, to hurte, to endomage.
Nihil nocuerit, si cum Balbo eris loquutus, It shal be no harm, if you talke somewhat with Balbus of the matter.
Nocere noxam, to doe hurt or domage to one, that must be satisfied or made amendis for.
Nocetur, the impersonall.
Nocens, entis, he that hath doon a trespasse or iniurie, that hurteth or endomageth.
Nochelim, idem quod ballote.
Nocenter, hurtfully.
Nociuus, a, um, hurtfull, noyous.
Nocteſco, scere, to ware nyght, or be darke.
Nocteſcit, the impersonall.
Nóctifer, tifera, um, that bryngeth nyght, the euenyng sterre is so called.
Noctifuga, the thyng that may not susteine night.
Noctiluca, a name, whereby the moone is called. also a lyttell beast, whyche shyneth by nyght.
Noctiuagus, a, um, that wandreth by nyght.
Noctu for Nocte, in the nyght, or by nyght.
Noctua, æ, f. g. an owle.
Noctuas Athenas, supple, portas, or mittis, Owles to Athens, a prouerbe, where one sendeth to a man any thynge, wherof he that receyueth it hath plentie.
Nocturnus, a, um, pertaynynge to nyght.
Nocuus, a, um, that whiche dooeth hurte.
Nodâtio, ônis, f. g. knottynesse.
Nodia, a certayne herbe, which curriours do vse, called also Mularis.
Nodinus, a god, whome the auncient Romains worshypped.
Nodo, aui, ari, to knytte, to tye knottes.
Nodôsus, a, um, knotty, full of difficultee.
Nódulus, a dimunitiue of nodus.
Nodus, i, m. g. a knotte, a knurle, a ioynete, a difficultee, an intricate mattier. also a throng of men in battayle.
Nodus Herculeus, Hercules knotte, a prouerbe applyed to a thyng, which by no meanes maie be louſed.
Nodum in scirpo quærere, to seke a knot in a russhe. A prouerb, where one maketh a thing difficult or doubtfull: whiche is verye playne to be vnderstande, or is scrupulouse in a thyng wythout cause.

Aheni nodi, chaynes of brasse.

Corporis nodi, the ioyntes of the body.

Articulorum nodi, the knottes where the ioyntes are fastened and knitte.

Nodum soluere, to dissolue a harde doubte or intricate matter.

Dum hic nodus expeditur, whiles this mattier is dispatched.

Cælestis nodus, was of auncient writers, taken for the signe Pisces.

Noe, signifieth rest or cessynge from labour. It was the name of an holy patriarche, the son of Lamech, whom onely (with his wyfe and .iii. sonnes) god elected to be preserued from the vniuersall floude, whiche almyghtye god sent ouer the world, for the horrible synnes of men than lyuyng. Noe (of the aege of .600. yeres) by the commaundement of god made a great vessell, called in holy scripture an arke, whiche contayned in lengthe .CCC. cubites (as sainct Augustin saieth) geometricall, euery cubite containynge .vi. cõmune cubites, which is .ii. fete, so it was in length .2700. fete, in bredth .50. cubites, whiche was .450. fete. In depenesse .30. cubites, whiche was .270. fete, wherin wer also saued of al kindes of beastes and foules, male and female. And after the floud ceassed, the arke remayned vpon an hyll in Armenia called Cordiei. Noe lined after the floud .350. yeeres: after the creacion of the worlde .2007. yeeres. and before the incarnacion of Christe .1855. yeres he was of the gentiles called Ianus, and sometyme Vortumnus.

Noëgeum, gei, n. ge. a white napkyn, or rather a white thynne garment welted with purple syke to an aulbe.

Noële, wertes, whiche be in the chekes of swine or goates.

Noëma, a sentence.

Noëmagus, a citee of Narbon in France, called Nion.

Noënon, of olde tyme vsed for non.

Noes, a riuer in Thracia, which renneth into the ryuer called Danubius or Ister.

Nola, a towne in Italy.

Nolani, people of that towne.

Nolo, lui, nolle, to nyll or to be vnwillyng.

Nolo offensum, I am afrayde to displease or anger hym.

Nollem dixisse, I wolde not haue saied it.

Non nolle, for velle.

Nomæ, arum, f. g. plu. peynfull sores.

Nomades, people in Scythia, whiche is in Europa, whiche feedyng cattall only, haue none other habitacion, but where the cattall dooe tary. I suppose they be the Tartarians, nere to Polonia and Russy.

Nomárcha, chæ, masc. gene. he that hath preeminence in the ministracion of lawes, a Mayre or other lyke.

Nomarchiæ, & Nomi, certayn officers or magistrates in Egypt.

Nomas, adis, a shepeherdes name.

Nomen, inis, n. gen. a name, geuen vnto chyldren, as Iohn, or Thomas, sometyme it signifieth honour, authoritee, or great bloud. sometyme bryte or renoume, sometyme cause. It is also a title, article, or Item of ones accompte, rekenynges, or other writyng. It is often taken for the debt or dettour.

Eo nomine, for that cause.

Multis nominibus, for many causes.

Hoc vno nomine, for that onely cause.

Nomen soluere, to paie debte.

Nomen transferre, to borowe of one man to paie an other.

Nominibus honestis, for an honest consideracion, vnder an honest pretence.

Asciscere aliquem sibi in nomen, to name one after his owne name.

Ad nomina respondere, to answere when he is called.

Nomen habet Fabius, he is called Fabius.

Imponere nomen alicui, to geue one a name.

Inclamare nomine, To call one alowde by his name. Magna nomina, for Magni nominis homines. Meo nomine, for my sake.

Stringere nomen alicuius, to speake or write of one to his rebuke.

Nomina facere, to lende to many men.

Pecuniam sibi esse in nominibus ait, he saith he hath money owyng hym.

Nomina exigere, to aske dettes, or sue debtours.

In nominibus habere, to haue money owyng.

Transcribere nomina in alios, to transferre the dept from hym selfe, and set it on an other mans heade.

Nomina idonea, sure debtours.

Nomina expedire, to paie dettes truely.

Nomina explicare, to discharge debtes.

Nomina expungere, idem, To put his name out of his creditours booke.

Nomenclátio, ônis, f. g. the numbryng of names and surnames, offices, titles and dignities.

Nomenclatúra, æ, f. g. idem.

Nomenclátor, óris, or Nomenculátor, óris, m. ge. to whom it belonged to know by herte the names, orders, offices, crafftes, and facultees of all persons, which serued most cõmonly among the Romayns, to instruct them of suche as they shulde solicite to graunt their voyces in election of officers, a beddyll.

Nomentana via, the waie out of Rome, leadyng to Nomentum.

Nomentum, a town in Italy not farre frõ Rome

Nominátim, by name, namely, expressely.

Nominatim appellare aliquem, to call one by his name.

Nominátio, ônis, fœm. gene. a nampynge or appoyntpoynment, nomination.

Nominatione ſua cooptare aliquem, to calle one after his owne name.
Nominátus, a, um, named, alſo famous.
Nómino, áui, áre, to name or appoynt, to ſpeake or make mention of one, to geue a name.
Quis me nominat? who ſpeaketh of me?
Quid ait, ubi me nominas? what ſaied he whan thou ſpakeſt of me?
Nominito, the frequentatyue of Nomino.
Nomiſsis, nyne pounde weight.
Nomius, the name of Apollo.
Nomodidactes, he that teacheth lawe.
Nomóphylax, ácis, om. g. he that hath the cuſtody of bookes, wherin the lawes be written.
Nomos, a iuriſdiction or mepraltee, a lawe.
Nomótheta, æ, m. g. he that geueth lawe, a law maker.
Non, aduerbium negandi, no, noz, not, and is ioygned to all modes, ſauyng the imperatyue.
Non ita pridem, not long agone.
Non modo, not only. Non ſobrius, dronke.
Non tacenda, prayſe wooꝛthy.
Non admodum delectari re aliqua, to take no great pleaſure in a thynge, not to delyte greatly in a thynge.
Non, non ſic futurum eſt, non poteſt, No, it wyll not come ſo to paſſe, it can not be.
Non clam me eſt, I know well pnough.
Non dico inter pecudem & hominem, ſed &c. I ſaie not onely betwene a beſte and a mã, but ꝛc. Non dubiè, without dubt.
Non eſt de nihilo, it is not for nought.
Non fere quiſquam, almoſt no man.
Non fere contingit niſi his, &c. it neuer chaunceth almoſte, but to theim ꝛc.
Non ita multis ante annis, not very many yeres before.
Homo non malus, an honeſt man.
Non mala ꝛ hercle, In fayth not of the woꝛſt ſoꝛte. Non dubia ſpe, certayne hope.
Non malo poſt hæc aderit, he wyll bee here ſhortly after. Nõ modo, ſometyme foꝛ Ne dũ.
Non nemo, ſome men.
Non pauca, many thynges.
Non pridem, not longe ſenſe.
Non queo, foꝛ Nequeo.
Non quo, foꝛ Non quia.
Non temere, ſeldome or neuer, almoſt neuer.
Non temere eſt, it is not without a cauſe.
Non nequequàm iſti appellabãt &c It was not without a cauſe, or it was foꝛ ſome purpoſe or conſideration, or it was not foꝛ naught that theſe men ꝛc.
Non vltra quàm compedibus, id eſt, ſolum compedibus.
Nona, the name of one of the fatall ladies called Parcæ.
Nonacris, a place in Arcadie, where is litoure ſo colde, that nothynge can conteyne it but the houſe of a mule.
Nonacrius, and Nonacrinus, a, um, of that place, or of Arcadie.
Nonæ, arum f. g. plur. in Marche, May, Iune and October, be the vi dates, whiche dooe ſolowe the firſt day. in other monthes, it be the viii. dates that ſolow the firſt day of the month.
Nonágies, foure ſcoꝛe and ten tymes.
Nonageni, næ, gena, plu. tantum, nyntie.
Nonaginta, foure ſcoꝛe and ten.
Nonagécuplex, plicis, om. g. foure ſcoꝛe and ten double Nonagécuplus, foure ſcoꝛe & ten tymes ſo much
Nonagenárius, a, um, that is foureſcoꝛe and ten yeres olde.
Nonageſimus, a, um, the foureſcoꝛe and tenth, the nyntieth.
Nongenti, or nongenti, æ, a, nyne hundꝛed.
Nonárius, a, um, of nyne.
Nonariæ mercatrices, commune harlottes, whiche vſed at ix. of the cloche to offer theyꝛ ſeruices, or to open theyꝛ houſes, to lette men come to theym.
Nonaria, æ, foe. gen. eadem herba, quæ aſtragalus.
Nonea, æ, f. anchuſa.
Nondum, not yet.
Nonne, an aduerbe of aſkyng or demaundyng.
Nonne oportuit præſciſſe me ante, had it not ben mete that I ſhuld haue knowen it beꝛoze?
Nonne ita eſt? is it not ſo?
Non nihil, ſomewhat, a litteil.
Non nihilo æſtimare, to ſette ſomewhat by, to eſteme ſomewhat.
Nonnullus, a, um, ſome man, ſome woman, ſome thyng.
Nonnunquam, ſometyme, otherwhyles.
Nonus, a, um, the nyntie.
Nonuſsis, the weight of nyne pownde.
Nophrin, loothe ballote.
Norba Cæſarea, a towne in Poꝛtugall called communely Alcanta.
Noricum, a countrey in Germanye, it is bounded on the weaſt with the ryuer Benus, & Vindelitia: on the north with Dunaw: on the eaſt with Pannonia ſuper: on the ſouth with the alpes: this and Vindelitia be as parties of Bauarie.
Nóricus, a, um, of the countrey Noricum.
Norma, æ, f. g. a rule or ſquire.
Ad eorum normam, after theyꝛ rule, or as they dooe meaſure.
Dirigere vitam ad normam rationis, to oꝛder the ſame accoꝛdyng to reaſon.
Normális, le, ryghte to the rule, made by the ſquire or rule.
Normania, Normandy in France.
Normani, Normans.
Normátus, a, um, idem quod Normalis.
Nórmula, æ, f. g. a litteil rule.
Norvégia, æ, foe. g. a countrey beyonde Denmarke, called Noꝛwaie.

Nos, we or vs.
Noscitabundus, a, um, knowyng.
Noscito, aui, are, to knowe muche, to consider or regarde to the intente to knowe.
Nosco, noui, scere, to knowe.
Age, noui animum tuum, Go to, I know thy nature, mynde, or phantasy well ynough.
Noui de facie, I knowe hym by syght.
Quasi non nouimus nos inter nos, As though we dyd not knowe one an other.
Noui æque omnia tecum, I knowe altogyther as well as thou.
Noui locum vbi sit, I knowe the place well where it is.
Nosmet, & nosmetipsi, our selues.
Nosmet ipsi inter nos, amonge or betweene our selues.
Nosocomion, mij, n. g. an hospitall for sicke men.
Noster, a, um, ours, or of our familie or house.
Noster est, he is kynne to vs.
Nostrarum, for nostrum.
Nostra, sometyme for Mea.
Nostra omnis lis est, we haue wonne, or we haue ouercome in the suite.
Haud similis virgo est virginum nostrarum, This mayde is not like, or after the facion of the maydes of our citee.
Nostrum omnium adolescentia, for Nostra omnium. &c.
Nostrapte culpa, by or throughe our owne defaulte.
Nostrâs, âtis, om. g. of our coũtrey or household.
Nota, æ, f. g. a note, a marke, a token, a signe, a defamation, infamie, a sclanderous name or report to ones dishonor. also a reprehencion or correction of any writynge, sometyme writyng.
Notæ, be also ciphers, notes, abbreuiations, suche as men vse writynge in haste.
Notis scribere, to write with cyphers and abbreuiations.
Varijs affectus notis, defamed with dyuers thynges. Instruit secretis notis, He gaue or tolde hym priuie tokens.
Apponere notam, to sette a marke.
Commendare aliquẽ alicui de meliore nota, to cõmend one as an honest man verie earnestly and effectuously.
Instruit secretis notis, per quas. &c. he telleth them certayne priuie tokens and marches. &c.
Notæ amoris, signes or tokens of loue.
Eiusdem notæ, of the same sorte.
Secundæ notæ, of the meane sorte, not excellente.
Notæ salutis, tokens of healthe in one that is sicke.
Notæ eximere, to acquite or discharge of reproche or dishonour.
Natam inurere, to defame.
Ad cœnam non ad notam te inuito, I bidde the to supper, and not to reproue or defame me.

Notabilis, le, notable, a thynge to bee noted or marked, as a greatte mattier, and worthy memory, bothe in the good parte and in the yll. also manyfest. sometyme to be reprehended.
Notabiliter, notably, euidently.
Notarius, rij, m. g. a clerke that writeth instrumentes or pleas.
Notatio, ônis, f. g. consideration, aduisement, notyng, markyng, obseruyng.
Notâtus, a, um, marked, noted, obserued.
Notesco, scere, to be knowen or made knowen.
Nothia, gyuen to bastardes.
Nothus, a, um, bastarde, not lawfull.
Notifico, aui, are, to notifie or make to bee knowen.
Notion, the herbe called Semper viuum.
Notio, ônis, & notitia, æ, f. g. knowlage, vnderstandyng, acquayntance.
Habere notionem alicuius rei, To haue the knowlage or vnderstandyng of a thyng.
Inter nos nuper admodum notitia est, it is verie lyttell whyle agone sens we haue beene acquainted togyther.
Notium, a towne in Aeolia, also a promontorye in Ireland called commonly Cabo de Mar.
Noto, aui, are, to note, to marke, to repoint, to reprehẽd, sometyme to accuse. also to perceiue, to obserue, to put in writyng. sometyme ignominia afficere, to defame, or put to rebuke.
Notare vitium, to reproue vice.
Animo notare, to marke in ones mynde.
Notare aliquid ab alio, to discerne one thynge from a other. Notare & animaduertere.
Notare res propriis appellationibus, to geue to thynges theyr proper names.
Notarunt hoc annales, This is written in chronicles.
Notari ignominia, to be accused or defamed.
Vt notamus in muscis, as we perceiue and obserue in flies.
Notoria, a kynde of accusyng, or apeachynge of men.
Notórius, a, um, an adiectiue.
Notus, a, um, knowen, notable, famous, acquainted. Notum facere, to geue knowlage.
Notus, ti, the southerne wynde.
Nouácula, æ, f. g. a barbours rasour. sometyme any other knyfe.
Nouâlis. lis, f. g. or nouale, lis, n. g. land sowen euery other yere, or lande newely tared to be sowen, and sometyme grounde fyrste tared or broken to be sowen.
Noua mœnia, a citee of Sarmatia, called commonly Weissenburge.
Nouantum Chersonesum, a place in the weste parte of Scotlande, called Cokermouth.
Nouatianus, a priest of Roome, and sometyme chapleyne to saynte Cyprian, began an heresie called Catharon, whiche was, that they whiche had renounced the faith, should not be receiued to penance.

Nouã

Nouátus, a, um, made newe.
Nouátor, ôris, m. g. and Nouátrix, icis. f. g. one that maketh a thyng newe.
Nouelletum, i, n. g. a late growen vine.
Nouello, aui, are, to tyll newe grounde, or sette newe vines.
Nouellus, li, a mannes name in Rome, whiche wold drinke vp.iii. of the measures called Congii, and was therfore surnamed Tricongius.
Nouellus, a, um, verie newe or yong growen.
Nouem, omni. g. vndeclined, nine.
Nouember, bris, m. g. the moneth of November.
Nouenárius, a, um, of nyne.
Nouenarius numerus, the numbre of nine.
Nouendiális, le, of .ix. dates space.
Nouendiale sacrum, the terrement the nynth day after the buriyng.
Nouendium, ij, n. g. the space of nyne dayes.
Nouéni, æ, a, plu. idem quod Nouem.
Nouenniæ, plu. a citee in Thracia.
Nouérca, æ, f. g. a stepmother.
Nouercális, le, of a stepmother.
Nouercale odium, the accustomed hate that stepmothers are wonte to beare to their husbandes childzen.
Nouercari, to doe lyke a stepmother.
Nouiodunum, ỹ name of diuers citees in Frãce.
Nouissime, at the last, syn alip.
Nouissimus, a, um, at the last, the hyndermost, the lowest or basest.
Nouitas, átis, f. g. newenesse or strangenesse also newe comyng vp of ones selfe without noble auncestrie.
Florida nouitas mundi, the beautifull spryng tyme.
Nouiter, newely or lately
Nouitius, a, um, newe begunne, newe come.
Nouiũ, a citee of Spaine called cõmonly Noya.
Nouus, a riuer in Britayn, commonly called Clot Nouo, aui, are, to make newe, to renue. also to chaunge or alter the state or cõdicion of a thyng, to make a thyng otherwyse than it was before.
Agrum nouare, to cast vp the ground agayne that hath ones been eared.
Nouocomensis, a citezen of Nouum Comum.
Nouum Comum, a citee in Lumbardy.
Nouuncium, ij, n. g. a weight of .ix. ounces, or a measure of nyne pyches.
Nouus, a, um, newe, fresshe comen, straunge, not seene afore, of a newe sorte.
Noui homines, men late come to worshyp and honour.
Ede quid portes noui, Telle what newes thou bryngest.
Nouæ res, chaunge and alteration of the worlde.
Nouarum rerum cupidi, mẽ desirous to haue a chaunge of the worlde.
Maritus nouus, one newe maried, a bridegrome.
Noua nupta, a bryde.
Nouo modo, strangely, after a newe sorte.

Nouus furor, a lodeine furie.
Nox, octis, f. g. nyght sometyme sleepe, also death
Noctis auis, an oule.
Hoc noctis, for hac parte noctis.
Nox intempesta, the deepe of the nyght when all is at syleuce
Adulta nox, mydnyghte, or the later parte of the nyght.
Illustris nox syderibus, a fayre cleare nyght with sterres.
Nox concubia, the tyme of nyght, whan euery man is layed to sleape, mydnyght.
Noctes atticæ, the titell of a booke, which Aulus Gellius made, so called, because he wrate it at Athens in wynter tyme.
Acquare nocti ludum, to play all night long.
Appetit nox, the night drawyth on.
Locare noctes, meretricum est.
Negare noctem, whan harlottes wyll not admit theyr louers.
Dare noctem, contrarie.
Peragere noctem insomnem, not to sleape all nyght longe.
Poscere and rogare noctem, amatorum est.
Animi nox, blyndnes, ignorance.
Nox rei publicæ, trouble or aduersitee of the commune weale.
Dormienda est nox vna perpetua, we muste ones die.
Noctes & dies, continually, alwayes, nyght and daie.
Sterit noctesque & dies, he lyeth routyng & snorynge all daie and all nyght.
De nocte, in the night tyme.
Multa nocte profectus est, he wente forthe late in the nyght.
Noxa, æ, fœ. gen. the offence, or the punyshment and peine for the offence, a faut, also hurt, damage.
Decernere noxam, to adiudge one to be punished for his offences.
Noxæ damnatus, condemned to be punished.
Extra noxam esse, to be nothyng culpable or faultie, to be giltlesse or blameles.
Nihil his noxæ futurum, That they shoulde haue no harme for it.
Ea res à noxa curculionum defendit, That thyng dooeth saue it that it be not hurt of the weuyls, speakyng of corne.
Noxæ eximere, to acquite one of trespasse.
Noxis vel noxa solutus, acquited of felony or trespasse.
Penes te est noxa, the offence is in the, the faut is in the, or thou art in the faute.
Noxam auertere ab aliquo, to discharge one of trespasse, to put the faute from one.
Noxæ dedere, & ob noxam, to render a man or beast, whiche hath donen harme, in recompence therof, and to be punyshed at his pleasure, to whom the offence was doen.
Sine noxa luce bibuntur, in the day a man may drinke

dyynke of theim without any harme at all.
Noxam contrahere, to fall into syknesse, or to take harme.
Noxam concipere, idem.
Noxam facere, to doo harme.
Noxam nocere, idem.
Sine noxa, without hurte or harme.
Omni noxa vacant, they hurt nothyng.
Noxâlis, le, belongynge to an offence, faute, or punyshement.
Noxalis actio, was an action agaynste the lorde for an offence dwen by his villayne, in the which yf the plaintife dydde recouer, it shoulde be a sufficient discharge and recompence of the lorde, if he dydde delyuer his villayne to the plaintyfe.
Noxia, æ, f. g. the offence or faute, the trespasse.
Noxiæ esse dicuntur res, whan one is blamed or reproued for theim, or sustaynyth hurte by theim.
Nec eis noxia futurum, and that they shoulde not be blamed.
In noxia esse, to be in the faute, to haue done amysse.
Vnam hanc noxiam mitte, pardone me this one offence or trespasse.
Noxiis vacuum esse, to bee in no faute.
Noxia careo, I am not in the faute, I am blameles.
Noxiôsus, a, um, full of hurte, verie hurtfull.
Noxitûdo, inis, among olde writers was vsed for Noxa.
Nóxius, a, um, harmefull, dooyng displeasure, sounde gylte.

N, ANTE V.

NVbes, bis, fœ. g. a cloude, by translacion, aduersitee. also any thynge, wherewith the knowlage of matters is hidde.
Nubes peditum, a great companye of foote men.
Nubes pulueris, a great dust reysed vp with goyng of men lyke a cloude.
Coguntur in cœlo nubes, the cloudes gather together.
Nubécula, æ, f. ge. a litteli cloude. It signifieth also heuynesse or sadnesse of countenance.
Núbifer, a, um, that bryngeth cloudes.
Nubifugus, a, um, that driueth awaie cloudes. also that eschueth cloudes.
Nubigena, æ, m. ge. one ingendred of a cloude. The Centaures be called Nubigenæ, because they were begotten of a cloude in the fourme of Iuno.
Núbilar, aris, and Nubilârium, rii, an house, wherinto corne is caried for feare of rayne.
Núbilis, le, marjable.
Núbilo, aui, are, to make cloudye or darke, to make obscure.
Núbilor, âris, âri, deponent, idem quod Nubilo.
Nubilôsus, a, um, full of cloudes.
Nubilus, a, um, cloudy, obscure, darke. also lyuely, sadde.
Tempora nubila, tyme of aduersitee.
Núbilum, li, n. g. a cloude.
Nubilum inducere, To make the weather cloudie.
Nubilo, pro in nubilôso tempore.
Ventus agit nubila, The wynde dryueth the cloudes.
Depellere & detergere nubila cælo, to make the wether clere, and dryue awaye the cloudes.
Nubo, is, bere, to couer, to bee wedded, as a wife or, properly on the womannes parte, but for the tyme of the man. And some write, that it is spoken onely of those men, whose wyues are their maisters. also to bee ioigned vnto.
Nubere in familiam claram, to be maried to one of a noble house or familie.
Vxori nubere nolo mex, I will not be maried to my wyfe, meanyng to serue her.
Dare nuptum viro, To marye his daughter to one.
Nubere dicuntur arbores, to bee ioygned to vynes.
Nubitur, the impersonall.
Nucamentum, i, n. ge. a thyng hangyng downe of nutte trees, lyke a rattes taple, and the lyke is in diuers other trees, as it were compact of thin scales.
Nuceria, a towne in Campania.
Nuceus, a, um, of a nutte.
Nucifrangibulum, i, n. ge. a nut cracker. Plautus vseth it for a tooth.
Nuciperſica, a kinde of fruite verie common in France, whiche they call Pesschenois, we call theim peches.
Nuciprúnium, a plumme grafted on the stocke of a nutte tree.
Nucleus, clei, a kernel, also a cloue of garlyke.
Concidere nucleum denibus, to knack a nut.
✠ Nucleum amisi, I haue lost the kernell, vsed prouerbially, whan one hath lost that, wherein profite consisteth.
Nucleus ferri, Steele.
Nucula & Nucella, a lyttell nutte.
Nudâtus, a, um, made naked or bare, vncouered, made voyde.
Nudata castra, the campe lefte without men.
Nudatus defensoribus murus, the walle abandoned, and without men to defende it.
Nudipedâlia, ceremonies dooen barefooted.
Núditas, atis, f. g. nakednesse, barenesse, poorenesse, wante of any thynge. somtyme playnesse without obscuritee or dissimulacion.
Nudius quartus, foure dates agone.
Nudius sextus, cui talentum mutuũ dedi, It is now sixe dates sens I lent hym a talent.
Nudius tertius, the daye before yesterdaie, the thyrde date before, and is alwaies ioigned with the preterperfecte tens.

Nudo,

Nudo, aui, are, to ſtreppe naked, to make naked or bare, to vncouer, to make voyde. ſometyme to diſcloſe or open.
Nudatur arbor foliis, the tree is bare without leaues.
Nudare gladios, to drawe ſwerdes.
Nudare vada, to leaue verie litteli water in the ryuers.
Nudare ſcelus aliquod, To diſcloſe or open a miſchieuous acte.
Nudare facta alicuius, to tell or diſcloſe what thynges one hath dooen.
Nudus, a, um. naked, bare, vncouered, voyde, ſometyme vnburied or dead.
Enſis nudus, a ſwoorde redy drawen, a naked ſwerde.
Nuda ſenecta, id eſt inops.
Domus nuda & inanis, an emptye and bare houſe, without any prouiſion of houſeholde ſtuffe. Nudus à propinquis, without healpe of frendes or kynſefolkes.
Nuda à magiſtratibus reſpublica, The commune weale cleane deſtitute and without magiſtrates and officers.
Nuda vibs præſidio, a citie not fortified with a garriſon, or that hath no garriſon or men to defende it.
✠ Nudo veſtimenta detrahere, to take raiemẽt from a naked man, prouerbially vſed to take or ſeke a thyng of a man that he hath not, to take a breche from a barearſe man.
Nugæ, arum, f. g. plu. fables, trifles.
Nugàlis, le, pertaynyng to trifles.
Nugamentum, i, n. g. a trifle.
Nugàtor, ôris, m. g. a trifler.
Nugatórius, a, um, trifling, or that trifleth.
Nugax, âcis, om. g. that trifleth.
Nugiger, or Nugigérulus, a, um, that beareth aboute or telleth tales, fables, vayne thynges or trifles.
Nugiuendus, a feller of trifles and fables, he that telleth trifles to women.
Nugor, âris, âri, to trifle, to dalye.
Nullatenus, in no wiſe.
Nullus, a, um, none. ſometyme it ſignifieth non. ſometyme of no price, value or profite, vayne.
Nulli conſilij, for nullius conſilij.
Nullibi, no where.
Nullo negotio, eaſyly.
Nullorum hominum homo, lyke no man.
Si non quæris, nullus dixeris, If he doo not enquire tell not.
Nullus ſum, I am vndooen, I were as good bee dead.
Nullus dum, no man vntyll this date, neuer man. Nulla eſt igitur hæc amicitia, Therfore this frendeſhyp is vayne, or nothyng worthe, or not worthy to bee called frendeſhyp.
Is nullus venit, he cometh not.
Nullà fide eſſe, vnwoorthye to be truſted, not to be truſted or beleued, falſe, of no credite.
Nullis litteris vir, a man vterly vnlerned.
Nullo loco deeſſe alicui, to healpe one in all thynges.
Nullo fine, without ende.
Nullo ordine, without order.
Nullam in partem, for nullo pacto.
Nullius, for neutrius.
Nullo modo, nullo pacto, nulla ratione, by no meanes.
Num, for An. It is properly to bee vſed, where the anſwere muſt bee made by Non: and An, where the anſwere muſt bee made by Ita, etiam, or any other woorde of affirmyng.
Num cogitat quid dicat? doeth he regarde or conſyder what he ſaith?
Num cenſes faceret? would he doo it thynke you, or thynke you that he would doo it?
Num ego te ſpoliaui? Dyd I robbe the?
Numnam for num, or vtrum.
Numnam tu hic relictus cuſtos? Arte thou lefte here to watche vs?
Numnam perimus? ar we not all vndooen?
Numnam ego pereo? Am not I vndooen for euer?
Numa, the ſeconde kynge of the Romayns nexte after Romulus. He was choſen by the people and ſenate of Rome, of a poore gentylman, dwellynge in a towne of the Sabines called Cures, for his excellent vertues and lernynge, beyng of the diſcipline of Pythagoras. He by his policie and ceremonies, broughte the Romans (who durynge the tyme of Romulus were continually occupied in warres) in ſuche a wounderfull quietneſſe and honeſte fourme of lyuyng, that the countreyes enuyronnyng theim, by the ſpace of xl. yeres, dyd neuer moue warre agaynſt them.
Numana, a towne in Italy.
Numantia, a citee in Spayne about Biſkaie, whiche was of ſuche valyantneſſe, that beeyng beſieged of the Romains. xiiii. yeres continually, yet they dyd not onely reſyſt, haupnge but iiii thouſande men to defende it, but alſo vanquiſhed. xl. thouſand Romayns. At the laſt it was deſtroied by the laſt Scipio, after he had beſieged it a longe tyme. For whan they had longe ſuſteyned famine, and myghte not iſſue forth to fyght in battaple: they burned theim ſelues and all their goodes.
Numárius, a, um, of or belongyng to moneye.
Res numaria, a money matter.
Iudicium numarium, a iudgement corrupted with money.
Iudices numarij, iudges corrupted with money. Difficultas numaria, ſcarſitee or lacke of money.
Num tãta difficultas rei numariæ eum tenet? Hath he ſo great neede or ſcarſitee of money?
Res numaria tenet eũ, he is in nede of money.
Numátio, ônis, fœm. ge. the haupnge of a great abundance of money.

Numâtus, a, um, wel monied, ryche of money.
Marsupium numatum, a purse full of money.
Numella, æ, and sometyme Numellus, li, a tumbrell, wherin men be sette, haupng therin their handes and legges. Also a hynde of colars or shakles, to tye dogges, hozses, oxen or other beastes.
Numen, núminis, n. ge. the power, wyll, maiestee, or vertue of god. sometyme it signifieth god, sometyme apparaple.
Numina diuum, id est oracula.
Manifesto numine, id est manifesto deorum iudicio.
Numerátio, ônis, f. g. numbrynge.
Numerábilis, le, that whiche maie be numbred.
Numerâlis, le, pertepnyng to numbre.
Numerárius, a, um, that is of numbres.
Numerâtus, a, um, numbred.
Numerato, promptly, at hande, by numbre.
In numerato habere ingenium, to haue a wit apte and redie vnto euery thyng.
In numerato, in redie money.
Claudius Isidorus testamento suo dixit, quãuis multa ciuili bello perdidisset, tamen reliquere seruorum quatuor millia, iuga bouum tria millia sexcenta, reliqui pecoris ducenta quinquaginta millia, in numerato, põdo sexcenta millia, Claude Isidore, rehersed in his testament, not withstandynge that he had loste muche in the ciuile warres, yet dydde he leaue foure thousande bondemen, three thousand and syxe hundred pokes of oxen, of other cattaile ii hundred and fyftie thousande, and in redie money, syxe hundred thousande pounde.
Número, áui, áre, to numbre or tell, to accompt, to reken in ordre. It is sometyme vsed for Habere, or Censere, to esteme, to iudge, to thinke, to coumpt.
Numerare pecuniam, to paye lende or delyuer money out of hande.
Numerare alicui, idem.
Prope collega Timarchidi numerabatur, he was almoste taken or compted to be felowe in office with Timarchidus.
Nullo loco numerare rem aliquam, to sette nothyng by a thynge, to esteme or reken it nothyng woorth Numerare in bonis, To reken amonge good thynges, to thynke it good.
Neq; in rectis, neque in prauis numerabat, he dyd esteeme it neuer good nor yll.
Inter amicos numerare, to reken one his frẽd.
Numero, the aduerbe, very sone, by and by.
Numero dicis, id est facile ac compendio, or after some Cito & celeriter.
Numero huc aduenis, thou comest hither verie sone, or to quickely.
Numerosé, in great numbre. also by measure.
Numerosus, a, um, great in numbre.
Opus numerosas poscit manus, The woorke requireth many handes, or the healpe of many men.
Número, i, m. g. numbre. sometyme quantitee, especially in grayne, or thynges measured. It is also harmony, measure, and order in syllables. sometyme company assembled, specially of the woyst sorte of people. it is sometyme honour, estimacion.
Numeris omnibus absolutus, perfecte at all poynctes.
Numeri, be sometyme taken for verses, meter.
Magnus numerus frumenti, a great quantitee of corne.
Maximus vini numerus fuit, there was muche wyne, or a great quantitee of wyne.
Ex eorum numero aliquis, one of them, one of their part or company.
Quo numero fuisti? in what estate or estimacion were you?
Nullo numero homo, a vilayne or vyle person, nothyng woyrth, not woyrthy to be compted a man.
Numero abundare, To bee to many or beare many.
Hunc ad tuum numerum adscribino, Reckon take or compte hym among your frendes.
Distribuere in numeros, to diuide into bãdes.
Numero eximere, to chose, to sette apart, to exempt, to note as excellent or singular.
Habui numerum sedulo, I remembred well howe many it was.
Habere aliquem in numero suo, To esteeme and repute a man to be one of his frendes.
Aliquo numero haberi, or esse, to be somewhat esteemed or set by.
Vt in aliquo numero esse possis, that you may haue mo felowes lyke your selfe.
Aliquem numerum obtinebat, he was reputed or taken for one, or he deserued to bee in some estimacion.
Dicimus milites, non dum relatos in numerum, whan they be chosen, but not yet billed and appoynted to their capitaine and bande.
Quo in numero Chalcis accipitur, among the whiche Chalcis is numbred.
Quó in numero ego sum, of the whiche numbre I am one.
Qui ne libert quidem hominis numero sit, which is not woyrthy to be accõpted a free man.
Deorum numero esse alicui, to bee esteemed and reputed a god.
Cum is tibi parentis numero esset, where as you esteemed hym euen as your father.
Ludere in numerum, to daunce by measure.
Numicius, a riuer not far from Lauinium.
Numicus, a ryuer in Italie by the citee Lauinium, in the whiche Aeneas was dyowned.
Numida, a man or woman of Numidie.
Numidia, a countreye betweene Carthage and Mauritania in Affrike, and now is called Barbaria, where Massinissa dydde sometyme reygne: in that countrey is founde moste excellent marble, marble. the chiefe citee there was named Cirta, whiche was verape ſtronge, and ſo puiſſant of men, that in the tyme of Strabo, it myghte arme ten thouſande horſemen, & twentie thouſande footemen.

Numiſiana vitis, & Numiſianæ vuæ, a kynde of vynes and grapes, reade in Columella, Libro .3. cap. 2.

Numiſma, miſmatis, n. g. money.

Númitor, óris, father vnto Rhea, whiche was the mother of Romulus.

Numulárius, rij, m. g. he that keepeth a banche of money.

Núnulus, li, m. g. a little piece of copne.

Nummárius, ij, m. ge. and Nummatus, looke Numarius.

Nummárius, a, um, looke Numarius.

Numus, i, m. g. money or copne, ſome do write it with double, M. it is alſo a braſen or ſyluer copne amõge the Romaines, called Seſtertius, or Seſtertius nummus, aboute the value of i. d. ob. or an olde ſterlyng peny, when eight grotes made an ounce.

Numus argenteus, as Leonardus Portius wryteth, was that whiche was alſo called Denarius Romanus, and weighed a dram, and the thirde part of a dram, which was foure ſcruples

Numus aureus, although it were altered ſundrie tymes, yet the ſame Portius doeth gather of the firſt chapiter of the .xviii. booke of Plinie, and of Suetonius, in the lyfe of Otho, and Plutarchus, in the lyfe of Galba, that at that tyme, nummus aureus was in value xii. nummi argentei, and in that wyſe it agreed with the Venetian ducate, which was worth .xii. of our grotes, whã eight of theim made an ounce.

Nummus adulterinus, counterfepte or forged money.

Quadragies nummum, one hundred thouſand crownes 20000. li ſterlyng.

Nunc, nowe, nowe at the laſt, At this preſent, at this tyme. alſo now and neuer before: ſome tyme it is vſed for Autem, as,

Bona facile mutantur in peius, nunc quando in bonum verteris vitia? for quando autem, or Sed quando.

Nunc aliud ſpecta, nowe marke an other thynge: or per more ouer conſyder an other thynge. for Nunc is here taken for Iam. which is often vſed for Præterea, Inſuper, Adhæc, furthermore beſydes all this.

Nunc temporis, now a dayes.

Nunc iam, euen now. alſo nowe at the length.

Nunc eſt, interfici quum perpeti me poſsim, Nowe at this preſent tyme ſo it is, that I could be contente to die.

Nunc illud eſt, quod ſi omnes omnia conſilia. &c. Nowe is the matter come into ſuche caſe or ſtate, that yf &c.

Nunc ipſum, pro ipſo momento & puncto temporis.

Nunc primũ audio quid illo factum ſit, Nowe is the fyrſte tyme that euer I herd what is become of hym.

Nunc primum, for primo, fyrſt and formoſt.

Nunc denique? What: now ſo late? nowe ſo longe after?

Nunc vero, but nowe.

Nunc tam ſum expeditus, nowe at the laſte I am diſpatched.

Nuncubi, pro nunquid & alicubi.

Nuncubi meam benignitatem ſenſiſti in te claudier? Dyddeſt thou euer perceyue, that I dyd not vſe my ſelfe lyberally towardes the?

Nuncius, looke Nuntius.

Nuncupátio, ônis, f. g. a pronouncyng, a tellyng, a recityng, a nampyng, a declaration of a wyll.

Nuncupo, aui, are, to name or to calle a thynge by ſome name, to pronounce and tel expreſſely, to make expreſſe mentiõ, to recite, to reherſe, to declare his wyll by mouthe, concernyng the appointyng of his heire and legacies before. viii. witneſſes.

Nuncupata voluntas, a teſtament or will made by mouth, and not in writyng.

Nuncupare votum, to make a ſolemne vowe.

Nuncupatum lingua, men of olde tyme called that, whiche was with the mouthe and expreſſe woordes prompted.

Nundina, æ, a goddeſſe of the Romaynes.

Núndinæ, árum, f. g. plur. fayres, martes, market, they were amonge the olde Romaynes kept euery nynthe daye, whervnto all people reſorted, and than all lawes, whiche were new made, were proclaymed.

Nundinális, le, pertaynyng to fayres.

Nundinátio, ônis, f. g. byyng and ſellyng.

Iuris nundinatio, byynge and ſellynge of lawes or iuſtice for bribes.

Nundinárius, a, um, longyng or ſeruing to fayres.

Oppidum nundinarium, the towne where the fayre is kepte.

Nundinátor, ôris, m. g. he that goeth to fayres or markettes to bye and ſell.

Núndinor, áris, ári, to bye and ſelle openly, as they doo in fayres.

Nunquam, neuer, or it is vnpoſſible. ſometyme for Non.

Nunquam hoc vno die efficiatur opus, It is impoſſible that this enterpryſe may be brought to paſſe in one daie.

Nunquam non, alwaie.

Nunquam poſt illa, neuer ſens that.

Nunquam quicquam, nothyng in the worlde.

Nunquam fui vſquam, I was neuer in any place.

Nunquando for Num aliquando.

Nunquis, nunquæ, nunquid, is there any?

Nunquid ego ſum? Is it I?

Nunquid vis? wyll you any thynge with me? wyl you any thyng commaund me? wyll ye cõ-maunde me any ſeruice?

Nunquid præterea, is there any thynge els?
Nunquidnam amplius tibi cum illa fuit Charine? haddeſt thou any thynge els to dooe with hir? Nunquid dubitas? Dooeſt thou doubte any thynge? or dooeſt thou not thynke verily?
Rogo nunquid velit, I aſke hym whether he woulde commaunde me any ſeruice.
Nunquid horum probat? Dooeth he allowe any of theſe thynges?

Núntia, æ, f. g. a woman meſſanger, or a thyng that bryngeth tydynges?

Nuntiátio, ônis, f. ge. a repoꝛte, a ſhewyng, a declaryng.

Núntio, aui, are, to ſhewe tydynges or newes, to repoꝛte, to tell.
Voluptatem magnam nuntias, thou ſheweſt thynges that be verate pleſant.
Salutem nuntiare, to ſende or bꝛing commendations by letters or by mouthe.
Nuntiatur domum, tydynges are bꝛoughte home. Ita Romam nuntiatum eſt, ſuche newes were bꝛought to Rome.
Nuntiare monſtra, to tell ſtraunge and wonderfull thynges.

Nuntium, ij, n. g. a meſſage. Valla ſaith: this wooꝛde is not red in any pꝛobate authour.
Remittere nuntium vxori, to repudiate and put awaie his wyfe.

Nuntius, ij, m. g. a meſſanger or meſſage, tidynges, newes.
Nuntij afferuntur, newes or tydynges are bꝛoughte.
Perferre nuntium, to bꝛyng wooꝛde or tydynges. De Quinto fratre nuntij nobis triſtes venerunt, There came or was bꝛought to vs heaup tydynges of my bꝛother Quintus.
Accipere nuntium, to here wooꝛde or tydynges.
Virtuti nuntium remiſiſti, thou haſte caſte of or forſaken vertue.

Nuo, ui, ere, pꝛopꝛely to nodde with the head, to ſignifie by noddyng. it was vſed of olde wꝛiters for Volo.

Nuper, late, not longe agone.
Nuper ádmodum, verie late, but a whyle agon.

Nuperrime, verate lately.

Núperus, a, um, late dooen or happened.

Nupta, æ, f. g. a woman that is maried.

Nuptiæ, arum, plur. a weddyng.

Nuptiâlis, le, perteinyng to weddynge.

Nupturire, to couete mariage.

Nuptus, a, um, wedded.

Nuptus, i, m. g. the man that is maried.
Nouus nuptus, the bꝛyde grome.

Nuptus, us, m. g. mariage, weddyng.
Nuptui collocare, to geue his daughter to be maried.

Nurſia, a citee of the Sabines, not farre from Rome, ſette on the hilles of Umbꝛia.

Nurſini, people of that citie.

Nurus, us, f. g. the ſonnes wyfe.

Nuſcitioſi, idem quod luſcitioſi.

Nuſquam, an aduerbe, no where, or in no place, alſo nowhither, or to no place.
Ille autem bonus vir nuſquam apparet, that honeſt man can be ſeene in no place.
Te nuſquam mittam, I wylle ſende the nowhyther.
Nuſquam pedem, he ſhall not goe one foote further.
Nuſquam gentium, no where.
Nuſquam non, euery where.

Nutans, antis, om. g. noddynge, enclynynge or waggyng downward, as though it wold fall.

Nutátio, ônis, f. g. noddynge, as a mans head doeth, whan he ſitteth ſleppyng.

Nuto, aui, are, to beckon or ſhake the head ſome tyme to leane and bee redy to falle in decaye. ſometyme to doubte whiche parte to take, or to leane vnto.
Nutat ne Loquar, he becketh vppon me, that I ſhould not ſpeake.
Victoria nutat, victoꝛy inclineth nowe to one parte, now to an other, or wauereth betwene bothe partes.

Nutricátio, ônis, f. g. nouryſhyng.

Nutricátus, us, m. g nouriture.

Nútrico, aui, are, and Nutricor, aris, ari, idem quod nutrio.

Nutricula, æ, f. g. a nourꝛce.
Nutricula caſa, the nurcery, the place where the chylde is nouryſhed.

Nutrimen, inis, and Nutrimentum, i, n. g. nouryſhement.

Nutrimenta, órum, n. g. plur. pro nutricatione, the ſame.

Nutrio, iui, ire, to nouryſſhe.
Nutrire vinum, to conſerue and kepe wyne.

Nutritia, órum, n. g. plur. the nurces wages.

Nutritius, the nources huſbande.

Nutritius, a, um, perteinyng to nouryſhyng.

Nutritor, óris, m. g. he that nouryſheth.

Nutritus, a, um, nouriſhed.

Nutritus, us, m. g. nouryſhyng, or nouriture.

Nutrix, icis, fœ. g. a nourice. Alſo a place where men dooe ſowe trees or herbes, to the intente that whan they haue taken roote, they wylle remoue theim, and ſette them in a gardeyne or oꝛcharde.

Nutus, us, m. g. the ſigne that one maketh with his eies or head, declaryng his intent, a becke, ſometyme it ſignifieth the wylle or pleaſure of one. alſo the declinyng or bendyng of a thyng downewarde.
Nutu & renutu, with a becke towarde and frowarde.
Demonſtrare aliquid nutu, to ſignifie any thyng with beckyng or noddyng.
Expeditus ad nutum alicuius, ready at ones becke or pleaſure.

Nux, ucis, f. g. a nutte.

Nux auellana, a fylberde, or hafell nutte.
Nux iuglans, a walnutte.
Nux muſcata, uel myriſtica, a nutmygge, hot and dry in the ſeconde degree.
Nux pinea, a ppne appull.
Nucem conficere, to knacke a nutte.
Nuces relinquere, to leaue chyldyſh matters and geue hym ſelfe to earneſt affaires.
Nux græca, an almonde.
Nux molluſca, a peache.

N ANTE Y.

NYctalops, ôpis, om. ge. he that ſeeth in the darke tyme well, in the euenynge very littell, at nyghte nothyng at all. he is alſo called Luſciouſus.
Nyctalôpia, æ, f. g. that diſeaſe of the eies.
Nyctalopa, an herbe called alſo Nyctegreton, of fyry colour, and ſhyneth by nyghte. ſome thynke it to be that, whiche is called Lunaria, geeſe at the fyrſt ſight of it be afraide, and therfore it is called Chenamychon.
Nyctegreton, lyke Nyctalopa.
Nycteis, idos, the daughter or nece of Nicteus.
Nictelius, the ſurename of Bacchus, becauſe his ſacrifices were dooen in the nyght.
Natex Nyctelius, wyne.
Nycteris, téridis, f. g. a reremouſe or backe, whiche hath ſo ſmalle feete, that he ſeemeth to haue none. Cherephon, the philoſophyer was ſo called, for his exceedyng leanneſſe, that he gat with ouermuche ſtudy.
Nycteritis, the herbe called alſo Anagallis.
Nycteus, diſſyllabum, a kynge, the father of Antiope.
Nycticorax, óracis, m. g. a nyght crowe.
Nyctileia, ſacrifices by nyght.
Nyctimene, the daughter of Nyceteus, who after ſhe had lyen with hyr father, was turned into an owle.
Nyctorix, or after ſome Nitocris, a queene of Babylon, after Semiramis.
Nympha, æ, f. g. dooeth ſignifie the bryde or ſpouſe newe maried, a nymphe or fayrie.
Nymphæ, maydes of the ſea, elfes. ſomtymes the muſes. alſo ponge bees before they do flie.
Nymphærena, a certayn pꝛecious ſtone.
Nymphæa, the herbe called filix fœmina.
Nymphæa, called alſo of the apothecaries Nenuphar, an herbe and flower called the water lyly, or water roſes.
Nymphæum, phæi, n. g. an eſtewe or bayne, a waſhyng place.
Nympheum, a pꝛomontoꝛy or hylle of Proconeſus, out of the whiche alwaie iſſueth fyre.
Nympheus, a ryuer in Italy by Velitre.
Nympholepti, idem quod Lymphati.
Nymphus, the bryde groome.
Nyſa, a citee of Arabie, where Bacchus was nouryſhed. alſo a mountayne and a citee in India, builded by Liber pater. One Nyſa is in Bœotia, an other in Caria, and certayn other places.
Nyſæa, a citee in India at the foote of the mountayne Heron.
Nyſeius, a, um, of Nyſa.
Nyſeus, diſſyllab. the name of Bacchus.
Nyſia, a certayne kynde of pype.
Nyſias, ſiadis, a woman of Nyſa.
Nyſigena, one borne in Nyſa.
Nyſſa, æ, f. g. a barre or rayle, from whiche rennyng ners fetche their race.
Nyſus, the frende of Euriolus, verye ſwifte in rennyng.

O ANTE A.

AN INTERIEction, vſed in wondꝛyng. ſometyme with a vocatiue caſe, ſometyme a nominatiue caſe, ſometyme an accuſatyue caſe, ſometyme in exclamacion, ſometyme in lamentyng, ſometyme in wiſchyng.
O me perditum, alaſſe I am vndooen. ſometyme in ſcoꝛnyng.
O præclaram ſapientiam, O the goodly wiſedome. ſometyme with reioyſyng.
O factum bene, O that is well dooen. Sometyme it is the voice of him that is ſodeinely ſtriken, or ſpeaketh to one that he ſaw not before.
Quis hic loquitur? Miſis ſalue. O ſalue pamphile, who talketh here? Miſis god ſaue you. O Pamphilus welcome.
O, for vtinam.
O tantum libeat mecum tibi ſordida rura habitare, Would god it myghte pleaſe the to inhabite or dwell in the homely feldes with me.
Oatarica, a ſpaume of fyſhe ſalted.
Oaxis, a ryuer in the yle of Candie.
Oaxus, a citee in Candie.

O ANTE B

OB, for ſometyme for Ante, before. In compoſition for Circum, as Obambulare.
Dum ob rem, ſo that ipſe for my profyte.
Ob oculos, before myne eyes. Ob tacendum, for vt taceat, that he ſhould not tell.
Precium ob ſtultitiam fero, I am ſerued lyke a foole. or I am ſerued well enoughe for my foolyſhneſſe.
Precium ob aſinos, id eſt aſinorum, the pryce of the aſſes, money for the aſſes.
Ob dictum, for a woorde ſpeakyng.
Quaſi ob induſtriam, as it were of purpoſe, or for the nones.
Oppoſitum pignori ob decem minas, layde to moto mozgage foz ten pounde.

Qui lanam ob oculum habebat, whiche had a clothe befoze his eie.
Mihi feciſti ob nullam noxiam, pe dyd it to me without a cauſe, oz foz nothynge that I was gylte oz faulty in.
Obacerbo, aui, are, to make one angry.
Obácero, aui, are, to lette a man that he can not tell out his tale.
Oberâtus, a, um, bounden by earneſte money, indebted.
Obambulátio, ônis, f. g. a walkynge about, a walkyng agaynſt one.
Obámbulo, aui, are, to walke agaynſt an other. alſo to walke togyther oz with an other. alſo to walke about. ſometyme to go to mete.
Obarmo, aui, are, idem quod armo.
Obareſco, ſcere, to dyre all aboute.
Obaro, óbaras, áui, áre, to eare aboute.
Obâter, átra, um, ſomewhat blacke, in maner darke oz blacke.
Obaudio, diui, dire, to heare hardely oz vnwyl-lyngly. ſometyme to heare.
Obba, æ, fœ. g. a bottell.
Obbibo, óbbibis, óbbibi, ere, to drynke.
Obcæcatus ſtultitia, blynded with foly.
Obcæco, aui, are, to blynd, to make darke oz obſcure. Obcæcare foſſas, to couer dyches.
Obcæcari tenebris, to be made dark oz obſcure
Obcalleo, looke Occalleo.
Obdo, didi, dere, to thruſt agaynſt, to put to.
Obdere forem, to ſhut oz ſparre the dooze oz gate.
Peſſulum oſtio obdo, I bolted oz ſparred the dooze.
Obdere ceramauribus, to ſtoppe the eares with ware.
Obdormio, iui, ire, to ſleape faſt oz ſoundely.
Obdormire crapulam, to ſlepe tyll he be ekes ſoones ſobre, to digeſt his ſurfet with ſlepe.
Obdormiſco, ſcere, to nappe, to fall on ſleape.
Obdûco, xi, ere, to lade ouer, to couer a thynge all ouer. ſometyme to vncouer oz open. alſo to dryng againſt oz ouerthwarte a place, to dryng aboute. alſo foz Inducere, as Obducere torporem, to induce oz cauſe a dulneſſe oz ſtoniyng of the membres.
Obducere cicatricem, to couer a wounde with ſkinne, to cloſe vp a wounde.
Obducere vultum, to lowre, to loke ſowrely.
Callum obducere, to make harde oz thycke ſkynned, and prouerbially, to cauſe to ſuffer with leſſe peyne oz greke.
Obducere callum dolori, to cauſe one to ſuſtepne oz ſuffer ſozowe without griefe, oz moze eaſyly.
Tenebras obducere, to darken, to obſcure, to make leſſe knowen, famous, oz notable.
Et ciuis obductæ cælabat lumina prunæ, id eſt ſuperductæ, couered, hyded.
Cruſtam obducere, to growe to an harde ſkin oz cruſte.
Rubiginem obducere, to make ruſty.
Frontem obducere, to frowne, to lowre, to looke ſowrely.
Diem obduxi, I dyd ſpende oz lynger out the date with walkyng about.
Obduxio, ônis, f. g. a couerynge.
Obduxio capitis, the foldynge oz wrappynge vp of the head in a clothe oz other thyng.
Obducto, aui, are, the frequentatiue of obduco.
Obductus, a, um, couered, hyded.
Obductus nube, couered oz cloſed in a cloude.
Obductum rubigine ferrum, yron all eaten ouer with ruſtineſſe.
Situ obductus, couered ouer and ouer with dozeneſſe oz duſte.
Obdulceſco, ſcere, to be ſweete aboute.
Obdureo, ui, ère, to bee harde.
Obdureſco, ſcere, to be hardened, to become harde.
Obdûro, aui, are, to make harde.
Obédiens, entis, om. g. that obeyeth, obedient.
Obediens dicto, he that dooeth that whiche he is commaunded to dooe.
Obedienter, obediently.
Obedientia, æ, f. g. obedience.
Obédio, obédis, iui, ire, to obeye.
Parére & obedire.
Obtemperare & obedire.
Obedibo, was of olde tyme vſed foz Obediam
Si ad verba nobis obediant, If they dooe acco-dyng to the wooꝛdes that we doo ſpeake.
Obedo, óbedis, obédi, obédere, to conſume oz eate all aboute.
Obeliſcus, i, m. g. a great ſquare ſtone lyke a butte, waxing ſmaller and ſmaller vnto the top of a great heyghte, made playne by a workes man. There were of theym dyuers in Rome.
Obelus, óbeli, m. g. a ſpitte, oz broche. Alſo a longe ſtrike in wꝛityngе lyke to a ſpytte, foz a note oz diuerſitee.
Obeo, iui, ire, to go to, to go aboute, to be at hande, to be aſſiſtent oz preſent, to mete with one, to dye, to dooe oz exercyſe.
Obire mortem, Obire diem, Obire diem extremum, to dye. Obire vadimonium, to appeere and be preſent at the day appoynted.
Obeunt tres noctes, id eſt præterеunt, three nyghtes paſſe.
Id obire non potui, id eſt peragere, I could not atchieue it oz go through with it.
Obire morbo, to dye of a ſyckeneſſe.
Comitia obire, to be preſente at, oz to goe to the aſſembles of the people.
Diem aliquem obire, to be aſſiſtent oz preſent in a place, at a day appoynted, oz accuſtomed.
Obit legatus Aegyptum, he was ambaſſadour in Egypt, oz he dyng ambaſſadoꝛ went about all Aegypt.
Morte obiit repentina, he dyed ſodenely.
Munus conſulis obire, to doo and exercyſe the authoritee of a conſull.

Omnia perſe obire, to doo all hym ſelfe without helpe of any other.
Obire domos amicorum, To goe all about from one frendes houſe to an other.
Obire opus ruſticum, to labour in the fielde.
Prælia obire, to fyght.
Siciliam totam obij, I went ouer all Sicile.
Vrbes obire, to go about from citee to citee.
Obire, ſometyme for Circundare, to couer or compaſſe rounde about.
Obire legationem, to go in ambaſſade.
Obire prouinciam, to go about the prouince, whither one is ſent, as lieutenaunt or gouernour. Obire bellum, to goe to battaple, to make warre.
Quia tot ſimul bella obire nequirent, Becauſe they coulde not ſuſteyne the trauaple of ſo many and dyuers warres at one tyme, or go to and bee preſente at ſo many warres together
Obire hæreditatem, to take poſſeſſion of landes, wherein a man hath a ſtate of inheritaunce.
Obire cœnas cum aliquo, to go to banketes with one hyther and thyther.
Obire oculis, to looke here and there about.
Obire pedibus regiones, to goe into dyuers countreis on foote.
Obéquito, aui, are, to ryde about.
Oberro, aui, are, to wander about, to ren about from place to place ſometyme to flee about. alſo to erre or myſſe.
Obeſco, aui, are, to feede fatte, to cramme.
Obeſitas, atis, f. g fatneſſe, groſſenes.
Obeſo, aui, are, to make fatte, to cramme.
Obeſus, a, um, in Virgile, is fatte. In Nenius it ſignifieth leane, ſpiteli, ſklender. It is moſt commonly taken for groſſe or fatte of bodye, grutty, coſly.
Obex, obicis, com. g. an obiecte or lette, a ſparre or bolte of a dooze.
Obſtinate, obſtinately.
Obſtinatus, a, um, ſtubburne, ſtyffe, earneſtly bent or mynded.
Obſtino, aui, are, to harden ones ſelfe, to haue an earneſt opinion, to be earneſtly purpoſed
Netum obſtinate, be not ſo ſtyffe or ſo hard hearted.
Obſtinare viam, obſtinately to go forwarde with his purpoſe, what let ſo euer there bee
Obſtinare animum, to be ſtubburne and obſtinate ſometyme in the good parte to bende &c. to bende ones mind earneſtly on a thyng.
Obgannio, iui, ire, to whyſper in ones eare. alſo to tell a thyng often, to chatte
Obhæreo, hæſi, hærere, to cleue or ſtycke.
Obhærbeſco, ſcere, to growe vp as herbes doo.
Obiaceo, óbiaces cui, ere, to lye about or againſt. alſo to lye before, to lye in the way.
Obiecticulum, i, neu. ge. that whiche is ſette or throwen before one, to make hym afrayde, or to lette hym that he ſhall not paſſe.
Obiectátio, ónis, f. g a reprochyng, a layeng to ones charge, a caſtyng in the teethe.
Obiecto, áui, áre, to obiecte or often impute or laye to ones charge. alſo to caſt out.
Corpora bello obiectant, they put theyr bodies in the daunger of warre.
Obiectum, i, neu. ge. any thyng that is before a mans eyes and may bee ſene.
Obiectus, a, um, throwen, layde, or ſet againſt, put before, ſhewen to, layd to ones charge, caſt in ones teethe, caſt or layde forth in harmes way, redie to daunger.
Obiectus, us, m. gen. the layenge or ſettyng of a thyng before ones eyes, or againſt one.
Obiicio, obiicis, éci, ere, to lay or throw againſt, or to laie before one, to laie to ones charge, to caſt in ones teethe, to laye to ones reproche. alſo to cauſe to remembre, to bring in mynde, to caſt out in harme or perils waye.
Obiicere mentem alicui, To put in to a mans head, or to bring one in a fantaſy, to put into ones mynde to doo a thyng.
Obiicere moram, to make one to tary, to let.
Obiicere prævaricationem, to laye a matter to ones charge.
Obiicere religionem, to make one to be ſcrupulous, or to make conſcience in a matter.
Obiicere ſolicitudinem, to make one carefull or penſiue.
Obiicere ſpem, to put one in hope.
Obiicere terrorem, to make one afeerde.
Obiicere caput periclis, To put hym ſelfe in daungier to be ſlayne.
Obiicere cibum canibus, to caſt meate to the dogges.
Obiicere furorem alicui, to put one in a madneſſe or fury.
Lætitiam obiicere alicui, to ſhewe to one ſorepnly ropefull and merp tydynges.
Metum animo alicuius obiicere, to put one in a feare, to make hym afeerde.
Salutem ſuam pro aliquo obiicere, To putte ones ſelfe in daunger for a man.
Obiiciad omnes caſus, to be ſette in dangier of all chaunces.
Obiens, untis, of Obeo, obij, goyng or compaſſyng rounde about.
Obigitare, to ſtirre or meue before.
Obiánis, ne, verate vacant and emptie.
Obiimunt, they dye.
Obiratus, a, um, verate angry, greatly moued.
Obiter, by the waie, incidently, beſide the purpoſe, in the meane tyme, preciſely.
Obitus, óbita, um, dying.
Obitus, óbitus, m. ge. the dying or deceaſſe of a man: ſometyme the comyng of one. The auncient writers toke Obitum, for the accéſſe or comyng to one by chaunce.
Obitus lunæ, the goyng downe of the moone.
Stellarum ortus atque óbitus.

Obiur-

Obiurgatio, ônis, fœm. gener. chidynge, rebukynge, blamynge.

Obiurgâtor, ôris, mas. gene. he that chydeth or rebuketh.

Obiurgatórius, a, um, thet belongeth to chidyng or rebukyng.

Obiurgatoriæ litteræ, letters of rebuke.

Obiúrgito, aui, are, to chyde muche or often.

Obiurgo, aui, are, to chyde or rebuke, to reprehende sharpely, to blame.

Obiûro, áui, âre, to bynde by an othe.

Oblamenia, æ, fœm. gene. the herbe called also vitis nigra.

Oblangueo, langui, languêre, to languysshe.

Oblǽdo, lǽsi, dere, to hurte sore.

Oblátio, ônis, f. gen. an offeryng. Also an ayde or subsidie.

Oblatrâtor, ôris, m. ge. he that barketh or maketh exclamation agaynst one.

Oblatro, óblatras, áui, âre, to bark against one.

Oblâtum, i, n. g. a thyng offered.

Oblâtus, a, um, offered, profered.

Oblata facultate, whan occasion or opportunitee was geuen.

Oblectátio, ônis, Oblectâmen, tâminis, Oblectamentum, ti, recreation, ease, delyte, pleasure.

Oblectitio otii, the fruite or pleasure of vacant tyme.

Oblecto, aui, are, to delyte, to recreate, to take pleasure in a thyng, to put all his felicitee and delyte in a thyng.

Falso gaudio oblectare, To make gladde in vayne, to bring one in fooles paradise.

Me te oblectes, Leat all your delite, pleasure, and felicitee bee in me onely.

Vbi te oblectasti tam diu? Where haue you made mery, passed your tyme, or solaced your selfe all this longe whyle?

Oblecta te cum Cicerone, recreate and delyte your selfe with Cicero our derely beloued.

In eo me oblecto, in that I put my chiefe delyte and pleasure.

Oblénio, oblênis, niui, nire, idem quod lenio.

Oblicio, to take recreation or pleasure.

Oblido, lisi, dere, to hurte sore, to stylle, to kyll, to beate euen to the verie death.

Obligátio, ônis, f. g. an obligation or bonde.

Obligâtus, a, um, obliged, bound round about.

Obligo, óbligas, áui, âre, to bynde, to bynde round about, or ouer and ouer, to make bounden to hym by shewyng some frendly pleasure.

Obligare se furti, to committe felony, sometyme to confesse felony.

Obligare aliquem scelere, to charge ones conscience with a mischeuous and naughty acte.

Populum Roman. scelere obligasses, Thou haddest made the Romayns partners of thy mischeuous act.

Is periculum iudicii præstare debet, qui se nexu obligauerit, He that soigneth him selfe with an other in any bonde, muste abyde the iustpardy of the iudgement or condemnation.

Obligare sacramento, to charge one with an othe.

Obligari periculo iusiurandi, to be charged with an othe.

Obligari sponsione, to bee tyed by his promyse or couenaunt.

Obligare crus fractum, to bynde or wrappe up a broken legge.

Verbo se obligare, to bynde hym selfe by a worde of his mouthe.

Obligúrio, obliguris, iui, ire, to eate delicate meates gredily, or rauenously, and to consume goodes in feastyng and banketyng.

Oblimo, aui, are, to couer with mudde or sore claie. And by translacion to blynde, and as it were to stoppe or daube vp.

Oblimare rem, To spende his goodes prodigously.

Oblino, óblinis, lini, liui, leui, ere, to imbrue or make foule, to smeare or make foule rounde about.

Oblinio, óblinis, niui, ire, to noynte or smeare ouer and ouer.

Se externis moribus oblinire, To dishonestie him selfe with the yll maners of foreyne countreys.

Oblique, awry, ouerthwartly.

Oblique perstringere, to taunt or checke.

Obliquitas, âtis, f. g. crookednesse.

Obliquo, áui, âre, to crooke, to make to go or to stande aslyde or awry.

Obliquare oculos, to lette.

Obliquus, a, um, contrary to streight, crooked, awry, that standeth ouerthwart.

Obliqua via, a crosse pathe goyng ouer an other waie.

Flexi in obliquum, bent ouerthwart.

Oblisus, a, um, sore hurte or dasshed.

Obliterâtio, ônis, fœ. ge. a scrapyng or blottyng out of a worde.

Obliterâtus, a, um, scraped out or blotted.

Oblitero, aui, are, to scrape out or put out of remembraunce, to abolysshe.

Obliterare famam rei alicuius, To putte the bruite or fame of any thynge out of memory, to make it to bee forgotten, and not to be spoken of.

Offensionem obliterare, to put an offence or displeasure out of ones mynde.

Oblitesco, scere, to be hyd, to ly hyd or couered.

Oblitus, a, um, forgotten, or that hath forgotten.

Prorsus oblitus sum mei, I haue quite and cleane forgotten my selfe.

Non sum ego oblitus officium meum, I haue not forgotten my charge or office.

Oblitus, óblita, um, imbrued, defyled, smeared, annoynted all about.

Parricidio óblitus, shamefully distayned or dishonested with some detestable murder.

Obli-

Obliuio, ônis, f. g. forgetfulnesse.
Obliuioni dare, to forgeat.
Cæpit me obliuio, I haue forgotten.
Conterere voluntaria obliuione, To forgeat wilfyngly, and putte quite and cleane out of remembraunce.
In obliuione iacuit, he was quite and cleane out of memory, and nothyng spoken of.
Obliuionem cibi surrepere aiunt, They saye that he forgetteth to eate his meate.
Venire in obliuionem, to be forgotten.
Ab obliuione vindicare, To make that one shall neuer be forgotten.
Obluctans obliuioni, goyng about to call to remembraunce, or byyng to mynde.
Obliuione delere & obruere, to forgette.
Obliuiósus, a, um, forgetfull, obliuious. somestyme that causeth to forget.
Obliuiscor, sceris, sci, to forgeat.
Obliuium, ij, n. g. idem quod obliuio.
Obloco, óblocas, áui, áre, idem quod Loco.
Oblocutio, ônis, f. g. yll reporte.
Oblongus, a, um, verate longe.
Obloquor, eris, óbloqui, to speake against, to saie contrary, to reporte yll, to curse.
Obloquûtor, óris, m. ge. an yll reporter or detractour.
Oblucinor, aris, ari, to erre.
Obluctor, áris, ari, to wrastle, striue or struggle against.
Obludo, si, ere, to plate with one.
Obmánens, abydyng longe.
Obmólior, íris, iri, to sette some thynge with great labour against the place, whereby one must nedes passe.
Obmordeo, di, ere, to byte.
Obmouere, olde writers vsed for Admouere.
Obmúrmuro, aui, are, to murmure against.
Obmutesco, mutui, scere, as we communly saie, I holde my peace, I speake not, I holde my tungue, I haue not a worde to say.
Obmutescere dicitur res aliqua, not to be in vse.
Obnato, óbnatas, aui, are, to swym against.
Obnâtus, a, um, growyng or sprynging about.
Obnexo, xui, ectere, to knyt fast.
Obnexio, ônis, f. g. a fast knittyng.
Obnexus, a, um, fast knitte.
Obniger, gra, um, blache, somewhat blache, or after some, verate blache.
Obnitor, niteris, ti, to resiste with al ones power, to striue against with all his myght, to endeuour with all force to lette a thynge.
Obnixé, an aduerbe, signifiyng with all his might or power, or firmely, as muche as one can.
Manibus pedibúsq; obnixé omnia facit, He dooeth all thynges with hande and foote, as muche as in hym lyeth.
Obnixus, a, um, that earnestly resisteth or stryueth against, or laboureth to withstande.
Obnixus opibus, id est attentius ad rem, wholly bent to geat and kepe monie.

Obnoxius, a, um, bounden, subiect, apt, in daungier, obedient, in the power of the ennempe. somtyme it signifieth gyltie or fautie, that hath deserued to be punyshed.
Sum tibi obnoxius, I am bounden or subiect vnto the.
Obnoxius pœnæ, subiecte to punishement deserued.
Obnoxius morbis, subiecte to sickenesses.
Periculis obnoxius, subiect to perils. &c.
Minari interdum ferro, nisi sibi obnoxia foret, and threatned hir sometyme with his weapon, if she wolde not be obedient to his requestes.
Obnoxium feris, to cast out to wyld beastes, in daungier to be hurt of wylde beastes.
Obnoxium ingenium, a dishonest wyt.
Obnoxia curæ arua, fieldes necessary to bee husbanded and tended.
Ego me obnoxium esse fateor, I grant that I am fautie.
Procellis obnoxia, in daunger of stormes, or that quickely taketh harme by stormes.
Obnoxius legibus, in daungier of the lawes by reason of some offence dooen.
Obnoxia munera & officia, amonge the auncient writers were taken for those offices, the ministracion of the whiche was vile and dishonest, whiche also myndred liberte or nobilitee of birthe.
Obnoxius gratiæ iudex, the iudge whiche regardeth fauour or pleasynge of the one part, a iudge that regardeth ones complaynt, and sheweth fauour, fauourable.
Obnoxia corpora, bodies diseased, and not in helthe, sickely bodies.
Obnoxius iniuriis, to whom one maie soone dwe wronge.
Obnoxia nulli animali olera, herbes that no beast will hurte or eate.
Obnoxius crimini, he that is charged with an offence.
Obnoxiè, fearefully, lyke a subiecte or slaue.
Non obnoxie, euidently, playnly.
Obnúbilo, áui, áre, to make darke with cloudes, to make cloudie. also to make heuy and sadde in countenaunce.
Obnúbilus, a, um, cloudy or darke.
Obnûbo, nupsi, nubere, to hyde, to couer ouer and ouer, to couer the head or body.
Obnuntiátio, ônis, fœm. g. a declaracion of the diuinours called Augures, to the chiefe officers of Rome, that any thyng shoulde not bee enterprised or dooen, that was purposed, by reason of certayne signes or tokens, whiche the saied diuinours perceyued by the flyght or voyce of byrdes, whiche was contrary to the purpose that they went about.
Obnuntio, aui, are, to tell or shewe yll tidynges, and thynges displeasant or vnlucky, to denye, to resiste against a thyng purposed.

Obo-

Oboleo, óboles, olui, and oleui, lére, to ſtynke. ſometyme for Subolere, to perceiue or ſmel out. Oboluiſti allium, thou diddeſt ſtinke of garliche.

Obolus, óboli, m g, a weight conteinyng thꝛee Siliquas, or carectes, and is halfe a ſcruple. it was alſo a coyne of ſyluer, but that varied accoꝛdynge to the countꝛeie, where they wer curꝛant: as Obolus Atticus, Romanus, Hebraicus, it is now cõmonly vſed foꝛ an half peny. Obolus terræ, is the .577. parte of iugerum, that is fyue foote in bꝛeadth, and ten in length: whiche conteineth .50. foote ſquare.

Obolus, amonge the Athenienſes was eight of the coines called Chalci, and euery Chalcus was halfe quadrans, ſo that Obolus conteined iiii. quadꝛantes, and was in value ſomewhat leſſe then our halfepeny ſterlyng, as ſome haue iudged, but I thynke it to be moꝛe by a little, foꝛ Drachma conteined, 6. Obolos, and Denarius, being of the ſame value, conteined .iiii. ſeſtertios, euery ſeſtertius is in value a ſterling penie, when eight grotes made an ownce.

Oborior, oboriris, oꝛ obóreris, oboriri, to beegyn to ſpꝛyng oꝛ come foꝛth, to ryſe.

Obortus, a, um, begun oꝛ ſpꝛonge, riſen vp.

Rumor obortus, tydynges ſpꝛonge.

Tanta lætitia obꝛta eſt mihi, ſo gꝛeat ioy oꝛ gladneſſe is chaunced and come to me.

Aduentu ſuorum lacrymæ ſunt obortæ, whã his acquaintance oꝛ fꝛiendes came, he burſt out in weppng, oꝛ the teares tꝛickeled downe his chekes.

Riſus obortus eſt, he burſte out in laughynge.

Obrâdo, raſi, radere, to ſhaue agaynſt the heare.

Obraucâtus, a, um, made hoarſe.

Ob rem, foꝛ the purpoſe.

Obrépo, repſi, répere, to come pꝛiuily, to ſteale in, to come vnwares oꝛ vnloked foꝛ, to creepe vpon one ere he be ware. ſometyme to deceiue one. Obrepere ad honores, to come oꝛ atteine to honoure by cꝛafty diſſimulacion, vnder the colour of learnyng, wiſdome, oꝛ honeſtie.

Obrepit ſomnus, ſlepe cometh vpon hym vnwares, and by tꝛanſlacion, he is deceiued oꝛ erꝛeth.

Obrepit ſenectus, olde age creepeth vpon a man ere he be ware.

Obrepſit dies deceſſionis, that daie that I muſte nedes departe on, came vpon me ſoonce than I thought.

Obréptio, ônis, fœm. gen. the gettyng oꝛ obteinynge of a thynge by cꝛaftie diſſimulacion oꝛ falſehode.

Obreptitiæ literæ, letters obteined by the ſayde meanes.

Obrepto, aui, are, foꝛ frequenter obrépo.

Obretio, obrétis, obretire, to take in the net, to bꝛynge oꝛ dꝛawe the net about a thynge.

Obrideo, riſi, dére, to laugh at one, to mocke one

Obrigeo, óbriges, gui, gére, and Obrigeſco, ſcere, to be oꝛ ware ſtiffe oꝛ harde foꝛ colde.

Obrion, one of the ples called foꝛtunate.

Obris, a ryuer.

Obrizum, oꝛ Obryzum, zi, ne. gen. pure or fyne golde.

Obrifio, a mocke.

Obrôdo, rôſi, ródere, to gnawe about.

Obrogo, óbrogas, aui, are, to checke oꝛ interrupt a man in his ſpeche. Obrogare legem, to derogate one lawe by an other.

Obrumpo, rupi, rumpere, foꝛ Rumpo.

Obruo, óbrui, ruere, to ouerthꝛow, to confounde, to couer cleane ouer and ouer with earth oꝛ other thynge, to hyde in the grounde. alſo to cloy, to peſter.

Obruere ſale, to couer with ſalte, to pouder.

Obruere voluptatibus dolorem, to putte a dꝛiue away ſoꝛowe with hauntyng much pleaſure and paſtyme.

Obrui ære alieno, to owe very mache, oꝛ be in gꝛeat debt, to be ouer charged with debte.

Obruere memoriã alicuius, to put one cleane out of remembꝛaunce.

Obrui magnitudine negotii, to be ouer chaꝛged with the impoꝛtance of the affayre oꝛ buſineſſe. Obruit eum obliuione vetuſtas, time ſo longe tyme paſſed, that he is cleane out of remembꝛaunce, oꝛ vtterly foꝛgotten.

Obliuione obruere facta ſua, to cauſe his actes to be foꝛgotten.

Obruere riſu teſtem, to make the witneſſe to be ſo laughed at, that he durſt not ſpeake any moꝛe. Obruitur vulgi ſermo hominum interitu, the ſpeche of people is loſt whan men be dead.

Obruere lapidibus, to ſtone to deathe.

Obruere ſe vino, to ouercharge hym ſelfe with wyne, to dꝛynke to muche, to be dꝛonke.

Obrutus, óbruta, um, ouer thꝛowen, couered, periſhed.

Obrutus in terra, buried oꝛ hydde in the grounde.

Obrutus aquis, dꝛowned.

Obrutum ſitu vetuſtatis, it is loſt oꝛ peryſhed foꝛ age: oꝛ it is ſo longe agone, that it is neuer out of remembꝛaunce.

Obrutus niuibus, couered with ſnowe.

Obruta itinera ſtrage, the waies were full of men ſlayne oꝛ kylled.

Obrutania fulmina, lyghtynynges, whiche ſodainly happen, thꝛowyng downe and bꝛuſing thynge, befoꝛe they be looked foꝛ.

Obrutuit, he was aſtonyed.

Obſæuio, obſeuiui, uire, to be woodde angry agaynſt one.

Obſáturo, aui, are, to fyll to muche with a thyng, to make one to haue his full of a thynge.

Obſaluto, aui, are, to offꝛe to ſalute one.

Obſalutum, olde wꝛiters vſed foꝛ halowed.

Obſcéno, aui, are, to bꝛyng oꝛ cauſe yll luche.

Obſcénus, a, um, that ſignifieth oꝛ declareth ſome some yll lucke or misfortune to folowe, that bringeth yll luche.

Obscæne, lyke a rybalde, without shame, fylthyly, vnchastly, baudyly.

Obscœnitas, ātis, f. g. villanye in actes, rybaudry, fylthynesse.

Obscœnus, a, um, abhominable, all thyng whiche is to bee eschewed, dishonest, vncleane, filthy, wanton, baudy, vnchaste.

Obscuratio, ōnis, f. g. darkyng, dimmyng.

Obscuratus, a, um, made darke or vnknowen.

Obscure, darkely.

Non obscure, playnely.

Obscure loqui, to speake couertly or darkely.

Obscure ferre aliquid, to dissimule or make as a thyng were not with him as it is.

Obscuritas, ātis, f. g. darkenesse, difficultee, obscuritee, vngentylnesse of bloud, vnnoblenesse, or baseneste of byrthe.

Obscuro, aui, are, to make darke, to dymme, to shadow, to hyde, to kepe in silence or from the knowlage of other, to make of no reputacion.

Obscurat magnitudinem periculi lucrum, lucre or gayne maketh that the greatnesse of the daunger can not be sene or perceiued.

Quod obscurari non potest, that can not be hydde or kepte vnknowen.

Obscurare and Celebrare, contrary.

Obscurari & obrui.

Obscūrus, a, um, obscure, darke, hyd, diffuse, vnknowen, of no gentyll bloud, sometyme blacke.

Obscuro adhuc cœpit lucis, beefore it was bigge day, in the dawnynge of the day.

Non erat obscurum, it was euidente, euery man dyd know, or it was no harde mattier to know.

Discrimen obscurum, a difference that can not well be perceiued.

Non est obscura tua in me beneuolentia, the good wyll that you beare me is well knowen, and perceiued of all men.

Obscuro loco natus, of a base and vnknowen stocke. Obscura luce, in the euenyng.

Peregrinatio obscura & sordida, by the which one getteth no renoume or bruite.

Obsecratio, ōnis, f. g. a speciall desyre, a desyrynge for goddes sake.

Obsecro, obsecras, aui, āre, to beseche or hertily to pray, to pray for goddis sake.

Obsecrare ab aliquo, to desyre of one.

Id te obsecro.

Ibi cœpit me obsecrare, than he beganne to desyre and praie me for goddis sake.

Obtestari & obsecrare.

Obsecro ne facias, I beseche you for goddes sake doo it not.

Obsecrō, vsed aduerbially.

Hem, obsecro, an is est? How, I pray the, is that he? or I pray the say true is it he in deede?

Obsecundo, aui, are, to make prosperous. also to obey or dooe all thynge at an other mannes wyll, to make a thynge better than it semeth to bee. Obsecundato in loco, be ruled, or folowe the appetyte of a man at some tyme.

Obsecundanter, obedyently.

Obsepio, obsēpis, obsepiui, or sepsi, and sepsi, sepire, to inclose about with an hedge.

Obsepire iter ad honores, to let or stop that men can not come to honor or promotion.

Obsepire viam adipiscendi aliquid, to let that one can not attaine a thyng.

Obsequēla, læ, f. g. obedience, diligence, endeuoir.

Obsequentia, æ, f. g. obeysance.

Obsēquens, entis, om. g. obedient, pleant, redy to doo as one would haue hym.

Obsequenter, obedyently.

Obsequentissime, with great obedience.

Obsequia, thynges done to the pleasure or appetite of hym that they bee doen for.

Obsequibilis, le, diligent, ready to dooe that, whiche is commaunded.

Obsequiōsus, a, um, that dooeth willyngly pleasure and seruice, seruisable, that attendeth or standeth waityng ready at hande.

Obsequium, quij, n. g. redyneste to doo all that is commaunded, obedience, humble seruice. sometyme it signifieth flattery.

Obsequium & indulgentia corporis, the sufferynge of the body to haue all pleasures that it desyreth, sensualitee.

Obsequium ventris, pleasure of the bealy in feedyng, delicate feedyng.

Obsequium animo sumere, to take his pleasure, to lyue as he wyll hym selfe.

Obsequor, eris, obsequi, to folowe an other mās pleasure, to do as an other wyl haue hym, to be pleant, to be redy to do seruice, to please.

Obsequere animo, take thy pleasure, make good cheere.

Obsequi animo suo, to lyue as he wyll hym selfe, to take pleasure and make mery.

Gracilis habitudo corporis artuum momens to obsequitur, the sclender state of the body is pliable or lythy, to the nymbleneste of the ioynctes or lymmes.

Obsequi alicui in omnibus, to do as one wold haue hym in all thynges.

Nos senes æquum est senibus obsequi, It is meete for vs olde folkes to dooe pleasure eche for other, or reason wolde, that we olde men shulde helpe one an other.

Obsequor, is sometyme vsed with an accusatiue case. as, Ea quæ obsequi non oportet.

Obsero, obseris, sēui, serere, to sow or set about, to plante. sometyme for Circundare, to compas in or about.

Agrum vineis obserere, to plant his grounde or fielde with vines.

Obsero, obseras, aui, are, to locke or shut a doore.

Ostium obsera intus, shut the dooze on the inside,

Obseruabilis, le, mete to be obserued, worthie to be be had in reuerence.

Obseruans, antis, one that reuereneeth.

Obseruantissimus omnium officiorũ, he that dooeth espie and obserue all occasions possible to doo pleasure for his frende.

Obseruantia, æ, f. g. reuerence, honor, obseruãce.

Obseruantia, sometyme for Obseruatione.

Obseruatio, ônis, f. g. awaite, obserupng, marspng, sometyme for Obseruantia, reuerence, honoure.

Obseruationi operam dare, to obserue, to marke, to take good hede.

Obseruo, aui, are, to awapte diligentlp with the eies, & also the mpnde, to watche, to obserue, to marke, to honoure, to take good heede, to haue in reuerence, to loue, to fauour with a lopng reuerence.

Fœdus ictum obseruare, to kepe or obserue.

Me semper ab meunte adolescentia obseruauit, he hath had me alwap in reuerence.

Obseruare ianuam, to kepe the gate.

Scripturam alicuius obseruare, to reprehende or fynde faute with that one hath writtẽ.

Obseruito, aui, are, the frequẽtatiue of obseruo.

Obses, obsidis, com. gen. an hostage or pledge in warres.

Cauere obsidibus, to take hostages or pledges for the performance of the couenants.

Obsessio, ônis, f. g. a siege.

Obsessor, ôris, m. g. that taketh siege.

Obsessus, a, um, besieged.

Obsessi, they that are besieged, whiche can not passe out of the place where they be.

Obsidiæ, arum, f. g. plur. lpng in awaite to take awap anp thpnge craftilp.

Obsidianus, a, um, the adiectiue.

Obsidianum vitrum, a kynde of glasse, whiche is pure blacke.

Obsidionâlis, le, belongpnge to a siege.

Obsidionalis corona, a garlande geuē to him, whiche delpuered a towne or foztresse, besieged with enmies, whiche was af grasse.

Obsideo, obsides, sessi, sidere, to besiege, to compas about, to inupron. also to possesse, to occupy.

Tempus and Locum obsidere, to occupp the tpme or place that an other man shulde.

Armatus exercitus regiam obsedit, the hoste stoode all about the palace redy armed.

Stuprum obsidere, to watche or espp an occasion to commit aduoutrie with one.

Domi certum est obsidere, vsque donec redierit, I haue surely purposed to abyde at home tpll he come agapne.

Obsidio, ônis, f. g. a siege laped to a towne or castell.

Cingere and Claudere obsidione, to besiege.

Obsidione eximere, to reise the siege.

Obsidior, âris, ari, to lpe in a waite to take one.

Obsidium, dij, n. g. a siege laide about a towne or foztresse.

Facere obsidium, to besiege.

Soluere obsidium, to reise the siege.

Obsido, sedi, sidere, idem quod obsideo.

Obsigillo, aui, are, to hyde, to seale vp.

Obsignator, ôris, m. g. he that putteth his seale or signe to a deede or instrument.

Obsigno, aui, are, to close letters and seale them, also to signe them.

Obsignare testamenta, to put his hand or seale to testamentes or wpIles.

Literas obsignare, to seale vp letters.

Obsignatus, a, um, sealed vp.

Obsipo, aui, are, to throwe or caste, as when men of the countrey do sate, Obsipa pullis escam, caste meate to the chickens.

Obsisto, stiti, sistere, to resist, to withstande, to repugne, also to gainesate.

Obsistere obuiam, to meete with one.

Obsisti illi non potest, no man can let hym or withstande hym.

Iniuriæ obsistere, to let or withstande iniurie.

Obsitus, obsita, tum, wrapped, set about with bees or trees.

Obsitus annis & pannis, very olde, and wrapped in ragges.

Obsitus squalore vestis, pll & sluttyshly clad.

Obsitus æuo, verate aged.

Obsita tenebris loca, verate darke places.

Obsolefio, factus sum, fieri, to be out of vse also to dekile, distepne, or dishonest.

Obsoleo, obsolet, obsolui, and obsoleui, lere, to ware olde, to growe out of vse, to decay, to leese the grace.

In homine turpissimo obsolebant dignitatis insignia, lost theyr grace.

Laus alicuius obsolescit, decaieth, wasteth awap.

Virtus obsolescit, decaieth.

Obsolesco, scere, to decaie, to ware olde, to be out of vse.

Obsolete, oldely, barely.

Obsolétus, a, um, decaied, old, out of vse, worn as a garment whan it is bare.

Color obsoletus, an pll colour.

Dextra obsoleta sanguine, id est maculis, blouddy.

Vestis obsoleta, a garment worne very bare, thredebare.

Obsoletus vestitus, poore apparaile.

Obsonium looke Opsonium.

Obsonor, and Obsono, aui, are, loke Opsonor.

Obsonus, obsona, um, that whulpe hath an pll towne.

Obsonito, looke opsonito.

Obsonatio, feastpng or banketepng.

Obsonator, & Obsonatrix, looke Opsonator.

Obsono, obsonas, aui, are, to sowne pll.

Obsorbeo, bui, & obsorpsi, bere, to sup vp all.

Obsorbo, sorpsi, bere, idem.

Obsordeo, dui, sordere, to bee fplthy, vncleane, or sluttyshe. Nonius declareth it to ware olde, to become vple.

Obstáculum, li, n. g. an obstacle or impediment.
Obstetrico, aui, are, to doo the office of a mydwyfe.
Obstetrix, tricis, f. g. a mydwyfe.
Obstinate, obstinately, firmely, stubburnly.
Obstinátus, a, um, obstinate, fyrme, or stable, stubburne.
Obstinátio, ónis, fœ. ge. obstinácy, stiffenesse in opinion, stubburnesse.
Obstino, óbstinas, aui, are, to be obstinate, to persiste firme in one sentence or purpose, to be stubburne.
Obstipo, aui, are, to stoppe chynkes.
Obstipare verticem, to lay the heade a side on the shulder, as men doe when they muse.
Obstipus, a, um, wrye necked downe towarde the shulder, holding downe the heade towarde the shulder.
Obsto, stiti, stare, to withstand, to let, to hynder.
Paululum negotij mihi obstat, a lyttell busynesse dooeth lette me.
Egóne id patiar meæ voluptati obstare? shulde I suffre that thing to withstande or hynder my ioy or pleasure?
Obstátur, the impersonall.
Obstrepo, óbstrepis, repui, ere, to cry out on one or make a noyse, to stere & make a noyse or rustlyng with the fete or otherwise against one.
Laudi alicuius obstrepere, to be agaynst ones praise.
Obstrictus, a, um, faste bounde, tyed harde.
Obstrictus, us, m. g. a streict or hard wryngyng.
Obstrigillo, aui, are, to resist or repugne against, to speake in detraction of one.
Obstringo, strinxi, stringere, to bynde faste, to tye harde, to wrappe in bandes.
Obstringere fidem, to make a feithful promise
Obstringere se scelere, to cõmyt some naughtye acte.
Obstringere se parricidio, to murder his father or mother.
Obstringere se periurio, to cõmitte perturie.
Obstringere sibi aliquem munere, To make one bounden to hym for some frendly pleasure.
Obstringere se hæreditati, to clayme and take possession of ones heritage.
Iureiurando obstringere aliquem, To bynde one with an othe.
Ære alieno amicos suos obstringere, To bring his frindes in debte.
Religione obstringere, to charge ones conscience.
Prædibus se obstringere, to bynde hym selfe with suretees.
Obstrúdo, si, dere, to hyde, to stoppe a mannes throte, that he can not eate meate, to dryue a thyng deepe and hyde it in the grounde.
Obstrudulentum, ti, n. g. a stoppyng.
Obstrúctio, onis, idem.
Obstructus, a, um, stopped, shutte.
Obstruo, óbstruis, struxi, strúere, to shutte, to stoppe vp.
Vndas obstruit molibus, he stoppeth the water with pyles, or dammes.
Obstruere luminibus, to lette that a man can not looke out of his wyndowes, or to stoppe vp his syghtes.
Obstruere aures, to stoppe vp ones eares, to make deafe.
Obstupidus, a, um, astonied, abashed.
Obstupefácio, pefacis, féci, fácere, to abashe or make abashed or astonied.
Obstupeo, óbstupes, obstupui, and obstupesco, scere, to be abashed, to be astonyed, to be dismaide.
Obsum, obfui, obesse, to hurte or hynder, to cause damage.
Obsuo, óbsui, obsuere, to sow round about.
Obsurdesco, súrdui, descere, to be or wax deafe. also for Nolo audire, Nescio quomodo obsurdescimus, I can not tell howe, we be veraie lothe to here.
Obtego, óbtegis, obtexi, obtégere, idem quod Tego, to kepe close, to hide, to couer.
Obtegere se corpore alicuius, To hyde hym behynde some body.
Obtemperátio, ónis, f. g. obeysaunce.
Obtempero, aui are, to obeye or bee at cõmaundement.
Obtendo, obtendi, obtendere, to lay an excuse, to couer ouer, to make a pretence.
Rationem turpitudini obtendere, to couer or excuse a dishonest acte with some colour or reason.
Obtendere velum ante lectum, to drawe the courteyne before the bedde.
Obtendiculum, li, n. g. a coulourable answere.
Obtentus, a, um, covered, that hath a courteyn or veile drawen before it.
Obtentus, us, m. ge. a pretence or colour, a drawyng of a curteyne before a thyng.
Obtentu philosophiæ, vnder the colour or pretence of philosophie.
Sub eius obtentu cognominis, vnder the colour or shadowe of that surname.
Obtento, aui, are, the frequentatiue of obtineo.
Obtero, óbteris, obtriui, obtérere, to treade or thrust downe, to suffocate, to bruise, to hurte with yll wordes, to dispraise.
Obterebat laudes eius, it dydde diminisshe his praises.
Ab elephantis obtriti sunt, They were trode downe with the elephantes.
Calumniam obterere, to confounde a false accusation.
Iura obterere, to destroy and abolysshe lawes.
Obtestátio, ónis, fœ. ge. an humble desyre, prayer not to bee a thynge. also a takyng of god or some other thyng to wytnesse.
Obtestor, áris, ári, humbly to beseche, to desyre, to desyre for goddis sake, or for the remembrance of some thyng, whiche is of hym that is de-ſpred, thankefully herde.

Obtexo, téxui, ere, to weaue rounde about.
Obthurátio, ônis, ſ. g. ſtuttyng.
Obthûro, aui, are, to ſtutte, to ſtoppe.
Os obthurare, to ſtoppe ones mouth, or make that he ſpeake no more.
Obthuramentum, ti, n. g. a ſtoppel, a thyng that ſtoppeth vp. alſo the head of a ponde.
Obticéntia, æ, fœm. gene. ſilence, holdynge of ones peace.
Obticeo, óbtices, cui, cere, to kepe ſilence, not to ſpeake, to holde ones peace as thoughe he were dumme, to kepe in ſuche thynges as we be aſhamed of.
Lachrymans obticet, he wepeth, and will not ſpeake a woorde.
Quid obticuiſti? why ſtandeſt thou dumme?
Obtineo, óbtines, obtinui, nêre, to obteyne, to geat, to atcheue, to holde, to reteyn ſtyl, ſometyme to haue.
Si iſtam animi firmitudinem obtines, ſalui ſumus, If thou haſte that firmeneſſe of courage, we be ſafe.
Obtinere litem, to get the thynge that he ſued for, to recouer his ſuite by iudgement.
Obtinere primum locum, to bee the chiefe or principall.
Obtinere ordinem ſuum, to keepe the order and place that he is in.
Obtinere & repelli, contrary.
Admirationem obtinere, to be in admiration.
Cauſam obtinere, to ouercome in the ſuite.
Dignitatem obtinere, To kepe ſtyll his honor and dignitee.
Obtinet fama, the more common rumour is.
Obtinere ius ſuum, to obteyne that right and lawe doeth geue hym.
Prouerbij locum obtinet, it is now vſed or taken for a prouerbe.
Prouinciam obtinere, To obteyne the gouernaunce of a prouince.
Regnum in Sequanis obtinuit, he reygned ouer the people called Sequani.
Obtinetur, the impersonall.
Obtinet magnum locum in medicaminibus hæc herba, this herbe is greatly vſed or eſteemed in phiſike.
Præcipuam obtinent nobilitatem, They bee more ſpoken of, or more eſteemed than all other.
Patriæ nomen obtinent, they haue the name of theyr countrete.
Obtinere nomen ſapientis, to bee reputed a wyſe man.
Noxiam veneni obtinet, It is hurtefull lyke venome or poyſon.
Obtinet vim medicamenti, It hath the force or ſtrength of medicine.
Obtinet vitam per illum, It is by that mans benefite that he lyueth.
Obtinere vrbem aliquam armis, to kepe and holde a towne by force and violence.

Obtingit, tingebat, óbtigit, obtingere, to happen, to chaunce.
Aſia Quinto fratri obtigit, the gouernance of Aſia fell or was allotted to my brother Quint.
Iſtuc tibi ex ſententia tua obtigiſſe lætor, I am gladde that this chaunced to you, euen as your owne herte would deſyre.
Obtorpeo, obtorpui, obtorpere, and Obtorpeſco, ſcere, to be verie ſlowe or dull, to faint for feare.
Obtorpet manus, my hande is a ſlepe.
Obtorqueo, torſi, obtorquére, to wryng, wreſt, or wrythe about.
Obtortus, a, um, wreſted or writhed.
Obtrecto, aui, are, to reporte yll, to deprave, to diſpreyſe, to haue in deſpite, to backbite, to ſclaunder, to ſpeake yll of.
Obtrectátor, ôris, m. g. an yll reporter, or backbiter, a ſclaunderer.
Obtrectátio, ônis, fœ. g. yll report, diſpreyſyng, backbityng, ſclaunder.
Obtrectátus, us, m. g. idem.
Obtrigo, aui, are, to bynd by an othe, after Lapine.
Obtritus, us, m. g. weatyng, fouling, bruſyng, treadyng of a thyng vnder foote.
Obtritus, a, um, worne out, bruſed, ſtamped, troden in pieces.
Obtrûdo, trûſi, trûdere, to thruſte downe, to put to with force, to offre or geue to one againſt his will.
Obtrudit fores, he truſte to the doore.
Obtrudere vxorem, to geue a man a wyfe againſt his will or appetite.
Obtruncátio, ônis, ſ. ge. a cuttyng of the toppe of a thyng, a beheadyng.
Obtrunco, aui, are, to ſlea. alſo to ſtryke of a mannes head.
Obtrûſus, a, um, thruſt or put to by force.
Obtúeor, êris, eri, to beholde ſtedfaſtly.
Obtúitus, us, m. g. idem quod obtutus.
Obtundo, óbtudi, dere, to ſtrike, to breake, to make dull or blunte, to hurt a man with ſpeaſhynge, to make weery, to inculcate or repete thyng often, to beate into ones eares with often repetyng, to annoy with many woordes.
Aciem oculorum obtundere, to hurt the ſight, to make the eies dymme.
Auditum obtundere, to hurte the hearyng, to make one thycke of hearyng.
Obtundere ingenium, to make the wit dull.
Vocem obtundere, To hurte the voyce with ſtreignyng.
Obtuor, tueris, obtúitus, or obtutus ſum, obtui, to beholde, to regarde diligently.
Obturbo, aui, are, to trouble, to trouble all, to diſturbe, to interrupt or let ones tale.
Obtûro, aui, are, idem quod obthuro.
Obtuſé, dully, bluntly, without ſpirite or lyfe.
Obtûſus, a, um, dulle, blunte.
Aures obtuſæ, eares thycke or dull of hearing.

Vires obtusæ, weakened, decayed.
Obtûtus, us, m. ge. a looke or regarde, a stedfast beholdyng.
Obuágio, obuágis, giui, gire, to crie out as a child doth.
Obuallo, aui, are, to enuironne or cõpasse about with a dyche or trenche.
Obuarícător, ôris, masc. gene. he that tourneth one out of the ryght waie, or letteth him that he maie not passe.
Obuárico, aui, are, to stoppe or leat one of his passage.
Obuarro, aui, are, to peruerte.
Obuenio, óbuenis, uéui, nire, to come agaynst, to mete with. also to happen, to chance to, to chaunce by lotte.
Hæreditate obuenire, to come to one by succession.
Qui primus mihi obuenisset, whiche had fyrst mette with me.
Obuentio, ônis, f. g. reuenues, rentes.
Obuersátio, ônis, fœ. gen. comyng and goynge to a place.
Obuerso, aui, are, the frequentatiue of obuerto.
Obuersor, áris, ari, to be presente or before the eyes, to come in remembraunce, to haunt & go muche to a place, to bee so cuident to the mynd, as though it were before the eyes.
Sed mihi ante oculos obuersabatur reipublicæ dignitas, quæ me ad se rapuit, but before myne eyes came the estate of the publike weale, whiche pluched me vnto it.
Obuersári oculis.
Obuerto, ti, tere, to tourne agaynst or backe.
Obuertere signa in hostem, To tourne the standerdes agaynst the enemies.
Obuiam, an aduerbe, whiche signifieth before in the waie.
Obuiam ire, to go agaynst one, to preuente.
Obuiam mittere, To sende men to meete with one in the waie.
Obuiam fit, he mette with me.
Obuiam ire periculis, to preuent daungier.
Si nihil obuiam est, yf there bee nothyng in the waie to lette.
Obuiam ire conatibus, To preuente that one endeuoureth or goeth about.
Se mihi obuiam dedit, he mette or encounstred me.
Obuio, aui, re, to meete with one.
Obuius, óbuia, um, that which meeteth with one.
Obuij & quærso, they that mete a man.
Obuia vrbs inimicis, the cuttee ealy to bee taken with ennemies.
Obuius & expositus homo, one that admitteth euery man to common and talke with him, a verrate gentill and familiar person.
Obulus, looke Óbolus.
Obumbro, aui, are, to shadowe ouer and ouer, to make darke with shadowe. sometyme to defende, to saue or kepe from daungier.

Obumbratus amnis, couered or shadowed with trees.
Obuncus, a, um, verate crooked.
Obundo, aui, are, to renne or flowe agaynst.
Obnolo, aui, are, to flee agaynst.
Obuoluo, uolui, uere, to wrap together, to folde round about. sometyme to couer or hyde.
Obuos sacro, the auncient Romaynes vsed for obsecro, I beseche you.
Obustus, a, um, bourned round about.

O ANTE C.

OCalee, a citee of Bœotia.
Occa, cæ, fœ. gen. an harrow or dragge, whiche hath yron teeth, wherwith clodes bee broken.
Occatio, ônis, f. g. a breakynge of clodes, harrowyng.
Occatórius, a, um, belongyng to harrowyng.
Occátor, ôris, m. g. he that harroweth.
Occæco, aui, are, to make blynde, to enuegle.
Occálleo, lui, lêre, and occallesco, scere, to wax or be hard fleshed or brauned, like as a boye is.
Occallátus, a, um, that is tourned into harde flesh or brawne.
Occâno, canui, canere, and Occino, occinui, occinere, to syng against one, to late in rebuke.
Occásio, ônis, f. g. occasion, opportunitee ofcyme, meete and conuenient tyme to doo a thynge.
Rara occasio, not redy at hande.
Ad excutiendum ignem non semper lapidis occasio est, ther is not alway at hand a stone to strike fier: or, we can not allway haue in readines a stone. &c.
Amittere occasionem, to leat slyppe occasion or opportunitee.
Imminere occasioni, and captare occasionẽ, to wayte an occasion or opportunitee.
Arripere occasionem, To take an occasion quickely whan it is offered.
Nunc est occasio inimicum vlcisci, Nowe there is good opportunitee to bee reuenged on myne ennemy.
Post hæc occasio calua, a prouerbe, take occasion when it commeth, for he that will not when he may, when he will he shal haue nay. the tyde tarieth no man.
Occasio præmenda, a prouerbe, when the sunne shineth make hay: the tyde must be taken when it cometh.
Occasiuncula, læ, f. g. a small occasion.
Occaso, sere, to be lost or vndoon.
Occâsus, us, m. ge. death of man or beaste. also the goeyng down of the sunne, or suune glade, the fall or decate of fortune, as well in men as other thynges.
Occasus reipublicæ, the decaye or falle of the commune welthe.
Occatórium, rij, n. g. an harrowyng.
Occedo, pro accedo.

Occentaſsint, for conuitia fecerint, They ſhall gene rebukes or woꝛdes of reꝓroche.
Occento, aui, are, to cry out agaynſt one, with rebukefull woꝛdes.
Occentus, us, m. g. where one ſyngeth agaynſte an other. It maie bee taken for a counter tenour. alſo a ſqueakyng.
Occentus ſoricis, the ſqueakyng of a ratte.
Occepſo, pro incepero, I ſhall begynne.
Occiſiſsimus, vtterly vndooen, caſt awaye, or ſlayne, of all other moſt loſt or deſperate.
Occidens, entis, maſcu. gener. the weſt or poꝛnent.
Occidens, entis, om. gene. declinyng, fallyng, goeyng downe.
Occidens ſol, the ſonne goeyng downe.
Occidentâlis, le, of the weſt.
Occidio, ônis, f. g. deathe, ſlaughter.
Occidione occidere, To kill euerie mothers ſonne.
Occidioni eximere aliquem, To ſaue from killyng.
Ad occidionem gens interimenda eſt, Thei muſt be killed euerì one.
Occido, cidi, dere, to ſlea or wound to death, to kyll, to tourment or moleſt one greuouſely.
Occidere remp. & condere, contrary.
Occido, óccidis, óccidi, dere, to fall downe, to periſh vtterly, to dye, to go down, as the ſunne doeth, and other ſterres, to decaie.
Occidi, is a ſignification of ſoꝛowfulneſſe, as it were, I am vndooen, or vtterly loſt.
Occidi, I am dead, I am looſte.
Ferro óccidit, he was ſlayne. &c.
Ante ſuos annos óccidit, he died bekoꝛe his tyme.
Occidit memoria, The memoꝛye or remembraunce is looſte.
Occidit ſpes noſtra, our hope is loſt.
In nihilum occidere, To come at the laſte to nothyng.
Occidunt herbæ, cum euaneſcunt.
Occiduum, i, n. gen. the place where the ſoonne goeth downe.
Occiduus, a, um, that goeth downe.
Sole iam fere occiduo, the ſonne beyng redie to goe downe.
Occilire, to beate or buffet.
Occino, óccinis, nui, ere, to ſynge to an other, to ſyng agaynſt.
Occipio, óccipis, occæpi, ere, to begyn.
Occiput, ipitis, & Occipitium, ii, neu. gen. the hynder part of the head, the noddle or nape of the necke.
Occiſio, ônis, fœ. g. a ſlaughter or death of men, or cattalle.
Occiſione occidere, to make a great ſlaughter, and leaue almoſt none on lyue, to kyll euerie mothers ſonne.
Occiſus, a, um, kylled, ſlayne.
Occiſa res eſt, The mattier is daſhed or marred.
Occitantur, for frequenter occiduntur, they be ſlayne here and there or in dyuers places.
Occlámito, aui, are, to crye out.
Occlúdo, cluſi, ere, to ſhutte faſt.
Tabernas occludere, to ſhut vp ſhoppes.
Occludere linguam, To ſtoppe a man from ſpeakyng, to make hym that he can not ſpeke, or anſwere, to make hym haue neuer a woꝛde to ſaie.
Occlúſus, occluſior, occluſiſsimus, faſt ſhutte.
Occluſa contumeliis libido, ſtopped, reſtrayned.
Occo, aui, are, to harrowe and breake clodes and balkes in the coꝛne fielde. Alſo to couer with earthe.
Occubo, óccubas, occúbui, cubare, idem quod Occumbo.
Occubare morte, to dye.
Occulo, óculis, occúlui, lere, to hyde cleane that nothyng be ſene or perceyued.
Sylua occulit feras.
Occultatè, idem quod occultè, priuyly, vnknowen, ſecretely.
Occultátio, ônis, f. g. an hydyng.
Occultátor, ôris, maſcu. gener. he that hydeth.
Occultátus, a, um, hyd, kept cloſe or ſecrete.
Occulte, priuily, ſecretely.
Neque id occulte fert, and he doth not hyde it or diſſimule it.
Occulto, aui, are, to hyde.
Occultare ſe ab aliquo, to hyde hym ſelfe out of ones ſyght.
Occultari & aperiri, contrary.
Occultare apud ſe, To keepe cloſe with hym ſelfe.
Occultare conſilium fugæ, to kepe cloſe. &c.
Occultus, a, um, hyd, priuie, that is not knowen, veraie ſecrete.
Occulta muſica, ſtille muſike.
Occultum habere aliquid, to kepe ſecrete, not to diſcloſe.
Ex occulto, vſed prouerbially, priuyly.
Occultiſsimæ res, thynges veraie ſecrete.
Occultus & inuolutus, promptus & apertus, contrary.
Monitus occulti, priuie warnynges.
Viæ occultæ, priuie and vnknowen wayes.
Abdere ſe in occultum, to hide hym ſelfe.
Occumbo, bui, bere, to be ſlayne, to be deadly wounded, to dye.
Occumbere morti, mortem, and morte, to dye, to be ſlayne.
Occupans, antis, om. ge. that dooeth occupie or vſe a thyng, the occupier.
Occupátio, ônis, occupation, neceſſarye buſyneſſe, the holdyng or poſſeſſyng of a place. Alſo a coloure of rhetoꝛike, where the playntyfe in preuentyng the woꝛdes of the defendaunt, reherſeth that, whiche he will take for his excuſe, and and diſpꝛoueth it, pꝛeuention, anticipation.

Diſtineri occupatione, To be ſoꝛe troubled with buſines.
Eripere tempus è ſummis occupationibus, to ſteale a tyme to doe a thynge, from his other veꝛie vꝛgent buſineſſes.
Implicatus occupationibus.
Expedire ſe omni occupatione.
Relaxare ſe occupationibus.
Occupãtus, a, um, let in buſineſſe, occupied, taken vp, poſſeſſed.
Niſi quid magis es occupatus, operam miſhida, If pou haue no greatter buſines in hande.
Occupati animi beneficijs alicuius, the hertes of men wonne and gotten with benefites and pleaſures doopng.
Occupo, óccupas, ãui, are, to occupy, to geat oꝛ take befoꝛe an other man, to doo befoꝛe an other, to pꝛeuent, to vſe in commune, to take oꝛ holde a thyng with ſoꝛce, to leat oꝛ empeche, to poſſeſſe. ſometyme to lende foꝛ a vauntage, to let.
Occupare conſilium, to fynde aduyſe oꝛ counſayle.
Occupare locum, to take any place befoꝛe an other, oꝛ kepe a place by ſoꝛce. Occupes prior adire, go to hym fyꝛſt.
Occupat Tullus in agrum Sabinum tranſire, Tullus pꝛeuentyng them, went fyꝛſt. ꝛc.
Occupauerat animos fuga, They were of pur poſe oꝛ in mynde to flee.
Occupat animos terror, They are in a greatte feare.
Quem quiſque occuparit locum, The place whiche euery man ſhall take foꝛ hym ſelfe.
Hæc cauſa primos menſes occupabit, This matter ſhall be handeled oꝛ entreated of the fyꝛſt nonethes.
Diem fati occupare, to pꝛeuente his naturall death.
Amplexu occupare aliquem, to embꝛace one fiꝛſte.
Miniſterium carnificis occupare, to dooe the parte. ꝛc.
Mors ipſum occupat, death came apon hym.
Occupare aliquem, to pꝛeuente one, and take hym befoꝛe he doo a thyng.
Ortum ſolis occupare, to pꝛeuent.
Occupare pecuniam alicui, oꝛ apud aliquem fœnore, to lende money to one foꝛ vſury.
Occupare imperium, to vſurpe the crowne, rule, oꝛ gouernance of any realme.
Occurro, occurri, ere, to meete with, to come to mynde oꝛ remembrance, to offeꝛ hym ſelfe, to come in vꝛe, to come in place, to come in the way. to pꝛeuent in anſwerpng that one myght obiecte. alſo to reſiſte, to renne, to be pꝛoffeꝛed.
Occurrit pernionibus herba hæc, this herbe healeth kybes on the heeles, Occurrere maleuolentiæ hominum, to pꝛeuent oꝛ reſiſt the yll wyll and malice of men.

Occurrit ex aduerſo inſtructa acies, the enemy on the other part in good oꝛdeꝛ of battayle marcheth foꝛwarde againſt them.
Occurrere ſuppetijs fugientibus ſuis, to renne and ſuccour theyꝛ company, flyeng and reculyng backe.
Occurram expectationi veſtræ, I wyll anſwere to that pou wouldſt haue me, befoꝛe ye demaunde it.
Varietas ſatietati occurrit, the varietee maketh that a man ſhall not haue his full of it, oꝛ lothe it.
Non occurrit animo, It cometh not to my mynde oꝛ remembꝛaunce.
Occurſátio, ônis, f. g. the rennynge vp & downe from one to an other, whan a man ſueth oꝛ laboureth foꝛ an office oꝛ roume.
Occurſo, aui, are, the frequentatiue of Occurro, to come often to remembꝛance, to mete oft oꝛ renne agaynſt one.
Occurſare numinibus, id eſt adorare & ſacrificijs placare, to pꝛeuente the wꝛath of the goddis with ſacrifice, that they plage vs not.
Occurſus, us, m. g. a rennynge agaynſte one, a metyng oꝛ encountryng.
Oceanius, a, um, of the ocean ſea.
Océanus, i, m. g. the bꝛoade ſea, called the ocean ſea, whiche compaſſeth the woꝛld, and addeth to his name, the name of the countreys, by whiche it paſſeth: as,
Oceanus Britannicus, the ſea next to England and Scotlande.
Oceanus Indicus, the indian ſea.
Ocellãtus, a, um, that which hath eien, oꝛ holes lyke to eies.
Ocellum, a citee in Spayne.
Ocellus, li, m. g. a littell eie.
Ocellus meus, my pigges nye.
Ocha, æ, f. g. a goose.
Ocheſius, a duke of the people called Oetoli.
Ochra, æ, fœ. gene. ocher, whiche peinters dooe vſe.
Ochi, the herbe atriplex.
Ochion, idem quod coriandrum
Ochi, certayne trees, like to figge trees.
Ochros, an herbe, which Theodoꝛus doeth tranſlate ſometyme, ciceram, ſomtyme eruiliam.
Ochus, a ryuer, whiche paſſeth thꝛough Acarnania, a countrete in Greece.
Ocimaſtrum, wylde baſill, oꝛ baſill minte. alſo the herbe acinos.
Ocimum, mi, n. g. baſill.
Ocymoides, commonly called lacia alba, and potularia, after Ruellius opinion, But other thinke it to be that, whiche is called Ben rubrum.
Ociroe, a nymph, the daughter of Oceanus.
Ocnus, he that builded Mantua. Alſo ocnus, ſignifieth ſlow in engliſhe.

Ocrea, æ, f. g. a boote, a legge harneys.
Ocreátus, a, um, booted or harnesyed on the legges.
Ocrinum, saynt Wythacis mount in Cornewall.
Ocris, olde writers called a hyghen hyll harde to go vp to.
Octor, looke otior.
Ociósus, looke otiosus.
Ocium, looke otium.
Octángulus, a, um, eight cornered.
Octapitarum promontorium, a place in Wales called saynct Dauids.
Octauia, the sister of Augustus, and wyfe of Antonius, whome he afterwarde forsooke. An other was daughter of Claudius the emperour, and wyfe to Nero, who caused her to be slayne.
Octauianus, the name of Augustus, before he tooke on hym the Monarchie.
Octauius, the name of Augustus father, and of dyuers other Romaynes.
Octauus, a, um, the eyght.
Octies, eight tymes.
Octingenárius, a, um, eyght hundred yeres olde, or that conteineth the numbre of eyght hundred.
Octingentesimus, a, um, the eyght hundreth.
Octingenti, æ, a, Octingéni, & octingenteni, eyght hundred.
Octingéntuplus, a, um, eyght hundred folde.
Octipes, tipedis, om. g. hauyng eight feete.
Octo, eyght.
Octóber, bris, m. g. the moneth of October.
Octoduri, Seyn and Malcis in France.
Octogenárius, a, um, of foure score in numbre, or foure score yeres olde.
Octogenus, a, um, foure score.
Octogesimus, a, um, the last of foure score.
Octogies, foure score tymes.
Octogínta, foure score.
Octoiuges, eight couple.
Octónus, a, um, the numbre of eight in sundry parties.
Octóphorum, ri, n. g. a litter borne of viii men.
Octuplicatus, a, um, eyghte tymes double.
Octuplus, óctupla, um, eyght tymes as muche.
Octussis, the weight of eight pownde.
Oculátio, ônis, f. g. the takynge away of superfluous buddes from a tree or vyne.
Oculâtus, a, um, full of eies. also quicke syghted, circumspect, espying a thyng shortly.
Oculatissimus locus, a place kepte in syghte on all partes.
Oculatus testis, a witnesse, whiche sawe the thynge,
Oculeus, a, um, full of eies, wyly, that seeth a thynge quickely.
Oculissimus, he that seeth most clerely.
Occúlitus, aduerbium, euen aswell as ones eies.
Oculitus eam amat, he loueth hir as well as his owne eies.
Oculus, i, m. g. an eye. also a ponge budde of a tree.

Oculis captus, blynde.
In oculis gestare, & in oculis esse & ferre, to loue one so muche that he can not bee satisfied with beholdyng of hym.
In oculis habere, to attende vpon one or to beholde attentyuely or stedfastly.
Vin hodie facere quo tuo viro oculi doleant? Wylt thou now do that, whych shall make thy husbande sothe to see?
Oculi eruditi, whan one knoweth whether a thyng be well dooen or no.
Oculum exculpere, to scratche out ones eye.
Oculos tollere, to begyn to be merry, to begyn to recure.
Intendere oculos, to set the eys to beholde stedfastly.
Oculos tenere, to make men to wonder at the excellent workemanshyp of a thyng.
Hebetare oculos, to dull the syght.
Oculi emissiti, eyes bollyng out, and gasynge abrode. In oculis, id est, coram hominibus.
Adjicere oculum alicui rei, to caste an eye, or to looke towarde a thyng, entendyng or towardyng to haue it.
Auertere oculos omnium in se, lobe Auerto.
Circumferre oculos, to looke rounde about.
Conjicere oculos in aliquem, to looke towardes one.
Contrectari oculis, to be viewed or consydered. Somnum oculis expellere, to make that one can not sleape.
Quorum in vultu habitant oculi mei, whom I alwaies beholde stedfastly.
Oculis obuersari, to bee alwaies before ones eyes. Oculi, the blewe spottes in the feathers of a peacockes taple.
Oculus Christi, an herbe, whiche is also called Filius ante patrem.
Oculus pithonis, the herbe starchas.
Oculus iouis, the herbe Aizoum.
Oculus caninus, the herbe called also canaria, houndes grasse.
Ocyalus, a mans name in Homere.
Ocymum, an herbe called Basyll.
Ocymum, a kynde of meate for beastes made of dyuers herbes or kindes of pulse, looke more in Var. li. 1. cap. 31. & in the annotations of Hermolaus, vpon Dioscor. li. 2. cap. 158.
Ocymoides, looke Ocimoides.
Ocyor, ocyssimus, swyfte, quicke, tyght.
Ocypete, one of the Harpeys.
Ocyroë, a nymphe.
Ocyron, a ryuer in Arcadie.
Ocyus, sooner, quickyer.
Ocyscime, verate quickely.
Non ocyus quiui, I could dooe it no sooner, or with no more speede.
Accipe a me ocyus, take of me quickely.
Ocyssimus, a, um, most swyfte.

Oda,

ODE, a longe.
Odeum, ei, n. g. a place wherin singynge is exercised, an house of musike.
Odfacio, for Olfacio, to smell.
Odi, odisti, odit, defectiuum, I hate, haue hated, or dyd hate.
Odit eum cane peius & angue, he hateth him worse than a dogge or a serpente, as who sayth, mortally, without hope of reconcilynge.
Aperte odisse, to hate without dissimulacion.
Odinoliones, lytle fysshes, whiche cleaueth to a shyp, and maketh her to abyde, as thoughe she lay at anker. Vide Remora.
Odiose, with hate, displesantly, spitefully, with yll wyll.
Odiosus, a, um, that is hated, displeasaunt, hatefull, troublous, tedious, malapert, that molesteth or greueth.
Odites, one of the sons of Irion, the Centaure.
Odium, ôdij, n. g. hate, displeasure, tediousnesse, rancour, yll wyll.
Odium, id est fastidium, tædium. Neque agri, neq; vrbis me odium vnquàm percipit, I am neuer through wery neither of the countrei, nor yet of the citee.
Odio esse, to be hated.
Odium capere alicuius rei, to be offended or discontent with any thynge, to begyn to hate a thynge.
Odium concitare, to procure hate or displeasure, to reise hatrede or malice agaynst one.
In odio omnibus esse, to be hated of all the worlde.
Odio esse apud omnes, idem.
Struere odium in aliquem, to make one to be hated or haue yll wyll.
Hostili odio esse in aliquem, to hate one as his deadly ennemy.
Obscurum odium, priuie hatred.
Odium mitigatur, deponitur, tenetur, sedatur. Odium studiorum facere, to make one hate study.
Negotij si quando odium ceperat, If he chaunced to bee wery of his great labour and busynesse.
Suscipere odium alicuius in re aliqua, to bee hated of one for a thynge.
Quibus infinitum sit odium, whiche haue immortall hatrede.
Nunquam tuo odio vinces me, thou shalt neuer ouercom me with thy tedious importunitee.
Odius, a mans name in Homere.
Odœporicon, ci, n. g. an Itinerarie, wherein is writen the distance of one place from an other, or a lyke thyng, as the iestes of princes, are assigned their iourneies.
Odontides, an herbe growyng in medowes, hauyng in the stalke many litle knottes, a purple flower, leaues somewhat longer then peny royall: it is holsome against the toothache.
Odor, vel odos, óris, m. g. sauour, sent, and by translation, perceyuyng, vnderstandyng, or feelyng of a thyng.
Fœdus odor, a foule stynkyng sauour.
Grauis odor oris, a stronge breathe.
Odores, plu. is of Columella taken for swete gummes and spices, perfumes, swete and pleasaunt smelles.
Expirare odorem dicitur res aliqua, to haue a sauour.
Differtum corpus odoribus, embaumed.
Odore aliquo legum recreatus.
Odorâmen, rámmis, and Odoramentum, i, n. gen. euery thyng that sauoreth well. also a sauour, a perfume.
Odorárius, rij, m. ge. a maker or seller of thynges that smell swete, a maker of perfumes.
Odorarius, a, um, that belongith to swte sauours.
Odorátio, ónis, f. g. a sauouryng or smellyng.
Odorátor, óris, m. g. he that smelleth or senteth out. also an hounde made to the suite.
Odorátus, us, m. g. the smellyng or sent. some tyme for Odoratio.
Odorátus, a, um, that whiche is perfumed, some tyme that whiche doeth sauour, odoriferous or smellyng soote.
Minime odorati flores, That haue small sauour or none.
Odoratæ radicis herba, that hath a veri soote roote.
Vinum odoratum, odoriferous, haupng a verye pleasant sauour.
Odórifer, a, um, odoriferous or soote in sauour.
Odoriferus, a, um, idem.
Odorisequus, qui, m. ge. an hounde or spanyell that hunteth by sent.
Odóro, aui, are, to make to smell well, to make to haue a good sauour, to perfume.
Odóror, âris, ári, to smell, to perceyue.
Odorare hanc quam ego habeo pallam, quid olet, smell to this gowne or robe that I haue.
Cibum odoraris, thou smellest meate.
Odorari vestigijs, to draw as an hound weth, to smell or sent by the tracte.
Tu sagacius odorabere, thou shalte perceiue it better than I.
Cupio odorari diligentius, quid futurum sit, I desyre to smell out, or to haue some vnderstandyng howe the matter wyll go.
Degustare & odorari aliquem, To feele and vnderstand howe one is mynded or disposed.
Festine odorari, to smell out thynges quickly.
Odórus, a, um, that whiche sendeth soorth sauour, or hath a good sauour.
Odora canum vis, the qualitee or power whiche dogges haue to take the sent.
Odrycæ, people of Thrace.
Odrysius, a, um, of that people, or of Thrace.
Odyssea, æ, f. g. a worke of Homere conteynyng the great and perillous trauayles of Ulysses.
Odytes, lyke Odites.

OE, idem quod sorbus.
Oea, a citee of Affriche.
Oeagrus, a ryuer in the countreie of Thracia. also the father of Orpheus the poete.
Oeanthe, a citee also the flower of a vyne.
Oebades, kyng Darius horsekeper, by whose policie he attayned to the kyngdome of Persia.
Oebalia, the countrey in Greece, called also Laconia.
Oebalides, patronim. masc. pro gentili, a man of Laconia.
Oebalis, lidis, patron. fœm.
Oebalius, a, um, of Oebalia.
Oebalus, a kynge of Laconia.
Oechalia, a parte of Laconia, and a citee of the same name.
Oeci, places where women doo syt and worke either with spike or woull.
Oecirines, a man of Argyue.
Oeconómia, æ, f. g. the orderyng and prouydyng of thynges concernyng housholde. also an order in writyng, whereby euery thyng is set in his propre place.
Oeconómica, órum, n. g. plur. pertemyng to housholde.
Oeconómicus, i, m. ge. he that can order and gouerne an house.
Oecos, id est domus.
Oeconomus, i, m. g. a stuarde of housholde.
Oecuménicus, a, um, vniuersall, pertenyng to all the worlde.
Oecumenicum consilium, a generall counsaile, wherein thynges are vniuersally treated concernyng all countreies.
Oedasticus, ci, he that is cunnyng in the knowlage of weightes and measures.
Oedema, an impostume or bothe, comen of a fleumatike matter, in the whiche is no greke.
Oedipodionides, the daughter or nece of Oedipus.
Oedipodionius, ia, um, belongyng to Oedipus.
Oedipus, was by his father Laius, kynge of Thebes, delyuered to his shepeherd to kylle. But he, pitiyng the chylde, made holes in his feete, and dyd hange hym on a bough, and beyng so founde of Phorbas kyng of Corinthe, was brought to the queene, who lackyng chyldren, brought hym vp for hir sonne. Afterward in a chyrmishe vnwyttyng, he slewe his owne father, & assoilyng the subtill riddles and questions of Sphinx the monster, he obteyned the kyngedome of Thebes, and the queene called Iocasta, whiche was his mother, by whom he had ii. sonnes, Polinices and Ethiocles. But whan he knewe that he had slayne his father, and wedded his owne mother, for sorowe he scratched out his owne eies.
Oemaus, the sonne of Mars, father of Hippodamia.
Oenantharion, the opie called Oenanthinum.
Oenanthe, thes, f. g. the flower of a wylde vyne, growyng in hedges, called Labrusca. But Dioscorides lib. iii. sayeth, that it is an herde, has kynge a leafe like a persnepe, a white floure, a bygge stalke, an hand bredth hygh, sede like rage, a great roote with many rounde heades. This herbe is also called Filipendula, and Saxifraga rubea. libr. v. he sayeth, that it is the floure of a wylde vine. Soone after he sayth, that it is the grape of a wylde vine. Theodorus Gaza doeth translate it Viridora.
Oenanthinus, a, um, made of the herbe Oenanthe. Oenanthinum oleum, an opie made of the grape of the wylde vine, or elles of the herbe Oenanthe.
Oenanthia, a citee of Sarmatia, called nowe Santa Sophia.
Oenas, a certaine birde of the biggenes of a culuer, whiche Gaza translateth, Vinago.
Oeneus, dissyllabum, the father of Meleager & Deianira the laste wyfe of Hercules, he was kyng of Calidonia.
Oeneus, and Oenetus, a, um, of Oeneus.
Oenides, the sonne or nephewe of Oeneus.
Oenigena, procedyng of wyne.
Oenisteria, was a certayne sacrifice at Athenes, made by ponge men, newely bearded, whiche was doone before they dyd eat the beare that was longe, whiche sacrifice was in this wyse. A certayne measure of wyne was brought into the temple of Hercules, whereof the ponge men dranke a litell, and gaue the residue to all other that were present.
Oenochema, a mountaine in Affrike.
Oenochónus, a ryuer rennyng into Thessaly.
Oenocrotali, certayne rauenous birdes, of which Aelianus writeth, verie like to swannes, but that they haue a litle beneth their mouth a gorge, in to whiche they swallowe their meate greedely, and after chawe it agayne.
Oenone, the concubine of Paris, before that he rauished Helene. also the herbe argemone.
Oenophorus, i, m. g. a seruaunt that bryngeth wyne to the boorde.
Oenophorum, ri, a wyne potte, flagon or bottle.
Oenopia, an ile called also Egina. also a certaine rote.
Oenopides, an astronomer of Chios.
Oenopóla, æ, m. g. a tauerner or vintner.
Oenopólium, ii, n. g. a wyne tauerne.
Oenops, a mans name in Homere.
Oenothéra, an herbe.
Oenotria, a countreie in Italy. some write, that Italy it selfe was so called of Oenotrus, an Arcadian.
Oenotrides, two yles nygh to Calabria.
Oenotrius, and Oenotrus, a, um, of Oenotria.
Oenutta, an herbe, wherof if dogges and crowes doe eate, it maketh them drunke.
Oestrum, i, n. g. madnesse or wood fury. also a flye that maketh a great noyse, whan he flyeth, some suppose it to be a dorre like to a bee, but that that he is blacke and greatter. It semeth to be the fly called a brese or horse fly, by reason that it doth so vex cattal in sommer tyme.

Oesypum, i, n. g. the filthy ople that is in woull that is in the flankes of a shepe, or about his necke, whiche ople is sodden out, and vsed for medicine.

Oeta, a mountayne betwene Thessalia and Macedonia, where is the sepulchre of Hercules.

Oëta, the father of Medea, wyfe of Jason.

Oethini, people nere to Pontus.

Oetoscyros, in the Scythian tungue, the name of Apollo.

Oetus, the brother of Ephialtes the gygant.

OFfa, æ, fœm. gen. a puddyng. also a dysshe made with fatte brothe, harde cheese, pepper, and cynamome, or other lyke unthat. sometyme it is taken for a morsell, a gobbet, a piece of flesshe, as a steake or collop, or any lyke piece, euery lytell piece lyke paste or dowe.

Offa penita, a piece of flesshe cutte of, with the taple, the rumpe.

Offa adipis, gobbett of flesshe.

Formantur offæ, quibus aues saginantur, litle rounde pieces to cramme capons.

Offa & massa promiscue vtitur Columella.

Pulris offa, a litle gobbet or morsell of flesshe in potage.

Offarius, & offaria, a maker of suche unnettes.

Offatum, in morselles.

Offector, ôris. m. g. a dyer.

Offella, æ, fœ. g. a steake, a collop, a littell morssell or gobbette of flesshe mynced. also a potage made with pieces of flesshe, as stewed broth or forced gruell.

Offella porcina, a collop of bakon.

Offella bouina, a steake, or litle piece of beefe.

Offendiculum, i, n. ge. an impediment, a lette, an obstacle, and by translation, a doubt.

Offendens, entis, omn. g. that offendeth or displeaseth sometyme for Offensus.

Offeadimentum, idem quod offendix.

Offendix, icis, fœ. g. a ryband or lace, wherwith a bonet or hat is knytte fast to the head: or rather the knot of a lace that fastneth the hatte to ones heade.

Offendo, di, ere, to mete with, to fall into, to fynde by chaunce, to stryke or hyt any thynge unware, to offende, to hurte, to empayre, to doo amysse, to displease.

Offendere apud aliquem, to doo a thing which liketh not hym that seeth it doen.

Latus offendere, to hurte his syde, or hit his syde against a thynge.

Offendimus eam mediocriter vestitam, we founde hir in powre apparaple.

Offendere scopulum, to hitte by chaunce as gaynst a roche.

Offendere ad stipitem, to hurte hym selfe as gaynst a stumpe.

Offendere aliquem, To displease, to discontent.

Offendere alicui animum, idem.

Offendere apud iudices, to pleade pl and nod to please the iudges.

Offendere aliquid in re aliqua, to fynde a faute in a thyng.

Si in me aliquid offendistis, if you haue found any faute in me.

Si quis est in quo offenderis, yf there be one in whom thou haste been deceyued, or whiche hath deceyued thyne expectation.

Si quo in vitio eius offendimur, yf there bee any faute in hym, whiche doeth displease vs.

Offendebatur, he was greuously displeased.

Minus offendor, I am the lesse angrie.

Offendere in arrogantiam, to be arrogante, to offende in arrogancie and pryde.

Offendit me loci celebritas, I can not away with the great haunt of people that resorteth to the place.

Offendere valetudinem, to impayre or hurt the helth of the body.

Si tantulum offensurus sit, If one chaunce to faile or doo amisse be it neuer so lytell.

Offensa, æ, fœm. ge. an offence or displeasure, also blame.

Offensa pro discordia, is otherwhile vsurped of Salust.

Offensam subire, to be in displeasure of one, to haue ones displeasure or yll wyll.

Quum offensam vereretur, whan he was loth to displease.

Mereri offensam, to doo a thynge wherewith one is offended.

Sine gustus offensa; without displeasing of the tast.

Nec offensæ minus habent, neyther be those thynges lesse displeasante.

In offensa esse apud aliquem, to haue displesed one, to haue ones displeasure.

Offensáculum, li, n. g that whiche is laped in a mans waie, wherat he stumbleth.

Offensans, antis, that which hurteth or letteth.

Offensâtor, ôris, m. ge. he that stackereth in readyng, as though he were not perfecte in readyng, or readeth otherwise than it is writen.

Offensator equus, a stumblyng horse.

Offensio, onis, hurte or harme. sometyme displeasure or hatrede, that men beare towarde one. sometyme the faute of hym that displeaseth, discontentynge.

Accipere and Sumere offensionem, To take displeasure against one for any thyng.

Deponere & omittere offensionem, contrary.

In offensionem cadere, To come in ones displeasure.

Nihil ex eo offensionis habiturum te, That you pon shall be nothyng displeased or discontented therwith.

Offensiones belli, faultes in battayle.

Offensiones, incumbraunces, inconueniences, stoppes, lettes.

Offensioni esse, to doo displeasure or harme, to greue, to molest. Betweene Offensio, and Offensa, semeth to bee this diuersitee, that Offensa, is in hym that offendeth or greueth. Offensio, in hym that is greued or offended.

Nam quod negas te dubitare, quin magna in offensa sim apud Pompeium hoc tempore, nõ video causam, cur ita sit hoc quidem tempore, Where ye doo not doubt, but that nowe at this tyme, I am in Pompeies great displeasure, I se no cause why it shoulde be so at this present tyme.

Nec tantum intelligebam esse ei offensionis, quantum literæ tuæ declarant, And I perceyue not, that he was so muche displeased as your letters make mention.

Offensionem subleuare.

Vna illa subleuanda offensio est, That one greke or offence is to be eased or holpen.

Offensionem obliterare, To pardon or forget an offence or displeasure.

Offensiones lenire. O multas & graues offensiones, quas quidem tu das operam vt lenias, Oh howe many and greuous displeasures bee dooen, whiche ye go about to mitigate or excuse.

Offensionem deponere.

Cum tantum literæ meæ potuerunt, vt ijs lectis, omnem offensionem suspitionis, quam habueras de Lisone, deponeres, Seno my letters myghte dooe so muche, that whan ye had redde them, ye dyd late aparte all displeasures, whiche ye had agaynst Liso, engendred of suspicion.

Offensio pedis, stumblyng.

Offensio & beneuolentia, contrari.

Coniectare vultu offensionem, to gesse that one is displeased by his countenaunce.

Offensione turpitudinis moueri, to take displeasure with a dishonest acte.

Inuidiam atque offensionem suscipere apud populum, to renne in the hatred and yll will of the people.

Offensionem negligentiæ vitare, to beware that he be not estemed and reckned negligent.

Offensio totius ordinis, mysscontentynge or displeasyng the whole order or company.

Offensiúncula, æ, fœm. gen. a smalle offence or displeasure.

Offenso, áui, are, to hytte ofte or to let, to thrast agaynst a thynge, a thyng that displeaseth.

Offensum, i, n. ge. the faute in mysscontentynge the audience.

Scito nihil vnquam fuisse tam infame, tam turpe, tam denig omnibus generibus, ordinibus, ætatibus offensum, quam hũc statum qui nunc est, Knowe this for a sureete, that there was neuer thynge so reprochefull, so dishonest, finally so displeasaunt to all sortes, degrees, and men of euery age, as this present state that nowe is.

Offensus, us, m. g. idem quod Offensa.

Offensus, a, um, hurte, annoied, displeased, offended. somewhyle for Inuisus, odious.

Offensus alicui, mysscontente or angry with one.

Offensior, displeased, angry, somwhat moued.

Pes offensus in porta, when one stumbleth.

Pede offenso procumbere, to stumble and take a fall.

Offercio, fferci, ire, to stuffe or fyll.

Offero, óbtuli, offerre, to offer or present, to geue wyllyngly, to prompte.

Offerre auxilium, to prompte ayde.

Offerre crimen, to putte in a complaynte agaynst one.

Offerre incendium, to fyre a thyng.

Domus ardebat in palatio, non formito, sed oblato incendio, My house in the palace dyd bourne, not by any chance, but by fyre thrust in by some man.

Offerre mendicitatem, To bryngе one into pouertee.

Offerre religionem, to make one haue scruple or doubt in conscience.

Si se in via obuiam obtulerit, occisum iri iam ab ipso Milone video, If he mete with Milo in the waye, I perceyue he will dea hym.

Si nihil offeret se, quod sit probabilitati illi contrarium, If there appere nothyng contrary to that apparance of truthe.

Offerre se alicui, to presente hym selfe to one, or to come before one.

Offerre spem, to put one in hope.

Offerre stuprum, To allaye by meanes to defyle a woman maried or vnmaried, to commyn auoutrye.

Offerre moram, to lette.

Offerre se obuiam, to mete with one.

Offerre vitium virgini, to defloure a virgin.

Optime te mihi offers, you mete with me as well as can bee.

Osculum offerre, to proffer to kysse.

Offerre beneficium, to proffer to doo one a pleasure or good tourne.

Offerre caput periculis, to putte his lyfe in daungier.

In discrimen vitam suam offerre, idem.

Negotiis alienis se offerre, to proffer him selfe or meddle in other mens matters.

Oblatam mihi causam gaudeo, I am gladde that I haue an occasion.

Offerre se ad mortem pro patria, to offer him selfe to dye for his countree.

Se alacrem offerre, To come to one with a merry chere.

Offerre se sceleri, aut dementiæ alicuius, id est

est opponere, to withstand, to resist.
Offerre iniuriam, to doo the pyke iniury or wronge,
Offerre mortem hostibus, to slea his ennmies.
In omnia suam offerens operam, profferynge to ayde them in all thynges.
Offerre iusiurandum, whan one proffreth to sweare for the proke of that he hath saied.
Oferumentæ, strypes.
Ni offerrumentas habueris plures in tergo tuo, quam vlla nauis longa clauos, tum ego ero mendacissimus, And yf thou haue not mo strypes on the skyn of thy backe, than a galy hath naples: I shall be the falsest iper that euer was.
Offerrumentum, i, n. g. a thyng offered to god.
Officialis, le, pertenyng to offices or duties.
Officialis, an officer, or rather a minister to a magistrate or officer.
Officina, æ, f. g. a warkehouse, a shop. sometyme pro ipsa operatione, vel fabricatione, the makyng or woorkemanshyp.
Officina nequitiæ, & diuersorium flagitiorum.
Ex eadem officina venit, it was of the same mans dooynge.
Officinător, ôris, m. g. Vitruui⁹ vseth for faber.
Officio, officis, feci, ficere, to hurt, sometyme to doo. also to dye clothe.
Herbæ officiunt frugibus, the weedes hurte the corne.
Officere luminibus, to stoppe the ighes.
Neuter alteri officiat, Leat not the one hurte the other.
Officiosé, diligently, seruisablye, with a good will, redyly.
Officiósus, a, um, frendely or seruisable, that is good to please, or that dooeth his dutie well.
Officiosus dolor, a greke that procedeth of a glad cause or reason.
Officium, ij, n. g. office, duetie of ones behauiour in ipuryng towardes euery man, that one is bounde to doo by reason and honestie, Or a thyng that ought to be done. It is sometyme taken for honoure doen to one, and it may bee vsed for that whiche we doo call homage doen in suche forme as our law dooth appoynt it. It is also taken for benekit, pleasure, seruice and a good tourne.
Officium vsurpare, to doo his dutie.
In officio esse, to dooe his dutie, to applye diligently his office or roume, to dooe that one ought to doo.
Multaque & magna inter nos officia paria & mutua intercedunt, Betweene vs haue been sondry and great pleasures of iphe importance dooen one to an other.
Officium promereri, to doo pleasure,
Non conuenit enim, cum ego ad promerendum officium tam fuerim expeditus, vos ad referendam gratiam esse tardiores, It is not reason, that seing I was so ready to do you pleasure, ye should be so slacke to do iphewyse for me.

Officio fungi, to dooe his indeuoire or dutie, to apply his office
Officium præstare, Officium conferre, idem quod officium promereri, to do seruice, to do a good turne or honest pleasure.
In officio continere, to kepe hym his frende.
Officij causa prosequi aliquē, to kepe compayny with one, to doo hym honour or woorshyp.
Officia mutua, mutuall pleasures that frendes shewe one to an other.
Officium facere, to doo ones duetie.
Suprema officia, funerall obsequies.
Supremis in matrem officijs deesse, not to bryng his mother solemnely to the earth.
Summo officio præditus homo, a mā of right honest behauiour, a man that doeth in all thynges accordyng to honestie and reason.
Suprema officia celebrare, to kepe the funerall obsequies.
Colere officium, to endeuoire to doe with diligence all thynges that honestie requireth.
Delegatum alicui officium, an office or charge appoynted to one.
Deserere officium, not to dooe that he shulde do, to be slacke in doing his office and dutie.
Detrectare officium, to refuse to do his dutie.
Officij duxit, he thought it parte of his dutie.
Neque pes, neque mens satis suum officium facit, neither my feete nor my wit serueth me so rate well.
Fungi supremo in aliquem officio, to bryng one honourably to the earthe.
Meminit officium suum, he remembreth well what he hath to doo.
Persoluere officium receptum alicui, to doo that pleasure for one that he hath promysed and vndertaken.
Nunc tuum est officium, now it is thy parte.
Hominis frugi functus officium, doynge the office and part of an honest and frendly man.
Intermittere officium, to let slyp some part of that one should doo.
Quanto semper in meis rebus officio fuisti, How great pleasure and seruice you haue doen me alwaies in myne affayres.
Officiorum impensam facere, to dooe many pleasures for one.
Officijs amplecti aliquem, to shewe many pleasures and muche frendly seruice to one.
Officijs prosequi, to dooe diuers good pleasures for a man.
Officium tribuere, to doo a good tourne.
Non deero officio, I will not fayle to doo my duetie, or to doo that I ought to doo.
Mea officia ei non defuisse, tu es testis, You are sufficient witnesse that I haue not fayled to doo for hym suche honeste pleasures, or suche frendly seruice as I coulde doo.

Offi

Offigo, offigis, offixi, offigere, to faſten and tacke ſurely.
Offirmo, aui, are, to abyde in one purpoſe or opinion, to be obſtinate. loke Obfirmo.
Offecto, xi, tere, to tourne a thynge contrarye, or aboute.
Offóco, aui, are, to choke, to ſtrangle, to ſtylle.
Offringo, gi, ere, to breake with a plough land eared before, to breake contrary wyſe.
Offúcia, æ, f. g. and offucia, æ um, ſœ. g. plur. cauteles, craftye wayes to deceiue, vaine ſhewes or apparances of thynges.
Offuco, aui, are, to put water or other licoure into a mans mouthe, to ſucke downe, as they vſe to ſicke men, whiche for feblenelle can not of theim ſelues take any ſuſtenance.
Offula, offulæ, f. g. a litteli morſell or gobbet of breade or of meate, as a ſticke, a collop.
Offundo, fudi, ere, to poure aboute, to make darke or blynde, to ſtaine, to caſte in or bpynge in. Offundere errorem alicui, to abuſe or deceyue one.
Obſcurare & tenebras offundere.
Noctem & tenebras offundere rebus, To make thynges darke, obſcure, and harde to perceyue,
Offuſco, aui, are, to make blacke or darke, to ſhadowe or make duſke.
Offúſus, a, um, poured about or vpon.
Offuſus terror oculis auribuſque, feare was bothe at his eies and eares.
Offuſa animis caligo, theyr myndes were made blynde.

O ANTE G.

OGdoas, adis, the numbre of eight.
Ogdolapis, a ryuer, whiche cometh out of the hylles called Alpes, and renneth to Rome.
Ogdous, a kyng of Egypt, whiche fyrſt buylded the citee of Memphis.
Oggánnio, iui, ire, to prate, to braule, to ſpeake with chidyng.
Oggero, óggeris, ſsi, ere, to caſt in or ſette.
Oculos oggerere, to caſt or ſet the eies on one.
Oggraſſari, to go.
Ogygea, an yle betwene Phenicia and Syria, where Calypſo dwelled, whiche deteined with hir Vlyſſes.
Ogyges, he that fyrſte buylded the citee of Thebes.
Ogygidæ, Thebans.
Ogygius, a, um, made or founde by Ogyges.
Ogyris, an yle in Syria.

O ANTE H

OHe, an exclamacion, ſignifiynge that he, whiche ſpeaketh that woorde, is ſaciate and weerie of that whiche he ſeeth or heareth.
Oh, an interiection, ſignifiyng a cry, when one meeteth with his friende, whom of long tyme he hath not ſeene. ſometyme it is vſed in mockyng with a contẽpt. ſometime in affirming ſometyme in lorowyng. ſometyme in reioyſyng.
Oho, an interiection of meruaylyng, or of knowyng a thyng with ioy and gladneſſe.

O, ANTE I.

OIcles, the ſoonne of Antiphates.
Oileus, a kyng of Locris, father to Aiax.
Oilides, the ſoonne of Oileus.
Oinomeli, wyne and honye ſodden togyther.
Ois, the ſcruis tree.

O ANTE L.

OLbia, a citee of Nardon called Eres.
Olcachites, the boſome of the ſea in the prouince called Zeugitana.
Olea, æ, f. g. the fruit of an oliue, or an olive tree.
Attondere oleas, to prune or cume olive trees.
Inſpergere oleam ſale, to caſt ſalte vpon the oliue when it is eaten.
Oleaceus, a, um, oyly, lyke vnto oyle.
Oleacum, a colour whiche is mixte with greene, blacke, yelowe, and white.
Oleago, the herbe chamelæa.
Oleagineus, a, um, idem quod Oleaginus.
Oleaginus, a, um, of an olyue tree, or of the colour of an olyue.
Oleâris, re, and Olearius, a, um, pertenyng to oyle.
Olearia cella, a cellour for oyle, a place where oyle is made.
Olearius, rii, m. g. a maker or ſeller of oyle.
Olearus, one of the yles called Cycades.
Oleaſtellus, a diminutiue of Oleaſter.
Oleaſter, i, f. g. a wylde olyue.
Oleaſtrenſe, a hynde of blacke leade.
Oleaſtrinum, ni, n. g. oyle made of wylde olyues.
Oleatrum, a towne of Apayne.
Oleatus, a, um, infected with oyle.
Oleitas, tâtis, f. g. the tyme of gatherynge of olyues.
Olecranon, ni, n. g. the elbow.
Oleomel, a thynge lyke honye, that iſſueth out of a tree.
Olenus, ni, a mans name.
Olenus, a citee of Arcadia, where the goat, with whoſe mylke Jupiter was nouriſſhed, was brought vp, and therefore the ſigne of Aeries (whiche was ſuppoſed to bee the ſame goat) is named Olenia.
Olenius, a, um, of Olenus.
Olentica, thynges, whiche haue an yll ſauour.
Oleo, leui, olẽtum, or olui, ólitũ, ére, to ſauour, to haue ſauour, to ſmell. ſometyme to ſtinke.
Olent illa ſupercilia maliciam, theſe browes of thyne, or that ſturdy looke, doo ſignifie, that thou thou art malicious.

Aurum huic olet, This felowe ſmelleth that I haue money.
Iucundè olere, To haue a ſweete ſauoure, to ſmelle pleaſauntly.
Bene olere, to haue a good ſauour, to ſmelle well.
Male olere, to ſtynke, to ſauour ill.
Roſa reſens à longinquo olet, a roſe newly gathered, is ſmelled a farre of.
Hircum olere, to ſtynke lyke a gote.
Mirrham olet, it ſauoureth of myrre.
Nihil olebant, they had no ſauour at all.
Oleoſus, a, um, full of ople, all oply.
Oleaceus, a, um, lyke to pot herbes, or of pot herbes.
Oleſco, ſcere, to growe.
Oletare, to corrupte or make ſtynkyng. Leg. xij. tabul.
Ne quis aquam oletato dolo malo, vbi publicè ſalit Si quis oletarit, Seſtertiorum decem millium mulcta eſto, No man by craft corrupt water, where it ſpryngeth to a cõmon vſe, he that doeth corrupt it, ſhall forfaite ten thouſande Seſtertius, whiche doo amount of our money to. xxv. li. xiii. s. iiii. d.
Oletum, i, n. ge. a place where olyues do grow. alſo the dunge or ordure of a man, properly it is a draught or lakes.
Oleum, olei, n. g. ople.
✠Oleo tranquillior, more mylde or quiete than ople. Se the prouerbe in Chil. Eraſ.
Oleum cibarium, meate ople.
✠Oleum & operam perdere, to loſe labour and coſte.
Oleum, is vſed for exerciſe or practiſe of contention or fyghtyng.
Olfacio, ólfacis, fèci, ere, to ſmell, to ſauour or ſmell out, to vnderſtande, to perceyue.
Olfactátrix, icis, fœ. gen. that maketh a ſauour or ſmelle.
Olfacto, aui, are, to ſmell muche or often.
Olfactorium, rij, n. g. a poſete or noſe gaie.
Olfactus, us, m. g. the ſence of ſmellyng.
Olba, a towne of Spayne, called communely, Olit.
Olibantum, ti, n. g. a meaſure of wyne.
Olicana, a towne in Englande, called Lykeby.
Olidus, ólida, um, that which hath great ſauour, eyther good or bad, moſt communely ſtynkyng.
Oligarchia, æ, f. g. the ſtate of a cõmune weale, where a fewe perſones be in authoritee.
Oligarchici, they which woulde haue a fewe perſons beare rule.
Oligochloron, idem quod capparis.
Oligoron, idem quod Apocynon.
Olim, ſometyme, in tyme paſte, tyme out of mynd, in tyme to come, nowe late, longe tyme paſt, ones. it is alſo ſpoken of the tyme preſent, euen. ſometyme for Aliquando, or quandoq; as, Amicus quidam olim naui fracta, &c. a good while ſens.
Vt pueris olim dant cruſtula blandi doctores. &c.
Hæc olim meminiſſe iuuabit, It ſhall delyte vs, or doo vs good in tyme to come to remembre theſe thynges.
Olina, the herbe Ebulus.
Olitor, ôris, m. g. a gardener or ſeller of herbes and rootes.
Olitórius, a, um, pertaynyng to a potte gardein or potte herbes.
Oliua, æ, f. g. an olyue tree. ſometyme the fruite of olyues.
Oliuárius, a, um, pertaynyng to an olyue tree.
Oliueta, the tyme of gatheryng of olyue bearies, after Calepine.
Oliuétum, i, neu. gen. a place where olyue trees do growe.
Oliuifer, oliuifera, rum, that beareth olyues.
Oliuina, æ, f. g. plentie of oliues, alſo reuenues whiche doo come of olyues.
Oliuitas, átis, the fruite of olyues, the gatheryng tyme of olyues.
Oliuo, aui, are, to gather olyues.
Oliuum, i, n. g. ople olyue.
Olla, æ, fœ. gen. a potte, alſo a faute in an olyue tree.
Olla fictilis, an earthen potte.
Ollâris, re, of a potte, or that is kept in a potte.
Ollares, grapes conſerued in pottes.
Ollária, æ, f. ge. a kynd of myxt braſſe or copper.
Olli, for illi.
Ollic, for illic.
Ollus, olla, ollum, for ille, illa, illud.
Ollus, a mans name that was a great marker of other mens fautes.
Ollula, læ, f. g. a littell potte.
Oloconitis, an herbe mencioned in Hippocr. whiche ſome thinke to be that, whiche is called Myle, or moly.
Olocimus color, a diuerſe colour.
Olochriſum, the herbe Sempervium.
Olocyron, chamæpytis.
Olophyton, capparis.
Olophernes, chiefe conſtable to the great Nabugodonoſor kyng of Aſſyrians, a valyaunt captayne, not withſtandyng (beynge ouer charged with wyne, and to muche truſtyng in the beautee and pleaſaunt ſpeche of the hebrewe lady Judith) he was by hir ſlayne in his bed, & had his head ſtriken of, and broughte to his enemies, before the incarnation of Chriſt yeres.
Ololýgones, croking frogges.
Olor, ôris, m. g. a ſwanne.
Olorinus, a, um, of a ſwanne: as Cantus olorinus, the ſyngyng of a ſwanne.
Olus, óleris, n. ge. herbes, whiche ſerue for pottage, potte herbes, and figuratiuely it is vſed for poore fare.
Oluſátrum, tri, n. g. an herbe called Alyſander.
Oluſculum, li, n. g. ſmall herbes.

Olym-

Olympia, a citee betweene the hylles of Ossa, and Olympus.

Olympia, órum, solemne plaies & games kepte in Greece to the honoure of Jupiter Olympicus, or after some in the honour of Hercules.

Olympiacus, a, um, pertaynyng to that playes or hyll.

Olympias, piadis, the space of fiue peres, wherby the olde greches dyd accompte, as we doo nowe, by the peres of our lorde, as the fyrste Olympias, the second, the thirde. Olympias, is also the name of Alexanders mother, and a wynde blowyng in Euboia. Glareanus writeth, that Olympias is the space of. iiii. peres, and that they, which take and wryte other wise, are deceyued.

Olympicus, a, um, of Olympus.

Olympicum certamen, was a game or playe kept on the hyll of Olympus, by all the princis and citees of Greece euery fifte pere, in the honour of Hercules, who fyrste began it. In the whiche were all these maistries proued. Rennynge on foote to a golle. also rennynge forth and bacle agayne two furlonge. also wrastlyng, fightyng with fystes, rennyng with horses, and leappng from the one to the other, coursynge with chariottes, rennynge with mares: but so as in the meddell of the course, he that dyd ryde, shulde leape downe, & holdyng fast the brydell, shulde make an ende of his course. There was also contencion and victorie of poetes, rhetoriciās, musicians, and subtille disputers. In the place dyd growe a wylde olyue tree, wherof garlandes were made, and geuen to the victours, here vnto assembled: In the whiche tyme eyther warre was appoynted, or leagues concluded.

Olympionices, or Olympionicus, he that hath had victorie in the games at Olympus.

Olympius, a, um, heauenly.

Olympus, a mountayne or hylle in Greece, betwene Thessalia, and Macedonia, aboue the whiche appereth no cloude: & therfore among the poetes it is vsurped for heauen. Plutarchus in vita Aemilij, saieth, that it is. x. furlong in height.

Olynthi, wilde figges that be neuer ripe.

Olynthus, a citee nere Athens.

Olyra, ræ, f. ge. a kynd of wheate, wherof they make veri white breade.

Olyras, a ryuer in Greece, by the place called Thermopylæ.

Olysippum, a citee in Portugall, nowe called Vlisbona, in englishe Lusseborne.

O ANTE M.

OMāsum, si, n. g. a fat gut or chitterlyng.

Ombria, a stone, whiche some call notitiam, and falleth with lightenynge or thunderyng.

Ombrici, people nere to Illiricum.

Omen, ōminis, n. gen. the lucke of some thynge to come, gathered of some worde or saiyng before spoken. also a word or sentence sodenly spoken, after the whiche some thynge happeneth to folowe accordyng therunto, about the expectacion of them whiche herde it, forespeakyng.

Optimis ominibus, with verie good lucke, in a verie good houre.

In omen accipere, To take or interprete a thyng, as a token of good lucke or happe.

Dextrum and sinistrum omen, contrarie.

Omentum, ti, neu. gen. the call or sewet, wherin all the bowelles ar lapped, also the thyn skyn in the head, wherin the brayne is conteyned, & some called the ryme of the brayne, and of lurgeans Pia mater.

Omentātus, a, um, myxt with sewet.

Ominātus, a, um, vnlucky.

Omino, ōminas, aui, are, was vsed of olde writers for Ominor.

Omīnor, āris, ari, to gesse what shall happen or folowe, to forspeake, to speake a thyng luckyly, or vnluckyly.

Bene ominari, to speake luckyly.

Male ominari, to speake vnluckyly.

Ominātor, ōris, m. ge. he that telleth a mannes lucke or fortune good or yll.

Ominōsus, a, um, lucky or vnlucky, that portendeth good or yll lucke.

Omissus, a, um, left, not medled with.

Vbi te vidi animo esse omisso, whan I sawe that thou caredst for nothynge, or wast negligent.

Omissis iocis credo, in ernest I doe beleue.

Omissior ab re, he that is nothing solicitous to gather richesse.

Omitto, omisi, omittere, to forbeare, to leeue, to neglect, to leat passe, to omit, to put away.

Omitte hunc, leat hym alone, pardon hym.

Omitte me, lette bee, lette me alone.

Omitte iracundiam, be angry no more, leue your anger, appease your selfe.

Omitte solicitudinem, care not for it, put away your carefulnesse.

Omitte timorem, bee not afearde.

Omitte de ea re dicere, speake no more of that matter.

Id omitto, I will not speake therof.

Vt omittam de eo plus loqui, that I may let passe, and speake no more of hym.

Omitte hunc, pardon this man & let hym go.

Omnifāriam, all maner of waies, of euery kynd.

Omnifer, ra, rum, that beareth all thynges.

Omnifārius, a, um, sundry, diuers.

Omnigenus, a, um, of euery kynde.

Omnimodus, a, um, all maner.

Omnimodis, all maner of waies.

Omnimodē, idem.

Omnino, wholly, throughly, all together, vtterly, alwaie, finally, onely.

Omnino in familia non erat, he in no maner of wyse was in the house.
Miserrima est omnino ambitio, ambicion is vtterly the most miserable thyng that can be.
Omnino omnis eruditionis expers, vtterly without all learnyng.
Omnino leuitatis est, it is vtterly a poincte of lyght behauiour.
Vinum omnino sibi nequaquam parem, a man lyke to hym in nothynge, or nothyng to be compared to hym selfe.
Nihil omnino, nothyng at all.
Qui omnino nusquam reperiuntur, which be found in no place at all.
Omnino omnium horum incommodorum vna cautio est, to bee shorte, for all these incommodities there is no remedye at all but onely this.
Quinque omnino fuerunt, id est tantummodo, there were fyue and no mo.
Omnino, for etiam, and Sed omnino, for Sed etiam.
Non modo tantam causam perorare, sed omnino verbum facere conari, not onely to plead so great and weightie a matter to the ende, but also in any wyse to endeuoire to speake one woorde.
Aut omnino cogitare, or in any wyse to think mniparens, entis om. g. father or mother of all thynges.
Omniparens terra, the earth bringeth forth all thynges.
nipotens, entis, om. g. almyghty.
mnis, ne, om. g. all in numbre. sometyme for Totus.
Omnibus partibus, all maner of wayes, to all intentes.
Omni ratione, idem.
Causa omnis, id est, vniuersa, all the whole matter.
Omnibus æstatibus, id est, singulis, euery sommer.
Omne genus, & omnis generis, of all sortes
Omnem tulit punctum, he touched euery point, spoken of him, whiche omitteth nothing necessary or expedient.
Omnibus horis, euery houre.
Differunt omni modo, They varye in all thynges.
Omnibus numeris, in all poinctes.
Ita tamen, vt nostri omnibus partibus superiores essent, but yet so that our men had the vpper hande in all thynges.
Res omnibus numeris absoluta, a thyng perfite in all poinctes.
Sine omni periculo, wythoute any daungier at all.
Omni quinquennio, the whole fyue yeres space.
Eo tempore omni, all that tyme.
Omnes tres, all thyre.

Ad omne tempus, for euer.
Omnibus precibus orabant, they desyred me very earnestly, or with very great intercession.
Omniuagus, a, um, wandryng euery where.
Omniuorus, a, um, that deuoureth and eateth all kynde of thynges.
Omologia, conuenientia.
Omoplatæ, two broade bones, goyng from the necke to the shulders on both sydes, called in latine scoptula operta.
Omomelida, amamelida, vel apamelida, a kynd of very pleasat peares without core, after a kynd of wildinges called Pommis de bois.
Omphácinus, a, um, that is made of grapes, or other fruites not rype.
Omphacinum vinum, a greene wine, not pleasaunte or sweete.
Omphacinum oleum, oyle made of olyues, not beyng rype.
Omphaciso, aui, are, to wax sower.
Omphácium, cij, ne. ge. a lycour made of fruits that is not rype, as of grapes, and than it is called verjuyce. It is also of other fruites and flowers.
Omophagi, they whiche doo eate rawe flesshe.
Omphax, ácis, a grape not fully rype.
Omphacomeli, a cyrupe made with the iuyce of greene grapes and honye. They make it nowe adaies with the sayde iuyce and sugar, and doe call it Syrupus de agresta.
Omphale, a mayden, whiche was queene of Lidia, whom Hercules dyd serue, and she caused hym to spinne on a roche.
Omphalocarpus, i, idem quod Aparine, looke there.

O ANTE N

ONager, ónagri, m. g. a wylde asse.
Onæ, sweete frygges.
Onchiston, a place in the marches of Thebes.
Onchos, chi, m. g. oxe dunge.
Onerárius, a, um, that whiche serueth for bourdeyne.
Onero, óneras, aui, are, to charge, burdeyne, or lade.
Onerare populum, to put impositions or taxes on the people.
Annonam onerare, to make corne deere.
Mensam onerare epulis, to set very many dysshes on the table.
Remitas iam me onerare iniurijs, ye would cease to ouerlade, charge, or cumbre me with vnreasonablenesse.
Maledictis onerare, to rate, to raile at, to geue many shrewde woordes.
Laudibus onerare, to geue great prayse, to praise exceedyngly.
Mendacijs onerare, to helpe one shamefully.
Præceptis onerare, to charge with many thyngs

ges

ges, to geue many instructions and commandementes.

Promissis onerare, to promise one many thynges, to make many great promises to one.

Pugnis onerare, to buffette and thumpe one with his fystes.

Onerari imaginibus, whan the famous memorye of our auncestours doth in maner bynde or constreigne vs to doo honourably.

Onerare lætitia, to make exceadyng ioyouse and gladde.

Onerâtus, a, um, burdened, laden, ouercharged.

Onerârius, a, um, that wheron burdeyn is layd.

Onerariæ naues, shyps whiche serue for burdeyne, they mate bee taken for hulkes.

Onerôsus, a, um, burdeynous, chargeable, verie heauy.

Onesicritus, a philosopher, and an historiographier of Jegina.

Onesimus, a learned man in the tyme of Constantine Magnus.

Oniropolos, he that interpreteth an other mans dreames, or visions: or he that expoundeth his owne dreames.

Oniscus, ci, m. g. a woozme, which bendeth him selfe lyke a bowe whan he goeth, whiche is red, and founde vnder trees, which haue lyen longe on the grounde.

Oniscos, a fysshe, whiche is called also Asellus, or Galaria: it is also an instrument that surgious doe vse.

Onistis, the herbe Apocynon.

Onitis, a kinde of organent: Ruellius doubteth, whether it be sticas Arabica.

Onixes, a kynde of marble.

Onobletum, an herbe like a tunge, medicinable for the flowers in women.

Onobrychis, a certayne herbe growyng by welles.

Onochêlos, an herbe of the kynde of Anchusa, hauyng a purple flower, rough leaues, a roote in haruest tyme redde, at other seasons blacke.

Onoba, a citee of Spayne.

Onocardion, quasi asininus carduus, a kynd of tasilles.

Onoclea, the first kynd of Anchusa.

Onocentaurus, a beaste, halfe a man, halfe an asse.

Onocrótalus, li, m. g. a bryde lyke to a swanne, which puttyng his head into the water, brayeth lyke an asse.

Onophillon, the herbe Anchusa.

Onogyros, a rough and sharpe herbe holsom against poyson.

Onopetalion, idem quod Onitis.

Onothero, idem quod Oenothera.

Onomatopœia, æ, f. g. a woyd made of sowne, or pronouncyng, as bleatyng of a shepe, lowynge of a cowe, hyssyng of an adder.

Onônis, nidis, fœ. ge. an herbe full of pryckes, a leaf lyke rue, growing cõmonly amonge corne, it letteth the plough: and therfore is called, Iust harrowe, or Cammocke: in Lambyge shire, a whyne.

Ononium, nij, n. g. a kynde nettell.

Onobalistura, a citee of Spayne.

Onocicidæ, a kynde of galles, that be great and holow, not of so good effecte as the lesse.

Onos, a kynd of Locustes, whiche is called Bruchus.

Onus, oneris, n. ge. a burdeyn, a lode, a charge geuen to one, or that one taketh on hym.

Oneri esse, to be chargeous to one.

Onus deponere, to discharge one.

Onus imponere, to geue to one in charge.

Oneri premi, to be to muche charged, to be ouer charged.

Onere opprimi, to be once charged.

Onus suscipere, to take charge.

Onus tollere, to beare charge or burdeyn.

Onus sustinere, idem.

Concidere sub onere, to falle downe vnder ones burdeyn.

Onus ciborum reddere, to auoyde the excrementes of nature.

Cur tuum onus sustineo? Why doo I your duttie?

Nostrum est onus, The charge is ours.

Onustus, a, um, loded, charged, bourdened.

Onustus vino, ouercharged with wyne, dronke.

Onychipuncta, a precious stone, called also Laponix, white of colour, with redde strakes.

Onyx, ónychis, m. & fœm. gen. a whyte stone lyke to a mans nayle. also some bee founde in Jndia, whiche are of diuers colours, hauyng white spottes lyke vnto eies, it is supposed of some men to bee that, whiche is called Conchula Indiæ.

Onyx, is also the herbe Astragalus. also a kynd of precious marble, wherof cuppes were wont to be made.

Onychinus, a, um, made of the stone Onyx.

Onychitis, a kynde of Cadmia.

O ANTE O.

Onæ, Iles in the northe ocean, where the inhabitantes doo lyue with egges of foules.

Oopellum, a towne in England called Chester.

O ANTE P.

Opaca, the herbe Onobrichis.

Opácitas, âtis, fœ. g. shadowe of trees or vmbrage.

Opâco, aui, are, to shadowe, to make darke, as it is in wooddes vnder trees.

Opâcus, a, um, shadowed, or in the shadowe.

Opalum, li, a precious stone, hauyng the properties of diuers stones.

Opella, diminutiue of opera,

Opera, óperæ, fœ. g. warke, labour, diligence, peyne, trauaple.

Operæ, plurali tantum, warkemen, slaues hyred to doo a thyng, labourers, factours.

Operæ est, for opus est, it is neede, it nedeth.

Opera mea, tua, sua, by myne, thyne, or his meanes.

Operam perdere, to labour in vayne, to lese ones labour.

Operam ludere, idem.

Operam ponere, to take labour and peyne about a thyng.

Operas reddere alicui, to paie one his hyre.

Orestes & Lycurgus vna opera mihi sunt sodales, qua iste, Orestes and Lycurgus be as well my companyons as he.

Haud censebam istarum esse operarum patrem, I dyd not thynke that my father medled with these matters.

Spero alicunde hodie me bona opera aut mala, tibi inuenturum esse auxilium argentarium, I truste that ones to day I shall by good meanes or badde, fynde some money to helpe the with.

Operam do, operam impendo, operam nauo, I doo myne endeuoire, I put to my diligence, I spende my labour.

Operam impendere & dependere, To take peyne about a thyng.

Multam operam conferre, to bestow great labour and peyne, to study or labour muche.

Operam dabat veteri domino, he serued his olde mayster.

Ego istuc ætatis non amori operam dabam, when I was of this age I dyd not bestowe my tyme, or set my mynde on wanton loue.

Dare operam funeri, to bee at ones interrement or buriyng.

Liberis operam dare, to gest chyldren.

Dare operam alicui, To doo one seruice, to helpe hym in his busyneste.

Dare operam præceptori, id est, audire, to heare his mayster, to learne of hym.

Dare operam rebus diuinis, to bee at diuine seruice.

Dare operam tonsori, to bee shauen.

Dare operam alicui dicitur iudex, whan he heareth one attentiuely, and maketh good expedition in his cause.

Operam dare iuris ciuilis studio, to study the lawe ciuile.

Data opera facere, to doo a thynge of pourpose, or for the nonce.

Si videam tibi operam esse, yf I may se you occupied, or if that ye haue any thyng to doo.

Non opera est Scelerdo, Scelerdus is ydell, and hath nothyng to doo.

Opera experiri, To proue by the effect that a thynge is so.

Quibus operæ est trahere bellum, which haue nede, or to whom it is expedient to prolonge the warre.

Exigere plenam operam, To require a full tasche. Bene ponere operam, to bestowe his labour well.

Operam orationis compendi facito, speake the thyng in fewe wordes, tell it briefely.

Cui opera vita erat, whiche lyued by his labour. Cur tu operam grauare mihi? why art thou lothe to healpe me? or why dooest thou grudge to helpe me?

Locare operam alicui, to laboure for hyre or wages.

Opera succisiua, the bye labour that one bestoweth in thynges of no great neccessitee.

Profiteri operam, to promyse to helpe one.

Dare operam memoriæ alicuius, to kepe and preserue the memorie of a man.

Iam mihi videor nauasse operam, nowe me thynketh I haue obteyned my purpose.

Tradere operas mutuas, to helpe one an other, to doo one for an other.

Eadem opera, with one labour or trauaple.

Operæ Clodianæ pontes occuparunt, The clientes, hyred seruantes, or slaues of Clodius, or those that Clodius had hyred, kept the bridges.

Operæpretium, cij, neut. gene. the rewarde or profyte of ones labour, a thynge profytable or expedient, necessary or conuenient, honeste, or ioyous, a thyng worthye to bee esteemed and sette by.

Audire est operæpretiũ, it is a worlde to heare.

Est operæpretium cognoscere, it is a thynge worthy the knowlage.

Operæp ecium est consyderare, it is a thyng worthy to be consydered and marked.

Magna operæprecia mereri, To haue great wages in warfare.

Operæpretium est, It is a thyng worthye the peyne.

Quia vix operæptecium erat, because they shoulde haue had great trauaple, and little or no profite, or, because the thynge was scante worth the peyne that shoulde haue been taken about it.

Si nihil, quod est operæprecium, fecerant, yf they had doen nothyng that was of any value.

Operária, æ, f. g. the feminine.

Operárius, rij, m. g. a labourer, a workeman.

Operárius, a, um, that whiche is dooen with labour, or pertayneth to labour or warke.

Homo operarius, a workeman, a labourer, a crafftes man.

Lapides operarij, stones that maye bee wrought on, and made fitte for buyldyng.

Pecus operarium, beastes vsed to tillage, carriage, and other necessary busyneste.

Operátio, ónis, f. g. worshyng, sacrificyng.

Operátus, a, um, wrought, sacrificed.

Eo tempore, quo corpus addictum atq; operatum reipub. esset, during the tyme that the body shall be employed about serueyng the comune weale.

Operculo, aui, are, to couer a vessel.

Operculum, li, n. g. a heuerynge or lydde.

Operimentum, ti, neu. gene. any thynge that couereth.

Operio, óperis, opérui, operire, to couer or hyde, to shutte, to close.

Ostium operuere, they shutte the doore.

Luctum operire, to dissemble and hyde ones mournyng.

Operior, riris, riri, to bee heuered or shutte.

Operor, âris, ari, to worshe, to labour, to endeuour, to geue diligent studye to a thynge, to studye.

Operari, is sometyme vsed to sacrifice with great reuerence.

Operátio, ônis, the worshe, or that, where about a man laboureth. also solemne sacrifisynge.

Operosé, difficultely, with great labour and busynesse.

Operósitas, âtis, f. g. trauaylyng.

Operósus, a, um, busy, diligent in labouryng, laborious, peynfull. somtyme passiuely, that one laboureth on.

Res operosa est, It is a mattier that requireth muche peyne: It is a harde and peynefull mattier.

Facilis & operosus, contrary.

Colonus operosus, laborious, peinfull.

Operosa herba, of great efficacie and strength in worshyng.

Agri operosi, that require great labour.

Operto, aui, are, to couer often.

Opertórium, rij, n. g. a couerynge.

Opertum, ti, n. g. a thyng couered.

Opertus, a, um, couered.

Operti præda, id est onusti.

In operto esse, to be couered or hydde, to bee inclosed, to kepe his house, & not come abrode.

Esse operto capite, To weare a cappe or other thynge on ones head, to haue the head couered.

Opertus dedecore, shamefully distayned.

Opertis oculis aliquid facere, to doo a thyng blyndefylde.

Non est rationis opertæ, The reasone why is euident and playne.

Opertum, and apertum, contrary.

Opertáneus, a, um, dooen within doores or vnder couert.

Opertanea sacra, sacrifices dooen within dooores, and not abrode.

Operula, diminutiue of opera.

Opes, opum, opibus, looke Ops, opis.

Ophelres, the sonne of Lycurgus, slayne by a serpent.

Ophicardelus, a precious stone of colour blacke, diuided with two white lines.

Ophiaca, pertaynynge to serpentes, they were bookes, whiche Nicander, & Petridius wrate, of the nature of serpentes.

Ophidion, dij, n. g. a fysshe lyke a congre.

Ophiglossum, si, neu. g. an herbe, called in Englishe serpentes tonge, or adders tonge.

Ophigenium, nij, neu. ge. an herbe, called also Elaphoboscos, whiche hath strength agayst serpentes.

Ophioctonon, idem.

Ophiogenes, people in Hellespont, which brake the stynge of serpentes with touchyng the place.

Ophion, one of Cadmus companyons.

Ophioneus, the name of a soothsayer.

Ophiophagi, people in Aethiope, whiche doo eate serpentes.

Ophiostaphilos, vitis alba, lowe Impeloleuce.

Ophiostaphyle, a shrubbe like the blacke bery tree, called in latine serpentis vua.

Ophis, the herbe dracunculus.

Ophioscorodon, di, wilde garlicke, hauynge longe blades lyke a bulrush, and holow within, & in the toppe of the stalke purple flowers: the roote hath cloues like other garlike.

Ophrys, a certayne herbe lyke to Jagged colewortes, whiche maketh the heare blacke.

Ophites, a kynde of marble, hauyng specles like a serpent.

Ophiucus, the name of Esculapius, because that he is ymagined to holde a serpent in his hande. Some write, that it is a signe in heauen, whiche some calle Hercules, other Esculapius.

Ophiusa, an plaunde, called sometyme Rhodos.

Ophthalmicus, ci, m. ge. a physition that cureth the disease in the eyes.

Ophthalmia, æ, f. gen. a sykenesse of the eyes, whiche inflameth the bones of the head, the knyttynges of the eyes, the thynne skynnes therof, and sinewes, and all the holowe part of the eye with the forehead and balles of the cheekes: it cometh eyther of smoke or heate of the sonne, or dusle, or by a falle, or a stroke, or somtyme of an humour, sanguine, cholerike, flewmatike or melancolyke.

Ophthalmos, an eye.

Opici, they whiche vsed abhominable rybaudy dyse.

Opicus, ópica, um, vncleane, dishonest, shamelesse, baudy, fylthy, vnchaste.

Opifer, opifera, rum, that bryngeth helpe.

Opifex, ficis, com. gener. a workeman, a craftes man.

Verborum opifex, an inuenter and maker of woordes.

Opificina, æ, f. g. a woorkehouse.

Opificium, cij, n. g. the warke.

Opigena, Juno was so called of women, because they supposed, that she holpe them in theyr trauayle.

Opilio, ónis, m. g. a shepeherde.

Opilo, a certayne birde.

Opimas, atis, riche, welthie.
Opimatores, the prouiders of cozne foz the armye.
Opimè, abundantly, rychely, plentyfully,
Opimitas, atis, f. g. pleatifulneſſe.
Opimo, aui, are, to make fatte oz groſſe.
Opimus, a, um, fatte alſo riche, plentifull.
Opimum ſeu opimianum vinum, wyne which might endure good two hundzed yeres.
Habitus corporis opimus, & gracilitas, contrary, groſſeneſſe, boozelynes.
Opimus ager, a fertile and fat ſople.
Opimi boues, fatte oxen.
Opimam decus, great honour.
Opima ſpolia, the ſpople, whiche by one chiefe captayne is taken from an other in battayle, as his rote armour oz harneis.
Opima prædia, manours profytable, of great reuenues.
Opinabilis, le, that may be conceiued in opinion.
Opinatio, onis, f. g. thinkyng, ſuppoſyng.
Opinator, and Opinatus, looke after Opinio.
Opinio, onis, f. g. opinion, hope, iudgemente, fame, eſtimacion, reputacion. alſo ſuſpicion.
Vincam opinionem tuam, I wyll be moze diligente than you thynke.
In his locis opinio eſt, Men thynke in theſe quarters, oz the ſayng oz bzute of men is here in theſe partes.
Summam opinionem obtinet, It is greatly eſteemed.
Magna eſt hominum opinio de te, men haue conceiued a great opinion of you.
Malam opinionem imbibit, he hath conceiued an yll opinion, oz he thynketh yll.
Opinio de te multum me fefellit, I am greatly deceiued in myne opinion of you.
Contra & præter opinionem, otherwyſe than one thought oz hoped.
Omnium opinione, as euery man thinketh, by the opinion of all men. Opinione celerius, ſooner then men thynke. whan men doubte of a thyng, we ſaie not, Hæc eſt mea opinio, but Hec mea eſt ſententia.
Aſſerre opinionem, to make one to thinke.
Quantum opinione auguror, As farre as I conieete oz geſſe. Opinionem comprehendere, to conceiue an opinion.
Remittere opinionem, to put away an opinion that one hath conceiued.
Non fallam opinionem tuam, I wyll not deceiue your expectation oz opinion that ye haue conceiued of me.
Vt mea fert opinio, after my iudgemente oz fantaſie, as I deme oz thynke.
Laborare opinione arrogantiæ, to be ſuſpected of arrogancie oz pride.
Oppleuit opinio hæc totam Græciam, All Greece was of this opinion.
Concurrunt multæ opiniones, many ſuſpicions come togyther.

In eam opinionem venerat Caſſius, men thought this of Caſſius, oz men had this opinion of Caſſius.
Adducere in opinionem rem aliquam, To bryng a thyng in ſuſpicion.
Opinâtor, ôris, m. g. a ſuppoſer, he that neuer affirmeth any thyng. alſo the prouider of cozne foz an armie.
Opinâtus, a, um, ſuppoſed.
Opinor, aris, ari, to ſuppoſe, to haue opinion, to deeme, to thynke, to iudge.
Opiparè, plentuouſly, abundantly, richely.
Opiparus, a, um, abundant, freſhe oz gay, riche, magnificent.
Cœna opipara, a delicate, plentifull & lumpſuouſe ſupper.
Opis, pi, pem, ayde, helpe, ſuccour.
Niſi eum quantum dij dant tibi opis, ſeruet, caſtigas, mones, excepte thou awaite, chaſtice, and rebuke hym, with al the helpe that the goddis maie geue the, oz with al the helpe that thou mayſte haue of the goddis, oz as farre as god wyll helpe the.
Nihil opis eſt in illis, they can not helpe oz ſuccour the.
Omni ope, with all his might.
Confugere ad opem alicuius, to flee to one foz helpe oz ſuccour.
Egere ope, & indigere opis, to haue nede of helpe.
Opis aliquid ferre, to helpe ſomewhat.
Non opis eſt noſtræ, It is not in our power.
Summa ope niti, to endeuour with all force oz diligence.
Opem alicuius expectare, to looke foz helpe of one.
Opem petere, implorare, poſcere, expoſcere, orare, to deſyre ayde oz helpe.
Opem, olde writers vſed foz opulentiã, ryches.
Opis, opis, a ladie, companion to Diana. She was alſo wyfe to Saturnus. And by hyr is ſignified the earth amonge poetes. It is alſo a citee by the ryuer Tygris.
Opiſthógraphus, i, m. g. a booke written on the backe ſyde, oz paper written on both ſydes.
Opiſthotónicus, a, um, he that can not turne his necke.
Opiſthótonos, the cricke oz diſeaſe that letteth one to tourne his necke.
Opiſtophylaces, thei whiche defende the backes of theim that fyght, the rere garde.
Opiter, opiteris, oz ópitris, He whoſe father died before his grandefather.
Opitergini, a, um, of the towne of Carniers, called Opitergium Opites, the name of a Grecian, whiche Hector ſlewe.
Opitulâtor, oris, m. g. a helper.
Opitulor, aris, ari, to helpe, to ſuccour, to ayde.
Contra vanas ſpecies opitulatur, it helpeth or is medicinable agaynſt vayne phantaſies of the vrayne

Opitulus Iupiter, Iupiter the helper at nede.

Opium, pij, n. g. the iuyce of an herbe called blache poppe. alſo Opius is he that fighteth in armure.

Opobalſamum, mi, n. g. balme naturall, which in a parte of Iudea, called Hiereconthe, ſtilleth out of a little thorne.

Opocarpathum, i, n. g. the iuyce of Carpathum.

Opôpanax, acis, the iuyce of an herbe called Panax.

Oporæ, all fruites, whiche be good to be eaten, & haue no harde pilling, or ſhale, as apples, peares, plummes &c.

Opórice, ces, f. g. an excellent medicine made of fruites.

Opórinus, a, um, belongynge to Autumne.

Oporophylacium, cij, n. g. the kepyng of fruites.

Oporothêca, æ, fœ. g. a place wherin winter fruite is kepte.

Oportet, it behoueth, it is expedient or neceſſary.

Nonne prius communicatum oportuit? Had it not been mete that I ſhould haue been tolde of the matter before, or that I ſhoulde haue been made priuie to it before?

Factum oportuit, it ſhoulde haue been dooen before this.

Oportet, is ſometyme vſed perſonally, as, Hæc facta ab illo oportebant, this ought he to haue doen.

Opos, ſuccus.

Oppango, pêgi, pangere, to faſten or ioygne.

Oppedo, oppedis, ere, to farte againſt one, to denie with a lowde voice, to diſſent and be againſt, to contemne.

Oppérior, riris, riri, depon. to tary, to abide for.

Ego te opperiar domi, I wyll tarye at home for the. Opperitus ſum, I haue taryed for.

Oppeto, óppetis, tiui, vel oppêtij, tere, to dye. alſo to be ſlaine.

Oppetere mortem, to dye.

Oppetere febrem, to fall into a feuer.

Oppia, a virgine Veſtale, whiche beyng conuicted of whoredome, was buried quicke.

Oppianus, a certaine poete.

Oppico, aui, are, to pitche or couer with pitche.

Oppidânus, i, m. g. a citezyn or townes man.

Oppidânus, a, um, that belongeth to a towne, or townes man.

Oppidâtim, towne by towne.

Oppidò, an aduerbe, ſignifiyng veraie muche, ſometyme it ſignifieth foorthwith, verily.

Paulum oppido inter ſe differunt, they differ or vary veraie littell.

Dic me hic oppidò eſſe inuitam, ſaye that I am here ſore agaynſt my wyll.

In anguſtum oppidò meæ coguntur Copiæ, all the helpe that I haue is now driuen to a narrow ſtreicte.

Oppidulum i, n. g. a littell towne.

Oppidum, i, n. g. a walled towne or citee.

Oppignero, aui, are, to laie in pledge, to laie in gage.

Oppignerare ſe, to lay hym ſelfe to pledge,

Oppilátio, ônis f. g. a ſtoppyng, oppilacion.

Oppilo, aui, are, to ſtoppe or ſhutte.

Oppleo, pleui, ère, to fyll full.

Oppleuit luctus vrbem, The wholle citee mourned and lamented.

Opplêtus, a, um, fylled vp.

Opplôro, aui, are, to lament, to weepe.

Oppôno, ſui, ere, to laye or put agaynſt, to oppoſe.

Opponere præſidium, to ſet a garriſon to defende. Obijcere & opponere.

Oppono auriculam, I lay myne eare to hearken. Formidines opponere, id eſt obijcere, to put in great feare.

Opponere milites ad portas, to ſet ſouldiours to defende the gates.

Opponere alicui inſidias, to laie an ambuſhe by the waie where one ſhulde paſſe.

Opponere nomen alicuius ad rem aliquam faciendam, to threatten one with a mans name, yf he wyl not doe a thing that he is cõmaunded.

Opponere ſe inuidiæ, to put hym ſelfe in daunger of the yll wyll, hatred, and diſpleaſure of men. Opponere corpus pro patria, to put his lyfe in daunger for his countreye.

Opponere, & opponere pignori, To laye downe a paune or gage agaynſt one. alſo to laye to guage.

Opponere cauſam, to laye an excuſe, to laie a reaſon or cauſe.

Opportunè, oppoꝛtunately, conuenientely, as it ought to be, in due tyme and meaſure, in good ſeaſon. Opportunè aduenis, you come veraie well.

Opportúnitas, âtis, fœm. g. oportunitee, conuenience of tyme and place, commoditee, pꝛoffyte, vtilitee.

Temporis opportunitas, meete and conuenient tyme.

Viæ opportunitas, id eſt facilitas, the eaſineſſe of the way.

Opportunitate venire, to come in ſeaſon, to come in good tyme.

Opportúnus, a, um, that whiche is in due tyme, and as it ought to be, after our deſyre, as we would haue it, meete for the purpoſe, conuenient, enclined, ſubiecte, in daungier.

Opportunus iniuriæ, fit or apt to take wrong.

Opportunus alicui vitio, aut morbo, id eſt, noxius, procliuis, readye, enclined, ſubiecte, in daunger. Magis opportunus, nec magis ex via tuo nemo eſt, there is no man more meete for it, nor no man more to your commoditee.

Tempus oportunum, tyme meete and conuenient. Locorum opportuna, meete places.

Oppoſitio, ônis, f. g. contrary ſetyng or putting,

Oppô,

Oppóſitus, a, um, the participle of Oppono, put or ſet againſt, alſo gaged, laide to gage.
Villa oppoſita ad auſtrum, open to the ſouth.
Villa oppoſita ad quindecim millia, laied to gage for the ſome. &c.

Oppoſitus, us, m. gene. contrarietee in puttyng or ſettynge.
Laterum noſtrorum oppoſitus & corporum pollicemur, we promyſe that we wyll put our bodies and lyues in ieoperdy for the defence therof.

Oppreſsio, ónis, f. gen. an oppreſſion or violatyng, a doyng of wrong by violence.
Per oppreſsionem aliquid eripere, to take by violence, to take awap a thyng by extorcion.

Oppreſsiúncula, æ, a diminutiue of Oppreſsio.

Oppreſſor, óris, m. g. an oppreſſour, or he that doeth greue or harme one, he that doeth iniurie by violence, an extorcioner.

Oppreſſus, a, um, oppreſſed, violentlp wronged, taken ſodaynlp or vnwares, thruſted harde.
Oppreſſus à prædonibus captus eſt, beynge ouerlayde with theeues, he was taken.
Oppreſſa amicitia, frendſhyp vtterlp broke of.
Oppreſſus doloribus, ſore peined, in great ſorowe and pepne.

Opprimo, ópprimis, preſsi, ere, to oppreſſe, to kepe or thut in, to take ſodenlp, to raupſhe a woman, to greue, to thruſte harde. Alſo to preuent, to geat of one by force, to confeſſe a thing whether he wyll or no.
Opprimi ære alieno, to bee muche in dette, to be ouercharged with debt.
Opprimere animos formidine, to make men ſore afrayde.
Opprimere mentionem, to put a thyng to ſilence, to make that a thyng be not ſpoken of.
Opprimi inuidia, To be greuouſlp hated, to haue a verie pll name among menne for any thynge, to haue the pll wylle or diſpleaſure of men.
Opprimere iudicio, to vndoo one by ſuite, or whan one in ſuite at the lawe by force & myght is put to the woorſe.
Opprimere orationem aliculus, to make one to ſpeake no more of a thynge, to make one leaue his communication and talke.
Oppreſſus graui ſomno, in a dead ſlepe.
Nox certamina cœpta oppreſsit, the nyghte came on, & dyd lette the contencions that were begunne.
Opprimere occaſionem, to cauſe the occaſion to be loſte.
Opprimere pede, to treade or thruſt downe with ones foote.
Opprimi ruina, to be ſlapne with the fallyng downe of ſome thyng.
Opprimere bellum exortum, to ceſſe or quiete the warre that is begunne.
Os opprime, ſtoppe thy mouthe.
Opprimere aliquem, to take one vnwares.

Opprimere aliquem conciliо, To ouercome one by wiſedom, to go beyonde one in wyt and counſayl.
Opprimere dictum ſuum, to change his ſentence, or deny that he hath ſpoken.
Opprimere ignem, to quenche the fyre, and by tranſlacion, to quiet a buſy & dangerous matter. Onere opprimi, to be ouerladen.
Opprimere ex improuiſo, to come vpon one ſodenlp.

Opprobramentum, i, n. ge. of olde writers was vſed for Opprobrium.

Oppróbriũ, ij, n. g. a reproch, rebukeful ſpeking.

Opprobro, ópprobras, aui, are, to obiect againſt one, to reproche, to caſt in the noſe.

Opprobrátio, ónis, fœ. g. rebukefull ſpeakyng, reprochyng in wordes, caſtyng in ones teethe.

Oppugnátio, ônis, fœ. g. an aſſiege or aſſaut as gaynſt a fortreſſe.

Oppugnâtor, óris, m. g. he that letteth the profite of any other man, or goeth about to doo hym diſpleaſure.

Oppugnatus, a, um, aſſauted.

Oppugno, aui, are, to aſſaulte, to oppugne, to fyght agaynſt, to reaſon agaynſt a matter earneſtlp.
Oppugnare bona alicuius, To aſſaye meanes to make one loſe his goodes.
Oppugnare aliquem capite, & fortunis, To cauſe one to loſe his lyfe and goodes.
Oppugnare verbis commoda patriæ, to ſpeke againſt the profite of his countrete.
Oppugnare aliquem, to labour agaynſt one by all meanes poſſible.
Oppugnare aliquem pecunia, to labour as gaynſt one with money and bribes.
Oppugnare occulte rem aliquam, To be pryuilp agaynſt a matter.

Ops, opis, f. ge. the ſyſter and wife of Saturne, alſo it ſignifieth one that helpeth. Auncient writers vſed Ops for opulentum, ryche.

Opes, opum, ibus, the plural, rycheſſe, alſo puiſſaunce or power, ayde, helpe.
Non humanis opibus, not with mans helpe.
Ingenij potius quam virium opibus, rather by the ſtrength and vertue of the mynde, than by myght and power.
Expectare alterius opes, to loke for the helpe or power of other.

Oppuro, ópputas, áui, âre, to cut of boowes, to prune trees.

Oppunite, for Percutere, a worde out of vſe.

Oppunia, ſtryppes.

Opſago, the herbe Solanum ſomniferum.

Opſigámia, a iudgement or law in Lacedemonia againſt men that were not married, or were vnmarried.

Opſon, all thyng that is made with fire to be eaten.

Opſonâtor, óris, m. g. a puruciour of victuales, a prouider of eates, a cater, ſtuard, or maſter.

Opſonâtus, us, m. ge. preparacion for dyner or ſupper. Opſonatio, idem.

Opſonito, aui, are, to prepare often for dyner or ſupper.

Opſónium, nii, n. gen. all thyng belongyng to a meate, except breade and drynke.

Opſóno, aui, are, & opſónor, aris, ari, to prepare thynges neceſſary for dyner, ſupper, or banket, to laie out moneie for eates.

Opſonato ampliter, beſtowe large coaſt vpon prouiſion of meate.

Vix drachmis obſonatus es decem, thou dyddeſt leant beſtow fortie pens vpon meate.

Optábilis, le, that whiche is to bee deſyred or wyſhed for.

Optabiliter, pleſantly, delectably.

Optátio, ônis, f. g. option or choyſe.

Optato, with deſyre, as one wolde wyſhe.

Optato aduenis, you be welcom, you com euen as I wold haue you, I am glad you be come.

Optátus, a, um, wiſhed for, or deſyred.

Optatum loquere, ſpeake curteſly, ſpeke not ſo rigorouſly.

Nihil optatius, ther is nothyng that I deſyre more, or wold more fayne haue.

Optati, they that be choſen to any honeſt degree or eſtate.

Optata loquere, ſupple verba, thou ſpeheſt ioyfull wordes, or as I wold haue the.

Optatiſsimus nuntius, moſt pleaſaunt and acceptable tydynges that can be.

Præter optatum meum, Otherwyſe than I wyſhed or deſyred.

Opteron, ri, ferne.

Optice, the ſcience wherby the reaſon of ſyght is knowen.

Opticus, óptica, um, perſpective, perteinyng to ſight.

Optimas, âtis, com. g. a head man of a citee. alſo he that defendeth the part of nobilitee and ryche men.

Optimates matronæ, The chiefe women in the citee.

Optimâtus, us, m. ge. the eſtate or condition of head men of a towne or countrey.

Optimè, verate well.

Optimè eſt, it can not be better, it is as well as can bee.

Optimus, óptima, um, beſte, or verate good.

Optimo iure, of verate good ryght, or with good reaſon.

Tu optimus es teſtis, no man can tell better than you.

Optio, ônis, f. g. a choyſe or election.

Optionem facere, permittere, & dare, to geue the choyce to one.

Si optio eſſet, If I, thou, or he, myght choſe.

Optio ſit tua, Choſe you, take the choyſe.

Optio, ônis, m. ge. preaſt money, whiche ſouldiours doo receyue to prouide their neceſſaries. It was alſo to the capitayne in warres, a miniſter to doo his commandement, and be attendent vnto hym.

Optiuus, a, um, for Adoptiuus.

Opto, aui, are, to deſyre, to courte, to choole, to haue lieker.

Quoduis donum & præmium à me optes, deſyre what gift or rewarde thou wilte of me.

Optauit potius, he had lieffer, or deſyred more.

Opulenter, richely, plentifully, abundauntly.

Opulentia, æ, f. g. ryches, abundance.

Opulentitas, âtis, f. g. idem quod opulentia.

Opulento, aui, are, to make riche or plenteous.

Opulentus, a, um, ryche, abundant, plentifull.

Opulesco, ſcere, to waxe ryche.

Opulus, ópuli, f. g. a wyche haſyll tree, as ſome haue thought, but by the iudgement of other it is not that, but an other tree, whiche the frenchemen call Opiet, and is the beſt tree to ioigne vines vnto.

Opuncalo, he that ſyngeth lyke a shepherde.

Opuntia, æ, fœ. gene. an herbe growyng by the citie Opus.

Opuntius, a, um, of the citee Opus.

Opus, untis, a citee in Locris.

Opus, óperis, n. g. a woorke, a buildyng, a labor, ſometyme for artificium, workmanſhip, ſometyme an act or dede. Munus operis tui, thyn art, thy dede. Eius opere, by his meen or diligence.

Opere maxumo, with all meanes poſſible, In moſte hertyly wyſe.

Rex Seleucus me opere orauit maxumo, vt ſibi latrones cogerem, king Seleucus deſyred me aſmuche as he poſſible might, that I wold get hym ſouldiours to be about his perſon.

Thais maxumo te orabat opere, vt cras redires, Thais deſired the as hertily as ſhe couldo that thou woldeſt come agayn to morow.

Græcos nimio opere delectant, they delyte the Grekes exceedyng muche: Or the Grekes take exceedyng great pleaſure in them.

Tanto opere, for Tantopere. Opus oti, I woorke that a man hath made at vacant tymes.

Accelerare opus, to haſten forward the work.

Omni opere anniti, to endeuour with all payn and labour.

Opus facere, to labour.

Inſtare operi, to ſee that the woorke go forwarde.

Opus, an adiective vndeclined, needfull, expediente, neceſſary.

Nihil mihi opus eſt, It is not expedient for me, I haue no neede.

Dux nobis & author opus eſt, we haue nede of a capitayn or chiefe leader.

Quæ ad rem opus erant, whiche were expedient and neceſſary for the matter.

Puero opus eſt cibum, the chylde hath neede of meate.

Opus eſt maturato, they muſt make ſpede.

Opus ſunt milites, for opus eſt militibus.

Opus eſt, it is neceſſary or nede.

Si opus ſit, yf nede be.
Opus inteſtinum, looke Inteſtinum.
Opus eſt conuento. Ita res ſubita eſt, celeri-ter mihi hoc homine conuento opus eſt, The chaunce is ſo lodayne, or the matter requireth ſuche haſte: that I muſt nedes ſpeake with the man ſhortly or quickely.
Opus eſt facto, it muſte needes bee dooen or executed.
Voſmet videte iam Laches & tu Pamphile, remiſſam opus ſit nobis, an reductam domum, Nowe Laches and Pamphile, aduiſe your ſelues wel, whether it be neceſſary that the be ſente home or brought home.
Opus ſunt tibi, Thou haſt nede of them.
Vt cum deſponderim des qui aurum ac veſtem, atq; alia quæ opus ſunt, comparet, that wyth I haue affiaunced hir, thou delyuer wherwith to bye attyre, apparayle, and all other thynges nedefull.
Opuſculum, li, n. g. a litteli wooꝛke.

ORa, æ, fœ. gen. the extreme parte of euery thynge, as the edge, the brymme, the ſhyꝛtes, the hemme, the boꝛder, the rebull that tyeth the ſhyppe, a coaſt, a countrey, or region, eſpecially neere the ſea ſyde. It is alſo a cleyme or partition of the firmament.
Oræ poculorum, the brimmes of cuppes.
Oram ſoluere, to take the ſea.
Quacunque in ora terrarum, in what region, countrey or coſte of the woꝛlde ſo euer they bee.
Auſtralis ora, the ſouthe coſte.
Superis conceſſit ab oris, he dyed.
Oræ vulneris, the ouer parte or edges of a wounde, whiche be ſtitched.
Ora maritima, the ſea ſyde, the ſea coſte.
Oráculum, i, n. g. the temple or place where anſweres were gyuen by ydolles. alſo the anſwere it ſelfe. ſometyme a notable ſaiynge of ſome wyſe man.
Oraculum, ✝ oraculo edidit deus, god ſayed.
Orárium, rij, neu. ge. the veſtement, wherin the prieſt doth ſaie maſſe.
Oráta, æ, f. g. a fyſhe called a gylt head.
Orátio, ónis, an oꝛacion, woꝛdes, communication, talke. alſo a prayer.
Quod ſi ſciret, eſſet alia oratio, yf he knewe it, he woulde ſaie otherwyſe.
Tum impudentiſsima eorum oratio eſt, than theyr woꝛdes be without all ſhame.
Orationis ſatis eſt, tace, we haue ſufficiently talked of the matter, holde thy peace.
Omnis eius oratio eſt de ſummo bono, All his woꝛdes and ſpeakyng is of the chiefe and principall goodneſſe.
Oratione beneficus, liberall in woꝛdes.
Orationem tibi para, ymagyne what thou mayſte ſaye.

Quid vult ſibi hæc oratio? what meane theſe woꝛdes? oꝛ to what intent doth he ſpeake this?
Oratiúncula, æ, f. g. a litteli oꝛacion oꝛ prayer.
Orátor, ôris, m. g. an oꝛatour, an ambaſſadour, a ſpokeſman.
Oratória, æ, f. g. rhetoꝛike.
Oratorié, lyke an oꝛatour, oꝛ in fourme of rhetoꝛike, eloquently.
Oratorius, a, um, pertainyng to an oꝛatour.
Orátum, i, n. g. a requeſte, a thyng deſyred.
Orátus, us, m. g. a prayeng, a requiryng.
Orátus, a, um, intreated, deſyred.
Orbátio, ónis, fœ. g. the depꝛiuynge of one of a thynge.
Orbátus, a, um, that is deſtituted of any thynge.
Orbatus filio, he that hath loſte his ſoonne.
Orbatus ſpe ſalutis, that hath no hope of helth oꝛ lyfe.
Orbelon, a place in Thꝛacia, where Oꝛpheus dyd dwell.
Orbiculátim, roundelyke a circle.
Orbiculátus, a, um, made round, oꝛ in the foꝛme of a circle.
Orbiculus, li, m. g. a litteli circle. alſo a pulley.
Orbicus, órbica, um, rounde.
Orbilis, lis, the circuite of a rouke. alſo the rynge of a carte wheele.
Orbilius, a grãmarian of Beneuentum in Ciceros tyme.
Orbis, bis, fœ. ge. a circle, a rounde compaſſe, a rounde couer, a rounde trencher, a roundell to ſet diſches on foꝛ ſoiſyng of the table cloth. ſometyme the woꝛlde. alſo a continual courſe oꝛ ſucceſſe of thynges in the woꝛlde: a continuacion, oꝛder, and knittyng of thynges togyther in wꝛityng, an hiſtoꝛie. alſo a region oꝛ countreie, a great companye of men. ſometyme a pere.
Orbes, the holes of the eies ſometyme the eies.
Orbis ablaquiationis, the rounde pitte that is dygged about the roote of a vine oꝛ other tree.
In orbem, by courſe, rounde aboute, one after an other.
Vt idem in ſingulos annos orbis volueretur, that they might bee occupped in the ſame thynges yerely.
In orbem ire, to go rounde aboute from one to an other.
Orbem facere, to gather rounde togyther in a battayle.
Orbis terræ, the wholle woꝛlde.
Lacteus orbis, the whyte cyrcle aboute the moone.
Orbis rotarum, the rounde circle oꝛ rynge of carte wheeles.
Obliquus orbis, the Zodiake.
Sol hauſit medium orbem, the ſoonne hath paſſed halfe his courſe.
Orbita, órbitæ, f. g. a whele, ſometyme the trake that the whele doeth make in the grounde. ſometyme roundeneſſe oꝛ compaſſe.
Orbitas, átis, fœ. ge. the lacke of childꝛen. ſometyme the lacke of a father. also any lacke.

Orbitas tecti, lacke of a thyng to couer it, lacke of a house to dwell in.
Orbitas luminis, lacke of syght.
Orbitûdo, inis, idem quod orbitas, an olde woorde.
Orbitus, orbita, um, rounde as a circle.
Orbo, aui, are, to take from, to depryue one of a thynge that he setteth muche by.
Orbare equitatu, to take his horsemen from hym.
Orbus, a, um, properly blynde, sometyme lacking any thyng.
Luminibus orbus, blynde.
Palmites orbi, braunches that haue no buddes
Orbus auxilio, destitute of helpe.
Turba ab optimatibus concio, an assemble, wherin be no noble men.
Orbus pater, he whose children be dead.
Orbi, they which haue lost their children. also orphans that haue lost their parentes.
Res publica orba consulis, the common weale destitute of a consull.
Legatio orba, that hath lost the principall or chiefe ambassadour.
Orca, æ, f. g. a great monster of the sea. also a great vessell, as a but or vat, wherin Rennyshe wyne is put, an earthen potte with a narrowe mouthe, a longe necke, and a great belly, into the whiche children practised for a game to cast nuttes. Also a bore, wherein spice bee taken, and after throwen on the tables: sometyme a rocker, wherein womans paintyng is kept. also a vessell, wherin spyces bee kept, and a kynde of precious stones.
Orcas promontorium, the northe ende of Scotlande.
Orcelis, a towne in Spayne called communely Origuela.
Orchades, thirty yles in the sea by Scotlande.
Orchamus, a kynge of Assyria, whiche buryed his daughter Leucothea quicke, because she was rauysshed of Apollo.
Orchestra, æ, f. g. a place, wherin the Senatours and honorable persons sat to beholde plates.
It is sometyme taken for the session of the Senatours and noble men.
Orchis, or Orchites, tis, fœm. gen. a kynde of olyues.
Orchis, is also an herbe called Testiculus canis, because the rootes be lyke dogges stones, & stirreth to lecherye. some call it in Englysh gandergoose, some ragworte. It is also a kynde of fysshe.
Orchis vel Orchas, a kynde of great olyues, more mete to be eaten then to make oyle of,
Orchoe, a citee of Babylon.
Orchomeneus, a, um, of Orchomenus.
Orchomenus, a mountaine in Thessaly. also a citee and a ryuer in Bœotia.
Orchoselinon, idem quod Orcoselinum.

Orcinus, a, um, of Orcus.
Orcinus libertus, one that is manumysed of hym that dyeth.
Orcomana, a beere, wherin dead corpses lye.
Orcula, æ, f. g. a runlet, a diminutiue of Orca.
Orci tunica, the herbe Anemone.
Orcus, a tyuer of hell. also an other in Thessaly.
It is sometyme taken for hell, or the darknesse of hell.
Ordeaceus, a, um, of barley, looke Hordeaceus.
Ordessus, a tyuer of Scythia.
Ordeum, looke Hordeum.
Ordia, ôrum, n. g. plur. the fyrst beginnynges of thynges
Ordinârius, a, um, wherin order is obserued, ordinarye.
Ordinaria semina, sede set or sowen in an order. Ordinarius homo, a busy and roughly fellowe, that is alwap in sute.
Ordinary lapides, harde stones, that bee not one vnlyke an other, but of the same quantitee & faction, and yet not cut or made by the rule.
Ordinaria structura, a meane kynde of buildyng, where stones of lyke quantitee and faction be laied together, but not wrought by the lyne and plumbe rule.
Ordinatè, ordinately, in order.
Ordinâtim, in order, one after an other.
Ordinâtio, onis, ordinaunce, appointyng. also administration.
Ordinâtor, ôris, m. g. he that ordereth or appointeth, or setteth thynges in order as they shoulde be.
Ordinâtus, a, um, well appointed, set in good order.
Ordino, ordinas, aui, are, to order or dispose, to aduaunce to any office or dignitee, to put in auctoritee.
Ordinare syllabarum literas, to spell.
Ordinare improbas cogitationes, to conteine naughty imaginations in ones mynde.
Ordior, iris, orsus, and orditus sum ri, to begyn to speake.
Vnde rectius ordiri possumus, where may we better begynne?
Ordiri & Terminare, contrary.
Altius ordiri, to repete the matter almost frō the beginnyng.
Ordiri telam, to begyn to weaue.
Ordiamur à facillimis, let vs begyn at the eastiest matter.
Orditus, a, um, begun to be wouen or wrought.
Ordo, inis, m. g. an order, a rewe, a ranke, a raunge, a rape, a course, the estate of men conuersyng fortune and goodes. sometyme the men of one estate or order, also the dignitee of men in one estate or degree.
In ordinem redigere, to kepe one within his boundes, that he doo not excede his degree.
Ordines seruare, to kepe the rape.
Ordine ponere, to set in arape.

Ordo

Ordo longus, a great multitude.
Ordines ducere, to be a capitayne.
In ordinem cogere, to bryngе vnder obeysaunce, to correcte theim that be out of order.
Ordines conturbare, to breake or scatter the rate Prius ordine, that is fyrst.
Posterius ordine, that is laste.
In ordinem disponere, to set in araye or order.
Habere locos ex ordine, to haue the places by herte, in order as they stande.
Pone ordine vites, plant the vines in order.
In ordine referre, to shewe in order, and by course, nowe one, nowe an other.
Ordinem retexere, to begyn againe at the first afreshe.
Ordo senatorius, the estate and order of the Senatours.
Ordo amplissimus, idem.
Meus me ordo irridet, They that bee of my condition or estate, make well laughe me to scorne Sepenumero multa verba in hoc ordine fecit, I haue often tymes spoken muche in this reuerent company of senatours.
Conueni hodie quendam mei ordinis, I spake to date with one of myne owne estate and hauioure.
Ordinis inferioris amici, frendes that be of a lower estate than we be.
Extra ordinem, out of order or course, not kepyng the accustomed processe. also singularly, for certayne particular consideracions
Ordo luci, hilles that doo diuide Scotland and England, they be now called Cheuiet.
Ordo luci montes, the hilles called Cheuiet, betwene England and Scotland.
Ordouicum, ici, a citee in Britaine, the people wherof were called Ordouices, whom Iulius Agricola subdued.
Orea, æ, f. ge. the byt for an horse.
Oreades, nymphes of the mountaynes.
Orebatis, a citee of Persis.
Oreon, an herbe growynge on hylles.
Oreoselinum, ni, n. g called also Syluestre Petroselinum, and Apium montanum, a kynd of perselp.
Orchitrophus, a dogges name in Ouide.
Orestes, the soonne of agamemnon and Clitemnestra.
Orestæus, a, um, of Orestes.
Orestium the herbe Helenium.
Orestis, orestidis, a parte of Macedonie.
Oretæ, people of Indie.
Oretus, a riuer of Sicile.
Oreto, or Oria, a towne of Spayne called Calatraua.
Oreus, a name of Bacchus.
Orexis, is, f. g. is most taken for vomite. albe it signifieth appetite to eate.
Organa, all instrumentes of musike.
Organārius, rij, m. g. a maker of instrumenters.

Organicè, with a vice or instrument.
Organici, they that play with instrumentes.
Organicus, a, um belongyng to instrumentes, or that is doen with instrumentes.
Organum, organi, n. g. an instrument pertaynyng to buildyng. also an ordinaunce of warres. also a certaine instrument to measure land with, sometyme it is vsed for an harpe.
Orge, a well in Narbone, wherin groweth a certaine herbe, which oren and hyne dooe so greatly desyre, that they thruste theyr heades wholly vnder the water to get it.
Orgia, ôrum, ne. ge. plu. ceremonies or songes pertaynyng to infernall goddes, or to Bacchus.
Orgyia, æ, f. g, or as some write it Orgyia, a measure contaynyng fyue foote. Suidas dooeth write, that it is the space that is contained betweene the handes stretched out, which I suppose is a fathome. Gaza translateth it foure cubites.
Oria, æ, f. g. a fyshers bote.
Oribasius, a noble man, which was familyar with Iulyanus the emperour: he wrate .72. bookes of phisike.
Oricalchum, i, n, g. laten or copper mettall.
Oricius, a, um, of Oricos.
Oricola, æ, f. g. an herbe in the Iles Canariæ, wherwith they vse to die clothe.
Oricos, or Oricum, a citee of Epyre.
Oriculārius, a, um, idem quod Auricularius.
Oriculum for Auricula, a lyttell eare.
Oriens, entis, m. g. the east.
Oriens, entis, om. g ryssyng, spryngyng, beginnynge.
Orificium, ij, n. g. the mouthe of any thynge.
Origanum, i, n. g. an herbe called organny, some name it wylde maioram.
Originārius, a, um, that hath a thyng from his byrthe, or from the verap begynnyng, or that is borne in any place.
Origenes, called also Adamantius (borne at Alexandria in Egypt) was soonne of one Leonides the martyr, a man of moste excellente doctrine and vertue from his chyldehoode, who beyng on slepe, his father came into the chambre, and takyng away the clothes softly, kyssed the breast of the infant, as a temple, hauing within it the holye goste, and gaue thankes to god, that had geuen him suche a soonne. whan his father was martyred, Origen beynge but a yong chylde, and yet desyrous of martyrdome, ranne amonge other that were ledde to bee slayne, and by all meanes proffred hym selfe to dye with theim But his mother (who louyd hym most entierly) perceiuyng the matter, did fyrste lamentably entreate hym, to withdrawe hym: but his desyre of martyrdome was the more encreased therby. Wherfore in the night, whan he was in his bed, she stale away his clothes: so that in the morynyng whan he would haue gone forth, he myght not come by them:

wherfoze he was constreigned to tary at home. Of the whiche deceipte of his mother, he complayned to his father in prison, desprynge hym to persiste constantly in his good purpose. After the deathe of his father, he gaue hym selfe continually to the study of holy scripture, which he had tasted before by his fathers instruction. And yet, before he was .xx. yeres olde, he excelled all men of his tyme, as well in philosophie, as all other sciences. In the age of xviii. yeres he expounded gentile authours openly, wherin he so enterlaced the holy scripture, that he conuerted many greatte learned men to the faith of Christ. His liuynge was so straight and vertuous, that he drewe many vnto hym, and was amonge all men had in a wonderfull reuerence. He neuer ceassed in all persecucions to comforte and confirme men in the embracynge of martyrdome, and dyd continually reade openly, and also wrote innumerable bokes in the expoundyng of holy scripture. He wente into dyuers countreies to preache, and for his great fame Mammea, the mother of the noble Emperour Alexander Seuerus, sent for hym to Rome, and hearde hym, and as some suppose, was by hym conuerted. wherof you maie reade in the booke, whiche I translated out of Eucolpius, and called it the ymage of gouernaunce. He obserued all the preceptes of the gospell moste streightely, in continuall fastynges & watchynges, haupnge but one garment, gopnge alwaies barefoote, counsaillynge all his hearers to renounce all that they had, and to geue it in almesse. Also he gelded hym selfe, not onely to bee the more chaste, but also (because in the tyme of persecution, he taught the woorde of god, as well priuitely as openly, to men & women) to leat the papnyms to speake dishonestee of hym, and those that repaired to his sermons and lessons, whiche although he dyd secretely, yet god woulde not haue it hyd, so that it came to the eare of Demetrius the bysshop of Alexandria, who spyste wonderynge at the stomache and vertue of the man, prayseng the feruentnesse of his faythe, sayde vnto hym. Nowe sticke to thy doctrine and preachynge, lens thou hast lefte vnto thine aduersaries none occasion of suspicion. But afterwarde the same Demetrius, stirred with enuy, laied it in reproche agaynste hym openly, fyndynge nothynge elles wherewith to dispraise hym. He that will knowe more of Origen, let hym reade the .vi. booke De historia ecclesiastica, and saint Hierome De scripto. eccles. He was after the incarnation of Christ. 204. yeres.

Originâlis, le, that whiche one hath from his byrthe.

Origo, riginis, f. g. a begynnynge, hynde, cause, a fountayne, a well spryngc.
Modicus óriginis, of a meane stocke or kinred
Clarus origine, of noble bloude.

Orinda, a bread made of the graine called Oriza dium, whiche groweth in Ethiope.

Orion, orionis, the soonne of Neptunus Some feigned, that whan Copius had lodged Jupiter, Mercurie, and Neptune, and had byded for theym an ore, he desyred them to grant hym a soonne. Than those three pylled in the hyde of the ore, of the whiche (beynge layed in the grownde) came Orion, as it were Vrion. for Ouros, in greke is brine. Whan Orion beyng an hunter, woulde haue defloured Diana, he was slayne with a scorpion, and translated amonge the sterres, and there is the signe called in latine Iugula.

Orior, oriris, vel óreris, rtri, to be borne, to aryse, to appere, to spryngc, to haue the begynnyng of any thynge, to begynne.
Oriri & procreari.
Facinus ex te oritur, thou arte the author of this mischeuous acte, or this act hath his begynnyng of the.
Tibi à me nulla est orta iniuria, I neuer dyd you any displeasure or iniurie.
Ab his sermo oritur, they begyn fyrst to speke.
Putant quicquid est ex te esse ortum, They thynke all that euer hath ben done to come first of the, or that thou begannest it fyrst.
Oritur clamor, there arose a great showte or crye. Ortus ab omni turba fletus, all the companp began to weepe Oritur fons, the well spryngeth or hath his begynnynge.

Orites, tis, mas. gen. a precious stone, of facion rounde, and can not be hurte with fyre.

Orithæa, a nymph that encourageth men to ren.

Orithyia, the daughter of Erictheus, kynge of Athens, whom Boreas loued & conueyed away with hym into Thrace. In other of this name was queene of Amazons.

Oriundus, a, um, comen by auncestres out of same citee or countrete. sometyme borne.
Nati Carthagine, sed oriundi à Syracusis, borne at Carthage, but by auncestours descended from Syracuse in Sicile.
Oriundus ab Vlisse, descended of Ulisses bloud.
Cumis erant oriundi, They were borne at Cume.
Meminerint sese vnde oriundi sint, let theym remembre theim selues of what lynage they are descended.

Orix, or Oryx, a certayne wylde beaste.

Oriza, æ, f. g. a grayne called ryce, which is moste communely eaten in lente, with almonde mylke.

Orizelon, the herbe aiuga, or chamæpitis

Orizon onris, m. g. is the furthermoste parte of the fyrmament, that mans eie can determyne.

Ormenius, a citee of Magnesia.

Orminium, or Orminum, an herbe lyke to horehounde.

Orminium, or orminum hortense, clarie.

Orni-

Orminum syluestre, The herbe called Ocle Christi.

Orminum Atticis corruda, wilde sperage.

Ornamenta, dweth sometyme signifie theim that bee wourthy prayse.

Ornamentum, i, n. g. apparayle, an ornament, a garnysshyng. also honour, dignitee, prayse, or commendacion, an honourable pleasure or benefite doen to one.

Ornamento esse, to be an ornament, to commende, to sette fourthe, to garnysshe.

Ornate, trymly, gorgiously, elegantely, with colours and ornamentes of rhetorike.

Ornátrix, icis, she that commendeth or setteth fourth, or that garnysheth or apparayleth.

Ornátus, i, m. g. he that is in greate dignitie or authoritie.

Ornátus, a, um, apparayled, trimmed, garnysshed, instructed, furnysshed, adourned, honourable, aduanced to hygh authoritee and dignitee, that is indued with great wysedom, verture, and knowlage.

Ornatissimam de me sententiam dixit, He gaue me a verate honourable reporte.

Ornatus esses ex tuis virtutibus, thou shouldest haue ben trymmed accordyng as thou art wourthy.

Ornata sunt cuncta, all thinges are ready prouyded and appoynted.

Ornatissimus fundus, lande verate well husbanded and appoynted.

Ornatus, us, and sometyme Ornatus, i, apparaile, trimmyng, deckyng.

Ornea, sacrifices dedicated vnto Priapus.

Orneoglosson, id est, auis Lingua, an herbe.

Orneus, one of the Centaures.

Ornios, the herbe Anemone.

Ornis, Ornios, vel Ornithos, a bryde, a henne.

Ornithiæ, northen wyndes.

Ornithotrophium, phij, neu. gen. a place where brydes be nourysshed or brought vp.

Ornithoboscium, ij, n. ge. a house where pultry is kept, a coupe.

Ornithogallium, or Ornithigalon, an herbe hauyng a little tender stalke, a foote and halfe in height: lohe for the residue in Dioscor. li 2. Plin. li. 21. ca. 17. it is called dogges onion.

Ornithon, onis, m. ge. a place, wherein brydes be kepte.

Orno, aui, are, to garnysshe, to decke, to trym, to furnysshe, to apparayle, to make readye, to make fyre, to prepare, to make mete, to honour with some authoritee or dignitie, to do some honourable pleasure, also to prayse, to set fourth, to commende, to vernysshe.

Ornare suffragio, to helpe one with his voyce or good reporte.

Iam ornabar fugam, he was euen nowe ready to renne awap.

Munus nostrum ornato verbis quod poteris, prayse and set foorth my gyfte with good wordes as muche as thou canst.

Laudibus ornare, to set out with great prayse.

Melius est prandium ornare domi, It is better that dyner be prepared or made readye at home.

Classes ornare, to furnysshe shyppes.

Ornus, i, f. g. a wylde asshe with broode leaues.

Oro, aui, are, to praye, to demaunde, to speake openly and eloquentely as oratours doe, to pleade.

Pro salute alicuius aliquem orare, to entreat one for a mans lyfe.

Orabo nato vxorem, I will pray or intreate hym to geue his daughter to my sonne in maryage.

Scin' quid te orem scire? Canste thou tell, or wottest thou what I woulde desyre to know of the? or what I woulde desyre the to tell me?

Aequissimum orat, it is verate good reason that he desyreth.

Orare iussit vt ad se venias, he commaunded me to desyre you to come to hym.

Omnibus precibus oro, I desyre you as hertyly as I can possibly.

Causam orare, to pleade his cause.

Orat ignoscas, he desyreth the to forgeue hym.

Oroandes, an hyll by the mountayn Imaus.

Oroatis, a ryuer in the bosom of the sea, called Parcicum, southward.

Oroba, a citee of Assyria.

Orobanche, ches, fœm. ge. an herbe growyng among beanes or pease, and destroieth theim, lohe Eruiangina, or Eruangina, some calle it Cynomorion, it is called in englisshe choke wede. vide Plin. li. 22. ca. 25.

Orobatis, a citee of Persis.

Orobe, the flower called the pionie.

Orobia, æ, fœm. gen. a kynd of frankincense in litle graines.

Orobitis, tis, f. ge. grene colour lyke to the blades of corne.

Orobelion, idem.

Orobieum, idem quod orobum.

Orobum, a kynde of pulse corne, I suppose it is tares. lohe before in Eruum.

Orodes, a kynge of Parthia, who vanquysshed and slewe Crassus the Romayn.

Oroetes, a Persian, whiche dyd hange Polycrates, the tyran of Samia.

Oromalides, a kynd of apuls, called also Omolida.

Orontes, a ryuer by the citee of Antioche. also a Troian that came from Troie with Eneas.

Oronteus, a, um, of Orontes.

Oroselinum, ni, n. g. perselp.

Orosius, a wourshypfull priest borne in Spayn, ryghte eloquente and experte in histories. He wrate. vii. bookes agaynst theim that saied, that the decaie of the common weale of Rome happened by the doctrine of Christe. He was sent by saincte Augustin, to saincte Hierom, who was than than in Iudea, to learne of hym the reason of the state of the soule.

Orphanus, órphani, m. gen. he that lacketh his father and mothers succour.

Orphanotróphium, phij, n. gen. a house where fatherlesse children be kept and brought vp.

Orphanótrophus, he that is maister or keper of suche an house.

Orpheus, a Thracian borne, sonne of Oeagrius, or as some write, of Apollo and Caliope, an auncient poete and harper most excellent. He (as the portes surmysed) dyd with his musyke, delyte wylde beastes and infernall spirites, and moued stones with his swete harmonie: wherby he recouered his wyfe Eurydices out of hell. At the last he was slayne with lyghtnynge, or (as some write) torne in pieces by women.

Orpheus, a, um, of Orpheus, sometyme for Thracius.

Orphneus, one of Plutos houses.

Orrhopygium, gij, n. g. the rumpe of a byrde, or any other beaste.

Orron & Taurum eam vocant partem, quæ testiculos interiacet.

Orsilochus, the sonne of the ryuer Alpheus.

Orsa, órum, n. ge. plu. enterpryses, begynnynges, thynges begunne.

Orsus, us, m. g. a begynnyng.

Orsus, a, um, begunne, that hath begunne.

Orthæ, the buildynges called also Menianæ: lohe there.

Orthium carmen, a kynde of musike in verie high tune, which Arion vsed when he cast him selfe in to the sea.

Orthocoribantij, people of Scythia in Asia.

Orthocolla, or stillosa, those beastes, which haue the crampe so in their feete, that they can not sette their hole hoofe vnto the grounde, but goe only on the toppe.

Orthodóxia, the right opinion or faithe.

Orthoepéia, the right forme of speakyng.

Orthodóxus, i, m. ge. a man of a right opinion, faith or beleefe.

Orthogónius, a, um, that hath ryght corners.

Orthogónus, i, m. g. a ryght corner.

Orthográphia, æ, f. ge. the right forme of writyng. it is also a plat for buyldyng, wherin is peincted or set foorth the figure of the whole woorke, with the reasons of the same.

Orthomastica, certaine fruite that be lyke teates.

Orthopnœa, æ, fœ. g. a disease whan a man can not fetche his breathe, but holdynge his necke vpryght.

Orthopnoicus, i, m. g. he that hath that sickenes.

Orthos, id est, rectus.

Orthosia, a citee of Syria, called Tortosa.

Orthostadios, a garment, whiche was alwaies worne vngyrt.

Orthostata, a course in buyldyng, where timber or stone bee mortaised one within an other, or elles fastened together with pyron or brasen crampons or hookes.

Orthragoriscus, a certayn fysh, whiche grunte.

Orton, a citee of the Peligmans, called commonly Pietra de pirati.

Ortona, idem.

Ortopla, a citee in Dalmatia.

Ortus, ti, vide Hortus.

Orti pensiles, gardeynes made on houses or pyllours.

Ortus, a, um, borne, spronge, begunne.

Ortus ex eodem loco, descended of the same estate or degree.

Ortus equestri loco, a gentill man borne.

Tenui fortuna ortus, descended of a poore kynrede. Ortus, sometyme for Oriundus.

Ortus Corintho, hauyng his auncesters descended of the Corinthes.

Ortus, us, m. g. the byrthe or nativitee, growyng vp, sprynging, rysyng. also the east.

Ortus solis, the sonne rysyng.

Ortygia, the name of an yle in the sea Aegeum, called also Delos, also the herbe plantago.

Dea Ortygia, Diana.

Ortygométra, æ, fœm. g. the capitayn or leader among quayles, whiche is blacker and bygger than the other. It is called also of Turtole, matrix.

Ortyx, órtygis, f. g. a byrde called a quayle. also a certayne herbe.

Oryx, órigis, a beast of the kynd of gotes, of the nature of this beaste reade Plin. li. 2. ca. 40. & li. 8. cap. 53. item Colum. li. 10.

Oryza, idem quod Oriza.

O ANTE S.

OS, oris, n. ge. the mouthe. also the vysage, sometyme the proporcion of all the body. sometyme countenance. also presence, language, sometyme audacitee, boldenesse, hardynesse.

Omnes vno ore authores fuere, All they with one accorde and consent, gaue me counsayle to dooe it.

Os ad mala audiendum præbere, to suffre one to rebuke hym to his face.

Per ora hominum ferri, To bee publyshed or spoken abrode.

Os distorquere, to sette his mouthe awry, to mocke with the mouth, to make awry mouth or yll fauoured face.

In ore est omni populo, all the worlde speaketh of it.

Os ducere, to facion the mouthe in speakynge, moste commonly to curiously.

Os durum, a shameleſſe persone.

Os impudens videtur, he semeth to haue an impudent lohe or shameleſſe face.

Os alicui lædere, to saie yll of one to his face.

Os hominis insigné mque impudentiam cognoscite, Consyder you the boldnesse and presumption sumption of this felowe.

Duarum & viginti gentium ore loquebatur, he spake xxii. languages.
Os portus, the entree of an hauen.
Os sublinire, to moche or deceiue craftyly with fayre prompses.
Abit in ora hominum, it is abrode in many mens mouthes, dyuers men speake of it.
Quem ex tuo ore admiror, whom I greatly esteme through your commendacion.
Sanguis effuderat ora, thei blushed.
Tibi valde in ore solet esse, thou were wõte to speake verate muche of hym.
Venire in ora hominum, to become famouse and renoumed.
Quo ore illum obiurgabis? How wylt thou be so bolde to rebuke hym?
Quod habent os? what audacitee or boldenes haue they? or what presumpcion is in theym?
Incedunt per ora vestra, they go before your face.
In ore eius iugulatur, he is put to death before his face, or in his presence.
Sacculi os, the mouth of a bagge.
Ossa, sometyme vsed for shales of nuts or oliues.
Os, ossis, n. g. abone. Ossum idem.
Osleonis, a certayne herbe, hauyng a purple flower.
Asperare sagittas ossibus, to make the heades of their arrowes of bones.
Reponere os, to set abone that is out of his place.
Osr, lawes concernyng deuotion.
Osinna, I praie the saue vs.
Osa sum, for Odi, I hate.
Osca, a towne in Spayne called communely Gueſca.
Oscheon, idem quod scrotum, lowe there.
Oscedo, cedinis, f. g. panyng or gappyng.
Oscela, a citee in the Alpes, called now Secusa.
Osci, people in Italy.
Oscilla, littell ymages of ware to be offered.
Oscillo, aui, are, to bowe downe.
Oscillum, i, n. g. a litteli mouth. sometyme a littell ymage or puppet.
Oscinis, oscinis, or oscen, scinis, f. g. a byrde ỹ doth by his voyce signifie somewhat to come or happen.
Oscines, all syngyng byrdes.
Oscinum, oscini, n. g. a diuination by byrdes.
Oscs, the abhominable vse of carnall sinne.
Oscitabunde, idem quod oscitanter.
Oscitans, antis, om. gen. that gapeth as it were for lacke of slepe. also that careth for nothyng, sure, fearyng nothyng, negligent.
Oscitanter, sotely, without any courage, as yf one were almoste on sleape. also negligentely.
Oscitatio, ônis, f. g. gappyng. also quietenesse from labour.
Oscitationes alicuius, bookes negligentely written.

Oscito, ôscitas, aui, are, to gape as men do for lacke of slepe. sometyme to open as a mowth at the soonne rysyng.
Oscitor, âris, ari, idem.
Osculana pugna, battayle, wherin they which before had the victory, were vanquisshed.
Osculatio, ônis, f. g. kyssyng.
Osculor, aris, ari, to kysse, by translacion to loue hertily, to shewe great kyndenesse.
Osculum, ôsculi, n. g. a litteli mouthe, also a kysse.
Affigere oscula, to kysse.
Dare oscula manibus, to kysse ones handes.
Ingeminare oscula, to kysse twyse or thryse one after an other.
Osiris, siris, or siridis, the soonne of Jupiter and Niobe, fyrst kyng of Argyues, after leaupng that realme to his brother, he wente into Aegypte, and there reigned and maried Isis. Finally he was slayne by Typho his brother, and longe soughte for by Isis his wyfe, who at last fyndyng his body, burped it in the yle Abaros, where the Aegyptians afterwarde fyndynge an ore, supposed that Osiris was become a god, and takynge that ore with theym to the citee of Memphis, honoured him for a god, & callinge hym Apis, they ordeined to hym certayne ceremonies. A litteli whyle after, drownyng him in the ryuer, they soughte for an other syke ore with wailynge and weepynge: whiche beynge founden, they cried with muche gladnesse, and brought him to the citee. He was before the Incarnacion of Christe. 2012. peres.
Osirites, an herbe, which is also called Cynocephalia, because it is lyke a dogges head.
Osmon, an herbe called also medion.
Osor, osôris, m. g. he that hateth.
Ospreolion, idem quod orobanche.
Ossa, a high mountaine in Thessaly.
Osseus, a, um, of that kynde.
Osseus, a, um, bony, or of a bone, as harde as a bone.
Ossiculâtim, one bone from an other, in pieces.
Ossiculum, li, n. g. a littell bone.
Ossifragus, a, um, that breaketh bones.
Ossifraga, f. g. or Ossifragus, gi, m. g. a kynd of eglas.
Ossilegium, gij, n. g. a gatheryng of bones.
Ossonoba, a citee of Portugale.
Ossuaria, æ, f. g. a thynge or syke thynge, where bones of dead men are put, a charnell house.
Ostendo, di, dere, to shewe, to open, as a man, dooeth his wares to selle.
Ostendere se siue animum suum, to declare his courage, or what he intendeth to dooe.
Ostendere se virum, to proue him selfe a man to dooe valiauntly.
Opportune te mihi ostendis, you meete with me in verate good season.
Bellum ostendere, to proclaime or denounce warre.

Os

Os suum ostendere, to shewe his face.
Multa peccata in hac re ostendis, thou shewest many offences, or thou cõmittest many faultes, in this one matter.
Se optime ostendunt, they behaue them selues right honorably, or declare them selfes to bee verie honest men.
Ostende qui vir sies, shewe what a man thou art. Se palam ostendere, to appere.
Mihi per alium ostendit suam sententiam, he shewed me his minde vnder the colour & name of an other man.
Ostendere spem, to put in hope.
Ostendere metum, to threaten one with a thynge, wherof he is afrde.
Ostensus, a, um, shewed.
Ostentans, antis, bostynge, shewynge with ostentation.
Ostentátio, ônis, f. g. boastyng, ostentation, as vauntynge, shewynge or tellynge of a thyng for vaine glorie.
Ostentátor, ôris, m. g. a boster, a bragger, he that sheweth a thynge for ostentation.
Pecuniosus ostentator, he that braggeth of his money.
Ostentâtus, a, um, shewed, proffered.
Ostentata occasio, the occasion presente.
Ostento, aui, are, to shewe often also to boast or aduaunt, to shewe a thynge for vaine glory and ostentation.
Ostentare periculum capitis, to menace one to hylle hym, or to cause hym to dye as a transgressour.
Ostentare iugulum pro capite alterius, to offer to dye to saue the lyfe of an other man.
Ostentare spem, to put in hope.
Venditare & ostentare.
Ostentare verbis, to prompte, to bragge.
Ostentum, ti, n. g. a thynge whiche happeneth seldome, and betokeneth, that some straunge thynge shall happen, As a blasyng sterre, thunder on a fayre daie. sometyme it signifieth a thyng monstruous, or contrary to the common course of nature.
Ostentus, a, um, shewed.
Ostentus, us, m. g. a scorne, whan one in mockage pointeth to one, a shewyng Ostentui esse, to bee pointed at, to bee for a shewe.
Ostreocollon, an herbe growyng much on stones and walles, phisitions call it Polygoniõ, some talantion, the common sorte symphiton. it is alwaie greene, and liueth without leaues.
Ostia, orum, the entrees of great ryuers. somtyme hauens.
Ostia, a towne nygh to Rome.
Ostiárius, rij, m. g. a porter, a doore keper.
Ostiâtim, from doore to doore. sometyme one after an other, or one after an other by name.
Ostiénsis, à littell hauen at Rowe.
Ostiensis, se, of Ostia.

Ostiensis porta, a gate in Rome towarde Ostia.
Ostigo, ostiginis, f. g. the scabbe, whiche happeneth to creepe aboute theyr mouthes and lyppes.
Ostiolum, li. n. g. a littell doore.
Ostium, ij, n. g. a doore or gate, an entrer into thynge.
Ostracias, or Ostracites, a certayne stone.
Ostracismus, mi, m. g. a maner of exilynge of men at Athenes, whiche excelled other in power or authoritee, whiche exile was doen by delyuerynge of oyster shelles, wherein the name of hym, whiche shoulde bee exiled, was written.
Ostrácium, cij, or Ostracum, ci, n. g. a shell, is sometyme vsed for the stone Onyx.
Ostrea, æ, f. g. an oyster.
Ostreum, trei, n. g. idem.
Ostreárius, a, um, belongyng to oysters.
Ostreárius panis, browne breade, the which men are wonte ta eate with oysters.
Ostreáriæ, árum, places where oysters be found.
Ostreâtus, a, um, harde and rought lyke an oyster.
Ostrifer, strifera, um, that bringeth forth the iuyce, wherof purple colour is made.
Ostrinus, a, um, of purple colour.
Ostrinæ vestes, garmentes of purple colour.
Ostrogothi, easte Gothes.
Ostrum, tri, n. g. the iuyce of the fyshe Murex, wherof purple colour is made. also purple or other lyke colour.
Ostrya, vel ostrys, a certayne tree.
Ostium, looke Hostum.
Osus, a, um, that hath in hatred.
Osus sum, osus es, osus est, I hate, thou hatest, he hateth.
Osyris, called also Linaria, of some Herba vrinalis, is supposed to bee the wylde lynne, or wildeflaxe, or starnewoort, some call it toadflaxe, some Bimarie.

OTanes, a noble man of Persia, whiche conspired with Darius against the Magitian, that vsurped the kyngdom.
Othonna, some thynke it the iuice of the herbe Chelidonia, reade Dioscor. li. 2. ca. 202. & inibi commentarios.
Othone, an herbe, that groweth moste in Syria, and hath leaues full of holes.
Othriades, a Lacedemonian.
Othris, a mountayne of Thessaly, where dwelled the people called Lapithæ.
Othrissius, a, um, of Othris.
Othus, a gygant.
Otior, âris, ari, to be pdell, at reste, or quiete, to be without trouble or busynesse.

Ocioſẽ, ydelly, at leyſure, all by leyſure, ſurely, without care.

otioſe ambulare, to walke all by leyſure.

aurem vtramuis otioſe dormias, breake ſlepe for the mattier hardily, bee nothynge reſull for the mattier.

otioſe dormire, to ſlepe without care, or to ſlape ſoundely.

otioſe negotium gerere, to go negligently bout his buſyneſſe.

otioſus, a, um, ydell, ſure, without care, carelſſe, quiete, at eaſe, without trouble, occupaon, or buſyneſſe.

otioſus dies, holy daie, a playyng daie.

animo iam nunc otioſo eſſe impero, Nowe charge the, care for nothynge, or I byd you ut your herte at reſt, quiete, or eaſe: or ſet your erte at quiete at my wooyde.

Otioſa res, a thynge that requireth no care or ſtudye.

Otioſæ ſententiæ, ſentences, whiche haue no ertue or power to moue the audience: or that e audience dooeth not vnderſtande or perxpue.

Otioſus ſtudiorum, he that ſtudieth nothyng.

Otium otioſum, vacant tyme without buſyneſſe.

Otioſus ab animo, quiete in mynde, without are or trouble.

Otioſus à metu, without feare.

Otus, tidis, ſ. g. a kynde of owles, or as Elianus ieth, a birde like a partriche, ſo fatte, that ſhe an not flee much aboue the grownd: and therore whã ſhe heareth the dogges barke, ſhe hideth hir ſelfe amonge buſches.

Otium, tii, n. g. ydelneſſe, vacation from labour. alſo leyſure, reſte, quietneſſe, contrary to labour and buſyneſſe.

Tenẽre otium, to maynteyne quietneſſe.

Suppeditare otium ſtudio, to paſſe the tyme in ſtudy, to geat leyſure to ſtudy.

In otio eſſe, to ſytte at home and do nothynge, to be at leyſure, to be without buſyneſſe.

Abundare otio, to haue muche leyſure.

Affluere otio, idem.

Otium operis, whan they labour no more.

Otij plurimi res, the mattier requireth muche leyſure.

Literarum otium, vacant tyme applied to ſtudy.

Abuti otio, to beſtow his vacant tyme yll.

Sitibi eſt otium, yf ye haue leiſure.

Si plus otij habuero, yf I haue more leiſure or vacant tyme.

Facere conſuetudinem otij, to bryng one in a cuſtome to be ydell.

Otriens, the brother of Hecuba.

Otus, ti, the birde called a horne owle.

OVâlis, le, pertaynyng to triumphe or reioycyng.

Oualis corona, a garland of myrtels, geuen vnto hym, whiche had victorie without effuſion of blouddе.

Ouans, antis, om. g. reioycyng, beyng ioyefull.

Ouãtio, ônis, of ouum, the tyme of layynge of egges.

Ouãtio, ônis, fœm. gen. a ſmalle triumphe of a prince or capitayne, whiche had victorie of his ennemyes, without ſlaughter of men: or where battayle was not denounced, In the whiche triumphe the capitayne went on foote, or only dyd ryde on a horſe, with a garlande of myrtelles on his head, and his ſouldiors ſyngyng about hym.

Ouãtus, us, m. gen. the ſhoute or noyſe of theym that go in ſuche a triumphe.

Ouãtus, a, um, which is in ſimilitude of an egge.

Ouiãria, æ, ſ. g. a flocke of ſheepe.

Ouiãricus, a, um, of or belongyng to ſheepe.

Ouidius, ſurnamed Naſo, borne in Sulmo, brought vp in Rome, and diligently inſtructed in latine letters from his tender age, he gaue moſte diligent ſtudy to the makynge of verſes, from the whiche he was withdrawen by his father, and put to learne rhetorike, wherin a whyle he muche profited, and was in the numbre of the beſte oratours of that tyme, and was aduaunced to ſundry authorites and made a ſenatour. Not withſtandyng he chiefly dedicate hym ſelfe to poetrie, wherin by nature he was excellent in facilitee and abundance of ſentences. He was in good fauour with the emperour Auguſtus, of whom at the laſt he was exiled into Pontus, where he ſpent the reſt of his lyfe in a towne called Tomos, amonge people moſte barbarous, who not withſtandyng lamented his deathe, for his courteſy and gentyll maniers. The cauſe of his exile is vncertayne, ſaiyng ſome ſuppoſe it was for abuſyng Julia, daughter of the emperour Auguſtus, although the pretence of the emperour was for the makyng of the booke of the crafte of loue, wherby yong myndes myght be ſtyred to wantonneſſe. he was before the incarnation of Chriſt, • peeres.

Ouicula, læ, ſ. g. a lyttell ſheepe.

Ouifera gallina, a broode henne.

Ouile, lis, n. g. a fold or ſhepe houſe, a ſhepe cote.

Ouiliones, idem qui opiliones.

Ouiluteum, the white of an egge.

Ouipera, thoſe beaſtes, birdes, or fiſches, that breede egges or ſpaume.

Ouillus, a, um, of a ſheepe.

Ouinus, a, um, idem.

Ouis, uis, ſ. g. a ſheepe. Ouis, is ſometyme red in the maſculine gender.

☞ Ouem lupo committere, a prouerbe, vſed whan any thyng is cõmitted to hym, for whoſe cauſe it had been expedient, to haue had an other other keper.

Ouo, aui, are, to reioyce with noyse or voyce in a multitude.

Ouum, ui, n. g. an egge.

☞ Ouum ouo simile, one egge lyke an other, applyed vnto them, whiche be of lyke condicions or persone.

Ouo prognatus eodem, of one father and mother, or brought vp vnder one mayster, or in one schoole.

Durum ouum, an harde egge.

Molle ouum, a soft egge.

Sorbile ouum, a reere rosted egge.

Albumen oui, the white of an egge.

Luteum oui, the yolke of an egge.

Incubare ouis, to sytte on broode.

Ponere oua, to laye egges.

Gignunt ouâ pisces, fyshes bredе spaume.

☞ Ab ouo vsq; ad mala, prouerbially from the begynnyng to the endyng.

O ANTE X.

OXălis, oxalidis, f. ge. a hynde of sorrell.

Oxeas, Hercules sonne by Megara.

Oxellum, a citee in Englande called Chester.

Oxigion, the dregges of vineger.

Oxis, óxidis, a vessell for vineger.

Oxos, a hynde of purple made in Phenicia.

Oxos, a ryuer of Asia, rennynge thorough the desertes of Scythia, also Oxos, eos, neu. ge. is vineger.

Oxobapta, certayne purple garmentes of an excellent good dyeing.

Oxolæon, ople and vineger mixt togethеr.

Oxyacantha, a barbeary tree, called of some Berbaris, or Pipreges.

Oxybaphum, or Oxybaphus, idem quod Acetabulum.

Oxycedros, a hynd of cedre tree.

Oxycratum, water and vineger sodden togeſther, called also Posca.

Oxýgala, læ, fœ. g. or Oxygalum, li, neut. ge. sower mylke.

Oxýgarum, ri, n. ge. sharpe sauce, pike sauce.

Oxyhalme, a hynde of drynke made of salte and vineger.

Oxylápathum, thi, n. g. sorrell.

Oxylla, great sorrell

Oxymeli, or Oximel, oxymelis, honye and vineger sodden togeſther.

Oxymôron, a sentence spoken with so muche affectacion, that it seemeth folysshe.

Oxyphœnix, nicis, the tree whiche beareth the fruite, called of the apothecaries Tamarindi.

Oxypora, oyntmentes and emplaysters myxte with vineger, to the intent that the vertue of the other ingredience may the better penetrate.

Oxyporum, ri, n. ge. all sharpe sauce made with vineger.

Oxiporopôla, læ, m. ge. he that selleth meates sharpe sauce or sowse.

Oxyrinchus, a citee in Egypte, so called of the fysshe Oxyrinchus, forasmuche as the Egyptians wooꝛshypped two fysshes for goddes, that is to saie Lepidotus, and Oxyrinchus. The twoo byrdes, a hauke, and the byrde Ibis. also thre beastes, an oxe, a dogge, and a catte, and some honoured a crocodile, and som ichneumon, a litteli beaste that kylleth the crocodile. In the said citee the fysshe Oxyrinchus was specially wooꝛshipped.

Oxýgarum, id est, acutum garum.

Oxylepes, a hynd of breadde, geuen to them that be sicke of the feuer, or that haue the flix.

Oxymôron, a sentence spoken so with affectacion, that it semeth folysh.

Oxymyrsine, a shrubbe lyke to the myrtille, but that it hath leaues rougher and sharper, and hath redde beeries, lyke to cheries. this shrubbe is also called Bruscus.

Oxýporum, a medicine that helpeth spedily. also the same that Oxýgarum is.

Oxyporopólæ, they whiche sell meates condite in vineger.

Oxyringus, a fysh, whiche the Aegyptians wooꝛshipped as a god.

Oxys, id est, acetosus, acutus, velox, lyke Oxytriphillon.

Oxyschœnos, a hynde of Bulrushes.

Oxysaccharum, suger and vineger sodden togeſther, of some men called Syrupus acetosus simplex.

Oxýtonon, wilde popie.

Oxytoca, medecines to make a woman to bryng foorth hir byrthe quickely.

Oxytriphilion, an herbe, called sorrell de boys, or Alleluia, Cochows meate, or wodde sorrell.

Oxys, idem.

O ANTE Z.

OZæna, æ, fœm. gener. sores in the nose, whiche causeth a stynkyng sauour in the nose.

Ozæna, is also a hynde of the fysshe, called Polypus.

Ozænius, an herbe, called also pseudonardus.

Oze, es, f. g. the stinkyng of the breath.

Ozimon, an herbe called basyll.

Ozimum, ózimi, n. ge. a meate made of the inwardes of beastes.

PABVLARIS, re, pertey-nyng to foyrage oy meate foy beastes.
Pabulâtio, ônis, foyageyng. sometyme pasturyng oy feedyng of beastes.
Pabulâtor, ôris, m. g. a foyrageour.
Pabulatórius, a, um, pertepnyng to foyrageyng oy beastes meate.
Pabulor, âris, âri, to go in foyrageyng. sometyme to feede, to pasture.
Pabulari oleas, pro nutrire.
Pabulum, li, n. ge. foyrage oy meate foy beastes, pasture, and by translation euery thynge that feedeth, mayntepneth oy nouristeth.
Amoris pabulum, that mayntepneth oy nouryssheth loue.
Hybernum pabulum, winter stulle, to fede the cattel, as haye.
Pacalis, le, that bypngeth oy signifieth peace.
Pacâtor, ôris, m. g. that pacifieth, asswageth, oy tameth, he that quieteth.
Pacâtus, a, um, appeased, quieted.
Pachiri, hylles in the lesse Asia.
Pachorus, a kynge of Parthia, slayne in Syzia, after the death of Crassus.
Pachynus, a moûtayne in Sicile, on the sea syde, oy an elbowe of the lande there, whiche nowe is called Cauo pasciuio.
Pachyso, a ryuer of Sicile.
Pacideianus, a swoozde player.
Pacifer, cifera, um, that bypngeth oy signifieth peace.
Pacificâtio, ônis, fœm. g. an appeasyng, a swagepng, a pleasyng, a peace makyng.
Pacificâtor, ôris, m. g. he that asswageth, pacifieth oy maketh peace.
Pacificatórius, a, um, that doeth pacifie.
Pacifico, aui, are, to pacifie, to make peace, to sette at one.
Pacificare, absolutely, to intreate of peace, to conclude oy make peace.
Pacificatum veniunt, they come to intreate of peace.
Pacificus, a, um, that maketh peace.
Pacinus, a mannes name.
Pacio, was of olde writers vsed foy pactio.
Paciscor, sceris, sci, to make couenaunt, to bargayne, to patise, to indent, Paciscí vitam ab hoste, To render hym to his ennemy, his lyfe onely saued, oy on condition to saue his lyfe.
Cum Xerxe nuptias filiæ eius paciscitur, he agreed to mary the daughter of Xerres.
Pactus est duo millia, he couenaunted to geue two thousande.
Inducias aliquot dierum cum hoste paciscí, to make a truce with theyr enemies to endure foy certayn dates.
Vitam pro laude paciscí, to be willyng to dye, to the end to gette prayse.
Pactus est illum dimitti, he prompted, that he shulde be dismissed.
Cui pacta Lauinia, ante aduentum Aeneæ fuerat, betrothed, spoused.
Paciscí filiam alicui.
Paco, aui, are, to mitigate, to appease, to accoyd, to please.
Pactilis, le, platted.
Pactilis corona, a platted garlande.
Pactio, ônis, an accoyde, agreement, a treatise, a couenaunt.
Pactionem nuptialem facere, to agree vpon a mariage.
Obligare pactionibus, to bynde with couenantes.
Pactitius, a, um, dooen vpon condition oy agrement.
Cessatio pugnæ pactitia, a truce.
Pactoliopes, excedyng ryche.
Pactolus, a ryuer in Lydia, haupnge golden grauell.
Pactor, ôris, m. ge. he that maketh a couenaunt, oy agreement.
Pactum, ti, neu. g. a couenaunt, a conuention, a bargayne, agreement.
Manere in pacto, to stiche to the bargaine oy agrement.
Pactum transitionis, a sauf conducte, to passe from one countrete to an other, a passepoyt.
Alio pacto, otherwyse.
Nullo pacto, in no wyse.
Eo pacto, in this maner of wyse, oy by that meanes.
Hoc pacto, by this meanes.
Pactus, a, um, couenaunted, promised.
Has tibi nos pactus legibus dare iussit, He commaunded vs to geue this money vpon a condition.
Pacuuius, a famous writer of tragedies, boyne at Brundusium in Calabria, syster soonne of Ennius the poete: he is commended of Quintilian foy the grauitee of his sentences, the ponderoulnesse of his woyldes, and the authoyitee of the personages, whiche are in his tragedies and comedies. That his stile seemeth somewhat rude, is to be ascribed to the tyme, and not to his faute: he liued vntil the age of. 90. pere before the compng of Chyst peres.
Padus, a famous riuer in Italye, whiche is there named Po. Cato in originibus sateth, that the Tuscanes called it Bodigon, the Ligurians Bodigum. Plinius calleth it Bodincum, that is to saye, haupng no bottome, the Greekes call it Eridanus, It cometh out of the hyll called Vesulus, which is the highest part of the mountaynes called Alpes, and renneth by the marches of Liguria, and so passeth vnder the grounde, and ryseth eyteloones, in the countrete called Vibonensis, and carieth with hym fyfy. other ryuers into the Uenetian sea, named Adriaticum.

Padus, a cite in Italy called Pauie.

Paduſa, a ryuer, whiche ſome ſaye is an arme of the Po.

Pæan, pæanis, m. ge. an hymne in the prayſe of Apollo. ſometyme the ſame Apollo. It is nowe taken for an hymne, made to the laude of god or our lady.

Pæantius, a, um, of Apollo.

Pæantidæ, pꝛecious ſtones, called alſo Gemonides.

Pædagógium, gĩ, n. g. lodgeyng for ſeruauntes and chyldren, a ſchole, among lawyers it is taken for a bondemans ſeruice.

Pædagógus, gi, m. ge. he that is appoynted to wayte on chyldren, to ſee theim well ordered, a teacher of chyldren, a ſchoole mayſter.

Pædágium, gĩ, n. g. a thing, wherin children be caried. In Plutarche it ſemeth to be taken for a tender chylde or derelyng.

Pædaretus, a mannes name.

Pæderáſtes, ſtis, a louer of childerne in vnhoneſt wiſe.

Pæderáſtia, æ, f. g. a vicious loue of childꝛen.

Pæderos, ôtis, maſ. gene. a pꝛecious ſtone, called alſo Opalion, there appereth in it the fyry bꝛyghtneſſe of the Carbuncle, the ſhynyng purple colour of the amatiſt, the grene ſea of the emeraude, all ſhynyng together with an incredible mpꝛture, Plí. li. 37. ca. 6. There is alſo a bꝛemble and herbe, wherof Plinie maketh meꝛcion. li. 19. ca. 8. and Dioſcorides lib. 3. & 4. called Pæderos, ſome ſuppoſe it to be a hynde of Acanthus.

Pædia, æ, fœm gene. erudition and inſtitucion in good artes, as Gellius teacheth. ſometyme childhode.

Pæ'dico, aui, are, to committe buggery.

Pæ'didi, fylthy and ſluttyſhe kelowes.

Pædor, ôris, m. ge. ſluttyſhenelle, vncleannelle, fylthynelle.

Pædomathes, they whiche learne in their childhode.

Pædotribia, the teachynge or exercyng of childꝛen.

Pædotribes, bis, and Pædotriba, æ, maſc. gen. a ſchoolemaiſter.

Pægma, atis, n. g. lowe Pegma.

Pæon, onis, a fote in meter.

Pæon, onis, an excellent phiſician.

Pæonia, an herbe, called Pionie, of the whiche there is the male and the female. alſo a cuntrey in Europa, and is a part of Macedonie.

Pæſtanus, a, um, of the cite Pæſtum.

Pæſtonium, a cite of Juſtreiche, called commonly Betta.

Pæſtum, a cite of Lucania, where is abounddaunce of Roſes.

Pætus, ti, m. g. he that loketh as if his eyes were halfe cloſed, he that loketh a ſquint vpwarde: or he that hath the one eye leſſe than the other.

after come, he that hath vnconſtant eies, rollyng and turnyng now hither now thither.

Paganália, ôrum, n. g. plu. plough meanes holydaies, as wakes be nowe a daies.

Paganícus, a, um, pertaynyng to villages.

Pagânus, ni, m. g. a man of the countrey, or the village. it is alſo he that deſyreth to be in the numbꝛe of ſouldiours, and is not yet admitted: or rather euery man, that is not a ſouldiour, and by tranſlacion, he that is not parfect or counnyng in any ſcience.

Pagaſa, a towne of Theſſaly, whiche after was called Demetrias.

Pagaſæus, and Pagaſus, a, um, of Pagaſa.

Pagâtim, village by village.

Pagina, næ, f. ge. the ſyde of a leafe in a booke. it is alſo the place in the traple of a vine, where euery bꝛaunche is faſtned.

Pagella, læ, and Paginula, læ, f. g. a lyttell ſyde of a leafe in a bowke.

Pago, gis, pepigi, gere, paſtus, to make couenaunt or contracte, to patiſe, to indent.

Pagonaton, the herbe Tuſſilago.

Pagrus, a certayne freſhe water fyſhe, called alſo Pagurus.

Pagus, gi, m. gen. a village. alſo a diction, lordſhyp, or marches, haupng diuers townes and villages.

Pagyris, the name of a ryuer and of a cite, of whiche the people are called Pagyrite.

Pala, æ, fœm. gen. a ſpade. alſo a pirle to put in bꝛead into the ouen. alſo a fan to make wynd. alſo the bꝛodeſt parte of a ryng, wherein the ſtone is ſette. ſometyme a frye panne or ſhoule. alſo a certayne tree of exceedyng greatnes growing in Indie.

Palæ, wedges or peeces of fyne golde, or gaddes of mettall whan it is fined.

Pálacra, æ, or Palacrana. fœ. g. a piece, ingotte, or wedge of golde.

Palæmon, palémonis, a god of the ſea. alſo the ſonne of Phineæus, kynge of Arcadie. alſo a grammarian in the tyme of Tyberius, and a ſhepeherdes name in Virgile.

Paléphatus, an auncyente writter in the tyme of Artaxerxes.

Palephatia papyrus, a boke cõtaynyng nothyng but fabuls and tales, or thinges vncredible.

Palæpolis, a place not farre from Naples.

Palæſta, tæ, the meaſure of the. iii. fyngers ioyned together.

Paleſtina, a countreie in Syrie, lorgynyng to Iewrie, called in holy ſcripture Philiſtim.

Paleſtra, æ, fœm. gen. a wꝛaſtlyng place. alſo the exercyſe of wꝛaſtlyng, or barriers. It is alſo the comelyneſſe of meuynge and geſture, accordyng to the ſtate or degree of the perſon, whych ſheweth it.

Palæſtrice, lyke a wꝛaſtler.

Palæſtricum, idem quod Paleſtra.

Palæſtricus, ci, m. gene. a wꝛaſtler, he that teeth

cheth

sheth wrastlynge, or fyghtyng at the barriers. also one that teacheth gesturyng, and comely mouyng of the body.

Palæstricus, a, um, perteinyng to wrastlyng.

Palæstrita, æ, m. g. he that vseth wrastlyng, or fyghtyng at the barriers.

Palam, openly before men, that all men maye see it.

Palam facere, to reuele or bryng to open knowlage.

Res palam est, the matter is openly knowen, or the thyng is manifest.

Palam populo, for coram populo.

Continuo palam est, by and by it is abrode, I kepe no counsayle.

Palam est pisces audire, it is euidently knowen, that fyshes doue here.

Palam mentiri, to lye eupdently, and manifestly.

Palam aduersarius, an open aduersary.

Palam and Obscure, contrary.

Palamédes, the sonne of Nauplius, kyng of the yle Euboia, a valyaunt capytayne of the Greekes, at the siege of Troie, where by the fawtse counsayle of Vlisses, he was slaine of his people. It is written, that he founde certaine letters of Greeke, by the order of a flyght of cranes.

Palamer, idem quod Palanga.

Palanga, gæ, f. g. a leauer, or porter, wherwith they lyfte or beare tymber, also a roller to conueigh thynges of great weight.

Palango, aui, atum, to beare on leauers or porters.

Palangarij, men whiche doue beare on leauers or rollers thynges of great poyse or weight.

Palans, antis, com. g. rennynge or wandryng abrode, as they that be discomfited in battaile.

Palatina, a countrete by Rome.

Palatinus, a, um, of Palatina.

Palanteum, a citee builded on the hylle called Palatinus.

Palatia, a citee in Aragonia.

Palas, the daughter of Euander.

Palatha, æ, f. g. a tarte of fygges.

Palatim, an aduerbe, signifiyng scattered and wanderynge here and there.

Palatina officia, offices within a princes palaice or courte.

Palatinus mons, an hyll at Rome.

Palatium, tij, n. g. an hyll in Rome. also the palaice of an emperour or kyng.

Palitio, ônis, fœm. gene. a foundation made in a marsh grounde, or in the water, with pyles of timber.

Palatuar, or palatual, a sacrifice doone at Rome on the hyll called Palatinum.

Palatualis, a preeste consecrated to the goddesse, that had the tuition of the palaice in Rome.

Palatum, ti, n. g. the rouffe of the mouthe.

Subtile palatum, a fyne taste.

Torpens palatum, a dulle taste.

Exacuere palatum, to quycken the taste.

Lingua deest palato, he can not speake.

Exsurdant palatum vina feruida, hotte wynes hurte the taste.

Palatus, us, m. g. is red in Cicero, if the booke be not false.

Palea, æ, f. g. chaffe of corne. sometyme strawe. also a gristell, whiche hangeth downe from the neche of a cocke or capon, a cockes beard.

Palea æris, the scum or offall of brasse, whan it is bourned or tried.

Palear, âris, ari, neut. gene. the dewe lappe of a rodder beaste, hangynge downe vnder the throte.

Paleárium, rij, neu. ge. a place wherein chaffe is kepte.

Paleâtus, a, um, made, myxte, or couered with chaffe.

Pales, the goddesse of shepeherdes and pasture.

Palene, a citee, so called of Palléna, the daughter of Sython, and wyfe of Cletus.

Palepaphos, a citee of Cyprelle dedicate to Venus.

Palescamander, a ryuer in Troy.

Palfurius, an oratour.

Palicenus, a fountayne in Sicilia.

Palici, two brethrene, the sonnes of Jupiter, and the nymphe Thalia.

Palilia, or Parilia, orum, n. g. plur. shepeherdes holy dayes kepte in the honour of Pales.

Palillogia, reduplicatio, a figure.

Palimbacchus, a foote in meter, haynge the two fyrst syllables longe, and the last shorte.

Palimpsista, æ, f. g, pitche twyse sodde.

Palimpsestus, ti, mas. g. parchemente rased, that was before written in.

Palingenésia, æ, f. g. a regeneration or seconde natiuitee.

Palinódia, æ, fœm. gene. a contrary songe, or retractynge of that whiche one hath spoken or written, nowe of some menne called a retractynge.

Palinodiam canere, to retracte that which one hath spoken or written.

Palinurus, the maister of the shyppe, wherein Eneas came into Italy. also an elbow of the land of Sicile into the sea.

Paliûrus, ri, m. g. a bryer, whiche beareth a cod, wherein are three or foure blacke sedes. I suppose by the description bothe of Theophrastus, and Dioscorides, that it is the furse or gorse, although in some one place it may bee greatter than in an other place. It may so be, that furse is one kinde of Paliurus: for authors set dyuers kyndes of it: but most commonly it is taken for a tree growynge muche in Arthe, and haynge a sweete bery or fruite, which they put in wine, to make it more pleasant. looke Ruellius, and the commentes on Dioscor.

Palla, læ fœ. g. a womans gowne or robe. also a garmente that frenche men vſed muche lyke a ſhorte clobe with ſleues.

Trahere pallam, to trayle his gowne on the grounde after hym.

Palláce, laces, or Palláca, cæ, fœm. gene. a rons cubyne.

Palládium, dij, neut. gener. the ymage of Pallas.

Palladius, a mans name, whiche wrote of huſbandry. alſo of an other, whiche was excees dyng ſwyfte.

Palladius, a, um, that longeth to Pallas.

Pallancana, a ſharpe opnion, wiche cauſeth the eyes to water.

Pallantia, a towne in Spayne.

Pallas, antis, the ſoonne of Euander. ſometyme kynge of Latines. alſo a gyaunt.

Pallas, adis, the daughter of Iupiter, called goddeſſe of battayle, and alſo of wyſedome.

Pallene, a countrete by Macedonie, and a citee in Acaia.

Pallens, entis, that is pale or wanne.

Palleo, lui, lère, to be pale, ſometyme to feare.

Multo pallere colores, to ware pale & change colowres, as men that be ſodenly taken in any dede.

Palleſco, ſcere, to become wanne or pale.

Palliaſtrum, tri, n. g. a courſe mantill or robe.

Palliátus, a, um, cladde in a mantille, robe, or clobe.

Palliatæ fabulæ, comedies or enterludes made in Greeia, & the perſonages therein were Greekes: as Togatæ fabulæ, were enterludes in Rome, and the perſonages Romains, ſo called becauſe the vpermoſt habite of Greches was called Pallium, of the Romaynes Toga.

Pallidulus, a, um, ſomewhat pale.

Pallidus, a, um, pale.

Pallio, aui, are, to concele or hyde, to couer.

Palliolátim amictus, cladde in a palle or robe.

Palliolátus, a, um, cladde in a robe or mantill.

Palliolum, li, n. g. a ſhorte mantill, or a wollen whoodde, vſed in olde tyme to couer the head.

Pallium, lij, n. g. a mantill, ſuche as knyghtes of the garter booe weare. a longe robe, a garmẽt that philoſophiers vſed, a cope. ſometyme a clobe.

☞ Tunica pallio propior, a prouerbe, whan a man wyll ſignifie, that he is more bounde to one frende than to an other.

Pallor, ôris, m. g. a paleneſſe of colour.

Palma, æ, f. g. the palme of the hande. it is oft tymes taken for a hande. alſo a meaſure called a handbreadth. alſo a palme tree, or date tree, whiche is alwaie greene, and was wonte to bee geuen to them that had woonne victorie. ſome tyme it ſignifieth the price or rewarde of victorie. alſo victory it ſelfe. Palma, is alſo a great vine braunche, that beareth grapes.

Plana faciem contúdere palma, to clap one on the cheke or about the face with his hande.

Huic equidem conſilio palmam do, in ſuch] geue price and prize to this deuiſe or counſaile.

Palmam ferre, to haue the price or victory, to be moſt excellent.

Plurimarum palmarum homo, he that often tymes hath had victory.

Palma, is ſometyme vſed for a date.

Palmam præripere, to take the praiſe or honor from an other.

Palma Chriſti, called alſo Buchaides an herbe of the hynde of Satyrion, but hauyng rounde lyke the palme of ones hande.

Palma, a towne of Spayne.

Palmáris, re, that is geuen to one for victorie, or worthy a garlande for victory.

Palmâre facinus, an act worthy palme or ſigne of victory.

Palmaria, an yle in the Tuſcane ſee.

Palmárium, ij, n. g. the rewarde or ſigne of victory, or a thynge worthy a garlande or ſigne of victorie.

Palmárius, a, um, and Palmaris, re, of Palmus, that is the meaſure of. xii. fyngers.

Palmaria ſpacia, an handebreade ſpace.

Palmaria, & palmaris veſtis, a garmente of baudekin, which the conſull dyd weare in tyme of peace, and the victour in tyme of warre.

Palmárius, a, um, worthy the ſigne or token of victorie, worthy to be crowned.

Palmes, pálmitis, m. g. the braunche, moſt communely of a vine.

Palmes pampinarius, the ponge branche of a vine tree, that beareth no frute, but only leaues.

Palmes fructuarius, a braũch that beareth frute.

Palmes focaneus, a branch that ſpringeth out of the clefte and verie middes of two bowes that growe forthewiſe, and taketh parte of the nouriſhment of theim both.

Palmẽtum, i, n. g. the place wherein date trees dooe growe.

Palmeus, a, um, of palme or date trees.

Pálmifer, a, um, that beareth palme or date trees.

Palmipedâlis, a meaſure of a foote, and an handbreadth, a foote and an halfe.

Palmipedes aues, all byrdes that haue webbe feete, as commonly all water foules haue.

Pálmipes, pedis, that hath a playne and flatte foote, ſplate footed.

Palmo, aui, are, to bynde togyther. alſo to doo anything with the palme of the hande.

Palmôſus, a, um, full of palme trees.

Pálmula, æ, fœ. g. the broade ende of an oyr or ſculle. alſo a date.

Palmus, mi, maſ. ge. a meaſure, Maior & minor. Maior, after Budeus, is xii. fyngers, after ſome a ſpanne. Minor, is foure fyngers, or halfe a foote.

Palmyra, a great caſtell or fortes in the midſt of Syria.

Palmirena, a countrete in Syrie.

Palo, aui, are, to hedge or pale in. Also to wander.

Palor, aris, ari, to goe a sunder here and there scattered.

Palpátio, ônis, f. g. flattery.

Palpátor, óris, m. g. a flatterer.

Palpébræ, árum, fœm. gener. plur. the heares that doo growe on the eye lydde, also the eye lydde.

Palpitátio, ônis, f. g. pantyng, beatyng, mouyng of the stomache.

Palpito, aui, are, to beate as the stomake doeth.

Palpo, aui, are, & Palpor, aris, ari, to cele, stroke or touche softly, as a man dooeth an horse or other fierce beast. By translacion, to flatter, to deceyue with faire woordes.

Palpones, flatterers.

Palpum, i, n. g. a flatterynge.

Obtrudere palpum, to flatter, to deceiue with fayre woordes.

Pallium, a ryuer in Britayne.

Paludamentum, i, n. ge. a cote armour. It was also a womans garment.

Paludapium, the herbe called smallage.

Paludátus, a, um, cladde in a cote armour.

Palúdifer, a, um that causeth a ditche or marise.

Palúdósus, a, um, fulle of dytches or marple groundes.

Palumbárius, a certayne hauke that is long and blacke, and flyeth the most part by night.

Palumbes, bis, m. & fœm. ge. a woodde culuer, a ringed doue.

Palumbus, and Palumba, idem.

Palumbinus, a, um, of a wood culuer.

Palumbina caro, the fleshe of a wood culuer.

Palus, li, m. g. a stake or poste.

Palus, lúdis, f. g. a fenne or marise.

Palúster, stris, stre, pertéynynge to a fenne or marple.

Locus palustris, a marise grounde.

Pambasília, a perfect kyngedome or dominion, a kyngdome where one hath all in his power.

Pamisus, one of the fiue principalle ryuers of Thessalia.

Pámphagi, people in Ethiope, whiche doo eate of all maner of thynges.

Pamphília, a region in the lesse Asia, lyynge on the southe syde of the mountayne Taurus, and marcheth on the realmes of Phrygia, and Caria.

Pamphilius, a, um, of Pamphilia.

Pámphilus, signifieth all loue, or a louer of all men, euery mans friende and louer. It was the name of Nicoles sonne Platos scholar, also a priest of Cesaria, whiche was martyred.

Pampillum, a charriotte.

Pampilóna, a citee in the realme of Nauerre.

Pampinâceus, a, um, that hath dyuers braunches.

Pampinárium, ii, n. ge. the tender braunche that groweth out of the body of the vine, which beareth nothyng but leaues.

Pampinárius, and Pampineus, a, um, of or pertaynyng to a vine braunche.

Pampinátio, ônis, a cuttyng of, of vine braunches, or pullyng of of the superfluous leaues.

Pampinátor, óris, he that cutteth of the superfluous braunches or leaues of a vine.

Pampinátus, a, um, the participle of Pampino.

Pámpino, aui, are, to cut of the small braunches of a vine, or to pull away the leaues, that the soonne maie come to the roote.

Pampinula, an herbe called also Pimpinella.

Pámpinus, ni, fœm. or masc. gene. a vine leafe or grene braunche. also the bristles of the fyshe Polipus.

Pan, panis, called the god of shepeherdes.

Pánaces, cis, n. g. and Panácia, æ, fœ. ge. idem quod Panax.

Panætius, a stoike philosopher.

Panætolium, an hyll of Aetolia, also the whole counsaile of the countrete of Aetolia.

Panætolicus, a, um, of the counsayl of Aetolia.

Panagios, totus sanctus.

Pánagron, gri, n. gen. a great swepe nette that taketh all maner of fyshe.

Panaretus, that conteineth all vertues.

Panaritium, a disease that often breedeth in mens fingers.

Panária ebrietas, Cœlius writeth, that he hath redde for Arrogantia & licentia.

Panariolum, li, n. g. a basket or panyer, wherin breadde is caried.

Panárium, ii, neu g. a pantrie where breadde is kept. also an hutche wherin breadde is kept, or a basket to carie breadde.

Panathenaicum, a hynde of oyntmentes.

Panathenea, were among the Athenienses, certayne solemne ceremonies, wherof some were great, and kept euery fyfth yeere, some were lesse, and they were yerely celebrate. They were sometyme called Athenæa.

Panax, pánacis, fœ. gen. an herbe, which hath a leafe like to a fygge tree. It hath also a longe stalke, mosy, and on the top a knappe, wherin are swete seedes with a sharpe sent. It hath an yelowe floure, and groweth in dyuers partes of Grecia.

Pancarpiæ, garlandes made of diuers floures, or of all floures that may bee founde.

Pancarpos, chamælion niger.

Panchæi, people in the deserte of Lybia, which eate serpentes.

Panchaia, a region in Arabie, called also Sabæa.

Pancheus, and Panchaicus, a, um, of Panchaia.

Panchrestum, i, neu. ge. a medicine good for all maner diseases, a salue for euery sore.

Panchros, chri, m. ge. a precious stone hauyng almoste all colours.

Pancratiástes, tis, m. g. a man experte and excellent in dooyng of all thynges of actiuitee. Also he that is counnyng in the bynde of wrastlynge, called Pancratium.

Pancratice, myghtyly, stronge ly.

Pancratice valere, to bee in good helth & lusty.

Pancrátium, ii, neu. gen. exercise in all feates, as wrastlyng, rennynge, leapyng, castynge of the barre, and other lyke exercises of strength. it is proprely a kynd of wrastlyng, wherin one doeth his endeuour by all meanes bothe with hande and foote, to caste the other.

Pancratium, is sometyme taken for riotte.

Pancreum, is betweene flesche and kernell lynge betweene the stomake and the lyuer.

Panda, a citee in India, where the great Alexander buylded the tuyrde citee of his name, the vttermoste ende of his iourneie. also in the same place were aultars builded by Bacchus, and after by Hercules, than by the queene Semiramis, last by Cyrus.

Pandana porta, a gate of the citee of Rome, whiche was fyrst opened, and laste shutte, for all thinges to be brought into the citee.

Pandátio, ônis, fœm. gene. a bowyng or crookyng.

Pandatória, an yle in the sea Tyrrhenum.

Pandectæ, arum, f. ge. plur. compzehendyng all thynges. It is also the volume of the law ciuile, called the Digestes.

Pandiculátio, ônis, fœ. g. a gaulpyng and stretchynge ones selfe.

Pandiculor, áris, ári, to gape and stretche one selfe, as they doo that come from slepe.

Pándion, onis, the sonne of Erictheus, kynge of Athens.

Pandiónia, the countrete of Athens.

Pandionius, a, um, one of the cuntrey of Athens.

Pando, pándidi, ere, passum, to open, to sette abrode.

Viam pandere, to open the waie.

Pando, aui, are, to boowe downe, as one doeth vnder a burdeyn.

Pandocheus, chei, mas. gene. an Inholder, an hostler.

Pandochium, ii, n. g. an Inne or commune lodgeyng, an hostrye.

Pandocrator, tôris, omnipotent, almightie.

Pandosía, a citee in Italy, an other in Epire.

Pandóra, the mother of Deucalion, vnto whom sundry goddis gaue sundrye gyftes. Pallas gaue hir wisedome, Venus beautee, Apollo musike, Mercurius eloquence. And therefore she was called Pandora, whiche signifieth hauynge all gyftes. Hesiodus the poete writeth, that Jupiter sent hir into the worlde to deceyue mankynde.

Pandosius, a pole in Arcadie.

Pandus, a, um, crooked, boowed.

Panegyricus, a, um, that praiseth, that contemneth prayse and commendacion.

Panégiris, ris, fœ. gene. a commune assemble of people, bee it a fayre, marte, or markette, byd feaste or sessions. also a place wher those assembles be.

Panegyrica oratio, & panegyricum carmen, That whiche was recited in prose or verse, at suche an assemble to the praise of any person.

Páneros, ri, m. g. a precious stone.

Paneus, a towne and a ryuer of Colchis.

Pangæus, an elbowe of Thrace.

Pango, pépigi, & panxi, ere, to sette, to plant, to ioyne one thynge to an other, to fasten, to dryue in, to wryte, to syng, to tell, to make.

Pangere clauum, to dryue in a nayle.

Pangere ósculum, to kysse.

Inducias pangere, to make truce.

Pangere versus, to write verses.

Pangere pacem, to make peace.

Pangere societatem, to make alyaunce.

Panhormus, idem quod Panormes.

Panicula, æ, f. ge. that whiche doth hang downe of some herbes or trees, longe and rounde, as on great ches, also on peache trees & pine apple trees, rosiers, and reedes. also any thynge that groweth out rounde and long, may bee called Panicula.

Pánicum, ci, n. ge. a sodeine feare, whereby men bee distraught, or out of their wittes.

Pánicum, i, n. ge. a grayne, which groweth lyke myll, and hath at the least tenne thawes, the stalke small with a redde pendant ful of corne, some purple, some redde, some black or white. The Italyans doo call it Melica, in Englishe Panike.

Panis, is, m. g. breadde.

Panis, is sometyme vsed for Panus, loke there.

Panis distrinus, grated breade.

Panis porcinus, an herbe, called also Cyclaminus, Rapum terræ, Vmbelicus terræ, & Artamita.

Torta panis, a crahnell or simnell.

Primarius panis, whyte breadde.

Panis nauticus, bysket.

Panis secundarius, raunged breadde, or cheate breadde, or cribble breadde.

Panis, is sometyme vsed for victayle, or corne.

Pánifex, nificis, m. g. a baker.

Panificium, ii, n. g. the crafte of bakyng.

Paniscus, a god of the woodde.

Panneus, a, um, of woullen.

Pannicula, looke Panicula.

Panniculária, orum, n. g. thinges of small value that one bryngeth with hym that is committed to prison, or put to death, passyng not the value of fiue crounes, as his rayement, and that he beareth about hym.

Panniculárius, a draper that selleth clothe.

Panniculus, li, m. g. a peece of clothe, a clowte, a ragge.

Pannonia, the countrete nowe called Hungaria, whiche toke that name of an other Hungaria nowe called Iulia, a countrete in the noythe

parte

parte of the worlde, not farre from the ryuer Tanais, and is tributarye to the Moscouites. The bounders of hungary are now much larger than they were of olde tyme, and hath on the west Ostriche & Beame: On the south the parte of Slauony, that lyeth on the sea adriaticum: on the east Seruia, on the north Polonia and Moscouia. The countrey is ryght fertile of grayne, and ryche of golde and syluer: And as the inhabitauntes doo reporte, there is a ryuer, wherin yf yron be oftentymes dieped, it will be tourned into copper. this noble realme is now destroiedd and vnder the captiuitee of the Turkes, which is sore to be feared all christendome shall repente. For it was sometyme reputed the puissaunt bulwarke of all christian realmes agaynste the intollerable violence of Saracyns and Turkes.

Pannonia superior, the countreis called Austria and Stiria in this countrey standeth Vienna.

Pannonia inferior, hath on the north Dunaw and Germany, on the west Pannonia superiorem: on the south Illyria, on the east Lazygas: this countrey is almoste wholly vnder the Hungarres.

Pannones, Hungarians called also Pæones.

Pannosus, sa, sum, that weareth poore apparaile.

Panadelium, lei, n. g. an handekercher.

Pannuntius, a, um, idem quod pannosus.

Pannus, ni, m g. clothe.

Panolethria, thriæ, f. g. vtter destruction.

Panomphæus, a, um, a name of Jupiter, signifiynge that he heareth all mens voices, or because he is worshipped of all men.

Panope, a citee of Phocis.

Panope, and Panopæa, a nymph of the sea.

Panoplia, æ, f g. all armour belongyng to a man of armes, cumplete harnes.

Panormita, Panormitanus, and Panormius, one of Panormus.

Panormus, & Panormum, a citee of Sicile nowe called in Italian Palermo.

Panſa, æ, com ge. one that hath a broade foote, or that is splaie footed.

Panſebaſton, a precious stone, whiche taketh away barennes, called also Panerros.

Panſelenos, the full moone.

Panaces, a ryuer in Samos.

Pancratiaſta, æ, maſ. ge. he that fyghteth with handes and feete, he that exerciseth all feates and games.

Panagius, a ryuer in Sicile.

Panarius, a poole of Puell in Italy.

Panathlus, he that contendeth in all maner of games.

Panthea, the wyfe of Abradata, a Persiane.

Pantheon, a temple of all the goddis.

Panther, theris, m. g. and Panthera, æ, f. g. a beaſt, hauyng on his shynne litell round spottes, some blewe, and some white. It is saied, that herdes of cattall doo meruaillously delyte in the sweete sauour that cometh from theym, and in beholdyng of theim. And therefore seinge by the sweete ayre, where they haue their resorte, thyther wyll all beastes come, fearyng nothynge but their fierce lookes, and therfore the panthers hydynge their heades, doo sucker the rest of their bodies to be loked on, that they may the more easilye take their praie of the cattalle beyng dismaied. The people of Hircania doth more often kyll theym with a poison called Aconitum, than with weapon. But the Panthers seinge theim selues poysoned, doo seke for the dunge of a man, whiche if they fynde and eate, they bee sodainly delyuered. They bee so lyuely, that they lyue a great while after their bowelles be cleane out of their bodies. It is written, that the Panther wyll not touche hym, that is washed with the brothe, wherin a cocke is boyled. In the weste parte of Ethiope, towarde the sea, is a people called Agriophagi, whose synge hath but one eie in his forehead, which lyue only eatynge the flesh of Panthers and lyons.

Pantherinus, a, um, of a panther, or spotted lyke a panther, of diuers colours.

Panthérium, i, n. g. a nette, wherwith all maner of foules are taken: whiche nette is pitched on the grounde a great length, and couered with strawe or chaffe, that the birdes see it not, and sodenly by a corde cast vp, taketh al that is within the compasse.

Panthesilea, a queene of Amazones.

Panthoides, the name of Pythagoras, whiche saied, that he was onces the sonne of Panthous the Troiane.

Panthous, or Panthus, a Troiane, the brother of Hecuba.

Panticapes, a ryuer of Scythia.

Panticapeum, a towne not farre from the same place.

Pantices, a great beesy. also the flure.

Pantócrator, óris, m. g. almyghtye, vanquysshyng all thynges.

Pantolabus, a flaue, that taketh all thynges.

Pantomatrium, a towne by the sea syde in Candy.

Pantomimus, mi, m. g. a dissarde, that can feigne and counterfaite euery mans gestures.

Pantropes, a ryuer of Scythia.

Panúrgia, æ, f. g. subtilitee, craftynes, gyle, deceite.

Panurgus, gi, maſ. ge. he that is practised in all thynges, a crafty and deceitfull felowe, a wyly person, an olde beaten fox. also a rounde thing growyng out of a tree lyke a mushrom.

Panus, ni, m g. a kernell in the flare or grayne of a man, or behynde the eare. It is also a weauers rolle, wheron the webbe of cloth is rolled or wrounden.

Papæ, an interiection of wondrynge, wyll you see a wonderfull thyng.

Papæ, in the tunge of Scythia signifieth Jupiter.

Papare, to calle dad as a childe dooth.
Papas, a father, as children doo call dad.
Papâuer, páueris, n. g. and sometyme, m. g. an herbe called popie, or thistaboul.
Papaueris lachrimæ, that which they now call Opium, looke there.
Papauer erraticum, red ozne rose, or wilde popie.
Papâuer corniculatum, hozned popie, or yes lowe popie.
Papauer satiuum, garden popie.
Papauerâlida, wilde popie.
Papauerâtus, a, um, like popy.
Papauerata vestis, a garment not pure white but of the colour of popy.
Papauéreus, a, um, of popie.
Paphages, a kyng of Ambrosia.
Paphlago, paphlagonis, one of Paphlagonia.
Paphius, a, um, of Paphos.
Paphlagonia, a countrein in the lesse Asia, topsgnynge to Galatia, where dwelled the people called Uenedi, of whom came the Uenecians. It is bounded on the east with the ryuer called Halis, rennyng out of the south betwene Syria and Paphlagonia.
Paphos, a citee in the Ilande of Cyprus, whiche was dedicate to Uenus, wherof she was called Paphia.
Paphus, he that builded the citee Paphon.
Papia, a citee in Lumbardy, called Pauie.
Papilio, ónis, m. g. a butterflye. also a tente or pauilion.
Papilla, æ, f. g. a littell wheale or pusshe in the shynne of a man. also a cocke in the cundite, wherout water cometh. Wozeouer the nipple or teate of a womans breaste. sometyme it is taken for the breast.
Papinianus, a famous lawyer in the tyme of Severus the emperour.
Papinius, a poete of Naples.
Pappa, æ, f. g. pappe made with mylke and flower.
Pappo, aui, are, to eate, to call one father or dad wantonly.
Pappus, a philosophier of Alexandria.
Pappus, i, m. g. a grandsyre or grandfather. It is also an herbe called groundeswell. also the floure of thistles, whiche like fethers doeth flee awaie with the wynde. sometyme the mosinesse of certaine herbes.
Pápula, æ, f. g. a whelke or pusshe.
Papyrifer, rifera, um, that beareth the russhe called Papyrus.
Papyraceus, a, um, of paper, or of the saide russh.
Papyrius, the surname of a noble man.
Papyropóla, læ, m. g. idem quod charturarius.
Papyrus, ri, fœ. g. seu Papyrum, i, n. g. a great russhe that groweth in the fennes and marise groundes in Aegypte and Syria, ten cubites in heighte, wherof the fyrste paper was made, whereó men dyd wryte, Now Papyrus is called paper, wherin men doo wrie to write of yron bookes.
Par, aris, n. g. a payre, a couple.
Par, aris, om. g. like, equall, mete, euen, made nable, conuenient. Par est, it is like. also it is mete or conuenient. Par ætate, of one age.
Paribus animis, of like affection, with like good will or courage.
Par ingenium nactus, he hath founde one of his owne faction, or like to him selfe.
Par sapientia ad formam, as wyse as he is faire or talle.
Par precium tanti laboris, the recompens or rewarde was such as was equiualle to so great a labour.
Par idem, all one.
Pares esse nostro exercitui non potuerunt, they mought not be so stronge as our hoste, they were not able to resist our arme.
Pares, matches, two, the one like the other.
Par magis fuerat, it had ben more mete.
Vt par erat, as reason was, as it was conuenyente.
Pares cantare, like counnynge in musicke or syngyng.
Sũtque pares in amore, they loue one an other equally, or like hertily.
Pares cum paribus, matches togyther.
Parem esse, to bee able to resiste, sustene, suffeare, or abyde a thyng.
Par laboribus corpus, a body able to suffryne and awaie with labours and trauailes.
Male merenti par erit, to hym that doeth yll, he will render yll agayne.
Vide in scribendo vt par mihi sis, See that you write as much or as often to me, as I doo to you.
Paria facere, to make amendes, to requite, to doo one thynge for an other. also to make a like helpe matche, to serue one as well agayne
Par impar, a game vsed of children ple, called even or odde.
Parem vbi referam gratiam, wherin I may requite hym, or shewe hym like pleasure.
Par pari datum, one for an other.
Par pari respondere, to aunswere the same wooydes, to say as much as the other saied.
Parissimus, the superlatyue, vsed sometyme of Plautus.
Para, a greke prepositiõ vsed sometyme for Apud, sometyme for Præter.
Para, looke Parra.
Parabates, a transgressour.
Parabasis, sis, f. g. preuaricacion, transgression.
Parabilis, le, that maie ber soone gotten, or will be soone redie.
Victus parabilis, meate that maye be soone gotten.
Parabola, læ, f. g. a comparison or resemblance, a parable.
Parabolani, certaine ministers, which might not ner departe from the thynge that they had charge of.

Paraclesis, sis, f. g. an exhortatiõ, a consolation.

Parachlamys, a garmente, that both souldiers, and also children vsed in olde tyme to weare.

Paracletus, i, m. g. an exhorter, a comforter or aduocate.

Paráclytus, ti, m. g. a man infamed, yll reported of, one that hath an yll name.

Paracentésis, a harde and perilous warishyng or curyng of a wounde by lowyng and pryckynge of it.

Paracentésis, sis, f. g. a cure dooen with the Surgians owne hande. or whan the bealye of one that hath the dropsie, hath an hole made in it, to leat out the water.

Paracentérium, rij, n. g. the instrumente, wherwith that cure is dooen.

Paracnémium, mij, n. g. the vttermoste bone in the shanke of the legge, called also Parastatum.

Paracope, pes, f. g. the alienation of the mynde.

Paradacri, an herbe called also bunium.

Paradélos, the great daisy with the knoppe in the myddes. It is of the apothecaries called Consolida media.

Paradiastole, a dilatynge of a matter by an interpretation, or a figure, whan thynges that be like are severed by opposition of the contraries.

Paradigma, digmatis, n. g. an example.

Paradisus, i, m. g. or after some, f. g. Paradise. it signifieth a gardein.

Paradisus, a towne in Syria.

Paradoxum, i, n. g. a sentence contrary to the opinion of the more parte.

Paradóxus, a, um, a thynge meruailous strange contrary to the moste commune opinion.

Parádromis, midis, f. g. an open galerye, herbour, or walke.

Paraénesis, sis, f. g. a precept conteinyng an exhortation or admonition.

Paraenéticus, a, um, conteinyng such precepte or instruction.

Parasitaceni, people in the vttermoste borders of Media.

Paretonius, a great hauen of Syrenaica. also a towne of the same name.

Paragaudes, or Paragaudæ, a certayne kynde of shyrtes, petticotes, or lynnen vesture, that they vsed in olde tyme, vnder their other garment.

Paragõge, ges, f. g. a figure, whã a letter or syllable is added to a woorde, as Dicier, for Dici.

Paragogia, the place, through the whiche water renneth.

Paragraphe, es, f. g. a thynge written before a sentence, an annotation in the margent.

Paragraphus, a paragrafe.

Paralia, a kynde of pitche

Paralipómenon, lefte out, vnspoken, or vnwritten, whiche ought to haue ben spoken or written.

Parallion, an herbe called also Esula.

Parálius, a kynde of spurge.

Parallèli, lynes in the sphere of the worlde equally distant, whereby the soonne passyng, causeth variacion in the houres of the daie.

Parallélus, li, m. g. equally distaunt.

Paralus, his name that first inuented galyes.

Paralysis, sis, f. g. a sykenesse called the palsey, wherin either all the bodye or one membre, or many membres be mortified, and be depriued of feilyng and mouyng. It happeneth either of an ipostume, stoppyng the rootes of the synewes, that they beynge depriued of the spirites animall, whiche serueth for theim, become lothe: or elles of the fleumatike humor, grosse and vndigested, which stoppeth the same places some tyme of a stroke or fal, whereby the iointes of the backe bone are louse, and the sinewes, which come from the nethe or nape of the head, are stopped. Otherwyse the sinewes and the rootes of theym hurte with a bruise, inducth the palsey, especially in an olde man.

Herba paralysis, the litell white daysye with redde toppes.

Paralysis interdum cicuta, interdum Delphinium.

Paralýticus, a, um, that is taken with the palsey.

Parangariæ, looke Angaria.

Paranites, a certayne precious stone.

Paranymphus, i, m. g. he that is the mediator in matrimonye betweene the man and the woman. She that is on the womans parte, is called Pronuba.

Parapechium, chij, n. g. a lyghte cloke, also one of the bones in the arme, called also radius.

Paraphérna, órum, n. g. plur. al thynges that the woman bringeth to her husbande besydes hyr dower, called also in latine Peculium.

Paráphrasis, sis, fœ g. an imitacion of woordes, settynge out the sence or meanyng of the author more playnely and largely.

Paraphrastes, æ. m g he that dooeth not translate woorde by woorde, but expresseth the sentence of the authour more openly.

Paraphrosyne, a kynde of phrenesie or madnesse.

Paraporamia, a countrey nere to Tygris.

Pararium æs, was double wages gyuen to horsemen for haueng two horses.

Pararius, ij, m. g. a broker.

Parasanga, æ, f. g. a myle in Persia, conteinyng fiftye furlonges. Herodotus saieth xxx.

Parascéue, es, fœ. g. a preparation. Also good frydaie.

Parasiopêsis, sis, fœ. gen. a figure in speakynge, whan we feigne that we will not speake, and yet couertly it is declared what we doo meane.

Parasita, æ, f. g. the feminine of Parasitus.

Parasitus, i, m. g. an haunter of other mennes tables vncalled for. Also he that to fylle his bealy with meate and drynke, speaketh alway to the appes

appetite of hym, with home he dyneth or supperth, a paraſite, a bealy friende, a flatterer.

Paraſitor, âris, ari, to holde vp an other mans tale, for a dyner or ſupper, to play the paraſite.

Paraſitaſter, tri, m. g. he that counterfaiteth hym that is called Paraſitus.

Paraſtades, ſtones whiche dooe ſuſteine bothe the ſydes of a doze called the iambes.

Paraſtaſis, ſ. g. aſſiſtence, profe by witnes.

Paraſtatæ, certaine ſtones ſette to or about a pilar, by iphenes of whiche one of the bones in the ſhanke is named Paraſtata. the cundites alſo, by whiche the ſede paſſeth from the kidneis of a man in generation, be called Paraſtatæ. alſo certaine vnder officers in the winge of a bats taple bee ſo called.

Paratheſis, appoſition.

Paratich, the ſame of thynges entitled.

Paratilmos, a kynde of punyſhment vſed to pore men taken in aduoutry. Ea pœna erat euulſio pilorum e naribus, & pudendis.

Paratè, promptely, redyly.

Paratragœdio, aui, are, to bragge or crake, to ſpeake great or high wooꝛdes

Parâtum, i, n. g. prouiſion, a thynge made ready.

Parâtus, a, um, ready, made ready.

Vir in quouis loco paratus, a man ready at al aſſaies, or readye to dooe what ſo euer a man woulde haue hym.

Paratus & promptus.

Paratus ad omnem aduentum, ready to abyde what chance ſo euer wyll fall.

Paratus ad omnia, ready to doe any maner of thynge.

Ab omni re ſumus paratiores, we bee more in a readyneſſe with all thynges.

Ab exercitu paratus, in a redineſſe as touching our armie.

Animis opibuſque paratus, Paratus omnia perpeti.

Animus paratus bello.

Parâtus, us, m. g. prouiſion, preparation. ſometyme apparayle

Principalis paratus, princely either prouiſion or apparaill.

Parazónium, ñ, n. g. a kynde of ſwooꝛdes, a hanger, a woodknife.

Parcæ, ladies of deſtenie. alſo it ſignifieth the ſelfe deſtenie or diſpoſition in prolongynge or ſhortnyng of ipſe. The names of the ladies be Clothos, Lacheſis, Atropos.

Parcè, ſcarcely, nygardely, nyghely, fayre and ſoftely, ſparyngly, ſaufngly.

Parcè ac duriter viuere, to lyue ſaufngly and hardely

Parcè parcus, a verale nygard.

Parcè vti verbis, to ſpeake fewe wooꝛdes.

Parco, peperci, and parſi, cere, to ſpare, to forgeue or pardon, to let or prohibite, to leaue, for bears or abſteine, to ſhewe fauour.

Parcere precio, to ſpare coſt.

Sumptui ne parcas, ſpare for no coſte.

Parcere valetudini, to take hede to thyne helth.

Parcere voci, not to ſpeake loude.

Parcitur, imperſonale.

Neque parcetur labori, they wyll ſtriche for no labour. Parcere metu, to put awaie feare.

Parcere gladio, to abſteine from murther.

Parce metu, be not ſo muche afrayde.

Aliquantulum tibi parce, ſpare or fauoure your ſelfe ſomewhat.

Lamentis parcere, to leaue weping or wailing.

Parcite oues nimium procedere, Let not the ſheepe go to farre, or kepe in the ſhepe that they go not to farre.

Parcite credere, doe you not beleue hym.

Nihil promittere parcum, they ſpare for no promeſſe.

Vt cædibus & incendijs parceretur, That they woulde abſteine from murder and fyre.

Supplicibus parcere, to ſhewe fauour to them that make humble interceſſion.

Parcere and perdere, contrary.

Parcere & Spoliare, contrary.

Auxilio alicuius parcere, not to vſe ones help.

Parcitas, âtis, f. g. frugalitee or moderation in ſpuyng, ſparyng, ſaufng.

Parcitas animaduerſionum, ſeldome puniſhment or chaſtiſyng.

Parcus, i, m. g. a nygarde, an heyne.

Parcus, a, um, nygh or nygarde, ſcarce in expences, ſparyng, ſaufnge. ſometyme it ſignifieth ſeldome.

Parcus comitatu, he that hath a ſmall trayne.

Parcus opera, an eaſy workeman, he that is more pdell than occupied.

Pœnæ parcus, he that executeth but litle puniſhment.

Parciſſimus honorum, he that paſſeth not for honour and promocion.

Parciſſimus æſtimator beneficiorum ſuorum, one that doth ipeell eſteme the benefites that he doeth a man.

Pardalianches, the venemous herbe called Aconitum. alſo a certaine kynde of poyſon.

Pardálios, ij, m. g. a precious ſtone.

Pardalium, ij, n. g. a certaine ointement, ſauoure ynge iphe a panther.

Pardalus, i, m. g. a birde of dunne colour, whiche flieth in flockes. I iudge our plouer to bee a kynde of theym

Pardus, i, m. g. a lybarde.

Pardalis, the female.

Parécbaſis, ſ. g. excurſion, or handlyng of a matter that pertayneth not to the purpoſe.

Paréctatus, i, m. g. he that is newly iſſued out of his chyldes peres, and begynneth to haue the tokens of a man.

Parectonia, the mother of Plato, the moſt noble philoſophier.

Parelcon, the mahyng longe of a wooꝛde by the addyng addyng of a syllable, or by addyng of a worde in a sentence, whiche semeth to be superfluous.

Parencephalis, the hinder parte of the braine called cerebellum.

Parens, entis, com. ge. a father, mother, or any other auncester. sometyme it is vsed for hym that taketh muche care for an others welthe, and defendeth it.

Pieri parentem, to haue a chylde borne.

Magna parens, the earthe.

Frugum parens, idem.

Parens cunctorum terra, the earth norisheth or bringeth forth all thynges.

Lyræ parens, Mercurie.

Parens, entis, om. g. of Pareo, obedient.

Parentalia, orum, n. ge. feastes made at the burying of auncestours.

Parentalis, le, of or pertaynyng to auncestours.

Parentela, æ, f. g. auncestrie.

Parenthesis, sis, or seos, f. g. a sentence comprehended within an other sentence, without any detriment therunto, beyng marked with one halfe circle at the begynnyng, and an other at the ende, in this wyse.

Nihil adeo principem decet (quod omnes quidem fatentur) quantum iustitia, prudentiæ atque liberalitati æqualiter coniuncta, nothyng so well becometh a prince (whiche all men doo confesse) as iustice equally ioygned with wysedome and bountrousnesse.

Parenticida, æ, m. gen. he that murdreth his father or mother.

Parento, aui, are, to celebrate the funeralles of auncestours or frendes, to kepe diriges.

Parentor, aris, ari, idem quod Parento.

Pareo, rui, ère, to appere, to be seene, to obey.

Eius páritum sententiæ non est, they dyd not accordyng to his sentence and iudgement.

Dicto parére, to be obedient, to do that one is commaunded.

Promissis parere, To fulfylle that one hath promysed.

Paret oppidum illud regi, that towne is vnder subiection of the kynge.

Parere cupiditatibus, to folowe his wanton appetites.

Paretur, the impersonall.

Patergum, i, n. g. some thyng added to, beeynge nothynge of the matter, as whan a peyncter dooeth make an ymage, he addeth to trees or townes.

Paterga horologiorũ, thynges made in dyalles for the ornamẽt and settyng forth of theim.

Paresis, sis for. g. weakenyng or decayeng of the strength of the bodie or minde.

Parethonium, nq, n. g. a white colour that peinters do take. it is founde in Aegypt.

Paribit, for pariet, she shall bryng forth a chyld.

Parici, iudges assigned for capitall causes, as murther or felonie that requireth death.

Paricida, æ, com. gen. he that hath slayne father or mother. also a murtherer that hath slayne any man.

Paricidális, le, belongyng to murder of parentes. also cruell.

Paricidium, ij, n. ge. murder of parentes, kynsmen or countrey men, woorkyng of mischief, and destruction of his countreie.

Paricidiosé, lyke a wycked murderer, that hath slayne his parentes.

Parienna, a towne in Germany called Frydeclz.

Páries, rietis, m. g. a wall of an house.

Parieti loquéris, thou speakest to the walle, which maie be saied of hym, which wyll not ectsones reherse that, whiche he hereth spoken.

Paries intergerinus, a wall standyng betwene two neyghbours.

Paries crattitius, a wall made hurdle wyse, with roddes or other thynges ouerthwart.

Parietária, an herbe called pellitorie of the wall.

Parietina, parietinæ, f. g. an olde wall half broken downe.

Patilia, orum, n. ge. plur. festiuall dayes, whiche the Romayues kept, for preseruacion of their cattall.

Párilis, le, equall.

Parilitas, átis, f. g. equalitee, similitude in quantitee or qualitee.

Pário, péperi, partum, & paritum párere, To bryng foorth chyldren, the lyke thynge in beastes, to whelpe, to farrowe, to hatche, to lay as an henne layeth egges, to calue, &c. sometyme to bryng foorthe generally, to geat, to purchase, to brede.

Parere sibi gratiam apud aliquem, To geat a mans fauour.

Tibi mille passus peperit moræ, he hath caused the to tarye whyles thou moughteste haue rydden or gone a myle.

Parere perfugium pedibus, to saue hym selfe by rennyng awaye.

Parere verba, to speake woordes not spoken before, to inuent newe woordes.

Terra parit fruges, The earth bryngeth forth corne.

Parere oua, in hennes to laye egges, in fyshes to breede spaume.

Parere fastidium, To make one to lothe, or to disdeigne, to breede a lothyng or lothsomnes.

Pariuntur voluptates pecunia, pleasures are purchased or procured with money.

Parere odium, to purchase hatred.

Immodica seueritas parit terrorem, Ouere muche rygour breedeth feare.

Canis peperit catulos, The bytche hath whelped.

Paretorium, a citee in Aegypte, with a great hauen.

Parion, a citee in Hellespont.

Parippi, dogges among the Atheniens as swifte as horses.

Paris, idis, the sonne of Priamus king of Troians, ans, whose history is so commonly known, that I nede not to write it.

Parrhasius (an excellent peincter) contended with Zeusis in cunnyng: Zeusis brought forth a table, wherin he had so craftily peincted grapes, that byrdes flew to theim, and picked on theim. Parrhasius brought foorth an other table, wherin was peincted onely a sheete, so finely wrought, that all men iudged it to bee a verate sheete. Than Zeusis required him to take awaie the sheete, and shewe foorthe his warke. wherat Parrhasius laughed and iested at Zeusis meeply. Than Zeusis perceyuyng it, acknowleged his errour, and granted the victorie vnto Parrhasius, saiyng, Yesterdaie I deceyued byrdes, but to day thou haste deceyued me beyng a craftes man.

Páriter, together, likewyse, equally, semblably.

Gnatum pariter his vti decuit, It was mete that my sonne shoulde haue as muche parte of these thynges as I.

Pariter cum omni animante nascitur, It is geuen euery lyuyng thynge of nature in his byrthe. or it is naturally in euery lyuyng creature.

Crescunt pariter cum Luna, they encrease together with the moone, or they encrease as the moone doeth.

Vt pariter dispertiantur bona parentis, That their fathers goodes myght bee diuided equally. Or that the one myght haue as muche of their fathers goodes as the other.

Trucidant fœminas pariter ac viros, they slea as well women as men.

Pariter patribus ac plebi gratus, acceptable as well to the senatours as to the people.

Reliquit filium pariter moratum vt pater, he lefte a sonne that had the condicions of his father, or that was in maners lyke his father.

Mecum pariter moleste ferunt Siculi, the Sicilians be displeased with it as well as I.

Parithmia, be kernels in the innermost parts of the rootes of the tungue, called also Tonsillæ.

Páritо, aui, are, to prepare often, the frequentatiue of Paro.

Paritûra, æ, f. g byrnyng forth.

Parium, a citee in Asia in the countrete of Mysia.

Parius, a, um, of the yle Parus, from whence is brought marble stone called Parium marmor.

Parius lapis, a touche stone.

Parma, a citee in Italy.

Parma, æ, fœ. g. a littell rounde targate, whiche foote men dyd vse.

Parmâtus, a, um, that weareth suche a targate or buckelar.

Parmenides, a philosophier, the disciple of Anaxagoras.

Parmenio, one of Alexanders capitaines.

Pármeno, a mans name in Terence.

Parmenses, thinhabitantes of Parma in Italy.

Parmiron, the herbe Sideritis.

Pármula, æ, fœm. g. a buckelar, a diminutiue of Parma.

Parmulárius, ij, m. ge. he that maketh a buckelar, or he that vseth a buchlar.

Parnacides, dis, fœ. ge. apparayle belongyng to maydens, a pety cote or lyght rayment belongyng to wenches.

Parnasides, the nine muses or ladies of sciences.

Parnasius, a, um, of Parnasus.

Parnasus, or Parnassus, a mountayne in Greece, haupng two toppes, vnder the whiche the. ix. muses dyd inhabite or dwell.

Parnes, nethis, m. g. or, f. g. an hyll in the countrete of Athens.

Parnopes, locustes.

Parnus, one that for a boate, whiche he had lost, sued euery body that he mette, wherof rose this prouerbe.

☞ Disceptare ob Parni scaphulam, To make great suite and busyneste for matters of small value.

Paro, aui, are, to prepare, to geat, to purchase, to procure, to bye, to apparayle, to make redy, to dresse, to araye.

Parare fortunas magnas, to geat great substaunce and richesse.

Cupio aliquos parare amicos, I wolde fayne make, geat, or purchase some frendes.

Bellum parare alicui, or Contra aliquem, to make prouision and prepare for warre againste one.

Parare prandium, To prouyde or make ready a dyner.

Parare exitium alteri, to procure or purchase ones death or destruction.

Fugam parare, to bee about to flee or renne awaye.

Parare necessitatem, to purchase frendes or acquaynt ance.

Se ad aliquid parare, to addresse, fashion, or dispose hym selfe to a thyng.

Hisce ego non paro me vt rideant, amonge suche men I doo not so order or fashion my self to make theim to laugh at me.

Itáne parasti te? Haste thou so behaued or ordered thy selfe?

Alios vim parantes occidit, Other whiche ens deuoured to defend them selues with stronge hande, he slewe.

Parare iter in Macedoniam, To prepare hym selfe to go into Macedonie.

Paro, ónis, m. g. a littell shyppe or brigantine.

Paróculi, órum, they that haue lyghe eies.

Párochus, chi, m. g. an officer that prouided for wood and salte for ambassadours. also it is nowe vsed for a priest, whiche is a curate or parysshe priest.

Parodus, a passage. De parodontibus, vide Celsium. lib. 6. ca. 13.

Paroecia, æ, f. g. a parysshe.

Paroe'mia, æ, fœ. ge. a prouerbe accommodate to the the mattier and tyme.

Paræcus, i, m. ge. a parisheoner, or one of the same parysshe.

Paromeon, a fygure, where there be dyuers verbes in a sentence almost lyke.

Paromológia, æ, f. g. a fygure in rhetorike, whā we graunt a thing to our aduersary, and afterwarde inferre a mattier of greatter weight and importaunce.

Paronomásia, æ, f. g. a fygure in speaking, where one woorde is lyke an other, but in dyuers significations.

Nam inceptio est amentium haud amantium, This is an enterpryse of mad folcs, and not of louers.

Paronýchia, æ, fœ. g. the rottennesse vnder the rootes of the naples of a man or beast. also the the herbe called Sedum maius.

Paropanísadæ, people of Asia by the hylls Paropanisus.

Paropanísus, a mountayne topgnynge to Indie, and the countrey called Bactræ. It is also the name of a great ryuer, that renneth thorough Scythia, not farre from the north ocean, and some doue name it the dead sea, or frosen sea.

Parópis, ópidis, f. g. a dysh, a porynger, a potage dysshe.

Parra, æ, f. g. an vnlucky byrde.

Paros, ou, an yle in the sea called Egeum.

Parótis, tidis, f. g. an impostume behynde the eare, whiche cometh of a mattier distilling from the head into the burres or kernelles of the eares, ingendred of an inflamation of the bodye and blouddc.

Paroxísmus, mi, m. g. the fitte of a feuer. it signifieth a pryckyng or stirryng vp.

Parrhasia, a countreye in Greece, called also Arcadia.

Parrhasius, a, um, of that countrete.

Parrhasis, idis, a wooman of Parrhasia. Calisto was so named.

Parrhasius, lyke before after Paris.

Particida, looke Paricida.

Particidium, looke Paricidium.

Pars, artis, fœ. g. a parte, a porcion, a partie or syde in contention, a faction. also charge, office, ducte.

Partes facere, to diuide in porcions.

Partes primas agere, to bee the chiefe personage properly in an enterlude.

In parte aliqua hærére apud aliquem, to be in some fauour, or to be an hanger on in one parte or other with a man.

Priores partes habere apud aliquem, to be in more credente or fauour with one, to haue the preeminence with one.

Priores partes tribuere alicui, To geue one the most praise, or prayse hym moste.

Partes alicuius agere, to doue an other mans office, or to doo that an other shulde doe, or to plaie the parte that an other shoulde or hath plaied.

Partes meæ sunt, it is myne office or charge, it is my parte.

Partes defendas tuas, defende thine owne mattier or cause.

Non sunt meæ partes id facere, It belongeth not to me to doo it, or it is not for me to doo it.

Pars bona, the more parte.

Magna ex parte, for the more parte, almost all togyther.

Ex parte, partely.

In parte, idem.

In omnes partes, wholly. also in what maner so euer it bee.

In optimam partem accipere, to take a thynge in woorth or in good parte.

Pars, for Partim, partely.

Milites pars victoriæ fiducia, pars ignominiæ dolore, ad omnem lætitiam audaciamque, processerunt, The men of warre, partely vpon trust of victory, partely for sorow of the reproche that they had taken, became at the laste to bee full of courage and merp.

Pars, is of Plautus taken for the wyfe.

Satur, de me loquitur, & de parte mea, Now that his bealy is full, he talketh of me and my wyfe.

Partes primæ, the chiefe parte.

Vtinam esset mihi pars æqua amoris tecum, would god thy loue and myne were lyke.

De parte Boriæ, from the northe.

Parte vtraque audita, both the partes beepnge hearde.

In his partibus, in theese quarters.

Parte, sometyme for Partim.

Plus media parte, more than halfe.

Mitiorem in partem interpretari, to interprete or take a thynge gentlyp.

Pro viribus parte, as muche as I can, with al my power.

Pro sua quisque parte, euery man for his part, or euery man as muche as in hym dyd lie, or euery man accordyng to his power.

Duras fratris partes prædicas, my brother is in harde case by thy saiyng.

Meæ partes non desyderabuntur, I wyll not faple to dooe myne office or dutie or the beste that I can dooe, or you shall haue no cause to fynde faute with me.

Nec in alia parte terrarum, Neyther in any other parte or coaste of the worlde.

Resina damnatur ex his partibus, The rosyne or gumme that cometh out of those partes, is not allowed.

Ab his qui Romanæ partis erant, of them that were of the Romaines parte.

Nullius philosophiæ partis ignarus, There is no parte of philosophie that he is not skilled in, or he is ignorant in no parte of philosophie.

Trahere aliquem in partes, to geat one to take parte with hym.

Parsi-

Parsimónia, æ, f. g. moderate expence, sparyng, saupng.

Sera parsimonia in fundo, It is to late to spare when the barell is at the bottome.

Sine parsimonia, largely, freely.

Parthaon, onis, father of Oeneus kynge of Aetolia.

Parthenis, the herbe Artemisia.

Parthenia, virginitee.

Parthénium, ij, n. g. an herbe, which by Dioscorides description, hath spyrell leaues lyke to Coriander, a floure with whyte leaues, and is in the myddell somewhat yelowe, haupng a great and pll sauour. also he geueth the same name to the herbe called Helxine, whiche is Perytorie of the wal. The kynde is of some apothecaries called Matricaria. Ruellius reprouyth them that suppose Parthenium to be the herbe called Cotula fœtida, whiche is rather Buphthalmos. For Cotula hath leaues lyke to fennell, and so hath Buphthalmos, and not lyke to Coriander. Some affirme, that one kinde of Parthenium is feuerfue, called Matricaria, the seconde is tansy, the thirde camompll, the fourthe Cotula fœtida, the fyfte Buphthalmos, that is to sate oxe eye, whiche is lyke to Cotula, and stinketh not: The sixte Mercurie, the seuenth Peritorie, the eyghte Motherwoorte. Some put Wormwood for one kynde. but commonly it is receiued, that parthenium is feuerfue albeit Fuchsius, and other, semeth to take it for stinkynge maydewede, or stinkynge mathes.

Parthenius, a ryuer in Pontus and Bithynia. also the name of a poete.

Parthénius, a, um, of Parthenius.

Parthenope, the olde name of the citee of Naples. Also one of the mearemaydes, whiche drowned them selues, because they couldc not allure Ulisses.

Parthenopeius, a, um, of Parthenope.

Parthenopæus, a kyng of Arcadie, the soonne of Mars and Menalippa, whiche was slayne at the siege of Troie

Parthia, a countreie in Asia, whiche hath on the south the redde sea, on the nozth, the sea called Hircanũ, on the east the people called Arij, on the west the realme called Media.

Parthi, people of that countrey.

Parthiarij, merchantes that bzyng thynges out of Parthia.

Párthicus, a, um, of the countrey of Parthia.

Parthini, people of Macedonie.

Parthissus, a ryuer on the nozthe of Germany.

Partiárius, rij, m. ge. a partynge felowe or copertener, a felow, a partner.

Párticeps, ticipis, com. g. he that taketh parte, a companion, a complice, a copartioner.

Particeps & expers, contrary.

Coniurationis particeps, one of the conspiracie.

Illi in periculis particeps, his companion in perilles and daungers.

Facere aliquem participem alicuius rei, to make one partner of a thyng.

Particeps consiliorum, he to whom one hath tolde or reuealed his counsailes or purposes.

Particeps hæreditatis deripiędæ, he that helpeth one to take a mannes inheritaunce wrongfully from hym.

Particeps vitij, vicious.

Meus particeps, my complice, my companion.

Sceleris in regem particeps.

Participo, aui, are, to geue parte, to take part, to make one partener, or of counsayle.

Participare lucrum, to bee partener of ones gaynes or winnyng.

Seruum consilio participare, to tell his mynde or counsayle to his seruaunt.

Prandio aliquem participare, to make one to dyne with hym.

Particula, æ, f. g. a porcion, a parcell.

Facere particulas, to dyuyde into smalle parcels.

Particulâris, re, particular.

Particulâtim, by parcels, by membres, particularly.

Particulónes, coheyres or copartenors, whiche haue inheritaunce togyther.

Partim, partely, in parte, sometyme parte.

Partim hominum venerunt, part of the men dyd come.

Pártio, ônis, f. g. a byrth, an olde woorde.

Pártior, îris, iri, itum, and Partio, tui, ire, To parte, to diuide.

Partitè, aduerbium, diuided in peces or parties.

Partitio, ônis, f. g. a partition or diuision.

Partitor, ôris, m. g. he that parteth or diuideth.

Partitúdo, for partus, the byrth of a chylde.

Partitus, a, um, parted, diuided.

Fœdera partita lecti, when a woman abandoneth hir selfe to other besyde hir husbande.

Partor, ôris, m. g. he that hath gotten or obteined.

Partúrio, párturis, rini, îre, to labour as women doo in trauaile of chylde, to trauaile with chylde.

Partus, a, um, gotten with labour, brought forth to the worlde, borne.

Partus, us, m. g. the birth of a chylde. sometyme the chylde selfe.

Ferre partum, to be great.

Reddere partum, to be deliuered.

Adest mulieri partus, the woman is ready to trauaple with chylde, she is nie hir tyme.

Appropinquat partus, idem.

Dare partu, id est parere.

Partus arboris etiam dicitur.

Abigere partum, to kyll the chylde in the mothers wombe, with medicines or otherwyse.

Párulis, a swellyng in the gummes.

Parui-

Paruifácio, féci, fácere, to sette lyttell by.
Paruiæſtimo, idem.
Paruiduco, idem.
Paruipendo, idem.
Paruitas, âtis, f. g. the lyttelneſſe.
Parûlis, rúlidis, fœ. gen. a puſhe or ſwellynge in any parte of the gummes.
Parum, lyttell.
Parum eſt, it is a ſmall mattier.
Parum decorum, not verate comely.
Si parum intellexiſti, If thou dyddeſt not perceyue the mattier well.
Parum diligenter aliquid facere, to doo a thyng ſomewhat negligently.
Parum diu, a lyttell whyle.
Parum fœlix, nothyng happy.
Parum conſulitis, you regarde but littell, or take but littell hede to your profite.
Parum proceſsit, it went ſhrewdly forward.
Parum eſt vt in curiam venias, &c. It is no great mattier to come into the courte. &c.
Parum benefacere, to doo amiſſe.
Parúmper, a littell whyle or tyme. alſo very littell. ſometyme quickely, ſpedyly.
Parumper operire me hic, tarye for me here a lyttell whyle.
Parus, ri, a byrde, called a titmous, wherof be three kindes, the one called Fringillago, the great titmous, or the great oxe eye: the other ſurnamed Monticola, the leſſe titmous: the thirde is called a nunne.
Páruulum, aduerbium: Páruulum differt, It is but a ſmall diuerſitee, it differeth littell or nothyng.
Páruulus, li, m. g. a littell chylde, a little babe.
Páruulus, a, um, verate littell, ſmall, preatie.
Pecunia paruula, a ſmall ſumme of monete.
Tam ob paruulam rem, for ſo ſmall a matter.
Paruula manus, a ſmall companye or bende of men.
Paruus, a, um, littell or ſmall, of littell price or value.
Parua ſunt foris arma, niſi eſt cõſilium domi, Armour is a ſmall mattier abroade, yf there be not good counſayle at home.
Parua conſuetudo, little or ſmall acquayntãce.
Hic mihi paruam habet fidem, he doeth halfe myſtruſt me, he dooeth not well beleue me.
Paruus & anguſtus locus, a ſtraicte and narowe place.
Precio paruo vendere, to ſell at a low price.
Quæ eximia videntur, parua ducere, To eſteme thynges that ſeme to other excellent, to be of lytell value.
Parui æſtimo, I paſſe littell, I care not greatly for, I littell eſteme or ſette by.
Parui pendere, to ſette littell by, not to paſſe vpon. Parui refert, it maketh no great matter.
In paruo, for Feré, almoſte.
Paruo breuius quàm, hoc eſt, feré, vel parum abeſt quin, there lacked but littell,

Parui odoris res, a thynge that hath but a weake ſauour.
Paruiſsimus, the ſuperlatiue, is vſed of Lucretius.
Paryſatis, the daughter of kyng Cyrus.
Paſcâlis, le, that feedeth here and there abrode.
Paſcalis gallina.
Paſca, cæ, f. g. or Paſcha, páſcatis, n. g. paſſyng or ſhyppyng ouer, the feaſt of Eaſter.
Paſchâlis, le, pertaynyng to Eaſter.
Paſchala, gammons of bakon.
Paſcéolus, li, m. gene. a leather bagge: or after ſome, a littell purſe or pruet within a bagge or great purſe.
Paſcito, aui, are, to fede often, to go to paſture.
Paſco, paui, paſcere, to feede, to eate, neutrally, proprely in beaſtes, to go to paſture. alſo to kepe at paſture. alſo to geue meate to an other, to nourſhe, to byrng vp, to augmente: by trãſlation, to delyte, to pleaſe.
Paſcere oculos, to contente or pleaſe the eies with the beholdyng of a thynge, to delyte the eyes. In priuato paſcere, to goe or fede in ſeuerall grounde.
Paſcere ſues, to kepe or feede ſwyne.
Paſcitur herba equus, the horſe is fedde with graſſe. Paſcere animum, to delyte the mynde.
Ego hic paſcor bibliotheca Fauſti, I am here delited, and as it were fedde and nourſſhed with Fauſtus library.
Non oluſculis nos ſoles paſcere, ye were not wont to feede vs with herbes.
Diſcordiis ciuium paſci, To bee delited with the debate and diſcorde of his countrete men.
Paſcor, páſceris, paſtus ſum, paſci, to feede as beaſtes doen. ſometyme to increace.
Paſcuum, cui, n. g. and plu. paſcua, órum, n. g. a paſture or place, where beaſtes feede.
Páſcuus, a, um, that ſerueth to fede cattell.
Paſcuus ager, a paſture, or a fielde, to feede beaſtes in.
Paſetes, a iugglers name.
Paſiphaë, es, or Paſiphaa, æ, the wyfe of Minos kynge of Crete, who hauyng companye with a bulle, brought forth the monſter called Minotaurus, whiche was halfe a man, and halfe a bulle.
Paſiphaëius, a, um, of Paſiphaë.
Paſitheles, a famous grauer borne in Greece.
Paſithea, one of the graces.
Paſithoa, a nymphe, the daughter of Oceanus and Tethys.
Paſpale, idem quod Milium.
Paſſarina, the herbe Leucoion.
Paſſer, páſſeris, m. or f. g. a ſparow. alſo a fyſhe called a playce, or after ſome a ſole.
Paſſérculus, li, m. g. a littell ſparowe.
Paſſernices, a kynde of ſtones founde in Italy.
Paſsili, a littell grayne called vatches or fitches.
Paſsim, here and there. ſometyme it ſignifieth from all places, ſometyme indifferently. alſo

ouer

ouer all. sometyme for Quomodolibet, euery man as he lysteth.
Passim & ordinatim, contrary.
Creditur ei passim, euery man beleueth hym, or he is beleued in euery place.
Passio, a passion, greeke.
Passiuus, a, um, that whiche signifieth passion, or causeth passion or grefe.
Passiui amatores, they whiche do loue all women indifferently.
Passum, si, neu. g. a wyne made of grapes muche withered in the sunne. it is also a licour made with great reasons stieped long in very good wyne vntyll they swell, and than to be bruised, and the lycour pressed out: and sometyme they put thereto some water, and than is it called Secundarium.
Passus, a, um, of pando, spred abrode, or open.
Capillus passus, his heare discheueled about his eares.
Passis manibus, with his handes open, or holdyng vp his handes, as a man dooeth in beseechynge.
Racemi passi, pressed grapes, raisons.
Passus, a, um, of patior, that hath suffred.
Vuæ passæ, grapes.
Passus, us, m. g. a pace, whiche dooeth contayne fiue feete.
Mille passus, a myle.
Pastillum, li, n. ge. a hynde of round cakes vsed in sacrifice.
Pastillus, li, m. g. a round piece of dough, or any other thyng like a loke.
Pastilli medicinales, pylles.
Pastilli odoratorij, pomaunder balles, swete washyng balles, mushe balles.
Pastillico, aui, are, to make pylles or lytle round balles, or to minister pylles.
Pastinâca, cæ, fœ. ge. an herbe called carrettes, also a fysshe.
Pastinátio, ônis, f. g. delupnge or dyggynge the grounde.
Pastinător, ôris, m. g. a deluer.
Pastinâtum, ti, n. g. a place that is delued.
Pastinâtus, us, m. g. delupng.
Pastino, aui, are, to delue in a gardeyne.
Pastinum, ni, n. g. a dybble or settyng styche.
Pastinum instituere, to delue or dygge a grou̇nd to sette or plante in.
Pastio, ônis, fœ. g. pasturyng or feedyng of cattell, or the pasture for cattell Pastomis, pastómidis, f. g. an instrument, whiche is sette on the nosethyrilles of horses, that wyll not be ruled, called barnacles.
Pastophori, certayne prestes in Aegypt, perteynyng to Isis.
Pastophórium, rij, neu. ge. the chaumbre of the serten, or hym, whiche keepeth the temple, after some the byde chambre: and therfore Venus is called Pastóphoros.
Pastor, ôris, m. ge. a shepeherde or heardeman, a pastour.
Pastorâlis, le, perteynynge to the shepherde or herde man.
Pastorea bursa, an herbe, called shepardes pouch, or shepardes skrip.
Pastórius, a, um, and Pastoritius, a, um, idem.
Pastoritiam vitam agere, to be a shepeherde, to leade a shepeherdes lyfe.
Pastus, a, um, that hath eaten, fedde, nourished. also that hath ben eaten.
Pastus, us, m. g. meate, feedyng, pasturyng or feedyng of beastes.
Homines, quibus in pastu est, men whiche eate it.
Patabelcon, the herbe Leontopetalon.
Patagiata, idem quod Patagium.
Patagium, gij, neu. g. a cloke of clothe of golde, vsed to bee worne on ryche garmentes.
Patagiati, they whiche doo weare riche clokes.
Patagiárij, the crafters men that make such clokes.
Patara, a citee in the countree of Lycia, where Apollo was chiefly honoured.
Patauium, a citee in Italy called Padua, neyghe vnto Uenice. also a citee in Bulgaria, called nowe Polmen.
Patauini, men of the citee of Paue.
Patauinitas, the propretee of the language of them that dwell at Paue.
Patefácio, téfacis, féci, fácere, to make open, to declare, to disclose, to discouer, to reuele.
Patefacere fenestram, viam, aditum, iter, ianuam. &c. to open a wate, to make a gappe or wyndow, to geue an occasion of any thyng.
Patefacere viam hostibus, to lete theyr enmies haue passage.
Patefacere aures assentatoribus, to geue eare to flatterers.
Patefacere odium suum in aliquem, to shewe and vtter his malice and hatred against one.
Patefaciendum mihi esse arbitror, I thynke that I muste declare or reuele.
Patefáctio, ônis, f. g. an openyng, a declaryng, a reuelyng.
Patefáctus, a, um, opened, declared, reuealed, made manifest.
Patefio, fieri, to bee disclosed or discouered, to bee opened.
Patella, læ, fœm. ge. a lyttell panne or a skyllet, or rather a potynger or dysshe, as it appeareth by Varrius, and the places that he reciteth. It is also a kaule in trees, that cometh of burnyng of the sunne, called also Clauus, and Fungus. it is also a littell vessell vsed in sacrifice.
Dignum patella operculum, lyke maister lyke man: shrewes are well matched.
Patellarius, a, um, belongyng to a potynger.
Patena, lyke Patina.
Pateo, tui, têre, to be open, to be manyfest, apparant, or euident, to be discouered, to be easy to come to, to be in daungier, or subiect to daungier.

Pate

Patet locus tria ſtadia, the place is foure furlonges in breadthe or lengthe.

Patent omnibus ad viſendum, euery man maie ſee theim.

Acutis morbis adoleſcentia magis patet, youthe is more ſubiecte to ſharpe or daungerous ſyckenelles.

Poſtulo, vt tua domus mihi pateat ſemper, I require that your houſe maie bee open for me at all tymes.

Huc tibi aditus patere non poteſt, you can not haue entraunce hither, and by tranſlacion you can not attayne to the vnderſtandyng of theſe thynges.

Patere & obſtrui, contrary.

Patere & in promptu eſſe.

Patent aures tuæ quærelis omnium, ye are ready to here euery mans complaynt.

Vt mihi tui libri pateant, that I mai come vnto your bookes, or haue acceſſe into your library.

His honoribus excludi, quæ ſeruis pateant, to be kept from thoſe promotions and dignitees, that be often geuen to ſeruauntes.

Late patet, it ſerueth for many thynges, or it maie be vſed in many thynges.

Fugæ non patebat locus, they coulde not flee any waies, or they had no place to eſcape.

Omnia mea tibi patent, id eſt, ſunt in tua poteſtate, All that I haue is in your handes, or at your cõmaundemẽt, to vſe as ye wyll your ſelfe.

Mille paſſuum in longitudine patere, to be a myle longe.

Patent præſtigiæ, your diſceptes or wyles bee diſcloſed and euident.

Patens, entis, om. g. open, in daunger.

Patens vulneri, in daunger to be hurte.

Campi patentes, open fieldes.

Longe lateq; patens locus, a place both long and wyde, a large place.

Patentiſſimi oris dolium, a tunne with a verie brode mouthe.

Patens vulneri equus, an horſe that is in danger to be wounded.

Patentiore via, by a more open waie.

Patenter, openly, playnely, largely.

Pater, tris, m. gene. a father or auncеſtour. Vnder this name is conteyned Auus, abauus, proauus, & atauus.

Patres, in poetes is ſomtyme taken for the ſtates or great men of a cite.

Pater patratus, was he, to whom it pertayned, whan truce ſhoulde be taken, to receyue the othes and appointement of bothe parties, and was therin chiefe and principall ambaſſadour.

Pater patrimus, he that is a father, and hath his father lyuyng.

Gradiuus pater, Mars.

Patres conſcripti, the ſenatours.

Patres allecti, ſenatours for neceſſitee, choſen out of the order of gentylmen.

Pátera, æ, fœm. gene. a brode piece or bolle of golde or ſyluer.

Paterfamilias, as, or æ, in genit. the good man of the houſe.

Paternus, a, um, pertaynyng to a father.

Paterniana, a towne of Spayne, called commonly Paſtrina.

Pateſco, ſcere, to be open alſo to be opened.

Pathos, trouble or vexation of mynde, affliction, paſſion.

Pathética oratio, an oration, mouyng the hearer to indignacion or pitee.

Patibilis, le, that maie be ſuffered.

Patibulus, li, of ſome olde writers was vſed for a bedde.

Patibulum, li, n. gen. a wodden locke of a dore, or a barre, wherewith the dore is made faſt. alſo a place of tourment, a gybbet, galowes, or croſſe. alſo a certayne inſtrument that they vſed in gatherynge grapes.

Patiens, entis, that can ſuffre, abyde, or endure.

Patiens laboris, that can abyde trauayle and paines. Nulli patiẽtius reprehenduntur, quàm qui. &c. None ſuffre more patiently to bee rebuked or told their faut, than they whiche. &c.

Patiens nauium Tyberis, Tyber may beare ſhyppes.

Patiens operum, he that can indure to labour.

Patiens vetuſtatis, that whiche endureth long.

Patienter, patiently, meaſurably, moderately.

Patienter amare, to loue moderately, and with meaſure.

Patiẽntia, æ, fœ. g. patience, conſtancye in abydyng or indurynge aduerſitee or labour.

Patientiam præſtare, to ſuffre and let paſſe.

Rumpere patientiam, to breake patience, to breake out in an anger.

Patillum, li, n. gen. a payre of tongues or other like inſtrument, wherwith coles ar taken vp.

Pátina, næ, fœ. gen. a baſen to waſche in, a dyſhe, wherin meate is caried, a veſſell or panne, wherin they dyd bothe ſeethe meate, and bryng it to the table.

Iam dudum animus eſt in patinis, my mynde is on my dyner, and hath been a good whyle.

Patinárium, meate whiche is ſtewed vppon a chaffyng dyſhe.

Patinárius, rij, m. g. a glutton, one that deliteth to fyll the bealy, or that mynded nothyng but eatyng and drynkyng.

Patinárius, a, um, that is kepte betweene twoo dyſhes, or in a dyſhe.

Patior, páteris, pati, to ſuffre, to endure, to ſuſteyne, to abyde, to forbeare.

Pati á vita, to ſuſteyn hungre, to liue poorely.

Pati ægrè, to be yll content.

Pati æquo animo, to be well content.

Pati fortiter, to ſuffre patiently or valiantly.

Pati iniquo animo, to be angry for a thyng.

Indigne pati, to be diſcontent.

Pati facile, not to bee diſcontent, to be verye well content.

hym selfe almost lyke a pryuate person.
Paulo mox, id est, statim, by and by, a litteli whyle after, shortly after.
Paulo nimium, a littell to muche.
Paulo pecuniæ conductus, hyred with a small deale of money.
Paulominus, lyttell lasse.
Paulo prius, a littell earlyer.
Páululum, a diminutiue of Paulum, verey littel.
Paululum modo, neuer so littell.
Paululo tum erat contenta, she was then content with a verey lyttell.
Paululum abscede istoc, goe a littell aside this waie.
Paululum operirier, si vis, yf ye wyll tary neuer so lyttell.
Si paululum modo quid te fugerit, yf ye be ouerseene in any poincte, be it neuer so littell.
Páululus, a, um, lyttell, verye littell.
Homines paululi & graciles, men small in stature, and fewe in numbre.
Paulum, lyttell.
Paulum liquid, a littell whyle, a littell space.
Paulum hostium impetus tardatus est, the violence of our enmies was somewhat stopped.
Paulum cũ eius villa abessemus, whã we were but a littell waye from his ferme or manour.
Quasi vero paulum differat, as though there were but small difference.
A te paulum allatum est noui, you broughte some newes.
Paulum infra columbas magnitudine, somewhat lesse then culuers.
Post paulum, a littell whyle after.
Abesse paulum, to be a littell waie of.
Admodum paulum, and Paulum oppido, verey littell.
Paulus, a, um, littell, smalle.
Paula pecunia, a littell money.
Paulo momento, with the least thynge in the worlde.
Paulo sumptu, with littell coste.
Paulus, a name of dyuers Romaines: one was most excellent, named Paulus Aemilius, son of Lucius Paulus. He ascendyng by all dignitees vnto Consull, was capytayne of the warres in Spayne, where he fought two battailes, wherin were slayne. 30000. Spaniardes, & wonne 250. walled townes, & not withstanding returned to Rome, not one grote the richer, for he was liberall and sumptuous, & not verey ryche. Afterwarde he made warre against the Ligurians, whiche were about Jeane, where haupng with him but onely. 8000. he put to flighte, 30000. & brought them to subiection. Fynally he foughte againste and vanquisshed Perseus hynge of Macedonia, and broughte hym and his chyldren prisoners to Rome, and tryumphed in this forme. The senatours aparapled in white silke, sat in stages about the market place, to beholde the triumphe: all the temples were set open, and filled with flowers & sweet perfumes: the triumph was diuided into . iii. daies. The first daie vneth sufficed to the beholdyng of images, aswell peinted as wrought in stone & mettall, by most excellent workemen, whiche were caried in .250. chariottes: The seconde daie was brought foorth the harneys & artillary of the Macedons, and the apparayle of horse, swhich was in such sorte, that it was of a maner terrible to the vanquishers to beholde. After folowed .3000 men, whiche bare siluer copne in. 350. vessels of siluer, euery vessell beyng in weight. iii. talentes, whiche was. 240. li. after. 80 li. to euery talente, euerye vessell was borne of. iiii men. Other did beare great cupes and pottes of siluer. The thirde day the trumpettes came before blowyng bloudy sounddes. After theim came .120. oxen, their hornes gilte, and therupon were set fillettes and garlandes, & were led with ponge men, gyrte and prepared to sacrifice theim: & children bare cuppes of golde & siluer, to serue to the sacrifice. After them folowed they that bare money of golde in golden vesselles, euery of theim weighyng three talentes. also the nombre of the vesselles were. 240. Than folowed they that caried the potte, whiche Aemilius had let make all of precious stones, weighyng ten talentes, whiche was. 800. li. also they that bare all the plate of the hynges Antigonus, Seleucus, Thericus, & Perseus, which was innumerable. After came the chariot, wherin was Perseus harneis, with his diademe set therupon. Some after his two sonnes, and one daughter led, and with theym a great numbre of nouryces maisters & gouernours, weppng and holding vp theyr handes to the people. Whereof many were moued to teares, so that the triumph seemed to bee mynqled with gladnes for the victory, with heuynesse for compassion. After his children and seruantes folowed forthwith Perseus in a blacke garment, trembling and troubled in spirite: whom insued a great company of his counsailours & officers, beholdinge hym sorowfully with teares, whiche more constreigned the Romaines to weepe for pitee that they had of theyr misery. After him were borne. iiii C. crounes of golde, whiche were gyuen to Aemilius by the cities of Greece for his vertue and prowesse. Than folowed Aemilius hym selfe, sittyng in a chariot verey richely apparailed, hauing a robe of purple tinsel, and bearing in his hande a braunche of laurelle, as a man belyde that honour wooyd thy to be looked on. Than after came the men of warre, whiche had ben with him, in order of suche bẽdes and companies as belonge to battaple, euery of theym bearynge in his hande a braunche of Laurelle, and singynge verses mixte with merry tauntes: Some singynge the prayses of Aemilius, whom they beheilde, and wondered at for his excellente qualitees.

But nowe beholde, Aemilius beyng in that ease and condition, that nothyng lacked in hym that man coulde wyshe for: yet his lyfe was not without aduersitees. He haupnge fower sonnes, of the whiche he hadde geuen twoo in adoption to Scipio Affricanus, and Fabius Maximus: the other twoo he kepte at home with hym: The one of theym dyed fyue dayes before the triumphe, beyng fyfteene yeeres olde: The other beeynge twelue yeres olde, dyed the thyrde daye after the triumphe. The which cruelnes of Fortune, all men lamented, that hadde broughte so greate heapes of riches to the house replete with suche glades, reioycynge, and noble renoume, and had meddled teares, sorowes, and lamētacion with ioye, ioy, and triumph. But therfore Aemilius neuer abated his courage, but callynge the people together, made to theim a noble oracion, declarynge that he was nothyng deceyued by fortune, for as muche as whan she seemed to hym moste fauourable, he than feared hir than any thyng elles: And although she hys taken from hym good sonnes, whom he appointed to succede hym, yet sens she had shewed hir extreme malice to hym & his bloud, he had good hope nowe, that the people of Rome shulde remayne prosperouse without any perill. O noble herte, O valiant courage, worthy to bee left in remēbraunce. He brought so muche golde and syluer into the Treasorie of the Romains, that there neded no talke to be more on the people. xxx. yere after and aboue: yet he lefte in patrimonie vnneth. fyue. li. and in treasure littell or nothynge. This history I haue written for the notable thynges therin contained, with the vnsurenes of prosperitee, wherin all men are blynded, that desyre to haue it. One thyng would be remembred. Although Aemilius was a fauourer of the nobilitee, yet was he better beloued of the people, than was Scipio, who onely studied to serue their purposes. For his humanitee equally myxte with grauitee, he was brought to the earth, not with sumptuous preparation, but with loue and fauour, not only of his countrey men, but also of his enimies. For as many of Liguria, Spayn, and Macedonia, as were than at Rome, they that were yong and strong dyd beare the corps, the old men folowed, callyng hym benefactour and cōseruatour of their cities and countreies.

Paulus, the apostle of Christ, borne in Judea, in a towne called Giscalis, of the tribe of Beniamin, the towne beyng taken by the Romanes, went with his parentes to Tarsum a citee of Cilicia, and dwelled there. But afterwarde he was sent by theim to Jerusalem to learne the lawes, and was ther taugh of one Gamaliel, a great learned man. He beeyng with other at the martyrdome of S. Steuen, receyued letters of the byshop, wyllyng hym to go to Damascum, there to persecute theim that beleued in Christe. And in the wate, he was by reuelacion chaunged, from a persecuter to a vessell of election. Afterwarde whan he had conuerted Sergius Paulus (than beynge Proconsul) at Cypres) to the faythe of Christ: by hym he was called Paulus, where before he was named Saulus. Finally he suffered martyrdome by beyheadyng, after the passion of Christ. xxxvii. yeres, and the. xxii. yere of the reigne of Nero. Hec Hieronymus & Sophronius. The residue of his lyfe appereth in the actes of the apostles. His lernyng and mysticall wysedome, is well shewed in his epistles, in the whiche (as saynct Peter saieth) be some thynges harde to bee vnderstande, and that men vnlearned and inconstaunt doo depraue, lyke as they doo the other partes of scripture, to theyr owne perdicion.

Paulus Samosatenus, an horrible heretike, byshop of Antioche, a man of exceedyng pride and intollerable vanitee, about the yere of our lord 267. His hereshy was, that Christ beganne of our lady, and toke his fyrst beeynnyng of the earth, and was a man onely of our commune nature: Whiche hereshy was condemned by a generall counsayle holden at Antioche, & Paulus excommunicate by all the counsayle, and an other byshop put in his place. And he by the cōmaundement of the emperour Aurelianus was of the people pulled out of the churche.

Pauo, ōnis, & Paus, ui. m. g. a pecocke.

Pauoniceus, a, um, of or belongyng to a pecocke.

Pauor, ōris, m. g. extreme feare.

Pauor cæpit me, I was sore afeard.

Incutere pauorem, to make afeard.

Lenire pauorem, to asswage ones feare.

Pauper, pauperis, com. g. or after some om. g. a poore man, poore.

Argenti & auri pauper, he that hath litle money.

Pauper eloquentia, pro inopi & ieiuna.

Paupértes, ei, & Paupertas, ātis, fœm. gener. pouertee.

Duram pauperiem pati, To suffer greate pouertee.

Leuare paupertatem alicuius, to ease or helpe one that is in pouertee.

Pauper, ra, rum, poore, is redde in Plautus.

Paupérculus, a, um, verie poore.

Páupero, aui, are, to make poore, an old woord.

Paupertinus, a, um, poore.

Pausa, æ, fœm. gener. a pause, lesure, a reste, a stoppe.

Ego pausam feci, I made a pause, I stopped.

Frigida pausa vitæ, death.

Pausanias, the generall capitayne of the Lacedemonians in the great battaile agaynst Perses, and yet afterwarde he was condemned of treason.

Pausárius, rij, m. g. one that geueth a signe whan we shuld pause or cesse in doing a thyng.

Pausia, or Pausea, æ, f. ge. a kynde of olyues that yeld no oyle, except they be knocked or beaten.
Pausiacus, a, um, of Pausias.
Pausias, a noble peincter.
Pauso, aui, are, to pause, to reste.
Pauxillátim, by littell and littell.
Pauxillulus, a, um, a diminutiue of Pauxillus, very littell.
Pauxillum, an aduerbe, veraie lyttell.
Pauxillus, a, um, a diminutiue of Paulus, veraie lyttell.
Pax, acis, fœm. g. peace, a quiete libertee. sometyme for league. also pardon, forgeueneſſe.
Dum in faciem pacis veniretur, so that they would come in peasible wise.
Explorata pax, certayne and sure peace.
Propterea pace aduenio, therefore I come to you in peasible wyse.
Agere aliquid cum pace, to doo a thyng peasybly and quietely.
Componere & consiliare pacem inter aliquos, To set men at one, to reconcile men that be at variaunce.
Agere pacem siue de pace, to intreate of peace.
Dimittere cum pace aliquem, to leat one depart peasibly.
Excutere pacem orbi, to set all the worlde on tumultee and warre.
Eripere pacem alicui, to constreigne one to make warre.
Aeternam pacem exercere, To lyue alwayes in peace.
In spem pacis venire, to conceyue an hope to haue peace.
Pacem & veniam petere à deo, to desyre pardon and forgeueneſſe of god.
Pace tua, and pace tua dixerim, with your fauour, saupng your displeasure, with your leaue.
Pax, te tribus verbis volo, God speede, I would speake two or thre wordes with you.
Pax sit rebus, make no stirryng or busineſſe.
Pax sequestra, a truce betwene two hostes.
Pax, aduerbialiter, signifieth Tantummodo, as Vnus est dies, dum argentum eripio, pax nihil amplius, I require but one daie to geat the money from the olde man, than no more.
Paces, is vsed of Plautus and Horace, in the plurall numbre.
Pax Iulia, a towne of Portugall, called communely Badoioz, or Pacensis.
Paxillus, li, m. g. a lyttell stake, a pale or poste.

PEccâtum, i, n. ge. a syn, an offence, a faut, a trespaſſe.
Recte factum & peccatum, contrary.
Si est nostrum peccatum, yf it be our faute, yf we haue offended.
In eo est peccatum ipsius, he is faultie in that, or therin it is that he hath offended.
Peccatum animaduertere, to punisshe.
Peccâtus, us, m. g. idem quod peccatũ, in Cic.
Pecco, aui, are, to offende or synne, to faile in anye thyng, to doe amysse, to committe a faute, a faute.
Peccatur, the impersonall.
Dupliciter peccare, to cõmit a double offence.
In matrona peccare, to commyt auoutrye with a mannes wyfe.
In istam partem peccato potius, Offende rather in this poincte.
Si quid in te peccaui, if I haue committed anye faute towarde you.
Si vnam peccauisses syllabam, yf thou haddest fayled one syllable.
Nihil peccare, to offende nothyng.
Magna peccare, to commyt great fautes.
Magno tuo periculo peccabitur, It will be to your great perill, yf anye thynge be doone amysse: Or yf there chaunce anye faute to be committed.
Peccatur, passiue dictum.
Quo in genere multa peccantur, many thynges ar don amisse, or many fautes ar cõmitted.
Pecorárius, a, um, pertayning to cattall.
Pecorárius, rij, m. g. an heardman. also he that dooeth hyre cattall.
Pecorinus, and Pecóreus, a, um, of rother beastes, or of cattall.
Pecorôsus, a, um, full of cattall, or where bee many cattall.
Pecten, péctinis, ma. gen. the flap of a weauers loome. also a combe, either to kembe the heade, or to dresse hempe, or a payre of cardes to carde wull with all. it is also the place about the priuie mẽbres, where heare groweth. it is also the sticke, wherewith a man striketh doulcemers, whan he doeth plaie on them. also a fysshe called Scalop. also the long grayn of a tree, by the which the wood cleaueth. also a rake with yron teethe, a dragge or harrowe, or a faction of sythes or hookes vsed to reape corne.
Veneris pecten, an herbe, the leaues wherof be lyke the teeth of a combe.
Pectinâtim, in the faction of a combe.
Péctino, aui, are, to kembe. also to harrow corne whyles it is in grasse, or to rake corne together, as they doe in haruest.
Péctitus, péctita, um, kembed, harowed, raked.
Lana péctita, carded wull.
Pecto, xui, or cxi, tere, to kembe or trym heare, to carde woull, to sette an harpe or other lyke iustrument, to stryke the doulcemers or harpe.
Pectere equum, to curry or kembe an horse.
Pectere lanam, to carde woulle.
Pectere vestes, to repse the woull of clothe, to frese or cotton garmentes.
Pecton, a kynde of shomakers blache.
Pectorâle, lis, n. ge. a breast plate.

Pecto-

Pectorális, le, perteinyng to the brcast.
Fascia pectoralis, a brcast kerchicfe.
Pectórium, rii, n. g. a certaine carte, sometyme vsed in Fraunce.
Pectorósus, a, um, that hath a great and brode breaste.
Pectúnculus, li, m. g. a littell scalop.
Pectus, péctoris, n. g. the brcast. sometyme the dart or courage.
Toto pectore, with all my herte.
Amicum pectus, a frendely stomake.
Nih apertum pectus ostendas, Excepte you shewe or open your whole stomake and myndc without dissimulacion.
Generosa pectora, noble stomakes
Constanti pectore, with a constant herte and courage.
Abimo pectore dedit gemitum, he fet a sigh or grone euen from the bottom of his herte.
Obtusa pectora gestamus, we be harde herted.
Iactare curas pectore, to bee disquieted in mind with care of dyuers thynges.
Corpus sine pectore, a body without courage or herte.
Periura pectora, false and periured persons.
Pectúsculum, li, n. g. a littell brcast.
Pecu, indeclinabile, Pecua in plurali, cattall, beastes.
Pecuária, ôrum, n. g. plur. great stoze of cattall, herdes of beastes. Also amõge the Romains, all thynges wherof reuenues came.
Pecuária, æ, f. g. the manere or science, to reyse, gouerne and nourysshe cattall, Grasiers crafte. also a place or pasture where cattalle goth.
Pecuárius, rii, m. g. a brceder of cattal, a grasiar.
Pecuárius, a, um, belongyng to cattall.
Canis pecuarius, a shepeherdes or an herdes dogge, that kepeth the hearde or flocke.
Rem pecuariam facere, to brcede cattall.
Peculátor, ôris, m. g. he that stealeth a cõmune treasure, or the treasure of a prince.
Peculátus, us, m. g. robberye of the commune treasure or of a prince.
Peculiáris, re, proper or special, apperteinynge to one, peculiar. sometyme belongyng to seruauntes, seruile.
Peculiare edictum, a peculyar commaundement, a proclamation concernyng one certaine tyme or persone.
Peculiaris quædam ratio, a certayne peculyar consideracion.
Peculiáriter, properly, specially, particularlye.
Peculio, áui, áre, to punische by the purse, to take awaie a mans goodes.
Peculiolum, li, n. g. a diminutiue of Peculium.
Peculium, lij, neu. ge. substaunce, that rychesse, whiche is onely in money and cattall, a mannes proper goodes, also all that a man hath woonne by his labour and trauayle, or gathered togyther by saunge and sparynge. After some, money or ware, that the seruaunte hathe by his maysters licence to traphike with.
Castrense peculium, goodes that a man hath gotten in warres.
Peculor, aris, ari, to steale a commune treasure, or any thynge from a prince.
Pecúnia, æ, f. g. money. It is taken of the olde ciuilians for all thynges that we call cattalle, or all goodes mouable and vnmouable.
Pecuniam conficere, to make money, to leuie money. Annumerare pecuniam alicui, to pay one money.
Pecuniárius, a, um, belongyng to money.
Res pecuniaria, money.
Pecuniósus, a, um, riche, that hath much money.
Pecuniosus & Tenuis, contrary.
Artes pecuniosæ, crafte that get mony apace.
Pecus, pecudis, f. g. all maner of cattall. sometyme the multitude or flocke of cattall. sometyme it is taken onely for shepe or gotes, by trãslation a naughty persone, not woorthy to bee called a man. Ennius vsed Pecus in the masculine gender. Olde writers vsed Pecuda, n. g. plu.
Pecus, pécoris, n. g. idem quod pecus, cudis. also a flocke of shepe or droue of beastes. sometyme a sheepe, and as it appereth by Plinie, it is properly vsed for shepe.
Peda, æ, f. g. a step or token of a mans foote.
Pedæus, Intenors bastarde soonne.
Pedális, le, of a foote.
Spacium pedale, a foote space.
Pedalium, the herbe called Polygonon.
Pedámen, nis, & Pedamentum, i, n. g. a stake or forke, whereby a vyne, hoppes, or other sylue thinge is susteined or borne vp, a prop or stay.
Pedana, a countrete by Rome.
Pedaneus, a, um, of the quantitee of a foote in length or distaunce.
Pedanei iudices, inferioure Iudges, whiche went on foote.
Pedárii, were senatours, whiche dyd not shewe theyr opinion in wourdes, but onely meuynge theym selues towarde those persones, whiche had reasoned, whose sentences they dyd approue, sylue as they do in the parlyamente house. Gellius reciteth an other cause of this name, libro. 3. cap. 18. also certaine gentylmen, whiche came into the Senate house, and were not admitted by the Censours, to bee of the numbre, were called Pedarij.
Pedásus, the soonne of Bucolion. also a citee by Pylos. also one of Achilles horses.
Pedátim, where one foote goeth with the other, foote by foote.
Pedatio, ônis, f. g. the settyng vp of vines.
Pedátum, i, n. g. a compyng to one agayne.
Tertio pedato bellum nobis fecere, Hoc est tertio reuersi.
Pedecósum, full of lyce.
Pedepressim, a footepace, softely,
Pedes, an aduerbe, signifieth on foote. see more hereof in Pes.

Pedes, édítis, m. g. a foote man in battayle.
Pedester, stri, m. g. he that goeth on foote, a footeman.
Pedestris. stre, on foote, that goeth on foote.
Pedestris oratio, a numerous speahyng or writing in the fourme of a verse or meter, although it be not a verse.
Pedestria auguria, sothsayng, taken of foure fowled beastes.
Pedetentim, softely and fayre, by littell and littel, and proverbially, softe fyre maketh sweete malte.
Pédica, æ, f. g. any thynge, wherewith the foote is tyed, a snare or gynne, a fetter, a payre of gyues or stockes.
Pediculus, li, m. g. a little wozme that breedeth betweene the skinne and the flesshe.
Pediculáris, re, belongyng to lyce.
Pediculáris morbus, the lousy sycheneffe.
Pediculária herba, called also Staphis agria.
Pediculâtus, a, um, any thyng that hath a stalke, as the most parte of fruite.
Pediculôsus, & pedicosus, a, um, lousy, full of lyce.
Pediculus, li, m. g. a littel foote, a fyth, the stalke of an appull or peare, or other fruite, or of the leafe of any herbe. also a louse.
Pedio, dire, to stampe with the foote.
Pédiolus, li, m. g. a littell foote.
Pedisequa, æ, f. g. a woman seruaunt that wayteth alwaies on hir maystresse.
Pedisequus, qui, m. g. a seruant that foloweth alwap the maister or maystresse.
Peditâtus, us, m. g. an hoste of footemen.
Pedo, aui, are, of olde writers was vsed to go. also to vnderset vines or trees.
Pedo, pepedi, pédere, to farte, to leat a farte.
Pedum, i, n. g. a shepe crooke.
Peduículus, i, m. g a littell foote.
Péganon, ni, n. g. the herbe called rue, or herbe grace.
Pegasa, a towne of Thessalia.
Pegasea, the shyppe of the Argonautes was so called.
Pegaseus, and Pegaseius, of Pegasus, swyfte.
Pegasicus sinus, a bosom of the sea in Thessaly.
Pegasides, the Muses.
Pégasus, i, m. g. an horse, whiche was feigned to haue wynges. It is also a signe or numbre of sterres in heauen. It is also an instrument in an house, where garmentes and other thinges be hanged.
Pegma, or Pecma, pécmatis, a stage, wheron pageauntes be set, or wheron plate and iewels do stande to bee looked on.
Pegmates, they that play on suche stages.
Peierátio, ônis, fœ. ge. periurie, a forswearyng.
Peiero, áui, áre, to forswearc, not to do that one hath swozne to dooe.
Peior, peius, warse.
Peius, an aduerbe, woorse, much moze, moze ve-hemente.
Pelagia, a womans name of Antioche.
Pelágia, æ, fœ. g. a fysche called also Purpura.
Pelágium, ii, n. g. a lycour or iuyce that comes of the fysche called Pelagia.
Pelágicus, and Pelágius, a, um, that is of the sea, or that lyueth in the sea.
Pélagus, i, m. g. & n. g. the sea.
Pelamis, lámidis, f. g. fysche called Tuny, bes foze it be a yere olde.
Pelargus, i, m. g. called also Ciconia, a byrde called a stozke.
Pelasgi, people whiche came out of Greece, and inhabited Italye, they bee also Arcadians.
Pelasgia, a countreye in Greece called sometyme Thessalia.
Pelasgias, adis, one of Pelasgia.
Pelasgicus, a, um, of Arcadie.
Pelasgis, a conutrey in Greece called Arcadie.
Pelasgus, i, a kynde of laurell or baie.
Pelecanus, a birde called a shouelard.
Pelecinum, ni, n. g. a weede growynge amonge corne.
Pelethronij, the Lapithes were so called.
Pelethronium, a towne of Thessaly.
Peleus, the soonne of kyng Eacus, and father of Achilles.
Pelias, adis, of Achilles.
Pelias, æ, a kyng of Thessalie, vncle to Jason.
Pelicanus, i, m. ge. a byrde called a pelicane, or shouelar.
Pelicus, a prince, of whom the people called Peligni, tooke theyr name.
Pelides, the surname of Achilles.
Peligni, people in Italye, whiche came out of Illiria.
Pelignus, a, um, of that people.
Pelion, lij, n. g. an hylle in Thessaly.
Pelius, and Peliacus, a, um, of Pelion.
Pella, a kynde of hernes, called the blue herne.
Pella, a citee in Macedonie.
Pellacia, æ, f. g. fayre speeche to deceiue.
Pellax, âcis, om. g. that deceiueth with fayre woozdes.
Pellectus, a, um, meued, tempted, allured.
Pellego, idem quod perlego.
Péllene, a verp auncient citee of Acaia.
Pellex, péllicis, fœ. gen. the that is a wedded mannes harlotte.
Pellicâtor, óris, masc. ge. a deceiuer with fayre woozdes.
Pellicâtus, us, m. g. the vile kompany that a wedded man leadeth with an other woman.
Pelliceo, péllices, cui, cére, to ouergre with flatterynge woozdes, almost neuer vsed.
Pelliceus, a, um, of a skynne or hyde.
Pellicio, péllicis, pellexi, cere, to deceiue with faire woozdes, to moue a man pleasauntly to dooe a thynge, to allure or prouoke with fayre woozdes.
Pellicula, æ, f. g. the skynne.

Curare

Curare pelliculam, to cherisshe hym selfe wysely.

Veterem pelliculam retines, Thou keepest thyne olde fashion, thou art the olde man styll.

Continere se in sua pellicula, id est intra suam sortem se continere.

Pelliculo, aui, are, to couer or stop with a skyn.

Pellio, onis, mas. ge. a skynner, he that maketh thynges of skynnes.

Pellis, lis, f. g. a skynne, a fell, a hyde.

Sub pellibus, id est in castris statiuis.

Denaliere pellem alicui, to diselose or discouer one myndе.

Quiescere in propria pelle, to bee contente with his owne condition or state.

Ouina pellis, a sheepes felle.

Pelmas, a, um, cladde in skynnes.

Pello, pepuli, pellere, pulsum, to put out or expelle, to thruste, to strythe, to dryue away, to make to recule, to styre or moue, to vexe or greue.

Scipionis animum non mediocri cura pepulit, It brought Scipio not in a little care, or it dyd put Scipio to great care.

Facile pellas vbi velis, ye maie easyly thruste hym out of the doores whan you wyll.

Vbi lapidibus é foro pellerentur, whan they were beaten or dryuen out of the cõmon place with stones.

Pellere in exilium, to banysche.

Pellere for Affligere, or Exagitare.

Nulla me ipsum priuatim insignis pepulit in iuria, No notable iniurie or affliction hath touched or greued me particularly.

Pelli patria, to bee chased or dryuen out of his countrey. Ephewyle Pelli regno, agro, ciuitate, domo, sedibus.

Pellere exercitum, to dryue backe an armye, and make them recule.

Animum pellit species vtilitatis, the appearance of profite or aduauntage moueth the myndе.

Pellere famem, to put away hunger.

Pellere frigus, to put away colde, or to defende from colde.

Sitim pellere, to squenche thyrste.

Longi sermonis initium pepulisti, thou haste moued, stirred or begunne a great matter to common of.

Pellos, or Pellus, li, the pryde, called also Ardea, or Ardeola, looke Pella.

Pellucco, luxi, ere, to shyne bryght, to shyne thorough.

Pellucet oratio, the oracion is plaine and manyfest.

Pellucidè, cleerely.

Pellucidus, and Pullucidulus, a, um, very cleere, cleere thorough.

Pelluo, pelui, pellutum, ere, to washe cleane.

Pelocanus, looke Pelecanus.

Pelluuium, ij, n. g. or Pelluuia, æ, f. g. a bason, wherin mens feete be washed.

Pelopeis, idis, and Pelopeias, the daughter or neece of Pelops.

Pelopide, they that descended of Pelops.

Pelopidas, a noble man of Lacedemonia.

Pelopius, and pelopeius, a, um, of Pelops.

Peloponnesius, and Peloponnesiacus, a, um, of Morea.

Peloponnesus, a countrey in Greece, called now Morea, on the north it hath the gulph of Lorinthe, Isthmos, and the sea of Crete: on the weste and southe the sea Adriatike: on the east the sea of Crete: so that it is almoste cleane enuironed with the sea: in it were the famous kyngdomes of Mycene, of Argiue, Lacedemõ, Arcadias, Sicionians &c. it is now vnder the Turke.

Pelops, pis, the soonne of Tantalus, vanquisshed on horsebacke in rennyng Oenomaus, father of Hippodamia, and wedded hir.

Peloris, loridis, f. g. a kynde of shell fysshe.

Pelorus, ri, or Peloris, idis, m. g. an hyll in Sicilie on the sea syde.

Pelta, æ, for. gen. a target or buckler lyke an halfe moone.

Peltasta, æ, m. g. one armed with a targate lyke an halfe moone.

Peltatus, a, um, that weareth suche bucklers.

Peltifer, ri, m. g. idem quod Peltasta.

Peltis, tis, f. g. a bason to washe ones feete in.

Peltiotæ, the inhabytauntes of Peltium.

Peltium, a citee in Egypte, and one of the mouthes of Nilus.

Peminósus, a, um, stinkyng.

Penárius, ri, m. g. and after Varro Panaria, æ, f. g. after other Penarium, ri, n. g. a cellar or storehouse, a spence.

Penárius, a, um, belongyng to housholde, prouision for household, vytailes.

Penaria cella, idem quod penarium, a store house or spence.

Penates, the gentiles called goddis of mannes lyke. They bee sometyme taken for the moste secrete partes of the house. The nominatiue case singular is after some Penas, after other Penatis.

Penátiger, a, um, that beareth the housholde gooddes.

Pencédamus, mi, m. g. the wede called balde money, or hogge fenell.

Pendens, entis, om. g. that hangeth.

Vinum pendens, wyne yet in the grape.

Pendeo, pendes, pependi, dére, pensum, to hange or be hanged, to depende. sometyme to be in peine. also to weigh or be of any weyghte, to be in doubte or vncertaine what to doo.

Pendére animi, to be in doubte or feare. sometyme to longe or desyre to knowe.

Pendere promissis, to trust promyses.

Ego animi pendeo, quid illud sit negotij, I long to knowe what the matter is.

Pendet dragmas decem, it waieth. x. drams mes.

Pendet ab eius ore, he harkeneth diligently what he saieth.

Pendent opera interrupta, the woorkes remaine unperfecte, or ceasse for a whyle.

Pendererei, is saide of theim that bee sued, and doue tary a longe tyme ere they bee dispatched.

Pendére per pedes, to hange by the feete.

Pendére de rupe, to hange on the roche.

Salus nostra pendet tua, Our helthe depends deth on yours.

Pendet respublica é Bruto, the commune wele dependeth on Bzutus, or is chiefely susteined by Bzutus.

Pendere ex arbitrio alterius, to be subiecte to an other mannes wyll and pleasure.

Cui spes omnis & ratio pendet à fortuna, whiche hath all his hope and trust in fortune.

Pendére ex laude, to couete or desyre alwaies to haue praise.

Rationes quæ ex coniecturis pendent, reasons whiche be gathered by coniecture.

Pendere spe & expectatione obscura, to be in an uncertaine hope and expectation.

Animus tibi pendet, thou art in doubte.

Pendo, pendis, pependi, pendere, to ponder or way, to poise, to consyder, to esteme or value, to crampne, to pate, to susteine or suffer.

pendere pœnas magistro, to be beaten of the mayster.

Pendere supplicia, to recompence an offence by death.

Nunquam ostendisti quanti penderes, you neuer declared howe muche store ye dyd set by hym.

Non leui coniectura res penditur, the matter is not weighed examyned or considered with tyght coniecture.

Pendere pecuniam, stipendium, tributum, vectigal, to pate.

Vsuram pendere, to pate monete ouer for vsury.

Grates dignas pendere, to render wooythy thankes.

Penditur, the impersonall.

Péndulus, a, um, that hangeth.

Pené, almoste, well nere.

Penissime, the superlatyue of pené, or after some of penitus.

Penelope, es, or Penelopea, æ, the daughter of Icarus, and wyfe of Ulisses, most chaste, wise, and constant aboue all the women of hir tyme, who in the. xx. yeres that hir houlbande was absente, beyng sought vpō by dyuers wowers, whiche (would she or no) abode in hir house, she myght neyther by fayre meanes nor menaces be induced to marye, or to consent to commit any folye.

Penelopes iclam retexere, signifieth to doo and vndoo, to take much labour in vaine.

Penelopes, byrdes called also Melagrides.

Peneleus, one of the fyue raptaines of Bœotia that came to Troie.

Penes, with or at, in the power.

Penes te est, it is in the, it is in thy power or possession.

Penes hunc, with him, or in hym.

Me penes est vnum, it is onely in my power.

Seruorum cura penes dominos sit, Let the mayster care and prouyde for the seruantes.

Exornat eos penes quos est, it garnysheth theim in whom it is.

Penes authores sit fides, I repose me to the authours, whether it bee true or no. Or as for the truthe of the matter, I referre you to the authours.

Penes te culpa est, the faute is in the.

Quem penes est virtus, In whom vertue is.

Penes eum summa imperij est, he hath the chiefe rule or gouernaunce.

Istæc penes vos spaluria est? id est apud vos, Is the synging wenche at your house?

Penetrábilis, le, that may perce or be perced.

Penetrále, lis, n. g. the inner parte of the house.

In ipsis penetralibus, in the inner partes.

Penetrális, le, belongynge to the inner parte of the house, or dooen in the inner parte of the house.

Penetrale sacrificium, a sacrifice dorn in the inner parte of the house.

Penetralis Germania, id est interior.

Penetrálius, an aduerbe, more inner, that perceth more.

Pénetro, aui, are, to perce or enter.

Atlantem penetrasse, to haue passed or gone ouer the mountaine Atlas.

In maria penetrare, to enter the seas.

Penetrare in vrbem, to enter into the citee.

Penetrare sub terras, to go vnder the grounde.

Ne penetrarem me vspiam, that I myght not enter or go into any place.

Penetrare se in fugam, to ren away, to flee.

Nunquam intra portam penetraui pedem, I neuer stepte a foote within the gate: or I neuer came within the gate.

Quando id primum ad Romanos penetrauerit, Whan that came fyrst amonge the Romaynes, Penetrare in animos, to enter into mennes myndes.

Peneus, a ryuer in Greece, that diuideth the countreys of Elis and Acaia.

Penicillum, i, n. ge. or Peniculum tectorium, a plaisterers bzushe.

Penicillum, or Peniculum, to also a tente that is put into a wounde to kepe it open.

Penicillus, li, a kynde of spunges, whereof suche tentes are made.

Penicillus, and Peniculus, li, m. g. or Penicillum & peniculum, li, n. g. any thyng that serueth with to bruſhe, ſcoure, wype, or make cleane, a ſhoe cloute, a dyſhe cloute. also a penneters penſylle.

Penicalamentum, i, neu. g. the hemme of a garment, the ſkyrtes.

Peninſula, æ, fœ. ge. a place almoſt enuironned with water.

Penis, is, m. ge. a tayle. also the ſecrete membre of a man.

Peninus, a, um, tayled, hauyng a tayle.

Penitus, inwarde, whereof cometh Penitior, and Penitiſsimus.

Penitus, an aduerbe. ſometyme of place, depely, farre in, throughly. ſometyme of qualitee, vtterly, to the vttermoſt, greatly, wholly, all together. Penitus me noſcis, id eſt intus; & in cute, throughly, euen to the bottome of myne herte.

Bene penitus in iſtius familiaritatem ſe dedit, he became verate familiarly acquainted with hym, or he made hym ſelf verate familiarly acquainted with hym.

Penitus inſita animis opinio, an opinion depely ſeuled in mens myndes.

Penitus inſitum odium, mortall hatred depely rooted in ones ſtomake.

Mandare penitus animo, to commyt a thynge surely to his remembraunce.

Non dum penitus in republica verſabar, I was not yet throughly or all together occupied in affayres of the common weale.

Hanc conſuetudinem penitus amiſimus, we haue vtterly loſt that faction or cuſtom for euer.

Penitus alias auexerat oras, farre of, to other coaſtes or countrepes.

Penna, æ, fœ. g. a penne or quille. ſometyme it is vſed for a wynge, not onely of byrdes, but also of flyes, buttes, and ſuche other.

Pennæ renaſcuntur, By tranſlation ſpoken whan one recouereth the authoritee and dignitee that was taken from hym before.

Cauis pennæ, the ſtalke of a fether, where on the downe groweth.

Pennáriam, æ, n. g. a pennar.

Pennátus, a, um, that hath fethers.

Pennatum telum, an arrowe or dart fethered.

Pénniger, a, um that beareth feathers.

Pennipes, pennipedis, that hath rough fethered feete, or that hath wynges on his feete.

Pennipotens, a byrde.

Pennula, æ, f. ge. a littell fether.

Penſa, æ, that which is payde for a thyng bought, the paiement.

Penſa, in the plurall numbre, threedes of flaxe or woulle whan it is ſpunne, whiche may be called yarne.

Penſans, antis, ponderyng, weighyng.

Penſátor, ôris, m. g. a weyer, an examiner.

Penſátus, a, um, pondered, weyed, conſydred, examined.

Penſiculáte, with good examinacion,

Penſiculátor, ôris, m. gen. he that examineth or ponndereth a thyng diligently.

Penſiculo, aui, are, to ponder a thynge, idem quod penſito.

Pénſilis, le, that hangeth or ſtandeth on hyghe.

Penſile horreum, a granier in the vpper part of ones houſe, where corne is kept.

Penſilis homo, a man hanged.

Penſilis hortus, a gardeyn made vpon pillers, or vpon houſes, or in wyndowes.

Pénſilis vibs, a citee that is holow vnderneth, or that ſtandeth on vaultes.

Pénſilis lectus, a hangynge bedde.

Penſiles lichni, lampes or other lightes, hangyng in a houſe.

Penſio, ônis, f. g. a penſion, or yerely rent, that whiche one payeth for the vſe of any thynge, a paiement.

Penſior & hoc penſius, of more price or value.

Altera vtra ſit conditio penſior, virginem an viduam habere? whiche thynke you the better bargayne, to haue the mayde, or the wydowe?

Pénſito, aui, are, to weigh, ponder, or conſyder often and diligently. also to paie often.

Prædia quæ penſitant, fermes that paie certayne quitte rentes, or other cuſtomes out of theym.

Penſiculo, aui, are, idem quod penſito.

Penſitátio, ônis, f. ge. a diligent weighyng, conſyderyng, or examinyng. also a paiement.

Penſitátor, ôris, m. g. a ponderer or weigher.

Verborum penſitatores ſubtiliſsimi, the moſt ſubtile ponderers or examiners of woordes.

Penſitátus, a, um, diligently thought on, weyed, examined, pondered.

Penſiúncula, læ, f. g. a littell penſion, paiement, or rente.

Penſo, aui, are, to weigh and ponder diligently and often, to examine, to trye the weyght. also to eſteeme a thynge, ſometyme to bye. also to recompence.

Penſare vicem alterius, To be or ſerue in the ſtede of an other.

Veteribus beneſactis noua penſantes malicia, recompencyng newe diſpleaſures with old benefites or pleaſures.

Penſare ſingula, to ponder and conſyder euery thyng by it ſelfe diligently.

Penſare aliquid ex alio, to chaunge one for an other.

Penſare argento, to cheape or bye for money.

Quæ crimina vna laude penſat, whiche faultes he recompenceth with one thynge woorthye laude.

Penſus, a, um, weyghed, examined. ſometyme it ſignifieth good and wyſe.

Penſum, ſi, n. g. of Pendeo, the flaxe whiche is bounden on the diſtaffe, out of the whiche the threde is drawen. ſometyme it ſignifieth the threde that is ſpunne, yarne. it is also the execution or miniſtracion of an office that is committed

mitted to one to dwe, or that one taketh vpon hym to doo, a talke of wooꝛke.
Carpere penſum, to ſpynne of the diſtaffe.
Trahere penſa, idem.
Penſum abſoluere, conficere, peragere, To wooꝛke out his talke that he is appoynted.
Accurare penſum, to apply his office, or that he is employed to.
Penſum, ſi, n. g. of Pendo, that one hath weied, pondered, or conſydered in his mynde.
Penſi habere, to conſyder, to paſſe on, to care foꝛ. Penſi eſſe alicui, idem.
Vobis quid faciatis, minus penſi eſt, ye paſſe not, care not, or conſyder not what ye doo.
Neque dicere, neque facere quicquam penſi habet, He neyther paſſeth what he ſaieth, nor what he dooeth.
Pentacontarchus, a capitayne of fifty men.
Pentadáctilus, a bꝛothe or ſpꝛute in fiue partes with one handil. it is alſo an herbe like a tree of ſom called Ricinus, of ſome Helioſcopium.
Pentadóron, ri, n. g. a hynd of tyle or bꝛike, fiue handfull bꝛoade.
Pentapetes, cinkefoyle.
Pentaphármacum conuiuium, a dyner or ſupper, wherin are fiue ſundꝛy diſſhes of meate. reade Spartianum in vita Hadriani.
Pentaphyllon, or Quinquefolium, an herbe called cinkefoyle, whiche hath fiue leaues. The phiſitions of late tyme ſuppoſen it to be Toꝛmentill, wherwith I am not ſatiſfied.
Pentapolis, a countreie betwene Paleſtina and Arabia, wherin wer the cities of Sodome and Gomoꝛ, bourned by the vengeaunce of god foꝛ ſynne agaynſt nature.
Pentarchus, he that is capitayne of fiue men.
Pentateuchus, chi, maſc. gene. a volume of fiue bookes. It is vſed foꝛ the fiue bookes of Moyſes.
Pentáthlum, li, n. gen. the exercyſe of fiue feates or games.
Pentathlus, li, m. gen. he that exerciſeth theſe. v. games, caſtyng of the ball or trendle, rennyng, leapyng, wꝛaſtlyng and thꝛowyng the darte.
Pentecóſte, tes, fœ. ge. the fiftieth. it is vſed foꝛ whyſſontyde.
Pentelici hermæ, were littell ymages of Mercurius made of marble, called Pendelicus, which was one of the moſt fayꝛe ſtones that ymages mought be made of Pentheus, dis\y. the ſonne of Echion.
Penthesilea, a queene of Amazons, whiche was ſlayne at the ſiege of Troie.
Penthemimeris, a parte of a verſe, where a ſentence is fynyſſhed in the laſte ſyllable of the thirde foote.
Penthylus, the ſonne of Demonous, which came to the ayde of Xerxes, with xii. ſhyps, & was taken pꝛiſoner by the Grekes.
Pentirémis, mis, f. g. a galey that hath fyue oꝛes in euery ſeate.
Pentorobon, an herbe called alſo Peonia, piony.

Pénula, læ, fœ. g. a cloke wꝛone whan it rayned.
Pénulam ſcindere, vſed pꝛouerbially, to hold one ſo faſt, to the end to make hym tary, that he teareth his cloke.
Pénula ſcortea, a cloke of leather, ſuche as the Flemynges doe vſe, called communely bꝛodeꝛ.
Penula gauſapina, a thycke fyne cloke, as we weare in the wynter.
Penulárium, rii, n. g. a cloke bagge.
Penulátus, a, um, cloked.
Penúria, æ, fœm. g. extreme neceſſitee, penurye, lacke of thynges neceſſary.
Penus, nꝰ, or Penus, us, m. or fe. g. and Penum pénoris, or penum, ni, n. ge. all hynde of victuales, meate and dꝛynke, ſtoꝛe and pꝛouiſion of victuales foꝛ houſeholde.
Penuſsimé, vtterly.
Pephon, an herbe called alſo Portulaca, wylde purſelane.
Peplos, an herbe, haupng ſmall leaues, like rue, ſomewhat bꝛoder, the toppe rounde, ſpred on the grounde the length of ones hande, the ſeede beyng vnder the leaues lyke and rounde, leſſe than whyte popy, ſome apotheearies name it Eſula rotunda, in Engliſhe as I iudge wertewaꝛte.
Peplus, pli, m ge. or Peplum, pli, ne. ge. a kercheef, or other ſyke couerynge of the head.
Pepo, ónis, m. gen. a hynde of Melones, called Pompones.
Pepſis, ſis, f. g. concoction.
Péptica, cæ, f. g. a medicine, whiche maketh good concoction in a man, that the meate eaten maye digeſt well. alſo a ſalue and ointement, whiche maketh impoſtumes rype.
Per, ſignifieth by: ſometyme in, with. alſo betweene, vnder the pꝛetence or colour Per, compounded with a nowne or aduerbe, ſignifieth. Valde, as, Perpulchrum, verie fayꝛe. Peropus eſt, it is nedefull in any wyſe. Perdocte, verie learnedly Compounded with a verbe, it betokeneth perfection, as, Perſcribere, to wꝛite to the ende. Perpeti, to ſuffre to the vttermoſte.
Per ætatem, foꝛ or by reaſon of his age.
Per ætatem non potuit, he coulde not he was ſo ponge: or he coulde not he was ſo olde.
Dum per ætatem licet, whyle his age ſeruyeth hym.
Per fidem, per fortunas, per dextram te oro, I pꝛay the foꝛ the loue of god.
Cæſar mihi ignoſcit per literas, Cæſar wꝛiteth to me, that he hath pardoned me.
Per maturitatem delitſcens, It is clouen by to muche ryppeneſſe, or by reaſone that it was to rype: or ſo ryppe that it cleaueth.
Per me licet, I am contente.
Per multas ætates, of a long tyme.
Per metum, foꝛ feare.
Per nebulam ſcire, to knowe the one halfe, or not certaynly.
Per noctem lucet, it ſhineth in the nyght, or by nyght wyght tyme.

Per omnes dies, euery day, or day by day.
Per otium, at leysure.
Per potestatem, vnder colour of auctoryte.
Obsecro, vt per pacem liceat te alloqui, I praie you leat me talke with you without displeasure, or I pray you here me patiently.
Per fas & nefas, by right or by wrong, by one way or an other.
Per se sibi quisque charus est, euery man of nature loueth hym selfe.
Per silentium adesse æquo animo, to here with out speakyng one woorde, to here quietely.
Per silentium eò deducti, brought thither with out noyse.
Per stadia duo, the space of two furlonge.
Per speciem venandi vrbem egressi, thei wet out of the towne, by makyng semblaunce to goe an huntynge, or as though they wente on huntynge.
Per summum dedecus, with great shame or dishoonstyp.
Per te stetit, it lay in the.
Volo, ne per me stetisse credat, I would haue hym thynke, that there was no faut or let in me.
Per tempus, all at tyme, in tyme, in very good season.
Per cornu faucibus infundito, poure it into his mouthe with an horne.
Per alium ostendere suam sententiam, to shew his mynde vnder the colour or name of an other man.
Per ea tempora, in those daies, or duryng that tyme. Likewyse Per hos annos, per hos dies.
Per viginti annos, the space of .xx. yeres.
Per causam, vnder the colour or pretence.
Sed propera per deos, but make speede for goddes sake.
Per ego te deos oro, I praie thee for goddes sake.
Per fas & fidem decipere, to deceiue vnder the colour of religion and faithfull promise.
Per gratiam abire, to departe with good will, or without displeasure.
Per insidias, by treason.
Per inuidiam depelli tribunatu, to be put by the Tribuneship for enuy.
Per iram aliquid facere, to doo a thynge in ones anger, or whyle he is angry.
Consulere aliquem per ludibrium, To aske counsaile of one in mockage.
Per ludum & iocum, in test, merely, in game, in sporte and playe.
Per ludum & negligentiam peruenire ad aliquid, to attcyne a thyng and neuer sue or labour for it.
Per luxuriam effundere, to spende riotously, or to consume in riot and banketyng.
Per me nulla est mora, I am ready, there is no leat or hinderance in me.
Per me percontatus sum, id est ex me ipso, of my selfe without motion of other.
Nisi per necessitatem rem aperire noluerat, Onelesse it were of neccessitee, or yf necessitee did not constreigne.
Per nos, by our meanes.
Per nos egebit, qui. &c. he shall lacke for vs, whiche. &c.
Quasi per officium, as it were doorn for due reuerence and honour.
Singuli per ordinem, euery one in oder.
Per hanc rationem ei datur, id est, hoc modo, in this wyse, after this facion.
Cum ipsum Furnium, per se vidi libentissime, tum, &c. for his owne sake, or for the loue that I beare to hym selfe.
Per se aliquid posse, by it selfe without helpe of other.
Per simulationem vel speciem amicitiæ aliquem prodere, to betray one vnder the colour of frendshyp.
Per omne tempus, quo fuimus vna, All the whyle that we were togyther.
Per ver, in the spryng tyme.
Per viam, id est, in itinere, goyng by the way.
Per vices, id est vicissim, by course, one after an other.
Per vices annorum, euery one his yere.
Per visum, in a vision or dreame.
Via secta per ambas, id est, inter, betweene bothe.
Per enim magni æstimo, for Permagni. Per mihi mirum for Permirum.
Pera, æ, f. g. a scrippe or bagge, a satchell.
Perabsurdus, a, um, verye absurde, verye fonde lyche, contrary to reason, contarry to it selfe.
Perâcer, cris, cre, verye sharpe, eigre, or vehemente.
Perâcre iudicium, a verye quicke or good iudgement, a great iudgement.
Peracerbus, a, um, verye eigre or sower, lyke fruite that is not rype.
Peracesco, cui, scere, to be verye eigre or sower by translation to be very displeasant.
Peracidus, a, um, verye eigre or sower.
Perâctica, cæ, n. g. a kynde of gumme.
Perâctio, ônis, f. g. accomplishment or perfourmance.
Peractus, a, um, accomplished, perfourmed, dooen to the ende.
Peracuo, acui, acuere, to make verye sharpe.
Peracutè, verye sharpely, verye wittyly, ingeniously.
Peracûtus, a, um, very sharpe, also witty, fyne, or quicke witted.
Peræa, the vttermoste parte of Judea, towarde Arabia and Egypte.
Perædifico, aui, are, to buylde vp, to make an ende of an house or buildyng.
Peræquatores, they that leuye or gather head monepe.
Peræquè, verye equally, all alyke, euen lyke, euen

the one as muche as the other.
Per æque florére, to flourishe equally.
Peræquo, aui, are, to make equall or lyke.
Peræquus, a, um, verye equall or iuste
Perago, pérägis, égi, agere, to perfourme, to make perfite, to consider, to drawe or cause to be drawen with force, to finysshe. sometyme to thrust through. also to passe thorough, to vere, to drive violently.
Peragere reum, to accuse one, and to sue hym to a condemnation.
Peragere omnia secum animo, to consider, to digest euery thynge in his mynde.
Peragere cibum, to digeste or concocte meate.
Peragere mortem, to dye.
Peragere res gestas, to write al that is doone.
Vbi sententiam meam vobis peregero, after that I haue shewed you thoroughly myne opinion.
Inceptum peragere, to fynysshe or bryng to an ende that one hath enterprised.
Latus ense peregit, he thruste hym thorough the syde with a swoorde.
Mandata peragere, to doo or saie that he was commaunded.
Nauim peregit in portum, he broughte the shyppe into the hauen.
Noctes peragere insomnes, to lye whole nightes, and slepe nothyng.
Partes suas peragere, to doo his office, duetie or charge.
Peragere laboris pensum, to woorke out, or make vp his taske that he is appoynted to.
Peregit deinde postulata, afterwarde he demaunded or required those thynges, that he was sent for.
Tot volumina peregit, he red ouer or perused so many volumes.
Perágito, aui, are, to shake, moue, or sterre vehemently oftentymes.
Pérägro, péragras, grâui, are, to walke, go, or renne about a place.
Orator ita péragrat per animos hominũ, an oratour in his oracion doeth so touch the partes and affections of mens myndes.
Peragrare latebras suspicionum, to seeke all conjectures, wherof suspicion may happen.
Peragrare Asiam, to wander ouer all Asia.
Fama peragrauit, the rumour or bruite went abroade.
Peragrare animo, to compasse in the minde, to consider, to ymagine.
Peragrâtus, a, um, gone aboute.
Peragrátio, ónis, f. g. a goyng aboute.
Peramans, antis, om. g. one that loueth hertely.
Peramanter, verye louyngly, lyke an earnest and hertye frende.
Perámbulo, aui, are, to go thorough. sometyme to ryde through or about a countrey or fielde, to walke thorough or ouer and ouer.
Perámo, aui, are, to loue well, to loue throughly, or euen to the ende, to loue perfectely.
Peramplus, a, um, verye ample large or great verye honourable and magnificent.
Peranguste, verye streictely and narowly.
Perangustus, a, um, verye streicte or narowe.
Peranno, aui, are, to lyue a yere to an ende.
Perantiquus, a, um, verye auncient.
Perappositus, a, um, verye apte, meete or fitte the purpose.
Perardeo, dere, to bourne out or thorough.
Perarduus, a, um, verye difficult and harde.
Perargûtus, a, um, verye subtile and ingenious verye witty.
Perareo, rui, ere, to drye vp, to be verye drye.
Pererésco, perárui, scere, to wexe verye drye, or drye thorough and thorough.
Perâridus, a, um, verye drye or thorough drye.
Peraro, peraras, aui, are, to tyll all thorough, care ouer and ouer. somtyme to write.
Perarâtus, a, um, tylled ouer and ouer, or written throughly.
Perásper, ra, rum, verye rough.
Perástute, verye subtilly and craftyly.
Perastûtus, a, um, verye subtile and crafty.
Peratiente, verye attentiuely.
Perattentus, a, um, verye attentyue and diligent to heare.
Perbacchor, âris, ari, to be oftentymes drunke to vse banketyng and drynkynge verye much to passe the lyfe in drynkyng and makynge good chere.
Perbeatus, a, um, verye happy and blessed, euen in heauen.
Perbelle, verye well, right well.
Perbellus, a, um, verye good, right good, right honeste.
Pérbene, verye well.
Perbenigne, verye liberally, verye courteisly and gentill, verye graciously.
Peribo, péribis, peribi, bibere, to quaffe or drynke all out. sometyme for Bibere, to drynke.
Perbitere, for præire, to go before.
Perblandus, a, um. verye pleasaunt and courteys in woordes.
Perbonus, a, um, verye good, ryght good.
Pérbreuis, ue, verye shorte or lyte.
Perbréuiter, verye shortly, verye lyttely, in verye fewe woordes.
Perca, æ. f. g. a fysshe called a perche.
Percallefácio, lefacis, fèci, facere, to make thoroughe warme or hotte.
Percalleo, callui, lére, to be waren harde, to be so accustomed to a thynge, that he feleth no more the peyne of it.
Percallere vsum alicuiusrei, to knowe perfectly the vse of any thynge.
Percándidus, a, um, verye white. also verye pleasant and gentill.
Percantatrix, tricis, f. g. a syngyng wenche. also an inchauntresse.
Percautus, a, um, verye subtill or witty, very ware ware and circumspecte.

Percedere, to departe.
Percelebro, aui, are, to publyshe in all places.
Perceler, a, um, verate swyft, quicke, and spedy.
Percello, perculi, and percussi, lere, to stryke and ouerthrowe, to moue, to stirre, to perce.
Perculit eum illud, that abated his courage, or strake hym to the herte.
Percellere pectus pauore, To trouble one greatly with feare, and make him sore abashed, to perce and strike one to the herte with feare.
Perculsus animus & abiectus, his spirite was troubled, and his courage abated.
Percellere & euertere.
Perculit mihi animum: it wente euen to the verate herte of me.
Site dolor aliquis perculerit, yf any greefe or sorowe do perce, peyne, vexe, or come vpon the.
Percullit me, it delyted me, it moued my spirites.
Quum vnam & alteram pestis perculerit, When the pestilence hath infected or attached one or two of theim.
Perculeris iam tu me? wylt thou ouerthrowe me nowe?
Percellere, for Differre, as, Ad nouum hoc percellit animum, He deferreth this vnto an other yere.
Percenseo, censui, ere, to recompt or reckon, to rehorse ouer, to numbre vp.
Totum percensuit orbem, id est peragrauit.
Percieo, percies, ciui, ciêre, to moue or styre greatly.
Percingo, cingis, gere, to gyrde about.
Percino, nere, to syng styl, to continue syngyng, to syng to the ende.
Percipio, pércipis, cépi, ere, to perceyue, to take or receyue, to comprehende, to learne, to vnderstande, to knowe.
Neq; agri, neque vrbis odium me vnq̃ percipit, I am neuer thoroughly weerie, neyther of dyng in the countrete, nor in the citee.
Percipere vsum alicuius rei, to vse a thynge.
Percipere opinionem, to conceyue or haue an opinion of a thynge.
Diligenter quæ dicuntur percipere, to heare and understande diligently what one doeth saie.
Percipere artem, disciplinas, doctrinam, To learne, to perceyue, to vnderstande.
Acerbissimos dolores percipere, To take or haue great sorowe and trouble.
Fructum ex arbore percipere, to haue, gather, or take fruite of a tree.
Memoria percipere, To comprehende in the memorie.
Nomina omnium ciuium percipere, to comprehende and reteyne in memorye all the citesins names.
Oculis percipere, to see perfectly.
Percipere voluptatem, iucunditatem, lætitiam. &c. to take pleasure. &c.

Perclam, verate pryuyly.
Perclâmo, aui, are, to crye out.
Percœptio, ônis, fœm. g. a takyng, reteyuyng, a perceyuyng or vnderstandyng.
Perceptio animi, knowlage, intelligence, whan the mynde comprehendeth or compasseth a thyng.
Percœptio fructuum, the takyng of the profites or fruites.
Percnos, ni, mas. ge. the birde, whiche wee call a baldbuszard.
Percitus, a, um, stirred, greatly moued or vexed.
Ira percitus, & atra bili percitus, verate angry, wood angry.
Percitus insania, madde.
Percoarcto, aui, are, to bryng into a litle rome, to streigne verate hard together.
Percoctus, a, um, wel boiled, throughly boiled.
Percognosco, noui, scere, to knowe throughly and perfectly.
Percolo, lui, lere, to worshyp muche, to loue and reuerence greatly, to make perfecte, to trymme vp, to polyshe, to kynysshe.
Percólo, aui, are, to straine through.
Percómis, me, verate gentyll and gracious.
Percommodè, verate well, ryght well, verate easyly.
Percommodè facis, Thou doest wonderfull well.
Percommodè accidit, it hath chaunced ryght well.
Percómmodus, a, um, verate good, verate easye or handsome.
Percónditus, a, um, obscure, hydde.
Percontátio, ônis, fœ. g an inquerynge or searchynge, an askyng or demaundyng.
Percontator, óris, m. gen. one that requireth or asketh many questions.
Percontor, âris, ari, to searche busyly, to inquire, to demaunde diligently. sometyme for Expectare, to abyde and looke for.
Percontatum ibo ad portum, quo ad se recipiat, I wyll go and tarye for hym at the hauen tyll he come: or I wyll go know and inquire at the hauen, whan he wyll returne.
Percontari aliquid aliquem, to aske or inquire a thyng of one.
Percontari de, ex, ab aliquo, idem.
Percóntumax, âcis, om. g. verate stubburne.
Percopiósus, a, um, verate copious, abundant, plentyfull.
Percoquo, percoxi, coquere, to seethe or boyle throughly, to concoct perfectly, to make thoroughly ripe.
Terra dicitur percoquere messem, dum ad maturitatem fouet.
Sol percoquit fructus, the sunne ripeth fruit.
Percosius, a soothsayer, whiche fauoured the Troianes.
Percosius, a, um, that dwelleth in the citee Percote.

Percote,

Percote, a citee of the countrete of Troas.
Percrebresco, bui, scere, to bee publyshed or sowen abrode in all places, to be commonly knowen and talked of abrode.
Percrebuerat antiquitus, the bruite was in olde tyme.
Quum fama per orbem terrarum percrebuisset, whā the bruite or fame was sowen throughout all the worlde.
Pércrepo, pui, are, to make a great noyse.
Percresco, ui, scere, to increase euen to the ende.
Percrúcio, aui, are, to tourment greatly.
Percrûdus, a, um, verate rawe, nothyng rype.
Percûdo, di, dere, to breake in peeces.
Perculsus, a, um, striken, ouerthrowen, sore abashed or astonied.
Percunctatio, onis, an inquiryng or demāding.
Percunctor, aris, ari, to enquire, to demaunde diligently.
Percúpidus, a, um, verate desyrous.
Percupio, percupis, cupiui, ere, to desire gretly.
Percuriosus, a, um, very curious, very piked.
Percuro, aui, are, to cure or heale perfectly.
Percurato vulnere, Whan the wounde was throughly and perfectly made whole.
Percurro, curri, or cucurri, ere, to renne apace, to renne stylle and neuer reste, to renne euery foote, to passe or renne ouer a thynge quickly, to recite a thyng brekely or roundely, to tell or reade a thyng quickly or apace.
Curriculo percurrere, to renne euery foote a great pace.
Percurram breui, I wyl renne ouer, or recite it brekely.
Per omnes ciuitates percurrit oratio mea, id est, recenset omnes ciuitates.
Percurrere animo, to vnderstande, know, or perceyue perfectly.
Ad te properans percurro ad forum, I ran to you euery foote, to the common place with all spede possible.
Percurritur, the impersonall.
Percurrere mensas, to bee muche vsed, or a commune seruice at the table.
Percursátio, ônis, f. g. a rennyng ouer in haste.
Percursio, ônis, a quick vnderstandyng of thynges, I brieke reherslyng of thynges.
Percurso, aui, are, to ouer renne often.
Percursus, a, um, ouerronne, passed throughout, quickely accepted or tolde.
Percursum animo, perfectly knowen.
Percússio, ônis, f. g. a strykynge, an hittyng.
Percussor, oris, m. gene. a murderer, he that is hyred to hyl men.
Percussus, us, m. g. a strykyng, a beatyng.
Percussus, a, um, stryken, beaten, hytte, striken with lyghtnyng.
Percussus forma aliqua, coyned, that hath any fourme printed in it.
Percutio, percutis, cussi, cutere, to stryke or smite, to hitte.

Per cutere fores, to knocke at the dore.
Percussit animum, it brake his hert, it stroke hym to the herte, it made hym suspect, or pensyf hym in a fantasie.
Percuti sydere, to be taken, or haue the vse of his membres taken from hym, to bee stryken with a planet.
Percussæ de cælo turres, the towres beate downe with thunder.
Percutere fœdus, to make a league or alyance one prince with an other, or one countrey or citee with an other.
Percutere fossam, to dygge a dyche or trenche.
Fulmine percuti, to be striken with lightnyng.
Palpo me percutis, thou flatterest me.
Litteris atrocissimis percuti, to be sore troubled or abashed with letters that bryng verie heaute tidynges. Or to haue verie heaup tydynges brought to hym in letters sodainly.
Perdecórus, a, um, verate comely and honest.
Perdensus, a, um, verie thycke.
Perdespuo, spui, spuere, to moche, contemne, detest greatly.
Perdica, a part and a porte of Lycia.
Perdicas, a noble man of Macedonie.
Perdicium, cij, neu. g. an herbe called pellytory of the wall. reade Helxine, & Parietaria.
Perdifficilis, le, verie difficile and harde.
Perdifficiliter, very difficultly.
Perdignus, a, um, very worthy, right worthy.
Perdiligens, entis, verate diligent.
Perdiligenter, ryght diligently.
Perdisco, didici, scere, to learne perfectly, to learne to the ende.
Perdite, extremely, corruptly, desperately, wyckedly, greatly, vehemently.
Se perdite gerere, to behaue hym selfe naughtily and corruptly.
Perdite amare, to loue desperately or out of measure.
Perdite conari, to endeuour verate earnestly and spitefully.
Perditio, onis, pardition.
Pérditor, ôris, m. g. one that destroieth or bryngeth to naught.
Perditor & conseruator reipublicæ, contrary.
Pérditus, a, um, loste, perysshed, without recouerie, out of hope, vtterly vndoon and cast away, desperately naught.
Perditus homo, a mischenous and desperate knaue, in whom is no hope of recouerie.
Aere alieno perditus, vndoon with debte.
Perditius nihil est, There is no man in the worlde more desperately naught than he is.
Tu rem impeditam & perditam restituas? Canst thou restore a thynge intricate and past hope of recouerie?
Perdita valetudo, suche syckenesse that a man dispaireth of his helthe.
Perdiu, verate long.
Perdiues, perdiuitis, verate ryche.

Perdius, dij, m. ge. that abydeth or watcheth all the date longe.

Perdix, icis, f. g. a partrych.

Perdix ruſtica, a rale, which is counted a kind of partryches. Perdix is alſo the name of a lame vitailer in Ariſtophane.

Perdo, didi, ere, to loſe, to ſlea, to corrupt with yll maners, and (as wee ſaie) to ſtroye, to marre, to caſte away, to make vnthryfty. alſo to allure, to vndoo, to bryng into muche wo and trouble.

Perdis gnatum, ye loſe your ſonne, and make hym an vnthryfte.

An id laudi ſibi fore putat, ſi perdiderit gnatum? Iſ he bryng his ſonne to confuſion?

Cur perdis adoleſcentem nobis? why doeſt thou marre corrupte or caſte awaie this ponge man our ſonne?

Perdere aliquem, to bryng one in dangier of his life, or in ſo muche trouble that he can not eaſe it.

Vbinã eſt ſcelus, qui me perdidit? where is that vngracious knaue, that hath vndooen me? & brought me into all this trouble?

Quem ego capitis perdam, whom I wyll ſlea or kylle.

Aquam perdere, prouerbially to ſpend tyme, to loſe tyme in vayne.

Litem perdere, to loſe his proceſſe or ſuite.

Famam perdere, to loſe his fame or name.

Fidem perdere, to loſe his credence.

Formam perdere, to be no more ſo well fauored as he hath been.

Gratiam perdere, to haue no more that grace that it was wonte.

Nomen perdidi, I haue forgotten his name.

Oculos perdere, to loſe his ſyght.

Operam perdere apud aliquem doctorem, to loſe his labor vnder one that teacheth hym.

Operam & oleum perdere, to labour in vaine to loſe his labour and coſte.

Niſi id verbum in omne tempus perdidiſſem, If I had not loſt and forgone that worde for euer and a daie.

Mores perdere, to chaunge his maners.

Libertatem perdere, to be brought into ſeruitude and bondage.

Prandium perdere, to loſe his diner.

Stomachum perdere, to be in that caſe, that he can be no more moued to anger.

Perdere verba, to loſe his ſpeache.

Perdoceo, pérdoces, dócui, docere, to teache or inſtructe perfectely.

Perdoctè, very connyngly.

Perdoctus, a, um, verie connyng.

Perdoleo, pérdoles, dolui, lere, to be verie ſore.

Perdomitus, a, um, made verie tame, vtterly ſubdued, brought into full and due obeyſance.

Pérdomo, mui, are, to make verie tame, to ſubdue vtterly.

Prouinciam aliquam perdomare, To bryng a prouince or countrey in ſubiection or due obedience.

Terram perdomare, to tyll grounde that is rough, toughe, and ſtubburne.

Perdormiſco, ſcere, to ſlepe a full ſlepe, to ſlepe all nyght longe euen to the mornyng.

Perdúco, duxi, ere, to bryng to an ende, to bring or leade by force or other meanes. Sometyme to induce or perſwade.

Ad centeſimum annum vitam perduxit, he liued full an hundreth yeres.

Perducere ad exitum, culmen, vel ſummum, to finiſhe, to make perfect, to bring to an end.

Perduxit omnes in ſuam ſententiam, he induced or brought them all into his opinion.

Ad mendacium perduci, to be perſwaded or inducted to make a lye.

Rogat, vt eas ad ducenta talenta perducerem, he praieth me that I would induce or bryng them to paie. 24000. li.

In odium perducere, to make one hated or odyouſe.

Oppugnatio ad mediã noctem perducta eſt, the aſſaut was continued tyll mydnight.

Ni altercationem in ſerum perduxiſſet, yf he had not prolonged the altercation tyll it was longe in the nyght.

Murum in ſexdecim pedum altitudinem perducere, to reyſe or make vp a walle .xvi. foote hyghe.

Perducere ad aliud iudicium, to bryng before other iudges.

Nequis perduci, thou canſte not bee perſwaded or inducted.

Perductо, aui, are, the frequentatiue of Perduco.

Perductor, ôris, m. ge. he that bringeth one to a man agaynſt his wyll, a baude that bryngeth women to men whether they wyll or no.

Perductus, a, um, ledde or brought thyroughe, or to an ende. alſo inducted.

Perduellio, ônis, m. g. treaſon agaynſt the kyng or the countrey. alſo a traytour.

Perduellis, lis, m. gen. an ennemie, a ſtubburne ennemie that maintepneth warre.

Perduro, aui, are, to continue thyroughly or to the ende.

Perdurâtus, a, um, hardned, ſtrengthned, confyrmed.

Péredo, peres, or péredis, peredi, peresſe, vel dere, to eate all, to eate thyrough.

Peredia, and Bibetia, Plautus vſed for a gredie appetyte to eate or drynke.

Peregré, out of a mans propre countrey.

Peregré vado, I goe out of the countrey or on pylgremage, or into a ſtrange countrey.

Peregré venio, I come out of ſtrange countreys, or from pylgremage.

Peregré ſum, I am farre out of my countrey.

Peregrinabundus, a, um, that is wont to go or dwell in ſtraunge countreys.

Peregrinátio, ônis, fœ. ge. pylgremage, goynge in to ſtraunge countreys.

Peregrinátor, ôris, m. ge. he that is wont to go into ſtraunge countreys, a pylgrime.

Peregrinitas, âtis, fœm. g. ſtraungeneſſe, beyng in a ſtraunge countrete, alſo ſtraungeneſſe of pronunciation that ſheweth one to be of an other countrete.

Peregrinor, âris, ari, to go into ſtraunge countreys, or on pylgrymage, to dwell or bee in a ſtraunge countrey.

Veſtræ aures peregrinantur, your eares bee on pylgremage, or you ſet ſo litell by the matters of the cite, that you heare not that whyche euery man ſpeaketh.

Longè latèq; peregrinari, to go far abroade in diuers ſtraunge countreis.

Peregrinus, a, um, a ſtraunger or alian, that is of an other countrey, ſtraunge.

Facies peregrina, a ſtraunge fauour.

Perelegans, antis, om. ge. verie elegant, verye praette, that hath a great grace.

Pereleganter, with a great grace.

Pereloquens, entis, om. g. verie eloquent.

Peremptalia, among Iugures, wer thoſe lightnynges, whiche dyd vtterly deſtroy and putte away the ſignification of other lyghtnynges and tokens preceedyng.

Peremptorius, a, um, that hylleth, deadely.

Peremptorium edictum, a premptorie warnyng geuen to him that maketh defaut of apparance, after the whiche he ſhall neuer haue any daye geuen hym, but the iudge ſhall procede to the knowlage and determinacion of the mattier.

Peremptus, a, um, ſlayne, killed.

Perendie, the daie nexte after to morowe, the thirde daie after.

Perendinus dies, idem.

Perendinus, a, um, belongyng to the thirde daie.

Perenné, for euer, alwaies, perpetually, continuallye.

Perennia, ôrum, n. ge. certaine ceremonies obſerued of the diuinours.

Perennis, ne, om. gen. perpetuall, euer durynge, continuall.

Perennis fluuius, a riuer that renneth alwais, lykewyſe, Perennis riuus, & perennis fons.

Studium perenne, continuall ſtudie.

Perenniſeruus, ui, ma. gene. he that ſerueth one maiſter alwaies.

Perennitas, âtis, f. g. continuance, long abiding.

Perenno, aui, are, to dure or continue for euer.

Pereo, iui, and perij, ire, péritum, to be loſt or conſumed, alſo to die, to perysſhe, to wyther awaie, to miſcarie, to be caſte awaie, to be vtterly vndone.

Perire ab aliquo, to be ſlayne by one.

Perierunt ædes, the houſe is down or in ruine.

Perit illi pudor, he is not aſhamed, he is paſt ſhame. Nullus otio perit dies, no daie is loſt with idleneſſe, or he paſſeth no daie idle.

Tua arte viginti minæ pro ſalutis perier by thy crafte I haue caſte awaie xx. li. vpon ſpyngynge wenche.

Ne pueri periant fame, that the childyen ſ not for hunger.

Quod ſi fit, pereo funditus, if it be ſo, I a vtterly vndoon.

Perire morbo, to die of a ſyckeneſſe.

Peream, I wouldc I ſhulde die than.

Perit ab animo, his courage faileth hym.

Perire mulierem, to die for the loue of a w man, to loue a woman deſperately.

Prudens, ſciens, viuus, videuliy pereo, I a wylfully caſte awaie.

Perij, alaſſe I am caſte awaie or vndoon.

Ne illi nihil profis, & tu pereas, leſt thou do hym no good, and caſt awaie thy ſelfe.

Male pereat, a miſchiefe take hym.

Perij animo, alaſſe my hert is doon.

Crudelius perire, to be more cruelly ſlayne.

Fortiter perire, to die manfully.

Perequito, áui, áre, to ryde rounde about or euery parte.

Pererrátus, a, um, that hath been wandred o one ouer.

Perretro, aui, are, to go or ryde about, to wand ouer and ouer.

Luminibus pererrare aliquem, to loke roun about one.

Pererruditus, a, um, verie vnlearned, ryght w learned.

Perexcrucio, aui, are, to torment one greatly.

Perexiguus, a, um, verie little or ſmall.

Perexiguum tempus, a verie ſhorte tyme.

Perexilis, le, verie ſklender or ſmall.

Perexpeditus, a, um, verie prompte or redie.

Perfabrico, aui, are, to make an end of a buildin

Perfacetè, verie pleaſauntly.

Perfacétus, a, um, verie pleaſaunt.

Perfácile, verie eaſily, verie lightly.

Perfácilis, le, verie eaſie.

Perfacul, the auncyente writers vſed for Facil lyghtly.

Perfamiliâris, re, verie familiar, of verie gre acquaynteaunce.

Perfectè, perfectely.

Perfectiſsimatus, tus, maſc. gen. a high dignit or office.

Perfectio, ônis, fœ. ge. perfection, fully diſpat chyng or finyſhyng of a mattier.

Perfector, ôris, m. ge. he that bryngeth a thyn to paſſe or to appoynete.

Perfectus, a, um, perfect, accõpliſhed, obteined

Perfero, pértuli, ferre, to beare or ſuffer to th endeor thyroughly, to bryngc an concluſion. Alſo to bryngc or tell tydynges, to endure o abide patiently.

Opem perferre, to ayde.

Litteras perferre, to bryngc letters to hym, t whom they were ſent.

Clamor per totam concionem ferur, There was was a great shoute or crie ouer all the conuion or assemble.

Laudem in vrbem perferre, to cause his citee or countrey to haue the praise or commendacion of a thynge, or to doo a thyng to the honor and praise of his countrey.

Legem perferre, to make a lawe.

Mandata perferre, to beare a message.

Nuntium perferre, to beare tydynges.

Omnium nuntiũ perferrur, euery mã telleth, or euery man bringeth that tidynges.

Rumor hoc pertulit nobis, we heard this by the rumour and speakyng of the people.

Patriomnem rem illuc perferat, leat hym go thyther to my father, and tell hym the whole matter.

Deferre animo, & perferre, contrary.

Perferre famem ac sitim, to suffer, sustaine or abyde hunger and thyrste.

Perferre crudelitatem, cruciatum, frigus, vigilias, dolorem. &c. to suffer, to abyde, to endure. &c.

Supplicium pro meritis perferre, to be punyshed for his offences.

Perferre rogationem, to declare the mattier to the people and aske theyr opinion.

Perferre fructum, to beare fruite.

Cum ad eum fama perlata esset, whan he herde that rumoure.

Perferuidus, a, um, verey hotte.

Perficio, perficis, feci, fícere, to accomplisshe, to bynge to appoynete, to obteine, to bynge to passe or effecte, to atchieue his purpose.

Cibum perficere, to concocte or digest meate.

Promissa perficere, to accomplisshe and performe promyses.

Quam rem voluisti a me, quin perfeceris? What thynge dyd you euer require of me, but that you had your purpose? Or what thynge haue you euer willed me to doo, but that you haue had your mynde, or but that you haue brought it to passe or effecte?

Perfecit sibi ut inspiciundi esset copia, he dyd so muche, that he had licence to beholde it.

Pelles perficere, to dresse felles and make leather of them.

Perfidélis, le, verate faithfull and trustie.

Perfidia, æ, fœ. ge. falsehode agaynst promise or truste, disloyaltee, vntrueth, vnfaithfulnes, treason, trecherie.

Perfidiosé, disloyally, trapterously, falsely, vnfaithfully.

Perfidiósus, a, um, ful of disloyaltee, ful of falsehode and vntrueth, traiterous and false.

Perfido, to haue a great confidence.

Perfidus, a, um, false of promise, that dooeth any thynge agaynst the truste that is put in hym, disloyall, trapterouse.

Vappa perfida, venemous.

Perfixus, a, um, perced, sticked thyrough, thrust thyrough, striken thyrough.

Perflabilis, le, that may be blowne thyrough.

Perflátus, us, m. g. a great blaste of wynde.

Perflo, áui, áre, to blowe vehemently or strongly, to blowe thyrough.

Perfluctuo, aui, are, to flowe or ren ouer muche.

Pérfluo, fluxi, ere, to renne out as water dooeth out of a broken vessell, to renne out on euery parte, to leake on euery syde.

Plenus rimarum sum, hac atque illac perfluo, I am full of chappes or holes, and renne out or leake at this place & that place on euery syde.

Perfluere voluptatibus, to swymme in sensuall lustes, to lyue all at pleasure.

Perfluere, sometyme for Fluere.

Perfódio, pérfodis, fódi, dere, to bore or perce thyrough, to stycke thyrough, to dygge thyrough or to the bottome or deepst of any thynge.

Perfodere parietem, to breake a walle, to make an hole thyrough a wall.

Perfodere montem, to make a way or passage thyrough a mountayne or hyll.

Pérfodi gladiis, to be sticked or gored in with swordes.

Perfodere terram, to dygge deepe in the grounde.

Perforata, an herbe, called also of Dios. Hipericon, vel herba S. Ioannis.

Perforátus, a, um, bored or perced thyrough, that hath an hole made thyrough.

Pérfore, to come well to passe.

Performidátus, a, um, greatly feared.

Performo, aui, are, to facion out a thynge.

Pérforo, aui, are, to perce or to make an hole thyrough, to bore thyroughe.

Perfórtiter, mightily, verey manfully, ryght valyauntly.

Perfossus, a, um, perced thyrough, striken or digged thyroughe.

Perfracté, or after the better copies, Præfracté, stubburnely, obstinately.

Perfráctus, a, um, broken in pieces.

Pérfremo, frémui, ere, to make a great grunnyng or rorynge.

Perfreto, aui, are, to passe ouer or thyrough.

Perfrictio, ónis, fœ. gen. a rubbyng or frotyng harde.

Perfrico, fricui, are, to rub muche, to rub harde.

Pérfricant sale minuto, they pouder it with a litell salte.

Perfricuit faciem aut frontẽ, aut os, is a prouerbe, as much to saie, as he hath layed a parte shame, or he is shameles, or without abashement.

Perfrictæ frontis, without shame or honestee.

Perfrigefácio, féci, facere, to make very colde.

Perfrigeo, friges, frixi, gere, to be greatly or thoroughly a colde.

Perfrigero, aui, are, idem quod Refrigero.

Perfrigesco, scere, to ware verey colde.

Perfrigidus, a, um, verey colde, thyrough colde.

Perfringo, frégi, gere, to breake in pieces.

Ne perfregerit aliquid, least he haue broken any thyng.

Pérfruor, perfruitus ſum, perfrui, to take all the profite or commoditee, to take great pleaſure or recreacion in any thynge.

Perfruitus eſt, he hath taken the fruite or pleaſure of a thynge, he hath vſed or exercyſed a thyng, or els hath left the vſe or exerciſe therof.

Pérfuga, æ, m. ge. he that fleeth to the contrary part in battaile, or that forſaketh his capitaine.

Perfúgio, pérfugis, fúgi, ere, to renne vnto one for ſuccour.

Perfúgium, ij, n. g. a place, whervnto a man renneth to haue ſuccour, or to be kept from daunger. it is alſo taken for any thyng, wherby a man may be ſuccourred, a place of refuge. alſo a ſanctuarie.

Perfugium & ſpes, refuge and hope.

Laborum omnium perfugium ſomnus eſt, ſlepe is the reſte and quiete of all labours.

Portus & perfugium miſeræ fortunæ, a place of refuge in aduerſitee and trouble.

Vti perfugio, to ſaue hym ſelfe in a place.

Illo perfugio vti poſsit, he maie vſe this excuſe.

Perfúlcio, ciui, ire, to ſtay or holde vp well.

Perfunctio, ônis, ſ. g. a doyng or exercyſing of a thyng euen to the ende.

Perfunctio laborum, indurynge of labour and trauaile euen to the ende.

Perfunctorie, paſſyng ouer lightly, negligentely, for a facïõ only, to be quited or diſpatched of it.

Perfunctorie munus ſuum implere, to do his dutie, or that is committed to his charge, negligently, and only for a faction to be diſcharged.

Perfunctorius, a, um, that which paſſeth lightly away, or tarieth not longe. That is done negligently, or onely for a faction.

Perfunctus, a, um, he that hath done his dutee or office diligently. alſo diſpatched, deliuered.

Perfunctus conſulatu, he that hath ben conſul.

Perfunctus honoribus, he that hathe bene in great office and authoritee in the cõmon weale.

Perfunctus fato, deade.

Perfunctus laboribus, he that hath endured labour euen to the ende, that hath doone his labours, deliuered of his labours.

Perfunctus a febri, deliuered of a feuer, whole of the feuer.

Perfundo, fúdi, dĕre, to poure out, droppe out, or ſtil out, to poure out on euery parte, to waſh all about, alowaſshe, alofhed vpon, to poure vpon all ouer and ouer.

Perfunditque genas lachrymis, the teares dropped downe on his cheekes.

Perfundere animum religione, to make ſcrupulous or religious.

Perfundere animos ſuauitate, to delite mens myndes very pleaſauntly.

Perfundere tecta auro, to gylte houſes.

Aceto quempiam perfundere, ſoke Acetum.

Perfundi iucunditate, lætitia, &c. id eſt re pleri, to be verie iocunde and pleaſaunt, be merry. &c.

Perfundi voluptatibus, to lyue all in voluptu and pleaſure.

Perfundere aliquem iudicio, to force one to come before a iudge and make his anſwere.

Qui me horror perfudit? how ſore afrayde was I? how dyd all my body tremble?

Aqua feruenti perfunditur, he hath hot water caſt or poured vpon hym.

Perfundor, to be all embrued.

Perfungor, functus ſum, fungi, to doo his dutie, office and charge euen to the ende.

Perpeti & perfungi, to ſuffer and endure euen to the ende.

Pérfuro, pérfuris, perfúrere, to be in a great furie or woodneſſe, to rage extremely.

Perfúſio, ônis, ſ. g. a ſhedyng vpon.

Perfuſorie, confuſely, obſcurely, not with ſuffici ent declaration of the mattier.

Perfuſus, a, um, altowaſshed, embrued.

Perfuſus cruore, all bloudie.

Perfuſus metu, ſore afrayde.

Veſtes perfuſæ oſtro, dyed ſcarlet.

Perga, a towne in Pamphilia, wherof Diana was called Pergæa.

Pérgama, ôrum, the toures of Troye. It is taken alſo for the citie of Troye.

Pergameus, a, um, and Pergamenus, a, um, of Troye.

Pergamena charta, parchemente.

Pergamus, or Pergamum, the citee of Troye, The ryuer Simois paſſeth through it.

Pergaudeo, gauiſus ſum, gaudére, to reioyce greatly, to bee very glad.

Pergigno, pergénui, Pergignere, idem quod Gigno.

Pergo, perréxi, pérgere, to go, to proceede, to endeuour to doo a thynge, to continue as one hath begunne, to make haſte, to aſſaie.

Perge, go to, paſſe forth.

Perge in uirum, play the man, go to lyke a man, go to hardilie.

Pergin? wylt thou not leaue? wylt thou not be gone?

Si pergis, abiero, yf thou make any more adoo I wyll be gone.

Quo pergam, whether I go.

Qui huc pergit, whiche cometh hither.

Hac pergito, go on this way.

Obuiam pergere alicui, to go to meete with one. Pergam quo cœpi hoc iter, I wyll continue in this iourney as I haue begun. or I wil proceede in the mattier that I haue begunne.

Ad littora pergens, goeyng forwarde towarde the ſea ſyde.

Perge porro dicere, tell on thy tale, goe to tell vs.

Eadem via pergere, quo cæteri, to proceede or go on the ſame way that other doe.

Téne

Tenere viam quam inſtituiſti perge, goe to, kepe on the waie that thou haſte begunne.
Perge ad cætera, goe to, tell on the reſidue that is behynde.
Pergit ire ad Phauorinum, id eſt incipit, he begynneth to go.
Pergunt domos eorum, &c. they go to theyr houſes. &c.
Pergo præterita, I wyll leat paſſe and wyl not ſpeake of thoſe thinges whiche ar paſſed.
Domum ire pergam, I wyll make haſte to go home.
Pergracilis, le, verie ſklender or ſmall.
Pergræcor, aris, ari, to be riottouſe in eatyng, drinkyng, and haunting of harlottes.
Pergrandis, de, verie great.
Pergrandis natu, verie auncient.
Pergraphicus, a, um, verie counnyngly made, as it were wrought with a penſell.
Pergratus, a, um, verie acceptable, verie pleaſaunt.
Per inquam gratum feceris, you ſhall dwe me great pleaſure I ſaie, or ye ſhall dwe euen as I woulde haue it.
Pergrauis, ue, verie greuouſe.
Pergrauiter, verie greuouſely.
Pergula, æ, fœ. g. a cloſe or open galarie, where men vſed in olde tyme to ſet ware to ſell, or to trade. It is alſo the place in a ſhyppe, wherin men dwe walke, the hatches. Alſo a vine rayſed in the fourme of an hearber ſomtyme the company of worknemen obeiyng to the chiefe worknman, after Calepine.
Pergulanus, a, um, that reſteth on a frame.
Pergulana vitis, a vine rennyng on a frame.
Perhibeo, pérhibes, perhibui, ére, to ſaie, to geue, to affirme. ſomtyme for Exhibere, or offerre. Nolentibus nobis ſe perhibet, it offereth it ſelfe to vs, whether we wyll or no.
Pretium perhibére, to ſet a price.
Perhibere teſtimonium, to beare wytneſſe.
Vt verba perhibes, ſo far as I heare you ſay.
Si vos vultis perhiberi probos, yf you wyll be called good and honeſt men.
Vt perhibent, as they ſaie.
Suo nomine aliquem perhibere, to call one by his name.
Potius quàm cibum perhiberem, rather than I woulde geue meate.
Alia verba perhibeas, thou wouldeſt ſaie other wyſe.
Honorem perhibere, to geue honour.
Perhibendus, a, um, worthy to be ſpoken of.
Perhonorificè, verye honourablie, verie worſhyppfully, with great honour.
Perhonorificus, a, um, verie honourable, that bryngeth great honour and worſhyp.
Perhorreo, perhorrui, perhorrere, to be ſore aſtraide, to ſhake or tremble in all the body for feare.
Perhorreſco, idem.

Perhórridus, a, um, verie horrible.
Perhoſpitâlis, le, that vſeth great hoſpitalitee.
Perhumanè, & perhumaniter, ryght gently.
Perhumânus, a, um, verie gentyll, verie humayne.
Perhyemo, aui, are, to endure all the wynter.
Peri, a greke prepoſition, ſignifiyng ſometyme De, ſometyme Vltra, ſometyme Circum.
Periander, one of the. vii. wyſemen of Greece and kyng of Corinthe.
Peribocton, famouſe, muche ſpoken of.
Peribolus, a compaſſe or circuite.
Pericarpum, pi, n. g. a kynd of herbes that haue round heades lyke oynyons.
Pericles, the noble and valyaunt capitayne of the Athenienſes, excellent in wyte and naturall eloquence: he was enſtructed in philoſophie by Anaragoras, ſo that therby he attayned vnto meruayloufe great knowlage, noble courage and patience, in ſo muche that whan a lewed perſone folowed hym to his houſe, reuilyng hym all the waie: whan he was come to his doze (than beyng nyght) Pericles commanded one of his ſeruauntes to take a torche, and bryng him (who had rebuked hym) home to his houſe. Alſo he beyng in great eſtimacion and authoritee among the people of Athens, wolde neuer be at any feaſtes or banketyynges, nor receiue of any man, any preſentes or giftes, nor did go to euery aſſemble or counſail, or beyng there, dyd ſpeake or reaſon in euery mattier, but reſerued hym ſelfe to thynges of verie great importaunce. And yet ſemed he than to be verie timorouſe. But yet his eloquence was ſo excellent, his voyce and pronunciacion ſo pleaſant, his ſentences ſo ponderouſe and vehement, that he neuer ſpake, but that therto all men conſented. And therfore it is written of hym, that he dyd fulminate his wooꝛdes, that is to ſaie, that they proceded from hym as thunder, and lyghtnynge. He was of ſuche temperaunce, that all thoughe he ſeemed to haue all the Athenienſes at his commaundement, yet he neuer encreaſed his owne reuenues, the worthe of one farthyng, but augmented the cõmune treaſure exceedyngly. And ſuche ſpoyle as came to his parte in the warres, he dydde employe vpon grayne and vitayll, diuidynge it amonge the people in the tyme of neceſſitee. He was infortunate onely in his owne childzen, his eldeſt ſoonne Xantippus, perſecutyng him with ſundry diſpleaſures, and openly mockyng hym. Notwithſtandyng (as it was reaſon) he dyed miſerably before his father. Finally Pericles beyng ſycke vnto deathe, the noble men came to coumforte hym, ſpeakynge ſoftely they communed of his prowes, where he had victorye in nyne great battayiles. He hearyng what they ſpake, ſaied vnto them, that he muche meruayled, that they ſo greately extolled that thynge, whereof the more parte pertayned to

 for fortune, and had happed to diuers other capitaynes as well as to hym, and that they spake nothyng of that which was most to be praysed. For neuer man, (saied he (by myne occasion) had cause to put mournyng garment vpon him. Plutarchus in vitis. He was afore the incarnation of Christe. 441. yeres.

Periclitátio, ônis, fœm. g. experience or assaie, a proufe, aduenturyng.

Periclitatos mores, for Spectatos, dixit Tullius, proued, tried.

Periclitátus, a, um, put in daunger. also proued, saied, aduentured.

Periclitor, aris, ari, to bee in perill, also to experience or proue a thyng, to assaie, to aduenture, to ieoparde.

Periclitor fama, I am in daunger to leese my good name.

Periclitor siti, I am almoste deade or lyke to die for thurste.

Periclitari cancro, to bee in daunger of a canker.

Periclitari omnia, to aduenture or assaye all thynges.

Rumpi periclitatur, it is in daunger to bee broken.

Ne inops fieri periclitetur, leaste he bee in daunger to bee made a beggar, or a verale poore man.

Periclitatur capite, he is in daunger of his life.

Periclymenon, ni, n. ge. an herbe called woodbyne, whiche beareth the honysuchle.

Periclymenus, Nestors brother.

Pericornos, ni, m. ge. a chynne that compasseth all the skulle.

Periculor, aris, ari, to bee in daunger, or to put hym selfe in daunger.

Periculosè, daungerously, perillously, with great daunger.

Periculosè facere, to doe a thynge with great daunger.

Periculosè ægrotans, so sycke that he is in ieoperdie of his lyfe.

Periculósus, a, um, daungerous, perillous, full of daunger, full of perill.

Periculum, i, n. ge. perill or daunger, sometyme experience or proufe.

Periculum facere, to proue, to assaye, to ieoparde a toynge.

Periculo, meo, tuo, suo, on myne, thyne or his perill.

Subtrahere periculo, to deliuer out of daũger.

Huius periculo fit, all is done on this mans perill.

Venire in periculum, to come in daunger.

Creare periculum, to put one in daunger.

Facere & facescere periculum alicui.

Ducere and Adducere in periculum, & Adferre alicui periculum, to bryng one in daunger, to worke one mischiefe.

Injcere alicui periculum mortis, to put one in daunger of his life.

Moliri periculum alicui, to go about or endeauour to worke one displeasure or mischiefe.

Periculum fortunarum negligere, not to passe for the hasarde, daunger and losse of all his goodes and substance.

Propulsare periculum, to put awaie daunger that is lyke to ensue.

Subjcere periculo, to put in daunger.

Haud sane periculum est, there is no daunger, or it is not to be feared.

Nihil tibi pericli est a me, I wyll doe the no harme, thou needest not to feare any thynge that I will dowe to the.

A securi negat ei esse periculum, he saied he was in no daunger to lose his life, or to be beheaded, or that he nede not to feare the daunger of his life.

Fac periculum in literis, proue hym in learnyng.

Aliis aliunde est periculum, some bee in daunger one waie, some an other.

Periculum famæ mihi est, I am in danger to lose my good name.

Si periculum vllum in te est, if you be in any daunger.

Non procul abfuit à periculo vitæ, he was in great daunger of his lyfe. or it had almost coste hym his lyfe.

Peridoneus, a, um, verale fitte or conuenient.

Peridromis, idis, f. g. a walke or galarie about the place of exercyse.

Periegésis, sis, f. g. a compasse or circuite.

Periergos, verie curiouse.

Periergia, æ, fœm. gene. to muche curiositie, to muche diligence.

Perileucos, a certaine precious stone.

Perillus, an artificer, which made a bull of brasse, wherinto (beyng glowyng hotte) men shoulde be put, that in tormentyng of them, by theyr cryinge, a noyse shoulde issue out lyke the lowynge or bellowynge of a bull. The whiche engynne whan Perillus had geuen vnto Phalaris the cruell tyrante: he caused hym first to be put into it, to proue his owne experience.

Perillustris, stre, verale noble, right notable and famouse.

Perimbecillus, a, um, or Perimbecillis, le, very weake or feble.

Perimetros, id est, immensus.

Périmo, emi, ere, to kyll, to take awaie.

Perimere reditum alicui, to let or stoppe one of his waie.

Perimere consilium alicuius, to breake or dissapoynte ones enterprise.

Perincómmodus, a, um, verale yll or incommodious.

Perincommode, verale incommodiously, verale vnhansomely.

Perincónsequens, entis, nothyng consequent or agreeyng.

Perin-

Perincertus, a, um, verye vncertaine.
Périnde, ſo in ſyke wyſe, euen ſyke, verye muche, euen as, in this kaction: and requireth after hym. Acſi or atque ſi, and with a negation quam, if it haue none of theſe, it is taken for æque.
Perinde atque capta vrbe, ſyke as if the citee had been wonne.
Nullare perinde motus quàm reſponſo, he was not ſo muche moued with anye thynge, as with the aunſwere.
Sed perinde erit vt acceperis, but it ſhall be euen as thou wylte take it.
Aduentus non perinde gratus fuit, his comynge was not verye pleaſaunt or acceptable.
Perinde quaſi factum ſit, as though it had been doone.
Hoc perinde eſt, tanquam ſi ego dicam, this is euen as though I ſhoulde ſaie.
Et perinde dominos laudaret, caſtigaretq; id eſt, ita, and ſo, or, and bye that meanes.
Et perinde reliquas commutet, and ſykewyſe ſhoulde chaunge the other.
Perinde vt dicã, euen ſo as I wil ſpeake them.
Clariſsimi ciuis & perinde feliciſ, id eſt, æque, or pariter.
Fac iſ perinde adeo, vt me velle intelligis, ſee that you bee euen as you knowe that I woulde haue you.
Perinde tuebar, acſi vſus eſſem, I dydde defende it, euen as thoughe it had done me ſeruice.
Perinde coniecturam de moribus ſuis homines facturos, pro vt hoc vel illud egerint, that men wyll ſo coniecte of theyr maners, as they dooe behaue them in this or that.
Perinde diu q̃ lauant, ſo longe as they waſche.
Non perinde, id eſt, non multũ, non valde.
Perindulgens, entis, he that is verye gentill and pardoneth muche. Perindulgens in patrem, very obedient, and ſhewyng great reuerence to his father.
Perinephra, æ, f. g. the fat places about the kydneies.
Perinfâmis, me, that hath a verye yll name.
Perinfirmus, a, um, verye feeble, of ſmall force or value.
Peringeniôſus, a, um, very witty.
Periniquus, a, um, very vniuſte.
Perinſignis, ne, verye notable.
Perintegер, gra, grum, verye entiere, pure and vncorrupte.
Perinthius, a, um, of Heraclia.
Perinthus, a citee of Thrace, whiche nowe is called Heraclia.
Periocha, chæ, f. g. a briefe argument, conteynyng the ſumme of the whole matter.
Periódicus, a, um, that goth and commeth by courſes.
Periódica febris, a feuer, which cometh by courſes, as tertians, and quartans.

Periodus, di, f. g. a clauſe, a ſtreinte in woordes, or continuaunce in ſpeakyng, a periode, a full ſentence. Alſo a certaine game or exerciſe amonge the Greekes.
Periœci, companions or dwellers together in one houſe.
Peripatéticus, a philoſopher of Ariſtotles ſecte or opinion.
Peripetaſma, ãtis, n. g. the hangyng of a houſe, tapeſtry, or other ſyke thynges.
Periphas, a mannes name in Virgill.
Peripheria, a circumference.
Periphróma, or Periphrôma, atis, n. g. a figure, whan a parte of a ſentence nothyng neceſſarie, is added vnto a verſe.
Periphraſis, ſeos, f. g. circumlocutiõ, one woorde expreſſed by many.
Peripneumónia, æ, fœ. g. an impoſtume in the lounges, procedynge of thicke humoures, and commonly ſolloweth pleureſie.
Peripneumonicus, a, um, that hath that diſeaſe.
Peripſêma, mãtis, n. g. the pouder or duſte that cometh of filynge or ſhaupnge of mettall or wood. alſo the paryng of a hous, entre, or other place, whiche cometh by reaſon of goyng.
Periſcelis, lidis, f. g. ſloppes, whiche women were wonte to weare.
Periſſológia, æ, f. g. a ſuperfluous ſpeakyng.
Periſſon, vnequall, vneuen.
Periſteræ, houſe couluers or dooues.
Periſtereon, a couluer houſe.
Periſtereos, rei, f. g. or Periſterion, onis, m. g. or Periſtereum, rei, n. g. an herbe, called alſo Verbenaca, or Verbena, Vetuin.
Periſterotrophium, ij, n. g idem quod Periſtereon.
Periſtrôma, ãtis, ne. g. tapeſtrie or couerlidden of Aras or Verdure.
Periſtylium, lij, or Periſtylum, li, n. g. a place ſet about with pillars, a cloiſter: alſo a longe entrie in an houſe.
Peritè, aduerb. wiſely, counnyngly.
Périto, aui, are, to perylſhe or be loſte.
Perithous, the companion of Theſeus.
Peritia, æ, f. g. counnyng in any ſcience.
Peritus, a, um, counnyng, perfecte in a ſcience, experte.
Multarum rerum peritus, experte in manye thynges. Peritus, operum, iuris, legum. &c.
Peritus vſu, counnyng and ready by experience and vſe.
Periucundè, verye pleſantly.
Periucundus, a, um, verye pleaſant.
Periuratio, ónis, f. g. forſwearyng.
Periuratiuncula, læ, a diminutiue of Periuratio.
Periurióſus, a, um, that is often forſworne.
Periûro, aui, are, to ſweare vntruely, to bee periured, to breake ones othe, not to dooe that he hath ſworne to dooe.
Periûrus, a, um, forſworne, periured, that hath broke his othe.

Periurior, more forsworne.
Periurium, rij, neu gen. periurie, forswearyng, breakyng of ones othe.
Perizôma, ătis, n. g. a brieche, a codpiece.
Perizôntum, a corde or brode girthe, wherewith maidēs were wonte to be girt vnder theyr pappes, after some a vesture much like an apzone, which maidens woze trō their breastes downewarde.
Perlăbor, lăberis, bi, to flowe or ren by a place, to slyde downe, to slyde by.
Perlætus, a, um, verate merp, verap glad.
Perlatè, verate broade, farre abroade.
Perlatè patere, to pertepne to manp vses.
Perlătus, a, um, verate broade.
Perlécebra, æ, f. g. a thyng, which pleasauntlye draweth a man to fauour it.
Perlecto, aui, are, to allure to it often.
Pérlego, pérlegis, legi, legere, to reade ouer, to reade from the begynnynge to the ende.
Perlegere oculis, to viewe and beholde diligently ouer and ouer.
Perlépidus, a, um, verate pleasant, that hath a good grace.
Pérleuis, ue, very lyght or sodaine, of very little value.
Pérleui sæpe momento fortunæ, with the least change of fortune that can be.
Pérleui momento victi sunt, they were ouercome with the least thyng in the worlde.
Perléuiter, verie lightly, verate quickely.
Pérlibens, bentis, that dooeth a thyng with a verap good wpll.
Perlibenter, with a verap good wpll, verape gladly, ryght gladly.
Perliberâlis, le, verap liberall.
Perliberâliter, verate liberally.
Perlicio, pérlicis, lexi, licere, idem quod Pellicio.
Perlicere in amicitiam, to allure one by fayre meanes to be his friende.
Perlibro, aui, are, to weighe diligently, to make euen, to leauell, to trie by the plumme rule or leauell.
Pérligo, aui, are, to bynde harde or faste.
Perlinio, pérlinis, liniui, nire, to rubbe or annointe harde with any licour.
Pérlino, lini, liui, or leui, linere, to annoynte or smere all about.
Pérlito, aui, are, to doo sacrifice solemnely with all accustomed ceremonies, to please god with sacrifice, and obteine his desyre.
Pérlitus, a, um, annoynted harde.
Perlonge, very farre.
Perlongè est, it is verate farre hence.
Perlonginquus, a, um, farre of, that is a great wate hence.
Perlongus, a, um, verate longe.
Perlongum est, it is verate farre hence, it were very longe to tarie.
Pérloquor, qui, to speake out all to an ende, to speake perfectely.
Pérluber, it lyketh me well, with a verap good wpll.
Perlubet hunc hominem colloqui, I woulde verate faine, or I haue a great desyre to comon with the man.
Pérlubens, entis, that is verap wel content to do, or suffre a thynge to be dooen.
Perlúceo, lúces, luxi, lucêre, idem quod Pellucceo, to shyne bryght, to shine thozough.
Perlucidulus, a, um, a diminutiue of Perlucidus.
Perlúcidus, a, um, and Pellucidus, a, um, clere, that a man may see thozough, as water, glasse, hozne.
Perluctuôsus, a, um, verate lamentable, full of sozowe.
Perlûdo, lusi, ludere, idem quod Ludo, to play all about.
Pérluo, pérlui, luere, to washe ouer all, to rinse or washe cleane.
Perlustro, aui, are, to beholde al about diligently.
Perlustrare oculis, to viewe or looke roundeabout diligently.
Perlustrare animo, to regarde or consyder restlp in the mynde.
Perlûtus, a, um, washed all ouer, rinsed cleane.
Permâcer, cra, crum, verate leane, verap barreine or dry.
Permadesco, idem quod Permadeo.
Permadefacio, défacis, feci, cere, to make very mopst, or to wete muche.
Permadeo, pérmades, dui, dêre, to be wette ouer and ouer, to be thzough wette.
Permagnus, a, um, verap great.
Permagna res tua agitur, a great matter of poure is in controuersie: or the controuersie is of a weightie matter of poure.
Permagno æstimare, to set at a high price, to value a thynge verap deere.
Permagno vendere, to sell verap dere or at a hygh price.
Permagnum existimare, to thynke it a verie great matter.
Permagni interest, it maketh a great matter.
Permagni referre arbitror, I iudge it to make a great matter.
Permagni nostra interest, it is verap necessary or requisite for vs.
Permaneo, pérmanes, mansi, nere, to abyde to the ende, to abyde tyl al bee dooen, to remayne stpll, to continue.
Stabilem permanere, to continue sure and stedfast to the ende.
In incepto permanere, to continue in his purpose that he hath enterprised.
Permanere in eadem mente, to be in the same mynde still.
Permanere in officio, to continue in due obedience.
Permanesco, scere, to come to ones knowlage.

Vnde ad eum poteſt permaneſcere, wherby it may come to his knowlage.
Permananter.
Permâno, aui, are, to renne all ouer, to renne in to, to be declared openly, to bee diuulgate or knowen abroade, to come to ones knowlage.
Ne permânet palam, that it come not abrode to the knowlage of men.
Ne aliqua ad patrem hoc permânet, leaſt it come to my fathers eares by any meanes.
Permanare ad plures, to come to the knowlage of many.
Permanauit in hanc ciuitatem doctrina Pythagoræ, the doctrine of Pythagoras came into this citee.
Permanſio, ônis, f. g. a continuyng or abydyng longe in a place.
Permaturéſco, turui, ſcere, to waxe throughe ripe.
Permediocris, cre, very meane.
Permeo, aui, are, to go, to paſſe ouer.
Permenſus, a, um, measured diligently.
Permeádo, to defile ouer all.
Permeſſus, aut Permeſsis, ſsidos, a ryuer in Greece, dedicate to the Muſes.
Permétior, tiris, tiri, to meaſure, to measure diligently, to paſſe or go through or ouer.
Permetiri æquor, to paſſe or ſaile ouer the ſea.
Permétuo, metui, metuere, to be ſore afeerde.
Perminûtus, a, um, very litteli, very ſmall, of very littell value.
Pemirus, a, um, verey meruaylous.
Mihi permirum videtur, it is great meruayle to me.
Permiſceo, miſcui, miſtum, or mixtum, miſcere, to mixe all together.
Permiſcere omnia, to make a great buſineſſe, to trouble and confounde all thynges.
Permiſcere Græciam, to trouble all Greece, and ſet it in an vproze.
Permiſcere & Confundere.
Permiſceri connubio, to be married.
Permiſceri vino, to be tempered with wyne.
Permiſsio, ônis f. g. a ſufferaunce.
Permiſſus, a, um, permitted, ſuffred.
Permiſſus, us, m. g. and plu. Permiſſa, orum, n. g. ſufferaunce, permiſſion, licence, graunt.
Permiſte, one with an other confuſely.
Permiſtio, ônis, f. g. a mixture or mingling.
Permiſtus, a, um, mixed, mingled.
Permitis, te, verey gentyll and milde. Alſo thoroughe rype.
Permitto, miſi, mittere, to ſuffre, to permitte, to graunt, to geue leyence, power or authoritee to doo a thyng: alſo to pardone, to yelde or deliuer, to thruſt in, to throw downe, to commit, to ſende forthe, to let downe, as to let downe one by a rope, or other lyke thing. ſometyme for Immittere: as, Concitant equos, permittuntque in hoſtem, they thruſte the ſpurres to theyr horſes, or ſtretched vp theyr horſes with the ſpurres, and galopte forthe agaynſt theyr ennemies.

Permittere equum, to geue the horſe the bridle, or to let hym go at his pleaſure, to galope forthe.
Permittere ſeſe, to yelde him ſelfe.
Permittere ſe in deditionem alicuius, idem.
Permittere iracundiæ alicuius, to geue place to one whan he is angrie, to beare with one in any poynete whan he is angry.
Permittere omnia iudicio alterius, to ſubmit hym ſelfe to the iudgement of one: or to make one iudge, and ſuffre the whole matter to be tried by hym.
Permittere ſe fidei, or in fidem alicuius, to yelde or ſubmitte hym ſelfe into ones handes, to put hym ſelfe in ones tuition.
De eo permiſſum ipſi erat, faceret, quod. &c. as concernyng that matter, authozitee or leaue was geuen to hym, to doo as. &c.
Neq; enim liberum id vobis permittet Philippus, for Philip will not ſuffre you ſo to do: or, Philip will not permit you to doo therein as you will your ſelfe.
Equo permittere habænas, to let the horſe haue the bridle.
Inimicitias cum aliquo ſuſceptas, reipublicæ permittere, for the cõmon weales ſake to leaue of diſpleaſure or enmitee, that he hath conceiued againſt one.
Precibus alicuius permittere aliquid, to graunte a thyng at ones deſyre.
Permodeſtus, a, um, very modeſt, very demure.
Permodice, in verey ſmall pieces, verey modeſtely.
Permódicus, a, um, verey littell.
Permoleſte, verey greuouſely.
Permoleſte tuli, I was very greatly diſpleaſed.
Permoléſtus, a, um, verey grecuous, that combreth or letteth a man muche.
Permótio, ônis, f. g. a motion or mouyng.
Permoueo, pérmoues, moui, mouere, to moue or ſtere greatly, to angre.
Permôtus, a, um, moued, ſtered.
Permotus mente, madde, out of his witte.
Permotus metu, ſore afraied.
Permotus iracundia, verey angrie.
Mare permotum ventis, the ſea troubled with wyndes.
Permulceo, mulſi, cere, to appeaſe, abbulce, or mitigate a mans diſpleaſure, to pleaſe, to delyte, to ſtroke one ſoftely.
Aures permulcere, to pleaſe or delyte the eares.
Terque manu permulſit eum, and thryſe he ſtroked hym with his hande.
Permulcere iras, to mitigate or aſſwage ones angre.
Permulcere atq; tractare plebem, to pleaſe the people and handell theym gentilly.

Permul-

Permulti, verap many.
Permultus, a, um, verap muche, verate many.
Permulto, and Permultum, aduerbes, verate muche.
Permultum interest, there is a verap great difference.
Permundus, a, um, verap cleane and pure.
Permúnio, múnis, níui, nire, to fortifie ſtrógly, to finiſſhe the foztification that one hath begunne.
Permunitus, a, um, ſtzongely foztified, fenced rounde about.
Permutátio, ónis, ſ. g. an exchaunge, bartezng, chaungezng one thynge foz an other, chaungezng from place to place.
Permutátor, óris, m. g. he that exchaungeth.
Permúto, aui, are, to chaunge one thynge foz an other, to chaunge from place to place, to bartre, Sometyme to bye.
Permutare locum cum altero, to chaunge place with an other.
Nomina inter vos permutaſtis, you haue chaunged your names one with an other, oz one of you hath taken an others name.
Permutare rem publicam, id eſt perturbare, to trouble and alter the ſtate of the common weale.
Permutare pecuniam, to exchaunge money with bankers.
Permutare precio vel merce, to chaunge foz money oz foz marchaundiſe, to bartre.
Permutare aliquid ære alieno alterius, to take a thynge of a man to the entent to diſcharge and paie that he ougheth.
Perna, æ, ſ. g. the peſtil, & alſo the gamonde of bahon. alſo a certaine kynde of ſhell fiſhes.
Pernágigo, aui, are, to ſaile oz paſſe thzough.
Perneceſſárius, a, um, verap neceſſary. Alſo verie familiar, a great friende.
Pérnego, aui, are, to denie ſtiffely, to denie vtterlye.
Perneo, nes, éui, ere, to ſpinne out the threade to an ende.
Perniciábilis, le, deadely, moztall
Perniciális, le, that bzingeth deſtruction, that cauſeth death.
Pernicies, ei, ſ. g. death, great damage, deſtruction, vndoopng.
Vt ſcias, quàm inſtructa pulchre ad perniciem ſit, that thou maieſt knowe, how goodly ſhe is appointed to vndooe oz caſt awaye any man: oz to bzynge any man to nought.
Ipſe ſibi perniciem acceſſiuit, he was cauſe of his owne hurte, oz he made a rod foz his owne taple.
Pellere perniciem à patria, to ſaue his countrepe.
Incumbere ad vel in perniciem alicuius, to labour all that euer one can, to caſt a man awaye, oz to wooꝛke his deſtruction.
Inuenire ſibi perniciem, to be occaſion of his owne deſtruction.
Pernicioſe, naughtily, hurtfully, to ones deſtruction and caſtyng awaie.
Pernicioſe de republica mereri, to be cauſe of great miſchicke to the common weale.
Pernicioſus, a, um, deadly, moztall, that inferreth deathe, deſtruction, great hurte oz damage.
Pernicitas, atis, ſ. g. ſwiftneſſe.
Perniciotiſsimus, a, um, waſte, moſte daungerouſe.
Perniciter, ſwiftely, quickely.
Pérniger, gra, grum, verap blacke.
Permimium, very muche, wonderfull muche.
Permimium intereſt, there is a wounderfull great difference.
Pérnio, ónis, m. g. a hybe on the heele.
Perniúnculus, li, m. g. a litteli hybe.
Pernix, nicis, om. g. ſwyfte, ſpzyghtye, ſomeſtpme ſtubburne.
Vento pernicior, ſwifter than the wynde.
Pernóbilis, le, very noble.
Pernócto, aui, are, to tary al the night, to watch, to pzay, to reſte, to walke, to ſtande, to dwell, to ſleepe, to lie out of his owne houſe all nighte longe.
Pernoctare in publico, to be all night abzoade.
Pernósco, noui, noſcere, to knowe perfectely, to knowe thzoughly.
Non ſatis me pernoſti, etiam qualis ſim, thou dooeſt not yet know me thzoughly, what a man I am.
Pernox, noctis, om. g. that continueth watcheth oz abydeth all night longe.
Pernúmero, aui, are, to tell out money, to reckon to the ende, to make an ende of numbzynge oz tellynge.
Pero, the daughter of Helcus, and ſiſter of Neſtoz, a woman of excedyng beautie.
Pero, ónis, om. g. a ſhoe of rawe leather. alſo a ſacke, a ſtartup.
Perobſcúrus, a, um, very obſcure oz darke.
Perobſcura fama, a fame oz bzute that very fewe men here of.
Perodiósus, a, um, very odious.
Perogigamus, mi, m. g. he that putteth the ſtalion to the mare to ſeaſon hir.
Peroleo, péroles, olui, oz oléui, olére, to ſauour oz ſtinke muche, to haue a ſtronge ſauour.
Peronátus, a, um, that weareth rawe leather ſhoes, boteux, ſtertups, oz cobars, ſyke a plough man.
Peroportúnus, a, um, verate conueniente and meete foz the purpoſe, that cometh in very good tyme.
Peroportunè, verate opoztunetely, in very good ſeaſon.
Péropus eſt, it is very neceſſary oz expedient.
Perórigo, gæ, he that putteth the ſtalion to the mare.
Perórior, rîris, rîri, to begynne, ſpzynge oz grow by the

by the occasion of some thyng.
Perorno, aui, are, to adourne greatly, to doo great honour, to set fooythe ones commendacion greatly.
Perornátus, a, um, adourned, eloquent.
Perorátio, ônis, f. gen. the laste parte of an oracion, wherin the effectes of the herers are chiefly stired.
Peróro aui, are, to speake of reason to an end, to reason perfectely, to tell a tale to an ende, to make an ende of an oracion. sometyme to moue the herers to indignacion.
Perorare in aliquem, to pleade agaynst one, to accuse one.
Concludere & perorare.
Nunquam perorari potuisse, that he couldo neuer pronounce his oracion to an ende.
Perorare causam, to pleade a cause throughly to the ende.
Perorare orationem, to pronounce an oracion to the ende.
Peroſi, a people of Aethiopia.
Peróſus, a, um, that hateth extremely.
Perpáco, aui, are, to set all thynge in peace and quiet, to make caulme.
Perparum, very litteli.
Perparce, verie scarsely, verye nyghtye, or negardlye.
Perparuus, a, um, a very litteli one.
Perpáſco, aui, ſcere, to feede to the vttermoste.
Perpárulus, a, um, a very litteli praetie one.
Perpáuculus, a, um, very fewe.
Perpaucus, a, um, very fewe.
Perpauefácio, pauéfacis, féci, facere, to make sore afraide.
Perpaulum, very litteli.
Perpáululum, and Perpauxillum, wounderfull litteli.
Perpauper, very poore.
Perpello, pérpuli, perpellere, to constreigne, to moue or enduce one to dooe a thyng.
Donec perpulit vt dicerem, vntyll he hadde made or caused me to saie it.
Perpellere ad deditionem, to make to yeld vp.
Perpendiculáris, re, that is directly downe right, that hangeth streight downe.
Perpendículum, li, n. g. a plumme lyne, suche as masons and carpenters haue with leade at the ende, wherby they dooe proue the euenes of their squares and walles.
Ad perpendiculum facere, to make euen with the plumme lyne.
Perpendo, di, dere, to examine or consyder diligently, to weigh the mattier exactely.
Perpenſe, aduisedly, with good consyderation.
Perpenſus, a, um, weighed or consydered diligently.
Perpenſa, an herbe called Cabaret.
Pérperam, amiſſe, ouerthwartly, vnhappilye, wrongfully.
Perperam inſimulatus, accused wrongfully, and without cause.
Perperam pronunciare, to pronounce erroniously and falsely.
Pérperus, a, um, shrewed, rude, a lyer.
Perperitúdo, dinis, shrewdnesse, foolishnesse.
Perpes, pérpetis, om. g. perpetuall.
Noctem perpetem dormire, to sleepe all nyght longe.
Perpeſsio, onis, enduryng, sufferyng, abidyng.
Perpeſsitius, a, um, that is accustomed to endure suffre or abyde.
Perpeſſus, a, um, that hath suffered or sustained.
Perpeſſu aſperum, very peynfull and grenous to be suffered.
Pérpetim, perpetually, without ceasyng.
Perpétior, peſſus ſum, pérpeti, to abide, endure, or suffre patiently.
Nunquàm perpetiar, I will neuer abide it.
Pérpeto, tiui, ti, perpétere, to atche importunately without ceasyng, to perfourme, to continue.
Pérpetro, aui, are, to dooe, or to committe an acte properly ill, or moste communly yll.
Perpetrare cædem, to committe a murder.
Perpetrato bello, after the warre ended.
Perpetrátus, a, um, doone, finished, atchieued.
Perpetrátio, ônis, an acte good or badde.
Perpetuàlis, le, perpetuall.
Perpetuárius, rij, m. gen. he that hireth a ferme, house, or ground in perpetuitee, for euer. sometyme he that alwaie attendeth his wooythe or labour.
Perpetuítas, âtis, f. ge. eternitee, an euerlastyng continuance, perpetuitee.
Sermonis perpetuítas, continuall speache without interruption.
Perpétuo, úui, âre, to continue on a thyng without ceasyng.
Perpetuare verba, to speake on styll without fetchyng of breathe.
Perpetuo, and perpétuum, aduerbes, signifiyng continually, alwaye, for euer, euermore, still without any ceasyng or intermission.
Perpetuo periſ, I am vtterly vndoone, I am vtterly cast awaie for euer.
Perpétuus, a, um, perpetuall, euerlastyng, continuall, whole, not in portions or deuided.
Triduo hoc perpetuo, all these thre daies continually without ceasyng.
Si perpetuam vis affinitatem hanc, if you will haue this affinitee to continue for euer.
Aedes perpetuæ ruunt, the whole house falleth downe.
Alimentis perpetuis donari, To haue meate and drynke founden all his life of free coste.
Febris perpetua, a continuall feuer.
Præda hæc perpetua eſt mea, id eſt, tota.
Trabes perpetuæ, beames that bee all of one piece.
Non eſt perpetuum, it cometh not alwaie so to passe, it is not alwaie true.

Per-

Perpetui montes, continuall hilles, e ioygnyng one to an other.

Perpetua oratio, a continuall oyacion without interrupcion or stoppyng.

Palus perpetua intercedebat, There was betweene a continuall marrise, and no other grounde.

Perpictus, a, um, peineted.

Perplaceo, pérplaces, perplacui, placere, to content very muche, to please right well.

Perplexè, ambiguouselp, intricatelye, doubtefullye.

Perplexe loqui, to speake nowe one thynge, nowe an other, that a man wotteth not what he meaneth, to speake ambiguouselp.

Perplexe & palam, contrary.

Perplexim, idem quod Perplexè.

Perplexor, aris, ari, to speake doubtfullye, as woordes wherin are two intendementes, to bynde or twyst hard and fast, to mingle so together, that a man can not knowe what the thyng meaneth.

At scio, quo vos pacto soleatis perplexarier pactum, non pactum est, non pactum, pactum est, quod vobis lubet, wel I know well enough, in what facion you are wont to speake that a man can not tell how to take you: it was promised, it was not promised: it was not promised, it was promised, euen as it listeth you.

Perplexabilis, le, a woorde spoken, whiche hath two diuers vnderstandynges: or that whiche is one thynge in herynge, an other in vnderstandyng.

Perplexabiliter, doubtefullp, with great perplexitee.

Perplexus, a, um, perplexe, twisted together, or harde to bee louſed, intricate, doubtefull, ambiguous.

Perplicatus, a, um, platted together.

Pérpluo, plui, pluere, to rayne thzough, to let the rayne come thzough.

Perplurimum, verp muche moze.

Perplus, pluris, n. g. muche moze, many mo.

Perpol, an othe, signifiyng by Pollux. sometyme the woorde, Per, doeth pertayne to the woorde folowyng.

Perpol quàm paucos reperias meretricibus fideles euenire amatores, by god thou fyndest verp few true louers happen to cõmen women. where per belongeth to paucos, & not to pol.

Perpoleo, pérpolis, liui, lire, to polisshe trimme, to make verp nete, to make perfect.

Perpolitio, ônis, f. g. a polisshyng.

Perpolitus, a, um, polysshed, trymmed vp perfectly.

Perpolitus literis, of great knowlage and lernyng, a man excellently well learned.

Perpopulor, aris, ari, to destroye, waste and spoyle ouer all.

Pérpoto, aui, are, to dzynke all daie, or to dzinke stil or continually tyll one be dzunke, to dooe nothyng but dzynke.

Perpotátio, ônis, fœ. g. a continuaunce in dzynkyng, dzunkerye.

Perpruriſco, riſcere, to haue a great itche, or desyre to clawe or scratche hym selfe.

Perpulcher, chra, chrum, verye faire, verye goodlye.

Perpulchrè, verp well doone, iolily well.

Perpurgo, aui, are, to make all thynge cleane or nete.

Perpurgare locum aliquem, id est, expedire, to dissolue all doubtes and difficultees that be in a matter.

Perpusillus, a, um, verp litteil.

Perpusillum, an aduerbe, verp litteil.

Pérputo, aui, are, to declare all.

Nunc operam date, vt ego argumentum hoc vobis plane perputem, nowe take ye heede, that I maie plainly declare all this matter to you.

Perquàm, added to anp nowne adiective, augmenteth his power.

Perquàm doctus, verp well learned.

Perquàm stolidus, verp foolishe.

Perquàm flebiliter, verp lamentably.

Perquiro, quisiui, quirere, to make diligente serche, to examyne, to aske and enquire diligently.

Perquisitè, with diligent serche and inquirie.

Perquisitor, ôris, mas. gene. one that inquireth or serecheth.

Perquisitus, a, um, sought or inquired out.

Perraro, verp selde.

Perrârus, a, um, that is verp seldome times seen.

Perrêpo, répsi, répere, to crepe into or thzough.

Perrepto, aui, are, to crepe about in euery corner, and serche diligently.

Perreptaui vsq; omne oppidum, I haue gone about all the towne to seke.

Perrideo, perrisi, perridere, to laughe hertily.

Perridicule, verp foolisshly.

Perridiculus, a, um, verp foolishe, woythy to be mocked and laughed at.

Perrôdo, rosi, rôdere, to eate or knaw thzough, all to knawe.

Pérrogo, áui, âre, to desire hertily, to require euery mannes opinion and sentence.

Perrumpo, rúpi, rumpere, to breake in sunder, or in the middes, to breake in pieces, to breake in or entre by force, to breake thzoughe violently.

Perrumpere nituntur, they endeuour to entre in by force.

Perrumpere ad suos, to breake thzough violently to their companie.

Aciem perrumpere, to breake and disturbe the arraye.

Perrumpere castra, to breake in and assaut the ennemies in their Campe.

Leges perrumpere, To breake and violate lawes.

Perrumpere periculum, To escape and auoyde noyde daunger.

Perrumpit omnes difficultates, there is no stop or let, but that he passeth through it.

Perruptus, a, um, broken throughe.

Persa, a man or woman of the countrey of Persia.

Persæpe, very often.

Persalsè, very wittily.

Persalsus, a, um, verye salte. also verye witty and pleasy.

Persaluto, aui, are, to salute often and muche.

Persanctè, very deuoutely or solemnely.

Persanctè deierat, he sweareth solemnely and deuoutely, he sweareth a great othe.

Persano, aui, are, to cure or heale perfectely and throughly.

Persapiens, entis, om. g. very wise, right sage.

Persapienter, very wisely, full sagely.

Perscienter, right cunningly, with gret knowlage.

Perscindo, perscidi, scindere, to cut in two, to rente or diuide in the middes.

Perscissus, a, um, rente, diuided, or torne in the middes.

Persciticius, a, um, very preaty and witty.

Perscriptio, ônis, f. g. a dede of a mannes owne hande writynge, a regestre.

Perscribo, scripsi, scribere, to write a thynge through, or to an ende, to write at lengthe, to write at large, to regestre or inrolle a thynge.

Perscribere in tabulas, to regestre.

Diligentissime, à te scripta sunt, they were written of you at length with great diligence.

Perscribere pecuniam, to cause the bankers to deliuer money to one by lone, for dette, or otherwyse.

Perscriptor, ôris, m. g. he that regestereth or keepeth a booke, or that maketh writynges and dedes.

Persea, a tree, whiche groweth verye highe, the woodde is blacke, the leafe and floure lyke to a peare, the leafe neuer falleth, and beareth alwaye fruite, of the quantitee of a peare, in fourme longe, and inclosed in a huske lyke an almonde, greene in colour, and hath within it a nut lyke a damsin, but lesse & softer, the fruite is swete and delectable, lyght of digestion, and all though it be exceedingly eaten, it hurteth not, the roote is verye great.

Persĕco, aui, are, to cutte through, to diuide.

Persector, aris, ari, to folow, pursue, or serche diligentlye.

Persecutio, ônis, f. g. pursuite, persecution.

Perscrutor, aris, ari, to serche or inquire diligently.

Persedeo, pérsedes, sedi, sedêre, to abide or sit still euen to the ende.

Persefacul, the olde and auncient writers vsed for Perfacile, verye lyghtly, or verye easily.

Persegnis, ne, verye slowe.

Perseis, a nimphe, one of the daughters of Oceanus.

Perseis, seidis, f. g. of Persia.

Herbæ perseides, id est, magicæ.

Pérsenex, pérsenis, om. g. verye olde.

Persentio, sentis, sentire, to feele, to perceiue.

Persentisco, sensi, scere, to perceiue.

Quot res dedere, vbi possem persentiscere? howe many occasions gaue they, whereby I might haue perceiued?

Persephone, the surname of Proserpina, and signifieth the vertue of seedes in springyng.

Persephónion, looke Rhamnus.

Persepolis, a citee in the contrey of Persia.

Pérsequor, eris, qui, to pursue, to continue in that, whiche is begunne, to folowe, to persecute, to bee auenged, to doo, to fulfill, to accomplisshe.

Persequi aliquem bello, to warre against one.

Persequi aliquem vestigiis, to folowe ones steppes, to folowe one steppe by steppe.

Vestigia persequi, idem.

Persequi numeris cursus syderum, to calculate the course of the sterres.

Persequi iniurias, to reuenge iniuries.

Persequi factis, quod dicimus, to dooe as we speake or saie.

Persequi imperium patris, to doo the fathers commaundemente.

Persequi ius suum, to defende his right.

Persequi pœnas alicuius, to reuenge ones death.

Persequi promissa alicuius, to solicite or call vpon one to kepe his promises.

Persequi vita disciplinam rectè viuendi, to lyue accordyng to the doctrine of honest lyfe and behauiour.

Persequi voluptates, to addicte or geue hym selfe to liue pleasantly.

Iudicio persequi, to sue one in the lawe.

Feras persequi, to hounte wylde beastes.

Incepta persequi, to pursue or continue to an ende, that he hath begunne.

Mores patris persequi, to endeuour to folowe his fathers maners, or to bee lyke his father in condicions.

Commodissime has res persecutus est Xenophon, Xenophõ hath written very wel of those thynges.

Stylum alicuius persequi, to imitate ones stile.

Versibus aliqua persequi, to write thynges in verses.

Voce aliquid persequi, to speake of a thing, to declare a thyng in woordes.

Persequi artem aliquam, to employ his studye and tyme to learne any art or science.

Persequi scriptura, to write.

Persero, perseui, perserere, to sow all, to sow or plant about or abrode.

Perses, the soonne of Perseus, of whome came the Persians. also a kynge of Macedonie, vanquished by Æmilius: an other was brother of Hesiodus the poete: an other, brother to Aeeta, father father of Hecate.

Perſeuerantia, æ, ſ. g. a ſtable abidynge in any thyng reaſonable, conſtancie.

Perſeueranter, conſtantly.

Perſeuéro, aui, are, to continue with a ſtedfaſt mynde.

Perſeuerare & tranſigere aliquid, to continue in a thyng and bring it to an ende.

Ad vltimum perſeuerare, to continue conſtantly to the ende.

In eo perſeuerat, he continueth in that mynde ſtyll.

Perſeuerus, a, um, very ſeuere or rygorous.

Perſeus, ſei, & Perſes, ſis, for ſi, a noble knight, whiche deliuered a faire lady (called Andromeda) from a whale, & alſo ſlew Medula, which turned men into ſtones. Alſo it is a ſigne amonge the ſterres.

Perſia, æ, Perſis, perſidis, and Perſida, dæ, a countrey in the eaſte parte of the worlde, which hath on the northe Media, on the weſte Suſiana, on the eaſt Carmania, on the ſouth the Perſian ſea, called Sinus Perſicus, where now Sophi reigneth.

Perſica poma, a fruite called peaches.

Perſicaria, æ, ſome iudge to be the herbe called arſemarte.

Perſiconapy, the herbe called alſo Raphanus maior.

Pérſicus, a, um, of Perſia: ſometyme riche.

Perſici apparatus, ſumptuous and riche proui-ſion.

Perſideo, perſides, ſédi, dére, to ſitte by, to abyde ſtill.

Perſido, ſidis, ſédi, ſidere, to perſe or get downe vnto the botumme.

Perſigno, áui, are, to ſigne.

Perſimilis, le, very lyke.

Perſiſto, perſtiti, ſtere, to abyde: alſo to tary, to continue to the ende.

Perſius, a learned man of Rome.

Perſolàta, tæ, ſ. g. an herbe called clote leaues, whiche beareth great burres.

Perſólido, aui, are, to make ſounde or harde, to tongele, to frieſe.

Perſoluo, ſolui, uere, to paie truely, to pay all, to accompliſhe.

Perſoluere grates, to geue thankes, to rendre thankes.

Perſoluere amico, to requite a friende for pleaſures that he hath doone.

Quantum perſoluere difficile eſt, as I am ſcant able to requite.

Perſolui primæ epiſtolæ, I haue anſwered to thoſe thynges that ye wrote in your fyrſte letter.

Perſolui gratia non poteſt, it can not be requited or recompenſed.

Officium receptum perſoluere, to perfourme the pleaſure or benefite, that he promiſed to doo.

Perſoluere pœnas, to be puniſhed, to make one amendes.

Promiſſum perſoluere, to fulfill or kepe his promiſſe, to doe that he promiſed.

Ille rei publicæ pœnas graues, iuſtaſque perſoluit, he was greuouſly and righteouſly puniſhed for the miſchiefe or diſpleaſure, that he had wrought to the common weale.

Perſoluere votum, to accompliſſhe his vow.

Perſoluere rationem officii, to make an accompte how he hath doone his duetie.

Perſoluere ſtipendium, to pay wages.

Perſoluere quæſtionem, to ſoyle a queſtion.

Perſôlus, a, um, alone, without compaine.

Perſolæ nugæ, id eſt, meræ nugæ.

Perſolata, or Perſolyton, an herbe, wherof they make garlandes in Egypte.

Perſôna, æ, fœ. g. a viſour lyke to a mánes face: alſo perſon or perſonage, the qualitie, whereby one man differeth from an other: as Hector from Priamus, by the perſon of a ſonne. ſometyme a man or woman.

Pacifica perſona, a peaſible man.

Imponere alicui perſonam calumniæ, to make one to be taken for an vniuſte or falſe accuſer.

Imponere alicui perſonã, to geue one a charge or an office to doo.

Imponere perſonam improbam alicui, to make one ſerue his louene in committynge a naughty acte.

Mea perſona ad iſtam pacem conciliandam minime fuit diligenda, id eſt, non debui mitti legatus, it was not conuenient, that I ſhulde bee ſente as ambaſſadour, to make this peace.

Perſonæ ſeruire, to behaue him ſelfe accordyng to the parte that he playeth.

Perſonæ, be alſo gargiles and ſuche lyke ymages made in buildynges.

Perſonâta, tæ, and perſonâtia, æ, an herbe, growynge by the water ſyde, haunge great broade leaues lyke gourdes, but greatter and harder: it is ſuppoſed to be the herbe, in ſome countrey called Donge: it ſemeth by ſome herbals, to be the ſame that Perſolata is, clote or great burre, called of Apothecaries Lappa maior.

Perſonâlis, le, belongyng to the perſone.

Perſonâtus, a, um, a maſker, he that weareth a viſour, diſguiſed, he that taketh vpon hym other wiſe than he is.

Perſonata felicitas, a counterfeite felicitee.

Perſonata vulnera, hidden woundes.

Perſonatus, us, m. g. a maſke.

Pérſono, ſonui, perſonare, to ſowne out or ſowne perfectely, to make a great noyſe, to crie out alowde, or ſpeake alowde with full mouth.

Perſonare aures alicuius uoce aliqua, to ſpeke a thynge often that one may here it.

Perſonat domus cantu tibiarum, all the houſe ryngeth with minſtrelſie and pypyng.

Vlulatus perſonat tota vrbe, wailynge and weppyng is heard ouer all the citee, or in euery

place

place of the cite.

Perſonus, a, um, that ſowneth all ouer.

Perſorbeo, ſorbui, or ſorpſi, ſorbêre, to ſuppe all vp.

Perſpecte, diligently, diſcretely, counnyngly.

Perſpecto, aui, are, to loke wel about, to behold wel to the ende.

Perſpectus, a, um, playnely perceyued or knowen, manifeſt, euident.

Perſpeculor, áris, ári, to beholde, viewe or loke about wiſely and diligently.

Perſpergo, ſperſi, ſpergere, to ſprincle or caſt all ouer a thyng, to ſprincle duſte or lycour.

Perſpicácitas, átis, and Perſpicatia, æ, fœ. gen. quickenelle of light, or perceyuyng of a thyng, conſyderation.

Perſpicáciter, aduiſedly.

Perſpicientia, æ, fœ. ge. perfecte knowlage, full vnderſtandyng of a thyng.

Perſpícax, ácis, om. ge. that ſeeth quickely, and doeth all thynges with conſyderacion, quicke wited, that perceyueth a thyng quickely.

Perſpício, perſpícis, ſpexi, ſpícere, to ſee or vnderſtande playnly, to perceyue manifeſtlye and clerely.

Perſpícuè, clerely, openly, euidently.

Perſpicúitas, átis, fœ. ge. clerenelle, propyrly in wordes or ſentences, eaſineſſe, perſpicuitee.

Perſpícuus, a, um, that one maie ſee thyrough, al-ſo clere, playne, eaſy, euident.

Perſpicua aqua, clere water, that one maie ſee to the bottómme.

Perſpicuum facere, to make euidẽt and playnly knowen to euery man.

Perſpicuum eſt omnibus, It is euident and plaine to all the worlde.

Mors perſpicua, preſent deathe, when one perceyueth there is none other waie but deathe.

Perſpiratio, a dryeyng of breath thyrough.

Perſpíſe, an aduerbe, very late, ſlowely.

Perſterno, ſtraui, ſternere, to paue all thyrough.

Perſtimulo, aui, are, idem quod Stimulo.

Perſtíno, aui, are, to ſet a price on a thyng.

Perſto, ſtiti, perſtitum, and perſtatum, ſtare, to abide firmely, to ſtande ſurely, to continue to the ende.

Perſtare incœpto, to abide ſtil in his purpoſe.

Perſtrátus, a, um, all paued, paued thyrough.

Perſtrepo, pui, pere, to make a great noyſe or ruſtelyng with the feete, or otherwyſe.

Perſtrictóres, iuglers, that by leiger demayne make thynges appere to men that be not.

Perſtrictus, a, um, wronge harde.

Perſtringo, ſtrinxi, ſtringere, to wryng harde, to touche a thynge ſhortly in ſpeakyng or wryting, to dull or darke with to muche lyght, to daſell, to reprehende in few woordes, to make one somewhat greeued.

Perſtringere aures, to fille the eares with noyſe.

Perſtringere nomem aut famam, to geue a man an yll name, to geue one a ſhrewed quip pre in few woordes.

Perſtringere oculos ſplendore, To dull or darken the eies, to daſell the ſyght with brightneſſe.

Perſtringere aciem mentis, to dull, darken, or abaſhe the ſtrength or quickeneſſe of the witte or mynde, to deceiue or delude.

Terram aratro perſtringere, to labour or till the grounde.

Horrore perſtringi, To bee in ſuche a feare, that all the body trembleth, or is a colde and chylleth.

Perſtringere aliquem, to touche or reprehend one a littell in writyng or ſpeakyng.

Suſpicione perſtringere, to make one ſomes what ſuſpected.

Perſtringere rem aliquam, to touche a thynge in few woordes.

Perſtudióſus, a, um, very ſtudious.

Perſuadeo, perſuaſi, perſuadere, to perſwade, to make to beleue or truſte, to put or bryng in ones mynde, to induce or moue one to doo a thyng. ſometyme for Suadere, to exhorte.

Et (quomodo mihi perſuadeo) æquiorem, and (as I perſwade my ſelfe) or, (and in my phantaſy) more rightfull.

Velim tibi ita perſuadeas, I wolde you ſhulde beleue this ſurely.

Is mihi perſuadet, nuptias quantum. &c. he exhorteth me. &c.

Ita perſuaſum omnibus, euery man beleueth this for a certaynte.

Perſuaſibilis, le, that maie be perſwaded, eaſye to be perſwaded,

Perſuaſibiliter, in ſuche wiſe as it may perſuade.

Perſuaſio, ónis, ſ. ge. a perſuaſion, a ſure beleue that one hath in a thyng.

Perſuaſórius, a, um, that perſwadeth.

Perſuáſor, óris, m. g. a perſwader or inducer to dowe a thyng.

Perſuaſtrix, tricis, a woman, whiche inducth or moueth one to dowe a thyng.

Perſuáſus, a, um, brought in mynd, perſwaded.

Mihi perſuaſiſſimum eſt, and perſuaſiſſimum habeo, I beleue as ſurely as can bee, I am throughly perſwaded.

Perſubtilis, le, very ſubtile, very fine.

Perſulto, aui, are, to leape and ſkip for great ioye. it is properly ſpoken of beaſtes.

Perſuo, ere, to ſow vp all.

Pertædet, tæduit, tæſum eſt, tædere, to lothe greatly, to be very wery.

Pertæſus, a, um, diſpleaſed, annoyed, that lotheth or hateth, that is very wery of a thyng.

Sermonis pertæſus, wery of communycation or talke.

Pertæſus ignauiam ſuam, hatyng his owne ſlouthfulneſſe, or diſpleaſed with his owne ſlouthfulneſſe.

Primatam vitam pertæſus, lothyng or hatyng a pryuate life.

Pértego, texi, tégere, to couer all, to couer ouer and ouer, to make an ende of that one hath begunne to couer.

Pertendo, tendi, téndere, to extend, to go forth streight to a place, to contende, to laie one thing agaynst an other, to bryng to an ende that one hath purposed or intended.

Ad regis castra pértendit, he went streight to the kynges Campe.

Video non licere, vt cœperam hoc pertendere, I perceyue well, I can not be suffered to atcheue or bring to an ende that I intended, or so to bryng this mattier to passe as I purposed.

Animo pertendens, obstinate, stubburne.

Pertento, aui, are, to attempt, to assaie or proue muche.

Perténuis, ténue, very slender, very thynne, very simple, very single.

Pertenuis spes, very small hope.

Pertenue argumentum, a swalle argument or proufe.

Pertenui discrimine separantur, They differ very littell, or be littell or nothyng a sunder, or separated.

Suspicio pertenuis, the least suspicion in the worlde.

Pertérebro, aui, are, to perce, to bore through.

Pertergo, tersi, tergere, to rubbe or wype diligently.

Pértero, triui, terere, to rubbe or frote a thyng, to rubbe in pieces, to breake in small crummes.

Perterréfacio, perterréfacis, fèci, facere, idem quod perterreo.

Perterreo, terrui, terrére, to make sore afeerde.

Perterricrepus, a, um, that maketh a terrible noyse, that with the noyse thereof maketh men afeerde.

Pertérritus, a, um, sore afrayde.

Pertexo, texui, texere, to make an ende, to conclude, properly to weaue out, or to weaue perfectly.

Pértica, cæ, fœ. g. a longe staffe, perche or polle, wherewith grounde is met.

Perticális, le, whereof perches or polles be made.

Pertimeo, pértimes, mui, timere, to feare much, to be sore afeerde.

Pertimesco, scere, idem.

Pertinácia, æ, f. g. obstinacy, stubburnesse, stiffenesse in opinion. sometyme in the good parte, perseuerance, constance.

Pertinaciter, obstinately, stiffely, stubburnelye, constantly.

Pértinax, âcis, om. gen. that holdeth fast, stubburne, obstinate, stiffe in opinion, opinatiue, and in the good parte, continuyng or abydyng constantly, constant in his purpose.

Vincit omnia pertinax virtus, vertue constant and continuyng stil in goodnesse, ouercometh all thynges.

Pertinax non ero, I will not be stiffe in myne opinion.

Pertinax certámen, a sore and continuall battaple, with great stomake on bothe the partes, or where neither parte will geue ouer.

Pertinax fama, a constant bruite or fame, that alwaie continueth.

Tam pertinaci odio dissident, they hate one an other so mortally: or their natures bee so disagreeyng.

Studio pertinaci, with continuall studie.

Pertinax clamor, continuall or incessante crieyng.

Pertinácior, pertinácius, pertinacissimus, more and moste obstinate. sometyme constant.

Pertineo, pértines, pertinui, pertinére, to extende to a thyng, to touche a thyng.

Sylua longe introrsus pertinet, the woodde is extended or goeth farre in.

Gratius mihi futurum, quàm si ea mea liberalitas pertinuisset ad rem familiarem meam, It shall be to me more pleasure, then if he had extended or shewed that your liberalitee towarde myne owne proper commoditee.

Quæ ex ædibus eius in tuas pertinet, whiche cometh out of his house into youre, or euen to youre.

Quæ ad posteritatis memoriam pertineret, whiche might continue to the remembraunce of the posteritee.

Viæ, quæ pertinent ad iecur, the passages or waies, whiche extende or go euen to the liuer.

Deus pertinens per naturam cuiusq; rei, god shewyng or extendyng his vertue to the nature of euery thyng.

Ad quem suspicio maleficij pertinet, who is to bee suspected for this naughty act.

Ad rem publicam pertinet, it is for the profite of the common weale, it is expedient for the common weale.

Summa illuc pertinet, the whole mattier is spoken to this ende.

Hoc eo pertinet, this is the effecte or intent of that, whiche is spoken.

Eodémque pertinet, quod sententiam eius probo, and to the same effecte or intent it is, that I doe allowe his sentence.

Nec oratio mea pertinet ad infirmandum fœdus. &c. the intent of my oration or woorde is not to breake or hinder the league. &c.

Quorsum quidq; pertineat, to what intente euery thyng is spoken or done.

Cur non pertineat ad litteras ætas, quæ ad mores iam pertinet? why is not that age conuenient for lernyng, which is alredy mete to be instructed in good maners and behauiour.

Si nihil ad eos pertinere arbitrarentur, if they dyd thynke the mattier to touche them not, thing, or to belonge nothyng to them: or that they had nothyng to doe with it.

Pértinet, a verbe impersonall, it belongeth, it appertayneth.

Pertinet ad te, it belongeth to the, it concerneth the.
Pertinet ad rem, it appertayneth or belongeth to the matter.
Pertinet somnium ad hoc, it is euen as I dreamed.
Eadem bonitas etiam ad multitudinem pertinet, it becometh as well the people to haue that goodnesse as other men.
Pertingo, pertigi, tingere, to touche muche, to reyne harde vnto a thyng, to come euen to.
Ad cerebrum pertingit, it cometh euen to the brayne.
Pertisum, olde writers vsed for pertæsum.
Pertólero, aui, are, to endure to the ende, to sustayne valiantly, to abyde patiently.
Pertondeo, tondi, dere, to clip or shere all.
Pertorqueo, torsi, torquêre, to greue or torment sore.
Pertractátio, ônis, f. g. often handlyng.
Pertracto, aui, are, to touche or handle muche or ofte, to consyder or thynke on a matter diligently, to dispute, to entreate or reasone of a matter.
Omni cogitatione pertractans, debatynge the matter with him selfe diligently.
Pertraho, traxi, here, to drawe to with force.
Pertrahere vitam, to prolonge the lyfe.
Pertransco, siui, & sij, ire, to passe through.
Pertransúcidus, a, um, so cleare that one maye loke through it.
Pertribuo, bui, ere, to geue.
Testimonium pertribuere, to beare witnesse.
Pertristis, te, verie sad or heauie.
Pertritus, a, um, all to broken or crummed in small peces.
Pertumultuose, with great trouble and businesse, with great rufflyng and stirryng.
Pertumultuósus, a, um, full of rufflyng & busines, that maketh great stirryng and trouble.
Pertundo, pértudi, ere, to strike hard or breake a thyng in strikyng, to poune harde or small, to brate or perce through.
Pertundo, tusi, ere, to beate with hammers.
Perturbare, with trouble of mynde, vnquietlye.
Perturbátio, ônis, for. g troublouse affection of mynd, trouble, desturbaunce, disquietyng.
Quanta in conuersione rerum, & perturbatione versemur? in howe vnconstant & troublouse a worlde we bee? or in howe great alteration and trouble of the worlde we bee? or howe great alteration and trouble of the worlde there is nowe in our tymes?
Perturbatio cæli, and serenitas, contrarie.
Perturbatio valetudinis, sickenesse.
Perturbatio animi, and sedatio & tranquillitas, contrarie.
Afferre perturbationem, to trouble.
Perturbátor, ôris, m. g. he that troubleth or disquieteth all.
Perturbatrix, the feminine.

Perturbâtus, a, um, troubled greately, all out of quiete.
Perturbata res rei, a thyng myxt or mingled with an other.
Perturbo, aui, are, to trouble muche, to vexe.
Perturbaui omnia, I haue troubled all togeather, I haue brought all out of frame.
Magno animi motu perturbari, to be greatly troubled and disquieted with affections of the mynde.
Otium perturbare, to make businesse and rufflyng where quietnesse was.
Perturbare mentes & animos hominum, To styre men to businesse and vnquietnesse.
Perturpis, pe, verie filthy and dishonest.
Pertusis, sis, a coughe that alwaie vexeth a man.
Pertúsus, a, um, broken or pouned in peces, perced throughe.
Pertusa vasa, vesselles cracked or broken in some parte.
Pertusæ margaritæ, perles that be persed or bored thorowe.
Peruádo, uasi, dere, to go ouer all, to go throughe or into, to saape or passe throughe or by.
Quum peruasisset castra rumor, when the souldiours in the Campe hearde saie thus, or when this was spred amonge the souldiours in the Campe.
Peruaserat interim fama, in the meane season a rumour was spredde or sowen amonge them, or it was tolde amonge them.
Ad castra cônsulis peruadit, he passeth through euen to the consulls Campe.
Murmur totam concionem peruasit, there was a murmuryng or mutteryng ouer all the assemble.
Peruasit opinio per animos hominum, men dyd thynke commonlye, or this opinion was commonly in mennes mindes.
Pauor & trepidatio totam vrbem peruasit, all the wholle citee was in a sore feare and great dreade.
Peruagâtus, a, um, that wandreth, strayeth, or goeth far abrode, spred cômonly among men.
Péruagor, aris, ari, and peruago, aui, are, to wandre about, to be published.
Péruagus, a, um, that wandreth about.
Peruálidus, a, um, verie valiant and stronge.
Peruarie, verie diuerselye, in diuers sortes.
Peruárius, a, um, that is of diuers sortes and facions.
Peruasto, aui, are, to destroie cleane.
Peruectus, a, um, caried through or to.
Péruehо, vexi, vehere, to cause or bring to.
Nauigatione secunda peruehi, to saile prosperouselye.
Peruehi in portũ, to be brought into the haue.
Peruello, elli, and peruulsi, ellere, to touche or plucke at, to prick, to molest or greue somewhat.

Peruellere aliquem, to touche pluche or pull at one, to moleſte or greue one.
Peruellere ius, to depraue the lawe.
Peruellere fidem alicuius, To ſtyre or ſolicite one to kepe his promiſe.
Peruenio, péruenis, uéni, ire, to come to a place or to an ende, to come to the place that one goeth to, to attayne to.
Peruenire ad nummos, To gette obteine or come to the money that is owyng.
Si ad herum hæc res peruénit, periſti pulchrè, If this thyng come to thy maiſters eare, thou haſte ſpon a fayre threde: or if this bee tolde thy maiſter, thou maiſte geue thy ſelfe for an haulfe penie.
Sine me peruenire quo volo, let me ſpeake that whiche I intende to ſpeake, let me come to that poynct that I wolde, or ſuffre me to ſaie that I would ſaye, or ſuffre me to telle out my tale.
Peruenire ad manus, to come to hand ſtrokes.
Peruenire ad primos, to be reckened or numbred among the beſte.
Peruenire in poteſtatem, to be in ſubiection.
Peruenire in tutelam, to be in warde.
In craſtinum peruenire, to lyue or continewe tyll the morowe, or tyll the next daie after.
Ad maturam frugem peruenire, to continewe tyll it be through rype.
Ne in illius manus perueniret, that it might not come into his handes, or that he myght not get it into his handes.
In meam notitiam decem modo peruenérunt, I knowe no moe but ten.
Magnum in timorem peruenĭũt, they are ſore afraide, or they be in great feare or doubte.
Fama ad aures meas peruenit, it was tolde me. Peruenire in deſperationem, to be in vtter deſpeire.
Peruenire in maximam inuidiam, To bee in great hatred and diſpleaſure of men.
Peruĕnor, âris, ari, to hunt ouer all, to hunt or ſerche diligently.
Peruerſé, maliciouſly, miſchieuouſly, ouerthwartly, peruerſely, frowardly, contrarie wiſe to that he ſhoulde doe.
Peruerſé vides, thou ſeeſt naughtily, thy eye ſyght deceyueth the.
Peruerſitas, âtis, f. g. frowardneſſe, ouerthwartneſſe, naughtineſſe of nature, whan one deliſteth to do contrarie to that he ſhuld do.
Peruerſus, a, um, frowarde, ouerthwart, vnfortunate, corrupt, naught.
More peruerſo aliquid facere, to do a thynge ouerthwartily and naughtily.
Peruerto, ti, tere, to make yll, to peruert, to deprayue, to corrupte, to marre, to turne vpſyde downe: to ſubuert, to caſte downe.
Peruertere aliquem, to deſtroy or caſt awaie a man with falſe accuſations.
Veſtigalia peruertere, id eſt ſubuertere.

Labefactare & peruertere.
Perueſtigátio, ônis, fœ. g. a diligent ſerchyng, or ſekyng out.
Perueſtigátor, ôris, m. ge. he that ſeketh or looketh for a thyng.
Perueſtigo, aui, are, to ſpende in ſekyng, to ſerche out diligently.
Péruetus, véteris, om. g. verie olde.
Péruetus epiſtola, a letter that hath ben verie longe written.
Peruetuſtus, a, um, verie olde.
Peruicácĭter, obſtinately, ſtubburnly, conſtantly.
Peruicácĭor, ôris, more obſtinate, more ſtubburne, ſometyme more conſtant.
Péruicax, ácis, om. gen. harde, ouerthwarte, yll to intreate, ſtubburne, obſtinate headdie, contencious. ſometyme conſtant.
Iræ peruicax, he that kepeth his anger longe.
Peruicácĭa, æ, f. gen. obſtinacie, headineſſe, ſtiffnechednes. but ſometyme it is vſed in a good part, and taken for perſeuerance and conſtancie in a good acte, Pertinacia, alwaie in an yll parte, as Nonius deſcribeth them.
Peruico, or Peruicus, for Peruicax.
Peruideo, péruides, uidi, ere, to ſe and regarde diligently.
Peruigeo, péruiges, uigui, uigere, to bee of great vertue and ſtrengthe.
Péruigil, lis, om g. that watcheth alwaies. alſo diligent and induſtrious.
Peruigilátio, ônis, fœm. gene. a watchyng all nyght longe.
Peruigilátus, a, um, watched from the begynnyng to the ende.
Peruigilium, lĭ, n. g. muche watche. alſo a watchyng or vigile before ſolemne daies.
Peruigilo, aui, are, to watche all nyght, not to ſlepe all nyght longe.
Peruilis, le, verie vyle, of no value, of a verie ſmall price, exceedyng good cheape.
Peruinca, loke vinca peruinca.
Peruinco, uici, peruincere, to ſurmount, to paſſe or excede, to ouercome.
Dictis peruincere aliquid, id eſt, probare.
Peruiridis, de, verie greene.
Peruitere, the olde writers vſed for Perire, to be loſte, to perpliſhe.
Peruiuo, uixi, uiuere, to lyue longe, or vntyll the vttermoſt, to lyue to the ende.
Etſi peruiuo vſq; ad ſummam ætatem, tamen breue ſpatium eſt perferundi, quæ miniſtras mihi, although I lyue euen to the vttermoſt age: yet is the tyme litle to ſuffer all, wherwith thou threarneſt me.
Pérula, æ, f. g. a little ſcrippe or ſatchell.
Péruius, a, um, that maie be gone in, penitrable, that maie be gone through.
Aedes fient peruiæ, ye maie come into the houſe whan ye luſt.
Peruiæ naues, when one may goe from one iſle to an other.

Peruia

Peruia ventis domus, open to all wyndes, a windie house.
Id angiportum non est peruium, you can not passe thyough that lane.
Perunctio, ônis, f. g. an nointyng.
Perunctus, a, um, annoynted all about.
Perungo, vnxi, ungere, to annoynte muche, to annoynt rounde about.
Peruólito, aui, are, the frequẽtatiue of Péruolo.
Peruolgo, aui, are, to wander about.
Péruoco, aui, are, to call them all.
Péruolo, peruis, peruult, to desyre earnestly.
Peruelim scire, I wouldе veray fayne knowe.
Péruolo, aui, are, to flee out or to the ende, to flie swiftely, to come or go a pase.
Peruoluo, uolui, ere, to tumble or rolle apace with great violence.
Peruoluere librum, to reade ouer a booke diligently.
Peruolito aui, are, to tumble or rolle often.
Peruoluere libros, to reade ouer bookes with great diligence.
Perurbánus, a, um, verape curteyse and gentyll, veray ciuile and of honest behauiour.
Perúro, vsi, urere, to burne all or euery where, to burne much or vehementlp.
Perurere cor alicuius, to burne ones stomake, or set ones herte on fyre, with doynge a thynge displesant to hym.
Perusia, a citee in Italie called commonly Perugia, Perouse.
Perusinus, a, um, of Perouse.
Perutilis, le, verap profitable.
Peruulgátus, a, um, verap commonly vsed or knowne, muche accustomed.
Peruulgo, aui, are, to publisshe or sowe abrode.
Se omnibus peruulgat mulier, the womã maketh her selfe commune to all men.
Peruulgare librum, to publish or set abroade a booke.
Pes pedis, m. g. a foote, the measure or space of a foote, whiche nowe conteyneth .xii. ynches: the olde foote conteined .xvi. fyngers breadth: sometyme it is a louse. Also the halse in a shyp, wherwith they hoyse vp the sayle.
Pedes, aduerbium, on foote.
Pedibus, idem.
Pedibus stipendia facere, to bee a footeman in warre.
Pedem nusquam, I moued not one foote.
Pedem efferre, to go forth.
Per me pedibus ista trahantur, doe what they wyll with these matters, I passe not.
Pedem referre, to retrayte or retyre.
Pedibus ire in sententiam, to be of the opinion that other ar. It was the facion of the Romaines, that the senate whan dyuers had shewed theyr opinió, the residue (lyke what parte they leaned vnto) went frõ their places to those whiche had reasoned accordynge to theyr mynds and opinions, and these were called Pedarij Senatores.
Pede presso, fayre and softe, a softe pase.
Pedes agmen circumibat, the host went about on foote.
In agmine, nonnunq; equo, sæpius pedibus anteibat, in the hoste he weute alwaie afore, sometyme on horsebacke, but more often on foote. A pedibus, vel seruus a pedibus, a foote man.
Imus pes, the sole of the foote.
Tardo pede abire, to go awaie slowely.
Adijcere se ad pedes, Accidere ad pedes, Aduolui ad pedes alicuius, to fall downe at ones feete and beseche hym.
Conferre pedem, to cope together in battaple, to ioyne with his aduersarie in reasonynge.
Conijcere se in pedes, to renne away.
Ad pedes desilire, to lyght on foote.
Vnum mihi solum pedem dat, prouerbially, he sheweth me but meane fauour, or he doeth not the best for me that he can.
Omni pede mihi, to shewe all the fauoure that one can for a man, to doe the vttermoste of his power.
Ferte pedem, come you hyther.
Metiri suo se pede, prouerbially, to bestowe or spende accordynge to his abilitee.
Ponere pedem cum aliquo, to goe foote by foote with one, neyther softer nor slower.
Pedem vbi ponat, non habet, he hath not a foote of grounde of his owne.
Pedibus ire non queo, I can not goe on foote.
Pes vinaceorum, the stalke of the grapes.
Pes milui, an herbe.
Pes coruinus, read in Batrachion & Ranũculus.
Pes leonis, the herbe called low mallow, or oure ladies mantill.
Pes leporis, the herbe called harefoote, a kinde of trifolie.
Pes pulli, an herbe called also caucalis.
Pes gallinaceus, one of the kyndes of fumitory, growynge in walles and hedges, and hath leaues not vnlyke in facion, but greener, and a purple flowre.
Pessennius, a mannes name, a great friende of Ciceros.
Pesestas, in olde tyme vsed for Pestis, pestilence.
Pesnas, olde writers vsed for Pennas.
Pessi, a kynde of medicines or glisters ministered to women.
Pessime, verap yll.
Péssimus, a, um, varap yll, starke naught, worst of all.
Pessinuntius, a, um, of or belongyng to Cybele.
Pessinuns, untis, a towne in Phrygia, where was a temple dedicate vnto Cybele.
Péssulus, li, m. g. a barre or bolte, wherwith doores or gates be made faste.
Obdit foribus pessulum.
Pessum, an aduerbe, whiche signifieth backes warde, downewarde, vnderfoote.

Peſſum ire, to ſinke to the bottumme, and by tranſlacion to be caſt away, to come to naught.
Peſſum premere, to treade downe or vnderfoote.
Peſſundo, ſundedi, ſúndare, to caſt vnderfoote, to put to the woꝛſe, to caſt away, to vndoe, to caſt to the grounde as an hoyſe doeth his ryder.
Peſſundare aliquem, to bꝛynge one to naught, to vndooe oꝛ caſt awap one.
Peſtanæ, certeine valleies in Campania, where flooures doo ſpꝛinge twyſe in a pere, wherof the moſte perfecte roſes be called Peſtanæ roſæ.
Peſtifere, miſchcuouſlp, pernicioulep, with great hurt and daunger of one.
Péſtifer, a, um, and Peſtiferus, a, um, that whiſche bꝛynggeth in peſtilence, moꝛtall, deadelp, that bꝛingeth death oꝛ deſtruction, vnholeſome.
Peſtiferum bellum, moꝛtall warre.
Péſtilens, entis, om. g. peſtilent, vnholſome, that ingenderech peſtilence.
Peſtilentia, æ, f. g. idem quod Peſtis.
Peſtilitas, átis, f gen. vſed of olde wꝛiters foꝛ Peſtis.
Peſtis, is, f. g. a peſtilence, a moꝛtalitee of men. ſometyme a thyng oꝛ perſone that is the confuſion of other, a miſchicke, ſometyme deathe.
Peſtes, is ſometyme vſed in the plurall numbꝛe foꝛ pernicious perſons, oꝛ thynges bꝛynggynge confuſion oꝛ deſtruction.
Petalides, fatte hogges.
Petaliſmus, mi, m. g. a punyſhmente in the citee of Syracuſis in Sicile, whiche was, that the rulers there, wꝛityng theyꝛ names in Olyue leaues, and diuidynge them ſelfes, baniſhed the offenders.
Petalitis, tis, f. g. an herbe called hartes tongue.
Pétalum, li, n. g. a teake.
Petalus, a mans name.
Petaſati, were the ſurnames of Caſtor & Pollux.
Petaſatus, he that weareth an hatte. it is alſo (after ſome) he that weareth bootes oꝛ ſtiꝛtvpꝛes.
Petaſio, and Petaſo, ônis, m. ge. a gammonoꝛ ſlyche of bacon.
Petaſites, tis, f. g. an herbe haupng great bꝛoade leaues lyke an hatte, of the kynde of clotes oꝛ burres, the butter burre.
Petaſúnculus, li, m. g. a littell gamon oꝛ ſliche of bacon.
Petaſus, ſi, m. g. an hatte, a rounde couerynge of an houſe. alſo after ſome a kynde of ſtiꝛtvpꝛs oꝛ bootes.
Petauriſta, æ, m. g. a iuglar, a tumblar.
Petaurum, i, n. g. a coꝛde, a ſtaffe, a bourde oꝛ other lyke thynge, wheron lyght perſonages doo daunce and pꝛoue maiſtries. it is alſo a touſte, where pultrie dooe ſit a nyght tyme. it is alſo ſhyngle, wherwith houſes bee couered, and a kynde of game vſed in olde tyme, wherein men bp rollyng of wheeles were caſt vp alofte,

Peteſſo, ſſere, to aſke oꝛ requꝛre, idē quod Peto, Petigo, tiginis, fœ. g. a tetter that renneth ouer all a mans face.
Petilanſúra, ræ, fœm. ge. the houſe of awhite hoyſe.
Petilara, thynges that are dyte.
Petilia, a citee in Lucania.
Pétulus, a, um, ſmall, thynne, ſhlendꝛe.
Petilius, lij, m. ge. a flouꝛe that groweth amonge bꝛembles in the latter ende of ſummer, it is lyke a wylde roſe in colour, and hath fyue ſmalle leaues, the bud of dyuers coloures, haupng wuhin it yelowe ſeedes.
Pétimen, timinis, n. g. a ſoꝛe in the ſhoulders of beaſtes, whiche I ſuppoſe is a kacion.
Petiolus, i, m. g. a littell fote, alſo a perch, wheron fruites oꝛ onyons be hanged, oꝛ rather the ſtalke of fruite, wherby it hangeth on the tree.
Petiſco, ſcere, olde wꝛiters vſed foꝛ Peto, to aſke oꝛ demaunde, to go to.
Petitia, oꝛum, n. g. a certaine kynde of appulles.
Petitio, ônis, f. g. a petition, a labouꝛynge oꝛ ſuyng foꝛ an office oꝛ rome, an aſſaut oꝛ violente ſettyng vpon, a ſuite oꝛ demaunde in the law.
Implere petitionem, in the lawe is to declare and pꝛoue, that to be his, whiche he claymeth oꝛ demaundeth.
Petitor, ôꝛis, m. ge. he that aſketh oꝛ demaundeth, amonge lawyers he is called the demaundant, alſo it is a beggar that aſketh almes from doꝛe to doꝛe.
Petitorium, rij, n. g. a charlotte oꝛ wagon.
Petitórius, a, um, that belongeth to a petition, demaundynge oꝛ claimyng of a thyng.
Petitum, i, n. g. a thyng requiꝛed oꝛ demanded.
Petitus, a, um, deſpꝛed oꝛ wiſhed foꝛ, ſtꝛyken, aſſauted, ſet vpon.
Adnĕit extremo lapides oriente petitos, id eſt quæſitos, apportatos, aduectos.
Petitus, us, maſ. gen. a requeſt, a demaunde, a petition.
Peto, tiui, & tij, ere, to aſke vmbly, to deſyꝛe to haue, to couet, to ſeke foꝛ, to make ſuite oꝛ labour foꝛ an office oꝛ lyke thyng, to take oꝛ chooſe out, to ſtꝛike, to pꝛofeꝛ to ſtꝛyke, oꝛ offeꝛ to geue a blowe, to aſſaut oꝛ ſet vpon violently. alſo to get oꝛ atteine, to take awapte, to abyde, to go to a place, ſometyme to reheꝛſe oꝛ mention, after Nonius, alſo to folow, to leade awai. Pete regladio, to ſtꝛike with a ſwoꝛde. Petere venę no, to ſeke meanes, oꝛ go about to poyſon.
Petere blanditijs, to flatter.
Petere tactu, to fele.
Petere mutuum, to boꝛowe.
Petere iugulum, to hyll.
Petere auribus, to heare.
Petere naribus, to ſmell.
Petere oculis, to beholde.
Petere oſculis, to kyſſe.
Petere vi, to enkoꝛce, to ſet vpon violently.
Precib⁹ omnibus petere, to deſire as ernẽtly

as one can possible.
Opem petere, to aske helpe or ayde.
Veniam petere, to desyre pardone or forgeuenesse. Quid petis istis, id est ab istis, after Seruius. Peto ubi, for Peto te.
Missionem militibus petere, to require that the souldiours maie haue licence to depart.
Accusationem in aliquem petere, to require that he maie accuse one.
Cæsar Augusti filius inde gloriam petiit, id est, adeptus est. Petere somnum, to couet or haue a desyre to slepe, to go to slepe.
Petere pœnas ab aliquo, id est exigere, To punyshe, to require that one bee punyshed, or to be auenged, to seke meanes to bee reuenged.
Principio sedes apibus petenda, firste and formost you muste take and chose out a place for the bees.
Rogasse vellem vnde peterem cibum, I woulde haue asked hym, where I should require or seke for my meate and drynke.
Consilium ase ipso petere, to take counsaile of hym selfe.
Petere exemplum, to take an exemple.
Petere é flamma te cibum posse arbitror, I thinke the so poore a knaue, that to get a morsell of meate thou wilt thruste thy nose in the fyre.
Exordium petere, to take a beggynnyng, to beginne.
Petere ad Aethiopas vsque, to fetche it euen as farre as Ethiope.
Petunt in Carmanos, id est, à Carmanis.
Petunt in Indos, id est, ab Indis, they fetche it or go for it as farre as Indie.
Petere in sepulchrum, hoc est, é sepulchro, To fetche out of the sepulcher or graue.
Petere aliquem dextra, to stretche or put out the right hande to one.
Aliquem litteris petere, to write to one, to prouoke one in writyng, to write a sharpe quiche or taunting letter to one.
Petere aliquem fictis criminibus, To accuse one falsely, to lay false thynges to ones charge.
Cornu petere, to bussche with the horne.
Punctim petere hostem, to foyne with a sword or other weapon.
Cesim petere, To strike with the edge of the sworde.
Caput petere, to stryke at the head.
Petere aliquem telis, to hurle dartes or iauelens at one.
Petere aliquem, to assaple or set vpon. also to lie waite for one.
Petit, vsed amonge poetes for Petijt.
Ad hostem petendum armatus, redie armed to assaile his enemies.
Petere fraude, or Insidijs, to lie waite to deceyue or kyll one.
Troianos hæc monstra petunt, id est, manent, expectant, or after Seruius appetunt.
Quem petit, & summis annexus viribus, vrget, whom he foloweth. &c.
Petuntur in vincula, qui parentes non alunt, they bee ledde awaie to prison, or they bee required to be put in prison. &c.
Athenas petere, to go to Athens.
Cælum petere, to flee vp into the ayre.
Fuga salutem petere, to flee awaie, to the entent to saue hym selfe.
Secretum petere, to go into a secrete place.
Periculo vehementi peti, to be assayled with sore perille.
Supera semper petunt, they couet alwaies to be aboue, or in high places.
Romam petit fons ille, that well renneth to Rome.
Altum flamma petit, the fyre or flame mounteth vp on hygh.
Ardua petere, to clime vp hylles.

Petórritum, ti, n. ge. a kynde of wagons or charriottes vsed in Fraunce.
Petosiris, a famouse astronomer of Egypte.
Petra, æ, f. g. a rocke, a stone.
Petra, a towne in Sicille by Hybla, also a towne of Arabye, whereof Petrea Arabia is named, Petræ Sirenum, a towne of Lucania.
Petracorij, a people of Fraunce called commonly Perigort.
Petrea, a nymph of the sea.
Petreia, a woman goyng before common prouestions in the countrey, feygnynge hir selfe dyunke.
Peneleon, lei, n. gen. an ople, which naturally renneth out of a stone.
Petreus, a, um, of a stone.
Petricósus, a, um, idem quod petrosus.
Petrificatio, a disease in the eye and eye liddes.
Petrina, the herbe Tussilago.
Petroleum, an ople, that naturally issueth out of stones.
Perrones, carles of the countrey, also wether sheepe.
Petrónia, æ, a litteil brouke renning into the riuer of Tiber, also the wife of Titellius the emperour.
Petroselinum, ni, neu. ge. an herbe of the kynde of Persely, and after some hedge persely or stone perselye. Gesner saith, it is called in the Alpes Ostruthium, whiche they vse agaynst all diseases: Hieronymus Tragus calleth it Pimpinellam.
Petrophies, the herbe called Aizoum paruum.
Petrósus, a, um, stonie, or full of stones.
Petulans, antis, om. gen. wanton, dishoneſt, reprochefull, proude, vicious, redy to do wrong, malapert, sautie, that passeth not howe ill he speaketh or doeth to a man.
Effuse petulans, malapert and sautie without measure, that hath no moderatiõ in his tounge and behauiour.
Petulanter, wantonly, proudely, dishonestly, vnshamefastly, imprudently, malaperttly, sautily.

Petulanter inuehi in aliquem, To inuerghe agaynſt one with proude and reprochefull woordes.

Petulanter inuehi in filiam alicuius, To rayle ſpytefully and lauctly againſt ones daughter.

Petulántia, æ, fœm. gen. wantonneſſe, viciouſneſſe, proudnes, malapertneſſe, impzudence, laucineſſe, reprochefull and proude ſpeakynge or chattynge.

Petulcus, a, um, wanton, laſciuious.

Pétulus, li, m. g. a diminutiue of Petus.

Petus, or pætus, i, m. g. he that hath one eie laſſe than the other.

Petuſcum, a part of the citee of Rome.

Peuce, an ile in the riuer Iſter, alſo the wilde pine apple tree.

Peucédanum, or peucédánus, an herbe, whiche hath a lyttle ſtalke, lyke a fennell, buſſhie by the grounde, & hath a yelowe floure, a blache roote, a great ſauour, and is full of iuice, he that doeth gether it, feleth peine and whyrlyng in his heade, excepte his heade and noſethyrles be annoynted with oyle of roſes, Dioſcorides. Iohn Agricola ſuppoſeth it to bee that, whiche is called Fœniculum porcinum, which I ſuppoſe we call dogge fennell. Some call this, Peucédanum, balde money.

Pexátus, a, um, that weareth a garmēt of rough fryſe, or friſe adowe, or ſuche lyke cloth.

Pexitas, átis, f. g.

Pexo, aui, are, to kembe.

Pexus, a, um, kemed, carded, curled, ſtryken with the ſlaye in weauyng.

Pexæ veſtes, ſome men in expoundyng Pliny, ſuppoſe to be of ſuche thyng as is Worne, as fyne woullen clothe or velues, but it ſemeth rather to bee garmentes fryſed, or that haue longe woulle, as thycke fryſe or fryſe adowe.

Pexa toga, a gowne of fryſe adowe, or other clothe that hath the woulle repſed.

Pexa munera, garmentes of fryſe adowe, or other lyke clothe geuen to men.

Pexa folia, leaues thycke and cryſpe.

Doctor pexus & pinguis, a groſſe and rude teacher.

Pezitæ, mouſcheromes growyng at the rootes of trees.

P ANTE H.

PHacas, idem quod lens.

Phabiranum, a citee in Germanye called Bremen.

Phacea agria, a kynde of lintels growyng in wattrie places.

Phæaces, people of the ile of Corcira, vnder the dominion of Alcinous.

Phæacus, a, um, & Phæacius, a, um, of the people Phæaces.

Phæax, acis, Horace vſeth for one that is fat, well fed, and deyntelye brought vp.

Phæcaſiátus, a, um, that weareth ſhoes called Phæcaſij.

Phæcáſium, ij, n. g. & Phæcaſius, i, m. g. a kynd of ſhoes.

Phædimus, one of the ſons of Amphion & Niobe, alſo a poetes name of Byzanthe.

Phædon, a noble man of Athens, ſlayne by the thyrty tyránes. an other was a philoſopher, in whoſe name Plato made his booke of the immoztalitee of the ſoule.

Phædra, the wyfe of Theſeus, and ſtepmother to Hippolit⁹ dauphter of Minois, king of Crete.

Phædrus, one of Platos ſcholars.

Phæniana, a citee of Phrygia, called nowe Dehemhuſium.

Phœnium, idem quod Anemone.

Phæſtum, a citee of Crete.

Phæſtus, the ſonne of Boxus, ſlayne at Troy. alſo an hyll of Crete.

Phaëton, tontis, a woorde of thre ſyllables, the ſon of Phœbus and Clymenes, who with long deſyre, obteyned at the laſt of his father, that he mought one daie gouerne or leade the charriotte of the ſon, but beyng vnable to that office, the hozſes ouerthrew the charriotte, and burned all the woꝛlde. wherof Jupiter beyng afeerde, leſt he alſo ſhulde be burned, ſtrykynge Phaeton with lyghtnyng, threwe hym into the riuer called Padus, and Erydanus. Phaeton, is ſomes tyme vſed for the ſonne.

Phaëtontides, the ſyſters of Phaeton, looke Heliades.

Phaetontius, or Phaetonteus, a, um, of Phaeton.

Phaëtuſa, daughter of the ſonne, reade Heliades.

Phagedæna, æ, f. g. a renuyng canker or poche, whiche ſhortly eateth the fleſſhe to the bones.

Phagedénicus, ci, ma. gene. that hath that ſore or botche.

Phago, a mans name, whiche was an exceedyng glutton, and dyd eate in one daie a whole boꝛe, an hundred loues of breadde, a ſheepe and a pygge, and dranke therto the veſſell of wyne called Orca, a butte or other lyke veſſell.

Phagineus, a, um, of beeche.

Phagus, a beeche tree.

Phalanga, æ, f. ge. a ſtaffe, wheron men do carie packes, alſo a playne ſtaffe, a leuer or a roller to lyfte and conueygh ſhyps or other thynges that be heauy and weyghtie.

Phalangarij, porters, whiche do carie packes: alſo ſouldioures of the bande called Phalanx.

Phalangium, ij, n. g. a kind of ſpiders, that hath in all his legges three ioynctes or knottes, whoſe ſtingyng is perilous & all moſt deadly.

Phalacrócorax, acis, m. g. a water crowe, it maie ſignifie a cote, but the birde, whiche is properly called of Plinie Phalacrócorax, is the thirde kind of the birdes, that Ariſtotle nameth κολαιος id eſt, graculos, loke there.

Phalacron, balde.

Phalacrus, the ſonne of Æolus.

Phalæ,

Phalæ, or Falæ, hygh towers made of tymbre.

Phalangites, æ, or Phalangium, gij, an herbe haunge alwaies two stalkes at the leaste, a whyte flowre lyke in facion to a redde lylie, a blacke seede lyke halfe a lyntell.

Phalango, are, to moue or dyspue a thynge vpon rollers.

Phalantus, the chiefe capitayne of the bastardes that were exiled and put out of theyr countrey Lacedemonie.

Phalanx, angis, f. g. an hoste of .viii. thousande foote men, set in suche ordre, that they may encounter with theyr ennemies, foote to foote, man to man, shylde to shylde.

Phalanges, are the ioyntes or spaces in the fyngers.

Phalangitæ, tårum, an armie of .xvi. thousande foote men.

Phalara, a towne in Attica.

Phalarica, æ, f. g. an instrumente of warre, wher in wylde fyre is enclosed, that whan it is by shot fastened to tymbre, it burneth all shortely. there bee of it two sortes, a bygger and a lesse.

Phalaris, a tyran of Agrigentyne in Sicilie, also a grammarians name.

Phalaris, an herbe partely lyke corne, partely lyke grasse: and therfore may be called grasse corne.

Phalera, an hauen in Athens.

Phalera, æ, and Phaleræ, arum, an ornamente that gentilmen, & men of armes vsed in Rome.

Phaleræ, arum, f. g. plur. a trappar or barbes for an horse.

Phalarâtus, a, um, trapped or barbed.

Phalerata dicta, gaie wordes, pleasant speache.

Phalereus Demetrius, a philosopher and gouernour of Athens.

Phalerij, a citee in Tuscan.

Phalernus, reade before in Falernus.

Phalisci, a certaine people in Italy on the highest. part of Tuscan, called now Mount Ilascon.

Phalora, a citee of Thessalie.

Phanæus, an hyll of Chios, wheron vines ar set.

Phanâticus, i, masc. gene. he that hath vaine visions.

Phanes, a mans name of Halicarnassus, whiche conducted Cambises into Egypt.

Phaneta, æ, one of the names of Bacchus.

Phanias, is taken of Hyperides, and Lysias, for an vsurer.

Phanio, sainte Augustine in his epistles sayeth, was take for one that brought good luche with his comyng.

Phanni, fatalles, which happe to men in dremes.

Phantasia, æ, f. g. is diuersely taken of philosophers & phisitions. Galenus interiorum tertio, the affection called Phantasia, is none other thynge but the corruption of vnderstandynge. Aristotle de animalibus. 2. Phantasia is an operacion of the power phantasticall, that is to say, a meuyng from the actuall sense. also Phantasia, is of the treasure or power animall, keper of the formes and figures first conceiued in the common sense or perceiuyng, phantasie, imagination.

Phantasma, tísmatis, n. g. a vision, properly of a thynge that is not, a vayne vision or imagination.

Phantásticus, a, um, phantasticall.

Phanum, ni, n. g. a temple.

Phanus, ni, a mans name.

Phão, a kayre ponge man.

Pharæ, a citee in Crete.

Pharao, onis, the name of all kynges of Egypte vntyll the tyme of Salomon. in the Egyptian tounge Pharao signifieth kynge.

Phâretra, æ, and sometyme Pharêtra, æ, f. ge. a quiuer for arrowes.

Pharetrâtus, a, um, that beareth a quiuer.

Pharia, an yle called now Lisna. also a citee, wher of the people be called Pharienses.

Pharias, phariæ, a serpente, whiche maketh a forrowe in the grounde with his taple as he creepeth, and so liseth hym selfe vp.

Pharicon, ci, n. g. a kynde of poyson.

Pharisæi, were amonge the Jewes certayne men, which professed a forme of liuyng more streicte and deuoute than other of that people, and wer therfore called by that name. For Phares, in the Hebrue tongue signifieth diuided. they professed continence, virginitee, faste, and abstaynyng from meate twyse in the sabote daies. they slepte onely vpon bourdes, some vpon stones or els on thornes, to kepe them frō stirring of fleshly appetyte. they ware on theyr foreheades scrowles of parchemente, wherin were writtē the .x. commandemētes geuen by god to Moyses, which thei called Philacterias: thei had in great reuerence theyr elders, in so much that they wolde not with a worde displease them. notwithstandyng they beleued, that all thynges happned by constellation, and yet toke thei not away free wyll from man. they affirmed, that soules are immortall, and that god shall come in iudgemente. hereby they came into wounderfull credence with people, wherby they drew to them great multitudes, and of them were dyuers good men, amonge whom was saincte Paule, Nicodemus and other, whiche afterwarde were Christes disciples, although the multitude, takynge that profession onely for vaineglory, peruerted that honest forme of liuynge into hypocrisie, deceiuynge the people, whom Christe sharpely rebuked, and declared theyr foly. and yet with some of them (whiche by Iphelphode were good men) he dined, and otherwyse vsed them familiarly.

Pharius, a, um, is put for Aegyptius.

Pharius, and Phariachus, cha, chum, of Pharos.

Pharmacêutice, es, form. gen. that parte of physycke that healeth with medicines.

Pharmacêutria, æ, f. g. a sorceresse.

Pharmacotheon, thei, n. ge. a diuine medicine.
Pharmacopóla, æ, a potheçarie.
Pharmachum, i, ne. ge. a medicine, sometyme it signifieth poyson.
Pharmacusæ, two yles by Attica.
Pharnaces, kynge Mithridates soonne, whome Cæsar vanquisshed.
Pharpharides, parte of the mountaine Taurus.
Pharos, a litle yle in Egypte agaynste the mouthe of Nilus, by the citee Alexandria. in this yle was set a very high tower, wherein were great lyghtes all the nyghte longe, for the comfoyte & suretee of them, which were in viage eyther on the sea or on the lande. wherof all other toures made for such purpose, are called Phari.
Pharusij, or Pharusi, people of Libya, which are nowe exceedynge poore.
Pharsalia, a countrey in Thessalia where the battayle was betwene Cæsar and Pompeie.
Pharsalos, a citee in Thessalie, nygh to the which was the great and sharpe battaile betwene Cæsar and Pompeius, where Pompeius was vanquisshed and fledde. it is also called of Lucanus Pharsalia.
Phase, a woorde of Hebrue, whiche signifieth passyng ouer. it is commonly called Pascha.
Phaselis, a citee of Pamphilia, whiche was a refuge for pirates.
Phaselinus, a, um, made of the pulse Phaseolus,
Phasellus, or Phaselus, li, m. g. a litle shyp called a galion.
Phaseolus, li, a sorte of pulse corne, wherof be diuers kyndes. one is called Dolichus, whiche groweth in gardeins, with a longe stemme, and is succoured with stiches set about it, thei bee shortely corrupted with weate. Ferius saith, that onely they amonge all other pulse were eaten with their huskes. Ruellius affyrmeth, that it was not the common Dolichi, but they whiche were of dyuers colours, and fashioned lyke to litle kidneys. Looke of theim in Smilax. An other kynde is called Phasillus, which is verie smal, some beyng white and some red, with litle stalkes rennynge on the grounde, and lyng holowe, hauing leaues lyke in facion to iuie, but softer and full of veines, coddes lyke to fengreke, the broth of them nourysheth, and maketh indifferente iuice. an other is called Smilax, of whom reade in his place. an other is called Isopyron, whose leafe is lyke to anyse, and hath on the top litle heades full of seedes lyke to Nigella. I haue no certayne englysshe for this pulse, excepte ye will cal them faselles or long peace, as maister Turner doth.
Phasganon, the herbe Xiphion.
Phasianarius, ij, m. g. he that breadeth fesantes.
Phasianus, i, m. g. and Phasiana, æ, fœ. gene. a Fesant.
Phasiolos, the herbe Isopyros.
Phatnaga, a beaste in Indie lyke a cokatrice, as bygas a litle dogge, haunyng a scalie and rough skinne, that can not bee pearced with Iron, Aelianus.

Phatinus panis, a kynde of breàd made of lintels.
Phasis, sis, or fidis, a great ryuer in the countrey of Colchos. it is also a citee there.
Phasma, ătis, n. g. an horrible vision or syght.
Phaulia mala, a kynde of quinces.
Phauliæ, a kinde of oliues.
Phauorinus, a famous and eleqúente philosopher borne at Arelaunce in Fraũce. in him were three thynges principallye to be merueyled at. The fyrste, that he beyng a frenche man, was so excellent in the Greeke tounge, that besydes his great lernynge, he lefte behynde hym a noble remembrance of the greeke eloquence. The seconde, ỹ being Eunuchus or an imperfect man, he was accused of adulterie. The thyrde, that haupnge the emperour Adrian exceedyngly displeased with hym, he notwithstandyng ouercame hym, neuer haupnge any damage by hym: whiche was to the hygh commendacion of that noble emperoure, haupnge this sentence often tymes in his mouthe (but in Greeke) the kinge is than to be esteemed moste excellente, when he beyng displeased with his inferiour, refrayneth his anger. On a tyme whan the emperoure disputed with hym, and in the ende he seemed to suffer the emperour to haue the victorie: afterwarde his frendes asked of him, howe it happened that he, who applyed hym selfe to studie and letters onely, and was reputed to be the greatest philosopher in Athens: mought be vanquisshed of so great a prince, who was occupyed in the great affayres of the empyre. He answered, that it was no shame to be vanquisshed of hym, whiche had .xxx. legions of men at his commaundement.
Phayllus, a mãs name, that wolde leape. 55. forte.
Phechasiatus, Phecasium: looke Phæcasiatus.
Phegeius, a, um, of Phegeus.
Phegeus, the father of Alphesiboea, Themon and Axion, of whome Alcmæon was purged for sleayng his mother Eriphyle.
Phelandrios, drij, m. g. an herbe growyng in marise groundes holesome to breake the stone, called of Dioscorides Helioselinon, id est apium palustre. some thynke Phelandrios to be Filipendula.
Phellodris, Plinie seemeth to take it for corke, contrary to Theophrastus.
Phemus, mi, m. g. a certayne medicine agaynste the collike.
Phenice, phenix, or Phenicia, looke Diosc. li 4. cap. 46.
Phellus, li, m. g. corke.
Phemonoe, a mayden, prophetes of Apollo in Delphos.
Pheneum, a towne of Arcadie.
Pheneatæ, people of that towne.
Phengites, tis, m. g. a certayne stone.

Phes

Phenion, an herbe, some wryte it Fremium. it is also called Anemone.

Pherę, a cytee of Thessaly. also a place and towne of Achaia, and a towne of Attica, betwene Megara and Thebes.

Pherecides, a famous philosopher and wryter of tragedies, whiche died of the lousie sickenesse, he was Pythagorias maister. There was an other of that name before hys tyme.

Pherecius, the soonne of Hermonides, whiche made the shyppes wherein Paris sailed into Greece, whan he stale awap Helen.

Pherecrates, a poete of Athens.

Pherenice, a womans name.

Pherera, orum, neu. ge. thynges borne at great feastes or triumphes, as pageantes or iewels of golde or syluer, images, and such like thynges.

Pheretrius, Jupiter.

Pherne, idem quod Dos.

Pheretrum, i, n. g. a thynge, wheron pageauntes are borne, also dead corpses, looke Feretrum.

Pheronobium, wilde lettuce,

Pheruſa, idem quod Carduus.

Pheuxiteron, Aristolochia rotunda, vt Barb. in Coroll.

Phiala, æ, f. g. the generall name to all plate that serueth for wyne or water, and properly of golde.

Phiale, one of Dianas companions.

Phidias, an excellent workeman in makyng garet images of golde or Iuorie.

Phidiacus, a, um, of Phidias.

Phiditia, æ, f. g. the suppers that the Lacedemonians vsed, whiche were openly kepte with a mernaplous temperance, euery man bryngyng his measurable porcion of meate and wyne.

Phila, læ, f. g. an yle in the frenche sea.

Philadelphia, a cytee in Mysia, lompng to Lidia.

Philadelphia, æ, f. g. brotherly loue.

Philadelphus, a litle bussshe, the bowes wherof standyng a sunder, encline and loygne together as it were for generacion, and after departyng asander, budde and brynge kooyth.

Philadelfus, called Ptolomeus, kyng of Egypt, who made a lybrarie, wherin wer fiftie thousãde bookes. He also caused the .v. bookes of Moises to be translated into Greeke, by .lxxii. interpretours, doctours of the iewes.

Philæ, arum, an yle by Egypt.

Philágathus, thi, m. g. he that loueth goodnesse.

Philagrus, a philosopher of Cilicia.

Philalethes, a louer of trueth.

Philantrópia, æ, f. g. humanitee, gentylnesse, and fauour towardes men.

Philantropos, the herbe aparine.

Philanthrópos, pi, m. g. a louer of mankynde. also gentyll and kynde, also a kynde of burres.

Philarchus, one that loueth to beare rule.

Philaretus, a louer of vertue.

Phileleuteros, a louer of libertie.

Philargýria, æ, f. g. couetousenesse, auarice.

Philárgyrus, ri, m. g. couetouse.

Philautia, æ, f. g. loue of ones owne personne, lous of ones selfe.

Philemon, a comicall poete.

Philéma, lématis, n. g. a kysse.

Phileni, were two bretherne of Carthage, of whõ it is written, that where they of Carthage and they of Cyrene dyd strine for theyr bounder, it was agreed, that of eche cytee two men shoulde issue, and where as they met, shuld be the bounders. than the saied bretheren beyng sente, wente a great waye into the boundes of the other, or they moughte returne. and whan they of Cyren dyd see that they were preuented, they tooke it displesantly, and menaced the two bretheren, that if they wolde not go backe, they shulde bee put quicke into the earth: but they notwithstandyng wolde not departe. wherfore they bepage burped on liue, theyr countrey men made ouer theym two auters, whiche at this date be called Aræ Philenorum, whiche are now within the realme of Tunise.

Philenus, he that loueth wyne.

Philerémus, a louer of solitarines.

Philesia, temples dedicate to Apollo.

Philesius, a name of Apollo.

Philetas, a grammarian in the tyme of Philip & Alexandre, instructour to Ptholomeus Philadelphus.

Philetéria, æ, f. g. an herbe called wylde sage. in the decrees of Gregorie thei re take for charmes or inchantmentes written. also in Consilio Laodicensi, we doo reade Philetéria facere.

Philétes, tis, a kysse.

Philétus, a, um, amiable.

Phileum, a cytee in Frysclande called commonly Grouingen.

Philippi, a cytee in Thessalye.

Philippicæ, Demosthenes orations against Philip, and Ciceros agayns Anthonie.

Phillippides, a comicall poete.

Philippopilis, a cytee of Macedonie.

Philippenses, men of that cytee.

Philippeus, ei, a certaine coine of golde, somtyme vsed in Greece.

Philippus, i, a kynge of Macedonie, soonne of Amyntas, father of great Alexandre. A prince from his childehode of excellente witte and power, of whom these notable thynges be remembred. after he had vanquisshed the Athenienses at Cheronea, he began to reioyce of his felicitee. but to the entente that he therfore shoulde not be þ more prõe to iniuries towarde his subiectes, nor to haue indignacion at theym, whom he vanquisshed: he then and euer after caused a chylde to come to his chaumbre doore in the mornynge, and to saie aloude, Philip, thou arte a man mortall. Whiche he obserued so constantly, that he neuer went out of his chambre, or receyued any counsaylours or suiters, till

tyll the chylde had thryse spoken these woordes, notwythstandynge that he was a paynime. On a tyme the Athenienses sente an ambasade vnto hym; whiche after he had patiently heardc, he saide to the ambassadours, whan they shulde departe. knowe you (sayde he) any thynge that may be pleasure vnto your cite? amonge them was Democrates (for yll tongue called Therlites) he sooreby with answered the kynge: if thou (saied he) wylte hange vp thy selfe: whiche answere troubled the residue of the ambassadours, and dyd set all the other heres in an indignation, with a great therme. but Philip most gently and coldely answered. Saye you to the Athenienses, that they whiche for anger can not abstayne from suche woorbes, bee muche prouder of courage, than they that suffer it spoken without anye punysshemente, and doo easilie digeste so proude an iniurie. also, where one named Machætas had a matter in variaunce before hym, Philippe takynge lytell heede, what was spoken, and sometyme sleepynge, at the laste gaue iudgemente agaynste Machætas: who cryinge out with a lowde voyce, appealed. Wherewith Philip beynge sore moued, with a greeuous looke, sayde: to whome doest thou appeale? I appeale, (saied Machætas) vnto your selfe, but beynge better awaked, and takynge heede what is spoken. Philippe beynge throughly awaked, and hearynge eftesoones the matter, perceyued, that Machætas had wronge. he would not reuerse the iudgemente, but the summe of money, wherin Machætas was condemned, he payed of his owne treasure. of his patience, subtilte of witte, and valiaunte courage, many haue written abundantly, whiche in the readynge are bothe pleasaunte and profytable. he was afore the incarnation of Christ 358. yeres Philistæ, certayne robbers amonge the Aegyptians, whiche inbrace a man to the ende to strangle hym.

Philistus, an hystoriographer.

Philo, a philosopher of the secte Academicke, and a Jewe, borne at Alexandria, a man of great eloquence and wysedome.

Philócalus, li, m. g. a good man, a clenely man or elegante.

Philocólia, f. g. delight in fayrenesse and cleannesse.

Philocares, an herbe called horehounde.

Philocles, a tragicall poete of Athens.

Philocompus, pi, m. g. a bragger, a craker.

Philocrates, constant in loue.

Philocrémaros, a couetous man.

Philoctétes, the soonne of Pœan, was Hercules companion, and buried hym, and had his arrowes.

Philódamus, a noble man of the people called Lamsaceni.

Philodici, they whiche delyte to bee prayenge in the lawe.

Philænus, a louer of wyne.

Philodûlus, he that loueth his seruantes.

Philograecus, he that delyteth or hath a pleasure to vse greke woordes.

Philoginia, æ, f. g. doteyng on women.

Philoginos, he that doteth on women.

Philolaus, one of Corinth, whiche gaue lawes to the Thebanes.

Philológia, æ, f. g. loue of studie, babynge, delectation in to muche talke or many woordes.

Philólogus, gi, m. g. studiouse, or a louer of letters. also a great speaker.

Philomáthes, desyrous to learne.

Philomáthia, desire to learne.

Philomela, æ, fœ. g. a nyghtyngale. also a fayre mayden that was defloured by Thereus, husbande to her sister: whom poetes feigne to bee transformed into a nyghtyngale.

Philomûsus, si, mas. g. amorouse of the muses, that loueth or fauoureth good letters.

Philónicus, a brawler. sometyme a louer of victorie.

Philonides, a great bigge lubbour of Melite, so vtterly vnwise and vnlerned, that of hym grew a prouerbe, Indoctior Philonide.

Philonium, a newe friende.

Philopœmines, a famous capitaine of the people Achæi, whiche vanquished the Lacedemonians and Messenians in diuers battailes.

Philopœs, he that loueth children to dishonestie.

Philopólemus, mi, m. g. a louer of warre.

Philopolites, a louer of his countrey.

Philopónia, loue of labour.

Philopsychia, æ, f. g. desire of liefe.

Philosarchus, voluptuous, sensuall, desyrous of pleasure.

Philoponus, ni, m. g. laborious, peinefull,

Philosophaster, stri, mas. g. he that would bee lyke a philosopher, a smatterer in philosophie, a counterfayte philosopher.

Philosóphia, æ, f. g. philosophie, the loue or fauourynge of wysedome.

Philosophice, lyke a philosopher.

Philosóphicus, a, um, philosophicall.

Philósophor, aris, to study wysedome, to dispute and reason of philosophie, to serche the causes and natures of thynges.

Philósophus, i, m. g. a philosopher.

Philostórgia, the loue of parentes towarde theyr children.

Philóstratus, a learned man in the tyme of Seuerus the emperour.

Philotheóros, ri, m. g. one that is geuen to speculation and contemplation of thynges.

Philothésia, a solemne feast amonge the Grecians.

Philótimus, desirous of honour.

Philoxenia, æ, f. g. hospitalitee.

Philozous, verie desirous to liue.

Philóxenus, he that hepeth good hoſpitalitee. alſo the name of a grammarian, of a poete, of a famous peyneter, and of a paraſite, which wiſhed hym ſelfe to haue a necke as longe as a crane, that he myght haue moze delectacion in ſwete meates and dzinkes.

Phimon, of ſome is taken foz carrets.

Philtrum, i, n. g. a dzinke charmed, whiche cauſeth a man to dote oz to be mad foz loue.

Philura, oz Philira, æ, fœm. g. a thinne ſkyn betwene the barcke and the wood of the tre called Tylia, wherin they vſed in olde tyme to wzite, after ſome it is the tree it ſelfe.

Philyra, æ, a nymph, on whom Saturnus begate Chiron, who therfoze is ſometyme called Philirides.

Phyma, atis, n. gen. a ſoze on the fyngez, whiche male be called a whitblowe.

Phimus, eſt præcluſio hoſtioli vuluæ.

Phimoſis, quum glans membri virilis ita tegitur vt nudari non poſsit.

Phineus, kyng of Arcadie, who by the entiſement of his ſeconde wyfe, put out the eies of his ſonnes, whiche he had by his firſt wyfe. But by the iuſt vengeance of god, he was alſo made blynd, and the foule rauenouſe birdes called Harpiæ, defyled and deuoured the meate that was prepared foz hym. But thoſe byzdes were at the laſt dzuen away by Zetus and Calais, whom he had curteyſely entertayned. In other Phineus was bzother of Cepheus, that was turned into a ſtone by Perſeus In other of that name an Athenien, was turned into a byzde.

Phiſon, one of the riuers of paradiſe, which ſome calle Ganges, ſome Nilus.

Phlanates, people of Illiria.

Phlebs, phlebis, f. g a vepne.

Phlebotomia, æ, f. g. bloudlettyng.

Phlebótomum, mi, n. g. the inſtrument, wherwith bloude is letten, a fleume.

Phlegeton, ontis, a ryuer of hell, whiche alwaie bourneth.

Phlegetonteus, a, um, of Phlegeton.

Phlegias, the ſonne of Mars, a kyng in Theſſalie, and father of Ixion.

Phlegma, mătis, n. g. fleume.

Phlegmáticus, a, um, fleumatike.

Phlégmone, ones, fœm. g. an inflammacion of bloudde, whiche groweth into an impoſtume in ſome parte of the body oz membzes.

Phlegon, one of the hozſes of the ſonne.

Phlegóntis, tidis, f. g. a pzecious ſtone, wherin appeareth as it were a flame of fyze.

Phlegra, græ, oz Phlegre, gres, a citee of Macedonie.

Phlegreus campus, after ſome a fielde in Theſſalie, after ſome in Macedonie, after Plinie and Strabo in Campayne, by the citee Cume, where the gigantes were ouercome by Hercules.

Phlegyas, lyke Phlegias.

Phlegiæ, people of Theſſalie, named of Phlegias Ixions father, whiche were diſpiſers of god and man, and therfoze diſtroied with a deluge by Neptune.

Phleos, phlei, f. g. a certayne herbe.

Phlias, the ſon of Bacchus, that ſailed into Colchis with Jaſon.

Phliaſius, a, um, of Phlius.

Phlius, untis, a place in Grecia, where Hebe was woozſhipped.

Phletoricum, a bodie full of groſſe humours.

Phlonos, the herbe Verbaſcum.

Phlonitis, the herbe Onoſmon.

Phlox, phlogos, fœm. gen. in greke, is in latine Flamma, a flame.

Phlox, a yelowe floure like a violette.

Phloxenus, a greke poëte.

Phlobétor, oris, the ſonne of Somnus.

Phlum, a certayne herbe, that women vſed to make lye with of colour ruddie: of it be two kindes, the male and the female.

Phlyctæna, næ, f. g. a wheale, a puſh, a bliſter.

Phlyctis, the ſozenes of the eyes.

Phoca, cæ, f. gen. a ſea caulfe, it male be ſuppoſed to be a ſeale, which is fiſhe, and bzedeth on the lande.

Phocæ, phocarum, iles nere to Crete.

Phocea, a citee of the leſſe Phzygia, belongyng to Athens, the people therof builded Maſſilia in Pzouince.

Phocais, caidis, patronymicum fœ. of Phocea.

Phoce, ces, a citee of Beotia.

Phocides, and phocei, they that builded the citee of Maſſilia.

Phocenſes, people of Phocis.

Phoceus, & phocaicus, a, um, pertepnyng to Phocea.

Phocion, the diſciple to Plato and Xenocrates, one of the thiefe gouernours of the citee of Athens, a man of ſuche wonderfull grauitee and conſtancie, that he was not lightly ſene to chaunge his countenaunce, either to laugh oz to mourne, noz to haue his handes out of his habite, excepte in warre: and whan he was in the countrey, he went alwaie barefooted, excepte it were in the colde winter, wherof there was no better token, than to ſee Phocion go ſhodde. His ſpeche was ſhozte, graue, vehement, and full of quicke ſentences: and therfoze the moſte eloquent ozatour Demoſthenes called hym the hatchet that did cutte of his woozdes. He was of ſuche a conſtance, that wher Apollo at Delphos made aunſwer, that one man in Athenes was of a contrarie opinion to all the citee: whã that was repozted, Phocion roſe vp and ſaied: Leaue countrey men to ſeeche whom your god meaneth: foz I am that one man, whom noſthyng lyketh, whiche is nowe done in the common weale of this citee. Whan he had made an ozacion to the people, and they pzeſyng hym conſented to hym: he turned to theym that were next

P ANTE H.

next hym and sayd: Alas what haue I doone, I feare lest some foolysshe worde hath escaped me vnwares: signifyenge, that the people seldome allowed any thyng that was good, or not foolysshe. On a tyme whan he reasoned contrarie to the mynde of the people, wherfore they murmured and wolde haue slayn hym: It is at your pleasure countrey men, sayd he, to compelle me to doo that that I wolde not, but to speake otherwise then I thynke, that no man lyuyng can cause me. He was so reuerende a personage, that the great kynge Alexander, in the begynnyng of his letters, after he had vanquished Darius, saluted no man but hym, and Antipater. He refused infinite treasure sent vnto hym by Alexander, and although he had ben the generall capitayn of the Athenienses in sundry warres, and honourably achieued his enterprises: yet was he beste content to lyue poorely. Finally he was of his vnkynde countrey men condemned to death, wherto he went with the same countenaunce that he had in auctorite. whan one, whiche was condemned with hym, lamented and feared to die, Phocion turnyng to hym, sayd: why, arte thou not gladde, that thou shalte die with Phocion? And whan one of his frendes asked hym, if he wold any thyng to his son: I wolde (sayd he) that suche wyong as the Athenienses doo to me, he shoulde not remembre. what a wounderfull woorde of a paynim was this? who folowed Chrystes doctrine ere Christe was borne. 333 yeres.

Phocusa, one of the ilas called Sporades.

Phœbus, bi, m. ge. Apollo, the sonne of Jupiter and Latona, and is taken for the sonne.

Phœntea, an herbe called of the latines, Hordeum murinum.

Phœbeus, and Phœbeius, a, um, of Apollo, or of the sonne.

Phœmon, a poole in Arcadie.

Phœmonœ, the daughter of Phœbus, whiche first inuented the meter called Heroicum.

Phœbas, badis, f. g. a prophetisse.

Phœbe, bes, f. g. the moone.

Phœnicea, an herbe lyke Hordeum murinum.

Phœnices, people in Syria.

Phœniceus, a, um, right Crymson, or scarlet.

Phœnicia, or Phœnice, a region in Syria nexte to Judea.

Phœniceus, a, um, and Phœnissus, a, um, of Phœnicia.

Phœnicobalanus, the frute of the date tree.

Phœnicopterigium, a diminutiue of Phœnicopterus.

Phœnicopterus, ri, m. ge. a great birde, hauyng feathers of crymson colour.

Phœnicurus, a litle birde called a rede tale.

Phœnigmi, redde places in the skinne, commyng of rubbyng.

Phœnissa, a woman of Phenicia.

Phœnix, nicis, fœm. gen. a birde, whiche liueth aboue. 600. yeres: and finally carieng sweete spices vp to a highe mountayne, by the heate of the sonne, and labour of his wynges, kendleth fire, wherwith the beynge all bourned, of the asshes riseth a nother lyke birde. It is also a date tree, or paulme. also a litel riuer in Grece, it was also the brother of Cadmus, or after some, Agenors father, after whome Phœnice was named, where he reigned. Also one whiche was tutour to Achilles.

Phœnix, as Dioscorides describeth it, semeth to be the wede, that is called wap bene, it is lyke barley in the eare.

Pholoe, a mountayne in Arcadia, full of wood.

Pholus, one of the Centaures, the sonne of Ixion and Nubes.

Phollis, lis, m. g. a certayne tribute, whiche noble men payed: also a weight called Balantium, weighyng. 250. Donos, that is. xx. libras, and fyre ounces: There is an other Phollis, containyng. 208. of weightes named Ceratium. Phollis in Suidas, is the same that Obolus is lokt there, & in this sense is it taken in S. Augustine de ciuitate dei.

Phonos, idem quod Atrakilis.

Phonascus, ci, m. g. he that teacheth one to pronounce and moderate his voyce.

Phorbas, bantis, a shepeherd, that found Oedipus, after that he was hanged vp by the feete.

Phorcus, one of the sonnes of Neptunus, whiche was taken for a god of the sea.

Phorcys, Medusas father, of whom she was called Phorcynis.

Phorcys, phorcydos, patrony. of Phorcys.

Phormio, a capitayn of Athenes, in the warre of Peloponesus. Also a philosopher in the tyme of Anniball.

Phormium, an herbe holsome against the pinne and the webbe in the eye, and to drawe out thynges, that stycke with in the flesh.

Phorinus, a comicall poete of Syracuse of Sicile.

Phoroneus, the most auncient kyng of Grecia.

Phoroneus, a, um, of Phoroneus.

Phoronides, patrony. masc.

Phornois, nidos, patrony. fœmi.

Phosphorus, ri, m. g. the date starre.

Phragmon, the name of an image maker and peincter.

Phraortes, a kyng of India, a man of great temperaunce. In other Phraortes was kynge of Persia, who slew his owne father Herode.

Phrasis, sis, f. ge. the proprie kourse or maner of speache, whiche in one countrey is oftentymes diuerse, as Sotherne, Northerne, deuenysshe, henaulte, Frenche, Picarde, Gascoigne, walon. some do set the negatiue before thaffirmatiue, some contrarie: some speche is quicke, some graue, some flourishyng, some temperate.

Phratriæ, conuentions or assembles of men, hauyng peculiar sacrifices or factions of religions.

Phre-

Phregema, a citee in Hetruria, an other in Latium.

Phrene, the midrifle, whiche diuideth the vmbles of a man or beaste from the bowels. Aristotle semeth to take phrenes for the intrals.

Phreneticus, a, um, that is vexed with a phrenesy.

Phrenitis, tidis, or Phrenesis, sis, f. ge. a sickenesse called frenesy.

Phronimos, prudent, wise, wittie.

Phronesis, sis, f. g. prudencie.

Phrygia, a royme in Asia the lesse, hauyng on the east Cappadocia, on the southe Lycaonia, on the west Troas, on the northe Galatia. also the herbe Asplenium.

Phrygianus, a, um, embrodered.

Phrygianæ vestes, garmentes embrowdered.

Phrygio, ônis, m. g. a broderer.

Phrygius, a, um, of Phrygia.

Phrygium melos, a melody or tune in instrumentes, wherein seemed to bee (as Lucianus saieth) a maner of diuine furie, all be it Porphirius calleth it barbarous. Cassiodorus saieth, that the melody, called Dorius, geueth wisedome, & geueth chastitee. Phrygius stirreth to battail, and inflameth the desire of furie. Arcas appeaseth the tempestes of the minde, and bringeth in slepe. Lydius quickeneth vnderstanding in them that be dull, and inducth appetite of celestiall thynges.

Phryne, a famous harlotte at Athenes.

Phrynichus, an Athenien writer of Tragedies.

Phrynondas, a man so double, so disceptfull and yll, that of hym rose a prouerbe.

Phrynion, the herbe, whiche some call Lunaria minor.

Phrygos, a lysarde, some take it for a kinde of great frogges.

Phryx, gis, a man of Phrygia.

Phryxus, the son of Athamas, kynge of Thebes.

Phthia, a citee in Thessalie, Achilles countrey.

Phthiota, one that dwelleth in Phthia.

Phthiotia, one of the foure partes of Thessalie.

Phthiriasis, sis, f. g. a sickenesse, in the which liese do growe in such multitudes, that they deuoure the body, the lowsy euill.

Phthirophagi, people dwellyng nigh to the gres sea, whiche lyued onely by fysshe.

Phthirion, the herbe Stafisagria.

Phthisicos, he that hathe the consumpcion of the lunges.

Phthisis, sios, f. g. a disease in the lunges, with a consumpcion of all the body, compyng of a feuorous heate consumpng, or of a heate artificiall and humours in the stomache. The cause is a reume, sharpe and longe continuyng of choler or salte fleume, it happeth of a squince or impostume in the vuula, whan by the rupture of the, the putrefied mattier descendeth to the lunges, or of a pleurisie, or Peripneumonia, whe they begyng healed, the putrified mattier is not purged within the space of .xl. dates, or by lōg stoping of hemeroides or floures: or by the coldnesse of the ayre receiued, streignyng the spirituall membres: or by the heate of the ayre, dryenge and scorchenge the lunges: or by a great and longe cough: or by other inforcemente, in singyng high, or bearyng a heauy bourden.

Phthisis, the peionie.

Phthonia, medicines, that procure aboycion, or delyuerance before the tyme.

Phthongus, gi, m. g. a sowne.

Phu, a plante or herbe, whiche is called valerianam maiorem. some call it setwall or capons taple.

Phy, an interiection of meruaylyng.

Phycis, a certaine fysshe.

Phycites, a precious stone.

Phycos thalassium, called in latine Fucus marinus, an herbe lyke vnto lettuce, very good against all Ioinete diseases: of it be thres kindes.

Phicus, untis, a promontorie of Cyrene.

Phygethlon, li, n. g. a littel smellynge or botche, harde and redde, burnyng and prickyng.

Phylaca, cæ, fœ. g. a prison, a warde, a gayle.

Phylacista, tæ, m. g. a gaylour, a keper of a prison.

Phylace, a citee of Thessalie.

Phylacteria, scrolles of parchment, that the Phareseis vsed, wherein the commaundementes were written.

Phylarchus, the chiefe of the people.

Phyleus, one of the greeke capitaynes, that came to Troye.

Phyllandrion, vide Barb. in Coroll. lib. 3. cap. 141.

Phyllanthion, an herbe vsed to dye purple.

Phyllantes, an herbe, looke Barb. in Phylliridis.

Phyllis, lidis, the daughter of Lycurgus, kynge of Thrace, which kynge her selfe, despeiring of the comyng of Demophoon, whome poetes feigne, to be turned into an almon tree, wherof that tree is called Phylla. Phyllis is also a ryuer of Bithynia.

Phyllitis, an herbe called hartes tongue, looke Fuchsius in Hemionitis.

Phyllon, li, a leafe, also a hynde of mosse.

Phyllus, a citee of Thessalie.

Phylodoce, an nymphe.

Phylura, looke Philura.

Phyma, a beaste, on whiche yf a man doo looke he falleth in to a great palenesse and leannes for many dayes space.

Phymosis, looke Phimosis.

Physeter, teris, m. g. a great fysshe in the frenche ocean sea, whiche riseth lyke to a pillar abous thyppes, and spouteth out water.

Physica, æ, f. g. the science of thynges naturall.

Physica, orum, n. g. bookes that treate of naturall causes.

Physice, naturally.

Physicus, ci, m. g. a naturall philosopher, he that studys ſtudieth the cauſes of thynges naturall.

Phyſiognómia, æ, f. g. a rule to know a mannes naturall affections by his vſage or fourme of his membres.

Phyſiognômus, mi, or Phyſiognômon, monis, he that iudgeth ones maners and affections by his viſage and faction of his body.

Phyſiológia, æ, f. g. reaſon of naturall cauſes.

Phyſiólogus, gi, m. g. he that diſputeth of naturall cauſes, a naturall philoſophier.

Phyſis, nature.

Phyſionus, bene mentulatus.

Phytecuſa, an yle in the ſea Tirrenum.

Phython, or Phyton, looke Python.

Phytonicus, and Phytonica, he or ſhe that hath a ſpirite within them, that geueth anſwere of thynges to come.

Plabilis, le, for the whiche ſatisfaction maie be made, and god pleaſed.

Piaculâris, re, that which perteineth to purgeyng of ſinne, or is geuen or offred to god for ſatisfaction.

Piacularia auſpicia, tokens in ſacrifice of ſome heauy chance to come.

Piáculum, li, n. g. any thynge done for ſatisfaction of ſome greuous ſin. ſometyme a great and haynous offence.

Piâmen, minis, or Piamentum, ti, n. g. that whiche was geuen or occupied about ſatisfaction.

Piátio, ônis, fœ. g. a ſacrifiſyng, a purgeynge by ſacrifice.

Piator, oris, m. g. he that purgeth ſinne by ſacrifice.

Piatrix, tricis, fœ. g. ſhe that made ſacrifice to purge ſinne.

Pica, cæ, f. g. a byrde called a ppe: a Jaye is alſo conteined vnder this name, which in Italye at this day is called Pica granata. Pica, is alſo the lothynge of the ſtomake in theym that bee with childe.

Picâtus, a, um, pitched or raſed with pitche, alſo that ſauoureth or ſmacketh of pitche.

Picea, æ, f. g. a pitche tree.

Piceaſtrum, ſtri, n. g. a wilde pitche tree.

Piceâtus, a, um, pitched, ſmered with pitche.

Picenum, a countrey in Italie called Marca Anconitana.

Picenus, and Piceutinus, a, um, of Picenum.

Picentes, or Picentini, people of that countrey.

Piceus, a, um, of pitche, or blacke lyke pitche.

Picinum, a hynde of ople made of pitche.

Picra hiera, a bitter medicine, commonly called Hiera pigra.

Picras, the herbe Androſace.

Picrocholi, amaræ bilis homines.

Picris, cris, f. g. wylde lettuſe or Cichorie.

Pictácium, cii, n. g. a table perteinynge to iudges or biſſhoppes: it is ſometyme a plaiſter for the ſtomake or head.

Pictes, a wyaſtlar.

Pictones, a countreye in Fraunce called Poeters.

Pictor, ôris, m. g. a peinter.

Pictúra, æ, f. g. peintynge, the craft or feate of peintynge.

Picturatus, a, um, peincted, that hath diuers colours.

Picturatæ veſtes, embrodered apparayle, or rather of baudekyn.

Pictus, a, um, peincted, garniſſhed, gaily lette foorthe, that hath in it diuers colours.

Picumnus, a god amonge the Romayns.

Picus martius, a birde, whiche maketh a hole in trees, wherein he breedeth. of this bee three kyndes, the fyrſt is called a ſpecht, the ſeconde a hecway, the thirde, which Ariſtotle ſaith is as bygge as a hen, is not in England. Plinie maketh the fourth kynde, whiche ſeemeth to bee the wittwall. Picus, was alſo the name of an olde kynge of Latines.

Picunnus, a pie.

Pie, mercifully, deuoutelye, louyngely, godlie, with a naturall and honeſt loue and affection.

Pieria, a mountaine and citee of Beotia ydicate to the muſes.

Pieria, a mayden borne at Pyſe a citee of Jonia, daughter of an honorable man, called Pythes, of whome is this hiſtorie worthy of remembrance, there happened to bee warre betwene the inhabitantes of Miletum, and them of Myos, but in ſuche gentyll facion, that the women of Myos might alwaie, on the ſolemne feaſt of Diana, come to Miletum, and doe ſacrifice to Diana, whiche was there chiefely honoured: Pieria comynge thither with her mother, one Phygius, the eldeſte ſoonne of Nebeus duke of Miletum, beholdyng hyr beautie, beganne to loue hir excedyngely, and after the maner of louers, deſirynge to doo ſome thyng thankefull to the mayde, demaunded what he myghte doo to hir moſt pleaſant and acceptable. The mayden beynge witty, and alſo louyng to hir countrey and friendes, anſwered, that to hir it ſhulde bee the greateſt pleaſure, yf he woulde endeuoure hym ſelfe to bryng to paſſe, that ſhe mought oftentymes, with a great ſorte of hir companions repayre to Miletum without any damage. Phygius perceiuynge, that nothynge moughte ſo muche contente the mayden as peace, he callynge the people togeather, exhorted theym to conclude a peace with theym of Myos, to bee with theym in aliance: wherevnto they accorded, and the name of Pieria was euer after in ſo honorable a remembrance, that all honeſte women vſed for a prouerbe, to wiſſhe ſo to be loued, as Phygius loued Pieria.

Pierides, were daughters of one Pierus, whiche compared in ſingynge with the Muſes: but beyng beynge vanquished, and geuynge to the Muses reprochefull woordes, they were by theym turned into pies. They be sometyme taken for the Muses of an hill in Thessalie, called Pieris, or Pierus.

Pierides, the Muses.

Pierius, a, um, of the muses.

Pierus, the father of the forsaid maidens Pierides.

Piens, tis, mercifull. ℞.

Piennor, piéntíssimus, more & most mercifull, most louyng towarde his parentes or countrey.

Pietas, átis, f. gen. the reuerente loue towarde a mannes proper countrey and parentes, of diuines it is taken for the loue and honour due vnto god. Lactantius calleth it iustice and denote worshippyng and knowlage of god, godlynesse, godly affection, naturall loue towarde the parentes or hynskolke, naturalnesse, naturall zeale or affection.

Pigeo, gui, gere, to be sorie or agreeued, to be lothe, to be ashamed: it is most commonly vsed impersonally, sometime to be slow, also to repẽt.

Obsecro, ne quid plus minúsue faxit, quod nos postea pigeat, I require you, let hym not doe any thyng more or lesse, wherof we maie after repent vs.

Id non piget, he repenteth not of that he hath doone.

Quin me pigeat perdere, but that I wolde be lothe to lese it.

Ante nullo modo piguit facere, but thou were nothyng lothe or ashamed to dwe it.

Num facti piget? is he any thing sorie for that he hath dwne?

Piget me laboris, I am lothe or vnlustye to labour.

Piger, gra, grum, slowe.

Piger annus, a yere that passeth slowly awaie.

Bellum pigrum, a longe warre.

Pigmalion, the sonne of Belus, kynge of Tyre, and brother of Dido.

Pigmalioneus, a, um. of Pigmalion.

Pigmentum, ti, neu. ge. peinctynge that women vsed. Also peinctors colour.

Pigmenta, are also false colours in speakyng deceitfull woordes, pleasant lies.

Pigmentárius, rij, mas. gen. a maker or seller of peinctynge.

Pignatoxatis, veratrum album.

Pignerátio, ónis, f. g. a pledgeyng or gageyng.

Pigneratitius, a, um, that which is laied in pledge.

Pigneratitius creditor, he that maie take a pledge, or gage.

Pignero, aui, are, to laie to gage.

Pigneror, áris, ari, to take a pledge or a gage of a man for suretee of rent or paiement of money. sometyme to laie to gage.

Mars ipse ex acie fortissimum quenq; pignerari solebat, the most valiãt men be they, which in battayle be soonest dispatched: or Mars vseth to seise for hym self the valiauntest men.

Pignerati animi, the mindes or hertes of men in daunger, and as it were laide to gage.

Pignus, pignoris, or pigneris, n. gen. a gage or pledge geuen for suretee of dette or rent, also a pawne in laiyng a wager: by translation a certayne token, or sure signe, or testimonie of loue or frendship.

Dare pignus cum aliquo, to lay a gage against one.

Ponere pignori, to lay in gage or pledge.

Pignori opponere, to gage or leie to gage for suretie of rent or paiment.

Pignora auferre, To take a distresse. also to reste or seise ones gooddes for disobedience.

Pignus amoris, a token of loue.

Beneuolentiæ pignus, a token of fauour.

Pignora capere, idem quod pignora auferre.

Ager oppositꝰ est pignori, the peece of ground is laied to morgage.

Contendere pignore, to laie a wager.

Pignus rei publicæ, id est fiducia & securitas.

Pignora, is sometyme taken for childzen, beyng as pledges betwene man and wife.

Ascita pignora, childzen by adoption.

Pignóris captio, a noune, signifieth takyng of a distresse.

Pegnerátor, óris, m. g. he that taketh a gage for suretie of dette or paiement.

Pigre, slowly.

Pigrédo, grédinis, fœm. ge. slouthfulnesse, vnlustynes.

Pigreño, fieri, to be made slowe.

Pigresco, scere, to be or ware slowe or vnlusty.

Pigres, the brother of Artemisia.

Pigritia, æ, f. g. slouthfulnesse.

Pigrities, ei, f. g. idem.

Pigritúdo, dinis, and Pigritas, átis, f. ge. slowenesse, vnlustinesse.

Pigro, aui, are, to holde backe or tarie one.

Pigror, aris, ari, to be slow, to be lothe or vnlusty to dwe a thyng.

Scribere ne pigrere, be not slowe, lothe, or vnwillyng to wryte.

Pila, læ, f. g. a morter, wherin any thyng is beaten with a pestill. also a pillar, a balle, or any thynge rounde as a balle. also a pile, heape, or damme made in the water.

Pila ludere, to plaie at tenyse.

Pila se exercere, idem.

Mea pila est, the ball is in my handes, prouerbially, I maie dwe nowe with it as me listeth.

Pila lanuginis, a litteli round ball of Wolynesse, suche as is in gourdes when they be ripe.

Pilades, a gentill man of Phocea, whiche was so feithfull a friende to Orestes, (with whom he hepte companie whiles he was madde) that he wolde neuer forsake hym, but followed hym into the countrey called Taurica, where strangers were sacrificed vnto Diana, where Orestes beyng apprehended, when he shoulde be slayne, slayne, Pylades wolde nedes die for hym, that he might escape.

Pilani, they whiche fight with dartes.

Pilárius, rij, m. ge. a iugglar, whiche maketh as he did by leigerdemayne conuey litteli balles.

Pilátes, tis, m. ge. a certayne stone that is white.

Pilânus, ni, m. g. a capitayne in warre, leadyng a certayne bende of men.

Pilâtim, one pillar by an other, by or at euery pillar.

Pilâtus, a, um, armed with dartes.

Pileâtus, a, um, capped, that weareth a cappe.

Pileatus seruus, a slaue that is solde with his cappe on his head.

Pilentum, ti, n. ge. a wagon or chare with foure wheles, wherin women were wont to be caried.

Piléolus, li, m. g. a litteli bonette.

Pileus, lei, m. g. or Pileum, lei, n. g. a cappe or bonette. sometyme libertee: for as muche as bonde men, when they were infranchised, ware copped cappes.

Pilicrepus, pi, m. ge. he that in hotte baynes casteth litteli rounde balles into the fire, to make it burne.

Pilo, aui, are, to begynne to be hearp, or grow in heare. also to pull of ones heare.

Pilosella, æ, fœm. ge. an herbe, called commonly moule eare.

Pilósus, a, um, hearp, full of heare.

Pilula, læ, fœ. ge. a litteli balle. also a pille made for purgations.

Pilum, li, n. g. a barbours knyfe or rasour, also a darte or iauelyn of fyue foote long and a halfe, also a pestill, to braie or powne in a morter.

Primum pilum, the chiefe band of the Romains about the standerd, whiche were chiefly armed with dartes.

Pilumnus, ni, m gen. a man whiche founde the maner to dong lande, and to grinde corne.

Pilus, li, m. g. an heare.

Pili non facio, I set not a heare by it.

Pilus, or Pilum, a pestill, to breake or braie any thyng in a morter.

Pimpinella, læ, f. g. an herbe, called Pimpernell.

Pimpla, a place by the mountayne called Pernassus, of the whiche the Muses be called Pimpleides.

Pimpleus, a, um, of Pimpla.

Pina, næ, a fysshe that hath two great shelles.

Pinaces, per diminutionem, Pinacidia, tables in bokes: Pinaces be also writyng tables.

Pinachothéca, cæ, fœ. g a case or place, wherin peincted tables, plate, iewelles, and ornamentes were kepte.

Pinárii, an ancient house or familie in Italie, of the whiche were the priestes, that sacrificed to Hercules.

Pinarius, and Potitius, two olde men, to whom Hercules reueled, how he wold be worshipped.

Pinastallus, the herbe Peucedanum

Pinaster, a wilde pine tree of exceedyng great bright.

Pincerna, næ, a butler, or one that wayteth on mannes cuppe at the table.

Pincerna plutarum, the southwynde, so called, because it bringeth muche rayne.

Pindarus, a Theban poete, and thicke of the which were called Lirici. wherfore Alexander whan he destroied the citee of Thebes, caused the hous of Pindarus to be preserued, with all his familie. an other Pindarus was a tyrant of Ephesus.

Pindo, dis, di, dere, idem quod Pinso.

Pindus, a mountayne in Thessalia. also a citee there.

Pinea, æ, f. g. a pine apull or a pine tree.

Pinétum, ti, n. g. a wod or a groue of pine trees.

Pineus, a, um, of a pine tree.

Pingo, pinxi, pingere, to peincte, to deuise, to set in order, to drawe out the shappe or forme of a thyng, to distincte with diuers colours. by translation, to diuerse.

Pingere humum variis floribus, To strawe floures of diuers colours vpon the grounde.

Pinguédo, guédinis, f. g. fatte or fatnesse.

Pingue, guis, n. g. fatte, moyst fatte, grease.

Pinguefácio, guefacis, féci, fácere, to make fatte.

Pingueo, pingues, or Pinguesco, scere, to be fatte, to become fatte.

Pinguiárius, rij, m. g. he that loueth that thyng that is fatte.

Pinguis, gue, om. ge. fatte, that is fatte, ceasie, vnweldy, grosse. also frutefull, fertile.

Pinguis ferina, fatte venison.

Mensæ pingues, tables furnished with many good dishes.

Pingues horti, gardeins that bryng foorth good herbes.

Pingui Minerua, grossely, rudely.

Pingue otium, muche ease or reste.

Pinguis toga, a gowne of course clothe.

Pingue & concretum cœlum, thicke aire.

Pinguiter, greasily, grossely, with a fatnesse.

Pinguitúdo, dinis, f. g. fatnesse.

Laborare nimia pinguitudine, to be to grosse.

Pinguius, is sometyme vsed in the ciuile lawe for plenius, and Largius.

Pinna, næ, fœm. g. a quille or penne, the harde parte of a fether, the batelment of a wall, a finne of a fisshe, and a certayne shell fisshe. sometyme the creste of the helmette.

Pinnáculum, li, n. g. a pinnacle of a towre.

Pinnátus, a, um, that hath feathers or winges, or that hath finnes or batelmentes.

Pinnâtus Cupido, id est, alatus.

Pinnâta folia, leaues iagged on bothe sides lyke feathers.

Pinniger, ra, rum, that hath fynnes.

Pinnirapus, he that plucketh awaie the creste of his enemies helmette.

Pinnotheres, m. g. a shell fisshe, called also Pinna, breedyng in muddy places.

Pin-

Pinnula, læ, f. gen. the ouer parte of the eare, a litteli quill, a litteli feather, a litteli fynne. also a parte of the flesshe growyng ouer the nayle in the toes or fyngers.

Pinsito, aui, are, to braie in a morter.

Pinsitus, a, um, beaten in a morter.

Pinso, sui, sere, to braie or grynde, to make or bake breadde.

Pinsor, aui, are, idem.

Pinsor, ôris, m. g. he that grindeth in a querne, or beateth in a morter. also a baker.

Pinuia, a towne in Spayne called Valladolite.

Pinton, an ile betwene Sardinia and Corsyca.

Pinus, nus, or ni, f. g. a pine tree.

Cua pinus, is taken for a shippe.

Pinus trinia, the herbe Astragalus.

Pio, aui, are, to reuerence or honour. somtyme to poilute or defile. also to beare a naturall zeale or affection to a man. also to pourge synne, or please god with sacrifice.

Piones, people in Mysia, named of the citee Pione.

Piper, piperis, n. g. pepper.

Piperatus, a, um, pepered, condite with pepper.

Piperitis, fœm. ge. called also Siliquastrum, an herbe, whiche Ruellius saith is alecoast.

Pipio, iui, ire, to peepe like a chiche.

Pipio, ônis, m. g. a ponge pigeon.

Pipulo, aui, are, to chirpe like a sparoe.

Pipo, aui, are, to cloche like a henne.

Pipo, idem quod Picus martius.

Pipleus, an hill, called also Pimpleus.

Pipulum, li, n. g. a rebuke, a checke, a scoldinge.

Piquentum, a citee of Istria.

Pirata, tæ, masc. gene. a rouer or robber on the sea, a pirate.

Piratica, cæ, f. ge. the practise of pirates or robbers on the sea.

Piraticam facere, to vse robbyng and rouing on the sea.

Piratérium, rii, n. g. a place where pirates dwell.

Piráticus, a, um, of or belongyng to pirates or robbers on the sea.

Bellum piraticum, warre agaynst pirates, and them that trouble the seas.

Pirea, a famous citee, somtyme called Aminsus.

Pireus, an hauen of Athens, whiche mate receyue 400. shippes. There is also an hauen of the same name at Corinthe.

Pirithous, the sonne of Ixion, one of the Lapithes, whiche went to hell with Theseus, and was there deuoured of Cerberus.

Pirhica, lohe Pyrricha.

Pirum, ri, n. g. lohe Pyrum.

Pirus, a prince of Thrace, slayne at the siege of Troie.

Pisa, a citee in Greece, betweene the two mountaynes Olympus and Ossa. also a citee in Arcadia, from whiche came the people that inhabited Pisæ in Italy.

Pisæ, arum, a citee in Italie called Pise.

Pisani, people of the citee of Pise.

Pisandrus, a poete of the citee Camirus in Rhodes, before the tyme of Hesiodus: an other Pisandrus was in the tyme of Alexander Seuerus.

Pisaurensis, that dwelleth in the citee Pisaurum.

Pisaurus, a riuer in Italy.

Pisaurum, a citee in Italie called Pesero.

Piscária, æ, fœm. g. the fysshe markette, or fysshe selling.

Piscárius, a, um, perteinyng to fysshyng.

Hamus piscarius, a fysshyng hoohe.

Piscaria copia, great abundaunce of fysshe.

Piscárius, rii, m. g. a fysshemonger.

Piscátus, us, m. g. the acte of fysshyng.

Piscátio, ônis, f. g. idem.

Piscátor, ôris, m. g. a fysscher.

Piscátrix, icis, the femmine.

Piscatórius, a, um, perteinyng to a fysshe.

Pisciculus, li, m. g. a litteli fysshe.

Piscina, næ, fœ. g. a fysshe ponde, it is also generally euery ponde, although therin be no fysshe: a place with warme water or colde made for men to swymme in. also a great vatte or trien vessell, to holde water.

Piscinális, le, of or perteinyng to a fysshe ponde.

Piscinárius, rii, m. g. he that nourisheth fysshe. he that hath diuers fysshe pondes.

Piscis, cis, m g. a fysshe, properly that hath scales.

Captare pisces arundine, to angle for fysshe.

Pisces, also one of the twelue signes.

Piscor, âris, ari, to fysshe.

Piscari in aëre, proverbially, to labour in vain.

Piscósus, a, um, that mate be fished, or is full of fysshe.

Pisculentus, a, um, idem.

Pisei, people of the citee Pisa in Grecia.

Pisenor, a Centaure, the sonne of Ixion.

Piseus, he that first inuented the brasen trúpette.

Pisidæ, people in Asia, called beforetyme Solymi, of Solimus Iupiters sonne.

Pisidia, æ, a countrei of the lesse Asia.

Pisistratus, a noble man of Athens, whiche changed the common weale of that citee from the rule of the people, to the rule of one gouernour: and therfore was called a tyran, not withstandyng (as he wrote vnto Solon, whiche maynteined the popular astate) he ruled by their owne lawes, and was rightfoule and gentyll vnto the people.

Piso, pisis, pisere, to purge or beate of the huske of corne, or other graine, as thei did with powdring in olde tyme.

Piso, aui, are, idem.

Piso, sonis, the name of a noble familie or house in Rome.

Pissa, sæ, f. g. pitche.

Pissasphaltus, ti, m. g. pitche and the lime called Bitumen, mingled together.

Pisselæon, læi, n. g. an ople made of pitche.

Pissocéros, ri, m. g. a iuice or humour of wate or pitche mixte with gume or rosine, & is the secõd parte of bees labour in makyng honye & waxe.

Pistácium, cij, n. g. a kynde of nuttes.
Pistillum, li, neu. ge. a pestill to powne or braie with.
Pistolochia, the fifte kynd of Aristolochia.
Pistor, ôris, m. ge. he that was wonte to poune corne in a morter, nowe a baker.
Pistorium, a citee in Italie.
Pistóricus, ca, cum, and Pistorius, a, um, pertaynyng to bakyng.
Ars pistoria, bakers crafte.
Pistrilla, læ, f. g. a mille.
Pistrinensis, se, belongyng to a backe house, or grynding house.
Pistrinum, ni, n. ge. and Pistrina, næ, fœ. g. a backehouse, a mylle, or grynding house. it was a place, where they vsed to braie, powne, or grinde corne, and make breadde, where (because it was a peinefull thynge) men vsed to put their seruauntes for a punysshement, and therfore it is sometyme vsed for a prysone or peynefull seruice.
Pistris, tris, f. g. a shippe: also a signe or planet, called Cetus and Pistrix.
Pistrix, tricis, f. g. a woman baker, also a monstruous fisshe in the Indian sea, and a planet in the firmament.
Pistúra, æ, f. g. the crafte of bakyng.
Pistus, a, um, grounden or braied.
Pisum, si, n. g. a pease.
Pisus, a, um, powned, braied.
Pitane, a citee of Eolis in Asia, the people wherof be called Pitanei, or Pitanitæ.
Pithécium, cij, n. g. vsed of Plautus for a dekoymed or ill fauoured woman like a she ape.
Pithecusa, an ile in the sea agaynst Campania, so called for the great plentie of apes there bred, after some.
Pithécus, ci, m. ge. an ape.
Pithéta, f. g. a comete or impression in the firmament, whiche is lyke a tunne, and doeth appere as it were thrugh a myste.
Pitheus, the sonne of Pelops, which buylded the citee Trœzena.
Pitho, or Pithus, the ladye and president of eloquence to perswade, called of Ennius Suada, of Horace Suadela.
Pithodemus, a famous wrastlar.
Pithodicus, idem quod Vascularius.
Pithœ'gia, orum, n. ge. a certayne sacrifice, vsed in Grece in the monthe of Januarie, at the tasting or settyng of wyne abrocherin the whiche they gaue wyne to their seruantes and slaues.
Pithonoscomes, a place in Asia, where after the Idus of August, great flockes of storkes doe assemble together.
Pithumnus, a god among the Romayns, whiche first inuented to grynde corne to make breade.
Pitiíso, aui, are, to sippe or drinke lutell.
Pitpit, in the olde tongue of Oshes, signified quicquid, what so euer.

Pitrácium, cij, neu. gene. a littell clothe, whiche beyng nopnted with some salue, is laied some tyme to the forehead, sometyme to the stomake to ease peyne.
Pittacus, one of the seuen sages of Grecia, and was of the citee Mitylenæ.
Pituita, tæ, fœm. g. fleume or reume descendyng from the head, as in them that haue the pose also the pippe, whiche chekins haue.
Pituitária, æ, fœ. ge. called also vua agrestis, an herbe, which driueth vp the reume in the mouthe.
Pituitósus, a, um, fleumatiche.
Piturum, ri, n. g. a kinde of Olyue trees.
Pityides, the innermost kirnell of the pine apul.
Pityliſma, matis, an exercise, where a man goeth faste on his toes, and moueth his armes forewarde and backewarde.
Pitylisso, aui, are, to exercise in that fourme.
Pityocampæ, arum, f. g. wourmes, which be in a pine apull tree, whose bityng is venemouse.
Pityonices, cis, m. ge. he that was victour in the games of Grece, and had geuen to hym a garlande of pine tree, whiche was celebrate in the honour of Archemorus.
Pityron, ri, n. g. branne.
Pityrñ panes, horse breadde, or breadde made of branne.
Pitysoriſis, the herbe Aiuga.
Pityusa, an ile by Grecia, called also Mylenus: it is also an herbe of the kynde of spurge, whiche the apothecaries call Esula. Ieruarius writeth, that the barbarous people call the rote of Pityusa, Turbit: but it is the Turbit, whiche is white and thycke, and cometh from the hill of Garganus, whiche is of the seconde kynde of spurge, and is not that Turbit, whiche apothecaries now haue, rede more in Turbit.
Piulcum, ci, an instrument to draw out matter.
Pius, a, um, religious, deuout, piteous, gentil, mercifull, benigne, chaste, he that loueth his parentes, or countrey, naturall towarde his parentes, countrey, or children.
Pixacanthum, a kinde of thorne, called also Chironium.
Pix, picis, f. g. pitche.
Pix liquida, tarre.
Induere postes pice, to laie pitche vpon.

P ANTE L.

PLacábilis, le, easy to be pleased, gentille, soone qualified.
Placabilis and Irritabilis, contrarie.
Præbere se placabilem alicui, to shew hym self gentill to one, and easy to be pleased.
Placabile ingenium ad preces, a gentill nature, soone intreated to be contente.
Te ipsum purgare ipsis coram placabilius est, you shal please them the better, if you make your excuse before them your selfe.
Placabilitas, átis, f. ge. gentilnesse, the vertue to be be loone contente and pleased, placabilitee.

Placæ, plates of golde or syluer.
Placámen, cáminis, and Placamentum, ti, n. g. a thing that one is pleased in, or qualified with.
Placatè, peasibly, quietely, gentilly, without any hasty affection of the mynde.
Placátio, ónis, f. g. a swageyng, mitigatyng, pleasynge.
Placitus, a, um, pleased, gentyll, quiete, appeased, pacified, qualified. also caulme.
Placendus, a, um, that oughte to please and be thankefull to a man.
Placenta, æ, f. g. a tarte, a wafer, a fine cake, a mulbet, or any pleasant thyng made of paaste.
Placentia, a citee in Liguria.
Placentini, people of the citee of Placentia.
Placeo, cui, cere, to please, to delyte, sometyme to flatter, to lyke, to glozie.
Postridie placuit, vt breuiter. &c. the nexte daie after theyr mynde was, or they thought it best, that. &c.
Vt sapientissimis placuit, after the opinion of the moste discrete persons, or as the wisest men thought conuenient and beste.
Facvt placeatur nobis, see that she be qualified to vs.
Expecto, quid istis placeat de epistola ad Cæsarem, I desyre to know, what theyr minde is concerninge the epistle that was sente to Cæsar.
Placitum est mihi, I thought it good, or my will and opinion was.
Placet, the impersonall, it liketh me, or him: or it is his pleasure or aduise, he or I thynke it best, he is of this opinion.
Senatui placet, the Senate hath ordeyned or thynketh it beste.
Placet sibi, he standeth well in his owne conceite, he is vaineglorious.
Placia, a towne of Mysia.
Placidè, quietely, patiently, peasibly, pleasantly, gentilly, styll without noyse or trouble, softly.
Placidè pulsare fores, to knocke softely at the doore.
Placidè aperire fores, to opē the doore softely without noyse.
Ferre placide iniuriā, to take or suffre wronge or displeasure patiently.
Vt placide accubat canis! how still the dogge lieth, without steryng or barkynge!
Placide currere, to renne softely without streignynge.
Loqui placide sedatèq, to speake quietely and temperately, without braying or cryeng out.
Placiditas, ātis, f. g. quietenesse.
Placidus, a, um, gentill, meeke, patient, quiete, caulme, still, without trouble. also tame, tractable.
Placidus dies, a pleasant and fayre daie.
Feruere & placidum esse, contrary.
Amnis placidus, a ryuer that renneth veray quietely, a still water.
Animalia placida, tame beastes that be tractable.
Arbor placida, and Syluestris, contrary.
Placidum cælum, a caulme weither without tempeste or wynde.
Mare stat placidum, the sea is caulme & quiet.
Venti placidi, gentill and softe wyndes.
Vibes placidæ, citees quiete without trouble or businesse.
Placidis moribus boues, oxen that be tractable and not wilde.
Placidissima pax in animo, whan a man is without all trouble and affection of mynde.
Placito, aui, are, the frequentatiue of Placeo.
Placitum, ti, n. g. a firme consent in an opinion, an ordinaunce, a decree.
Placitus, a, um, that lyketh or contenteth.
Placo, aui, are, to pacifie, to appease, to qualifie, to please with sacrifices or gefres, to content, to quiete, to make caulme.
Pladatores, a disease, whereby the eie lidder ware feeble, and wyll vneth be plucked vp.
Plærunq, looke plerunque.
Plaga, æ, f. g. the fyrste syllable longe, signifieth, a wounde, a cutte, a chappe in a tree, a stripe, the pointe of a stripe: and by translation a great losse, hurte, or displeasure, an heauie chaunce: the fyrste syllable beynge shorte, it signifieth a great net to take wilde beastes in: also the artyng corde of a nette: also a great space of heauen and earth, called Clima.
Accipere plagam, to be wounded.
Nodi plagarum, the pointes of stryppes.
Altæ plagæ, a depe wounde.
Grauiorem plagam accipiebat, vt leuiorem depelleret, he toke the greatter hurte, that he myght put awap the lesse.
Luculenta plaga, a sore and greuous wounde: and by translation, a greuous losse and displeasure.
Facere plagam, to cut, to launce.
Imponere plagam insanabilem alicui, and Affligere plagam mortiferam alicui, to geue one his deathes wounde: to doo one suche a displeasure or hurte, as he shall bee neuer able to recouer.
Ferre plagam, to stryke.
Crepitus plagarum, the noyse or sowne of stripes.
Tendere plagas, to pitche or set nettes to take beastes.
Cadere, and Incidere in plagas, to come by chaunce into the net, to fall in daunger.
Texere plagas contra se, to make nettes to take hym selfe in, to bringe argumentes to confounde hym selfe.
Plagæ, tapestrey, counterpointes, carpettes.
Plagánion, nij, n. g. a certaine ointement.
Plagiárius, rij, mas. ge. he that bieth a man for a slaue, knowyng hym to be free. also he that intiſeth a mans ſeruant to go from his maiſter, or kepeth hym ſecretely, without the knowlage of his maiſter, or ſtealeth away a mans childzen. also a ſtealar of bookes.

Plagiātor, tōris, m. g. idem.

Plagiāria lex, a law made agaynſt them that were called Plagiarij, whiche for theyr offence were whipped.

Plāgiger, gigera, rum, as it were borne to bee whipped and beaten.

Plagium, gij, n. g. the offence of Plagiarijs, the ſtealyng of ones ſeruauntes or childzen.

Plagōſus, a, um, full of ſtripes, all to beaten. also he that beateth muche, a great beater.

Plāgula, æ, f. g. a ſhete of paper, a counterpoint, a couerlyng, a carpet.

Plaguſia, æ, f. g. a certayne fyſſche.

Planāria, an ile beyonde Corſica.

Planaſia, an ile in the ſea Tyrrhenum.

Planca, cæ, f. g. a planke.

Planctus, us, m. g. ſtrikyng, beatyng, knockyng, waylyng, ſorowyng.

Liuentia planctu brachia, armes blacke and blewe with beatyng.

Plancus, a noble man of Rome.

Plancus, ci, m. g. he that hath a ſplay foote.

Plānē, truely, cleerely, euidently, manyfeſtely, playnely, certeinely, without fayle, vtterly, all together, quite and cleane.

Parum plane aliquid dicere, to ſpeake a thyng obſcurely. Non poſſū planius cōmemorare, I can not reherce them moze playnely and euidently. Plane ea eſt, certaynely or without fayle it is euen ſhe.

Tu quidem illum plane prodis, thou dooeſt euen playnely or vtterly betray hym.

Ad reſtim res mihi redijt planiſsime, I am lyke to be hanged vp for this without fayle.

Si plana à nobis deficis, if you vtterly forſake vs. Vt ibi te plane confirmares, that you myght there ſtrengthen your ſelfe thzoughly.

Niſi plane nihil ſapit, except he be a ſtarke idēote. Plane hercule hoc quidem eſt, certeinly, without fayle, it is euen it.

Planēta, tæ, f. g. a planete.

Planga, gæ, fœ. g. a birde, by the deſcription of Plinie and Ariſtotle, moſte lyke to bee that, whiche we call a balde buſſarde.

Plango, xi, plangere, to weepe or bewayle, to ſtrike or hit, to thumpe, to knocke.

Plangunt littora fluctus, the waues beate agaynſt the bankes.

Pectora plangere manu, to knocke ones breaſt with his hande.

Humum pectore plangere, id eſt, percutere.

Plangere aliquem, to wepe & lament for one.

Nunc nemora ingenti vento, nunc littora plāgunt, id eſt, reſonant, inquit Seruius.

Plangor, plangōris, m. g. ſtrikyng, beatyng. alſo weppyng, waylyng, cryng out.

Planiloquus, a, um, that ſpeaketh his mynde boldely and freely.

Planipēdia, æ, f. g. a comedie, wherin the players plaie barefooted.

Planipes, nipedis, om. g. that goth without ſhoes. also one y̆ plaieth in an interlude bare foote.

Planities, ei, f. g. a plaine fielde, a leuel grounde.

Plantātio, ōnis, a ſettyng of ponge plantes.

Planta, tæ, f. g. the foote with the toes. ſometyme onely the ſole of the foote. also a plante or tre newely ſet. ſometyme an herbe, that groweth lowe.

Plantāgo, tāginis, fœm. g. an herbe called plantaine.

Plantārium, rij, n. g. a ſet or plante, or the place where plantes be ſet.

Plantāris, re, perteinyng to the foote.

Plantārius, a, um, meete or redy to ſet.

Plāntiger, ra, rum, that beareth plantes or graffes.

Plantigeræ arbores, trees whiche bryng forth ſettes.

Planto, aui, are, to ſet, or plante.

Plānula, a playne, a ioyners inſtrument.

Planulæ, arum, hynges of a dooze.

Planus, a, um, playne, euen, cleere, apparante, euident, manifeſt, if it bee applied to a countrey, champion.

Planum facere, to declare or expounde.

Plani piſces, fyſſches, whiche bee flatte and not rounde.

Planior aditus, a moze open or eaſie waie to entre.

Ad planum reducere cicatrices, to take away ſcarres of woundes, that they be nothyng ſeene.

Iudices ex aut è plano, aut è quæſtoris tribunali admonebat, id eſt, è ſolo, in quo populus ſtabat, or ſittyng in the queſtours ſeate or beyng where the people ſtandeth.

De plano interlocutus eſt, he ſpake to hym beyng amonge the people, and not in the iudgement ſeate.

De plano quoq; libellus dari poteſt, id eſt, iudice non ſedente, & diebus feriatis.

Plani pedis ædificium, an houſe that hath no celar, nor vault.

Plani dentes piſcium, and Serrati, contrarie.

Venter planus, id eſt, non rugoſus, ſmoothe or plaine without wrincles.

Quum planum fieret, whan it was euidently declared and proued.

Plānus ni, m. g. a deceiuer or mocker, a falſe accuſer, a tale bearer, a wāderer. also a iugglar, whiche maketh thinges to ſeme in apparaunce, where in deede no ſuche thynge is: as water to come into the houſe, or trees to growe, or money of leaues or ſtones.

Plaſma, plāſmatis, & Plaſmatū, ti, n. g. the worke of a pottar, or of him, which worketh in earth. Plaſma is also a plaiſter.

Plaſmo, aui, are, to make potte, or ange other thing thyng of earthe.

Plaſtes, tæ, m. gen. a worker of images or other lyke thyng in earth.

Plaſtice, es, fœ. g. the craft of worthyng or maſkyng of images in earth.

Plauchoriaſis, ſis, fœm. gene. a diſeaſe that horſes haue.

Phulea, leæ, f. g. a byrde, which foloweth water foules that doe take fyſches, and dooeth peche them so on the heade, that they leat goe their pray, whiche the taketh and ſpuerth therwith, he is called a ſhouelar.

Plauetum, ti, n. gen. a place where plane trees doe growe.

Plauanus, a, um, of a plane tree.

Plauiſta, æ, fœ. g. a fyſche in the ryuer of Ganges. 15. cubites longe, and hath a beke and a tayle lyke a Delphin.

Plauodes, a promontorie or hill of Achaia.

Plianus, ni, f. g. a plane tree.

Plaga, æ, fœm. gen. a hygh ware or ſtrete. also a court in great places. moreouer the byrde called Plaelea, looke there.

Plateæ, a cittee in Beœotia, not far from Thebes.

Plateenſes, people of the cittee of Plateæ, in Greece.

Pliophthalmon, mi, n. g. a kynd of white ſtone or alabaſtre, founde in ſyluer mynes.

Pliuphillon, li, n. g. a kynde of ſpurge.

Plato, the prince of all philoſophiers (in wiſedome, knowlage, vertue, and eloquence, farre exceedyng all other gentyles) was borne in Athens, his father was named Ariſton (of an auncient and honourable houſe) his mother Perictiona, deſcended from Solon. Lyng in his cradell, bees were founden to byrnge hony into his mouthe, without hurtyng the childe: whiche dreames dyd interprete, to ſignifie, that from hym ſhulde flowe eloquence moſte ſweete and dilectable. Socrates dreamed, the nyght before he was brought to hym to bee inſtructed, that he helde betweene his knees a whyte egnet, who hauyng feathers quickely growen, flewe vp towarde heauen, & filled the ayre with moſt ſwete tunes: So the date after, Plato beyng brought vp his father, Socrates beholdyng hym well, ſaied: This is the byrde, whoſe image I beheilde the laſte nyght. His name was fyrſte Iryſtocles, after called Plato, because (as ſome ſuppoſe) he was broade in the ſhoulders: other write, because he had a brode viſage. In his youthe he exerciſed wraſtlyng and other feates of actiuitee: and tyllhe was. xx. yere olde, he gaue hym ſelfe to make amorous verſes, whiche after he came to here Socrates, he threwe into the fire and bourned, and than moſt ardently and attentiuely hearde Socrates doctrine, duryng the tyme that he lued. After that, he not onely hearde the moſt famous philoſophiers and Geometrians in Greece, but alſo went into Italie, into Aſtryke and Aegypte, to here the myſticall ſciences. and it is thought, that he hearde ſome of the prophetes, ſens there be founden in his woorkes ſentences not abhorryng from our catholyke feithe. He was experte in marciall affaires, for he had fought in thre great battailles. He choſe a place by Athenes, called Academia, where he taught: and therfore his diſciples were called Academici. There was in hym a meruaylous ſharpeneſſe of witte, with an incomparable dexteritee in diſputyng and maſkyng of aunſweres: his conſtaunce, temperaunce and grauitee, with courteyſie in language, were of all other incomparable: he was ſo deſyrous of knowlage, that he was no leſſe ſtudious to learne, than he was to teache. Wherfore beyng scorned of one, whiche aſked of hym, howe longe he woulde be a ſcholar, ſo longe (ſaied he) as I repent not to bee wiſer and better. He is called diuinus Plato, for his excellente doctrine, whiche contayneth many thynges (as ſainct Auguſtin ſaieth) whiche accorde with holy ſcripture: ſo that therin is perceiued the fyrſt part of Geneſis vnto Spiritus domini ferebatur ſuper aquas, and the miſterie of three perſons in diuinitee is there expreſſed. He died writyng, of the age of. 81. yeere, afore the incarnation of Chriſte. 342. yeeres, reade more of hym in Dionyſius.

Plaudi, they whiche haue great hangyng eares.

Plaudo, plauſi, plaudere, to reioyce with countinaunce, to clappe the handes together for ioye.

Pedibus plaudunt choreas, they daunce.

Nec ipſe tibi plaudis, you doe not pleaſe your ſelfe.

Plaudere aliquem, to ſhewe with clappynge the handes, that they doe allowe & praiſe one.

Ne victoria quidem plauditur. The victorie was not receiued with ioye and clappyng of the handes.

Plauſibilis, le, that whiche the people doeth receiue with ioye and clappynge of their handes, acceptable, pleaſaunt, plauſible.

Plauſito, aui, are, to crie or ſynge lyke a woodde culuer.

Plauſor, ôris, ma. gen. he that ſheweth ioye with clappyng of the handes.

Plauſus, us, maſcu. gene. the conſent of people with voyce, clappynge of the handes, or other noyſe.

Galli, cantum plauſu alarum, indicant, cocks clappe their wynges before they crowe.

Plangor & Plauſus, contrarie, bewaityng and reioyſyng.

Captare, and querere plauſus, to ſeeke for laude or praiſe.

Comprobare plauſu & clamore, To allowe with ſhoutyng and clappyng of the handes.

Dare plauſum, to clappe with the handes, to praiſe, to allowe.

Dare plauſum pennis, to clappe the wynges together.

Excipere aliquem plausu, to clappe lopouselp with the handes at once compng.
Plaustrum, stri, neu. gene. a carte, a wapne, a chariotte.
Vnda hospita plaustris, when riuers beyng frosen haue cartes passing ouer them.
Plaustrárius, rij, m. g. a wapne man.
Plautius, a certapne poete.
Plautus, ti, m. g one that is splape fooled.
Plautus, a comicall poete, borne in Vmbria: whan he had spente all his substaunce on players gar mentes, and therby was brought to extreme powertee, he was fapne for his liuyng to serue a baker in tournyng a querne, or handemill. Whan he was vacant from that labour, he wrate most eloquente and pleasaunt comedies, wherin he was reputed so excellent, that Spius Stalo saied of hym, he doubted not, but that the muses would speake as Plautus did wrote, if they shoulde speake latine. He was in the tyme of Cato Censorius.
Plexaura, a nymph, the daughter of Oceanus.
Plebécula, æ, f. g. the poore people.
Plebeius, a, um, of the common or meane people, of the common sorte. also poore, meane, of littell value.
Purpura plebeia, purple, not of the best and fynest sorte.
Plebeij philosophi, meane philosophers.
Plebeius sermo, the simple and homely speache, that the common people vse.
Vestis plebeia, a poore garment.
Plebeius fieri, whan a gentill man is adopted into the familie of a commoner.
Plebeius, plebeij, one of the comminaltee, not beyng a gentyll man.
Plebeus, idem.
Plebicola, læ, m. g. a fauourer of the cõminaltee.
Plebiscitum, ti, neu. gene. a lawe, statute or ordinance, made by the onely consent of the common people of Rome, without the auctoryter of the Senate.
Plebs, bis, seu plebes, plebei, f. g. the common or meane people. It is sommme taken for Plebeius, and is spoken of one.
Pléctilis, le, that is platted or wounden.
Plecto, plexui, plécterc, to intangle, to knitte, to platte, to weaue.
Plecto, plexi, plectum, after Priscian, or after other, plexui, plexum, plectere, to punyshe, to strike, to beate.
Plecti capite, to be beheaded.
Multis in rebus negligẽtia plectimur, in many thinges we be punyshed, or haue displeasure for our owne negligence.
Iure igitur plectimur, therfore we be worthily punyshed.
Plectronia, the great Centaurie.
Plectrum, tri, neu. ge. an instrument, wherwith men plaied on the harpe, or dulcimers, for hurting of their fingers. also a spurre set on a fighting cocke, whan he lacketh naturall spurres.
Plectrum coxæ, the holowes of the huchyll, or hippe bone.
Pleiades, the vii. sterres, whiche mariners vse a steryng of coastes, poetes feigne them to be the vii daughters of Lycurgus, or Atlas.
Pleias, pleiadis, Mart, the chiefe of the vii systers, called Pleiades.
Pleione, the daughter of Oceanus, and wyfe of Atlas.
Plemmyrium, a ryuer in Sicilia.
Plene, largely, abundantly, fully, perfectly.
Plenissime dicere, To speake largely of a thyng, and as muche as can be saied of it.
Quam plenissime ad me scribas, wryte to me all the mattier at large.
Plenes, a braunche of the male date tree.
Plenilunium, nij, n. g. the full moone.
Plenitudo, dinis, fœ. ge. fulnesse, sometyme for Crassitudine, thicknesse, grossenesse.
Plenus, a, um, full, perfect, also riche, that hath all plentie and abundaunce.
Plena manu, abundantly, liberally.
Illum ingressum pleno gradu cohortari non intermittemus, we will not cease to exhorte hym diligently, beyng ones fully and throughly entred into the mattier.
Graue & plenum carmen, a verse whiche fylleth well the eares.
Pleniore ore laudare, To gene more abundaunce of praises, to praise more ernestly and effectuously.
Plenissimum testimonium, a verie large testimonie or witnesse.
Plenus animi, verie courageous, full of courage or stomache.
Plenus officij, redie to doo pleasure and seruice to euery man.
Plenus vini, dronken, likewyse plenus crapulæ.
Plenus sanguinis, a great murderer, a bloudy persone.
Plenus somni, sleapie, drowsie.
Adolescentia plena spei maximæ, youthe, wherin men haue a speciall hope.
In plenum dicere, to speake generally, or of al.
Ieiunus & plenus orator, contrarie.
Corpus plenum, id est, repletum cibo.
Plenus à summo, full to the toppe.
Plenus ad marginem, full to the brymme.
In alienam pecuniam plenam ac præclaram inuadere, to entre by force & wrongefully into an other mans house, replenished and well furnyshed with goodes and substance.
Ire vidi milites plenis viis, I sawe the wayes full of souldiours goyng to warre.
Velis plenissimis nauigare, to haue a prosperous and good wynde in sailyng.
Grandis & plena vox, a great and full voyce.
Aetatis plenus, verie aged.

Amoris

Amoris plenus, very amorous, greatly in loue.
Animorum & irarum plenus, very fierce and angrie.
Plenus annis, he died beyng verye aged, or a verye olde man.
Plenus corporis, externisq; bonis, hauyng all gyftes of the body, and worldly felicitee abundantly.
Plenus sum expectatione, I would very faine knowe, or I haue a great desyre to knowe.
Gloriarum plenus, a vayneglorious man.
Ingenij plenus, verye wittie.
Quis plenior inimicorum fuit? who had mo enemies?
Vxor plena lachrymarum obtestans, his wyfe all bloubertynge and weepynge, beseekyng hym for goddes sake.
Linum plenus, a busy fellow, alway in suite and contencion.
Negotij sum plenus, I haue as much busynesse as I can turne me to.
Plena festinationis epistola, a letter written in great haste.
Plenus spei, that hath conceiued a great hope.
Plenissimum temeritatis, dooen with great rashenesse, and vnaduisednesse.
Domus plena, id est, referta opibus, ryche and full of gooddes.
Plenam operam exigere, to require the full tasshe.
Plena proprietas, whan one hath the full proprietee, with the whole vse and profyte of a thyng.
Pleo, ples, pleui, to fyll.
Pleonasmos, a figure, wherin is superfluitee of woordes.
Pleriq, pleræq; pléraq, many, a great sorte, most parte.
Pleriq, signifieth some.
Pleriq omnes, all, or all for the more parte.
Plerus, plera, plerum, of olde tyme was vsed for more.
Plera pars, the more parte.
Plerunq, oftentymes, sometymes.
Plethora, ræ, f. g. abondance of humours in the body.
Plethoricum corpus, a bodie full of humours.
Plethrum, thri, n. g. a measure of lande conteynynge a hundred feete: or, after Valla, idem quod iugerum, that is .242. foote.
Pleuritis, tidis, f. g. a sickenesse in the syde, called the pleuresie.
Pleuriticus, a, um, that hath the pleuresie.
Pleuitas, or after Sipontinus, Plenitas, atis, was vsed of olde writers for Ignobilitas.
Pleuron, onis, a citee of Aetolia.
Pleuronius, a, um, of Pleuron.
Plexus, a, um, wounden or bounden, wouen, platted, tied together.
Plico, aui, vel plicui, are, to fold, to knit, to plait.
Plicatilis, le, that may be folded, knit or plaited.
Plicatûra, æ, f. g. a foldyng or plaityng.
Plinius, the name of two noble learned men, the one wrote the moste excellent woorke, called the historie of Nature: the other wrate eloquent epistoles, & an oracion to Traiane in his commendacion, whiche oracion is called Panegyricus. There is also a woorke of the practise of physike in the name of Plinius, but whether it were of the first Plinie or no, it is not verye certeyne: some call hym Valerianus.
Plisthenes, an vnchaste and wanton person.
Plistonicum, ci, n. g. a certayne disease.
Plistónicus, the name of a learned man.
Plodo, si, dere, to make noise with handes or feete, idem quod plaudo.
Plorâtor, ôris, m. g. he that weepeth.
Plorâtus, a, um, wepte for.
Plorâtus, us, m. g. weppng, cryeng out, wailing.
Plorabundus, a, um, that wepeth muche.
Ploro, aui, are, to weepe, to waile, to crie out.
Plostellum, li, n. g. a littell wayne, a littell carte that children play with.
Plostrum, stri, n. gen. for Plaustrum, a wayne or carte.
Plostrárius, a, um, that belongeth to a wayne or carte.
Plota, a lampraye.
Plotæ, two ties of Aeolia, called also Strophades.
Plotina, a woman of great vertue and courage, wife to Traianus the emperour.
Plotinus, a philosopher of Platos secte.
Plotius, a Rhetorician that taught Cicero.
Plotus, looke Plautus.
Ploxemus, a mans name, after some a cheste or coffer.
Pluma, æ, f. g. a fine or littell feather.
Plumárius, a, um, of feathers.
Plumarius, rij, m. g. an embroderer.
Plumátilis, le, made of feathers.
Plumâtus, a, um, feathered.
Plumbago, águinis, fœ. ge. a veyne of mettall or oore, wherin is bothe siluer and lead: it is also an herbe, whiche hath leaues lyke sorrell, and a great rough roote. also a faute in the buddes of vines, whan they seeme in the coonne of a ruddie colour.
Plumbárius, rij, mas. gen. a plummer or worker in lead.
Plumbâta, tæ, f. g. a pellet of lead, or a plummet of lead, vsed in olde tyme for a weapon in the warres, and had pyon pykes in it lyke caltrops.
Plumbátio, ônis, f. g. souldrynge.
Plumbárius, a, um, belongyng to lead or plummers crafte.
Plumbatûra, ræ, f. g. souldrynge with lead.
Plumbeus, a, um, of the colour of lead, leadie or heauie as lead, any thyng that is of the propriete of lead: and by translation, blunt, dull, lumpishe.
Plumbeus homo, a lumpish man, without courage or spirite, an heauy head, a dull heade.

Plumbea ira, wrath whiche longe continueth.
Auſter plumbeus, that maketh men heauy and drowſie.
Plumbeo iugulare gladio, to cut ones throte with a leaden ſwoorde: by tranſlacon to conuince with a weake argument.
Si quid peccatũ eſt, plumbeas iras gerunt, yf any offence be doen, they diſpleaſure is as heauie as lead, or continueth longe in theyr ſtomache.
Plumbeum ingenium, a dull witte.
Plumbeum eſſe in re aliqua, to bee very blockiſhe, and to vnderſtande littell or nothynge in a mattier.
Plumbo, aui, are, to lead, to ſoulder or ſoygne mettall.
Plumbóſus, a, um, full of lead, that hath muche lead mixed with it.
Plumbum, bi, n. g. lead, ſometyme a plummet or ball of lead. alſo a diſeaſe in the eies: ſomtyme a cundite pype.
Plumeſco, ſcere, to be or waxe feathered.
Plumeus, a, um, of feathers.
Plúmea culcitra, a feather bedde, a bedde of downe.
Plúmipes, mipedis, that hath feathers on the feete.
Plúmiger, a, um, that beareth feathers.
Plumo, aui, are, to beginne to haue feathers. alſo to embroder.
Plumóſus, a, um, full of feathers, that hath many feathers.
Plúmula, æ, f. g. a littell feather or plume.
Pluo, pluui, and plui, plúere, to rayne.
Lapidibus pluere, to rayne ſtones.
Plurális, le, plurall, that conteineth many.
Pluratiuus, a, um, idem.
Plurifárius, a, um, of dyuers factions.
Plurifáriam, many waies, in many places.
Plurimifácio, feci, facere, to ſet much by.
Plurimum, verey muche. alſo for, vt plurimum, moſte commonly, for the moſte parte, often tymes.
Pariunt plurimum quinos, they bryngе fooryth for the moſte parte fyue.
Hoc ego vtor vno omnium plurimum, that one thynge I do vſe more than any other man.
Ibi plurimum eſt, he is moſt often there.
Plurimum ætatis, the more parte of my lyfe.
Plurimus, a, um, moſte of all, verey muche, many: ſometyme for Longus.
Plurimi æſtimare, to ſet moſt by, or to ſet verey muche by.
Plus, n. g. ſingulariter, in plurali, plures, & hæc pluria, or plura, more, many.
Pluris vendo, I ſell for more, or dearer.
Plus decem millia capta, there were taken mo than ten thouſande.
Vt cum matre plus eſſet, that he myght bee the lenger with his mother.
Plures, for Multi.

Plúsue minúsue, more or leſſe, or about the numbre.
Pluris æſtimare, to ſet more by.
Pluris ædificare, to builde dearer.
Plurima ſtragula, good ſtore of tapeſtrie.
Ne quid plus minúsue faxit, that he do neyther more nor leſſe.
Plus virium habet alius alio, one is more puiſſaunt and ſtronge than an other.
Plus quingentos colaphos infregit mihi, he gaue me aboue. 500. blowes.
Ne plus pateat palmum, that it be not paſſyng a handе broade.
Plus annum obtinere prouinciam, to haue the gouernance of a prouince a yere and more.
Tecum anno plus vixi, I lined with you a yere and more.
Media plus parte, more than halfe.
Plus æquo, more than enoughe.
Adbibit plus paulo, he hath dronke a littell to muche, he hath taken a cuppe of mans.
Plus proficit, it more auayleth.
Plus ſcis quid facto opus eſt, you know better what is expedient to be doen.
Dies plus minus triginta, id eſt, circiter.
Eum plus plusq; in dies diligo, I loue hym euery day more and more.
Caleſces plus ſatis, thou ſhalt bee as hotte as coles.
Non pluris refert, it maketh no more mattier.
Eórũ eſt noſtra pluris autoritas, and ſo muche the more our auctorytee is more eſteemed and ſet by.
Pluris eſt, it is more woorthe, it is a greatter mattier.
Plúſculus, a, um, a littell more.
Plúſculum, li, n. g. a littell more, ſomewhat a greatter porcion.
Plúſculum, an aduerbe, ſomewhat more, a littell more.
Plutarchus, a noble philoſophier in the tyme of Trayane.
Pluteális, le, that whiche is kepte or ſet in a table or caſe.
Plutealia ſigilla, ſmall ymages in tables or caſes.
Pluteus, tei, m. g. an ingin of warre made of hurdels, keuered with leather or ſacke clothe, whiche kept men whiles they wrought, from danger of ordinaunce: and vnder the whiche men approche to the walles of a towne. alſo a buttche, a great coffer, or other ſyke place, wherin bookes, tables, or ſuch thynges ar kept. Suetonius ſemeth to vſe it for a bedſtede. alſo it is a littell holowe deſke ſyke a coffer, whereupon men do write. alſo a ſpace or diſtance, whereby the lower pillers were diuided from the higher in the front or forepart. Plutei bee alſo bourdes, with the whiche a thynge is compaſſed or ſhut in.

Plu-

Pluto, vel Pluton, tônis, & Plutus, ti, called god of hell, and of richeſſe, the ſoonne of Saturnus, he was peincted blynde.
Pluuia, æ, f. g. rayne.
Pluuiâlis, le, raynie, or of rayne.
Pluuiâtilis, le, idem quod pluuialis.
Hedæ pluuiales, two ſteeres, that the ſigne Iuriga holdeth in his hande.
Aqua pluuialis, rayne water.
Pluuius, a, um, raynie, of rayne, that is rayned.
Arcus pluuius, the rayne bowe.
Auſter pluuius, id eſt, pluuiam inferens.
Pluuium cœlum, raynie weather.
Pluuia aqua, rayne water.
Pluuiâlia, æ, one of the ples called Fortunatæ.
Pluuiôſus, a, um, full of rayne, raynie, that hath muche rayne.
Pliſima, auncient writers vſed for plurima, ve raie many.

PNeuma, pneumatis, n. g. ſpirite, winde, or breath.
Pneumâtica, the partes, wherin the breathe is and paſſeth.
Pneumaticus, a, um, wherin wynde or breath is vſed, or belongynge to wynde or breathe.
Pneumatomphali, they whiche by wynde or inflation in the bealy haue theyr nauil thruſt out.
Pneumonici, they whiche be ſicke of the longes.
Pneumon, monis, m. g. the longes.
Pneumónia, æ, f. g. a diſeaſe, an inflamation of the longes.

POcillâtor, ôris, m. g. he that bringeth cuppes to the table, a cup bearer, or he that waiteth on ones cuppe.
Pocillum, li, n. g. a littell cuppe.
Pocœnium, a banket after ſupper.
Póculum, li, n. g. a cuppe, ſometyme a draught, a potion, a drynke.
Amoris poculum, a drinke charmed to make a man to loue.
Deſyderij poculum, idem.
Adminiſtrare, and Miſcere pocula, to ſerue one of drinke, to waite on ones cuppe at the table.
Exhaurire poculum, to quaffe, to drynke vp.
Inficere pocula veneno, to put poiſon in ones drynke.
Inuitare aliquem poculis, to drinke to one.
Ponere pocula, to ſet drinke on the table.
Tingere aliquẽ poculis, to make one drunke.
Poſcere maioribus poculis, to drinke muche, to quaffe to other largely,
Poculentus, a, um, all thyng that may be drunke. ſome write it Potulentus.
Pódager, gra, grum, that hath the goute.

Podágricus, and Podagrôſus, a, um, idem.
Podagra, æ, f. g. a peynefull diſeaſe in the legges or feete, called the goute, whiche cometh of a ſuperfluous humour, ſpecially fleume raw and viſcus, mixte with choler or ſharpe blond, renning by the veynes Capillares, and the fleſhy partes of the membres, vntyll it bee come betwene the bones of the ioynctes: yf the humour bee hotte, the place is red and ereedyng hotte, the peyne verie grecuous, with muche ſwellynge, the vrine red: if the matter be ſanguine, and the humour colde, the redneſſe of the place is littell, but more ereendyng to white, muche ſwellynge and blewneſſe of matter melancolie: alſo more hardeneſſe, and the vrine more clere.
Podalirius, one of the ſoonnes of Eſculapius, & a great ſurgeon, he came to the ſiege of Troye with his brother Machaon.
Podarge, one of the Harpyis.
Podéris, ris, or reos, f. g. a ſtreicte garmente of linnen cloth downe to the feete, without pleites or wrincles, which ſouldiohers in olde tyme vſed in warfare.
Podex, pódicis, m. g. the arſe hole.
Podea, æ, fœ. g. the coyde, wherwith the ſaple is ſpredde.
Podium, dij, n. g. a place made without a walle for men to ſtande and beholde thynges, an open galerie. alſo a ſtage, wheron is ſet candels or bookes.
Podoniptrum, tri, n. g. a veſſell, wherein mens feete were waſhed.
Pœan, antis, the father of Philoptetes, of whom he was called Pœantius.
Pœcilaſium, a citee of Crete, called commonly Peulalo.
Pœcile, les, f. ge. a place in Athens, where the ſtoiche philoſophiers dyd reade and teache.
Poëma, ématis, neu. ge. a poetes inuention, a poeme.
Poëmenis, a dogges name in Ouide.
Pœna, næ, f. g. peyne, tourment, execution, punyſchment.
Pœnam pendere, dependere, expendere, dare, exoluere, perſoluere, to be punyſched, to ſuffer puniſchement, to paie a forfaite.
Petere pœnas in imperatorem, to require theyr capitayne to be puniſched.
Pœnas reddere, ferre, perferre, ſufferre, Luere, ſubire, ſuſtinere, ſuſcipere, to be puniſhed, to ſuffer punyſchment.
Afficere pœna, irrogare pœnam, ſumere pœnas, mulcare pœna, to punyſche.
Committere pœnam, to renne in the daunger of peyne for doyng or not doyng a thynge.
Conſurgere in pœnam, to aryſe to punyſche one, or to ſee one tourmented.
Exigere pœnas, to cauſe one to bee punyſched, or to require that one be puniſched.
Perſequi pœnas, to be reuenged.
Repetere pœnas homicidij, to bryngc an ap-peale

peale agaynste one for murder of his father.
Pœnæ relinqui, to be lefte for to suffer punyshmente.
Pœnæ exolui, to be delyuered or discharged of punishement.
Pœnas imponere, to punyshe.
Nec Tiberius pœnam eius palam ausus, Tiberius durst not punyshe hym openly.
Pœnas capere, id est, ferre, subire, to endure and take peines.
Pœnas capere, to punysh, to take punyshment of one.
Has vbi verborum pœnas cœpit, whan he thus punyshed hym for the woordes that he spake.
Capere pœnam in hostem, id est, hostem afficere supplicio.
Dare pœnas temeritatis, to bee punished for his rashenesse.
Cupiditatis suæ pœnas luere, to bee punished for his couetousenesse.
Reddere aliquem pœnæ, to delyuer one to be punished.
Pœnâlis, le, penall, peinefull, belongynge to peyne or punyshement.
Pœnalis opera, labour ordeyned for a peyne or punishement.
Pœnárius, a, um, perteinynge to peine or punishment.
Pœnaria actio, a suite to haue one condemned to punishment.
Pœ́nica pauimenta, floowres paued with marble of Numidia.
Pœnio, auncient writers vsed for Punio.
Pœnitendus, a, um, to be ashamed of, to be litell esteemed or misliked.
Pœniténtia, æ, fœ. g. repentaunce, penance, forthynkyng, somtyme contempt, displesyng.
Pœ́nitet, tuit, nituit, tère, to repente, to be sorie, to forthynke, to be ashamed, to wyll that a thynge had not be doen. sometyme to thynke all to littell, or for Parum videri, to seeme but littell.
Me haud pœnitet, I care not, I am not sorye therfore.
Pœnitet ambarum, ornatæ vt sumus, I am ashamed of vs both, that we bee thus apparayled.
Eum pœnitet deformem esse natum, he is ashamed that he is so deformed, or he is ashamed or sorie, that nature hath made hym so deformed.
Nosmet nostri pœnitet, we bee not contente with our selfes, we be ashamed of our selfes.
Quum tam viriam haud pœniteret, whan he thought he had gathered a sufficient power.
Senectutis eum suæ pœnitet, he taketh his age vnpatiently, or he is sorie that he is so aged.
Tam diu autem velle debebis, quoad te quantum proficias, non pœnitebit, thou shouldeste haue wyll to tarye so longe, vntyll thou shalt be well content and pleased with the profite that is in that studi: or so longe thou oughtest to bee willyng as thou shalt not thynke thy selfe to do litteil good, and to lease thy tyme, but to profyte.
Malo me fortunæ pœniteat, quàm victoriæ pudeat, I had lieffer bee sorye for my misfortune, in losing the victorie, than ashamed of an vnhoneste victorie.
Pœnitet me meæ fortunæ, I am sorye, or it greeueth me to bee in the state that I am.
Pœnitet me verbi tui, thy speakyng doeth not content or satisfie me.
Pœnitet me hominis, I am ashamed of the man.
Me quantum hic operis fiat, pœnitet, I am not well content with that that is doen, me thynketh all that is here doen to be to littell.
Nec te pœniteat calamo triuisse labellum, and thynke it not a small thynge to haue learned to playe on the pype or recorder.
An pœnitebat flagiti, te autore, quod fecisset adolescens? dydst thou not thynke that offence, whiche the yonge man had done by thy counsayle, to be enough? but that, &c.
Si horum, quæ adsunt, pœnitet, yf these that be here dooe not please or lyke you.
Quarum rerum si quem pœniteat, which thynges yf any man be sorye to haue chaunced: or if there bee any man, that wouldo not haue had these thynges come to passe.
Nec me pœnitet hoc potius tempore, q̃ illo causam Cluentij defendere, I am as wel content, or I had as lieffe to defende Cluentius cause now at this tyme as at that.
Pœ́nicus, a, um, of Affryke, reade Punica.
Pœ́nitens, entis, om. g. he that repenteth hym.
Pœnitendum, a gerundiue.
Non est eius præceptoris pœnitendũ, he needeth not to be ashamed of that mayster, or may be content with such a mayster.
Pœniturus, a, um, that shall repent or be sorie.
Pœnus, ni, a man of the cite of Carthage, or an Affricane.
Pœnus, a, um, of Carthage or of Affryke.
Pœ́phagus, gi, m. g. a beaste wyse so bygge as an horse, and hath a sayre blacke tayle, with the whiche women of India vsed to garnysshe their heades.
Poëtis, tis, f. g. a poetes woorke.
Poëta, tæ, m. g. a poete.
Poëtica, cæ, and Poëtice, ces, f. g. poetrie, the arte of poetes.
Poëtice, after the maner of poetes.
Poëticus, a, um, poeticall, of or perteinynge to poetes.
Poëtificus, a, um, that maketh a poete.
Poëtor, aris, ari, to exercise poetrie, to play the poete.
Poëtria, or poëtis, tidis, f. g. a woman poete.
Pogónias, or Pogónias, æ, f. g. a blasynge sterre with with a longe beame afore yche a beardе.

Pol, an aduerbe of ſwering, as it wer by Pollux.
Pola, a citee of Iſtria.
Polca, æ, fœ. g. the dounge that the ſhe aſſe voy-deth before the foleth.
Polemon, a philoſophier of Athens, whiche was firſt a wanton and diſſolute perſon. an other was named Helladicus, a famous hiſtorio-graphier.
Polemonia, or Polemonium, an herbe. Leonicenus, and Manardus ſuppoſen it to bee Ruta agreſtis, wilde rue: ſome call it wood ſage: it hath a ſquare ſtalke, on euery ſyde leaues yche ſage, more and ſomewhat roughe, and a tufte on the toppe, wherin is a blacke ſeede, a roote a cubite longe, and ſomewhat white: ſome ſuppoſe it to be the ſtocke iolofloure. Ruellius ſaieth, it groweth on hygh grounde and barrayne.
Polemonium, a citee of Cappadocia, called commonly Leona.
Polenta, æ, f. g. barley ordered in this foureme. They ſteped it in water one nyght, and dried it, and the next daie thei fried it, & than ground it, and ſo kepte it long, whiche their ſlaues and paſture dyd eate.
Polentárius, a, um, perteinyng to barley ground as is afore ſaied.
Polentia, a citee of Liguria, called commonly Palanza.
Polimenta, ôrum, n. g. plu. the ſtones of hogges whan they are gelded.
Polio, liui, lire, to garnyſche, to trym, to poliſhe.
Polio, ônis, m. g. he that ſcoureth or trymmeth harneys.
Poleon, idem quod Polea, alſo a certein herbe, that Muſeus and Heſiodus did greatly eſteme, the leaues wherof be in the morning white, at noone purple, at nyght blewe.
Polis, lis, f. g. a citee.
Polite, freſchely, gaicly, cleanely.
Politia, æ, f. g. ciuilitee, politike gouernaunce.
Politicus, a, um, ciuile or pertenyning to a citee, or politike gouernaunce.
Politio, ônis, fœ. ge. diligent trymmyng or dreſſyng, cleanelyneſſe.
Politiones agrorum, diligent houſbandyng and tendyng of the grounde.
Politulus, a, um, a diminutiue of Politus.
Politúra, ræ, polyſhyng.
Politus, a, um, polyſhed, freſche, gaie, trymme, ſmothe, fyne.
Omnibus virtutibus politus, garnyſched with all honeſt vertues.
Pólium, li, n. g. an herbe called poley.
Polen, linis, neu. g. or Pollis, pólinis, m. gen. wheate floure. ſometyme poulder.
Polla, the wife of Lucan the poete.
Pollens, lentis, om. ge. he that doeth muche, he that hath great power.
Pollens vini, he that drynketh muche wyne,
Pollens medicina Hippocrates, Hippocrates was excellently lerned in phiſike.
Opibus pollens, very riche.
Herbæ pollentes, herbes of great ſtrengthe.
Polleo, polui, lére, to mate or can, to be of power or puiſſance, to be of vertue or ſtrength, to beare a rule ſtroke or auctoritee.
Plurimum mari pollent, they be very ſtrong on the ſea.
Pollere moderatione & conſtantia, to be very moderate and conſtant.
Pollere quæſtu, to yelde muche gayne or aduantage.
Plus pollet, it is of more force puiſſance or vertue.
Pollet eius autoritas, he is of great auctoritee, or in great eſtimacion.
Pollent, they are very good.
Pollet ad fidem faciendam, it is of great ſtrengthe to perſwade.
Contra anginas pollet, it is of great vertue and force agayne the quynce.
Pollere in remediis, to haue great vertue in phiſyke.
Pollentia, æ, f. g. puiſſance or power.
Pollentia, a towne in one of the iles called Baleares: an other nere the Alpes, where as is excellent good wine.
Pollentinus, a, um, of Pollentia.
Pollex, póllicis, m. g. a thumme of the hande, or the great toe. it is alſo an inche, which is a finger bredthe and an halfe.
Roſa metitur quæ pollice primo, the roſe cut whiche is of the firſt gatheryng.
Leui deducens pollice filum, ſpynnyng of threde.
Premere pollicem, proverbially, to fauour.
Conuertere pollicem, to owe ill will or diſpleaſure.
Pollicâris, re, that is of a thumbe, or inche brode or thicke.
Polliceor, cêris, cêri, to promiſe, ſometyme to affirme certaynely, to aſſure.
Prolixè polliceri, to promiſe liberally.
Alicui operam ſuam polliceri, to promiſe one to helpe hym.
Erat per te mihi pollicitus, he promiſed to you, that he wolde doo it for me.
Bene polliceri, to make faire promiſſe.
Illud tibi non poſſum polliceri, that thyng I can not promiſe or aſſure you of.
De ipſo Annio tantum tibi polliceor, as concernyng Annius this muche I aſſure you.
Pollicitátio, ônis, f. g. a free promyſe of one that proffereth willyngly.
Pollicitor, aris, ari, to promiſe often, to make many promiſſes.
Pollicitum, ti, n. g. a promiſſe.
Pollicitus, a, um, promiſed.
Pollinarius, a, um, pertenyning to floure.
Pollinaria cribra, a rangeyng ſiue, wherewith the the floure is sieftred from the bzanne: it maie be called also a boultar.

Pollinceo, lincui, lincêre, to deuide or parte flowre that is gotte in the bake house.

Pollincio, linxi, lincere, to dzesse a dead body with oyntementes. it maie be nowe taken for the chestyng and dzessyng of men with swete gummes, that the dead bodies maie be the longer without ill sauour.

Pollinctor, ôris, m. ge. he that dooeth that maner of businesse.

Pollinctûra, æ, the ministration in baulmyng or chestyng dead bodies.

Pollinctus, us, m. g. idem.

Pollinio, ônis, fœm. gen. a deuidyng or partyng of meale.

Pollintor, ôris, mas. gene a baker that sifteth or boulteth meale.

Pollio, a noble man in Rome in the tyme of Augustus.

Pollis, pôllinis, m. ge. & Pollen, linis, n. gen. meale or floure.

Pollit, for Pila ludit.

Pollubrum, loke Polubrum.

Polluceo, lúces, luxi, cêre, to minister sacrifice, specially to Hercules also to prouide and make redy a sumptuous and costely banket.

Pollucêre, for Pellucêre, to shine bright, to be faire and beautifull.

Pollucibilis, le, sumptuous, gaie.

Pollucibilis cœna, a costly and sumptuous supper.

Pollucibiliter, costely, gorgeously, deyntily, gaiely.

Pollúctum, ti, neu. ge. a magnifike, and costely banket.

Si esset quicquam pollucti domi, if there were any good fare or deintie meate at home.

Polluo, pollui, luere, to pollute or defile, to dishonest, to make filthy.

Pollûtus, a, um, polluted, defiled, distained, corrupted.

Pollulus, a, um, vsed of olde writers for Paulus, or paruulus.

Pollux, lûcis, was brother to Castor, bothe beyng borne at one burthen: whiche poetes feigne to come of one egge, leighed or brought forthe of a woman, called Leda, with whom Jupiter cõpanied in likenesse of a swanne.

Polubrum, bri, n. g. a bason to washe ones handes in.

Polus, li, m. gene. the pole. There be imagined to be two certayne poynctes in heauen, as it were the endes of an exire, whereabout heauen is meaued: the one is in the northe, and is called Polus Arcticus: the other is in the southe, and is called Polus antarcticus. it is somtyme taken for heauen.

Polus Agrigentinus, a sophister, the scholar of Gorgias.

Polutticus Apulcianus, the herbe called mas den heare.

Polyacanthos, thi, ma. gene. an herbe that hath rough pricking leaues, whiche Plinie mentioneth.

Polyænus, a lerned man in the tyme of Julius Cesar: an other borne at Macedonie, whiche wrote of Thebes and of the feates of warre.

Polyándrium, dri, n. g. a place, where be many common sepulchres.

Polyándremum, an herbe called of some Brancchion: Ruellius supposeth it to be that, whiche they call commonly pes corninus, of some viceraria.

Polyarna, æ, m. g. he that hath many lambes.

Polybius, a lerned man of Magalopolis in Arcadie, master to Scipio Africane. he wrote the Romayne historie in. 40. bokes.

Polyanodinos, the herbe Cicum.

Polyandros, dri, m. g. hauyng many men.

Polyánthropon, pi, n. ge. a populous citee, a citee that hath much people.

Polybotes, a gygant, whom Neptunus slewe.

Polycarpia, frutefulnesse, fertilitee, abundance.

Polycarpus, pi, m. g. he that hath muche fruite, frutefull: also a mans name.

Polyceros, ri, mas. gen. horned, that hath many hornes.

Polycletus, a notable image maker or grauer.

Polycnémon, mi, neu. ge. an herbe called wilde organie.

Polycrates, a tyran so fortunate, that he neuer suffred any aduersitee or greefe: wherfore he at the laste, dzeding the change of fortune, hauyng a ryng with a stone of an excellente value, did cast the same into the sea, to the intent he wolde suffer some displeasure, and so satisfie fortune. but a fisshe deuouryng the ryng, was the same date taken of a fissher, & geuen to the kyng, for the greatnesse of the fisshe: which beyng opened, the saied ryng was founde and brought to the kynge, wherat as well he, as all other aboute him, merueyled. some after the same kyng was taken of Orontes a Persian and hanged.

Polycrématos, ti, m. g. well monyed, that hath muche money.

Polychronius, nii, m. ge. that liueth longe, that continueth a long tyme.

Polydamas, a Troian, one of them that betrayed the citee with Aeneas and Antenor. Polidamas, was also a famous wrestler, a man of great strengthe.

Polydórus, the son of kyng Priamus and Hecuba, who was by his father (in the tyme of the warres at Troie) sent to Polymnestor kynge of Thrace, with a great summe of golde, to be kepte out of the perill of warres. but the citee of Troie beyng taken, Polymnestor, to inioye the treasure, slewe the childe, wherfore afterwarde queene Hecuba scratched out the eies of Polymnestor.

Polydóra, a nymphe, the daughter of Oceanus.

also an ple of Propontis.

Polydóra, æ, f. g. magnificence, liberalitee, bounter, largesse.

Polydectes, the soonne of Magnetes, whiche nourished Perseus, the soonne of Jupiter and Danais.

Polygala, læ, or Polygalon, an herbe, which beyng dronke, causeth great abundance of milke in womens breastes.

Polygnotus, an auncient peincter.

Polygonaton, an herbe, which Ruellius sayth is called commonly Sigillum Solomonis. Matthæus affirmeth it to be that whiche the Arabians call Seccacul, of some Genicula, or Sigillum sanctæ Mariæ. of John Agricola it is supposed to be that, which Italians call Fraxinella, some name it scala cæli.

Polygonius, a, um, that hath many corners.

Polygonoides, semeth to Plinie to be that, which Dioscorides calleth Polygonaton.

Polygonum, ni, n. g. an herbe, which is also called Sanguinaria, and hath leaues lyke to rewe, but it renneth on the grounde lyke gras, the iuice therof put into the nose, stoppeth blees dyng. It is supposed to be the grasse called swynes grasse, or knot grasse.

Polygrammos, a precious stone lyke to smaragdus, haupng many white lines ouerthwarte.

Polyginæcon, a great assemble or companie of women.

Polyhistor, oris, he that knoweth muche or many thynges done

Polyides, an herbe, called of Dioscorides, Staphisagria. Erasmus saith, thei call it Draco.

Polylógia, æ, f. g. muche talke, many woordes.

Polylogus, he that hath many woordes.

Polimedia, a towne in the countrey of Troas.

Polymitárius, a, um, of or belongyng to the weauyng with threedes of diuers colours, or broderyng,

Opus polymitarium, embroderyng.

Polymitarij, embroderers, or weauers with threedes of dyuers colours, wozkers with silke and golde.

Polymitus, a, um, of twyne or twisted threede of dyuers colours.

Vestis polimita, a garmente made of twisted threede, or sylke of dyuers colours, a garmente embrodered.

Polymnestor, oris, a kynge of Thrace, to whom kynge Priamus sente his soonne Polydorus, with a great summe of golde.

Polymnia, one of the muses, whiche wozde signifieth muche memozie.

Polymorphus, phi, m. g. of many fourmes or fations.

Polymyxos, a laumpe with diuers matches, or a branche, where dyuers candles or lightes be made in one.

Polynices, the son of Oedipus, kynge of Thebes, who contended with his brother Ethiocles for his fathers kyngedome.

Polyphagus, gi, m. g. a great eater.

Polypharmachus, that hath many medecines or poysons.

Poliphemus, a gygante that had one eie in his forehead, whiche was put out by Ulisses.

Polyphisius, sij, m. g. one that is very ryche, a ryche cobbe.

Polyplusios, well monied.

Polipódium, dij, n. g. an herbe lyke to fearne, growyng on trees, polipodec, or ohe ferne.

Polyposus, he that hath the soze in the nose called Polypus.

Polypœtes, the soonne of Perithous and Hypodamia.

Poliptóton, ti, n. g. that hath many cases. also a fygure, where one woorde beginneth diuers clauses, and at euery one varieth his case.

Pólypus, i, or ypodis, m. g. a fisshe haupng many sectes, which changeth his colour often. The heade of this fisshe is most pleasant meate: but it breedeth heauy and wonderful dreames. And therof cometh the prouerbe, Polypi caput. also a piece of flesshe growynge in the ouermoste parte of the nose, whiche causeth a stinkynge aire out of the nose.

Polypi, is vsed prouerbially either for fooles and idcotes, or elsc for such as holde faste that thep haue gotten, whether it bee by ryghte or wronge: it map be take also for vncostant and mutable persons.

Polypyron, of muche frute: or that hath great plentie of corne.

Polyrrizon, zi, n. g that whiche hath many roostes. an herbe called Epimedium of Dioscor. the forth kynde of Aristolochia. also a kynde of the blacke Elleborus.

Polysindeton, a figure when a sentence is knit together with diuers coniunctions, as Tectumq, laremq, armaq, Amicleumq canem, crefsamq pharetram.

